

Chapter 1141: leaving Hai City

However, these were not enough to threaten Su Qingdong. Su Qingdong could say that these were fakes. She had a feeling that Lu Jianbin still had some things that he hadn't taken out. Zhu Meina received Yan Huan's glance and suddenly smiled evilly. Yes, she knew. She walked over and picked up the shiny kitchen knife again. However, this time, Lu Jianbin was not threatened. With a cold face, he also turned his head to the side. Because of the cold, his body was already covered in goosebumps. "I've told you everything I know. Even if you kill me now, that's all I know." Zhu Meina placed her hand on Lu Jianbin's face and also forced his face over. Obviously, Lu Jianbin's body froze again. He pretended to be calm, but that was all, just like that, his kung fu was broken. "Don't worry, I won't kill you." Zhu Meina threw the kitchen knife to the side, and then suddenly sat on Lu Jianbin's body. What was Lu Jianbin thinking now? He was all fish meat now, he was all pork meat now. "Do you know what I Do?" Zhu Meina's finger brushed across Lu Jianbin's face, and it also gave Lu Jianbin Goosebumps. How could he know what she was doing? How could he know? In the past, he felt that a woman with big breasts and Big Butts was his romantic encounter, but now, it was not a romantic encounter. It was clearly a nightmare. "What can I Do?" Zhu Meina used her body to tease Lu Jianbin from time to time. However, Lu Jianbin really did not feel anything. He just wanted to send these two gods of plague away. In the future, he would never see them again "What, you still can't feel it?" Zhu Meina once again brushed past Lu Jianbin's face like a picky bean. "Of course, sister is selling out." When Lu Jianbin heard this, his entire body stiffened. Even his body was rejecting her very clearly. Zhu Meina once again caressed her face and smiled coquettishly. If it wasn't because there were men like you who liked to play, how could there be women like us who would sell out? After all, at the end of the day., it was just that men like you were cheap. "Also..." she used her finger to stroke Lu Jianbin's not-so-strong chest again. "Sister not only sells, but she also takes drugs. Of course, her words changed again. Sister also has that kind of illness." Yan Yi frowned. She closed her eyes again but didn't say anything. "Enough, enough. You leave my body immediately." Lu Jianbin couldn't stand it anymore. He was a doctor. How could he not know what Zhu Meina was talking about, what she was smoking, and what she was sick with? This woman was dirty from head to toe, from body to heart. She wanted to throw up. However, Zhu Meina didn't move. Her fingers moved to Lu Jianbin's thigh. Lu Jianbin only felt nauseous now. He was sure that his life was worse than death. "There's a box at the bottom of my wardrobe. There's a USB drive in the box. This is what you want. I don't have a computer here, but I can guarantee that the things inside are good." He finally said it. After he said it, his body was covered in cold sweat again. "You should have said it earlier." Zhu Meina reached out and patted Lu Jianbin's face. "Why do you still want me to have sex with you? Anyway, I haven't had sex with a man for a long time." Then, she turned over and got down, then, she walked to the front of the wardrobe, opened it again, and threw out all the clothes inside. Finally, she found a wooden box at the bottom of the wardrobe. She opened the wooden box. Sure enough, there was really a USB drive inside. She threw the wooden box on the ground, then walked over and placed the USB drive in front of Yan Huan. Yan Huan took it and held it in his own hand. Lu Jianbin had already told them everything. He had given everything to them. He did not keep anything now. He only hoped that the two plague gods would leave immediately and leave him far away. No, not them, but him, he wanted to leave Hai City. He wanted to leave far away and never come back to this terrible place. "This was taken by Su Qingdong's car recording device," Lu Jianbin said with a hopeless expression, "This was originally the biggest trump card I left for myself. It was also something I used to save my life. This is all I have. This is all I can provide. Moreover, as long as you have this, you can sue him even if there are no witnesses.” He had discovered the things on the traffic record by chance. At that time, he had already performed a surgery on SU SANRAN. The surgery was also very successful. Su Sanran was just as he had imagined, he began to recover day by day. Moreover, he was recovering extremely well. One day, he discovered that Yan Huan had disappeared. At that time, he felt that Su Qingdong had done something. It was only until one day, Su Taidong happened to drop a USB drive on the ground and picked it up without batting an eyelid, then, he looked at it. In the end, he did not expect that it would be such a scene. At that time, he was afraid and terrified. He also felt that the people of the Su family were not very good people. They might cross the river and break the bridge, that was why he left behind the information and the USB drive. He thought that if one day, the people of the Su family really burned the bridge after crossing the river, then these might be the things that could save his life. However, he didn’t expect that he would leave them for someone else instead of himself. Yan Huan put the USB in his pocket, stood up, and walked to the door. Zhu Meina yawned, patted her bag, and followed him. Lu Jianbin also heard the footsteps of the two people. He was moving toward the door and became anxious on the spot “Even if you go back, you have to let me go first, right?” “And then you have to call the police to arrest us?” Zhu Meina rolled her eyes. Did she think that she had come out of that place for nothing? She was a person who only knew how to scam others, but she would definitely not let the people who had stepped up to scam her. “I...” Lu Jianbin wanted to guarantee that he would not, but in the end, he realized that even if he said it a hundred times, others might not believe him. When Yan Huan reached the door, she stopped. She lowered her head and tightened her grip on the USB. “If I were you, I would leave this place immediately. I would leave Hai City and never come back.” Lu Jianbin’s face turned pale. What did she mean? “If I can find you, so can he.” Yan Huan released his grip and put the USB back into his pocket. “You’d better pray that I win in the end and not Su.” “At least, I won’t do anything to you.” “But if I die, you’ll be the first target the SU family wants to get rid of.” The sweat on Lu Jianbin’s face dripped even more fiercely. At this moment, his entire body was obviously cold, but he was sweating all over.

Chapter 1142: the evidence

He knew that Yan Huan was right. Yes, this was it, this was it. He wanted to leave this place. He had to leave this place and never come back. This place was too scary, and the people here were too scary. When Zhu Meina and Yan Huan became famous, Zhu Meina could not help but ask Yan Huan again, “Do you think he will really leave? Instead of calling the police to arrest us?” “He can’t take care of himself right now, so he doesn’t have time to arrest us.” After Yan Huan finished speaking, he took out the small USB from his pocket. This was what she was looking for today, and it was also an unexpected harvest. “Do you think there’s really something in this?” Zhu Meina was still a little skeptical. Of course, she did not know anything about such high-tech things. These were all learned by good students, like her, who loved to be vain, how could she still have a USB drive hanging on her every day? Her bag was filled with either her wallet or perfume. If it wasn’t cosmetics and tissues, how could she put such useless things on it. “We’ll know when we get back.” Yan Huan actually didn’t know either. Lu Jianbin didn’t have a computer, so she couldn’t try it. Moreover, based on her feeling, Lu Jianbin didn’t dare to lie to her. As expected, that kind of illness really made people afraid, it also smelled far away. It was not a poisonous snake or beast, but it was even more terrifying than a poisonous snake or beast. It was also more disgusting. When they returned home, Zhu Meina first poured a large cup of water for herself. She drank it like she was drinking a donkey. Then, she stood in front of Yan Huan’s laptop, she was ready to take a look at the spoils of war that they had brought back this time. She really hoped that it would be useful this time. This time, she didn't run for nothing. Otherwise, after spending so much effort and sacrificing so much, if there really wasn't anything on the surface., she really wasn't willing to give up. Yan Huan turned on the computer and took out the small USB from his pocket. Then, he plugged the USB into the computer. Very quickly, a USB flash drive appeared on the computer. Everything she did was taught by Lu Yi, even though she was not a computer expert. However, she was very good at this because she had a husband who could be said to be a hacker. She opened the USB flash drive. It was dark inside at first, and she could only see two rows of streetlights. There was no one in front. Then, she could faintly hear the sound of water. The car also stopped. First, a person got out of the car. From the figure, it was a man. He walked to the front first, and she did not know what he was looking at, when he turned around, this face was obviously not unfamiliar to Yan Huan or Zhu Meina. This person was Su Qingdong. Then, Su Qingdong pulled something out of the car. And that thing was none other than Yan Huan "Mr. Su, I beg you, I beg you, please don't kill me." Up there, Yan Huan knelt down and kowtowed to Su Qingdong from time to time. Although it was midnight, the car lights were switched on and off, so their faces and cries could be clearly seen. Then, there was the sound of kowtowing. "Mr. Su, I'm begging you. Please don't kill me. I still have three children. My children are still young. They need their mother." "Mr. Su, I won't say it. I really won't say it. Whether you take my blood or my bone marrow, I swear I won't say it. I Won't tell anyone." "Su Qingdong, I curse you. Even if I die, I'll become a malicious spirit and come back to find you. I want your su family to be destroyed. I want your daughter to suffer a fate worse than death. Even if she gets my bone marrow, she won't be able to live for long." Then there was a thump, and then there was no more sound. Su Qingdong stood outside for a long time before he got into the car. The headlights flashed a few times, and in an instant, the entire scene darkened. It was he who turned off the car recording device and took out the memory card inside. Yan Huan heard Zhu Meina sniffing. She lifted her face and saw Zhu Meina crying as she drank water. Then, she glanced at Yan Huan and gave her an uncomfortable smile. They had all been mothers before. How could they not know the feeling of wanting nothing more than to die after leaving their children. The only difference was that Yan Huan's child was still there, while her child had been killed by someone else. Zhu Meina wiped her tears, "It's a good thing that he's dead. Otherwise, if he had such a father, he wouldn't be able to raise his head in this lifetime. Moreover, Hehe, she sneered. I finally know that even if he survived, Zhu Xianglan wouldn't let him off. She would use all kinds of methods. For the sake of her daughter, she would do anything. "It's just like sending your own niece to your husband's bed." "That..." she asked a little embarrassedly, "Can I borrow your computer?" Yan Huan pulled out the USB, opened the drawer, and placed it in the drawer. "I'll go cook two bowls of noodles." After she finished speaking, she entered the kitchen. Not long after, the sound of a fire could be heard from the kitchen. Yan Huan was cooking noodles while she was cooking noodles. It was simpler and more convenient. Right now, she only wanted to make noodles. She was not in the mood for anything else. Meanwhile, Zhu Meina was a kitchen idiot who could not differentiate between grains, salt, and sugar. She did not even know how to Fry an egg. What kind of dish could she expect her to cook? Even if she could cook it well., whether it could be eaten was another matter. Even if it could be eaten, she would have to worry about whether she would have diarrhea. When Yan Huan came out, he saw Zhu Meina still sitting in front of the computer, wiping her face from time to time. Although she did not cry out loud, he could hear her sobbing voice. She was really crying. Yan Huan walked over and stood behind her. On the computer, there were pictures of a child that was only a few months old. She was smiling, crying, and gnawing on her little finger. There were also pictures of him drooling and naked. "Isn't he handsome?"

Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan. "Yes." Yan Huan nodded. "He is very cute." The SU family's genes were not too bad. Although Su Muran was not a peerless beauty, he could still be considered a beauty. Otherwise, he would not be able to make it in the entertainment industry, it was still because of her inexplicable and embarrassing acting skills. As for Zhu Meina, her looks belonged to another category. She was the kind of beautiful woman with big breasts but no brains. However, it had to be said that such women were often the most liked by men, so., the children that Zhu Meina gave birth to were naturally not bad either.

Chapter 1143: this woman was actually very violent

The little child was very fair and had very long eyelashes. In this way, he looked more like Zhu Meina. If he was still alive, he would definitely grow longer. He would definitely be a very handsome young man. It was a pity that this child was not expected by others. Therefore, he died early in the end. Zhu Meina reached out her hand and touched the few photos in the computer, "I secretly took these photos. I'm the only mother who loves my child. What can the people of the SU family remember about him now? They may even have forgotten his appearance." "Old Master Su never liked him. Zhu Xianglan and her daughter wished that he was dead. Su Qingdong may have liked him for a while, but after my son passed away, he still put Su Mulan first. For Su Mulan, he threw his conscience to the dogs." "Oh right, I forgot. What kind of conscience does he have? He keeps finding excuses to sleep with his wife's niece." "I've eaten noodles." Yan Huan did not want her to say this. The more she spoke, the more bitter it became. The more she spoke, the more painful it became. She walked back to the table and picked up the bowl of noodles. Just like that, she ate it one bite at a time. She did not feel that it was very delicious, she was just using the food to hang on to her life as usual. Zhu Meina also turned off the computer reluctantly. She let out a gentle sigh. At this moment, she did not realize that her hands were trembling. Perhaps everyone thought that she did not love that child. In fact, they were wrong. She loved him. She really loved him. Who did not love their child? That was not someone else. She was pregnant for ten months and gave birth to the child after much hard work. "What do you plan to do?" Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan. Now that they had evidence, there was actually no need to go through so much trouble. They could just directly anonymously give these to Lu Yi. Lu Yi was a prosecutor. This was what he did in the first place, in addition to the fact that his target was Yan Huan, he would definitely make the Su family's house uneasy. He would also make Su Qingdong spend the rest of his life in prison. "It's still not enough." Yan Huan also thought about whether he should make all of this public, but in the end, he couldn't because it wasn't enough. It wasn't enough. It wasn't enough at all. This was only revenge for the previous time, however, if the Su family was really responsible for her revenge this time, then she still hadn't found the corresponding evidence, and it was impossible for her to completely destroy the Su family. Even if Su Qingdong went in, there was still Zhu Xianglan and Su Muran, it was not because of old master Su. As long as they were still around, the Su family could still survive and make a comeback. One should not underestimate the SU family. A lean camel was bigger than a horse. The SU family had more resources than she had imagined. No one knew what their bottom line was and where their bottom line was. Moreover, she didn't want to alert the enemy. It was also because she hadn't really found out who did it this time? Yan Huan picked up the bowl and drank a mouthful of soup. Then, he sat there and waited for Zhu Meina to finish eating. "You don't have to care about me." Zhu Meina waved her hand. "I'm not a child. It's not like I don't know how to eat noodles." "I'm waiting for the bowl." Yan Huan pointed at the bowl in Zhu Meina's hand. Zhu Meina's expression froze. How could she be such an unromantic woman? She couldn't even stir up the emotions even if she wanted to. "Alright, there's no need to trouble you."

I'll wash it myself later." Zhu Meina felt that it was better for her to take the initiative. Since the rice was cooked by Yan Huan, then it was her turn to wash the bowl. There was no reason for Yan Huan to do everything while she ate and lived here for free, not to mention not doing any work, even if this was said, it wouldn't make sense. "You wash it? Are you sure?" Yan Huan confirmed once more. "Yes, I'll wash it." Zhu Meina picked up the bowl and drank a mouthful of broth in satisfaction. The taste was not bad. Although she ate it every day, it still tasted good. "No need, I'll wash it." Yan Huan was still sitting there waiting for the bowl. "You don't have to be polite, I'll do it." Zhu Meina patted her chest and promised. "No, I'm not being polite," Yan Huan said seriously. Of course, he wasn't talking nonsense. She was only stating a fact, a fact that they had to face. "There are only two bowls in the house. If you fall again, you can eat with the pot tomorrow. It won't break anyway." "Cough..." Zhu Meina accidentally drank the soup into her windpipe. She lay on the table and started coughing. Yan Huan had already reached out to pick up the bowl. There was only some soup left in the bowl, so she probably shouldn't drink it anymore. She carried the bowls into the kitchen one by one. After she finished washing the bowls, she went back to her room. Zhu Meina watched her like this as she came out of the kitchen and watched her return to her room. Her face was filled with resentment, and her expression was one that was worse than death. How come she never knew that Yan Huan's ability to choke others was so good? Where did he learn this from? Yan Huan could be considered very famous, but he had never reported that she had any ability to choke others. Could it be that it was because.., she was Zhu Meina, so she had to be despised everywhere. She lay on the table, the villain in her heart beginning to turn black. Should she strangle a certain woman while she was asleep, so that sooner or later, she would really choke to death. But in the end, she thought about it and hurriedly gave up. She didn't even dare to think about this idea. She would really be beaten to death. Yes, she would be beaten to death. Yan Huan's skills were very good, and her temper was very violent. This was something she discovered recently, which was when the two of them came back from the outside world, they met a hooligan, but before the hooligan could even tease her a little, Yan Huan directly kicked him and sent him flying. That kick was really not polite at all. The hooligan got up from the ground, she knew that she had met a tough opponent. Without thinking, she got up and ran away as if she had seen a ghost. She originally thought that Yan Huan did not have any skills. When she was filming, it was a combination of slow motion, showy moves, or a stunt double. This was because Su Mulan was like this.., she and Su Mulan had grown up together. Su Mulan weighed a lot. Could it be that she did not know. She thought that Su Muran was like that and Yan Huan was like that. The so-called martial arts masters were all made up. However, it was only at that moment that she realized that not every martial arts master was faking it, at the very least, Yan Huan was not. She could fight two men alone. Zhu Meina touched her stomach. She was still thinking about her half bowl of noodle soup. She really could not wait for it to be like this. She had not finished the soup and was not full yet. Forget it. She gritted her teeth and poured a large glass of water for herself. She would use the water to soothe her stomach.

Chapter 1144: The wind blows against the buttocks

At midnight, Yan Huan sat up. She was already used to the habit of getting addicted to drugs from time to time. She put on her shoes and went into the small room. At this moment.., Zhu Meina had decorated the room. There were a few blankets hanging around the room. Even if she wanted to hit the wall, she wouldn't be able to get anything out of it. The windows were also sealed to prevent her from thinking too hard and wanting to jump off the building. Although they were on the first floor, it was hard to guarantee that they wouldn't fall down and get a bloody nose or face. And she couldn't bleed. She hugged her legs and sat down. Now, she didn't need Zhu Meina to tie her up anymore. As long as it wasn't too serious, she could already sit and endure every minute and second without hurting herself, she did not want to hurt others, but she could still maintain her sanity. Therefore, she wondered if she was really going to quit. Although this kind of life was very tough, and she was not living alone, there was still hope. Could she really quit this drug addiction. She leaned her head against the wall behind her. Her tightly shut eyes did not want to open. She knew that her current ferocious appearance would almost make others have nightmares. Her face was contorted, and her body was twitching. Her tears and Snot could not be stopped. It was also possible that she could not even control her own bowel movements. The current her was worse than a cripple. She was even more disgusting and disgusting, it was also thanks to Zhu Meina, who was in the same room as her, that she did not mind. She could still eat and sleep. After about an hour, Yan Huan stood up. When she opened the door and came out, Zhu Meina happened to open the door to go to the toilet. She was only wearing her underwear, so she did not feel anything strange, in any case, they were all women "Are you done?" Zhu Meina rubbed her eyes. "Is it too short this time?" She sized up Yan Huan from head to toe. He wasn't in a sorry state, nor was he like how he was in the beginning. It was as if he had been fished out from the water, and even his hair wasn't messy. Only his forehead was covered in cold sweat, there was also a slight change in his complexion. Everything else was much better than before. Actually, the current Yan Huan still looked very miserable and pitiful. However, in Zhu Meina's heart, she was actually much better. That was only because she had seen Yan Huan in the most miserable and miserable times, at that time, she felt as if her life was worse than death. There were even a few times when she begged Zhu Meina to kill her. The pain was so great that even Yan Huan, who had reincarnated, could not bear it anymore. There were also a few times when Zhu Meina could not bear it and even helped her to take the kitchen knife. Luckily, she did not give it to her. Otherwise, Yan Huan would have died a long time ago and she would have been an accomplice to murder. Thinking about it now, she couldn't help but shiver. She didn't dare to think about it anymore. "Mhm..." Yan Huan replied softly. He wasn't very energetic, so she opened the door to her room. "Aren't you going to take a Bath?" Zhu Meina rubbed her eyes and mumbled again. "No." Yan Huan's voice came from inside the room. No matter how she heard it, she didn't have much strength. Right now, she only wanted to sleep. She was really tired. All of her energy., all of her energy had been used up It was still dark outside. It was only around four in the morning and she still had a few hours to sleep. Right now, other than sleeping, there was nothing else they could do. It was very quiet here. There weren't many people. They lived in such a secluded place, isolating themselves and others. They rejected themselves and others. Lu Yi sat up and gently touched his forehead. Then, he reached out and touched his side. The Little Lass had fallen asleep and disappeared again. Of course, he wasn't in a hurry. Instead, he slowly took his coat and put it on. Then, he opened the door. Unsurprisingly, he saw something at the window. He walked over and pulled open the curtains, he saw Xun Xun sitting there, looking at something. Lu Yi squatted down and placed his hand on his daughter's little head. "Why aren't you sleeping again?" "Xun Xun sleeps during the day." Xun Xun turned around and glanced at her father. Her little buttocks sat on the ground and stretched out her two calves. She didn't sleep anyway. Lu Yi carried her up and touched her little buttocks. Fortunately, it wasn't cold. He lowered his head and saw a pillow on the ground. So she was sitting on the pillow. No wonder. Why did his neck feel uncomfortable? Could it be that when he was asleep., the pillow was carried away by Xunxun when he wasn't paying attention. "Xunxun, why are you taking Daddy's Pillow?" He pinched the little girl's chubby little face. "My butt is cold," xunxun pouted. She had grown up, and her vocabulary had grown a little. Fortunately, although her mother was no longer around, Xunxun was only sick twice and did not like to go to school, there was nothing else. Even her little temper was getting bigger. Lu Yi touched his daughter's little butt again. It was indeed not cold. "Then you can use your own pillow. Why Do You Need Daddy's?" He picked up his own pillow from the ground and held his daughter with one hand. He was going to sleep. If he did not sleep, even he would not be able to sleep. "Stinky." Xun Xun wrinkled her little nose. The pillow in Lu Yi's hand trembled slightly and he threw the pillow back to the French window. "Then I'll use it as a cushion for Xun Xun's buttocks in the future." She could not use it as a pillow anymore. "Okay." Xun Xun nodded her head vigorously. She was actually more awake than anyone else in the middle of the night. It was just like what she said. She could sleep during the day anyway. If she slept enough during the day, of course, she could wake up in the middle of the night, she felt sorry for Lu Yi. He had to work during the day. When he came back at night, he had to coax her. In the middle of the night, he had to count the stars and look at the Moon like her. However, there weren't many stars in sea city now. He had to count the street lamps. "Pull, pull..." Xun Xun scratched Lu Yi's hair. When was mommy coming back. Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. "Mommy Won't come back. Xun Xun isn't going to school." She was determined. "Don't worry." Lu Yi touched his daughter's little face. "You'll be able to go to school as you wish very soon." Xun Xun buried her little face in her father's neck. "Ba Ba, when is Mommy Coming Back?" Xun Xun counted on her little fingers. She didn't know how to count the time, but she had slept a lot and drank a lot of cans of milk powder, but her mother hadn't come back. "Soon," Lu Yi comforted his daughter. "Mommy will be back very soon."

Chapter 1145: a green-furred turtle

Lu Yi hugged his daughter even tighter. "So, my family's xunxun, can you go to sleep now? Daddy will help you earn money for milk powder tomorrow. If You Don't Sleep, you won't have to drink milk powder in the future. Just drink boiled water." Xunxun pouted. She was obviously very unwilling, but in the end, she still had to obediently sleep. "Ba Ba wants to listen to a song." Xun Xun tugged at Lu Yi's sleeve. At this moment, Lu Yi was already in a daze from sleep. He stretched out his large hand and gently patted his daughter's small shoulder. He did not know what song he was humming. He did not know how to sing. To be exact, he did not know how to sing at all., he could not remember the songs he sang when he was young, but when he grew up, he did not like to sing. "Ba Ba's singing is really terrible." Xun Xun still opened her eyes wide and looked extremely disgusted. "Ba Ba, accompany Xun Xun to play." Xun Xun pulled Lu Yi's large hand and shook it. Lu Yi was still asleep, and he was obviously very tired. He had fallen asleep. Xun Xun pouted her small mouth with a face full of unwillingness. She felt that she had fallen out of favor. Ba Ba loved her the most. He loved her the most. Whatever she wanted, he would give it to her. If there was anything good to eat, he would feed it to her, her father must not like her now, and he also did not like her mother. So now, he did not help her find her mother. Papa was bad. Papa was really bad. The little princess was immediately angry. She climbed out of bed and ran out barefoot. When she came back later, she already had a watercolor pen in her hand. It was used by her to draw, but she did not know how and did not have this kind of talent, usually, she felt that there were many colors, so she would draw here and there. However, her mother had said that she could not draw randomly, or else she would spank her butt. She was very obedient. She was a good child, so she never drew randomly, she could only draw on paper. She climbed onto the bed again, and her little butt sat on her father's hand. Then, she bit her little finger, pouted her little mouth, lowered her head, and started drawing on her father's face, she began to draw on her father's face. "I told you not to hurt Xun Xun, I told you not to help her find her mother, I told you to trick Xun Xun into going to kindergarten," she continued to scold her father as she drew. After a while, she was done. She threw the pen away and hid in her father's arms. Then, she tugged at his clothes. "Xun Xun loves to pluck." Come on, who did he learn such a sweet little mouth from. When Lu Yi woke up the next day, the little girl was still asleep. He touched his daughter's small forehead. Fortunately, the little girl's body temperature was warm. Recently, she had gained some weight. Then, he touched his daughter's little feet. Her fat little feet were also very warm. He sat up and covered his daughter with a blanket. She slept until at least 11 or 12 o'clock. Then, she did not sleep at night. She counted the stars and looked at the Moon. However, there were no stars in Hai City, it was all high-rise buildings blocking the sky. Silly Child, those were not stars. You were deceived. Those were street lamps. Lu Yi stood up again and prepared to go out to see his two sons. They woke up early because they had to go to kindergarten in the morning. Of course, they were also very obedient and never lazed in bed. They woke up very consciously, winter clothes were too thick, so they wouldn't wear them. In summer, the two brothers could wear them by themselves, eat by themselves, and wear their own little socks. Ye Shuyun was already eating with her two grandsons. Her aunt had specially made it for them. There were rolls of flowers, porridge, and milk, all for them to eat. They were obediently eating their own food with small spoons. Sometimes, her brother, Xiao Qi, would give the good things in his bowl to his younger brother. Xiao Guang would not reject anything, and his taste was extremely good. "Lu Yi, you're awake. Come over to eat later." Ye Shuyun was currently managing her two grandsons, so her sons did not care too much. After all, her sons were already old, so it was impossible for them to starve themselves. "Okay, I got it." Lu Yi agreed and walked over again, stroking the heads of his two sons. Lu Qi looked up at his father, seemingly in a daze. Then, he lowered his head to eat the food in his small bowl, but after a while, he raised his little face again and looked at his father's face. This went on for a few days, even Xiao Guang imitated his brother's behavior. Now, he looked at Lu Yi like he was looking at a monster. Ye Shuyun also felt that the atmosphere was a little strange. What was going on? What was going on with Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang? Why were they always looking at her father? No matter what they looked at, her father still didn't look like that. But when she raised her head, with a poof, she directly drank the porridge that was in her mouth. Then, she covered her face with one hand and suddenly burst out laughing like crazy. Even the nanny who had just come out of the kitchen almost dropped the plate in her hand. "Mr. ... Mr. Lu... Your Face..." The nanny pointed at Lu Yi's face. Why did it feel so funny? Especially when Lu Yi's face was still cold, it made people feel even more amused. Lu Yi looked in the mirror. His face was covered in flowers, and he had the urge to strangle Xun Xun to death. Needless to say, he knew whose masterpiece this was. Other than his family's Little Xun, who else had the guts to do this. At this moment, there were two large circles drawn on the sides of his eyes. These were glasses, and there was a mustache drawn on the side of his mouth. There was also a little turtle drawn on his forehead. This was something that Xun Xun had recently learned. She couldn't draw anything well, she only knew how to draw little turtles, and she loved drawing little green turtles the most because in her mind, little turtles were green. She had seen real little turtles before, and they were green. That was why Lu Yi had two black eye sockets on his eyes now. He also had a beard that couldn't be shaved off, and there were some green turtles on his forehead. He turned on the tap and scooped up some water to wash his face clean. In the end, he couldn't wash it off even after washing it for a long time. Only then did he remember that the watercolor pen he bought for his daughter was actually waterproof. He doted on his daughter, even if it was the lines that his daughter had drawn without rhyme or reason, he had always wanted to save them for his daughter. However, now, he could not wash them off. He walked out of the bathroom with a gloomy face. Inside, Little Xun Xun was still sleeping obediently. It was clearly a white and tender glutinous rice ball. It was small and very adorable, however, when he thought of the thing that was drawn on his face, he immediately wanted to stuff this little thing back into her mother's stomach and return to the furnace to start all over again. "Xunxun!" He lifted his daughter up from under the blanket. He really wanted to strangle her little neck. Xunxun rubbed her eyes. When she saw that it was her father, she immediately rolled around in her father's arms like a kitten, "Pluck, Xunxun loves pluck the most." Alright, there was no need to say anything else.

Chapter 1146: had been found

Lu Yi opened the car door and used his hand to stroke his hair. He didn't know if it could be blocked by the green-furred turtle, but he also imitated Yan Huan. He put on a mask and a pair of sunglasses, there was nothing to do on the way. When he arrived at the prosecutor's office, he didn't look too much. He walked into his office and instructed that if there was nothing urgent, he shouldn't come and disturb him. Coincidentally, Yu Bo was standing outside. "Mr. Lu, I have a case for you to take a look at." "Okay, come in." Lu Yi lowered his head and used his fingers to type on the keyboard. He had also forgotten about his face and the green-furred turtle on his forehead, Yu Bo came in and placed a stack of documents in front of Lu Yi. He suddenly widened his eyes and covered his mouth with one hand. Although he did not make a sound, the muscles on his face twitched. "Have you seen enough?" Lu Yi asked Yu Bo indifferently, "Why? Do you want to admire it again?" "No, no." Yu Bo shook his head quickly. Even if he bit his teeth off, he did not dare to laugh anymore. "Mr. Lu, you..." Yu Bo carefully asked Lu Yi, "Was it your family's young master or a lady who did it?" "My family's Xun Xun," Lu Yi said plainly. He wanted to strangle her little neck with his own hands again. When he went back, he would definitely teach her a lesson. He was really bold. Alright, Yu Bo did not say anything else. Then, he looked at Lu Yi's face for a long time. "Can't wipe it off?" Lu Yi gave him an idiotic look. If he could wipe it off, he would still need to bring these to work. Was it for the visual appeal, or to let others appreciate how realistic his daughter's green-furred turtle painting was. "Mr. Lu, I bought a bottle of makeup remover for my girlfriend. It might be useful for this. Yu Bo quickly said that this kind of watercolor pen should be waterproof. The waterproof ones usually have something oily in them. You have to be able to remove it with makeup remover." "Give it to me." Lu Yi typed on the keyboard again. His voice was still indifferent, but it could be heard that he was enduring something. Xunxun, when Daddy goes back, he will definitely give you a good beating. Not long after, Yu Bo indeed took a bottle of makeup remover that was not opened too close to him and came over. Lu Yi took out his wallet from the drawer and threw a few hundred yuan over. "Is it enough?" "Yes... It's enough..." Yu Bo took out one from the drawer. "One is enough. This is 98 yuan. I Won't look for you for two Yuan," Yu Bo said as he ran out with his tail between his legs. When he thought of prosecutor Lu's big face and the green-furred turtle on his head, he leaned on the wall and laughed maniacally as if he had a stroke. Lu Yi opened the lid of the makeup remover and walked into the bathroom. He poured some for his hands, but there was no hope. In the end, it was an accident, but there was still some effect, when he came out, he had to wash his skin until a layer of skin was removed. Finally, he washed the watercolor pen off his face. And at this time in the Lu family, Ye Shuyun was worried for her granddaughter. "Xunxun, remember to apologize to Daddy when you come back." Xunxun blinked her eyes. "Grandma, Xunxun didn't do anything bad. Why should I apologize?" Only when she did something bad would she say sorry, but she was clearly very obedient. She didn't do anything bad. "Who asked you to draw on Daddy's face?" Ye Shuyun picked up her granddaughter. She was really afraid that she would get beaten up. When she was young, Lu Jin had also been ruthless when he beat Lu Yi Up. Even Lu Yi was the same with Xun Xun. If he broke it, she would feel sorry for him. Even if he didn't break it, she would feel sorry for him. "Okay," Xun Xun obediently agreed, but she pouted her little mouth and played even more happily with the doll in her arms. Around five o'clock, Lu Yi had already gotten off work. He had gone out with a disfigured face, but when he came back, his face was normal. However, his expression was frighteningly cold, as if it had frozen, he was afraid that his words would break into pieces of ice. "Xun Xun, come over." Lu Yi called out to his daughter. Xun Xun climbed down from the sofa and hugged her father's leg. "Do you want to pull it out? Xunxun wants to pull it out too." Lu Yi originally wanted to punch her hand, but he couldn't let it go no matter what. In the end, he picked up his daughter and pinched her little face hard. He wasn't allowed to draw on her father's face in the future, understood? Xunxun thought about it and then pointed at her little finger. She seemed to know that she had done something wrong. "I'm sorry, Pula. Xunxun was wrong." This was the good thing about the little girl. She wasn't someone who wouldn't admit her mistakes. If she did something wrong, she would admit it and apologize. The anger that Lu Yi had when he just came back was also gone. Forget it. Who asked him to raise a little cotton-padded jacket? If he raised Little Leizi like that, he would also beat her up. "Pula, when are you going to look for Mommy?" Xunxun tugged at Lu Yi's sleeve and asked. Because his father hadn't been going out recently, was he not going to look for his mother? "Mommy will be back in a few days." Lu Yi pressed his daughter's little face into his arms. He took out his phone and checked the time. There should be news soon. He put his daughter down again and let her play by herself. Of course, Little Xunxun did not pester her about her mother anymore. Instead, she climbed onto the sofa and continued to watch television. She still had to carry her doll. Lu Yi looked at this xunxun. He really felt that he had to send her to kindergarten. He could cry all he wanted. Eventually, he would get used to it. However, he could not stand having a grandfather and grandmother who doted on his granddaughter and Old Master Lu who treated his granddaughter as his lifeline. He could not afford to offend either of them. He looked at his daughter's new posture, but he didn't know who she was with. She was sprawled all over the place. She was still a little lady. What should he do? He still wanted to beat her up. In the end, Xun Xun raised her face and smiled at her father. Her beautiful big eyes were as beautiful as two crescent moons. When faced with his daughter who looked exactly like his wife., he really couldn't do it. Forget it, he endured it. He walked back to his room, took out his laptop, put it away, and put on his headphones. He quickly typed on it. "Have you found it?" "I found it." After half a day, three words finally appeared. Lu Yi's fingers froze in the air. "Give me the address." Then, a series of addresses appeared on the computer. This was Lu Yi's private news network. It was different from Lei Qingyi's. Lei Qingyi's side could be considered to be above the surface, but this place was hidden. It could not be seen on the surface, but it was quite useful.

Chapter 1147: was found, but it could not be seen

If these people could not be found, then it could only be said that, just like last time, Yan Huan was like a stone that sank into the sea. She could only wait for herself to find it back. But would it be this time? She had even broken up and sold those jewelry. Even the surveillance cameras did not show anything. And she was deliberately avoiding him, avoiding him. Deliberately, deliberately. This was Lu Yi's understanding of Yan Huan's situation. When he came out again, Xun Xun was half lying on the sofa. One hand was holding the doll's ear, and the other hand was holding the bottle and drinking. He walked over and placed his hand on the top of his daughter's head. "I'll let you use the bottle for a few more days. You can slowly give up on it in the future." Xunxun continued to drink his milk, his large eyes glancing at his father from time to time. It was as transparent and pure as a day in the water. Lu Yi straightened his back again, then picked up his car keys and prepared to leave. He drove the car and followed the address he found to find a place. He parked the car to the side and looked inside. This was a civilian house far away from the downtown area of Hai City. There were not many people living here. Of course, the house was not very good. However, it was quiet and seemed to be closer to the nearby park. Although the house was not very good, it could be considered a place to live. If she lived here, he could barely accept it. At the very least, it was not too shabby and old. At the very least, there was a place to buy things. At the very least, there were doors and windows. However, he had already stayed here for half a day, but the door was always closed. He still didn't leave. An hour passed, and two hours passed. Then, there was a sound from inside the door. It was normal for an old-fashioned door to make a sound. Moreover, there seemed to be something wrong with the lock. The door only opened after a few hits. A woman walked out from the door. The woman's figure was extremely tall, and no matter how you looked at it, she didn't seem to be Yan Huan's height. Yan Huan wasn't the kind of woman who was very tall. Of course, her figure was more slender, and this woman, with just a glance., it was obvious that she was very different from Yan Huan. At the very least, just her hair was a lot different. Yan Huan rarely did such explosive hair. His entire hair was curly, and if he didn't take care of it properly., her hair would explode all over her head. Moreover, Yan Huan's hair was not that long. She had only grown her hair for two months. Even if it had grown, most of her hair would have reached her shoulders. It was impossible for it to be that long. The woman was still carrying a bag in her hand. When she came out, she closed the door and walked out. Lu Yi placed his hand on the steering wheel. He did not move nor did he get out of the car, he stared unblinkingly at the closed door. "Zhu Meina?" Lu Yi frowned. How could it be Zhu Meina? Zhu Meina did not exist in the clues given to him by those people, and why would Zhu Meina Live Here? What kind of role did she play? Lu Yi did not know this, and he did not want to guess too much, so he could only wait. After about half an hour, Zhu Meina came back. She was holding something in her hands. It was obviously groceries. After she closed the door and went in, Lu Yi opened the car door and went straight over. Zhu Meina brought the groceries into the kitchen. She rolled up her sleeves and prepared to wash the dishes. When Yan Huan woke up, she could eat. Yan Huan was too tired today. She actually fell into a drug addiction twice in a row last night. She had been tormenting herself for almost the entire night. She only fell asleep around nine o'clock. And now, her body was suffering from severe losses, she could only sleep to replenish her energy. She didn't eat or drink. She slept without caring about anything. She Slept Day and night. Zhu Meina had no choice. She could only buy vegetables and wash the vegetables. This was something she could do. She really didn't know how to do anything else. She was fine on her own. She could just go outside and settle it. However, Yan Huan still had to eat. If only she knew how to cook. It was a pity that she didn't. This kitchen had a grudge against her. No matter what, she couldn't do these things. Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. Zhu Meina hurriedly wiped her hands on her body. She didn't know who was knocking on the door in broad daylight. Could it be that it was a delivery of milk and newspapers? However, they didn't order it. She opened the door, but when she saw the man standing outside, she quickly slammed the door and closed it. She also put her back against the door and gnawed on her nails. Oh No, how could it be him? How did he find her? There was a series of knocks on the door again. Almost everyone was urging her nerves, forcing her to open the door immediately. Zhu Meina squatted down, almost gnawing her fingers until they were bald. Why was that person here? How did he find her? Why didn't he pull the Cabinet over to block her first? She ran over and pushed the cabinet. It didn't seem to work. It was too heavy and couldn't be pushed. Why didn't she lock the door first and then jump out the window with Yan Huan? But at last, she glanced at the closed window and then at the door behind her. She let out a soft sigh and stood up as well. She took a deep breath and placed her hand on the door handle. With a twist, she opened the door as well. "Is she here?" Lu Yi asked Zhu Meina. Zhu Meina walked out and closed the door as well. She walked to another door and blocked it herself. She believed that Yan Huan did not like anyone to step into that territory. The things there.., she was not allowed to touch anything, especially Lu Yi. "Is she here?" Lu Yi asked again. Zhu Meina pursed her red lips and nodded her head gently. Lu Yi stretched out his hand and was about to push the door open to enter. "You can't go in." Zhu Meina stretched out her hand to block him. "Why?" Lu Yi asked Zhu Meina. He was Yan Huan's husband and Yan Huan was his wife. Why couldn't he see her? Why couldn't he see his wife.., Zhu Meina didn't know how to explain these things to Lu Yi. If they were to talk about it, it would probably be endless, and her mouth was so stupid that she couldn't say it out loud. What she wanted to know the most right now was how far Lu Yi would go with Yan Huan. Would he not abandon her in life and death? Would he not abandon her? Or would he just turn around and leave? From now on, it was irrelevant. "Will you not want her?" Zhu Meina raised her head and asked Lu Yi with concern. "She's my wife," Lu Yi's expression was very stiff, but it was not difficult to see the certainty in his eyes. Although his voice was faint, there were some things that could not be faded. "Even if something happened to her?" Zhu Meina asked again.

Chapter 1148: will destroy everything you have

"Yes," Lu Yi nodded. No matter what happened? He had a bad feeling in his heart. If something really happened, he didn't care. He just wanted to live happily. He just wanted to live happily. Zhu Meina suddenly really envied Yan Huan. It was a pity that she didn't have such good fortune. She only met some scumbags. Of course, that was also because she loved to give away vanity. She couldn't blame others. "What happened to her?" Lu Yi had already heard something from Zhu Meina's words. Zhu Meina opened her mouth, but she still didn't know how to open this product. She said that Yan Huan was addicted to drugs and even got aids. It wasn't her fault, but who would believe her? "Come with me." Zhu Meina turned around, not intending to stay in there any longer. Yan Huan didn't like others to enter, and she would respect Yan Huan. When Zhi was outside, she found a resting chair and sat down. Compared to the previous her, although it was not to the point of being reborn, it was still somewhat realistic and simple. Lu Yi also sat down, but his complexion was not too good. He could easily feel that the muscles in his body were a little tense and tense. "How is she now?" Lu Yi asked again. His short-sighted gaze had been fixed on the door the entire time, and there was an unbearably gloomy look in his dark eyes. It had been two months since they last met. Had she lost weight or turned dark? Had she suffered or suffered? Zhu Meina shook her head. "Not too good. She's asleep now. She Won't wake up until night." "Asleep?" Lu Yi looked at the sky. "She's asleep now?" "How could she be asleep now?" ? It was only noon, and she had to sleep until night. Even if Xunxun didn't sleep for the entire night, it was impossible for her to sleep without eating or drinking water the next day, let alone Yan Huan, who never liked to sleep in ... "She..." Zhu Meixun still couldn't open her mouth. Forget it. She gritted her teeth and decided to say it directly. There was no need to beat around the bush. It was meaningless. "You know about her disappearance, right?" She asked Lu Yi. "Yes," Lu Yi nodded. "She was injected with drugs, and now she has a big addiction." Zhu Meina looked at Lu Yi's face. It was obvious that Lu Yi's body suddenly tensed up, and his pair of black eyes instantly turned terrifying. At this moment, Shi Shuo seemed to have ignited a ball of ice-cold flame, it was clearly fire, but there was no warmth at all. Zhu Meina touched her arm. One side seemed to have been roasted by fire, while the other side seemed to have been frozen to death by ice. She had only felt this sense of familiarity from Lu Yi in her entire life. And now, she really admired Yan Huan for being able to live with such a terrifying man like Lu Yi, it was too much. "Is there more?" Lu Yi asked again. He was very calm, but Zhu Meina could not guess what was behind his calmness, nor could she predict it. Zhu Meina was stunned for a moment, then nodded her head again. There, there, there... she did not dare to say anymore. She held her hands on her legs. She probably never dreamed that one day she would be so close to the man she used to love the most, but she could not think of anything about him.., she even felt pity for him and his wife. She felt like she was going crazy. A woman with big breasts and no brain, who loved vanity, would have such a heart one day. Really, her conscience was spat out by the dog. "She..." Zhu Meina licked her dry lips. Some of the words she said hurt a little. "They injected her with the blood of an AIDS patient. She contracted... AIDS." After she finished speaking, she retracted her head so that Lu Yi wouldn't hit her later. However, nothing happened. Lu Yi didn't even move a muscle. Lu Yi stood up and turned around to leave. Zhu Meina felt a little sad and stifled in her heart. Yan Huan, men are all like this. When they get you, the so-called word love is very simple. One mouth can say it for a lifetime, but in the face of danger, the one who will be abandoned in the end will still be you. But when she raised her head again, she saw Lu Yi standing in front of her house. She was stunned, then hurriedly ran over and stretched out her hand to block him. "You can't go in." Lu Yi pursed his thin lips, revealing a hint of gloominess and displeasure. "She doesn't want to implicate you." Zhu Meina had lived with Yan Huan for so long, how could she not understand her? "She doesn't want to meet anyone else, so it's even more impossible for her to touch you." "I know." Lu Yi closed his eyes, concealing the pain in his eyes. How could he not know that Yan Huan would never be the kind of woman who would take revenge on society and others? Because she knew that revenge would come and go.., but the final sin would fall on him. "Then you still want to go in?" Zhu Meina clenched her hands. "She's already in a lot of pain. Can you just let her go?" "She's my wife." Lu Yi pushed Zhu Meina's hand away. "Even if she's not the Yan Huan of the past now?" "Yes." Lu Yi had already opened the door and walked forward. "Even if she's addicted to drugs now and is a drug addict?" "Yes." Lu Yi's footsteps did not stop. "Even if she has AIDS?" "Yes." Lu Yi still said the same words. He did not hesitate or retreat. "Lu Yi, you're the prosecutor," Zhu Meina reminded him with a cold face, "This is your last chance. You should know that if you're infected with these two things, all of your previous efforts will be in vain. All of your achievements will be lost because of this. You will not only lose your job, but also your reputation." "I know." Lu Yi's hand was already placed on the door handle. Inside was his wife, his most beloved wife, and the mother of his three children. No matter what she became, she was still his wife. He would not give up on her, even if she had a drug addiction, even if she had AIDS. He turned the door handle and walked in. Then, with a bang, he closed the door again. Zhu Meina, who was outside the door, suddenly felt like crying. She covered her face as she squatted on the ground and wailed loudly. However, she did not know why she was crying. who was she crying for. Inside, there was a simple and crude wooden bed with a plain-colored quilt on top. Under the quilt was a pale-faced woman. She was very thin, and there were obvious bruises under her eyes. This was Yan Huan. Yes, this was Yan Huan. No matter what she looked like, no matter how thin she was, Lu Yi could recognize her at a glance.

Chapter 1149: eat the white noodles

He walked over and squatted down as well. He carefully placed his hand on Yan Huan's forehead. Her body temperature was extremely low, and he could almost feel the sweat on her forehead, he pulled Yan Huan's arm out from under the blanket and saw that there was almost no flesh on her fingers. She was as thin as a chicken's claw, and her arm was almost crushed with just a pinch. Moreover, there seemed to be traces of needle marks on her arm. This was an injection given to her by someone else.

However, there was nothing new added to it. There was nothing new. It was clean and had grown back. It could be seen that she had been enduring these past few days with great difficulty. No matter how bitter it was, she was enduring it. He then placed Yan Huan's hand under the blanket and sat on the ground. At this moment, no one saw this man who did not care about his own life even if he was in a life and death situation, he cried in front of his wife who was riddled with holes. He covered his face with one hand as tears seeped out from the gaps between his fingers. It was silent, but he was also devastated. If he could.., could he bear all of this? This was not her sin. It was not something she could bear. She had already suffered for her entire life. It was enough. It was really enough. When Lu Yi came out, Zhu Meina was still sitting outside, staring blankly at the door. He walked over to Zhu Meina's side and stood beside her. "When will she wake up?" He asked Zhu Meina. Zhu Meina thought for a moment. "Last night wasn't too good. She committed two crimes. Today, it's probably around nine o'clock at night." "Is there any food?" Lu Yi asked again. Yan Huan was really too skinny. She was so skinny that it was terrifying. Did she eat properly. Zhu Meina shook her head and pointed to the kitchen. "I bought some vegetables. She'll cook noodles for me." However, as she said this, she felt her face burning. Because she was a woman, and a woman who couldn't cook. A woman who couldn't cook, was she still a woman? A woman who couldn't cook, and could still eat, was she still a woman? The answer was. Then how could she not be a woman? It was because this woman lived so unlike a woman. "I'm going out for a while," Lu Yi said and walked out. About half an hour later, he came back with a lot of packed dishes. "When she wakes up, give these to her to eat." Zhu Meina naturally drooled when she saw these dishes. It had been a long time since she had eaten such delicious dishes. How did they smell so good? She could not help but swallow her saliva. "You want to give us food?" She pointed at herself and then at Yan Huan. Lu Yi nodded. "What, is it wrong?" "No." Zhu Meina wanted to eat too, but she didn't dare to, "I don't have any money now. Tell me, where did I get such good food? She'll be suspicious. You better not know that you're here. Zhu Meina is warning Lu Yi with good intentions. Although I haven't spent much time with her and I don't really know her well, there's only one thing. She doesn't want to see you guys right now. In other words, she's hiding from you. If she finds out that you know that she's here and that she's addicted to drugs and that she's infected with AIDS, she'll definitely hide far away. At that time, not to mention you, I'll become a traitor. She won't even want me." Yan Huan's temper was quite fierce. Who knew if she would really run away, or if she would run away without making a sound? This time, he could find her so easily, but the next time would be very difficult "I know." Lu Yi looked at the dishes on the table. "Today, you have to think of a way to trick her." "Okay." Zhu Meina also wanted to eat, so she couldn't take these away. No matter what, she had to think of an excuse. And when Yan Huan woke up, it was indeed after nine in the evening. She had only fallen asleep at nine in the morning. Now, a full twelve hours had passed. It could be said that she had not eaten or eaten for a whole day, and her stomach was already full of hunger, moreover, she was so hungry that she almost did not have any strength left. She walked out, rolled up her sleeves, and prepared to cook some noodles. However, she discovered that Zhu Meina was lying on a table, staring blankly at the table full of dishes. "Where did you get it?" Yan Huan walked over and sat down as well. She picked up her chopsticks. She was famished, so she did not think too much about it. She just ate what she could eat. "I picked up 300 yuan on the road and bought it." When Zhu Mei saw that she had eaten, she picked up her chopsticks and picked up some vegetables for herself. She had been smelling the food and was so hungry that her stomach kept growling, but she didn't dare to eat, finally, she could use her chopsticks. She was starving to death. "Three hundred Yuan?" Yan Huan counted the dishes. "Your money is really valuable." "So many dishes are at least eight or nine hundred yuan, and you're still asking for three hundred yuan?"

Who are you lying to?" "Hehe..." Zhu Meina laughed dryly. "Don't you still have money to buy me vegetables?" The chopsticks in Yan Huan's hand paused slightly. "That's a month's worth of vegetables." "That's right." Zhu Meina was like a demon pouncing on her food, eating without stopping, "I've already eaten vegetables and tofu for a month. Can't you let me eat just because I helped you sacrifice my looks?" "You owe me a million." Yan Huan impolitely stabbed Zhu Meina in the heart. This was really.. Zhu Meina clutched her chest. This was really ruthless. Yan Huan ate his meal in small bites. In her eyes, he did not feel that the food was very delicious. Even if it was really eight or nine hundred yuan, so what? If he could fill his stomach, then what was the difference between it and noodles? "Eat white noodles for a month." Yan Huan ate some vegetables and did not eat any more. She then walked into her bedroom and took the clothes she changed out of yesterday to the bathroom to wash. Zhu Meina was dumbfounded. A month's worth of white noodles was equivalent to a month's worth of white noodles. There wasn't even a slice of green onion. Just thinking about it made her heart ache. No matter how the next month passed, it was all Lu Yi's fault. He made her eat a month's worth of white noodles. She took advantage of the time when Yan Huan was washing the clothes and hurriedly ran out. Sure enough, she saw Lu Yi's car still parked outside. He didn't leave. After she came out, Lu Yi also got out of the car. As expected, he didn't go back. Of course, he didn't fall asleep either. He was waiting. Zhu Meina's heart was actually quite sore. Why had she never met such a good man before. Actually, it didn't have to be this good. One-third was enough. "Are you awake?" Lu Yi asked Zhu Meina. "Does she suspect anything?"

Chapter 1150: He was willing to give up everything

"No, I'm lying. Don't worry, it won't be exposed." Zhu Meina had always loved to lie, so her ability to lie was quite high. Whether it was true or not, it was all up to her to tell the truth, even if it was fake, she could still make it sound true. There was one thing that she didn't manage to fool. "Why didn't you tell me back then? That table of dishes cost more than 800 yuan. I said I picked up 300 yuan, but it wasn't enough." "You're not from the Su Family?" Lu Yi frowned. "Could it be that you couldn't tell?" Zhu Meina's heel twitched. She couldn't possibly say that she was only in charge of eating in the past and had never paid for it, right? Later on, she took over the task of buying vegetables. Thinking that the vegetables weren't too expensive, she was stuffed to death with about 300 yuan, in the end, it turned out to be good. Eight or nine hundred Yuan wasn't enough to get rid of her. "I was the one who pasted in the money that Yan Huan gave me for the vegetables." "And then?" Lu Yi's eyes were once again fixed on the door. Actually, he wanted to go in, but he didn't dare. Just as Zhu Meina had said, he was afraid that Yan Huan was really afraid.., and that he would run to a place that he couldn't find.., if she was deliberately hiding, then how was he going to find her. "And then we'll eat white noodles next month." Zhu Meina thought of the white noodles tomorrow and felt her stomach turn sour. could she not eat white noodles? Stewed noodles was fine too. "That..." she discussed with Lu Yi, "Can you give me some money first? "Let me eat it outside so that I don't have to eat white noodles every day. You Don't know that Yan Huan will keep his word, so I don't dare to say anything. She's very good at making money, and her ability to choke people to death is even better." "No," Lu Yi rejected directly. "You're eating delicacies outside so that my huanhuan can eat white noodles?" He narrowed his eyes dangerously, causing Zhu Meina's heart to stop beating in fear. How could she be blamed for eating white noodles? If it weren't for him being nosy and insisting on buying a table full of dishes, she wouldn't have come up with such a lie, saying that she had used up all the money for the dishes, and wouldn't have caused the issue of eating white noodles in the future. Moreover, who said that Yan Huan had to eat white noodles? She had to eat it together with Yan Huan. Zhu Meina originally wanted to discuss it with Lu Yi, but when she saw that Lu Yi's face was ice-cold and could not be rejected, she immediately shut her mouth. "Alright, you don't have to say anymore. I understand." It seemed like Lu Yi did not say anything. All this time, her mouth was moving while Lu Yi was listening. Zhu Meina walked towards the house. She really felt that a person like Lu Yi was not someone that an ordinary woman could control. Perhaps only Yan Huan could tolerate his temper. It was only right that they would become husband and wife instead of other people. If the two of them did not become husband and wife, could it be that the two of them would infuriate the other person to death. What was she thinking back then? was she still able to fall in love with Lu Yi, or was she in love to death. How was this love? This was clearly blind. She opened the door and saw Yan Huan coming out of the bathroom with a basin in his hands. "What did you go out to do?" Yan Huan asked her suspiciously, "In the middle of the night, what did you go out to do? BASK in the Moon?" "I went to the grove." Zhu Meina kept the plates on the table. She could still eat for a few days, which meant that she could eat less white noodles for a few days. "What did you go to the grove for?" Yan Huan took his clothes to the balcony, but he was still a little suspicious. "You're in the bathroom." Zhu Meina put the dishes away. "I went to the small forest to find a tree and then went to fertilize it." Sure enough, after Zhu Meina said that, Yan Huan did not ask any more questions. Of course, he did not get anything out of her. In the kitchen, Zhu Meina lightly patted her chest and also let out a sigh of relief. How come she never knew that she was so eloquent? Could it be that her chest had shrunk, however, her IQ was high. She could actually follow Yan Huan's train of thought. One had to know that in the industry, other than Yan Huan's good acting skills and the title of 'Box Office Spirit Medicine', there were also others who had a very high eq. These were things that Zhu Meina had never had before. She was a big idiot. This was something that everyone knew. Could it be that Zhu Meina shook her head? She had really grown up and become smarter. That was right. If she didn't grow up, no matter how stupid she was, she might end up dying without a burial place in the end. After Yan Huan finished drying his clothes, he also went to rest. Recently, she had been very tired. It was almost as if she had not slept properly. Right now, she had to make good use of all her time to sleep. She also had to replenish her physical strength. Otherwise, who knew..., would her addiction to drugs start to kick in when she opened her eyes again. When she fell asleep, she did not know that the doorknob outside had moved. Then, a person walked in. It was none other than Lu Yi. He had opened his eyes and closed them, his heart was filled with longing..., he was always thinking about Lu Yi. However, the current her was no longer qualified to stand by his side. Therefore, she gave up everything. And by giving up on her, she could exchange for the safety of his children. She was willing to accept such a sacrifice. Lu Yi placed his hand on her forehead. He could even feel the sweat on her forehead. She did not sleep very well, but she had no intention of waking up. Zhu Meina had said that these drug addictions had tortured Yan Huan for a very long time. Therefore, whenever she fell asleep, she would not wake up. Initially, she had even scared Zhu Meina for a few nights, she had thought that Yan Huan would just fall asleep and die. In the end, when it was time to wake up, Yan Huan would automatically wake up. Therefore, Zhu Meina had long gotten used to Yan Huan sleeping for half a day. Just like that, Lu Yi knelt on the ground. He had always held Yan Huan's hand. She was addicted to drugs, so it was not scary. She was not scary even if she had AIDS. At worst, he would not be the prosecutor anymore. At worst, he did not want anything else, he only wanted her. He was willing to give up everything, just like how Yan Huan was willing to give up everything for herself. They had gone through life and death several times. Who could they be missing? Yes, who could they be missing. He quietly accompanied her. This was the first time he had seen her in so long. However, how did she turn her into this again? She was so skinny that she didn't even have the slightest bit of flesh on her body. She was so thin that he couldn't do anything about it. Suddenly, Yan Huan clenched his fingers tightly, and she seemed to be in a bad mood. She began to have a strong sense of irritation. Her body began to twitch uneasily. "Huanhuan, Huanhuan..." Lu Yi quickly pressed on her shoulder to prevent her from hurting herself. The door outside was pushed open with a bang. Zhu Meina ran in with a rope.
