

Sweet Love 3201

Chapter 3201: Journey Of A Father (28)

The woman said, "My son has everything he wants. We've bought him everything he wants. Why would he care for that lousy toy of yours?!"

Youyou was furious!

Lousy toy!?

This toy could not be bought with money. It was sold in limited quantities. Besides, the one that was given to Yueyao was a version carefully designed by himself. It was unique!

He had always given his little sister the best, but this woman was calling it a lousy toy?!?

"You said he doesn't care for it, but the fact is that he did!"

Youyou walked over and tugged at Mu Yazhe's sleeve. He snorted. "Daddy, don't lower yourself to the level of this shrew! Just chase them out. Talking to them is a waste of time!"

Yun Shishi suppressed her anger and said, "Please get out."

The man standing by the side did not say anything. After all, Mu Yazhe was standing right in front of him, his presence threatening and overpowering. Hence the man did not dare to make a big fuss!

The woman, on the other hand, refused to let things go. She continued, "Do you know who my husband is?!"

Her words were downright condescending!

Mu Yazhe retorted, "Do I need to know?"

"You'd better be clear about my husband's identity! Don't go thinking that you have a high status just because you live in Xiangti Walk like us! My husband is the executive director of Wan Ke Real Estate! I'm sure you've heard of Wan Ke Real Estate, right? It's one of the top 500 companies in the world!"

Mu Yazhe sneered inwardly when he heard this!

Ever so often, there will be one of those frogs in the well who jump out and embarrass themselves.

Who did he think he was?

So it was Wan Ke's director.

Then again, even Wan Ke's big boss, Wang Chuande, would have to address him respectfully as "Chairman Mu".

This man was just a director. Where did his arrogance come from?

Little Yichen also knew Wan Ke. He had even met Wan Ke's Wang Chuande before. Wasn't that man fawning over Daddy as well? What was this man acting all high and mighty for?!

He said coldly, "You're just a director in Wan Ke. I advise you not to embarrass yourselves here!"

Surprised, Youyou interjected, "Mu Yichen, you're getting better with your idioms."

Mu Yichen blushed and ignored him.

He was still furious over this matter!

"If you're smart, you'd scam right now!"

Being driven out of the house by a child was too embarrassing. The man behind her could not stand it anymore and stood up to express his position. "Today, I was thinking that since we are neighbors, it's not a big deal. If your child apologized, we'll let it go as a small matter! But I see that you guys don't have any intention of apologizing! Well then, don't blame me for turning nasty!"

Yun Shishi was curious. "What would your turning nasty mean?"

Before the man could say anything else, footsteps were heard coming from outside.

The group turned around curiously and saw Lu Jinyu walking over with a document in his hand!

When the man saw him, his expression changed. His eyes widened in surprise, and his attitude seemed a little respectful. "CEO Lu, what are you doing here?!"

His words surprised Yun Shishi.

They knew each other!?

Lu Jinyu was also surprised to see him. "Director Zhang, why are you here?" He looked rather puzzled.

In recent days, Wan Ke had a collaboration project with Shengyu Corporation. It was to invest in the development of the financial street.. Hence, he frequently visited Shengyu Corporation and had some contact with Lu Jinyu, which explained why he recognized the man at a glance.

Chapter 3202: Journey Of A Father (29)

Now, the market was in bad shape with the global financial recession and industrial crisis, it was very difficult to get land approval from the government. Without a strong background, it was almost impossible to get a share from the government.

Even a large-scale corporation had to humble themselves and get in line when dealing with the authorities.

But there was nothing they could do, the government would not allocate the land.

Coincidentally, Wan Ke wanted to invest in an office building. Hence, he had his eyes set on the piece of land in the new city. However, this piece of land had been bought by Sheng Yu and they were planning to develop the financial street.

Hence, Wan Ke sent him to communicate with Lu Jinyu, one of the people in-charge at Shengyu Corporation, and only then did he managed to make some headway.

“CEO Lu, you...”

Lu Jinyu was also confused by the situation before him. Seeing Mu Yazhe standing by the side with an icy expression, he smiled and said to the man, “CEO Zhang, you can’t be in such a hurry, right?! Didn’t I tell you that I’m in-charge of this development project? What are you doing?”

He had thought that Director Zhang had come to talk to Mu Yazhe.

Director Zhang was stumped and asked, “CEO Lu, what’s your relationship with this man?”

“Huh?”

Lu Jinyu smiled. “Don’t you know him?”

“No! I only know that he lives here.”

“Director Zhang also lives at Xiangti Walk?”

“That’s right!”

Lu Jinyu introduced, “This is the Chairman of Shengyu Group, our boss, Chairman Mu. It’s such a coincidence that the two of you live in the same villa district. I might as well introduce you!”

As soon as he said that, the man was completely stunned and broke out in cold sweat.

“You... What did you just say?” The man pointed at Mu Yazhe and said gloomily, “You’re saying that he is...”

“I made myself very clear.”

Lu Jinyu was not one who had the patience to repeat himself!

The man froze on the spot, at a complete loss!

He would never have expected that the legendary, mysterious Chairman of Shengyu Group, Mu Yazhe, would live in the same villa district as him!

He also did not expect that he had accidentally... offended an extraordinary person!

Sensing that something was amiss at this point, Lu Jinyu asked suspiciously, “What happened?!”

“Uncle Jinyu!”

As Youyou ran over, Lu Jinyu scooped the boy up in his arms. The little munchkin wrapped his arms around the man and said, “Their family came knocking on our door, saying that we bullied his son and even wanted us to apologize! So unreasonable!”

Before the woman could figure out what was going on, she took a step forward and was about to retort when her husband caught this with his sharp eyes and quickly moved to pull her behind him!

“Hubby, what are you doing!?” The woman asked impatiently.

“Wifey, let me introduce you...”

The man swallowed his anger and lowered his voice. "This is the Chairman of Shengyu Group, Chairman Mu..."

The woman was stunned. She had heard her husband mention the Shengyu Corporation before. It was said that the Chairman of the Shengyu Corporation had a powerful background and was well known.

So this was him!?

Such a prominent figure was actually... such a young man!?

She could not hide her shock and suddenly felt uneasy!

To think she was talking so aggressively and loudly just then, but now, she hardly dared to breathe!

However, if she were to back down, it would not look good on her!

After all, she did not want to embarrass herself.

Chapter 3203: Journey Of A Father (30)

However, if she were to back down, it would not look good on her!

Wouldn't it be a joke, if she were to suddenly act humble, when she was trying to push her weight around just a minute ago?!

She would not stand to lose face like this!

The woman's expression turned gloomy. This scene was really too awkward, so she just stood there without saying anything.

The man was also uneasy. He was afraid that if he were to speak another word, he would offend more people. Hence, he kept his composure and stood aside nervously.

Little Yichen snorted at this.

Why else is being powerful such an important thing in society?

If not for his Daddy holding such a high status, would these people be so nervous now!?

That's how things work – it's a dog-eat-dog world!

With some people, one would need to have a status higher than theirs because it's useless trying to reason with them!

Having observed this scene, Lu Jinyu said frostily, "Shouldn't you scram?"

When the man heard this, it was as if he had received amnesty. As he was just about to drag his woman and child away, a thought struck him and he carefully asked, "CEO Lu, then... this matter wouldn't affect the Wan Ke and Shengyu collaboration right?"

Lu Jinyu sneered. "Whether this matter affects or not will depend on our Chief's mood! However, if you don't give us a clear explanation, I think you might have difficulty keeping your position as executive director!"

How could they do that to him!?

The man quickly begged for mercy. "CEO Lu, there's a misunderstanding here! You have to help me. How would I know... that I'd be lucky enough to live in the same villa district as CEO Mu..."

"Stop embarrassing yourself here and get lost!"

Lu Jinyu made his point, and turned rather frosty. Given the situation, the man did not dare to say another word and quickly left.

Youyou and Little Yichen were still sulking after this unhappy incident!

"Jinyu."

"Yes."

"Continue to follow up on the proposal with Wan Ke. However..."

"Chief, don't you worry! I understand what you mean and will handle this matter appropriately!"

Lu Jinyu was an observant man, so he immediately understood Mu Yazhe's intentions.

"Leave the documents on the table!"

Lu Jinyu placed the document on the table. As he did so, his eyes furtively drifted toward Yueyao!

"Hehe... Boss, can I carry the little princess for a bit? (^ 0 ^)."

Mu Yazhe said with an icy expression, "No."

Lu Jinyu's face fell. "Why?! /( T o T )/~~"

"I knew you had ulterior motives!" Mu Yazhe snorted. "Deliver documents?! I think you have some other reasons!"

"It's just carrying her for a bit! Boss, how can you be so petty? In the future when I have a daughter, I'd let you carry her too!"

"I have my own daughter. I don't care for someone else's!" Came the reply of the principled man.

His stand was clear. Only, Lu Jinyu was here and did not manage to carry the little princess. Was this to be a fruitless trip for him?!

Hence, shamelessly, he pestered and sucked up to his boss and finally, after much persuasion, he managed to carry that soft and cuddly bundle in his arms!

When he picked up little Yueyao, Youyou and Little Yichen stood on each side of her, as though they were her bodyguards. Once the little princess cried, they were poised and ready to snatch her back immediately!

The way the two little lads hawked over Lu Jinyu made him extremely nervous. He carried the child wearing a sincere expression, as though he was on a pilgrimage!

Chapter 3204: Journey Of A Father (31)

With the baby in his arms, Lu Jinyu finally got what he wanted. Even though he was inexperienced in carrying a baby, he did it the right way.

The reason why little Yueyao cried non-stop the last time, apart from the fact that he was a stranger, was probably because he didn't carry the child the right way. After he left that day, he consulted the mothers he knew and learned from them. Now, he had more confidence!

He carried her meticulously and the little princess did not try to embarrass him. Instead of crying like the last time, she looked at him curiously with her wide eyes as if she was sizing him up!

Only, after carrying her for a short time, the little princess seemed to start minding it!

Little Yueyao suddenly looked in Mu Yazhe's direction and reached out her chubby hands as if asking to be rescued!

This reaction gave Mu Yazhe great satisfaction!

See!

The child has her preference when it came to people!

This was good!

He liked that his daughter would only acknowledge him and not anyone else. This way, no one else could covet his daughter!

Mu Yazhe said, "Yueyao doesn't need you to carry her. Give her to me."

Lu Jinyu felt somewhat reluctant and turned a little sullen. He felt aggrieved but little Yueyao was indeed struggling and kicking her legs as if she despised him. Lu Jinyu was also afraid that she'd be hurt so as much as he was unwilling, he could only return the little princess to Mu Yazhe!

Of course, when the family of five said that they were going for a walk in the park, a certain someone tagged along shamelessly, hoping that at some point, Mu Yazhe would tire from carrying the baby. When that should happen, he would have an excuse to carry her for a while!

But did he not realize that Mu Yazhe's arm would not feel sore even after carrying the little princess for a few hours!

With little Yueyao in his arms, his heart felt full. He could not even bear to let her go, much less feel tired!

Hence, after strolling around for an entire hour, Lu Jinyu only had the opportunity to watch from the side.

Carrying her was basically wishful thinking!

Actually, Lu Jinyu did not think much of children in the past. Hence, when he was in his twenties, he did not consider getting married and having children!

Where children were concerned, he was not particular whether he had a son or a daughter.

However, after little Yueyao was born and he set eyes on her, his heart blossomed with love for the little princess. This made him determined to have a daughter in the future!

Mu Yazhe had told him that rather than coveting little Yueyao, he might as well get married and had a child of his own.

But it wasn't as though one could get married right away just because one wanted to?

Before marriage, one had to fall in love?

Love was a many-splendored thing that could only be encountered, it had nothing to do with preparation.

It didn't mean that the moment he was mentally prepared, that special person would appear. He couldn't very well settle for a random woman just because he wanted a daughter?

Youyou encouraged Yun Shishi, saying, "Mommy, why don't you introduce Auntie Xiao Xue to Uncle Jinyu? Auntie Xiao Xue is so pretty, and she's quite compatible with Uncle Jinyu!"

"No way!"

Yun Shishi and Lu Jinyu spoke in unison, as if they had a tacit understanding between them.

Yun Shishi reasoned, "I'm not going to play matchmaker. No one can interfere in matters of the heart!"

Lu Jinyu, on the other hand, said, "I don't like it when others introduce me to girls. It's great if we were satisfied with each other, but if we weren't, everyone could end up in an awkward position!"

Youyou thought that made sense.

Chapter 3205: Journey Of A Father (32)

After their stroll home, Lu Jinyu bade farewell. When he got home, he gave Wan Ke's vice-president a call, telling him that it would not be a problem for Wan Ke and Shengyu Corporation to continue collaborating, however, they would have to appoint another director as liaison.

Appoint a different director?!

There was only one executive director in Wan Ke. If they wanted another director, they would have to fire the current director.

The vice-president immediately asked him if someone had offended him.

Lu Jinyu did not say much more, and ended the call quickly.

When Zhang Wansan, who was the executive director of Wan Ke, heard about this matter, he immediately became restless!

Initially, he thought that this matter would end there and then. He never thought that the man would pursue it all the way.

However, Wan Ke's position was very clear. The value of this case was immeasurable. If they made an error, it would be difficult for them to cooperate with Sheng Yu in the future.

Wan Ke didn't wish to offend Sheng Yu, nor did they want to lose this reliable source of cooperation. Hence, they were prepared to fire Zhang Wansan.

What a disaster!

When Zhang Wansan heard this, he begged his grandfather and grandmother to make connections through their networks, and did not sleep a wink all night.

Wan Ke had also made their stance clear. If he wanted to keep his job, the only way was for Sheng Yu to speak up and stop making things difficult for Wan Ke.

Hence, Zhang Wansan didn't even turn up at work the next day, and spent time thinking about how to solve this problem.

Both husband and wife realized the seriousness of this matter. Hence, after some discussion, the man finally suggested that they should pay a visit personally to express their position on the matter!

Subsequently, the couple went back to Mu Yazhe's residence armed with all sorts of gifts. However, when they arrived, they realized that there was no one at home.

Mu Yazhe only had a weekend break this week, so he could put aside his work and rest for a day.

On this day, Youyou said that the fourth phase of Fairy Tale Valley's theme park project had been completed and he wanted to experience it.

Hence, the family of five organized an outing!

Before they left the house, Yun Shishi ensured that she had packed all the items, including milk bottles, milk powder, diapers... After confirming that everything was ready, the family set off in a grandiose manner!

The four of them wore the parent-child outfits that Youyou had designed previously. They wore white casual shirts with a caricature of everyone on the back. This was personally designed by Youyou and the caricatures looked very lifelike.

Fairy Tale Valley was very popular and was the most famous theme park in the country. When it came to weekends and holidays, the visitor flow was especially high.

However, Youyou was not worried about this problem. With just a phone call, he successfully obtained a VIP card from the ticketing center. With the VIP card, they did not need to queue up and could enter the garden first. They could also enjoy all the projects without queuing up.

The last time they came to Fairy Tale Valley was when he was celebrating his seventh birthday. However, an accident happened midway and he did not have enough fun!

This time round, the two little guys agreed that they had to experience a few more projects.

As soon as they entered the garden, Yun Shishi saw a staff member at the entrance. He was dressed in a character costume and holding about 50 cartoon-shaped hydrogen balloons in his hand. When these balloons were clustered together, they looked exceptionally impressive. They also formed a beautiful scenery at the entrance!

Yun Shishi walked over and asked for the price. The staff said that it was 100 yuan each, but free for VIP card holders.

Hence, with four VIP cards, Yun Shishi collected four hydrogen balloons, walked back, and tied them to little Yueyao's pram.

Chapter 3206: Journey Of A Father (33)

When Yun Shishi looked up, she noted that Mu Yazhe was nowhere to be seen. She swept her gaze through the crowd before she found him.

He was extremely tall. Even though he was wearing an ordinary casual shirt, a black jaunty hat, and a pair of spectacles on the bridge of his nose, his simple attire, coupled with that incomparably noble air around him, still made him stand out at once amongst the crowd!

He was in front of a stylish, dreamy shop, standing in a queue. When it was his turn, he bought four sticks of candy floss, one pink, one blue, one white, and one yellow. With two sticks in each hand, he walked back towards her.

When he walked over, the passers-by kept looking at him and whispering excitedly!

"Oh my god, look! That man in sunglasses looks like a superstar!"

"I heard earlier that Fairy Tale Valley signed up Hua Jin as their spokesperson. The official website released news that Hua Jin will be attending Fairy Tale Valley's event as a guest these few days. Could it be today?!"

"Are you kidding? Is Hua Jin that tall?"

"It's definitely not a big star, because I've never heard of such a person before!"

In the production team, Hua Jin was looking through his script when he suddenly gave out a rather elegant sneeze. "Who's badmouthing me?!"

...

The crowd started to pour in.

It was unclear whether it was because the visitors had turned up in droves or because many people were trying to get near Mu Yazhe, but the area where the pram was parked was packed to the brim.

Many fangirls even secretly raised their phones and aimed their cameras in Mu Yazhe's direction to steal shots of him.

Ka-cha. Ka-cha.

Some of the visitors had forgotten to turn off their flashlights. Yun Shishi sensed that someone had secretly taken a photo of her and looked in the direction of the light.

Taking the stick of candy floss from Mu Yazhe, Yun Shishi said sourly, "Hubby, you're not even dressed up and there are so many young ladies milling around you. See how charming you are!"

Initially, Mu Yazhe was confused and did not understand her jealousy. It was only when he turned around and realized there were people surrounding him and secretly taking photos of him, that he realized where it came from!

He leaned closer to her and bent over slightly, teasing her on purpose. "Why, are you jealous, Madam?"

She snorted. "Of course not!"

Youyou and Little Yichen stood by the side and exchanged a meaningful look before covering their mouths and snickering.

"Daddy, Mommy is jealous! It's your fault for attracting all these girls!"

"That's right. Look, so many young ladies are secretly taking photos of you! Tsk tsk tsk!"

Yun Shishi pouted and was about to eat her candy floss when the man beside her suddenly bent over and took a bite of it. The pink cotton candy quickly turned into a sweet candy stain on his lips, making him look exceptionally alluring.

"You have your own, why are you eating mine?"

"Madam's candy floss tastes better."

He licked his lips and held her hand while pushing the pram forward.

This gesture was a signal to everyone that he was already taken!

This should put an end to someone's jealousy!

The passersby who were surrounding him could not help but mutter in disappointment, "No way! This man looks so young, but he's already a father?"

Chapter 3207: Journey Of A Father (34)

"Of course it's real! Look at him pushing the pram and holding that woman's hand. It looks like he's married and has kids!"

"No way!?! Sigh... all good men are taken!"

"I don't think so! Who says that men with prams are fathers for sure?! Maybe it's someone else's child!"

...

When Youyou heard that, his lips curled into a sly smile.

He lowered his head and looked into the pram. Little Yueyao's eyes were wide open as she looked at the hydrogen balloons floating over the pram. She actually got quite excited and waved her hands about, reaching out to grab the air as though she wanted to play with the hydrogen balloons!

He fiddled with the hydrogen balloon, and it shook slightly. Little Yueyao stared at the hydrogen balloon without moving. She watched it float around and kicked her legs in excitement, smiling till her soft gum was exposed!

"Yi... ya... ya..."

Her childish voice caught Mu Yazhe's attention. He stopped in his tracks and walked to the front of the pram. He had no idea when little Yueyao had woken up, but for some reason, she was smiling so broadly that her eyes resembled two little crescents. His heart softened as he reached out to carry her.

"Come, let Daddy carry you!"

With this, the people around started sighing again!

He had referred to himself as 'daddy'. This young and handsome man must be married with children!

Hearing the disappointed talks around, Youyou snorted inwardly. What are you people looking at? My Daddy is taken so what are you daydreaming about?!

The little guy was nestled in Mu Yazhe's arms but she did not look at him. Instead, she turned her head and straightened her neck, staring at the hydrogen balloons, still excited and trying to grab them in vain. She anxiously kicked her legs.

Little Yueyao turned again and anxiously slapped her little hand on Mu Yazhe's cheek, seemingly asking him to let her play with the hydrogen balloon!

When Yun Shishi saw this, she immediately untied a string and moved the hydrogen balloon right in front of her. Yueyao's tiny hands gripped the rope tightly, but she was very strong!

Her grip was definitely extraordinary, compared to babies her age!

Just holding on like this did not seem to be enough for her. She pulled harder, and the hydrogen balloon bobbed in the air. As she pulled, it moved up and down. Suddenly, little Yueyao's grip loosened, the hydrogen balloon broke free and slowly floated towards the blue sky!

"Ya...!"

When little Yueyao saw the hydrogen balloon drifting higher and higher, she widened her eyes in surprise. There seemed to be countless little stars twinkling in them, making her look exceptionally beautiful!

Yun Shishi followed the girl's gaze and looked at the balloon ascending into the skies.

It was round, and in the transparent balloon was a tiny heart. Against the blue sky and white clouds, it was as though this scene came right out of a fantasy.

Youyou and Little Yichen watched as the balloon rose higher, and little Yueyao's crisp laughter rang in their ears!

"Ke ke ke —"

The surrounding people also stopped and looked up!

Someone exclaimed, "Look! Someone's balloon is flying away!"

"Oh my god! This balloon costs 100 yuan each! Why do I feel like a red hundred yuan bill is flying into the sky?!"

"How high can this balloon fly?"

Little Yichen suddenly felt extremely blissful. His heart was filled with contentment!

For him, the memories of Fairy Tale Valley brought both joys and sorrows. There were many beautiful memories, but there were also many dark moments!

Chapter 3208: Journey Of A Father (35)

A joyful memory was that he, Youyou, and his mother had their very first meeting in Fairy Tale Valley.

A sorrowful memory was that they did not have enough fun in Fairy Tale Valley!

Firstly, the last time he came here with his father, Song Enya and Song Enxi were both with him. He hated them.

Song Enxi, in particular, kept sticking to his Daddy. She insisted that he accompanied her on the merry-go-round, and wanted him to carry her. Since his Daddy doted on her, he carried her the whole time. It was such an eyesore!

At that time, he could only follow behind them, and watched as his Daddy carried Song Enxi while Song Enya stood beside him. The three of them were laughing so happily that it looked like they were the real family of three. He, on the other hand, was left out, feeling extremely miserable.

He still remembered that back then, Song Enxi had been clamoring to take a ride on the carousel. He did not like to play, not because he was not interested in the carousel, but because of the stubbornness unique to children. As long as it was something that someone he hated wanted to do, he would not want to do it even if he liked it!

Hence, as he watched his Daddy getting on the carousel carrying Song Enxi, his heart felt empty!

Later, Song Enxi deliberately made fun of him and slandered him for pushing her. In the end, his father escorted her to the hospital and left him alone in Fairy Tale Valley. It was as if he had been abandoned by the world.

But it was different now!

Daddy was carrying his little sister, and the people accompanying him were Mommy, his little brother, and the five of them were together as a family. Especially when he saw his Daddy carrying Yueyao with a doting expression on his face, it was indescribably blissful!

Little Yichen took a bite of the candy floss and smiled happily. He suddenly tugged at Youyou's sleeve and said, "Youyou, which are the fun projects in Fairy Tale Valley? Let's play together!"

Youyou looked a little forlorn in response. Licking his lips, he helplessly said, "Many of these projects are not suitable for me so I can only watch you play."

"Is there nothing suitable for you?"

"Uh huh."

Youyou pointed at his chest and said, "Some of the projects are too exciting. It makes me feel uncomfortable here and I can't breathe."

He had respiratory syndrome and anything that excited him too much would trigger it. If that were to happen, it would spoil everyone's mood, and the gains would not make up for the losses!

It was rare that the whole family could get together and go on an outing, and Little Sister was around. He did not want his ill health to spoil the occasion!

Little Yichen knew that because of his health, there were many projects that Youyou could not enjoy to the fullest. However, there should be projects that suited him, right?

It couldn't be that every single ride in the huge Fairy Tale Valley was equally exciting!

"What about the carousel?"

Mu Yichen pointed in the direction of the carousel. "This project is not exciting. You can ride on it!"

"The carousel is fine."

The two little lads walked up to Yun Shishi and persuaded her, saying, "Mommy, accompany us on the carousel!"

Yun Shishi had no choice but to ask Mu Yazhe to keep an eye on little Yueyao. She then led the two little guys toward the carousel.

With a VIP card in hand, there was no need to queue for any of the rides!

Mu Yazhe sat on a long bench by the side and waited for them to finish their ride.

Soon after he sat down, little Yueyao started to appear anxious. She was like a little kitten, whimpering as if she had some request!

However, she had not started speaking. If she wanted to express dissatisfaction, she could only do it through making garbled sounds or subtle changes in expression!

Chapter 3209: Journey Of A Father (36)

Mu Yazhe was experienced enough to know that she was hungry and wanted milk. There was milk in the milk bottle, which Yun Shishi had prepared beforehand. He only needed to take it out and shake it evenly before opening the cap and bringing the milk bottle to her mouth.

She took a bite, latched onto the pacifier, hugged the milk bottle, and started sucking on it with relish.

She must have been very hungry. Since she woke up, she had only drunk a few mouthfuls of milk and had not eaten much. All along the way, she slept soundly in Yun Shishi's arms, and following their arrival at the park, her attention had been on the hydrogen balloon. Now, hunger had taken over. She hugged the milk bottle and drank hurriedly, although surprisingly, she did not choke.

"Slow down!" Mu Yazhe was highly amused when he saw her face turning red from drinking too hurriedly. He could not help chiding her, "No one is fighting you for it!"

She looked like she was going to chew up the teat!

Seriously... this little fellow.

She had already chewed through two or three teats at home. This was most likely a record among girls her age!

Only his little princess had such capabilities!

Many tourists passed by and saw this scene. They marveled at the handsome man sitting on a long bench, holding a tiny baby in his arms. The baby was drinking from a milk bottle with relish!

In this day and age, it was rare enough for a father to bring an infant for an outing. It was mostly the mother who would take care of the baby.

Such a young and gentle father!

"Sigh, why don't I have such a young and handsome father? If I had such a father, I'd wake up smiling every day!"

"Hahaha! If I had such a father, I probably won't be able to find myself a boyfriend in this lifetime!"

"Eh... don't tell me you have a father complex?!"

"Of course not! If my father is so handsome, why would I even like those wild boys running around?"

Mu Yazhe heard every word without missing a single detail. His lips curled into a smile. They were especially pleasing to his ears!

"Yueyao, did you hear that? Daddy is such a handsome man. In the future, don't be bringing home a boy that is not as handsome as Daddy!"

Little Yueyao held the milk bottle and tilted her head as if she did not understand his words. She blinked and continued to suck on the milk from her beloved milk bottle.

By the time Yun Shishi and the two little lads got off the carousel, Little Yueyao had eaten her fill and was sound asleep in Mu Yazhe's arms!

Yun Shishi walked up to him and was shocked to see that little Yueyao was sleeping soundly. She then looked at the empty milk bottle beside him.

“You fed her?”

“Uh huh.”

Little Yichen, too, was taken aback. He picked up the milk bottle and grinned from ear to ear. “Wow! All of it?! Little Sister has such a big appetite?!”

“Little Sister has always been like a wolf when she’s drinking milk! If this goes on, will she grow fat?”

Yun Shishi also felt a lingering fear. “Will she be too full? You should have given her less to eat.”

“I wish.”

Mu Yazhe protested helplessly, “I wanted to take away her milk bottle, but she glared at me angrily. She was clinging on to the milk bottle so tightly and refused to let go. If I tried to snatch it, she’d have choked.”

Yun Shishi used her finger to gently poke at little Yueyao’s belly, which was full from feeding. She poked it again, and the little one reacted in her sleep by opening her mouth and letting out a sweet burp.

Chapter 3210: Journey Of A Father (37)

“Burp!”

Youyou and Little Yichen were amused by the little burp that sounded like bubble bursting!

Little Sister was just too cute!

She was simply irresistible!

Youyou wanted to carry her, but the sun was shining brightly overhead now and Yun Shishi was worried about Yueyao being scorched. So she urged, “Put Yueyao into the pram to sleep!”

Mu Yazhe was still reluctant to part with the baby, but when he saw that the sun had indeed gotten stronger, he put the child into the pram and pushed it toward the next scenic spot.

“Mommy, do you still remember?!”

As they passed by Happiness Street, he looked at the game stalls and exclaimed, “You won a toy for me here previously!”

When Yun Shishi saw this, the memory suddenly came back to her and she burst out laughing. “I remember! You said that you wanted to play shooting, but you didn’t manage to get very many shots through the hoop with your poor aiming!”

Youyou’s face turned red in an instant, and he said indignantly, “That’s because I wasn’t in top form! I’m sure I’ve improved since then!”

As he spoke, he pulled Little Yichen to the miniature hoops. Then he flashed his VIP card, picked up a basketball and started to throw shots indignantly.

Yun Shishi and Mu Yazhe walked over and stood among the crowd to watch.

Youyou tried his best to throw the ball through the hoop, his face was flushed red from the effort. It was not as if he had not made any progress. In the past, he could get the ball through the hoop once, but now he could do it twice. Although he tried his best, such a small improvement was really not worth mentioning.

His stamina could not sustain for more than half a minute before the accuracy of his shooting fell. In the end, he scored barely 500 points and won only a souvenir!

Youyou left the basketball hoop game stall dejectedly. Little Yichen walked up to him and said, "Youyou, I'll win the prize for you!"

He produced his VIP card as well and soon, his time began.

He grabbed the basketball, his eyes blazing!

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

...

All three shots went through the hoop!

Little Yichen had good physical fitness, and he was much more athletic than Youyou. He was naturally gifted in sports like basketball and soccer!

He rarely played basketball and did not practice shooting much, but his accuracy was surprisingly high.

By the time the game ended, he had gotten more than a thousand points, earning him a second prize!

The second prize was a rather generous one!

It was a rare toy produced by Le Zhi and Little Yichen successfully obtained it. It was a cute and realistic looking little tiger with snow-white fur and emerald-like eyes. It was extremely lifelike!

Little Yichen thought that it was just a simple plush toy. When he received it, he muttered, "Is this the second prize? It looks very ordinary!"

"Of course it's not!"

Youyou snorted. He took the toy tiger from his brother and lightly pinched its left paw. With a beep, he entered the recording mode!

It turned out that this furry toy was not an ordinary tiger toy. It had a recording function!

Youyou said to the toy tiger, "Yueyao is the most beautiful princess in the world!"

After the recording ended, he raised it in front of Little Yichen and pinched the little tiger's right paw. The little tiger's eyes suddenly lit up, and then a voice that had been altered came out of its mouth. "Little Yueyao is the most beautiful princess in the world!"
