

Sweet Love 911

Chapter 911: Is he not a company employee?

She cut herself off mid-speech upon realizing that what she was saying would only hurt her friend again.

“Anyway, she said a lot of bad things about you.”

“So... You guys fought?” Yun Shishi narrowed her eyes.

Thinking about it carefully, her friend always had a rash personality. She was driven by justice, so if Huang Lili did talk bad about her in front of the other, Xiao Xue would not take it lying down and would surely stand up for her.

As she looked at the messy appearances of Du Jiayan and Gao Nan, she was thoroughly confused!

Her friend explained what had just happened.

She was dumbstruck upon hearing everything.

“Xiao Xue, you are too rash; biting at others like a mad dog, how can you reason with other mad dogs?”

Her friend was stunned at first, but following that, she laughed elatedly.

“What’s wrong?” She looked at her, feeling baffled.

Her friend commented, “Your man said the same thing earlier.”

She then copied his cool expression and said coolly, “A man can’t communicate with a mad dog, after all.”

She collapsed to herself again, laughing after she finished saying that.

Yun Shishi laughed along as well. Those words really did sound like his style.

Just imagining his icy look as he said those malicious words, she also started finding it very hilarious.

They laughed.

At this moment, everyone did not dare to laugh despite wanting to do so.

Sensing that her boyfriend was no simple character, they suddenly felt the large chasm between her and them. Some girls, who had never agreed with her, could feel jealousy crawling into their bone marrow.

Nonetheless, no one dared to show it on their faces.

Once she had enough laughing, she looked around, and with a face full of suspicion, she asked, “Where is he?”

“He is with Sir Wang in a private meeting room.” Her friend pointed to a sealed room door.

A small meeting room?

“Sir Wang?” Who is that?

“Now that we’re talking about it, what a coincidence for us to meet him! Apparently, he is Gao Nan’s uncle and Wanke Real Estate’s president.”

Her friend paused for a while before asking, “Anyway, what’s the identity of your boyfriend? I saw how courteous Gao Nan’s uncle was in front of him!”

“I heard uncle address him as ‘Master Mu’.” Gao Nan furrowed his brows, asking all of a sudden, “Who is your boyfriend exactly?”

She raised a brow but refused to acknowledge him.

Huang Lili said anxiously, “Shishi, we had many misunderstandings before; please don’t mind them!”

After what had happened earlier, she no longer dared to look for trouble with her. In fact, she schooled her features not to show contempt but a respectful attitude, instead.

“I didn’t know... That your boyfriend has such a status! Didn’t you say that he’s just a company employee? Why... Why then would Mr. Wang do a one-eighty change in his attitude the moment he saw him?”

She was still in a daze, unable to react even now.

Initially, that middle-aged man had a supercilious look when he met her boyfriend.

In front of Mu Yazhe, he acted like a wuss.

These words could never be said up front, though.

Earlier, that old man cautiously invited Mu Yazhe into the meeting room, claiming that he had a business collaboration to discuss with him.

The man did not reject him, letting the latter keep his dignity on his turf.

She spread both hands. “Yes, that’s right. He is a company employee.”

“But...”

“Huang Lili, not only is your education poor, you don’t even have common sense,” she said matter-of-factly. “A CEO is still an employee in a company.”

The other was instantly embarrassed.

Everyone lamented in their hearts, and they secretly ridiculed Huang Lili more than ever.

Chapter 912: A Burning Hot Face

Yun Shishi’s boyfriend was a company president, yet she did not flaunt it like Huang Lili did. The latter had truly been vain!

“What’s your boyfriend’s name?” Xiao Xue asked nosily.

Gao Nan’s brows creased. “I heard uncle addressing him as ‘Master Mu’. For a person to make my uncle address him respectfully, he can only be from the Mu family and no one else.”

As soon as he finished saying that, Du Jiayan’s complexion turned even gloomier than before!

The crowd began whispering to one another.

“It can’t be, right?”

“Mu Yazhe... I’ve heard of this name before. He’s from the Mu family in the capital and the president of Disheng!”

“Oh, gosh... It can’t be possible! Disheng’s CEO!”

“Earlier, Shishi’s boyfriend said that he is an employee there. Although he shares the surname Mu, he can also just be Mu Yazhe’s cousin. Just like how Xiao Xue’s boyfriend is Sir Wang’s nephew, it isn’t definite that he is that man himself.”

“...”

“Huang Lili’s boyfriend said earlier that he knew Mu Yazhe and had even played golf with him, but from what I saw, Shishi’s boyfriend doesn’t even recognize him.”

“He he! That’s impossible! Her boyfriend can’t be that renowned figure! Haven’t Du Jiayan already said that the Mu Group’s young president and he are acquainted? If he is really Mu Yazhe, how come he didn’t recognize him?”

Everyone continued discussing the issue fervently.

Du Jiayan could only feel his face burning. Thus, he asked carefully, “Shishi, is your boyfriend Mu Yazhe?”

If he really is that person...

He recalled how much he had bragged earlier about him meeting Mu Yazhe a few times and even playing golf with him. He even said that he would meet with the man to request for him to take care of Yun Shishi’s boyfriend!

Oh, god. When had he ever met him in real life? He was just wrangling earlier!

If her boyfriend was really Mu Yazhe, would he not... be in total disgrace?

Thinking up to this, he was as white as a blank sheet of paper. He increasingly became more restless.

He wanted to dig a hole in the ground so badly and bury his embarrassed self.

She merely ignored him, though.

Instead, she sat on the couch.

The waiter brought in a few desserts.

Huang Lili was quite hungry. Due to the big fight earlier, she did not bother filling her stomach. With a thick skin, she reached out for some of the desserts.

Alas, the waiter politely stopped her. "Sorry, lady! Our boss has these desserts prepared for Miss Yun."

Her lips twitched as she gulped a mouthful of dejection.

Xiao Xue held her stomach as she laughed. "You still have the face to eat? Take away your dirty hand; it's disgusting to look at!"

The other was furious inside but did not dare to voice it out. She could only retract her hand resentfully.

She had lost her face completely at this class gathering.

At the side, Gao Nan's mind was filled with complex thoughts.

His main reason for attending this class reunion was Yun Shishi, but tonight, she brought along a man. He thought at first that she had brought a 'bodyguard' with her due to what had happened last time.

Since this bodyguard turned out to be Mu Yazhe from the capital's Mu family, his heart was in utter turmoil.

From the start, he was determined to fight for her!

He was the type to use any means to get the woman he laid his eyes on, and he wanted this particular woman no matter what. He thought that it would require little effort on his part to get her!

Alas, her man turned out to be that Mu Yazhe, and their relationship seemed more than shallow.

He was, thus, no longer so sure.

Chapter 913: Playing with Mu Yazhe's leftovers!

Since she was that man's woman, his heart was no longer certain!

No matter what, he could never win against him.

After all, that man's status, whichever way one looked at it, was significantly higher than his.

How could he fight against him?

And here he was, still nursing delusions of stealing a woman from his clutches...

However, as he thought further of this, he started feeling indignant!

He did not know much about that man, but he got that the Mu family was very powerful and influential in the capital.

That man was a powerful figure, then!

Forget it!

Men would always have some bad habits.

How could he not understand the typical behavior of men?

For that man to be so devoted to her, what kind of person was he? He was likely just playing around!

That was what he thought.

For such an influential man, there was no way his affections would last long. Women were just temporary pleasure. Tales like having one's heart for a lifetime or never being apart even after turning old were just lies told to trick little girls.

Is being committed still a thing in this day and age?

He he! Especially for someone with so much influence and power, it's needless to say that he won't stay committed to only one woman forever!

Being a man himself, he reckoned that Mu Yazhe's interest in Yun Shishi was fleeting. Sooner or later, he would grow tired of her. If that was so, why not wait until he had enough before taking her for himself? By then, he could fool around with her however he liked sans repercussions!

For now, he could only patiently wait!

He just had to wait for that man to be done with her, and then it would be his turn to play.

A woman who had rolled in bed with that man; would it not be more interesting to play with her then?

In a meeting room.

Mu Yazhe was languidly sitting in the boss's chair.

Wang Chuande spoke at length about a development project he had in progress. He was planning to develop a new property, but before that, he indubitably needed to secure the bidding rights for that parcel of land.

That land was in a prime location. To secure the bidding rights for it, one needed to build a smooth relationship with the government.

His mother was the younger sister of his nephew's grandfather; this uncle of his was one of the founding fathers of the central government.

Although his uncle was one of the founding fathers, which was a celebrated position, he had long stepped down from the political arena due to old age. He no longer had the same authority, and in some matters, he naturally did not have much to say anymore!

The Mu family was different.

Mu Yazhe's fourth uncle, Mu Linfeng, held military powers, so he had robust influence. If he could collaborate with this authoritative family, he could secure the bidding rights for that prime parcel of land!

The financial capability of Disheng Financial Group was extremely high. If he succeeded in establishing a partnership with the Mus, in the future, the prospects of this project would be incomparably impressive!

From the start, he had been striving to set a meeting with Mu Yazhe to talk about this development project.

Alas, the man had many affairs to deal with and could only postpone their meeting time and again.

They could finally meet due to a coincidence. Naturally, he would not let this chance slip by easily.

The Mu family's financial power was robust. In addition, with their involvement in the military, he was looking forward to working with the Mu Group!

Regarding the profits, he was generous. He promised the Mu Group a profit of a billion in exchange for their help in opening a new channel for his Wanke Real Estate.

A billion was an impressive amount.

Just to establish a partnership with the Mu Group, it seemed he was willing to grit his teeth and reduce his capital.

"Wanke wants to participate in the bidding for that land just to build a villa?"

"Does Master Mu have other thoughts on this?" He modestly sought his advice upon hearing the hidden implication behind the man's words.

Chapter 914: Mu Yazhe's Charisma

"Mr. Wang, you should know that the real estate companies under the Mu Group are focused on constructing villas. You said that you plan to build an eco-garden villa on that land. Pardon my rudeness in front of an elder, but from what I've seen regarding the competition in that domain, Wanke Real Estate's capability can never contend against the Mu Group's real estate!"

Although those words sounded arrogant, they were not inappropriate.

Especially since in front of him, Mu Yazhe actually implied that he was of the younger generation. Clearly, he was showing him enough respect!

It was not him being egotistical, either.

The Mu Group's real estate was first in the industry. Being the pioneer, it naturally dominated half of the real estate industry.

In this business, the Mu Group was devoted to building villas. In fact, the 'Yun Shan Shi Yi' project under it was nearing commencement. It was naturally going to be the capital's best eco-garden villa!

Indeed, Wanke could never contend against it in this area.

Even if this company had the confidence to build an even better garden villa than Yun Shan Shi Yi, would it not be viewed as a competitor, instead?

Would Mu Yazhe allow someone else to share the loot?

The Mu Group had never formed a partnership with their competitors.

The meaning behind his words was simple.

The Mu Group was always in control of the general situation in this particular domain. They would never let other real estate companies to infringe on that!

Wang Chuande was stunned by his charisma.

The man before him was young, full of vitality, and domineering, yet he was not disrespectful at all. If he were to compare his nephew to this man, there was simply no competition at all.

The junior had surpassed the senior!

Even though he was also a cunning character, every time he came in contact with this man, he never managed to receive any benefits.

“The piece of land Mr. Wang is eyeing should be Jin Gui Garden, right?”

“That’s right.”

“The Mu Group has already acquired the deed for the land beside Jin Gui Garden. and we plan to build a shopping mall on it. Plus, since the district in that location isn’t bad, we might have more eco-developments there in the future. If Mr. Wang has similar intentions and doesn’t mind it, both sides can work together; what do you think?”

“Yes. The preliminary will be as discussed!”

This middle-aged mogul smiled.

The man suddenly asked, “That man called Gao Nan; is he your nephew?”

Wang Chuande’s complexion turned serious, and he asked cautiously, “Master Mu, did that unruly chap of mine offend you in any way?”

“Eh...” He gave a snort but did not elaborate. His eyes only turned colder!

Having mingled with the rich and famous for so long, this middle-aged man naturally had a shrewd mind and knew how to read others’ expressions. Seeing the look on his face, he broke out in a cold sweat. He could guess that his disappointing nephew had offended this powerful figure in some way. He was instantly unhappy.

However, he did not know exactly how his nephew had offended this man. Under his relentless probes, Mu Yazhe slowly opened his mouth. “That nephew of yours really doesn’t know the rules!”

“Oh? Master Mu, what do you mean? If you don’t mind, please tell me! If that lad committed a mistake, I will be sure to teach him a lesson!”

“He is no longer young, yet he is still playing around like a Casanova! This is the Gao family’s personal matter, so I don’t have the right to intervene, but you know my methods. If this affects me, don’t blame me for not taking our relationship into consideration!”

Chapter 915: Ending the Fight

The harshness of his words was crystal clear.

Wang Chuande broke out in a cold sweat at this.

His nephew was talented and opinionated, but young people were young in the end. Despite his busy schedule, he would still catch wind of some rumors here and there!

His nephew had no flaws, except he was fickle in love.

This was a common bad trait in many men, but this attribute was especially prominent in his nephew!

Gao Nan must have been careless and had unwittingly stepped on Mu Yazhe’s toes!

“Did that... disappointing nephew of mine offend Master Mu’s woman?” he asked tentatively.

The man declined to comment and just fixed his cold gaze on him.

His guess was, thus, confirmed with this. He said sternly at once, “Master Mu, I’m terribly sorry! That lad has been spoiled by my cousin. I thought that he’ll be more thoughtful at this age. I didn’t know that he’ll be much worse now, but please be assured; I’ll surely punish him later!”

When he was done, he did not forget to add in a few compliments. “Master Mu is young and capable. If this disappointing nephew of mine could be half of what you are, I’d be very contented!”

By the time the two exited the conference room, the people outside had waited for a long time. However, they unanimously did not utter even one complaint.

The couple quickly stood up, their faces tense.

This was especially for the man; he gazed at Mu Yazhe’s icy look and nervously rubbed his palms. He wanted to step to the front and exchange a few words of greetings to ease the earlier awkwardness.

However, upon seeing his cold features, he dared not approach him.

His girlfriend nudged him slightly and asked furtively, “What do we do? Did we offend someone?”

“You still have the cheek to ask me that? Isn’t it all your fault?!” Mentioning this, he grew furious. “If not, would you offend so many people?”

Mu Yazhe walked to Yun Shishi’s side. Hugging her waist, he asked gently, “Did you wait long?”

“No.”

His thin lips arched before pressing a soft kiss on her forehead. The love in his eyes was practically oozing out like water.

At the side, Huang Lili's eyes were so red that blood seemed to drip out of them.

When she first saw Mu Yazhe, her heart skipped a beat.

The man was astonishingly handsome!

However, as she thought about it later, it did not matter how handsome he was. Since he was just a small employee, how capable could he be?

Now, things were different.

As she saw the respectful demeanor Wang Chuande had adopted toward Mu Yazhe, she knew she could no longer compare herself to Yun Shishi.

What was this?

What exactly was so good about her?

Why could she receive the favor of so many outstanding men?

It was like this in university, and now, it was still like that?!

Her heart nearly burst with so much jealousy!

The elderly mogul glanced at his nephew, only to see him staring at Yun Shishi. The ambition in his eyes was blatant!

This only further confirmed his suspicion.

This lad actually dares to lust after Master Mu's woman?!

He really has the heart of a bear and the courage of a leopard!

He shifted his eyes on her, and he was amazed!

It was no wonder Mu Yazhe and his nephew would be head over heels for her. This woman was an alluring seductress with the assets to bewitch others.

"It's late. Let's go home." Mu Yazhe told her.

The fight was done. It was time to leave!

As for the couple, he would deal with them himself.

Yun Shishi nodded.

Chapter 916: A present for you.

Under everyone's envious eyes, he moved to leave with his arm around her waist. This was when Du Jiayan finally mustered up the courage to take a step forward. From his periphery, Mu Yazhe swept him a frosty glare that stopped the man in his tracks.

Too cowed by his look, the chap dared not move forward anymore.

He ignored the man and guided his woman out of the place.

Just before they walked away, Yun Shishi recalled something and looked past her shoulder with a smile. She then turned to him to say something.

The man nodded and waited for her outside.

She turned to walk over.

Du Jiayan saw her walk toward them and hastily greeted her fawningly. Alas, it was hopeless for him as she walked past him and went directly to Meng Qinghe.

"Monitor, I heard that you are about to emigrate. Due to the short notice, I didn't have time to prepare a present for you."

He quickly waved his hands off. "Shishi, you are too polite. There's no need for a present."

"Thank you." She sipped her lips and expressed her gratitude.

Her 'thank you' took him by surprise. "Why? Why are you suddenly thanking me?"

"I didn't have many friends back in college, so you were always looking out for me. I'm sorry to hear that you're migrating soon... Anyway, I've prepared this for you!"

She then opened her handbag and took out a neatly and nicely wrapped package.

For reasons unknown, he fell into a trance as he received the gift from her.

He held a loving admiration for her back in their university days.

She was beautiful, pure, gentle, and a top student.

To him, she was his goddess whom no one could replace.

At that time, there were many slanders surrounding her, and no one liked to get close to her in class except for him. He believed that she was innocent and even told her then, "Shishi, ignore the rumors. Your innocence will be revealed in no time. I believe you!"

Only now was she able to express her gratitude for his trust.

This was one of the reasons she had attended this party.

"I didn't get the chance to express my thanks, so I hope that you'll like this present I've made for you!"

With that, she gave a gentle smile and turned to leave.

Du Jiayan wanted to follow suit, so he could clear things up with her; unfortunately, she ignored him totally.

Meng Qinghe watched her departure, and his lips slowly curled into a gentle smile.

He did not have much regret after attending this class reunion.

At the very least, he managed to put a heartening end to his youthful, naïve crush.

This is a good closure for me!

He bowed his head to look at the present she had given him. Tears rimmed his eyes uncontrollably as his fingers slowly brushed against the wrapper.

Xiao Xue went up to him and asked smilingly, "Monitor, why don't you open the present and see what Shishi has given you?"

"Stand aside." He pushed her away jokingly.

Seeing his teary eyes and the expression on his face, she let out in surprise, "Monitor, don't tell me... you have a crush on Shishi?"

"No!" He frowned.

"I can tell! I can tell!"

Thereafter, both started bantering.

Soon, the service staff handed the bill over to Du Jiayan. Sweeping a glance at the bill in his hand, he saw an astounding figure of 5.1 million yuan!

His eyesight turned hazy as his legs gave way and he collapsed on the floor.

Huang Lili went over to have a look and turned aghast at the sight!

Oh, my god! It's 5.1 million! How many GUCCI bags can I buy with that amount?!

Meng Qinghe sat in his car after he left the private clubhouse and unwrapped the present.

It was a graduation photo.

Chapter 917: Thunderous Wrath

It was a graduation photo, and it had traces of being photoshopped.

Yun Shishi, in her standalone graduation shot, had been photoshopped in a corner of the picture amid the crowd.

On their graduation day, she had taken a graduation photo by herself and left soon after. There was no group picture with her.

A class graduation photo would not be complete without her.

She had photoshopped an image of herself onto the class graduation picture for a complete graduation shot.

This is a gesture of heartfelt gratitude from her!

He covered his lips as emotional tears rolled down his face.

“Shishi, thank you...”

His goddess would live forever in his heart.

Gao Nan was about to send Xiao Xue home after leaving the private clubhouse when he received a call from his uncle saying to meet him at once!

He hung up the phone and told her somewhat apologetically, “Is it alright if you go back on your own?”

“Eh?” The lady responded forlornly. “Aren’t you going to send me home?”

“My uncle wants to see me; he’s waiting for me now. I think it’s something important! You can drive my car back home.”

“I don’t have my driver’s license with me.” She pouted but did not want to make things difficult for him; hence, she said, “I think I can call a cab!”

She could not hide the regret in her voice.

He quickly embraced her and planted a kiss on her forehead, apologizing profusely, “I’m sorry! I’ll make it up to you next time!”

“Alright! Your uncle must have something important to tell you. I should spare a thought for you, too!” she acquiesced.

He smiled, somewhat touched by her understanding.

This woman was different from those he had dated before! At least, she knew how to spare a thought for him.

He followed her to the cab and instructed the driver to send her straight to her doorsteps before he felt at ease to let her go.

He turned around and retreated into the private clubhouse.

Inside his office, Wang Chuande was sitting and enjoying his tea at the root-carved side table, seemingly waiting for long.

“Uncle, I’m here!” His nephew smiled and called out to him before turning to close the door.

Plop!

A tea cup was hurled in his direction, landing at his feet before it smashed into pieces.

The sudden noise scared him out of his wits.

He turned around and saw his uncle still sitting at the table; his face was livid and his eyes were full of wrath.

This was his first time seeing his uncle expressing such fury at him, which sent him asking uneasily, "Uncle... what happened to you?"

"How dare you ask me that question?! I've utterly lost my face because of you!"

The middle-aged man was so upset that his facial muscles were twitching.

There were no outsiders with them now.

Now that he was alone with his nephew, he no longer kept his haughty demeanor in check. The unpleasanties he had to endure from Mu Yazhe earlier transformed into a burning fury, which he unleashed at the young man sans hesitation!

His nephew was still fumbling over the cause of his uncle's great fury when he 'reflected' momentarily, walked to the middle-aged man, and placed his hands on his shoulders to give a massage. This young chap was observant and had guessed the reason by then. "Uncle, don't be mad, yeah? I know I shouldn't have attended such a tasteless gathering, but I'm only doing it for the sake of my girlfriend! There won't be a next time!"

"Rascal, you have a formal girlfriend finally?" It was apparent that his uncle did not believe his words.

He knew that his nephew was promiscuous with countless women by his side. It would be stupid of him to believe his words!

"You've seen a lady by the name of Xiao Xue earlier. She's from the Xiao family in the capital!"

"Xiao family?"

The Xiao family in the capital was rather well-known!

Chapter 918: Master Mu's woman cannot be touched.

The Xiao family in the capital was rather well-known!

He had heard of this family but did not have any contact with them.

Wang Chuande narrowed his eyes slightly, tilted his head, and thought for a while before asking, "Is her father Xiao Zheng from the Xiao Financial Group?"

That family had a decent reputation among the elites.

It would be most ideal if the Gao and the Xiao were to become allies through this marriage.

It was important for the elites to marry someone with the same social standing.

At least, the woman would come with a clean background unlike those from the entertainment industry!

“Yes.”

“When did it start?”

“It started about half a month or so ago.”

“Eh...” The fury in his eyes simmered as he pondered on.

Now, his nephew finally had a decent girlfriend.

With his face softening, he said, “I don’t want to nag at you, but you know that you’re not young anymore. Your mom has been nagging me about your marriage all this time! Men at your age ought to settle down and not play a fool, especially with those women in showbiz! That girl looks decent enough. Find a good day and bring her home for your mother to see; it’s so that she will stop worrying about your future!”

“Yes, yes! Still, it’s rather early to talk about settling down, right?” The thought of marriage made him want to run.

This topic only gave him a headache.

He was still young; why did he have to get tied down so early?

His uncle reprimanded, “Early? You’re turning 28, and soon you’ll be 30. Is that considered early? It’s time to curb your vices! Your grandfather pines for a grandchild and has been nagging about this every day. His heart will settle when you get married!”

Gao Nan did not want to hanker on this matter further, and he brushed this aside with a few perfunctory assurances.

He thought that his uncle was only after him on this matter, but then his uncle continued in a more serious tone. “What happened between you and Master Mu? He complained to me about you! Let me warn you; don’t try to have funny ideas about his people. He’s not one you can mess with!”

He caught on it fast. “Did that Mu Yazhe say something to you?”

His uncle flared up. “You be respectful! You’re unqualified to address him by his name directly!”

His nephew would not be bowed.

He was the same age as that man, and both were equal on peer level. Why could he not address him by his name directly?!

His uncle could read through his thoughts. Seeing the unconvinced look on his face, the middle-aged man snorted. “Don’t give me that look! I’m not looking down on you, but how can you compare yourself with him? You are both 28, yet he’s already this capable. While he is a prominent figure in the capital, you have nothing to show! For you to address him as ‘Master Mu’ is a favor given on my account; if not...”

His nephew was subdued. “Uncle... how can you put down your nephew in this manner?”

“I’m just warning you. Don’t touch anyone belonging to Master Mu ever; do you understand?!” His eyes looked stern and serious, and he spoke in a voice that brooked no argument.

He would stop here for now. His harshness was to reiterate the severity of this matter.

If not, his nephew might continue fooling around and bring him trouble in the future!

“Yes, I know; I know!” The young man gave a perfunctory reply, though in his heart, he was thinking otherwise.

He would wait for that man to get tired of that woman before he took his turn.

It would be impossible for him not to go after the woman whom he fancied!

Of course, he must not let his uncle find out his real intention!

Both men looked at each other, absorbed in their thoughts.

Chapter 919: Daddy and Mommy in an Embrace

“Yipee! We’re home!”

Upon reaching the house, Yun Shishi threw her bag aside, kicked off her high heels, and flung herself on the cushy sofa.

There was nothing goddess-like about her now.

Mu Yazhe closed the door and walked to the sofa. She burrowed in his arms and encircled her hands around his waist just as he took a seat; burying her face deep in his warm and hearty embrace.

The man gently caressed her fringe with his broad palms. Next to her profile, his slender fingers slowly twinned a strand of hair and then loosened it lightly.

As he leaned lazily on the couch, his one hand propped the side of his head, whereas his other hand played with her long, raven hair, which accentuated his fair and jade-like skin.

He seemed to derive a lot of fun fingering her hair in this manner.

As for her, she was too tired to bother and simply let him be.

Inside the bedroom, the twins looked at each other in surprise the moment they heard the door open and shut.

“Is mommy back?”

“Eh! It must be so.”

The two little fellows opened the door and dashed into the living room. Being the observant one, Little Yichen saw their parents cuddling intimately on the sofa and astutely turned around to carry his brother back with him.

Youyou saw something shake before his eyes, but before he realized it, he was carried back by his older brother.

Just as he was about to speak, his brother covered his mouth with his small fleshy palm, signaling him to keep quiet.

“Shh...”

“What are you doing?”

“Daddy and mommy are hugging each other!” His twin’s face brightened with excitement.

“What?”

His face sank; he wanted to go over to the hall again.

His older brother held him back at once, and with him being the stronger one, he was hurled back easily.

He was clearly displeased. “Mu Yichen, what do you think you’re doing?!”

“You mustn’t foil daddy’s good work this time!” His brother pouted. “It is rare to see daddy and mommy making progress; you can’t mess it.”

The younger boy was silent.

“Youyou...” With a doleful countenance, his brother looked him straight in the eyes and blinked several times.

He surrendered in the end. “Alright; I’ll only watch and not mess around.”

“These are your words, right?”

He closed his eyes and drew in a deep, cool breath. “Yup! I said that.”

“Pinky promise!” His brother did not believe him apparently and reached out his last finger to him.

His patience had reached its limit by then.

“Mu Yichen...”

“Pinky promise, please!” His brother ignored his frustrated look and hooked his pinky.

Pouting, he could not do anything except to hook his pinky with his brother’s.

The two little lads then crept on their hands and knees behind the wall as they stole a look to the sofa.

“Hey.”

The woman looked up at him, her finger gently poking the man in his chest.

“Huh?”

Cocking a brow, he looked at her from his periphery. “What?”

“Was the class gathering... boring?”

The man thought for a while before replying, "No."

"Oh?" She widened her eyes in disbelief. "And here I thought that you'd find it boring!"

"Wasn't it fun? Those classmates of yours were interesting."

Nestling in his embrace, her two index fingers pointing at each other uneasily as she recalled what Xiao Xue had told her. It seemed that they had badmouthed her badly while she was away at the washroom!

Although those were fabricated lies, she was unsure if he had taken those to heart. She did not query him while they were on their way back.

He did not know what was on her mind with her pouty lips and contorted expression; thus, he could not help but pinch her cheek, asking, "What are you thinking about?"

"I'm thinking..."

She pondered for a moment and decided to go ahead and ask him on this matter.

"Did Huang Lili badmouth me when I was away?"

Chapter 920: I love your stupidity.

She stared at him fixedly, not letting go of even a slight change in his expression.

Mu Yazhe knitted his brows but did not hide anything from her. "Yes."

"Did she say that I was being provided for in college?" Yun Shishi asked tentatively.

His brows furrowed further. "Yes."

"Then, do you..." At a loss, she suddenly probed. "Do you believe her?"

"What do you think?"

He raised a brow, clearly thinking that her question was redundant.

"I think that you won't believe in that," she replied.

"Such a crude rumor. Only someone who is as stupid as you with a malfunctioning intelligence will believe something like that," he said frankly.

She smiled. "Yes, you're right..."

Mid-speech, she stopped herself. She suddenly realized that what he had said earlier was an attack on her intelligence. The smile on her face dropped as she glared at him, only to see his lips hiding a smile. She was even more furious and complained unhappily, "Hey! Was that a personal attack on me?"

"When did I personally attack you?"

"Earlier, you said that my intelligence is problematic."

“These are just obvious facts, dumb woman.”

He felt that her reflexes and reaction were too slow!

“In what way am I stupid?!”

She refuted on her own behalf. “If I were stupid, would I give birth to such a smart baby like Youyou?”

Youyou, who had been hiding in a corner, was extremely satisfied. He straightened his body slightly as he brazenly raised his bangs.

On one side, Little Yichen leered at him.

This little brother of his was rather shameless!

On the couch, the man retorted seriously, “Are you sure that he inherited your genes?”

“What else could it be?”

“If you’re not stupid, he might be even smarter.” He revealed his sincere thoughts.

She was deeply hurt. Wrinkling her nose in distaste, she pouted her lips. “How am I stupid? How am I stupid? I am clearly smart, okay?”

“...”

“Praise me! Quickly praise me for being smart!” She refused to admit defeat as she started throwing a tantrum in his embrace, her small fists beating his chest.

She was acting coy with him!

She rarely acted coy, but the moment she did, she really had a way with it!

Men would quickly admit defeat.

“Alright, alright. You are smart.” He was too lazy to argue with this small woman; thus, he just succumbed and appeased her.

“Your words seem forced!”

He rubbed the nose on her disgruntled face intimately before leaving a small kiss on her lips. His deep-set eyes were looking into hers.

“I love your stupidity.”

He loved her clumsy, naïve, and delicate self. She was so lovable that no amount of appreciation was enough!

She blushed at his words, her heart pounding. Her breath stuttered for a moment as she looked at his handsome face right next to hers. The faint orchid fragrance wafting from his lips was making her heart beat wildly!

She bit her lower lip gently, her pearl white teeth leaving a gentle imprint.

His gaze landed on her bitten lip and then he irresistibly pecked her lips.

With this light peck, he could no longer contain himself. He held her cheek softly and kissed her brazenly. Softly prodding her lips apart, he inhaled her sweet and beautiful fragrance.

The twins hiding in a corner covered each other's eyes simultaneously.
