

Chapter 1631: invited her to go abroad

She was just a man. She, Sun Yuhan, was the favored daughter of the heavens. She could have any kind of man she wanted.

She stood up again and began to pack her luggage before swaggering back.

“She’s Back?” Lu Yi asked Lei Qingyi.

“Yes, she’s back.” Lei Qingyi was still sitting on Lu Yi’s desk, “She said that she came back from a trip abroad. She almost caused the Lu family to collapse and die. She also caused the ye family’s airport to be sealed. Your uncle’s decades of hard work almost went up in smoke. She doesn’t have any remorse at all. I think she’s quite happy.”

“What kind of sin did the ye family commit in their lifetime? How could they have such a promising granddaughter?”

Lu Yi leaned his back against the back of the chair behind him. “Is that man back yet?”

“I’ve never seen this before.” Lei Qingyi touched his chin, “I’ve already sent people to investigate. After all, he’s a swindler with a huge sum of eight billion dollars on his back. He’ll be refused entry to customs. So, he shouldn’t have gone abroad yet. However, we haven’t found where he is yet. You have to know that people who come from places like that will have their own abilities, especially those who pretend to be turtles. They’re better than anyone else.”

“Also, what should we do about the foreign account?”

Lei Qingyi asked Lu Yi. Lu Yi was trying to find a way to use his position to close the account, so he couldn’t take out a single cent. Therefore, whether it was Sun Yuhan or that Arnold., they couldn’t touch a single cent of the money there, not even a single cent.

“Naturally, it’s returned to the original owner.”

Lu Yi stood up. The Ye family airport’s big hole had been blocked, but the Lu family’s had not yet been blocked. It was impossible for Sun Yuhan to stay outside.

The bank only recognized two people now, Arnold and Sun Yuhan.

When Arnold did these things, he must have known to take care of Sun Yuhan. It was also to win Sun Yuhan’s trust, so he added Sun Yuhan’s name. Although Sun Yuhan was very stupid in other areas., when it came to money, she was very serious. Of course, she was also narrow-minded. As expected, Arnold had touched at least ninety percent of her character.

And if the money was to be moved, two people had to go together. However, just like Sun Yuhan, the other one only needed an order to be approved. Even the bank over there could not refuse.

“Then what are you going to do?” Lei Qingyi gnashed his teeth in hatred. This troublemaker almost caused the death of the Lu family. His aunt had been crying for days. That damn green-eyed monster.., he had to break his neck.

If he did not beat them until they looked like human beings, his name would not be lei qingyi.

“Invite her to go abroad once.”

Lu Yi raised his head and looked at Lei Qingyi. “I think this shouldn’t be difficult for you?”

“Of course.” Lei Qingyi patted his chest. “Just leave this small matter to me. If I can’t even do this well, then this position is wasted on me.”

“When are you going to leave?”

Lei Qingyi was worthy of growing up with Lu Yi. The tacit understanding between the two of them wasn’t something that ordinary people could understand.

“The sooner the better.”

Lu Yi would not give others time to react to these things. What he wanted was to kill with one shot.

“I feel the same,” lei qingyi also agreed very much. “Take advantage of your grandfather’s absence now. Otherwise, we still have to protect Sun Yuhan, this jinx. If only your uncle was here,” he thought again, sun Yuhan was uncomfortable with the matter of destroying the ye family’s airport.

The airport was a small matter. The problem was that they were using ye Chuji to destroy the entire Lu family.

When Ye Chuji was mentioned, Lu Yi could not help but frown. “Have you found out anything about my uncle?” There had been no news about ye Chuji for almost a month and a half. He seemed to be a little abnormal.

In the past, Ye Chuji had gone on business trips like this. Sometimes, he would go to some countries, but there was no communication signal. Moreover, the traffic there was not very developed, so it was usually ten days to half a month, it was normal for him to be there for a month or two. However, this time, Lu Yi didn’t know why, but he really smelled something different.

“Not yet.” Lei Qingyi shook his head. “You don’t have to worry too much. Didn’t your uncle say that he might be gone for a month or two? I think he should be coming back soon.”

“I hope so.”

Lu Yi was still suppressing that trace of uneasiness in his heart. He always had a good intuition about things. He would wait for another half a month. If there was still no news from ye Chuji after half a month, he would go over by himself.

The door outside was gently pushed open, and a small head popped out from outside.

Lei Qingyi lowered his head. When he saw that the girl at the door was as soft as a little ball, his heart softened.

“Xunxun, come to uncle for a hug.”

He liked children, but his son's looks had already hurt his heart as a father. They were both his father's, and he was even younger than Lu Yi. But Lu Yi's child could still be held in his arms. He only wanted to kick his own child.

Xunxun ran over from the crack of the door and stood in front of Lei Wangqing. Then, she tilted her little head and smiled at Lei Qingyi. That pretty little appearance really made lei qingyi overjoyed. She picked up the little girl with one hand, “Carry her back for me today,” Lei Qingyi said to Lu Yi. “My mother misses her too.” He reached out and pinched Xun Xun's little tender face. There was only one girl in the entire family, so of course, they all liked her, they hadn't seen each other for the past few days because they had been thinking about it. His mother had said a few days ago that she would bring Xun Xun home to stay for a few days. Coincidentally, he had returned home today, so he carried her back to comfort her, his mother's heart had been hurt a few days ago, and she was about to burst into tears.

Lu Yi took his daughter from Lei Qingyi's embrace. “Huanhuan has cooked dinner tonight. Come over to our house to eat.”

“Sure.” Lei Qingyi carefully pinched Xun Xun's pretty little face again. It had been a long time since she had eaten Yan Huan's own dishes. Yan Huan's current culinary skills were comparable to that of a chef.

Since the Lu family had escaped a calamity, it was time to celebrate. Others might not know about the twists and turns, but how could they not know.

This time, they had indeed broken out in a cold sweat. Fortunately, there was no danger. The heavens always protected good people, right.

Although Yan Huan was not a good person, she had saved a lot of people. During the flood, during the earthquake, and during the mudslide, she had donated a lot of charity money every year. It was unknown how many people had benefited.

So a good person would be rewarded. He believed that.

Chapter 1632: you're still a primary school student

Otherwise, she would have encountered so many dangers. However, she had managed to escape, and he was willing to attribute all of this to the saying that a good person's life was safe.

When Yi Ling's family arrived, it was already night time. Lei Qingyi and Yi Ling both had to go to work, so they had been delayed until now. However, they were considered suitable, and the food was only ready.

When the door opened, Lei Qingyi was 1.9 meters tall. He was almost unable to enter the door. Now, he had to bend his waist and lower his head when he entered other people's homes. Fortunately, the door to the Liuyuan garden was quite tall, it saved him from bending his waist again.

Then, another person walked over. He was a little shorter than Lei Qingyi, and his facial features were childish. Of course, he was also as thin as a skeleton.

that skinny pole ran over and hugged Yan Huan's arm. Then, he rubbed his face against Yan Huan's arm. He was already so big, but he looked like a child.

That coquettish look was actually a little strange.

Yan Huan patted Little Lei's head.

"Little Lei, have you grown taller again?"

She did not know if this was a good thing or not. Little Lei Zi had grown too fast. He was only in primary school, but he had already grown to such a height. People always said that the young surpassed the young. Now, he was only in primary school, boys only truly developed in junior high school and high school. What if he grew to two meters? He could only play basketball.

But Little Thunder didn't like playing basketball. He liked to hit people, just like Lei Qingyi.

Little Thunder originally wanted to act coquettishly with Yan Huan again. Yan Huan was very good to him and bought everything for him. If he was beaten up, he would definitely find his aunt.

But a hand reached out and directly pulled little thunder to the side.

"Stand properly." Lei Qingyi glared at her son. "Be more steady. How Old Are You?" Yi Ling wanted to roll her eyes. How Old Were You? You weren't even ten years old.

"Let's eat."

Yan Huan laughed. He was helpless in this regard. Actually, thinking about it, Little Leizi was quite pitiful. He didn't even have the fun of being a child. A child of such an age was at the right time to be playful. However.., he was forced to be an adult. Although he had grown into an adult body, he was still a child who hadn't grown up.

Lu Yi went into the room and brought the three children out. They were still obediently doing their homework, each more obedient than the other. Although there were three of them, sometimes these three were easier to bring than the other one.

They would sleep by themselves, eat by themselves, and did not like to run around. They were very obedient.

Yi Ling was the three children who loved Yan Huan. When she saw these three children, she hugged and kissed them. She wished that she could kidnap them back home. Back then, her little thunder was also such a cute child, however, time had dragged his little thunder too long.

Yan Huan and Auntie Gu cooked a table full of dishes. The adults and children all ate very well. Some things had finally passed. Although they did not know if the rain had passed and the sky was clear, at the very least.., they could have a good meal and have a good sleep.

Don't spill the rice. The veins on Lei Qingyi's forehead jumped up as well.

Little Lei Zi might really be hungry. He was originally tall and thin, but his body was still growing. This hunger meant that he had eaten too much. In a moment, he spilled a table full of rice grains.

Yi Ling helplessly covered half of her face with her hand. Then, she continued to eat as if nothing had happened. What else could she say? Yes, what else could she say? She was used to it. Yes, she was used to it. How could she not be used to it?

Then, she saw the three little ones sitting across from her. They were all eating their meals in small bites. They did not spill any rice, nor did they speak. All of them were eating very obediently. There was no need for an adult to worry about them, they really had a lot more temperament than little lei zi.

The three children of the Lu family were the young masters of the nobility. However, little lei zi of her family could not be mentioned. He was basically a reincarnation of a starving ghost. When he was young, he ate a lot of milk, and when he grew up, he ate even more, otherwise, how could he be so tall.

Little Lei Zi was still wolfing down his food. Anyway, he was hungry. Lei Qingyi could only stare at him, but she could not openly support her son. In fact, his hands were itchy now, and he really wanted to punch someone.

He now knew why ye Chuji could not help but want to punch ye Xinyu back then.

Because he really deserved to be beaten up.

But how could these three children of the Lu family be so obedient? Could they be replaced.

After the meal, Aunt Gu still had to bring the three children out to digest food. Of course, she also had to follow the Little Leizi. When Aunt Gu saw that the Little Leizi was frighteningly tall, she could only sigh.

Sigh, this child really looks old

You're a primary school student.

She lowered her head again and looked at her little qi and Little Guang. Fortunately, Little Qi and Little Guang had grown very normally. The child still had to be like a child. He looked like an adult now. He wouldn't even have a childhood anymore.

However, this wasn't what little lei zi wanted. He also wanted to be small, but he was tall. Therefore, it was fated that his miserable life from primary school to junior high school would only gradually get better after he entered high school, it was only then that he gradually got better

Of course, these were things that would happen in the future. Little Lei Zi himself did not know that he would still have to suffer so much in the future. He was only a child right now, a child who only liked to eat, drink, and play, a child who would even roll around in the grass and pick up stones to play was still such a small child.

Little Lei Zi went to play by himself. As soon as he arrived here, he would play like crazy. He liked to watch others grow vegetables and also liked to watch others grow the land. Sometimes, he would even go and help. As for the three children of the Lu family..., xiao Qi and Xiao Guang brought their younger sister along to play with Xun Xun. When they were in kindergarten, they did not really like to greet other children. The three of them also played quite well

Auntie Gu was very gratified every time she saw her three children. She had watched these three children be born and grow up. They were good-looking and had good temperaments. In the future, they would definitely not let their parents worry about them.

While they were happily eating here, it could be said that they were celebrating their rebirth after the disaster. However, for some people, it was an uncomfortable beginning. For example, Sun Yuhan. When she came back from the outside., she even walked carefully and did not dare to go out, afraid that she would encounter something. Of course, she never let go of looking for Arnold. Except for a cell phone number that was already empty., she did not understand Arnold at all.

Where would he go? How could she know? How could she find him?

Chapter 1633: was like this

After locking herself in the Ye family for a few days, she really couldn't help it. She wasn't a prisoner, so why couldn't she go out? Wasn't the Ye family's airport fine? wasn't the Lu family fine as well?

Even if there was something, what did it have to do with her? Didn't she already say that all of this was done by Arnold? It really had nothing to do with her. She was also a victim, so all of her jewelry was gone. She was the one who should be crying, okay?

She then displayed her fancy dress skills and prepared to go out in her high heels.

She wanted to buy clothes and jewelry. Now, she didn't even have a decent piece of jewelry, so how could she go out to meet people.

And she swaggered out of the Ye family in her seven-centimeter high heels with an insolent smile on her face. No one in this world dared to go against her, no matter who it was.

As long as the Ye family was here, yes, as long as the Ye family was here.

However, just as she was walking, her high heels turned and almost knocked her down.

She hurriedly steadied her body. First, she looked to see if there was anyone around her and if there were reporters around. If the reporters were to capture her ugly appearance, she did not know how to laugh at her.

Fortunately, there was no one around. Fortunately, she was the only one here, so no one saw her ugly appearance just now. She limped as she walked. The high heels on her feet felt like they were swaying.

She could not help but curse in her heart. Such expensive shoes, could they be fake?

How could she have broken her heels after just a few steps.

She looked around and limped to a corner where no one was around. At this moment, she also knew why her leg was in pain. It seemed to be the injured leg, but it did not seem to be., she only pretended that she did not walk well just now and was hit by the high heels, so it was normal for her to feel some pain.

When there was no one around, she took off her high heels and checked the heels. Fortunately, the heels were still there and didn't shake. The shoes were still wearable, maybe it was because the road wasn't easy and some stones had hit her feet.

She threw the high heels on the ground and put them on. Then, she took out a small mirror from her bag to check if her makeup had been ruined. When she was about to put the mirror away., she realized that there was someone behind her.

Before she could scream, a piece of cloth had already covered her mouth. She also smelled a very pungent smell, and then she didn't know anything.

Lei Qingyi walked in with a sack.

"Here, the thing you want."

He threw the sack on the ground.

The sack was also thrown on the ground. As if it could move, he stretched out his foot and kicked the sack.

Lu Yi stood up and used the tip of his foot to kick the person who was stuffed inside the sack

"When will she wake up?" He asked Lei Qingyi.

"In two hours." Lei Qingyi calculated the time. "But you have to let her wake up earlier. She can also sleep for a while. It's up to you. Also, when do we set off? Don't let it be too late."

This woman was not to be trifled with. No, it was not that this woman was not to be trifled with, but the ye Jianguo behind this woman was not to be trifled with.

"Also..." Lei Qingyi was a little worried, but that big foot kicked the things in the sack again rudely, "Lu Yi, haven't you thought about what your grandfather will do if he finds out about this? Will he kill you?"

"He won't." Lu Yi knew ye Jianguo better than Lei Qingyi.

"He doesn't have time to care about this. My grandfather hasn't settled the score with him yet."

Even if they had crippled Sun Yuhan, ye Jianguo wouldn't look for them. After all, they had almost destroyed the Lu family last time. Don't think that they would let it go so easily.

Old Master Lu was not someone who could be easily forgiven. He would hold a grudge for the rest of his life. No matter how old he was, he would never forget it.

"I see." Lei Qingyi understood. "Then let's leave now. I'll make the arrangements. And this..." he kicked the human-shaped thing on the ground with his own foot, "I'll leave this thing with you first. If she gets up, you can just kick her and knock her out. That way, she won't wake up screaming and making a scene. It's annoying."

After Lei Qingyi finished speaking, he strode out. When he returned, he nodded at Lu Yi, indicating that he had already made arrangements. With his abilities., it wasn't difficult for him to secretly go out and do these things. After all, he would occasionally investigate a confidential case and didn't need to report anything to others.

He then bent down and carried the humanoid thing on his shoulder.

Lu Yi took his notebook and left. At this moment, his black eyes were so calm that it made people want to avoid them.

They boarded the plane through a special passage. Of course, there was no need to go through security here. Even the cabin they were in was independent and did not have any contact with anyone.

When Lei Qingyi arrived, he threw the humanoid thing on the ground and twisted his neck. The sound of his bones cracking could be heard.

“What a fat pig.”

He could not help but grumble. It was most likely because the food was too good that he was about to become a fat pig.

The plane took off at the same time.

They took three more turns before finally arriving at their destination. This was a country that was very free in all aspects. Of course, there were very few local residents in this country, and they were all from outside, this country was very friendly to outsiders. Of course, it was relatively easy to settle down here. As long as one paid a certain fee, they could become a resident of this country. Therefore, the people who came here., they didn't care about one's identity, even if they were criminals, they wouldn't investigate.

However, there were very few people who could become citizens of this country. This was because if one applied to become a resident of this country, one would have to pay quite a bit of money. The commoners simply couldn't afford it, so they could only live here day after day.

Either they had to pay the money and become an official citizen, or they had to wait 15 years and automatically become an official citizen of this country.

However, everyone knew how long 15 years, 15 years, was.

Whether or not they could survive in these 15 years was one thing. Even if they really became citizens of this country after 15 years, what could they do? They would still be poor, and they would still have no good life. They would still have to wait., wait for death.

Of course, the banks here would not check where their money came from. They would only accept it without asking why.

Chapter 1634: her eyes twitched

The eight billion that Arnold took from the airport was deposited in the bank here. They might have thought that once the matter was over, the Lu family would take the blame and he would come over to take the money away, however, they did not expect that the Lu family did not collapse. They actually had the ability to make up the so-called eight billion in time.

Therefore, the Lu family was fine. The airport was also fine. However, something happened to Arnold. He was indeed a smart person. He knew that he had to leave this place. Otherwise, it would be a matter of them stealing from themselves, moreover, he had saved such a large amount of money. If he was caught, what awaited him would definitely be the death penalty.

Arnold ran away. As for Sun Yuhan, she was still stupid. She really thought that there was nothing she could do.

Lei Qingyi pulled Sun Yuhan out of the bag

Then, she reached out her huge hands that were almost as big as cattail leaf fans and directly slapped Sun Yuhan's face. In the end, her hands just touched Sun Yuhan's face. She didn't slap her, but slapped a layer of powder.

The corner of Lei Qingyi's eyes twitched. She wiped her hands on the ground in disgust.

Of course, Sun Yuhan had also woken up. She opened her eyes and was still in a daze. However, when she saw Lei Qingyi's bear-like face, she immediately screamed.

"Shut up!" Lei Qingyi took out a small knife from her own body and directly pressed it against Sun Yuhan's neck, "If you yell at me again, I will cut your neck and let you bleed to death. Have you taken biology lessons. "Do you know that a human's artery is in the neck? You should be very clear about the strength of my hand. As soon as I cut it, your blood will immediately spurt out. I know how high it can be. But believe me, you'll know what death is soon."

The more he spoke, the worse Sun Yuhan's expression became. Her eyes seemed to be rolling outward. She was going to faint.

Yes, Sun Yuhan wanted to scream, but she was even more afraid that if she really died, her neck would still be slit by someone.

My grandfather will not let you off. Her body was like a sieve, but this mouth of his was full of words. He really thought that ye Jianguo was an immortal, omnipotent, and could do anything, right?

"Don't worry." Lei Qingyi smiled very coldly.

"We got you out, but no one knew. Who knows where you are? Didn't you also not want others to know, so your grandfather won't know. He will think that you went out and let yourself go, just like ye Xinyu."

Sun Yuhan was stunned. She knew that Lei Qingyi's threat was real, and she had simply lifted a stone and smashed her own foot. She wanted to cry, but she cried out. She wanted to cry, but she didn't dare to.

"Why did you bring me here? What do you want to Do?"

She twisted her body from time to time, as if she was about to be cruelly hurt

Lei Qingyi looked at Sun Yuhan's face with disdain.

"With you like this, even if you strip naked, I Won't look at you again. Remember to be more obedient later." Lei Qingyi pulled Sun Yuhan's hair tightly. There was no need to be polite to this woman.

Thinking of the Lu family, the suffering of Lu Yi's three children, his aunt's tears, and Ye Jianguo's kick at Xun Xun, he had no sympathy at all. He could do such a disgusting thing.., don't blame others

"Remember to be obedient later. Do what I tell you to do. Nod your head when I tell you to nod your head, and shake your head when I tell you to. Otherwise, I'll leave you here and make sure you don't think about going back to see your grandfather, your fans, your luxuries, and your money for the rest of your life."

"So, be good and be obedient," lei qingyi threatened again

Sun Yuhan was so scared that she couldn't even make a sound. Her body trembled. She was really scared.

Lei Qingyi grabbed Sun Yuhan's shoulder. Even if Sun Yuhan wanted to run, it was impossible. Lei Qingyi's big hand was like a pincer. With just a slight force.., it could crush her shoulder.

He brought Sun Yuhan into a bank. Sitting inside was a man in a black windbreaker. He only raised his eyelids, and his eyes were cold, it made Sun Yuhan's pupils shrink, and her body couldn't help but struggle.

It was quieter. Lei Qingyi's voice made Sun Yuhan's body stiffen, but she didn't want to look at Lu Yi's emotionless face.

Lu Yi stood up and took his documents. Then, he used English to talk to the people here. Sun Yuhan's English was terrible. If she was slower, she might be able to make out some clues, but.., if she was too fast, she wouldn't be able to understand a single word.

Her growth in the past few years was in her appearance and dressing up. As for other aspects, she didn't make any progress at all.

Lei Qingyi brought Sun Yuhan over again.

The bank manager used English to ask Sun Yuhan a few more questions, but Sun Yuhan only widened her eyes and couldn't understand. She even thought about asking them to save her. These were two robbers who wanted to kill her.., they wanted to harm her.

But when she used her eyes to look at him, he didn't stop at all.

"Mr. Lu, is there something wrong with this lady's eyes? Why is she blinking?"

"Her eyes are twitching. Don't worry about it," Lu Yi replied indifferently. The curve of his thin lips was a little stiff when he said it.

The bank manager understood, but he glanced at Sun Yuhan again. It was possible that her eyes were twitching. After all, there were a few fake eyelashes stuck on them. And because they weren't stuck properly, they were starting to fall off, no wonder the lashes were smudged. It must have pricked his eyes.

He coughed and asked Sun Yuhan a few more questions.

"Miss Sun, you want to take out the money and transfer it to Mr. Lu's card, right?"

Sun Yuhan's facial features had already been tested when she came in, so there was no problem. It was only Sun Yuhan herself. It did not matter whether she wore makeup or not. All they wanted was bones and skin, it had nothing to do with the makeup on her face. Of course, it had nothing to do with the makeup that didn't wear off.

Sun Yuhan couldn't understand. Lei Qingyi pressed hard on the acupuncture points on her back from behind. It hurt so much that tears flowed out of her eyes. She would remember this grudge. When her grandfather came back., she would definitely not let them go. She would definitely not let them go.

"Nod."

Lei Qingyi warned her.

Sun Yuhan was unwilling at first, but when she thought of her current situation and what had happened to her, she could only bear with it and nod

"Please confirm again."

Chapter 1635: was long-lived

The bank manager asked again.

"Click."

Lei Qingyi still said the same thing, while Sun Yuhan was almost humiliated. She nodded again, then nodded and shook her head. She didn't know how many times she had to click and shake her head, in the end, she had to sign her name.

As soon as the name was signed, the bank manager smiled politely at Lu Yi.

"Mr. Lu, the formalities have been completed. We will be arriving at your account immediately. You can check if it has already been transferred to your account."

"Thank you," Lu Yi thanked him. He had already put his notebook on his lap, and his fingers were tapping on it. The bank manager was very amazed by the notebook that Lu Yi was holding. It was a notebook that was used exclusively by a certain country, it was extremely expensive, and sometimes, it wasn't necessarily something that could be bought with money. He didn't know where Lu Yi had gotten it from.

Lu Yi checked his account and sure enough, it had already arrived on time. Other than the original 8 billion, there was also the interest that the bank had given him. Although the amount of time it had been deposited wasn't considered a small amount., 8 billion was a very frightening number. Even if it was only deposited for less than half a month, the interest was already quite substantial.

Putting aside these small changes, Lu Yi already had the largest amount in his hands.

Lu Yi closed the notebook and reached out to shake the bank manager's hand. "Thank you for your cooperation and help."

“This is what I should do,” the bank manager said politely. Of course, it wasn’t considered help. As long as the procedures were adequate, then no matter how illegal the money was, or how it came about..., when it was withdrawn, it would be very formal.

Therefore, he wasn’t considered to be helping. He was just doing what he should do.

However, the bank manager felt a little regretful. “Mr. Lu, you can still leave this money in our bank. While we guarantee your safety, we will also pay you a large amount of interest.”

“Thank you, I will consider it.” Lu Yi didn’t refuse, but of course, he didn’t agree either.

He would go back and discuss the use of this money with his family. As for what kind of decision he would make in the end, he would only know after discussing it. He put away his notebook. It was very light. It was almost like a few pages of paper. He could not feel the slightest weight.

Lei Qingyi grabbed Sun Yuhan and walked away. Sun Yuhan was almost lifted off the ground by him. Lei Qingyi still felt that it was too slow. If there were not so many people here, he would still carry her away like he did when he came, he carried her away like a sack.

When she came out, Sun Yuhan turned her face. Her face was twisted to the extreme, and of course, it was also extremely ugly.

“Lu Yi, what are you doing?” Her voice was almost screaming, but because she hadn’t drunk water for a long time, it was slightly hoarse. Now, it wasn’t like her usual high-pitched voice, instead, it was as unpleasant and ear-piercing as a male duck.

Lu Yi still had his black eyes that were about to devour people, but at this moment, it was so cold that there was almost no warmth.

“Could it be that you have forgotten this place? Didn’t he take you to save money?”

Lu Yi’s indifferent voice was almost like a knife, piercing through Sun Yuhan’s heart. After Sun Yuhan heard it, the color on her face instantly faded away.

But it was different, it was different. Last time, it wasn’t on this road, and she didn’t see this place. It wasn’t the poor everywhere. There were tall buildings, and there was gold everywhere. How could this be..., she didn’t see gold, only beggars, and only poverty.

But Sun Yuhan had forgotten.

In any place in the world, there was a gap between the rich and the poor. The last time she came, she took the bright road, which was what everyone yearned for, and the beauty in front of her.

But this time, they took a different path. There were poor people here, struggling, and death.

And when she came, she only showed her face once. She didn’t even look at anything. She was in a hurry to shop here, so she completely forgot everything.

Suddenly, her expression changed again, like a mad dog that was about to bite someone. “Lu Yi, did you take my money?” It was her money, the money she hadn’t taken in time. It was eight billion, it was eight billion. She had used the Ye family’s airport to exchange for eight billion.

Lu Yi did not speak, but his silence clearly admitted something.

Yes, he had taken the money. He had taken all of it.

But whose money was this? This money did not belong to the Ye family, nor did it belong to the Ye family's airport. It was obtained by Yan Huan after he sold the sapphire. What did it have to do with the Ye Family? Even if ye Jianguo was here.., he did not shamelessly say that this money belonged to the Ye family.

The Ye family's airport was still there, and the Ye family's was basically there. Otherwise, the airport would be gone, the Lu family would be destroyed, and the Ye family would not be any better off.

Sun Yuhan gritted her teeth. Her heart ached for the eight billion. The more she thought about it, the more it hurt. The more she thought about it, the more she felt dizzy. Suddenly, she rolled her eyes and fell to the ground, not moving at all.

Lei Qingyi could have helped her, but he moved his body away. He was too lazy to even help her. He felt that this woman was too disgusting. She was too disgusting. She was really too disgusting.

He kicked Sun Yuhan again.

"You're too angry?"

"I'll live." Lu Yi would never believe that a woman like Sun Yuhan would die of anger. Even ye Jianguo wouldn't die of anger, let alone a young woman like Sun Yuhan. She would never die like this, she would only be courting her own death.

"I think so too." Lei Qingyi actually knew that this woman wouldn't die of anger. She was either still breathing or had fainted from anger. It was no wonder. Eight billion was enough to support another force in Hai City, did she really think that everything would go according to her wishes? She couldn't take the money away.

Lei Qingyi took a big sack from somewhere and put Sun Yuhan in it. Then, she tied the mouth of the sack. It was perfect. It was too perfect. She would go back the way she came.

When they returned to Hai City, Lei Qingyi threw Sun Yuhan back to her original place. She would wake up soon anyway. Of course, he had to stay here to guard her so that she wouldn't be carried away by some beggar.

When Sun Yuhan walked out, she was still limping and her high heels were nowhere to be found. She looked outside and didn't seem to react. or.., she really thought that she was dreaming.

Lei Qingyi was right. Sun Yuhan really felt that she was dreaming. Who asked her to fall down and wake up in the same place.

She touched her neck and lowered her head to look at her bare feet. The stockings on her feet had been torn, and her shoes had flown to God knows where.

Chapter 1636: we have to share some when we meet

Suddenly, she felt something behind her hair. She felt for a long time before she finally took it down. When she looked at it in front of her, her whole face turned salted.

“Lu Yi, you and I are irreconcilable enemies!” What she was holding in her hand was nothing else but a piece of sackcloth.

They dared, they dared, they dared to transport her out of the country like a sackcloth and steal her money.

She gritted her teeth so hard that she was about to break them.

Sun Yuhan remembered this grudge. If she didn't take revenge, she would definitely become a coward.

She walked forward barefooted, but she didn't pay attention to her feet. With a bang, she fell to the ground with a mouthful of mud in her mouth. This was the worst and most Hateful Day Sun Yuhan had ever lived in her life. If possible, she would never want to think about this day again.

Lu Yi placed a card in front of Yan Huan.

“What's This?” Yan Huan took it over. It turned out to be a bank card. She shook it in her hand. “Do you want to give me pocket money?” All of Lu Yi's wealth was placed with her, including his salary card. So, was Lu Yi giving her pocket money again?

She actually made a lot of money, but she just liked to spend Lu Yi's money. Of course, Lu Yi also liked her spending, because wasn't it normal for a man to earn money for a woman to spend?

“How much is in there?” Yan Huan was like a little money-grubber. She lay on Lu Yi's shoulder and was just short of counting the money. Her wealth was over a hundred million now, but she was still a money-grubber, she was quite rich from her husband's private stash

Of course, Lu Yi really didn't save any private stash. Yan Huan had never been harsh on Lu Yi's private stash.

“It's the eight billion that you sold the gemstones for,” Lu Yi said as he scratched her face. “Miss Yan, you're already a billionaire now. I'll let you take care of me from now on.”

Yan Huan was stunned for a moment before she turned the card in her hand again.

“Are you serious?” She leaned on Lu Yi's back. “Did we get our eight billion back?” She knew that Lu Yi wouldn't just close the gap so easily and let it go, these were really the eight billion that Sun Yuhan and the others took away.

“Yes, we're back. I took it back from the bank over there.”

Lu Yi naturally wouldn't suffer such a loss, especially such a huge loss.

Yan Huan didn't seem to feel much when she took the money. Perhaps it was because the money in her previous life had been taken from her hands. However, there wasn't that much back then. It was only around five billion. This time.., the gemstone was sold at a much higher price than in her previous life. Of course, they received more money as well. She stuffed the card back into Lu Yi's hands. “Same old rules. You take it and invest it. I'll Cook for you.”

She kissed Lu Yi's face. Although it was around ten o'clock now and they usually just used egg-fried rice and noodles, today was a great day. From now on, Yan Huan would be a billionaire.

Right, she opened the door again and stretched out half of her body from outside. "This time, Mom, Dad, and Grandpa were shocked too. give them some as well, just like in our previous life."

In Yan Huan's previous life, Lu Yi finally participated.

"Alright, I got it."

Lu Yi put down his bank card, took his notebook and placed it on the table before opening it.

In his previous life, after Yan Huan sold the gemstones, she did not take it all for herself. Instead, she gave it to Ye Shuyun, Lu Jin, and the old man for 100 million each. This time, it was the same. Of course, the Lei family had to give it as well, this time, the Lei family spared no effort to help them. Although giving them money was a little tacky, he felt that it was for the best.

He would use the rest as investments. After this, no one in this world could harm the Lu family. It had to be said that Yan Huan had always been a smart person. Her EQ was very high, moreover, she was very accurate when it came to understanding human nature. Although the Lu family did not lack money, sometimes such things made people feel very comfortable.

Yan Huan also understood how to do it.

Yan Huan was happy today. She made five or six dishes in one go. After that, she felt a little elated. Sigh, she had once again become a billionaire. She had saved enough money for her children.

Her children really did not know that after they had grown up, their mother had actually saved a huge sum of money for them. And this huge sum of money was all up to them to decide how to spend it.

Now, Yan Huan still would not tell them. Other than the fact that they were still young, it was just that during their growth process, they still needed a certain amount of setbacks. The flowers that were raised in a greenhouse were always unable to see the wind and rain, and flowers that did not see the wind and rain would often wither very quickly.

On the second day, Lu Yi told his parents and old master Lu about this matter. Of course, they would have to share some of it when they met.

"I'm not short of money," Old Master Lu snorted. However, when he was about to leave, he had clearly taken the card away. Of course, he had to take it with him. In the future, he had to take more things with him, he couldn't wait for his three grandsons to get married and not prepare some things for them, right? And now, he had already prepared for his three precious grandsons. He was just afraid that he wouldn't live until that time, therefore, from now on, he would prepare one set for his children every year. He would prepare as many sets as he could until the day he died.

Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin were not polite either. The bulk of the money was still with Yan Huan and Lu Yi, so Lu Yi and the others were not short of money

As for the Lei family, they received the cards as well.

“Can we accept them?” Yi Ling held the cards in her hand and was dumbfounded. They had helped them. Even if they wanted to thank them, they shouldn’t have given them so many cards at once. Moreover, they had earned quite a lot now, why did they need these cards.

“Yes, why not?” Lei Qingyi smiled and put her arm around Yi Ling’s shoulder. “These are only a small part of what they need. I have helped them a lot this time, so I need to pay for their hard work.”

Yi Ling pinched the flesh on Lei Wangyi’s arm with force.

After pinching for a while, she felt that her hand was hurting. Was this flesh or iron? How could someone train their body to be like this.

“Here, this is for you.” Lei Qingyi handed the card to Yi Ling.

“Don’t you feel bad?” Yi Ling took the card. Of course, she also liked it. Of course, it had nothing to do with greed, because Lei Qingyi had given everything to her.

“What’s there to feel bad about?”

Lei Qingyi opened her mouth and smiled, revealing a mouthful of white teeth, “No matter how hard I work, I can do it. I just want you to have whatever you want. You Won’t be worse off than other women. Although the Lei family doesn’t have much money, I will make money for your husband.”

Chapter 1637: came to find her

Yi Ling pinched Lei Qingyi’s arm again. “Lei Qingyi, can we be more hypocritical?” The Lei family had been low-key. If they were poor, no one would dare to say a word.

Lei Qingyi laughed loudly. It had been ten years, and he still had the same character. He had not changed at all, especially his temper and his mouth, which could almost poison people to death, however, in front of Yi Ling, he was a good husband. He was the best husband that could be. He would give in to her in everything. No matter how bad her temper was, she would never move her mouth or take action.

Yi Ling also felt that her life was worth it. She had met such a good husband. Although he was not very handsome, and he was not very smart, in her heart, he was the best man in the world.

Now, regardless of whether it was the Lu family or the Lei family, they were both happy and had walked out of the haze not long ago. The dark clouds above their heads had finally dispersed and cleared away the clouds.

Their sky had cleared up.

However, their sky had cleared up, but the sky of the Ye family had started to turn dark.

Sun Yuhan almost cried herself to death. “Grandfather, you don’t know how detestable they are. They put me into a sack, beat me and threatened me.”

Once ye Jianguo returned, Sun Yuhan began to complain to him. She simply scolded Lei Qingyi’s Lu Yi for being useless. They were the executioners, and the wounds on her body were all caused by them, it also included the wounds on her heart and her pride that had been bitten off by Arnold. She was still faintly in pain.

This time, not only did she lose her wife and soldiers, but she also lost herself. She also calculated everything. What exactly did she plan to do? She planned to stuff her own into a sack like a luggage, was she tossing them around?

When Ye Jianguo heard Sun Yuhan's words, he was so angry that he felt dizzy. He did not investigate anything and went straight to the Lu family. However, this time, he seemed to have changed something.

"Grandpa, Grandpa..." Xun Xun ran to Lu Jin's side and hugged his legs. "The bad guy is here. He's going to beat Xun Xun up."

When Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang heard that someone wanted to beat up their little sister, they would be in trouble. They ran to their little sister's side and stretched out their small hands to protect her. However, they widened their big eyes, their small faces couldn't be any more serious.

Lu Jin shielded his three grandchildren behind him. His voice was so tense that it sounded like it was about to break. The caution he had in the past and the respect he had in the past were completely gone.

"May I know why Boss Ye Is Here?"

He did not call him father anymore. How could the Lu family call him father like this? He was still afraid that this would set another trap for them and cause the Lu family to be finished, right?

They had already been unkind to their family. How could they still be loyal to them? Wasn't this a little too ridiculous.

When Lu Jin called him old Mr. Ye, ye Jianguo's entire face also fell.

"Lu Jin, where's Ye Shuyun?"

"She went out." Lu Jin didn't want to talk to Ye Jianguo. However, no matter what, he was always a guest at the door. He didn't want outsiders to say that the Lu family didn't know how to treat guests, even though he really didn't want to stay with this guest.

He asked the nanny to bring the children into the room first so that ye Jianguo wouldn't really scare the children.

The three children of the Lu family didn't like ye Jianguo. Xun Xun also remembered ye Jianguo's face. Whenever he saw ye Jianguo, he would call him a bad guy.

However, ye Jianguo really dared to come. They hadn't gone to look for him yet, but he was really good. He really dared to come to the door.

"Who's Here?" Old Master Lu heard the commotion outside, and Lu Jin suddenly felt his scalp tighten. How could he have forgotten about this? His old master was still here.

Right now, Old Master Lu hated the ye family to the point that his teeth hurt. The anger that he was holding in his heart had nowhere to vent. It wasn't easy for them to make old master Lu feel better recently, and they didn't mention the ye family much.

Ye Jianguo, on the other hand, was doing well. He was sending himself to ye Jianguo's doorstep.

He was afraid that if these two old men were to really fight in a while, what would he do? They were already quite old. If something were to really happen, what could he do? It was not like ye Chuji was not around right now.., the Ye family was most reasonable when they were not around. Then, what reason did they have to argue with ye Jianguo Now? Ye Jianguo was completely unreasonable. If they were to really fight in a while, they would throw chairs and tables at him.

However, he was so angry that he had a heart attack. His blood pressure suddenly rose again.

Old Master Lu walked out from inside. When he saw ye Jianguo, even the hair on his head stood on end.

"Ye Jianguo, you shameless old man, you still dare to come here? I was just about to look for you." Old Master Lu rolled up his sleeves and wanted to slap ye Jianguo's face.

"Our Lu family was really blind at that time. We actually helped your Lu family. We should have let your ye family be eaten by the Su family back then. The worst thing we should have done was to let your ye family exist in this world. I didn't expect that we would spend so much effort to help you. You're really good. You're really shameless to demolish this bridge. You're really good at scheming against us. What? Are you here to see if I'm Dead?"

"Let me tell you, Ye Jianguo." Old Master Lu's voice was very loud, and he did not leave any face for ye Jianguo. What face did he have to leave for such a person? Did he still have the face?

"If I don't beat you to death today, this father's surname will not be Lu." As he spoke, he directly rushed towards ye Jianguo.

"Dad, Dad..."

Lu Jin was also frightened. He quickly went forward and hugged his father. These two people added together were almost 200 years old. Their old arms and legs really couldn't withstand a fall. If they really fell.., but what should he do?

"Little Brat, why are you pulling me?"

Old Master Lu was currently angry and scolded Lu Jin impolitely. Lu Jin honestly wanted to cry but had no tears. Little Brat, yes, Little Brat. But he was clearly about to turn 60 years old.., how was he a little brat? He was clearly about to turn into an old turtle.

"Lu Yuanyang, are you crazy?"

Ye Jianguo narrowed his eyes. He still felt that old master Lu was not angry enough and wanted to add more fuel to the fire.

"Just you wait." Old Master Lu glared at ye Jianguo with hatred and killing intent. This was like killing his mother's enemy. If he did not kill him, he would not be able to live.

The door outside rang again. Ye Shuyun first entered the industry. She was still talking to mother lei, but when she saw the situation inside, she was also shocked.

"Qingyi, quickly pull your grandfather Lu away."

Chapter 1638: Who's looking for who

Mother Lei quickly called out to her son. At this time, Lei Wangyi was hanging like a Christmas tree. Toys and snacks were everywhere. There were also clothes for the three children. When he heard his mother's voice.., he almost shivered. He quickly put down the things in his hands. There was still something hanging on his neck, so he didn't have time to take it out.

Lei Qingyi pulled old master Lu into the room without saying anything, asking him to calm down. However, Old Master Lu didn't go over, but his voice was still there, and he was still cursing.

One moment he was an old man, one moment he was an old man, one moment he was worse than a pig or a dog, and another moment he was an ungrateful old bastard. The veins on ye Jianguo's forehead were throbbing like crazy.

He knew very well who old master Lu was scolding. Besides him, who else in this place was scolded the moment they entered? Not to mention the name ye Jianguo.

"Ye Shuyun, did you say something to Lu Yuanyang?"

When Old Master Lu was dragged away, ye Jianguo vented his anger on Ye Shuyun. Ye Shuyun was the most filial. No matter how much he was a father, Ye Shuyun would always have him in her heart, this was also the reason why ye Jianguo always dared to say anything in front of Ye Shuyun. It was because he understood ye Shuyun.

Yes, he understood ye Shuyun, but he did not understand ye Shuyun's bottom line?

Ye Shuyun glanced at ye Jianguo indifferently. She was no longer familiar with this face. Only now did she come to her senses. Although she was surnamed Ye, in ye Jianguo's eyes.., she couldn't even compare to a strand of ye Rong's hair.

If he didn't acknowledge her, then why was he so Shameless? How many times had he been harmed? Was it not enough.

"Old Ye, we don't welcome you here. Please go back."

Not to mention Old Master Lu, even she didn't think much of ye Jianguo now. As long as she thought of the Ye family, she would think of how the Ye family nearly destroyed the Lu family not long ago.

Ye Jianguo's entire face turned ashen.

"Ye Shuyun, who gave you the courage to speak to me like that? I'm your father."

"Didn't you say that I'm Not Your Daughter? I'm just a foster child," ye Shuyun replied readily. Indeed, it was because there was no blood relationship between them that she could hurt them so wantonly. That was to say, there was no blood relationship between them, that was why they were able to cut her off so completely.

She had also given up hope. In any case, the Ye family would have nothing to do with her in the future. She had already done all she could for them.

Ye Jianguo was stunned. It was as if he had seen a monster. From what they knew, they had always thought that he was the only one in this world who could teach ye Shuyun a lesson and teach the Lu family a lesson, therefore, no matter what he did or what kind of request he made, Ye Shuyun, Lu Yi, and the Lu family would always compromise in the end.

He had only gone out once, but everything had changed.

“SIS, what are you still talking to him about?” Mama Lei couldn’t stand seeing ye Jianguo at all. Wasn’t the Lu family miserable enough because of him? That was because ye Shuyun had a good temper. If it were her, she would have turned hostile long ago.

She just felt sorry for her elder sister. She had already repaid the favor of raising her.

“Elder Ye, I think you should leave.” Mama Lei was not polite at all. She was obviously here to ask for forgiveness, not to make amends, “If I Were you, I wouldn’t have the face to come here. I’ve already destroyed the Lu family, yet you still dare to come here.”

“Let’s go.” Mother Lei pulled ye Shuyun away. Did she really think that ye Shuyun was that easy to bully? How was that possible? She still had her sister.

She only had one sister in her entire life. How could she watch as others hurt her sister and her family again and again.

With a bang, mother Lei closed the door. In any case, she didn’t want ye Shuyun to see ye Jianguo again. The Ye family was now a disaster. Ye Xinyu hadn’t returned until now, and there was still no news of ye Chuji, she always had a bad feeling in her heart, but she did not dare to say it. Now, the Ye family only had that troublemaker and that ye Jianguo who could not tell the difference between right and wrong.

Whoever got close to them would be unlucky.

Ye Jianguo was left alone. He did not even have anyone to greet him. The saddest thing was that he did not even understand where the Lu family’s deep hatred for him came from?

The Lu family’s nanny was also afraid when she saw him. She had even kicked such a cute little xun before. He would definitely hit someone. Moreover, looking at his fierce face, it really made people feel fear for no reason.

Ye Jianguo pulled a long face and turned around to walk out. However, he saw Lu Yi who was driving back.

Lu Yi got out of the car and looked at ye Jianguo indifferently.

In the past, he would call him grandpa, but he was sorry. Now, he didn’t want to. Lu Yi’s personality wasn’t too kind, and he didn’t like to talk too much. It sounded nice and cold, but it wasn’t nice, it was depressing.

“I want to know, why did you kidnap my granddaughter?” Ye Jianguo’s face was even longer now. As long as he mentioned that granddaughter, ye Jianguo seemed to have changed into a different person. His dotting on Sun Yuhan., there was almost no bottom line, and his entire person would also become unreasonable.

“Is that what she said?” Lu Yi’s eyes were still very indifferent. Compared to old master Lu’s cursing, his rationality was still there. Of course, this was also the beginning of him alienating a person, or rather, denying a person.

Ye Jianguo did not speak, but his eyes were filled with hatred. It was unknown whether it was hatred for Lu Yi or something else.

Lu Yi pursed his thin lips. There was not much emotion in his dark eyes, “Did she tell you that she and a man named Arnold secretly took eight billion dollars from the airport? Some of them were paid in advance by a few large companies. These are refunds. There are also fees that the airport should pay. If these are not produced, they will be punished by the law.”

“Eight billion is enough to pay with the lives of all the members of our Lu family.”

Ye Jianguo’s face suddenly darkened as he sneered, “Even if the Ye family loses eight billion, that’s still our ye family’s problem. What does it have to do with your Lu Family?”

He knew that he had to find some convincing reason. Did he really think that he was an old fool?

Lu Yi only pursed his lips slightly. He really felt that the person in front of him was too unfamiliar. He was no longer the original ye Jianguo. The things that he had changed now could not be differentiated, and he did not even have a single principle of conduct.

Chapter 1639: the bad guy left

Lu Yi didn’t want to say anything to him. All they wanted was justice when Ye Chuji returned. They didn’t want the airport, and they had already gotten what they wanted. However, the ownership of the airport could only be given to ye Chuji, nothing else was possible.

Lu Yi walked in and closed the door. However, he could feel that the relaxed atmosphere at home had become tense, and it had become a little annoying to bathe in.

“Pull, pull...” Xun Xun pushed the door open and ran out. She hugged her father’s legs tightly. She still looked the same as when she was two years old. It was as if she hadn’t grown much.

Lu Yi squatted down and looked parallel to his daughter’s gaze. He then patted his daughter’s little head. “Baby, What’s Wrong?”

Xun Xun pouted. Her little appearance was really pitiful. She stretched out her little hand and let her father hug her.

Lu Yi carried his daughter. Wasn’t the little girl pampered by her family? Why did she suddenly feel that she was timid and wanted to be carried.

“Tuoba, that bad grandfather came. Xunxun pouted her little mouth. She was still very scared. He’s the worst. He hit xunxun and even scolded Mommy.”

Lu Yi gently rubbed his daughter’s hair.

He knew that his children had good memories. They could remember the phone numbers of everyone in the family, and they could even recite them fluently. He did not expect that they could even remember people.

He thought that Xunxun had forgotten about that incident, but it did not seem to happen. Xunxun remembered it very clearly. It was a nightmare for xunxun. In fact, he hoped that his daughter would forget about it. He did not want her to remember too many bad things, those were adult matters. He could not let such a young child bear the burden or bear the responsibility. However, everything seemed to backfire. His children remembered everything, including who had hurt them..., hurt their most beloved mother.

“Don’t be afraid. The bad guys are gone.”

Lu Yi carefully patted his daughter’s back, but the little girl seemed to have been frightened. Her little face had lost much of its spirit. It looked like it made people feel heartache and pain.

Lu Yi opened the door. Yan Huan was flipping through the first two scripts, wanting to familiarize himself with the script. However, when he looked up, he found that Lu Yi had returned and was still carrying Xun Xun.

Now, Little Qi Xiaoguang did not allow anyone to carry her anymore. Even though Xun Xun was the spoiled one at home, she also loved to be carried. However, what was going on? She was fine, so why was she carrying her back.

She stood up and walked over. She saw that Xun Xun’s small face was sullen. She did not like to talk much, and her big bright eyes seemed to be covered with a layer of frost.

“What’s Wrong?” She carefully hugged her daughter. The more Xun Xun saw her mother, the more aggrieved she felt.

“Ye Jianguo went over today,” Lu Yi said, not wanting to mention ye Jianguo’s name. “Xun Xun might have been scared. Yi Bin said, be careful of her today. I’m afraid she’ll have a fever again.”

Xun Xun was like that in the past. As long as she was scared, she would have a fever. It was just that she didn’t know if it would be better now that she had grown up a little.

“Mommy.” Xunxun pouted, feeling wronged. However, she still did not cry. This little appearance of hers was exactly the same as Yan Huan’s.

“We’ve grown up, haven’t we?” Yan Huan coaxed his daughter. “Look, Daddy and Mommy are here. Xunxun, don’t be afraid of the bad guys. Mommy will help Xunxun beat the bad guys away.”

Xunxun’s long eyelashes fluttered, but she still wanted her mother to hug her tightly. At night, she finally managed to coax her to sleep. She was considered to be fine and did not have a fever, she also obediently fell asleep.

Yan Huan had always coaxed her, told her stories, and played games with her. However, she was a little unhappy and was not as lively as usual. In fact, Yan Huan did not expect that xunxun would remember that incident so clearly, even ye Jianguo’s face was remembered.

It could only be said that the IQ of the three children she gave birth to had followed Lu Yi. Their memory was very good, especially when it came to memorizing numbers. However, she did not know how to do that.

She brought two plates of fried rice. Lu Yi had been busy with the airport for a few days, but he had thrown his work aside. Now, if he wanted to finish all this work, he would have to work overtime day and night.

Tomorrow was the weekend. Although he did not work, he would not stop working overtime. However, this was something that could not be helped. All Yan Huan could do was to make a plate of egg fried rice. She really could not help with anything else.

As soon as she put down the plate, Xun Xun opened her eyes. She did not know if the sound of her opening the door was too loud or if her little nose had already detected the smell of fried rice.

“Mommy, Xun Xun wants to eat.”

Xun Xun pulled away the blanket and got up from the bed. Lu Yi picked her up with one hand and touched her little forehead. Yes, she was very obedient this time. She should be fine now.

“Aren’t you going to drink milk tonight?”

Lu Yi pinched his daughter’s small face. When she woke up this night, she always wanted milk to drink. “What’s wrong? Are you going to eat today?”

“Yes, I’m going to eat.” Xun Xun pounced on the fried rice on the table.

Lu Yi walked over and sat down. He picked up a spoon and fed Xun Xun a mouthful of rice. He even specially picked out large prawns for her to eat.

“Is it good? Mommy made it.”

As soon as Yan Huan entered, she heard her daughter praising her again.

Her family’s Little Xun’s mouth was really too sweet.

She took a small bowl and scooped some rice from her plate into the small bowl. Then, she placed two large prawns on top for Xun Xun to eat on her own.

Xunxun obediently took her small spoon and stuffed the rice into her mouth one mouthful at a time. She seemed to be so hungry that she stuffed her small mouth full.

After eating the rice, she rubbed her eyes and wanted to sleep. This was the child’s bedtime. Even if she woke up, she would at most drink a pot of milk. Furthermore, she would squint her eyes as she drank. As she drank, she would fall asleep, it was already good enough for her to finish a small bowl of rice while she was awake.

Lu Yi picked up his daughter and carefully placed her down. Then, he pulled open the blanket and covered her little body.

When he came over to eat, they let out a sigh of relief. It was good that she was fine. If she really had a fever, she might have to go to the hospital again. Xunxun had not been to the hospital for a very long time.

They hoped that she could hold on for a longer time. This proved that she had really grown up and did not love getting sick.

As for ye Jianguo's matter, no one mentioned it again.

This was someone outside of their lives, just like ye Jianguo. What he wanted to do with Sun Yuhan was their own matter and had nothing to do with them.

At this moment, ye Jianguo's expression was not too good. Even the current Sun Yuhan was a little uncertain about ye Jianguo's intentions.

Chapter 1640: He could not

"Yuhan, is there something you haven't told me?"

Ye Jianguo asked Sun Yuhan. He had been silent for a long time. During this time, he seemed to be thinking about something. However, his thinking made Sun Yuhan nervous, she also felt an inexplicable sense of danger.

She couldn't guess what ye Jianguo's question meant.

"Grandpa, what are you asking? Your granddaughter doesn't know?" She was obviously guilty. Ye Jianguo was not a fool. He was just too guilty for his daughter, so he gave this guilt to Sun Yuhan. He also lost a lot of bottom line for Sun Yuhan. However, no matter how he indulged Sun Yuhan., no matter how much he wanted from her, she could do whatever she wanted. However, he wasn't an old fool who didn't know anything. Of course, he knew which was more important.

"Yuhan, I want to know what's going on at the airport?"

He had asked. The airport had indeed lost some funds, and these were enough to destroy the Ye family.

It was not some, but many.

He could unconditionally indulge Sun Yuhan, but it did not mean that he would make a joke of the Ye family.

Sun Yuhan lowered her head, and her eyes turned. She bent her knees and knelt in front of ye Jianguo.

"I'm sorry, Grandpa. I didn't mean it. I really didn't mean it." She sobbed and said, "That Arnold by my side is not a noble at all. He is a liar."

"Grandpa, later I found out that his eyes seemed to have an illusion, which could make people hallucinate. I arranged for him to be in the airport for no reason. However, I didn't expect that he would take the money from the airport. He dared to take it for himself. Before uncle left, he transferred the airport to his aunt. Therefore, the matter of the airport being empty ended up in the hands of the Lu family. Later, I don't know how they returned the money. In the end, they even took out the money that Arnold ate."

"Now, not only do they have eight billion, they also have control of the airport in their own hands."

"Grandpa..." she knelt forward, "You must think of a way. The airport is the Ye family's business. It is also the benefit of our descendants. Now, the Lu family won't give it to us. They took eight billion and took our airport."

Ye Jianguo listened to Sun Yuhan's words. He clearly knew that she might not have told the truth, but if that man had really hypnotized him or deliberately deceived her into doing such a thing...

Then it didn't seem like she was to blame.

As for the Ye family's airport, there was no rush. This was something that ye Chu had planned for himself, so he had to settle it himself. He could send the airport out, but he had to take it back.

Moreover, although the people of the Lu family were not very likable, if they were to really return the airport to them, they would still return it.

Not to mention anything else, he believed this point.

Therefore, he did not take the airport matter to heart. Of course, he was not as worried as Sun Yuhan. The Lu family would occupy the airport and return it to them. In the end, they would take it for themselves.

The Lu family was a military and political family. They were all noble in their bones. An airport wasn't as important as them.

However, he just couldn't figure out where the Lu family got the eight billion yuan. Lu Yuanyang, he really underestimated him. He really had a lot of things in his hands.

If he really had that much money, why didn't he take it out when the Ye family was in trouble? When the Lu family was in trouble, he revealed all of his trump cards.

And if old master Lu knew that ye Jianguo scolded him like this, he would definitely regret it. Why did he save the Ye family back then? He might as well let ye Youyou fall. It was impossible for so many things to happen now.

Ye Jianguo sat up and stroked Sun Yuhan's hair as well. Just like before, he was filled with guilt toward his granddaughter. After all, she was the only child left by his daughter, even if she had really made a mistake, it was understandable. Because no one had taught her, and no one had cared for her.

They had not properly taught her, so how could they let her know anything?

And his tolerance towards Sun Yuhan had reached a point that others could not imagine.

"Alright, Don't cry. Grandfather knows that this is not your fault, but Arnold, grandfather will definitely not let him off."

When he said this, ye Jianguo's eyes seemed to flash with a cold killing intent. However, it was such a killing intent that Sun Yuhan could not help but shiver.

He was actually afraid and did not dare to make a sound.

In Ye Jianguo's life, he hated lying the most. Because Arnold had lied to her, if Arnold was found, ye Jianguo would be the first to not let him off.

But what if it was her?

Sun Yuhan couldn't help but think about this question in fear.

If ye Jianguo knew that she had lied to him, he would definitely let her die without a complete corpse. and such a way of dying, she was terrified just thinking about it.

Therefore, she couldn't tell others about this matter, nor could she let others know. Only her identity as ye Jianguo's granddaughter could let her live, but if it wasn't, she would die a terrible death.

After that, she did not know what ye Jianguo actually said, but she did not listen to a single word.

As for Arnold, there were several groups of people looking for him, and he did not even have the chance to leave the country.

"Didn't you say that you could let me out?"

In a dilapidated house, a green-eyed man shouted almost at the phone, "Didn't you promise to be fine? Why? You swallowed all the money I gave you, but now you won't Do Anything for me."

"What, you can't do it?" Arnold couldn't believe what he had heard, "If you can't do it, then why did you promise me? Why did you take my money? You said earlier that you couldn't do it, so I went to find another way."

"What, I can't find it?"

Arnold sneered. His lake-green eyeballs were now tainted with too many impurities.

"I don't believe that I can't find it. Is there any money in this world that can't be bought?"

He put down his cell phone. He was like a wolf that was locked up. He did not even have a bit of freedom now. He even had to wait until midnight before he could leave. He was originally going to leave the country, although he didn't have eight billion, he still had Sun Yuhan's jewelry. He knew the price of those jewelry. It was at least worth tens of millions. These tens of millions could allow him to go to an unfamiliar place and change his identity. Maybe he could get back the eight billion by then.
