

Sweet Love 3731

Chapter 3731: A New Addition (347)

"I'm just pregnant, I'm not an invalid..."

"I know."

"Gu Jinglian..."

"Uh huh?"

"I've got a serious question for you."

"What is it."

"Do you prefer to have a baby boy or a baby girl?"

Gu Jinglian hesitated. Given his personality, he actually preferred girls. In fact, even if he did not say it, Chu He could tell that he seemed to despise Baby Chu. She noticed that he had given a rare smile when Sheng'er came to visit. From this, she could tell that he preferred daughters.

Chu He could even imagine that if she were to give birth to a daughter, Gu Jinglian would probably have the girl tattooed on his chest when she turned five. Baby Chu would probably feel all sorts of mental imbalances if this were to happen.

Gu Jinglian said, "Both boys and girls are the same. I'm fine with either."

"Really? What if we have another child like Baby Chu? Will you like him too?"

Gu Jinglian turned ashen for a moment, then he said, "That's alright." That's alright.

If Baby Chu were to hear this, he would certainly break down in tears.

Gu Jinglian put the coat on her. For some reason, after knowing that she was pregnant, Gu Jinglian was especially gentle to her, so much so that Chu He could not get used to it.

'You don't have to be so attentive. It's just a pregnancy. I was renovating the house myself while pregnant with Baby Chu.'

"No wonder the boy is so stupid."

'You'd better not let him hear this.'

When Gu Jinglian brought Chu He to the hospital, they were given VIP access and Chu He was immediately given a series of tests. After a urine test, she was ushered in by the nurse for an ultrasound.

Following the ultrasound scan, he was surprised to find that not only was Chu He pregnant, she had been for more than three months now. This information took both Gu Jinglian and Chu He by surprise.

After all, for more than three months she had not shown any signs of pregnancy. Her belly was as flat as before, and there were no signs of a pregnancy at all.

If not for her recent pregnancy reaction, she would not have thought that she was pregnant.

The doctor was rather stumped. Highly amused, he said, "She's already more than three months pregnant. Has she been having her period?"

"I've been pretty busy lately, so I haven't really paid much attention. Besides,

I've been careful with taking contraceptive measures, so it really didn't occur to

"Do you always take contraceptive measures?"

"Uh huh."

The doctor looked meaningfully at Gu Jinglian who was standing by the bed. He said pointedly, "If a man is stronger in that aspect, no matter that contraceptive measures are taken, there remains a possibility of pregnancy. I know a pregnant woman who not only took oral contraceptives but also used condoms. In the end, she got pregnant. Fortunately, the fetus was very healthy and she kept it."

As he spoke, the doctor looked at the screen and exclaimed, "Eh?"

"What's the matter?"

"Wait, let me take a closer look."

The doctor moved the probe around her belly and said in surprise, "Ah, there seems to be more than one!"

"More than one?"

Gu Jinglian raised his eyebrows. "What do you mean?"

The doctor looked at the screen seriously before smiling and congratulating them, "Congratulations, it's a pair of dragon and phoenix twins! It's rare, it's rare! The first pair of twins this year!"

"Dragon and phoenix twins!?"

Gu Jinglian and Chu He looked at each other in surprise.

"A boy and a girl?"

"Uh huh"

"Are you sure?"

Chapter 3732: A New Addition (348)

"Dragon and phoenix twins!?"

“A boy and a girl?” Chu He was surprised. “How can you tell?”

“Dragon and phoenix twins originate from two different eggs. You can tell from the ultrasound scan! However, they are very rare. Only one to five out of a hundred pregnancies.”

Gu Jinglian was stunned!

Noticing his reaction, the doctor thought that something was wrong and was a little nervous. “What’s wrong? Are you... unhappy that your wife is pregnant with twins?”

Gu Jinglian snapped back to his senses. He glanced at the doctor and then at Chu He who was beside him. There was a strange glow in his eyes that flickered intensely as his gaze fell on Chu He’s flat belly.

Surprise. It was too sudden. The sudden arrival of the twins put him in a daze. He was happy of course. How could he not be happy? However, given his personality, it was difficult for him to express his happiness. And even though he appeared calm, Chu He noticed that his fingertips were trembling slightly.

He was excited. Even though he maintained his usual calm expression on his face, his slightly trembling fingers gave away his excitement. As they left the clinic, Chu He was holding her bag while Gu Jinglian stared at the ultrasound scan for a long time.

On the image, there were only two black dots. Gu Jinglian felt as though these two black dots were like two potatoes that Chu He had swallowed. It was hard to tell what they were.

It was written clearly in the report, there was fetus A and fetus B. The two eggs gave rise to the twins. The initial conclusion was that they were a pair of dragon and phoenix twins. This proved that there were two little lives forming in her womb. Perhaps one was a son and the other was a daughter...

Gu Jinglian’s icy lips gradually curved into a faint smile.

Chu He observed the change in his expression and was greatly amused. “Gu Jinglian, what’s with your half-smile and half crying expression?”

When Gu Jinglian heard this, he immediately returned to being straight-faced and pretended to be calm. “I’m not smiling.”

“The corners of your lips are turned up. That’s not smiling?”

“Gu Jinglian, just smile if you’re happy. If you can see the expression on your face, you’ll realize it’s uglier than crying.”

Gu Jinglian narrowed his eyes unhappily. “Shut up.” What a killjoy.

“Do you want the children?” Chu He suddenly asked.

Gu Jinglian stopped abruptly and looked at her with a dangerous gaze. Could it be that she did not want the babies? Why would she ask a question like that?

‘You don’t want them?’

“It’s not that, but I have to ask your opinion.” Chu He continued, “We already have Baby Chu and Linxi. With two more children, there will be four altogether.

I don’t know if you are mentally prepared.”

‘You’re afraid four kids will be more than a handful?’

“That is a worry, honestly.” In Chu He’s mind, Gu Jinglian was undoubtedly the great demon king. Following his bloodline, there would be no peace in the Gu family residence in the future, if they had a bunch of little demons and demonesses.

“Since you’re pregnant, we’ll bring up the kids.” It wasn’t as though he could not afford it. Even if she was like a mother pig and gave birth to a load of kids, the Gu family residence would be able to accommodate them.

‘What if Baby Chu can’t accept it?’ Chu He had seen many families with two children where the two children fought for favor, and the younger child would be bullied. Especially after the birth of the younger child, in many cases, the elder child would be unhappy..

Chapter 3733: A New Addition (349)

Although she felt that Baby Chu would not bully his younger siblings or hate them, she still had such concerns. She was worried that Baby Chu would feel aggrieved if her energy was diverted by younger siblings.

“Why are you worried about that?” Gu Jinglian did not think much of it. “If he doesn’t accept it, just give him a beating.”

What a violent solution.

The man continued, “Get in the car. We’ll talk when we get home.”

As soon as he turned around, a warm smile appeared on his face. He could no longer suppress the happiness he was feeling. He didn’t know when it started, but compared to before, when he hated children the moment he saw them, he now actually had great anticipation for, and looked forward to the two children.

One time, when he was waiting at a red light, he saw a man passing by with a cute little girl on his shoulder. The father held his daughter’s hands and was laughing along the way. He actually felt a little envious.

It was a heartwarming scene and actually stoked a yearning within him.

People say that daughters take after their fathers and sons take after their mothers.

He wondered if his daughter would take after him?

Gu Jinglian's thoughts started to drift. He imagined the day when Chu He would give birth seven months later. He imagined how the nurse would carefully place a baby girl in his arms...

His mood at that point would be as splendid as fireworks, wouldn't it? In fact, even before the babies were born, Gu Jinglian had already unreservedly placed his focus on his daughter. In the future, when Chu He would deliver the pair of twins, the other one would probably be crying miserably. Having a father who favored daughters, where would the other child turn to for some comfort? This "share" of the father's attention and doting was already decided before they were born.

How would Chu He know what Gu Jinglian was thinking?

By the time the two of them returned to the Gu family residence, Baby Chu had just come home from school. Knowing this, he sent Butler Fu to call Baby Chu into the study.

Chu He wanted to join them in the room, however Butler Fu stopped her at the door, and told her that Gu Jinglian had something to discuss with Baby Chu.

In the study, Gu Jinglian held Baby Chu in his arms and asked him a serious question.

"Baby Chu, do you want a younger brother?"

Baby Chu looked puzzled for a moment. "No."

"What about a little sister?"

"No." The boy replied earnestly, "I already have an older brother!"

Gu Jinglian glared at him "gently" and "kindly". "Now, your mother is pregnant with two babies. Whether you like them or not, you are not allowed to bully your little sister in the future, understand?"

"..."

Baby Chu's eyelids twitched. "Daddy, why didn't you tell me not to bully Little Brother?"

"You may bully your little brother however you want."

His own father.

What a father.

Baby Chu punched the air with his fist and suddenly understood. "Oh, now I know. Daddy, you value girls over boys! It's no wonder I don't seem to have any status with you. You don't like boys at all!"

Gu Jinglian said casually, "So you've discovered."

It was mainly because this guy was too annoying sometimes.

Baby Chu was about to say something when he suddenly reacted and took a deep breath. "Mommy's pregnant?"

Gu Jinglian nodded.

“Two babies?”

Gu Jinglian nodded again.

Baby Chu suddenly clenched his fists excitedly. “I’m going to be a big brother!?”

Gu Jinglian reached out and pinched his nose. It was rare for him to be so gentle. “Uh huh.”

“Wow! That’s awesome!” Baby Chu smiled brightly. “I’m going to be a big brother!”

Chapter 3734: A New Addition (350)

Outside the study room, Chu He could clearly hear Baby Chu’s cheers. “Yay! I’m going to be a big brother!”

She widened her eyes in surprise and looked towards the door. She was somewhat taken aback by Baby Chu’s attitude. She had been so worried earlier that Baby Chu would not be able to accept another pair of younger siblings. She did not expect that the boy would anticipate the arrival of two babies as much as Gu Jinglian and herself! She smiled in relief, finding this heartwarming!

It was her good fortune to have an eldest son like Baby Chu! Now that she knew Baby Chu’s attitude, Chu He felt as though a rock had been lifted off her chest!

The conversation between father and son ended. By the time the door opened, Chu He had already left quietly. Baby Chu ran to Linxi’s room happily and learned from Butler Fu that Linxi was still in school.

Linxi was in primary school while Baby Chu was still in kindergarten. Hence, Linxi ended school slightly later. Having to wait was torturous. Baby Chu could not wait to share this great news with Linxi.

After much anticipation on Baby Chu’s part, Linxi finally finished school. From afar, he could hear Linxi coming into the backyard, greeting Madam Qin and Butler Fu with a little laugh. Baby Chu ran downstairs excitedly, almost throwing himself at Linxi! / /

“Linxi!”

Linxi was a little shocked as he caught Baby Chu. The latter jumped into his embrace, throwing his arms around his neck, and started jumping up and down excitedly.

“Linxi, we’re going to be big brothers! We’re going to be big brothers!”

Before Linxi could figure out what was going on, he heard Baby Chu announcing solemnly, “From now on, you’re the eldest brother and I’m the second brother. Hehe!”

When Butler Fu and Madam Qin heard this, they looked at each other and smiled.

Linxi was taken by surprise. “Baby Chu, what do you mean? I don’t understand.”

“Let me tell you a secret!” Baby Chu tugged at Linxi’s sleeve and whispered to him, “Mommy is pregnant! Daddy said that Mommy is pregnant with two babies—a little brother and a little sister!”

“...”

Linxi was stunned. He widened his eyes in a daze. This news...

It was too sudden!

What a great surprise!

After a long time, he finally reacted by grabbing Baby Chu's hand and asking in disbelief, "Really?"

"Really, really!"

Baby Chu nodded fervently. "Father told me himself!"

"Good heavens..."

Linxi said, "Then they're dragon and phoenix twins!"

"Dragon and phoenix twins!?"

"Yes, dragon and phoenix twins... a boy and a girl baby. It's very rare to have a boy and a girl baby at the same time!"

Baby Chu was even more surprised to hear this. "Really? I thought having twins was very normal."

"Not at all."

Linxi was now excited too. He took Baby Chu's hands and jumped around in circles. "Baby Chu, we'll have a little brother and little sister!"

"Uh huh!" Baby Chu asked curiously, "Do you prefer a little brother or little sister?"

"Me? I like them all. If I have to choose, then I would prefer a little sister." Growing up in North Africa, he didn't have a sister but had younger brothers.

"I prefer a little brother."

"Why?"

Baby Chu said matter-of-factly, "Because Daddy seems to prefer little sisters and no one seems to like a little brother, so I'll prefer a little brother then! Besides, if I have a little brother, I can teach him how to play soccer."

Linxi smiled at him upon hearing this. "Alright, you prefer a little brother then, and I shall prefer a little sister!"

Chapter 3735: A New Addition (351)

The wedding was right around the corner. However, Butler Fu had already meticulously made all the necessary preparations. Moreover, now that Chu He was pregnant, this was a double blessing for the Gu family.

It had been a long time since there was such a joyous occasion at the Gu family residence. Everyone in the household was excited. However, since Chu He was pregnant, she couldn't drink at the banquet. Given this, Gu Jinglian had addressed this matter in advance.

Rather, it might be more accurate to say he made a threat.

Whoever dared to raise a wine glass to get Chu He to drink, would have the hand that was holding the wine glass chopped off.

Butler Fu was greatly amused when he heard this.

The old master seemed to be getting better at protecting his wife. However, this was also considered a good thing. At the very least, even with his proud and aloof personality, he knew how to dote on others. It was truly not easy, not easy.

Two days before the wedding, Butler Fu took Chu He to his house. Aunty Fu had already decorated the bedroom several days in advance. Chu He moved into the bedroom and was moved by the care that Aunty Fu took to decorate it.

How very thoughtful. Butler Fu indeed treated her like his own daughter.

Almost all preparations had been made, except for some disagreement about the bridesmaid. Chu He didn't have many good friends, so there was a problem with identifying suitable bridesmaids. It would be quite impossible to do without bridesmaids. There would be much to do on the day of the wedding. Without bridesmaids, there would be fewer people around to help out.

Fortunately, Butler Fu had two nieces. He managed to get their help but even then, two bridesmaids seemed a little lacking. When time came for the bridal escort, Gu Jinglian's group of brothers would cause a ruckus. It would be pathetic if they could not hold the group back.

Butler Fu somehow managed to mysteriously "summon" a group of sisters together. It was said that many of them were distant relatives of the Gu family. Gu Jinglian had considerably many cousins and Butler Fu managed to gather seven or eight of them.

The group of sisters had arrived the night before. However, they felt a little uneasy in Chu He's presence. This uneasiness was built on the fact that Chu He was Gu Jinglian's wife, and they were all very afraid of Gu Jinglian.

In the Gu family, Gu Jinglian held absolute authority and wielded absolute power. Just being in his presence gave people an indescribable sense of pressure. However, Chu He was easy to get along with. After a while, they got to know each other.

They noted that Chu He didn't put on any airs so they didn't feel pressured. At night, one of Gu Jinglian's cousins even enthusiastically helped Chu He with a full skincare routine, assuring the bride that it would help the makeup go on much more easily the next day.

Fortunately, Butler Fu's house was of a decent size. There were three to four rooms in total, and there was a long sofa in the living room. Even though they were women of the Gu family, they did not care about trifles and were willing to sleep on the sofa for the night. There were seven to eight people in all and they slept there, three to a room.

Chu He lay on the bed, tossing and turning. She drifted off at 10pm and woke up at 1am. Thereafter, she was unable to go back to sleep. She gave up trying, turned on the television and put it on silent mode, planning to watch the television until dawn.

When the two bridesmaids who were sharing her room saw that she was awake, they too, got too nervous to sleep. The three of them got out of bed and chatted as they applied facial masks and watched television.

At 3am, the makeup artist and styling team arrived. Chu He's makeup was a little complicated, and having to do her hair, the whole process would take three hours.

At around 4am to 5am, the photographer arrived.

Chapter 3736: A New Addition (352)

Everyone in the room woke up and started getting busy.

"Say, today is our cousin's big day. It's an opportunity for us to create a ruckus. If we don't do it now, we might not get the chance in the future!"

It was unknown who made this comment, but everyone agreed!

"Anyone has any ideas?"

"Me, me!" One of the women raised her hand. "I prepared a detailed strategy beforehand. When the groom comes to pick up the bride, we'll make him play some games. If he loses, we won't let him in."

Hence, the group started to get busy.

First, they cut a red ribbon into smaller pieces that mimicked the infrared aurora scan in The Matrix. They applied tapes to the two ends and adhered the pieces together, stretching them across the doorway to create a barrier. The person could only enter by going between these "infrared beams", he was not to touch any of them.

Someone also prepared toasted bread and mustard. They applied a thick layer of mustard on each piece of toast. If they lost the game, the bride and groom would have to eat the mustard-covered toast.

"Isn't that a bit much?"

Chu He felt a little choked when she saw them applying the thick layer of mustard. Besides mustard toast, there were also fresh lemon slices, dried chili...

Good grief.

Would someone die from this?

After preparing the games, someone suddenly suggested, "How about we play a thrilling game? Let's give Uncle Jinglian a special surprise."

The girls gathered together and started whispering. Then, everyone suddenly looked at Chu He with a wicked smile. When the latter saw their evil smiles, she couldn't help shuddering.

On the other end, Gu Jinglian woke up at 5.30am. He washed up, dressed up, styled his hair, and put on a suit. The man's preparation was much simpler than a woman's.

It had to be said that with Gu Jinglian's height and temperament, he looked extremely handsome in a suit. Because of his imposing aura, people did not dare to look at him directly.

At 7.28am sharp, Gu Jinglian set off to pick up the bride.

The grand convoy set off towards Butler Fu's house. When they arrived downstairs at 8.08am, Gu Jinglian and his team of brothers went upstairs.

The sisters in the house became nervous when they heard the firecrackers going off downstairs.

"They're here, they're here!"

"Shut the door, hurry!"

The group quickly locked the door and barricaded the entrance. Just as they shut the door, the elevator door opened.

Gu Jinglian walked to the door and noted that it was tightly shut. The best man beside him held a bouquet of flowers and went forward to knock on the door.

"We're here!"

"Open the door!"

"How can we open the door without a red packet!"

"That's right. We have more than ten sisters. We've worked hard and we won't open the door without red packets!"

Gu Jinglian snorted in disdain when he heard this. In his opinion, anything that could be solved with a red packet was nothing.

The groomsmen prepared a large bag of red packets. They casually took out a dozen of them and stuffed them through the crack under the door. Some of the red packets were especially bulky, with a thick wad of cash inside, and they could not fit it through under the door.

Gu Jinglian chided, "Didn't I tell you not to stuff them with so much cash?"

"Well... wouldn't more cash make things easier?"

"Give them those with less cash."

"Yes, Master Gu."

The best man stuffed in more than twenty red packets and looked pitifully through the door. "Will you open the door now? Don't keep Master Gu waiting."

“There are too few red packets, it’s not enough to go around.”

“Why don’t you just open the door? Can’t we distribute them? We have plenty of red packets.”

Chapter 3737: A New Addition (353)

The door opened a crack. When the groomsmen saw this opportunity, they did not waste it and surged through the door.

Gu Jinglian walked in, only to realize that there were many red ribbons stretched across the entrance, just like infrared beams. It seemed they had planned to torture him from the moment he arrived.

“Your bag of tricks is amazing.”

“How can you call it a bag of tricks? This is a test!”

“That’s right, the bride has the biggest say today. How can we just let you guys take her away so easily!”

“The best is yet to come! Groom, go through with the groomsmen first. Be careful, your body must not come into contact with the red ribbon. Even if one person touches it, everyone will be punished.”

Gu Jinglian turned around to look at his team of brothers and groomsmen. Fortunately, none of them were particularly fat, which gave him some confidence. With his skills, this little trick was not going to stop him. Gu Jinglian took the lead and passed through the dangerous set up. However, the next person who tried it broke two ribbons.

“Stupid teammate!”

The bridesmaids came over with a tray covered with mustard-filled toasts. Gu Jinglian could not tell what was smeared on it and asked in confusion, “What’s the green stuff on it?”

“Mustard.”

“Mustard paste.”

“...”

Gu Jinglian’s expression darkened.

When the groomsmen saw that his expression had changed, they immediately volunteered. “We’ll take care of these. Master Gu, you don’t have to eat it.”

Seeing that the groomsmen were about to divide up the toasts, the bridesmaids objected firmly. “No, the groom has to eat too. This is the rule of the game. You can’t violate them.”

Gu Jinglian was not a man who dilly-dallied. He picked up a slice of toast and took a bite.

The power of the toast and mustard sauce combination could not be underestimated.

With just one bite, Gu Jinglian’s fair and handsome face immediately became like a volcano on the verge of eruption. Blood gushed up to his face, and it flushed a bright scarlet!

“Cough... cough...” The man covered his mouth and choked. However, because of what the bridesmaids had said, he knew they would not let him in if he did not eat the mustard toast.

There were still a few obstacles to clear once inside the house. Gu Jinglian could only bite the bullet and finish the toast. However, once he had eaten the toast, he felt unwell.

Spicy.

Choke!

He could feel his lungs burning.

“The groom has already eaten. The best man needs to hurry up and do it too.”

“Wooooo...”

A few groomsmen reached for the toasts with grievance and took a deep breath. They closed their eyes and took a bite of their toast. Instantly, everyone turned red. They could neither eat it nor spit it out of their mouth. To make things worse, there was no water served to them. They could only swallow the dry toast as it was.

“Hahaha!” The bridesmaids and sisters laughed at the plight of the groomsmen. Among all of them, only Gu Jinglian was able to remain standing after downing the toast.

The others were either lying limply on the sofa or squatting on the floor with their hands covering their faces. Their faces were covered in tears and snot.

Someone complained, “Xu Feng, it’s all your fault! If you hadn’t broken the ribbon, we wouldn’t have had to eat this thing! There are so many slices of toast, you should eat them all!”

The brothers gave the remaining slices to the culprit. The latter had no choice but to swallow his grievances and finish all the toasts.

Usually, with Gu Jinglian around, these people would never dare to act rashly.

However, today was different. Today was his big day.

Chapter 3738: A New Addition (354)

Since it was a joyous occasion, they had expected that Gu Jinglian would not blow his top on this special day. Hence, they tortured him boldly.

There was a long corridor leading to the boudoir. It was now covered with acupuncture boards.

“What’s this?”

The groomsmen squatted on the ground and touched it with his hand. It did not feel anything out of the ordinary. However if he were to remove his shoes and walk on these boards with his bare feet, the sensation would be indescribable!

“How do we play this game?”

The bridesmaid said, "The best man will have to remove his shoes and carry the groom over these boards."

Gu Jinglian was speechless.

The groomsmen and brothers fell silent.

This was insane!

"If you do not pass this checkpoint, you cannot enter this gate." The bridesmaids said firmly.

The team of brothers did not speak but exchanged glances with the groomsmen. They had no choice but to take off their shoes. They stepped on the acupuncture boards and tested them. It was itchy and painful. They shivered and immediately retracted their feet.

"I'd rather step on the edge of a knife than on this thing!"

"Exactly. They make the soles of my feet itchy and painful."

The bridesmaids smiled and said, "No!"

Gu Jinglian's expression turned icy as he barked, "Hurry up!"

Since the great demon lord had spoken, the men did not dare delay things any further. They removed their shoes and lifted Gu Jinglian. Two of them held onto his arms while the other two carried his long legs. The four of them formed a human sedan chair and lifted Gu Jinglian over the acupuncture boards.

The men cried out in pain.

There were all kinds of screams.

"Sister-in-law, please spare me!"

"Sister-in-law, it hurts! Come out and help us!"

"Sister-in-Law, please have mercy! We came here sincerely to receive the bride!"

The group of people wailed like ghosts and howled like wolves, but there was no reaction from inside the door. It seemed that Chu He was determined to ignore them.

The brothers had no choice but to grit their teeth and close their eyes. They endured the excruciating pain on the soles of their feet and carried Gu Jinglian to the door. All up, it took several minutes to walk a few meters on the acupuncture boards.

The brothers team put Gu Jinglian down.

The groomsmen also took off their shoes and walked over the acupuncture boards. They knocked on the door and said obsequiously, "Sister-in-law, we're here! Open the door!"

Behind the door, the sisters and bridesmaids resisted and did not allow the men to enter. Gu Jinglian turned the doorknob and found that the door was locked on the inside. It seemed like things were not going to get any easier.

The groomsmen were astute and immediately stuffed more red packets under the door. However, while the bridesmaids enthusiastically took the red packets, they refused to open the door.

“Open the door. We’ve given you so many red packets, why aren’t you letting us in?”

“Exactly, our groom is getting anxious! There’s not much time left before the auspicious hour is over!”

“Groom, do you see the ribbon under the door?”

Gu Jinglian looked down upon hearing this. Indeed, there were a few red ribbons under the door.

“I see them.”

“One of the ribbons is tied to the bride’s wrist. If you can pick the ribbon tied to the bride’s wrist, you may enter!”

Gu Jinglian squatted down and counted. There were a total of ten red ribbons, but only one of them was linked to Chu He’s wrist. It seemed like it would be difficult to pick that one.

The groomsmen also became nervous.

One of the groomsmen was just about to reach for a ribbon when the bridesmaid inside said, “If you’re wrong, you’ll be punished with a hundred push-ups.”
