

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 43

"Really? In fact, I don't welcome you very much. "

Wei Qing's words are not surprising. He is a designer rather than a businessman. He doesn't like the merchant's tricks, so this is the reason why he is reluctant to inherit his family business.

His words made the two women's faces green. The man who asked Wei Qing for help immediately took his companion's hand and left a sentence, "Oh, it seems that we are amorous. Wei Shao, leave."

They were amorous, but for a moment Xia Jinsheng admired their character. If they made a decision, they would break. They were not sloppy at all.

Seeing Wei Qing looking at himself, Xia Jinsheng smiled, put his hand on Wei Qing's shoulder and exhaled, "don't you feel bad that the two great beauties have left like this? Well, Wei Shao? "

Wei Qing didn't know the meaning of her joke. She opened her mouth and was about to say something.

"Bang --"

A sudden loud noise covered Wei Qing's voice and disturbed his happy people immersed in the banquet.

The people present subconsciously looked at the gate of the sound source, and the exquisite carved gate was kicked open from the outside without pity.

The tall figure standing at the gate immediately attracted people's attention. Its tall and straight posture and handsome face were like the arrival of Apollo in ancient Greek mythology. The aura of not being close to strangers gave people a sense of beauty that can be viewed from a distance but can not be blasphemed.

Among them, someone soon recognized the visitor and covered his mouth unbelievably. The legendary Gu Nanchen actually appeared in this place. But I've never heard of the relationship between designer Wei Qing and Gu family?

Xia Jinsheng was even more surprised that she could put the next egg in her mouth. She clearly didn't tell Gu Nanchen where his address was, but he could find it here.

This man is so terrible!

Suddenly she just felt a hot light shining on herself... More accurately, the hand she put on Wei Qing's shoulder produced a burning sensation on her skin, and she couldn't help but retract her hand bitterly.

Gu Nanchen has come slowly. No one dares to ignore him. As if he was watching the king, Xia Jinsheng shrinks his neck and wishes he could minimize his sense of existence.

The man's dark eyes stared at her.

"Second uncle." The little guy was not affected by the outside world at all. Seeing Gu Nanchen struggling, he was about to jump off Wei Qing.

Thanks to her, Gu Nanchen finally looked directly at Wei Qing, but he stayed only in a hurry for a few seconds. He looked away as if he had given great favor to others.

Picked up the little guy, Gu Nanchen couldn't help but drag Xia Jinsheng's hand out. Wei Qing didn't know he would act like this. His subordinates consciously grabbed Xia Jinsheng's wrist.

The scene suddenly deadlocked. Two people took her hand. This is a typical scene where two men compete for a woman. If they are not the protagonist. She will clap her hands.

But the reality is that she is a party and is watched by the guests with surprise, ridicule, envy, anger and other complex eyes. Hehe, she doesn't want to be the focus of the crowd at all.

"Let go." Gu Nanchen's tone was not good. The cold air around him made people shiver. The tone of command was intimidating.

Surprisingly, Wei Qing didn't have the slightest stage fright and completely ignored the man's words just now.

In addition to Xia Jinsheng, the first time someone dared to challenge his majesty, Gu Nanchen's mouth slowly raised a bloodthirsty smile.

The little woman closest to him almost knelt directly to him as soon as her legs and stomach were soft, because the smile was so terrible.

Not wanting to involve Wei Qing and get hurt, Xia Jinsheng had to look back and say to him, "brother Wei, let go. It's okay. My second uncle won't do anything to me... Hiss."

Before she finished her words, she suddenly took a breath. Xia Jinsheng looked bitterly at the culprit. The damn man pinched her. Asshole, his hands were red.

Gu Nanchen narrows his eyes dangerously and always cares about Xia Jinsheng's sentence "brother Wei". It's really close. Why don't you call brother Qing directly?

The anger in the man's chest is rising, and the anger in his eyes can roast the little woman who doesn't know the superiority of heaven and earth at any time, and then swallow her stomach one by one without leaving any debris.

His eyes were cold and fierce. Xia Jinsheng shivered and pulled his hand out of Wei Qing's hand. The meaning was obvious.

The moment her hand slipped out of the palm of her hand, Wei Qing's heart was empty. He raised his eyes to the man's proud face, and his heart was flustered again.

Gu Nanchen couldn't help but take people away, leaving a stunned look.

She was forced into the car by him, and the little guy was carefully taken care of.

Really, don't distinguish treatment too obviously.

"Second uncle, you are unreasonable." The good reception banquet was so noisy by him that I don't know how much trouble it brought to Wei Qing.

Xia Jinsheng's words are all about the maintenance of Wei Qing. The green veins on his hand holding the steering wheel are all shown, "there's no reason for you."

After silence, Gu Nanchen asked again, "what's the matter with that man? How dare you let the Little Regiment call him father. "

He was called, and the little guy blinked innocently.

She picked her eyebrows and looked proud. "How's it going, isn't it good? Since you don't believe that Gungun is an uncle's daughter, I can only find her a new father. "

"Bang" Gu Nan angrily hammered the steering wheel, stepped on the brake to the end, and after a long "hiss" sound, the car suddenly stopped on the road.

She was caught unprepared. Gu Nanchen had bent over, grabbed her with one hand, raised her two hands above her head, and grabbed her chin with the other hand and raised it slowly

He actually wanted to kiss her here. When he thought that the little guy was still behind, Xia Jinsheng tried his best to resist, but could she resist the strength of an adult man?

Before long, Gu Nanchen's lips had been printed on her cherry like lips. The wet spirit tongue pried open her teeth and attacked the city and the land.

Not only that, he almost robbed the air in her lungs, his breathing became difficult, his brain was dizzy, and his body was reacted by the man's superb skills.

Xia Jinsheng was soft and became a mass of water. Her eyes contained spring. The man's gaze made her collapse

"Second uncle, why did you bite Mommy?" The innocent voice suddenly remembered that Xia Jinsheng's brain was excited and his whole body aroused a cold sweat.

I forgot that the little guy was still in the car. Xia Jinsheng hurriedly pushed Gu Nanchen away. Obviously, he didn't mean to continue. He quietly stepped on the car and started the car.

"Mommy, why..."

"Good, no why, be quiet." Her mind is in a mess. It's hard for her to explain what just happened to rolling before she straightens out her ideas.

Although the little guy is still young, she knows that generally she can't kiss others. My uncle once told her this.

When she arrived at her destination, Xia Jinsheng had already taken care of Nanchen and took the little guy away in one step. She walked quickly without waiting for anyone to respond. She wanted to leave immediately.

"Xia Jinsheng, stop." Gu Nanchen ordered in a deep voice. He knew she wouldn't necessarily listen to him, so he took a few steps and grabbed her wrist.

"You let go." Xia Jinsheng frowned. She shook her arm, but she couldn't get rid of his shackles anyway.

"Let's talk."

"I have nothing to talk to you about." Xia Jinsheng shivered at the cold sight.

Gu Nanchen became more and more angry. He knew that the anger in his chest would not only burn himself, but also spread to Xia Jinsheng soon. But he was powerless to stop the situation.

Before, she was always angry with him. Every time he couldn't calm down and relax freely, but Xia Jinsheng challenged his bottom line more and more.

"Give up your heart. I won't let you call someone else's father." Not a discussion, but an announcement.

She was stunned for a second and soon laughed angrily, "what does this have to do with you?"

There was a sense of alienation between the lines in her sentence, which refused people thousands of miles away.

Gu Nanchen's anger was easily picked to the top by her. She dared to get rid of his relationship and think of beauty.

"Does it really matter?" His voice was as deep as ever, and his tone was a little higher, "are you sure?"

His words had another profound meaning. Xia Jinsheng was struck by thunder. His determined appearance suddenly made people difficult. She didn't know whether the man already knew the truth.

Xia Jinsheng forced himself to calm down, looked at Gu Nanchen and smiled, "second uncle, your joke is not funny at all. The little guy is sleepy. I'll take her back. "

Xiaotuanzi blinked. Her deer like eyes were full of doubts. She obviously didn't sleep. Is Mommy confused? It's only about ten o'clock in the morning.

How can Gu Nanchen believe the lie that the little guy knows? He squeezed out from his teeth almost word by word, "Xia Jinsheng, don't always escape, can you? It's fun to hide like this? "

Lying skills are not good for a while, but she has no consciousness at all. Gu Nanchen is tired of her escape.

She chuckled, her bright eyes and bright teeth were like flowers in spring. "Second uncle is not a beast. Why should I hide? It's really the little guy eating and sleeping. "

The little guy was completely convinced by his mother's brazenness and didn't say a word.

"Really? That's good. " Gu Nanchen suddenly smiled. It was clearly a plump and handsome face, which was very pleasing to the eyes. Xia Jinsheng was frightened for no reason.

Xia Jinsheng thought he had given up, but looking at the man who followed him and swaggered into the house, she understood what his sentence "that's good" meant.

However, who can tell her that after Gu Nanchen made a phone call, the assistant moved the large and small boxes of luggage. Finally, she blew her hair. Rao was angry again. He still looked at the lazy man on the sofa and said, "second uncle, can you please explain what's going on?"
