

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 97

When he learned that Gu Nanchen was driving to pick him up, Xia Jinsheng's brain was blank and had long stopped thinking. Subconsciously speed up the steps down the mountain.

"What's the matter?" Zhang Yun and Ji Chi looked at each other. They were also confused and hurried to follow up.

She soon arrived at the foot of the mountain and saw Gu Nanchen's car. The owner of the car had his hands in his pockets. He was slender and had long legs wrapped in a pair of suit pants

Next to him gathered several little girls who hesitated to chat up, but the other party's original clothes and the luxury cars around him made people retreat.

Such people are two worlds from them. How can they be attracted to them? There is no reason to begin to feel inferior and always feel inferior.

But someone doesn't think so, because she is the daughter of the headmaster and her father is a well-known educator in city A. many enterprise bosses will give her some thin noodles. She is Roxanne.

The man in front of her looks very much in line with her taste, and his clothes and car are valuable. He should be an invisible rich man. That's right. Roxanne is even more satisfied with him.

"Hello, I'm Roxanne. Look who you've been waiting for? I can help you. " After all, the identity of the president of the student union is there.

"Thank you. No." Gu Nanchen's cold and polite refusal has slowly walked towards Xia Jinsheng.

The eyes around him moved with his movements. This direction... How is Xia Jinsheng? This is the first thought that comes out of the brain of all girls.

Seeing that she was close to Ji Chi, Gu Nanchen frowned and pulled people over, gently asked, "baby, can we live in the world of two now?"

The girl's heart is broken. Well, it turns out that the grass has a master. Why did Xia Jinsheng take advantage of everything?

He called him baby in front of his classmates. Xia Jinsheng was too ashamed to see anyone. He gave him a hard shove, took his arm and said goodbye to the other two goose like people, "someone came to pick me up, so I'll go back first. Bye. "

"Bye." Zhang Yun mechanically puts her hand. She knows why Xia Jinsheng is unwilling to accept Ji Chi. She puts the golden turtle in front of her. Don't be a fool.

At this moment, she completely cut off the idea of helping Jichi pull the red line. Reluctant to look at their backs, but seriously... Xia Jinsheng's husband is really handsome. Of course, except it's a little cold.

No matter how complicated other people's eyes are, Xia Jinsheng has left in Gu Nanchen's car. She can't see the rough waves among her classmates.

"Why did you come all of a sudden?" Sitting in the car, Xia Jinsheng felt that the atmosphere was not right and always wanted to say something.

Her question, Gu Nanchen kept silent, but led the topic to one side, "that season pool was very good to you?"

Xia Jinsheng didn't realize there was something wrong. He said casually, "it's very good. Today, he held a small birthday party for me with his classmates."

Eh? How can she be murderous? No, she screamed in her heart and found Gu Nanchen's eyes dim and terrible. At this time, she didn't know that the deep meaning was that her head was funny.

She raised her right hand to swear. She said, "I promise I'm innocent with him. I don't like him at all."

"But he likes you."

Xia Jinsheng was bewildered by a word with vinegar taste. Many people like me. Can she control this kind of thing?

After a while, he suddenly said, "I'm the best choice. There's nothing wrong with your eyes."

"..." this man is really not a general fan of self-confidence. Why is he so brazen and liked by others? Xia Jinsheng said: "two uncles are wise."

After they got the certificate, she basically didn't call Gu Nanchen that. At this moment, he suddenly called out such a sentence, and his cold eyes fell on her.

Xia Jinsheng is sitting upright and stiff like a puppet. She wants to hold Gu Nanchen's thigh and cry now. I'm wrong.

He finally took back his sight and raised his eyebrows. "It's all right. It's all right to call my father tonight."

Hiss

Xia Jinsheng suddenly felt a cold attack. After shaking hard, she got goose bumps all over, but was she so easy to give in?

Holding his face like a flower maniac, he kept twisting his body around, "Oh, Dad, you look dead."

With Gu Nanchen, she felt that her moral integrity had been basically cleaned, and there was no residue left.

That noun came out of her mouth. Gu Nanchen tightened his belly, and the evil fire in his eyes was even worse. He was secretly annoyed because her words had such a big reaction. He had to say: "you goblin, I'll clean you up tonight."

"...." Xia Jinsheng finally shut up and looked embarrassed. This embarrassing line really made people unable to answer. Do you want to say welcome to clean up?

Candlelight dinner, movies, all romantic outrages. When she went back to her bedroom to sleep after taking a bath, Xia Jinsheng saw a bed full of rose petals and a huge cake beside the bed.

"Happy birthday, baby." Gu Nanchen passed by and kissed her. Although he has said this sentence many times today, he still wants to say it again at this moment.

Xia Jinsheng's mouth twitched and said, "thank you." She also prepared a cake in the evening. Why did she have an ominous feeling in her heart?

And what the hell is the ribbon on the bedside table? She felt that things were moving in an unpredictable way, which made her have the impulse to run.

Touching her flat belly, she pretended to be very supportive. "I ate a lot tonight. Put the cake in the fridge and eat it tomorrow."

Gu Nanchen's eyes flickered, and an obscure smile appeared under the light, "this cake is not for you to eat."

She couldn't help rolling her eyes, thinking whether it was for me or for you? Unexpectedly, Gu Nanchen licked his lips and suddenly said:

"The cake is for me, but we'll eat it another way tonight."

Another way to eat? As an old driver for many years, she suddenly had some evil associations. She was too shy to see anyone. She covered her face and scolded, "pervert!"

Gu Nanchen smiled, "become not abnormal, you will know in a moment..."

The light in the bedroom was turned off and the view was dark. Tonight, they had an in-depth discussion on more than a dozen ways to eat cake.

The purple air came from the East. When it was just dawn, Xia Jinsheng got up uncomfortable. The mess in the room reminded her of the absurd and indulgent night yesterday. She picked up the sheets and threw her clothes into the washing machine.

Even the rest of the cake packaging last night was thrown into the dustbin by her for no other reason, just because if she asked her aunt to help clean up, she would die with Gu Nanchen with a knife.

Thanks to him, Xia Jinsheng had the most unforgettable birthday last night. She didn't want to meet cake in her life.

After all this, when I went downstairs, there was a little guy in the kitchen making breakfast with Gu ya'er. Seeing Xia Jinsheng, the little guy ran over and asked her to hold him.

Before she could hold her, she couldn't help beating her waist gently. Gu ya'er cast her teasing eyes and smiled, "it must have been ecstatic last night. In this way, my brother's technology is very good?"

After that, he raised his eyebrows at her and looked the same as Xia Jinsheng's expression before driving. Sure enough, birds of a feather flock together. Referring to last night, she was angry and clapped Gu ya'er's hand and sat at the table by herself.

"What broken technology? I haven't enjoyed it from beginning to end. " Xia Jinsheng shriveled his mouth, picked up a piece of bread and ate it as Gu Nanchen. Gu ya'er behind him didn't know why he coughed all the time.

rich and handsome the people who come to the lecture are.

People with families are not interested in these at all, because no matter how good-looking they are, they can only appreciate them. After all, there is such a big vinegar jar at home.

When paying, the light from the corner of her eyes inadvertently flashed outside. She was just trying to see what happened. Her wrist was suddenly caught.

The cashier's aunt showed a kind smile, pushed the glasses on the bridge of her nose and said, "this classmate, would you please check out first and then go?"

Xia Jinsheng was embarrassed by the incredible eyes from the people around her. One person had already handed the money to the cashier's aunt before she was about to take the money.

"I'll pay for her money."
