

Sweet Love 3211

Chapter 3211: Journey Of A Father (38)

“Wow! You can do that!?”

“If you press the left claw again, the previous recording will be replaced.”

Little Yichen immediately hugged the little tiger lovingly and beamed with joy.

“How fun! Did you design this too?”

“I guess, sort of!”

“What do you mean, sort of?”

“Not all the toys are designed by me, but I approve the proposals!” Youyou proudly said, “Do you know why Le Zhi is able to beat all these long-time toy companies to become the world’s number one?”

Little Yichen had no idea. “Why?”

“That’s because most of the toys designed by adults are perfunctory! Only those who are truly childlike at heart can design toys that children all over the world will love!” He continued, “Only a child can understand what kind of toy a child wants!”

As they walked past the shooting range, Youyou recalled his very first visit to Fairy Tale Valley. Little Yichen was standing in line at the entrance of the haunted house, carrying a huge panda in his arms. At the time, he was amazed and wondered who this formidable fellow was, who had so easily won the first prize in the shooting game!

Later, when he learned that it was Little Yichen who won, he was especially surprised.

This guy seemed to be good at every game.

Little Yichen replied, “My shooting skills are not even half as good as Daddy’s!”

With that, Little Yichen said coquettishly to Mu Yazhe, “Daddy, go play that shooting game and win a special prize for Youyou!”

The man replied, “No.”

“Why?”

Youyou snorted and mocked, “Daddy doesn’t dare to accept the challenge because he is afraid of losing the game!”

Yun Shishi chuckled to herself. This provocative tactic probably wouldn’t work on a certain man!

But unexpectedly, the man snorted and got onto his feet, saying, “Are you mocking your daddy? Well then I’ll just have to prove you wrong!”

Yun Shishi was stumped.

Freaking hell.

Who was the childish one here!

Can’t he tell that this was obviously a provocation?

Mu Yazhe walked to the adult shooting game stall and showed his VIP card. He said to the staff, “Hand me the gun.”

His appearance attracted the attention of countless people.

This man was always so eye-catching when he appeared in the crowd. As a result, the crowd quietened down as they turned their attention to this tall and handsome man, sizing him up!

Even the staff could not help being smitten. After standing there completely dazed for a long while, she handed him the rather heavy gun with a flushed face.

Mu Yazhe raised his gun and the countdown began.

He aimed at the bullseye and pulled the trigger. The bullet shot out. Although his pace was slow, his aim was sharp and accurately found the balloon’s largest area. He knew very well that the part of the balloon to be pierced by the bullet would be the weakest. Therefore, every bullet that was shot out would be accompanied by the sound of an explosion. The balloon would explode!

Bang bang bang!

A few bullets were fired and none of them missed their target!

The surrounding crowd gasped.

No matter how gentle his expression was when he held little Yueyao in his arms, the moment he raised the sniper rifle, the aura around him became completely different. It was extremely intimidating!

Chapter 3212: Journey Of A Father (39)

Everyone looked on in amazement as Mu Yazhe raised the gun, focused, loaded it with great familiarity, and pulled the trigger again.

Bam!

Bam!

Bam!

Accompanied by the sound of balloons exploding, the scoreboards kept falling to the ground.

The surrounding crowd started discussing.

“This man has excellent marksmanship! It doesn’t seem like he’s playing with guns for the first time. Could he be a shooter?”

“Given his aura, I won’t be surprised if he’s from the military academy!”

When the last bullet was used up, there were still a few seconds left.

Mu Yazhe put down the gun. The staff was still dumbstruck and did not react for a long time. It was only when the timer alarm went off that she snapped back to reality.

The man reminded her expressionlessly, “It’s time to tally the score!”

“Right. Right.”

The staff collected the scoreboards and calculated. He had actually scored more than 800 points in all!

Little Yichen was shocked as well. He walked over to take a look and saw that Daddy was lucky enough to have scored a number of “50 points”!

When he first played this game, he only managed to score just over three hundred points. Now his father had actually broken his record?!

More than 800 points. This was truly unprecedented!

In the future, the record score at this shooting range could only be broken by Daddy!

Mu Yazhe was not surprised by his own score. In fact, it was what he had expected.

The staff smiled and said, “Sir, you have a total of over 800 points. You can choose any of the prizes here, including the prizes from the special award area.”

Just then, Yueyao woke up and Yun Shishi picked her up from the pram. The little guy nestled in her embrace, rubbing her sleepy eyes and blinking gently.

Seeing that his sister was awake, Little Yichen said to Youyou, “Why don’t we pick a toy that Little Sister likes?”

When everyone saw this, they couldn’t help exclaiming in amazement,

“What an adorable little boy!”

“Look at her eyes, they’re so beautiful! Look at her parents! It’s no wonder this little girl is so beautiful. Her father is handsome and dashing, while her mother is beautiful and gentle. This girl is a natural beauty. When she grows up, she’ll definitely be a real stunner!”

“How wonderful. Now it makes me feel like having a daughter of my own!”

Youyou and Little Yichen started discussing nervously.

“Little Sister likes dolls. We could get her one of those first prize SD dolls.”

“But the grand prize is a one-meter-long giraffe!”

Youyou and Little Yichen ran to the prize area and each picked up an SD doll and a big giraffe respectively. They walked to Yueyao to offer her the various options.

“Little Sister, which toy do you like?”

Yun Shishi, who was carrying Yueyao, asked the baby gently, “Yueyao, your two brothers are asking you which toy you like?”

Everyone’s gaze fell on little Yueyao. They were very curious to see how this cute little girl would react.

Little Yueyao first looked at the SD doll that Youyou was holding up high. Her wide eyes lit up, and she immediately reached out her hand to grab it. It looked like she liked it a lot!

“Yaya... ya...”

She did not know how to speak yet and could only make incoherent sounds. However, it seemed like she really liked this doll!

Yun Shishi was surprised to see this. “Yueyao seems to like SD dolls?”

Seeing that she liked it, Youyou quickly moved the SD doll close to the baby.

Little Yueyao reached out hurriedly to grab it.

Chapter 3213: Journey Of A Father (40)

Seeing this, Little Yichen indignantly grabbed the giraffe and squeezed in front of Youyou again. He said to Yueyao, “Little Sister, Little Sister! Don’t you like this soft toy?! It’s a giraffe. When you grow up, you can hug it to sleep!”

When the people around saw this, their hearts were warmed by this loving scene!

These two little boys were obviously twins, right? They were so loving towards their little sister!

It could be seen that these two little guys doted on their younger sister very much. Especially those women who were mothers themselves, they were envious and amused to see this!

Many families had a second child, and the two children would not only fight over a toy, they would fight for each other for their parents’ favor. And the worry was that one would be favored while the other would be neglected and ostracized.

Sometimes, arguments were inevitable.

Hence, a harmonious relationship between children was extremely rare!

When she saw the giraffe in Little Yichen’s arms, little Yueyao reached out to grab it as well.

To her, there were so many interesting, fun and novel things in this world!

Everything she had never seen before was fun!

But being so young, how would she know how to choose? She only knew that she wanted everything that was presented to her.

Seeing this, Youyou immediately shouted, "Mu Yichen, stop being scheming! Sister clearly likes SD dolls more!"

"Says who?! You're the one who's acting shamelessly! If it weren't for you bringing the SD doll so close to Little Sister that she couldn't see the toy I'm holding, she wouldn't have wanted your doll!"

"What do you know! Girls like dolls! Especially SD dolls. They're exquisite and lifelike. Sister will definitely love them!"

"The giraffe is still the cutest. I'm sure Little Sister likes the gift I've chosen."

Hence the two kids, one waving an SD doll while the other holding up a giraffe, were flushed from arguing over whose gift their sister preferred.

The people around laughed kindly.

Mu Yazhe's lips twitched for a moment. He walked over and asked, "Why are you guys arguing again?"

"Daddy, Youyou's being scheming."

"You're the scheming one! I don't care, Little Sister wants the SD doll above everything else!"

Yun Shishi was amused. She asked Yueyao, "Yueyao, which toy do you prefer?"

The baby looked at the SD doll that Youyou was holding and then at the giraffe in Little Yichen's arms. For a moment, she was caught in a dilemma!

She looked at the two little lads' sparkling, eager eyes that were looking back at her nervously as they held their breaths!

It was as if this was not a toy selection but a sacred election!

Each of them was pleading silently, Little Sister, choose mine, choose mine!

Yueyao suddenly reached out with both hands and separated them. One hand reached towards the doll in Youyou's hand while the other tried to grab the giraffe in Little Yichen's arms.

Yun Shishi remarked, "Oh, this is bad. Your little sister is greedy and wants both."

Mu Yazhe held his forehead and said, "Stop fighting. Since Yueyao likes them both, we'll take both."

He turned to the staff at the shooting stall. "I'll play another round," he told her.

"Again!?"

The staff was scared out of her wits. She looked at the scattered remains on the ground and almost pleaded, "Sir, please have mercy on us! Look, you've removed more than half of the balloons on the board.. There aren't enough balloons for you to hit now! Our balloon pump has malfunctioned, and we won't be in time to blow more balloons manually."

Chapter 3214: Journey Of A Father (41)

Mu Yazhe looked to the side and saw two staff members standing in a corner, sweating profusely while holding balloons and blowing hard with their cheeks puffed up!

They looked at him with pleading eyes.

The staff member immediately tried to smooth things over. "Sir, it's obvious you have excellent shooting skills. How about... I let you have these two toys! In any case, you've earned more than 800 points."

As they left Fairy Tale Valley, Mu Yazhe was pushing a pram with a huge giraffe soft toy sitting on top. His adorable expression attracted the attention of countless people.

Little Yueyao was lying in the pram with an SD doll in her hands. At times, she would grab the doll's hair and at times, she fiddled with its limbs. She was overjoyed.

Little Yichen and Youyou stayed by the pram like two guardian angels as they walked towards the parking lot.

Yun Shishi's heart was full with joy as she walked behind them, looking at this scene!

Sometimes, it's really in just a split second that one experiences one's happiness!

A certain scene filled her heart with happiness. At this moment, she suddenly felt that there was nothing else she wanted in life!

In the past, when she was a young girl, her greatest wish was to meet a man she would truly love and walk into the sacred hall of marriage with him.

However, at this moment, she suddenly felt that a grand wedding was really not that important anymore.

Ordinary life was real.

This was true!

Her life after marriage was peaceful, she would fall asleep with him in her embrace every day. And when she woke up, his sleeping face would be the first thing she see.

She had two lively sons and a cute daughter. Indeed, the heavens had treated her well in this lifetime!

None of these came easily to her, and all the more, she knew how to cherish them!

Pushing the pram along, Mu Yazhe suddenly sensed that empty space beside him. He stopped in his tracks and turned around, only to see Yun Shishi slowly walking behind him. He smiled and extended his hand towards her.

"Shishi, hold my hand."

She was stunned for a moment, and glanced at his palm before she extended her hand to him with a sweet smile.

He immediately held it firmly.

She caught up with him and walked next to him. He then said, "It's crowded. Stick close."

She took his arm and smiled at him. "Okay."

When the family of five got home, they were met by Zhang Wansan's family, that had been waiting at the door.

For the whole time that they were at the Fairy Tale Valley, the Zhang family had waited outside their house.

Upon seeing that Mu Yazhe had returned, Zhang Wansan immediately went up to him and personally apologized. He really did not want to lose his job over such a small matter.

The woman standing by the side, on the other hand, was quietly sobbing. She seemed to have realized that the matter was very important and knew that she had offended a big shot. It was too late for regrets. She held her son's hand, and the both of them kept bowing and apologizing.

"Chairman Mu, we know now that we were in the wrong! We didn't know whom we were dealing with. Please forgive us!"

The little guy was truly frightened. He kept bowing and apologizing, and his tender voice was trembling. There was no trace of the arrogance and domineering air that he carried when he was bullying Youyou. Instead, he was crying helplessly and rubbing his teary eyes, looking extremely sad.

It was probably because Zhang Wansan had given him a harsh beating yesterday and he had realized his mistake.

Mu Yazhe was hard-hearted and naturally ignored all of them.

Little Yichen and Youyou also walked into the house without looking back.

Just as Zhang Wansan and his family were feeling disheartened, Yun Shishi suddenly walked up to them, squatted down, and gave the little boy a handkerchief.

Chapter 3215: Journey Of A Father (42)

The little boy was stunned. He raised his head and looked at the gentle lady in front of him in astonishment.

When the child's mother saw this, she had mixed feelings. "Thank you! Thank you, Mrs. Mu!"

"Mommy, why are you even paying any attention to them?" Youyou said unhappily. "Let's ignore them!"

Yun Shishi told the other family, "Please go home."

"But..." Zhang Wansan looked at Mu Yazhe hesitantly as if he had something to say.

Yun Shishi seemed to know what was on his mind as she said plainly, "As the old saying goes, distant relatives are not as good as close neighbors. We'll let the matter go. I just hope that in the future, you will discipline your son well. You can't just let him have his way; it will spoil him."

"Yes! Yes! I will definitely discipline him. In the future, I will definitely not let him be so unreasonable and bully other children!"

Zhang Wansan left with his wife and son.

Watching them leave, Youyou asked grumpily, "Mommy, why are you so gentle with them?"

Yun Shishi squatted down in front of the boy and calmly said, "Youyou, you know, leaving some leeway for others is also giving yourself leeway."

The boy did not quite understand.

From the time of the incident with Yun Na, to Gu Xingze's passing, to the time she regained her vision and could see the world clearly again, Yun Shishi's mental state had undergone a huge change.

She began to believe in karma. She believed that doing good will reap fruits of goodness, and that she should forgive whenever possible.

"Sometimes, there's no need to force someone to a dead end. It's not like there's a deep hatred between us. Sometimes, if we push someone to a dead end, who knows what kind of revenge that person will take in the midst of despair, when he has hatred in his heart? Youyou, you know, Mommy believes in karma now! I only think about how to deal with people in a peaceful manner. I also hope that what Mommy does can help you guys accumulate some good karma!"

"Mommy, don't be afraid. Daddy and Youyou will protect you."

Yun Shishi said, "Rather than being protected by Youyou, Mommy wants to protect you guys and not let anyone hurt you."

In the midst of despair, a single thought can breed great hatred, and when driven by hatred, human beings often lose their rationality.

In other words, if Zhang Wansan lost his job because of this incident and fell to the bottom of the valley, who knew how they would deal with them.

She didn't want anyone to ruin the peaceful happiness that they had.

However, with Mu Yazhe's character, even if he did not make Zhang Wansan lose his job, it was inevitable that he would be demoted!

However, Zhang Wansan was more than grateful even for that!

From then on, the Zhang family became much more well-behaved. Sometimes, when they ran into each other on the road, they would politely nod and greet each other.

Of course, that would be a story for another day.

The wedding date had been set.

When Gong Jie received the news that the wedding would be held in a month's time, he was overwhelmed with emotions!

He made a trip back to Hurricane headquarters but did not return to the Gong family residence immediately. Instead, he paid a visit to Yun Yecheng at once to tell him the good news.

Yun Yecheng had been transferred to the ward, and his had not fully recovered yet. He was still waiting for the surgery.

However, after a few skin grafts, his facial features had basically recovered.

Only, he didn't look the same as before of course.

The rest would have to wait for a series of surgeries.

Chapter 3216: Wedding Of The Century (1)

Regeneration was a huge undertaking. Alice told Gong Jie that if he wanted a more complete recovery, the man would need to undergo more than thirty surgeries to reconstruct his basic functions.

Of course, she referred to restoration only in a certain sense. For example, restoring vocal cords to speak again, or functions of the other organs.

Gong Jie entered the ward. Yun Yecheng was lying on the bed. His eyes were open and he had oxygen tubes inserted into him. He seemed to be awake.

The ECG showed a steady normal state.

Gong Jie walked up to the bed, bent over and greeted Yun Yecheng, "Uncle?"

Yun Yecheng turned his head slightly to look at him. With much difficulty, he said in a hoarse voice, "Xiao Jie... you're back..."

"Yes."

Gong Jie sat down by the bed and took out his phone. He searched for the wedding invitation and a few wedding photos that Yun Shishi had sent to him, and showed them to the man. He flipped through them as he spoke softly, "Shishi is getting married soon! In the lead up, you have to work hard to recover. I'll take you to the wedding event."

When he heard this, Yun Yecheng's lifeless eyes widened, and his gaze brightened.

"Shishi... is finally... getting married..."

When little Yueyao was born, because of his health and as he was in a coma after the surgery, he had been unable to visit them personally.

When he came to, he heard from Gong Jie that Yun Shishi had given birth to a daughter and now had both sons and a daughter, he was really pleased!

However, at the same time, he couldn't help feeling regretful!

When his beloved daughter gave birth, he could not personally accompany her and be by her side to look after her. He even saw his granddaughter in a photo!

In the photo, he saw the family of five. Mu Yazhe sat by the hospital bed with his arm around Yun Shishi, while Yun Shishi was carrying little Yueyao. Little Yichen and Youyou smiled at the camera with their hands held up in a victory gesture. It was warm and beautiful.

Looking at the photographs, he felt extremely gratified.

However, when Gong Jie said that he would take him to the wedding event, Yun Yecheng suddenly felt troubled!

“Shishi’s wedding... I... don’t think I will go...”

Gong Jie was rather taken aback when he heard this. “Why?”

“Xiao Jie... Look at me... There are so many VIPs at the wedding venue... I look terrible and will frighten them...”

“Uncle, how could you think that way?”

Gong Jie comforted him. “Shishi will be sad if she didn’t see you at her wedding! She must want you to be a witness to such an important occasion.”

Yun Yecheng was touched, although heartbroken when he heard that. He blinked as tears welled up in his eyes.

He still felt guilty towards her.

Because of Yun Na...

He was still brooding over it.

Gong Jie consoled him again and said, “You’re Shishi’s Dad. You’re her most important family member.”

Yun Yecheng burst into tears again when he heard this. Then, he nodded and agreed to go!

After Gong Jie left the ward, he recalled what the young man had just said and was momentarily stunned.

You are Shishi’s dad, her most important family member.

And what about father?

Gong Jie was distracted as he returned to the Gong family residence. Just as he was about to walk upstairs, the butler saw him and immediately stopped him. “Young Master, Old Master is waiting for you in the study.”

“Father is looking for me?”

“Yes! Old Master has asked that you go to his study when you return. He has something to ask you.”

Chapter 3217: Wedding Of The Century (2)

Gong Jie hesitated for a moment before turning around and heading to the study room.

In the study room, Gong Shaoying was sitting at his desk with a photograph in his hand. His gaze fell on the photograph and his thoughts clouded over.

When he heard the knock on the door, he looked up and casually placed the photograph among a stack of documents. "Come in."

Gong Jie pushed open the door and walked in. He glanced at the man and asked respectfully, "Father, you wanted to see me?"

Seeing that it was him, Gong Shaoying slowly got onto his feet and walked up to him, sizing him up.

"You brat, you seemed to have disappeared for a while. What mischief have you been up to!"

When Gong Jie heard this, he felt extremely guilty. However, he pretended to be calm and explained, "I went to Africa with a batch of orders some time ago."

"Africa?"

Gong Shaoying smirked coldly and said in a lowered voice, "I've been checking on your whereabouts. You've not left Country Z at all."

Gong Jie was stumped.

He secretly suspected that his father had sent people to follow him, or had deliberately investigated his whereabouts.

Gong Shaoying said, "Why? Are you hiding something from me?"

Gong Jie replied, "No."

"No?"

Gong Shaoying probed, "You keep running off to Country Z. Are you keeping a little pet there and can't bear to come home!"

Of course, Gong Jie knew that the "little pet" Gong Shaoying was referring to was a woman.

He protested, "Father, are you saying you sent your men to shadow me?"

"No I didn't. I'm only asking because you seem so distracted!"

Gong Shaoying did not expose him.

The father and son looked at each other for a long time. Their eyes met as they sized each other up and probed each other. Gong Shaoying had summoned him this time because he wanted to find out more from him. However, this brat kept his mouth shut and did not say a single word. He knew that trying to get any information from him was going to be impossible!

Hence, he said, "Go now! I have nothing else to ask you!"

Gong Jie wondered if his father had sent someone to investigate his whereabouts or if he had found out about Yun Shishi through his tracing.

However, it was not appropriate for him to ask directly, because if it were not, he would have given himself away!

Or perhaps, his father was just testing him and he did not know anything about Yun Shishi.

At this thought, he had mixed feelings. However, he did not say anything and left the room.

Once the door swung close, Gong Shaoying returned to the table with a complicated expression and retrieved the photograph from among the pile of documents.

This was a photograph of Yun Shishi taken for a fashion magazine.

He had sent someone to investigate Yun Shishi's whereabouts. The information that came back included a series of photographs and sketches of her.

This was the only photograph he had kept, only because in this particular image, she bore an uncanny resemblance to Mu Qingcheng, giving him the certainty that the woman in the picture was his daughter!

He had always thought that his daughter no longer existed!

Mu Qingcheng had given him a pair of dragon and phoenix children, but he had always thought that his daughter was no longer alive.

Unexpectedly, she was!

Yun Shishi – this was his daughter's name!

In the photograph, she wore a white dress and sat sideways on the windowsill, hugging her knees. Her chin rested lightly on her knees, her seaweed-like hair cascaded down from her shoulders.. Her makeup was exquisite, and her eyes were like a painting, seductive as she looked into the camera lens.

Chapter 3218: Wedding Of The Century (3)

On the eve of the wedding, there was much preparation work to be done. Mu Yazhe had started preparing a month in advance in case there was too little time and they got flustered.

The wedding invitations had already been sent out. Yun Shishi had personally designed the wedding invitation this time. After her confinement, she did not immediately return to work. When she was at home, she would read some reference books. Hoping that she could participate in the design of the wedding's setting and invitation as much as possible, she learned some graphic design.

The design of the invitation was very special.

The red background, gold edges, and open-work roses made use of both Chinese and Western styles and added to the festive atmosphere.

After sending out the invitation, they had to start preparing the details of the wedding. For example, the problem of bridesmaids and groomsmen.

Youyou suggested putting together a team of bridesmaids, but Yun Shishi did not have many good friends. Furthermore, those who were married could not be bridesmaids. Finally, the bridesmaids were Xiao Xue, Mu Xi, and Jun Mo.

Jun Mo was pleasantly surprised to receive Yun Shishi's invitation to be a bridesmaid.

She joked that in the movie "Innocence", she played the supporting male lead role of Su Qi and now, she was finally going to personally walk her beloved down the aisle.

However, she was a little worried that if she had to wear a dress, she wouldn't be able to carry it off.

Jun Mo had always dressed in an androgynous way. In addition, Yun Shishi's wedding was a Chinese-style one, so she was a little concerned.

However, the wedding planner had suggested that if the short hair and Han attire looked out of place, a wig could be provided.

When Yun Shishi heard this, she immediately herded the three bridesmaids to come together for a makeup trial.

After a fitting, they realized that Jun Mo actually looked very good in a female outfit. After all, her facial features were well-defined. A good-looking person would look good in anything!

Initially, Jun Mo felt a little awkward, but since Yun Shishi repeatedly emphasized that the wedding was a once-in-a-lifetime event and that she had to oblige, the girl could only bite the bullet and agree!

Of course, there was no need to worry about how things were going with the best man!

Lu Jinyu and Jiang Shen were the most readily available candidates, and Mu Yazhe had invited Qin Zhou to be his best man. Qin Zhou was naturally more than happy to attend such a joyous occasion!

Eventually, they sorted out the bridesmaids and groomsmen candidates.

When she returned home at night, Yun Shishi showed the bridesmaids' trial makeup to Mu Yazhe. Mu Yazhe especially noticed Jun Mo's appearance and immediately recognized her as the supporting male lead in the movie. He found it rather incredible!

"Who is she?"

Isn't she the supporting male lead?

Yun Shishi rebuked, "Have you forgotten? I've introduced her to you before. Her name is Jun Mo, and she's a girl. However she's a musician and likes to dress up in an androgynous manner. Her fans have always called her 'male idol'! Now, she has suffered a little because of my wedding. It seems this is the first time she's worn a dress since she was young! I'm rather flattered by this!"

Mu Yazhe held back his laughter and nodded. "Yes! She's quite pretty!"

He asked again, "Have you sent out the invitations?"

“Uh huh.”

Actually, the VIP list for the wedding had been prepared long ago. Many invitations had been written long ago.

However, there was just this one invitation that could no longer be sent to its addressee!

Yun Shishi returned to the study room and slowly pulled open the drawer. There was an invitation lying inside. She picked it up and flipped it open. Her fingers gently caressed the name. The ink on the name ‘Gu Xingze’ had long dried.

Chapter 3219: Wedding Of The Century (4)

There was no way to send this invitation to the addressee.

However, she still wrote it out as a matter of course, for reasons that she herself understood. When she came back to her senses, she realized that no matter how hard she tried, this invitation would never reach its intended recipient.

She did not know if there was really a heaven, like what they say in the legends.

She had once seen a movie called “The Postman of Heavenly State.”

According to the storyline, the male protagonist used to be an elite in the IT world. He had a successful career and a flamboyant personality. However, due to an accident, he became a paraplegic. As he neared death, God gave him another two weeks of life on the condition that he be a postman in Heavenly State, carrying messages between the Heavenly State and the human world, bringing hope to the people who had lost their loved ones.

She wondered if Gu Xingze would wish her happiness if this invitation reached him in the Heavenly State.

At the thought of his name, tears welled up in her eyes again!

Once upon a time, she did not dare to hope for happiness, because whatever happiness she had would have been a result of Gu Xingze sacrificing his life to protect her. It made her feel selfish and uneasy.

However, Qin Zhou said that Gu Xingze had risked his life to protect her only because he hoped that she could be the continuation of his life and take his place to enjoy the joys and sorrows of life.

Only then did she gradually walk out of that dark shadow.

“Xingze, how are you...”

Yun Shishi murmured with a smile as she slowly folded the invitation card close.

Mu Yazhe pushed open the study room door and walked in. He saw her sitting alone at the table, holding an invitation card close to her heart, looking rather dejected.

He walked over and gently put his arm around her shoulders. He looked at the invitation card she was holding and instinctively knew whom it was for.

He asked, "What are you thinking about?"

"I'm wondering if there's a way of sending this invitation to him."

Mu Yazhe could not help but laugh, immediately destroying her fantasy. "Heavenly State does not exist in this world. People who die will not be resurrected or ascend to become angels."

The disappointment on her face became more apparent.

She knew too, that it was just wishful thinking on her part.

Mu Yazhe slowly squatted down in front of her, held her hand, and said solemnly, "So, in this very short lifetime, I will cherish you!"

He reached out and gently pinched her cheek as he rebuked, "My dear wife, we're about to get married soon. Don't reminisce about some unhappy memories. It's inevitable for one to have regrets in one's life, but let's not allow these regrets to obscure the rest of our lives."

"Uh huh."

Yun Shishi put the invitation back in the drawer and hugged him gently.

The wedding preparations proceeded in an orderly manner.

There was still a week before the wedding, so Gong Jie brought Yun Yecheng back to the country in advance.

Yun Yecheng alighted from the plane and as he approached the arrival gate, he at once spotted Yun Shishi with the cuddly little Yueyao in her arms. Mu Yazhe, Youyou, and Little Yichen were all there. The corners of his lips twitched as tears welled up in his eyes.

It was an extremely emotional reunion for the father and daughter pair.

Yun Yecheng felt nothing but shame and regret towards his daughter. During the darkest period of her life, he could not be by her side to protect her. He was downright regretful that he had not been by her side throughout her pregnancy, childbirth and confinement period!

He felt an indescribable sense of guilt.

Chapter 3220: Wedding Of The Century (5)

He felt an indescribable sense of guilt.

Yun Shishi was surprised by the progress of his recovery.

Ever since he was sent to the Gong family, she had been using video calls to communicate.

In the video, she could tell that Yun Yecheng was recovering very quickly. However, she did not expect his looks to recover by fifty percent. At least, after the skin grafting, some of his organs had regained their functions.

Although one could not say that his appearance had been completely restored, still, after some adjustments, it had exceeded her expectations.

More surprisingly, he now could speak coherently. After a few surgeries to his vocal cords, he could speak clearly again.

Yun Shishi was pleasantly surprised. She hugged Gong Jie, too excited to speak.

Gong Jie smiled. "Sister, I promised you that I'd do my best. Since I've given my word, I naturally have to fulfill my promise!"

"Thank you, Xiao Jie!" She said from the bottom of her heart.

"Don't you think it's too formal to thank me?"

Gong Jie had returned to the country to help her prepare for her wedding of course.

Initially, Mu Yazhe had invited the media to cover the entire wedding event, but Yun Shishi had requested that it not be too ostentatious. However, because it involved guests attending the wedding, and most of them were people of status, especially someone like Xiao Jie, they could not be exposed to the cameras.

Furthermore, there were many politicians, important figures, as well as nobles from various countries. It would simply cause too much of a hassle if they were to be exposed to the media.

She wanted to keep a low profile.

Youyou, who was observing all these from the sideline, said, "You're destined to not be able to keep a low profile when you marry a perfect man like Daddy!"

Lu Jinyu and Jiang Shen were tickled and burst into laughter.

"Youyou, you've hit the nail right on the head!!"

Naturally, Mu Yazhe was pleased to hear his own son praising him; as a father, he was secretly proud!

Yun Shishi chided the boy, "Youyou, Mommy is being serious here! If there are more than a dozen media outlets filming this wedding, Mommy will be nervous!"

"Mommy, at least you've seen the world! You've been to Fashion Week before. When you were filming, there were so many sets of cameras pointing in your direction, but you never seemed nervous!"

"This is different!"

"How is that different?"

Yun Shishi reiterated, "A wedding is different from filming! If filming goes wrong, we can do a retake, but when we get married, we can't make any mistakes. It's not like we can do a retake! It takes place only once in a lifetime, so of course I'm nervous."

Gong Jie said, "Speaking of which, I'm very curious as to why I haven't been invited to be best man."

Youyou replied, "Because Daddy is afraid that uncle will cause a ruckus."

Then he added, "Best man is the most strenuous and unrewarding job. Uncle, I'm sure you can't take the hardship."

Little Yichen chimed in, "That's right. The best man is the groom's slave. Uncle, are you really willing?"

Little Yichen said, "It's not a big deal to mess things up. However if uncle regrets it halfway and can't bear for Mommy to marry Daddy, and if you were to run away taking Mommy with him, what would Daddy do?"

The two little guys bantered back and forth.

Yun Shishi giggled.

Gong Jie's face turned ashen. "If I couldn't bear it, would I have specially rushed back to the country? For Yueyao's sake, I wouldn't ruin the wedding."

He was not so pretentious.

He had silently accepted the fact that Mu Yazhe was his brother-in-law.

Yun Shishi added, "The main reason is that the best man can't be too handsome. Otherwise, if he steals the limelight from the groom, she'll be head over heels for him!"
