

Sweet Love 3301

Chapter 3301: Sudden Changes (42)

Mu Yazhe turned and looked at the group of fans. That small move he made triggered the crowd once again, causing another round of screams!

“Why do I feel that your fans are much crazier than mine? Could it be that all these fans are here to see you!” Yun Shishi said in a lowered voice, with displeasure.

Mu Yazhe was amused by those words that seemed to drip with sarcasm.

He said, “These are all your fans!”

“Liar!”

How could Yun Shishi believe that? She said incredulously, “I clearly heard them shouting your name!”

Mu Yazhe replied, “Because I’m your man. And if these fans love you, they have to love me.”

These words were very pleasing to her ears! She nodded, pleased with his explanation.

She held his arm until they came to the interview booth and answered a few simple questions from the emcee. When they came up to the autograph board, Mu Yazhe took the golden marker from the emcee. He unscrewed the cap of the pen and handed it to her, signing his own name only after she had signed hers. His flamboyant signature stuck closely to hers and together, they became the most eye-catching thing on the autograph board.

The fans started screaming excitedly.

They loved to see this sort of sweet display of affection .

Some celebrities felt that it was a pretentious display of affection. It was as if it was all part of a script written beforehand. It was even more fake than acting.

However, the eyes of people who are truly in love do not lie. The love in his eyes could not be concealed!

When Yun Shishi was signing the autograph, Mu Yazhe’s gaze was fixed on her hand with a gentle smile, and he was fully focused. When it was his turn to autograph on the board, Yun Shishi turned to look at him. Her eyes were filled with admiration and the unmistakable look of a wife’s special love for her husband.

The entire venue was instantly infused in an air of sweet romance!

The fans cheered for them excitedly.

“Beautiful couple! Beautiful couple!”

“Beautiful couple! Ahhhh—!”

Yun Shishi turned around and gracefully waved at her fans. As she was turning back, she almost tripped on the steps.

Mu Yazhe hurriedly reached out to steady her before she lost her balance.

“Madam, you have to be more careful.”

Yun Shishi grimaced in embarrassment. She turned around to sneak a look and spotted a camera frantically taking shots in her direction.

Mu Yazhe immediately moved forward to shield her. He did not make the movement look deliberate, but it naturally obscured the view of her.

He wrapped his arm around her waist and pulled her into his embrace. They smiled at each other and walked into the venue.

At that point, the venue seats were not yet completely filled, as Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi had arrived rather early, most of the celebrities had not taken their seats.

The National Drama Festival was broadcast live. Therefore they were very particular about the timing. Being too early was not allowed, however, being too late was not allowed too, if one didn't have status.

For a live broadcast like this, the viewership ratings would rise steadily. If they were to make an appearance at the beginning, there would not have been a suitable warm-up and not many viewers would be watching.

This way, the exposure would be much lower.

Many celebrities were wearing gowns provided by big brands.. Celebrities who were not as established would rent their gowns at a high price to attend such events.

Chapter 3302: Sudden Changes (43)

Celebrities who were not as established would pay exorbitant prices to rent gowns for such events. These celebrities would have spent significant amounts of money and resources in fighting to earn a place on the invite list. It would simply be a waste to appear too early.

Many celebrities dreamed of being the finale act because the viewership ratings would reach a peak before the awards ceremony began. However, most of the celebrities who made their appearances at the finale had top-notch resources or backgrounds.

Most of them were first-tier rising starlets.

As a result, Yun Shishi noticed that the celebrities she spotted as she looked across the venue, were all veteran actors. These veteran artistes, who had been acting for most of their lives, did not care about appearing on stage earlier or later. They also did not bother to compete with these young celebrities for these flashy things. They arrived very early.

Out of courtesy, she greeted them one by one.

Some of the older actors were the seniors she liked and respected from the bottom of her heart.

After exchanging pleasantries, she returned to her seat only to find that the name tag on the seat beside her read “Yang Mi”, and beside Mu Yazhe, was “Jun Mo”.

Her row was filled with Huanyu’s artistes.

Soon, Yang Mi and Li Jiuxian arrived.

Li Jiuxian was Yang Mi’s male companion. Yun Shishi noticed that the two of them were acting very intimate even after they entered the venue. Li Jiuxian had his arm around her waist, and his gaze was gentle. He did not look like a casual friend at all.

Yang Mi was shocked to see Yun Shishi. She did not expect to see her at such an occasion.

Previously, she had heard that some unforeseen events had happened, so Yun Shishi was semi-retired and had retreated from the scene. She did not expect to see her and it was a big surprise!

“Shishi, you’re here as well?”

“I’ve been nominated for Best Supporting Actress, so the organizers invited me to attend the award ceremony.”

Yang Mi then glanced at the person next to her and recognized Mu Yazhe. She became respectful and cautious immediately.

Yun Shishi knew that she was in awe of Mu Yazhe. With a slight smile, she extended an invitation, “Come, take a seat!”

“Uh huh.”

Yang Mi and Li Jiuxian sat down cautiously, feeling somewhat uneasy. Clearly, they did not know that Mu Yazhe would be here as a guest, so they were a little nervous.

Yun Shishi said, “The organizers are very considerate to arrange for you and Jun Mo to be by my side. They know that we’re on good terms.”

When Yang Mi heard this heartwarming remark, her nervousness eased a little and she smiled.

She was getting on in years. Hence, she was different from when she had just debuted. After years of experience in the entertainment industry, her personality had been tempered.

She said, “Shishi, I’m so envious of you! Look at how happy you are now. Even a kind person will be blessed! God really cares about you.”

Yun Shishi glanced at her, then at Li Jiuxian, who was sitting beside her, and suddenly asked, “Are you two dating?”

Yang Mi was taken aback and immediately felt awkward. Li Jiuxian, who was next to her, also felt uneasy, but he did not deny it immediately. Instead, he looked at Yang Mi as if he was taking cue from her.

“Shishi... how... how did you know?”

She was indeed dating Li Jiuxian.

The rumors back then were true. She and Li Jiuxian had fallen in love while working on the same drama, but without clearly being in a relationship, they were seeing each other. To put it bluntly, treating the other party as a partner in bed was just a matter of physical needs, unrelated to romance.

Chapter 3303: Sudden Changes (44)

After all, being a celebrity is a lonely profession. Sometimes, when they are filming in some remote location, they would not come into contact with the opposite sex for months.

Men and women are emotional creatures, driven by their instincts and desires. It is inevitable that they give in to these.

However, Yang Mi and Li Jiuxian had separated after that.

She was a career-minded person and wanted to take advantage of her youth to take on more challenges.

Besides, Li Jiuxian was two years her junior. Not to mention the outside world and fans, even she herself was not optimistic about the relationship and was hesitant.

However, recently, Li Jiuxian and Yang Mi had collaborated on another movie. After all that time, Li Jiuxian had not gotten over her, so he started to pursue her passionately.

Being pushed along, Yang Mi had been secretly dating him for a few months and kept it away from the media. She kept this secret flawlessly guarded.

Even within the company, no one knew that they were dating.

Therefore, when Yun Shishi asked about this, Yang Mi was quite surprised.

The former only smiled mysteriously and said, "I can tell."

"You can tell?"

"Of course."

The way Li Jiuxian looked at her, his eyes burned with passion.

After walking the red carpet and entering the venue, there was really no need for them to be holding hands anymore. However, they continued to do so when they sat down. Yang Mi's dress for this occasion was especially restrictive, so Li Jiuxian was worried about her, afraid that she would trip or knock into something.

Such thoughtfulness could only be found between couples.

Yang Mi was surprised by her sharpness.

From the side, Li Jiuxian nodded at Yun Shishi and Mu Yazhe before saying to Yang Mi, "There are a few directors and producers sitting there. I'll go and greet them. I'll be back very soon."

“Alright.”

After Li Jiuxian left, Yang Mi’s expression finally revealed a hint of disappointment.

Yun Shishi was surprised when she noticed this. “What’s wrong?”

“I have some doubts.”

“What doubts do you have?”

Yang Mi turned to look at her and confessed, “Shishi, do you know why I envy you so much? It’s because you have a relationship that makes people envious and jealous. I also yearn for it, but... I feel a little hopeless when it comes to love and don’t dare to touch it. I’m afraid that if I fall too deeply in love, I’ll inevitably be hurt. I’m dating Ah Zhe out of this concern. I don’t know if he’s the person I’ve been waiting for, or the person who will be with me all my life!”

After a pause, she continued, “Shishi, you know that I’m too sensitive and insecure! I yearn for love, but I’m also afraid of getting hurt! Ah Zhe has always wanted to announce our relationship to the media, but I don’t dare to do so. I’m afraid that once our relationship is exposed to the public, those blessings or slanderous rumors will definitely lead to the end of our relationship! Although I also want to openly face the cameras with him, I’m also afraid that the fans will find out and slander us again.”

Yun Shishi replied, “They slander you because you have the happiness and good things in life that they could never have. They pay this much attention to you because you are outstanding and attract attention.”

Yang Mi was stunned by what she was hearing.

“Only those who are able to put up with slander can be worthy of praise. Besides, if you and he were destined to be a couple, why would you be affected by what others say?”

“I’m worried about his popularity taking a hit once he reveals his relationship,” Yang Mi said anxiously.

Chapter 3304: Sudden Changes (45)

“Why should you worry about him when he himself is not worried about it? If he sees you as his priority, his popularity and fans are nothing.”

“I don’t wish to be a hindrance to his career.”

“But you are willing to waste your life?”

Yun Shishi’s words seemed to wake her up.

“I think a happy family is more important than a career. One home, two people, three meals, four seasons. That’s probably the kind of happiness every woman fantasizes about, right?”

Yang Mi sat there in a daze for a long time.

Suddenly, she smiled at Yun Shishi and said, “Thank you, Shishi! I think I’m seeing the light.”

“It’s good that you’ve thought it through.”

Li Jiuxian soon returned, and Yang Mi smiled at him. The love between the two was obvious.

The guests gradually entered the venue and the venue became busy.

Elegant music played in the background, and a golden glow illuminated the grand looking hall. It was rare for Yun Shishi to attend such an occasion, so she could not help feeling nervous. However, for some reason, as long as this man was by her side, she could always maintain her composure no matter how big the occasion was.

Subconsciously, her dependence on him was deepening.

When all the celebrities arrived, the opening ceremony officially started at 9 PM.

The awards ceremony was formatted to comprise awards ceremony and performance segments. The third round of awards ceremony was to give out the Best Female Lead of the Year Award.

Yun Shishi had only taken on a few scripts since her debut. One of them was a movie, and the other was the main lead of “Extreme Youth”, which had yet to be released. Hence, she naturally had no chance of winning such an award.

Yang Mi’s name was displayed on the screen.

One could tell that Yang Mi was very nervous. Even though she had been in the industry for many years and had seen many big events, it was evident that she was still a little hesitant.

After all, there was very strong competition among the actors.

The emcee walked onto the stage and exchanged greetings with the guests. After that, she picked up her cue cards and started off with a suspenseful performance. Finally, she read out Yang Mi’s name. On the big screen, the camera switched to Yang Mi’s face, and thunderous applause erupted.

Yang Mi covered her mouth in excitement. While she was pleasantly surprised, she was moved to tears.

Yun Shishi congratulated her from the bottom of her heart. Li Jiuxian, who was beside her, also looked at her with relief and hugged her.

“Yang Mi, congratulations!”

The celebrities around her also congratulated her.

In the flood of all the congratulatory wishes, Yang Mi clasped her hands together and pressed them to her lips to express her gratitude. Amidst the thunderous applause, she carefully hitched her skirt slightly and walked onto the stage.

On the big screen, she could be seen standing on the stage with tears in her eyes. She hugged the award presenter and received the trophy. Yang Mi turned to look at the audience and a beautiful smile spread across her face.

“Thank you for everyone’s love! Firstly, I am in a state of panic standing here on the stage today. There are many seniors with superb acting skills sitting here. I am very encouraged to have been given this award.”

She finished her award-winning speech, paused, then smiled deeply and added, “Standing here tonight, I wish to thank someone.”

Everyone fell silent.

Yang Mi looked at Li Jiuxian’s seat. As if she had made up her mind, she said firmly, “Jiuxian!”

The audience erupted in an uproar.

Many fans of Li Jiuxian and Yang Mi were surprised to hear her mention his name.

What was going on?

Li Jiuxian widened his eyes in shock.

Chapter 3305: Sudden Changes (46)

Yang Mi looked in the direction of Li Jiuxian’s seat. As if she had made up her mind, she said firmly, “Jiuxian!”

The audience erupted in an uproar.

Many fans of Li Jiuxian and Yang Mi were surprised to hear her mention his name.

The camera cut and zoomed into Li Jiuxian’s face. He stared blankly at the screen, clearly in disbelief that Yang Mi would mention his name so publicly at an award ceremony.

Yang Mi looked down the stage at Li Jiuxian, then back at the camera. She solemnly said, “Today, I wish to take the opportunity at this esteemed award ceremony to announce something.”

There was a slight commotion among the audience as they discussed among themselves. However, almost immediately, they fell silent again.

Yang Mi looked at the camera and said in no uncertain terms, “Jiuxian and I have been dating for a year.”

As soon as she finished speaking, the entire crowd was in an uproar.

The screen split into two images: Yang Mi’s face bearing an expression that was full of affection, and Li Jiuxian’s face that looked all at once shocked and touched.

“I sincerely hope to receive everyone’s blessings! Of course, even without your blessings, Jiuxian and I will continue this happiness!”

The entire venue erupted into applause and cheers!

When Yun Shishi saw this, she smiled happily. Seeing that Li Jiuxian was still sitting there in a daze, she reached out to give him a gentle push on his shoulder.

Li Jiuxian turned to look at her in surprise, only to hear her say, “As her boyfriend, shouldn’t you be on stage to give her a warm embrace?”

Li Jiuxian was suddenly enlightened. He immediately stood up and walked towards the stage, his every move captured by the cameras that were panning across the venue as they followed him.

All along, he had been very open about their relationship. However, Yang Mi did not agree to it for a long time. She was full of hesitation although he did not know what she was worried about.

At one point, he wondered if she didn’t think much of their future, or if she valued fame and fortune too much. Or perhaps she felt that publicizing their relationship would affect their careers.

After all, although Li Jiuxian was not as prominent as her, he was, nevertheless, a young male idol of the new generation and was very popular.

He did not bring up the matter again, as he didn’t want her to think he was hanging out with her because of her resources.

Li Jiuxian’s manager also knew about their relationship. He often told the man that every time Yang Mi acted or collaborated with other male idols, she would create scandals and hype herself up.

If their relationship were to be exposed, it would mean that she wouldn’t be able to spark off scandals with other male celebrities in the future. She was only with him because she felt lonely and needed a man.

However, Li Jiuxian firmly believed in her feelings for him. Hence, no matter what others said, he remained persistent.

However, he did not expect her to give him such a surprise at the award ceremony today!

Under Yang Mi’s gentle gaze, he quickly walked onto the stage and gave her a gentle embrace!

The entire venue broke into a commotion!

Having witnessed this meaningful confession, everyone’s emotions were stirred!

“Yang Mi! Jiuxian! Yang Mi! Jiuxian!”

Amidst the commotion, Li Jiuxian bent forward slightly and put his arms around her waist. His eyes were also moist as he gently lowered his head and kissed her deeply on her lips.

Chapter 3306: Sudden Changes (47)

Yang Mi returned his kiss and slipped her arms around him. When she closed her eyes, tears rolled down her cheeks.

“Actually, I’ve been hesitating about whether I should announce our relationship. Jiuxian and I have been dating for so long, and we’ve already decided on each other. We want to continue dating with the intention of being together for the rest of our lives! However, I was worried. If we announced our relationship and didn’t receive blessings, what should we do? I didn’t want to get in the way of his life.”

Yang Mi paused for a moment before continuing, "But today, a good friend asked me if it would have been any better to ruin my own life just because I have the notion that I'm in the way of someone else's life. So, this time, I've decided to be brave! I'm also thankful for the National Drama Festival for giving me this opportunity to confront my own feelings!"

As soon as she finished speaking, a thunderous applause broke out!

Yun Shishi smiled and clapped. When Yang Mi and Li Jiuxian returned to their seats, she immediately gave Yang Mi a hug.

Yang Mi was touched and hugged her back, thanking her sincerely, "Shishi, thank you!"

If not for her reminder, she probably would not have had the courage to do what she did!

"Shishi, I wish you happiness too!"

Yang Mi returned to her seat.

Yun Shishi fell into a moment of contemplation.

Her first meeting with Yang Mi did not leave a good impression.

At Huanyu's annual gala, Yun Shishi had first experienced the hostility and unfriendliness of the entertainment industry through the arrogance and unfriendly attitude of this woman.

However, after interacting with her, she realized that Yang Mi was not a bad person by nature. It was just that, in comparison, she was more selfish. The glory she had achieved made her rather proud and arrogant.

But human beings are selfish.

She was merely instinctively protecting herself from others.

She had been in the industry for a long time and had some dark history relating to the casting couch and throwing herself at an investor.

However, after so many years, she had settled down to become more temperate. She was no longer as arrogant and domineering as before. In fact, when she was in confinement after giving birth, Yang Mi often visited her and asked about her well-being.

The most touching thing in life was to turn hostility into friendship.

She was genuinely happy for her.

"Next up will be this year's Best Supporting Actress award! Please turn your attention to the big screen!"

The moment Yun Shishi's photograph flashed onto the screen, the audience erupted.

Many celebrities had arrived late, so they did not see Yun Shishi on the red carpet. Hence, when they saw the photograph on the big screen, they were inevitably taken aback!

Hadn't Yun Shishi disappeared for a long time?

Was she also at the award ceremony?

Some time ago, there was a re-telecast of Yun Shishi's "Lethal Beauty", and the viewership ratings still peaked. Many netizens commented that it was because of Yun Shishi that they re-watched it. Even though the re-telecast was slated for 10 PM instead of prime time, there were still many people waiting in front of the television to catch it.

The popularity of the viewership ratings drove the net worth of many main leads.

This time, because of the character Qin Changle in "Lethal Beauty", Lin Zhi's popularity skyrocketed once more. She was nominated for Best Female Lead, but was defeated by Yang Mi. However, she did not lose out. After all, with the support of "Lethal Beauty", Lin Zhi's status had been stabilized. Even her endorsement fees had risen. She would have been laughing in her dreams.

The host returned to the stage and raised his cue cards, however he tried to look mysterious.

"I think I saw a long-lost face on the screen."

There was a flurry of discussion below the stage.

Chapter 3307: Sudden Changes (48)

There was a flurry of discussion below the stage.

Yun Shishi heard someone in the back row whispering, "Eh? Yun Shishi is here too? Why is she among the nominees?"

"I heard that she was so popular and won so many votes online that she simply crushed the other candidates."

"But hasn't Yun Shishi disappeared for some time now?"

"Initially, she wasn't on the voting list. Many passionate netizens left comments and they had a strong voice. Only then did the organizers include her name. Eventually, she got into the lead position overnight. Given this, the audience would definitely suspect that there was a conspiracy if she didn't get nominated, right?"

"However, what's the difference between Yun Shishi's current state and being retired? If she won the award, won't it appear insincere if she didn't attend? Wouldn't the other nominees feel uncomfortable? However, if she didn't win the award, given how popular she was, people would definitely suspect that there was shady business going on. If this were to happen, wouldn't the organizers be put in a spot?"

"Yun Shishi didn't come?"

Amidst the flurry of discussion, Yun Shishi naturally felt nervous. She held Mu Yazhe's hand tightly, as the emcee said in a lowered voice, "Next, I'll be announcing the nominees of 'Best Supporting Actress'! Actually, at the National Drama Festival, the most valuable award is the Best Supporting Actress award! Everyone must be very curious about who will win this year's award."

After a pause, he said mysteriously, "Firstly, she's a very young lady."

“Secondly, she has a nickname amongst the fans, ‘Peerless Beauty’.”

“Although she had disappeared for some time, her popularity has not decreased the slightest bit! She is the most popular amongst the new generation’s young actresses, and with her acting skills, she has gained the recognition of many seniors.”

“The winner of the Best Supporting Actress award at the 2017 National Drama Festival is—Yun Shishi!”

Applause broke out.

On stage, the big screen showed her calm face as the cameras zoomed in on her. Although she was surprised, this result was within her expectations.

She was confident that her acting skills would be recognized.

However, after confirming that she had won the Best Supporting Actress award, she still could not hide her excitement. Even though she pretended to be calm on the surface, her slightly trembling fingertips showed that she was still very nervous.

“Yun Shishi!”

“Yun Shishi is here!”

“Oh my god, has she decided to return to the film industry?!”

“Impossible!”

The cameras shifted back to the man beside her. A commotion broke out among the audience. They did not expect Mu Yazhe to be present as well.

It was said that the Shengyu Group was the main sponsor for the National Drama Festival, however, no one even for a moment suspected that the reason Yun Shishi won the award was related to the Shengyu Group.

This was the charm of acting!

She had used her acting skills to convince the audience and judges that she deserved this award.

“Let’s welcome our ‘peerless beauty’, Miss Yun Shishi, onto the stage to receive the award!”

Yun Shishi slowly stood up. Yang Mi, who was sitting beside her, immediately got onto her feet. She gave her heartfelt blessings to Yun Shishi and gently hugged her.

Li Jiuxian also gave her a hug.

Yun Shishi hitched her skirt and gracefully walked onto the stage. She took the trophy from the guest presenter and smiled shyly.

The host smiled mysteriously and said, “I heard that Shishi isn’t here alone today.”

Chapter 3308: Sudden Changes (49)

The host smiled mysteriously and said, "I heard that Shishi isn't here alone today."

A commotion broke out below the stage.

On the big screen, the camera panned to Mu Yazhe's face. The latter raised his brows in surprise when he saw his face suddenly appearing on the screen. He looked around and was actually seriously looking for the camera.

This little action on his part came across extremely adorable in the eyes of the crowd. The audience burst into laughter.

The fans were excited. They stood up and raised their signboards, shouting their support.

"Boss! Boss! Good-looking couple! Good-looking couple!"

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi were known as the "good-looking couple" while fans affectionately called Mu Yazhe "Big Boss". The reason was that Mu Yazhe was the President of Shengyu Group and the big boss. Hence, they all gave him such a nickname.

The emcee said enthusiastically, "Let's give a more enthusiastic round of applause and invite the Chief of the Shengyu Financial Group onto the stage, shall we?"

An intense round of applause broke out.

Mu Yazhe widened his eyes in shock. He was a little surprised and hesitated over whether he should go on stage.

Yun Shishi took the microphone and said succinctly, as though it was an order, "Come up here!"

The man's smile immediately vanished as he stood up from his seat and walked to the stage.

When the emcee saw this, he took a long time to react. As Mu Yazhe walked to the front of the stage, it became clear that he towered over the emcee by a large margin. The emcee suddenly stood a little further away and awkwardly said, "It's not scary to be on the same stage; whoever is shorter is embarrassed!"

"Haha!"

The audience burst into laughter.

Facing the camera lens, Mu Yazhe appeared very calm. He naturally put his arm around Yun Shishi and smiled without saying a word.

The emcee then teased, "Chairman Mu, I saw you looking around the hall just now. What were you looking for?"

He smiled somewhat shyly.

Yun Shishi immediately added, "He must have been looking for the camera!"

"So adorable!"

The emcee continued, "But I think when Chairman Mu went on stage just now, he looked like someone's little wife! Shishi, between you and Chairman Mu, who wears the pants around the house?"

"I do."

"She's the boss."

The two of them spoke in unison.

An air of romance came over the venue as a commotion broke out from below the stage. Amongst the celebrities present, there were quite a number of single people who could no longer remain calm!

This was clearly a very public display of affection!

It was too much!

The emcee smiled as well. "It seems like it's true! I remember seeing Chairman Mu appear in the news previously. He clearly has the demeanor of a domineering CEO. However, when next to Yun Shishi, why does he come across like some sort of wife slave?"

Mu Yazhe started to lose his composure. "No, no," he protested.

"Then let me ask you."

The host questioned, "Who has the final say at home?"

He answered honestly, "My wife has the final say."

The host beamed and asked the next question, "Then, who has the highest status?"

A certain Big Boss was obviously being led into a trap, but he didn't realize it and answered obediently, "Madam has the highest status."

Yun Shishi covered her mouth to stifle her laughter, thinking that this Mu Yazhe was too adorable.

The host continued, "Who in your family is responsible for making money and who is responsible for spending money?"

Boss Mu continued, "I'm in charge of making money while Madam is in charge of spending money."

"Oh." The host smiled and shook his head. He then turned around and asked the audience, "Do you guys think someone like him is considered a wife slave?"

Chapter 3309: Sudden Changes (50)

"Oh." The host smiled and shook his head. He then turned around and asked the audience, "Do you guys think someone like him is considered a wife slave?"

The audience started cheering, "Yes!"

The host then asked Yun Shishi, "Shishi."

"Uh huh."

“Is it true what Chairman Mu just said? Are you basically in charge of everything at home now?”

Yun Shishi said reservedly, “Basically, I’ll make the decisions for the small matters and he’ll make the decisions for the big ones.”

Mu Yazhe quietly added, “It seems that there are no big matters in our household.”

Yun Shishi immediately laughed when she heard that.

The emcee continued to ask, “So then, it is true that in your family, you have a bigger say in things?”

“A little more, just a little. In our family, the one with the biggest say has got to be the little princess!”

“The little princess!”

The host put on an exaggerated reaction and widened his eyes in shock, exclaiming, “Oh my, I’ve haven’t heard about this. When did you have a daughter?”

“Our daughter is already seven months old!”

“Seven months! Goodness, she’s going to turn one year old soon! However, I think that Shishi is protecting her daughter, so she never exposes her daughter to the cameras. It’s said that once a woman becomes a mother, she will have the charm that only a mother has! I think our Shishi is different from before.”

Yun Shishi smiled and asked. “What’s the difference?”

“Motherly tenderness.”

She blinked and retorted, “I lacked motherly tenderness before?”

The audience laughed knowingly. Yun Shishi and the host were interacting with each other tacitly.

The host paused for a moment before refocusing on Mu Yazhe. “Now, it’s Chairman Mu’s turn to take the test!”

Mu Yazhe was surprised to hear this. He raised an eyebrow and asked, “What test?”

The host started to act mysterious as he pulled the man aside. He lowered her voice and asked, “Ever since the little princess’ arrival, who has got a higher status in Chairman Mu’s heart? Madam, or your daughter!”

Mu Yazhe replied without hesitation, “Madam, I guess.”

When the host heard this, he burst out laughing and didn’t seem to believe it.

He turned around and asked her, “Shishi, are you satisfied with his answer?”

“I don’t believe him.” Yun Shishi sniggered. “That answer doesn’t count.”

The host’s interest was piqued and he raised his eyebrows. “Oh? There’s something fishy going on.”

Yun Shishi held up the microphone and answered, “At home, he dotes on our daughter more.”

“What about the two young masters?”

“He favors our daughter more, so in his heart, our daughter must have a higher status.”

Mu Yazhe gave a helpless smile as he wiped his lips with his fingertips. He did not know how best to react to this.

The crowd was in an uproar.

Most men who came from wealthy families favored boys over girls. After all, for wealthy families, sons could carry on the family line, and daughters were not worth much.

Surprisingly, he favored his daughter more.

The host smiled and said, “Everyone says that a daughter is a father’s lover in his previous life!”

Yun Shishi gave a shy smile, however, Mu Yazhe continued, “In my heart, my wife is still the most important. All the happiness I have is because of her. I’m very lucky to have her in my life. She came into my life at the perfect time.”

Yun Shishi was slightly taken aback. She did not expect that the normally reserved man would make such a tender confession before so many people.

Chapter 3310: Sudden Changes (51)

With a smile, he slipped his arm across the back of her neck and planted a kiss on her forehead.

“Congratulations, my wife!”

Yun Shishi was so touched that she almost cried. She embraced him tightly, feeling both surprised and happy.

The crowd watched the couple intently as they left the stage hand in hand. Lin Zhi’s eyes were especially filled with jealousy!

However, although she was jealous, she had grown a lot more mature through time, and after having experienced certain things in life. She knew that no matter how reluctant she was, some people are just not meant for her!

After all, she understood that although Yun Shishi was weak, the man behind her was not someone to be trifled with, much less a docile person!

She was his counterbalance and his weakness.

Having learnt a lesson, she would not do anything foolish again.

Lin Zhi turned away and stopped looking at Yun Shishi.

As Yun Shishi returned to her seat, Yang Mi looked at her with tears in her eyes and hugged her passionately.

“Shishi, you’re so blessed! I wish you the best, too. Congratulations!”

“Thank you.”

Yun Shishi glanced at Yang Mi and Li Jiuxian and asked, "What about you two? Since you've announced your relationship, when do you plan to get married?"

Li Jiuxian smiled at her gratefully. He had heard from Yang Mi that it was Yun Shishi who had given her the courage to announce all of this at tonight's grand event.

He held Yang Mi's hand and smiled at her. "There's no hurry. After all, the relationship has just been announced. If we got married right away, the fans will be unprepared! Besides, I promised Mi Mi to give her a sacred wedding! No matter how big or small, we need to prepare seriously. We can't rush this!"

Yang Mi added, "Shishi, as soon as the wedding date is confirmed, I will send you a wedding invitation immediately. You must come."

"Sure."

Yun Shishi smiled mischievously. "I wonder if the bridal party still lacks people?"

Yang Mi was overwhelmed by the favor. Yun Shishi, being of her present status, was not someone she was in the position to invite as part of the bridal party. However, since Yun Shishi was the one who made the offer, she was naturally more than willing.

"Sure! As long as you're willing to come, of course!"

Yang Mi then asked Mu Yazhe, "Chairman Mu, will you be coming too?"

"If she goes, I'll be there of course."

"That would be such an honor!"

Yang Mi finally relaxed a little in front of Mu Yazhe.

After the National Drama Festival ended, many celebrities hurried off to take media interviews.

Exhausted, Yun Shishi rejected the interviews and took an overnight chartered flight back to the capital.

It was early in the morning when she arrived home at the capital. She was so tired after washing up that she fell asleep the moment her head touched the pillow!

Mu Yazhe could not bear to torture her further, seeing that she was exhausted, so he embraced her and went to sleep!

The next day, Mu Yazhe went to work as usual.

Yun Shishi only woke up in the afternoon. When she walked into the cloakroom, she found Youyou polishing the trophy she brought back yesterday. When he saw that she was awake, he smiled happily.

"Lazy Mommy, you're finally up?"

"Uh huh, woken up by hunger."

She rubbed her flat belly and asked pitifully, "Youyou, did you set aside any good food for mommy?"

"Of course I did! Anyone else can go hungry but Mommy."

“I’ve fed her and changed her diapers!” Youyou rebuked, “Little sister is sleeping now, Mommy. You’re not to interrupt her afternoon nap!”

“Got it!”

While Youyou was cooking noodles, Yun Shishi sneaked into the nursery to peek at Little Yueyao.
