

Chapter 1291: was all Yan Huan's fault

She called her mother very softly, and her eyes glared at Qin Xiaoyue. Qin Xiaoyue didn't do much either, and she immediately shivered. She didn't dare to curse anymore.

"Give me the money." Qin Xiaoyue reached out her hand. "I want to see the old father and son. You are a junior, so you have to show filial piety to the old master."

Yan Huan took his wallet and took out all the money in it. There were about a hundred bills, which was about ten thousand yuan.

Qin Xiaoyue grabbed it and went to her room to change her clothes and put on makeup. Lu Yi, who was outside, raised his wrist to check the time from time to time. He seemed to be a little impatient.

Qin Xiaoyue tidied herself up and slowly walked over. It was unknown whether she did it intentionally or not. Could it be that she couldn't see that Lu Yi's expression wasn't too good?

Lu Yi directly brought Qin Xiaoyue into the detention garden. Before Qin Xiaoyue could enter, her voice came first.

"Dad, what happened to you? Don't scare me. Why did you fall so miserably..."

Ye Shuyun couldn't help but cover her face with her hand. She couldn't bear to look at him.

"Get lost!" Old Master Lu directly threw a cup. "I'm not dead yet. Who asked you to cry for your father?"

"Dad, it's not my fault." Qin Xiaoyue saw Old Master Lu and his son raise their voices. She thought Old Master Lu was blaming her for not coming back at the first moment, so she was angry,

"Dad, it's that Yan Huan who didn't tell me. You're right. He's really heartless. The actor didn't mean it."

Old Master Lu's face turned even worse, and his chest hurt even more.

"Second brother, are you saying something wrong?" Ye Shuyun didn't like Qin Xiaoyue throwing all the dirty water at Yan Huan, "The first thing I did was call you. You hung up on me, and then I called again, but your phone was turned off again. I sent you a message, but you never replied or turned your phone on. Could it be that your phone can automatically recognize your phone number?" "When you see Yan Huankai, you turn it off when you see me."

Qin Xiaoyue laughed dryly and shamelessly changed her words.

"Sister-in-law, my phone is broken, so I didn't receive any messages?"

This excuse was good. Ye Shuyun really didn't want to talk to anyone, but she just couldn't stand Qin Xiaoyue's appearance. Was she here to see a patient or to show off? Why was she empty-handed? How ugly was this, she called her son over early in the morning and even put on makeup. He was an old man with an old face. Could he not put on so much makeup? Didn't she know that the old man disliked women who made themselves look like delicate spirits the most, especially an old vixen.

Qin Xiaoyue stood there and didn't know whether to sit or stand. The old man was obviously in a bad mood, so she didn't dare to bump into him.

"You go back first." In the end, Lu Jin felt that it was not a big deal for the whole family to stand here and stare at him, so he told Qin Xiaoyue directly,

"Dad is fine here. He needs to rest now, and you can't help him much. Yan Huan is the only one at home, so I don't feel at ease. You'd better go back."

Qin Xiaoyue was eager to go back so that the old man wouldn't yell at her again.

How was she going to go back?

"Lu Yi, send your second aunt back."

Lu Jin said to his son. Only he could send her back now. Otherwise, who else was going to send her back?

"I know." Lu Yi took out his key again and prepared to send Qin Xiaoyue back again.

Qin Xiaoyue also licked her face and didn't stay here any longer. She hurriedly left with him,

"You should go back tonight," Lu Jin said to Ye Shuyun, "I'll be fine here alone. Dad still has me and the security guards. Two people are enough. Besides, there are chefs and nannies to take care of. When Qin Xiaoyue comes back, she will cause trouble every day. I'm afraid that she will tear down our house."

"I also feel that it will be like this."

Ye Shuyun was also worried. Yan Huan wasn't afraid. She had very few things to do. She didn't trouble others when she was alone at home. The food was cooked by herself, so there wasn't much to do. However, as long as Qin Xiaoyue returned, the destructive power..., to be honest, it was really too shocking.

If she returned, this house would really be torn down.

How could there be such a person living in her house?

Ye Shuyun really didn't know what she owed Qin Xiaoyue's family in her previous life. She had endured it for more than 20 years. Could it be that she still had to endure it.

"Endure it a little longer," Lu Jin comforted Ye Shuyun. "In any case, you can just pretend that they didn't exist. They can cause as much trouble as they want."

What else could Ye Shuyun do? She could only give herself a sense of relief and pretend that it was nothing. However, she pretended that it was nothing. However, wasn't Qin Xiaoyue's family causing a lot of trouble?

Every time, there would be a huge commotion.

When Qin Xiaoyue went back, she naturally ate the big fish and the big meat. She also felt that she was finally able to hold her head up high. This family was finally hers. One moment, she felt that this was not good, and the next moment, she felt that it was not good, the next moment, she felt that Yan Huan was annoying and wanted to insult him.

Yan Huan was also unwilling to appear in front of her. If she wanted to be her empress dowager, then she would do it. After all, she did not want to be a palace maid.

Lu Jin was right. In less than half a day, Qin Xiaoyue had almost turned the entire Lu family into a mess. When Ye Shuyun went back, the entire house was being cleaned, there was no right or wrong in this general cleaning. However, there was clearly a fixed day in a week. It was not yet here.

As soon as Qin Xiaoyue saw ye Shuyun, she was stunned and her expression turned ugly.

“Sister-in-law, look at how lazy they are. I’ll get them to clean up the house properly. You’re so lazy that you don’t know the rules at all.”

Ye Shuyun felt uncomfortable. Did this mean that she did not know how to care about others?

“I can do whatever I want with my home. What does it have to do with you?”

Ye Shuyun was already angry. What did her son owe her, Qin Xiaoyue, by ordering her around? Lu Yi had been busy recently, and he had been delayed for such a long time. Who knew what time he would have to work overtime at night? Now that he was back, he still made her uneasy. She had not eaten yet, and the house was in such a mess., how was she supposed to continue eating? How was she supposed to eat?

And that sentence, “My house”, was like a slap to Qin Xiaoyue’s face. Qin Xiaoyue didn’t dare to say anything anymore. How many times had it been? Every time ye Shuyun said that sentence., she would definitely lose.

Qin Xiaoyue turned around and left. She didn’t care about the things that she had done.

“Okay, let’s clean up first.”Ye Shuyun quickly asked people to put away the things. She didn’t need to clean up. She couldn’t afford to do that.

Chapter 1292: fever

The Moment Qin Xiaoyue went back, she started scolding ye Shuyun. The words she said were extremely unpleasant. She also cursed at the early death of the entire family. It would be best if all of them died.

Yan Huan used the blanket to cover his head. She could scold her however she wanted. It would be fine as long as she did not come and find trouble with her.

Qin Xiaoyue wanted to find trouble with her. However, Yan Huan pretended to be sick and she did not get up. Moreover, no matter how long Qin Xiaoyue’s long speech was, Yan Huan did not give her any response. It was no longer the same as before, just like Qin Xiaoyue, she resented her boss and his family. It was as if the two of them had reached a resonance. They really wished that their boss and his family would die soon.

Now that she didn’t say anything, Qin Xiaoyue’s scolding also stopped. If she scolded too much, her mouth would dry up.

“Useless thing,” Qin Xiaoyue said to Yan Huan, “Our Lu Qin really raised you for nothing.”

Yan Huan even smiled. Why? Lu Qin had raised her? How could Lu Qin raise her? who could tell her what Lu Qin had bought for her and what he had invested in her?

She was too lazy to reason with unreasonable people like Qin Xiaoyue. That was really a stupid thing to do.

Yan Huan felt that she had become smarter. She smiled and continued to sleep. However, she felt uncomfortable and uncomfortable in her sleep. It was as if she was also uncomfortable in her dreams.

When she opened her eyes again, it was already past ten o’clock. It was already night time.

She sat up and touched her forehead. It was a little hot. She must have had a fever. She raised her head and saw the wind blowing against the window. From time to time, the curtains were raised to an indescribable angle, outside, she could vaguely see trees dancing in the wind from time to time. They were still lush and luxuriant, but there seemed to be a fallen leaf. She looked at them for a long time, and she did not know what she was thinking, she did not know what she saw?

It was not until she shivered and woke up from the cold that she stood up, walked over to close the window, and pulled the curtains.

She did not know when she opened the window, but it turned out that the wind was so strong outside.

She touched her forehead again. It did not seem to be that hot, so it should be fine.

She was going to cook some noodles for herself. After coming out of the room, she had just taken a few steps when she was covered in sweat. She felt a little dizzy and finally moved to the sofa. When she was sitting on the sofa., she couldn’t help but lie down. She told herself that she was only going to lie down for a while. Yes, she was only going to lie down for a while. Really, she was only going to lie down for a while.

After a while, she would still cook noodles for herself. She was hungry. She was very hungry. She wasn’t hungry.

No one loved her. She loved herself. No one loved her. She loved herself. No mother would give her noodles to eat. She would eat them herself. No one would cook them for her. She would cook them herself

Therefore, she only slept for a while. A while. Yes, a while..

The moment she lost consciousness, she once again entered that vast, white world.

All of a sudden, she wanted to know what was hidden on the right. When she looked at that path, she felt as if something was calling to her, asking her to go back..

But go back? Go back to where?

She unconsciously moved forward, one step at a time, one step at a time, as if there wasn’t even any pain on her body..

Suddenly, a child ran towards her.

She did not know why, but she actually stretched out her hands, wanting to catch the child. She did not know that tears were already streaming down her face.

“Mommy, Mommy...”

“Where are you...”

The child groped forward, and just like that, a small hand grabbed her clothes.

She slowly squatted down..

And just like that, she hugged the child tightly.

It was only then that the nanny of the Lu family remembered that the windows in the house had not been closed. The wind was a little strong today, so it could not have blown the windows open. If it blew for an entire night, who knew how much dust would fall in the house tomorrow.., so she put on her own clothes and came over to close the windows.

However, just as she closed the windows, she realized that there was another person on the sofa. This gave her a big fright.

She hurriedly went over and saw that it was not a person. It was actually Yan Huan.

“Miss Yan?”The nanny gently nudged Yan Huan. What’s wrong with you? Why are you sleeping here? You Don’t even have anything on you. When the nanny first came out, she did not feel very cold, but now, she really felt cold. It was so cold that she couldn’t help but Shiver.

And why are you sleeping on the sofa.

And when her hand touched Yan Huan’s face, she hurriedly moved it away

“Why is it so hot?”

She didn’t believe it and put her hand on Yan Huan’s forehead. Sure enough, it was very hot. She had a fever.

She hurriedly ran to knock on Qin Xiaoyue’s door.

“Second madam, wake up quickly.”

The door was smacked so loudly that Qin Xiaoyue was woken up. Her face also fell down.

“What are you knocking on the door for? Are You Crying For Your Soul?”

“Second madam, Miss Yan has a fever. The nanny outside the door quickly said, “What do you think we should do now? Should we send her to the hospital?”

“Send her to what hospital?”Qin Xiaoyue snorted and continued to sleep. Anyway, it wasn’t her who had a fever, so she didn’t care about her,

“She won’t die. That Woman’s life is tough, but she has a fever. Let her stay by herself.”

And Qin Xiaoyue clearly didn’t want to care about Yan Huan.

She wasn't the one who gave birth. She didn't care whether she had a fever or not. If she died from the fever, it was her life. If she lived, it was her life.

The nanny had no choice but to look for ye Shuyun again.

"Madam, Madam..."the nanny hurriedly knocked on ye Shuyun's door.

Ye Shuyun came out from the union after a while. "What's Wrong?"She yawned. "What happened?"

"Miss Yan has a fever."The nanny pointed outside. "She's on the sofa outside. I think she's delirious from the Fever."

With a fever, Ye Shuyun hurriedly followed the nanny over. As expected, she saw Yan Huan lying on the sofa. Her expression was completely wrong, and her breathing was somewhat muffled, even her face was now red from the fever.

Ye Shuyun placed her hand on Yan Huan's forehead. With this touch, it seemed as though even her own hand was scalded.

"Why is the fever so heavy?"

Yes, the fever was very heavy.

"Have you told her mother-in-law?"Ye Shuyun asked the nanny. After all, this was the second child's family's matter. Now that Lu Qin was not around, this mother-in-law should at least take care of it, right?

"I've told her."The nanny did not know how to tell ye Shuyun about this matter. "Second Madam said that she doesn't care and let the Fever Burn. She said that Miss Yan is lucky and will recover by herself tomorrow."

Will I recover by tomorrow?

Why did ye Shuyun feel that these words were a little harsh to her ears.

Chapter 1293: could not be lowered

Who could cure themselves of a fever? Qin Xiaoyue was talking about herself or Lu Qin. If Lu Qin was sick, his legs would probably be weak. If her child was a child, wouldn't someone else's child be a child.

"Go get a blanket first. I'll fetch some warm water to see if it can lower the temperature,"ye Shuyun said as she stood up and prepared to fetch some hot water. This person's heart was made of flesh and blood, although Yan Huan did not treat her well in the past, he was not a bad child. At the very least, she saved Lu Jin and Old Master Chong. Old Master Chong treated her so badly, but she still saved him in the end, it could be seen that this child was really not bad.

The nanny had already brought a blanket and covered Yan Huan. Ye Shuyun also brought a basin of water and asked the nanny to help wipe it. She was actually a little lost at the moment. Lu Jin was at Old Master's place., it was impossible for him to come back. Without Lu Jin in the house, it was as if she had lost her backbone. Oh right, look for Lu Yi, look for her son.

Her son should be working overtime at the prosecutor's office now, but he should be coming back soon.

She hurriedly picked up the phone and called Lu Yi.

“Lu Yi, something happened at home. Come back quickly.”

After she called Lu Yi, she came over and took care of Yan Huan with the nanny. She changed the ice towel over and over again, but the temperature couldn't drop no matter how hard she tried.

Lu Yi came back very quickly, but it only took ten minutes. In fact, when ye Shuyun called, he happened to be on the way. It was supposed to take twenty minutes, but he took about ten minutes to come back.

“Mom, What's Wrong?” As soon as Lu Yi came in, he found ye Shuyun and the nanny in the living room. There seemed to be someone else. What were they doing?

“Lu Yi, quickly come over and take a look. Her fever is very bad.”

Ye Shuyun hurriedly stood up and asked Lu Yi to come over to see Yan Huan.

When Lu Yi saw Yan Huan, his pupils constricted. He strode over and placed his big hand on Yan Huan's forehead. He had just come back from outside, and the wind outside was a little cold, therefore, his body temperature was a little cold. However, it was also because of this that he could feel how hot Yan Huan's body temperature was.

He hurriedly pulled away the blanket and carried her up.

“Mom, I'll send her to the hospital. Her fever is too severe.”

“Yes.” Ye Shuyun was worried about this. “I'm afraid that she will become a fool from the Fever.”

“Where's second aunt?” Lu Yi pursed his thin lips and asked about the person who was supposed to be here but didn't appear.

“Her?” Ye Shuyun didn't want to mention Qin Xiaoyue. “She's letting people fend for themselves. Don't bother about her. Even if she's here, she won't bother about it. Let's send her to the Doctor first. No,” ye Shuyun thought about it, she was worried. “Wait, I'll go with you.”

Lu Yi hugged the woman in his arms a little tighter. I'll go. After saying that, he carried Yan Huan and strode out, but ye Shuyun was still worried, this year was really eventful. Why were all of them in trouble? First, it was Lu Jin, then Old Master Lu. She just hoped that Yan Huan would be fine

Lu Yi carefully placed Yan Huan in the car, then took off his clothes and covered her.

Then, he sighed softly

He did not know what kind of helplessness this sound was

It was a helplessness that was almost beyond his understanding.

How did he meet such a woman?

He stepped on the accelerator, and the car quickly disappeared into the night. At the end of the night, there were still rows and rows of neatly arranged street lamps, the lights of the street lamps., they were also constantly illuminating everything here..

After Lu Yi sent Yan Huan off, his fever was indeed serious. His entire body was running a high fever of almost 40 degrees. Even if he had a needle, he was still running a high fever. They all thought that his fever would not go down., he was also going to be burned into an idiot. Fortunately, after about ten minutes, the fever gradually subsided. Even he seemed to be much more comfortable, and his face was no longer so red, her breathing also slowly calmed down. It was natural and normal.

In a while, the nurse took her temperature again. After this measurement, everyone let out a sigh of relief. Her temperature had already dropped to about 37 degrees. She should be fine now. The results of the examination were out. In fact, she had caught a cold and had a fever. If she had paid attention earlier, it might not have been so serious.

Yes, if she had paid attention earlier.

But who would have noticed her? Lu Qin wasn't around right now, and Qin Xiaoyue couldn't care less about her life. If the nanny hadn't found out, would she have burned herself to death overnight? By the time she found out tomorrow, she might not have burned to death, she would have been burned to a fool.

"Mom, don't worry. It's fine. Her fever has subsided. She's awake now. Where's second aunt? is that so? She's still asleep. You didn't tell her that Yan Huan is still in the hospital. She's her mother-in-law. She should come over to take care of her. Do you think she won't Come?"

"Yes, I understand." Lu Yi pursed his thin lips and there was an indescribable coldness in them.

"Mom, don't come over. I'll stay here for the whole night. If there's nothing else, I can go back tomorrow."

When he turned around, he saw that Yan Huan had already opened his eyes and was staring at him without blinking.

He put down his phone, walked over, and sat down.

"You're Awake?"

Yan Huan wanted to speak, but her throat was so dry that she couldn't speak.

"Do you want to drink water?" Lu Yi asked her again, grandma Yan nodded lightly and started coughing as well. That kind of dryness was extremely uncomfortable for others to hear, let alone herself.

Lu Yi stood up and went outside to find a cup. When he returned, he had already picked up a cup of water and placed it in front of Yan Huan. Yan Huan took the cup and drank up the water in just a few mouthfuls, this made her throat feel a little moist, but it was still very dry and uncomfortable.

After drinking the water, she lay down again and used both hands to grab the blanket on her body.

She had heard Lu Yi's conversation just now. No one cared whether she was right or wrong. She just knew that no one cared about her. Qin Xiaoyue even wished that she was dead, and she even wanted to take her property for herself, how could she sacrifice her sleeping time to come over and take care of her at this time of night? She might even be afraid that she would be infected.

"You can go back." She lay flat on her back and looked at the half-hung IV bottle above her head. "I can do it alone."

She had had a lot of injections by herself, so she did not care anymore. Her body had been very healthy for the past few years, and it had been a long time since she had received an injection.

Chapter 1294: shouldn't have bothered with her

Lu Yi pulled up the blanket for her. "You can sleep. I'm here."

Yan Huan turned her face away. She didn't want to see anyone.

She wasn't a good person. In fact, he didn't have to treat her like this. In the future, how was she supposed to repay him? How was she supposed to repay him? She really didn't want to be so good to her. She would rather he be cold and indifferent. This way, she owed him too much

Their relationship was already awkward, but in the end, she owed him again and again.

She fell asleep again. This time, there was no white fog in front of her, no road, and no strange images. There was only darkness, a darkness that she couldn't break out of.

She struggled in this darkness and fell asleep again.

When she opened her eyes again, the sky was already bright. In fact, she did not feel uncomfortable. She turned around. There was no one around her, and the injection was done.

That's right. That's right. She smiled, but there was also bitterness in her smile

She really should not have cared about her. She should have just left her alive.

She closed her eyes again, but she couldn't fall asleep. She just wanted to know how she was going to go back later. Was she going to walk or roll back? She didn't even wear shoes, right?

She glanced at the floor. Sure enough, she didn't have shoes. She didn't have a cell phone, shoes, or money. She was no different from a waste now?

She sat up, thinking about how to tell the Doctor later.

But just as she was thinking about all kinds of reasons, the door opened and a man walked in. She looked up and saw a pair of dark eyes that she had never understood before.

It was Lu Yi. Did he not go to work? Or could it be that he did not leave either?

Lu Yi walked over and put down the things in his hands.

"I bought a pair of shoes for you." He placed the shoes on the ground

"Can you try them on?"

Yan Huan sat up and stepped on the ground. It did not matter if the ground was cold or dirty.

She did not need anyone's help. She had always done everything she could.

She opened the shoe box and took out a pair of shoes. It was a pair of cloth shoes. It was her shoe size. Initially, she wanted to ask him how he knew her shoe size, but then she thought about it again, her shoe size wasn't a secret. Many people knew about it. There were no secrets when it came to being a celebrity. Even the size of her underwear was known by many people.

Yan Huan put on his shoes. They were quite suitable. Flat-bottomed cloth shoes were very comfortable.

She stood up and wanted to go to the washroom. She also had to wash her hands and face.

Although her body was still a little weak, she still walked forward alone.

She closed the door and let out a sigh of relief. She then scratched her hair. She had always paid attention to her image and loved to look beautiful. Now that she looked like this, she had seen everything.

The bathroom was not bad. There was also a disposable toothpaste and toothbrush that she could use. This was no wonder. The ward she was staying in was considered a VIP ward in the hospital. The money was well spent, so naturally, the treatment was also better. There was a single room and a balcony. There was also a small bathroom inside.

She tidied up her clothes before walking out.

There were already some bags outside. There should be food in the bags, right?

She touched her stomach. She did not eat the meal last night. In addition to being sick for the whole night, she was also hungry. Now, she really felt that she was going to starve to death.

She walked over and sat down.

There were tofu pudding and soup dumplings. In fact, she really liked eating soup dumplings. She ate them one after another. The taste could not be described as delicious. Especially when there were dumplings in soup dumplings, there was also soup to drink.

"Eat," Lu Yi gave her the chopsticks.

"Thank you," Yan Huan did not stand on ceremony. She took the chopsticks and picked up a dumpling and put it in her mouth. Indeed, she ate one dumpling after another. The soup was thick and the skin was soft.

She liked to eat this kind of dumpling, so she ate a few in a row. However, she did not see Lu Yi eat it.

She raised her head to look at Lu Yi, wanting to ask why he didn't eat them? But in the end, she didn't ask anything. She picked up another steamed bun and continued to eat. She felt that it was better not to talk to him, and also to maintain a certain distance. He already had a girlfriend, and in their eyes, she was a married woman, even though she didn't have one yet.

It didn't matter if she ruined herself. She didn't have a good reputation to begin with, but she didn't want to harm him. After all, he was a good person. No matter how she, Yan Huan, was, she wouldn't do anything to repay his kindness.

She finished eating all the buns. She was really hungry after eating two baskets of buns. Of course, she didn't feel anything after eating so much. She wasn't worried about gaining weight anyway. She wouldn't gain weight.

"Can I go back?"

Yan Huan asked Lu Yi, "If my illness isn't contagious."

"Yes, you can." Lu Yi nodded. "You just caught a cold and had a fever. The fever has subsided. If you're worried, you can stay here. If you want to go back, you can go back too."

"Then I'll go back." Yan Huan stood up and smoothed out the fold on her clothes.

"I don't want to stay here alone. There's no one here to talk to."

Lu Yi did not reply to her. Indeed, if she wanted to stay, then she would be the only one. Lu Qin would not look at her because he was not here. Qin Xiaoyue would rather go shopping and play cards, and it was even more impossible for him to look at her.

As for the others, it was even more impossible.

Therefore, she would rather go back. At the very least, there would still be food to eat. Perhaps even food would not be able to enter her stomach here.

This was Yan Huan's second time sitting in Lu Yi's car. This car was actually quite comfortable to sit in because it was spacious. Yan Huan did not like to sit in the front passenger seat. She liked to sit in the back. She could lie down or sit.., she could see the scenery outside, and she could also be in a daze. She didn't even need to see anyone, even though this was Yan Huan's seat.

"Just stop here." Yan Huan asked Lu Yi to stop when they were about ten minutes away from the Lu family.

Then, she prepared to walk back on her own.

Lu Yi stopped the car, and Yan Huan really opened the car door. She walked forward step by step. She walked very slowly and didn't turn back. The black car behind her stopped for a long time, only then did she drive past.

And at the instant the car drove past, the tears in Yan Huan's eyes that she had endured so hard fell just like that.

Mm, don't bother about her anymore. Let Her fend for herself. However, it was not that easy to kill her. Her life had always been very tough. She would not die so easily. It was just a small fever.., she's already recovered.

Chapter 1295: Why Is He still alive

Lu Yi closed the car door and walked in. Ye Shuyun wanted to ask Yan Huan about it, but when she saw Qin Xiaoyue there, she didn't manage to get anything out of him. He didn't want Lu Yi and Yan Huan to have too much of a relationship, because Qin Xiaoyue's mouth might say something in the future.

She didn't hate Yan Huan, but she never thought that she would accompany her son's reputation just so she didn't hate him.

Ten minutes later, Yan Huan walked in on his own. She didn't look too good, but she was still in good spirits.

"Sister-in-law, am I right?" Qin Xiaoyue was still making sarcastic remarks. "I told you that she wouldn't die. She just has a fever and is fine. She will recover on her own the next day. See, isn't she better?"

She pursed her lips. Her mouth was indeed merciless.

Ye Shuyun didn't want to reply. There was really nothing to say to a person like Qin Xiaoyue.

Yan Huan didn't take Qin Xiaoyue's blow to heart. She just smiled indifferently.

"Yes, mom is right. It's just a fever. She Won't die. Next Time Mom, if you have a fever, I won't care. Because mom, you said that a fever will be cured on the second day."

Qin Xiaoyue's face turned green in an instant, but she couldn't refute it. She was so angry that she threw her chopsticks, bowls, and plates. In the end, she stumbled and almost fell.

Yan Huan turned around and bowed to Ye Shuyun, thanking first aunt.

Ye Shuyun sighed. Although she was unwilling, she still put in a good word for Qin Xiaoyue. You should go back and rest first. Your mother-in-law, she actually cares about you too. She wants to adjust the relationship between these two mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, but she couldn't believe her own words.

If Qin Xiaoyue cared about others, the Sun would rise from the west.

Yan Huan was still smiling, but some things had long been hidden from his smile. She turned around and walked into her room. Step by step, she persevered and appraised.

Qin Xiaoyue also felt that the way others looked at her was strange. If she wanted to find someone to talk to, that person would look at her more. She didn't know what was in that gaze, but it made her very uncomfortable.

In the end, she could only pretend to walk away gracefully. However, her elegance couldn't bear the weight of the fat on her body.

Yan Huan opened the door and walked in as well. Nothing had changed in the room. Even the quilt was twisted into a twist. In the fish tank on the half wall, dozens of large-eyed fish were spitting bubbles from time to time, when they saw her, they also swam over and gave her food.

She walked over. When the fish saw her, all of them squeezed towards her.

Yan Huan stretched out his finger and lightly tapped the surface of the fish tank. The fish scattered a little, but after a while, they surrounded her again.

It was only then that she remembered that she hadn't fed them for a long time.

Actually, these fish wouldn't die even if she didn't feed them. They would only die if she fed them too much.

She raised them so slyly that every time she came over, she would make them remember something?

She took out some fish food from the cabinet and put some in it. A few fish were happily tracking the fish food. Their eyes were still flashing, and the color on their bodies was still very bright.

She clapped her hands and walked into the bathroom. In the mirror, she was so thin that her chin could be poked to death. It was suitable for her to be on camera. She laughed at herself, but who would let her be on camera now, then, she made her famous.

By the time she came out, she had already showered, but her complexion had not been too good.

At noon, the housekeeper called her over for lunch. She actually did not want to eat, but she did not forget that she still had to take medicine even if she did not eat.

She walked out. There was actually no one else outside. It was just her, Ye Shuyun, Lu Yi, and Fang Zhu

Actually, there was a time when she didn't want to go over. She didn't like being in the middle of someone else's family, but she also didn't want to. However, no matter how much she didn't want to, no matter how much she didn't like it, she still went over in the end, she pulled out a chair and sat down.

Fang Zhu raised her head and sized up Yan Huan for a long time. She didn't know if she was gloating over Yan Huan's misfortune.

Yan Huan did not have the strength to argue with others. She did not have the strength nor the energy.

She chewed on the rice in her mouth like she was chewing on wax. She kept listening to Fang Zhu saying that she wanted to go out and learn. Among thousands of people, or even tens of thousands of people, she stood out.

Ye Shuyun only smiled gently and elegantly. Yan Huan's gaze swept over them and finally stopped on Lu Yi. Lu Yi seemed to have noticed her gaze, her pair of black eyes were still as dark as the rain. It was hard to see anything.

She quickly lowered her head. In such broad daylight, there was nothing she could do.

Her heart also felt as if it was blocked by something.

She thought that she might really be sick?

She had been burying her head in her food and did not eat much. She was also not like before, where she and Fang Zhu were sewing together. Perhaps Fang Zhu also wanted to sew together with her. However, she did not give her face, Fang Zhu naturally could not find any topic to talk about.

"Little Zhu, when are you going to settle things with Lu Yi?"

Ye Shuyun could not help but bring up this matter again.

Yan Huan gripped the chopsticks in his hand tightly. When he heard this, he felt an unspeakable discomfort in his heart.

“Auntie, we are not in a hurry.” When Fang Zhu heard this, she instinctively rejected it. “Lu Yi and I have already discussed it. We will wait for three more and we will get married when I am thirty.”

Three years? Ye Shuyun wanted to cry but no tears came out. She still had to wait for three more years before she could get married. Then how long would she have to wait for her to have a grandson? Four years, five years, or six years?

Although others had already given her an answer, she felt that it was like an empty cheque. Whether it could be cashed or not was still a problem, but how many more three years could she wait?

However, when she looked at her son who was as hard as a rock, her mood instantly became even worse.

If there were people like this, let alone three or six years, she would still have to wait. If she didn't wait for this, could it be that she really had to be single? Lei Qingyi and he were both single. If she were to be single again., her roots would also be broken.

“I'm done eating.” Yan Huan stood up and did not eat much. She turned around and walked into her room. Without her, they would probably have a more pleasant conversation.

Yan Huan walked into the room. She took out the medicine that the doctor prescribed for her from the drawer. However, when the medicine slipped down her throat, it was so bitter that she wanted to cry. She endured the nausea and discomfort and swallowed another one, she forcefully swallowed it and lay there like a dead person.

It was very tiring to live, but why did she still have to live

Because there was hope when she lived. Only by living could she live up to the continuation of this life..

Chapter 1296: surveillance

In the afternoon, Qin Xiaoyue also returned. She was still picking out big fish and big meat to eat. The way she ate was so vulgar that it was unbearable. Ye Shuyun was already used to it. Qin Xiaoyue could eat whatever she wanted, in any case, they were eating different meals.

The food on her side was simpler. Of course, it was more focused on health. But on Qin Xiaoyue's side, there were big fish and big meat. She was eating the body's ability, while Qin Xiaoyue was eating the fat on her body.

Recently, the nanny at home had to go back to her hometown, so she had to find another one. When the few of them arrived here, Ye Shuyun did not know which one to look for.

It seemed that each of them was not bad. They all looked clean and diligent.

Yan Huan was not too concerned about this, nor did she care too much. She barely interacted with the servants of the Lu family, so she could look for anyone. In total, she only saw a few of them in a day

Her gaze swept over the few of them, and finally landed on a tall, sturdy middle-aged woman with slightly slanted eyes.

This person seemed familiar, and this woman also made her feel... detestable.

Among these five or six people, she felt that Ye Shuyun seemed to have a higher chance of choosing this one. Ye Shuyun preferred the sturdy one. Although there wasn't much tiring work at home for a woman to do, choosing a sturdy one was better than choosing a thinner one, it was better than choosing a thinner one.

There was no rule that only the stronger ones would be stronger. In fact, some of the thinner ones were also quite strong. However, Ye Shuyun might also feel that the stronger ones would feel more secure.

Therefore, even when she married her daughter-in-law, she had to be taller and stronger. Yes. Just like Fang Zhu, there was no difference between the front and the back. She was just very strong. Just like her, she was so strong that people could break her with a pinch. All the bones and flesh in her body were less than 90 pounds, Ye Shuyun must not like her very much.

Perhaps she felt that it was not easy to breed a woman with her figure.

Sure enough, Ye Shuyun picked the tallest and strongest woman at once. However, such a strong woman was unexpected. She had a very poetic name, Mei Zhi.

Yan Huan did not like this Mei Zhi since the first time she came. She did not like her looks, her eyes, or her name. She did not know where this dislike came from, but every time she saw her, she felt very uncomfortable.

Moreover, there were a few times when she found this woman whispering to Qin Xiaoyue.

Yan Huan felt that Ye Shuyun might have invited a wolf into the house

Of course, she still liked this woman. As long as this woman entered her room, her eyes were like a radar, seemingly scanning through all the valuable things inside. Such a person..., she was the most devious.

Yan Huan took out a bowl from the kitchen for herself. In the bowl was her own noodle soup. When she was bored, she learned it from a master. It could be considered to be somewhat special, and the soup was also delicious, it was also very delicious, and she had lost some weight recently. Perhaps it was because of that illness that she did not eat properly. Of course, no one in the family would notice that she had lost weight, and whether she was fat or thin had nothing to do with anyone else. She took care of her own body.

She ate the noodles listlessly. The noodles were supposed to be very good, but she did not have much of a taste. When the sound of a car engine came from outside, Yan Huan knew that young master Lu had returned.

It had been a few days since young master Lu had returned so late at night. He had either returned early or was at Old Master Lu's place. Old Master Lu was still lying on his back. Although he couldn't be said to be half-dead, he was unable to move, of course, he couldn't come over and scold others.

In fact, Yan Huan should be leading a better life than before. At the very least, no one scolded or cared about her. But why did she feel as if there was some kind of pressure pressing down on her heart? That kind of pressure.., it also seemed to make her unable to breathe.

The door opened, and the sound of familiar footsteps could be heard. They were deep, steady, and also firm. This was the feeling that this man gave off. Even the sound of his footsteps contained such a message.

The man stopped and his gaze stopped on the bowl that Yan Huan was holding.

There was also something inside. Yan Huan knew what he wanted to ask. She had done a lot, and perhaps subconsciously, she had also thought that he would come back. She was already used to sharing her meal with others. If he came back, he would eat.., if he didn't come back, she would eat it herself. If she didn't finish it, she could only eat it in the trash can.

She would rather have the food go into a person's stomach than dump it in the trash can.

Lu Yi put down his things and went into the kitchen. When he came out, he had a bowl of noodles in his hand. He sat at the side and crossed his legs as he ate. He took mouthfuls after mouthfuls. He was also well-mannered.

Yan Huan put down the bowl. Initially, she did not want to eat anymore. However, for some unknown reason, she suddenly had a taste. Could it be that the man in front of her was now a feast for the eyes? However, he was clearly.., he was still that Stone that made people unable to eat.

The amount of noodles in the pot was actually not too much. However, it was not too little either. She would only need to eat two small bowls at most to be full. As for the rest, it would probably be a large bowl plus a small bowl. Lu Yi should be able to settle it.

"What are you doing here?" A voice suddenly came from outside. Yan Huan was about to walk out, but he instinctively stopped.

"I just heard the sound and came over to take a look. Young master wants to eat in the middle of the night?"

"Didn't you see it?" Lu Yi's voice was slightly cold. It was like the autumn wind, blowing on the skin. It couldn't help but make people touch their arms, as if the wind had already cut through the skin, after that, there was a piercing pain.

"Young master's movements are really fast," the middle-aged woman outside was still talking, her voice was also a little strange. "Your car just came back, and you can already eat your meal. I thought only our family's Miss Yan seemed to have such a habit. So, young master, you also have such a habit?"

Yan Huan frowned. Was this Mei Zhi spying on her? Also, what did she mean by saying these words?

Almost no one knew that she liked to have a meal in the middle of the night. The servants in the house were not talkative, and they would not come here in the middle of the night. However, everyone knew that Lu Yi would sometimes come back too late, so, she would cook a meal for herself.

What was she trying to say by dragging her out now?

She wanted to go out, but she still stood there in the end. That man should be able to solve it.

“Is it her relationship with me?”

Chapter 1297: If You Don't like it, then get rid of her

Lu Yi asked the middle-aged woman in front of him who had a rather unkind face. Her pair of black eyes seemed to have frozen, causing Mei Zhi to feel that the air around her was a little cold. She hurriedly closed her eyes and shut her mouth, she didn't dare to say anything else.

After that, Yan Huan heard the sound of footsteps moving further away. It wasn't until the sound of footsteps cut off the tip of her ears that she finally came out. She still held a bowl of noodles in her hand and found a place for herself to sit down. Then, she picked up her chopsticks, she started to eat the noodles in the bowl.

“I don't like her.”

She said one sentence and then continued to eat the rice in her bowl. After that, she didn't say anything else. She only said one sentence, “I don't like her.” Then, there was nothing else.

She would think of a way to get that person to scram. However, the one who could really get that person to scram wasn't anyone else but Ye Shuyun. If Ye Shuyun didn't agree, then it would be more troublesome. And what she was going to do was a problem.

When she woke up the next morning, she realized that something was not right. Qin Xiaoyue's face was long as she glared at Yan Huan.

“Useless thing, my son married you for nothing.”

“He hasn't married me yet.”

Yan Huan was naturally not polite to others. Qin Xiaoyue choked until her lungs hurt, but she could not react. Recently, she had been so angry with Yan Huan that she was powerless, it was mainly because Yan Huan was disobedient now. He would oppose her no matter what she did. In the past, he could help make her boss feel uncomfortable, but now she didn't even scold him.

This made her feel more and more uncomfortable, especially since it was getting harder and harder to get money from her.

The more Qin Xiaoyue thought about it, the more she couldn't stand it. She directly went to Ye Shuyun to argue with her. Yan Huan didn't know why Qin Xiaoyue was so angry this early in the morning, even her face turned green.

Of course, this person wasn't her. She didn't have such great ability. She just stood there and didn't do anything. She was able to infuriate people to death. If that was really possible, then it would be great.., perhaps Qin Xiaoyue had been angered to death countless times already.

Qin Xiaoyue walked forward, and she followed behind. She just wanted to know what had happened to Qin Xiaoyue and who had such great ability to infuriate her to such an extent.

“Sister-in-law, what do you mean?” Qin Xiaoyue was unwilling to do anything. “Meizhi is doing fine. Why did you fire her? And you didn’t tell me.”

Ye Shuyun was watering the flowers seriously. She had been staying in the greenhouse since the morning and was in a good mood. Of course, she didn’t take Qin Xiaoyue’s interrogation to heart.

Moreover, she had to admit that she was actually a little happy to be able to anger Qin Xiaoyue to this extent.

“If you don’t like it, then fire her. Also, I don’t need to ask for permission to fire someone, right?” Ye Shuyun said indifferently. Although she was a little happy in her heart, she still knew how to keep her face straight. She also felt that Mei Zhi wasn’t good.., at that time, she was tall and strong enough to work because of her figure. However, she didn’t wash her clothes, mop the floor, wipe the table, or water the flowers properly all day long. It was said that she didn’t know how to do it, it was understandable if she wasn’t familiar with it, but it had been almost half a month. No matter what, she should be familiar with it. However, she was still unwilling to work and followed behind Qin Xiaoyue every day, the two of them were together every day. What else could they talk about? It was just family matters.

She did not like people who gossiped, and that Mei Zhi happened to be one. Not only did she gossip, she also liked to chew every day. No matter what, she did not keep such people around her.

Moreover, her son did not like it either. When he came back for dinner in the middle of the night, she had to come out and make sarcastic remarks.

If she had the ability, as a nanny, if she was really responsible, she would know that her son would come back late at night, so why didn’t she prepare the meal for Lu Yi? Her family’s Lu Yi had prepared it himself, but that woman still had to say, she had really had enough.

If she had enough, then she would let him get lost.

The Lu family offered such good conditions, and some of them were willing to come over. Moreover, any one of them was better than this scheming Mei Zhi. Why didn’t she realize back then that this Mei Zhi really had a scheming face.

What did a nanny need so many scheming minds for. It was better to do one’s own things well and leave a good impression on the main family. Just like when the previous nanny left, even Yan Huan gave her some things. Yan Huan had never liked to get close to the servants in the house, but in the end, he still gave them things. Why? What was a person’s character like, only after they got to know each other would they understand.

Therefore, it was right for Mei Zhi to let her go, so that she would not disturb the entire house.

“Sister-in-law, there’s no such thing as you, right?” Qin Xiaoyue pulled a long face and started to argue with Ye Shuyun. “She’s doing well. Isn’t it because you don’t like her that she wants to drive her away? Are you still being reasonable?”

“What does it have to do with you whether I’m being reasonable or not?” Ye Shuyun put down the kettle in her hand and asked Qin Xiaoyue.

Qin Xiaoyue was almost unable to react when she was asked this question. Yes, was this related to being reasonable? If she didn't like her, she could just let her go.

"She's doing fine..."

"I don't like her. Is this a good reason?"

"But you can't either..."

"Why can't I?" Ye Shuyun asked Qin Xiaoyue again. She was not someone who didn't have a temper. She just wanted to water the flowers early in the morning. Why was it so noisy that she couldn't even water the flowers.

"I don't like her. I'm annoyed. I'm annoyed. I Can't eat. If I can't eat, why do I have to raise her?"

"But I like her." Qin Xiaoyue raised her voice.

"Then you should keep her!"

Ye Shuyun turned around again and picked up the kettle to water the other flowers.

"I'll keep her." Qin Xiaoyue was not convinced. It was only a matter of a few thousand yuan a month. Yan Huan could pay for the money, but the rebels were not serving her alone. Could it be that Yan Huan's clothes did not need to be washed, did she not need to clean the room?

"Sure." Ye Shuyun was more than happy to do so. "Then you can take care of her?"

Ye Shuyun turned around and her voice could be heard clearly behind Qin Xiaoyue.

"I don't like her, so don't let her appear in front of me. If you want to take care of her, you can also move out of my house immediately."

Qin Xiaoyue was stunned. This was the first time Qin Xiaoyue had heard ye Shuyun say something like this in so many years. This was her house, this was her house, yes, this was her house.

Qin Xiaoyue's expression changed. She almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

What she was most afraid of was what ye Shuyun said. This was her house, and then she would chase the mother and son out.

Chapter 1298: Peace and quiet

"Sister-in-law, are you bullying an orphan and a widow? I'm going to look for the old man." Qi Xiaoyue was about to rush out as if she had seen how much she had been wronged.

"Go ahead. Even the old man can't let me take care of second brother and his family for the rest of my life." Ye Shuyun was afraid that she could rely on something else. She could do whatever she wanted.

This time, she had made up her mind. She would not go along with Qin Xiaoyue. She would let her live here, let Lu Qin live here, and let Yan Huan live here

It was because they were both orphans and widowed. However, one could not go too far in doing things. If one went too far, it would be a little annoying.

No matter how good her temper was, she had endured it for decades. She had endured it long enough.

What was wrong? Ye Shuyun had only fired a nanny, yet she had come early in the morning to question her. What identity did she, Qin Xiaoyue, use? What reason did she use?

She had already chased this person away. If Qin Xiaoyue wanted him so badly, she naturally could not stop her. She could just take her son and daughter-in-law and get lost together. The last time, she had even cursed her family's Lu Jin. These things, she should not think that she had forgotten all of them, now, she could still be as magnanimous as before. She could still be happy with her as her sister-in-law. She even had to support her and her family.

She didn't chase them out, but it was only because the deceased Lu Jing was a member of the Lu family. No matter what, he was still old master Lu's son.

But even so, it didn't mean that she could endure it forever.

Qin Xiaoyue choked on Ye Shuyun's words until half of her blood was stuck in her throat. She was not a fool. Could it be that she could not tell that ye Shuyun was really determined this time and even wanted to chase her out.

She had been strong for half of her life, and now there was a kind of crisis.

And she did not know whether she should leave or not. Her heart would also be in turmoil. She did not know what to do?

In the end, she still turned around and left according to her character.

HMPH, what's so great about it? When her son became famous, they would also buy such a large mansion. When Yan Huan got his hands on the few hundred million, what was there to be afraid of?

Yan Huan heard a rough explanation. So it was because Mei Zhi was chased away by Ye Shuyun. mm, it would be best if she was chased away. She also hated Mei Zhi's face. She wondered why she had lost so much weight recently, it turned out that it was not because of anything else, but because she had been disgusted by Mei Zhi.

She just did not know why Qin Xiaoyue, who was usually able to compromise, was so tough this time.

Very soon, she found out that when she returned to her room, Qin Xiaoyue was rummaging through her things like before.

"Mom, my jewelry is useful."

Yan Huan had seen people snatch it before, but he had never seen someone so shameless.

This was not Qin Xiaoyue's, but her daughter-in-law's. There was a big difference between a daughter-in-law and a son. Why? Did she not know?

"What's wrong with me taking a matching dress?" Qin Xiaoyue did not feel how hot her face was. She directly picked up a brooch and pinned it to her chest. Then, she shone it in the closet for half a day, she turned around and glanced at the big fish tank behind her. She was still wondering if she could sell this fish one day. She heard that this fish was worth tens of millions.

Qin Xiaoyue looked at herself in the mirror for half a day. She was very satisfied with this brooch. Of course, she was even more satisfied with other places. However, she also knew that she couldn't take too much at once. Otherwise.., if Yan Huan went to cause trouble with his son, it would not be worth it.

She then extended her hand to Yan Huan. "I'll give you 500,000 yuan. I'll be out for a few days."

Yan Huan originally did not want to give it to her. She did not want Qin Xiaoyue to just ask her for money whenever she had nothing to do. Jiayi was right. If this continued, even if she had a mountain of gold and a mountain of silver.., one day, she would be tormented by this mother and son pair. She hadn't received any good jobs these days. Lu Qin also didn't let her go out to film because she had to be prepared to act for him at any time, moreover, up until now, there weren't any good roles for her to film. If she hadn't sold the house last time and now had 100 million in income, she might really have become a pauper.

And Qin Xiaoyue had never felt embarrassed when she stretched out her hand to ask for money. Could it be that she, Yan Huan, was the ATM for both of them? But if it really was, could it be that.., she shouldn't have treated her ATM better.

No, how could they treat the ATM better? Ye Shuyun, who never asked for money and was also a landlord who provided food and accommodation, was not in their eyes, let alone other people.

"How many days will you be gone?"

Yan Huan asked as he clenched his phone tightly.

"At least half a month ago. Hurry up and give me the money. What are you waiting for?" Qin Xiaoyue was annoyed. If she wanted to go abroad to relax, 500,000 yuan wasn't enough. But now, Yan Huan wasn't so easy to fool, she had grown a lot of shrewdness. She couldn't ask for more money at once. Otherwise, her son would criticize her again.

Yan Huan pursed her red lips tightly. She had let her assistant invest all her money. She could earn some money in a month. Unlike before, she had no concept of such things, only when she was about to run out of money did she realize that no matter how much money she had, she would run out of it.

She didn't know how much her assistant could earn in a month, but it should be enough to earn 500,000 yuan.

"I got it. I'll call you." Yan Huan lay down again, pulled up the blanket and covered himself. Qin Xiaoyue then left happily.

Otherwise, Yan Huan would know that she didn't even have a good day. She was a little tired now and didn't want to hear Qin Xiaoyue's voice. If Qin Xiaoyue could give her half a month of peace and quiet, she would pay the 500,000 yuan.

She dialed her assistant's number.

"Jiayi, it's me. Send 500,000 yuan to my mother-in-law from my account."

The assistant on the other side might have wanted to persuade her, but in the end, she sighed and still didn't say anything. Forget it. This money was originally Yan Huan's. She could give it to whoever she wanted. As long as they took their time in the future., as long as Yan Huan was willing to pull himself together, he would be able to earn back all the losses he had suffered in the future.

Yan Huan understood what the assistant meant. However, she did not want to explain right now. Her mind was in a mess. It was so messy that she wanted to run to a deserted place in the Celestial Empire and never come back.

She did not know when she fell asleep. In her dream, she looked at a small hand in front of her. It was a small hand that probably did not even have her palm. The small hand pulled on her clothes and pulled her forward, she could not see clearly what it was pulling, but she knew that it was a child. It was a very, very small child. It was not a three-year-old child.

Chapter 1299:

All of a sudden, a huge suction force appeared behind her body and sucked her in.

She shook her head and sat up abruptly. What entered her eyes were still those big-eyed fish. They were carefree all day long. It didn't matter if they lived like this for the rest of their lives.

In her next life, it was okay to be a fish. At the very least, they could swim freely.

There was also the fact that fish only had five seconds of memory, no matter how unforgettable it was in the past, they wouldn't remember it.

She grabbed her clothes. She seemed to remember that small, tender hand.

But where was he taking her? Why didn't he tell her? Why couldn't she see him? Why did her heart hurt? Why was her heart hurt too.

She lay down again, wanting to fall asleep. She wanted to go to that place again, wanting to resolve some things that she couldn't explain with common sense

And that strange dream.

But she tossed and turned, unable to fall asleep again.

When she woke up, Qin Xiaoyue had already left early in the morning. She would probably be gone for ten days to half a month. It was no wonder that she and Ye Shuyun had fallen out, she was still afraid that Ye Shuyun would not let go of this matter. When that time came, they would really be chased out. Without Lu Qin, they would not have any place to go.

As for Yan Huan, she had also thought about what would happen if she stayed here alone

Would she be chased out? Would she be bullied.

To these things, Yan Huan did not have much hope from the start. She could live here forever. In her eyes, this was not her home. It was someone else's home, even if she lived here., she was not really willing to give her gold every day.

She only wanted her own home, even if it was not that big.

As for whether ye Shuyun would chase her out, she treated it as a wait-and-see situation. If she chased her out, so be it. However, she did not know why, but she still felt a sense of reluctance in her heart, perhaps she could eat a bowl of noodles from time to time, like the noodles her mother made.

However, it seemed that ye Shuyun never mentioned anything about moving out in front of her.

They lived together peacefully, and she didn't like to talk anymore. Usually, she would either go out with the assistant to take some outdoor photos, or she would stay in her room and never go out, and she rarely appeared in front of Ye Shuyun.

But at night, she would come out and cook a bowl of noodles or fried rice for herself. Lu Yi would almost always come back at that time. No matter how late he got off work, it was the same. He would first go to the Liu Yuan, then he would go home and rush to the prosecutor's Office the next day. So, he could eat the same thing with Yan Huan every night.

Sometimes, when she woke up late, he would cook noodles, and sometimes when Yan Huan woke up early, she would be busy. No matter what, the two of them had never been hungry at night, and some things had never changed.

For example, their simple relationship

Yan Huan did not think too much about it, and Lu Yi was the same.

The weather outside gradually warmed up. Yan Huan opened the wardrobe and realized that she did not have many clothes to wear. Her good clothes were almost all taken by Qin Xiaoyue within two years, therefore, she really did not have many clothes to wear.

She took her bag and prepared to go out and buy some clothes. There was no car outside for her to drive. Qin Xiaoyue did not have a car of her own now, so it was better to have someone come and pick her up. As for that sports car., it was probably taken away by Chun Xiaoyue's nephew or nephew. Yan Huan was used to it. Qin Xiaoyue had thrown away countless meat buns in the past few years.

She changed into a pair of flat shoes, then took out a pair of sunglasses from her bag and put them on her face. If she went now, not many people would chase after her. After all, she was an outdated female star, in fact, she did not have much commercial value. If she had time to film her, she might as well film someone else's. She could go out openly. Of course, she did not have to worry about being surrounded by people on the road, she still couldn't create such a sensation. In the past few years, her popularity had indeed declined considerably. It was so amazing that even she herself hadn't thought of it.

She wasn't old yet, but she had already passed away in advance.

She wasn't famous enough yet, and now she wasn't famous anymore.

She went to the mall and tried on a few clothes. If she felt good, she bought them all. Of course, they weren't any big-name clothes. They were too expensive. When Qin Xiaoyue came back, she probably wouldn't be able to wear them, even if Qin Xiaoyue could not wear them, they would still be looted.

She was a little tired from shopping. She just happened to see a milk tea shop in the mall. There were not many people at the moment. She found a place for herself, ordered a cup of milk tea, and sat there to drink it.

It had been a long time since she had walked so much, so her calves were a little sore from walking. When she went out, she only walked for half an hour, but she also walked a lot in the mall for more than an hour.

When she went back, she would buy a bicycle to ride. It was better than letting her walk on her own two legs. If she walked, it would take about 30 minutes, and if she rode the bicycle back, it would take about 15 minutes.

That was it. She would go and take a look later. As for the bicycle, it was likely that Qin Xiaoyue would not put her bicycle, which cost a few hundred yuan, in her eyes.

Milk tea was put aside, and she propped up her face on the table. Her feet, which were wearing flat shoes, didn't hurt much. She pulled down her hat and continued to drink milk tea.

The milk tea in this shop was actually pretty good. Although she didn't really like the taste, occasionally drinking it was a little strange. As for the taste, it was just so-so, of course, it wasn't so bad that it was hard to swallow.

There were more and more people in the small shop, and the empty seats around were also taken up. There were couples and two women who were best friends. Everyone was chatting happily, it seemed that she was the only one who was separated from a strange atmosphere. This should be called being out of place, and she couldn't appear here. It made people feel that she was even more unapproachable.

All the seats were full. There were even some people who were standing. No one dared to sit here.

"Is there anyone sitting here?" A voice rang out beside Yan Huan's ear. Yan Huan raised his head and saw a surprised man. That man also narrowed his eyes. No one knew what he was thinking about.

His eyes were actually jet black. No matter how she tried to see through him, it was as if he was blocked several hundred miles away. She could not see anything clearly.

"Is anyone sitting?" He asked again.

"No."

Chapter 1300: was true love

Yan Huan lowered his head again and placed the milk tea in front of him. Then, he began to drink it one mouthful at a time.

A large hand stretched out and placed the bag in his hand on the table.

It was all bought by women, women's clothes, and women's underwear.

He was here to accompany women to go shopping. Yan Huan gently pursed his red lips. His lips, which did not have much color, were extremely close.

Not long after, that man sat down with a cup of milk tea in his hand. Of course, it was milk tea, not a drink, or plain water, he bought this for his girlfriend, right?

She had never heard that prosecutor Lu liked to drink milk tea, and this kind of drink should be what women liked to drink. She really could not imagine why this man would want to hold a cup of milk tea and drink it.

However, Lu Yi's actions stunned her on the spot. She watched as he slowly took out a straw, removed the layer of plastic paper on the straw, and placed the straw into the milk tea cup, then, he picked up the cup and drank it.

"Cough..."

Yan Huan choked on it. As for the man who was drinking milk tea from the photo, there was a hint of a smile in his dark eyes. However, it was hidden too deeply, and no one noticed it.

Yan Huan patted her chest and felt that she was making too much of a fuss over nothing.

There were no rules regarding milk tea. It had to be drunk by a woman. Of course, a man could drink it too.

The two of them sat there silently. Regardless of whether it was the seat next to Yan Huan or the seat next to Lu Yi, no one dared to think about it. Yan Huan's side profile was extremely beautiful and her temperament was also good, even though she was only wearing a simple sweater and pants, and even her shoes were a pair of flats, she did not wear any jewelry on her body. However, her face could make people feel that she was not a simple woman.

As for Lu Yi, he was dressed in such a way that strangers were not allowed to get close to him. It was likely that no one could withstand such a great pressure and dare to snatch a seat beside him.

Yan Huan was drinking milk tea as she propped up her face. When she turned around, she saw Fang Zhu walking over at the entrance of the stairs not far away. She could be considered to stand out among the crowd here. It was not that she was very tall or very beautiful.

To be honest, Fang Sheng was very ordinary. It could also be said that she was ugly among ordinary people. The only reason why she attracted people's attention was because she always wore black clothes all year round. In addition, she had a serious face, so she always gave people the feeling that she was very stiff. There was no gentleness, and it was difficult to approach her. However, this point was the same as Lu Yi's. If one had to use this measure to measure what other people said about being a natural couple., then Yan Huan believed it. They were indeed a natural couple.

She put down the cup in her hand and prepared to make room for the other party so that they would not misunderstand anything when they came later. It did not matter in the first place. She did not want people to misunderstand that it was a wrong relationship.

However, not long after she stood up, the table started shaking. When she turned around, someone shouted an earthquake. Fang Zhu's expression changed. She was the one closest to the stairs, she immediately rushed down the stairs. Even Lu Yixiao didn't care about her.

The people around her began to run towards the stairs like crazy. The building shook violently. They could see the milk tea cup on the table shaking. Everyone was running outside, screams could be heard from time to time.

Perhaps the least anxious was Yan Huan, and Lu Yi, who was sitting opposite her.

Yan Huan took her things. However, when she stood up again, her body swayed. At this moment, a hand held her hand tightly, supporting her.

“Let’s go.”

Yan Huan lowered her head and looked at the large hand holding her wrist. Suddenly, she smiled, and all sorts of screams could be heard from time to time “We’re on the ninth floor.” She picked up her bag, but she was still not in a hurry to escape. In fact, the ground had already started to calm down.

If it was really like the earthquake in Ning City, in an instant, even if she wanted to run, there was nothing she could do.

Yan Huan pulled her wrist out of his hand.

Yan Huan was extremely sympathetic towards Lu Yi. She didn’t believe that Fang Zhu didn’t know that Lu Yi was here. She was clearly walking in this direction, and it might only take a few steps, she could have run all the way here to bring Lu Yi along. Even if she really couldn’t make it in time, shouldn’t she have shouted at him? But she didn’t. She only cared about running away. Lu Yi also picked up the bag on the table and followed behind Yan Huan.

There was no one in the entire shopping mall now. Everyone had run away. It was possible that there were only the two of them here. They could still hear the screams and cries coming from below.

When they went down, there were already quite a number of people standing on the street. However, they were not in danger. According to the people on the ground, the ground was not shaking too badly because Yan Huan and the rest were on the ninth floor, therefore, the shaking was a little big. As for the people outside, they might only feel a slight shake.

“Lu Yi, are you okay?” Fang Zhu saw Lu Yi coming out from inside and quickly walked over. She also grabbed his arm with a concerned and frightened look.

Lu Yi tightened his thin lips. As for his face, he did not reveal any expression.

Yan Huan stood to the side. She didn’t know if she was laughing at their fake affection or pretending to be in love. She felt a little disgusted by this kind of love.

This good cabbage had been eaten by a pig, and this pig was none other than Fang Zhu.

What did he do just now? Now he was here to express his concern with fake affection.

The sudden earthquake in Hai City was like a fireworks display in the sky. Many people did not have time to feel it. Many people might have already passed away in their sleep, of course, the entire Earth only shook for a moment. After that, there was not even an aftershock.

Yan Huan found a bicycle shop. Everyone was also talking about the earthquake just now. After all, there had never been an earthquake in Hai City for so many years.

Although the earthquake only shook a little, it still injured a few people.

These people were not shaken to death. Instead, they were trampled on when they were walking down the stairs.

Yan Huan listened and did not interrupt. It was human nature to be afraid of death. This was not wrong. At the moment of the disaster, it seemed that all they could do was run. As long as they could run past the disaster, they would win, however, if they could not run past it, they would also lose, and they would have to leave their lives behind.

However, the matter of Fang Zhu abandoning Lu Yi did not seem to be related to Lu Yi. Or could it be that his tolerance towards Fang Zhu had reached a level that other men could not achieve.

Perhaps, this was true love.
