

Chapter 1211: sympathy is hurt

When the sun was at its peak at noon, Lu Yi had already placed a rocking chair outside. He carefully carried Yan Huan out and then carried her to sit on the rocking chair outside, "Look, isn't the sun very warm today?" He had been holding Yan Huan's hand the entire time and his eyes were still warm, at this moment, the warm sunlight fell on their bodies, and they seemed to be able to feel the comfort and warmth from their bodies. However, who knew that this was a man and his vegetable wife. "We have to go back." Lu Zaizi carried Yan Huan and carefully lowered his head, only to see a withered leaf gently falling on her body. He smiled and hugged Yan Huan a little tighter. Let's go out again tomorrow, Alright? If there is still the Sun Tomorrow, I promise you that I will come out every day to take you out to bask in the Sun, you like the scenery here the most. It is surrounded by mountains and rivers. You can smell the smell of grass, the smell of mountains, and the natural smell of soil. He carefully put Yan Huan down, then took a towel and helped her wipe her hands. "Weren't you worried about Rowling in the past?" He said as he wiped her hands. Whether Yan Huan could respond to him or not, he was just saying. "She's about to get married. She and he yibin hit it off. There's no friction between them. Maybe they're a natural couple. No matter if it's early or late, there will always be a time when they reach this stage." "They want three children to be flower girls. I agree, but light can't go. He hasn't accepted the fact that he can't see it yet. Wait until he grows up and grows up, okay?" "I believe that our children are strong. He must overcome this difficulty because he's our child." He was still talking, but Yan Huan didn't give him any answer. She was still asleep. There was only the sound of breathing, but she wasn't awake. She wasn't even dreaming. Lu Yi put his son down and held his little hand. "Little Guang, don't be afraid. Look, Daddy will always be with you. Come and follow Daddy, Okay?" Little Guang's little feet stepped on the ground. He didn't move forward, but he couldn't help but take a step back. He was still afraid. Ever since he was blind, he was no longer willing to walk. "Be Good, don't be afraid. You Won't fall," Lu Yi encouraged him. "Let's go and see Mommy, okay? Mommy Misses Xiao Guang, but doesn't Xiao Guang Miss Mommy?" Lu Yi held his son's little hand and coaxed him. Xiao Guang retracted his little feet once again, and his little hand pulled hard on his father's big hand. "Follow Daddy," Lu Yi carefully led his son into the room. Although Xiao Guang walked very slowly and cried all the time, he was still a brave child. He had already taken the first step, so the second step., the third step wouldn't be too difficult. "Come, hold Mommy's hand." Lu Yi placed Xiao Guang's little hand on Yan Huan's finger. "This is Mommy's hand. Xiao Guang, do you still remember?" Xiao Guang nodded. "Ba Ba, Xiao Guang Remembers." Lu Yi rubbed his son's little head. "Ba Ba..." Xiao Guang raised his little face, but he wasn't facing his father's direction because he still couldn't see. "What's Wrong?" Lu Yi squatted down and held his son's little hand the entire time. It wasn't enough to make him afraid. "Ba Ba, can Xiao Guang Hug Mommy?" Xiao Guang bit his little lips and discussed with his father. In the past, his mother would hug them, but it had been a long time since his mother had hugged them. She hadn't hugged him., she hadn't hugged his brother, and she hadn't hugged Xun Xun either. His father said that his mother was sick, so she couldn't hug them now. However, he could hug his mother. "Okay." Lu Yi carried his son up and let him sit on his lap. He also took off his little shoes and placed him on the big bed. He let his son and Yan Huan lie down together. "Xiao Guang, Mommy is sick, so Xiao Guang needs to protect mommy with Daddy, Okay?" "Okay." Xiao Guang nodded his head vigorously and buried his face in his mother's arms. His mother smelled good, and he loved his mother very much. "So, Xiao Guang needs to grow up," Lu Yi encouraged his son. "The first thing we need to do is not be afraid of the dark." Xiao Guang grabbed his mother's clothes and curled up his little body. He also sniffed his little nose, and big tears fell from his eyes. "What's Wrong?" Lu Yi quickly hugged his son. This child loved to cry after he lost his sight, which made him even more worried. "Ba Ba, Will Xiao Guang's sky never brighten again?" Xiao Guang reached out his little hand to touch his father's face as he carefully curled his little body into his father's embrace. Will he never see his father again? Will he never see his mother again? Will he never see his brother and sister again? Lu Yi gently rubbed his son's little head. He couldn't tell the three-year-old him about such a cruel thing. He was only three years old, but he matured very early. He was already very sensible. He couldn't lie to him and say that he would get better in the future because he couldn't guarantee it. No one could guarantee it either. Just like Yan Huan, he didn't know when she would wake up. Would it be tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, or forever. It was the same for Xiao Guang's eyes. Xiao Guang's eyes were caused by the blood clot in his brain pressing on his optic nerve. The doctor had said that within a few years, the blood clot could be absorbed by his body on its own. At that time, his eyes would be able to see it, it was also possible that the blood clot would have a greater and greater impact on him. Not only would it affect his vision, it might also threaten his life. As for the final outcome, they could only let time witness how the god of fate treated them. Xiao Guang reached out his little hand to touch something. Lu Yi grabbed his little hand and placed it in Yan Huan's hand. Their family of three would never be separated, and their family would not lose a single person. At this moment, it was warm and quiet here. In another hotel, it was warm and blissful. Under the Sea of Pink Roses, a row of beautiful flower attendants threw the petals in the small basket into the air. One of them was the most beautiful, but she did not smile. There was also a child holding her little hand, she didn't let go from the beginning to the end. "Xunxun, what's Wrong?" Ye Shuyun hurriedly picked up her granddaughter. Why did she suddenly lose her height? Didn't they say that she would be happy to be a flower girl. Xunyi's eyes turned red when she was replaced by her aunt. "Grandma, xunxun Misses Brother."

Chapter 1212: as long as she was alive

Ye Shuyun wiped her granddaughter's tears and cried. She wanted to cry too because she missed Xiao Guang too. Whenever she thought of Xiao Guang being alone at home, her heart would feel like it was being cut by a knife. This was simply hurting her heart. The three children were her lifeblood. Every time she saw Xiao Guang's eyes that looked exactly the same as Xiao Qi's, her heart would ache. She hurriedly wiped her tears away and smiled. Today was a great day for he Yibin's wedding. It was better for her not to cry here. It was a happy occasion for others to get married, so why should she cry? She lowered her head and saw Xunxun put his thumb in his mouth and suck on it. However, her tears were falling one by one. "Let's go, Don't cry. Grandma will bring you home." Ye Shuyun carried her granddaughter and let Lei Qingyi carry Xiao Qi and send them home. They really couldn't stay here any longer. If they stayed any longer, the two children might cry themselves to death, not to mention the children., she couldn't hold it in any longer. Everyone here was smiling. Only they were crying. When there was a knock on the door, the nanny hurriedly opened the door and saw Ye Shuyun holding the hands of the two children. "Madam, you're here." When the nanny saw ye Shuyun, she quickly wiped her hands on her own body. "Thank you for your hard work." Ye Shuyun shook the nanny's hand. It was all thanks to you. Otherwise, I wouldn't be at ease letting the two of them stay here without anyone to take care of them. Moreover, one of them was a patient. Yes, she treated Yan Huan as a patient and not a vegetable. One day, she would recover from her illness. However, a vegetable might not be able to wake up. "Madam, you're too polite." The nanny also sighed. Her heart also felt uncomfortable. "I've been taking care of Miss Yan for ten years. She has never become famous. I've been taking care of her and watched her stumble all the way here. Although she has gone through a lot on this journey, she hasn't suffered a loss at all. This is because there's still the both of you. I know that both of you are sincere in treating her well. I'm also grateful that Mr. Lu hasn't abandoned her even at this point in time. If it were anyone else, they might have already given up." "I treat her like my daughter. We've been together for ten years. The nanny wanted to cry as she spoke. It's true, it's been ten years. Even if we live in a house for ten years, we still have feelings, let alone humans." "I'll always take care of her. The nanny has already made up her mind. I Won't leave until she wakes up." Ye Shuyun shook the nanny's hand again. Huanhuan had met many bad people in her life, but there were also many good people. With such a person by their side and taking care of them, she could rest assured. She still had three children to take care of. There was really nothing she could do. Xun Xun had already let go of Ye Shuyun's hand and stretched out his small hand to Lu Qi. "Brother, let's go look for Mama." Lu Qi hurriedly held his sister's small hand and brought her to see Yan Huan. Once the door was pushed open, Lu Yi turned around and saw two children hiding outside the door. Ever since Yan Huan and Xiao Guang got into a car accident, even these two children had become more cautious. In the past, no matter where they were, as long as their mother was around, they would pounce into their mother's arms, but now, they knew to be careful and would also knock on the door. "Come over to Daddy." Lu Yi extended his hand to the two children. Only then did Xun Xun and Lu Qi run over. Lu Yi hugged his two children and turned around to see that Lu Guang had already fallen asleep. His little head was next to his mother's. He slept very peacefully and did not have any nightmares anymore. "Pluck, Can Xun Xun Touch Your Mommy?" Xun Xun asked Lu Yi carefully. "Yes." Lu Yi carefully held Yan Huan's hand and let Lu Qi and Xun Xun hold their mother's fingers. In the past, Xun Xun was the most delicate and loved to take advantage of her mother. Yan Huan hugged her the most, loved her the most, and worried about her the most. But now, even such a young Xun Xun was sensible and knew how to feel for her brother, they were all willing to give their mother to their brother and not snatch her away from him. Because they knew that Xiao Guang could no longer see. Lu Yi held the two children in his arms. At this moment, their entire family was here. Even if they did not say anything, they were all happy. This was because even though they did not have a voice, they had company, even though there was no laughter, they still had each other. Therefore, it was really good to be alive. Yes, it was good to be alive. As long as they could live, it was good enough. At this moment, it was such a bright and beautiful weather in the Ye family. However, the difference was that the garden was quiet while this place was ostentatious. Regardless of whether it was furniture or furnishings, it was extremely luxurious, even the moment the lights were turned on, one could feel what it meant to be resplendent and what it meant to be dressed in gold and silver. Sun Yuhan pushed the wheelchair and walked to the window. With a whoosh, she pulled open the curtains as well. The light outside suddenly shone on her face, causing her to instinctively turn her face away, she was not used to the overly dazzling sunlight at this moment. It was already this time, but why was it still so dazzling? She pulled the curtains again, and the light inside became softer. She pushed the wheelchair once more, and then pressed her hands on the wheelchair, she stood up as well. Then, she walked step by step. If one looked at it from the surface, there was indeed no problem. It was perfectly normal and healthy. Her legs could walk, and her legs had already recovered. After walking a few steps, she sat back in the wheelchair. Her legs had been treated by many famous doctors and countless surgeries. In the end, she was cured by force, she was the only one who knew how much pain and suffering she had suffered. She had suffered so much just to be able to stand in front of everyone today, she did not need to be inferior to anyone else. She sat down again. There were a few scripts on the table. She could finally return to her acting circle. Without Yan Huan in the future, who would dare to compete with her. Was It Su Muran? Who Was She? They each had their own weaknesses. They would not interfere in each other's business. So what if they were to fight again? Would the ye family be afraid of an outdated su family? Moreover, she would be the future successor of the Ye family, the only successor. What was she, Su Muran? She might really die from illness soon. This time, no one would help her donate her bone marrow. Yan Huan was already in such a state. How could he donate it to her. Therefore, her fingers gently swept across the script. The smile on her red lips also became cold and unfeeling.

Chapter 1213: it would be best if she never came back

She blew on her fingers again. Then, she remembered something. Then, she took out a cell phone from the drawer and turned it on. Not long after, the cell phone was turned on. She held the cell phone with one hand and pushed the wheelchair to the window with the other hand. Then, she pulled the curtain and let the sunlight fall on her body. It was such a warm light.., even her mood warmed up. "Dad, I'm in the valley of East Africa now. My phone will lose its signal soon. You Don't have to worry about me. It's better for me to come out than to face Sun Yuhan." She held the phone in front of her eyes. Under the bright light, she felt that the light of the phone was not as bright as before. Only the words on it seemed to be vaguely visible. Then, she pressed with her finger and pressed the send button. When it showed that she had successfully sent the message, she pressed the button again to turn off the phone. The difference was only one minute, she had already completed it, and it was done without anyone knowing. With a Ding, ye Chuji's heart suddenly jumped. He hurriedly opened his phone, but when he saw the text message on it, he immediately smashed his phone. "Alright, you little brat! You've grown up! You've got Guts Now! How dare you go to the East Africa Grand Canyon? Look at what you've done to your cousin's family! If it wasn't for you, would your father have been so mad? Your father wasn't sick, so how did Yan Huan end up in a car accident with Xiao Guang?" "Look at Xiao Guang now. You Can Smile, you can still smile, you can still smile." "Ye Xinyu, do you know that you will never be able to pay back what you owe in this lifetime?" "It's best if you don't come back for the rest of your life." He had already given up on this son of his. It was not that he wanted to give up, but even if he did come back, ye Xinyu could not bear such a huge change because of him. Ye Chuji sent this message to Lei Qingyi again, hoping that Lei Qingyi would be able to find something. Unfortunately, he could not find anything. Just a few pieces of information.., he couldn't just go to East Africa to look for someone, right? Not to mention that they had already crossed the border, even if the locals went missing, they would still be useless, not to mention ye Xinyu alone. Even if there were ten ye Xinyu.., it would be impossible to find him. Although ye Xinyu sent one message after another, he still felt that something was wrong He took his clothes and prepared to go to Lu Yi's place. "Where are you going?" Just as Yi Ling came out, she saw that Lei Qingyi was about to leave. "I'm going to Lu Yi's place once." He turned around and saw Yi Ling's face flushed red. Why was her face as red as her neck? "What's Wrong?" He was shocked. "Why is her face so Red?" He quickly put his hand on Yi Ling's forehead. "Are you sick?" "Sick my ass!" Yi Ling had learned lei qingyi's explosive temper. She took a deep breath, "Do you think I did something wrong in my previous life to help your son with his homework? I'm so angry that my chest hurts." Lei Qingyi felt a headache when she saw Yi Ling like this. His son was not smart. He was just like his father. He was not enlightened yet. He might become smarter after high school, however, it would still take a few years. He would not make Yi Ling so angry that she had a heart attack, right. "He might still be stupid for a few more years. Let's hire a teacher." Yi Ling stretched out her hand, and Lei Qingyi quickly handed over her face. They had been married for so many years, and he still could not understand her character. People always said that the more they crossed the line, the more they looked like a married couple. Now, with just a small gesture from Yi Ling., he knew what she wanted. Yi Ling stretched out her hand and pinched Lei Qingyi's face hard. Lei Qingyi was in so much pain that she was grimacing in pain, but she did not dare to make a sound. "Find a teacher for him tomorrow. I'm so tired that I'm going to die." She was really confused by this stupid son of hers. She waved her hand again and was about to go to sleep. "Oh right, are you going to Lu Yi's place?" Yi Ling suddenly thought of something. "I'll go with you." Yi Ling quickly went into the house to change her clothes. There was no need to bother about that kid. He was almost 1.7 meters tall. With such a huge stature, he had to buy a ticket no matter what he did. He was already an adult. In fact, the pitiful little lei zi was still a primary school student. He was really a primary school student., he wasn't even ten years old. Let's go. Lei Qingyi held Yi Ling's hand. He was really glad that he married Yi Ling. If it was Yan Huan, he felt that he really might not be able to make it. Don't look at his huge stature., in fact, he had a glass heart. He really could not be carried by Lu Yi. His wife was in a vegetative state, and his child was blind. He drove very fast. In less than half an hour, he was already in the Liuyuan Garden. Lei Qingyi opened the car door and helped Yi Ling. When Yi Ling arrived here, for some reason, she suddenly felt like crying. She wiped her tears. "Why are you crying?" Lei Qingyi was frightened. "I feel bad." Yi Ling really felt her heart ache. "Tell me, why didn't you hit anything else but my Huanhuan? You hit Huanhuan so badly. Little Guang's eyes are blind. It's not easy for them to be together." What else could lei qingyi say? In fact, she was drunk driving. As for why she hit Yan Huan, it could only be said that Yan Huan's life was not good. It just happened to hit her car. Fortunately., the car that Yan Huan was driving had been modified by him. Otherwise, the front of the car would have been smashed into such a state. The people inside would have been squashed. The endurance of that car was about three times better than that of an ordinary car, it also gave Yan Huan and Xiao Guang hope to survive. However, Yan Huan was still severely injured and Xiao Guang was blind. However, this was still better than them being gone. Yi Ling wiped her tears. Let's go. She could not cry. Her Huanhuan was not dead. She was fine. She was just asleep. Yes, she was just asleep. She was fine. She was definitely fine. No matter how much she slept, she would wake up one day. Xiao Guang's eyes would definitely recover. Mother Yan would protect them, definitely. When they entered, Lu Yi came out just in time. He was only wearing a simple shirt, and it was still spotless. However, there was too much less of a fierce aura around him, and it was possible that he wasn't wearing it, hence, he appeared much gentler. "I'll go check on her." Yi Ling put the things she bought aside. Although she knew that these things might not be of use to Yan Huan, she still bought them. These were the clothes she brought for Yan Huan when she went to the international fashion show. There were also some jewelry, as well as various cosmetics and skincare products.

Chapter 1214: false news

She opened the door. The smell inside was very nice and there was a faint fragrance. This fragrance came from the bottle of fresh flowers on the table. This was planted by Lu Yi in the flower garden. He would cut a few branches every day, the windows were always open. Fresh air would be exchanged from the outside. Liuyuan was different from other places in Hai City. It could be said that this was a pure land of Hai City. It was very clean, completely unpolluted. It drank spring water and ate the vegetables that it had grown. But here., it could be said that they had retreated to the countryside. This was originally a paradise that was out of this world. She walked over carefully. She knew that Yan Huan couldn't hear anything at the moment, but she still lowered her voice unconsciously. Perhaps her voice should have been louder. Perhaps she was the one who started the argument. But in the end, she didn't. Because she knew very well in her heart that if she could really wake Yan Huan up, then the current Yan Huan wouldn't be lying here half-dead, and he wouldn't just be breathing and not thinking. Yi Ling held Yan Huan's hand tightly. "Huanhuan, I came to see you. You Don't know how much I miss you." She saw Yan Huan's blood-red face and the temperature of her fingertips. She almost burst into tears, she placed Yan Huan's hand on her face. If mother Yan were to see you like this, what would she do? She would definitely cry until her eyes went blind. Yi Ling sniffled again. When she came, she had already told herself that she could not cry. She really could not cry. But now, she could not help but burst into tears. How could she not cry? Her heart ached for Yan Huan, and her heart ached for Xiao Guang. Xiao Guang was so obedient. She had been obedient since she was young, but why did something like this happen to them. The three children had just turned three years old. They were still so young. The youngest, Xun Xun, could not even walk properly. Sometimes, she would fall and hurt herself. She still cried, needed someone to comfort her, and needed her mother. She covered her mouth, not daring to cry too loudly. She was afraid that the people outside would hear her, afraid that Lu Yi would hear her and not let her come over in the future. The light from outside also shone through the window. Other than the fresh air, there was also the natural light. Yi Ling sniffled, then carefully placed Yan Huan's hand under the blanket. "Don't be afraid." She tucked Yan Huan in again, "Even if you don't wake up for the rest of your life, Xiao Guang and the others won't be wronged. I'll do everything I can to protect Xiao Guang and the others. Even Lu Yi won't be able to hurt Xiao Guang." "If he marries someone else in the future, I'll Bring Yours back to my house. I'll take good care of you for the rest of my life, just like how you and mother Yan took me in when I ran back from the orphanage." At this moment, it was fortunate that Lu Yi did not hear these words. If Lu Yi heard them, he might really want to put Yi Ling on the rejection list. From now on, he really would not let her set foot in the detention center. Outside, Lei Qingyi handed his phone to Lu Yi. Look, this was a message from the little rascal. It was sent yesterday. Do you think he's out of his mind or something? Even if he gave up on himself., he couldn't have gone to the Grand Canyon of East Africa. Did he want his father to die in vain, or did he want the Ye family to have no children? No matter how much he hated Sun Yuhan., he couldn't lose himself like this. Lu Yi looked at the message and read through the messages ye Xinyu had sent over the past few months. The earliest one was sent the day after Yan Huan's accident. When the text message was sent, Ye Chuji could not believe his eyes. His son, who had gone missing for a few days without any news, actually sent him a reply. From then on, it was about one message a month. This was already the fifth message, it was four months after Yan Huan and Xiao Guang's accident. "Do you think I should think of a way to find him?" Lei Qingyi asked Lu Yi. He couldn't just ignore that kid, right? If this continued, he would really lose his life one day. No matter what, Ye Xinyu had grown up in the Lei family, he couldn't bear to see that Kid Die. Moreover, it was such a cowardly way of dying. Even if he had to die, he had to take that useful body and sacrifice himself for the country. That way, he wouldn't have been born in vain. "No need. He's not there." Lu Yi put down his phone and took his notebook from the side. He opened it and put it on the table. He didn't know what he was looking for on it. "Why not?" Lei Qingyi slammed his butt on the table. With his height, how could he be as comfortable as sitting on the table. And Lu Yi didn't care about him. He was used to it. And now, he was wondering if he was really angry or something. He really didn't care about that Brat's life or death. Or could it be that he hated ye Jianguo to the extreme, and even ye Xinyu hated him as well. That was impossible. Lei Qingyi hurriedly shook his head. This wasn't Lu Yi. Lu Yi wasn't that petty, and things weren't black and white. He was very clear. He couldn't ignore ye Chuji and ye Xinyu just because of one ye Jianguo, if that was the case, he might not even bother with this message. Lu Yi raised his face and glanced at Lei Qingyi's phone. "The message wasn't sent by ye Xinyu. Even if you filled up the East Africa Grand Canyon, it's impossible to dig out a ye Xinyu." Lei Qingyi's scalp suddenly tightened. "What did you say?" "It wasn't sent by Ye Xinyu?" Lei Qingyi took his phone again. These were clearly sent by ye Xinyu. The number was ye Xinyu's, the tone was ye Xinyu's, the temperament was ye Xinyu's, and even the things he did were all ye Xinyu's, how could it not be him? Even ye Chuji firmly believed it. "Where was he last month?" Lu Yi asked Lei Qingyi. Lei Qingyi pulled out his phone and found the last message. It was easy to find. Basically, one message a month, and sometimes two messages a month. There was no more than this. And last month, wasn't it the last message. "He's in Guadong Desert." Lu Yi stopped and piled his computer over to Lei Qingyi. "Due to the domestic situation in Guadong desert these past three months, it has been closing the ports of entry and exit. When he was here, it happened to be within this month. If he was in Guadong desert a month ago, then he is still in Guadong desert now. It is impossible for him to go to East Africa." As he spoke, he stood up again and leaned his back against the table at the side.

"To go to the Grand Canyon of East Africa, it will take about two months of preparation time. That is one of the characteristics of that place, but the so-called special is also dangerous. There is a series of procedures that need to be followed. Explorers from all over the world also like that place. From the moment they enter East Africa, they will have to queue up. They will need to undergo a series of inspections and training. There is also a month of acclimatization time in between." "If it's normal..." Lu Yi analyzed again, "If you want to go from Guadong Desert to East Africa, it's impossible to do it in half a year. Tell me," he pressed his hands on the table. "How did he do it?" "He..." Lei Qingyi's eyes widened. How was he going to explain? Even he didn't know this. He wasn't an explorer. He was a frog at the bottom of a well. He really didn't understand these customs. So this wasn't from ye Xinyu. Lei Qingyi loosened his grip and threw his phone on the table. But, who could have done this? He pulled Lu Yi's computer and placed it in front of him. It had the current situation on Guadong's side. It was just as Lu Yi had said. It wasn't peaceful now. It was different in their country. The people there were sometimes very barbaric. That was why it was said to seal the exit, if they really did that, they wouldn't care about the foreign tourists. They wouldn't know about the chaos in foreign countries. Wars happened around them, but wars were always far away from us. Sometimes, we couldn't even imagine the cruelty of wars. The wars we experienced now were only in history, on television, there are also those in the news, but there are none around us. We should be grateful that we live in a peaceful era and have a peaceful country. Foreign countries are not so good. Only those who go there know what kind of Hell on Earth it will be. Just like Guadong now, it is also as famous and beautiful as the global desert, it was vast and shocking, but at the same time, it was dangerous. Lei Qingyi turned to another page. It was about the things in East Africa. If one wanted to go, they indeed had to follow a certain procedure. From the first day they entered, they had to wait for at least three months before they could enter the canyon in East Africa. It was not easy to get the qualifications to enter the canyon. The requirements were very strict. First, they had to have a team of more than ten people, and each person had to have at least five years of travel permits, they also had to undergo a strict physical examination. From height, weight, vision, and various bodily functions, they were also very strict. Moreover, different countries had different requirements. For example, if they wanted to go to their own country, they would have to wait for a long time, then they would have to wait for a longer time because they were in the temperate zone, where the four seasons were distinct. East Africa was close to the equator, so it was very hot. There was almost no autumn or winter. There were two seasons when they finished their jobs in a year. Therefore, they would have to wait for at least two months to get used to it. If within these two months.., there were serious soil and water problems, as well as diseases, then the waiting time would be even better. If he was lucky, it would be at least three months. If he was unlucky, he might not be able to gather enough people in a year, or his body would not allow it. Did Ye Xinyu have such ability? He had just flown from Guangdong for a few days, and he did not even have enough time for a medical check-up. Yet, he had such good luck and was able to fish in troubled waters. Was that even possible? It was impossible. Even if he wanted to, no one would be willing. He didn't even have an entry and exit certificate. He simply couldn't enter the police line there. Even if he wanted to crawl over, he couldn't. So, Lu Yi was right. Lei Qingyi wiped the sweat off his forehead. This wasn't a message from Ye Xinyu. Ye Xinyu was still missing. He hadn't sent any news, and this information was just someone trying to blind them. They wanted to put this matter behind them, they still wanted to fish in troubled waters. Then, one day, no matter how long it took for them to send a message, they might just fall into a ravine and die. After that, there was no after. Ye Chuji still did not have a son, and the Ye family did not have any bloodline. No, there was still that Sun Yuhuan. But now, no one treated Sun Yuhuan as a member of the Ye family. The mention of that woman was disgusting. "You knew long ago, didn't you?" Lei Qingyi asked Lu Yi. The first time Ye Xinyu sent a message, Lu Yi didn't have much of a reaction. At that time, he thought it was because of Yan Huan and Xiao Guang, so in his heart.., he could only tolerate Yan Huan and Xiao Guang. He couldn't see or hear anything else. But now that he thought about it, it did not seem like it. Lu Yi had always known that they had been deceived, right? "Yes," Lu Yi admitted. He habitually tried to persuade the wedding ring on his finger, "Although Ye Xinyu doesn't do things in an orderly manner, he has his own principles. He lives with me. Even if he wants to leave, at the very least, he will clean up my place." "This is my bottom line, and also his bottom line. He won't touch my bottom line. So, he narrowed his eyes slightly, and the curve of his lips was also very cold. I never believed that he was the one who sent this message, because he never mentioned turning my house into a pigsty." "Then, why didn't you say so early in the morning?" Lei Qingyi stretched out her long legs. It had been four months since he sat down and stood up. He had been busy for nothing, but he was still happy for nothing. That's right. He clearly knew, so why didn't he say anything? He clearly knew, so why didn't he mention it? Why did he have to let them be deceived. "Uncle needs a comfort." Lu Yi straightened his body and walked into the room. Now was the perfect time. He was going to take Huanhuan to bask in the Sun. Lu Yi and Lei Qingyi hurriedly ran over as well. "Tell me, who did this? Why did you do it so well? Why did you create such a lie?" Lu Yi stopped in his tracks. He turned around and pursed his thin lips tightly. "No matter who it is, he has ruined my joy and my little light." "Then..." Lei Qingyi wanted to ask who Lu Yi was? However, after thinking about it, he still did not ask the question. If Lu Yi knew everything, then he was the director of the Security Department. Lu Yi was only the prosecutor. He had his suspicions, but he had no evidence. Lu Yi opened the door. Yi Ling was sitting at the side, chatting with him from time to time. When they were happy, she seemed to be very happy. However, Lu Yi frowned slightly. His huanhuan actually liked silence. A proper voice could make her not be lonely, but if she talked too much, it would be noisy.

Chapter 1216: the Queen of his family

Lu Yi walked over and carefully lifted the quilt and carried Yan Huan up. "Lu Yi, where are you taking my Huanhuan?" Yi Ling hurriedly grabbed his arm. "Tell me, do you want to throw my Huanhuan into the river?" "Let Go!" Lu Yi lowered his head and looked at Yi Ling's hand. "I won't," Yi Ling glared at Lu Yi. Lu

Yi, I'm warning you. If you dare to Murder My Huanhuan, if you dare to poison her, I'll definitely fight you to the death. And when she still wants to say something out of line Lei Qingyi quickly covered her mouth and carried his idiot wife away. Otherwise, she would directly provoke Lu Yi and make him list them as people he would not interact with in the future. "What are you doing?" When they reached the outside, Yi Ling pulled Lei Qingyi's hand away and wiped her mouth from time to time. "My great aunt, what nonsense are you talking about?" Lei Qingyi quickly drove the car outside, "How could Lu Yi give Yan Huan Poison? You have to believe me. If he really has poison there, it is for himself. When the day comes that Yan Huan is no longer around, he will drink the poison for himself. He loves Yan Huan so much that he doesn't even want his own child. How could he poison Yan Huan?" Back when Yan Huan was addicted to drugs, when he had aids, Lu Yi was afraid that he didn't have it. Had Lu Yi left? Even if he was infected with AIDS, he wouldn't give up on Yan Huan, let alone now. Yi Ling used her sleeve to wipe her mouth. At this moment, she narrowed her eyes and glared at Lei Qingyi. "What's Wrong Now?" Lei Qingyi's hair stood on end from Yi Ling's stare. Even his arms were covered with goosebumps. Did he say something wrong. "Have you gone to the toilet?" Yi Ling suddenly asked. "Yes, I have." Lei Qingyi did not feel that it was a big deal. Who Ate but did not go to the toilet? "Then why are you covering my mouth?" Yi Ling grabbed Lei Qingyi's ear. Damn, this was too disgusting. Lei Qingyi quickly parked the car to the side. He was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat. He was an idiot. An idiot who cheated his husband. Didn't he know that he was driving? He put his hand on his mouth and wiped it several times. "That should do it, great aunt." He helped Yi Ling fasten the safety again, "I washed my hands. I was taught to wash my hands before meals. My hands are cleaner than your face." In the end, Yi Ling turned around and glared at him. Lei Qingyi shut up and didn't say anything. He started driving again, and the car started to move forward bit by bit on the Smooth Road. Lei Qingyi wasn't afraid of Yi Ling strangling him anymore. She wouldn't joke about their lives. At this moment, Yi Ling rested her head on the car seat. Her fingers were also on the glass, gently moving. Huanhuan, he will treat you well. I believe in him. Suddenly, she smiled. However, that smile was a little uncomfortable. Mama Yan will protect you. She will definitely. You will definitely wake up. She sniffed. She turned around and looked at Lei Qingyi seriously. He was not too handsome, but he had a rough face. He was too tall and his face was bigger than others. Of course, he was not too handsome. Lu Yi was noble, he had the refined and cold air of a young master from an aristocratic family. He was also very good-looking. His facial features were distinct, and he was handsome and elegant. As for Lu Qintong, he was a little more attractive. However, in the eyes of many women., perhaps a man like Lu Qin was good-looking. However, in her eyes, she felt that although her lei qingyi looked like a bear, she was not too smart. Her mouth was vicious, and her scolding was unpleasant, it did not matter if it was a woman or a man. If she angered him, he did not care who she was. He did not care who she was. He did not care if she was a man or a woman. If he scolded her, she would be so angry that she would commit suicide. However, he had always treated her extremely well. He did not care about her size, however, at home, he would listen to her. If she said one thing, he would not say another. If she said that the sun rose from the west, he would definitely not say that it rose from the east. If she wanted to pull his ears, he would definitely not turn his right cheek to her. And when she thought of Yan Huan and Lu Yi, they were together. They were on and off for a few days, but she and Lei Qingyi had been married for ten years. For ten years, they were together, he gave her a home, a child, and parents-in-law who loved him. If he said that she was the queen of the family, everyone would believe it. Suddenly, she reached out and hugged Lei Qingyi's arm. "What's Wrong?" Lei Qingyi stretched out a hand and touched the top of her head. "Are you feeling carsick because you haven't eaten?" "No." Yi Ling shook her head. "Qingyi..." she called out Lei Qingyi's name. "Yes." Lei Qingyi smiled. "If you are sleepy, sleep for a while. I drive steadily. We can go home in a while." Yi Ling raised her head again and looked at his extremely rough side profile, his tight jaw, his square face, and his pair of eyes that glowed from time to time. "Qingyi..." She called Lei Qingyi again. "Yes." Lei Qingyi was still smiling. Yi Ling hugged his arm tightly. "I really love you." With a squeak, Lei Qingyi suddenly stopped the car. His mouth was wide open as he smiled, but the corners of his eyes were burning with pain. What was there to cry for? He quickly wiped his tears away and continued driving. Seriously, a grown man with a bit of potential. He must have been infected by that Kid Lu Yi. See, he was so crude that he was starting to look poetic. But poetic? He was a 1.9 m tall man. How could he be poetic? How could he be poetic? He should be able to catch a fugitive. However, he just wanted to cry. He was touched. His queen always said she loved him. He had waited for these three words for ten years. It was not easy. He thought that with Yi Ling's character, she would never say it. He just did not expect that she would really say it. He was too happy, really too happy. He hurriedly wiped the corners of his eyes. When he turned back, he saw that Yi Ling had already hugged his arm and fallen asleep. Yes, his ling was really good-looking. Lei Qingyi was proud in her heart. How could she be so beautiful. He praised in his heart again. Look at her eyes, nose, and mouth. They were all good-looking. There was nothing bad about them. There was nothing bad about them. Others said that they were good-looking, however, he felt that the woman in his home was the most beautiful and also the most adorable. He had given him the most beautiful woman in Asia, but he didn't want it. He just loved the spirit in his home. So what.

Chapter 1217: Your Backer is gone

At this moment, the sunlight had already poured down with warmth. Today's light carried some gentleness as it gently swept away the fallen leaves on the tree. The leaves seemed to have fallen more than before. It was also because autumn had arrived. This was the change of the four seasons of the year. It was also a time that could not be changed, a time that could not be retained. At this moment, the leaves in the courtyard were falling one by one. In the garden, there was a large patch of ginkgo forest. This was something that old master Lu had spent a lot of effort to grow. In the beginning, one tree died after another, eventually, such a large patch grew. Compared to other places in Hai City, the ginkgo forest here grew much longer. In winter, the entire world was a golden world. It was very beautiful and dreamy. You said that in autumn, you wanted to come and see the fallen leaves of ginkgo biloba. Lu Yi pushed the wheelchair as he walked. Yan Huan was currently sitting on the wheelchair. Her eyes were tightly shut, but her complexion was very good. Her skin was also very good. It had been so many years, ten years, yes, ten years., when he met her, she was only nineteen years old, and she was still a minor character. On the way here, she struggled and crawled. Along the way, there were difficulties and thorns. She had walked all the way here, and she had also reaped her own achievements., her own fame, and everything she wanted. I know. Lu Yi stopped his wheelchair and walked to the front of the wheelchair. He squatted down and pulled the blanket up a little. At this moment, Yan Huan was tied to the wheelchair, and it was this word that made Lu Yi's heart ache the most, it was this word that made Lu Yi feel the most pain and heartache. He stretched out his hand and gently caressed Yan Huan's face. It was true that time had not given her much age. Although she had suffered so much, the Yan Huan from before was still the same Yan Huan that he had met when he first met her. Young, beautiful, childish, and brave. He still remembered that she was very brave. She had actually dared to jump down from the second floor. He also remembered that she had donated all the blood in her body. However, who knew that she had actually suffered all her life. Even her death that lifetime had been in order to save him. She had been drained of all her blood. In fact, he had not done anything. However, all the blood on her body had been lost because of him. And what had he done for her? She had saved his father, his maternal grandfather's family, him, his mother, and his three beautiful and adorable children. All of them had been fulfilled, but what about herself. "I'm not a good husband." He leaned forward slightly and carefully hugged Yan Huan in his arms. He could feel the warmth of her body, and he could hear her breathing, he could also feel that she was still alive. The life force that she had left for him to not be lonely. "When you needed me the most, I was not by your side. I let you be bullied by others. I let you have your face ruined, your legs broken, and you were injected with drugs and HIV. Now, I've even made you a vegetable. Tell me, what use do I have? What use do I have?" He knelt on the ground and hugged his wife, who had no thoughts at all. He let the ginkgo leaves fall on them from time to time. It was as if the entire world was raining golden leaves. At this moment, only the leaves knew that the man was crying. The man reached out and took the leaves off his wife's head. Then, he pushed her around. When his feet stepped on the ground, rustling sounds could be heard from time to time. Sometimes it was him, and sometimes there was a child. The child's small hands had always been holding onto the wheelchair. There was also a rope tied around his wrist. It was as if his small body was connected to his mother, it was just like the year his mother gave birth to him. The small child squatted down and his small hands fumbled around to pick up a lot of leaves from the ground. Then, he carefully climbed in front of his mother and touched his mother's hand, he put the leaves on his small hands in his mother's arms. Then, he nestled his small body in his mother's arms. "Mama, what color do you think these leaves are? Are they green or yellow?" He picked up another leaf from the ground and put it in front of his eyes. But no matter what he took, no matter what he put..., his sky was still dark. And the woman did not answer him. The child pouted his little mouth aggrievedly, and then he nudged his little head into the woman's arms. He was like a little baby, and his little body could not take a step away from his mother. Lu Yi walked over and reached out to take the leaf from his wife's hair. Then he sat down himself and carried his wife and Son into his arms, "There are still many trees and a lot of time. I knew you would like this place. I will come here every day to accompany you to see this ginkgo forest." He held his wife's hand tightly. The smell of clean kapok still lingered on his body. Then, he turned around and gently caressed her face. Her complexion had always been good. It was also possible that she had been sunbathing recently, therefore, her face was now more bloodshot, and she seemed to be healthier as well. He did not know what other vegetative states were like, but he took good care of his wife, he took care of her as if she were a child. Also, he lowered his head and looked at his youngest son who was sleeping in his wife's arms. Then, he took off his clothes and draped them over his son. This was the world of the three of them. A wife who had lost her consciousness, a son who had lost his eyes. And a husband who had almost lost the entire world. Their world could not be disturbed by anyone now. "Your backer won't be able to wake up for the rest of his life. Why, aren't you going to get lost?" Su Muran put on a sarcastic smile. Yan Huan's disappearance was known to few people, but she had become a vegetable. This was known to the whole world. She was famous in the past, but she was still famous now. A vegetable and an unconscious vegetable who had to sleep for the rest of her life. This was too ridiculous. Zhu Meina was sitting on the soft leather sofa. She crossed her legs and lifted her perfect red lips up gently. Then, she placed the cup in her hand next to her red lips, she took a sip of the fragrant but astringent coffee in the cup and left her lips marks on the cup. Su Muran was still wearing a fake smile while she was wearing a fake smile. She was already a woman in her thirties. Did she still think that she was an ignorant girl? "What are you laughing at?" Su Muran slammed the table. She almost felt that her temper was being worn down by a woman. If she could still laugh now, she wanted to see if she could still laugh when she got out of their house?

Chapter 1218: don't Mess with me

"Ranran, why are you talking so much nonsense with her?" Zhu Xianglan walked over. The moment she saw Su Muran's red face and thick neck, she knew that she was angered by Zhu Meina again. "Aren't you afraid that the air she exhales will dirty you?" Zhu Xianglan pulled her daughter behind her. She didn't need to care about anything else. In any case, she had already torn her face apart, there was no need to pretend to be a noble lady. In Su Qingdong's eyes, she was now a shrew. What else could she care about. Zhu Meina listened to Zhu Xianglan's insult without even lifting her eyelids. It wasn't that her face was thick, nor was it that she just couldn't fight back. Because she was rotten., but everyone knew who had caused her to be like this and who had turned her rotten. There was no need to bring it up again. "Mom, when will she get lost?" Su Muran's temper had been growing recently, and his face had a lot of acne. No matter how thick the foundation was, it couldn't cover it up. She didn't even dare to look in the mirror now, she was afraid of seeing her disgusting face. All of this was because of Zhu Meina. As long as she left, nothing would happen to her. Facing such a disgusting woman every day, no one would feel comfortable. "Muran, be good. Go back first." Zhu Xianglan pushed Su Muran, telling her not to stay here, lest she was angered again, Su Muran gritted her teeth in anger. Then, she turned around and left as well. When Zhu Xianglan turned around, she pulled down her loving face. The corners of her mouth drooped and the corners of her eyes drooped. No matter how many cosmetics and supplements she had, her body could not be considered low-grade, she was already at a declining age. She was not young anymore, but Zhu Meina was still young. She was still in her prime, and in Zhu Xianglan's eyes, the radiant Zhu Xianglan had become the biggest mockery of her age. It was not because she was young, nor was it because she was beautiful. It was because she was her husband's woman. Even if such a thing was caused by her, it would still be the same. Your benefactor had become a vegetable and would not be able to wake up for the rest of his life. Why, do you still want to stay at my house and not leave? Zhu Xianglan sat down and made every move. She also had some good upbringing. The life of a noble lady for the past few decades had not been in vain. She did not lack anything and had everything she wanted. She was the winner in life. However, when she was in her middle age, she almost lost everything. Her daughter, family, husband, and all of this. And now, she had found everything back. Although it was no longer what it used to be, this was her home. It would be hers for the rest of her life. He would not let anyone destroy her family. Zhu Meina put down the cup in her hand and placed the cup on the table. Her long legs almost pierced Zhu Xianglan's eyes and hurt her heart. "If you're smart, get lost right now." Zhu Xianglan pointed at the door. The word 'get lost' was very harsh. "I can get lost too." Zhu Xianglan crossed her legs again. She didn't care about her naked body at all. She put her fingers on her legs and looked at Zhu Xianglan with a faint smile. "Aunt, have you ever heard of a saying?" Zhu Xianglan gritted her teeth. She clearly did not want to hear it, and her face was filled with unconcealed disgust. Zhu Xianglan propped up her face on the armrest of the sofa. The rise and fall of her chest also became more magnificent. "Aunt, it's easy to send the gods away, but difficult to send the gods away." She looked at her finger and smiled arrogantly. Meanwhile, a hint of killing intent flashed across Zhu Xianglan's eyes. "I know what you want to do." Zhu Meina was still able to choke people to death with her smile. Her smile was almost as if she wanted Zhu Xianglan to grab her and ruthlessly scratch her face. She would scratch her face until it was a bloody mess. Even then, she would not be able to vent her anger. B * TCH, b * Tch. No matter how slowly Zhu Meina picked up the cup, she did not let go of the murderous intent in Zhu Xianglan's eyes. Ha, she still wanted to kill her. If she did not have a certain amount of capital and ability, how could she sit here. There was a slightly bitter taste between her lips again, but the more she drank, the more addicted she became. "Auntie wants to sell me to brother long again, right?" Zhu Xianglan was still smiling, and the corners of her mouth were raised. It was this kind of smile that did not reach her eyes. "However, when Auntie wants to do something, it is best to think about whether you can bear the consequences of these things." Zhu Xianglan pursed her lips, a look of indifference on her face. Perhaps it was because she had never done this before. Zhu Meina, who had nothing, could still come up with any tricks. Wasn't Zhu Meina's biggest backer Yan Huan? But now, Yan Huan could not even protect himself. She thought that she could borrow someone else's power. Originally, she could not sleep every day and could not sleep well. Now, she could finally rest easy. The biggest threat by her side was gone. Of course, she had to rest easy. In the future, no one would know about that matter. However, how could she not be dead? If she was dead, it would be even better. Everything would be buried together in the yellow soil. "Aunt is really confident." Zhu Meina really wanted to laugh at Zhu Xianglan's stupidity. Indeed, the older she was, the dumber she was. No matter what, the older she was, the more intelligent she was. But for her, the more she lived, the dumber she became. "Regardless of whether Yan Huan is still alive, whether he has turned into a vegetable, or whether he is already dead, it doesn't affect me much. I don't need her protection to survive." Zhu Mei Na's red lips gently opened and closed, every word seemed to be poking at Zhu Xiang Lan's heart. "What do you mean by this?" Zhu Xiang Lan's face had already turned cold. The coldness in her eyes narrowed as if she was also looking for something. Could it be that she was looking for something and was just going to smash it on Zhu Mei Na's head like this. It would be best if she was smashed to death. "I don't mean anything." Zhu Meina felt that talking to such a person had somewhat lowered her status. No, her block was originally very low. After that, she followed Yan Huan and lived for a period of time, when that time came, she would become taller. She thought that she had been in the Zhu family for more than ten years because she was with such a low block person. That was why she had become vulgar, that was why she had become unbearable, and that was why she had become big-breasted and brainless. Indeed, those who were close to Zhu Xianglan were the same as those who were close to her. She put down the cup and turned to leave. She did not let go of the extremely disgusted look that Zhu Xianglan had given her. After taking a few steps, she suddenly stopped and did not turn back. However, she knew that Zhu Xianglan was still there "I advise you not to provoke me now."

Chapter 1219: This is a threat

Zhu Meina lightly clenched her fingers. "Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to afford it." "Do you really think you are something?" Zhu Xianglan directly sneered. Such a voice and tone, how could she not care. Zhu Meina wasn't angry either. She hadn't learned anything from brother long, but she had learned to hold her breath. Now, even if she was scolded by Zhu Xianglan and her mother every day, she could still eat and sleep. "Am I something?" She turned around and looked at Zhu Xianglan with a faint smile. For some reason, Zhu Xianglan shivered. "I dare to go back to the SU family. Do you really think that I can let you sell me again just because I did not leave a way out for myself?" Zhu Meina's red lips were still slightly raised, as red as blood. "Of course I left something for myself, regardless of whether Yan Huan is here or not." "You?" Zhu Xianglan narrowed her eyes, still contemptuous. It was obvious that she did not believe it. "Yes, me." Zhu Meina still had a smile on her face. Of course, she could still keep her composure, and she reminded Zhu Xianglan with good intentions, "Lu Yi did not know that Yan Huan's blood was forcefully extracted by you guys. It's not that she wants to let you guys off, but she did not have the time to make a move.”That’s right, she did not have the time to say it out loud, nor did she have the time to make a move, it was obvious that this time was even worse than the previous time. It was even more unbearable. Otherwise, the current Su family would still be so glorious. Yan Huan wasn’t a kind person, nor was he someone who could swallow his grievances. When Zhu Xianglan heard this, her expression also began to change. “A doctor left some things behind.”Zhu Meina placed her hand on her lips, her smile somewhat piercing. “Those things, Heaven Knows, Earth knows, and I know.” After she said this, she did not say anything more. It was enough for some people. If they wanted to make her sleep day and night, was there anything more satisfying than this? That was to let her know that she still had a fatal weakness in the hands of others. Would she still be able to fall asleep? Of course, what Zhu Meina had in her hands was not only the set of things left behind by the Doctor. That set of things was not enough to destroy the Su family. There was also a video. This was the most important thing. Of course, these things were hidden very well, no one knew where this set of things was. No, other than her and Yan Huan, no one else knew. However, not counting the video, the set of things left behind by the Doctor could already make Zhu Xianglan unable to fall asleep in the future. They still wanted to be safe and sound. After harming someone, they did not want to pay the price. They were all raised by their biological parents. Why should someone else’s child donate bone marrow to their daughter. Why would someone else’s mother go through so much trouble to give birth to a child so that the child would grow up safely, and not to save your daughter? They were not related by blood, so why did they have to save her. Zhu Meina swaggered away, the high heels she was wearing also stepping on the ground from time to time. She did not like to wear slippers at home, she just liked high heels, she just liked to be superior, she just liked to let the Su family know that she was still there, she wanted to remind everyone in the Su family from time to time that with her, Zhu Meina, they would not be able to think well. When the clanging sound of her high heels disappeared, Zhu Xianglan fell weakly onto the sofa behind her. That sentence, “Heaven Knows, Earth knows, Yan Huanzhi, she knows,”was a warning to Zhu Xianglan. Zhu Meina could be said to have been taught by her. Although she had never trained Zhu Meina the same way she had taught Su Muman, a large part of Zhu Meina’s personality had been learned from her. Her methods., zhu Meina had also learned a few things. There was another sentence at the end of this sentence, “Heaven knows the Earth, Yan Huan knows, I know”. It was something that Zhu Meina did not say. It was.. If anything happened to me, this “Heaven knows the earth, Yan Huan knows, I know”would become known by many people. Then, the Su family would have to endure more than just public opinion. Lu Yi was a smart person. How could he not figure out that Yan Huan’s disappearance was because of the Su family. At that time, whether it was Su Muman, her, or the Su family, they would not be able to escape. The more she thought about it, the worse her expression became. The more she thought about it, the more cold sweat broke out on her forehead. The more she thought about it, the harder it was for her to bear the consequences. She almost stumbled to her feet. She ran straight to Su Muman’s room, but she did not know that Zhu Meina was standing at the other end of the stairs. She leaned against the stairs and smiled coldly. She thought about it. It had been a long time since she had gone to Yan Huan’s place. She wondered how she was doing now. Was Xiao Guang still okay? She had a life-and-death relationship with Yan Huan. They had met when they should not have met. She would not harm Yan Huan, and Yan Huan would not harm her. In her heart, Yan Huan was a friend that she could not lose. She was also very sad that her good friend had become like this, but she could not do anything about it. She could only look at her from time to time and keep this secret. She was still wondering if she should tell this secret to Lu Yi. After all, he had the right to know. However, she was also afraid that if Lu Yi found out about this, then the person who gave Yan Huan drugs., would he also have to blame the SU family in the end. In the end, all the crimes were carried out by the SU family. In that case, the real murderer would not be able to get away with it. In the end, after thinking about it, she still felt that she had to wait a little longer. She had to respect Yan Huan's wishes. Yan Huan pretended that he did not say anything. Naturally, he had his own plans. If she still did not wake up after a few years, if the murderer was found... Then, she would announce the matter. At the very least, she would not let the evidence that Yan Huan had painstakingly found be wasted. She did not have much feelings for the Su family anymore. Whether the SU family would not fall had nothing to do with her. She just did not want the Su family to live too well. The next day, she showed off her gorgeous appearance. Su Muran pursed her lips. "Why isn't she going to die?" This was what Zhu Xianglan wanted to ask and what she wanted to say. Why wasn't she going to die? She had really led a wolf into the house and even led an ingrate to raise her by her side. Now, she even knew how to bite her back. "Mom, when can she get lost? I Can't stand it anymore." Su Muran grabbed her hair with force. Right now, she simply wanted to eat Zhu Meina's flesh and drink her blood. Zhu Xianglan's lips pressed against each other. When she opened her mouth again, she realized that they were stuck together and couldn't be separated no matter how hard she tried. "Mom, I want to film." Su Muran stood up abruptly and pulled on Zhu Xianglan's sleeve, "Mom, I want to film. I don't want to stay here forever. I have my own life and I haven't reached the peak of my life yet. If this continues, I will go crazy." She pulled her hair with all her might, she couldn't bear to live such a quiet life anymore. If she continued like this, she would definitely go crazy.

Chapter 1220: picking up leaves for her mother

Zhu Xianglan looked at her daughter and felt her heart ache. However, they were now facing enemies from both sides. It was impossible for them to let her film. "Mother, I want to film." Su Muran tugged at Zhu Xianglan's clothes. I want to film. No matter what, I want to film. "Let mommy think about it." Zhu Xianglan waved her hand weakly. She really did not have the mood to think about Ying residence anymore. External worries and internal troubles. When she thought about Zhu Meina's threat, she felt uncomfortable. Su Muran originally wanted to say something, but when she saw Zhu Xianglan like this, she knew that it was useless to say anything. She tugged at her clothes tightly. No matter what, she had to act in this scene. Yan Huan no longer existed in this world. With her looks and the connections she had accumulated in the past, she did not believe that her popularity would be worse than a dead person in the future. Yes, a dead person was already a dead person, and in her heart, Yan Huan, who was in a vegetative state, was a dead person. Of course, she also did not put the new stars in the entertainment industry in her eyes. Back when she was famous, they were still eating cabbage and vegetables that she disdained, they were supporting roles that no one paid any attention to. She believed that as long as she appeared in the entertainment industry now, her identity as the top sister in the industry would be hers. She would definitely succeed. Yes, she would, as long as she made a comeback.., and appeared in front of the public again. However, whether it was elder Su or Su Qingdong, they could not let her act anymore. However, she had always been acting. She had always wanted to be a star since she was young, she had always been on this path. Moreover, she had always been on a smooth path. It was just as she had expected. However, why had she fallen ill when her career was at its peak, now that she had finally recovered from her illness, they still refused to let her act. No, she shook her head. She wanted to act. She had to act. She had to return to her initial days. She also wanted everyone to fall in love with her. She had already won the best actress award in the country, she wanted to become an international best actress in the future. Zhu Xianglan was also thinking about letting Su Mulan Act. When she turned around and saw Su Mulan's crazed look, she said another word helplessly. Maybe. She thought about it and gritted her teeth. She had another decision. The sky outside was cloudy again. At this time, the weather in Hai City was getting worse. Even the wind blowing on their faces was a little cold. The pedestrians on the streets were also shivering, almost all of them had a layer of goosebumps that had been frozen. The winter of this season had come again. The four seasons of Hai City were the clearest. The four seasons of the year, Spring and autumn, were both good. Even the summer was more comfortable than other places. Only when winter came, it was a little colder. However, if there was heating, then it would be a warm winter, the sea city was envied by people from other places. It was humid in the south, but it also had a heater in the north. It was a perfect big city where the north and South merged together. The traffic was good, the weather was good, and of course, it was also a good place to make money. A sports car drove over. When the wind blew past, it was actually an indescribable fragrance. If someone recognized the goods, they would know that this was the latest perfume produced by Chanel. It was a global limited amount of light fragrance, it would last for a long time, and every perfume was different. A hundred people could smell a hundred different fragrances. This was a perfume concocted by a top-notch world-class perfumer. It was also extremely difficult to buy, and of course, it was extremely expensive. An ordinary person might not even be able to imagine the fragrance. Some people were still struggling to make ends meet, but there were a lot of people who were willing to spend a fortune just for this kind of thing. The sports car drove along the mountain road. Every time she arrived here, Zhu Meina felt that all the anger she had suffered in the Su family had disappeared. No, she suddenly sneered. How could she be bullied? She had always been bullied by others, as long as she stayed in the Su family for a day, even if she didn't speak or show her face, with the space she lived in and the air she breathed, it would eventually make the Su family feel uncomfortable. That was enough, she had also achieved her goal. With a squeak, she stopped the car. After the security outside had checked, she drove in and parked the car, except for the special license plate number, all the cars had to be parked outside for the sake of safety here. The Liuyuan garden was relatively safe. If it couldn't be said to be safe here, then there was no safe place in Hai City. Zhu Meina walked out in her high heels. When she reached the Liuyuan Garden, she saw a wheelchair placed in the huge courtyard. On the wheelchair was a sleeping woman. At this moment., as the veil danced, the warmth gently fell on her eyes. Even her gently closed eyelashes seemed to dance with it. In that instant, she seemed to have seen the legendary fairy. She was probably about to ascend to immortality. The woman had very beautiful and exquisite eyebrows, as well as fair and transparent skin. It was already completely blurry to her age. How Old was she? was she twenty, twenty-five, eighteen, or perhaps, it was already impossible to tell her age. There was also a rope tied to the wheelchair. At the other end of the rope was a small child. It was a boy. His small hand was touching something on the ground. He touched a leaf from the ground, then, he grabbed his own rope and pulled the rope forward. He held the leaf with one hand and carefully climbed forward, suddenly, with a bang, his small head hit the wheelchair. His small mouth also flattened. Tears rolled in his eyes, but he did not cry. He sat up, and his little hand went forward to touch his mother's hand. "Mama, give the leaf that light picked up to Mama." He put the leaf in his mother's hand, but he did not know that if he put one, the leaf would fall up, and if he put two, two would also fall down. and his mother still did not get a leaf. The little child leaned her little head against her mother's leg. "Mommy, Little Light, can you go pick up more leaves for Mommy?" He climbed up again and crawled forward. His little hands would touch it from time to time just to pick up a few more leaves for his mother. A finger with a large diamond ring stretched out. The fingernails were also very exquisite, and there were many gemstones on it. Under the sunlight, they were so exquisite that it made one go crazy, it was unknown if those gemstones would directly cut someone's face. Also, on the ring on her finger, there was a huge diamond inlaid, as well as on her wrist, she was wearing a very beautiful chain. The thin and shiny ones on it, if they weren't thin diamonds, then what were they? They couldn't be glass, right.
