

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 130

When Xia Jinsheng arrived, Gu Nanchen was still buried in his book case. Most of the pointer on the wall has passed. Needless to say, he is waiting for her lunch.

"What did you do?" From the moment she came in, Gu Nanchen consciously stopped working and went to pick up the food box.

But... Who can tell him what the dark thing in front of him is? Look for answers.

Xia Jinsheng was flattered and humiliated, his face unchanged, "fried mango."

A few days ago, she watched a video of fried mango in India. She couldn't help but feel excited and tried to do it herself. As like as two peas, she made the product exactly the same as the screenshot.

Strong caramel color and lumpy objects make people have some bad associations. With the mentality of heroic death, Gu Nanchen dipped a little into his mouth, which was sweet and greasy.

"Is this really the only one?"

Isn't his lunch really so scary? If so, he would rather be hungry. Maybe his eyes were too solemn and stirring. Xia Jinsheng was soft hearted and had enough fun before he took out the food hidden outside the door.

It's packed in a nearby hotel. It's fresh and the taste is guaranteed. Seeing that it was a normal dish, Gu Nanchen was relieved. Xia Jinsheng didn't eat either. The two just ate together.

Halfway through the meal, Chu nianwan suddenly came in with takeout. "Brother Nanchen, I packed you takeout. Do you want to eat?" The moment she saw Xia Jinsheng, she was stunned and forced out a smiling face. "You've already eaten. I'll give it to Xiao Song. She just hasn't eaten yet."

As soon as she appeared, she ran away. Xia Jinsheng caught a message, "does she always come to bring you lunch?"

"Occasionally." Basically, the food delivery is handled by the assistant. Chu nianwan sometimes sends it to him. He also advised her not to do so, but Chu nianwan insisted with "a little effort".

Xia Jinsheng's eyebrows stretched out occasionally, but the discomfort in knowing that Chu Nian would send him dinner at the party could not be erased.

That night, they were all called back to the old house because they lost a valuable necklace. If it's your own, you don't have to make such a big battle, but the necklace is not Chu Yu's.

But she is a lady friend, who temporarily keeps it with her when traveling abroad. Chu Yu's face was ugly. Before her friend went abroad, she patted her chest and promised to take good care of her. Now she lost it directly.

The loss of face is small. How to explain to the lady is the most important. Because the necklace was handed down to her by her grandmother, Chu Yu thought it was beautiful and wanted to play.

"It's all yourself, vanity." The old man was so angry that he pointed to Chu Yu and said, "what do you want? I can't buy it for you. You have to care about others?"

"What do you know, old man?" Chu Yu muttered that her friend's necklace was priceless and could not be bought, and she was lost for a while? All his anger was scattered on the others present, "which of you took my necklace and handed it over now, I'll treat it as if nothing had happened."

Gu Nanchen's cousin Song Lian suddenly stood up. When everyone thought he was an insider, he stretched out his hand and pointed to Chu nianwan, "I saw Chu nianwan sneaking into the old lady's room."

Suddenly, the foothold of all her eyes was Chu nianwan. She was not a person who allowed people to splash dirty water. Her eyes were cruel and retorted: "rice can be eaten indiscriminately, words can't be spoken indiscriminately, and I don't admit anything that doesn't exist."

As the adopted daughter of the family, she has always held great power in the company, and at home, she is like me. Some people have been dissatisfied with her for a long time, and some people have taken this opportunity to fall into a well.

"I've seen her pawn in a pawn shop with a necklace, but I don't know if it's that one."

The person who thought he would refute suddenly fell into silence, which exacerbated Chu Yu's doubt about her, "read late, what else can you say? Hand over my necklace. "

With the help of the first two, Chu Yu has now determined that Chu nianwan is an insider and forced her to hand over the necklace, although the latter kept saying that she had never done such a thing. The old lady only thought she was a stubborn sophistry. When the old man didn't speak, she raised her hand to fight.

"Mom, that's enough. I said she didn't have it all night. " Gu Nanchen grabbed Chu Yu's hand. He was the first to stand up as a hero to protect Chu nianwan. Xia Jinsheng saw the wrong vision in her eyes. Her thin lips pursed slightly and was slightly unhappy.

With him as an example, Gu ya'er immediately said, "I also believe sister nianwan can't do such a thing. It's doubtful that some people who accuse her repeatedly."

When she said this, the two men swore that what they saw was true and there was no lie. The eldest aunt is also the one who doesn't like Chu nianwan, especially now Gu Nanchen has the heart to protect her.

She covered her lips with a strange smile. "Nan Chen, you really pity fragrance and jade. I don't know. I thought your relationship was extraordinary."

This is very ambiguous, especially in front of Xia Jinsheng. It's hard to figure out the deep meaning. Gu Nanchen turns around and looks at Xia Jinsheng and sees her sad face.

The faint look made his heart tighten. She wanted to go over, but Chu nianwan grabbed his arm and burst into tears. "Although I had pawn jewelry, I definitely didn't steal at that time."

"Yes." Gu Nanchen always treated her as a sister, but he didn't feel anything. He touched her head and comforted, "I believe you." This action seemed particularly dazzling to Xia Jinsheng. She quietly left here. He looked in his eyes and was anxious in his heart. He wanted to go up and catch up with Xia Jinsheng, but Chu nianwan didn't relax at all. Gu Nanchen could only persuade her, "you have to explain what you have done, otherwise I can't help you." Chu nianwan also knew this truth, but she did have difficulties to say, which led to more suspicion for herself. Even the old man began to think it was her. This made Song Lian's gang more rampant and slandered her: "the old man is really kind to raise a white eyed wolf and stole it home." " Now she's only thinking about jewelry. Will she still think about Gu's company in the future? Such people must not stay at home. " Gu Jun could not tolerate sand in his eyes. Now it involves the interests and potential safety hazards of the company. Chu Yu also saw this and directly threatened her. "Chu nianwan, if you don't hand over the necklace, don't blame me for sending you to the police station regardless of my feelings." Until this moment, Chu nianwan didn't see how grateful and hungry her family was. She was not only disheartened, but also devoted herself since she entered the family. What happened? They can conclude that she stole because of unsubstantiated charges“ Do you need me to reiterate? Until the necklace is found, everyone is a suspect. Anyone who reads a bad word late will get out of the company immediately. " He wanted to protect Chu nianwan. Naturally, he could not be bullied by others. Chu Yu couldn't say a word in front of his son. That night, Song Lian was fired. Previously, he had a small position in Gu Shi. He was relaxed and comfortable. Now he has nothing. Everyone knows that Gu Nanchen is making an example to others. No one dares to say anything more. Send Chu nianwan back to her residence outside. Gu Nanchen is in a hurry to find Xia Jinsheng. Call, don't answer. Go home, no one. He regretted it. Why didn't he come out earlier to find her? Now I don't know where the person went. He hurried around and called her friends everywhere. The answer was No. Where can Xia Jinsheng go so late? He couldn't sleep. He looked for people all over the street. By the way, he woke assistant Qin up from his bed and asked her to check the occupancy of the nearby hotel for herself. At the same time, he didn't stop calling Xia Jinsheng. When countless calls were made, he was connected. Happiness came too suddenly. He couldn't help being dull for a second and quickly switched to roar: "Xia Jinsheng, you're going to be angry with me, aren't you?"“ Yes. " Xia Jinsheng also hides her emotions at 1:30. She is angry and vomits blood now. Gu Nanchen can't think of a better life“ Where are you? "“ Where? I don't know. Anyway, I'm going to spend the night with any man. " She spit out these words from her red lips. The more familiar people are, the more they know where to hurt you the most. She is in this situation now, but she hurt Gu Nanchen, knowing that he cares about this. Gu Nanchen was really angry with her and called her full name seriously, "Xia Jinsheng, you....." at the beginning of his words, his memory was interrupted. Xia Jinsheng heard a loud noise, cut his eardrum, and something broken. It seemed that he thought of something. Xia Jinsheng's breathing stopped. The hand holding the mobile phone trembled, and the voice line trembled, "hello? Gu Nanchen, are you okay? Why don't you go on scolding?" Her answer was a dead silence. Her blood would stop flowing. Unwilling to continue to call him, "Hey, I'll hang up if you don't answer again, and then find a man for a spring breeze. Plant a green grassland on your head. " One second passed, two seconds passed... When Xia Jinsheng's heart was about to die, there was a faint sound at the end. Gu Nanchen's voice sounded very wronged, "dare you, I had a car accident, and you are so heartless..." the word "car accident" severely stimulated her nerves, and her tears soared wildly. Xia Jinsheng cried and scolded: "what's the joke, asshole? Give me the address. I'll laugh at it. " Don't die. She repeated this sentence again and again in her heart. Her feet had taken off and ran quickly. The cold night wind blew on her face, which was very painful, and the pain was magnified countless times. But no matter how painful or cold it is, it can't compare with the position of the heart. It's like suffocation. Gu Nanchen didn't dare to think about the results after the car accident. She hated why she was so willful and small bellied. If she doesn't envy Chu nianwan, she won't run out in anger, and Gu Nanchen won't have an accident because she came out to find her. Everything is her fault.
