

Chapter 1651: the door that can not be opened

Yan Huan threw her phone to the side.

“Oh...”she thought for a moment. She didn’t bring her bodyguards.

So Be it. Sun Yuhan couldn’t possibly turn the world upside down. What she didn’t know was that she had been tricked this time because she was too confident and underestimated others, of course, she had paid a very painful price, and this price was enough for her to repent for the rest of her life.

Sun Yuhan had just put down her phone when her hand was empty. The phone had already been taken away by Arnold.

Sun Yuhan squirmed her colorless lips. She actually wanted to call ye Jianguo again to see if ye Jianguo could come and save her, but this Arnold was too smart and too cautious, she couldn’t gain any advantage in his hands.

“Put away your thoughts.”Arnold grabbed Sun Yuhan’s hair again, “Don’t treat me as a fool, and don’t think of yourself as too smart. In My Eyes, you are a fool. I can completely toy with you in my hands. Then you have to believe that I can even pinch you to death with one hand. Remember, don’t play any tricks on me.”

And now, he was too lazy to even say a superfluous sentence to Sun Yuhan.

He felt disgusted when he saw Sun Yuhan’s face. Similarly, Sun Yuhan was not very happy with his face.

Sun Yuhan was embarrassed and angry, but she did not even dare to reply. There was a metal chain tied to her feet. She did not even have the freedom of life now, so how could she escape.

No matter how shrewd she was, she could only use it on people who cared about her. It was only useful.

Her foot was tied to a chain. Her originally tender skin had been worn out.

Ungrateful Thing, she cursed. You will definitely die a horrible death.

She lowered her head and looked at the chain on her ankle. One end of the chain was on the window. No matter how strong she was, she couldn’t carry the window. The only thing that could open the chain was.., the key in Arnold’s hand. Otherwise, she would have chopped off her foot.

However, how was it possible to chop off her foot? How much time had she spent to preserve her leg? She would rather die than be a cripple for the rest of her life.

Yan Huan, you have to be smarter. She gripped the iron chain tightly. Whether she could live or not depends on you. If you are too stupid, then you really can not blame me. This is not my fault. If you want to blame me, then blame me.., that man has designs on you, so you deserve it.

The next day, Yan Huan drove out by herself. She had told Auntie Gu that she wouldn’t come back for lunch because she didn’t know how long she would have to wait outside with Sun Yuhan.

She came alone because in her heart, Sun Yuhan didn't have any lethality. However, she had made a huge mistake. She had also forgotten that sometimes people's hearts were unpredictable. Of course, there was also the saying that she was outnumbered.

Sun Yuhan did not have any lethality. She was just relying on old master Lu to bully her. However, don't forget that the person beside her was not someone to be trifled with.

Yan Huan's skills were not considered good now, and she had not practiced for a long time. In the past, she could fight a few of them by herself. However, because of the constant accidents in the past few years, she had started to be crippled by Lu Yi. Other than eating and playing.., she had basically become a powerless little woman.

She stopped the car and stood outside for a very long time. Was this the place?

Was she in the wrong place? With Sun Yuhan's character, how could she ask her to meet her in such a place? Even if it wasn't possible, it would still be some high-end club, tea shop, coffee shop, and so on, this was how her noble identity could be revealed.

But here, what kind of identity would Sun Yuhan have?

She originally wanted to turn around and leave, but in the end, she turned around again.

Perhaps, Sun Yuhan's brain had gone crazy, and she began to like to return to the basics.

She stood outside the door at the side and didn't knock. But when she raised her hand, a sense of unease flashed through her heart.

She hurriedly turned around. Only then did she feel that she had gone the wrong way. She had been too bold.

She quickened her pace and walked towards her car. In the end, she almost ran until she reached the front of the car. Only then did she truly heave a sigh of relief.

She looked for the keys in her bag and opened the door. At that moment, a hand stretched out from behind her. Before she could react, there was a pain on the back of her neck. When she fell into the darkness.., she felt that she was really stupid this time.

There were many people in this world who could not be trusted. The first person she knew was none other than Sun Yuhan.

And she was still stupid enough to believe it.

She did not know how much time had passed. When she woke up, she did not know where she was?

She sat up and the quilt on her body slid down.

She checked herself up and down. Her clothes were still the same as when she came out. They had not been touched. Even her shoes were on her feet. Her body did not have any extra feelings, so she was fine.

She pulled the quilt away and stood up. She looked around. Where was this place?

It was like an old house built in the countryside, just like the place where she and Zhu Meina lived at that time. However, where was this place? She touched her neck. The pain from the back of her neck was so painful that it reached her shoulder.

She walked to the door and put her hand on the door lock. She turned the doorknob. The door was open, and she ran out. There was a big door. She hurried over, wanting to open the door and go out, however, after turning the doorknob for a long time, the lock seemed to be locked from the outside.

She twisted the doorknob hard and knocked on the door hard.

“Open the door, open the door...”

No one outside opened the door for her, and no one responded.

“Don’t waste your energy. You Can’t open this door,” a hoarse voice suddenly rang in her ears.

This voice..

Was It Sun Yuhan’s?

Yan Huan suddenly turned his head and saw Sun Yuhan standing in front of a door with her hair disheveled. Her entire person had become thinner, and even her face was sunken.

She was actually wearing an ugly outfit and a pair of cheap pants. Both of her feet were barefoot on the ground, and there was a large iron chain on her feet.

“Why are you so stupid?” When Sun Yuhan saw Yan Huan like this, she almost wanted to scold her for being stupid.

“Didn’t I tell you to bring bodyguards over? Why didn’t you bring them?”

Yan Huan didn’t want to talk to a woman like Sun Yuhan, much less reason with her. Moreover, didn’t Sun Yuhan repeatedly say over the phone that she couldn’t bring her bodyguards? What could she do?

She had threatened her time and time again. Would she still bring them?

Chapter 1652: I like you

And now, no matter whose fault it was, she knew that she had been schemed against by Sun Yuhan. No, she had been schemed against by Sun Yuhan and the person behind her.

“Who did it?” Yan Huan asked Sun Yuhan.

“You’ll know in a while.” Sun Yuhan turned around and walked into her room with the iron chain. Yes, she didn’t want to say it, but she didn’t want to say it at all. She hated Arnold’s ingratitude, she also hated Yan Huan’s stupidity. It wasn’t easy for her to find a chance, but it was ruined by this stupid woman, Yan Huan.

And she didn’t realize that it wasn’t Yan Huan who ruined her chance to escape, but she had schemed against Yan Huan.

Yan Huan looked at the closed door for half a day before returning to the room where she had just woken up. She walked to the window and wanted to push it open, but she realized that the window was fixed, even if she smashed the glass on top, it was impossible for her to get out. Outside was a reinforced concrete fence. Unless she knew how to shrink her bones, she could still jump down from the second floor.

The last time she could jump down, other than the window being open, she had also calculated the awning below. At most, she would be injured, but she would not fall to her death.

But this time, even if she wanted to fall, there was no way she could do it

She looked around for things that could be used, but she found that there was nothing inside. There was only a bed, a quilt, and a table. She tried the table, but she did not know what it was made of, it was very thick and heavy. She could not lift it at all. She squatted down and was also fantasizing about whether she could take off a table leg and use it as a weapon.

However, after trying for a long time, the leg of the table was still intact. Either she lifted the entire table up, or there was another way.

Suddenly, the sound of a lock being unlocked came from outside. Yan Huan stood up and clenched her hands tightly by her side

With a bang, the door opened.

Yan Huan rushed forward as well. In the end, that person managed to neutralize all of her moves in just a few moves. Moreover, he seemed to be suppressing all of her movements. She had exchanged many moves with Lu Yi, and each time, Lu Yi was the one suppressing her, moreover, Lu Yi had only used less than 50% of his strength at that time. Lu Yi had said before that if the other party was completely suppressing her, then he was someone who had trained before. Moreover, his skills were also pretty good. and at that time., he told her not to be too impulsive. Otherwise, she would be the one who would suffer in the end.

Yan Huan's attacks gradually slowed down. However, there was a saying that a wise man submits to circumstances. She had to preserve her physical strength and spirit well. Otherwise, it would not be easy for her to escape.

However, when Yan Huan saw the face of the man in front of her clearly, she was stunned for a moment.

It was him.

How could it be him?

"It's me. We meet again."

Arnold looked at Yan Huan's eyes with some fascination. You have the most beautiful eyes I've ever seen. I will never forget this pair of eyes. Also, your skills are not bad.

Arnold reached out his hand, wanting to touch Yan Huan's face. He also wanted to know if this was true?

However, Yan Huan dodged his hand and took a step back.

“What do you want to Do?”

Yan Huan really did not understand what Arnold was trying to do. He had lured her here and even wanted to turn Sun Yuhuan into that state. He wanted to confiscate her freedom and the iron chain. Was he locking her up or was he locking her up as a dog?

“I’m not trying to do anything, I just want to see you.”

Arnold’s eyes finally turned into that Clear Lake again. It was as if he could hear the sound of the spring water flowing inside. It was also singing.

Miss Her? Yan Huan touched his arm. Since when did he have such a familiar relationship with this person?

“Mr. Arnold, we don’t really know each other, right?”

Yes, they didn’t really know each other. They didn’t even speak much.

“No, we know each other.” Arnold took another step forward like a young boy who had just met his first love. “We’ve met a few times, right? Last time, we even talked a lot.”

“Really? I don’t remember.” Yan Huan really didn’t remember how many times he had met him. Moreover, the so-called few words they had last time was only because he had cheated her assistant of her phone, he had sent her a message pretending to be her assistant, asking her to go over.

Other than that, there was no other communication between them.

“It’s okay if you don’t remember?” Arnold was still smiling. The water in the Clear Lake was in a mess now.

“I like you.”

His direct declaration of love made Yan Huan extremely embarrassed. This inexplicable liking, where did this liking come from? and she looked into Arnold’s eyes seriously, only feeling that this man’s eyes were somewhat flirtatious. In her heart, she was still thinking about how to escape.

And she had never known that this Arnold was actually a martial arts practitioner. If it was according to what Lu Yi said, she really couldn’t beat him, so if it was a head-on confrontation, she couldn’t beat him.

“I like you.” Arnold thought that Yan Huan didn’t hear it, so he took another step forward and seriously professed his love.

“I don’t like you.” Yan Huan raised his face. He really liked her, and she also directly rejected him. “Mr. Arnold, I’m married, and I have three children.”

“I don’t mind,” Arnold hurriedly said. “I don’t mind if you’re married or if you have children again. Aren’t we allowed to get a divorce? We will have children in the future.”

“But I mind.” Yan Huan interrupted him. “I love my husband and I love my children, so I won’t get a divorce. I can’t get a divorce. Do you understand?”

"I can wait." Arnold was very persistent. He believed that one day, she would fall in love with him.

Yan Huan didn't say anymore. She really felt that the thoughts between herself and Arnold were not on the same level. They were not on the same world. Perhaps it was because of the differences in cultural areas, so he didn't understand.

Yan Huan understood, but he could not make sense of it.

"Are you hungry? I'll bring you some food." Arnold hurriedly put down the things he brought. There were bread, instant noodles, steamed buns, and many bags of snacks.

Yan Huan did not take anything else. She only took a bag of snacks and opened it to eat. She did not know if the steamed buns were drugged, but there were none.

She would not joke about her own life or go on a hunger strike.

She would never do that. Furthermore, she did not understand Arnold at all. She did not know if he was the one who would compromise.

He was not Lu Yi, and not everyone was Lu Yi.

Lu Yi would compromise just because she did not eat a meal.

Therefore, he would agree to anything. Even if the conditions she offered were strange and challenged his bottom line, he would always be the one to compromise in the end.

Chapter 1653: something happened to her

It wasn't because Lu Yi was afraid of her, nor was it because Lu Yi couldn't beat her. It was because he loved her, and he cared about her.

However, the person in front of her kept saying the word 'love', but no one knew what it actually was. So, she didn't reach the final moment. No matter what, she could only do it so that she wouldn't starve to death, she had to conserve her strength. Also, she had to not anger the man in front of her who was unpredictable.

When Arnold saw her eat, he was in a very good mood. He also picked up a bun and ate it.

Then, he remembered something. He took another bun from inside and opened the door of Sun Yuhan's room. Then, he threw a bun directly to him.

"That..." Sun Yuhan hurriedly picked up the bun.

"You, can you not give me another one? I haven't eaten my fill in a long time." How could she still have the face to respect her words? Her stomach was already empty, so what was the point of respecting her words?

As long as she didn't starve to death.

It was just one bun a day. Indeed, she wouldn't starve to death if she didn't eat her fill, but her stomach was still hungry.

Arnold did not even bother with her.

Yan Huan continued to eat her snacks. She turned around and glanced at the steamed bun on the table. She still did not pick it up to eat. She could not eat it, and she was not too hungry.

“Can you let me go?” Yan Huan tried her best to speak in a calm tone as she discussed with Arnold.

“No,” Arnold refused. “You just stay here.”

Yan Huan took the snacks and started eating. She also knew that she had nothing except her clothes. Her bag, her cell phone, everything was gone.

Arnold had taken all of them. Of course, he wouldn't let her call home.

However, she didn't tell anyone when she came out, but she didn't go back. She didn't know what Lu Yi would do?

Perhaps it was really like what Sun Yuhan said. She was indeed a little stupid.

Sun Yuhan was clearly not a good person. She also felt that there might be something fishy going on, but she was too arrogant and thought too highly of herself. She didn't have a peerless centipede, not to mention a single Arnold., she might not be a match for anyone who had some skill.

She raised her head and looked at the sky outside. The sky was gradually turning dark. She took out a packet of snacks from the bag and stuffed it into her mouth. However, it was filled with a bitter taste.

It was very bitter and bitter.

Lu Yi was already very busy and was almost done with his work. However, because of her, he might have to be busy for a very long time. Hence, she felt that she had become a disaster for Lu Yi.

Finally, it was night time. And to be honest, Yan Huan's heart was already in despair. She had no way out, and she had no way out. She did not know how to get out, nor did she know how to contact the people outside.

Arnold was a very smart person. Otherwise, he would not have been able to capture Sun Yuhan for so long without any news from the outside world. Even ye Jianguo, who treated Sun Yuhan as his lifeline., he had never thought of searching for her.

That was only because no one knew that Sun Yuhan was actually here. She was like a dog, chained up by an iron chain.

Yan Huan sat on the small bed. He could feel that the blanket was new. Arnold slept in another room. He locked all the doors and windows before walking into his own room, the moment she entered, Yan Huan's anxious heart relaxed. She laid down and could see the stars from outside the window. Sometimes, the moonlight would also fall in, reminding her of the large open space outside the Liuyuan Garden, she could also see the stars. Of course, at night, she could also see the Moon.

She lay down, but no matter what, she could not fall asleep. The doors of these rooms were locked, including hers. Even if she opened this door, she could not open the one outside, there seemed to be no one here. She looked out from such an inch-wide window.

There was indeed no one here. Of course, it was also a good place to hide.

She sat down and stared blankly outside. She did not know how chaotic the Lu family was.

She had guessed correctly. The Lu family was indeed in chaos. It was still very chaotic.

"I found Yan Huan's car." Lei Qingyi rushed over.

"The car recording device on Yan Huan's car has been removed, so we don't know where she went today. The car was found in an inconspicuous corner, and there are no surveillance cameras there."

Lu Yi stood still, but his face was extremely gloomy.

It was already so late, why wasn't she back yet?

Lei Qingyi was worried. "It's almost 1 pm. It Can't be that she won't be back tonight, right?"

"Oh right," lei qingyi asked Lu Yi, "Think about it again. Have you forgotten something? For example, did Yan Huan mention where she wanted to go, but you didn't let her go? And where did she mention the name of the place?"

Lu Yi shook his head.

Yan Huan had never mentioned this before.

"Something happened to her," Lu Yi said calmly. No, he was already certain that something had happened to Yan Huan. If not, it would be impossible for her to not return even at this time, it was also impossible for her to not even make a phone call.

She clearly knew that he would be worried about her, but there was no news at all. It was not that she was unwilling to give him news, nor did she forget to give him news. It was just that she could not.

Yes, she could not.

When Lei Qingyi heard this, a bad feeling flashed across her heart.

"I checked Yan Huan's last call record. The last call he received was not from anyone else, but Sun Yuhan."

"Sun Yuhan?" Lu Yi narrowed his eyes slightly. "It's Sun Yuhan. Are you right?"

"Yes, no. Is that Sun Yuhan's number?"

Of course, this was what he Yibin did not understand. That was why Sun Yuhan was looking for Yan Huan. What relationship did she have with Yan Huan? The two of them were practically enemies. How could they still be together.

Regardless of the reason for this call, it was indeed a call from Sun Yuhan's phone. It was also Yan Huan's last call. And since this call was recorded., her phone had never rung. Lu Yi had called, but his phone had always been switched off. The switch-off time had started around 1 pm.

Auntie Gu had said that when Yan Huan went out, he said that he didn't need to cook for her anymore, so she didn't say anything else. Of course, Auntie Gu didn't ask either. Right now, even Auntie Gu was blaming herself. She should have asked Yan Huan more., at the very least, she would still have a target to look for.

Chapter 1654: picking a lock

However, Lu Yi did not think so. Yan Huan was not willing to tell him, so naturally, he would not tell anyone else. Even if aunt Gu asked, Yan Huan might just be perfunctory and not tell the truth.

However, what kind of matter could Yan Huan go alone but was unwilling to tell them? Lu Yi did not understand, and the others were even more confused.

As for how Yan Huan would look for him, it seemed that he could only look for one person first.

He took out his cell phone and directly made a series of calls.

Not long after, the call went through.

“I’m looking for ye Jianguo.”

“Who are you?”The nanny asked Lu Yi. “It’s so late at night, why are you calling? The old man is already resting. He won’t pick up the phone at night.”

“I’m Lu Yi. I need to call him if I need anything. Let him pick up the phone.”

Lu Yi’s voice was a little cold, but there was also a trace of impatience that was not hard to hear.

“Mr. Lu, wait a moment.”The nanny of the Ye family naturally knew about Lu Yi. If it was anyone else, they would have hung up immediately, but Lu Yi was different.

After waiting for a while, the phone on the other side finally moved again.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Lu. The old man isn’t picking up. He said that he doesn’t want to hear your voice and doesn’t want to know about the Lu family. Please don’t call again.”

After saying that, the other end of the line had already hung up.

Lu Yi slowly put down his phone as well.

Lei Qingyi was not surprised at all. This was something that ye Jianguo could do. If he said that he wouldn’t pick up, he wouldn’t pick up. Even if they were to call for the entire night, he wouldn’t pick up.

Lu Yi took his clothes and left. He couldn’t sit still and couldn’t wait either.

“To the Ye family.”

Lu Yi pushed Lei Qingyi’s hand away. He had to go today. Ye Jianguo could choose not to pick up their calls. In that case, he would go alone. Yan Huan hadn’t left the house for a long time. He didn’t know where she was now, was she full? was she injured somewhere? Was she suffering somewhere?

He couldn’t bear any of it, and he couldn’t bear for anything to happen to Yan Huan.

Go to the Ye Family? Lei Qingyi knitted her brows into a frown.

“Let’s go. I’ll go with you.” Lei Qingyi couldn’t think of any other way. It seemed that this was the only way. Going to the Ye family, looking for ye Jianguo, and also looking for Sun Yuhan.

As long as they found Sun Yuhan, Yan Huan should be found. However, he had a very bad feeling right now.

If Sun Yuhan was also lost, what should they do? If they lost two at once, it would be even more troublesome. Of course, whether Sun Yuhan was dead or Alive had nothing to do with them. They only cared about Yan Huan. If this lead on Sun Yuhan was broken, then.., where else would they go to find clues about Yan Huan.

When they reached the ye family, the Ye family’s front door was closed, and they couldn’t open the door no matter how hard they tried. In the end, Lei Qingyi directly removed the lock. He was investigating a case, and it was the ye family that was looking for him, he had to be able to find it.

Ye Jianguo walked out from inside with a cold face. He had been woken up from his sleep, and it was obvious that he was too angry. Even his face was red and smoking.

“Who told you to come?” Ye Jianguo sneered. Well, he even picked the lock.

“Lei Qingyi, you don’t want to be the director of the Safety Hall anymore, do you?”

Lei Qingyi put the lock on the table and spread his hands. “I’m sorry, Old Ye. We are investigating a case.” He used to call him Grandpa Ye, but now he directly called him Old Ye.

The old man wouldn’t care anyway.

“Investigating a case?” Ye Jianguo’s face had turned into a horse’s face. His eyes were filled with ruthlessness. “I, Ye Jianguo, abide by the law. I want to see what you can find out.”

“Where’s Sun Yuhan?”

Lu Yi asked. His voice and tone were as if he wanted to Rip Sun Yuhan’s tendons and bones.

“What does it have to do with you where my granddaughter is?”

Ye Jianguo was already quite rude to Lu Yi. He had a granddaughter and a grandson. Right now, the granddaughter was the most important. As for the grandson, he wasn’t his biological child anyway. It didn’t matter whether he wanted it or not.

Right, this was what ye Jianguo was thinking. He was a grandson anyway. It didn’t matter whether he wanted it or not. He didn’t lack a grandson.

“Old Ye, please don’t be angry.” Lei Qingyi quickly pulled Lu Yi’s sleeve. He was afraid that Lu Yi would really anger ye Jianguo, so he quickly lowered his posture.

“It’s our fault for coming here this time. I will compensate you for your lock, but this time, it’s really urgent. After miss sun called Yan Huan today, Yan Huan disappeared. We want to know where Miss Sun is now.”

Ye Jianguo laughed enough, "Oh, he went missing again?" "What does it have to do with My Yuhan? Anyway, it's not like Yan Huan went missing once. Who knows which group of Immortals he offended again? He'll be back soon anyway."

Ye Jianguo said sarcastically, as if Yan Huan's disappearance was a wonderful thing. Lei Qingyi almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

How could there be such a person in this world who liked to sprinkle salt on other people's wounds? and the one who was injured wasn't anyone else, but Lu Yi was his grandson.

Just how vicious was ye Jianguo Now? He could actually say such words. He was stabbing someone's heart in the open and in the dark.

"Let's go." Lu Yi turned around. At this moment, no one knew how tightly he held his hand by his side.

Lei Qingyi understood what Lu Yi meant, but he was still smiling. However, his smile was a little cold. He did not leave any leeway for ye Jianguo. Ye Jianguo had always done this. If anything happened to the ye family in the future., don't come and look for him either.

"This..." he pointed at the lock on the table, "Old Ye can send the bill to us. Perhaps you can give it to Mr. Lu Jin. We can pay ten times the compensation. If Old Ye wants to sue us, then that's fine too. I'll accompany you at any time."

He had an absolute reason to investigate the ye family. Don't forget about the eight billion. If he wanted to investigate, he could do it. Not to mention Sun Yuhan, he could even investigate ye Jianguo.

He didn't investigate because he had saved some face for ye Jianguo. He didn't investigate because of ye Chuji and ye Xinyu. Otherwise, with the Lu family's current financial strength and the ownership of the airport, it wouldn't be difficult to destroy the Ye family

As long as they were willing, there wouldn't be any more ye family in Hai City. At that time, how could ye Jianguo put on airs for them, how could they let Sun Yuhan live the life of a princess.

Chapter 1655: his granddaughter had also gone missing

Ye Jianguo clutched his chest. He had made others suffer, but he had also made himself suffer.

He sat there with a long face. The nanny at the side looked scared, but she didn't dare to say anything.

The more ye Jianguo thought about it, the stranger he felt.

They said that Yu Han had called Yan Huan.

How was that possible?

How could he not know how much his granddaughter hated Yan Huan? He would never believe the phone call. But looking at Lei Qingyi, he wasn't lying.

He knew Lei Qingyi's character. No matter what, she was still an older child. He wouldn't use such nonsense to run around in the middle of the night, he even had to break his lock.

The lock on the table was like a slap to his old face.

He walked to the phone, took the phone, and called Sun Yuhan. As long as Sun Yuhan said she was going to act, he rarely called her. Every time, it was Sun Yuhan who contacted him.

But this time, he did not notice that Sun Yuhan had not contacted him for a long time. This wasn't a big deal. In the past, no matter how busy she was, even if she didn't call him, her assistant would still report to him about her.

But now that Sun Yuhan didn't call him, she didn't say anything. She actually went to look for Yan Huan. This matter didn't seem right, and there was something strange about it.

He called Sun Yuhan's phone, but after a while, he put down the phone in his hand.

Sun Yuhan's phone was switched off. Why would she call Yan Huan.

Then, he called Sun Yuhan's assistant.

"What did you say?"

Ye Jianguo didn't quite believe what he had heard.

"My granddaughter isn't filming?"

"Yes." The assistant also felt strange. "Miss Sun doesn't want to film outside. Moreover, she hasn't participated in any programs for a long time. Where did she get the chance to film outside?"

Ye Jianguo called a few people in a row, but in the end, he found that no one knew Sun Yuhan's whereabouts. Now, not only was Yan Huan missing, but even Sun Yuhan seemed to have gone missing.

Yan Huan, Lu Yi, and Lei Qingyi were looking for Sun Yuhan, but who was he going to find to help him find his granddaughter.

Now That Ye Chuji wasn't around, who was he going to find?

He sat down weakly, his hands on his legs trembling from time to time.

Outside, the night was cold as water.

Yan Huan opened her eyes, but she was still in a daze. She stretched out her hand and habitually searched for her phone, but after searching for a long time, she couldn't find anything.

"Lu Yi, my phone is gone."

She lay on the pillow and called out Lu Yi's name out of habit.

However, no one answered her even after calling out for a long time.

She suddenly thought of something and sat up. In the dark room, only the light from the small window could see the outside world.

She stared blankly at the dark sky outside, but sighed softly.

Then, she sat up, not knowing what to say.

After an unknown amount of time, she pulled open the blanket and wanted to open the door. Just as she had imagined, the door was locked. She really had no way out.

Why did she feel that the possibility of saving herself was almost zero? If she could not save herself, then she could only wait for others to come and save her.

But, would she?

Lu Yi, I'm here, do you know? She reached out and placed her hand on the glass. She was still wondering if she could smash the glass so that she could get out. However, she realized that her imagination was a little too rich, the windows were all sealed, and there was also concrete and steel bars outside.

There was a price to pay for running away. It would be fine if she ran away, but if she couldn't, then she might end up as another Sun Yuhan. She would be treated like a dog and tied up with a chain.

She withdrew her hands and hugged her legs as she sat on the strange bed. She was also breathing in the strange air and fate that even she didn't know.

If she escaped, she would not trust anyone in the future, whether it was Su Muran or Sun Yuhan.

These two women were her bane.

She laid down and pulled up the blanket. In fact, she was not sleepy that night, and she really did not fall asleep. She tossed and turned. In the darkness, her eyes were wide open, it also kept her lucidity.

It was not easy for her to endure until the sunrise outside. She sat up and walked into a small bathroom inside. This was used to open small hotels, so this layout.., it was a lot more convenient. Otherwise, she really could not urinate and defecate everywhere.

And Yan Huan still lived here. She did not know what kind of place Arnold lived in not too long ago. It was worse than pigs and dogs. They ate, drank, and defecated together there, that place was really not a place for people to live.

Fortunately, Sun Yuhan used an excuse to let Arnold find a new place for her to live. Otherwise, if Yan Huan wanted to live there, she might even want to die.

She was a human, she was not a pig or dog.

And when a person, at the very least, they had to have the most basic dignity.

She opened the door of the small washroom. It was not too clean, but it could not be said to be dirty. There was a small window, which was facing from the window in the room, so there was no smell inside.

There was also toothpaste and toothbrushes prepared here. It could be seen that they were newly prepared. There were even skincare products for women.

She thought that Sun Yuhan definitely didn't have these. It could be seen from Sun Yuhan's dry face and her big yellow teeth that were exposed the moment she opened her mouth, she knew that she hadn't brushed her teeth for at least a dozen days.

As for Sun Yuhan, she did not sympathize with her. She had to bear the consequences for whatever reason she sowed. If she had not harbored evil thoughts back then and took eight billion yuan from the airport, people would not have found her.

However, she was good. She pushed all the blame onto Arnold.

In fact, everyone understood in their hearts that no one was a fool. Without Sun Yuhan's help, how could he enter the airport? How could he easily take away so much money without anyone knowing, indeed, it was done without anyone knowing. Moreover, it could be deposited in a bank outside. When the matter was exposed, Sun Yuhan was quick to cut the Gordian knot. She took everything away. Not everyone was willing to suffer a loss. It was really uncomfortable to suffer a loss.

Some people endured it, while others could not endure it no matter what, so they came out to take revenge.

Chapter 1656: it's not easy to be a good person

Therefore, everything that Sun Yuhan had to endure was what she deserved. She couldn't blame anyone else.

As for Arnold, Yan Huan didn't like that man, but compared to Sun Yuhan, this man wasn't as annoying as Sun Yuhan. Although both of them were enemies of the Lu family, they were also annoying.

She washed her face and took some skincare products.

They were not products that she often used, but they were all big international brands. Perhaps they were also commonly used by Sun Yuhan, so Arnold remembered them. He thought that all women liked to use these products, so he bought them for her.

Yan Huan's skincare products were all special and suited for her skin. She did not know how to use them, but she still hesitated whether she should apply them on her face. In the end, she opened the bottle, she poured some and used it on her face, it was better to use something than nothing. She did not want her face to become like Sun Yuhan's in the future. No matter how hard she tried, she could not make it up.

It was not easy for a woman to be young. In fact, it was all dependent on nurturing.

She was just afraid that when she went out in the future, her family's Lu Yi would not recognize her.

When she came out, the sunlight outside shone on her body. It was so bright and warm, but she was still unable to see the sun.

The door rang. It sounded like the lock was turning. After a few mechanical sounds collided, the door opened with a squeak.

Yan Huan turned his head and saw Arnold standing at the door. His dark green eyes were like a Clear Lake. If he did not think about the things he did, he was really a man who would make women fall in love with him.

Yan Huan still remembered the first time he saw him. He stood there and showed off his charm. He was born to do these things. He was born to be a woman.

It was just that no one in this world was born for anyone.

Being born was only for the continuation of life.

"There's food outside." Arnold seemed to be a little cautious when he spoke.

"Can you..."

Yan Huan actually wanted to try and see if he could let her go back.

"No," Arnold refused, "Isn't it good to live with me? I have money, I have a lot of money. Yes, he has money. I have eight billion. Now, it's all stored in a foreign bank. As long as I go over, all the money will be mine. It's also yours. Are You Happy?"

Yan Huan gently touched her red lips. Actually, she wanted to say that the money was no longer there. She had saved some of the money for her children and invested it to earn it back, perhaps a few years later, she would earn back the Lu family.

However, she didn't say that it was good to have a dream sometimes. Moreover, she was also a little afraid. A person would always have something to support him. If all these things were gone, it was possible that his mental world would collapse.

At that time, no one would know what he would do?

Yan Huan did not reject him. She also followed him out. Arnold was clearly in a very good mood. Although it was less than a day, Yan Huan discovered it.

As long as she was obedient, Arnold's temper would be very good. And if she were to reject him slightly, it would seem that his mental state would become somewhat abnormal.

There was already a table full of breakfast on the table. They were all bought from outside and had everything.

There were Chinese steamed buns, tofu pudding, fried dough sticks, western-style milk, and sandwiches.

Yan Huan walked over and sat down. She had already taken a steamed bun and started eating it. When she held it in her hand, it was still warm, so of course, it was delicious.

Because she didn't eat it at night, her stomach was really hungry now. Only then did she feel that this steamed bun was really quite delicious.

As for whether the steamed bun had been poisoned, she didn't think about it anymore.

She ate one and picked up another after she finished eating. However, she didn't like to eat western-style sandwiches and drink milk. She liked to eat Chinese food in the morning because Lu Yi also liked to eat it.

When she thought of Lu Yi, she took a bite of the steamed bun and started to eat slowly.

I must eat and sleep. Believe me, I will definitely go out.

Yan Huan did not feel much panic or fear regarding her current situation. In fact, compared to the previous two times, she was much better this time. The first time, she was thrown into Haijiang, the water flowed to Chen Village, where she suffered from the cold and hunger. The second time, she was injected with drugs, and she was almost infected with AIDS. This time, she had food and drink, as well as a bed to sleep on, other than not being able to go out, she had never experienced any hardship.

And she had a feeling that as long as she followed this man's wishes, perhaps she would be fine, and she would find a way out.

Another door opened, and Yan Huan heard the sound of iron chains.

One after another, they rose, fell, fell, and Rose. Then, just like that, they clanged against the ground with a regular sound.

Arnold directly picked up a steamed bun and threw it over. Sun Yuhan wanted to catch it, but she didn't. The steamed bun also fell to the ground. What Respect did Sun Yuhan have now, she had even lived in a place like a pig's nest. Not to mention that the steamed bun had fallen to the ground, even if someone stepped on it, it didn't matter.

She squatted down and hurriedly picked up the bun, stuffing it into her mouth. As she ate, she looked at the table. Now, she did not mention anything about the miss of the ye family, or the fact that she was worth more than a hundred million, what celebrity? She was just a prisoner, and a prisoner who could not eat her fill.

Yan Huan did not like Sun Yuhan, and he even hated her very much. As for Sun Yuhan and Su Muran, even if they died in front of her, she would not blink. She just looked at Sun Yuhan like this.

To be honest, she would sympathize with anyone.

However, before she understood Arnold's personality, she would not use her sympathy too much, because her sympathy might cause her to die.

It was not easy to be a good person.

She picked up a bun again and did not pick anything. It was good as long as she could eat until she was full. Moreover, she had to eat until she was very full, because no one knew where their next meal would be.

"Can you give me another one?" Sun Yuhan ate another bun, but her stomach was still hungry. How could her stomach not be hungry? She ate so little in a day, and she had already become skin and bones, and now, she did not want to become skin and bones. She just wanted to eat until she was full.

Arnold acted as if he could not hear her. He ate all the food on the table. He did not speak, and neither did Yan Huan

Sun Yuhan suddenly glared at Yan Huan with hatred.

"Yan Huan, you will die a horrible death."

Yan Huan took a bite of the steamed bun and paused for a moment. She thought that she would definitely die later than Sun Yuhan. She had never done anything outrageous, but Sun Yuhan was different. Perhaps she had forgotten everything that she had done.

Chapter 1657: you betrayed me

There was also the fact that she was the victim, and she was the innocent one. If it weren't for Sun Yuhan, she would still be in her own home, loved by her husband, protected by her husband, and live like a princess every day, she didn't even need to twist a bottle cap, but it was because of her that she came here. She didn't know when she could go home, and she had to face an uncertain man and a bound Sun Yuhan every day.

And the trace of sympathy she had for Sun Yuhan just now was completely gone because of her words.

A pitiful person must have some detestable points. It could be completely proved by a woman called Sun Yuhan.

Yan Huan drank another bowl of tofu pudding, and his stomach was already full.

She sat there without moving, waiting for what Arnold would make her do later.

Arnold grinned at her. "So you like to eat this?" He seemed to know something happy, and he felt a little excited.

"Yes." Yan Huan nodded. "I like to eat."

"Okay, I got it." Arnold also took a steamed bun and stuffed it into his mouth. Although his actions were a little rude now, it had to be said that a man who was deliberately raised.., there was a fatal attraction all over his body, and this attraction was all because of a woman.

She looked at Arnold for a long time, but her eyes did not show any emotion, and her heart was as calm as water.

"Why can you look directly into my eyes?" Arnold asked Yan Huan.

"Your eyes are very beautiful."

This was what Yan Huan said from the bottom of his heart. Although she said that she did not like this color of pupils, she had to say that Arnold's eyes were indeed very beautiful, just like what Zhu Meina said, they were like green gemstones.

At this moment, Arnold's eyes were refracting light from time to time. It felt like there was something flowing inside the gemstones.

Yan Huan actually only saw the flow of light inside, but that was all. She still did not change much.

"Can't you look straight into your eyes?" Yan Huan asked Arnold curiously again. She knew that this Arnold was waiting for her answer.

But she didn't understand. What did he mean by asking this question?

Why couldn't he look straight into her eyes?

Why couldn't he look straight into her eyes?

"You might not know?" Arnold didn't know how to explain it to her. There was a feeling that only those who had experienced it before would know. And he didn't have such a feeling, so how could he explain it to her.

"I recognize you." Suddenly, he placed his hand on the table and leaned forward a little.

"Number 79."

Yan Huan was a little confused. Number 79, what number 79?

"That day, you wore a blue mask and your eyes were exposed. These are my favorite black eyes. I like black," Arnold continued as if he was recalling something.

"I like black. I always thought that I was destined to live in the dark, so I learned Chinese. I wanted to drown in your hair color and your eyes."

"That's why I want an Easterner to buy me."

"They're all obsessed with me. They cheer for me, and they do everything for me. It wasn't until I saw you that I couldn't see anything amazing in your eyes. I wanted to make you notice what's in My Eyes, but you didn't seem to understand."

"After I left that place, I recognized you at first sight, because you have the most beautiful eyes."

After Arnold finished speaking, Yan Huan finally understood what he meant by number 79. Back then, she had used the number 79 when she entered the trade fair.

She did not expect that there would still be people who recognized her even though she was dressed like that.

"I've always wanted to attract your attention. Arnold kept on talking, but I've never been in your eyes. I want to fill your eyes with my shadow one day, just like how I'm only looking at you now."

"I'm married." Yan Huan was grateful for his attention. He liked her, but gratitude was also just gratitude. She would rather not have such affection.

"I can wait." Arnold was very stubborn. There was a saying in China, "A fine city is caused by a fine stone." I believe I can definitely wait.

Yan Huan stood up. "I want to go and rest, can I?"

She did not want to talk about these things with him anymore.

Some people might be affected by his fine city and would also be affected by a fine city. However, Yan Huan would not be affected because Yan Huan was not someone else. She was Yan Huan. Lu Yi was the dream that she had been obsessed with for two lifetimes. He was the man that she had saved with her life.

Even if it were to happen again, she would still use her own flesh and blood to help him get rid of all the disasters.

The place where she had been persistent for two lifetimes was here, so she would not change, nor was she willing to change.

Arnold was a little disappointed, but he did not stop Yan Huan from going back. He still had results today. At the very least, he would let her know that he had been paying attention to her for a long time.

Yan Huan closed the door, then walked straight to the small bed and sat down. He also pulled open the blanket. She did not know when she would be able to get out of such a cage.

And she missed Lu Yi because she missed her three children.

Did the three children look for their mother? Did they miss their mother

Outside, Arnold had tidied up the things on the table. Sun Yuhan could not help but swallow her saliva. Her stomach also growled

“You’re going to throw it away. Why Don’t You Give It to me? Can you give it to me? I’m begging you.”

Sun Yuhan was so hungry that she couldn’t take it anymore. She could treat her like a dog, but could she give her a handout?

Arnold picked up all the things on the table, opened the door, and walked out. When he returned, his hands were empty again.

“Why?” Sun Yuhan almost bit her teeth off. Why, yes. Why? Why did he treat her like this. He raised her like a dog. He treated Yan Huan like a god, and he even provided her with good food and drinks. However, she could only get a bun a day.

She had done so many things for him. She would buy him whatever he wanted and obey him in everything. However, why did he treat her like this? She was not convinced. She was not convinced. She was not convinced at all.

“Everything we did, you pushed it all on me.”

“Then you also washed my things and ran away.” Sun Yuhan’s voice rose. She did not feel that she was in the wrong. He was the one who wronged her first. She was the one who made such a decision. What was wrong with her.

“You betrayed me.” Arnold suddenly grabbed the iron chain and smashed it hard on the ground. “You betrayed me and turned me into a beggar.”

“What right do you have to compare with her? She is my sunshine and she is my atonement. In front of her, I am not a monster. But in front of you, I am a monster, a monster that you wish to die for.”

Chapter 1658: -uncle is back

When Sun Yuhan saw Arnold's hysterical look, she was afraid. She kept retreating, and in the end, she almost crawled. She was really afraid that Arnold would strangle her to death with that iron chain, he also used this iron chain to whip her.

She was afraid, and she was really afraid.

If she had known earlier, she would not have angered this man. His current appearance was really too terrifying.

And Now, Sun Yuhan could not even shout for help.

Yan Huan, who was inside, also heard the sounds from outside. The soundproofing of this house was really too poor. It was so bad that the entire room seemed to be singing the live version. She heard everything.

Yan Huan hugged her leg. It would be a lie to say that she was not afraid. It was as if someone had stimulated Arnold's nerves. It was as if he could go crazy at any moment.

Should she give it a try and hit him again to see if she could put him down? At that time, she would be able to escape.

However, she really did not guarantee that she would be able to put him down. Perhaps other people did not fall, but her own head was bleeding. She really could not bear the consequences of failure.

As for what the consequences would be, forgive her, she really did not know.

And right now, she could do nothing but stay in this palm-sized place. She could only see the blue sky outside through the window. Actually, it was still alright. There was still a chance that someone else might have shown it to her one day, what she saw was just misfortune. It was still a floor full of bricks.

When it was noon, the door outside rang again. Yan Huan pulled the blanket aside. She turned around and saw Arnold standing at the door, but he did not take a step forward.

"Lunch is ready."

As he said that, he also followed him out.

Yan Huan let out a light sigh of relief. She also clutched onto the clothes on her body. She was actually really afraid that he would do something to her. Perhaps in this era, the relationship between men and women was already quite chaotic, moreover, men and women treated these things as if they were normal meals. If they didn't suit their tastes, they would switch to another one.

However, she wasn't like that. She had completely accepted such things.

She didn't know how much longer she could hold on, nor did she know how much calmer she could be.

"Lu Yi, what do you think I should do?"

She looked at the blue sky outside again. It seemed like the sky was starting to overcast.

Was it going to rain soon?

When she went out, there was a lot of food on the table. They were all bought. The kitchen here could not be opened because there was nothing inside. There was no stove, no bowl, and no refrigerator, so they could only eat the things they bought.

Yan Huan walked over. There was a lot of food on the table. There were noodles, rice, and hamburgers.

Yan Huan took a plate of fried rice from inside and started eating. As she ate, she took a bottle of water to drink. There was no fire here, so naturally, there was no hot water, so she just drank some bottled mineral water.

She still had mineral water to drink, so Sun Yuhan could only drink tap water. In the room she was staying in now, there were several boxes of bottled water. When she wanted to drink, she would take it and drink it herself.

Sun Yuhan did not come out, and her door was not closed. Arnold only gave her a little food a day, and he would definitely not give her any more.

Yan Huan really did not understand. A person like Arnold would never be sincere to a person.

When he was dating Sun Yuhan, he almost always had his foot in several boats. If he was sincere to a woman, Yan Huan believed that the prodigal son would turn back, but it might not happen to this man.

"I'm done eating." Yan Huan stood up. "Also, can I go back?"

Arnold smiled at her as if he was very happy. He was also very innocent. There were traces of laughter in his pair of green eyes. However, Yan Huan could not help but recall the hysterical look he sometimes had, there was still some unspeakable fear spreading.

Yan Huan went straight into the room and took out a bottle of mineral water from the corner of the room. She opened the cap of the bottle and took the bottle and drank it one mouthful at a time.

The stir-fried noodles were not delicious and it was also a little salty. Therefore, she only felt a little thirsty now.

She sat in front of the window and stared at the blue sky outside. Looking from here, it was a vast world outside. However, in her place, it was just a small window in front of her.

She was locked in this small window, so she could see the sun, but she could not go out.

After she finished drinking a bottle of water, she tightened the bottle cap again and threw it out of the window. This was a good place to throw rubbish. If she did not throw it down, she would throw it there. This room was very small, so she could throw it there for a few more days, she would really not even have the space to lift her feet.

The bottle fell down with a clang. Yan Huan thought that she might be able to hear this kind of sound in a few days.

It was as quiet as a haunted house. There was a crazy ghost and a selfish ghost outside.

She raised her head and looked at the sky outside, which was almost the size of a palm. It was the only way she could smell some fresh air.

In the private airport of the Ye family in Hai City, a plane had already stopped. The passengers inside also got off the plane one by one. Finally, a middle-aged man came out. The middle-aged man's hair was a little gray, however, his face was calm and there was no smile. His dark eyes hid his worldly wisdom and shrewdness.

He walked out in large strides. Although he was middle-aged, his body and spirit were not inferior to a young man.

This person was none other than Ye Chuji, who had just returned. Although his mental state was still good, it could not be denied that he still carried a travel-worn scent.

He stopped and roughly surveyed his surroundings.

Yes, the airport did not seem to have changed much. Everything was running according to its own trajectory. Every department had their own duties. It was like a chain, one chain locking down the other.

He also let out a sigh of relief. What he was most afraid of was not anything else but the collapse of the airport.

However, he shook his head and took out his phone. He turned it on. He had gone out once, but it had been a waste of time. He had searched every place there and asked many people, even the news of the reward was released. He waited there for two whole months for the news, but in the end, he didn't get anything.

During that time, that kid came once and asked him to wait. Fine, he waited. But he didn't see anyone. Was he playing with him?

He placed his phone by his ear and made a call to his chauffeur. At that moment, the chauffeur, who was so bored that he dozed off, was shocked. He quickly grabbed his clothes and put them on.

Only then did he hurriedly drive over.

When Ye Chuji sat in the car, he finally felt relaxed.

Chapter 1659: there was an accident at the airport

"Has anything happened recently?"

Ye Chuji asked the driver. In fact, he was so tired that he wanted to fall asleep.

"No, everything is quite normal," the driver replied as he drove. "It's just that the Lu family seems to have intervened at the airport."

The driver actually didn't know much. He had only heard about it from others, but what he said was actually very tactful. After all, what he heard from others was much more unpleasant than what he said.

For example, the Lu family took advantage of Ye Chuji's absence to make a move on the airport. For example, Ye Chuji put the airport under his sister's name, but the other party had bad intentions. For example, the Lu family seemed to be in the limelight recently, although the Lu family was low-key, some things could still be heard by others.

Ye Chuji frowned. He didn't really believe what the driver said. No, the driver might be telling the truth, but he absolutely didn't believe that the Lu family would make a move on the airport.

He had already told Lu Yi that he would give the airport to the three children. He didn't want his hard work to be in vain. In the end, he would give it all to a person with another surname. As for Ye Xinyu, he wasn't someone who knew how to do business, but.., lu Yi refused.

He knew what kind of character Lu Yi had. He also knew what kind of character the people from the Lu family were.

The Lu family was not the Su family.

The SU family could do such a thing, but the Lu family would never do such a thing.

No matter how big or fat the airport was, the Lu family would never swallow it. Besides, the Lu family already had a lot of income from the airport. It was impossible for their military and political family to hold onto the airport.

Others might be shocked and afraid when they heard the news, but ye Chuji would not. It was precisely because he understood and also because he believed it.

The driver saw that ye Chuji did not mention anything about the airport, so he did not bring up this topic. Whether it was true or not, and whether it was just groundless speculation, Ye Chuji would make his own judgment.

In fact, he did not really believe that the Lu family would take advantage of ye Chuji's absence to occupy the airport.

"Mr. Ye, where are We Going?"

The driver asked ye Chuji. He felt that the most important thing for ye Chuji right now was to rest. Why did he feel that he was very tired.

Go. Ye Chuji opened his eyes. Yes, go where.

"Go to the old man's place."

No matter what, he was still his father. He wanted to go over and take a look. However, he felt that even if he went out for two years, ye Jianguo would still be living well, not to mention two months, however, he might have forgotten all about his son.

"Okay, I understand, Mr. Ye."

The driver directly sent ye Chuji to ye Jianguo's residence.

"Why, are you willing to come back?"

When ye Jianguo saw ye Chuji, he did not give him any good face. He could not give him any good face, and Ye Chuji could not give him any good face either. Right now, there was only this blood relationship between them. He was different from ye Shuyun, ye Shuyun owed the ye family everything, and it was up to her to decide whether she wanted to acknowledge her family or not. However, he could not.

With this blood relationship, even if he died, he would still be a member of the Ye family.

“Go to Lei Qingyi’s place. Yuha has gone missing. You have to bring her back to me.”

Ye Jianguo’s face and eyes were gloomy at this moment. He only thought of Sun Yuhan and only wanted to find her. However, Ye Chuji wanted to sneer in his heart. What happened? A granddaughter was lost.., it was as if he had lost his life, but his biological grandson was lost. How could he be so ambitious.

They knew very well why his Xinyu was unwilling to stay at home. If anything happened to that child, he would definitely strangle Sun Yuhan to death. It was also to let ye Jianguo experience what pain was.

He walked out with big strides. Of course, there was no need to ask anything. He went to Lei Qingyi’s place. He also wanted to know what Stupid Thing Sun Yuhan had done.

When the driver saw ye Chuji come over, he hurriedly opened the car door

Ye Chuji also followed and sat in the car.

“Go to the Safety Hall.”

Ye Chuji said to the driver, then closed his eyes. He hadn’t recovered from the jet lag, so he was extremely sleepy now. He also wanted to have a good sleep. However, it seemed that the ye family couldn’t do without him.., ye Jianguo wouldn’t be happy if he didn’t torture him for a day, right?

After an unknown amount of time, Ye Chuji felt that he had only narrowed his eyes for a moment before he heard the driver’s voice.

“Okay, I got it.”Ye Chuji sat up and patted his head again. He always felt a little dizzy and his mind wasn’t very clear.

He got out of the car and walked in.

“Director Lei, someone is looking for you.”

Lei Qingyi heard someone looking for him when he sat down.

“Okay, let them in.”

Lei Qingyi scratched his hair. He felt like his hair was standing up. Why was it standing up? It was because he was in a hurry.

He hadn’t had a good rest for a few days, and Lu Yi was even more so.

The door outside opened. When Lei Qingyi saw the person standing outside, he was still shocked.

“Uncle, you’re back.”

“Yeah, I just got off the plane.”Ye Chuji’s expression wasn’t too good either. He was definitely on par with Lei Qingyi.

Lei Qingyi was black, while ye Chuji was white.

Ye Chuji sat down as if his throat was stuck together.

“Qingyi, is there any water?”

He hadn't stopped since he got off the plane. He hadn't even taken a sip of water, let alone eating or resting. Now, he could feel smoke coming out of his throat.

“Yes, there is. Uncle, wait a moment.” Lei Qingyi quickly found a disposable cup and poured a cup of water for ye Chuji, then placed it in front of Ye Chuji.

Ye Chuji took the cup and drank it in one gulp, but he was still very thirsty. Lei Qingyi poured three cups for him in a row, which made ye Chuji's throat feel much better.

He breathed out gently. He really felt that these days were too difficult. He was tired like a dog every day. What was it for?

“Sun Yuhan went missing, didn't she?” Ye Chuji put down the cup and asked Lei Qingyi.

“Where did uncle hear about it?” Lei Qingyi was surprised. How did ye Chuji know about Sun Yuhan the moment he got off the plane? He had only just found out about Sun Yuhan's disappearance, it was impossible for anyone outside to know about it.

Of course, there was only one person who knew about it, and that was ye Jianguo.

“I went to her grandfather's place.”

Ye Chuji did not say it out loud, but this sentence was enough.

Lei Qingyi could not laugh. This was called asking for trouble. Didn't she say that her granddaughter did not go missing and did not need anyone's help? She even chased them out.

Chapter 1660: was out of kindness

This was the retribution for harming others. Of course, they weren't looking for someone else, but Yan Huan. As for Sun Yuhan, what did she have to do with them?

Ye Jianguo couldn't bring himself to do so. He couldn't find her, so he pushed ye Chuji up.

“Why did you lose her?” Ye Chuji asked again. Rather than saying that she lost her, Ye Chuji felt that she might not have returned.

“Are we still not sure if it was lost or not?” Lei Qingyi did not find anything anyway. “We only know that Yan Huan received a call a few days ago. After he went out, he did not return.”

Ye Chuji's brows were in a mess. They were talking about Sun Yuhan. Why did they bring up Yan Huan again? Also, what was Lei Qingyi talking about? Could it be that Yan Huan had gone missing as well?

Lei Qingyi knew that ye Chuji did not understand. Perhaps many people did not understand. They would not equate Yan Huan and Sun Yuhan. The two of them might be equals for the rest of their lives. It was impossible for them to be related.

“That phone call was made by Sun Yuhan.”

“What does she want to do now?” Ye Chuji suddenly slammed the table. Did she not harm our ye family enough? Did she stretch her hand too far? Did she dare to reach out to Yan Huan? Was Yan Huan’s hand something that she could reach out to?

“There’s one more thing,” Lei Qingyi didn’t know how to explain it to Ye Chuji. In fact, it would have been better if he didn’t say anything, but if he did, he was afraid ye Chuji wouldn’t be able to stand this kind of plot.

“Uncle placed the airport under my aunt’s name.”

Lei Qingyi asked tentatively. Even though they had already gotten the answer from Xia Xing, they still had to ask again. Was It True? Was it true.

“You all know,” Ye Chuji didn’t deny it, “I don’t know how long I’m going to be away for. I’m afraid Sun Yuhan might pull some kind of trick, so I placed the ownership of the airport under Shu Yun’s name.”

As long as the airport was in the Lu family’s hands, Sun Yuhan could forget about the airport.

“But you almost destroyed the Lu family, if not...”

Of course, Lei Qingyi didn’t dare say that either.

“Did something happen?” Ye Chuji knew there was a hidden meaning in lei qingyi’s words.

“Uncle, you can ask Mr. Xia Xia. He knows the situation the best. Also,” Lei Qingyi stood up and placed her hand on the table, “Uncle, don’t worry. We will look into Sun Yuhan’s case.”

After all, it involved Yan Huan.

No one cared whether Sun Yuhan was dead or alive, but Yan Huan couldn’t.

Ye Chuji walked out from Lei Qingyi’s office. The more he thought about it, the more he felt something was wrong. Wasn’t Xia Xing one of the airport’s top executives and his right-hand man? Why would lei qingyi know Xia Xing’s name.

He took out his phone and dialed Xia Xing’s number.

“CEO Ye, is that you?”

When Xia Xing received ye Chuji’s call, her voice was filled with excitement. “CEO Ye, you’re back, aren’t you?”

“It’s me,” ye Chuji returned to his car. “I just got off the plane, is there a problem at the airport?”

On the other side, Xinghe didn’t say a word for a long time. She didn’t know what to say or what to say.

“I’ll be there in a bit. Think about it carefully, what do you have to say to me?”

Ye Chuji asked the chauffeur to take him back to the airport. He hadn’t even had a good meal that day, and he didn’t stop to rest either.

This time, Ye Chuji had to make things clear. Otherwise, he might not even be able to sleep.

Not long after, he arrived at the airport. When he entered, he realized that the staff inside looked at him as if they had seen a ghost. Ye Chuji's expression was not too good. What was going on.., he had only been out for less than two months, and they did not recognize him. Or rather, how ugly was he.

Ye Chuji's expression was not good, and the others were also afraid. They did not even dare to look at him, let alone greet him.

Ye Chuji walked into his office and found that the office seemed to have been used by someone. Everything was put aside, and there was a cup on the table. Of course, there was also a photo, he brought the photo over. There were three children in the photo. Two of them looked exactly the same, and there was a pretty little girl.

At that moment, the three children from the Lu family.

Ye Chuji finally remembered what the driver had said. The airport had been taken over by the Lu family, and his heart was still clear. Of course, he still believed that the Lu family wouldn't have any designs on the airport.

When Xinghe walked in, Ye Chuji sighed in relief when he saw her.

"Mr. Ye, you're finally back." If he didn't come back, he wouldn't know what to do?

"Who's Here?"

Ye Chuji put down the photo in his hand. He already knew the answer, but he wanted to make sure.

"It's Mr. Lu Jin," Xinghe answered. "But Mr. Lu doesn't like it, he's always thinking about going home."

This was the most irresponsible person in charge that Xinghe had ever met. Lu Jin was a soldier, so he could train soldiers, but when it came to business, he had to deal with a pile of information every day. Honestly.., he was really annoyed every day. Lu Jin probably didn't expect this to be so difficult. Therefore, when Ye Shuyun kicked him over, he agreed without a second thought.

However, after he arrived, he felt that he had been cheated by Ye Shuyun.

This was not something that a human could do. He looked at a pile of numbers every day. Although it was arranged by others, it still made him dizzy. Once he arrived here, he began to have a headache. As long as he returned home.., he would be fine immediately.

Therefore, Lu Jin only came once every few days. He was still at home with his grandson in peace. He felt that if he was asked to do this, he might as well teach the three children from now on. He would stand in a military posture, walk in a straight line, and then salute.

Ye Chuji sat down and looked at the photos of the three children on the table. He thought that if he were Lu Jin, he would also make the same choice as Lu Jin.

They were already so old and were about to retire. They just wanted to stay at home to accompany their grandson. Who wouldn't want to accompany their grandson every day, playing chess, drinking tea, fishing, and so on, instead of being old, they still had to sit here for an entire day. There wasn't even a single person who cared about them. When they got sick, they couldn't even eat an apple. He was about the same age as Lu Jin. They both had an old man on top and a son on the bottom, but how could there be so much difference.

Look at Lu Jin. He was the grandfather of three grandsons, and that little brat of his was still hiding somewhere. He even wanted his father to look for him.
