

Sweet Love 4291

Chapter 4291: The Other Side 260

Dismayed, he blew on it and glared at her. "I told you I'd teach you. Disobedient, eh?"

She had insisted on doing it herself. Now that she had taken a fall, she insisted it didn't hurt. Although there was no blood, it was an abrasion. She wasn't made of steel. How could it not hurt? His heart ached.

"I'm really fine. I can still walk!" With that, Natalia scrambled to her feet. There was a burning pain in her knee, but she tolerated it. How would she dare to show pain? Gong Jie would make her rest and stop her from flying the kite. This kite had not taken off. She did not want to rest!

"Are we going to keep playing?"

"But of course!"

Natalia reached for the kite, but Gong Jie got to it first. "Don't you dare touch it."

"...?" Natalia looked at him questioningly.

"I'll show you how to fly it first. Then, you can play with your Peppa Pig, huh?"

"Okay..." Despite her reluctance, Natalia nodded her agreement. She was already excited at this point, but now all she could do was watch. She felt a little indignant, but Gong Jie sensed her impatience and said, "Watch carefully. We'll see who's kite flies higher later?"

It had to be said, Gong Jie's words ignited Natalia's fighting spirit. Natalia might be a little girl, but she had a strong desire to win. As soon as she heard that they were going to compete to see whose kite could fly higher, she instantly perked up and was ready for a good fight.

Gong Jie picked up the kite. He was tall, so he'd only just lifted it when the wind whipped it up. He tossed it like a paper airplane, then released the spool and stepped back, tugging gently at the string occasionally. The wind took the kite higher and higher.

Although Gong Jie didn't have the skills to fly a kite, he thought that this thing's takeoff distance was probably about the same as a paper plane. He'd studied engineering, so something like kite-flying was child's play to him.

The kite took off without a hitch. In his hands, it behaved like a well-trained hawk. He knew how to use the wind. If the kite showed weakness in the air, he would tighten the coil and give it a gentle tug. If he felt the line tightening, it proved that the wind was rising. So, taking advantage of the wind, he let go of the spool again and let it take the kite higher.

Before long, half the spool of string had been used and the kite was flying higher and higher. Even to the naked eye, it was as if it could surpass all the other kites on the lawn.

"Eh?! Why aren't those kites as high up as yours?" Natalia's eyes sparkled. "Daddy is amazing!"

Hua Jin suddenly came over and overheard their conversation. "Their line isn't as long as ours," he said disapprovingly. "They've reached the end of their line. Judging by the height, it's no more than 400 meters. The line I brought can go up to 800 meters."

"800 meters!"

"Well, actually, the line is 1000 meters, but the higher you fly the kite, the more easily the line breaks."

Natalia nodded, half-understanding these things. "Oh, I see! Does that mean our kite is over 400 meters now?"

"There are markings on the line."

The actor walked over to take a closer look. There were scale lines on the line. It had actually been released to 500 meters.

Chapter 4292: The Other Side 261

The actor walked over to take a closer look. There were scale lines on the line. It had actually been released to 500 meters.

How much effort had it taken to successfully fly the kite 500 meters up in the air?! The man had even claimed to have no experience flying a kite. Who was he kidding?

"It's fun." Gong Jie suddenly found kite-flying interesting, especially when he caught that look of extreme admiration coming from Natalia. It made the activity all the more meaningful.

Natalia began to feel guilty. Only a while ago, she was eyeing the man, determined to compete with him. Now, seeing how he had flown the kite so high, she suddenly felt a little discouraged.

"I've lost." She huffed. "Surely I can't compete with Daddy."

Gong Jie smiled disapprovingly at that. "Are you giving up already?"

As soon as she heard that remark, Natalia snapped back stubbornly, "Who said anything about giving up? I didn't say I'm giving up just yet."

The actor immediately said, "Natalia, shall we fly the Peppa Pig kite?"

"Alright!" Natalia clenched her fists. "I must fly it higher than Daddy's kite."

"Alright!"

"You're not to help me. I want to do it myself!"

"Sure thing." Smiling, he watched as Natalia walked over to where the snacks were, grabbed the Peppa Pig kite and string, and studied them. Finally, crestfallen, she returned to his side. "Um... how do you tie a knot in a kite string?"

"..." Didn't she say that she wanted to do it herself and didn't need anyone's help! Hua Jin gave her a scornful look.

Natalia could not bear to see the mockery in his eyes and immediately defended herself solemnly.

"Tying the line. It's just tying the line. I'm not really asking for help!"

"Oh, right. It doesn't count when you say it doesn't!" Amused, the actor knelt down and placed the kite on the ground. With both hands, he threaded the string back and forth and quickly knotted it.

Gong Jie watched the entire exchange, then suddenly smiled. "I didn't know you were so nimble with your fingers!"

"I knotted the strings for your kite too."

"That's impressive," he said casually, but who knew if he meant it as a compliment. The actor felt uncomfortable with that remark.

He secured the line and handed the kite to Natalia, gently patting her head. "There you go!"

"Yeah!" Natalia lifted the kite and followed Gong Jie's example, but she was short, which was a considerable disadvantage. No matter how she stood on her toes, there was a height difference.

She turned to Hua Jin and said, "Stand slightly to the side and don't get in my way."

The actor looked puzzled. How could he be in her way!? Still, he stepped aside as she had instructed. Natalia threw the kite, but it crashed like a plane, hitting the grass with a thud.

Her expression immediately soured. Looking resentfully at Gong Jie's kite which was climbing steadily in the wind, she lamented, "We're different."

"Hahahaha!" The actor couldn't suppress himself any longer. Unafraid to offend Natalia, he laughed mercilessly.

"Natalia, you're so cute! Kites aren't supposed to be thrown onto the ground. you're supposed to throw them into the wind!"

"..." Natalia's expression continued to darken.

"Stop laughing!"

Hua Jin barely managed to contain himself. His cheeks were flushed.

"Shall I help you?"

"No, I want to do it myself!"

Chapter 4293: The Other Side 262

"Fine. Play by yourself." The actor saw that Natalia was determined to play by herself, so he moved to the side and sat on the ground, watching Natalia running around the lawn with her kite.

Gong Jie's kite was already flying high overhead by now, and it was still climbing higher. In addition, the style of the kite was especially cute and flattering, and the workmanship was exquisite. For a moment, it attracted the people flying their kite on the other lawns!

"Daddy, look! That kite is flying so high!"

"Big Brother, I want to fly my kite that high too!"

"We can't. We've reached the end of our line. This is the highest we can go!"

"Then how can the other person's kite be flying so high?"

"That shows how long his line is."

"The Baymax kite is so cute. Why is our kite so ugly?"

There would have been no harm done if there was no comparison made. As the saying goes, you get what you pay for, but there was nothing wrong with that.

Some people bought their kites at the mall, some got theirs from the supermarket. The vast majority of them were touring visitors to the Forest Ridge Park and bought their kites for fun when they were approached by the pushcart sellers at the park.

However, Hua Jin's kite had been purchased at Lezhi Holding's flagship store. Aside from the fact that it could fly like a normal kite, it had a smart system and a solid workmanship that meant it wouldn't break no matter how high it flew or how strong the wind was.

Gradually, out of the corner of his eye, Gong Jie saw many people surrounding him. The parents were holding their children's hands. There were also a few young girls and boys gathered around, looking on with all sorts of expressions on their faces.

The children looked at his kite with envy. It was flying so high. Then they looked with dismay at their own kites with broken strings.

The young girls, on the other hand, were gazing at Gong Jie in utter amazement. Mesmerized, they stared without moving an inch.

Blue sky, white clouds, green grass, and this god-like handsome man.

Gong Jie's appearance had undoubtedly attracted too much attention.

"Look at this little big brother flying a kite. He's really handsome!"

"I've never seen such a handsome man in real life. Is he an Internet celebrity? Or a star?"

"He's so tall. He's not a model, is he?"

"His features are so sculpted and exquisite. He doesn't seem like a celebrity. Although it's a pity he's not!"

...

Seeing that more and more people were gathering around, the actor panicked and immediately put on his mask, afraid that others would recognize him as Hua Jin. Although he had already retired, his fan club was still very active. Therefore, every time he went out, there were many aspects of things he had to take care of.

The actor was very popular throughout the nation. He had starred in several phenomenal television series, particularly, his popularity had soared to another level with "Lethal Beauty". Many people knew who he was.

Actually, he didn't have many fans, but people had a herd mentality. As long as they saw a celebrity, they would gather around and ask for photographs, whether they were familiar with him or not.

Fortunately, at this moment, Gong Jie had attracted the vast majority of the attention, and not many people noticed Hua Jin. The actor put on his mask and moved to the other side.

Within moments, the crowd swelled. It took Gong Jie a moment to realize he was surrounded by starry-eyed women.

"Where did you buy your kite, handsome?"

"It's Baymax, from the Super Marines. One of my favorite cartoon characters!"

Chapter 4294: The Other Side 263

"How do you fly this kite so high? My kite never flies very high. It just falls out of the sky for no reason."

"Little Big Brother, Little Big Brother, will you teach me to fly a kite?"

...

A group of women surrounded Gong Jie and chattered. Some tried to engage him. Some even took out their cell phones and brought up their WeChat QR codes, asking to add him as a friend.

In the presence of such a handsome man, many girls forgot their reservations. They blushed and mustered their courage to strike up a conversation.

Gong Jie was confused. He had been too engrossed in the kite to notice the women gathering around him.

At some point, he was surrounded by a sea of people.

Natalia finally managed to get her kite up. Out of the corner of her eye, she saw that Gong Jie was surrounded by people dozens of yards away. Gripping the kite string in his hand, the man was also momentarily unable to break through the crowd.

Natalia looked at the girls who were all eager to talk to Gong Jie. Even though she was young, she knew that her daddy was being coveted by other girls! With this rare dashing profile, he had attracted all sorts of girls. But there was no way Natalia was going to allow Gong Jie to be coveted by the others, so she pursed her lips and thought for a moment. Then she hauled her kite towards him.

First, she was stuck outside the crowd.

She pouted as she held the kite high above her, calling out, "Daddy! Daddy!" She carefully tried to break through the crowd. "Excuse me, why are you all crowding around here? Daddy, Daddy..."

When they heard Natalia calling for their daddy, the people around them turned to this little fellow in surprise!

Oh God.

This little lolita was really cute. Some people with sharp eyes even noticed Natalia's purple eyes and were taken aback.

"Why are this girl's eyes purple?"

"Could she be wearing contact lenses?!"

"That's right. There's no such thing as purple eyes! Whose child is this? These parents are too much. How could they allow such a young child to be wearing purple contact lenses. What if it damages her eyes?"

"She seems to be calling for her Daddy. Who would that be?"

"Whose child! Come and claim her!"

"This child is so young. Be careful. Don't crowd her out, don't step on her..."

Word spread through the crowd. When Gong Jie saw this he immediately secured his line to the metal hook on the ground. He moved towards Natalia.

"Excuse me." He walked over and the crowd automatically parted to make way for him.

When Natalia saw him, she threw herself into his arms and cried hypocritically in a loud voice in a way she had never done before. "Daddy, sob, my kite is not flying! I'm so angry!"

Gong Jie had never seen Natalia acting so delicate. She threw herself into his arms and opened her arms for a hug. Obliging, he picked her up, also indirectly acknowledging that he was Natalia's daddy. At this point, the expressions of those around them changed.

Surprise, amazement, disbelief... Especially when they saw this little girl hugging Gong Jie and calling him 'daddy', they were taken by surprise!

What?!

This little big brother was already a father?! He looked so young, in his twenties, but he was the father of a child?

No one could believe it.

Chapter 4295: The Other Side 264

The girls were heartbroken! Such a handsome little big brother was already married with a kid! While they themselves were pathetic singletons.

Sure enough, all the desirable men were either married or gay. Good men indeed already had their families and careers. Disappointment filled many faces.

Seeing that her plan had worked, Natalia hid a smile as she gently wrapped her arms around Gong Jie's neck and kissed his cheek.

There was another gasp from the crowd, and looks of envy and jealousy.

"Ahhh, I'm so envious. Suddenly I'm so envious of that little girl!"

"Exactly. If only I were the girl in that little big brother's arms!"

"Why don't I have such a handsome father?"

"This little girl really knows how to reincarnate!"

"I have to say, reincarnation is also a skill!"

...

The crowd gathered around Gong Jie and Natalia, talking animatedly, casting glances of surprise, envy, and wonder...

People were chattering around them, and the noise annoyed Gong Jie.

He turned around and swept his cold gaze around. Then he shouted expressionlessly, "Why are you crowding around here?!"

"..."

So fierce!

The coldness and distance in Gong Jie's expression was like the icy Arctic wind sweeping across barren land.

Everyone shuddered. Soon, like subsiding flood waters, the crowd dispersed. Not a soul was left.

Natalia felt rather satisfied now that everyone had retreated. She didn't like the idea of Gong Jie being watched like an animal in a zoo. She always found those looks repulsive. Except, she hadn't expected that one look from the man scared off the entire flock.

The actor removed his mask, his eyes wide with surprise.

See!

Sure enough, the problem did not lie with him!. Gong Jie's piercing gaze would terrify anyone! However, as expected of the Demon King. With just a look, he had forced so many people back and they had fled. This showed how frightening Gong Jie's presence was.

"Hmph, those women actually dare covet my daddy. They're too much!" Natalia put her arm around his shoulders and huffed. "Daddy is mine. No one can take him from me. Hmph!"

Gong Jie relaxed slightly at that, feigning calmness, he pinched her cheek and raised his eyebrows, remarking, "I thought someone said she was going to love another man more in the future. Seems like there's a big change in attitude, huh?"

The actor gulped.

Who would have thought that the guy was brooding over that remark still?

How petty of him to fuss over the words of a child.

Natalia objected. "Says who?"

"You said it, obviously."

Natalia denied it, pouting. "I didn't say that! I think both of you are important."

"So, if he and I fell into the river at the same time, who would you save first?"

Hua Jin grimaced when he heard that. How could such an aloof Demon King ask such a childish question?

Natalia frowned at that and asked him a trickier question instead. "If I fell into a cesspit, would you save me and give me mouth-to-mouth resuscitation?"

Gong Jie looked bewildered and was speechless.

Was this a grilling of the soul?

Chapter 4296: The Other Side 265

Gong Jie found himself at a loss for an answer to that question.

How did this cunning girl come up with this question?!

He didn't even know how to answer it!

A vivid image immediately came to his mind upon hearing this question.

"Hahaha!" The actor, unable to contain himself any longer, burst out laughing.

What an awesome question! A grilling of his soul!

Natalia raised her eyebrows triumphantly and pressed on, "Won't you save me?"

“Of course I’d be willing to...”

“Would you be willing to give me CPR, then?”

“...” Gong Jie frowned. He’d always had a severe case of mysophobia, so the image of that alone made him gag.

His face was ashen as he set Natalia down. It was obvious he was already looking sickly.

“You’re not to ask that question again.”

Natalia listened, confused. “Why?”

“That’s not a question a lady should ask.”

Gong Jie frowned as he spoke. “Where did you get that question from?”

“Emmm... not telling you!” Natalia stuck her tongue out playfully at him and ran towards the actor.

Seeing her run towards the actor, Gong Jie’s meaningful gaze fell on him. Naturally, he would think that this person must have put that question in her head!

The actor caught his eye and shuddered. He was compelled to explain himself, but he sensed that any attempt to do so forcefully would only worsen things and make him look guilty.

But...

He really didn’t suggest the damned question!

Hua Jin also tugged on Natalia’s hand. “Who taught you to ask that question?” he asked sternly.

“Does it matter who I learned it from? You can’t answer it anyway. Which means if I do fall into a cesspit, you won’t save me and give me CPR.”

“I would!” Hua Jin vowed, clenching his fists.

It was Natalia’s turn to stare at him as if she’d seen a ghost. Did the man just say he would? Why did she find that so hard to believe?!

“I don’t believe it!”

The actor said airily, “You’re right not to believe it. And I don’t believe you’re going to fall into a cesspit either.”

Natalia looked confused. Even though it sounded like a real possibility, it seemed she wouldn’t have a chance of actually falling into a cesspit, so the question wasn’t really valid. Given this, there was no point discussing if one was willing.

Still, the actor’s answer sounded suspiciously lazy. It was Gong Jie’s turn to feel better. He was, however, impressed by how the actor’s answer had managed to restrain the girl.

Natalia turned immediately to Gong Jie and said, “In this case, I’m able to answer your question now.”

“Eh?”

“I’ll jump into the river to accompany you guys, too. I’ll die for love.”

“...”

Both Gong Jie and Hua Jin were dumbfounded.

What sort of answer was that!

“Anyway, you won’t really fall into the river. Besides, even if you did, I wouldn’t be able to drag you ashore. However, even though we were born on different days, I’m certain we’ll all die on the same day.”

The two men were completely stumped.

This answer was indeed...

Too patronizing!

Natalia chortled. “Well, let’s not dwell on this meaningless question. You’re all important to me. I can’t let either of you go.”

Chapter 4297: The Other Side 266

Natalia chortled. “Well, let’s not dwell on this meaningless question. You’re all important to me. I can’t let either of you go.”

Meaningless question...

Hua Jin smirked and threw Gong Jie a glance. The man, however, turned away from him with a strange expression on his face.

And so the actor flew the kite with Natalia for a short while. It took a bit of effort to get the kite up in the air but it was finally up there and the wind was picking up. Natalia, though, didn’t seem very happy to see the Peppa Pig kite floating in the sky.

Seeing that she looked lost, Hua Jin leaned over and asked, “What’s wrong? You look unhappy!”

Natalia turned to him with a pout and sighed with emotion. “I miss Youyou...”

The actor was taken aback for a moment, and then he burst out laughing. He had wanted to tease her, but instead probed, “Could it be that... you like the boy?”

“Of course I like Youyou!” Natalia obviously didn’t read between the lines. The look in her eyes was so pure and innocent that it made him feel sinful instead!

Actually, the mutual affection that children have for each other is the simplest thing in the world. Of course, attraction between the opposite sex exist among children as well.

However, such a young child would not understand the complicated world of adult relationships. Those complicated emotions were beyond her. The reasons for liking a boy or a girl could be as simple as because the person looked delicate and pretty or it was fun to play with him or her.

Natalia seemed to have developed a reliance on Youyou. This sense of reliance was no less than that which she had for Gong Jie.

The actor suggested, "Why don't we go hang out at Youyou's house after kite-flying?"

Natalia's eyes brightened and she perked up. "Sure!"

"Uh huh. Stay here and play by yourself for now then, I'll get my phone and call Youyou!"

"Alright!"

The actor stepped to the side, pulled out his phone, and scrolled for Yun Shishi's number.

Gong Jie had just put away the kite when he spotted Hua Jin making the call. "Who are you calling?" he asked suspiciously.

The actor said casually, "Oh, I'm calling Shishi. Natalia says she wants to hang out with Youyou. It's just as well you're back. How about dinner together?"

His brother nodded at that. "Okay."

The actor dialed the number, and after it rang for a long time, the call was finally answered. Little Yichen's voice was low and trembling. "Hello?"

Hua Jin was stunned for a moment. Puzzled, he asked, "Why are you picking up the call? Where's your mommy?"

There was silence for a moment. What the boy said next made the actor's eyelids twitch violently.

"Something's happened... to Mommy..."

Hua Jin's eyes widened at that, and he drew in a sharp breath. Gong Jie, who was beside him, noticed his strange reaction and frowned slightly.

Hua Jin struggled to recover from his daze and immediately asked, "What happened?!"

"It's complicated. Anyway, come to the hospital and we'll talk then!"

The boy hastily ended the call. The actor listened to the dead tone and stared blankly at his phone.

Gong Jie came over and asked in a quiet voice, "What's going on!?"

"I think... something happened to Shishi..."

'What?!'

Gong Jie tensed at the mention of Yun Shishi. His breath caught in his throat as he crossed the room to the actor and gripped him firmly by the shoulders.

“What happened to her!?”

Gong Jie’s grip was strong, and it hurt, but Hua Jin knew that it was because the man cared too much and was too worried. So, despite the pain, he calmed down and reassured the other man. “Gong Jie, calm down... I don’t know what happened... Anyway, let’s go to the hospital first! From Little Yichen’s tone, I don’t think she’s in any danger...”

Gong Jie relaxed a little when he heard that Yun Shishi was not in danger. However, his fingertips still trembled slightly.

The actor turned around and instructed Natalia to pack up the kite. Natalia was surprised to hear that it was time to pack up. She whined that she wanted to play a little longer. It wasn’t until the actor said with a solemn expression that he had some business to attend to, that Natalia realized something urgent must have happened.

She probed cautiously, “Well, can we still go and play with Youyou tonight?”

“I’m afraid not today. I’m sorry, Natalia. Another day, okay?” Hua Jin seemed sincere, and despite the disappointment on her face, Natalia was considerate enough to say it was alright.

She could tell that something significant had happened. Natalia was not a willful child.

They quickly stowed away the kite, got into the car, and sped away almost as fast as they could. First, they drove Natalia home, then Gong and Hua Jin hurried to the hospital, following the location marked by Little Yichen.

Twenty minutes later, the two of them finally arrived at the hospital. Walking up to the ward entrance, they saw Little Yichen and his father sitting outside. Gong Jie hurried over to him, his heart plummeting as he glanced from the boy to his father, who looked grim.

“What’s going on? What on earth happened!?”

They looked up at the sound of hurried footsteps and saw Hua Jin and Gong Jie hurrying towards them. Mu Yazhe stood up and was about to say something when he looked back worriedly through the window.

Through the clear glass of the window, they could see that several doctors were gathered around Yun Shishi in the ward, talking quietly to each other. He could not hear what was being said through the door, but the nurse was cleaning her wounds. Gong Jie saw that some bloodstained alcohol-soaked cotton was piled on a tray, and he turned ashen.

“What happened...”

Little Yichen, on the other hand, looked grave and kept silent. His head was bowed and he looked exhausted. Not expecting any information from the boy, Gong Jie turned his attention to Mu Yazhe.

The man answered slowly. “Stabbed in the abdomen. The doctor said it wasn’t serious. He’s transfusing blood.”

“Stabbed?” Gong Jie’s face was contorted in anger at that. “Who stabbed her?!”

Hua Jin was equally incredulous to hear that Yun Shishi had been stabbed. Why had she been stabbed for no reason? Yun Shishi was usually accompanied by bodyguards when she went out. How could she get hurt?!

A second ago, he’d been furious with Mu Yazhe for not having protected her adequately, but what the man said next sent both of them reeling again.

Mu Yazhe said, “Gong Fan stabbed her. No one expected that.”

“...” Gong Jie and Hua Jin looked at each other, clearly unable to process those words.

Chapter 4299: The Other Side 268

“How is that possible?!” Hua Jin was the first to voice his disbelief.

“Why would Gong Fan stab Shishi?!”

Mu Yazhe glanced up at him, his handsome brow furrowed in confusion.

This had happened around noon.

In the morning, he had left the ward to go to the office as he had something to deal with. He hurriedly settled the matter and when he returned to the hospital, he saw that Yun Shishi was sitting in front of Gong Fan’s bed, peeling an apple for him. He saw that Gong Fan was still asleep, so he went to the shower room to take a shower.

However, just as he was done and was about to step out of the bathroom, he heard a strange movement in the ward, followed by Little Yichen’s exclamation.

With no time to dry himself, he threw on a robe and by the time he rushed out, Yun Shishi was clutching her abdomen, her body curled up into a kneeling position. Around her knees, there was an appalling amount of blood.

Meanwhile, Gong Fan stood there, staring at her with a cold expression. In his hand was a fruit knife, stained with her blood. He was gripping it so tightly that it looked as though he was about to break the knife handle.

A fruit knife like this would remain in the body once a person has been stabbed, because of the suction force of the flesh. If one did not have any strength, it would be difficult to pull it out.

It was obvious that Gong Fan had pulled the knife back out after stabbing Yun Shishi. Just as he raised the fruit knife overhead to stab her again, Little Yichen heard the commotion and arrived in time to protect her.

Even now, Little Yichen still had lingering fears. He did not dare to imagine what would have happened if he had left the ward to get hot water!

In short, Little Yichen was scared out of his wits and still in shock!

Mu Yazhe picked Yun Shishi up in his arms and rushed her to the emergency room, while Little Yichen stayed behind to watch over Gong Fan. After Yun Shishi had been admitted to the emergency room and the doctor came out to report that her injuries were not life-threatening, Mu Yazhe returned to the ward. By then, Gong Fan had fainted. Mu Yazhe then had the ward heavily guarded.

Fortunately, Mu Yazhe did not panic.

The news had not yet spread.

Apart from Mu Yazhe and Little Yichen, no one knew how or why she had been injured. The hospital had wanted to get to the bottom of the matter, but since the victim was Mu Yazhe's wife, they did not dare to investigate further. After a few questions and a few perfunctory replies, they had been too afraid to say much else. They only quickly rescued her and did not dare interfere further.

Gong Fan's ward had now been isolated by Mu Yazhe's men. There were only a few trustworthy nurses and doctors in the spacious ward, and the rest were private bodyguards assigned to watch over the boy.

Mu Yazhe did not have the heart to concern himself over Gong Fan just yet, nor did he know the boy's motive for stabbing Yun Shishi. However, according to Little Yichen, if he had not stopped him, he would have stabbed her to death.

He could not understand what kind of deep hatred compelled Gong Fan to stab Yun Shishi to death!

That was murder! Gong Fan had gone crazy! Why would he do that?! This was no longer hurting someone, but simply an intention to kill someone! Gong Fan wanted to kill Yun Shishi!

Little Yichen was filled with anger at the thought of Gong Fan's ruthlessness.

But Mu Yazhe thought otherwise.

Chapter 4300: The Other Side 269

Now, with Yun Shishi still unconscious, no one knew what had happened at the time. He was mature with a rational and logical ability that a child like Little Yichen would not have.

Gong Fan was not stupid. On the contrary, this personality was more shrewd than Youyou. Why would he do something that would not benefit himself? What could he possibly gain by killing Yun Shishi?!

Mu Yazhe couldn't work out the logic, so he told Little Yichen to let it go for now. Maybe when Gong Fan woke up, the truth would be revealed..

Compared to Little Yichen's impulsiveness, Gong Jie was much more rational.

"Impossible." He frowned, unwilling to believe it. "No matter what, I won't believe that Gong Fan would hurt Yun Shishi."

Little Yichen stood up angrily at this. He was restrained but displeased. "I saw it with my own eyes. Gong Fan stabbed Mommy with a knife! I saw it with my own eyes. How can it be wrong?" He used to like Gong Fan very much, but this fondness did not mean that he could tolerate the boy hurting Yun Shishi.

But Gong Jie thought differently. He knew very well what Yun Shishi represented and meant to Gong Fan. She was Gong Fan's most affectionate obsession in this world. Yun Shishi was as important to Gong Fan as she was to his siblings. Her existence was like a beacon to Gong Fan. How could he hurt this beacon in his life? Although Gong Jie's heart ached over the injury Yun Shishi had suffered, this matter could not be concluded just by judging what they saw superficially!

Hua Jin immediately tried to reassure the boy. "Calm down, Little Yichen. Be rational."

"I'm being very reasonable! If it weren't for the fact that it's Youyou's body, I'd break his hand!" Little Yichen gritted his teeth. It was obvious he'd been holding back for a long time.

"Sometimes, what you see might not be true. So, don't make the final judgment. Wait until your mommy wakes up to get to the bottom of things!"

Gong Jie turned to his Mu Yazhe. "Have you told Alice about this?"

"No, I haven't." Mu Yazhe shook his head.

There had been no room to breathe since the incident. They had sent Yun Shishi into the emergency room and returned to make arrangements for Gong Fan. After that, Yun Shishi had returned from the emergency room. They had no room to give any thought to Alice.

"I'd better tell her about this!"

"Maybe later!" Mu Yazhe made an excuse. He wanted to keep Alice out of this for now. At least until Yun Shishi and Gong Fan woke up.

No one could explain what exactly happened at that time, even Little Yichen, who came into the picture only later on. No one could explain why Gong Fan wanted to stab Yun Shishi.

The doctor and nurse came out a few moments later, and he rose at once to inquire after the situation.

"Nothing serious. The wound isn't deep."

After all, no matter how ruthless he was, how strong could a child's hand be? Just the fact that he had managed to pierce the knife through her clothes was quite something. Hence, the wound wasn't very deep. She had lost blood only because Gong Fan had pulled out the fruit knife, causing a certain amount of bleeding. However, she had already received an emergency blood transfusion.