

Sweet Love 3351

Chapter 3351: Sudden Changes (92)

There are two possibilities when a ship strikes a reef, either a soft pile-up or a hard pile up may take place.

In the former, the seabed may be soft clay, and in the latter, the ship may have run into a sharp reef with hard edges.

The edges of such reefs were often as sharp as knives. When a ship collides with such a reef in its course, it would be like being ripped by a knife. The body of the ship is often easily sliced open.

The fact that the waves were so turbulent meant that it was likely a huge reef.

The ship was traveling at a considerably high speed. A collision at this speed was extremely risky. When Little Yichen saw the ship come to a stop, he knew that the bottom must have been cut.

Once the hull was cut open, the impacted structures within could be torn apart, allowing water to enter.

If the hull became submerged in water, to a certain extent, it would cause the ship to capsize and sink...

Little Yichen looked at his brother nervously and said, "I'm not sure how serious the situation is, either, but I'm pretty sure that if the collision had resulted in water entering, the water will affect the electrical circuit. This means there may now be a big cut in the bottom of the ship. We have to find Mommy as soon as possible, then we have to locate the lifeboat and take Mommy away from this ship."

"You mean this cruise ship will sink at any time?"

"Not anytime soon. It can't sink right away, but..." Little Yichen continued solemnly and meaningfully, "we don't have much time left!"

Youyou nodded and grew nervous as well. He ran towards the cockpit.

Along the way, the hull kept shaking.

The banquet hall, which was brightly-lit before, was now in darkness. The band members stood up curiously. The music had come to a stop, and the sudden silence made everyone even more nervous.

The unexpected circuit malfunction had caused everyone to panic!

"Help!"

"Heavens, what is going on!? Did something happen?!"

In the banquet hall, the guests were screaming nervously. The scene was chaotic, with people screaming loudly till they were hoarse. This was accompanied by the sound of cutlery falling and dining ware shattering. Many people were rushing towards the door!

In moments of crisis, the selfish side of human nature is exposed.

People were clamoring over each other. They could not see anything clearly in the dark. The banquet hall was completely sealed off, so there was no light. They could not even see their own fingers.

People followed their instincts and swarmed towards the door like a bunch of frightened, headless flies.

In the squeeze, some women tripped and fell to the ground. They wondered if they had lost their balance because of the impact to the ship, but no one was willing to help them. Instead, they stepped on them and ran towards the door!

At this critical juncture, with their own lives on the line, people could hardly ensure their own safety, much less care about the lives of others!

Many women who were not strong enough to stand up to the stampede were trampled to death!

The people broke through the doors of the banquet hall and dashed towards the deck!

The crowd surged onto the deck.

Little Yichen and Youyou happened to pass by the banquet hall. When they saw people running towards the deck, Little Yichen immediately put his arm protectively around Youyou and called out, "Be careful!"

Youyou was drawn into his embrace. Immediately after, they saw a dense crowd of people running out of the banquet hall. At this point, the ship shook again and started to lean sideways.

The people who were at first running towards the deck suddenly felt the tilting. There was nothing to support them, so they lost their balance and stumbled towards the side.

Some of them were lucky. Despite their nervousness, they managed to grab hold of the railing in time to keep their balance.

Chapter 3352: Sudden Changes (93)

Some people were luckier than others. Although they were nervous, they managed to grab onto the railings in time. Some people panicked and were at a loss. They fell against the railings and were thrown into the sea.

"Ahhh!" Screams erupted from the crowd. Seeing people fall into the sea made the others even more nervous.

Little Yichen held his brother's hand tightly as they groped their way to a less crowded area.

The two young lads remained calm.

They all knew that in times like this, the most important thing was to remain calm. Even if they were to panic, it would not make things better.

The two little lads held hands tightly as they weaved through the crowd until the banquet hall was far behind them.

Many sailors were making their way towards the cockpit. As they got closer, Yun Shishi's voice suddenly rang out.

“Youyou! Little Yichen!”

Youyou was the first to hear it before Little Yichen did. Both of them stopped in their tracks and looked in the direction of the voice. They saw Yun Shishi running towards them and throwing her arms around them nervously. She looked at the boys from head to toe, and noted that they had varying degrees of injuries on their bodies.

There were some hints of bruises on Youyou’s face, and especially when she saw the bloodstains on Little Yichen’s abdomen, she sucked in her breath!

“Little Yichen, you’re hurt!”

Little Yichen reassured his mother, “Mommy, don’t worry. This blood isn’t mine!” He had lied to her so that she would not worry, especially at this moment.

Youyou asked strangely, “Mommy, why are you here? Little Yichen said that you’re in the cockpit...”

“I...”

As though suddenly struck by a thought, Little Yichen asked suspiciously, “Is the captain dead?”

“Mm... ummm.”

Yun Shishi nodded guiltily. “I stabbed him. I don’t know if I damaged his arteries, as he lost a lot of blood. He passed out and there were no vital signs... I shouldn’t have hit him so hard...”

“Was he trying to kill you?” Little Yichen’s eyes glinted dangerously.

“Yes...”

“If that’s the case, Mommy, don’t blame yourself. He deserves to die!”

After a pause, the boy continued, “I suspect that the ship has collided with a reef and that has ripped a huge hole in the bottom of the ship. It’s probably because water has gotten in that it has tilted. I’m worried that the ship will capsize soon...”

“Capsize...” Yun Shishi sucked in a deep breath of icy air.

Little Yichen said, “Let’s find a lifeboat and leave this place! Mommy, don’t be afraid. There’s still time. We’re still in time!”

“Where are the lifeboats?”

“They’re usually along the port and starboard. I didn’t see them on my way here. I’ll go to the stern immediately to take a look!”

“Okay!”

Yun Shishi nodded.

Youyou suddenly pulled Little Yichen back. The latter turned around in confusion and asked, “What’s the matter?”

“Well, then, would he locate the lifeboat in the stern, which is such a long way from the center?” The boy narrowed his eyes suspiciously.

Little Yichen was jolted awake by his words!

The lifeboat shouldn’t be far from the VIP hideout!

Little Yichen took Yun Shishi’s and Youyou’s hands. “Come, let’s go back this way!”

The three of them passed through the panicking crowd and came to the area near the VIP cabin. They saw Dietris walking towards the ship’s starboard, escorted by his subordinates.

These men must have freed him after they had left.

Chapter 3353: Sudden Changes (94)

The men must have freed him after they had left.

As if knowing that the cruise ship had encountered an accident and was about to sink, Dietris hysterically ordered his men to release the lifeboat.

He had been hit on the head by Youyou with a vase, so even though he had regained consciousness, he still looked like he was in a daze and rather confused.

At the sound of footsteps on the deck, Dietris turned. When he saw the twins, he stumbled and fell to the ground.

He seemed terrified by the sight of Little Yichen, and kept shrinking back as he pointed at the boy with trembling fingers. He yelled at the top of his voice, “Kill them! Don’t let them get away alive. Kill them...”

Youyou was taken aback. He realized that Dietris had gone completely mad. He probably knew that Little Yichen’s abilities were extraordinary, so he would resort to any means to kill him.

Still...

Little Yichen was now injured. His abdomen had been pierced by Dietris’ hidden weapon. If he had been safe and sound, it might not have been a problem to deal with the few remaining soldiers. But given his injuries now, it would have been dangerous if the enemy focused their attacks on the boy.

Little Yichen was not afraid at all. He stepped forward and shielded Youyou and Yun Shishi behind him. He said coldly, “If you dare to take a step forward, I swear that I’ll make sure you die without a complete corpse!”

Even if he had to risk his life, he would protect his mother and Youyou!

A few of Dietris’ subordinates were about to draw their daggers and rush forward, but when they heard this, they found themselves hesitating.

They did not have guns on them, but even if they did, they might not have dared to rush forward so recklessly.

If they had a gun, they would have been a little more confident.

However, they were unarmed, and had no chance of winning if they had to fight with their bare hands!

Among these people, one of them had experienced Little Yichen's terrifying skills!

It was hard to imagine that such a small child could possess such a powerful energy!

Even though the person standing in front of them was only an eight-year-old child, his gaze was stone cold and his presence was chilling. His entire body seemed to be bathed in blood. His aura was powerful and overbearing!

Even an adult warrior who had been through hundreds of battles would not have such a terrifying and powerful aura!

This aura was definitely not because of his extraordinary skills, but because of his strong desire to protect!

In his heart, there were people he wanted to protect. Therefore, even though he might appear weak, he could emit a terrifying energy in the blink of an eye!

"What are you waiting for!?" Dietris kicked one of his men. "Go! Go! Are you afraid of a child?! He's injured! I stabbed his abdomen!"

After a pause, Dietris gritted his teeth and said, "Focus on his injuries and attack these weakened areas!"

The subordinates exchanged glances before lunging at Mu Yichen hesitantly.

Little Yichen pushed Youyou away and told him, "Protect Mommy!"

Youyou nodded and took Yun Shishi's hand, leading her to the side for safety.

Yun Shishi was worried about Little Yichen. She was worried that he would get injured by these people who had surrounded him. Youyou held her back and said to her, "Mommy, don't get involved. Otherwise, you will definitely cause more trouble!"

"But... we can't just watch this..."

"I have an idea."

Chapter 3354: Sudden Changes (95)

"I have an idea."

After a pause, he added, "But Mommy, you have to promise me not to move around. Stay right here!"

"What are you going to do?"

"There's no time to explain. You'll know soon enough!"

With that, the boy turned to leave.

Fearful, Yun Shishi stood guard for some time.

Dietris' men rushed forward and surrounded Little Yichen. According to Dietris' instructions, the men zoomed in on Little Yichen's injuries and attacked him as Yun Shishi watched in horror.

Little Yichen was well aware of their despicable methods, so he took extra precautions.

Yun Shishi wanted to rush forward, but when she thought of Youyou's words earlier, she did not dare to do anything rash. She was afraid that she would become Little Yichen's burden and cause trouble for him.

She would not cause any harm if she only watched. She did not dare to act recklessly.

She stayed in her hidden corner. Out of the corner of her eye, she caught a glimpse of Dietris, leaning on his cane. He walked over to the side of the ship and appeared to be activating some kind of device, as if he were trying to lift the lifeboat.

When Little Yichen saw this, he was worried that Dietris would take advantage of the chaos and escape in the lifeboat. He broke one of the men's wrist and threw a machete in front of Yun Shishi. "Mommy, don't let him escape!"

"Uh huh!" Yun Shishi nodded and rushed over to grab the machete tightly in her hand. She held the machete tightly. Avoiding the center of the battlefield that had developed, she ran behind Dietris and swung the machete menacingly at him!

However, the man's reaction was quite quick. Hearing the sound behind him, he suddenly turned around, avoiding her attack in time.

However, because he was in such a sorry state, he fell to the ground all of a sudden. The lifeboat that was in the process of being lowered hung in midair.

Yun Shishi gripped the handle of the machete nervously. Before she could launch her next attack, Dietrich kicked her viciously in her knee!

There was a snapping sound, as if something had been dislocated. Yun Shishi groaned in pain. Caught off guard, she dropped onto one knee. When she saw that Dietris was about to pounce on her and dodge her machete, she subconsciously raised her hand and threw the weapon into the sea!

She would rather lose it than allow him to take it away from her!

She was not good at using a machete, so it would be easy for her to injure herself if she hung on to it!

However, what Dietris did not expect was that Yun Shishi had been professionally trained for a number of fighting scenes while working on the set of "Extreme Youth"!

Just as he was about to pounce on her like a hungry beast, she nimbly dodged and grabbed his arm. Following the momentum, she broke his arm. With a loud crack, the sound of breaking bones could be heard!

Ditris' voice was already hoarse from screaming and he was drenched in cold sweat because of the great pain he was in. He did not make a single sound. With a ferocious look, he looked backward as Yun Shishi punched his eyes!

She was wearing a ring on her finger, and this was a priceless jewel that she had been prepared to auction off.

A one-carat diamond ring. Unparalleled hardness. It pierced his eyes immediately!

Dietris twitched in pain and broke away from her. He covered his eyes and rolled on the ground!

She struggled to stand up and nimbly tore off a large portion of her skirt. While he was unable to retaliate, she grabbed his hands and tied them tightly behind his back!

When Yun Shishi stood up and turned around, she saw that Little Yichen was gradually losing his strength. The fatigue on his face was apparent.

Chapter 3355: Sudden Changes (96)

When Yun Shishi stood up and turned around, she saw that Little Yichen was gradually losing his strength. The fatigue on his face was apparent.

"Yichen!" In her anxiety, she was on the verge of dashing over when she suddenly heard rumbling footsteps from the deck nearby. It was as if a large group of people was running towards her!

Everyone nervously stopped what they were doing and looked in the direction of the rumbling. They saw Youyou running to the front with a dense crowd behind him. He shouted at the top of his voice, "Mommy, quickly release the lifeboat! Hurry!"

When Little Yichen heard this, he hurried over to help with the lifeboat.

She finally understood what Youyou was up to.

He must have been worried that Little Yichen would not be able to hold up against these men, so he had run to the banquet hall and told the bewildered guests that they could leave in a lifeboat.

These people were anxious to escape, so they followed Youyou.

The footsteps from the crowd caused the entire deck to shake.

And now, the situation was getting more chaotic.

In addition, no one stood out to give orders. Everyone was selfishly trying to survive, hoping to get lucky. Thus, they did not care about what they had to do to win. This added to the chaos.

Yun Shishi also tried her best to find the mechanism, but no matter how fast she moved, she could not stop those crazy people.

Very quickly, the crowd closed in, and the sea of people swarmed around Youyou and Little Yichen, obscuring them!

Gritting her teeth, Yun Shishi turned around and rushed into the crowd. Seeing that Little Yichen had been pushed to the ground, she was worried that he would be injured. Without thinking, she threw herself on top of him and used her body to shield him from being trampled by the crowd.

Seeing Yun Shishi protecting Little Yichen, Youyou's heart ached for her. He threw himself on her back, clinging on to her tightly and protected her from the crowd, refusing to let go!

Creak—

Because the crowd had all rushed towards the bow of the ship, most of the weight was now centered on this area. In an instant, the cruise ship tilted in a certain direction, causing the ship to crack in the middle!

Many people were caught off guard by this tilting, and fell into the sea. Some of them hit their heads hard against the railing and fell into the sea, causing blood to splatter everywhere.

Yun Shishi hugged Mu Yichen tightly while Youyou clung onto her. The mother-and-sons trio curled up in a corner, relying on Yun Shishi alone to cling tightly to the railing and keep them in balance.

At this moment, the sound of propellers suddenly came from overhead.

Da da da—

The dark night sky was instantly illuminated by the light from the helicopter. In an instant, it was as bright as day.

Everyone looked towards the sky.

The door of the helicopter opened and a ladder was thrown down. A few heavily armed mercenaries jumped off the ladder and landed on the deck. They raised their submachine guns.

The muzzle flashed as shots rang out.

In the blink of an eye, a bloody path was formed.

Yun Shishi did not know where these mercenaries came from. Seeing that they had killed so many people, she thought that they were Dietris' men. She immediately tightened her arms around Little Yichen as her eyes filled with fear.

However, when Youyou saw the logo on their uniforms, a calm smile appeared on his face. He suddenly stood up and started to walk towards them.

She tugged at him nervously. "Youyou, what... what are you doing?"

"Mommy, don't be afraid."

Youyou smiled and reassured her gently. "It's alright now. They're all my subordinates."

What...

Yun Shishi was stunned. She looked at the row of soldiers behind Youyou and her mind went blank.

Chapter 3356: Sudden Changes (97)

Yun Shishi was stunned. She looked at the row of soldiers behind Youyou and her mind went blank.

Subordinates!?

Youyou turned around and faced them. The smile on his face faded as he coldly asked, "What took you so long?!"

The three soldiers immediately got down on one knee. They were much taller than Youyou, yet these hulking mercenaries actually lowered themselves to kneel before a child.

The leader said in a quiet voice, "Sorry, Sir! We're late!"

Their appearance alone brought some order to the chaotic scene.

When the people saw the mercenaries, they didn't dare act recklessly anymore. Instead, they retreated successively as they were deeply afraid of infuriating these men and ending up like the numerous icy cold corpses around them.

The helicopter slowly descended and the crowd moved aside to make way. The large helicopter landed steadily on the deck.

The propeller slowly stopped.

Mu Yazhe's figure suddenly emerged from the aircraft hatch. The moment he leaped off the aircraft and planted his feet on firm ground his gaze found her. He furrowed his brow as he quickly walked over.

As soon as Yun Shishi saw him, she held back all her grievances and forced a smile. He walked over to her and half knelt on the ground, holding her shoulders tightly as he looked her up and down.

Worried that he would misunderstand that she was seriously injured, she quickly clarified, "This is not my blood!"

Mu Yazhe clearly did not believe her until he roughly checked and confirmed that the blood was not hers. Only then did he relax a little.

In Yun Shishi's arms, Little Yichen's body was slightly curled up. Following his earlier violent movements, the wound on his abdomen had torn open slightly again, and his blood had left stains all over her.

Little Yichen was clearly very badly injured. In his dazed state, his eyelids were heavy. When he heard Mu Yazhe's voice, he was finally relieved. In a flash, he passed out.

Youyou hurriedly said, "Daddy, we can't stay here for too long. The cruise ship has hit a reef and the hull has ruptured. It's going to sink soon!"

Mu Yazhe frowned slightly. Youyou added, "Little Yichen's abdomen is injured. Daddy, he lost too much blood and needs surgery immediately!"

"I understand."

Mu Yazhe took Little Yichen, who was in Yun Shishi's arms, stood up, and walked towards the hatch.

Turning around, he saw that Youyou did not follow him. Mu Yazhe was puzzled and told the boy, "Youyou, get on the plane as soon as possible."

"Daddy, how many mercenaries did you bring?"

"Three."

"This helicopter carries a maximum of 5 people."

The boy calmly said, "We have to immediately assign a mercenary to protect the party comprising the pilot, you, Little Yichen and Mommy. There's no room for anyone else."

"We'll get the mercenaries to stay!" He said to the boy, "Get on the plane."

"Absolutely not." From the corner of his eye, Youyou glanced at Dietris, who had fainted on the deck. His eyes suddenly turned cold and dark. "We can ignore the others, but this old fellow must be taken away. I have score to settle with him."

The boy wasn't convinced. Dietris was old and cunning. He had to watch over him.

Evacuating the members of the group separately would better ensure safety.

Naturally, Mu Yazhe would not agree to leave the boy behind. "No!"

"Daddy, listen to me. Take Little Yichen and Mommy and leave this place as soon as possible. Uncle's ship has a medical team. As for me, send two mercenaries to protect me. There will be a helicopter coming to pick us up very soon. Don't worry."

Chapter 3357: Sudden Changes (98)

Mu Yazhe finally relented.

Smiling, Youyou stepped forward and stuffed a purple crystal into Little Yichen's clenched fist.

Many of the amethysts had fallen onto the ground and scattered around during the rush of the crowd. However, he held them tightly and had two left. This was a gift from Little Yichen. Now, it was given back to him as a protective lucky charm.

Youyou was really worried about Little Yichen, so it was his hope that Mu Yazhe would quickly take the boy away to be treated.

Yun Shishi said, "Youyou, I'll stay here with you!"

"Mommy, be good and do as I say. I'll be fine! If you stay, you'll only cause more trouble! After all, protecting two people is more troublesome than protecting one."

As he spoke, he took a few steps back and waved his hand.

Mu Yazhe slipped his arm around Yun Shishi's shoulders and led her onto the helicopter. When the people on the deck saw this, they mustered up their courage and started walking towards the helicopter, with great hopes that this would be their lifeline.

A few mercenaries stepped forward and shielded Youyou. They raised their submachine guns and fired at the deck. Everyone retreated in shock and could only watch as the helicopter slowly rose and left.

The boy heaved a sigh of relief, then turned around and started to search on the floor.

When the mercenary behind him saw this, he walked forward and asked curiously, "Sir, what are you looking for? Let me help you."

"That's alright! You won't be able to find it! You don't know what I'm looking for either. I look for it myself."

As Youyou said this, he lowered himself to the ground and started searching carefully.

Those words that he had uttered to the others just then were pompous excuses. His only reason for staying behind was to find the remaining amethysts. He had to find them as soon as possible.

He turned around and searched the deck for a while. Finally, he found a few purple crystals scattered on the ground. He held them tightly in his palm like they were precious treasures.

Great!

He had finally found them!

Once he returned home, he'd string them together to make a bracelet again. It had to be sturdy. He would lovingly treasure it, and would not lose it again!

In the distance, another helicopter flew over and landed on the deck.

The people on the deck were filled with hope, but they did not dare to step forward, as they feared the two mercenaries beside Youyou.

They were well-built and looked well-trained. Besides, they were armed with guns. If not for the loaded firearms, perhaps these people would have surged onto the life-saving helicopter.

Another mercenary alighted from the helicopter. Youyou instructed him to take Dietris onboard. He planned to bring the man back to the Hurricane headquarters and settle the score there.

Just as he was about to board the aircraft and leave, a blond woman with blue eyes walked over with a three-year-old girl in her arms. She begged, "This cruise ship will probably sink soon! Only a small number of people can board the lifeboat! There aren't many lifeboats. I know I won't have a chance to live! But please, will you take my daughter with you?! She's only three!"

Youyou could not help feeling a little sympathetic when he heard this.

The girl in his arms had no idea what was happening. With her big, glistening eyes wide open, she continued to suck on her little thumb innocently.

Youyou looked at her and his heart inexplicably softened.

The fact was that he had no intention of saving anyone on this ship.

Most of the people who came on this cruise were rich and influential people. They took advantage of their wealth to indulge in perverse pleasures.

Some of them had lost their conscience and were not worth saving.

Chapter 3358: Sudden Changes (99)

Some of them had lost their conscience and were not worth saving.

However, facing this innocent child, Youyou somehow thought of his mother. If it were his mother, she would probably sacrifice herself to protect the baby!

At this thought, his heart softened further.

The woman continued to plead, "Please! The child is innocent!"

Youyou was silent for a long time, as if he was considering. Finally, he said plainly, "Bring the girl on board!"

The woman's eyes lit up, and she immediately carried the little girl to them, thanking them profusely.

Youyou boarded the aircraft while the mercenary escorted Dietris to the cabin. Only then did he realize that the man had a suitcase with him.

Even at a time that he was running for his life, this man did not forget to take the money with him.

The helicopter started up. The propeller stirred up waves and slowly rose into the air.

It was only when they were up in the air looking down at the cruise ship, that Youyou realized the ship had already broken apart in the middle.

Just as Little Yichen had said, this cruise ship had run itself into a reef. The belly of the ship had been split open by, possibly, very hard rocks and there must have been a huge hole in the bottom of the ship.

A steady stream of seawater would have poured in through the opening, the two floors below were probably submerged in seawater.

The ship was very long, and its buoyancy was affected. It gradually sank, and in the middle, due to the uneven spread of load, it began to break apart.

Youyou sat on the cruise ship with a lingering fear. He did not dare to imagine the consequences of his uncle's men not arriving in time. In due course, the cruise ship would completely sink to the bottom of the sea.

But this was definitely not the most terrifying thing.

The most terrifying of all was the despairing crowd on the ship.

In the face of death, the selfish instinct of human nature was made evident!

Perhaps they would be trampled to death by those crazy people, even before the cruise ship went underwater.

Youyou heaved a sigh of relief, but before he could completely relax, he heard a man's sinister laughter coming from behind him.

"Hehehe!"

Startled, Youyou turned around to look at Dietris, only to see that he had woken up!

If he hadn't been confident that the man was tightly bound and secured, he would have been very nervous.

However, the man was clearly the more disadvantaged one now. How could he still smile?

Youyou questioned him coldly, "What are you laughing at?"

Dietris smiled, revealing his sinister teeth. "I'm laughing at your naivety! What, do you really think you're safe now?"

Naivety!

Who was the naive one?

Youyou snorted expressionlessly, unwilling to engage with him.

However, Dietris continued to probe, "Why didn't you keep me on the cruise ship? I don't believe for a moment that you'd be so kind as to really rescue me! So please don't even suggest that you didn't want me to die!"

To this, Youyou replied, "I let you live because we still have a score to settle!"

"Score to settle?!?"

"Oh," said Dietris curiously. "What score are you looking to settle?"

"Mommy's score, Little Yichen's score, and the score between you and me! We have to settle all these!"

"Very well, I also have a score to settle with you! However, I'm afraid that we may not have the chance to do this!"

"What do you mean..."

Before the boy could finish speaking, he saw Dietris' mouth moving. His eyes widened in confusion, but then he saw Dietris grin slightly as something dark appeared between his lips.

It looked like a piece of plastic, although it was not just a simple piece of plastic!

Chapter 3359: Sudden Changes (100)

It looked like a piece of plastic, although it was not just a simple piece of plastic!

This object in his mouth appeared to be something that had been there in the first place, possibly, embedded between his teeth.

Youyou took a closer look and realized that it was a mini mechanism.

Instinctively, he raised his hand to protect his eyes, but this thing didn't seem to be the concealed weapon that he was expecting. Dietris bit onto this thing and pumped it. Then there was a long, drawn-out "beep—"

Electronic beeping sounds could now be heard coming from him.

"What's that sound!?"

Youyou ordered, "Go take a look! Something on him is beeping!"

"Roger!" The mercenary walked forward. Dietris looked at him covetously, but the corner of his mouth was curved in a proud and cold-blooded manner, as if he was determined to win!

"Behave yourself!" The man gave him a punch, and the huge inertia caused the thing in his mouth to fall to the ground. He picked it up and examined it. His eyes widened in shock, and he suddenly kicked Dietris onto the ground. He lifted his clothes, and as expected, a mini box attached around his waist was seen.

He opened the box and a small time bomb was revealed!

The timer for the bomb had already begun. The 60-second countdown was imminent!

Youyou also saw the bomb on him. The boy stood up abruptly and walked to Dietris' side. His eyes widened in shock!

"You!"

"Ha ha ha!"

Dietris laughed crazily. He knew that he was going to die!

Even if Youyou spared his life, the boy would make his life so miserable he'd be better off dead!

He had already expected such an outcome. Hence, the bomb was his final way out!

Dietris opened his mouth and laughed arrogantly. "Hahaha! Since I'll die sooner or later, instead of dying in your hands, why not have you accompany me to hell?"

Youyou gritted his teeth in fury.

The mercenary squatted down to study the bomb, but Dietris appeared calm and said coldly, "I advise you not to move. Once this bomb is activated, it will only be a matter of time before it explodes! You don't have to waste time! Die with me!"

"Dream on!" Youyou immediately ordered, "Open the hatch and throw him into the sea!"

The mercenary nodded and squatted down to remove the chains that bound him.

To keep him secured, Youyou had ordered his men to tie him to a rack when they got onto the helicopter. The chains were heavy and it would take some effort to untie him!

Dietris smiled smugly and remarked, "You're too smart for your own good. By the time you undo the chain and throw me into the sea, you won't be able to escape death either!"

“Shut up!”

“Don’t underestimate the power of this small bomb. It’s power is an eye-opener!”

Gritting his teeth, Youyou grabbed his collar and glared at him. “Don’t even think about getting your way!”

The boy made a prompt decision. He knew that if he spent all his time on unlocking the chain, they’d really be buried together with Dietris!

The mercenary opened the hatch and looked out over the sea. He turned around and exchanged glances with the boy.

He nimbly placed an oxygen mask on the boy’s face and drew the child towards himself.

Youyou immediately understood what he wanted to do. “Are you crazy?!”

“Sir, I’m very sober!”

“You have to be clear. Jumping off from this height is like falling from a building of more than ten stories!”

Chapter 3360: Nirvana (1)

“You have to be clear. Jumping off from this height is like falling from a building of more than ten stories!”

“Trust me.” The mercenary carried the child to the cabin door and hugged him tightly.

The other two mercenaries also came up to them. The pilot activated the forced landing program and walked to the cabin door.

...

Mu Yazhe walked to the stern of the ship and raised his head to look into the distance. In the air, the helicopter was slowly approaching and could be seen with the naked eye. In a few minutes, it would land.

Yun Shishi and Little Yichen had been sent to the medical team on the ship. Mu Yazhe was only concerned about Youyou, so he had gone to the helipad to wait for him.

Gong Jie was looking through his binoculars when he suddenly spotted something odd. His eyes widened in shock!

“What’s going on?”

Hearing his words, Mu Yazhe, who was initially calm, immediately became nervous. He snatched the binoculars from Gong Jie and saw that the hatch of the helicopter was opened. A few mercenaries were standing in an orderly manner at the hatchway of the aircraft. The biting cold wind was strong, and one of them was hugging a child tightly. At a glance, one could tell that the man was carrying Youyou!

However, the strange thing was that they looked like they were about to jump off the helicopter!

Before Mu Yazhe found time to think, he saw four people jumping off the aircraft, one after another. Their bodies were like feathers as they drifted towards the water surface!

“What’s going on?!”

Gong Jie saw this scene as well. He rushed to the raiguard nervously and gripped the handrail. However, there was a loud “boom”. The sound reached them before they saw the helicopter blow up!

A curtain of fire seemed to have been violently released into the night sky!

Even though they were far away, they could feel the waves from the explosion almost spreading over!

The deck began to vibrate, and the explosion caused huge waves on the surface of the sea as the ship rocked slightly.

Gong Jie was frightened out of his wits as his breathing turned dead silent!

Mu Yazhe clenched his fists tightly as his gaze followed the figures that were falling towards the sea. His heart stopped!

It was as if an explosion had occurred in the cabin. The entire body of the aircraft shook, and the propeller blades broke into pieces along with the explosion.

In an instant, it was as if the end of the world had arrived. The entire world became dark and gloomy, as if the earth and the mountains were shaking.

In the midst of the intense fire, a fiery ball instantly caused the helicopter to disintegrate into ruins. Black debris continued to fall into the sea!

Mu Yazhe’s eyes instantly turned bloodshot. “Youyou!!”

Gong Jie was so shocked that his throat seemed constricted; he could not make a single sound!

No...

No!!

...

Youyou was held tightly against the chest of the man. His large palm protected the back of the boy’s head and the child’s face was buried in his chest. His huge body formed a bundle that wrapped around the boy!

He could feel that the two of them were like a straight parabola, like a sharp needle, cutting through the air and plunging towards the calm sea!

Debris from the fire continued to fall, and the broken pieces of the propellers smashed onto the man’s back. There was a sudden movement, it seemed the sound of a spine breaking was heard. He immediately closed his eyes nervously and fell into endless despair!

Splash!

The four of them fell into the sea one after another. Other than the pilot who was protected by his helmet, one of the men did not do anything to protect himself. His head hit the surface of the sea and his skull shattered. His body drifted lightly into the dark abyss!
