

Sweet Love 3251

Chapter 3251: Honeymoon (2)

After Gong Shaoying left, there was a brief silence before the wedding event started up again!

All the guests had no idea what had happened, they only thought that it was an unexpected disruption to the event.

They did not know Gong Shaoying's identity, and neither did they know that the person who had left the venue was actually the founder of Hurricane Group, Gong Shaoying.

Despite the complexity of emotions he was feeling, Gong Jie quickly pushed those unhappy matters to the back of his mind!

When the ceremony was over and it was time for a toast, Yun Shishi changed into a red gown and walked down the event hall with Mu Yazhe to toast the guests.

At this juncture, the guests took full advantage of this rare opportunity of course, to get Mu Yazhe drunk!

However, why else would he have chosen Jiang Shen and Lu Jinyu as his best men?

Qin Zhou and Lu Jinyu aside, Jiang Shen, who had the worst alcohol tolerance among the three, could easily drink a pound of white wine without a problem!

Among the people they had to toast were wealthy CEOs with extraordinary backgrounds and business partners of the Shengyu Group. They would have expected the hosts to down a significant amount of alcohol. And because some of these guests were on rather good terms with Mu Yazhe, it would be inappropriate for them to decline!

Hence in this instance, the alcohol tolerance of these three groomsmen came in handy!

Mu Linfeng and Mu Yanchen sat among the guests, their minds unsettled, as if they were sitting on needles!

They had also received an invitation to the wedding. Mu Yazhe said that after all, they were family. And since they were family, he had to send them invitations. Naturally, it was entirely up to them if they wished to attend!

Initially, Mu Linfeng thought that this event was yet another one of those banquets contrived as a trap. However, after thinking about it carefully, he felt that Yun Shishi was just too important for the man to use the occasion to stir trouble.

Hence they turned up, as promised.

However, at the venue, what greeted them was an extremely luxurious wedding event!

Mu Linfeng was especially upset!

There was nothing worse than meeting the guests at the wedding venue. Some of these important guests were important officials of the country, while others were big bosses of the consortiums. There were even a few familiar faces that they had met earlier!

In recent times, the Mu Group had been experiencing some issues in their financing, hence, Mu Linfeng had been in a terrible fix. Mu Yanchen was even thinking of ways to rope in some investors to ease this predicament!

However, more than a few times, they had doors slammed shut in their faces. When they finally managed to contact the decision maker himself, the other party said that they had already established a partnership with other corporations, and did not have the resources to invest in the Mu Group.

Mu Linfeng, on the other hand, felt even more awkward running into these investors at the wedding venue!

It turned out that the Shengyu Group had managed to win over all these financial groups that used to be on good terms with the Mu Group!

This Mu Yazhe was really ruthless!

It was no wonder he was so dismissive when he left the Mu Group back then. So it seemed that he had already secretly prepared a backup plan. When Shengyu Group was listed, he had made a series of moves to attack the Mu Group, and worse, he did not leave a way out and took drastic measures to deal with the Mu Group. Was he trying to put the Mu Group out of business?!

Now, what was the purpose of inviting them to the wedding?!

He wanted them to witness with their own eyes that even after leaving the Mu Group, he could still achieve glory by himself?

In contrast to the glory of the Shengyu Group, the Mu Group appeared even more down and out!

Mu Linfeng felt utterly humiliated coming to this wedding!

Chapter 3252: Honeymoon (3)

This made Mu Yanchen feel even more indignant!

On one hand, he was jealous of Mu Yazhe's talent. Even after leaving the Mu Group, he did not end up a pauper. Conversely, he made even greater achievements than before!

As for himself?!

He loved Meng Qingxue so much, but his marriage with Meng Qingxue was definitely not something he could assume as a matter of course!

So what if he had become the head of the Mu family?

Wasn't he just a puppet who had to act according to Mu Linfeng's wishes?!

By the time Mu Yazhe brought Yun Shishi to their table, all the guests at the table had got onto their feet in excitement and anticipation. Only Mu Linfeng and Mu Yanchen remained in their seats, looking uneasy and awkward!

They turned to look at Mu Yazhe, who had a calm smile on his face. Could this guy be hoping that a toast would be enough to settle the bad blood?

Mu Yazhe smiled when he saw Mu Linfeng and greeted the man, "Second Uncle, you're here."

His attitude was neither arrogant nor respectful. His respect for him was limited to addressing him "Second Uncle"!

Only then did the older man stand up with his wine glass in hand. He glanced at him, then at Yun Shishi. He tried to force a smile, but the result was a hideous expression. It was not a smile, nor was it not a smile. It made him feel especially awkward.

"Congratulations!" he said as he gloomily raised his wine glass and drained it in one gulp!

In his heart, he thought to himself that at the very least, this kid had given him some respect by not bypassing his table!

When Mu Yanchen saw Mu Linfeng standing up to propose a toast, he also stood up reluctantly with his wine glass and said in a lukewarm tone, "Second Brother, I wish you a happy marriage!"

Similarly, he downed the wine in one gulp and sat down in silence.

From their perspectives, Mu Yazhe was undoubtedly showing off!

But the reality...?

A certain man with an evil side was indeed showing off. He invited them to the wedding and was certain that the two of them would not start an argument due to the scale of the event. So since they were willing to attend, he would of course, not embarrass them.

However, Mu Yazhe's motive was not simple. With so many VIPs and business partners present, it was also his intention to show them the power of Shengyu Corporation.

On top of this, it was to hint to the Mu Group to not antagonize him in the future!

"Second Uncle, Yanchen, since you're here, I ought to express my gratitude! It is my hope that all the unpleasant things that happened between us in the past will be forgotten!"

Mu Yazhe poured another glass of wine and proposed a toast.

Mu Linfeng's lips twitched for a long time before he eventually got onto his feet, out of the lack of any other choice, and forced a smile.

"Yazhe, I really didn't misjudge you back then! Look at your achievements now; I'm happy for you!"

Mu Yanchen, on the other hand, only stood up indignantly. At this point, Jiang Shen walked over and looked at him with disdain. He filled his cup and said in a lukewarm tone, "Second Young Master Mu, today is our boss' big day. Since it's rare for us to meet, let's have a good feast!"

Mu Yanchen felt disgusted when he heard this, as though he had swallowed a fly.

Have a good feast?

He was being more than respectful by not throwing up!

This Jiang Shen was really asking for a beating!

Mu Linfeng deliberated for a long time before he finally said, "Yazhe, it's good to see you again, such a rare opportunity. I have something to discuss with you!"

"I'm getting married today, let's not talk business!"

Chapter 3253: Honeymoon (4)

In front of everyone, he had wanted to talk to Mu Yazhe about the Mu family's matters, but now, with that casual remark, he was silenced. It was extremely embarrassing!

Even after Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi walked away, Mu Linfeng still could not catch his breath. He sat in his seat with a livid expression.

So this kid's wings had hardened and he now even dared to refute his uncle!

He thought this, despite the fact that back then, he was the one who had racked his brain for a way to drive Mu Yazhe out of the Mu family. At the time, he had been merciless and now, any hopes to receive any benefits from Mu Yazhe would have been futile!

Sharing the same banquet table were the directors of several multinational financial groups. Upon observing this, they smiled and said, "Second Mu, it's CEO Mu's big day today. What business matter do you have that cannot wait for another day?"

"Could it be concerning the Mu Group's recent funding issues?"

Wang Qianshi, the director of the Shenghua Financial Group, laughed and said, "A while ago, I heard from my assistant that someone from the Mu family came to look for me. Second Mu, is it because of this matter?"

"He he! How could the Mu family have funding issues?" Even the other man, whom Mu Linfeng was not familiar with, was able to stand on equal footing with Wang Qianshi. That man smiled and added, "Chairman Wang, have you been out of the country for so long you've lost touch? Don't you know the Mu family is the richest family in the capital. The financial group manages billions in assets. How could they have funding issues?"

Mu Linfeng was dumbfounded. He held back his frustrations, having nowhere to vent them.

That's right!

The Mu Group was indeed rich and powerful in the past. They managed finances of hundreds of millions of yuan, and they had been glorious in their heyday.

But these funds were all controlled by a few directors of the organization!

When Mu Yazhe left, the shareholders quickly withdrew their shares and joined Shengyu Group with their assets worth hundreds of billions. And although Mu Group had an established reputation, only Mu Linfeng knew the true current state of things!

It was already considered good enough that the Mu Group had a capital of several billion!

The company had accumulated significant bad debts!

There were many assets under his name that were waiting to be financed. However, there was a shortage of funds. And each day of delay on a project would increase their losses by tens of millions. At this point, they were deep in debt and could not cover expenses!

Now, he could only rely on the medical industry to sustain, but even then, he had no idea how long they could last!

Many of their projects had become undesirable assets and had been forcibly acquired by the country.

The glamor of the Mu family was but superficial now, and its wealth an illusion. People were not aware of how tough it was for Mu Linfeng to maintain this reputation!

However, he could not give in and much less allow news to spread that the Mu Group was no longer what it was in the past. If that were to happen, the few remaining shareholders who had been guarding the Mu Group would surely retreat, when they saw that the Mu Group was no longer in power!

In the past, Mu Yazhe was the one who drove the board meetings where they would discuss investments and development of various fields.

But now, apart from constantly reporting bad debts, Mu Linfeng had to rack his brain to reassure the anxious directors and chart an ideal investment direction for them.

However, no matter how ideal the blueprint seemed, it was just empty talk!

The Mu Group's glory days were truly over!

Mu Linfeng had once thought if he should just shamelessly invite Mu Yazhe back to take charge of the situation!

However, he could not bring himself to do so. More than that, he did not dare to act rashly for fear that Mu Yazhe would become ambitious and swallow the Mu Group in one fell swoop.

If that were to happen, he wouldn't even have a place to mourn his own death.

Chapter 3254: Honeymoon (5)

Mu Yanchen had a rough idea of the Mu Group's current situation, but he was not as capable as Mu Yazhe, nor was he as intelligent. If he had even half of Mu Yazhe's business talent, he might have the ability to lead the Mu Group to resolve the crisis.

It was just like how Mu Sheng was defeated by the Gong family in the past. Mu Yazhe's succession to the position of CEO had quickly brought the situation under control. In just a few years, the Mu Group returned to its former glory!

However, he was a far cry from Mu Yazhe, and was not of the same caliber. He had no idea how the man had managed to turn the tide back then!

Mu Linfeng was also utterly disappointed in him. Back then, he was too confident and thought that the Mu Group could continue to thrive without Mu Yazhe.

But he was too conceited, and now he had lost everything!

Given this, who else could he count on in the Mu Group?!

Mu Shumin?

Or Mu Yanchen?

They were all trash!

After the wedding banquet when Mu Yanchen was helping Mu Linfeng out of the venue, Mu Linfeng slowly turned around and surveyed the grand Yun Shan Shi Yi Villa. He could not help feeling sorrowful!

It seemed like he made an error back then!

He should never have schemed against Mu Yazhe and brought the Mu Group's business to this sort of ending!

If Mu Yazhe had not left the Mu Group back then, he would have naturally retired and be living a carefree life now!

However, he was too stubborn back then, and had the greed and desire for all that vanity and power. Hence his decision was driven by this greed and desire.

"Ay!" Mu Linfeng let out a regretful sigh as tears welled up in his eyes. His voice was hoarse as he said, "Yanchen, even if you had half of that fellow's talent, it would have been good... it would have been good..."

Mu Yanchen instantly felt uncomfortable upon hearing this.

Even after he became the head of the Mu family, he could not escape the fate of being compared to Mu Yazhe!

"Second Uncle, why are you lamenting about such things again?!"

"You don't understand, you don't understand..."

Mu Linfeng thought about how the Mu Group was currently in a tight spot, all sorts of unfinished business, and having neither a good way out nor a good way to retreat. Instantly, he felt exhausted. He waved his hands repeatedly as tears streamed down his face. "I only hope... that the Mu Group won't fall apart in my hands!"

Mu Yanchen turned pale with fright. "How could that happen?! Second Uncle, what do you mean by that?!"

"You should know what kind of situation Mu Group is in right now! If we can't find a way out, Mu Group will be finished!"

"Even if Mu Group's funding is cut, don't we still have the medical industry?" Mu Yanchen consoled him. "The Mu Group's medical industry brings in a handsome revenue every year. Don't worry."

"The Mu Group is incurring losses every day. At this rate, the medical industry will collapse! What I'm most afraid of is that if we continue to waste time like this, when the Mu Group is finally powerless, that brat will take action and forcefully acquire the Group's medical industry! That would spell the end of the Mu Group! And the number one family in the capital, the Mu family, will also become history!"

Mu Yanchen was scared out of his wits when he heard this. He said indignantly, "How can the Shengyu Corporation be so powerful?! Can they casually fork out tens of billions?"

"Back then, I overly underestimated him!" Mu Linfeng closed his eyes regretfully and sighed. "I underestimated his ambition and capability!"

Chapter 3255: Honeymoon (6)

After Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi left the wedding venue, Lu Jinyu and Jiang Shen naturally took care of the rest.

Gong Jie stayed behind to help as well. Yun Shishi had wanted to stay behind to entertain the guests, but Youyou said, "Mommy, leave the rest to us! As for you and Daddy, just enjoy the wedding night!"

Yun Shishi turned scarlet at once.

Gong Jie knocked the child on the head and chided, "Do you know what a wedding night is about? Why are you even talking about it."

"Of course I know!" Youyou raised both his hands and wriggled his thumbs, smiling meaningfully. "Isn't it just that, Uncle? Hmm?"

Gong Jie was stumped.

At the same time that Yun Shishi felt helpless, she was also touched. Since they insisted, she would stop worrying and just enjoy her wedding night.

Late night, she took a shower and walked into the room. The wedding dress lay spread out on the bed. She sat by the bed, picked up the dress, and gently caressed it. Her heart was filled with a sense of satisfaction!

How blissful!

The happiness she felt didn't seem to be of this world.

This man had always surprised her time and time again. This wedding had touched her deeply!

Hence, even after the wedding ended, she was still immersed in the bliss of being a newlywed, so much so that she did not notice the man's stealthy footsteps behind her.

He hugged her from behind and gently rested his chin on her shoulder. "What are you looking at?"

She looked up and met his tender gaze. In that moment, her heart melted.

"Why do I feel like today is a dream?"

"A dream?"

"Uh huh."

Rather embarrassed, she explained, "I feel so blessed. I feel like I've transcended reality. It's like I'm in a dream!"

Her happiness gave her smile a sweet and compelling quality. Her face was flushed and tender. Who could resist such a beauty!

Mu Yazhe found her words amusing. "How did I give you such an illusion?"

"I never thought that I could have such a dreamy wedding!"

In the next second, Mu Yazhe held her waist and pinned her down on the bed with his own lanky body. With his arms on either side of her, he gently stroked her hair as he sized up her bare face.

He bent his head and gently captured her lips. At first, it was just a light peck, but gradually, the desire for more than a light kiss grew. His tongue skillfully pried open her lips, as he began to explore deeper.

Yun Shishi circled her arms around his shoulders, responding to him passionately and shyly.

They did not stop for air until the kiss ended. Her breathing was slightly hurried, but she saw a hint of playfulness in the man's eyes. He asked meaningfully, "Do you still think it's a dream now?"

"...Mmm?"

Mu Yazhe kissed her lips lightly again as his hand reached into her bathrobe. His smile became even more devilish at this point.

"Don't you feel it's real now?"

He grabbed her shoulders and drew her bathrobe off her shoulders. He buried his face in her neck and continued to stoke her fire.

Yun Shishi arched her body sensually as her gaze gradually became unfocused.

Mu Yazhe lightly pecked her cheek, looking charmingly evil. "Madam, don't you know the saying that every moment of the wedding night is as precious as gold?"

Her face burned.

"What are you saying?"

Chapter 3256: Honeymoon (7)

“Madam, it’s a long night. Tonight is our wedding night. We must do this precious night justice, hmm?”

Mu Yazhe suddenly moved close to her ear and sucked on her earlobe with his thin lips. His warm breath made her shudder. She was about to beg for mercy when the man spoke clearly into her ear, “You have no idea how long I’ve waited for this moment.”

After a pause, he smirked and said, “I even dream about it in my sleep.”

She felt her body heat up upon hearing these words!

She blushed furiously as she looked into his eyes, feeling both touched and shy.

“Zhe...”

“We’re married, it’s time to change how you address me!” he reminded her. Now that they had gone through the wedding ceremony witnessed by everyone, she was officially his wife!

Yun Shishi turned a bright scarlet when she realized this, and immediately corrected herself. “Hubby...”

“Uh huh, yes.”

He waited patiently and did not move.

As if she understood what he was waiting for, Yun Shishi pursed her lips and reached out with her hand. Her fingertips trembled slightly from nervousness.

She gently held one end of his bathrobe and slowly removed it for him.

This was the first time she had taken the initiative to “be of service”.

In an instant, she could feel the hotness of her own breath!

The man was very satisfied with her initiative. From time to time, he kissed her lightly to encourage her!

Suppressing her sense of guilt, she proceeded to remove his bathrobe. Then she wrapped her arms around his shoulders and gently planted a kiss on his shoulder.

Then the warm breath escaping her lips brushed against his skin, it was as if an electric current was coursing through his body.

It was just a kiss, but it easily stirred him.

No matter how determined a man he was, he helplessly reeled out of control!

He lifted her back and wrapped his arm around her waist. With a twist of his body, he switched position and helped her sit up.

The woman felt the room spinning and suddenly realized, to her shock, that their positions had flipped.

The man prodded her gently, “You’re on top tonight, huh?”

Yun Shishi understood his motive. Her face was on fire!

In bed, he had rarely taken such a position. In reality, he had been coveting it for a long time to get her on top, to admire her complete charm. However, because he understood her reservedness and was mindful of her shyness, he inevitably ended up on top!

This time, he insisted on his way for once.

In this position, he claimed her without allowing her a chance to protest.

The atmosphere in the room was filled with a warm charm.

After taking her twice, he wanted more but she became tired and sleepy. She pushed him away coquettishly, saying, “Didn’t you say that we’re leaving for our honeymoon trip tomorrow? What if we tire ourselves out and oversleep?”

“That won’t happen!”

He insisted, “Madam, I haven’t had you for a long time. I want you...”

“But... what if I can’t get out of bed tomorrow?” She almost blurted out. It was only when she saw the teasing look in the man’s eyes that she suddenly realized what she had said. She bit her lips shyly and glared at him unhappily.

The man replied, “If you can’t get out of bed, I’ll carry you onto the plane.”

“You... Stop fooling around!”

She tried to catch her breath as she pushed him off shyly. “Go to sleep!”

Chapter 3257: Honeymoon (8)

“Go to sleep!”

She tried to shove him off. The man did not force her. He suppressed his desire, trying to stop himself from thinking about this matter. He lay down beside her, unsatisfied but held her in his arms nevertheless. His large hands continued to rove up and down her body, reluctant to leave it alone.

Yun Shishi grabbed his hand and pouted. “Stop fidgeting!”

As if to deliberately change the topic, she asked, “Where did you plan our honeymoon trip to be?”

The man acted all mysterious. “You’ll find out tomorrow!”

“What!?” Yun Shishi was bursting with curiosity. Her anticipation for the honeymoon trip was no less than her anticipation for the wedding. Since the wedding was already over, she had been racking her brain to guess where they would be heading for their honeymoon.

The Maldives?

However, they had already been there the last time. There was no point in going there again.

Italy?

Czechoslovakia?

This did not seem to be his usual style!

The more he refused to tell her, the more curious she became. As a result, her sleepiness vanished completely.

She took his arm and asked coquettishly, "Tell me, where are we going for our honeymoon? At least give me something to look forward to!"

"Does that mean you won't have any anticipation or look forward to it if I refuse to tell you?" he asked in return.

She choked and shook her head. "Well, no..."

"You're a little moron." The man smiled and gently stroked her hair as he said, "Be good, don't let your thoughts run wild! You'll find out tomorrow!"

"Okay." She pouted unhappily, clearly unable to stop her imagination from running wild.

She suddenly asked, "Well then, you can at least reveal how long we'll be gone for, right?"

"We can go for as long as you wish!"

"Eh?" She was puzzled. "What about you?"

"Of course I'll accompany you!"

"Something's fishy. You're actually willing to abandon Yueyao. When the time comes, don't you start crying because you miss your daughter!"

The man frowned. "That won't happen."

How could he possibly cry?!

However, it was true enough that he was initially reluctant to be apart from Yueyao, but on the other hand, it was unrealistic to bring his daughter along!

He took the honeymoon trip very seriously.

After all, there had hardly been any couple time for them. From the onset, Youyou and Little Yichen were sandwiched between them. It was not that he found these two rascals annoying, but sometimes, he did not have the chance to enjoy any couple time!

Hence, he wanted to take advantage of this honeymoon trip and have a good time with her.

She buried her face in his chest and asked quietly, "If we go for a month, what about the company?"

She raised her head and looked at him. “The company is so busy now. Won’t the board of directors flip if you were to be gone for a month?”

“Who cares about them.” Mu Yazhe continued, “I’ve already taken care of the company’s matters in advance. When I’m not around, Jiang Shen and Jinyu will take care of things. As for you, just follow my lead for the honeymoon. You don’t have to worry so much.”

Yun Shishi muttered, “I’m only worried that the board of directors will say things about me behind my back and confuse your mind. They’ll think that a CEO who has always loved his job is now abandoning the company and turning his attention to me!”

“Why, isn’t that true?”

Mu Yazhe raised an eyebrow and smiled. “That would be a fact.”

Chapter 3258: Honeymoon (9)

“You...!” Yun Shishi broke into laughter. She glared at him, giggled coquettishly before circling her arms around his waist and leaning into his chest.

“That’s great news!”

“...Mmm?”

“It’s rare to be able to enjoy some couple time. We don’t have to worry about others interrupting us! Isn’t it great!”

Mu Yazhe smiled and pinched her nose lovingly. “I did promise to give you the best of everything!”

She smiled sweetly and rested her head on his arm as though it was a pillow. Then she quietly fell asleep!

The next morning, the man woke her up using his own special method. He coaxed her to get out of bed, wash up, and then set out with her!

The suitcases had been packed early in the morning, and the plane was a private jet.

The sky was clear when they took off. They sat on the plane and looked out the window. Behind the snow-white clouds, the sky was clear.

It wasn’t until the plane landed at the airport and they reached their destination that she realized where the first stop of their honeymoon trip was.

For the transfer, they got onto a helicopter. From it, they could see a beautiful scene of a pink beach. She was stunned and blurted out, “Harbor Island?!”

“Yeah, you know?”

“Of course!”

Excited, she hugged his arm and exclaimed, “How did you know that I’ve been dreaming of coming here for a vacation?”

Harbor Island is one of the most famous resorts in the world. It boasts a three-mile long beach with clear water and fine sand. On the beach, there was a cluster of 25 colorful small villas that make up a luxurious resort. The villas incorporated various styles including that of Monaco and Bali. It was also a top diving spot.

For young girls, pink is the most romantic color, but one will not often associate this color with the beach!

However, a pink beach can be found on this haven in the Bahamas.

The Bahamas Islands is a group of more than 700 coral islands. Therefore, the surfaces of the islands are covered with a layer of coral powder and coral mud. From afar, they look pink and bright, especially during sunset. The beaches, when painted by the glow of the sunset, look like a dream, a paradise on earth. They are breathtaking!

By the time they arrived, it was almost dusk. From a distance, the beach, the sea, and the sky seemed to be a continuum of colors, gradually transitioning from pink to blue, then from blue to pink again. The beach set off the sea, and the sea set off the skies. For a moment, it was impossible to tell where one met the other or which was the horizon.

From the helicopter, they could see the shallow seawater and waves continuously sweeping up the beach. Even the seawater seemed to be dyed pink. It was especially beautiful and dazzling!

Mu Yazhe had booked the entire resort, so he did not need to worry about anyone interrupting them.

Now, this place belonged to them!

“I’m beginning to regret it!”

Yun Shishi muttered, “Why didn’t I think of this place when we took our wedding photos back then?”

“If you want to take wedding photos, we can do it now. Even if you don’t wear a wedding dress, you’ll still look beautiful.”

Yun Shishi smiled. “Yes! That’s good too. For a memento. But do we have a photographer?”

“Of course!”

Mu Yazhe smiled mysteriously. “Even if it’s a honeymoon, we still have to capture some memories.”

This man was really thoughtful! He even brought a photographer with him.

She was touched by his meticulous planning. She hugged him and gazed at the sea until they slowly approached land. It was breathtakingly stunning.

Now she was looking forward to this honeymoon trip even more!

Chapter 3259: Honeymoon (10)

When they landed on the island, Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi alighted from the helicopter. The local staff had already been waiting at the helipad for a long time. They hurriedly came forward with a white horse by their side.

Mu Yazhe walked forward and exchanged a few words with him. Suddenly, he turned around and asked, "Madam, shall we go to the beach to enjoy the sea breeze?"

"Now?"

"Yes! There's still some time before dinner. Why don't we go to the beach to look at the scenery? Haven't you always wanted to see the pink beach?"

Mu Yazhe looked at the sky again. "This is the best time to catch the scenery, and it's not too hot."

"Alright."

Yun Shishi took another look at the snow-white horse and asked curiously, "Are we going to ride on the horse?"

"Uh huh."

Feeling a little nervous, she immediately asked, "I've never learned how to ride a horse before. Will I fall?"

"I can ride." Mu Yazhe had learned horse-riding when he was young. Even though he was not an expert, he was very familiar with handling horses.

The staff member walked forward and wanted to help her onto the horse, but he was stopped by Mu Yazhe.

How could a petty man bear to let his wife be touched by someone else? Even if she had to be helped onto the horse, he would do it himself.

Yun Shishi was not able to do anything about him of course. She could only glance at the local staff, who was smiling uneasily by the side, and return his smile.

Noticing this, Mu Yazhe was slightly displeased and said, "From now on, you're not allowed to smile at other men."

For a moment, she wasn't quite sure how she should react. "Hubby, isn't that a little overboard?"

"Not really."

Without further ado, he walked over and helped her onto the horse. After she was able to sit steadily, he got onto the horse behind her and put his arms around her.

Yun Shishi's heart skipped a beat. She could not help but recall that when they were filming 'Lethal Beauty', they also had scenes of riding horses.

However, most of the actors nowadays were delicate and rather spoilt. Hence even though she had taken the initiative to ask to learn riding, the filming crew did not dare to be negligent as they considered the activity risky and she could easily fall. Hence, many scenes were shot when the horse was still.

Fresh in her memory was a scene where she rode on a horse and rushed to the Imperial City. With one hand holding the reins of the horse and the other holding the whip, she galloped at top speed all the way.

In reality though, during the filming, the horse was still. She bent over on the horseback and had to move as though she was riding. The scenery along the way was in fact a green screen and special effects were only added later on!

She worried about whether it would look somewhat uncoordinated and out of place. However, the special effects created at the later stage were quite impressive. It looked as though she was really riding a horse.

So, even though she had been on horseback, the horse did not move.

When she first got onto the horse, she felt that the saddle was a little hard!

Mu Yazhe held onto the reins as his long legs tightened around the horse's belly. The white horse started to move slowly.

The horse had undergone rigorous training and Mu Yazhe knew how to order it around. Hence, under his control, the horse was very obedient.

"It's so obedient!"

Yun Shishi was a little surprised. So this was how real horseback riding felt!

For a moment, she was eager to try.

"Is learning to ride difficult?"

"It's not difficult."

"I want to learn too!"

He smiled at her excited expression and said, "I'll teach you tomorrow."

"Really?" She had half expected that the man would be worried about her falling off a horse and forbid her from learning to ride!

"When have I ever lied to you?"

Chapter 3260: Sudden Changes (1)

Now that Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi had gone away for their honeymoon and Lu Jinyu and Jiang Shen had tied up the odds and ends of the wedding event, Gong Jie informed Youyou that since Yueyao had someone to take care of her, he wanted to make a trip back to the Gong family home.

After a long silence, Youyou suddenly asked, "Uncle, may I go back with you to the Gong family home?"

"You?"

“Uh huh.” Youyou smiled and remarked, “The last time I met grandpa at the wedding, it was in my capacity as a grandson. This time, I’d like to go to the Gong family home in my capacity as a core member of Hurricane Group.”

Gong Jie was stunned.

“Father didn’t realize your identity last time.”

“That’s because Uncle protected my identity well.” Youyou smiled elegantly and continued, “However, I’m worried that Grandpa won’t be able to let go of his hatred and won’t be able to tolerate Daddy. I’m afraid that he’ll use underhanded means to deal with Daddy! By then, it wouldn’t be a good situation.”

“So, you wish to make a trip to personally persuade him?” Gong Jie smirked. “It’s useless. Your grandpa is a very stubborn man. Once he makes a decision, he won’t change his mind.”

“But he hasn’t made any decisions yet, has he?” Youyou retorted, “If he has made a decision, he would have dealt with Daddy!”

Gong Jie frowned.

Youyou’s identity in Hurricane Group had always been a mystery. The boy first made a name for himself because of a blueprint. The core members of the ‘Deva Eye’ project had inadvertently discovered that this blueprint, which was originally used to make toys, was highly sophisticated and could be used for weapons development.

What was even more shocking was that he actually broke into Hurricane Group’s dark web.

As the name suggested, the so-called dark web, was a hidden black market on the internet.

This world was a subset of the Internet. On the surface, the visible online media covered a large part of the internet. In reality, other than these, there was also a dark web.

From what are considered petty crimes such as firearms and drugs trade to more serious crimes such as human trafficking and hiring of assassins, everything was available and possible.

The dark web was also called the deep web. As the name suggests, it is a deeper layer of the internet that can not be easily discovered by the public.

Usually, platforms like Tieba, Weibo, and major media websites that people visit are all superficial websites.

The deep network can not be searched by the official search engine. The IP address is well-hidden.

If the Internet world is described as an iceberg, then the webpages that are usually accessed by the vast majority is only the tip of the iceberg. The remaining 90% is hidden in the deep sea, and most people would never be able to access it.

The number of domain names in the dark net is more than a thousand times that of what can be found on the surface network.

The first level, which is the shallowest, may be accessed through a specific browser. It carries content on gambling and other vague topics.

The second level is not easy to access. One can only enter through specific invitation, and various evil forces and terrorist organizations exist here.

The third level is the least accessed. It is said that this is where some confidential national documents are hidden.

Youyou had learned by chance the existence of the dark web.

By accident, he had entered a particular domain name. Coincidentally, this domain name belonged to a human trafficking dark web. On the website, there were pictures of different types of people and the prices of different organs.

He roughly understood this dark web to be a platform for illegal transactions, when images of human trafficking, organ smuggling, and anything shady, even extremely cruel and perverted, were vividly displayed before his eyes.
