

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 129

The shooting has already begun. This is the first time that Xia Jin Sheng has shown his face on the camera. When he was always overly nervous when he was always a supervisor, make complaints about his sister's WeChat.

After a while, I heard his slow answer and pointed to a nearby young man, "look at ah Jun, he is also showing his face for the first time. People are not nervous. Learn from him."

Then Xia Jinsheng saw the person named trembling and turning around, pretending to be very weak and raising his hand, "boss, in fact, I'm super nervous."

He continued to play with his mobile phone as if he didn't know anything. Xia Jinsheng couldn't stand up with a smile.

A Jun, whose full name is Shen Jun, is a newcomer excavated by Jingzhu company. She speaks for Junzhu's products with her. This promotional film plays Jun Ruzhu, the child Jun Zhu who has been asked to take a face photo on the Internet.

The prop scenes were soon arranged. Xia Jinsheng stood under the magnesium lamp lens again. Somehow her fingertips trembled slightly, and Shen Jun was the same as her.

According to the script written by the little lover, the two people should report their names to each other at this time, and then they were suddenly attacked by a group of people in black from the sky. The two people cooperated with each other, looked at each other, and had some affection in their hearts.

It's a lot of big requirements for actors to make a play at the beginning, but the two people can't even exchange names. The blower blows out a beautiful artistic conception and the clothes are floating. But their bodies were very stiff, like two straight pieces of wood.

Considering that both of them are new, the director just shouted "Ka" and let them relax. Don't be nervous. After another remake, Shen Jun's situation was much better, only Xia Jinsheng remained.

The remake again and again made the two people fall into polarization. Shen Jun's appointment is more and more suitable, his sense of lens is stronger and stronger, and his control over the characters is better and better. Xia Jinsheng... The situation is constant. How can he be miserable.

In the end, the director was angry and lost his temper. He touched his forehead and waved his hand. "OK, OK, don't shoot first. You can adjust it. The state is wrong."

If he were someone else, he would have scolded, but this man can't. He knows Xia Jinsheng's identity and has some scruples.

Xia Jinsheng lost and returned to the lounge. It was important for Bei Chi. She didn't know what was going on. She was getting worse and worse. The more she wanted to do well, the worse she did. Her nerves were almost stretched into a line, and none of the theories she had learned before were useful. Now she didn't know how to shoot.

Unconsciously, a morning has passed and nothing has been photographed. The two staff members made an appointment to deliver food to her. They didn't find her angry and complained involuntarily:

"People are not here, and I don't know how much trouble they have filled in for us."

"Yes, I heard that my family is a rich man. If we can't shoot well, we might as well go back and eat in vain, which makes us busy back and forth."

Xia Jinsheng just went to the bathroom and heard these complaints when he came back. Originally, I was in a bad mood, and my heart was even worse. But these sarcastic words surprised her.

"You might as well tell me face to face." She was not a bully. She looked at the two old women in their 30s and 40s with her hands in her arms.

The faces of the two men were ugly, and one of them was arrogant, "just say it, I'm afraid you won't do it. No acting is no acting. People won't tell the truth, will they? "

"What do you care if I have acting skills? I have no acting skills. I'd like to be a vase. " Xia Jinsheng knows her advantages like the back of her hand, but it's not uncommon for her to label herself as a "vase".

What else did the woman want to say? Her companion didn't want to cause trouble. He pulled her sleeve and left together.

Stimulated by the two people, Xia Jinsheng is gone, and her current filming goal is only one: take a good shot, beat the two women with strength, and others who despise her.

When the director saw her, he found that her eyes had changed. Firm and clear. This is very similar to the heroine in the script. He began to expect Xia Jinsheng to give him something different.

The following facts proved that Xia Jinsheng did not disappoint him. She behaved like a stream of kindness and had a sense of camera. She was beautiful and generous in the face of the male Lord, like a fairy falling into the dust by mistake. In the face of the man in black, it is that ruthless force that frightens the world. The world has lost color for her.

After half a day, the director reacted and ended in time.

"How about the director?" Xia Jinsheng excitedly asked for comments in the past. She was not afraid of being trained. If she made mistakes, she would improve in order to be better. The director nodded and pointed out several deficiencies with satisfaction, but these later modifications are OK, and there is no need to remake.

Xia Jinsheng took a breath. The little lover came and patted her on the shoulder. "It was a good performance. I thought the characters in the script ran out."

"Obviously, your script is well written and easy to resonate."

The two people suddenly began to praise each other. They wanted to press all the praise words in the world on each other. They held each other and praised each other for a long time. Finally, Shen Jun advised them, "both of them have finished their work and don't go back?"

As soon as the voice fell, Gu Nanchen, who came to pick up Xia Jinsheng, appeared in the public view. He was still followed for the rest of his life. The little guy even came to Erchun. Don't be too high-profile.

These are celebrities in the circle. Everyone's eyes suddenly looked straight. Especially after seeing Er Chun, the little lover wanted to fall down and lick her on her knees. Her eyes were shining. That was the writer she admired most before she entered the circle.

Er Chun also noticed her line of sight, and then... Sky thunder and earth fire.

She really didn't want to recall that day. Just thinking of this, Xia Jinsheng couldn't help covering her face. In her opinion, the two people were Wang BA's eyes on mung beans. They were like old friends at first sight.

In the end, the two people talked as if there were no one else. Gu Nanchen invited the whole crew to eat in Haitian restaurant, which suddenly attracted a lot of people. This also solved many problems for Xia Jinsheng's crew shooting in the next few weeks.

Cannibals have a short mouth. People who had complained about her also obediently chose to shut up.

"Why did you suddenly invite the crew to dinner? Money is not worth it. " Xia Jinsheng remembered when she went to the bathroom just now. She heard someone talk about her. She said she was stupid and had a lot of money. Sure enough, she went through the back door.

See, some people are still stubborn even if they receive grace.

Gu Nanchen didn't know the story. He just thought Xia Jinsheng was moved by his pay. He touched her hair and vaguely hinted: "you can promise each other by yourself."

What he said must not be the one she understood. Xia Jinsheng resolutely shook his head and said: "I'm an old husband and wife. There's no need to be so polite. Yours is mine. "

"Yes. There's really no need to be polite. " Gu Nanchen repeated his words and suddenly carried her on her shoulder and walked to the bedroom, "then I'd better obey my orders."

When did she give such an order?

After almost a month's shooting, Junzhu's promotional videos were all completed. The next thing is post-processing. After the advertisement was made into a film, Xia Jinsheng went to see the edited content.

Very atmospheric, closely related to the theme of Junzhu. Moreover, the script written by the little lover is very compact, and has grasped the rhythm, one ring after another, without a trace of redundancy. The advertisement saved a lot of cost.

Only in terms of advertising, Jingzhu has differences with the company. Jingzhu hopes to publish it on the Internet, but other veterans of the company prefer to publish it on TV dramas.

The advertisement that should have been released by our company was also delayed because of their internal differences. They sent the person in charge to negotiate with Jing Zhu and ask them to make a decision early.

Xia Jinsheng quietly watched as the two sides fought against each other and tore it away. A good meeting turned into a verbal war between the members of the company. In the end, both sides have only a few words to repeat.

Her ears were cocooned. Gu Nanchen called her at this time. What's more sad is that she forgot to mute.

Just a phone ring, she has become the target of public criticism, and her wolf like eyes can burn a hole in her. She quickly turned off her cell phone and looked at the people laughing awkwardly. Can she die now?

"Cough." Jingzhu cleared her throat. He found that she had not expressed her views, "Xia Jinsheng, what do you think?"

"No opinion." Her muscles are stiff with laughter. If she goes on like this, there will be smile lines sooner or later, and how many skin care products can't make up for it.

"Huh?"

She has always had no resistance to such words. His tone will remind her of Gu Nanchen. She scratched her hair impatiently, "none of you will let it, so it will be broadcast synchronously on TV and the Internet."

"What are you talking about? Do you know how much the cost will increase? " One of the qualified people clapped at the table, but the others fell silent.

Finally, Jing Zhu decided, "this method is not impossible. Two are invested at the same time. In the later stage, the capital will turn around to see which investment feedback is better."

So the dispute was settled because of a casual word she said? Xia Jinsheng was a little silly and thought it was a joke that he had been tortured because of this thing these days.

When she came out of the conference room, she took out her mobile phone and turned it on to call Gu Nanchen. As soon as she turned on her mobile phone, she was stunned by the missed calls of more than 20 calls. Gu Nanchen called her so many times. Is there something urgent?

When she called back, she learned from Gu Nanchen, "I miss you."

He, want to, she, she.

Xia Jinsheng was so angry that she wanted to drop her mobile phone. Because of such a thing, she was almost stared to death by Jing Zhu. "As president, are you so free?"

Call me specifically to tell me such a thing? "

"Neither." Gu Nanchen smiled and piled up a pile of towering documents on the desk in front of him. However, I suddenly miss her and urgently want to hear her voice, "do you want to come for a surprise inspection?"

"OK. what do you want to eat? I'll go back and cook it for you. " Xia Jinsheng began to calculate the time in her heart because she was still at school and Jing Zhu's company didn't come often. Now she can basically go back after the meeting.

Let her cook for herself? This is not a wise idea, he suggested tactfully, "in fact, you can buy some at will without so much trouble."

"It's all right. I have plenty of time." She's ready to try.
