

Chapter 1181:

Lu Yi patted his son on the head. "Go to sleep. We're home." Little Lu Guang rubbed his eyes again and used his little hand to grab his father's clothes. He was already asleep. Of course, he was too young to know that his saliva had also dripped onto his father's shoulder. Lu Yi carried Lu Guang back. Actually, the three children were all sleepy. Lu Qi rubbed her eyes and was also listless. She found that they were in good spirits and could still talk to her great-grandfather with a baby voice, in fact, she sometimes spoke incoherently, but her great-grandfather ate it. He was always smiling. Lu Jin, who was watching from the side, twitched his mouth from time to time. If it was him, he would be willing too. Ye Shuyun carried Lu Qi and took him to bed. Lu Qi and Lu Guang's schedules were very similar. One slept, the other did the same. One was about to wake up, and the other would definitely not sleep again. They were twins. As for xunxun, it was just a small accident. He was the same age as his two brothers, but he was the most favored child in the family. After settling the two children down, Ye Shuyun took care of the two children inside. When Lu Yi came out, xunxun was looking around. When he saw his father, he stretched out his small hand and let his father hug him. "Grandpa, carry her." Lu Jin found an opportunity and carried his little granddaughter over. Xun Xun blinked and gnawed on her little finger. Then, she tilted her head and thought, "HMM, grandpa can do it too." Lu Jin took great pains to carry his granddaughter and wanted to develop a relationship with her. In the end, he wanted to cry because Xun Xun was already sucking on her little finger and falling asleep. Her little face was pink from sleeping. She had no intention of waking up at all. Old Master Lu looked down on his son. If Xun Xun had not wanted to sleep, did he think that he would be able to carry her away so easily? As long as he was around, if Lu Jin wanted to carry his granddaughter, he would have to queue up first. The father and son stared at each other. However, they still knew that Xun Xun was asleep, so they did not make a loud noise. They were just using their eyes to compete. Lu Yi looked at the watch on his wrist and opened the door. He still had to go back to the detention center. He had to go back to accompany Yan Huan. Yan Huan was the only one there, so he was not at ease. When he sat in the car, his phone rang. He turned on his phone, grabbed the steering wheel, and drove away in his black clothes. "Cousin, can I stay at your place for a few days?" Ye Xinyu leaned on the table. He really didn't want to go home. "My old man is here." Lu Jin continued to drive forward. It wasn't a matter of a day or two for the two families to fall into such a mess. Since the addition of Sun Yuhan, things hadn't been too good. Until now.., actually, it could be said that water and fire were incompatible, especially after Sun Yuhan fell and broke her leg. The two families had not been in contact for a long time. Except for the last time when Ye Rong's ashes returned and Ye Shuyun went there once.., she had never set foot in the Ye family's place again. As for ye Xinyu, his relationship with the Lu family had always been very good. However, grandfather Lu did not like ye Xinyu very much. He now hated the dark house. As long as it was someone with the surname Ye, they were not good people in his place, it was also not a good thing. "You can stay at my place." Lu Yi thought of a place for ye Xinyu. "I'm staying in the residence garden now. The place I used to stay in is not too old." And now, he had already decided to bring Yan Huan to stay in the residence garden. He would not let her go anywhere else. The residence garden was the safest place. It was also a big enough place to cultivate one's body and mind, he would just stay there. It would be more natural. "That works too." Ye Xinyu was actually a little disappointed. He missed his eldest aunt and also his three children. He wanted to live with his eldest aunt. He also wanted to see his three children every day. But once he heard that old master Lu was here, he did not dare to. He was afraid of Old Master Lu as if he was afraid of his grandfather. Then, cousin, I'll hang up first. Ye Xinyu hung up the phone. No matter what, he felt that he was homeless now. The Ye family was no longer the ye family of the past. Although he and Ye Chuji moved out, it was cold and he didn't really want to live there, he wasn't familiar with the new servants there either. The dishes weren't very delicious, so he didn't feel at home. He took his phone over. He was going to play a game for a while, but when he opened his favorite game, he didn't have any desire to play. He threw his phone to the side, feeling bored. "What's Wrong?" At this time, a hand reached over and picked up his phone, putting it in a safe place, "You've dropped three phones this month. Ye Xinyu, I know your ye family is rich, but you can't spend money like this, right?" Ye Xinyu raised his head and rolled his eyes at his good friends. They had been classmates for more than ten years. How could Wang Bin not know about his family's matters? Besides, during the earthquake in Ning city this time.., only the two of them had escaped. The other students had also met with misfortune, so it could be said that they had a life-and-death friendship between them. And Ye Xinyu had never held anything back in front of this Wang Bin. People really needed such a friend. They could tell him what they could and couldn't say, and he could keep his mouth shut, of course, Wang Bin was such a person who could make him pour out his grievances. Ye Xinyu thought of the situation in his own family and then pursed his lips in disdain. "What's so good about the ye family? My grandfather was ruined by a granddaughter. He doesn't even have a bit of morality. I'm afraid that if I offend that woman one day, my grandfather will kill me too." How could there be such an operation? The king shed really didn't believe it. "Ye Xinyu, you're my biological grandson. Your grandfather wouldn't be so ruthless. Just because of a granddaughter, he drove your biological grandson to death?" "What do you think?" Ye Xinyu rolled his eyes, "Now, at my grandfather's place, I picked him up. He went crazy because of that granddaughter. Why would he care about my biological grandson? He could have kicked a two-year-old child and injured him because of that biological granddaughter. Tell me, is this still a human thing? He's such a young child. Ye Xinyu thought of the injury on Xunxun's head at that time. Now, his heart was clutching. Of course, he couldn't raise his head. So what? How could an adult fight with a child around the age of one or two?" Fortunately, old master Lu still did not know about that matter. Otherwise, he would definitely beat up the ye family. At that time, he would see how his grandfather would deal with it.

Chapter 1182: Was there a mistake

When Wang Bin heard this, he was in disbelief. He placed his hand on ye Xinyu's shoulder and shook it hard. If he put it that way, wouldn't he be in danger. He knew some things about the ye family. He had been good friends with ye Xinyu for more than ten years. He knew almost everything about their families. Even the autographed photos of so many celebrities in his hands were obtained by Ye Xinyu, he was a fan of Yan Huan's films, but Yan Huan was ye Xinyu's cousin-in-law. Therefore, it was relatively easy for him to get Yan Huan's autograph. Not to mention autographs, he even had several group photos, which were still stored in his phone. As for the newly-found Sun Yuhan of the Ye family, perhaps it was because ye Xinyu complained too much, so he did not have a good impression of her from the beginning. In addition, Sun Yulu later entered the entertainment industry. Really.., he had really never seen such an ugly actress. However, she had to act in all sorts of female lead roles. Her acting skills were terrible to the point of making one's hair stand on end. However, she had a strong backer and her family was also rich.., a large amount of money could be used to invest. When he heard from ye Xinyu that Sun Yuhan had accidentally fallen off from Wei Ya while filming, she fell on her leg. Of course, this was insider news, and no one else knew about it, he only knew that Sun Yuhan had been injured. As for what kind of injury she had suffered, and the extent of her injury, it was probably not as much as his news. His news came from ye Xinyu. Naturally, it was 100% true, and also 100% inside information, at that time, he still had bad intentions. He finally did not have to look at Sun Yuhan's ugly face every day. He had finally gotten a good drama, and he had been looking forward to it for a long time. In the end, it turned out to be good. The female lead, Sun Yuhan., he completely lost the urge to watch it. Now, his eyes could finally rest for a while. But now, he was really worried for his good friend. "It's better for you to go home less in the future. As the saying goes, if you can't afford to offend someone, can you not hide?" Adding an old man in the middle was indeed not easy to handle. Moreover, the Ye family's population was very thin. Even ye Xinyu's father could not do anything to Old Man Ye. In the end, he could only compromise again and again, not to mention this junior, ye Xinyu. Ye Xinyu himself had always stayed in school. Although he was from a rich family, his personality was very simple. His brain was also simple. He really was not a match for that scheming B * Tch, Sun Yuhan, he was afraid that ye Xinyu would be at a disadvantage and get beaten up by his grandfather. If his grandfather was really like what ye Xinyu said, who knew what would happen to Ye Xinyu? "I know." Ye Xinyu took his finger and started playing with it with one hand. "So I've made a deal with my cousin. I'll stay at his place. His place is close to the city, so it's convenient for me to eat anything. On the contrary, I won't go back to the Ye family, and I won't look at that woman's ugly face. One look at her makes me nauseous. Two looks make me unable to eat. Three looks make me unable to eat for a few days. Four looks make me want to commit suicide. Maybe when I Come Back, you won't even recognize me, and I'll be so thin." He sucked at his face. His expression was a little comical and laughable. Other than his beautiful face, he had to grow a small mustache to make himself look older, however, no matter how old he was, he could not hide the charm on his face. It was a pity not to be a woman. Wang bin nodded continuously and agreed with ye Xinyu. As he said, he could not afford to offend him, but he had to hide. Anyway, it was best not to have any direct conflict. When Sun Yuhan married in the future., wouldn't everything be fine? No, Sun Yuhan had already married once, but in the end, she still stayed in the Ye family. Now, he really hoped that there was a master who could subdue that Witch, Sun Yuhan. How could she harm others., she harmed this and that. Even ye Xinyu, that poor innocent young man, couldn't return to his family now. He used to be such a bright young man, but now he was almost a middle-aged uncle. Look at this little face. It was not very good. In an instant, he went from a bright young man to a greasy and bearded uncle. He shook his head. Suddenly, an idea flashed through his mind. He also thought of something. Of course, he only mentioned it casually and did not take it seriously. "Do you think you are mistaken? That Sun Yuhan is not your grandfather's granddaughter, nor is she your cousin's?" "How could it be wrong?" Ye Xinyu didn't even suspect it. Not only him, but everyone in the Ye family didn't suspect it either. First of all, it wasn't that she took the token, or that she knew that her aunt's hair was left at home, this was something only the Ye family knew. No, even he didn't know, but Sun Yuhan knew. Also, it was D, N, A. she wouldn't lie. The inspection report was still in the Ye family, that was the real evidence. It also proved that Sun Yuhan was his aunt's daughter and his grandfather's biological granddaughter. She was also his cousin that he didn't like at all and didn't want to acknowledge. And even if he no longer didn't like her and didn't want to acknowledge her, he couldn't deny Sun Yuhan's identity. Indeed, there was nothing wrong. Wang bin touched his chin. "There is nothing impossible in this world. Maybe she found out something by chance and replaced someone else?" "Your imagination is really rich." Ye Xinyu rolled his eyes at Wang Bin again. "How can there be such a coincidence?" "Who said there isn't?" Wang bin stared straight at ye Xinyu's face. "Tell me, is your Aunt Ugly?" "Your aunt is the ugly one." Ye Xinyu directly kicked out. In the end, he didn't kick properly and his slippers flew away.

He even kicked them onto the dining table at the side. "I don't have an aunt." Wang bin glanced at the table. "If you have the ability, why don't you kick another one?" Ye Xinyu directly raised his foot, and with a slap, the other shoe was buckled on the dining table, Wang Bin was left dumbfounded. Then, he wiped the sweat off his face. In the future, he didn't need to eat at this table anymore. He could just change it to a shoe-drying platform. The shoe was already on the table, so how could he still dare to eat? "Hey, I'm serious." Wang Bin hadn't finished speaking. He hurriedly sat down next to Ye Xinyu. The two brothers also wrapped their arms around Ye Xinyu's shoulders. Of course, they shouldn't think that their relationship was abnormal, they were good friends who could not be more normal. Although Ye Xinyu was very beautiful, he was still a man. Moreover, he was no longer beautiful. He was already a greasy uncle. His looks had really dropped, but he was not as popular as before.

Chapter 1183: was checked again

Wang bin asked his good friend again. "Let's be honest. What does your aunt look like?" "Didn't you meet my aunt?" Ye Xinyu asked Wang Bin in return. "That's different." Wang bin resisted the urge to roll his eyes. "Your aunt wasn't born by your father. She looks good, but I don't know whose father gave birth to her?" "Then didn't you meet my father?" Ye Xinyu didn't mention Ye Shuyun, but Ye Chuji. Yes, Ye Shuyun was raised, not a biological daughter, but Ye Chuji was a biological father. "If your aunt grew up like your father, she wouldn't look good either." Wang bin imagined Ye Chuji's current appearance in his mind. With some hair and a slimmer p, he had a square face, single eyelids, and a high nose bridge, on a man, he looked like the male lead in a Korean drama. Although he had a single eyelid, he had a different flavor. Not to mention when he was young, even now, he was still a very handsome middle-aged uncle, moreover, it could be seen that when Ye Chuji was young, he must have been very handsome. However, on a woman, he would not look good. When he turned around, he saw Ye Xinyu pointing at his face. If he washed his face now and shaved off his beard, he would be a national beauty. However, even if he grew a beard and did not wash his face for a few days, it would only reduce the impression that others had of his face, however, he had been with Ye Xinyu for many years. How could he not look like him? And what was the use of his actions referring to himself? "Didn't you say that you look like your mother?" Wang bin tried his best to hold it in. "That's true." Ye Xinyu put his face down. "I've seen pictures of my mother. She looks just like my mother. They're exactly the same." Girls looked more like their mothers, but he was a man, however, she looked like her mother since she was young. She had inherited his mother's beautiful face perfectly. When his mother was young, she was a famous beauty. Otherwise, with his father Ye Chuji's arrogant personality..., how could he have taken a liking to his mother? Moreover, he had never thought of marrying her again and finding him a stepmother. If he was a girl, he must have grown up under the care of the whole family. However, he was a boy. He had grown up under the fists of the whole family since he was young. He was afraid that his mother would grow up, but his mother..., he felt that he was quite a man. Wang bin kept nodding. He completely believed him. "Then..." he changed the topic to Ye Xinyu's aunt. "Is your aunt good-looking or not?" "She is good-looking." Ye Xinyu did not doubt his aunt's looks at all. "My grandmother was beautiful when she was young. Of course, my aunt is good-looking. Everyone says so." "Didn't you say that you've never seen her before?" Wang bin hit Ye Xinyu. Yes, no matter how good-looking she was, it wasn't like he had never seen her before. Even if she said that she was as good-looking as a fairy, without physical evidence, who would believe her? "My grandfather was afraid of seeing things and thinking about them, so he burned all the photos." Ye Xinyu leaned on the table. "So, the aunt in my memory is my aunt. As for that little aunt, I wasn't born and she had already disappeared. So, how would I know what she looks like?” Oh right, I remember now Ye Xinyu suddenly sat up. “I heard my aunt say that my little aunt looks like a person.” “Who?” Wang Bin’s eyes lit up. “It’s good to have a comparison. Who does she look like? I’ll make a good comparison.” “My aunt told Aunt Lei that my aunt looks like Xun Xun when she was young. Ye Xinyu propped up his chin. No, she doesn’t look like her anymore because Xun Xun started to look like my cousin-in-law.” “The one from the Lu Family?” Wang bin listened to ye Xinyu Xun and Xun Xun shout all day long. Of course, he had never seen that Xun Xun before. The Lu family protected those children and ordinary people could not see her, moreover, they had to specially visit her. “That’s right.” Ye Xinyu nodded. “Xun Xun looked delicate when she was young and had two dimples. Some of them look like my aunt.” “She’s just as delicate now.” Wang bin wanted to say it, but in the end, he endured it. He thought about it again, and his thoughts were also twisted a few times. According to what you said, your missing aunt shouldn’t be ugly. Of course, ye Xinyu was very confident in the appearance of his missing aunt. Sun Yuhan was Sun Yuhan, and his aunt was his aunt. It was different. Sun Yuhan was a person with another surname, but his missing aunt was a person with the surname Ye. “Then you say...” Wang bin Said again, “What I guessed just now is not impossible. If your aunt is really that good-looking, her daughter should be like Yan Huan. That way, there won’t be any mistakes.” “That Sun Yuhan looks like that. To be honest, no matter how you look at her, she looks a little petty. She doesn’t look like a member of the Ye family.” There was a kind of bearing on the members of the Ye family, but Sun Yuhan did not. Of course, it couldn’t be ruled out that it was caused by the genes of the Sun family, “She looks like her father.” Ye Xinyu curled his lips. “She just looks ugly and doesn’t look like a member of the Ye family.” “But it can’t be that different, right?” Wang bin also felt that it was strange, so ye Xinyu, including the members of the Ye family, didn’t suspect anything. “That...” then, he moved closer to ye Xinyu and whispered to him, “Do you want to try again and check again?” “What should I check?” Ye Xinyu raised his head and rolled his eyes at Wang Bin. “My father has already checked. If it’s not right, can he still admit it now?” “I don’t mean that.” Wang Bin didn’t let ye Xinyu check those things, “These external things can be prepared in advance. Unless there’s a mistake, otherwise, even if you check again, the result will still be the same.” “I mean...” he explained word by word, “You can steal some of your aunt’s hair and do a D, N, and a surveillance again. This is the most intuitive, and there’s no need to investigate any clues. We’re not Sherlock Holmes, and others can’t find out. With our little tricks, of course, it’s impossible to find out.” “Do we still need to look into it?” Ye Xinyu did not feel the need to look into it. He had already looked into it once, and it was his father who had gone personally. “Go and look into it once. Won’t you give up if you look into it? Didn’t you always say how your aunt could give birth to such a daughter? “If the results are the same as before, then it can only be said that this is a genetic mutation. The male’s genes are too strong, and he defeated all the genes in our family. There’s nothing you can do about it. You can only accept your fate.” Wang bin continued, “One strand of hair is enough. It’s just spending some time. It saves you from having doubts every day, but you can’t doubt it.” “That’s true...”

Chapter 1184: came back secretly

Ye Xinyu thought about it and agreed. If the investigation this time revealed that Sun Yuhan was ye Rong’s daughter, then he wouldn’t say anything more about how his aunt gave birth to such an ugly daughter, it didn’t mean much. In any case, only his father had seen the results of the previous examination. He hadn’t seen it yet. He just wanted to see it with his own eyes. It was the hair that his aunt left at home, which was kept by his grandfather, if his grandfather was at home, he did not dare to move. Of course, he did not dare to ask for it openly. His grandfather would definitely glare at him to death. However, in the end, it was Wang Bin who reminded him. "Stupid. You Don't dare to take it. Don't you know how to steal it?" Steal one. Ye Jianguo could not stay at home every day. He had to go out anyway. When he went out, he secretly took out a strand of hair. It was also done without anyone knowing. "Yeah, why didn't I think of that?" Ye Xinyu slapped his thigh. Yes, that's right. He immediately bought a plane ticket and went home. Then, he did it without anyone knowing. Ye Xinyu had never been a person who only knew how to talk. Not only did he have to talk, he also had to do it. He was supposed to go back five days later, but he couldn't wait any longer. He changed his schedule and bought a ticket for that night. By midnight the next day, he was back in Hai City. "Why Are You Back?" Lu Yi gently rubbed his forehead. He had been sleeping well, but he was woken up by the sound of a phone call. Even Yan Huan was woken up. Fortunately, Yan Huan was a little tired recently, he turned over and went back to sleep. He didn't even ask who was calling. Lu Yi picked up his phone and only then did he know that ye Xinyu was back. This damn kid actually came back in the middle of the night and didn't tell anyone. But now, he was fine. He was frozen like a dog in the airport, shivering from time to time. When he saw Lu Yi's car., only then did he heave a sigh of relief. "I'm fine at the school. They're all gone." Ye Xinyu lowered his head and rubbed his hands from time to time. It was also a lie. Anyway, no one knew whether it was true or not. It was just that he left in a hurry., he forgot about the time difference between that place and Hai City. It was as if spring had passed into winter in an instant, not turning him into a dog. Lu Yi passed his coat to him. "Put it on." "Thank you, Cousin." Ye Xinyu quickly put the coat on himself. He felt comfortable all of a sudden. It was finally winter. The car stopped after one round of driving. Lu Yi got out of the car and took ye Xinyu's suitcase out from the trunk of the car. Then, he brought him to his house. He opened the door and let ye Xinyu in. There would be people coming over to clean the place every few days, so there was no need to pack anything special. "I'm not staying here now. You can choose any room you want." Ye Xinyu dared not be polite. Why would his own brother be so polite? Although the word 'brother' had a watch in front of it, people always said that it was three thousand miles long, but they did not know how to do that. He did not choose the master bedroom, but chose a guest bedroom and threw all his things in. Lu Yi knew that ye Xinyu was coming over, so he had people clean up the house in advance. There was a complete set inside. Ye Xinyu opened the cabinet, but there was nothing inside. He took out all the things in his suitcase and put his clothes in the cabinet. As for Lu Yi, he had already left. He still had to go to work the next day and was forcefully woken up by Ye Xinyu. However, ye Xinyu couldn't do anything about it. He had to do something this time and he couldn't let others know, his father couldn't tell, and his grandfather couldn't tell either, so, he could only trouble Lu Yi. After hanging up his clothes, he yawned. He didn't even take a shower. He laid on the bed and pulled up the blanket, ready to sleep. He slept really well this time and didn't move for almost the entire night, of course, he did not even dream. It was not until the next day that he woke up around eleven o'clock. He calculated ye Jianguo's whereabouts. His grandfather now had to bring Sun Yuhan to the hospital for rehabilitation every three days. When he went out in the morning, he would only come back in the afternoon. Therefore, this was when he made his move. He had a lot of time to find what he wanted. The premise was that he had to calculate the time before he could succeed. Of course, he had to take a certain risk. If his grandfather found out, he might beat him up again. This was a small matter, but the big thing was that he wouldn't have a second chance to prove anything. In fact, she was still a little hesitant when she had the time. Should she do this? Should she take this risk. Suddenly, he slapped his own face "Ye Xinyu, can you be a good-for-nothing? Don't forget that decisive prosecutor Lu, your cousin. No matter what, you guys grew up together. No matter how bad his abilities are, you can still learn a few points." "You're not a woman. What are you hesitating for? You even said you didn't look like a woman. Are you still a man now?” “The ye family lost out because they conquered the world on horseback moon. Your grandfather also lost out because he looked down on you. And that Sun Yuhan, she looks down on you with her nostrils every day.” “Looks down on me?” He waited for him to take two scallions and stick them into that woman’s nostrils. That woman was inferior to others in other aspects, but her nostrils were bigger than others. He stood up and stretched his back before walking out to buy some food for himself. Today, his grandfather and Sun Yu were at home, and the next day, it would be time for him to make a move. Of course, only Lu Yi knew that Lu Yi was not a nosy person. Of course, he didn’t say much and wouldn’t go around announcing things. He might have forgotten about his return. “Hello, Dad. En, it’s me.” Ye Xinyu was chewing on a bun in one hand and was also on the phone with Ye Chuji, “When are you coming back? School will be on holiday in ten days. There’s a topic here, and I might have to go back a little later at night. How are things on Your Side?” And the side he was asking about was naturally the ye family’s side. Now that both father and son had moved out, if they didn’t move out, what would happen? Did they still want others to point at their noses and curse? Ye Xinyu took another bite of the steamed bun. As he listened to Ye Chuji’s answer on the phone, the corners of his mouth could not help but curl up. Very good. Just as he had predicted when he returned, grandfather was indeed going out the day after tomorrow. Just like that, he waited for two days. During these two days, he was trembling with fear and did not sleep well. It was as if something was hanging over his heart. There was an indescribable nervousness, and of course, there was also anticipation.

Chapter 1185: was stolen

This was the most daring thing he had done since he was born. If Wang Bin had not reminded him, he would not have thought of such a thing, if he had succeeded in the end and the second test report was the same as the first, then they would not have said anything. But if it was the other way around, then Sun Yuhan, this disgusting woman, he would definitely not let her off, he would personally throw her into prison and let her spend the rest of her life in prison. This was a serious crime of fraud. Even if she spent the rest of her life in prison, it would not be enough. Of course, he had to personally give her a few big slaps. He had to help himself, and his father took revenge. Not to mention that he did not hit women, he treated himself as a woman. So what if he hit women? On the third day, he could finally take action. Ye Xinyu was not stupid. When he went, he had already asked the servants of the Ye family. Of course, it was also an excuse to send the servants away. He said that he would come back soon and ask the servants to help her buy some things, and if he bought all those things, it would take a few hours. With a click, he had already opened the door and walked in. This was his home, the home he had grown up in. Even if he had not come back for more than a year, he still knew what the structure of this home was like, he was still very clear about it. As expected, there was no one inside. The direction the hour hand was pointing at was around nine o’clock. He had three hours. If everything went smoothly, he would be able to return in ten minutes at most. He first went to ye Jianguo’s room and then began to search in the drawer. However, after searching for a long time, he still could not find the courage to tie his hair. Soon after, even his forehead began to break out in cold sweat, at this time, almost an hour had passed, but he still had no progress. What he was afraid of now was that ye Jianguo would come back early. If that was really the case, what should he do? He thought about where he could hide. At the very least, he had to make arrangements for his escape route. However, there was really no place here. Other than hiding under the bed, he really took the time to crawl under the bed. The result was good.., he could fit under the bed. He hid under the bed and squatted like a puppy. Fortunately, ye Jianguo was old and had always been sleeping on a wooden bed. The space under the bed was very big. Otherwise, he would have been replaced with another., even if he shrunk himself, it was impossible for him to crawl under the bed. It was also because he had a place to hide. Therefore, he was not so nervous now. When he was about to come out, he found something., there was a small wooden box under the bed. This... Ye Xinyu hurriedly climbed out from under the bed and carried the small wooden box out. He squatted on the ground and opened the small wooden box. With a click, there were small cloth bags inside. He took out the cloth bag. Ye Xinyu, it was his name on it He opened the cloth bag. When he opened it, there was a small strand of hair. This should be his fetal hair. He took out another one. It was ye Chuji's. This was his father's. The hair inside was also from the first floor. It was very soft and very black. He did not expect that his father's fetal hair from back then was also left behind. The Ye family had always had a tradition that men kept their fetal hair while women kept their hair. It was also because of this strand of hair that they were able to find Sun Yuhan. It was probably because of this strand of hair that they uncovered a scam. He rummaged through it and finally found a cloth bag with the words 'Ye Rong' written on it. This was it. Ye Xinyu hurriedly opened the cloth bag and took out the strand of hair from inside. Then, he carefully took out one or two strands and placed them in the small box that he always carried with him, only then did he put the cloth bag back. Then, he carefully put it back. After he succeeded, he walked out. Of course, he still had to look for Sun Yuhan's hair. Then, he walked into Sun Yuhan's room. Fortunately, the room was not locked. Otherwise., he would have to think of another way. However, after he entered, he could not help but curl his lips. Just like a nouveau riche, the room was full of luxury goods and a pile of gold, silver, and jewelry. If this Sun Yuhan was really a liar., then he really did not know where she got such a big face from. She dared to use someone else's grandfather as her grandfather and brazenly use someone else's identity to live someone else's life Ye Xinyu began to look down. He had lost all his hair, not to mention a woman with such long hair. Yes, he found it. He pulled out a strand of hair from the dressing table. This was Sun Yuhan's hair. No outsiders would come to the ye family, and the servants here didn't have such long hair, so this should be Sun Yuhan's hair. He put the hair in the box again, but in the end, he still felt a little worried. What if someone really came to look for Sun Yuhan, and this happened to belong to her. He took out the hair again and threw it on the ground in disgust. Anyway, he came here for his aunt's hair. He didn't think that he could get Sun Yuhan's hair. Sun Yuhan's hair was not simple. He touched the small box in his pocket again, then turned around and walked out. In order to be safe, he was going to take Sun Yuhan's hair personally. He came over without anyone knowing. Even if he went back without anyone knowing, of course, he didn't tell anyone. He had already returned to Hai City. When he returned to Lu Yi's place, he took out the small box in his pocket. Inside the small box were two strands of hair. Although they were very thin and not long, at this moment, they felt heavy. He carefully put the small box away and ate and drank whenever he could. If it wasn't because it was the anniversary of his grandmother's death, he wouldn't have come back. Even if he did, he wouldn't have gone to the Ye family. "Don't pull your face so long." Ye Chuji glared at his son. "It's as long as a horse's face. No one likes it." "Aren't you the same?" Ye Xinyu also glanced at his father. From the moment they walked towards the ye family, his father's face had already been pulled down. He didn't even have the slightest bit of a smile. "Cut the crap." Ye Chuji really wanted to kick his son's butt, "It'll be over soon. Ignore that woman. We'll leave after we've seen your grandfather." "Grandpa? He might not welcome me?" Ye Xinyu snorted. He was a little disappointed. It was not the first time. "No matter what, he's still our grandpa. Don't let others laugh at us." Ye Chuji looked at the time. You only have to endure for one day. You can go back tomorrow. "I got it." Ye Xinyu dragged out his last syllable. If it was not for Grandma's sake, he would not have come back. Of course, he would also give Grandpa some face for Grandma's sake. Otherwise., he turned around and left.

Chapter 1186: was really not the case

When the time came, there were only a few people in the Ye family. Ye Shuyun and Lu Yi did not come at all because as long as Sun Yuhan was a scourge, it was impossible for ye Shuyun and Lu Yi to appear. This year was the coldest anniversary of Grandma Ye's death. However, for Ye Jianguo, he felt that this was a complete victory because his daughter and granddaughter had been found. His family was finally., complete. Sun Yuhan sat in her wheelchair and ignored everyone. Her ugly appearance really disgusted ye Xinyu. He didn't even want to look at her. However., he noticed that Sun Yuhan's hair was stuck on the cabinet. She wasn't too happy and pulled her hair out. He also saw that there were a few broken strands of hair on it. He walked over to the sofa, then, without leaving a trace, he took the few broken hairs in his hand. The entire ye family was deserted. There was only the smell of incense. From time to time, it was locked in everyone's breath. As the smoke rose, it was still the separation of the family. As long as there was one person, then these few hearts would not be able to be united. and the hearts would always leave. After ye Xinyu returned, he placed the few strands of hair that he had packed in the box. Of course, he did not look for he yibin. If the outcome of this matter was the opposite, then he would have made a great contribution, however, if the truth was proven that Sun Yuhan was his aunt's daughter, and the extra interest would cause people to feel disgusted at any moment. Therefore, he directly spent money to take these samples and make his own determination. Of course, he didn't use his real name, and even he himself was disguised. Everyone thought that he had gone back to school, and even Lu Yi thought so, because Lu Yi hadn't come back for a long time. He hadn't even shown his face, but even if he knew., he would not ask ye Xinyu whether he stayed or left. And Ye Xinyu could stay as long as he wanted. These few days, ye Xinyu had been waiting anxiously. He did not even dare to go out. He had been living on instant noodles When Wang Bin found out, he laughed until his stomach hurt. "Ye Xinyu, are you stupid?" "What are you stupid for?" Ye Xinyu looked at the bowl of lonely instant noodles on the table. His heart was sad. What would he eat if he didn't eat instant noodles? "I don't know how to cook. He doesn't know anything. He's just an idiot in the kitchen. He can't even cook an egg. How could he cook for himself?" He only knew how to cook instant noodles. What if he didn't eat instant noodles? Would he starve to death? "You're really quite stupid." Wang bin also rudely insulted his good friend. "Isn't there a thing called a cell phone in this world? With a cell phone, don't you know there's a thing called take-out?" Take-out? Ye Xinyu's eyes lit up. Yes, how could he forget about this? Wasn't there take-out? Yes, wasn't there take-out? As long as he had a cell phone, what could he not eat? He directly threw aside the noodles that had not been prepared and did not want to look at them anymore. He had been eating instant noodles for the past few days and felt like vomiting. As long as there was something else to eat, he would never eat instant noodles again. He quickly took out his phone and began to order takeout. Regardless of whether he could finish it or not, he ordered a large amount of food for himself. When all the takeout he ordered were delivered, he was so happy that he wanted to jump up. This was the dish from his favorite restaurant. There were also sweet and sour steaks, spicy fish, and every dish was delicious, he liked every dish. He ate a beautiful meal and really felt that the food was too delicious. The rest of his life was much better. Otherwise, if he ate instant noodles for a few more days., he was really afraid that he would be disgusted when he saw instant noodles in the future. After about three days, he finally waited for his inspection report to come out. He just took out the inspection report and opened it. Suddenly, he was stunned. He did not know whether to laugh or cry. "Wang Bin, what do you think this face is made of? You really guessed it right." Sure enough, Sun Yuhan's report this time was completely different from the one his father had received last time. The two of them had no relationship at all. There was no relationship at all. Sun Yuhan was not related to his family by blood at all, she was not ye Rong's woman. At this moment, he recalled that Sun Yuhan had been lying to his family all this while. A fire that could not be extinguished burned in his heart. Without thinking, he immediately took a taxi and prepared to return to the ye family, he wanted to expose that woman's disgusting appearance in front of everyone. He wanted to see how this woman would continue to be proud of him and pretend for him. Pretend, pretend. If she could continue to pretend, then he, Ye Xinyu, would use his head as a stool for her to sit on. With a bang, he directly pushed open the door. Sun Yuhan, who was sitting on the sofa and watching TV, saw ye Xinyu's appearance and coldly curled her lips. "Your grandfather isn't here. If you want to look for him, come back tomorrow." Ye Xinyu snorted coldly. What? His family? When was he going to come back? Did he need to ask her, this imposter. He strode over and sat directly in front of Sun Yu, the cripple. Sun Yuhan took the orange on the table and pinched it a few times in her palm. Then, she used her fingers to peel off the orange peel and took out a slice to put in her mouth. Her eyes were also glued to the television, she was too lazy to even look at ye Xinyu. The TV was showing her own TV series. She felt that her performance was not bad. Whether it was in terms of looks, temperament, or acting skills, she surpassed many people. Yes, she felt very good about herself, however, it was not unknown that in everyone's eyes, This TV series had lost its ratings because of an extremely ugly female lead. Sun Yuhan peeled another slice of orange and stuffed it into her mouth. Her lipstick was also smeared on the orange. No one knew how she could still eat it. Ye Xinyu suddenly laughed coldly. "Sun Yuhan, tell me, who gave you such a big face to sit on my territory and eat my food? Don't you have any shame or face at all?" Sun Yuhan threw the orange in her hand on the table. "Your aunt gave it to me." Sun Yuhan took her phone and swiped it gently. Whether you admit it or not, I'm still a member of the Ye family. If you have it, I'll have it. "Really?" Ye Xinyu was now interested in playing with people. He wanted to know if she could still laugh when the inspection report was placed in front of Sun Yuhan. Yes, laugh, laugh, laugh again. If she didn't laugh now, how could she laugh in the future.

Chapter 1187: liar

Sun Yuhan continued to play with her phone. In any case, it was not the first time that ye Xinyu was rendered speechless by her. And every time she saw ye Xinyu suffer a setback, she felt especially happy in her heart. And the person she hated the most, other than Yan Huan, was this ye Xinyu. A man actually looked like this. He was even more beautiful than her, making her the ugliest person in the Ye family, therefore, she hated ye Xinyu's face. Sometimes, she really wanted to destroy his face. "Why? Aren't you leaving yet?" Sun Yuhan raised her eyes. "Grandpa will be back in a while." "Grandpa, how Dare You Call me that?" Ye Xinyu was really shameless. He insulted Sun Yuhan rudely. "I've never seen anyone more shameless than you. Your shamelessness makes me want to throw up." Sun Yuhan threw her phone on the table. "Whether it's grandpa or Grandpa, he loves me the most, and you..." she looked ye Xinyu up and down, "With you like this, what big things do you want to achieve in the future? A dog's meat can't help you." "With you like this, what big things do you want to achieve?" Ye Xinyu also glanced at Sun Yuhan's injured leg. "A cripple." "You..." Sun Yuhan's expression changed. She picked up the orange on the table and threw it over. Ye Xinyu didn't even raise his head. He couldn't kill her anyway, so he picked one up from the ground, he threw it at Sun Yuhan, and the Orange Hit Sun Yuhan's face with great accuracy. It hit Sun Yuhan right in the face. Sun Yuhan was hurt from the impact, even her false eyelashes fell off. "Ye Xinyu, just you wait." She took out her phone and was about to call someone. It didn't take a guess to know that there was only one person in the world who could protect Sun Yuhan. "I advise you not to call for help." Ye Xinyu leisurely picked up his leg and took out an inspection report from his body and threw it on the table. He really wanted to know.., what kind of expression would sun yuhan have when she saw this thing. And he was really looking forward to it. "Miss Sun, take a look at this first. I think you will definitely like it very much." As he said that, he took a dried orange and broke it open. Then, he stuffed it into his mouth one by one. It was so sweet. No Wonder Sun Yuhan was so happy just now and threw it so happily, he hoped that when she ate it again later, she would not feel that it was bitter. Sun Yuhan suddenly did not know why, but there was an uncomfortable feeling in her heart. Moreover, as her heart beat, there was an inexplicable fear. If there was still fear in her heart, something that was afraid, something that hindered her future, and something that destroyed everything, then there was one thing. It was not something else, but.. She hurriedly took the document, but the moment her hand touched it, she did not know why it started to tremble. "What is this?" She asked ye Xinyu, but ye Xinyu was only eating an orange. His eyes were also half-smiling and half-laughing. These half-smiles were obviously filled with sarcasm. Sun Yuhan opened a page. The words on it suddenly pricked her eyes. She hurriedly pressed her hand on it and also forcefully pressed her hand on it, even her leg, which seemed to have recovered, began to hurt faintly. She took a deep breath and then closed her eyes. The pain in her eyes was unbearable until she opened her eyes again and opened the examination report again. The test results showed that they were not related by blood. "Why are you showing me these?" Sun Yuhan pretended to be indifferent and threw the test report aside, as if she did not care about anything and did not feel guilty at all. Although her heart was beating very fast and there was some unspeakable tension and pain, she could still keep a calm face. Acting was not for nothing. If it were in the past.., she would have long given herself away. However, she was no longer the person she used to be, so she could completely pretend that nothing had happened. Ye Xinyu broke another orange and put it in his mouth. "We are both sensible people. Don't play dumb. I am not that bored to give you other people's monitoring results. I have plenty of time to do nothing else. Do you think that I want to face your disgusting face?" Her words were rather unpleasant, and it hurt Sun Yuhan's heart. Yes, she was ugly, she was ugly, and she could not compare to Yan Huan. No matter how much plastic surgery she did, in the end, she could only make her face stiffer and stiffer, even when she smiled, her entire person was stiff. She smiled again with an ugly expression. "Ye Xinyu, we've always been like water in a well." "I don't see you because you look disgusting. I'm afraid I'll die of Nausea." Ye Xinyu's mouth was now as if it had been smeared with poison. It was as if every word was piercing to the heart. The smile on Sun Yuhan's face froze for a moment. The more embarrassed she was, the more embarrassed she became. "It's not like I'm going to take everything from your ye family. Those things were given to me by my grandfather." She was doing well now and immediately changed her words, however, even if she changed her words, she could not hide the fact that she had been beaten up and confessed. Thinking about it, she was already feeling guilty. Otherwise, how could such an inspection report, which did not even have a name, make her lose her composure? Her words were also somewhat incoherent, making her unable to be arrogant anymore. "Do you really think that I want to look at your ugly face for the rest of my life?" Ye Xinyu looked down on this extremely pretentious woman in front of him. At this point, he really thought that he would let her stay in the Ye family and be fed by the ye family. Then, he would split his family's assets, bullying his elder sister-in-law's family. Did he think too highly of him, or did he think that he was an idiot. Another ugly sentence. The corners of Sun Yuhan's eyes twitched violently. The examination report on her lap also fell to the ground. She had clearly done it flawlessly. It was impossible for everyone to suspect this. How did ye Xinyu suspect this? What did he want to do? What did he mean by this? What did he want to do. For the first time in her life, Sun Yuhan was terrified. She was afraid that she would lose everything. She was even more afraid that others would find out that she had been hiding all this time. It was something that she had almost forgotten. She did not even dare to imagine what would happen to her if others found out about this, what would happen to her? What would the consequences be? She would die. That was not right. She would die without a complete corpse. She would definitely die without a complete corpse. Not to mention others, even ye Jianguo would definitely kill her with his own hands. Ye Jianguo would hate her no matter how good he was to her now.

Chapter 1188: one day

Moreover, she was not borrowing someone else's identity, but that woman's. As she thought about it, her heart began to beat violently. It even beat to a terrifying degree. Her mouth was wide open, and even her breathing became awkward. She was like a fish out of water, as if she was about to die. No, no. She shook her head. She could not let anyone know. She definitely could not let anyone know. "Looks like you know. Okay." She did not pretend anymore. She took the examination report and started flipping through it. Although there was no name written on it, she knew that this was also related to her, it was also the examination report of her and Ye Rong. "Unfortunately, I have to know." Ye Xinyu leaned his back back. He was not only disdainful but also sneering at Sun Yuhan's help to calm down. What was the use of being calm? It was still different. He was about to get lost. "I want to know about this. Who Else Knows?" Sun Yuhan took a deep breath and asked ye Xinyu. Ye Xinyu pointed at himself and then at Sun Yuhan. "I know about it now. Heaven and earth know about it." "What do you want?" Sun Yuhan stopped explaining. What was the point of explaining? As long as it was a test report, everything was a blank. "You want the Ye Family? Okay." Sun Yuhan compromised now. Everything was a compromise. "I can give you all the shares of the airport. I can give you the ye family if you want." "PFFT..." The skin on ye Xinyu's face moved lazily. "Sun Yuhan, I didn't expect you to be ugly. Your Brain is also ugly." When Sun Yuhan heard the word ugly, she almost bit her teeth off, but she still had to endure it. Ye Xinyu sat up straight and threw the unfinished orange on the table. "You really think highly of yourself." Ye Xinyu pursed his lips, "The ye family is mine to begin with. What does it have to do with you? "You're just a fake. When your identity is exposed, what right do you have to mention the Ye family to me? You have to believe..." ye Xinyu suddenly moved closer to Sun Yuhan, that pair of eyes was also cold enough to receive ye Chuji's true teachings, "You should know my grandfather's character very well. What he hates the most in his life is others using my aunt's name to do stupid things, not to mention pretending to be my aunt's daughter. No matter how much trouble our entire ye family is in, it will also disturb my aunt's peace. As for you..." His voice became even colder at this moment. "You can't even choose death. My old man's methods are something you have never seen before." Sun Yuhan suddenly shivered. It was as if a cold wind had seeped into her bones. Her entire body was stiff, cold, and trembling. She was also afraid. The clothes on her body were stuck together. At this moment.., the cold sweat on her body continued to flow out. "What exactly do you want?" Sun Yuhan clenched her hands. She was about to completely collapse because of this atmosphere. "It's very simple." Ye Xinyu put down his crossed legs. "I want to know the truth. I also want to know where the hair you took back then came from." The test report and the truth were definitely true in Ye Chuji's report. At that time, Sun Yuhan did not have the ability to set up such a good trap, and he just wanted to know where his aunt's real family was? "Okay." Sun Yuhan raised her face as if she had decided on something. "I Promise You, as long as you can let me go.” “Do you think you are qualified to negotiate with me?” Ye Xinyu narrowed his eyes and interrupted Sun Yuhan’s words. Was she still thinking that she had the capital for herself? She was just a liar, and she really thought that she was some kind of character. Sun Yuhan endured it again, and her fingers that were placed on her body almost squeezed out the blood in her palms. “I’ll give you a few more days. Wait for me to do something.” She raised her face and stared at Ye Xinyu’s face without blinking. “Anyway, now that you know about the matter, what difference does it make whether I admit it or not?” She stopped again and suddenly burst into laughter. That laughter was actually a little crazy, “Anyway, you’ve already said it before. I’m pretending to be someone else. Even if others let me go, your grandfather won’t let me go either. In any case, I won’t be able to escape death. But if I die, there won’t be anything that you need to know. I won’t tell you who is the one that Ye Rong left behind. At most, we’ll have a life-and-death struggle. You guys won’t be able to find that person for the rest of your lives.” “How many days do you want?” Ye Xinyu thought for a while and finally chose to compromise. They each had their own chips, and such chips made them afraid of throwing a rat. “Three days. I want three days.” Sun Yuhan loosened her grip and reported a number. “It’s too long.” Ye Xinyu refused. Many things could happen in three days, which was enough for Sun Yuhan to think of an excuse to run away. “Two days.” Sun Yuhan hardened her heart again and compressed the time to two days. “No,” Ye Xinyu still refused. “I’ll give you one day at most. If you pass this time, don’t blame me for being impolite.” And one day was his bottom line. One more hour, he was unwilling. Sun Yuhan gritted her teeth and never agreed. However, when her gaze fell on the monitoring report on the table, her heart could not help but contract, she could not bear the pressure that was being placed on her. She was not afraid of anything now, but this was what she was most afraid of. When Ye Xinyu came out of the Ye family, he did not feel very relaxed. He had exposed the liar’s true colors. However, he was threatened again. Oh, one day, okay, one day, just one day. No matter what, he had to find his aunt’s child. As for Sun Yuhan, it was only one day. Although Sun Yuhan could use this one day to escape to God knows where.., however, she could run away from the monk but not the temple. The one day given to her was completely useless. Ye Xinyu took out his cell phone. At first, he thought that he should give Wang Bin a call and discuss it with him. However, he also thought that this could be considered their family’s dirty laundry, what kind of dirty laundry would let others know about it? Moreover, it was him who went around announcing it. Wasn’t this letting others slap the Ye family’s face and laugh at them for being blind? Therefore, in the end, he still did not make this call. At night, Wang Bin called Halfway. “How is it? Is the result out yet?” Wang Bin asked Ye Xinyu nervously. This was already the third day. It should have appeared by now? “En, it’s out.” Ye Xinyu leaned his back against the sofa and lifted one of his feet on the coffee table. He felt a little lazy and powerless.

Chapter 1189: resentment of being cheated

“How was it?” Wang Bin was more anxious than the person involved when he heard the result. He felt that he had to put in more effort than his own family matters. Ye Xinyu opened his mouth, but he took back the words that were about to slip out of his mouth. “That’s it,” Ye Xinyu said ambiguously. However, judging from the displeasure in his tone, Wang Bin’s automatic translation had failed. If this result was not what they had imagined, then the investigation was in vain. “Well, don’t be disappointed. At least this time, you’re not really relieved. Even if your grandfather did so much, he didn’t do anything wrong. After all, it was his granddaughter’s.” “That’s good,” Ye Xinyu muttered, but he didn’t say it out loud. Of course, he didn’t explain anything. “Oh, right,” Wang Bin asked. “When are you coming back? The tutor was looking for you a few days ago.” “What do you mean? It’s not easy to come back. I’m not going back now. I'll find a few places to play." Ye Xinyu calculated in his heart. If things went smoothly, when he kicked that fake number out of the Ye family, it would be about the next few days. Moreover, he didn't have to do anything. His father was here for everything, and he could rest easy and have a good time for a few days. He was calculating in his heart and promised that he would sleep well that night. He only had a dream. It seemed that he had been running, but no matter what, he couldn't spread his legs, he didn't even know what he was running for. Until he opened his eyes again. He didn't know why, but when he thought of the dream last night, he felt uncomfortable. The older generation said that dreams were the opposite. However, dreams were to a certain extent, and in fact, they were a warning. Then, he really did not know what his dream meant. He was not a dream interpreter. In fact, if he knew, he would understand that it was not appropriate for him to go out today. Around twelve o'clock, he received an unfamiliar number. When he picked it up, he knew that it was Sun Yuhan's call. Oh, it just so happened that he did not have to call her again. "I'm at No. 32 Shunhe Road. I'll take you to see your aunt's child." "Are you that kind?" Ye Xinyu expressed his disbelief. "I'm not that kind." Sun Yuhan was no longer arrogant. To put it bluntly, what else did she have now? She was just a charlatan who was about to be exposed. "I just want to die a quick death. Of course, it would be better if you let me go." Ye Xinyu pursed his lips. "Even if I can let you go, my grandfather can let you go, my father can let you go. To put it bluntly, do you think Lu Qin, whose life and son have been trampled by you, can let you go?" At the mention of Lu Qin's name, Sun Yuhan was instinctively disgusted. In her disgust, she had not even thought of Lu Qin for a long time, and it was just as Ye Xinyu had said. If one day she was forced into a corner and she did not have the support and protection of the Ye family behind her, even if the Ye family could let her go, Lu Qin would not. At that time, Lu Qin would crush her like an ant, and she would not be able to get anything. Of course, she would die a horrible death. Ye Xinyu put on his clothes and looked at the trash in the room. He had a headache. This was all the trash that he had produced in the past few days. How could there be so much trash all of a sudden? If Lu Yi saw this., he would definitely beat him to death. Forget it. He would clean up after he came back. He put on his backpack and took out his phone. He was ready to go to the place Sun Yuhan mentioned. He just didn't know who the child his aunt left behind was? Was it a man or a woman? But this Sun Yuhan really hid it well. She actually left someone in Hai City without anyone knowing. Moreover, they still couldn't find out. He had been thinking about all kinds of possibilities along the way. However, it seemed that every possibility eventually became impossible, and every possibility was impossible. Until he arrived at this so-called No. 32. It turned out to be a dead end. He frowned and felt as if he had been played by Sun Yuhan. Then, when he turned to leave, he saw Sun Yuhan, who had come at an unknown time, not far away from him. At this time, Sun Yuhan was still sitting in a wheelchair. She was still wearing brand-name clothes, and her makeup was still perfect, but at the same time, she could not hide the poverty and deception in her bones. "Where is she?" Ye Xinyu asked Sun Yuhan. Did she trick him to come here so that he could see a dead end. "Isn't That Him?" Sun Yuhan stretched out her finger and pointed at a young man standing at the side. This young man had a pair of small eyes. His face was square, but it was not very good-looking. Was this his aunt's son? Ye Xinyu did not believe it. Was it too ordinary? The young man walked over and stood in front of Ye Xinyu. Before Ye Xinyu could ask anything, he saw the man stretch out his hand. Before he could react, he felt a pain on the back of his neck. The moment he opened his eyes, he felt as if he had been deceived.. If the Ye family were to be inherited by a fool like you in the future, sooner or later, it would fall. You deserve to be so naive., Sun Yuhan stretched out her hand. That person had already given Ye Xinyu's bag to her. Sun Yuhan waved her hand. "Remember to do it cleanly." The young man nodded. Without wasting any more words, he carried Ye Xinyu and left. As for what they were going to do to Ye Xinyu, he did not need to guess to know. It was either half dead or directly dead..., as for Sun Yuhan, what in the world would not reveal her information and her secrets. That would be a dead person. Originally, she did not want to deal with Ye Xinyu. In her eyes, Ye Xinyu was nothing but an idiot who had not grown up. He did not inherit any of the excellent genes of the ye family. The only thing he inherited was..., he had a good face. However, what was the use of having a good face? In the end, he was deceived by a few words from her. In the future, the entire ye family would be hers. It was not the first time she had done something like this anyway. If she wanted to die, then don't blame her for not showing mercy. If she had shown mercy, then the person who died would have been her. She had not lived enough..., her life had only just begun. How could she die so inexplicably. She opened ye Xinyu's bag. There was a cell phone, a game console, a wallet, and of course, a stack of documents. She took out the documents and opened them. Sure enough, the monitoring report was inside, she took out the monitoring report and forcefully split the report into two, then two and four. Finally, she tore it into pieces. Then, she took out a lighter and burned the pieces together with the bag, everything in the bag was burned to ashes.

Chapter 1190: how could there be so many missing people

The fire seemed to have distorted her facial features in the air, and her face, which was beginning to split into four and five parts. Lu Yi knocked on the door. "Ye Xinyu, open the door." In the end, he knocked for a long time, but no one opened the door. He frowned. Was this kid dead asleep? Why was he still not opening the door after so long. He felt around his body and took out a key. He used the key to open the door, but as soon as he entered, he smelled a foul smell. There was also trash everywhere in his room, bowls of instant noodles, bags of snacks, and even socks and pants. The veins on Lu Yi's forehead couldn't help but bulge. Was this for a person or a pig. He had never seen a person turn their nest into a pig's nest, someone who could still sleep and eat. They weren't afraid of coming out at night and planting themselves to death. "Ye Xinyu!" He lowered his voice. If he didn't come out later, he would definitely let him know why the flowers were so red. With a bang, he pushed open the door. The bedroom was still dirty. There was a smelly sock on the table and the bed. The quilt was twisted into a mess and the pillow was placed randomly, the ground was full of sunflower seeds. He had no idea how ye Xinyu could have such a personality. He clearly had a beautiful hibiscus face, but it was so dirty that it made people want to beat him up, he had been like this since he was young, and he hadn't changed much since he grew up. Lu Yi angrily grabbed his wrist, then took off his clothes and began to clean the room. He threw the smelly socks and unwashed underwear into the trash can. It was this trash..., he had thrown five whole bags. After tidying up the house, Ye Xinyu still hadn't returned. He took out his phone and dialed ye Xinyu's number. However, after waiting for a long time, his phone was turned off. With a bang, he closed the door and drove back. That damned kid was already so old, he couldn't have gotten lost. If he were to turn the house into a pigsty the next time, he would definitely break his arm. When he returned to the garden, Yan Huan was sitting on the ground, watching the three kids do their homework. The three kids sat down obediently, and even the youngest, Xun Xun, was doing a decent job, although her writing wasn't good, and sometimes her arms and legs weren't aligned, it had to be said that children who were serious were really cute. "Mommy, is Xun Xun's writing good?" Xun Xun handed her homework to Yan Huan as if she was presenting a treasure. Her small arms and legs couldn't write any words, so it was very difficult for her to write one, two, three, four words, however, each stroke was written very neatly. "It's really good," Yan Huan praised his daughter, then looked at the other two children. Xiao Qi's writing was the best, her strokes and order were correct, and her ability to accept things was very good. Moreover, when Xiao Qi was in the morning class., she already knew a lot of words, so these words were very simple to him now. As for Xiao Guang, he was an impatient person. Sometimes, his attention was not as focused as his brother and sister. In a while, he might be distracted and start drawing circles on the paper. Therefore, there were not many words on his notebook. There were many circles, but there were not many words. Xiao Guang was extremely ashamed and lowered his head. "It's alright." Yan Huan patted Xiao Guang's head. "Xiao Guang is still young. When Mommy was the same age as Xiao Guang, she couldn't even write a single word. That's why Xiao Guang is already very strong." They were only three years old. They were three years old and should have been playing around. Lu Yi was already pushing them to grow taller. Even Xiao Xun was pushed to grow taller by him "Mommy, I'm sorry. Little Guang will work hard." Little Guang clenched his little fists and then seriously wrote another piece. Little Qi and Xun Xun accompanied him. Although they had already written one piece, if Little Guang did not finish it., the other two would not go out to play either. Lu Yi walked over and sat beside Yan Huan. Xun Xun threw the pen away when she saw that it was her father and threw herself into her father's arms. She did not write anymore and did not accompany her brother anymore. In any case, she was delicate, she was different from her two brothers in the family. The boys were all pampered, but the little princess was pampered. "Ba Ba, where's Xun Xun's Doll?" Xun Xun thought that her father had brought her doll. "En, it's here." Lu Yi took out a doll from behind and stuffed it into the little girl's arms. "Thank you, Ba Ba," Xun Xun said sweetly and rolled into her mother's arms. She hugged the doll with one hand and sucked on her little finger. "Mommy, I want to drink milk." Xun Xun pouted. She wanted to drink milk and sleep. "I'm Coming, I'm Coming." The nanny had already brought a bottle over. Yan Huan took the bottle and tried the warmth again. She placed the bottle in her daughter's little hand. Xun Xun happily took the bottle and drank it, "She's three years old." Lu Yi pinched his daughter's chubby feet. "She can't use the bottle anymore." "She doesn't want to quit." Yan Huan couldn't do anything about it. "HM?" Lu Yi raised his eyebrows. "Why? Are You So Sure?" "Of course." Yan Huan was a little helpless when she mentioned this. "She probably followed me. My mother said that I only quit the bottle when I was five." Lu Yi, "...". Alright, he wouldn't say anything else in the future. Xun Xun rested her head on her mother's lap and fell asleep in a short while. She curled her tiny body into a ball. At noon, Lu Yi would send the three children back so that they wouldn't have to eat at school, they had three hours of rest at noon. The children could sleep well. When they were full, they would wake up and return to school. Ye Xinyu had returned. Yan Huan seemed to have heard Lu Yi say, "Why? Did you see him when you went?" "I wonder where he went?" Lu Yi thought of the pile of trash at home. He wanted to beat that damned ye Xinyu to death. He wanted to leave. could he help him tidy up his house properly? Even if he didn't tidy it up himself., was it that difficult to call for a cleaner? "He didn't go missing, did he?" Yan Huan was actually just saying it casually. The word 'missing' had rung in her ears many times recently. She had also experienced it many times. She had no choice but to say it, she had no choice but to think about it, she had no choice but to remember it. "There aren't that many missing people?" Lu Yi hugged Xun Xun from her arms. He had never thought that a grown man like ye Xinyu would go missing, and he had never offended anyone., it was also impossible for so many people to go missing around them.
