

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 198

The company came back to life soon after the return of Xia Jinsheng and Jing Zhu, and the recovery progress was amazing.

After this storm, no one dared to doubt Xia Jinsheng's ability. Even if there was dissatisfaction, they would only vent in their hearts. If they really drove her away, it was only themselves who suffered in the end.

Before the lawsuit over Gu Ge was over, she privately robbed Jingzhu's business in the name of Gu's family, luring many people to make trouble for them.

Xia Jinsheng is going to help solve the problem. I don't know why Gu Ge suddenly stopped and was sent abroad by his parents.

"Did you do it?"

She thinks about it and can help her. She has the strength to let Gu Ge and her parents just listen to Gu Nanchen.

Gu Nanchen at the other end of the phone shook his head, "it's not me. You can't guess. Do you want to try?"

It's not him. Who can it be? Xia Jinsheng ruled out the people around him one by one. As a result, most of them were denied by him and lost patience, "it can't be the old man?"

“.....”

Quiet, dead quiet.

Xia Jinsheng suddenly had a bold idea, which frightened her. Gu Nanchen's reaction is not really Gu's son, is it? Hasn't he always adopted a sit-by policy?

Before digesting the shocking news, Gu Nanchen threw another deep-water torpedo at an inappropriate time——

"Dad asked us to go home for dinner at night."

Well, why do you go home for dinner? Xia Jinsheng was shocked. Moreover, the old man said that they were not allowed to step into the old house.

Did you forgive them?

Xia Jinsheng was shocked into a sculpture. She didn't do anything. The old man forgave her. Shouldn't it be a Hongmen banquet?

"Ouch."

Gu Nanchen flicked on her forehead. She frowned subconsciously, covered it and looked discontentedly at the culprit.

In fact, Gu Jun said more than that, but he didn't say it all for Xia Jinsheng's consideration. Of course, he only admitted in his heart that it was fun to tease Xia Jinsheng and watch her tangle.

Soon it was time to get off work. In the past, I went straight home. This time is different. Despite living together for several years, Xia Jinsheng nervously dragged Gu Nanchen to the store to buy gifts for everyone before picking up xiaotuanzi and returning to the old house.

"Tuanzi, you must be polite when you see people later. Remember to call people. Say hello to your grandparents. "

"I see." Xiaotuanzi is busy playing games. She has listened to this sentence more than three times since just now.

Today's Mommy is particularly wordy.

When he arrived at the old house, the housekeeper came out to open the door. Chu Yu was visiting the tableware with the cook. The old man read the newspaper on the sofa and didn't look natural when he saw them.

He is not the only one who is nervous, so is Xia Jinsheng.

"Dad, mom, we're back." Xia Jinsheng said carefully for fear that Gu Jun would kick them out.

Surprisingly, he didn't. Light should be a "well", different from the usual alienation and indifference.

It was very harmonious until after dinner. They stayed for a while. They were ready to leave. The old man suddenly stopped them.

Xia Jinsheng once doubted whether he planned to settle accounts after autumn, or give him a full meal before he was executed.

"Cough." The old man coughed twice and asked with a face, "you have a second child early. Your mother and I will watch for you. "

A roaring thunder attacked Xia Jinsheng's tianlinggai, and the old man urged her to have a second child. This is accepting her!

She was dizzy and floated back. She didn't know when she was turned to bed by Gu Nanchen.

The man has begun to take off his clothes. The textured tendons give off a sexy and charming smell. She can't help swallowing.

His figure is too foul, isn't it?

"What are you doing?"

She protected her clothes on her chest. Her intuition told her that it was difficult tonight. Another whirl of heaven and earth was crushed by Gu Nanchen on the bed.

He bit her earlobe, his voice was confused, "what do you say? What's the name of the second child? "

"What do you mean?" Xia Jinsheng rolled his eyes, "I'm not pregnant yet, huh..."

The lip flap was suddenly blocked until she was out of breath and Gu Nanchen loosened it. "Were you blaming me just now?"

"Go away, don't make trouble." She pushed Gu Nanchen, which made the man more and more gain an inch. They are more intimate.

The struggle was useless, and all his limbs were firmly imprisoned. Suddenly Xia Jinsheng felt like a fish on the chopping board.

Gu Nanchen has moved skillfully. Her will is not firm. She soon joined in the cause of creating people.

The red curtain was overturned and there was no sleep all night.

Gradually, Xia Jinsheng also began to accept what Mr. Gu was slowly changing, and the number of times of returning to the old house gradually increased. Even live for a period of time from time to time, and the previous heart knot is resolved with deep communication.

Everything began to develop in a good direction. It turned out that she still cared about the reasons for the change of the army, and she didn't bother to think deeply after it failed. Anyway, it's the best now.

More than half a month before the Chinese new year, Xia Jinsheng and Gu ya'er prepared the new year goods together. While they were still struggling to bargain, a phone call interrupted the harmony and beauty.

"Well, Miss Xia, I'm sorry, we can't find Yuxiu. Is she with you?" The agent's voice sounded particularly anxious.

Xia Jinsheng was blinded. After the small Tuanzi fire, Qianlong emperor's nest arranged a fan meeting for her today. Gentle son arranged relevant matters, so she didn't care. Why did you lose someone in less than one morning?

"She's not with me. What's the matter? Shouldn't you be held responsible for handing over my daughter to your company? "

The agent apologized again and again. Xia Jinsheng's anger is still difficult to calm down. It is impossible for any mother to calm down when her child is lost.

"Sister in law, calm down first and call my brother."

Xia Jinsheng was in a panic. No wonder her eyes kept jumping all day. She always felt that something was going to happen.

If I had known that xiaotuanzi would disappear earlier, she wouldn't have left her half a step.

One day later, xiaotuanzi really disappeared. There was no progress between the company and Gu Nanchen. Even the professional police were helpless.

They also need time to investigate. There are many people at the fan meeting, and some people have bad intentions. They immediately concluded that this was a planned kidnapping.

The little Tuanzi blessed with the dual identity of a star and a minor child is missing. Everyone pays special attention to this matter.

They can wait for the investigation results slowly, but Xia Jinsheng can't wait. At the thought that the little guy was kidnapped, there is no result until now. Unable to be at ease, she directly trapped herself in the monitoring room of the meeting venue that day and watched the video with the staff.

For fear of missing any small details.

She has been eating, drinking and resting all day and night. Blood soon appeared in his eyes. Gu Nanchen looked distressed, but he knew he couldn't stop her at all.

Only accompany Xia Jinsheng to find the video.

One day or two, there was still no result. Xia Jinsheng had fainted more than once. This time is more serious than the previous times. She said pain in her stomach and wrinkled her face.

"Let's go to the hospital."

"I don't know." Xia Jinsheng patted off his hand without thinking about it. If she delayed one more minute, the little guy would have more risk, which made her feel at ease.

"OK, have a drink first." He handed the porridge to her and threatened, "if you don't drink it, go to the hospital with me."

Xia Jinsheng fainted as soon as his eyes were dark before he could promise. Gu Nanchen didn't even respond to calling her several times.

The police finally couldn't stand their crazy behavior.

Mandatory order, "you two must go to rest, or you will have an accident before you find the child."

Xia Jinsheng's legs shed blood for some reason. Gu Nanchen's reason broke for a moment. Without saying a word, he began to run to the hospital with people.

The doctor frowned after checking Xia Jinsheng's body, "what's the matter with you? Pregnant woman, do you know? How can you be so weak? "

Pregnant? Gu Nanchen was confused. He didn't think about pregnancy at all. Thinking of the dazzling red, he couldn't help shaking his fingertips and was shrouded in fear, "is she... Something wrong?"

Xia Jinsheng's extreme behavior in the past two days is in his eyes. If a child miscarries, it will be their biggest regret in this life.

The doctor was silent.

After seeing him off, Gu Nanchen sat by the bed and held Xia Jinsheng's cool hand tightly, trying to pass on his little warmth to her.

Their second child was not saved.

In the dead silence, Xia Jinsheng faintly felt a water stain dripping on her hand.

Xia Jinsheng was in a coma because she was extremely weak. Xiaotuanzi's crisis has not been solved, and Gu Nanchen is in a dilemma. After Gu ya'er knew the news, he volunteered, "brother, I'll take care of my sister-in-law. You hurry to find the small ball."

Overnight, Gu Nanchen seemed to be several years old with a decadent face. Only when you look at Xia Jinsheng on the bed can you see a little warmth in your eyes.

"OK. Don't tell her about the abortion. " Gu Nanchen spoke hard.

Gu ya'er also knows the seriousness of the matter. If her brother wants to hide it, she won't leak it all her life.

Although this is unfair to Xia Jinsheng.

On the third morning, there was news from xiaotuanzi. The police found the suspect, a woman whose child died early. At the scene, her behavior and look were particularly strange, but she didn't show any flaws when she saw the small ball, abducted people and fainted with medicine.

The woman's face was deeply imprinted in Gu Nanchen's mind. His eyes were scarlet. No matter what he paid, he must make the woman's life worse than death.

In the dark basement, the vision is blurred, the green moss in the corner has the sound of water dripping continuously, accompanied by bursts of stench.

The little Tuanzi was imprisoned in a chair in the center and tied up. The dirty environment, fear and cold winter finally made her burn.

The woman who kidnapped her looked at her covetously. Before, she escaped and angered the woman, so she tied her up and stared at her and refused to leave. Women firmly believe that as long as she leaves one step, the "daughter" will disappear.
