

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 199

The Little Regiment felt that his throat was smoking in bursts, like a fire burning on it. "Water, can I have water?"

The woman looked at her warily, and finally nodded. What she took was mineral water. It was cold. As soon as she drank it, the small ball couldn't help vomiting. She was cold and wet.

The woman changed her clothes, but the little guy still burned more and more seriously, his whole body was hot, and his consciousness gradually began to blur.

She remembered that her first child left early unconscious because she was hot. Worried that the same thing would happen again to xiaotuanzi, she couldn't take it into account anymore and rushed out of the basement with the little guy in her arms.

Along the way, she came to a small clinic. An old man in his 70s and 80s was seeing a doctor. Next to her, her 17-year-old granddaughter was playing with her mobile phone.

At the nearest clinic, she was afraid of delaying her illness. She went in as soon as she gritted her teeth. "Doctor, please help me see my daughter. She has a fever."

"Why did it burn so badly? How do you become a parent? I have limited facilities here. Hurry to send her to a big hospital. "

The woman is very embarrassed. If she is sent to a big hospital, she will be found. She will stay whatever she says. The old man tangled with her. The patient is still alive. It's impossible to die.

So, the small group was left.

To find the medicine, the old man asked his granddaughter to help him with his bad eyes. The girl reluctantly took something and was shocked when she saw xiaotuanzi's face.

Although it looks a little dirty, isn't this Xia Yuxiu?

Before she could take a closer look, the woman blocked her sight, looked flustered, her mind turned and her heart beat constantly. After repeated confirmation, he quietly called the police.

"Yes, it's 365 XX street. Come here."

She lowered her voice and reported to the police. Suddenly there was an unfriendly voice behind her, "what are you doing?"

Looking back, it was the woman who suddenly dropped her mobile phone to the ground.

When the woman saw the 110 above, she pushed the girl like crazy, then rushed in, without saying a word, pulled out the needle tube in xiaotuanzi's hand and ran out with her.

"Hey, she's still burning? Do you want her to die? " The old man shouted in the back. I don't know why she did this.

The word "death" touched the woman's nerve. Instead of stopping, she ran faster. Anyway, she would not lose this child again.

The police and Gu Nanchen quickly rushed to the scene. After the carpet search, they finally pulled out the woman. At that time, the little Tuanzi was completely unconscious and the situation was in crisis.

Gu Nanchen was full of anger. Where did he take into account other people? He slapped the woman and sent the small ball to the hospital for treatment.

On the other hand, Xia Jinsheng soon woke up and was about to go to the monitoring room. Gu Nanchen called, "have a good rest and I'll bring the little guy back in the evening."

He also sent a picture of Xiao Tuanzi sleeping in bed quietly in his sick clothes. Xia Jinsheng burst into tears for a moment. The baby fat on the little guy's face in the picture was reduced by more than half. It hurts to look haggard, especially the little red face. Xia Jinsheng wants to rush over and take care of her herself.

Strange to say, she was weak all over, especially the pain in her lower abdomen. She could only stay in the ward quietly.

In the evening, Gu Nanchen fulfilled her promise and sent the small ball back. She was still asleep, but Xia Jinsheng hugged her excitedly and was reluctant to let go.

Gu Nanchen held her two most important people in her arms, as if she had the world.

A week later, the little guy's condition began to improve and he could get out of bed and walk around the hospital. Xia Jinsheng was with her in the hospital.

For that woman, Gu Nanchen said that she basically had to stay in a mental hospital all her life. For a woman less than thirty, such punishment is cruel enough.

As soon as I got to the hospital, I heard the little guy's voice, "Mommy, look, there's a bird here."

She pointed to the Bush, where there was indeed a wounded bird shivering. Xia Jinsheng was also surprised that there would be a bird in the ice and snow. She helped make a bird's nest with Gu Nanchen.

The bird was sent to the veterinarian for treatment and soon recovered. The little guy accidentally became a good partner with him.

Three days later, they were discharged from the hospital. After going through such a thing, I suddenly felt a sigh when I returned to the villa.

"Finally back."

Xia Jinsheng breathed the air at home, how to look and how happy. The little guy was quiet.

"What's the matter? Aren't you happy?"

After escaping from the woman's hand, a serious illness made the little guy feel weak and listless.

Xiaotuanzi sucked his nose and suddenly hugged Xia Jinsheng's legs, "I almost thought I'd never see you again, sobbing..."

This was the first time she cried in front of Xia Jinsheng after she was kidnapped. Both the husband and wife were caught off guard. It took a while to placate her before she stopped.

After a while, the doorbell suddenly rang. It was gentle, gentle and Xia Liyue who came to visit. They heard that the little guy was well and discharged from the hospital. They all came to congratulate him.

"What happened before is that we're sorry for you. I'm sorry for Xiao Yuxiu. Please open your mouth if you want any compensation."

"Hum." Gu Nanchen Leng hum, he doesn't care about the compensation of Qianlong emperor's nest. No matter how expensive money is, it's not as important as one of his daughters.

Knowing that he was still angry, Xia Jinsheng pulled his sleeve to make him converge. Instead, he smiled and said, "ignore him. Come in first."

Seeing Xia Liyue, Xia Jinsheng was puzzled for a moment. Although she was nice to the little guy in the crew, the relationship between them was not so good.

She seems to care too much about the little guy.

There was doubt in her heart, and she didn't show it. They prepared dinner for them. They ate too much and were too lazy to move. They said they would stay for one night.

"You go back with me."

Gentle son frowned. I don't know why she had such a request. She looked at Xia Jinsheng in embarrassment. The problem with the small group is that their supervision is unfavorable and whether they have fulfilled their responsibilities.

Now she puts forward this unreasonable request... Gentle son is quite worried that Xia Jinsheng will turn against their company, especially Gu Nanchen. He doesn't know why he always has my coldness.

"It's all right. Just stay if you want to." Xia Jinsheng also knows that the Wen family can't be blamed, and because Jing Miao has a good relationship with Wenya, it's OK for her to stay with the little guy.

The voice just fell. Unexpectedly, Xia Liyue suddenly asked, "I also want to stay for one night, can I?"

Xia Jinsheng was stunned. Wenya didn't know what purpose she had. She couldn't wait to answer before she answered, "OK, OK. Sister Jinsheng is so good that she will agree. "

Even if Xia Jinsheng doesn't want to promise, will he? Obviously not.

After dinner, everyone gathered to watch TV. Xia Jinsheng noticed that Xia Liyue's eyes always lingered between her and Gu Nanchen.

The eyes were very complicated. Xia Jinsheng felt uncomfortable because of an unspeakable feeling.

Shouldn't Xia Liyue also like Gu Nanchen? Xia Jinsheng was shocked. The more she thought about it, the more likely it was. She couldn't help holding Gu Nanchen's hand to block the man's sight and declare sovereignty.

The gentle man who knew the inside story only turned his eyes. He was too young to be angry. He came straight to the point, "sister Jinsheng, do you know Xia Huiyue? She is Li Yue's..... "

Before she finished, Xia Liyue, who was in a hurry, pinched her gentle thigh, and she cried out in pain.

Their interaction confused Xia Jinsheng. It didn't seem like what she thought. What's going on?

Aside, Gu Nanchen took advantage of the situation to hold Xia Jinsheng in his arms and looked at the two people fighting opposite. Meditate:

Xia Liyue, Xia hazy Yue, Li Yue, hazy Yue... He seems to understand something.

The little guy can clearly remember the style of aunt Xia Jinsheng's coming here before, and he is particularly sensitive to hear the three words Xia hazy moon.

"Hazy moon? Isn't that mommy's name before? "

"Really?" Xia Liyue was incomparably excited. Two tearful people shouted, "sister."

Xia Jinsheng was completely messy in the wind.

At this time, Xia Liyue took out a group photo from her bag. They were two children who had a good relationship. Xia Jinsheng, one of the girls, is very familiar, because that person is her.

So she really has a sister for no reason.

Recovering from the shock, she began to understand what had happened before. In those years, she selectively forgot, so she also forgot Xia Liyue's existence.

Xia Liyue never appeared in the outside world and was sent abroad for treatment because of her poor health. So he escaped the explosion disaster.

The Gu family thought that Xia Liyue also died in the factory with Xia Wen and Lin Qinghuan, so they didn't tell Gu Jinsheng that she had a sister.

The two people recognized each other and couldn't help looking at each other and smiling.

In early March, Chu nianwan married Gu Wensheng.

On April 1, he spent the rest of his life with Mo Nanfeng, and publicly his relationship with Mo Nanfeng. The fans were shocked and thought they were joking. Unexpectedly, at eight o'clock that night, they were caught off guard and threw out two Dutch marriage certificates.

The news was overwhelming, and the noise was hot for a time. There are different opinions. Some people bless and others attack.

But in any case, monen's retreat is a fact. His last album was also sold out by fans to commemorate him.

On June 1st, Mo Nanfeng proposed to the rest of his life. Xia Jinsheng and fans Tucao, "can't you make complaints about a decent holiday and get married again?"

They ignored this and still showed their love every day. After a good turn for the better, the fire of Mo Nanfeng was the first gay in city a for the rest of his life.

At the wedding, Xia Jinsheng complained to Gu Nanchen, "I don't see you give me a decent proposal."

Gu Nanchen hugged her slender waist and kissed hard, "wait."

Then they separated. Xia Jinsheng looked confused, waiting? Wait, divorce without proposing. Gu Nanchen: "dare to run with the ball?"
