

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 148

Xia Jinsheng finally didn't find the person who started with ready-made clothes. The other party's technique was too clean.

But for the clothes she designed, there were many incidents. Several people went to the specialty store to make trouble for nothing. Fortunately, the clerks had a long mind and successfully dismissed them.

But she has to bear the compensation for the losses caused during this period. Xia Jinsheng is angry and helpless about the disposal results of Jingzhu. Who makes the accident only her clothes?

She could only admit that she was unlucky. Fortunately, he was not so inhuman as to be heinous. He gave her a friendship price in Jing Miao's face.

Xia Jinsheng was upset that he didn't care about money, but was secretly murdered.

I thought there was action next, but those people suddenly stopped. Xia Jinsheng got a peaceful life and concentrated on studying in school. Occasionally on a whim, when lunch is ready, go to give it to Gu Nanchen, which is called "surprise inspection".

The same is true today.

As soon as she got out of the elevator, Chu nianwan covered her stomach and pasted it on the wall. She hurriedly surrounded it, "what's the matter with you, isn't it uncomfortable?"

"Stomach ache, old problem." Chu Nian smiled weakly in the evening. As soon as she looked up, the dense beads of sweat on her forehead reflected into Xia Jinsheng's eyes. Her lips had been bitten blue and white.

I can see that she is depressed very hard.

"No." Xia Jinsheng took out his mobile phone from his bag. "Let me call you an ambulance."

Chu nianwan stopped her action. Seeing the doubt on her face, he explained, "no, I still have a report. I can't finish it before two o'clock."

Mingming is about to go down, but he is still strong. Xia Jinsheng doesn't understand this behavior of not caring for his body for work. "Don't joke, you should go to the hospital and lie down now."

She was unexpectedly persistent, because the analysis of the report was very important to the company. It was necessary to sign contracts with other companies later. But she doesn't have stomach medicine.

She thought it only hurt for a while and didn't take it to heart. She didn't know that the pain didn't slow down but became more and more severe. Xia Jinsheng didn't intend to let her fool around and called an ambulance directly.

Together with passers-by, she was sent to the ambulance, but she was still worried about the report and refused to be replaced by others. Xia Jinsheng couldn't help but stand up and say, "I'll do it for you. I'll talk to your assistant later. You go to the hospital first."

She still seems a little worried.

"Don't worry, trust me. You don't know my ability. It's more than enough." Xia Jinsheng patted his chest and promised that Chu Nian got on the ambulance late.

Go to the hospital to check, acute appendicitis and tossed to do the operation, thanks to the timely discovery, otherwise it's not fun.

After working here for several years, Xia Jinsheng had a tacit memory of her working body. After a while, she got the report out before she handed it to Chu nianwan's assistant and turned around to leave.

Xia Jinsheng didn't care about what she thought was a little help. It occurred to her that Gu Nanchen asked her to go to the company the third day.

Her budget report that day was zero more. She didn't check carefully when signing the treaty with the cooperative company. As a result, the other party took advantage of the loophole and made a huge profit.

It was originally a big case, and then there was a zero. It was an astronomical figure, which was an irreparable loss for Gu. The other party refused to sign the agreement again and asked the company to pay the expenses on the contract.

It is clear that we want to take advantage of you. Such cooperation can never continue.

The posture and body were large, which affected Gu's next development. Even the old man was shocked and became angry and began to investigate responsibility.

Chu Nian was still in the hospital at night. As soon as he checked, he found Xia Jinsheng.

As soon as she entered the door, Gu Jun pointed at her nose and scolded her, "what do you eat? Such a simple thing can be mistaken. Did you mean it? "

The old man was very angry. Regardless of the presence of others around him, Xia Jinsheng was difficult to step down for the moment. Gu Nanchen helped her stop a lot of scolding. She did it. The old man asked her to take responsibility.

She stayed in the company for the time being to settle the matter through negotiation.

All the people left were Gu Nanchen and her. She handed the report to her, "make sure you did it yourself."

From the beginning to the end, she did it. There was no doubt that there was an extra zero in the cost. I clearly remember that I was worried about making mistakes yesterday. I checked it several times. How can I make mistakes now?

No matter how things are caused, the most important thing now is to take remedial measures. They made an appointment with the person in charge of the cooperative company, but the other party still took advantage of the fire.

He refused to agree to re sign the contract. His attitude was very tough. Gu Nanchen was not the master of being handled. "Since he refused to re sign the contract, we had to terminate our cooperation."

The person in charge opened his eyes. He thought he would ask for a few words in a low voice. As a result, he directly shook his cold face, "you just broke the contract."

"Yes, it's breaking the contract." Xia Jinsheng insisted. There was no way to break the contract. Although he had to pay a liquidated damages, it was better than the number of dumb and taken advantage of.

"Although breaking the contract will indeed have a negative impact on our sales quota this quarter, it should have a deeper impact on your company." Husband and wife work together, not tired. Gu Nanchen and Xia Jinsheng, one with a white face and the other with a black face, were afraid to frighten the person in charge. Finally, they agreed to sign the contract again. Xia Jinsheng began to take charge of the report again. There must be no more mistakes this time. She decided not to hand it over to Gu Nanchen herself and let him check it for her again. As soon as he reached the door, Gu

Ge came in, frowning subconsciously, "what are you doing here?" This is Chu nianwan's office. Now it's well known that she's in the hospital. Obviously, she's looking for herself. Gu Ge's eyes fell on the report book in her hand, and a hissing sound came out of her nose. Her shoulders shrugged and her tone was strange, "Oh, you're so stupid that you took out your heart and lungs for Chu Nian night." "What do you mean?" "Literally. What did you say? I'm afraid you don't know that Chu nianwan deliberately planned it?" "What nonsense?" Xia Jinsheng can see that she is here to stir up discord, and her technique is not superb. Chu nianwan can plan, even appendicitis? Without paying attention to her, Xia Jinsheng turned and left, "save your strength. Instead of thinking about how to separate us, we'd better think about how to let the old man let you go back to the old house." Her words stabbed Gu Ge's pain. Her face immediately twisted and raised her hand to fight Xia Jinsheng's face. How could she hurt herself? Xia Jinsheng grabbed her hand and first pulled the man forward and pushed him back. She fell to the ground with an unstable center of gravity in high heels "What are you doing?" Gu Nanchen came in and just saw this scene. Behind her was Chu nianwan who had just been discharged from the hospital. She looked at them suspiciously, with a cloud of fog on her face. How could the two fight? Gu Nanchen has preconceived that it is Gu Ge who picked up the trouble and protected Xia Jinsheng behind him. His eyes are cool "No, Nan Chen, I just told her something. Even if she didn't believe it, she had to hit me." Sure enough, Xia Jinsheng knew that she didn't expect Gu Ge to tell the truth, and only hoped that she wouldn't distort the reality too much. Gu Nanchen quickly extracted important information from her words, "what did you tell her?" Xia Jinsheng didn't believe that he had to beat people. He was only half convinced of Gu Ge "I said Chu..." Gu Ge's pupils narrowed before he remembered that Chu nianwan was still here. It's OK to talk behind his back. It's not good if she knew it face to face. She also wants to win over Chu nianwan and Ling Qiaoqiao to deal with Xia Jinsheng. Xia Jinsheng waited for her below and wondered how she would end. After patting the dust on his body, Gu Gepi smiled and didn't smile, "it's not much. It's normal for his sisters to quarrel. I'll go back first." No one expected this. Xia Jinsheng thought she would pester endlessly and left so simply. It's not like her style at all "What did she say?" When Gu Nanchen asked her this question again, Xia Jinsheng specially looked at Chu nianwan and didn't stop, "she just told me that this thing was planned by nianwan." After saying this, Xia Jinsheng paid special attention to the change of Chu nianwan's expression and found that she had nothing else except anger, "this is not true. How can I do such a thing. I was in the hospital." She did have sufficient alibi, no doubt on her expression, more anger after being misunderstood and the urgency to clarify for herself. Xia Jinsheng had never doubted her, but now she is. After giving the report to Gu Nanchen, Xia Jinsheng breathed a sigh of relief and stretched out to go home. He stopped her "Don't trust others too easily." She couldn't cry or laugh. "You won't and don't believe it. Do you have any evidence?" "No." It was more intuitive. Intuition told him that Gu Ge wouldn't make things out of nothing, but it would be strange to say it in front of Xia Jinsheng. He seldom believes in intuition. Before long, Gu Ge stopped her at the school gate with another CD and vowed, "do you want to watch the change with me? Chu nianwan is definitely ill intentioned. " She's still a thief. Chu nianwan doesn't have any good intentions, and she doesn't have any good intentions. Being pestered by her, Xia Jinsheng can only promise that he will watch the video when he goes back. However, as soon as she got home, she threw the disc to the other side and did what she should do, just like in the past. But she was too young to see Gu Ge's persistence. She called frantically and urged again and again. People who didn't know thought she was concerned. Only Xia Jinsheng knew that she was trying to stir up right and wrong. Finally, she was really tired of being entangled, so she went to watch the video.
