

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 133

As soon as Gu Nanchen came back from the company, he found a bad thing.

The man in the music department who had been interested in pursuing Xia Jinsheng was actually in his own home, and there was a girl with a new face. It doesn't matter. What matters is that they actually have a good talk.

"Back." Seeing him, Xia Jinsheng greeted him with a smile and introduced them to him, "this is my friend Ji Chi, and that is Ji Yu, Ji Chi's cousin."

His voice sounded very dull. Xia Jinsheng looked at his face again and suddenly realized... The man was jealous.

"What are you doing?" According to the past habit, Gu Nanchen would have gone back to his study to deal with his official business. But not today. He sat down next to Xia Jinsheng and put his hand on her shoulder naturally.

"Chat."

As soon as he reached out to the grapes on the table, Xia Jinsheng patted him on the hand and ordered, "wash your hands."

"OK." He rubbed Xia Jinsheng's hair with a smile, and then warmly greeted the other two, "you two are free, don't be polite."

It looks like the head of the family. Ji Chi sees that the splattered fingers are gradually retracted. Ji Yu looks at his cousin and sighs silently. She knew he liked Xia Jinsheng.

And this time it was in the name of borrowing books to create opportunities for the two people, but when Ji Yu arrived at Gu Nanchen's villa, he found that the possibility of his cousin chasing people was too low. Social status, family background, two people are eighteen thousand miles apart.

Now I see Gu Nanchen, such an excellent man who exudes male charm at any time. His cousin's success rate is very small.

"Daddy and Mommy, I'm back."

The crisp children's voice won Ji Yu's attention. At the moment when Xia Yuxiu appeared, she could not wait to turn her eyes directly at Ji Chi. The children all had it, and his cousin also made other people's ideas.

It's an unforgivable crime. Should he consider going back and telling his aunt to clean him up?

"Are you my mommy's friends?" The little guy is a self familiar guy. He greeted everyone with a smile. He is not afraid of being born at all.

"Yes." Ji Yu likes children very much and soon becomes a group with the little guy. Gu Nanchen also comes back and continues to eat and drink with Xia Jinsheng and talk about what happened during the day.

Only Jichi is isolated.

The onlookers saw clearly. Ji Yu almost understood it. He quietly fell in Ji Chi's ear while others didn't pay attention and said, "cousin, just give up. Relying on younger sister's assists can't beat others' strategies for taking children. We are all fighting five dregs. "

He seemed to understand the truth and was dejected. Ji Yu sympathized with him for a second and soon continued to play with xiaotuanzi.

After that, Xia Jinsheng took the little guy to send them out. When she left, Ji Chi suddenly called her, "Xia Jinsheng, I really like you."

The sudden confession caught people off guard. Ji Chi's hand had wrinkled his clothes. Xia Jinsheng didn't know how much courage he had summoned and how he felt to say these words.

Before she could reply, she saw Ji Yu kick his calf. Ji Chi almost fell to the ground. The scene was very funny for a moment:

Ji Yu caught him kicking and said, "asshole, let you destroy other people's families and destroy you on behalf of your aunt." Ji Chi dodged awkwardly.

The brothers and sisters were really interesting. Finally, Xia Jinsheng solemnly refused him. Although Ji Chi had expected this result and lost, he still smiled and said that the two people could still be friends.

When she went back, she saw Gu Nanchen standing at the door and keeping looking. It was not until she saw them that she deliberately turned her head and pretended to see the scenery.

Well, he can be more cute.

"Cough." He cleared his throat to make himself look more natural. "You're back."

"Yes." Xia Jinsheng was calm on the surface, but she always had the impulse to laugh in her heart. She saw Gu Nanchen's appearance of wanting to talk and stop. Obviously, I wanted to ask her something, but I refused to speak.

Just watching, Xia Jinsheng felt bad for him.

After holding it for a long time, he pretended to mention it inadvertently, "why did your friends in school suddenly come to our house?" And it was the first time she brought her classmates back. It was the one who was interested in her.

A single spark can start a prairie fire. Some things must be watered out with cold water when Mars first appeared.

"They came to borrow books."

To be more accurate, Ji Yu came to borrow books. She was also interested in design. She was about to report that Xia Jinsheng's College majored in design, so she asked her to borrow some required books. Learn a little knowledge in advance.

As for Ji Chi, although his purpose is not pure, he is at best a gift.

"Cough." Gu Nanchen coughed again. Even the little guy saw something wrong with him and looked at him with small eyes. After a while, his important play really appeared. "Did you say anything just now?"

Xia Jinsheng thought of Ji Chi's confession just now. At the same time, he didn't forget to lament Gu Nanchen's keen insight. She pretended to be stunned. "Is there any? What can you say? It's goodbye. I'll come again if I have a chance. "

"Oh? Really? " His "Oh" was meaningful. The pupil had shrunk dangerously. What Xia Jinsheng didn't notice was that every time she lied, her eyes would unconsciously glance down.

Dare not be in line with other people's eyes. Gu Nanchen noticed this. The corners of his mouth have opened a flirtatious smile, just like the flowers on the other side of the Heihe River swaying in the wind.

The heart is very hairy, and Xia Jinsheng has an ominous premonition in his heart.

The next second, Gu Nanchen's eyes focused on the little guy, "Yuxiu, tell your father what your mother said to your brother and sister just now."

"What's the advantage?" The little guy's eyes lit up and he was eager to try.

She can't wait to sell her mother, which makes Xia Jinsheng gnash her teeth. Is it still time for her to kill her now?

The answer is, it's late! After receiving the promise of limited edition toys, Xia Yuxiu rolled up her sleeves and rubbed her hands. A pair of fat little hands slapped Xia Jinsheng's face, which was twisted and hoarse:

"Xia Jinsheng, I like you!"

She suddenly had a feeling of thundering, and the sky was rolling. Xia Jinsheng can understand that this little guy is imitating Ji Chi just now, and how to come if he is so exaggerated.

The temperature in the room has dropped. I don't know how many degrees. I just feel that it's bitterly cold. All of a sudden, she enters the cold winter from the hot summer. However, it's not too big for her little guy to watch the play.

Slapping her face, parrot learning words again and again: "I like you, like you, like you..."

He is also full of strategic approach. Xia Jinsheng wants to cry without tears. One or two in this room are all her ancestors. It's estimated that I was sinful in my last life and made atonement in this life.

When Wenya opened her eyes, her goal was a flawless white ceiling, and the air was filled with the smell of disinfectant. She was in the hospital. There was a figure next to the hospital bed. She stared at the person for a long time before she focused on the person.

With correct facial features, slender figure, well-dressed and warm smile. But she didn't know the man and stared at him in a daze.

"You're awake. My name is Wei Qing. How do you feel? Is there anything uncomfortable? "

His voice was very soft and warm. It was the first time she felt the warmth on someone other than her family. She forgot to answer for a moment. Wei Qing thought it was a sequelae after she hit her head. She called a doctor.

When he asked about his gentle family contact information, she obviously resisted. Wei Qing thought she was having trouble with her family, ran away from home and was bullied outside.

She didn't ask much, but painstakingly taught her: "girls can't go to such a remote place again. They are prone to danger. And ah, at any time, your family is your most reliable support. They love you. "

His words were accidentally said into a gentle heart. She was upset with her family because of Qian Shuangshuang. Now it's not worth thinking about it. She was really stupid in the past.

Tears came out inadvertently.

But he flustered Wei Qing. He thought it was his responsibility. He hurried to find a paper towel to wipe her tears. As a result, he bumped things seven upside down and eight askew, causing gentle tears into laughter and charming laughter.

Wei Qing was suddenly relieved. She didn't speak. He almost thought the girl was a little mute. He took the opportunity to ask her family's contact information again. He was not at ease and added, "you must be willful, and your family will worry."

"Well." The gentleness didn't embarrass him this time. She reported a series of numbers. Gentle son and tenderness and her father soon heard the news. Wei Qing left space for their family and planned to leave silently.

Looking at his leaving back, Wenya didn't know why there was some loss at the bottom of her heart, and gave birth to an idea of trying to stop him.

But I just thought about it and failed to practice it.

As soon as Wei Qing came to the hospital hall from, she collided with a petite man. The other party was retreated several steps and the medicine in her hand was removed on the ground.

At the same time, he heard a painful exhalation.

"Sorry." When he bent down to pick up the medicine and was ready to return it to the man, the two were stunned. Unexpectedly, Chu nianwan was standing opposite him.

But now Chu Nian night can't be described as "embarrassed" compared with ordinary times. She protects one arm, and her face is blue and purple, especially the red and swollen corners of her mouth are still covered with blood.

Obviously, she was beaten.

"Thank you." Chu nianwan didn't want anyone to see him now. He took his medicine from Wei Qing's hand and stumbled around on high heels. He stumbled and fell to the ground.

The incident was so sudden that Wei Qing didn't react at all. She seemed to have hurt her foot. In this case, no one can ignore it. He squatted down and hugged Chu nianwan. She hugged his neck in surprise and frowned, as if she had some resistance.

"Don't worry, I'm just taking you to the doctor."

Chu nianwan grabbed his collar, bowed his head and retorted, "I've seen a doctor. Just take the medicine and send me back."

"OK." He didn't refuse. He could meet two injuries in one day. I don't know what kind of luck it was.
