

Chapter 1131: who did it

“Old Master Su is sick. Su Qingdong has been accompanying old master Su for a few months. It seems that he doesn’t know about your disappearance. Shanshan, the current nanny of the Su family. A few days ago, Su Qingdong called Zhu Meina and the others to ask them to be careful of you. He also told them not to offend you now and to avoid you whenever they see you.” “Tell me, did he do it?” Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan. It was not that she was speaking up for Su Qingdong, but that the Su family was too calm, so calm that something was not right. According to Zhu Xianglan’s character, if she really killed someone, then she would definitely have nightmares at night. She would not be so calm. “Are you still thinking about Su Qingdong?” Yan Huan raised his face and asked Zhu Meina, “Why? Are you really in love with an old man who can be your father?” “I don’t want him to die.” Zhu Meina gripped the chopsticks in her hands tightly. Not only did she want him to die, she even wished that she would not let that family die. “I hope you can do it.” Yan Huan continued to eat his noodles. As for the news that Zhu Meina had gathered, it was not important whether it was true or false. The important things were some facts., sometimes, they were hidden under those false appearances. Su Qingdong knew very well whether he had done it or not. “I’ll go to the Ye family again tomorrow.” Zhu Meina picked up the bowl and also drank all the soup inside. “Don’t worry. I still know some people there. Zhu Meina does know a lot of people, but it doesn’t matter what occupation they are. Some of them will be caught in those places. She should be able to get some information out of them.” A few days later, Zhu Meina came back. When she saw the two bowls of noodles on the table, she felt hungry. They ate noodles every day, but they had never seen her sick of them. Although it was noodles, the taste was different each time. Sour, spicy, oily, stir-fried, soup, and dry. Yan Huan came out of the kitchen. She had already sat down and started eating without saying a word. “Ye Jianguo is currently treating Sun Yuhuan’s legs with Sun Yuhuan,” Zhu Meina said as she ate. Yan Huan did not feel much. “But, I heard that it can’t be cured.” Zhu Meina gloated. In any case, it was annoying. She was already like this, but she was not in the mood to sympathize with others. She just liked to base her happiness on the suffering of others. What was wrong? “Ye Jianguo found another doctor abroad. He seems to be going abroad.” Yan Huan still had no reaction. “I didn’t find out about you. They kept quiet about it. It’s possible that they were hiding it in their hearts.” Zhu Meina poked the noodles in the bowl, “Just as you said, this matter is indeed very complicated. It could be Su Qingdong, it could be ye Jianguo, and it’s even more possible that neither of them is the culprit. If they really did it, then I can only say that this kind of old Fox’s cultivation is indeed high. It’s so high that almost no one has ever suspected it.” “Your family’s Lu Yi checked on his grandfather.” After Zhu Meina finished speaking, she also peeked at Yan Huan’s expression. There didn’t seem to be any major changes in his expression. What did this mean? Did he not care? was he indifferent? Or was it something else. “In the end, he didn’t continue to investigate. I found out that ye Jianguo and a middle-aged man spoke very loudly at that time. That should be his son, right?” “The middle-aged man asked ye Jianguo if he did it.” “Ye Jianguo denied it. Later on, he even said that if he did it, his daughter would have a hard time before she died. Even if she died, her bones would be dug out and her bones would be crushed.” Yan Huan tightened his grip on the chopsticks in his hand. Zhu Meina clicked her tongue. “Such an oath is really very vicious. It’s also thanks to him being able to say it. Being ye Jianguo’s daughter is really pitiful. Even if she died, she would still be cursed by her own father in the end.” Yan Huan continued to eat his meal quietly. It was as if what Zhu Meina said wasn’t important and had nothing to do with her. I also found out one more thing. Zhu Meina was also used to the current Yan Huan. She was still neither sad nor happy, and she wasn't a walking corpse either. It was just that she didn't really like to talk, nor was she willing to communicate with others. However..., she saw everything and heard everything. Your three children are going to school. Yan Huan stopped using his chopsticks. "Once your two sons arrived at school, there were thousands of fangirls." Zhu Meina had never seen Yan Huan's three children because the Lu family had protected them very well. Even if they were photographed by the media..., they did not dare to expose them. However, the news that she had gathered was like this. When they entered the kindergarten, not only did the two children look exactly the same, they were also wearing the same clothes, had the same hair, and even had the same expression, not to mention that child, even the teachers liked them very much. "It's just that your daughter is quite a headache." Meina had given birth to a child herself, so now she had a special liking for children. It might also be due to her guilt towards herself, that was why she liked to bring up her child the most. Unfortunately, Yan Huan did not like to say anything and was unwilling to do so. Zhu Meina was also used to speaking with the same mute. Since she was speaking now and Yan Huan was in charge of listening, there was no difference. In any case, she had already said it. "Your daughter has been crying ever since she arrived at kindergarten. She had no choice but to carry her back in the end." Yan Huan took another bite of the noodles. No one noticed that there was finally a trace of an indescribable smile on her usually cold face. Xunxun was very delicate. It was not that easy to get her to go to school. Moreover, her little xunxun did not like to play with other children. She found it noisy. "Are you really not going to acknowledge them?" Zhu Meina took a bite out of her chopsticks. "Are you willing to give up your home, your husband, and your children just like that?" To Yan Huan, such a choice was extremely painful. Perhaps only Yan Huan himself knew how painful it was. Yan Huan picked up his bowl and walked into the kitchen as well. She did not want to answer this question. In fact, she did not even want to think about the answer to this question. Since she couldn't think of it, she couldn't answer it either. Zhu Meina looked at the entrance of the kitchen. In that instant, she really felt that this Yan Huan was even more miserable than her. After all, she didn't have anything to begin with, but Yan Huan had everything. She was merely hell, and then she fell into hell. On the other hand, Yan Huan was forcefully thrown down from heaven. He didn't even have any way of getting up. Neither of them knew who was more miserable than the other. However, no matter who it was, they knew that they would never have a good ending in this life. She wanted revenge, and Yan Huan wanted it more.

Chapter 1132: clues

A gust of wind blew in from the window. Zhu Meina could not help but hug her arms. She turned around and saw that the window was wide open. She quickly ran over and closed the window as well, it did not seem as cold as it was at the beginning. Was winter going to end here? But tell her why her heart was still so cold. Such a heart would probably not be able to heat up. Lu Yi opened the door and walked in. He saw that Xun Xun was still sitting in Grandma's arms. Her two small hands were holding a milk bottle and drinking it. The bean-like cat was obediently lying on one end of the sofa. This time, she had learned her lesson, she knew that she could not lie beside Grandma's feet, or else grandma would definitely kick it to death. This great-aunt was really scary. His two poop-shoveling officers were both very good to cats. They doted on and loved them. They also gave them good food. Why was the poop-shoveling officer's small poop-shoveling officer so unfriendly? He would kick the cat at any time, his temper was really bad. Lu Yi held the small hands of his two sons one by one. Then, he got the nanny to take them to wash their hands and wash their faces. These two children were indeed as he had imagined. They adapted very well. The two children were also very mature, whether it was eating or going to the toilet, they could do it themselves. They did not need to trouble others. The two brothers were always together. Although they did not like to get close to others, they were very liked by the teachers and children, who asked their mother to give them a beautiful little face? Their father had been pulling out seedlings to help them grow up since they were young. Therefore, the good-looking ones were always a little cheaper. The obedient and sensible ones were also smart, and they were liked by others even more. Ye Shuyun touched Xun Xun's little face and could not help but sigh as well. Forget it, she did not like it. Lu Yi reached out and took Xun Xun's milk bottle. Xun Xun widened her eyes and stared at her father without blinking. She did not want her own milk bottle either. Xun Xun sat up and stretched out her little hand to Lu Yi for her father to hug her. Lu Yi picked her up with one hand and placed the bottle on her little hand. This was Lu Yi. If it was anyone else who dared to touch her bottle, they would see how she would cry. Then, Old Master Lu would chase after you with his walking stick and beat you up. There were indeed not many people who could take the bottle away from Xun Xun. And Lu Yi was the one who took it away. Lu Yi carried his daughter into the house and asked her to sit down. He squatted in front of his daughter. "Baby, Tell Daddy why you're not going to school. You promised Daddy that you'd be obedient." Xun Xun held the bottle and drank milk. Her pair of big, round and Bright Eyes looked more and more like her mother. Her sky-blue pupils were like the purest crystal in the world, reflecting a very helpless father. Lu Yi was really helpless against this daughter. He could do as he pleased in the prosecutor's office, but he could only surrender to this daughter. Lu Yi had no choice but to take the bottle away from her hands again. "Baby, you're three years old. In the future, you can drink milk from a cup. You Can't use a bottle." This bottle was used by babies. Xun Xun was already a kindergarten student in a small class. Of course, she had to be willing to go to school, but unfortunately, this little guy wasn't willing. As long as she was sent to school, she would cry for him. She would cry as hard as she could. She would cry until there were no tears left, and she would even wail at the top of her lungs. Even if he did not care, the teacher would call later and say that the child was crying too pitifully. At that time, he had hardened his heart. In the end, he found a spirit and asked the teacher to call ye Shuyun, then, he asked Grandma to bring her home. Ye Shuyun wasn't Lu Yi. Lu Yi could make up his mind, but she couldn't make up her mind. When she received the call from the kindergarten teacher, she immediately rushed to the kindergarten. At the sight of her crying granddaughter, her eyes were swollen, she would also cry later. Just like that, every time Lu Yi made up his mind to ignore his daughter, Xun Xun would always be at home when he went to pick up his two sons in the afternoon. With this temper, Lu Yi was completely powerless against his daughter's disobedience. He couldn't hit her, he couldn't scold her, and he hadn't even started scolding her yet. As long as he glared at her, she would start crying. This wasn't little lei zi. If she was disobedient, he would beat her up. The entire family would beat her up. If he dared to touch Xun Xun, Old Master Lu would definitely come over immediately and bring Xun Xun to the Liuyuan Garden. This backer was too powerful. There was nothing he could do about it. Lu Yi put the milk bottle aside. If he didn't make things clear, he wouldn't drink this milk anymore and would instead drink noodle soup. "Tell me, why aren't you going to school?" Xunxun glanced at the milk bottle on the table and lowered her head to play with her little finger. "Pull, pull." Xunxun stretched out her little hand and tugged at Lu Yi's sleeve. "The other children are all brought to school by Mommy. Xunxun also needs mommy to send her. They all say that Xunxun is a child without Mommy." Lu Yi suddenly felt his heart tighten. He took the bottle from the side and placed it in front of his daughter. Xun Xun took the bottle and obediently drank it She lowered her head and held the bottle with her little hand. She drank it one mouthful at a time. She didn't really like to smile anymore. Lu Yi patted her little head. He opened the car door and sat in it. Unable to fall asleep, he still drove his car around the entire sea city. Sometimes, he felt that the person walking in front of him would be Yan Huan, but when he drove past., he realized that it wasn't Yan Huan. On such a quiet night, the entire sea city's wind had witnessed him not giving up. The phone that he put in the car rang. He took the phone and saw that it was Lei Qingyi's. "Lu Yi," lei qingyi called Lu Yi's name. "Are you outside?" He had already heard Lu Yi's voice. From time to time, he would hear the sound of the car honking. "Yes, outside." Lu Yi found a place and stopped the car. Then, he walked out and leaned against the railing in front of him, allowing the wind to blow against him, it also messed up the hair beside his ears. Amidst the mess, there was a large net that was tightly woven in front of him. "Lu Yi, I found something." Lu Yi was still standing in front of the railing, surrounded by the sea breeze. It was also a place that many young people liked to come to. It was also considered a scenic spot in Hai City. However, the weather was a little cold now, even the mouse had begun to sleep, let alone other things. "Didn't you ask me to investigate the jewelry store?" Lu Yi straightened his body. "How is it? What did you find?" The few pieces of jewelry on Yan Huan's body were not ordinary. They were all worth millions of dollars. As long as these pieces of jewelry were sold, they would definitely be sold at a high price. Unless it was those who did not know how to do it and sold them as ordinary platinum jewelry at a low price.

Chapter 1133: matched the number of the jewelry

"Yes, there's news." Lei Qingyi did not know why, but he actually felt a little relieved. "There's a jewelry store that recently received a few items. It just so happens that the jewelry that you're looking for has the same number. It's completely matched. Come over tomorrow and take a look. I'll explain it to you in detail." "Alright," Lu Yi agreed. He got into his own car and drove home. Just as he opened the door, he saw that Xun Xun was still using the same posture as before, drinking milk from a milk bottle, a little white foot was also kicking the cat. What was wrong with her? Her little head was leaning against the sofa, but her little feet were in the air. What was wrong with her? She had learned the posture of her grandmother. Lu Yi walked over, bent down, and touched his daughter's small forehead. "Don't do this in the future. Sit up and drink. How can you do this?" Xun Xun continued to drink her milk, and there seemed to be a hint of provocation in her eyes Lu Yi directly took away her baby bottle. Xun Xun got up and sat upright, waiting for her baby bottle. When Lu Yi saw that she was sitting properly, he returned the baby bottle to her. He also told Ye Shuyun that this problem had to be changed. "Mom, from tomorrow onwards, don't give her another bottle." "What else can I use if I don't use a bottle?" Ye Shuyun put down Bean and let it find a place to hide. As long as it wasn't near Xun Xun's feet, Xun Xun liked to kick cats. This was a new habit. Also, Bean was a cat that she had raised for almost ten years. She had a good personality and was almost a spiritual cat. She treated the children at home like an elder and could be infinitely tolerant, of course, she didn't need to use her cat claws to scratch people. Moreover, Bean hadn't exposed her cat claws for a long time. She was old and lazy. Of course, it was also because she had no use for it. A few years ago, she liked to scratch the sofa and the curtains. These few years, she hadn't scratched anything and didn't even want to look at it. Lu Yi tapped his daughter's little face, "She's already old. She can't use the bottle anymore." She was three years old and not young anymore. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had long stopped using the bottle. Now, only Xun Xun was still using it. She wasn't much younger than her brother. It wasn't like she was a year younger, but she was only a few minutes younger. In the future, she wouldn't use the bottle anymore. She would use a cup instead if her two sons could do it, she could do it too. "What if she doesn't use them?" Ye Shuyun had a headache. How was she supposed to let Xun Xun change milk bottles. If she didn't let her child use milk bottles, it would be no different from weaning. "If she doesn't use them, let her use the bowl." Lu Yi directly threw down these words. The corner of Ye Shuyun's eyes twitched slightly as she lowered her head to look at her little granddaughter. Xun Xun, you're a stepmother's child, right? Xunxun blinked her eyes and continued to drink milk from the bottle. Her little face clearly looked like her mother's, but why did her personality start to resemble her father's. She even said that she looked like her mother. She was clearly a copy of her son when he was young. Lu Yi returned to the room and took out his notebook. His fingers were rapidly tapping on something, and soon after. He found some pictures, and these pictures were none other than the pictures of the jewelry that Lu Yi had bought back then. Every set of jewelry here had a specific number on it. Perhaps even Yan Huan himself did not know that such a number was the jewelry company's record of every piece of jewelry. At the same time, it also had a certain anti-theft function. When all the clues were broken, there was only one. A few months had passed, and those people were finally unable to sit still. The next day, he went directly to the jewelry store. Lei Qingyi also came over in a while. The manager of the jewelry store invited them to the back office. He took out a box, opened it, and placed it in front of them. "This is what you're looking for. Originally, we were going to melt it and remake it, but I happened to find the number on it. It's the one director Lei asked us to pay attention to last time, and the quantity is correct. At that time, we sold this set, a necklace, and a ring. In total, 6,530,000 yuan was bought by a Mr. Lu." The owner of this set of jewelry was Yan Huan. Lu Yi had bought it for his wife. At this moment, the jewelry in the box had almost turned into dregs. There were a few broken necklaces and a curved ring. The only thing that had not changed was the gemstone on it. Of course, the gemstone could not have changed so easily, what had changed was not a gemstone but glass. Of course, if it was glass, it would not have been sent here. In this state, Lei Qingyi picked up the broken necklace, which had been torn off by someone. He also picked up the ring and put it in his palm. The ring had also been smashed by someone. "How much can these things be worth if they are recycled?" Lei Qingyi threw this crooked thing that was no longer like a ring into the box. He felt that the most he could sell it for was more than a thousand dollars. After all, it had already become like this. Of course, he also knew about jewelry, he was a crude person. He really did not understand the tricks inside. In his eyes, they all looked the same. He also did not understand why women liked to wear millions or even tens of millions of things around their necks, if people found out about this on their wrists, it would be fine if they cut off their hands. But if they cut off their heads, what good would it do? "If you include the depreciation fee, it's about 5.89 million yuan," the manager said, "This is the official price of our company. As long as it's our jewelry, no matter how damaged it is, we will be responsible for it for the rest of our lives. Because these two pieces are too damaged, we charged 2% depreciation fee, plus other handling fees. That's all we got." Lei Qingyi was shocked. "Just a bunch of broken things that are not yellow in color is worth close to six million?" "Director Lei, you must be joking." The manager still smiled politely. Of course, he was also very professional, "These necklaces are not valuable, so they are not worth much. The value is only the diamonds on them. This is something that will never change." Lei Qingyi took the rotten ring that was inlaid with gemstones. There was a diamond on it, and it wasn't small either. Therefore, he still believed what the manager said about the value of this jewelry. After all, he couldn't appreciate jewelry, but women would go crazy the moment they saw it. Of course, don't underestimate Yan Huan. Yan Huan had always paid attention to these things. Although she didn't show off too much at times, the things she carried were definitely not fake.

With such a necklace and such a small ring, it would be enough for an ordinary family to live a rich life. Then, the person who sold these would really make a profit. "Is there any surveillance footage?" Lei Qingyi placed his hands on the table. He wanted to see what the person who sold the jewelry looked like. If he was lucky, he might be able to catch him in an instant, he might even be able to find the missing Yan Huan, whether he was alive or dead. "Yes, I'll take you there." The manager quickly took them to the surveillance hall. They were in a jewelry store, and they sold valuable items. The natural surveillance was very well-done. No matter where they were, they were almost always in 360's blind spots. Of course, it was also very high-definition. However, when the manager of the jewelry store asked the technical staff to open the surveillance video of that day, the scene inside was very strange. Yes, it was strange, because under the high-definition video, which was said to have no blind spots at 360 degrees, only a part of the corner of the shirt was shown. There was also a pair of thin legs like chopsticks, and then nothing could be seen, this was the blind spot. "How could this be?" The manager was also a little surprised. This was the first time he had seen the surveillance camera capture this angle. "Nothing Strange?" Lei Qingyi pointed at the computer screen, "Look here, the surveillance camera just happens to be a blind spot. and the position where this person is standing is a blind spot." "It's normal that it can't be captured." "But..." Lei Qingyi touched his chin. "This is an expert." Not many people knew the blind spot of the surveillance camera, especially in such a big shop. His surveillance arrangement was very strict, and he actually let people take advantage of a loophole. Lei Qingyi didn't believe it and looked again. But in the past half an hour, that person didn't leave that place. Even when he came in, and when he went out, he walked to the edge, he was also walking close to the wall, so they could only see half of his body. Even when they reached the door, they used their poor vision to overlap with the person who had entered, therefore, they had never seen his full appearance the moment they let him out. Other than knowing that this person looked very thin, and was so thin that he looked like a smoker. After that, he did not even reveal his face. After reading up to this point, Lei Qingyi was certain that this was an expert. It was impossible for it to be such a coincidence. Standing in a blind spot might be a coincidence, but if they followed this route, then.., it was not a coincidence. Especially when they left the house at the end, they could avoid it with such precision. This was an expert, someone who knew how to set up surveillance. Lu Yi, on the other hand, had been staring at the computer screen the whole time. Finally, his gaze fell on the pair of flat-bottomed shoes. "It's a woman, right?" He asked the manager. The manager thought for a moment, then nodded. "Yes, it's a woman." "Around 30 years old?" Lu Yi asked again. It wasn't easy for the manager to answer this question. "Because I wasn't the one talking to this customer at that time. It was one of our female employees." The manager pointed at the surveillance footage again. "It's this one." "Can you ask her about it?" Lei Qingyi asked the manager. "This, please wait a moment." The manager took out his cell phone and made a call. After hanging up, he said, "It just so happens that she's resting normally today. I'll call her and ask her to come over." "Sorry for the trouble," Lei Qingyi said politely. The manager was naturally willing to cooperate. Lei Qingyi was the director of the Security Department here. Their surveillance was also managed by the security department that Lei Qingyi belonged to, therefore, as long as Lei Qingyi's request was reasonable, they would absolutely cooperate unconditionally. They had already made a call, but the employee was a little far away, so they had to wait. While they were waiting, Lei Qingyi asked Lu Yi if he knew who it was. "Mm." Lu Yi gently turned the wedding ring on his finger. "It's her." "Impossible. Don't joke about this." Lei Qingyi shook his head. He absolutely did not believe in this possibility. "How could it be her? It's not like she can't see people. If you put it that way, could it be that she was the one who orchestrated her disappearance just to leave you and find another one for herself?" Lu Yi narrowed his eyes dangerously. Lei Qingyi quickly turned his head to the side. He didn't say anything. "Then tell me, where is your affirmation?" He asked again, but she didn't answer. Lei Qingyi felt a little awkward. She leaned her butt against the table for a while, and her long legs lengthened as well. If someone else sat on this table, their legs would have to be in the air or they wouldn't be able to step on it, if it was any shorter, they might not even be able to jump on it. However, he was so good that he directly sat on it with a lift of his butt. The manager at the side looked at him with all sorts of envy. They were all so tall that they could even become male models. However, would such a tall person be able to marry a wife? Perhaps the director of the Safety Hall was still a bachelor. Thinking about it, he felt much more balanced. After waiting for more than an hour, Lei Qingyi moved her butt several times. He moved from one place to another and then from one place to another. If he wanted to talk to someone, he didn't have anything in common, if he had something in common, he wouldn't talk to him. During this one hour, he felt as if time was passing by. He felt as uncomfortable as he could. In the end, he couldn't take it anymore. He put his hand on the wall and was about to scratch it. He had arrived. It was a young saleswoman. The saleswoman rushed over. She did not even change her uniform. Of course, she did not put on any makeup. She did not know why the manager was looking for her. She had to be here in such a hurry, the moment she arrived, she saw a man staring at her without blinking. She touched her hair embarrassedly and felt her little heart thumping. The Man in front of her looked to be in his thirties. He was mature, steady, and full of righteousness. With a raise of his hand..., he had an indescribable air of nobility, and his every move showed that he had a good upbringing. The clothes he was wearing at the moment felt very low-key. The black and gray color, which had not gone out of style for a long time, also highlighted his slender and strong figure, this man was of the highest quality. Different from the fresh meat now, this man's calmness was also noble. He was like a bottle of ancient wine that had been separated for a hundred years. The longer it was, the more mellow it was.

Chapter 1135: it was better to use a milk bottle

"Xiao Meng," the manager called out to the Salesgirl. "Ah!" Only then did the salesgirl react. "Manager, you called for Me?" She was still confused for a moment. Why was she calling out to her. She did not hear or pay attention to what was going on just now. The corner of the manager's eyes twitched up slightly. Smart woman, just treat it as a dream. There are some people you can't forget, both of them. Not to mention the one that looked like a telephone pole, even the other one's identity and background were not difficult for ordinary people to get close to. She was the youngest and most outstanding prosecutor in Hai City, and her wife was an international movie queen. Unlike ordinary stars, she was a star who made a lot of money every day and had a very good reputation. This was director lei. The manager first pointed at Lei Qingyi and introduced her. Lei gave her a polite smile, but it was too high and always gave her a feeling of arrogance. "This is Lu Shengsheng." The manager pointed at Lu Yi again. Lu Yi also nodded slightly. It was neither cold nor warm, and there was no other reaction. The female store was a little nervous and disappointed. He didn't seem to have any special feelings for her. "It's like this, miss." Lei Qingyi walked over and showed the surveillance footage from that day. "Excuse me, do you still remember this person? She brought two pieces of jewelry to sell. Those are the two pieces." Lei Qingyi pointed at the box again. "Can you recognize them?" The shop assistant glanced at the broken pieces of jewelry in the box and then at the surveillance footage. She remembered this very clearly. Some of the pieces were worth more than six million yuan, and some were in cash, there was no card. "Manager, is there a problem?" The shop assistant's face suddenly turned pale. Was it because the jewelry was fake? Was it because the customer lied to her? It was close to six million yuan. If there was really a problem, then selling her would not return six million yuan. "No, don't be nervous." Lei Qingyi quickly comforted the female shop assistant who was about to collapse. How could she bear it so poorly? Looking at his Ling Ling's valiant and strong female appearance, she was a real woman, even he dared to hit her or step on her body. He needed this kind of queen-like demeanor. There was also Yan Huan from Lu Yi's family. He was also quite good at fighting. At that time, he directly hit Lu Qin's head with a brick. He didn't like this kind of shy woman who looked like a little wife. They were all old men and were not used to this kind of woman. He coughed and then explained, "We just want to find you to understand some things. This matter has nothing to do with you. It's just that you were the one who received the guest at that time, so we have a few questions for you." Only then did the woman let out a sigh of relief. It was good as long as there were no problems with the jewelry. She really could not afford to accompany him. "How old is she?" Lu Yi asked. His voice was like a bottle of red wine. It was low and deep, and he was drunk without drinking. "Age?" The Salesgirl struggled out from the voice that could be said to be like a curse. She then thought about the age of the woman at that time. "Age, maybe between 20 and 30 years old." "Appearance?" Lu Yi asked again. The salesgirl shook her head. "I don't know. She just revealed a pair of eyes." "Did she say anything at that time?" "This..." the salesgirl thought about it again. She seemed to have said it, but she didn't seem to have said it. It had been too long, so she didn't remember it clearly. "Oh Right!" She remembered. "She said that the necklace cost 2.78 million and the ring cost 3.75 million. Then, she didn't say anything else." "Let's go." Lu Yi stood up and walked out in big strides. There was no need to ask anymore. He knew. Lei Qingyi also stood up straight. He was indeed tall and stood out from the crowd. However, why wasn't he longer? He had poked the roof of the other person's house. "Thank you." Lei Qingyi thanked the manager and the shop assistant and followed Lu Yi out. He was tall and had only taken a few steps before he walked out and followed Lu Yi. If it was someone else, it would not be a matter of a few steps but a jog. "Have you asked clearly?" Lei Qingyi had already walked to Lu Yi's side. "Yes." Lu Yi nodded his head lightly. His pair of black eyes were so calm that it was as if there was no storm and no rainbow. "How is it? Do you have any clues?" Lei Qingyi felt that Lu Yi must have found out something. Otherwise, he would not have stopped asking questions. However, he still could not guess or hear anything. Of course, he did not understand. Lu Yi stopped in his tracks. "Qingyi, you said that one day, when Yi Ling was clearly by your side, she was unwilling to see you. What was the reason?" Lei Qingyi raised his head and looked at the sky. "She, is having an affair..." Lu Yi looked at him for a long time. Sometimes, he really felt that they were not on the same level, and he was playing the lute to a cow. "Lu Yi, Lu Yi..." lei qingyi shouted Lu Yi's name and quickly followed. "Tell me, what did you find out?" Lu Yi remained silent the entire time, while Lei Qingyi could not make heads or tails of it. He could not understand what was going on in grand prosecutor Lu's mind. At this moment, the slightly cold air was still around them. As they breathed, they could still see the white gas coming out of the corners of their mouths. Lei Qingyi did not understand, so he could only follow his footsteps, although Lu Yi was not unwilling to answer. However, she also did not know that Lu Yi was frowning at this moment, and that he seemed to be relieved. Very soon, yes, very soon, they would be able to find it. When Lu Yi returned home, he saw ye Shuyun helplessly shaking her head at him, and then reaching out a finger to point behind. Lu Yi walked over, and just like that, he was dumbstruck as he watched his family's servant girl drink milk while hugging a basin that was bigger than her face. Her small feet were still swaying in the wind, and there was an old bean lying beside her. "She doesn't need a cup." Ye Shuyun was extremely helpless. "You said that she doesn't need a cup, so you gave her a bowl," she did as her son said. In the end, she didn't need a cup or a bowl to court death. Instead, she chose the basin that was used to wash rice at home. This was great..., how did her beautiful granddaughter grow into a man. Xun Xun put down the bowl that was even bigger than her face and burped again. Lu Yi closed his eyes and pressed between his brows again, feeling the urge to go crazy. "Mom, you should give her a milk bottle." "BURP..." Xun Xun burped again. After she was full, she even stretched out her small hand for her father to hug. She was clearly a cute and soft little lady, but could you tell him what posture that was just now. Lu Yi held his daughter, and then pinched her little face.

Chapter 1136: rich or country bumpkin

"Baby, Big Brother is already in school. There are a lot of children in there. Don't you want to play?" Xun Xun shook her little head. Her baby voice was clear, and she did not seem to be able to get out of the mud. "I'm not going." Alright, Lu Yi accepted his fate. He hugged his daughter and wandered around the room to coax her to sleep. Although he was here now, his thoughts were nowhere to be found. Why didn't he come back? Why didn't he even hear from her? Why didn't she want her three children? She didn't even plan to have him as her husband, did she? While he was worried, he wasn't as worried as he used to be. He was afraid that she would suffer, that she wouldn't be able to eat her fill, that she wouldn't be able to wear warm clothes, and that she would be like the Chen family village. She would have no family and no one to take care of her. And now that he knew that she had money on her, that was good. Yes, that was good. At the very least, she would not mistreat him, and she would not starve him. And he was already certain that the person who sold the jewelry was Yan Huan, his Huanhuan. One day when he went with Yan Huan, Yan Huan asked him if there were any surveillance cameras here. He had told her about it at that time, he had also told her how to avoid the blind spots of the surveillance cameras. He had also told her about the pricing of the jewelry. Only he and Yan Huan knew about it. It was impossible for there to be a second person. Up until now, he still did not know the reason for Yan Huan's disappearance. However, he was certain that she was hiding from him and did not want him to know. Otherwise, why would she smash the jewelry into such a state? It was to prevent him from knowing. Of course, the reason that Lei Qingyi had mentioned. Would not happen to Yan Huan. He placed his hand on his daughter's head. Xun Xun was already asleep. She was still rather well-behaved even though she was asleep. However, her current little temper was extremely odd and it was truly frustrating. He placed Xun Xun down and pulled the blanket over her before walking to the balcony. He did not go out that night because he had already found what he was looking for. The only thing he could do now was to wait, there was only time. At this moment, Yan Huan still did not know that the jewelry that she had once sold, which she had thought would be foolproof, had long sold her out. Her whereabouts had also been known by others. "What are you looking at?" Zhu Meina walked over. She did not know why Yan Huan would come to this place every day. This was an outdoor park. It was a very ordinary type, and there were not many amusement facilities inside, it was suitable for the elderly to come over to play cards and dance in the square. On the other hand, Yan Huan liked to sit on the lounge chair for an entire day. Unless she felt that her drug addiction was acting up, she could stay here without eating or drinking for an entire day. "I'm waiting for someone." Yan Huan continued to look straight ahead. She was waiting for someone. She was waiting for someone. "Who is it?" Zhu Meina also sat down. She did not know what kind of relationship she had with Yan Huan, but now it seemed that they were life-and-death friends. If she had met Yan Huan and not Su Muran in the past, perhaps she would have taken a different path. At the very least, she would not have grown so crooked. One who was close to a person would be red, while one who was close to a person would be black. Only now did she understand the meaning of this sentence. "I don't know." Yan Huan's gaze was still on the other side. It was unknown what he was chasing after. "I've only seen him here once. I don't know his name or address.” Zhu Meina rolled her eyes and could only chuckle at her. “You’re really daydreaming. It’s like looking for a needle in a haystack.” That’s right, it was like looking for a needle in a haystack. Perhaps that person was just walking here on a whim, or perhaps that person was just passing by. After that, she flew to another city. Perhaps she wouldn’t be able to wait for such a tiny chance in her entire life. I could only wait. Yan Huan placed her hand on her lap, and the surface muscles on the back of her hand bulged. She knew that Zhu Meina was telling the truth, but she had no other choice. She could only wait like this, Day by day., day by day And sometimes, she had to say that the word “Maybe” was really ambiguous. Perhaps she would never be able to wait for her whole life. Perhaps she would be able to wait until today. Yan Huan suddenly stood up, and his pair of cold eyes narrowed. Her gaze also followed the movements of a man and moved from time to time Zhu Meina also followed Yan Huan’s gaze and looked over. It was a very ordinary man. His height and looks could be said to be ordinary. The only good thing about him was that he was dressed in a suit with a car key hanging on his belt. It was a BMW that was worth about a million yuan. He must be a rich man. However, she was not interested. She grew up in the Su family. The Su family’s background was much stronger than she had imagined. Therefore, she could be considered to have enjoyed a lot of wealth in the Su family. Of course, she was also generous when she bought things. She bought things that cost more than ten thousand Yuan just like that. Of course, she was not like Su Muran, who was a proper young lady. However, she was nothing, just like the words that Su Muran often scolded her, she was a parasite of the Su family, a dog that the Su family raised. The Su family gave her money and gave her a good life. Therefore, she was so proud that she forgot about it. When she had money, she forgot about her own. The difference between him and Su Muran was not the difference in money, but in dignity and self-respect. Su Muran was the eldest daughter. She could only admire the speed at which she spent money. As for her, she could only get a little bit of meat. But even so, she really did not put a million yuan in her eyes. She just did not expect that she did not put a million yuan in her eyes. As for Zhu Mei, she was a living person., a person with flesh and blood was only worth a million dollars. And the man in front was what Yan Huan had noticed. In her eyes, he was nothing more than ordinary. A truly exquisite man wouldn’t be too ostentatious. Instead, he would keep a low profile and carry a sense of nobility. Take Lu Yi for example. He never hung his own keys on his belt. Even if he did hang them, they were just a bunch of ordinary keys., his taste was in his body, in his bones, in his temperament, and not in a set of BMW keys. There was also Lu Qin. It had to be said that although Lu Qin’s character was not that good, his taste was not bad. After all, a man of his status would not put a BMW in his eyes, and he would not be fine, he would show it off on his belt. As for the man with the BMW key hanging on his belt, he would toss the car keys around. Moreover, he would hang them in the most obvious place, just in case others didn’t know that he was driving a BMW, and judging from Zhu Meina’s countless gazes,. This wasn’t a nouveau riche, he was just a country bumpkin, and the possibility of a country bumpkin was higher.

Chapter 1137: bad things, they do it

The BMW was good, but the quality of the clothes was average. At a glance, one could tell that it wasn’t very well-made, so it could be considered a bargain. Two hundred per set, at the most. Was this worn by a man who drove a BMW? Either the car wasn’t his, or he was pretending to be rich. While she was still criticizing this country bumpkin, she realized that Yan Huan had already walked over. She hurriedly blocked Yan Huan. “Where are you going?” She asked Yan Huan. Could it be that he had taken a fancy to that country bumpkin? “Knock him out and carry him back,” Yan Huan said very bluntly. “You’re really direct.” Zhu Meina covered her face and laughed. “Tell me, what do you want to know?” Zhu Meina adjusted her hair. She was quite satisfied with her appearance because she had the face of a born vixen. Otherwise, she wouldn't have stayed in that place for so long and not been killed. It was because brother long knew that she could still make money for him. Yan Huan's eyes were still looking at the man who was walking forward. "I want to know his name, family, and address. I want his past life." "Okay." Zhu Meina took out the mirror again and looked at her face for a long time. After being locked up for so long, it was finally interesting. She put the mirror back into her bag and walked forward. "What are you going to do?" Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina. She still didn't like to touch people. Her hand was in the air, but it never fell. "I'm helping you." Zhu Meina winked at her. "I'm not as good as you in acting and I'm not as smart as you in making money. But when it comes to men, you're not as smart as me." As she spoke, she turned around and walked forward. "Hey..." Yan Huan suddenly said from behind her. "Be careful yourself." "Alright, I know." Zhu Meina waved her hand. This was nothing to her. She was the best at this kind of country bumpkin. Yan Huan sat on the lounge chair again and saw Zhu Meina walk over. Then, she staggered and fell forward. That man also stretched out his hand to support her. Then, it was the bastard who matched the mung bean and found her right. Yan Huan lightly pursed his lips. There was a trace of unspeakable irony. Men were still hypocrites. If they were beautiful, they would naturally be delighted. It was obvious that between the lines of his words, his heart was full of intentions, if they were ugly, he might not even want to stretch out his hand to support them. Zhu Meina did not gently curl her long hair. Although she was not some rich young lady, no matter what, she grew up in that place of the Ye family. Her body was naturally much more magnanimous than that of an ordinary woman, and just as she said, she had countless men. She was indeed very good at using her own strength to seduce a man. Zhu Meina was extremely beautiful, and her figure was also hot. She belonged to the extremely voluptuous type. Moreover, if she wanted to be flirtatious, her every move would naturally be flirtatious. For such a beauty to take the initiative to throw herself into his arms, as long as there wasn't a problem, no man would not want such luck with women. And the two of them had been standing there and talking for a very long time. From Yan Huan's angle, he could see that the man was ready to make a move, and even vowed to get it. It seemed that he had already treated Zhu Meina as food on his plate. It was just that it was not certain who would eat who in the end. Of course, one should not forget that she was a black sheep. Soon, Zhu Meina might be leaving, but that man was still reluctant to leave. He stood there for a long time before he hung his BMW key and went back. Zhu Meina strode over to the well and sat down on the chair beside Yan Huan. "Lu Jianbin, male, 32 years old, divorced. He used to be a famous doctor, but he's been doing it for a long time now. A few years ago, he made a windfall somewhere. Now, he owns a small company. According to him, he should earn a million a month. However, from what I can tell, this man is not the type to do business. He has a good reputation, no IQ, and Low Eq. He might be able to become a doctor, but he probably only has enough food and clothing to do business. It's only enough for him to live the addiction of a big boss." "To put it bluntly, it's just that he's strong on the outside but weak on the inside. He lives in Chengxin Road and is from a famous family. There are six households on the 14th floor of building No. 1. He's single now. Oh right, he left a business card for me." Zhu Meina took out a business card from her body and gave it to Yan Huan. This was his company, the CEO of Dingcheng Technology Trade Center, Lu Jianbin. Hehe. She covered her mouth and laughed. She was amused by herself. They were all small companies that she had never heard of. As expected, they were not small companies, they were not a tycoon, but a country bumpkin. Yan Huan took the business card and placed it between his two fingers. She looked up at Zhu Meina. "You want to go?" Zhu Meina already understood what Yan Huan meant. They would not do good things. They could not save other people's lives. They could not even save their own lives. Of course, they could not save the world, they couldn't save Earth, and they couldn't save the Milky Way either. But if it was a bad thing, of course they were willing to do it. Zhu Meina sat in front of the mirror and was putting on makeup. Her face had been cleaned by makeup, and now it was even more gorgeous. Coupled with a tight skirt, it made her figure even more exquisite, with such a face and such a good figure, no man would not be tempted. "Yan Huan, do you think this is a good idea?" Zhu Meina stood up and walked in front of Yan Huan from time to time. She was walking the Standard Model Walk. Of course, she had also received formal etiquette training, her walk was full of charisma. "Yes, she's very charming," Yan Huan said honestly. Zhu Meina was born into a bad family background and was also a vain person. However, it had to be said that if she was placed in a family like the Ye family or the Lu family, she would also be a nobleman who was not inferior to Su Muran. It was just a pity.., she was raised in the middle until she became crooked. And people always had to grow up from enlightenment, just like Zhu Meina. She had completely changed and become a new her. It could be said that she was a mature her. In fact, she was just like Yan Huan in her previous life. Because she had grown up, the price they had to pay for growing up like this.., was also fatal. Zhu Meina walked to Yan Huan's side and sat opposite her. She stared at her and smiled. "Do you think I'm Charming?" She asked again. "Yes." Yan Huan nodded. "You're very charming." Zhu Meina leaned on the table, "But I was in front of your Lu Yi for a few months. I was dressed less than I am now, and there was more meat on me than I am now. I flirted with him every day. In the end, your Lu Yi threw me back to the Su family. From then on, I thought I was ugly."

Chapter 1138: the fake tycoon

"To be able to say these words from your mouth today, I really feel that my confidence has returned." And there was nothing to be embarrassed about saying these words now. She had put everything in the past behind her. So now, she was living the most relaxed life she had in so many years. Lu Yi was still the Bai Yueguang in her heart, but she had already hidden it in the bottom of her heart. She did not need Bai Yueguang now. If she wanted to seek justice for herself, she would also have to avenge her son. As for Yan Huan, she still had the same expression, as though nothing had anything to do with her. It was as though everything had nothing to do with her. Right now, she was like a dead person, living a life without any pain, every day counted, every day counted. At night, Zhu Meina was still worried about her. "What if she gets addicted?" How would she get her back? What if someone found out? Yan Huan's addiction to drugs was too terrifying. It had been so long, but he still hadn't gotten rid of it. Every day, she would get addicted at least once, and every time, he would have to tie her hands and feet. Yan Huan gripped his hand and bowl. "It'll be midnight." She had calculated the time to be midnight. If she wasn't wrong, she had recently discovered some patterns. Although there weren't any big patterns, it should be around midnight this time. "Okay." Zhu Meina could not persuade her. She thought about it and walked back. Then, she grabbed a rope and secretly stuffed it into her bag. If it did not work, she would tie it. Yan Huan did not have anything to prepare. That was it. It was better for her to hurt herself than someone else. After closing the door, Zhu Meina had already taken out a small mobile phone and called Lu Jianbin. "Hello, is this Mr. Lu?" "It's me. Why? Did you forget about me? We met in the park." "Are you at home? Yes, that's great. I'm just nearby. Do you want to invite me up to sit for a while?" "Sure, I'll see you in half an hour. I won't leave until I see you." When she said "I won't leave until I see you", a gust of wind blew over. She touched her arm happily and had goosebumps. Zhu Meina, on the other hand, felt good about herself. "Men sometimes like my style." She ran her fingers through her hair, "My style has always been successful in the past. As long as I'm thick-skinned, there's really nothing that I can't get my hands on. Other than those who really look down on me, like your family's Lu Yi and those good-natured men, but that's not necessarily true." Zhu Meina continued to tell Yan Huan about her manhood, "Some men may look prim and proper on the outside, but deep down, they don't know how to be despicable. For example, that Su Qingdong." When she said this, she couldn't help but sneer. "The first time, he was drunk, but the second time, and the third time, he was sober. Of course, he also enjoyed it." "Who couldn't see his expression, his enjoyment, and his old skin and old flesh. He said that he wasn't wrong and that he was forced, but in reality, he was a hypocrite with a sanctimonious appearance. It was also thanks to Zhu Xianglan that she still treated him like a treasure. Bah!" She didn't hide the slightest bit of disgust for Su Qingdong on her face, but she felt the same in her heart. "What do you want to do in the future?" Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina. After I'm done taking revenge, I'll help you. When I still have the ability, she looked at her hands. Actually, she didn't know if she had the ability, perhaps she would die in the future. In short, she wouldn't leave behind such a body to harm her family and others. "Do what?" Zhu Meina seriously thought about this question. Yes, what could she do? What could she do? "I want to go back to the SU family." "Do You Like That Old Man, Su Qingdong?" Yan Huan asked her. Was He a masochist? "Nonsense." What kind of upbringing did Zhu Meina still have, "Who likes that Old Fart?" "Isn't the Su family what Zhu Xianglan cares about the most? What she cares about the most, what she treats the most as pride in her life, I will destroy her. Because she married into the Su family, she treated me and my parents like she raised a dog. She bullied us for her entire life and even schemed against me like this. She almost made me lose all my organs in the end." "With that old face of hers, even if she were to sell it, she wouldn't want it. In that case, I can only take what she cares about the most." Yan Huan lowered his eyelashes slightly. The cold wind also lifted her eyelashes. They were still curly and dense, and they were also very pretty. Meanwhile, her face was gloomy and gloomy in the darkness. It was also difficult to see her regret. When they arrived at the famous family, Zhu Meina finally took out her phone. Tian Tian made another long call. The security guards at the door had already let them in. Of course, when they saw Zhu Meina's big breasts and long legs., who Didn't know in their hearts. "She really is a country bumpkin." Zhu Meina pursed her lips. CEO? She lived in a house like this. If her assets really reached 100 million a year, who would live in such a house and be from a famous family? This was just an ordinary residential area. The only difference was that her name was a little rich., there were more than a dozen high-rise buildings inside, and they all looked half-new and not old. There weren't many special features. In Hai City, there were only such neighborhoods and houses. If they were really rich., then they didn't live here. For example, the Lu family, the Ye family, and the Su family. They all had their own places, and they were all century-old mansions. This kind of place was connected to the Earth, and the people of Hai City had this superstition. They had their feet on the ground, it was easy to receive the down-to-earth aura. In other words, they could receive the wealth. Therefore, the rich people of Hai City usually didn't like high-rise buildings, especially the CEO of a company. He actually lived on the 14th floor in Hai City. The people of Hai City didn't like this floor, so the people who bought it were relatively few. When Zhu Meina heard that the fake tycoon lived on this floor, she knew that this wasn't some small business, nor was it a CEO of a listed company. How could it be so easy to become a CEO? If it was really that easy, everyone would have become a CEO. Zhu Meina took her phone again and spoke to Lu Jianbin. Her voice had always been delicate and pretty. It was almost as if water could be wrung out of it. It also made Lu Jianbin listen to her to the extreme. When he thought of the woman who took the initiative to throw herself into his arms, not to mention her heart, even her body became soft. He had already arranged everything, showered, and even gave himself something to drink to liven things up, now, he was just waiting for the beauty to come over. When that time came, he would have a wonderful night. That woman's face and figure were all top-notch. He had touched them at that time. That woman's breasts were at least D cup size. He was really lucky to have such a good figure and face cap.

Chapter 1139: the immortal jumps

He stood in the room, looking at himself in the mirror, rinsing his mouth, and checking if his teeth were white or if he was clean. He brushed his hair slightly to the right. He was quite satisfied with his appearance. It would be even better if they could have a long-term relationship in the future. "Ding Dong..." finally, the doorbell rang from outside. Lu Jianbin's heart tightened. He looked at himself in the mirror again before walking out. He opened the door, but before he could see the person outside clearly, a pair of hands had already covered his eyes. "Don't talk, don't look. I'll give you a surprise." A gust of fragrant wind blew past, followed by the sound of breathing. It was the unique smell of a mature woman. Although there was no perfume, this woman's fragrance was the most aphrodisiac. Then, a cloth-like thing was tied to his eyes. At this moment, his eyes also darkened, and he couldn't see anything. "Don't be afraid. I'll take you with me." It was still a sweet voice. The fragrance entered and left Lu Jianbin's nostrils, causing his breathing to quicken. His mouth was dry and his tongue was parched, the muscles on his body were also tense and tense. At this moment, Lu Jianbin was completely dumbfounded. Even the muscles on his body became soft. He was also forced to lower his legs. He felt that his butt was sitting on the large bed that he had carefully arranged, his neck tightened and his tie was untied. At this moment, almost all the blood rushed to his head. Then, his feet also tightened and began to be tied up. He shrunk his legs, the area around his pants was swollen. Zhu Meina pursed her lips. It was so small. Could it be that it was not as thick as a toothpick? Lu Jianbin did not ask anything. His hands and feet were already tied up. Of course, he did not struggle. He was still thinking about what kind of surprise it would be. He had never played with such a good surprise before, the muscles on his body jumped up and down. His entire body was also extremely excited. Zhu Meina grabbed her bag with one hand and took out a rope from it. Coincidentally, she brought this over. Initially, she had said that this was for Yan Huan, but this Lu Guy was really good. He had enjoyed it in advance. This was the rope that had been used to tie up the best actress Yan. In the future, if it was put up for auction, it would be worth quite a lot of money. One had to know that a piece of the best actress Yan's clothes had been auctioned off for over a million yuan, not to mention the rope that was used to tie up the best actress Yan every day. This rope was no ordinary rope now. It was really plated with gold. Therefore, giving it to him was really letting him off easy. Zhu Meina's current method of tying people up was naturally very good. She tied Yan Huan up a few times every day. She couldn't let her break free, nor could she hurt her. Therefore, Zhu Meina's current method of tying people up was absolutely professional. Lu Jianbin felt that his only cover was pulled up by Zhu Meina, and then tied to his hand. At this time, he was already tied up on the big bed. Then, he felt that his belt had been pulled off, and his body stiffened. The muscles on his thighs also tensed up. It was about to start. In a short while, his bare buttocks were exposed. That thing was still standing upright. "Is it very small?" Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan. Yan Huan turned his face away. He did not understand where Zhu Meina got her tricks from. "I also feel small." Zhu Meina looked at Lu Jianbin's thing with disdain. A man who looked like this, was he still a man? He might as well not be a woman. If he still wanted to sleep with her like this, then get lost. Lu Jianbin was still looking forward to it, but suddenly, he heard what Zhu Meina said. With a quiver, that thing also became soft, "Who are you talking to?" The hair on his body stood up, and he also had a creepy feeling. "You'll know soon." Zhu Meina stood up, picked up the belt that was thrown aside, and began to pull it on Lu Jianbin's body. Lu Jianbin's body trembled. It was not only because of the pain, but also because of the excitement. Damn it, where did this woman come from? She was too harsh, but he still liked her. He was still waiting for the next time the belt was pulled. In the end, he heard a cold and terrifying voice add up. "Okay, don't get killed." "Don't worry." Zhu Meina wrapped the belt around her wrist. This belt was good. One Belt was worth more than a thousand yuan. So, she was a country bumpkin. In a certain aspect, she could be considered a tycoon. Meanwhile, Lu Jianbin suddenly shivered. "Who?" At this moment, he was no longer excited. The heat on his body had long subsided. Instead, he was covered in cold sweat. How could there be other people here? There were two women. Yan Huan pulled a chair over and sat on it. Her fingers moved to the top of the chair. "Lu Jianbin," she called Lu Jianbin's name lightly. "Who are you?" Lu Jianbin tried his best to steady his voice. He struggled as well. However, he was tied up too tightly. Even if he wasn't tied up like a mummy, he was still tied up a few times, he was practically tied up with the entire bed. Suddenly, he had a bad feeling in his heart. Could it be that he had encountered an immortal. "What do you want?" He asked, pretending to be calm. "You want money, I have it. How much do you want? I'll give it all to you." He was still thinking about how much money he needed to settle this matter, he didn't want anything to happen to him. Of course, he also didn't want to die. No matter how much money he had or how much he didn't want to give to others, compared to his life, this money was nothing. "Your Money?" Yan Huan propped up the side of his face on the table. "How much money can a poor doctor like you have? Even your fiancée ran away because she thought you were poor. Tell me, how much money do you have left? Where did you get the money from?" Lu Jianbin was suddenly stunned. His face was also filled with guilt and shame. "Didn't you want the money? Let Me Go and I'll give it to you." He did not want to mention those things. It was really disgusting to say it out loud. He was the one who took the initiative to tell Zhu Meina about these things. He was just complaining and taking revenge, even if that woman knelt down and begged him now, he wouldn't be able to turn back. He just didn't expect that someone would use this matter to humiliate him now. "Where did you get the money?" Yan Huan lightly tugged at his red lips. "HM, where did you get the money? What did you do to suddenly drive a BMW and live in such a good house?"

Chapter 1140: the way back

Although it wasn't very good, it was still considered a pretty good house in Hai City. Otherwise, with the salary of a doctor in the past, it would take at least another ten years of hard work to buy a house here. Lu Jianbin opened his mouth. "What does that have to do with you?" He endured it and didn't say anything. Now, people were the butcher's knife and I was the fish's meat. If people wanted to kill fish, they would kill fish. If they wanted to kill pigs, they would kill pigs. "Why? You Don't want to say it?" Yan Huan sat up straight. The light from the incandescent lamp above her head fell on her face. It looked more and more bluish, like a ghost. Lu Jianbin indeed did not say it. It was unknown whether he was being silent or pretending. Perhaps he had nothing to say, or he was prepared to think of some kind of excuse in his heart. "If you don't say it, I can say it for you." Yan Huan stood up and walked in front of Lu Jianbin. His gaze also fell on his face. This face could be recognized by her even if she transformed into it. This was because he was the one who drew her blood and extracted her bone marrow. It had to be said that he had some medical ethics at that time. At the very least, he had begged for mercy for her. However, why would she need that sympathy. "More than a year ago," Yan Huan gently raised his finger, "You were in the Su family..." Lu Jianbin's expression suddenly changed. It could be seen that the bones and flesh on his body seemed to stiffen as well. Yan Huan's voice continued. "You took a woman's blood, extracted her bone marrow, and then transferred her bone marrow value to another woman. The SU family gave you this money, right?" "Who are you?" Lu Jianbin's voice suddenly became sharp, and the cold sweat on his forehead also dropped down "Why? Can't you recognize my voice?" Yan Huan walked back and sat on the chair. She didn't have much strength, and all her strength was used to resist the drug addiction's attacks, she had to endure the drug addiction, but she also had to endure herself. "I remember when you drugged me, I screamed again and again. I begged you, I begged you more than once. Why, have you forgotten?" Another drop of cold sweat dripped down from Lu Jianbin's forehead. "You're the one, didn't you already..." He did not continue speaking, but his face was now completely white. It was so white that there was no blood, but it was also white with fear. However, although he did not say it, Yan Huan caught his words. Didn't you already? 'aren't you already??' 'yes...' 'already what??' 'dead??' Apart from the Su family, he also knew that she was dead. Lu Jianbin took a deep breath. His hands and feet were tied up. No matter how hard he tried to break free, he could not break free. The clothes on his back were also soaked. "You Can't blame me for this. I'm just a doctor. Even if it wasn't me, it would be someone else. There's always someone to blame. If you want to find them, you should look for the Su family, not me." "Of course, I'll look for them. Don't worry, you won't be able to escape either." Her voice was like a thorn that pierced into Lu Jianbin's body. "What do you want to Do to me?" Even though he was a doctor and was used to seeing life and death, when it was his turn, he was still afraid. He was still afraid, even when he spoke, he stuttered. This kind of thing where he could not control his own life was really too scary. "It depends on whether you cooperate or not?" Yan Huan closed his eyes and seemed to be resting. However, she knew every move Lu Jianbin made, every change in his expression, and every change in his voice. "What can I match up to you?" Lu Jianbin gritted his teeth. "I've said it before. I'm just a doctor. Even if I testify in court, they might not admit it." "Why are you still talking nonsense with him?" Zhu Meina was already impatient. She rushed into the kitchen and took out a kitchen knife. Lu Jianbin was shocked, the color drained from his face, and his hands and feet were weak. He had already guessed something? "You can't kill me. Killing is a crime." "Don't worry." Zhu Meina waved the kitchen knife in her hand. "I took a kitchen knife from your kitchen and sharpened it quite well. It's easy for me to use. Not bad, of course..." her voice changed. She was obviously smiling, however, it made people shudder. "I won't kill you." Her gaze moved down to Lu Jianbin's side, "I just want to cut off your thing. Anyway, it's so small. What's the use of it? You might as well become a woman. Aren't you a doctor? Then, you can perform a sex change surgery on yourself. In that case, we might even become good sisters. Don't worry, I know many transvestites like you. I guarantee that no one will give you a good one." Cold sweat dripped from Lu Jianbin's forehead. "In... in the second drawer, there's... There's a data bag. There's... There's something in there." He stuttered. He was afraid that the kitchen knife would really cut off his third leg. Even if it wasn't broken or injured, he wouldn't be able to live for the rest of his life. Zhu Meina put down the kitchen knife and walked to the place that Lu Jianbin mentioned. She pulled open the drawer, but the drawer was locked. "The key... is... in the back drawer." Lu Jianbin reminded her in a low voice. He was afraid that Zhu Meina would pick up the kitchen knife later. Even though he was a man, he was also afraid that the sword wouldn't have eyes. It didn't matter even if it cut off his two legs, as long as it did not cut his third leg. Zhu Meina pulled out the third drawer and took out a key. Then, she opened the two drawers. As expected, she found a file bag inside. She took out the file bag and placed it in front of Yan Huan. Yan Huan opened his eyes, opened the file bag, and took out the things from inside. When she saw it, she was stunned. It turned out to be all the medical reports that she and Su ran had done before the surgery, including the medicine that she used every time, the changes in Su Muran's condition, and the things that happened during the surgery, also, the situation of the medication was recorded. "You're really thoughtful." Yan

Huan put the items in the file bag again. It was an accident. Lu Jianbin could be considered a smart person. He actually kept some things. Meanwhile, Lu Jianbin was completely embarrassed, especially since his butt was naked. "I always have to leave a way out for myself." Yan Huan did not believe what he said about leaving a way out. Su Qingdong had been an old fox for his whole life. Of course, he had calculated everything clearly. However, he did not expect that a doctor would still leave some evidence behind.
