

Sweet Love 3891

Chapter 3891: A Perfect Match (83)

"Oh, I see!"

Noting the actor's nasty smile, Liang Yin pretended to compromise. "Okay, then go find a man! It just so happens that I want to experience what it's like to be a man!"

The actor was dumbstruck at this.

"Huh?" What!?

Liang smiled mysteriously. "That's right. That firm feeling when I'm with a woman!"

"..."

The actor almost missed the point. By the time he realized what Liang meant by "that firm feeling" his lips were twitching.

"Oh my... you have such a filthy mind."

"Hmph! Anyway, if you dare go look for a man, I'll sleep with your fans!"

The actor snapped, "Do you even know anything about having sex with a woman?"

/

"It's just that! Just follow your feelings!"

"Oooh..." The actor suddenly leaned close, his beautiful face inches from hers. He looked intently at her and whispered almost breathlessly, "You seem very impatient. Why don't we give it a try?"

He said it so suggestively that the breath that came out between his red lips seemed to scorch her face. For some reason, even though Hua Jin was clearly a "woman" now, she found it difficult to resist the hormonal response in her body. Even with their swapped gender, Liang Yin's heart was pounding.

Hua Jin was surprised to see her blush. "Why do you look so flushed?"

Liang Yin instinctively gave him a push.

The actor immediately gripped the railing tightly and protested, "Hey, be careful. What if you accidentally push me off?"

Seeing that he was steadily planted on his seat, Liang Yin snapped, "Didn't you say that sitting here is no different from sitting on the sofa! What's important is the psychology! Have you seen anyone being pushed to the ground from the sofa?"

Hua Jin was speechless. He was at a loss for words.

"You sure have a sharp tongue." Despite himself, the actor smiled and turned back to the horizon.

As the sun gradually rose, it drove away some of the cold.

Liang Yin looked at the horizon silently and gasped softly. Suddenly, she asked, "Will we have to stay in the hotel for the next few days?"

"Uh huh. Consider it a holiday."

"What exactly is Qin Zhou thinking?"

"I think he's trying to beat them at their own game. In the past few days, he must have been trying to find out who is directing those marketing accounts. When he has the evidence, he'll nab Tang Yu and the others in one fell swoop."

"It's so complicated. I thought it's easy being a celebrity. I didn't know there was so much intrigue and deception."

The actor said with disdain. "What did you think? No matter what your profession, there's always internal politics and fighting."

With that, he stood up and got off the edge of the roof. He turned around and extended his hand to Liang Yin. "Come on! Let's go back to our room and rest."

Liang Yin nodded, placed her hand in his and stood up carefully.

"Be careful."

The wind was a little strong.

Liang Yin took his hand and got down from the roof edge. Just as she was about to step inside, she stumbled. Hua Jin felt her sway slightly and immediately pulled her towards himself.

Little did he expect that Liang Yin, now at a looming 1.8 meters, would fall onto him with great inertia.

The actor's "delicate" body could not withstand it and he was thrown to the ground.

Chapter 3892: A Perfect Match (84)

"Oooh..."

Both of them groaned.

Liang Yin placed her palm on the ground and propped herself up, but she clearly felt some inexplicable changes in her body. Of course, the actor felt it, too. Something strange seemed to be pushing against him.

He wasn't aware of it initially. "What the hell?" he muttered, confused. "Are you carrying a key on you or something?"

Liang Yin was puzzled. "What do you mean?"

"You're pushing against me..." Before he could finish speaking, Hua Jin realized what it was. He immediately fell silent and glanced awkwardly at Liang Yin's lower body.

Liang Yin followed his gaze and the two of them immediately separated awkwardly.

Hua Jin said disdainfully, "Hey, what are you thinking?"

"What? How should I know what's going on? It's sticking up for no reason."

"It means you must be imagining things in your head to react like that."

"What can I possibly imagine? I'm not going to be accused like that!"

Glaring at her, the actor stood up and straightened his rumpled clothes. "Let's go! Back to the room!"

Then he turned and walked away.

Liang Yin stood up and dusted herself off, muttering sullenly, "How ungentlemanly. Hmph!"

They both went back to their own rooms.

In the afternoon, the actor was awakened by an urgent knock on the door.

He opened the door to find Liang Yin standing at the doorway holding his cell phone. "Someone called you several times," Liang Yin told him. "I had the phone on silent and only saw it when I woke up. I'm not sure how to respond." Liang Yin was still holding on to Hua Jin's phone.

Although only Hua Jin had access to all his social media accounts, Liang Yin held on to the phone. The actor took the phone from her and glanced at it. The calls were from Yun Shishi.

"Ahhhhh..." Feeling a headache coming on, he tapped his head and then instructed her, "Help me respond to her."

"How do I respond?"

"Ask her what's the matter."

The actor reminded her anxiously. "This is the most important person to me. You have to be gentle. Gentle, you hear?"

"I hear you."

Noticing how anxious he seemed, Liang Yin was puzzled and asked, "Who is she? You seem to be very nervous."

His expression softened at the mention of Yun Shishi. "She's my sister," he answered.

"Sister?"

"Uh huh."

Then he added, "Just ask her what the matter is."

Liang Yin nodded and dialed the number. It was answered within moments.

She said "Hello" and then Yun Shishi's pleasant voice was heard. "Jin, are you filming?"

"No I'm not!"

"I've heard... that you've encountered some trouble lately, is that true?"

“Yes, I did run into some trouble.”

“I heard from Qin Zhou that you’ve canceled all your recent events. Just take it as a holiday. And since it’s a holiday, let’s go to the hot springs together!”

“Hot ... hot spring...!?” Liang Yin looked at the actor, startled, and he immediately hit the hands-free mode on the phone.

“That’s right. I’ve already booked a hotel at the hot spring halfway up the mountain. Let’s go together!”

“Ahhhhh...” Liang Yin heard and raised her eyebrows at Hua Jin.

“What do we do?” she silently mouthed her words to him. “Do we go?”

The actor was keen, but...

Hot spring soaking... wouldn’t that be awkward?’

Chapter 3893: A Perfect Match (85)

The actor was still hesitating when she continued, “It’s a deal! Don’t stand me up. We haven’t met in a long time. I know you’ve been busy with the shoot and haven’t heard from you in a while.” Yun Shishi decided before he could protest.

Liang Yin didn’t have a chance to get a word in before Yun Shishi confirmed the plans.

The actor quickly pointed to himself and mouthed a reminder to her. “Take me with you. Take me...”

Liang Yin looked at him for a long time and finally understood what he was trying to say.

On the other end, Yun Shishi found the long bout of silence rather odd. “Why aren’t you saying anything, Hua Jin?”

Liang Yin quickly said, “Ah... Ah, it’s like this. Can I bring an assistant?”

“Sure. Male or female?”

“Female.”

“Oh, all right, then. If she doesn’t mind, she can share my room.”

Liang Yin was a little stunned. Share a room with Yun Shishi? Hua Jin?

As she was fumbling for an answer, Yun Shishi said apologetically, “Because... the room was booked in advance! And the hotel is now fully. If she doesn’t mind, she can share my bed!”

When Hua Jin heard this, he immediately waved his hand to indicate that he didn’t mind at all!

Haha, how could he mind sharing a bed with Yun Shishi!

By the time the call ended, Hua Jin was still looking overjoyed.

Liang Yin glanced at him and commented, “You’re smiling so strangely. Who is Yun Shishi?”

“My sister.”

“Real sister?”

“Sworn sister.”

“I think you’d better not share a room!”

Hua Jin retorted indignantly. “How else? Would you rather I share a room with a man? What if I get jumped on and eaten alive by someone with ulterior motives? This is your body we’re talking about. I’m trying to protect you.”

Wow, that sounded so pompous.

“Well, I can’t thank you enough!”

The actor snorted with pride, feeling quite elated. Initially, he didn’t much like hot springs, but now that he could share a room with Yun Shishi, he suddenly looked forward to the trip. Of course, he had absolutely no designs on her! However, it was better than sharing a room with Mu Yazhe! Or so the actor thought.

On the day the group gathered at the airport, Hua Jin never expected that the Great Demon King, Gong Jie, would actually come!

As soon as Gong Jie saw Hua Jin, he walked over to him and pulled him into his arms as everyone looked on in surprise.

Gong Jie, of course, knew that Hua Jin and Liang Yin had swapped identities, but Yun Shishi and Mu Yazhe, on the other hand, had no idea!

Therefore, to everyone else, it was Liang Yin that Gong Jie was embracing. Yun Shishi was stunned.

“Xiao Jie... why... why do you two seem so intimate?”

Liang Yin, who was watching on, was also stunned.

She didn’t know that Hua Jin had told Gong Jie about the soul swap, so she assumed that Gong Jie didn’t know about it.

But what was this display of intimacy about? She did not remember ever meeting this man!

“Your name is Liang Yin, right?” Gong Jie beamed at Hua Jin. “Who are you sharing a room with tonight?”

Before he could answer, Yun Shishi asked, “Do you know her, Xiao Jie?”

“Yes, I do.”

“So your name is Liang Yin! You’re Hua Jin’s new assistant, right? We’ve not met.”

Chapter 3894: A Perfect Match (86)

Yun Shishi walked over to Hua Jin with a friendly smile. "I hope you don't mind us sharing a room tonight?"

"I don't..."

"I mind!" Gong Jie cut him off mercilessly, pulling him into his arms and lowering his voice to a whisper. "If you dare share a room with Shishi, I'll break your legs."

The actor took a hard gulp and said, "... I believe you."

"You're looking for trouble, sharing a room with my sister?"

"..."

His voice was as cold as ice, but when he looked up at Yun Shishi, his expression was gentle. "She's mine tonight!"

"Psssss..."

Everyone was dumbfounded and their jaws almost dropped! Liang Yin, in particular, stared at Gong Jie in disbelief.

Terrified, Hua Jin tried to break free. "Hey, stop the nonsense! We..."

"It's not like we've never slept together, right?" Gong Jie smiled meaningfully, and he acted as if they were very close.

Liang Yin immediately walked over and pulled Hua Jin aside. "You slept with him?" she asked suspiciously. "When?"

"Don't listen to his nonsense!" The actor was at a loss for an explanation. Exasperated, he said, "He... actually knows about us."

"What about?"

"Meaning... he knows that I'm Hua Jin and that our bodies have been swapped!"

"Eh?"

"That's why he didn't want me to share a room with his sister. That's why he's forcing me to share a room with him!"

"No way!" Liang Yin insisted, "You can't share a room!"

The actor rolled his eyes. "I don't wish to either! You think I want to share a room with him?"

Gong Jie... Demon King! Who wants to share a room with the Demon King?!

Liang Yin was getting restless. "Then what should we do?! Why don't we just leave?"

Before Hua Jin could answer, Yun Shishi approached them. She gave them a once-over and asked curiously, "What are you discussing?"

“Noth... nothing!” Hua Jin asked tentatively, “How exactly are we going to allocate the rooms tonight?”

“There are three rooms all up! Originally, Lisa and I would have shared a room, the twins and your brother-in-law another, while Hua Jin and Xiao Jie would take the remaining one. However, since Hua Jin said he was bringing you and the hotel has run out of rooms, to save us all the trouble, why don’t you share a room with me?”

“No way!” Gong Jie protested as he came up to them, “We can’t assign that way!”

He pulled Hua Jin to his side. “She must share my room.”

Everyone fell silent.

Mu Yazhe could not tolerate this any longer. He intervened, “Tell you what, I’ll do the allocation.”

In the end, it was arranged that Hua Jin would share a room with Gong Jie and Mu Yazhe. Liang Yin would share a room with the twins. Lisa and Yun Shishi would take the remaining room.

The actor was on the verge of tears now. “Surely not? Wouldn’t it be too cramped to have three people in a room?”

“There are only three rooms.”

After much discussion, it did seem that Mu Yazhe’s proposal was the most appropriate. And so they all compromised.

Hua Jin felt aggrieved, but there was nothing he could do about it. Gong Jie and Mu Yazhe both would never agree to him sharing a room with Yun Shishi.

Although Liang Yin was a girl, she was occupying a man’s body after all. She was also sent to share a room with Youyou and Little Yichen.

At the moment, this plan seemed most humane. So they all nodded.

Chapter 3895: A Perfect Match (87)

After discussing the allocation of rooms, the group set off.

Liang Yin was rather happy with the outcome of the room allocation exercise! After all, what could be better than sharing a room with two adorable little tots. It was neither embarrassing nor awkward. The important thing was that there was no psychological burden.

Hua Jin had said that although Gong Jie was aware of this matter, he had kept it from Yun Shishi for the time being, for no other reason than that he did not want her to worry unnecessarily or struggle with accepting the fact. Still, now that Gong Jie knew, so did the boy Youyou.

Yun Shishi had booked the flights in advance. Once everyone was on board, Lisa, who had initially been sitting with Hua Jin, swapped seats with Youyou. Now seated beside the actor, Youyou studied him with an inscrutable look.

His stare sent a chill down the actor's spine. Hua Jin glanced at him and raised an eyebrow, wondering what that gaze could possibly mean.

"Why are you staring at me like that?"

"I was just wondering..." the boy looked him up and down and broke into a rather nasty smile. "Would a man feel particularly uncomfortable when they turn into a woman?"

"..."

"Do your breasts feel heavy?"

"No."

"Then ... do you pee like a girl now?"

"Do I have a choice?"

"Eh, that's amazing." The boy blinked his beautiful eyes and he suddenly chuckled, as if hiding an inexplicable ambition.

"I wish I could dissect you."

After all, this was the first time he had heard of such a fascinating thing as soul swap.

Of course, the boy understood that the actor could not be joking or lying.

The actor shuddered, terrified by the evil Youyou. Talking about dissection so casually, what a scary kid!

Hua Jin gulped. "You can't make jokes like that!"

"You know it's a joke, so why get so nervous."

"..."

On the other hand, Liang Yin got along very well with Mu Yichen. She was quite a child at heart, and the flight was relatively boring since all electronic devices were forbidden, so the boy did not have much to do. Liang Yin chatted with him to ease the boredom.

It was late afternoon when they arrived at the Halfway Hotel. The bellman took their suitcases and transferred them to the rooms.

The hot spring was known as "Halfway Hot Spring". Both the hotel and hot spring were located halfway up the mountain, therefore the name. While soaking in the hot spring, one could lie on the edge of the pool and look down at the entire mountain.

Especially at twilight, there was nothing more satisfying than soaking in the hot spring and watching the sunset.

Before coming here, Liang Yin's concept of a hot spring was only limited to television dramas. It was like the mist-emitting bath pools in many bathhouses. She had no interest in hot springs. However, when she arrived at the hotel, she was stunned by the beautiful scenery as she looked at the endless mountain road and the mountains!

Liang Yin said with a wide grin, "Why do I feel like I'm isolated from the world while staying in this hotel!"

Yun Shishi's response was immediate. "You usually work so hard filming. Consider this trip a vacation to relax."

"Oh..." Liang Yin rubbed her nose in embarrassment.

Yun Shishi didn't know about their situation yet, and thought she was Hua Jin!

However, she felt a little guilty about this "vacation" benefit!

Chapter 3896: A Perfect Match (88)

After all, given her previous background, she would not have been able to afford to stay in such an expensive hotel. She heard that a room in this hotel cost more than 10,000 a night.

Too expensive... Frighteningly expensive!

Compared to her state of ease, the actor seemed distracted. His head throbbed at the thought of sharing a room with Gong Jie that night. It seemed that the room was a suite. There were two rooms, two bathrooms, and a living room. So... who would be sharing a bed with whom?

If... Gong Jie wanted to share his bed, could he refuse? The actor had two concerns about sharing a bed with Gong Jie. One, he was worried that Gong Jie would go berserk and eat him alive. Two, he was worried that he would say something wrong and Gong Jie would tear him apart in a fit of anger.

He was keen on neither! He wanted to live for a few more years yet!!! Neither was he ready to sleep with Gong Jie! He didn't want to sleep with a man!! He was such a demon king!

The actor made a decision. It didn't matter how exactly the rooms were allocated, as long as he had a room to himself or even spend the night on the sofa in the living room. Whichever it came to, he just didn't want to be sharing a bed with Gong Jie.

"What is it?" Gong Jie stepped up beside him, interrupting his thoughts. "What's on your mind?"

"I..." The actor jumped when he realized it was Gong Jie. He had no idea when the man had sneaked up behind him!

He probed carefully, "How are the rooms being allocated tonight? Who... who are you sleeping with?"

"You and I together, how about that."

"No, no, no, no..." The actor waved his hands and smiled awkwardly. "That's... that's not very nice," he said evasively. "After all, I'm a woman now. A man and a woman should keep their distance."

"Oh?"

A man and a woman should keep their distance? Gong Jie found this saying rather interesting!

He gave a sinister smile that revealed the tips of his snow-white teeth. Coupled with the black diamond stud on his ear, he looked as evil and threatening as a demon.

Standing behind him, Gong Jie leaned forward with a playful smile as he spoke slowly into the actor's ear, "You seem to be quite accustomed to being a woman now?"

"I..." Hua Jin wanted nothing more than to pummel Gong Jie, but Gong Jie's terrifying aura... He chickened out and decided not to argue further with the man.

"The fact is that I'm a woman now!"

"Oh, how does it feel to be a woman?"

"It's all right!"

Except for the period pain. Hua Jin turned around uncomfortably, not daring to meet Gong Jie's eyes.

Gong Jie casually circled round to stand in front of him again, like an elegant cheetah on the prairie, pacing at a leisurely pace around its identified prey.

He stopped in front of the actor and bent down to gently grip his jaw. He studied his slightly flushed cheeks and narrowed his eyes. "I don't think there's anything out of place about you being a woman."

"What?"

"Don't you think, you've become somewhat more adorable since you became a woman?"

"..." The actor wrinkled his nose in embarrassment when those words sank in! Was this Gong Jie teasing him!? He gritted his teeth in frustration. "Anyway, we can't just sleep on the same bed," he snapped.

"You seem worried that I'll eat you up?"

Chapter 3897: A Perfect Match (89)

His remark made the actor even more wary.

He gave Gong Jie a cautious stare. "Would you?" he asked instead. Could this Gong Jie be so beastly as to want to impose himself on him even though knowing he was a man?!

Gong Jie was in no hurry to answer his question. Instead, he said enigmatically, "That... depends on whether I'm a normal man."

"..." Why did he hear a faint threat in the man's tone? No, it wasn't even faint. It was an outright threat!

"Are you threatening me?" Hua Jin narrowed his eyes and took a wary half step back.

"Threaten you in what ways? Do you think I need to threaten you now that you're so weak?"

"..." Hua Jin's eyes fluttered with guilt.

Annoyed that the actor's gaze wasn't on him, Gong Jie pinched his cheek, forcing him to look straight at him. "How do you think a man would react to sharing a bed with a woman?"

Beep-beep-beep...

/

Alarm bells went off in the actor's head. He stared at Gong Jie like he was staring at a lion, nervous that he would pounce on him in the next second!

Gong Jie was even more intrigued now by the man's alarm. "What, just realizing you're in danger?"

Gong Jie studied him from head to toe. "Thin as a bean sprout. I feel like I could lift you with one finger."

"Huh. Says who?" The actor took half a step back to avoid him. "Let's just keep a little distance between us."

"Why?"

"I feel a little uncomfortable standing close to you!"

"Uncomfortable in what way?"

Gong Jie narrowed his eyes and asked meaningfully, "Do you think I can't do anything to you just because you're avoiding me?"

“...”

Gong Jie admired his slightly uneasy expression with abandon and spoke unhurriedly. "If I really wanted to do something to you, you won't be able to hide from me!"

As Hua Jin was shuddering at those words, he heard Yun Shishi calling out.

"Xiao Jie!"

The two men turned to face each other as she approached. "Ah," she said when she saw them. "Am I interrupting something!?"

The actor waved his hands frantically. "No, no..."

Gong Jie put his arm around his shoulder and smiled warmly at Yun Shishi. "What's up?"

"We're going to the restaurant for dinner! After that, we're going to soak in the hot spring!"

"Okay, go ahead. We'll be right there."

After Yun Shishi left, Hua Jin pushed the man away and brushed his shoulders in disgust. Without another word, he ran after Yun Shishi. Gong Jie smirked as he watched the actor's rapidly disappearing back view.

There was actually nothing special about dinner, except that it was in a revolving restaurant near the mountainside, so the scenery was not bad. After dinner, Yun Shishi urged everyone to bring their bathing suits and arranged to meet them back at the hot spring.

The pool was huge, and the hotel had a total of ten hot springs. The hot spring that Yun Shishi had booked had the best view and was situated at an exclusive geographical location. It was a mixed bath, a very large pool, and on the other two sides were two very small pools – a red wine pool and a pool with small fish.

Gong Jie and Mu Yazhe changed into their bathers and made their way to the hot spring first. As soon as they were inside, they saw that Liang Yin had changed as well. However, she dawdled to the side of the pool, her arms covering her chest protectively.

Mu Yazhe was stunned to observe this.

Chapter 3898: A Perfect Match (90)

For some reason, she reminded him of a typical girl from a humble family! This was clearly a subconscious action that would come from a woman in the presence of the opposite sex.

Although Liang Yin knew that she was a man now, it still made her uncomfortable to be bare-chested. Even though Hua Jin had so many pairs of swimming trunks, Liang Yin had gone to buy herself another pair that offered more coverage.

Still, she was the luckier one in comparison. There was no one more awkward than Hua Jin. His swimsuit had been handpicked by Liang Yin. He'd never seen anything so conservative! Was this a freaking swimsuit?! She might as well call it a diving suit! Did it have to wrap around him so tightly?! Even if she didn't have a good figure, there was no need to cover so much of it! In Liang Yin's words, she was worried that he would "accidentally expose himself".

So freaking worried about being exposed! Even so, there was no need to pick a bathing suit that covered up so much?! This was nothing less than a diving suit!

By the time he'd changed into his bathing suit and stepped outside, Yun Shishi was sitting by the hot spring, sipping water. When she saw how tightly Hua Jin was wrapped up, she swallowed hard and nearly choked.

"Oh my God ..." She widened her eyes in shock. "Liang Yin, this... this is not a bathing suit, is it?!"

"Haha!" Little Yichen burst out laughing and pointed at Hua Jin.

"We're here to soak in the hot springs, not scuba dive."

"Those who don't know better might think we're diving in the Maldives!"

Feeling a little embarrassed, Hua Jin cleared his throat and walked gloomily into the hot spring. He found a corner and sat down, feeling so stifled that he had nowhere to vent.

The bathing suit was so tight that it felt really uncomfortable! It was stuffy and hot. Most importantly, the water in the hot spring itself was very hot. Coupled with such a tight swimsuit, it was like sitting in a sauna wrapped in a heavy cotton-padded jacket.

He felt he was going mad with the heat. Liang Yin was also a little upset. She realized that the swimsuit she'd picked out was too thick and heavy, to the point of ridiculous.

She had never soaked in a hot spring before, so she didn't know how hot the water was. She had asked for Hua Jin's opinion when she was picking out a bathing suit, and naturally, he let her pick whatever she wanted. His job was only to wear it. In the end, she chose the most conservative.

Was this a deliberate attempt to sabotage him? It was so thick that he couldn't breathe.

Gong Jie pursed his lips and smiled. As if gloating. The actor sat sullenly to one side, clearly not in high spirits. No matter how much he enjoyed the hot spring, it was almost ruined by this swimsuit.

Liang Yin walked over to him, looking a little guilty. "I'm sorry! I didn't know... hot springs are like this. Are you hot? Why don't you ask the service staff if there are any swimsuits for sale here? You can change into another one."

"What were you thinking, buying something that is so hopeless?" Hua Jin grumbled, "It's not like you have a great figure."

Liang Yin's expression turned cold and she gritted her teeth. "What did you say?"

Before he could explain, she grabbed his head and forced it under the water.

The actor shot out of the water and glared at Liang Yin angrily.

Yun Shishi saw this and chided him. "How can you bully a girl like that, Hua Jin?"

As she said this, she waded over to him and asked gently, "Are you all right, Liang Yin?"

The actor looked at her and smiled foolishly. "I'm fine..."

Chapter 3899: A Perfect Match (91)

"It's okay ..."

Yun Shishi was somewhat stunned by the smile. She widened her eyes slightly and immediately turned to Liang Yin, saying, "Hua Jin, this is indeed your assistant. She even resembles you when she smiles."

The actor froze for a moment, finding it hard to believe what he had just heard.

Liang Yin also turned to Yun Shishi in surprise and bewilderment. She blinked in astonishment, unable to recover.

The latter was completely unaware of the little secret between the actor and Liang Yin. She simply thought that when "Liang Yin" smiled, it was exactly the way Hua Jin would usually smile at her.

The actor was greatly moved. He did not expect that even though he looked entirely different now, she could still see him.

He suddenly recalled what Little Yichen had said to him. "When I stand next to Youyou, most people, even Daddy, find it hard to tell us apart if it weren't for the difference in our heights. But Mommy can tell at once which is Youyou and which is me. Isn't that amazing?"

At the time, Hua Jin was impressed by how meticulous a person Yun Shishi was, but he never thought that she could recognize him in another person, even if he wasn't "Hua Jin."

Hua Jin asked her cautiously, "Do I really look like Hua Jin when I smile?"

"Uh huh, very much so."

Yun Shishi glanced at Liang Yin and smiled. "Every time Hua Jin smiles at me, his eyes would be squeezed into little slits, just like yours!"

Saying this, she swam back to the side again, resting her arms on the edge of the pool, enjoying the comfortable soak.

Hua Jin and Liang Yin exchanged glances. Gong Jie glanced at Yun Shishi, then back at Hua Jin, and felt rather stifled and jealous. She had recognized the actor immediately.

He wondered, if this had happened to him, whether she, being his biological sister, would also see the shadow of his smile on someone else!

Hua Jin was about to wade over to Yun Shishi when Gong Jie reached out and pulled him back.

"You're not to go over!"

"..." The actor glowered at Gong Jie and snapped, "What the hell do you want, Gong Jie?"

Gong Jie lowered his voice in warning. "You are not to come within a meter of my sister."

"Why are you so domineering?!" Hua Jin shot him a look and muttered irritably, "Just like a child."

Gong Jie smiled wickedly at that. While he bore a gentle expression, his voice was menacingly cold.

"What, you think I won't dare hit you now that you're a woman?"

"Well... You're not going to hit a woman, are you?"

"Did you think..." Gong Jie suddenly closed the distance between them and continued, "that there are no other ways to torture you?"

Gulp.

The actor swallowed nervously, his eyes widening.

Gong Jie stared at him icily. He had been seething with anger, especially at the thought of the "special treatment" that Yun Shishi accorded Hua Jin. It made him extremely unhappy!

Except that, for some reason, the expression on the actor's face was ... fascinating. His eyes were so big that when they widened, it made him look both dazed and timid. The black of his eyes was filled with his enlarged reflection. It looked silly, but it was also... quite adorable!

Almost losing it at this point, Gong Jie turned away awkwardly. He actually thought that this guy... was quite endearing as a woman.

Was his brain malfunctioning?

Chapter 3900: A Perfect Match (92)

The moment he realized that he actually found Hua Jin adorable, Gong Jie became even more awkward and at the same time, vented this gloomy anger on the man in question.

“Why are you glaring at me?”

Without another word, Gong Jie grabbed the actor’s head again and dunked it underwater.

Gulp, gulp...

Alarmed by the noise coming from the corner, the crowd turned to look at what was going on. The actor flailed, then fell limp and unconscious in Gong Jie’s arms...

“What?” Yun Shishi swam towards him anxiously.

“Hua Jin, your assistant... she seems to have fainted!”

“Hua... Hua Jin!” Liang Yin shouted nervously. She had subconsciously called out his name but fortunately, the scene was chaotic and everyone’s attention was focused on him that they didn’t realize it.

Hua Jin had passed out.

...

When Gong Jie fished him out, he thought Hua Jin had drowned. Everyone scrambled around, confused. Among them, Mu Yazhe and Gong Jie were trained in emergency rescue. Without a second thought, Mu Yazhe meted out the difficult task to Gong Jie.

Gong Jie too, didn’t give it much thought. He thought the actor had choked on water. He interlocked his fingers over Hua Jin’s chest and exerted pressure, but nothing happened.

Liang Yin stood by the side, biting on her finger as she watched Gong Jie compressing Hua Jin’s chest. But... that was her body!

Frantic!!!

“How’s she?”

Yun Shishi crouched beside Hua Jin, but there was no response. “Be careful with the compressions,” she said anxiously to her brother. “She’s a girl and her bones are delicate. Don’t break her ribs.”

From the side, Liang Yin chimed in, “That’s right, that’s right. A girl’s bones are very fragile. Be careful not to break her bones.”

Most importantly, this was her body! She still had use for it!

Gong Jie looked glum. "It doesn't look like she's drowned!"

Yun Shishi bristled. "Xiao Jie, she's a girl. How can you be so cruel?! Even if it's a joke, you can't do that! What if it becomes a life and death situation?"

"I know what I'm doing."

As the group of people stood around and exchanged glances, Youyou looked at the actor's flushed face and asked suspiciously, "Could he have fainted from the heat?"

"..."

"Besides, I remember that there's an infirmary in the hotel."

The boy glanced at Gong Jie and said coolly, "Better to get the man to the infirmary than to stand here and stare, eh?"

"..."

...

When Hua Jin came to and opened his eyes, he saw the hanging light above him. He realized with a jolt that he was on a large bed.

There were familiar voices around him.

"You awake?"

"..." Horrified, the actor turned and found himself staring at Gong Jie who was sitting next to the bed.

Why was this guy haunting him everywhere he went!?

Gong Jie's scowl deepened as the actor stared at him like he'd seen a ghost. "I can put you to sleep again if you have no wish to wake up."

"Uh... uh-uh, no I'm fine."

Hua Jin was extremely afraid of the Demon King Gong Jie, he was also extremely timid outwardly.

"Why ... why am I here?" He sat up with his head in his hands and asked cautiously.

"The doctor says you had brain hypoxia and lost consciousness from low blood pressure. The bathing suit had caused you to pass out from the heat."

"..."
