

Chapter 1231: why didn't you crush him to death

"What did I do on Purpose?" He Yibin patted his hand. "Let go, I want to treat the illness." Once he Yibin went over, he immediately checked mother Lei's Arm. Mother Lei was in so much pain that she didn't even want to speak. "Why didn't you tell me that my mother only had a fracture?" Lei Qingyi followed he yibin in front and behind. In any case, it was he Yibin's fault this time. "You ran too fast on your own. What has it got to do with me?" He Yibin was already helping Lei Qingyi's mother with all sorts of examinations. "Can't you speak faster?" Lei Qingyi followed. "Enough." He Yibin stretched out his hand and pointed at the door. "Stand at the door. Do you want your mother to die of pain? I didn't see her in so much pain. You still want to be my path. Are you still a son?" Now, without he Yibin saying anything, Papa Lei grabbed Lei Qingyi's collar and threw him out. He Yibin brought Lei Qingyi's mother for all sorts of examinations. They might have to carry out surgery later. They just hoped that it wasn't too serious a fracture, but only a few fractures, it would be best if they didn't need surgery. Even a young person's body couldn't withstand the surgery, let alone Lei Qingyi's mother. Not long after, Yi Ling came over in a hurry. "How's Mom?" She was also scared silly. She could not even drive a car, and it was Rowling who sent her over. "I'm looking into it." Papa Lei also stood outside, walking from time to time. He was so worried that he could not even sit down. As for Lei Qingyi, she was still squatting in the corner like a poor little girl that no one wanted. Yi Ling did not care about him. Right now, she was worried about Mama Lei. who had the time to worry about the orphan-like Lei Qingyi. After a while, Ye Shuyun came over when she heard the news. There was also Lu Yi. Ye Shuyun's eyes turned red when she saw Xiao Guang sleeping. She was worried about her grandson and her sister. She was almost worried to death. The two children at home., fortunately, old master Lu and the two nannies were there. Otherwise, she really would not be able to free herself. Lu Yi carried Xiao Guang over and patted Xiao Guang's little head. Xiao Guang had fallen asleep. She was quiet and well-behaved like a little angel. Her head was swollen again, it was such a big bump. However, he believed that his son definitely didn't cry. He was already very brave. He was the bravest of the three children. ] "How did mom get hurt?" Yi Ling asked Papa Lei. "How did she hurt her arm when she was fine?" "Sigh, I accidentally slipped when I was mopping the floor." Papa Lei lied. There was nothing he could do. He couldn't say that it was that stupid grandson who thought that his past was so small. This pounce., he threw Mama Lei onto the floor, and that was how Mama Lei's Arm was injured. But did he dare to say it? If he really said it, little lei would not only have his butt split open, but his skin and flesh split open. Sigh, he sighed again. He couldn't blame the child. It was all the Lei family's fault, who asked the Lei family to be so tall. It really had nothing to do with the child. He was still a child. He Yibin walked out with a pile of examination reports in his hands. He glanced at the people present and finally heaved a sigh of relief, "It's a fracture. However, the fracture is not serious. There are some slight fractures. I don't want to operate on Auntie. It's too harmful to the body and the recovery period is too long. Moreover, it will involve a second operation. I'll get our orthopedics specialist here to reset her bones and apply a cast on her. She will slowly recover on her own. After staying in the hospital for a few more days, if there's nothing else, she can go home. She doesn't have to stay in the hospital every day." When Papa Lei heard this, he heaved a sigh of relief. It was fine as long as there was no surgery. Mama Lei was already so old, but she had not undergone any surgery. If she was allowed to enter the operating theater, she would be in so much pain and fear. Now that he heard that there was no surgery, he was no longer afraid. In a short while, he yibin found the orthopedic specialist. After they saw the scan, the two of them began to study it. This was the right bone for Mama Lei. However, this set of bones was also very painful. Mother Lei endured it with all her strength. Although she did not scream, she was drenched in cold sweat from the pain. Yi Ling sat at the side in grief and kept crying. She had no mother in her life. Her first mother was Mother Yan, mother Yan left early again. Therefore, after mother Yan left, she and Yan Huan became orphans. Later on, she married Lei Qingyi. Mother Lei treated her like her own daughter, better than Lei Qingyi, people's hearts were made of flesh. For the past ten years, they had been living together like mother and daughter. Now that Mother Lei was in such pain, how could she not feel sorry for her? How could she not be sad. Lei Qingyi walked over, put her arm around Yi Ling's shoulder, and shook it again, "Don't worry, mother will be fine. It will only hurt for a while, but it will be over soon. This is much better than having a surgery. If you have a surgery, you will need to have two surgeries. That will be the pain." "How did you know?" Yi Ling asked as she wiped away her tears. Her nasal voice was also very heavy. When Yan Huan was a minor actor in the past, he would often get hurt. However, most of the time, he would only get a sprain or something. He had never undergone any surgery before. How did he know that there would be two surgeries? How much more pain would there be? "I did." Lei Qingyi pointed at his calf, "You didn't see the scar on my leg. When I went out on missions, my leg was fractured. I was in pain for three days and three nights before I got to the hospital. It was Lu Yi who carried me there." "When we got to the hospital later, I was the one who operated." Yi Ling wiped her tears again. "It's okay. It's all in the past." Lei Qingyi comforted Yi Ling again, "Look, I'm fine now. I can run and jump, and I can even run a marathon. MOM is much lighter than I was back then. Besides, I can go home after a few days of observation. I can take care of myself at home." "Then..." Yi Ling thought about it and hesitated. She didn't know how to ask. "Do you want me to ask if it hurt?" Lei Qingyi knew that his Lingling loved him. She was still concerned about whether his leg hurt. Yi Ling shook her head. "No... I just want to ask. Do you think it was this tall?" "Yes," Lei Qingyi thought about her own time. "I was already 24 years old. I didn't grow any longer." "Was it really Lu Yi who carried you back?" Yi Ling asked again in disbelief. "Yes." Lei Qingyi and Lu Yi's deep revolutionary friendship was formed from that time. They had a life-and-death friendship, which was different from cousin and younger cousin. "Then why didn't you crush him to death?" Yi Ling clenched her fists. "You're so heavy, so much taller than Lu Yi. How could he carry you?"

Chapter 1232: wanted to film

Rowling suddenly burst out laughing. She laughed until her stomach hurt. Even mother Lei couldn't help but laugh. She had forgotten the pain. Lei Qingyi's face was dark. The atmosphere was ruined. He really wanted to put his hand on Yi Ling's neck and break her neck. Yi Ling was still muttering to herself for a long time. She even took out her phone to calculate the height difference between the two of them. She even calculated their weight. "That's not right..." she said again. "How could Lu Yi do that to you? He must have tied a rope to you and pulled you along." Mama Lei laughed so hard that her body began to tremble. Her tears also came out of her eyes. They were originally tears of pain, but now they turned into smiles. She laughed until her stomach hurt, she had completely forgotten about the pain on her arm. "It's done." The orthopedic doctor was also covered in sweat. "It's finally done." Mama Lei's Arm was already in the cast. She did not want to use this arm too much. After a month, she would come over for an x-ray. If her head had grown back, then she could remove the cast, "Thank you, Doctor." Mama Lei heaved a sigh of relief. She was so nervous just now that she almost could not breathe. Fortunately, Yi Ling had interrupted her. Otherwise, who knew when she would be able to relax, she had been in pain, she had laughed, her tears had flowed, and she had used up most of her strength. Finally, she could have a good rest. In a short while, Mama Lei had fallen asleep. Although she was still slightly nervous, she did not cry out in pain anymore. In fact, everyone knew that she was still in pain, however, it was much lighter than before. "Where is little lei?" Yi Ling asked Guan Huan Lei Qingyi. He was not going to school today, and his family was at this time. What was he going to do? "Don't worry," lei qingyi comforted Yi Ling, "He's been taken away by aunt. It's not convenient for mom. Little Lei is also a rash person. Let him stay at Aunt's place for a few days first. When mom is better, let him come back." Yi Ling thought about it and agreed. She first left little lei at Aunt's place. When Little Lei was done with school, she would pick him up at school at noon and bring him to Linlang for lunch. She could also urge him to finish his homework, otherwise, he would go wild again and not do his homework properly. Mama Lei fell asleep. The surrounding sounds became quieter, and everyone also let out a sigh of relief. He Yibin and Luo Lin had already left. They were newly married, so of course, they had to cultivate their relationship properly. For example, where to talk about love, which small forest, etc. , it was not easy to meet each other, yet they did not let each other show off their love. Lu Yi brought Xiao Guang back to the Liuyuan Garden. Xiao Guang was injured and in pain. When he was in pain, he needed his parents the most. He was also the most afraid. It was better to let him stay by his mother's side, even though his mother did not speak., but his mother's body temperature was the best comfort for Xiao Guang. Xiao Guang rubbed his eyes as his small hands groped around. Then, out of habit, he curled into his mother's embrace and continued to sleep. At this moment, a large hand was placed on his small face. "Pull pull..." Xiao Guang opened his eyes. However, no matter if he opened or closed his eyes, his world was still dark. He opened his eyes to let others know that he was awake. Lu Yi carried his son up and let him sit in his arms. Then, he placed the milk bottle on his little hand. "Be good, drink the milk." "Okay." Xiao Guang drank the milk obediently. He wasn't like Xun Xun. Xun Xun was a delicate little fellow. Sometimes, even those who drank milk needed to be coaxed, especially when they woke up in the morning and hadn't woken up yet, he loved to cry and it was quite difficult to coax him. However, light was very obedient. He could drink his own milk and he didn't need adults to coax him, nor did he need adults to worry about him. "Does it hurt?" Lu Yi asked light and gently touched his small forehead. He didn't know how many times he had pulled and banged it. There were small and large injuries, new and old injuries, and all of them had left some small scars, he just did not know if it would grow back in the future. However, if Ru Kun continued to fall like this, he might not be able to grow back for the rest of his life. Xiao Yao shook her little head hard. "Ba Ba, Xiao Guang doesn't hurt. Xiao Guang has grown up." "Yes, my Xiao Guang has grown up." Lu Yi picked up his son again and then held Yan Huan's hand tightly. "Huanhuan, look, our little light has grown up. You have to wake up quickly, or you'll miss their growth. They can do handicrafts, draw, and write a lot. Our little light has done well. I hope you can do well too. Don't wake up when the time comes. I'm old, and the children have grown up." At this moment, the light from outside still penetrated in gently. After a few folds, it had become extremely thin, and the light fell on the woman who was sleeping quietly on the bed. Her breathing was still steady. Even her long eyelashes did not quiver once. She was still sleeping. She was still unconscious, and she could dream. No one knew. Sun Yuhan looked at herself in the mirror and also put the powder puff in her hand. So what if she had turned into this? She, Sun Yuhan, was actually so outdated that others did not recognize her. The popularity that she had accumulated with great difficulty., had also been hospitalized with her. It had become a disaster. Now, even when she walked on the streets, no one recognized her. This meant that they did not recognize her. Then, tell her why she needed so many bodyguards and assistants. Was it to put on airs or to serve the people, to pay their salaries. No, she pressed her hands hard on the table. She could not be outdated like this. She had not been a celebrity enough, and she had not been famous enough. She hadn't been the center of attention before. Even if she didn't become a celebrity, at the very least, she would get an award or something like that. Just like now, it was neither hot nor cold. This wasn't What She, Sun Yuhan, wanted. "Grandpa, I want to act. Can You Let Me Act?" Sun Yuhan tugged at ye Jianguo's sleeve. She knew that as long as ye Jianguo agreed, then no matter what kind of show it was, it would be hers. If she wanted the female lead, then it would be the female lead. If she wanted the second female lead, then it would be the second female lead. If she wanted to make a comeback on Sun Island, then it would definitely be the female lead. The second female lead, she would not be interested in it. Originally, the drama that Yan Hua filmed was pretty good. It could be said that it had been sharpened for ten years. It was also a popular movie with a large IP. In addition, it was Yan Hua's work, so it was also foreshadowed, this was the movie that would have the highest viewership ratings next year. It was because something had happened in the middle that the movie was now stranded indefinitely. No one knew when it would be able to start shooting again.

Chapter 1233: was in a sorry state

Of course, Sun Yuhan would never admit that this film was in trouble because of her, not because of anything else. If she had not dragged Su Muran down from Wuwei Ya and injured herself.., the film was still being filmed. Perhaps it was almost done. Next year, and if the publicity was good, it could become popular again. She was the female lead in the film. If this film was broadcast, then needless to say.., she might even win her first Best Actress award. But what was the point of saying all this now. She just didn't know if this film would be filmed again in the future. She heard that Yan Hua was in the hospital and was about to die from anger. She was afraid that it would be impossible to film a film in the future, so she didn't wait any longer, if she waited any longer, she might really become outdated and no one would remember her anymore. "You want to film?" Ye Jianguo reached out and touched his granddaughter's hair. "Yuhan, grandfather doesn't want you to film now. Your leg hasn't fully recovered yet. The Doctor said that you're not allowed to have any strenuous activities. Filming is very tiring. What if your leg is injured again?" "Grandpa, my leg has recovered a long time ago. Sun Yuhan hugged ye Jianguo's arm and acted coquettishly from time to time. Grandpa, Can You Let Me Act? "Besides, I have a stand-in now. As long as I show my face, I won't be affected." Ye Jianguo originally wanted to refuse, but when he thought of Sun Yuhan's expression these days and her increasingly irritable temper. In the end, he couldn't say the words to reject her.. "Let Grandpa think about it." Ye Jianguo stroked his granddaughter's hair. Indeed, he needed to think about it. Actually, with Sun Yuhan's current body, it was impossible for her to act. However, Sun Yuhan's temper was difficult because she hadn't been raised well in the Ye family. If she wanted something, she had to get it. The Ye family would always give in to her. Ye Jianguo would grant her every request, but ye Chuji ignored her, ye Xinyu simply turned a blind eye to it, so Sun Yu Han's temper became even more overbearing. If she couldn't get it, she would never stop. Ye Jianguo understood her temper the most, and he could do nothing about it. However, she was his granddaughter, his Rong Rong Sheng's only daughter. She had suffered a lot since she was young, just like an orphan, growing up without parents, he only wanted to compensate her for all the things she had lost over the years. In the end, he had overcompensated her, making her personality worse. However, children were all his own good. Ye Jianguo did not feel anything. His granddaughter naturally had everything she wanted. If she wanted to act, she could act. Ye Jianguo then helped Sun Yuhan take on a romantic idol drama. The other supporting roles were all very well-known in the country, especially the male lead. He looked like he would bring disaster to the country and the people, he had many fans and had become very popular in recent years. With a movie star with such a big IP, it was inevitable that the movie would become popular. As for the female lead, of course, Sun Yuhan would be the lead. There were still a few months before the movie would be released. With these few months, she would be able to recover from the injury on her leg. Sun Yuhan was not too satisfied with this, because she had waited a little too long, and she did not want to wait too long now. However, this was not something that she could do. Ye Jianguo letting her film was already the bottom line of his ability. If they started filming now.., ye Jianguo would definitely not agree. Although ye Jianguo could dote on her unconditionally and give her whatever she wanted, there were some things that he wouldn't cross. On this day, she walked into an extremely stylish tea shop with her fancy clothes on. Then, she walked straight to a table and sat down. She also took off the sunglasses on her face. "You're looking for me?" There was a disdain in her voice that was not hard to hear. She did not treat this woman who looked like a noble lady as an elder. She only looked like an elder in her age, but it was not for her elder, moreover, the two families were enemies. Why did she have to come here? "I have something to ask you." Zhu Xianglan poured herself a cup of tea. She had not been a noble lady for nothing these past few years. No matter how she looked inside, whether it was black or yellow, this set of actions.., it was still very eye-catching. Sun Yuhan pursed her lips. "What is it? What is it? I don't know what kind of relationship I have with Madam Su?" Yes, they did not have any friendship. They did not have any in the past, and it was impossible for them to have any in the future. "Why?" Zhu Xianglan picked up the cup on the table and put it to her lips. "You have smashed my daughter into such a state. Don't you have the slightest bit of apology?" "Apology?" Sun Yuhan seemed to have heard a big joke. "Let's not beat around the bush. We all know how your daughter lives." Zhu Xianglan's eyes flashed. She poured herself a cup of tea and began to drink cup by cup. She could sit still, but Sun Yuhan might not. In this time, she had already gone shopping several times and bought a lot of trophies. Who would have time to drink tea with an old woman here. Sun Yuhan took her bag and stood up immediately. "Do you know what kind of person ye Rong is?" Sun Yuhan was about to walk when she suddenly paused and extended her eyes. "I don't need you to remind me what kind of person my mother is." Sun Yuhan pulled out her hair. At this moment, her eyes, which were blocked by her hair, had an indescribable panic. Could it be that she knew something.., she suddenly recalled the contents of the letter. At that time, this Zhu Xianglan was ye Rong's best friend. Ye Rong had never despised her background. She even squeezed him from time to time. However, Ye Rong did not expect that the woman whom she had helped back then would directly steal her away. She was also the culprit who had caused her harm in the future. However, without the help of this woman.., how could she, Sun Yuhan, exist now. Could it be that she really had to thank her. But, what did Zhu Xianglan mean by saying all this now? Sun Yuhan suddenly turned her head and saw the fake smile on Zhu Xianglan's face that made her want to vomit. At the same time, it also made her feel a kind of fear for no reason. It was the greatest fear since she became the granddaughter of the Ye family.., the greatest fear. She slowly withdrew her foot that was about to walk out. After which, she sat on it again. This time around, it was as though there was a thorn under her butt. It was extremely uncomfortable and uncomfortable.

Chapter 1234: Who's thick-skinned

"Why? Do You Know My Mother?" Her tone softened. Although there was still some reluctance, she was no longer so overbearing. "Your mother and I are good friends." Zhu Xianglan had been staring at Sun Yuhan's face. "Also, these families are very special." Sun Yuhan didn't want to hear about this special thing, and her intuition told her that this special thing wasn't what she wanted to hear. However, even though she didn't want to hear it, Zhu Xianglan wanted to say it. "There is a recessive gene in the blood of the Su family, just like the dye in my family. They are all the same as old madam Su who passed away. It is very likely that they have RH Negative AB blood, which is panda blood." Sun Yuhan's heart was once again shaken. Her fingers that were placed on her hand were clenched into a fist. She was even sweating profusely. She extended her hand and tried to wipe something on her body from time to time. "As for the Ye family..." Zhu Xianglan stared at Sun Yuhan's face again. This expression of hers was as though she was examining an item and was waiting for it to be sold at a low price. The members of the Ye family would undoubtedly have a good appearance. Zhu Xianglan's voice continued to ring out. Every word was like slapping Sun Yuhan in the face. "Back then, Ye Rong was a famous young lady from a famous family in Hai City. She looked very much like Yan Huan Now. You can imagine for yourself what she looks like." Zhu Xianglan placed the Teacup to her lips, from the corner of her eye, she also noticed the annoyance and resentment in Sun Yuhan's eyes. Zhu Xianglan's words were a real slap to Sun Yuhan's face. She had an ordinary appearance and did not have a good figure. Although she secretly had a few plastic surgeries., however, no matter how many plastic surgeries she had, it was impossible for them to be very good-looking. The plastic surgeon had already said that her bone structure was originally like that. If she wanted to have a major surgery, she would have to go through a major surgery. That would also be a very dangerous surgery. However, a surgery like this., she still needed her relatives to sign it. Regardless of whether it was ye Jianguo or ye Chuji, it was impossible for them to let her have such a surgery. Moreover, she was afraid of pain, and she did not dare to peel off all the skin on her face. Moreover, she also did not dare to break her bones. She simply could not make this decision. Hence, her current face was still the same, no matter how exquisite her makeup was, it could not be compared to the other party's natural appearance. Yan Huan, Hehe, who could be compared to Yan Huan? She was one of the Five Beauties in Asia, and her temperament was top-notch. This was something that was selected by others, and it was not something that Yan Huan claimed to be, not to mention Yan Huan, even Su Muran in front of her could compare her to a crevice in the ground. She was an ugly duckling, an ugly duckling that could not become beautiful at all. This could not be blamed on her. If anyone was to blame, it would be her parents. How could they give birth to such a face for her. And right now, she was putting on a fake smile, but her pair of eyes were about to tear Zhu Xiang into pieces. What kind of cultivation did Zhu Xiang Lan have? If she didn't have any schemes, how could she marry from an ordinary family to a big family like the Su family, which had a hundred years of history, moreover, she had transformed herself into a noble lady like today. Not to mention her inner qualities, her appearance was indeed commendable. She didn't lose out to the other noble ladies in Hai City. Therefore, how could a small Sun Yuhan be her opponent. Others were jealous of Sun Yuhan because she was ye Rong's daughter. However, in Zhu Xianglan's case, they knew very well whether she was ye Rong's daughter or not. "Where was I?" Zhu Xianglan elegantly poured herself a cup of tea and placed it on the table. "Oh, that's right." She glanced at Sun Yuhan and suddenly covered her mouth, "I remember now. I said that the Ye family produces beauties. This is known throughout the entire sea city. The Lei family is an ancient martial arts family that has been passed down for generations. Because they have the blood of a minority, everyone is very tall. As for the Lu family..." Zhu Xianglan gently stroked the cup in her hand. "The Lu family are all military geniuses. Their IQ is higher than the average person." "What do you mean by telling me this?" Sun Yuhan sneered. She didn't want to hear this. If she came here to let her hear some story, she was sorry. She wasn't in the mood. "What's the meaning of this?" Zhu Xianglan wasn't angry, because the one who should be angry wasn't her, but Sun Yuhan. "Your mother is so beautiful, but you are a little ordinary?" This was really a slap in the face. "I look like my father," Sun Yuhan said with a cold face, almost gnashing her teeth. "Is that so?" Zhu Xianglan's sentence was meaningful. "Have you seen your father?" Zhu Xianglan asked again, "Aren't you an orphan? Weren't you thrown at the door of the orphanage when you were young?" This was not a secret, and many people knew it. "I don't look like my mother, so naturally I look like my father." Sun Yuhan pursed her lips. "Why? Who in the world says that a daughter can't look like her father?" "There's no such thing." Zhu Xianglan was lazy to argue with Sun Yuhan. Sun Yuhan felt that she was wasting her time. Could it be that she, Zhu Xianglan, was not wasting her time? "What exactly are you trying to say?" Sun Yuhan lowered her voice. She could not stand Zhu Xianglan's sarcastic tone at this moment. If you have something to say, just say it. There's no need to beat around the bush with me. Zhu Xianglan glanced at her. "You're going to shoot a new drama." "You're well-informed." Sun Yuhan wanted to shoot a new drama, but it was decided for now. Because the movie hadn't started yet, very few people knew about it. "My family's Ranran wants the characters in it," Zhu Xianglan said calmly. It was a shame that she dared to make such a request. As expected, Sun Yuhan did not react for a long time. "You Want Your Daughter to act in my drama?" She thought that she had heard a cold joke and did not want anyone to laugh at her. "Zhu Xianglan, you are really thick-skinned." That drama was filmed by the Ye family. Did Zhu Xianglan know how much money was invested in it? Just based on her words, she wanted a role. Did she know the Ye Family? Did Sun Yuhan have any relationship with Su Muran? If she knew him, she was the one who stole Su Muran's man, however, she didn't want that man now. If Su Muran wanted it, she would take it back. She really had the face to ask for a role, and she even wanted it so openly. Zhu Xianglan was naturally not angry anymore. "No matter how thick-skinned I am, I am not as thick-skinned as Miss Sun." Sun Yuhan stood up, took her bag and was about to walk out. Talking to some people was a waste of her good mood and her time. Even if she gave her time to the dog., she would not give it to a woman like Zhu Xianglan.

Chapter 1235: she did not want to die

Zhu Xianglan slowly poured a cup of tea into her own cup. It looked like she had drunk too much, but it was actually not as much as Sun Yuhan's Cup of fruit juice. "Sun Yuhan, do you really think that you are the granddaughter of the Ye family and Ye Rongsheng?" These words made Sun Yuhan stop in her tracks, and her feet seemed to be stuck there, almost unable to take a step forward. "What do you want to say?" Sun Yuhan had already sensed what Zhu Xianglan knew, but she could not be so fearless. Furthermore, she had to be crazy to say such a bunch of nonsense to her. However, it was obvious., Zhu Xianglan was not crazy. She could not be more clear-headed. "You know it in your heart." Zhu Xianglan placed the cup on the table. "You don't have to pretend with me. Whether you are Ye Rong's daughter or not, heaven and earth will know, and you and I will know." For the first time, Sun Yuhan experienced a fear that could almost cut off all of her lifeline. "You are not Ye Rong's daughter." Zhu Xianglan picked up a tissue at the side and carefully wiped the tea stain on her lips. "Madam Su, you sure know how to joke." The flesh on Sun Yuhan's face trembled. "If I'm not Ye Rong's daughter, then who is Ye Rong's Daughter? Could it be your daughter, Su Muran?" "Is it? Don't you know?" Zhu Xianglan placed the tissue in her hand to the side, "I don't know how you replaced her identity and entered the Ye family, but there are some things that you have to admit. You are now the Ye family. In name, you are the grandson of the Ye family, but you are not Ye Rong's daughter. Ye Rong's daughter is Yan Huan." Sun Yuhan was stunned. She gritted her teeth and glared at Zhu Xianglan, "Are you threatening me?" She sat down again and her breathing became slightly heavy. It was clear that her emotions were fluctuating and were much bigger than her expression. Other people wanted to fight to the death, however, she did not want to die. "Don't forget." Sun Yuhan moved closer to Zhu Xianglan and her voice was even colder. "Who was the one who drew Yan Huan's blood, drew her bone marrow, made her disappear, and then let her die?" "It was me," Zhu Xianglan admitted generously, "A lot of people know about this. Yan Huan was the first to know, but she hasn't made it public yet, and you..." her gaze circled around Sun Yuhuan. "Miss Sun, you took on the identity of Ye Rong's daughter and entered the ye family. You spent the ye family's money and hurt ye Rong's real daughter. What do you think will happen to you if ye Jianguo finds out about this?" She would be reduced to nothing. Sun Yuhuan naturally knew. She had already thought of it when she decided to take on the identity of Ye Rong's daughter. Now, she had no way out. She would continue to be ye Rong's daughter, enjoying endless wealth and riches. She would be exposed.., it was worse than death. And she had not lived enough. How could she die? How could she bear to die. "What do you want?" She took a deep breath. "We are now on the same boat. I Can't live, and neither can you. Su Muran can't live either." "Don't worry." Zhu Xianglan took her bag and tidied up the things inside, "I'm not going to fight to the death with your Miss Sun. Now that Yan Huan is like that, I think he'll be a vegetable for the rest of his life. I'm not stupid enough to let him live a good life, but if we both get hurt, neither of us will get any benefits." Sun Yuhuan bit her lips and loosened her grip on her knees. She loosened her grip again and again, resisting the urge to grab Zhu Xianglan's face. "I'll give the second female lead role to Su Muran. That should be enough, right?" "Of course, I'm very satisfied." Zhu Xianglan lifted her bag and twisted her already deformed body before leaving gracefully. However, when she twisted her body, her clothes moved, meanwhile, Zhu Xianglan's belly was moving. Sun Yuhuan picked up the fruit juice on the table and drank it in one gulp. Then, she stepped on her shoes and walked out. At this moment, her face was like a hailstorm, so dark that it was frightening. They did not know that there was a young and fashionable woman sitting not far away. The woman stood up and her high heels stepped on the floor from time to time. Under the meticulous makeup, she had a perfect figure. She walked out and drove her new sports car to the mall. She bought a bunch of toys and stuffed them into her car. Then, she walked around the mountain road. The more she walked, the fewer people there were. The more she walked.., the quieter and more she walked, the more she could see the beautiful scenery near the mountains and rivers not far away. When the car stopped, she saw the words "Liu Yuan" written on an open door platform. At the door, there were sentries standing. After all kinds of checks were done, she drove the car in and carried a bunch of toys from inside. It was just that these high heels were too high. She twisted and turned, the sentries broke out in a cold sweat for her. They were all afraid that she wouldn't be able to walk properly, and then she would just turn away. "Miss Zhu, you're here." As soon as the nanny opened the door, she saw Zhu Meina's big and small bags. She was clearly so beautiful here, but her movement of carrying things was really manly. Zhu Meina put the things she was carrying on the ground. Without any image, she picked up a piece of clothing and wiped her sweat, revealing half of her belly. She did not care about her face and directly walked to the sofa and sat down, she poured herself a glass of water and drank it She had never been courteous here. She had even stayed here for a few months. If it was not because she wanted to return to the Su family, perhaps she would still stay here and be quite happy to stay, not in the Su family's place where even the air was polluted. Lu Yi heard the noise outside and walked out with Xiao Guang. He held Xiao Guang's little hand. Xiao Guang could already walk. As long as someone held his little hand, he would dare to move. It wasn't like the past.., he didn't even dare to walk. He was afraid of falling, afraid of pain. "My Xiao Guang!" Zhu Meina ran over and hugged Xiao Guang. She kissed and kissed Xiao Guang on his little face. She really doted on Xiao Guang. She treated Xiao Guang as her own child. "Aunt Meimei," Xiao Guang smiled with his mouth wide open. His little face had gotten a little chubby recently. "Let's go, Xiao Guang. Aunt bought some good stuff for you. It was your aunt Meimei who personally picked it up and carried it back," Zhu Meina said as she carried Xiao Guang and brought her to look at the toys, she sat on the ground and played with Xiaoguang's toys. She did not forget that she had come this year.

Chapter 1236: what do you have on her

"What did they say?" Did you hear it clearly? Lu Yi placed his finger on the table and tapped lightly. Zhu Meina shook her head, "They were too far away, and there was music. I didn't hear it clearly. Sun Yuhan got up twice, probably to leave both times. In the end, I don't know what Zhu Xianglan said to her, but she actually sat down again." "The two of them talked for about an hour. During that time, Zhu Xianglan had nothing to fear. I understand her expression. She had nothing to fear and was confident." "As for Sun Yuhan..." Zhu Meina thought of a certain woman's expression. "She should be very angry, but in the end, she endured it." However, that woman, Sun Yuhan, had become the granddaughter of the Ye family, she did not put anyone in her eyes. Even if it was her uncle, Ye Chuji, she did not have any respect for him. However, when she was in front of Zhu Xianglan, she was like a mouse seeing a cat. She was afraid. "I feel..." Zhu Meina let Xiao Guang sit on her lap. She liked his soft and creamy body the most. "Sun Yuhan is afraid of Zhu Xianglan. She must have something on Zhu Xianglan." "Something on her?" Lu Yi murmured these two words softly. He did not know what information Sun Yuhan had on Zhu Xianglan. The Ye family and the Su family had always been at odds with each other, if Zhu Xianglan really reached an agreement with Sun Yuhan, then the Ye family would be in danger. "I think so." Zhu Meina held Xiao Guang's little hand and played with it. "Although I heard what they were saying, my feeling is that there's nothing wrong with it. So, you have to be careful and keep an eye on them." "Aunty, Xiao Guang has to pee." Xiao Guang held Zhu Meina's finger and said in a baby voice. This baby voice was so cute that it almost melted Zhu Meina. She quickly carried Xiao Guang. A three-year-old child did not have much weight to begin with. Moreover, after Xiao Guang's accident, he had not been eating properly, so he was much thinner. It was not difficult to carry him. They left. Auntie brought Xiao Guang to the toilet. Zhu Meina brought Xiao Guang to the toilet, fed him some water, and then started playing with him. It was Xiao Guang who messed up her carefully groomed hair, she was still smiling and wasn't angry at all. She even let Xiao Guang play with her precious hair. She was pouring all her maternal love into Xiao Guang. She used to like Lu Yi so much. Lu Yi was her cinnamon mole, her white moonlight. It was a dream that she couldn't get. But now, Lu Yi was just sitting there, but she didn't feel anything at all. In her current industry..., what Lu Yi, Lu Er, they weren't even as good as Xiao Guang's. She treated Xiao Guang as her son, but she couldn't treat Lu Yi as her husband. A friend's husband was something she couldn't let go of. Moreover, she really didn't have any feelings for Lu Yi now. In the past, it was because she liked faces, but now she felt that Lu Yi's personality was too scary. She was just a little petty, but she couldn't withstand such a strict gaze from prosecutor Lu. Zhu Meina played with Xiao Guang for a while before she prepared to go back. She was quite reluctant to part with Xiao Guang, so she could not run here every day, much less bring Xiao Guang back to her home, there were two monsters at home, and she was afraid that the two female monsters would eat Xiao Guang. "Look at you, how can you still sleep?" She sat on the chair and cupped her chin, "Yan Huan, look at you, you useless piece of trash. Back then, it was so difficult for you to hit your head against the wall every day and kick your drug addiction. Now, no matter what, you don't have a missing arm or a broken leg. How can you sleep for so long? When you get old and die, no one will care how long you sleep for. But how old are you now? Can you be a better person?" "Hurry up and wake up. You don't even know that Su Muran and Sun Yuhan have climbed onto your head. When they replace you, you'll be embarrassed. It's fine if this reputation is given to others, but it's given to such an ugly monster." She held Yan Huan's hand tightly. "Remember to wake up. I'll wait for you. We still have to join hands to turn the Su and ye families upside down." "Ah!" She quickly let go of her hand. "I'm sorry about that." She wiped her hands on her body. "I didn't wash my hands just now. I wiped your Xiao Guang's butt. Don't tell me you think I'm Dirty?" Of course, Yan Huan wouldn't think she was dirty because she didn't have any consciousness at all. Zhu Meina also knew that she had done a bad thing. Of course, she couldn't stay here. What was the point of staying here? was she going to be caught? She hurriedly stood up. When she went out, Xiao Guang was still playing with his toys, she ran over and without saying a word, she picked up Xiao Guang and took advantage of her. Then, she quickly ran out in her high heels. "What happened to Miss Zhu?" The nanny came out of the kitchen, "That's strange. Why did she leave when she was fine? And it was like she was running away. In the past, she would only leave if she had a meal at home. Now that she's fine, she doesn't even eat. Why is it like someone is killing her? She simply ran away." "Auntie wiped Xiaoguang's butt and didn't wash her hands." Xiaoguang knew. At this moment, Lu Yi, who was sitting on the sofa, suddenly thought of something. His entire face seemed to turn black. He walked into the room and saw that Yan Huan's hands, which were originally placed under the blanket, were now placed outside. It was obvious that that woman had taken advantage of his wife and that pair of dirty hands., he touched his Huanhuan's hands. Not long after, he came out. He carried another basin into the room and carefully wiped Yan Huan's hands clean with a towel before placing them under the blanket again. The weather outside was getting colder and colder. There was no longer any scenery to be seen. Even the leaves had fallen off. He sat down and touched Yan Huan's face. The temperature was warm, and he wanted to see if she was not cold enough. 'you'll have to stay here for a long time. If the weather is better, I'll take you out again, Alright?'. He spoke to Yan Huan for a while before taking the book that was placed at the side. 'I'll read it to you, Alright?'. Yan Huan didn't reply. He had already started reading to her. His voice was extremely pleasant to listen to. It was deep and had the magnetism of a bass. His voice was deep and deep, and his voice was deep and deep. Although there was nothing wrong with it., however, it sounded very comfortable to the ears of others. It was just like how the wind outside was accompanied by the cold of winter. Finally, another season was about to pass. If it was the new year this year, they could finally celebrate the new year together. However, they did not know if Yan Huan would be able to eat dumplings.

Chapter 1237: was really boastful

A month later, Zhu Meina finally found out what kind of agreement Zhu Xianglan had with Sun Yuhan. It turned out that a new drama was about to start filming, and it was funded by the Ye family. Almost all of them were big dramas that were worth hundreds of millions of dollars, sun Yuhan was not surprised. The female lead was also known as the ugliest female lead in history, and the second female lead was played by Su Muran. When the makeup was taken, it almost made Zhu Meina spit out blood Weren't these two masters incompatible? How could they still be together in filming? Moreover, it seemed that Sun Yuhan did not have any intention of being unwilling. Could it be that there was an affair between the two of them? or could it be that they were the true love, and that eunuch Lu Qin was all a pretense. Don't blame her for thinking this way. This drama was originally invested by the Ye family. It could be said that the ye family was the owner of this drama. He could take whoever he wanted. According to Sun Yuhan's character, in her drama, her own production team., with her own resources, she would at least not recruit people that she didn't like. And in this world, there were three people that made her the most uncomfortable Yan Huan, Lu Qin, and Su Muran. Now that Su Muran had also acted in this drama, it meant that Sun Yuhan was willing to do it. However, how could Sun Yuhan be willing to do it.

This made people fantasize endlessly. When did the two women have such a good relationship? It was not like they were a man and a woman. They could still develop feelings over time. If they really had feelings for each other, Zhu Meina would chop off her own head, she would let Xiao Guang use her as a stool to sit on. Therefore, there was only one possibility. That was that something that Sun Yuhan had was in Zhu Xianglan's hands. It was just that Zhu Meina still did not know what it was. If she knew, then perhaps.., she could even wipe out the entire ye family. She did not like the Su family. Of course, she also did not like the Ye family. It was just that she was single-handed. If she really could, she really wanted to.., she would just bury the Su family and the Ye family in two bombs and blow them up. "Another message." Lei Qingyi threw her phone to Lu Yi. This was the message from ye Xinyu. It was for a month. This was the only thing that couldn't be changed. That was why ye Chuji hadn't fallen yet. Otherwise, the Ye family would have been in chaos by now. Lu Yi took the phone that lei gave to Yi Yi and opened the message. "Dad, the East Africa Grand Canyon is so fun. I've been there for a month. No, I have to go again. I don't want to see Sun Yuhan's face anyway. I'm happy outside." "You can really brag." Lei Qingyi stretched out her leg and kicked a chair to the side. In the Grand Canyon of East Africa, they were only allowed to stay there for half a month at most. After half a month, no matter who it was, they would have to come out because they could not bring in the food after half a month, if they did not come back in half a month, would they have to drink the northwest wind there? Moreover, if they were to come out after the stipulated time of half a month, they would be fined. If the time was longer.., he might be blacklisted. He wouldn't be able to get into the blacklist a second time in his life. According to the information on his phone, he would enter the blacklist as soon as he got there. Only then would he come out. After he came back, he would prepare to go there again. Was he fooling a fool? According to the standard procedure, he was still waiting in line. The line wasn't even arranged properly. How did he get in? Did he crawl in from the ground, or did he fly in from the sky. Only Ye Chuji, who was crazy about his son, would believe this. Only this could give him some comfort. He also believed that his son was still alive. Compared to being missing, compared to being missing.., even if he were to become someone else's son-in-law, Ye Chuji would not even lift his eyelids. "Are you keeping an eye on Sun Yuhan?" Lu Yi put his phone up and asked Lei Qingyi. "I've been keeping an eye on her, but there's nothing unusual." Lei Qingyi crossed his legs, and his legs were crossed as well. "That woman stays in the Ye family every day. In the name of recovering from her injuries, it's almost impossible for her to come out. When I get some surveillance cameras in there that day, won't we be able to keep an eye on her 24/7?" "No need." Lu Yi stood up and walked to the window as well. He pulled the curtains open with a single move. It was the same every year, every year, there would be this dry season. He had watched it for more than thirty years. He would see the last thirty years in the future. The scenery outside would never change, but people would grow old and die. Why? Lei Qingyi took out a piece of milk food from a plate and ate it. It was Xiao Guang's. It wouldn't be a big deal for him to eat one. After all, it wasn't the first time he had stolen something from a child. "The ye family has an expert in surveillance. He's better than you." At that moment, Lei Qingyi felt that the candy in his mouth wasn't sweet, but salty. Especially now, he couldn't eat it, and he couldn't vomit it out, he had always claimed to be an expert in this field, but now, someone actually said that what he was best at was not comparable to others. This kind of feeling was really too terrible, or really terrible. He reached out to take another candy and stuffed it into his mouth. In a short while, he had already eaten up the child's plate of candy. Even so, he was still quite unaware. In the end, his hand just reached out.., after touching it for a long time, he actually couldn't touch anything. Only then did he withdraw his hand. However, he still felt uncomfortable because of the ye family's invigilator expert. Yes, the Ye family was a surveillance expert. In this information era, no one wanted their every word, action, and every move to be seen by others. Ye Jianguo valued privacy very much, so he specially hired that surveillance expert. Lu Yi had dealt with him before, so he was indeed very professional. A master like Lei Qingyi had almost no advantage over him, and that person's daily job was to go around the entire ye family, and then check for surveillance cameras that appeared out of nowhere. This kind of person was born with a kind of intuition. If he could install surveillance cameras for the Ye family.., he had already installed them long ago and didn't need Lei Qingyi to remind him. It was precisely because the ye family was impossible that they were so passive. They had no idea what Sun Yuhan was doing behind closed doors? "Pull pull..." at this time, Xiao Guang pulled the nanny's hand and walked over. Lu Yi turned around and reached out to carry his son. "What's wrong? Can't Sleep?" He touched Xiao Guang's little face. It had been so long and he still hadn't gained any weight. No matter how he looked at it now, he felt that he was thinner than Xun Xun. Xiaoguang sniffed at his little nose. He looked quite aggrieved, and it was quite heartwarming. "Tuoba, Xiaoguang's dreaming." Lei Qingyi almost fell off the windowsill. Dreaming? What kind of dream was that? A three-year-old kid who couldn't even remember anything, how could he still be dreaming? "What Kind of dream did you have?" Lu Yi asked his son again, only to see Xiao Guang's eyes were red. It was obvious that he had cried. "I dreamed that Ba Ba didn't want Xiao Guang, and mummy didn't want Xiao Guang either. She threw Xiao Guang out on the street..." as he spoke, he felt wronged again.

Chapter 1238: was about growing taller

"That won't happen." Lu Yi rubbed his son's head again. "Daddy won't give up on Xiao Guang." Xiao Guang sniffled again, as though his little heart had been comforted. "Pull, pull. Xiao Guang wants Candy." "Alright." Lu Yi walked to the windowsill and went to get candy for his son. The result was good. There was no candy left, only an empty plate that sat there stupidly. "Where are the sweets?" Lu Yi asked Lei Qingyi with a frown. Lei Qingyi smiled awkwardly and pointed at his stomach. "Here." Lu Yi had the urge to kick lei qingyi out. He then asked the nanny to get some sweets. He did not go out to buy things too often. Xiao Guang had a lot of snacks at home and Zhu Meina brought the most. She doted on Xiao Guang the most, so all the snacks and toys were carried by cars, the nanny saved them all. He didn't stop the children from eating snacks. To the children, this was a kind of fun for them to grow up. As long as it wasn't too excessive, he would let the children eat it. Of course, he wouldn't stop others from buying it. "You can only eat one," Lu Yi put the candy next to his son's mouth. Xiao Guang opened his mouth and ate the candy. However, he had just woken up, and now he had to let his father hug him. "Can you..." lei qingyi stretched out his hand. "Give me another one? ?"? Lu Yi took a deep breath and stuffed the packet of candy in his hand to him. "Thank you." Lei Qingyi happily took the candy and left, thinking that the candy was really delicious. When he went home, he would give it to his family's Lingling to eat. When he was free, he would stuff one into his mouth, and it would taste good. Of course, that Naughty Boy was now being protected by his aunt. He couldn't beat him up. When that boy came back, he would definitely beat his buttocks until the skin and flesh split open. He would drop his younger brother and break Grandma's arm. Good, he had the ability to grow a body. At this time, little lei zi, who was eating at his aunt's place, shivered and dropped his chopsticks on the ground. "Sigh..." aunt lei sighed and took a piece of paper to wipe Little Lei Zi's face. Little Lei Zi still looked like a child, but his height made people feel a little hopeless. It was just like what big brother said, sometimes it really made people feel distressed. They were clearly all adults, but it was just an eight-year-old child. People were small and immature. Little Lei was indeed immature, but he was tall, so sometimes it made people feel helpless. Looking at such an adult child, if he was mischievous and mischievous, he would cry until his nose was full of Snot and tears. Really... Not to mention Lei Qingyi, even her aunt wanted to beat him up. Beat him up. Little Lei smiled foolishly at his aunt, then lowered his head and continued to eat. As he ate, he also watched cartoons. Such a childish look made people want to beat him up again. Aunt Lei quickly put her hands behind her back and continued to resist the urge to beat up the child. She told herself that she couldn't beat him up. Yes, she couldn't beat him up. He was still young. He was too young. However, this really, how... why did he look like a retarded child. Little Lei Zi carried his school bag and came out. Among the radishes, he stood out like a crane among chickens. He was just like his father. Wherever he went, he was the most eye-catching. "Why did this junior high school kid come to the primary school?" A parent carefully asked the parent who came to pick up the child. Her child was the one who had turned around. When he saw a student who was so tall., he was wearing the clothes of a junior high school student, and he was standing in the middle of a group of children. Why? The style was strange. He was not a primary school student. He was a telephone pole. Not to mention a middle school student, even a high school student would be believed. "Sigh, a primary school student." Another parent sighed. "He is indeed a primary school student. This child is quite famous. He does the last row every year. He does everything. who asked him to be so tall?" "Is he retarded? He is still in the third grade at such an age. I remember now. My Son seems to be in the same class as him. What should we do then?" The new parent shouted after a long time, would he hit his child? If he was really retarded, she really had to consider whether she should transfer him to another class. "How Old is your son?" A voice suddenly interrupted. The parent said without thinking. "My son is nine years old. He goes to school a little later." "Then is your son retarded in the third grade?" This voice was added in again, bringing with it an eerie coldness. "You are the retard. My Son just goes to school a little later." When the parent heard what the other person said,. He immediately blew up. Where did this come from? Why was he so rude? who was the retard? The parent was so angry that his face turned red and his neck was thick. Everyone was civilized, how could they talk like this., if he wasn't looking for trouble, what was he doing? "You know how uncomfortable it is to be called retarded." The crowd parted and a short-haired woman in formal business attire walked in from outside. The woman was about thirty years old, and her entire body exuded a shrewd and capable temperament. She wore light makeup, she was clean and mature. She held a string of car keys in her hand. Whether it was in terms of clothing or temperament, it could be seen that she was not an ordinary person. Moreover, even the car that she drove was worth millions of dollars, not to mention, this car had a series of parts that had been modified in the later stages. It was already worth more than millions. The Key was hung on the woman's finger. One could also see that there was a ring on her finger. There was an extremely large diamond on the ring. Of course, it was based on the woman's clothes, this could not be fake. When the parent saw the woman in front of him, he didn't know why, but he was overwhelmed by the woman's temperament. He didn't know what to say? "Mom." When Little Thunder saw Yi Ling standing there, he quickly ran out and reached out to pull his mother's sleeve. "Mom, I want to eat chicken drumsticks today." "Okay, Mom will take you to eat it later." Yi Ling reached out her hand and put it in the air. Little Thunder was very sensible. He immediately stretched his head over and let his mother touch it. His face was full of naivety and cuteness. "My son is just tall." Yi Ling faced the parent calmly. Her voice was not loud, but everyone present could tell. "He didn't even have his eighth birthday. She touched his hair again. His grandfather is tall, and his father is tall too. They are both 1.9 meters. It's not a problem for my son to be so tall. And this parent..." Yi Ling's expression was a little annoying, she was also a complete queen. She was in charge of such a big company. These few years, she didn't manage it for free, nor did she go there to be a bystander. Instead, she had a real job. "I see your height..." she lowered her head and sized up the parent from head to toe. "They are all ruined by their father and their mother. Don't you know how tall your child is?" "I know." Little Thunder raised his head. It was true that a child was tall, but when he looked at his face, it was childish.

Chapter 1239: it was winter, and the fat was stored

"She is the mother of Huang Mingtao, who just transferred to our class. Huang Mingtao is very short, the shortest in our class. He can even wipe a blackboard. I am so much taller than him." Little Lei zi stretched out his hand and gestured, according to the distance between them, how short was this Huang Mingtao? Did he look for height. The parent who was insulted was blushing. His usually sharp tongue was now stuck together. How could he have the chance to go against other rich people. His bearing and clothes did not look like an ordinary person no matter how one looked at it. This parent only looked like an ordinary worker of the working class. He had said that the people did not fight with the officials, the poor would not fight with the rich, or else he would be the one who would suffer "Mom, I'm hungry." Little lei zi tugged at Yi Ling's sleeve again and his stomach growled. "Let's go. Mom will bring you back to the company for dinner." "Mom..." little lei zi suddenly remembered something. "Didn't I ask for Uncle Mi's autographed photo for you? Did you bring it for me?" "I got it. It's in the car." Yi Ling pointed at the car that she had parked not far away. Little Thunder was a tall man with long legs. He ran straight to the car. Yi Ling pressed the door open, and the door opened. Little Thunder took out all the photos that were inside and ran over, he handed them all to his good buddy. "Look, I treat you well." He patted his chest. "Uncle Mi hugged me before. These are uncle Mi's photos. I'll give them all to you." That classmate looked at little lei zi for a long time before asking weakly, "Can he carry you? Will you crush him to death?" "En, it's fine. When I was young." Little Lei Zi scratched his head in embarrassment and pointed at the new short male classmate. "With him..." "No." He pointed at another one. "He's taller than him. My Little Qi and Little Guang are both taller than Huang Mingtao." "Anyway, I was young. This is for you. I'm going to have dinner with my mother." Little Lei Zi Ran over again and held his mother's hand. He even shook it. It couldn't be helped. He was still a child. After the car drove away, these parents also took their children away. The parent who called others retarded but was called retarded instead could almost cry out loud, in the end, he also took his son back dejectedly. "Mom, I want to eat chicken drumsticks too." The short child cried and didn't want to leave. "Eat Fat?" The woman patted the child's back hard. "Didn't you say you wanted to eat pork yesterday?" "But I want to eat chicken drumsticks." The child was also hurt by the PAT, but he didn't dare to make a big fuss with his mother. His whole body was pouting with grievance. could he eat chicken drumsticks. "Go back and eat pork." The woman pinched her son's ear and thought about what the woman had said. It was as if she had eaten a fly in her mouth. It was very uncomfortable. At this moment, Yi Ling was driving. Little Thunder was sitting at the side and reading a little book. Yi Ling turned around and looked at him. He still looked like a child. "It's better if you're tall." Yi Ling patted her son's small head. "Don't get too short and get bullied in the future." "No one dares to hit me." Little Lei Zi clenched his fist. Yi Ling burst out laughing. "Of course no one dares to hit you." Although this kid was skinny, his skills were not bad. The Lei family's children had started learning ancient martial arts since they were young and their skills were very good, he had started learning from the age of four, and he had suffered quite a bit during that time. He had trained for so long, and no one could beat him, especially among a group of primary school students. One punch was enough to beat one, and two punches were enough to beat a pair Not to mention little lei zi, when Little Qi and Little Guang were four years old, they would also be sent here. Sigh, how could they not be girls? It was fine as long as Xun Xun was pampered by the entire family. If they did not work hard to raise their limbs, they would not be able to distinguish between the five grains, in any case, the Lu family had plenty of money. As long as their little princess did not suffer any losses, it was fine. Yi Ling drove the car into the underground parking lot of Linlang. First, she brought Little Thunder to her office and let him wash his hands. Little Thunder washed his hands and face. He sat on the sofa and was still reading his character book. There was the sound of a door from outside. As soon as Rowling walked in, she saw little thunder sitting on the sofa. Her eyes could not help but light up. This child's appearance was really good. He could film in the future. However, she was not happy for long before she was struck by herself. The child of the Lei family could not enter the entertainment circle. The Lei family only had this little lei zi. How could they let the child film. Little Lei Zi happened to raise his face and saw that Rowling had arrived. "Auntie Luo." Little Lei Zi threw the book away and ran over to hug Rowling. His little face even rubbed against his chest. There was no difference between a man and a woman. Of course, he did not deliberately take advantage of her, because he was too young, he was still a child. He was still a primary school student. Right now, he was only showing his intimacy with adults. When Yi Ling, who had just brought food for her son, saw this, she could not help but hit her forehead. "Little Thunder, didn't mommy say not to hug people casually? You're already a big child." "Auntie Luo isn't an outsider." Little Thunder rubbed his little face against Rowling's arms again. There was nothing he could do. Rowling had been good to Little Thunder since he was young and treated him like his own child. "Come and eat." Yi Ling put down the food. "You're almost done. You still have to do your homework. Mommy will send you to school in a while." When Little Thunder heard that it was time to eat, he immediately ran over. He took the chopsticks and wolfed down the food because he was hungry. By the way, his mouth was full of food and his words were unclear. "Aunty Luo, you've gained a lot of weight. My grandmother said that if you gain weight, you'll have a baby. When Aunty Huan Huan gave birth to Little Qi and the others, you were already fat." He then pointed at his waist. "This is the place." This naughty child. Luo Lin touched her hair as if she wasn't joking. How could she be afraid? She was clearly thin, okay? She was skinny and slim. No one was thinner than her. Her body had been the same for the past few years. Of course, she wasn't as skinny as Yan Huanhuan. She had to admit it. However, she secretly pinched the flesh on her waist. Indeed, she had gained weight. The flesh could be lifted up. Yi Ling sized up the piece of skin on her waist. Then, she walked over and compared it to Rowling's waist. "I noticed that recently..." "My waist is very thin." Rowling sucked her waist up. "How thin do you think it is? Is it two feet long?" "No." Elin reached out and touched Rowling's stomach.

Chapter 1240: He also had a jacket

"Haven't you noticed that you've been eating a little too much lately?" She counted with her fingers. "You've been eating since I came in the morning. You've been eating all the way until noon. After you sleep, you can eat again." "I've been a little hungry recently." Rowling sighed. She was no longer stubborn with Yiling. "It's winter now, and it's time for me to gain weight." Yi Ling resisted the urge to strangle her. "Didn't you ask Your Yi bin to take a look?" "What are you looking at? It's winter now. You have to save your fat for the winter." Rowling found a place for herself to sit down and touched her stomach. "I just ate too much. I'm a little bloated." Yi Ling touched her forehead. Why didn't she die? "Why don't you look at your stomach? How Big Is It?" "It's fine." Rowling wasn't worried at all. "I'll keep it when spring comes." A pig. Yi Ling directly stretched out her finger and poked Rowling's forehead with force. "Such a big eater. Haven't you had your period for two months?" Don't blame Yi Ling for knowing this, when Rowling was on her period, she had a bad temper. She had to drink brown sugar water. She had to drink it for a week. She hadn't had brown sugar water for two weeks and hadn't had her period. "Yeah." Rowling finally remembered. "I haven't had my period for two months. I was so busy that I forgot about it. Tomorrow, I'll ask Yi bin to check if I have a hormonal disorder." "What else do you want to check?" Yi Ling rolled her eyes. "Are you pregnant?" "No Way." Lorraine didn't believe it. "My Yi bin is a doctor. He doesn't know if I'm pregnant or not?" "Maybe he just knows that you eat a lot, but he doesn't think about it." Yi Ling shook her head and sighed heavily. Then, she poured a glass of water and placed it in front of her son. "Drink the water after you finish eating." "Okay." Little Thunder didn't care what the adults were talking about. He was still watching cartoons on his mother's phone. "Go to Yi Bin's place for a check-up. If you have a baby, take good care of it. You're already an old woman giving birth." Yi Ling was quite worried. Could she still give birth at such an old age? "Lend me your car." Rowling directly stretched out her hand to Yi Ling. "It's here." Little Thunder took his mother's keys from the table. Rowling took care of it and walked out without changing her clothes. She was still wearing high heels. Yi Ling had a headache now. Could it be that she really had one in her stomach? If that was the case., it would really scare her to death. Rowling drove Yi Ling's car to the hospital. After locking the car door, she went straight to He Yibin's office. "Lin Lin, why are you here?" When he yibin saw Luo Lin coming over, he quickly put down the things in his hands. When he saw that she didn't look well, he was also shocked. "What's wrong? Why do you look so pale?" He reached out his hand and placed it on Luo Lin's forehead. It wasn't hot, just a little cold. "Yibin," Luo Lin hurriedly grabbed he yibin's hand, "I..." "What's Wrong?" He Yibin also sensed Rowling's nervousness and quickly patted her back, "Don't be anxious, take your time." "I..." Rowling did not know how to say it. "I haven't had my period for two months." "Ah!" He Yibin opened his eyes, "Is it an endocrine disorder? Don't be afraid, I'll take you to see a doctor later." Luo Lin had the urge to cry. This was still a doctor, and he was still a doctor. Where did this barefoot doctor come from. He Yibin really brought Luo Lin to the gynecology department and looked for a director in the hospital. He was a doctor in the internal and surgical department, and he was biased towards women. "Let's go for a test first." The director smiled and said to Luo Lin, "Don't be nervous. It'll be fine." Rowling stood up with a note in her hand. She looked at the thing in her hand and felt that she was too anxious. Why didn't she buy her own test, she came over so rashly. After she finished the test, she didn't dare to open her eyes. It wasn't easy for her to squeeze out a bit of light, but when she saw the mark on it, her nose turned sour and her tears fell. "What's Wrong?" He Yibin saw that Rowling came over and cried again. He was also frightened. Rowling handed the pregnancy test strip to him. He Yibin held it in his hand and didn't react for a long time. "I. . ." He Yibin was also dumbfounded. "Is she going to be a father?" Oh God, he was going to be a father, really? "Yeah, I can tell that she's not far off. She's obviously put on weight." The director was also happy for he Yibin. This was the oldest bachelor among their doctors. She was not married, she also did not have children. This director went to school together with the He family's parents. She grew up together with mother he. Naturally, she also treated he yibin as her own child, her grandson could be a bystander now, but he yibin hadn't even gotten married yet. His mother and her hair had almost turned white from worry. They had finally gotten married, and their hearts had also been set at ease, in the end, marrying this daughter-in-law was also a good thing. They had only been married for two months, and yet, they were already pregnant. If she were to tell mother he the good news, she would definitely go crazy from joy. Lu Yi put down his book, and his phone, which he had placed at the side, also made an urgent sound. He took his phone. It was he yibin calling. He pressed the answer button and put the phone to his ear. "Lu Yi, Lu Yi, let me tell you some good news. I'm going to be a father. My wife is pregnant, and I have a daughter in the future. I also have a little cotton-padded jacket. You Don't have to pity me anymore. I will have my little cotton-padded jacket to hug too." "Congratulations." Lu Yi was genuinely happy for his good friend. "MMM, it's good that you have a child. Don't always think of bringing my family's xunxun back to your house." He Yiji was just having fun, so whatever Lu Yi said was fine. He just wanted to show off his little cotton-padded jacket. However, he insisted that it was his little cotton-padded jacket now. What would he do if it was not his little cotton-padded jacket in the future? In any case, he yibin wanted a cotton-padded jacket, just like xunxun. She was so soft that even an adult's heart would melt when he held her in his arms. If this was his own little cotton-padded jacket, he would be so happy that he would die. Lu Yi put down his phone and then held Yan Huan's hand tightly. "Rowling is pregnant. It's really fast. When you wake up, I don't know if you'll see the pregnant Rowling or Rowling who has already given birth. So, wake up quickly so that you can go and laugh at Rowling." "Remember how she laughed at you when you were pregnant. You can laugh back at her even more now." The weather today was not bad. Lu Yi looked outside. Let me take you out for a while. Although it was a little cold, the wind felt very comfortable on his body. He had always held Yan Huan's hand. No matter what, he would hold her hand until a long time later. He would never leave her in this life. In his previous life, he had no fate and no share. In his previous life, it was no one's fault. The regret of his previous life was also a compensation for their current life. At this moment, no one knew that the instant Lu Yi turned around, Yan Huan's eyelashes gently fluttered. After that, there was no more movement.
