

Sweet Love 3681

Chapter 3681 A New Addition (297)

Lisa shook her head. "We won't."

The corpses of the pirates had not been all thrown into the sea. One of them had been left hanging from the railing to serve as a warning to other pirates. If they dared to get in the way, they would definitely die.

Just as Little Yichen was feeling somewhat lost, he suddenly heard a sound. Upon hearing this sound, Lisa sat up and threw herself in front of the screen. She took a look and exclaimed in surprise, "Someone responded to my radio message! There's a ship nearby!"

Inle

"Did you send a radio message earlier on to seek help?"

"Uh huh."

"However, with our fuel reserves, as well as food and drinking water, we should have enough until we reach our destination."

Lisa turned around and suddenly asked in return, "Then, have you ever considered whether there would be sufficient emergency equipment on such a small yacht like ours, if we encountered a storm at sea?"

Little Yichen was stumped.

"Moreover, there are only two of us, so our abilities are limited. Even though we have sufficient fuel and food and water reserves, we may run out of fuel very quickly, if we were to encounter another storm. Furthermore, the speed of the yacht is limited."

The boy nodded. "Okay, I understand. I'll do whatever you say."

"Uh huh." Lisa immediately sent a distress signal to the passing ship.

vere

The other party replied that they were willing to help.

Feeling much more confident, Lisa determined the location of the radar before steering the yacht closer to the ship. For the past few hours, they had been on high alert and did not relax at all. Hence, they were now feeling rather exhausted. This was especially so for Mu Yichen.

Lisa immediately urged, "Go and take a nap. I'll keep watch."

He asked worriedly, "Aren't you tired?"

"I'm tired, but I can hold on." Lisa smiled. "Don't worry, I can handle it. You, on the other hand, should hurry and get some rest. Who knows, I might need you to take over sooner than you think."

"Okay."

Little Yichen did not waste any time. However, he did not return to his room. Instead, he lay down in the cockpit with his back against the wall, curled up and fell asleep quickly.

When the boy woke up again, it was from Lisa's rough shaking.

"Mu Yichen, wake up!"

He opened his eyes in a daze and saw Lisa's nervous expression. "What's the matter?"

He sat up warily, thinking that something terrible had happened.

Lisa said to him, "Do you remember the ship we sent the distress signal to?"

"Uh huh?"

"Right now, it's about a kilometer away from us. However..." She hesitated, looking a little worried. Her cold expression made him anxious as well.

He asked, "What's wrong?! Is there a problem?"

"That's... the Gu family's cargo ship."

"..." Little Yichen was stunned!

There was no bad blood between the Mu family and the Gu family. Except where Lisa was concerned. Previously, her underlings had killed all the men that Gu Jinglian had brought to North Africa. Now, they were enemies meeting on a narrow path! At this thought, she became a little afraid to board the ship!

Mu Yichen took the binoculars from her and glanced in the direction she indicated. Sure enough, it was a giant freighter. The ship's bow bore a huge 'Wirth' logo. It was the Gu family's factory in North Africa.

Little Yichen hesitated as well.

Chapter 3682 A New Addition (298)

"There's no room for hesitation!" Mu Yichen said, "Although Gu Jinglian is ruthless, he will never take it out on children."

She was skeptical. "Are you sure?!"

He patted his chest and promised, "Yes! I'm sure!"

He still believed in Gu Jinglian's character and that he would definitely not make things difficult for two children.

Half an hour later, Lisa regretted it.

The moment Gu Jinglian saw Mu Yichen and Lisa, he ordered his subordinates to handcuff them and tie them to the pillar. Gu Jinglian stood in front of them and swept his cold gaze over them inch by inch as if he was slicing them into pieces.

Lisa asked grumpily, "Didn't you say that Gu Jinglian wouldn't do anything to children?" Mu Yichen twitched his lips in embarrassment.

Gu Jinglian was wearing a black uniform. Upon hearing Lisa's words, he calmly squatted down and sized them up expressionlessly. "Oh? Who said that I won't make things difficult for children?"

As soon as he said that, he suddenly raised his wrist and aimed a Desert Eagle at Mu Yichen's forehead.

"Gong Fan, the tables have turned. I didn't expect you to fall into my hands."

Mu Yichen shuddered at those words. He quickly said, "Master Gu, you've misunderstood. My name is Mu Yichen, not Youyou."

When Gu Jinglian heard this, he raised his eyebrows but did not think much of it. "What makes you think that I will believe you?"

"Youyou and I are twins. The two of us look alike, but there's definitely a difference. For example, I'm taller, more skilled, and smarter. Youyou is a little dumber, has a weird temper, and a little more annoying."

"..." Lisa rolled her eyes at Mu Yichen. This guy was not the least guilt-stricken selling his brother out during a critical time!

What a scam!

Brother-cheating demon.

Mu Yichen seemed to have guessed what she was thinking. He turned around and snapped, "That's right! Why should I have to repay a debt incurred by Youyou?!"

Gu Jinglian felt that this little fellow was rather interesting. It wasn't as though he was going to kill the two children. Just as Mu Yichen had said, no matter how ruthless he was, he would never take it out on the two children. That was not his style.

However, with the Hurricane Group wreaking havoc in North Africa, this debt cannot be forgiven. Furthermore... Gu Jinglian had really taken Mu Yichen to be Yun Tianyou, so he wanted to tease him.

Seeing Gu Jinglian's icy gaze on him, Mu Yichen immediately said, "Master Gu, are you sure you want to kill us? My daddy is not to be trifled with! If you dare to lay a hand on me and something happens to me, my daddy will definitely be very angry! My mommy will also fight it out with you!" Gu Jinglian was as cold as his icy good looks. However, he asked, "You said you're a good fighter? Let's have a match then. If you're really that good as you've made yourself out to be, I'll let you off and take you safely home. How about that?"

"A match with you?"

Gu Jinglian smiled elegantly. "I don't fight though."

Little Yichen was speechless for a moment.

Lisa was compelled to ask, "Then whom are we fighting?"

Gu Jinglian stood up and snapped his fingers and commanded, "Han Ji."

With that, a bald, tall, and burly man slowly walked over until he was right in front of Little Yichen. The latter raised his head to take a look. From what he could see, this burly fellow was at least 1.95 meters tall!

Chapter 3683 A New Addition (299)

Little Yichen swallowed hard. Honestly, if he had to fight with such a big guy, would his head just shatter from a punch?

Gu Jinglian smirked. "If you admit defeat, I'll throw you straight into the sea."

Lisa immediately said, "I'll fight him!"

Gu Jinglian laughed. "That's considered admitting defeat too, if you're the one fighting." He knew Lisa's capabilities. Even though she was tiny, she had a winning advantage even if she were to come up against Han Ji.

As for Mu Yichen...

He had long heard that among Mu Yazhe's two sons, the eldest was especially skilled. He was interested to experience it for himself. Pausing for a moment, he turned to look at Mu Yichen and said meaningfully, "As a man, you won't let your girl step in, isn't that so?!"

Upon hearing this, Lisa's face turned red and she stuttered, "Wh... what are you talking about?! Who... Who's his girl?!"

Little Yichen said disdainfully, "Do you think I'm afraid? Untie me, I'll fight him!"

When Gu Jinglian heard him say that, he could not help looking at the boy in a different light! He signaled with his eyes, and his subordinate immediately walked over to untie Mu Yichen. The boy got onto his feet, exercised his wrists and restraints, and got into his stance.

Lisa said worriedly as she looked on, "Mu Yichen, don't force yourself."

"It's fine, don't worry." Mu Yichen snorted. Turning to look at Han Ji, he hooked his finger at him provocatively. "Come on then!"

Han Ji rubbed his fists and clenched them. His sandbag-sized fists immediately produced crisp and powerful sounds! Little Yichen, on the other hand, was not afraid at all. He got into a fighting stance.

Gu Jinglian retreated to the side with a cigarette stuck between his lips and watched the battle coldly.

"Ha!" With a shout, Han Ji raised his fist and lunged towards Mu Yichen! His 1.95-meter frame was like a mountain! Little Yichen dodged nimbly. Like a ghost, he flashed behind him, jumped up, and kicked his soft spot!

Han Ji had his back facing the boy, but he reached behind to grip the boy's legs tightly. Little Yichen was shocked and wanted to break free, but he did not have the chance. In a flash, he sprang up and swept his other leg towards the door like a whirlwind!

Bam!

Being kicked by Little Yichen, Han Ji stumbled several meters backwards. Little Yichen landed nimbly on the ground, but his left knee went soft. He immediately realized that his ankle was cramping because Han Ji's grip was too strong! Without sufficient warming up, it was indeed a little difficult to fight head-on.

Han Ji was also pushed back several meters! He did not expect that the kid, who was only as tall as his waist, would have such explosive strength in his legs. His chin was almost dislocated! Han Ji spat out a mouthful of blood, his teeth had obviously loosened. He wiped away the traces on the corner of his lips and got into his stance again!

"You're rather skilled too!" His words were undoubtedly a provocation!

Han Ji smirked and provoked him back, "You've got a move or two, kiddo!"

Little Yichen, however, refused to be modest and said coldly, "Hur! It's not too late for you to admit defeat now!"

Han Ji retorted, "Admit defeat?! That's not my style! Unless you knock me down, there's no such thing as admitting defeat!"

Chapter 3684 A New Addition (300)

As Han Ji spoke, he clenched his fists and glared at Little Yichen. His eyes were like a venomous snake's as they bored into him! The boy brushed the tip of his nose lightly and then rushed towards him.

The two of them exchanged blows. This fist was not to be trifled with!

It delivered a solid punch!

The punch landed on the wall, causing it to crack and the pulverized cement to fly!

However, what was shocking was that not only did Little Yichen not show any signs of weakness, on the contrary he seemed to get braver as the battle progressed! He kept throwing punches, each strike aimed at the man's vital points! Compared to Han Ji, although he was slightly thinner, he was supremely agile, like a cat!

Gradually, Mu Yichen came to understand. There was no need to get too fancy and complicated when it came to fighting Han Ji. Hence, he abandoned his horizontal kicks, flying kicks, and high kicks. Be it punching or kicking, he relied on brute force!

Little Yichen's strength far exceeded Han Ji's expectations! He never expected a child to be so capable! Han Ji was no softie either and threw a punch at Little Yichen's shoulder! Little Yichen did not dodge. Instead, he clenched his fist and met Han Ji's fist head-on!

The two recoiled from the clash. Yichen and Han Ji took a few steps back, their expressions showing the agony they were in.

In that instant, Lisa's heart skipped a beat. She looked nervously at Little Yichen, only to see that his knuckles were slightly red. However, when she looked at Han Ji's hand, she saw that he had probably fractured a few bones.

The girl was shocked!

Han Ji's fist was now swollen like a steamed bun! Unexpectedly, Little Yichen met this oncoming punch and returned it by fracturing the man's bones?!

Lisa suddenly felt that Little Yichen's ability was too terrifying! It was an ability that he kept hidden! Perhaps, in terms of technique, she barely surpassed Little Yichen, but in terms of strength, he was far superior!

Han Ji's fighting techniques were not too complicated, but his punches and kicks were very solid! However, Han Ji, and even Gu Jinglian, did not expect Little Yichen to possess such power in such a small body! It was unbelievable.

Han Ji's hand was injured and a few bones were broken. However, he did not think much of it. He stood up and was about to continue fighting when Gu Jinglian suddenly said, "Stand down!"

"Master Gu..." Han Ji nervously looked at Gu Jinglian, only to see him appraising Mu Yichen with an appreciative gaze. He immediately emphasized, "I haven't lost yet!"

Losing to a child was simply too great a humiliation! Han Ji refused to admit that he had been defeated by Little Yichen.

Gu Jinglian said icily, "Going by the rules, you've already lost."

Being injured meant he had lost. Besides, Little Yichen was still a child. Gu Jinglian was well aware of this disparity. If he did not stop them, Han Ji would definitely be crippled by Little Yichen.

Anyhow.

That was the end of the duel. Gu Jinglian walked up to Mu Yichen and smiled. "Mu Yichen, you're a real eye opener."

Little Yichen looked up at him and asked curiously, "Did I win?"

"Yes, you won."

"Then... since I've won, you can't go back on your promise!"

The man replied disdainfully, "I've never gone back on my words."

With that, he turned around and gave an order. Han Ji immediately walked over and cut Lisa loose from the ropes that bound her.

At the same time, he removed the handcuffs.

Once her hands regained their freedom, Lisa immediately went over to Little Yichen and asked worriedly, "Are you alright?!"

"I..." The boy looked at Lisa and saw that she was trying to look calm. However she couldn't hide the nervousness in her eyes. His heart warmed and he smiled immediately. "Yes, I'm fine."

She was worried about him. He did not expect that the usually cold and distant Lisa would take the initiative to show concern for someone.

"That big guy fought so ferociously. Are you sure you're okay?" Lisa could not believe it. Han Ji had punched him so many times. Did it not hurt him at all?

She saw Han Ji punch Little Yichen's back and abdomen several times. Even if it was a steel plate, she'd be worried about him breaking it, let alone a human body. Little Yichen was, after all, a human being. Lisa was rather doubtful that he was really fine!

"I'm really fine. Don't worry, I won't put up a strong front." The little fellow smiled warmly.

Lisa was skeptical nevertheless. "Even if your bones weren't broken and your organs weren't damaged, I don't believe that you've suffered no bruises at all!"

Yichen calmly lifted the hem of his shirt, revealing his muscular abdomen.

The girl took a look and was surprised to find that there were indeed no bruises at all!

Too... Too amazing!

Lisa was shocked. "How could this be?" "I used to learn Chinese martial arts."

Ancient martial arts is also known as Chinese martial arts. Chinese martial arts is simply an old form of address for martial arts, in the past.

But now, from a traditional perspective, Chinese martial arts and martial arts are very different. Martial arts practitioners do it to strengthen their bodies and maintain good health; Chinese martial arts practitioners do it to protect their homes and their country.

Chinese martial arts is used for killing enemies and not for performance. For example, the Taiji set of movements was one of the Chinese martial arts. However, nowadays Taiji is viewed to be a skill that can be practiced by the general population, and that besides a strengthening function, it's useless. Nowadays, the Taiji set of movements seem to have become a form of performance. However, the Taiji set of movements in Chinese martial arts did not comprise so many strange and mysterious moves. The moves were fast, accurate, and ruthless. It was meant to kill someone in just one move and in an instant, it was definitely not designed to give a second chance. The strength he had in his limbs were trained from practicing the basic horse stance. This horse stance was the foundation of many sects, and largely similar, save minute differences between each.

There are two objectives when practicing the horse stance. One is to train one's leg strength, and the other is to train one's internal energy, which is also known as Qi Gathering.

Therefore, even though the horse stance look simple, it is a foundation skill in martial arts. In Chinese martial arts, there is a saying: "As a novice you have to stand for three years". If you practice your fist and not your martial arts, you grow old without achieving a solid foundation. All you have will be a bunch of fancy moves. Little Yichen became a disciple at the age of three and practiced the horse stance every day. At first, he found it boring and found the horse stance too simple.

However, the horse stance got harder by the day.

Later, when Little Yichen was in the horse stance, his master placed a pot of burning coals under his crotch as if it was some sort of amusement. Following that, he hung a stone on each of the boy's arms!

As long as he moved, his clothes would catch fire.

Little Yichen had never cried before, but during that period of practising horse stance, he was tortured to tears every time.

Chapter 3686 A New Addition (302)

Little Yichen was required to endure and persist in a horse stance for the time it took for an incense stick to burn out.

An incense stick?!

He was required to maintain that position for the time it took to burn out an incense stick?!

A bitter expression appeared on his face. Would he still be alive at the end of it all?!

Furthermore, there was another rule. The stones were not to touch the ground. If they did, another incense stick would be burnt so that he had to start all over again. The stone was only a finger's distance away from the ground, and it would collide with the ground at the slightest carelessness. As a result, Little Yichen spent a total of four incense sticks' worth of time on the first day and could barely walk that night.

With this kind of training and Little Yichen's extraordinary talent, although he was not tall, he was extremely strong!

Mu Yazhe sometimes suspected that his son had some unearthly strength. If they were to go out on a drive and the car malfunctioned, this fellow would probably be able to lift the car up with his bare hands without using a jack!

Lisa was so stunned that she could not close her mouth. Still, despite what Little Yichen said, she was worried. She swept his hand away and reached out to touch the bone in his abdomen.

These places had been struck by Han Ji earlier on. She felt around to confirm that the punches did not hurt his organs or bones.

Fortunately they didn't.

Little Yichen was so embarrassed by her touch that he took a few steps back. He looked at her with a flushed face. "You... why are you touching me?"

Seeing that he was blushing, Lisa explained, "I'm just trying to ensure that you're alright." His face grew even redder. He said awkwardly, "You should be more worried if he has broken his hand when he punched me. I'm fine. You don't have to worry about me."

Lisa looked at him speechlessly. After a long silence, she suddenly said, "I'll send a message to Master Jie."

With that, she walked around him and left.

Little Yichen then realized that he had to contact his uncle as soon as possible and tell him that they were on the Gu family's vessel. Gu Jinglian had promised him that he would take them safely back to the capital.

According to Lisa, the speed of this freighter was twice as fast as that of the yacht. They would reach the capital in about ten days. On the other end, Gong Jie received news that Little Yichen and Lisa had boarded the rescue ship and were on their way back to the capital. He finally heaved a sigh of relief.

However, upon hearing that the two of them were on Gu Jinglian's vessel... Gong Jie was flustered!

The Hurricane Group had taken away the Gu family's land in North Africa. Now that they had crossed paths, could it be... Gu Jinglian was making things difficult for these two little fellows!?

"Uncle, let me tell you. I defeated a super strong guy! This person is Gu Jinglian's very capable bodyguard. He lost to me!" Little Yichen mentioned this with smugness. Gong Jie was not in the mood to listen to this. He was just glad that they were safe.

Lisa said, "We encountered pirates not long ago."

"Pirates?"

"Yes, near the Somali waters."

"They boarded the ship?"

"Yes."

"Well..." Gong Jie asked worriedly, "are you guys hurt?"

"No." The girl gave a chilling laugh. "Little Yichen and I got rid of all those who boarded the ship."

Gong Jie was speechless. Why was he feeling a chill down his spine somehow? Aren't these two guys... a little scary?

Chapter 3687 A New Addition (303)

The next few days on the vessel were restless and trying for Little Yichen. He wholeheartedly looked forward to the day of his reunion with his family and wished it would come sooner! He really missed home.

Lisa knew that Little Yichen thought of home all the time. It was evident when he was undergoing hypnosis. How strong his willpower must have been, to resist such a terrifying hypnosis process to the extent that it failed?

Little Yichen actually did what Youyou could not! She could not help being impressed by him!

After sailing for half a month... finally! Little Yichen was overjoyed when he learned that they would be arriving at the capital's harbor the next morning!

That night, he was sleepless! He had lost count of the time that he had been away from home! He wondered if Youyou had been getting along with his parents or regained his memory after returning to the Mu family home.

In the middle of the night, Lisa woke up and saw that the bed next to hers was empty. Little Yichen was missing. She got up and went to the deck. There, she spotted him leaning against the railing, looking out to the horizon. The other shore was the capital's harbor.

That was the direction of home. His home.

He kept looking in that direction. Lisa walked over and teased, "Why? Are you too excited to sleep now that you're almost home?"

Little Yichen did not reply. Instead, his voice trembled as he said, "Lisa, can you imagine?! I'll be able to see Mommy in six hours!"

Lisa was suddenly silent.

"Not only Mommy, but Daddy, Youyou, Yueyao..." A blissful smile spread across his face as he spoke.

Surprisingly, Lisa was also affected by his emotions and smiled sincerely. "Do you miss home that much?"

"Uh huh!"

Lisa rested her elbow on the railing and propped her chin on her hand as she asked curiously, "Mu Yichen, what's it like to have a home?"

He was surprised that Lisa would ask such a question. In the past, Lisa would find such a question extremely childish. However, she was actually taking the initiative to ask now.

He was a little curious, but he also seriously considered how to answer this question.

"It's not really easy to explain. It's just... a very warm feeling!"

Warm?

Lisa laughed. This was an ambiguous answer. Little Yichen said, "I love it when Mommy reads me bedtime stories. I like to lie in her arms and listen to her gentle voice! My mommy's voice is the best sound in the world! Listening to her voice, I can fall asleep peacefully. Speaking of which, I can no longer remember the stories she told me, but I really like that feeling. Listening to her voice and falling asleep... I'll never have nightmares again."

Lisa listened intently. When he suddenly stopped speaking, she asked curiously, “What else?”

“And...” Little Yichen grinned. “Every time I made a mistake or Youyou pushed the blame to me—as you know—Youyou is my younger brother, so I have to give in to him! However, even if Mommy is angry, she won’t be fierce towards me. If she’s really upset, she’ll definitely be so angry that she’ll cry! I’m so afraid to see her upset, so I keep telling myself not to make Mommy cry. Otherwise, I’d feel really guilty!” “Uh huh...”

“Furthermore my daddy had warned me—”.

Little Yichen pretended to imitate the way Mu Yazhe spoke. “You’re not to make my wife cry, understand?!”

Chapter 3688 A New Addition (304)

“Hahahaha!” Lisa was amused by his vivid expression.

“Your daddy is so cute.” “My daddy? oh, he’s alright!” In Little Yichen’s opinion, Mu Yazhe was not cute at all! It was awful to use the word “cute” to describe him.

“My daddy is very fierce. When I was young, I was afraid of him! He always had a serious expression and never smiled. At that time, I felt that there was no one in the world who was so difficult to get along with!” Pausing for a moment, Little Yichen suddenly smiled. “But later, I understood. It’s not that he didn’t love me; he just didn’t know how to express it. After being with Mommy, he gradually learned how to get along with me!”

Lisa listened and yawned softly.

“Honestly, Lisa, I think it’s a shame.”

“A shame?”

He turned around and stared at her intently.

“After you came into this world, killings and violence were all you knew. You didn’t have a daddy to give you hugs or a mommy to dote on you, you even missed a large part of your childhood. Don’t you feel lonely?”

Little Yichen said regretfully, “If you had a mommy like mine who would read you bedtime stories, buy you beautiful dresses to wear, and pamper you, you would have such a blissful life!”

Lisa looked somewhat startled.

Little Yichen also realized that his words might be hurtful. His expression darkened. “Sorry... Did I say something I shouldn’t have...”

Lisa turned and smiled, however. “No.”

There was a long silence between the two children.

Lisa suddenly sighed. “It’s just that something you said isn’t quite right.” “Uh huh?”

She looked up at Little Yichen and said with no uncertainty, "How can I miss something that I've never had?"

Taken aback, the boy was momentarily speechless.

"I never had that thing, so you said it was a shame. But I don't feel that way. It's just..."

What Little Yichen had said made her rather envious. Just as Little Yichen had said, if she had a mother, like Youyou and Little Yichen did, she would have had such a blissful life, right?

"Just because you didn't have these things in the past doesn't mean that you'll never have them."

Little Yichen immediately patted his chest and said, "From now on, my house is your house, my mommy is your mommy, and my daddy is your daddy!"

"Really?" Lisa asked jokingly, "And in the future, will your wife be my wife too?"

Little Yichen immediately turned red and snapped, "It's not like you like women!"

"In any case, since you've said so, whatever's yours will be mine, from now on! It's a deal."

The girl stuck out her pinky and asked curiously, "I heard that you guys make promises this way!"

"It's called pinky swear."

"Yes, pinky swear."

Lisa cleared her throat. "You have to keep your word."

Little Yichen laughed and shook his head. "Okay, pinky swear."

He held out his pinky and hooked it around hers.

"Pinky swear." "Uh huh! Pinky swear!" The night breeze was getting stronger.

NE

That night when Lisa returned to bed and pulled the covers up. For some reason, she felt a new anticipation for the future.

"Lisa! Wake up!"

She slowly woke up from her dream. When she opened her eyes, she was met with Little Yichen's excited expression.

"We're here! We're almost at the port!"

Lisa woke up in a daze. Even though she was still drowsy, she was shaken awake by Little Yichen!

Chapter 3689 A New Addition (305)

"We're here! Mommy said she's already waiting for us at the harbor!"

“Ohhhhh...”

“Lisa, get changed!” Little Yichen brought in Lisa’s clothes for her. She got changed as she yawned and followed Little Yichen to the deck. Here, she immediately saw that although she could already see the harbor, it was still quite a distance away!

Feeling a little grumpy, she glared at the boy. Just as she was about to chide him, she noticed that he was staring at the harbor as if he couldn’t wait to fly over with wings!

“I can see my mommy!” he exclaimed excitedly.

Lisa’s lips twitch viciously. “It’s a long way away. How can you see that?” “I think I can already see her...”

The older boy stared at the port longingly. Lisa actually felt sorry for him and gently held his hand. Little Yichen, who was unaware of it, subconsciously held her hand tightly! Lisa felt her heart skipping a few beats. She followed Little Yichen’s line of sight, but from her perspective, the harbor was still too far away.

Half an hour later, the ferry finally docked at the port.

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi had arrived early in the morning. As they did not know when the ship would arrive, they decided to come early. Yun Shishi’s eyes brimmed with tears of excitement the moment she saw Little Yichen waving at her from the ship!

“It’s him! I see him, I see him...” Yun Shishi was indescribably excited.

Mu Yazhe also smiled in relief as he put his arm around her shoulders. However, he also saw Gu Jinglian standing at the bow of the ship.

The two men looked at each other, but the hostility that would be present whenever they met in the past seemed to be absent now!

According to Gong Jie, Little Yichen had a duel on board Gu Jinglian’s vessel. Gu Jinglian had threatened the boy that if he lost, he would be thrown into the sea. He knew that Gu Jinglian was joking, but Little Yichen took it for real and fought for real. However, that person was utterly defeated!

Mu Yazhe was immediately amused when he heard this! As expected of his son!

Finding out about this gave him an inexplicable sense of accomplishment. It made him even prouder than when he won those billion-dollar projects! Having lost contact with Little Yichen for so many days, although he did not say it aloud, he had been thinking of the boy every second!

When he found out that he was coming home on this particular day, he was sleepless the entire night and had rushed to the port early in the morning!

When Little Yichen saw Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi, he immediately pulled Lisa to his side and pointed out to her, “Do you see that man in black? The tall one... He’s my daddy! The one beside him wearing a camel-colored coat is my mommy! What do you think? Isn’t she beautiful? Isn’t she pretty? Doesn’t she stand out?”

Lisa nodded, but she thought to herself, and how is it that you don't have any praises for your daddy for being handsome? How biased!

"Eh? Why don't I see Youyou and Yueyao?" Little Yichen was inevitably disappointed that he did not see the two little guys.

The disembarkation platform was put in place. Dragging Lisa behind him, Little Yichen immediately rushed over! Before he could even fully descend the stairs, he threw himself at Yun Shishi!

The boy wasn't by any means a lightweight.

The way he had thrown himself into Yun Shishi's arms, she would have fallen over if not for Mu Yazhe's steady support!

Mu Yazhe was a little speechless. This fellow pounced on Yun Shishi at once and completely ignored his daddy!

"Mommy, I'm home!" Little Yichen lifted his head and squashed himself against Yun Shishi. Then finally noticing Mu Yazhe, he called out softly, "Daddy..."

Chapter 3690 A New Addition (306)

"Daddy..."

This greeting of 'daddy' completely resolved the unhappiness of being ignored in the first instance!

Mu Yazhe smiled. "Uh huh!"

"I'm home, I'm home..." Little Yichen's eyes were damp with excitement.

Looking on, Yun Shishi could not help being moved as tears formed and fell from her eyes.

"It's good that you're home... It's good that you're home! Mommy misses you so much!" She embraced him passionately!

As for Little Yichen, he clung on to Yun Shishi tightly and refused to let go!

Mu Yazhe put his arms around Yun Shishi, and the three of them hugged each other tightly. Such a heartwarming scene made Lisa, who was standing by the side, feel emotional! She was genuinely happy for Little Yichen's family reunion! It was wonderful!

Suddenly, a thought struck Little Yichen. He gently freed himself from Yun Shishi's arms. Turning his head to the side, he saw Lisa standing awkwardly some distance behind him. People came and went, but she was alone, silently watching them.

"Come over here, Lisa!" He waved at her.

Lisa hesitated, not knowing what to do.

"Be good and come here!"

Under his encouragement, Lisa finally took a step forward. Having had the courage to take the first step, she slowly walked up to Little Yichen and stood before Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi. She felt a little uneasy nevertheless.

“Let me introduce you.” Little Yichen turned around to look at his parents and introduced them to each other, “Her name is Lisa. She’s the one who protected me when we left Acklan Island. She’s also Youyou’s personal bodyguard!”

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi looked at Lisa and smiled.

“How do you do.”

“Thank you, Lisa!” Yun Shishi gave her a gentle hug as well. “Thank you for bringing Little Yichen home!”

The girl’s body stiffened when she was embraced. When Yun Shishi released her, she took half a step back uneasily and explained softly, “Actually... it’s... nothing!” “Mommy, can I discuss something with you?” Little Yichen looked at Yun Shishi seriously and said in a businesslike tone, “From now on, can we accept Lisa as part of our family? She doesn’t have a daddy or a mommy. She has been an orphan since she was young. I want to give her a home. I want her to be like Yueyao, to have a daddy and a mommy!”

Yun Shishi was stunned to hear that. She did not expect him to make such a request. However, her reaction caused the girl to misunderstand her! Lisa thought that Yun Shishi was unwilling! After all, wasn’t it difficult to acknowledge an unrelated girl as your daughter just out of the blue?

She did not like to make things difficult for others, so she immediately pulled Little Yichen over and mumbled, “Mu Yichen, did you take it seriously? I was just joking with you last night!”

“I’m not kidding.” Mu Yichen said seriously, “Didn’t we have a deal? My home is your home! Lisa, you have a home from now on!”

“That’s right.” Yun Shishi immediately said, “Lisa, just like Little Yichen has said, stay with us! Won’t you?”

“But...” Lisa was clearly embarrassed.

Yun Shishi smiled and asked, “Why? Are you unwilling?”

Lisa shook her head frantically. It wasn’t that she didn’t want to...

She was so nervous that her fingers were trembling. Lisa looked at Little Yichen, then at Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi. She probed, “May... may I?”

Were they really willing? Of course, she wanted a home too. However, she did not want to oblige anyone. After all, they were not related by blood.
