

Sweet Love 3241

Chapter 3241: Wedding Of The Century (26)

He looked at her with a smile and tears in his eyes!

He had experienced countless touching moments. For example, when Yueyao was born and he held such a tiny bundle in his arms. In that moment he was filled with emotions!

However, there was no moment that was more impactful than now!

He lowered his eyes slightly and looked up again. He walked towards her, his deep eyes ablaze with passion. He did not hide his admiration for her at all. He came up to her, put his arms around her waist and said in a quiet voice, "Shishi, are you trying to charm me to death?"

Yun Shishi could not help feeling embarrassed. Her long eyelashes fluttered slightly as she looked at him again, her face flushed.

He handed the bouquet to her. As she took the bouquet from him, he placed his palm on her back and drew her fiercely to himself. With her in his embrace, he lowered his head and sealed his lips over hers.

Even though earlier on, the emcee had repeatedly emphasized that if he wanted to kiss the bride, it was best to kiss her on the forehead to prevent smearing her lipstick and spoiling her makeup.

However, he could not control his emotions and could not care less. He didn't care too, that so many guests were watching. With such a beautiful bride standing before him, how could he still care about those rules and regulations?

Initially, Yun Shishi was a little shy and tried to reject his kiss. However, she was also unable to control her emotions. Unconsciously, she put her arms around his shoulders and responded to his kiss.

She did not seem to be able to hear the commotion breaking out among the guests. In this moment and in her world, only this man could move her!

Everything had reeled out of control!

After the kiss, he looked into her bright, sparkling eyes and finally smiled. She held his cheek and gently wiped away the moisture that had formed at the corners of his eyes.

The two of them leaned their foreheads against each other's and looked at each other affectionately. It was as if there was no need for those complicated words of love or vows. The strong feelings between them were self-evident!

The so-called vows were a matter of tradition, but some feelings simply could not be conveyed by a mere vow!

She suddenly felt that those vows and promises were really not that important anymore!

Because she could see her future in his loving eyes.

Her future would definitely be blissful and complete!

For richer or poorer, he would protect her and take care of her.

He suddenly tightened his embrace in joy, the corners of his lips curled up like a child's.

"You're finally mine!"

With all these guests as witnesses, this woman who occupied the most important place in his heart, was finally his!

Before everyone present, he carefully lifted her hand and slowly placed a beautiful pink diamond ring on her finger.

It wasn't a big diamond, perhaps just half a carat. It was not because he could not afford an expensive diamond ring, but because Yun Shishi said that if it was a big diamond ring, it would be inconvenient for her to wear it.

Previously, she was given a bigger diamond during the engagement ceremony. As it caused inconvenience at times, she finally had to take it off.

Deep down inside, she didn't need to rely on a ring to show off her status and wealth.

There was no need to deliberately show off, and she didn't particularly like big diamonds.

In her opinion, there was no need for a big diamond, for the meaning did not lie in the size of the diamond. Rather, the meaning was in how long the ring, and therefore, the marriage lasted.

It would be best if she could wear it until they were both old and gray, and at the end, this diamond ring would still be on her finger and she would never remove it.

Chapter 3242: Wedding Of The Century (27)

Little Yichen was relieved. At the very least, the two little wedding attendants did not mess up. They probably went through special training and did not have stage fright when they went on stage.

All the guests present looked at this pair of newlyweds with extreme envy!

Mu Yazhe was married. Who would have thought that this exceptional man, who had always been the center of attention, had such a gentle side to him!

It was not hard to tell how much effort he had put into this luxurious wedding.

At the same time that they were awed by the grand scale of the wedding, they were also touched by how he had personally attended to every detail of the wedding!

Next, Yun Shishi changed into a Chinese Han Tang gown and entered the main venue for a classical ceremony with Mu Yazhe. Comparatively, the Chinese wedding was more formal, but even after the touching kiss at the lawn wedding, the guests were still extremely envious.

The men were envious that Mu Yazhe had ended up with such a beautiful wife. The women, on the other hand, were envious of Yun Shishi for being able to marry a man who loved her so dearly and held her in the highest regard. It could be said that their lives were perfect!

After the ceremony was over and they were about to go around to make toasts, the venue's door was suddenly swung open.

The doors of the venue were extremely heavy, so even though the venue was rather noisy, when the heavy doors swung open, it caught everyone's attention and they turned to look.

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi were in the midst of a toast when they heard the commotion. They turned around, looking puzzled.

Why did the door open for no reason?

All the guests had arrived and the venue was also secured so that no one was allowed to enter.

Why...

Yun Shishi turned towards the direction of the noise and looked towards the door. There was a tall figure standing against the light. Due to the backlight, she could not see his face clearly, but from his silhouette, she could vaguely tell that he was a very tall man.

Judging from his presence, he must be a middle-aged man. She could vaguely see that he was wearing a trench coat and had an extraordinary aura.

However, he was different from the ordinary middle-aged men. He had an extraordinary aura about him. Even if one couldn't see his face clearly, one could still sense his aura!

When Gong Jie, who was standing behind Yun Shishi, saw the figure, his heart almost skipped a beat. He unconsciously muttered, "Father..."

Yun Shishi was taken aback by what he said.

Father...

Wasn't this man, whom Xiao Jie called "father"...

Mu Yazhe was filled with doubt as he looked towards the figure. The man stood still for a moment before walking towards Yun Shishi. It was only when he walked further into the venue that his handsome features were illuminated by the light!

The man held a pipe in his hand. Everyone could clearly see, this man had a handsome face. Although it was marked by the passage of time, the sharp outline of his face accentuated his handsomeness!

He must have been an elegant and dashing man in his youth!

He was in a British-style suit, as always. His muscular physique complemented his extraordinary bearing. His eyes and brows were similar to Gong Jie's and were unusually deep set.

It was hard to imagine such a man's true age. He looked like he was only in his thirties, but after the vicissitudes of life and the changes brought about by time, his every movement exuded a charming aura.

This was a type of maturity and steadiness that only time and the experiences of life could confer. Even though he was no longer young, he still had much vigor!

Chapter 3243: Wedding Of The Century (28)

Youyou was also taken aback. He could vaguely recognize that this man was the rumored founder of Hurricane Group, Gong Shaoying, the head of the Gong family!

Previously, Gong Jie had shown him a photo of Gong Shaoying which left a deep impression in him. Now that he saw the man with his own eyes, he was stunned!

Gong Shaoying slowly walked into the venue. Perhaps it was because his aura was too oppressive, but as he passed, the guests fell silent!

Everyone was so overwhelmed by this aura that they did not even dare to breathe loudly!

Gong Jie was alarmed. He did not know why his father was here, nor how his father knew that today was his sister's big day.

Could it be that the man knew all along that he had disappeared for so many days because of his sister's wedding? Hence he followed the clues and personally found this place?!

Youyou was even more bewildered. He gently held Gong Jie's hand and asked, "Uncle, why... why is he here?"

Gong Jie was baffled.

The boy asked suspiciously, "Did you tell him that today is Mommy's wedding?"

"No, I did not!" Gong Jie immediately denied, "I've never said a word about this to him."

Mu Yazhe had also taken a good look at the man's face. He had never seen Gong Shaoying in person, but just from his facial features and appearance, he could tell who he was!

Gong Shaoying.

There was no reason apart from the fact that his eyes were extremely similar to Gong Jie's and Yun Shishi's. In fact, they were like exact replicas.

Why was he here?

Although, Gong Shaoying's appearance did not ruffle him at all.

On the other hand, Yun Shishi was a little flustered. For a moment, she was at a loss as she looked at the man who was now closing in on her.

When the man stopped in front of her, a sense of panic gripped her. Her hands were tightly clasped together as she stared straight at him. For a moment, she actually lost her composure.

Gong Shaoying was more than a head taller than her. She stood 1.7 meters tall and even then she barely reached his shoulders. His height was comparable to Mu Yazhe's.

She finally realized where Gong Jie got his height from.

He lowered his gaze to look at her. Although the woman in front of him was already 25 and a mother of three, she seemed like a child in his eyes.

When Gong Shaoying saw her face up close, his mind was like a tempest although he tried to maintain his composure!

On one hand, it was because her face bore too much of a resemblance to the woman who had haunted his dreams for decades!

On the other hand, it was because the beautiful girl standing in front of him was his own flesh and blood!

Beautiful. Very beautiful. Just like her mother in her youth.

He had always thought that his daughter had very unfortunately died a few years ago!

His heart ached as he thought that he would never see her again!

However, it was only when he saw her face up close that he could believe it..

His daughter was still alive!

For a moment, Gong Shaoying was at a loss for words. He just quietly sized her up, wishing he could use this limited time to make up for the twenty-odd years he had lost!

Yun Shishi was at a loss too. Embarrassed by his stare, she put her hands behind her back and looked away.

Gong Shaoying finally spoke, "Raise your head."

"..." The girl lifted her gaze to meet his deep eyes.

"Let me take a good look at you!"

Chapter 3244: Wedding Of The Century (29)

Gong Shaoying sized her up with a serious expression. His gaze fell on her eyes and brows. Her high nose bridge was practically an exact copy of Mu Qingcheng's.

Her cherry lips were alluring, just like in his memory of her standing on the stage, holding the microphone and singing a beautiful love song.

What uncanny resemblance...

Like a carbon copy!

Her face seemed to overlap with the face of that woman in his memory.

The more he examined her, the more Gong Shaoying's hands trembled. He subconsciously raised his hand, wanting to touch her, but he was also slightly afraid, worried that this was just a mirage.

"Shishi." He lightly called her name as he bowed his head.

He called her name. It was his daughter's name!

The woman standing in front of him was the daughter he had lost for more than ten years...

It was that daughter that the woman had given him...

Gong Shaoying could not help feeling heartbroken.

The memories that were locked away in his heart seemed to have broken out of their cocoons, and numerous scenes now flashed before his eyes like a revolving lantern...

The first time he saw Mu Qingcheng was at a banquet.

He was in the prime of his youth, in his early twenties. By that time, he had played the field, and had had many women. His family was in the shipping business and they had traveled extensively. He had seen much of the world and his heart had gradually become wild!

The reason he came to the capital was that as the heir, he had tagged alongside his father to attend a business meeting. That night, there was a banquet, and his father had asked him to attend on his behalf.

It was at this banquet that he first saw her.

Mu Qingcheng wore a gorgeous gown. Despite the style of the nineties, it could not hide her unparalleled beauty.

Their eyes met coincidentally and since then they could no longer be separated!

Gong Shaoying had been educated in the West since he was young. Hence, his open mind was quite different from the reserved mentality of most Asian men. Once he marked her out to be the one, he extended an invitation to her to dance with him.

Initially, she accepted his invitation only because she was too shy to reject it.

At that time, Gong Shaoying was definitely an outstanding and elegant person. Even though throughout her career as a singer, she had met countless people, she had never seen such a handsome man.

As a result, when they were dancing, she actually made a number of errors due to nervousness.

However, he did not seem to mind at all. Instead, he found her nervousness very adorable!

Gong Shaoying was also a formidable person. In the space of a dance, he had figured out her identity and background. Hence, a romance blossomed!

What he remembered most vividly was the time he invited her to go on a cruise. It was the Lantern Festival and he had booked the cruise ship. She wore a cheongsam for the occasion. Her graceful figure was charming and compelling.

He was a perfectly normal man. With a beauty in his arms, he couldn't help himself. He had her on the cruise ship.

It wasn't as though she didn't try to retreat out of restraint. After all, they had only been in love for a few months back then. Although she worked in a nightclub, her personality was relatively conservative.

But what kind of man was Gong Shaoying? He easily won her over with a few intimate moves.

That night, with his coat draped over her shoulders, she leaned against the side of the boat and reached out with her slender hands to stir the clear, rippling waters of the lake. On the surface of the water, wish lanterns floated past.

She made a wish that she could spend the rest of her life with the person she loved.

When he heard this, he was naturally moved. He held her in his arms and said that he must fulfill her wish.

Chapter 3245: Wedding Of The Century (30)

She was not the only woman he had been with. In the past, as his father traveled around the world, he had also befriended some high society socialites. However, most of these were one night stands and often forgotten after the moment of passion.

It wasn't because he was too promiscuous, but because some people are just not destined to be together. However when the right one appears, it becomes a matter of course.

At that time, he was certain that this woman would be his companion for life.

However, after Mu Sheng found out about them, he strictly forbade her from seeing him again.

Mu Qingcheng, on the other hand, secretly met up with him without Mu Sheng's knowledge.

She said, "Brother Shaoying, I've decided you are the one for me. You must not let me down."

When he heard this, he was overjoyed. As he kissed her, he promised her, "Qingcheng, I will never let you down. With you in my life, I no longer have any regrets!"

She had even thought that he was a poor lad who came from god knew where and had vowed to be with him for life even if it meant it would be a life of poverty.

This is why it's said that feelings can be so complicated and profound.

Sometimes, relationships of decades cannot even compare to months of mutual affection.

Although the two of them had been in love for only a few months, it felt as if that time had completely changed them.

This was a special feeling. No matter how many women he had after that, he never felt this way again.

It was that sort of feeling that even if the seas dried up or the stones rotted, as long as she was by his side, he would be fearless, even if the world was coming to an end!

Thus, when his father requested that he left the country to take up the shipping business in the Asia-European region, he met up with her and made plans to leave the capital and elope!

Mu Qingcheng shyly agreed.

However, when the appointed time came, she did not turn up.

He thought that it was probably because this girl did not feel deeply enough for him that she would abandon everything to elope with him.

However, a few years later, they coincidentally came into contact again. He was indignant and asked her repeatedly why she had not turned up as planned. She broke down and cried, "Brother Shaoying, I could not go! No matter how much I begged, I even got down on my knees in front of that man, but he refused. I thought of secretly leaving but he put me under house arrest! I could not leave, I could not leave!"

Her tear-stained face made his heart ache!

He hated the Mu family to the core!

She said to him, "Brother Shaoying, I was pregnant with your children. They're a pair of twins. When will you... come and take me away? I've been waiting for you."

Only then did he realize that shortly after he'd left, she discovered she was pregnant. After she was placed under house arrest, she thought about protesting by starving herself. But the thought of his flesh and blood in her womb left her unable to go through with it. After all that time, enduring humiliation and struggling at death's door, she finally found a chance to escape that hell with the help of the servants.

She dodged and hid. In order to avoid being found, she settled down in a very remote place and gave birth to a pair of twins, and gave each of them a name.

When Gong Shaoying found out about all this, he threatened to make things difficult for the Mu family. At that time, the Gong family was unlike what they were now. It was at that time just a small family dealing in shipping. After a few years of consolidation, under his control, it started to grow and eventually could completely rival the Mu family.

He kept to his word. In a fit of anger, he severely damaged the Mu Group, making it difficult for them to recover for the next few years.

Chapter 3246: Wedding Of The Century (31)

At the same time, Gong Shaoying was bent on finding her. However, it was not an easy task to bring her back under such complicated circumstances.

Mu Qingcheng never had a fixed place to stay. In order to escape from the Mu family, she never stayed in a place for long and lived her life in dire straits.

In his heart, he thought of her and their children. He followed the address she provided and very often, they would have missed each other and she was already gone.

He, on the other hand, had his hands full dealing with the affairs of Eurasia Sea Transport, and was unable to handle matters personally. He could only entrust her and her children to a trusted aide in the country.

This trusted aide of his had some authority, so with him protecting her, Mu Sheng would not be able to locate her anytime soon.

Until that day.

He would never forget that day.

They agreed to meet at a certain port where his men would bring her back to him.

But he waited for a day and a night. Those 24 hours felt like a century.

And having waited all that time, she failed to turn up. In the end, they missed each other again.

Only this time, it was for good.

She did not turn up, but eventually, news of her death came.

His subordinates brought back a boy with delicate features who was riddled with injuries. Due to external injuries, he had temporarily lost his memory.

He could not even remember his own name, who his mother was, or even his beloved sister.

Only then did he know that Mu Qingcheng had died in a car accident.

The other child had also, unfortunately, died in a car accident!

This child was the only survivor.

That moving voice and compelling face that haunted him all his life, was forever gone!

All this while, the man had never shed a single tear. But that night, he cried violently.

Regret, anger, helplessness, sorrow... surged into his heart!

His heart became numb from the pain!

He had originally thought that this accident was a pure misfortune, an unforeseen disaster. He did not expect it to be a planned disaster!

Mu Qingcheng's car had been tampered with and she was being relentlessly pursued on the way to the port.

Oh hatred!

He hated Mu Sheng's heartlessness!

He regretted it!

He regretted that back then, when he had gone along with her persuasion and did not destroy the Mu family. And now this was how Mu Sheng reciprocated his mercy!

With this disaster, he and his beloved were now forever separated!

The Mu family was the term he hated most to hear!

For a long time, he would always wake up from nightmares. He would recall Mu Qingcheng's voice and face, but he could not reach her!

In order to walk out of this darkness, he had once pinned his longing for Mu Qingcheng on other women who looked similar to her. However, when he woke from his dreams, he knew clearly in his heart that the woman he truly wanted would never return to his side!

Just like his daughter who had died prematurely...

However, now that he saw the woman standing before him with his own eyes, he finally believed that he had not lost his daughter.

His daughter was still alive.

But...

When he snapped back from his thoughts, Gong Shaoying's gaze slowly found its way to Mu Yazhe. The hatred in his eyes was evident!

Gong Jie's scalp tingled when he noticed this. He immediately realized that things were getting tricky.

One must know that his father's hatred for the Mu family was deeply rooted. Hence, he had kept Yun Shishi's matter from him and never revealed it.

Therefore, when Gong Shaoying appeared, he started to panic!

Chapter 3247: Wedding Of The Century (32)

"Good, very good!"

A dark expression appeared on Gong Shaoying's face as he swept a long glance at Gong Jie and said frostily, "This is the reason why you kept me in the dark and kept going to Country Z?!"

"Father..."

"Shush!"

Gong Shaoying was furious. His overwhelming aura caused the entire venue to fall silent.

Gong Jie lowered his head guiltily and stood silently at the side.

He had always revered Gong Shaoying.

This man was his father and the founder of Hurricane Group. Although he usually treated his son nicely, he was definitely like a raging lion when he got angry!

No one dared to defy him.

Even someone as proud as him would not go against his father's will.

When Yun Shishi saw Gong Shaoying berating Gong Jie before the crowd, she became even more displeased. "Sir, this is my wedding. If you have come to give blessings, then please take a seat and witness my happiness! If you come with hostility, then please leave now through this door. I—do not welcome you!”

She said those last few words with great clarity!

Gong Shaoying was stunned. But no matter how enraged he was, he was helpless in front of her!

Sir?

Look at how distant she sounded!

However, it was not without reason that they were so distant. After all, it had been more than twenty years since she was born, and father and daughter had never reunited. He had never seen her, and she had never seen him. It was inevitable that they would be estranged!

But that didn't stop him from feeling close to her.

He said, “Shishi, you probably don't know who I am, right?”

“I know.” She took a deep breath. “Your name is Gong Shaoying. You're Xiaojie's father and my mother's lover.”

“Since you know that I'm your father, why...” Gong Shaoying was stunned.

“Do I need to repeat myself?”

Yun Shishi was terse, on the other hand, be it because the man's appearance had ruined her wedding, or the fact that he had reprimanded Xiao Jie in her presence. She was unhappy with him, so her tone was hostile.

“If you're here with good wishes, I will immediately arrange a seat for you! If you insist on spoiling things for me, I will ask you to leave!”

“Hostility?!”

Gong Shaoying laughed helplessly. “You're my daughter and I'm your father. I... I love you so much. Why would I be hostile towards you?”

Yun Shishi was stunned for a moment. Thinking that he was going to wish her well, her expression softened a little. However, immediately, this was followed by his icy remark, “However I will never allow you to be with him!”

Upon saying those words, Gong Shaoying's gaze fell on Mu Yazhe with hostility.

She naturally knew who he was referring to!

Her face turned ashen.

By the side, Youyou looked at Gong Shaoying and then at Gong Jie. For a moment, he had mixed feelings!

According to seniority, the man in front of him was his grandfather and his superior. He was rumored to be the chief of Hurricane Group, Gong Shaoying.

However, why did he not feel a sense of closeness?

Mu Yazhe was momentarily speechless. It was not because Gong Shaoying's aura was too intimidating, but...

He wanted to respect Yun Shishi's wishes. After all, this was a matter between father and daughter. If they wanted to reunite, he could not interfere.

This man's appearance was within his expectations, but also beyond his expectations.

Chapter 3248: Wedding Of The Century (33)

This man's appearance was within his expectations, but also beyond his expectations.

He expected that the Gong family would find out about Yun Shishi's existence sooner or later. And when that should happen, conflicts would inevitably arise.

What he had not expected, was that the man would make a sudden appearance at their wedding. Mu Yazhe was caught off-guard.

Yun Shishi turned to look at Mu Yazhe. She mustered her courage and suddenly reached out her hand to intertwine her fingers with his. She turned to face Gong Shaoying and smiled.

"Since you don't wish us well... I'd like to ask you to leave."

Gong Shaoying's expression turned ugly.

"It's our wedding event today. I don't want anyone to ruin it, including you!"

Yun Shishi paused for a moment before continuing, "If you must acknowledge me as your daughter, then please acknowledge him as well! He is my husband – the man I've chosen to spend my life with! If you can't accept him, then I can't accept you!"

Gong Shaoying turned frosty. He questioned her, "Have you any idea who he is?"

"He's my husband! There's no doubt about it."

"He's from the Mu family!"

Gong Shaoying interrupted her. "You should know who caused your mother's death!"

"I know."

"Since you already know..."

"Mr. Gong, please forgive me for asking. You clearly knew where my mother was back then..."

Tears welled up in Yun Shishi's eyes as she vented her anger on him. "Since you know where my mother was... where we were, why didn't you come to get us personally? If you had come personally, that car accident could have been avoided, right?!"

"..." Gong Shaoying was dumbstruck.

“So, why didn’t you come?”

Yun Shishi’s voice gradually became hoarse as she choked on her tears. She questioned him mournfully, “Do you know how long my mother waited for you and remained faithful to you? Do you know how much she silently endured for you? Loneliness? Helplessness? Lost? Confusion? All these were given to her by you!”

In her childhood, she would often notice her mother sitting by the window sill, looking into the distance while making paper flowers.

She wondered why her mother was always sitting by the window.

And she never spoke much.

Until one day, she got up from the chair by the windowsill and sat back on the bed in disappointment. She was smiling, but she looked as though she was on the verge of tears. “I’ve been waiting for him.”

She was waiting for the man she loved to suddenly turn up.

She was waiting for the day when she, sitting by the window, would see him walking up to their door. He would wave at her and say gently to her, “Qingcheng, I should have been here earlier.”

Yun Shishi was unrelenting as she continued, “But why didn’t you come? Was it because you had another love, or... was it because you were busy with your so-called career?”

Her hostile words were like needles piercing his heart, causing him immense pain. Gong Shaoying closed his eyes as his heart bled.

Yun Shishi went on, “What does this show? It only shows that my mother was probably not as important to you as the luxuries in life?!”

Gong Shaoying froze!

Her words cut him like a knife. His old scar seemed to have been ruthlessly torn open again, and it hurt so much that blood kept flowing!

Those painful memories resurfaced before his eyes. He staggered and could not stand straight.

Tears rolled down her cheeks as her shoulders trembled.

Chapter 3249: Wedding Of The Century (34)

Mu Yazhe’s heart ached as he pulled her into his embrace. However she continued with burning hatred, “You have no idea how torturous it is to be waiting for someone! You don’t understand the despair of spending your life waiting for someone who may very well never turn up! Do you know... my mother spent her entire life waiting for someone?”

Every word she said drew blood. Gong Shaoying was in so much pain that he could hardly breathe. He staggered a step backward and seemed unsteady on his feet.

Gong Jie immediately stepped forward and held his arm. He said with heartache, "Father, Sister and Brother-in-law are truly in love! I can see how difficult it has been for them to get to where they are today. Father, I hope you can leave the bad blood from the past behind. Give Brother-in-law a chance and give yourself a chance!"

He used to detest the Mu family as well, but he had let go of the hatred so that his sister could find happiness.

He also hoped that his father would let go in the same way.

Gong Shaoying abruptly pushed his hand away and questioned, "Give him a chance?! Who gave your mother and I a chance?!"

Yun Shishi was stunned.

Gong Shaoying glared at Mu Yazhe and said icily, "The Gong and Mu families are irreconcilable!"

"Oh, truly."

Mu Yazhe's lips curled into a smile as he drew Yun Shishi into his embrace. It was time for him to declare his stand!

"Mr. Gong, I hope you know that the person standing before you is not only your daughter, but also my wife. She is also the woman whom I have set my mind on for life. The reason why you hate the Mu family so much is because Mu Sheng separated a pair of lovers in the past, causing them to be apart forever. However, are you going to follow his footsteps, to be an executioner who breaks up lovers?"

"Executioner!?" Gong Shaoying's eyes widened!

How was he an executioner!?

"I don't care what your take is on the matter. Since you're here, I might as well tell you where I stand." Mu Yazhe looked up and met the man's gaze with his own cold but determined expression. "I know that Hurricane Group is well known, and I also know that globally, it's hard to find another corporation that can compete with the Gong family. I also know clearly what your capabilities and mine are. Even so, it won't shake my determination to be with Shishi."

"..." Gong Shaoying was stunned!

Even though the young man before him looked extremely youthful and handsome, his unrelenting aura was on par with, and certainly not inferior to his own.

As the saying goes, the younger generation will surpass the older, even if the current capability of Mu Yazhe was not worth a second look, in his opinion.

However, it was hard to predict what this young man's future would hold!

Mu Yazhe maintained a calm expression. He firmly held Yun Shishi's hand and said nonchalantly, "If you're willing to acknowledge me, I'll be very grateful. But if you're unwilling to accept me, then I'm prepared to be enemies with the Hurricane Group."

After a pause, he added meaningfully, "I only hope that you're prepared to repeat the same mistake."

“Repeat the same mistake?” Gong Shaoying did not, and could not understand what the young man meant.

Mu Yazhe smiled and said in no uncertain terms, “I assume you wouldn’t want your biological daughter to hate you as much as you hate the Mu family, isn’t that right, Mr. Gong?”

“...” Gong Shaoying stood rooted to the ground as if he had been struck by lightning!

He looked at Yun Shishi and then at Gong Jie, who was standing by the side trying to keep calm. His hands started trembling uncontrollably.

Chapter 3250: Honeymoon (1)

—You don’t want your daughter to hate you like how you hate the Mu family, do you?

Youyou finally could not take it anymore. He stood in front of Yun Shishi and said to Gong Shaoying, “My Daddy and Mommy are truly in love! Mr. Gong, you can’t possibly bear to break up Daddy and Mommy, right? Mommy has chosen Daddy, and so have Little Yichen and I! I don’t want to lose Daddy because of you!”

Bewildered by those words, Gong Shaoying’s gaze fell on the boy!

At once, he recognized this adorable little boy.

Previously, his subordinates had gathered information about Yun Shishi, including information about her two children.

Genetics is such an amazing thing.

Back then, Mu Qingcheng gave him a pair of twins, and their daughter now has given him a pair of adorable grandchildren!

At that time, when he saw these two photographs, he was filled with emotions!

He was actually a grandfather!

These two little lads were really cute. They had fair and tender skin, and clear, bright eyes. One could vaguely see a semblance of Mu Qingcheng in those eyes.

His two little grandchildren!

One was Yun Tianyou, and the other was Mu Yichen!

Youyou looked at him. He showed not the slightest bit of fear even before such a strong and imposing man. His expression was calm and composed as he looked up at Gong Shaoying.

Little Yichen looked at him timidly, knowing that this man was his mother’s father and his own grandfather!

However, he could not bring herself to feel close to him!

“Mr. Gong, I hope you will give it careful thought! Is hatred that important? Is it so important that even Mommy’s happiness can be sacrificed?”

Gong Shaoying's lips quivered noticeably. He lifted his gaze to look at Yun Shishi, who was standing before him. The woman before him was the daughter he had been missing all these years, but right now, there was an unfamiliar expression on her face.

There was hostility in her eyes, a probing, but most of all, a sense of retreat.

A part of her wanted to acknowledge him too.

However, how could she not hate him?!

There was truth in what she had said!

If he had gone personally to get Mu Qingcheng back then, perhaps the accident would not have happened!

And consequently, the permanent separation would not have happened.

She was not wrong!

However, this did not mean that the feud between the two families could be simply written off!

After so many years, he still had not gotten over it, let alone her!

Gong Shaoying sized up Mu Yazhe, who was standing before him. Such a young man was handsome, charismatic, and outstanding in his capabilities. The younger generation would surely surpass him!

He could tell that this was an outstanding man who was not inferior to himself!

He knew very well that a man like this would doubtlessly be able to protect his daughter and give her lifelong happiness. It was obvious that the man loved his daughter deeply!

However, he could not convince himself to accept this man as his son-in-law!

Gong Shaoying's thoughts were in a mess. He suddenly felt a headache coming on and his mind was like a chaotic battlefield.

He suddenly turned around, took a deep breath, held his forehead, and left dejectedly.

Across the widening distance, his back view cut a desolate picture!

Gong Jie ran after him and wanted to take his arm to support him, but Gong Shaoying pushed him away slowly and said in his deep voice, "Let me... think alone!"

"Father..."

He wanted to continue but Gong Shaoying raised his hand to stop him. The older man sighed and said, "There's nothing more you need to say!"

For a moment, Gong Jie was at a loss as to what to do. He could only stare at his father blankly as the man walked further and further away.