

Chapter 1551: will give you one year

Many people watched it because of the actors from the previous film. If they wanted to shoot the second film, they would definitely need the characters from the first film.

“You don’t have to worry about that.”

Luo Lin wasn’t worried at all.

“I’ve always been in contact with Liang Chen and the others. Qi haolin, Zhou Zizhe, and the others are still in the industry. They’ve all achieved a lot. They’ve all said before that as long as we want to shoot a film and we need them, they’ll be free. I’ll contact them. If they’re all connected, then it won’t be a problem for us to start shooting.”

“Of course, the most important thing is that ever since the beginning, we have always planned to shoot a second time. Therefore, we have never stopped researching special effects. This will greatly shorten our shooting date.”

Rowling stretched out her finger and pointed at Yan Huan. “I’ll give you a year’s time to recover to your best condition. A year’s time is enough for US to prepare and for you to recover.”

“And...”

Rowling stretched out her finger and poked Yan Huan’s face.

“I feel that your face might not have changed much even after ten years. So even if it really is a year later, you won’t have changed much. You’ll still be as beautiful as before.”

“So it’s decided. Of course...”Rowling glanced at Yan Huan from the corner of her eyes. “You won’t refuse, right?”

What else could Yan Huan Say? The pregnant woman had already decided everything. Naturally, she was also included in the decision. It didn’t seem like she could tolerate any rejection.

Actually, both she and Rowling had a special feeling towards the beginning. Some of the so-called peaks were meant to be broken by others.

As long as there was a slight chance, they all wanted to give it a try. They didn’t know if they could create another miracle. In that case, it could really be considered as adding a perfect stroke to their path of acting., and also adding a perfect stroke.

Rowling had always been a work-oriented person, so she had already taken out her cell phone and called Yi Ling

Not long after, Yi Ling’s people directly came over.

Now, among the three of them, one was a pregnant woman, and the other was a woman who couldn’t walk too much. One of her arms and legs were safe, so it was naturally Yi Ling who came to visit.

When Yi Ling came, it was just time for them to have lunch.

Yi Ling directly sat at Yan Huan's place. It wasn't like she didn't know how terrifying Rowling's appetite was. Last time, when she brought Little Thunder out to eat, she happened to meet Rowling, they sat at the same table to eat. In the end, that day, both she and Little Thunder went back hungry. It was the first time she had seen such a gluttonous woman, so it was no wonder that she had to set up two tables, as long as they sat at the same table as Rowling, they would not be able to eat much. However, the current Rowling was the type of person who could sweep away all the food on the table, no matter how much food was placed on it.

It was naturally good to sit beside Yan Huan. Yan Huan ate slowly, while the other party ate slowly as well. On Rowling's side, it was called feeding and hunting, while on Yan Huan's side, it was called enjoying delicious food.

After they finished eating, Yi Ling sat together with Rowling. They had already started discussing the first two parts of the shoot. They had discussed their plans, but they did not have the slightest intention of asking Yan Huan, she wanted to shoot or not, whether she could shoot or not, whether she was willing to shoot or not. If she did not ask for her consent, then she had no choice but to act, and even more so, she had to shoot.

Since there was nothing for her to do here, Yan Huan would go to bed by himself. She would let them discuss it. She wanted to see what they could come up with.

The two women outside discussed for a while longer. It was almost a one-time deal. The first two parts had already been decided. When Yi Ling returned, she would have to discuss it with a few people in charge of the company. She would also have to write a script, she would also have to hire first-rate computer technicians from abroad. This time around, their investment was much bigger than before. Of course, this was also the biggest movie that Linlang had invested in in the past few years. Of course, this was also the movie that had the highest chance of breaking through to the top of the box office, although they were currently number one on the box office rankings, they still wanted to create another glory. They did not know if it would be possible or if it would be possible.

However, everyone was looking forward to it.

However, someone raised an objection.

"Do we need to change the roles for this movie?"

After all, the previous stars, such as Liang Chen, had already retired from filming. Although Zhou Zizhe's Qi Haolin was still in the industry, they were undoubtedly the top actors in the industry. The most important point was Yan Huan.

This drama could be said to have been supported by Yan Huan. If Yan Huan hadn't been there, how would they have been able to film it? Now, everyone knew that Yan Huan hadn't woken up yet. Although this piece of news was concealed very well., it was still known by others.

It had to be said that if the first two takes were good, it wouldn't be a problem for them to surpass first place. After all, whether it was investment, technology, or the audience's sense of consumption, they were all much better than first place, therefore, it was really not a problem to break that record. After all, this movie was an IP drama with a huge amount of traffic. Moreover, if the quality of the movie passed the standard, even if it did not break the record, it would still earn a huge sum of money, it would not be a problem for it to go up to 3 billion at the box office. As for Linlang's movies in the past few years, even if they were to go up to the new year, there were not many that could reach 1.5 billion. They also urgently needed a good movie, they needed to raise Linlang's reputation a little.

Only Linlang could film such a film because the copyright of the first film was in Linlang's hands. If they wanted to film the second film, Linlang would have to film it herself.

Now, nothing was a problem. The biggest problem wasn't anything else, but whether the lead actor could still take the film.

"You don't have to worry about that." Yi Ling was not worried at all. "Rowling and I will find a way to resolve this matter. We guarantee that the original cast will take on the role."

Yi Ling was the person in charge of Linlang. Right now, whatever Linlang wanted to take on, it was her word. Linlang was her own, and she could not destroy Linlang. So if she said that she could take on the role, then it must be possible to take on the role, since that was the case, it was decided first.

The preparatory work for the first two parts was decided first. Now, starting from writing the script, it would take at least three to four months from approval to acceptance. And in these three to four months.., it was enough for Yan Huan to recover.

When the news of Yan Huan's recovery was released, then the shooting of the first two parts would be set in stone.

Chapter 1552: leveling up and killing monsters

Yi Ling was the only one who was busy with this matter. Even the rewriting of the script was done by herself. She found the home of a famous writer and asked him to help write the first two scripts, later on, there were many other scripts that were collected, and they were all specially written by someone.

Regardless of whether it was that famous writer or other people, the script was not written very well. It did not achieve the desired effect.

This caused a headache for Yi Ling. At the beginning, it did not go well. She did not know if the movie would really fail. Yi Ling was confident about this. She knew very well, as long as it was not a mistake in principle, the movie would not fail too badly. Even if it could not break that record, it should at least have a guaranteed box office revenue of three billion. Otherwise.., she wouldn't have put in so much effort. It was just that she had put in so much effort and waited for so long, but there were no good results. This made her quite unhappy.

Yan Huan was currently reading a miniature book. This was something little thunder liked to read, and it was also something Yiling had bought for her son. Little Thunder liked to write and draw, which was different from Lei Qingyi, he was still quite imaginative, and he had some talent in drawing.

The miniature book had been smeared over. It was originally a normal drawing, but it had been changed into a picture of a great hero fighting a monster, and it was even drawn in a decent manner.

“Come and take a look.”

Yan Huan showed the picture book that Little Lei Zi had changed to the two of them. When the two women saw the messy drawings made by the devilish child, they could not help but be amused.

These children were really naive.

“Are we going to follow this script?”

Yan Huan pointed at one of the pages. “Level up and fight monsters. Enter the dungeon.”

She pushed the picture in her hand in front of Yi Ling,

Yi Ling took the graffiti that her son had casually drawn. When she looked at it carefully, it was really interesting. There was also a monster that he had thought of out of nowhere on it. It seemed that his brain had also turned for a moment, she hurriedly stuffed all these things into her bag. I’ll go back first. When the script is done, I’ll come back to look for you guys.

Rowling took a bag of snacks from the table and started eating. Since she had arrived here, she had not stopped eating. That’s right, why did she stop? Why didn’t she eat? If a person was alive, if they did not eat., then what fun was there to live.

“I think if this script is really good, I don’t know if we should add little thunder’s name to it. After all, he was the one who gave us such a big idea.”

“Giving him a reward is more practical.” Yan Huan lay on the sofa at the side, not wanting to move. They had been recuperating for so long, but they still didn’t have much strength, and they didn’t know when they would be able to recover.

This was also fine. Rowling was really thinking about giving lei zi a reward. If the script was based on the graffiti that Lei Zi had drawn and was successfully adapted into the script., how much money would they give lei zi.

And Yi Ling’s actions were faster than they had imagined. It took about three days. No one knew how much effort the screenwriter had put into not eating or sleeping. Finally, the script was completed, the current script was Linlang’s internal secret. Other than Linlang’s higher-ups, no one knew the contents of the script. This was the content of the script that they had decided to shoot.

It was the plot of the previous series, which meant that they had encountered the eruption of a volcano. After a period of dizziness, they fell into a cave. It could be said that they were lucky, in the midst of the almost apocalyptic volcanic eruption, their lives were left behind. After that, the entire forest was destroyed in that disaster, and they still had to think of ways to survive, they also competed with the remaining wild beasts for the few resources they had. Later, they found another place where they met people from other tribes and began a new civilization

When the first two arrived here, they also left behind a new ending point. Of course, there was also a new starting point. There might be a third or fourth film. As for whether they would continue filming, no one knew, this required time to answer and witness.

After all, such a film was not an ordinary film. It could not be made once a year. It could be made once every two years. It could take five, six, seven, eight years to make another film. There were too many things to prepare, without thorough preparations, it was impossible to start filming. If they made the wrong film, their reputation would be ruined along with it.

When the first two scenes ended, Rowling and Elin had already thought about it. They had been preparing in secret, so when it was time to start filming, both of them were actually very confident. They knew what kind of work they should be doing. They also knew what kind of team they should look for.

Of course, even Zhou Zizhe and the others probably knew that the first two scenes would be filmed, so they would always be free. Even the retired movie queen, Liang Chen, who was focused on being a mother and raising her daughter, was the same.

Yan Huan was the only one who did not take it to heart. Of course, she did not think about it either. Other than the constant accidents, all her thoughts were no longer on the film, but on her child.

She could give up everything she had achieved for the sake of her child. Even if she was really outdated, it did not matter. After all, she was just outdated, just like what she said.

Even if she stopped filming, Lu Yi's salary was enough for her to spend.

This time, Yi Ling was very concerned about the first two scenes. Even a pregnant woman like Luo Lin was concerned. On the other hand, Yan Huan didn't feel much. He still ate and slept every day, waiting for her bowl of happy noodles.

"Ah, you've Grown So Big?" Zhu Meina touched Luo Lin's stomach. "The last time I came, it was still so small. This time it's big again. Maybe the baby inside is bigger again."

"Really?" Rowling also touched her belly, but why didn't she feel much bigger? It was still the same as before.

"Maybe it's because you watch it every day."

Zhu Meina sat down and touched Rowling's belly with envy. So soon, in another two months, this child would be born, and Rowling would also be a mother. As for her..., she could forget about being a mother for the rest of her life. But it didn't matter. She couldn't give birth by herself, but she had already found a son for herself.

Zhu Meina came over last month. At that time, she had just gotten to know Rowling. She didn't know why, but the two women had actually become good friends who talked about everything. Now, if there was nothing else, the two women were just sticking together, she didn't know what to say.

Chapter 1553: lack of intelligence

"Do you think I can become an actress?"

Zhu Meina pointed at her own face and asked Rowling. With such a good image, it would be a pity if she didn't become an actress.

"You can't." Rowling glanced at her and impolitely attacked her.

“Why?”Zhu Meina didn’t understand. I’m beautiful, have a good figure, and have a good temperament. She felt that she was good in every aspect, so why couldn’t she become an actress.

“You didn’t come from a professional class.”

Luo Lin picked up the cup and drank another glass of water. “I haven’t had any experience in acting, so it’s very difficult for me to blend into this industry.”

“Didn’t Sun Yuhan also do it? And she did it again and again. Just by doing this, she has made a name for herself.”Zhu Meina also thought that she was much better than Sun Yuhan. At the very least., she was quite good-looking. Although she wasn’t as beautiful as Yan Huan, she wasn’t bad either. Moreover, she had such a good figure.

“Sun Yuhan was made by money.”Luo Lin didn’t feel how successful Sun Yuhan was, “Her path stops here. She can’t be any higher. In this world, she’s stronger than the Ye family. There are many richer people than the ye family. She can only reach this step in her career. However, if she wants to rise to a higher level, she’s still far from it based on her own conditions. Therefore, in their circle, Sun Yuhan is nothing. Sometimes, she’s even worse than a small piece of trash. She just relies on the Ye family behind her. If the Ye family collapses, then she will collapse together with them.”

“As long as you guys are willing to support me, I will also become famous.”Zhu Meina didn’t believe it. If they really wanted to support such a beautiful woman, how difficult would it be? In any case, she felt that it should be very simple.

“Your personality isn’t suitable for that.”

Luo Lin rejected without the slightest hesitation.

“Why?”Zhu Meina didn’t understand. where her personality wasn’t suitable, everywhere was suitable, everywhere was good.

“She’s saying that your IQ isn’t high enough.”

Yan Huan went straight to the point and stabbed Zhu Meina in the heart. This stab was really heavy. It was gloomy and bloody.

Luo Lin chuckled and did not reply. There were many factors that could determine whether she could exist in this circle, and Zhu Meina was obviously not suitable for any of them.

Zhu Meina was so angry that she really wanted to smash Yan Huan with a cup, but she did not dare to do so. If she really dared to make a move, she would use the cup. When Lu Yi returned, she would definitely smash her with the table.

Therefore, she could only glare and move her mouth, but she did not dare to make a move.

How could there be such a woman? How could there be such a friend?

Rowling yawned. She was going to sleep too.

“Let’s go, child. Mommy will take you to sleep.”Rowling gently stroked her stomach. Her face was full of motherly love. When she returned to her room, everything outside had nothing to do with her. Anyway, as long as she fell asleep.., she could not hear anything until she woke up. It was time to eat, so she could eat.

She touched her stomach. Didn't she just finish eating? She was hungry again.

Sigh, she must have thought too much. She would eat when she woke up. If she went back to eat now, Yan Huan and the others would be scared to death, and she wouldn't be able to bear their lives.

When Rowling went back to sleep, Zhu Meina still felt uncomfortable. She was smart, and her breasts were big.

However, in that circle, it was not because your breasts were small or big, but because your face was the most important. Of course, opportunities were more important.

Zhu Meina had to say that she was really destined to be a woman who could not become an actress. Su Muran could, but he could not. In the past, she did not have a brain. Now that she had a brain, she did not have the age.

"Yan Huan, are you still there with the ticket I gave you?"

Zhu Meina finally remembered that her purpose for coming here today wasn't to chat with Luo Lin. Of course, she didn't come here to be angered by Yan Huan. She had serious business. Yes, it was serious business.

"Where's the ticket? Is it still there? Where's the ticket now?" Did she lose it? The underground trade fair was about to start. It was going to start in the next few days. If she couldn't find the ticket.., she would definitely strangle Yan Huan to death.

That was the first time in her life that she had gone to such a place. She had even prepared her clothes. She wanted to go there and shine

"The ticket is here." Yan Huan raised his eyelashes. "What's wrong? is the time almost up?"

"Didn't I tell you? It's the day after tomorrow."

"Oh..." Yan Huan seemed to have come to a sudden realization. "I forgot."

"Yan Huan." Zhu Meina was so angry that she chopped off her high heels. She was not afraid that her heels would fall off.

"I will come and pick you up the day after tomorrow. Remember to bring your ticket with you. If you don't bring your ticket..." Zhu Meina placed her hand on her neck and made a throat-cutting gesture. "I will definitely not let you have it easy."

The corners of Yan Huan's lips curled up, but he didn't take Zhu Meina's threat to heart. Even if the ticket was really lost and she didn't go, Zhu Meina wouldn't be able to do anything to her?

However, she just felt that sometimes teasing Zhu Meina was really quite fun because she had never seen a woman with a bigger chest and a bigger brain than Zhu Meina.

And such a woman didn't have much scheming. In fact, she was worth dating and paying for.

Aunt Gu's current job was a little troublesome, so Yan Huan found another chef to take care of that pregnant woman, Rowling. As for Aunt Gu, she would sometimes cook breakfast, most of the dishes were also cooked by the chef. Otherwise, Aunt Gu would spend the entire day in the kitchen. She couldn't even clean the kitchen.

At night, the chef specially prepared two tables of food. There were a lot of people today. If Zhu Meina was included, there would be five people eating. Rowling alone could eat up to three people, so she was special, Rowling had almost finished all the food on the two tables, so Yan Huan was refreshed once again. She wanted to know how much food Rowling's stomach had eaten, only then could she be full. She recalled the time when she was pregnant.

It was truly a pity. Actually, she had eaten too much. However, she could not let go of her stomach to eat. She had to control the weight of the child. Otherwise, the child would be born early and the child would be born early, to their small bodies, it was a form of injury. Hence, no matter how hard it was, even if she was really hungry at times, she did not dare to drink too much water. In the end, she endured it day by day. How was she like Rowling, she ate like this every day. Her figure didn't change much, but her stomach was too big.

Chapter 1554: the child was too big

Yan Huan had been looking at Rowling's stomach for a long time. "How many children are there in your stomach?"

"One." Rowling knew more about the child's condition than anyone else. It had already been more than seven months, and she had to go for a check-up every month. How could she not know how many children there were? She even knew that it was a boy, the four-dimensional color Doppler ultrasound was done. The small appearance was very similar to hers. It was a delicate child's.

"But such a big belly, isn't it a little too big?"

Yan Huan recalled her own belly at that time. She was pregnant with three children, but none of them seemed to be as big as Rowling's belly.

She was very thin at that time, but her belly was big. But no matter how big it was, it could not withstand Rowling's current belly.

He Yibin was suddenly shocked. He turned around and stared at Rowling's stomach for a long time. He had only been thinking about how to feed Rowling's stomach for the past few days, but he did not realize.., Rowling's stomach was indeed a little too big.

"I don't feel anything." Rowling took an apple and took a few bites. "So what if he's Big? My Son is very healthy. At worst, if he doesn't come out, I'll just cut him out."

She thought it through. She was an old woman anyway, so the possibility of a caesarean section was very high. So it didn't matter if the child was older now. As long as the child was well-nourished, it was better than anything else to her.

He Yibin thought it through and didn't agree. However, he still had to take her to see some doctors tomorrow and ask the director to check on her. It would be good if she was fine. If something happened, it would be better to take precautions as soon as possible.

Rowling was indeed open-minded, but the others were all sweating for her stomach. She ate and slept as usual. Early the next morning, he Yibin took her to the hospital.

"How come she has grown so much after a month?" The director was also shocked. She had not grown this big last month. How could it be like blowing up a balloon? She had grown so big in an instant.

"It's only been seven months. Why does it feel like a full moon?"

"The food is too good," Rowling said embarrassedly. It was just that the food was too good. She ate every day without stopping. Other people ate three meals a day, but she ate seven or eight meals a day, at night, she had to eat lu Yi's sour soup noodles and the poached eggs inside.

In less than half a month, her stomach was like a balloon. It really started to rise.

The director touched Luo Lin's stomach. This was the grandson of a good sister. Naturally, she could not be careless. After touching it for a long time, there was no problem. Then, she took out the stethoscope and listened to the fetal heart. It was very good, as for the other things, she wasn't worried because he yibin was a doctor. He should listen to the baby's heart every day. If the baby was slightly wrong, it would have been sent to him by now, he wouldn't have waited until now.

"Let's go for another check-up." The director asked Rowling to do an ultrasound. "This is the most intuitive. After we do it, if there are no major problems, we can go home."

It was not Rowling's first time doing an examination, so she did not reject this kind of examination. She pulled up her clothes, revealing her belly underneath.

"Your belly is much bigger than last month." Even the doctor who did the ultrasound was a little surprised. As he knew her, he paid special attention to her. Therefore, she was very clear about Rowling's condition every month.

Last month, no, it was definitely less than a month. If it was a month, she should have come for a check-up by now. However, she still did not do it, so it was less than a month, more than half a month.., it was less than twenty days, and then her stomach was blown to such a big size.

"The food is too good." Rowling still said this with a smile on her face. Of course, she was not worried at all, nor did she feel uncomfortable. Every day, the leather kid swam in her stomach, her small hands and feet were very strong. Sometimes, he could even see a small foot on her stomach. He knew that it belonged to her naughty boy.

In the future, it would definitely be a naughty child, just like her. Her mother said that she had been restless since birth. When she was in her stomach, she had always thought it was a boy, in the end, it was her who was born. Ever since she was young, she had been like a boy, climbing trees and climbing houses. She was the kind of person who would not beat someone up but would tear the roof off in three days. Later on, when she grew up, she found a job as a manager. Later on.., she followed Yan Huan and became Linlang's number one. In their place, this was an existence that almost everyone looked up to.

Mother-in-law said that he yibin was the exact opposite. He was very cultured and easy to raise when he was young. When he grew up, he did not cause anyone to worry. The only thing that worried him was that he would not get married or have children. There were already three in the Lu family, the Lei family was also in primary school. Only their family knew where it was. Fortunately, everything was settled this year.

From the time of the knot to the time of the birth, everything was settled in a year's time

The doctor on the other side was still investigating the condition of the child in Rowling's stomach

"Mm, the child is quite good. It's just too big."

The doctor could not help but sigh, "Now I feel that it's probably about six pounds. You still have three months left. Maybe you can really give birth to a nine-pound child. Eat less. Otherwise, when the time comes, be careful that it's too hard to give birth."

"Isn't there a c-section?"

Luo Lin still did not feel anything, but she was still thinking in her heart, "En, Little Fatty, you've really lived up to your expectations. You've grown so big now. En, it's fine. Grow a little longer. Your mother can still bear your weight. As long as you're a little healthier, no matter how hard your mother works, it's worth it."

Sigh, they all said that she ate too much, but she couldn't eat much. Whenever she thought of Lu Yi's family's Little Xun Xun, her heart would be filled with fear. That child had always been weak and sickly. There were a few times when she was so sick that she was on the verge of death, ever since she was young, she had been a regular visitor to the hospital. She had never worried her family to death. She had been living in fear every day until now. Was It Easy? Her heart was not that strong, she had given birth to this child at a very old age. She could not bear to see anything happen to her son.

That was why she had started to eat as soon as she knew that she had a child. In any case, she would never starve the child to the extent of Xunxun's hunger.

Little Xunxun of the Lu family was hungry.

When she was pregnant, she was not allowed to eat this or that. The two boys were still okay. They were both more than four pounds, which could be considered a barely adequate weight. Although they were a little small, they had already matured in all aspects. However, Little Xunxun was different, a child that was less than two catties. was this a mouse or a human? It was already a miracle that they were able to survive.

Chapter 1555: powder

She carefully supported her stomach and stood up. Then, she took her own examination report and wanted to show it to the director. After the director finished reading it, he was relieved. Other than the child being a little older., there was still not much of a problem. However, he still told Rowling to eat less.

Of course, he also told he yibin to tell Rowling to eat less. She had to eat less. If she continued to eat, she might really give birth to a nine-pound fat boy.

After he Yibin heard this, he was also shocked. Of course, he had to completely follow the director's request and start managing Luo Lin's food. However, was Luo Lin stupid when he went to work? She knew how to steal food. When he went back, if he did not give Luo Lin food, Luo Lin would first call her mother-in-law and then call her mother. She would say that he yibin did not give her food and that she had to starve.

Then, he yibin would be scolded by his mother. She would say that he was already middle-aged. It wasn't easy for him to make such an egg. He still didn't know how to be grateful. Rowling's mother scolded him even more fiercely, and her words were eloquent, she wouldn't forgive him. She would say that he married his daughter to someone. He was pregnant. Why didn't he eat? No matter how poor he was, he couldn't be this poor, let alone the he family?

If he did not want her, she would take her daughter back tomorrow. The Luo family would take care of her daughter and her little grandson.

Both of them were women who could not be sinned against. They scolded he Yibin to the point of spewing blood.

He Yibin could only hurriedly explain. It was not that he did not want Rowling to eat, but the child was really too big. If she continued to eat, it would be difficult to give birth in the future. However, the two women did not believe it. In any case, they could not starve Rowling, they also couldn't starve the child, so Rowling still ate without restraint.

Meanwhile, he Yibin was becoming more and more bitter.

"Tell me, when you were pregnant, we didn't let you eat. Why wasn't Lu Yi scolded?"

He Yibin asked Yan Huan. He just didn't understand. They were both pregnant, so why was Yan Huan easier to talk to than Rowling? Moreover, Yan Huan was pregnant with three babies at that time, not one.

Fortunately, this was one. If it really became three, he Yibin felt that his own baby was really going to die. Therefore, these triplets were not something that could be born at the whim of an ordinary family.

First, it had to be conceived. Second, it had to be something that one could afford and could raise well.

And in these three aspects, he yibin was not Lu Yi. He didn't seem to be able to do any of them.

"What do you want to ask?" Yan Huan turned around and asked he yibin.

"Why wasn't Lu Yi scolded?" He Yibin repeated again. He also wanted to learn some lessons from Yan Huan to see if he could be scolded less. After all, Rowling's situation was the same as Yan Huan's, no, she was not as dangerous as Yan Huan.

Yan Huan's uterus was injured, so the child could not be too big. On the other hand, Rowling's child was too big, so she requested to eat less, one was not allowed to eat, and the other was not allowed to eat.

These were two completely different concepts.

“Because everyone knew that I couldn’t eat.” Yan Huan curled up on the sofa at the side. “You weren’t there at the time. Not only was I not allowed to eat, everyone else had lost a few pounds with me, especially Lu Yi.”

“Then your mother didn’t scold Lu Yi either?”

He Yibin asked again, but what did he forget?

Yan Huan pursed her red lips slightly. “Did you forget? I don’t have a mother. My mother is long gone.”

He Yibin was stunned for a moment. He felt extremely guilty.

“About that, I’m sorry. I forgot.”

“It’s fine.” Yan Huan was used to it. Her mother had left early. Fortunately, she had left early. Otherwise, if she knew that she had suffered such a great injury, she would definitely be very sad.

And if she died, she wouldn’t know anything at all.

Yan Huan sat up. She heard her cell phone, which had been placed in the room, ring, and she was about to go over and answer the call.

She opened the door and picked up the cell phone. It was Zhu Meina calling.

“Hello, Yan Huan, it’s me.”

“En, it’s you. What’s Wrong?”

Yan Huan had obviously forgotten what Zhu Meina had told her two days ago.

“Yan Huan, did you forget something?”

Zhu Meina reminded her.

“No.” Yan Huan remembered everything, so of course, he didn’t forget anything.

“Yan Huan!” Zhu Meina was about to explode again. She had personally turned her hair into a golden-furred lion king.

“Yes, I’m here.” Yan Huan sat down and pulled open the drawer. He took out a blank card from it.

“Yan Huan,” Zhu Meina gritted her teeth. “Remember to bring the ticket with you tomorrow. I’ll come over tomorrow.”

Yan Huan casually threw the blank card on the table. She didn’t take this matter to heart, and of course, she didn’t want to tell Lu Yi about it. However, she could go out tomorrow.., she could treat it as a day trip, and it had been a long time since she went out. Early the next morning, Zhu Meina came over to pick Yan Huan up. Yan Huan was dressed too casually. It was just a casual sweater and a long skirt.., she wore a pair of flat-soled cloth shoes. Compared to Zhu Meina’s heavy makeup, she was clearly much younger and cleaner. She wasn’t wearing much makeup either, but her face looked very small.., she was very delicate.

Therefore, she absolutely could not take a photo with Yan Huan. Her face was really too small. If an ordinary person took a photo with her, they would feel that no matter how small her face was, it would suddenly turn into a pancake face.

Zhu Meina pursed her lips. "Little sister, where did you come from? What year are you in?"

Yan Huan's red lips curled up slightly.

"Auntie, there are too many wrinkles at the corners of your eyes. You're applying too much powder. You're stuck on powder."

Zhu Meina was almost choked to death by Yan Huan. Yan Huan indeed had the ability to choke people to death.

The moment their car arrived, the two of them got out of the car. Then, they placed a row of masks on the table at the side. Zhu Meina walked over and took two of them. She took one, Yan Huan took one., then, there was a black cloak hanging on the side. Zhu Meina took two more. She took one, Yan Huan took one.

Yan Huan put on the cloak. It was unknown if it was divided into male and female, or if she was really too short. This cloak seemed to wrap her whole body, and there was almost no gap left.

After putting on this cloak and wearing a mask, almost everyone had a voice changer. Therefore, in this place, men could be women, and women could also become men. No one knew who you were, and no one knew what you looked like, what did you do this time?

That's right, even men and women could not be distinguished. Why was Zhu Meina still dressing up so meticulously?

When they reached the door, there was a row of machines at the door. Yan Huan did not understand what these machines were used for. Zhu Meina naturally did not understand as well. There was no one here to ask., the two of them could only wait there and watch what others did. At this moment, a person walked over. He took out the white card from his pocket and gently swiped it, the back door closed.

Chapter 1556: was bustling with activity

That person even turned around and waved the white card in his hand at them, indicating that this was the key to open the door.

It was only now that Yan Huan finally understood why these cards had to be made to look like bank cards. It turned out that they weren't for anything else but to enter the door.

Zhu Meina tugged at the corner of Yan Huan's shirt. "Did you bring it?"

Yan Huan took out a card from his pocket. They were not allowed to bring anything in except this card. However, she seemed to have noticed that someone had brought some food in. was she not going to care about this?

Before she could think about it, Zhu Meina had already tugged at her sleeve.

“Let’s go.”Zhu Meina had already stepped forward. Imitating the person from before, she swiped the card across. With a ding, the door opened.

Yan Huan imitated her and swiped the card across the door. As she walked, the door on her side was about to open.

“Let’s go.”Zhu Meina turned around and reminded Yan Huan. “You have to follow me closely. Don’t get lost and can’t find me when the time comes.”.

I understand. Yan Huan naturally had to follow Zhu Meina closely. There were so many people here, and all of them were dressed exactly the same. It was very likely that they had mistaken her for someone else. The only mark was none other than., it was just that the number on each set of clothes was completely different. Zhu Meina’s set of clothes was 079, while her number was 078. There weren’t many people inside right now, and they were still coming in one after another.

However, it was just as Zhu Meina had said. Everything could be bought here, including people. There were also all sorts of things that weren’t allowed to be traded on the surface, such as guns and ammunition. They could also be bought., there were also human organs. As long as you wanted them, as long as you could pay a sufficient price, you could get them on the spot.

That was why it was said that this was a place that could not be traded openly. After two lifetimes, Yan Huan had finally experienced it.

There were also some antiques and other things that were forbidden to be traded here. Of course, you had to have money first. And every item here was of high quality, it would depend on whether one could really bring out the same value.

There were also some performances that Zhu Meina had mentioned before. They were all extremely difficult circus acts. Regardless of whether it was men or women, they were half naked. Their bronze skin was filled with an exotic charm, it was quite interesting, if it was purely for appreciation.

“Don’t just stand there, let’s go and watch something else,”Zhu Meina said to Yan Huan. Yan Huan turned his head back and was dragged along by Zhu Meina. In a while, Zhu Meina felt that there were more people, so of course, it became even more lively, however, it was also a little more dangerous. It was easy to be recognized by others, and at the same time, they would also get lost. To be honest, it didn’t matter if they lost her, but they couldn’t lose Yan Huan, not to mention losing his face., she couldn’t even lose a strand of his hair. If she really lost him, Lu Yi would kill her, and she couldn’t bear Lu Yi’s anger. It was fine if she kidnapped his wife., but in the end, she even lost him.

No, she couldn’t lose him. She absolutely couldn’t lose him.

She lowered her head and searched her body for a long time. In the end, she pulled out her belt and was about to tie it up with Yan Huan.,

“What are you doing?”Yan Huan hurriedly patted her hand.

“Tying her up. I was afraid that you would get lost.”Zhu Meina felt extremely wronged. How could she bring this great-aunt here just to make herself suffer.

“There’s no need. I Can’t lose her.” Yan Huan didn’t want to be tied up with her. If he didn’t tie her up properly, one of them would fall down and the other wouldn’t be able to live in peace. In such a place, she couldn’t afford to lose such a person, it was fine if she threw it to the ground, but did she really have to throw it to the ground?

“If we don’t tie her up, what if she really gets lost?” Zhu Meina was worried.

“Look over there.” Yan Huan pointed at the most conspicuous pillar. “If we can’t find each other later, we’ll stand there.”

“Mm, good idea.” Zhu Meina really felt that Yan Huan was very smart. Why didn’t she think of this? Could it be that it was really like what Yan Huan said, that her IQ wasn’t enough.

She was a fool.

That’s right, she was not smart to begin with anyway.

“Then let’s split up.” Zhu Meina was relieved now. Actually, there was not much danger in there, and it was impossible to commit murder or arson. She was just afraid that Yan Huan would follow someone else, but what if someone else kidnapped her?

But since they had a way to contact each other, then there was no need to worry about anything else.

“Okay.” Yan Huan didn’t want to be with Zhu Meina either. Zhu Meina liked different things. She wanted to buy some calligraphy for Lu Jin and Old Master Lu. These were all antiques and national treasures, he didn’t know where these people got them from. Of course, they were all authentic, so it was impossible for them to be fakes. In such a trade fair, fakes were not allowed. Otherwise, they would compensate the customers for three times the loss, and every item here was worth quite a lot. Even if they really could not buy the real thing and received three times the compensation, it would not have been a wasted trip.

Yan Huan walked to a stall selling calligraphy and paintings. She did not know much about these things and had not studied them before. However, she picked out two pieces from among them. These two pieces would have the number of her clothes on them, these were the things that she had picked out. When she left, these things would be paid for directly. At that time, the goods would be cleared.

Those who could come here were also people with status and ability. It was impossible for them not to buy them. Of course, after they were selected, they would be your personal items. It did not matter if the customers did not buy them, it would be fine to sell them to this black market company.

As for the others, Yan Huan was not interested. There were also some things like ivory that she was not interested in because no one in the family would like them. It was even more impossible for them to eat with ivory.

There were also some things like jade that she did not look at. Things like Jade were actually better kept by herself. She was not interested in other people’s Jade.

Therefore, she did not patronize the stalls that sold them, nor did she take a fancy to them.

When she wanted to visit another stall, she realized that there were many people gathered nearby. Initially, she did not want to join in the fun. However, when she thought about it again, it seemed that she came out today for the fun, therefore, she ran over. She also relied on her small body and easily managed to get to the innermost part of the stall.

This..

Yan Huan once again felt that her worldview had been shaken to the core. She had thought that she was selling something, but it turned out that it was not an item, but a person. Yes, it was a person, a living person, and an extremely beautiful woman.

Chapter 1557:

Women of all skin colors were present. There were also some with strange shapes, such as a missing leg, an extra finger, or long ears and a big nose. Yan Huan really did not understand why such a person would be bought back.

There were not that many changes in this world. However, after thinking about it, wasn't there still a circus in this world? Perhaps it was the people of the circus. Yes, it might be like this.

All eyes fell on an extremely beautiful woman inside. She was like a mermaid. She had long golden hair and a pair of dark blue eyes. She didn't wear much clothes either, but these few thin pieces of cloth couldn't hide the woman's extremely proud figure.

Yan Huan looked at the tall breasts on her chest. They seemed to be bigger than the ones Zhu Meina had made. Her waist was very slim. This was the so-called water snake waist.

This woman could be said to be a mermaid. She was also a beauty that made men go crazy. In particular, she had a pair of talking eyes. She seemed to be afraid, but also afraid, it would also arouse the hidden monster in the hearts of many men.

She was excited, Mad, and angry.

Was she really not the mermaid Princess of the seabed? Otherwise, how could she look like this? She also had such a figure. There was no price on this woman's body, and those without a price were usually auctioned off, and the things that could be auctioned off were all top-notch items. Of course, the price would not be too low.

Yan Huan was extremely normal. She did not have much interest in women. No matter how good-looking she was, or how much she looked like a celestial immortal, it had nothing to do with her.

She came out from the crowd and went to look at other things. Ever since she bought those two antique calligraphy and paintings, she had not bought anything else. However, she had taken a fancy to something that she liked, it was the fish that she had bought in her previous life. This kind of fish lived in the crater of a volcano. Other than in certain places, it was extremely difficult to survive. In her previous life, she had spent a lot of money to make a large glass fish tank, she had also raised this kind of fish. However, many things had changed in this life. She had never raised such a fish again. She knew that her grandfather liked this kind of fish very much. She would buy it and give it to him. Although she knew that.., her grandfather's favorite fish was actually Xun Xun, and she had three children at home. However, she still had to prepare a gift for him.

She roughly counted and found that there were a total of 15 fish. It was not too many. Perhaps it would be enough to make a two-meter-long fish tank. Because she had raised it herself, she knew how to raise this type of fish.

One of these fish was priced at 1.5 million. If there were 15 of them, it would be worth tens of millions.

Yan Huan pointed at the fish, meaning that she wanted all of them. The fish seller happily kept all the fish for her. There were a lot of such things sold here, but business was usually not very good because this amount of money could buy a man or a woman, generally, she did not like this kind of thing, but Yan Huanhuan liked it, so she bought fish and did not buy people. Moreover, she was a civilized person, so she did not do such illegal things.

She walked to another place, where there was a group of people watching. Everyone was wearing the same clothes, so it was difficult to know what they looked like. However, she noticed Zhu Meina with her sharp eyes, because of the label on Zhu Meina's chest, she also followed them. She wanted to know what was sold here

When she entered, she didn't know if she was speechless or what, but another place sold women, so the people surrounding that place were all taller and stronger, so there were more men, and the people here were all shorter and thinner. They were women.

Men looked at women.

And women were naturally men.

That's right, women looked at men. What drove these women crazy was none other than men. They were all men who had taken off their clothes. Only the lower part was covered with a piece of cloth, but even if it was covered, one could still see the general shape. All of these men were tall, handsome, and the place seemed to be quite a sight to behold.

Yan Huan hurriedly averted her eyes. She really felt that her eyes were somewhat stinging.

She wasn't a lecherous woman, so she didn't have much interest in these things. Among these men, one of them was indeed quite good-looking and had a good body. He was a European and American man, and he also had a pair of green eyes, he had a wild aura about him. If one were to appreciate him as a work of art, his appearance was not bad, and he was suitable for the development of the entertainment industry. However, he did not know why they would sell him.

When this man saw so many women, he immediately smiled and deliberately flexed the muscles on his chest. His eyes suddenly looked at Yan Huan, and Yan Huan touched the mask on his face, he thought that his mask had fallen off.

The man smiled at her again and deliberately patted his thigh, causing all the women to scream.

Yan Huan turned around and looked at other things. Up until now, she had only bought three things, two paintings, fifteen fish, and nothing else.

As for the plant area, there were also very strange plants. She did not know if they were easy to raise, so she did not buy them. She did not know if these strange things were poisonous or not, and she still had three children at home, so she took another look, but she had no intention of buying them.

And here, she also saw a large golden python. This was called a golden python. A woman, this golden python, wrapped around her neck and danced with the snake. Yan Huan believed that she didn't have the courage to sleep with a snake.

Hence, she skipped this part as well.

Most of the time she was here, she didn't spend it buying things. Instead, she spent it looking at things. There were indeed many things here that were quite rare and strange. It also confirmed that sentence.., there were all sorts of strange things in the greater world.

She looked at them one by one. She was more interested in them, but she didn't buy anything.

Until she walked to a small stall and found a piece of blue stone casually thrown into the bamboo basket. Her breathing tightened, and she almost suffocated.

This isn't it?

No..

She couldn't believe her eyes. If she wasn't still wearing the mask, she might have rubbed her eyes to see if this was real. This was actually the sapphire she had in her previous life.

But how could this be the sapphire? If not for the fortuitous encounter when she was in a vegetative state, she might have forgotten about this sapphire. At that time, this sapphire was bought by Yi Ling at a very cheap price, she also found it at a small trade fair. After buying it, Yi Ling gave it to her,

Chapter 1558: buying

She had been keeping it all this while and did not pay too much attention to it. It was only after Yi Ling's death that she heard that a country was looking for her national treasure. It was this gemstone. At that time, it was already worth 300 million US dollars.

Later on, when she sold it, it was worth 700 million US dollars.

However, was this really that gemstone? However, if it really was that gemstone, then she must have missed Yi Ling. Or perhaps, because of her rebirth, something had changed. Because Yi Ling had bought it, this gemstone was once again buried, and the stone sank into the sea.

Yan Huan squatted down. She also endured the trembling between her fingers and the excitement in her heart as she picked up the gemstone, although she already had a few hundred million dollars worth of assets, that was different. This was something worth seven hundred million USD. She could not help but be worried, excited, and even more so, nervous.

She held the sapphire in her hand. Yes, this was the feeling. She was extremely familiar with every corner and every surface. After all, she had been playing with this for a long time, even though a long time had passed, this feeling still felt like it was in her hand.

She pinched the corners around her. It was precisely because of these corners that this item was somewhat cheap. It was just like something made of glass. It would also make many people think that.., only the one on the top was real, while the one on the bottom was fake. Therefore, it was only worth a few million at most. This kind of not-so-pretty gemstone would not be liked by others.

After all, this gemstone was pitifully old now, as if it had been picked up from the ruins.

The gemstone seller told her that this gemstone was a gemstone on the crown of a country that had been stolen by someone. Later, for some unknown reason, this gemstone fell into his hands. He did not want much, only five million.

When this person said these words, his eyes were evasive. Perhaps even she herself wasn't sure if this story was true or not, because this gemstone was indeed too old and didn't have much luster.

This gemstone could really be considered an unexpected surprise for her.

Yan Huan held the gemstone in his hand again and asked if it could be traded on the spot. Because this gemstone was small, she could directly put it on her body. That person agreed, so he brought her over. Yan Huan took her white card and swiped the money. This white card was actually a bank card. When they entered, they would transfer the money in, if there wasn't a certain amount of deposit, it was unlikely that they would let you in, since Yan Huan actually wanted to trade, she paid for all the things she bought. The gemstone seller excitedly put the gemstone into a small box for her. She didn't know what kind of material the box was made of, but it looked.., it should be very sturdy. There was a password and a fingerprint lock on it. As for the living things, they could not be placed in it. However, they were all placed in a small wooden basin for her. Of course, from that moment on, these fish would be dead or alive.., if they were alive, they would be hers. If they were dead, they would also be hers.

She was still calculating that these fish were afraid of the cold. Even if the usual water temperature was death to them, she did not know how many of them would come out alive. They would all be dead. However, when she saw how these people treated those fish, she heaved a sigh of relief.

The bottom of the wooden basin where the fish were placed was heated. It seemed that they knew that they had to heat the fish. As for how many more days they could live, she didn't think about it anymore. As long as they could live for a few days, they could live for a few days. Even if they could live for a single fish, it would be fine, as long as they were pleasing to the eye.

Yan Huan placed all these things with the staff. Then, she continued to look at the other things. She walked to a place that was very low-key and inconspicuous. She walked over, she saw a person holding an item in his hand and handing it over to a man. The man opened it on the spot and took a look. There was also a thick bloody smell.

This was what Zhu Meina had once said. There were people who sold human organs here. Moreover, they were freshly harvested. She suddenly felt nauseous.

There were ice cubes in that box. The thing that was placed inside seemed to be bloody. She did not know what it was, but it should belong to a human organ.

She placed her hand on her chest and resisted the urge to vomit. She then went to other places, but for some reason, even the air smelled of blood, this was the way of the world. It couldn't be said that it was cruel. If there was something to buy, there would be something to sell. Everyone would get what they wanted. No one could say that it was wrong or that it was wrong.

Yan Huan couldn't say that her actions were wrong. After all, everyone wanted to live. If it were her, she would do the same. Everyone was selfish and everyone wanted their loved ones to live, even if it was against the law.

Yan Huan found a place for herself to sit down. Only now did she know how bad her body was. She thought that she had recovered. After all, she could already stand in the garden every day, she walked every day. But now, she realized that she was wrong. She hadn't recovered at all. Now, she didn't want to move anymore. It wasn't that she didn't want to leave anymore. She just wanted to sit here. And now, she was regretting it, when she came with Zhu Meina, she didn't bring snacks over. At the very least, she could still eat and stroll around now.

She rested here for a while and felt that her strength had slightly recovered. Then, she continued to walk.

This kind of trade fair only had one day. She was here this year, and she didn't know where she would be next year. There were still a lot of things that she could buy, so she really didn't have time to rest.

Maybe she could find something else.

To put it bluntly, this kind of opportunity was really something that could only be found by chance. She had already gained a lot. Even if there was something else, he would just treat it as a game. It was not bad.

However, after going around in circles, she didn't find anything that she liked. However, there was a high-tech notebook that was not bad. She weighed it. It was very light, and she could lift it with one hand, although she did not really understand, it must be something good here. She asked again about the price and found that the price was ridiculously high.

She was prepared to give it to Lu Yi. No matter how expensive it was, she would buy it. The notebook that Lu Yi used now was given to him by her back then. It had been used for many years now and the notebook was still intact. Lu Yi loved it very much, although it had been upgraded for many years now, the performance of the notebook was still not something that an ordinary notebook could compare to. Therefore, Lu Yi had always been using it, yan Huan weighed the notebook in his hand again. This was very light. Lu Yi often had to bring his own notebook with him. If other things were included, it was also quite heavy. Perhaps he could not feel it himself, however, Yan Huan really felt that it was too heavy.

Chapter 1559: the terrible auction

She had decided to give him another one. She had ordered another notebook, and after walking around for a while, there was nothing left to buy. This time, she did not lose anything, because she had taken back that sapphire, this was the most unexpected thing for her. Could it be that no matter what was in this world, there was always a fixed fate? No matter which path she chose in the end, and what kind of life she chose, it was hers.., she would eventually return to her side, just like that sapphire.

She walked to the place that she, Zhu Meina, had agreed on and stood there waiting for someone. Zhu Meina had probably wandered around for a long time before she came over. Other than the identity tag on her body, she did not need to look at it, one could roughly tell from her figure.

Yan Huan's current figure was rather weak, and he did not wear high heels either. He was probably the type that would easily be annihilated among so many people. However, it was also because of his figure that it was easier to find him.

As for Yan Huan looking for Zhu Meina, it was even easier to find her. Putting aside the red hair that she intentionally revealed, even her walking posture was familiar. She was wearing heels that were more than ten centimeters long, and she wore them every day, she did not know if her feet could withstand it. Even though she was wearing a large robe, she was still twisting and turning. It was Zhu Meina's standard posture.

She was really not afraid of breaking her waist.

Zhu Meina stared at the number on Yan Huan's chest for a long time.

"A secret signal?" She still did not believe that this person was Yan Huan. Who asked her to wear a mask? If it was not Yan Huan, she would bring a fake Yan Huan back and leave the real one here.., lu Yi would still kill her.

"Secret signal?" Yan Huan frowned. Since when did they have a secret signal.

"Secret signal." Zhu Meina hugged her arm and her feet also weighed on the ground.

"One million," Yan Huan replied indifferently.

"Oh right," Zhu Meina snapped her fingers. She was extremely satisfied with this answer. She had said it before, she and Yan Huan were..

She finally understood what was going on in her heart.

"Oh right, Yan Huan, let me tell you. I saw a handsome man just now. TSK, that figure is really amazing. Based on my countless eyes, that man's appearance is top-notch. In that aspect, he's also top-notch."

"Are you interested?" Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina calmly. Why? There were so many men in Yuenan city. That was a tragic memory for her. She was really good. She had really turned the pain into pride.

If Zhu Xianglan knew about it, she would definitely be angered to death.

"There's a tiny bit of it. Moreover, if I buy it back, it will be mine. I can do whatever I want him to do. If I tell him to go west, he won't go east. If I tell him to go east, he won't dare to go west. If I tell him to sit, he won't dare to stand. Don't you think that's Great?"

"What About You? Are you interested?"

Zhu Meina gave Yan Huan a sly bump on the shoulder. There were some things that didn't need to be explained too clearly. Everyone was an adult now.

“No.” Yan Huan had no interest in other men at all. If he had the time, she would rather eat another bowl of happiness noodles.

“Then don’t fight with me.” Zhu Meina liked young, tender, good-looking men with good figures. Anyway, her life was already like this. She would just have to give it her all, whoever dared to stop her from fighting for a handsome man, she would fight to the death with them.

Yan Huan didn’t have much of a reaction to Zhu Meina’s change of heart. She didn’t say anything, didn’t try to persuade her, and didn’t scold her.

No matter how she lived, it was Zhu Meina’s own life. She could live whatever she wanted as long as she felt that she was living a happy life.

Let’s Go and watch the auction. There were good things to be auctioned off today. This was also the core and most exciting part of this trade fair.

Zhu Meina pulled on Yan Huan’s sleeve and brought her to a large hall. They took a good seat, and as soon as the two of them sat down, the surroundings were filled with people.

This wasn’t a masquerade party, but everyone was dressed exactly the same, and they were all using masks to cover their faces. Perhaps the freshness of the things sold here was one aspect, while the preciousness was another aspect, and the most..., it was because they could release their other selves here.

Everyone had a normal side, and they also had a self that had changed too much. And they came here because they wanted a self that had changed too much.

It was just like how people could be bought here, a living person.

It did not matter if it was a man or a woman, or whether it was young or old.

The items on the auction were all relatively valuable. Most of them were national treasures, and there was even a Buddha statue. It was said that the Buddha statue contained a real physical body.

This was not just a treasure, it was also a national treasure. There were people who really dared to want it. Yan Huan really kept a respectful distance from this. She was in awe of the Gods and Buddhas, but she would not put such a physical body statue beside her, just thinking about it made her feel a little creepy, but the others seemed to be excited. They fought to be the first to shout out the price.

The way they bid was also special. As long as they pressed the button on the table, the price would be increased by one million. It was automatically recorded electronically. In the end, this statue of a physical body was sold for 30 million, it was unknown who had bought it. Of course, this was also the biggest safety guarantee given by the trade fair. Because no one knew who exactly the item sold here was in the hands of.

The next item to be auctioned was a set of precious porcelain. The starting bid was 20 million, and at this time, it had already been sold for 50 million. Therefore, there was really no shortage of rich people here, and it was possible that they were from all over the world, after all, the items that could be sold here were enough to make people willing to pay a high price. No matter how much it was, no matter how far it was, no matter how far it was, even if it was a circle around the world, some people didn't care.

Yan Huan had originally taken a fancy to this set of porcelain and wanted to gift it to Old Master Lu. However, when she saw so many people raising the price, she guessed that this item should be quite valuable. In the end, she decided to forget about it. Besides., she had already found so many antiques for Lu Jin. It was enough for them to play with. She didn't want to think about it anymore. Let someone else bid for it.

The final price of this set of porcelain was actually 150 million yuan.

Yan Huan was also shocked by this figure.

She admitted that she was quite rich. Every year, her income was quite a lot. However, it was impossible for her to eat such an item in one go. Moreover, it couldn't be eaten. She would choke.

Therefore, she sighed again. She really didn't know which billionaire was sitting next to her.

There were a few more items to be auctioned. However, the items that could be auctioned were indeed strange and strange. There was even a shabby goatskin treasure map. As for whether it was real or not, no one knew. However, there were still people who bought it, some people wanted it, and some people bought it.

Chapter 1560:

The items in the auction appeared one by one. Yan Huan knew that the last item was usually the most expensive item in the auction and also the best.

As for the first items, they were all small-scale items. However, these small-scale items could easily reach tens of millions or hundreds of millions. Then, how much capital would it take for the last item to be the best and most expensive item.

"Why? Is there anything that caught your eye?"Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan in a low voice. "There are so many items in the past. Is there really nothing that caught your eye?"

Yan Huan shook his head. There really wasn't anything. She had already bought everything that she could. These items were useless to her. Why would she want that treasure map? She couldn't really go treasure hunting, right.

She didn't think that she would have that kind of free time.

Then continue to look. Zhu Meina calmly looked at the things on it, but she was a little impatient. What she wanted, why wasn't it up yet?

At this moment, the item on it was a beautiful set of jewelry. Legend had it that it had been worn by a certain queen. This price tag was also very good. However, regardless of whether it was high or low, Yan Huan still didn't feel it. She didn't want something that had been used by others.

"You don't like this either?"Zhu Meina knocked Yan Huan's shoulder. "You don't like these the most."

“Yes, I like it.” Yan Huan had never hidden her preferences. She liked to set the jewelry. This was something that many people knew. Lu Yi also knew that when she was unconscious, he had given her many, many gifts, she liked every single one of them. Of course, she also liked to store these things. The thick ones could be used as dowry for her search. Even if she didn’t bring them with her, she could look at them every day.

Then why didn’t you buy them? Zhu Meina pointed at the string of jewelry. It was simply the most gorgeous jewelry she had ever seen in her life. There were countless diamonds on it. One of them could even pierce her eyes. There were so many of them.., were they going to blind her eyes.

There was no woman who did not like jewelry, and Zhu Meina was no exception.

“If you like it, why don’t you bid for it?” Zhu Meina herself was a little tempted, but the price was too high. She was still keeping a low profile in the Su family, so she would not spend hundreds of millions to buy it.

After all, the Su family wasn’t hers now.

But Yan Huan could.

“Do you want me to bid for you? You Don’t have to be embarrassed. We’re all on the same side. It’s okay if you’re not thick-skinned, I’m thick-skinned.” Zhu Meina took Yan Huan’s silence as her embarrassment.

“No need.” Yan Huan leaned back. She just felt that this trip was a bit of a failure. Why? Because she was hungry, had nothing to eat, had no water to drink, and was so tired and thirsty, she sat there and watched the auction. Then, she touched the mask on her face. In fact, even if she had prepared it, she couldn’t eat it. If she didn’t have a mask on her face, how could she eat it.

“Why not?” Zhu Meina didn’t understand. “Didn’t you say you liked it?”

Yan Huan shook his head. “I do like it, but I don’t want to buy it.”

“Why?” Zhu Meina really did not understand. Such a gorgeous thing, could it be that not every woman wanted it.

“I don’t like things that have been used by others.” Yan Huan turned his head to look at Zhu Meina, so every piece of her jewelry was her own. As for those who had worn it before, she did not have a single piece, of course, what was being auctioned was the same. No matter how beautiful it was, how much she liked it, and how much she liked it, as long as it was someone else who had worn it in the end, she would not want it.

Zhu Meina rolled her eyes. You’re the one with so many things to do.

Yes, Yan Huan not only had many things to do, his personality was even weirder.

However, since Yan Huan said that she did not like things that others had brought, then there was no need to look at the many things on it.

In a while, a few other good things were auctioned off, and there was even a crown. Of course, this crown was not for wearing, but for selling. The crown was inlaid with all kinds of diamonds and jewelry, it was also auctioned off at the highest price of this auction, around 300 million.

Yan Huancai was almost shocked. How could there be such a high turnover? And now, she wanted to know who was behind such a transaction.

And such a person, to be honest, to be able to support such a transaction, and to have so many rare treasures, she really could not imagine how powerful the person behind him was. If it was just one person, and not a few.., or a group...

Just how terrifying was such a person.

No one knew.

Another few auction items were successfully auctioned off. Regardless of what the item was, it would be auctioned off at an extremely high price. Yan Huan felt that she was already here. At this moment, she was no longer paying attention to what the auction item was, what she was more concerned about was what the final item was and what price it would fetch. It was likely that many people had the same thoughts as her.

Zhu Meina had always been absent-minded and had no intention of buying it. However, after sitting for a while, she was already impatient and wanted to leave anxiously.

"It's coming, it's coming..."all of a sudden, Zhu Meina grabbed Yan Huan's arm tightly. The item that she wanted had finally arrived.

Alright, Yan Huan retracted what he had just said. Some women weren't impatient, but their hearts weren't focused on anything else because the item that she wanted was already out.

And at this moment, on the stage, was the blonde mermaid-like woman. She just looked at the crowd, as if every man would be moved by her, that pair of azure blue eyes.., she was as deep and enchanting as the ocean, and her almost flawless skin, as well as her seemingly perfect looks, and her figure that would drive men crazy and make women jealous.

The woman on the stage just stood there innocently, as if she was not hiding anything from the world, and also as if she was completely convinced of you. As long as you were willing, yes, as long as you were willing, you were her world. and at this moment.., the people around had already crazily raised their prices

Yan Huan always felt that this woman was strange, as if she could hypnotize, causing all the men who saw her eyes to go crazy for her. Under those untainted eyes, it was clear.., however, when she saw it, her heart was chilled.

She could not help but hug her arm. Why did she feel a little uncomfortable.

The people who were bidding crazily below were all men. Those who sat there without moving at all were like her, Zhu Meina, and many others. They were all women, and this woman's final bid was actually as high as 100 million, 100 million.., another 100 million. Yan Huan really couldn't tell what point this woman was worth 100 million.

This was just a person, a woman.

And a woman that could be casually taken out and sold.

However, in reality, this woman was indeed sold for 100 million.

And Zhu Meina's heart was itching at this moment. She once again grabbed Yan Huan's sleeve. Yan Huan pulled for a long time, but he still couldn't pull it out. In the end, he didn't care about what he wanted, as long as he didn't pull her flesh.
