

《Sweet Marriage: Smart Cute Wife》

Chapter 98

With a familiar green voice, he looked up and saw Ji Chi smiling at himself. Xia Jinsheng was suddenly bigger than two.

"In fact, I can pay for it myself."

As if she hadn't heard what she said, aunt accepted Jichi's 100 yuan bill. She has seen a lot of the drama of boys chasing girls and is used to it.

But today, this pair of men and women must look good in the next life, so she couldn't help adding fuel to the fire. The change has been given to Ji Chi, and Xia Jinsheng is now complaining without illness.

"Then thank Ji da."

"You're welcome. It's my pleasure to serve beautiful women." I don't know when, the serious Ji Chi will make fun of me.

Xia Jinsheng blinked and suddenly came up with a bad idea. He made a horn with his hands and shouted to others, "today Jichi pays for the beauty for free. Those who are interested come quickly."

Originally, someone had been quietly looking at them. Now, because of this sentence, several girls came up and joked and asked if Ji Chi was true.

He didn't know where to answer. Xia Jinsheng took advantage of the chaos and ran away. When she sat in her position, she remembered that she seemed to have left her deskmate behind.

After a while, ah Fang came in with a black face. Xia Jinsheng thought she had offended her and wanted to apologize. Unexpectedly, she suddenly giggled.

After a thrill, Xia Jinsheng immediately opened the distance with her, frowned slightly, "what evil did you get today?"

Not surprisingly, the other party gave her a white eye, "smelly poor, do you know who I met just now?" Her mysterious appearance aroused Xia Jinsheng's curiosity, "who?"

"It's the entrepreneur. God, he's so handsome. Looking at me seems to melt my heart." Ah Fang was so obsessed with her face that she was almost ready to shed two more salivas.

Entrepreneurs are handsome? Young and promising, is it more eye-catching than Ji Chi? Just thinking, a group of students walked onto the stage surrounded by a person.

The monitor shouted, "everybody go back and sit down. The lecture will begin soon. Now let's give the stage to entrepreneur Gu, Mr. Gu. Let's applaud. " make love. A flood of applause.

When all the students on the podium returned to their seats, Xia Jinsheng finally saw the entrepreneur Gu's face, trembled and numb.

My darling, isn't it better than Jichi? It was Gu Nanchen. Why didn't he tell him he was coming to give a lecture? No wonder he showed a strange smile when he mentioned it to him.

Today's Gu Nanchen is very different from usual. He took off his carefully cut suit, clean white shirt, sea blue jeans and a pair of slender long legs. The broken hair in front of his forehead hung lazily, lazy and precious. A pair of gold framed glasses covered his cool eyes, and the whole person was haunted with a scholarly temperament.

Dare to play this trick with her, Xia Jinsheng grinds... The next second he looks at Gu Nanchen, and then he calmly moves away.

Huh? He actually moved away from his sight, as if they had never known each other. Xia Jinsheng's anger was provoked and slapped the table. My heart is a loss I didn't find.

A small sound just attracted attention in the quiet classroom, and the eye wind shot at her one by one. Gu Nanchen raised his head from the document and smiled, "this classmate, do you have any opinion?"

Xia Jinsheng felt guilty and extremely angry. This guy dared to pretend to be a big tail wolf with her. Good, good. Thinking of this, her tone was not very good, "No."

Those who are aggressive and will believe her will have ghosts. Even her deskmate couldn't help poking her, "do you know the person of this lecture? He's so handsome. Please give me the phone number. "

Her mouth twitches. Give her the phone number? Help another woman chase her husband? Don't even think about it, "I don't know, and I don't have a phone number."

"The student Xia Jinsheng just now, isn't he? Please stand up and answer me a few questions. "

When she was suddenly called, Xia Jinsheng couldn't believe it. She once suspected that she had heard wrong, but the students threw sympathetic eyes one by one and told her that this was the reality.

Is there a mistake? Shouldn't he sing a monologue on the lecture, and she sits sleepy below? Answer, who is afraid of who.

The questions he asked were very unpopular, and many were related to enterprise operation. At first, she could answer a few simple questions, but later, Xia Jinsheng couldn't help sweating.

When he asked the next question, Xia Jinsheng directly shook his face and said no. neither of them spoke first. They were deadlocked, and the air was filled with the smell of swords and crossbows.

"That." A boy raised his hand. "I know this question." His father was engaged in enterprise marketing. He often took him to the company to study, and soon came out with the answer to this question.

Xia Jinsheng looked at him with tears of gratitude. The boy was not used to being watched by beautiful women and quietly blushed. Gu Nanchen's face was even more ugly when he saw this scene, so that he basically asked and answered with Xia Jinsheng in the later lecture.

The students vaguely felt that the relationship between the two people was somewhat different, but they couldn't tell the specific difference.

The familiar bell finally rang after class. Xia Jinsheng lay down on the table with great relief. Finally, she didn't need to be asked by Gu Nanchen. If she came again a few times, she would die.

My deskmate looked at Xia Jinsheng admiringly with starlight in his eyes. "I found that you are great. I haven't heard of those questions. You can answer them."

She shook her head and looked very calm, "because she had been in the company for some time before."

"Oh, I used to work in the company. No wonder it's so clear." There was a girl around, who looked at Xia Jinsheng with disgust.

"Just know better than you." Xia Jinsheng has seen many such people. Most of them are jealous of her. Shaking her head can only show that she is too excellent.

What should I do if I am so good that I am jealous?

Suddenly, Huaichun, a girl who should be wearing a small white skirt, took out a book and a pen with a small face and a shy face, "Mr. Gu, can you sign for me? I've always liked you. "

Meow, there's a rival. Xia Jinsheng wanted to be invaded by the kitten. She put up her hair, held her hands into fists, and her teeth clenched.

She stared at Gu Nanchen with her eyes and thought that if he really dared to sign her, she must let him have no good fruit to eat, such as sleeping in the study for a month?

Gu Nanchen specially raised her head and looked at her, and then turned a blind eye and signed her name on the girl's notebook.

The elegant font immediately won the favor of girls. With the beginning of this girl, there was no shame for the girls who flocked behind.

"Mr. Gu, I've always liked you very much. Please sign for me."

"Mr. Gu, I fell in love with you at first sight. Please shake your hand."

"I have a secret promise to you. Please let me have a monkey for you."

When Xia Jinsheng saw this scene not far from the podium, his teeth were almost sour. He wanted to pat the table and roar at the flowers and butterflies, "he's my mother's man, you know? One by one, stay away from him. "

Of course, this is limited to thinking. She will never take practical action, because she knows that once she takes action, a man will be brilliant like a little chrysanthemum.

The female classmate who had satirized Xia Jinsheng before now shared a bitter hatred with her and scolded angrily, "those little bitches who want to jump on when they see a handsome boy."

"That's right." Xia Jinsheng nodded, shook hands with her and made peace. The inexplicable friendship began at this moment

With more and more girls blocking the door of their classroom, the next teacher's class could not go on, and the school had to stop them. Gu Nanchen also took the opportunity to leave.

Qin Wen, who had been waiting at the door for a long time, knew that something pleasant had happened just now when he saw his president come out. However, as an assistant, he doesn't pry into the boss's private affairs, but reminds the boss of his due diligence:

"President, we have a contract with Yuelai company in half an hour. Look..."

"Go to the star hotel."

The luxurious Lamborghini immediately disappeared into the campus. Xia Jinsheng, who was by the window, saw this scene. He should have celebrated that he had finally left. But I don't know why I feel a little lonely.

She didn't want to listen to what the teacher said next. Fortunately, several other students were like her, and the teacher didn't stare at her.

Finally, after school, er Chun called and said that the little guy was picked up by her to save a field. She had to stand at the intersection of the road and prepare to take a taxi home.

A red Ferrari stopped in front of her. The window came down to reveal Wei Qing's face. He also wore a pair of sunglasses to hide people's eyes and ears, "Miss? Are you interested in having a cup of coffee with me? "

I turned a blind eye to your performance. Xia Jinsheng turned around and left. Wei Qing grabbed her hand in tears and laughter, "all right, Miss Jinsheng, am I wrong? Just have a coffee. It won't take much time. "

Xia Jinsheng smiled, "for your sake of sincerity, I'll reluctantly agree."

She sat in the car and didn't realize that a digital camera in the corner took this picture silently.

In the familiar corner cafe, Xia Jinsheng chatted with Wei Qing one by one, "should your fashion show be finished?"

He is an enterprising man and obsessed with design. Now when he mentioned this, he just couldn't stop smiling, "yes, thanks to your blessing, the exhibition was very successful. Several big stars called me to make an appointment. "

"Well." Xia Jinsheng was full of envy and was heartily happy for him. There was nothing happier than paying for his efforts and getting a reward. "How is designer Wei Da going to reward me? My appearance fee is a lot. "

She amused Wei Qing with the look of a little money fan, and spoiled her by tickling the bridge of her nose, "I know, you won't be missing. I lost my eyes. "

"No way, who let people have old and young to support."

Xia Jinsheng rubbed her nose conditionally. She knew that Wei Qing used to like this action very much. It was nothing before, but now she is getting married soon.

There are old at the top and small at the bottom. Wei Qing tasted this sentence and opened a bitter smile at the corners of her mouth, "have you received the certificate?"
