

Chapter 1711: unable to wake up

And she was right. The beds in the Lei family were custom-made with extra-long sizes, just like Lei Qingyi himself. Even his clothes and shoes were custom-made because on the market., it was almost impossible to find his size. Yi Ling specially found a tailor to make clothes for Lei Qing for the four seasons every year. Yan Huan also found a foreign company that specialized in making handmade leather shoes, the shoes they were wearing now were all custom-made by that factory. Even the shoes of Xun and Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were custom-made. Although they were more expensive than the shoes outside, there were also benefits to being expensive, for example, the shoes that the children wore were very comfortable with their small feet. They could run and jump without feeling uncomfortable.

The three children were already used to wearing these shoes. Ever since they could walk, Yan Huan had custom-made shoes for them, and they had been wearing them all the way until now. In their first year, they had to custom-make many pairs of shoes, this was because they had grown up too quickly. From last year to this year, they would not be able to wear them anymore. Xun Xun was really a little better, but Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang would appear a little taller almost every year, she was already half a head taller than Xunxun, but now she was a head taller.

Of course, they were also about a head taller than the other children in the kindergarten, so Xunxun couldn't be blamed for being too short. So what if she didn't Grow? In fact, her growth rate was very normal, it was just that Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were growing too fast.

Lei Qingyi fell asleep as soon as she put her head on the pillow. But a moment later, he opened his eyes again. Auntie Gu, I've been thinking about eating Yan Huan's fried noodles on the way here.

"I'll tell Miss Yan. Auntie Gu promised Lei Qingyi, and she knows that as long as Yan Huan knows, he will definitely agree."

Lei Qing really fell asleep because he had already started snoring. The sound was really loud.

Auntie Gu walked over and covered lei qingyi with the blanket. Only then did she come out. She also wanted to tell Yan Huan that lei qingyi wanted to eat fried noodles.

"He's Here?"

Yan Huan was surprised. Why was Lei Qingyi Here? was the case closed? Had he been found? But why hadn't she heard about it from Lu Yi.

"Where is he now?" Yan Huan looked around. "Why isn't he here?"

"He's tired. He's in the guest room," Auntie Gu said as she pointed to the guest room.

"He also said that he wanted to eat Miss Yan's fried noodles."

Auntie Gu couldn't help but smile. "I think he probably came here to eat fried noodles. Miss Yan's fried noodles are so delicious, and Mr. Lei likes them very much. He eats a few more bowls every time."

Of course, Auntie Gu knew this because she had sent lei qingyi and the others several meals. Every time lei qingyi saw fried noodles, her eyes would light up. Of course, she also ate a lot.

“Alright, I got it.” Yan Huan thought about what he was going to eat tonight.

It couldn’t just be fried noodles, right? Moreover, Lei Wangyi’s appetite was so big. He had to let him eat his fill first. To be honest, making lei qingyi’s meal was enough to cook for a whole family.

Auntie Gu looked at the time. She had to go and prepare. She had to go to the field to bring back some vegetables and some eggs.

Yan Huan opened the door softly. The room was a little dark and there was a man sleeping on the bed. It was Lu Yi.

Lu Yi was always busy. Sometimes, Yan Huan felt that he didn’t need to rest. This time, he was like an ordinary person. He fell asleep almost immediately. Thinking about it, no one was too.., everyone was tired. Of course, it was the same for Lu Yi. It was impossible for him to have unlimited energy. He was just an ordinary person, and he also needed to rest.

Yan Huan walked over and pulled the blanket up a little. Lu Yi’s sleeping posture was very good. He lay flat and crossed his hands in front of his chest.

Of course, he did not snore. His breathing was very steady, and he was in a deep sleep.

When Yan Huan stood up and was about to leave, Lu Yi opened his eyes.

“What’s Wrong?” He gently exhaled. He clearly felt that he was still very tired. It was not easy to do something that required a lot of brain cells. Of course, it was tiring enough.

“Lei Qingyi is here.” Yan Huan rested his head on Lu Yi’s chest. “Maybe he has something to ask you and came over to eat. You can sleep for a while. When the meal is ready, I will come over and call you.”

“Okay.” Lu Yi gently stroked Yan Huan’s hair again. He closed his eyes very quickly and fell asleep again.

Yan Huan did not want to disturb him because she realized that Lu Yi was really very light-sleeper. No matter how soundly he slept, the sound of her pushing the door and the sound of her footsteps could wake him up.

Gently, she closed the door again and stayed outside instead of coming in. She wanted him to have a good sleep. It would be best if he did not have to go over the next day. He could even rest for another day.

She looked at the time, it was already around four o’clock. There were still two hours left for dinner at six. There was definitely enough time.

She walked into the kitchen and put on an apron for herself. Only then did she open the refrigerator and take out the meat.

Lu Yi liked fried meatballs. Auntie Gu had said that Lei Qingyi also liked them. Then, this fried meatball must be made today. If it was not for this fried meatball, it would not be considered a one-time meal for them, it was a satisfying dinner.

When Auntie Gu came back, she heard clanking sounds coming from the kitchen. She knew that Yan Huan was busy in the kitchen.

Auntie Gu took the vegetables that she had just picked from the ground and brought them to the kitchen. Then, she picked up all the vegetables and washed them.

Yan Huan made the meatballs and fried noodles. The pot at home wasn't big enough. For Lei Qingyi's terrifying appetite, she fried a few pots of noodles and cooked two soups.

Although Lei Qingyi only said that she wanted to eat fried noodles, Yan Huan did not only cook a lot of noodles, but he also made a lot of vegetables. They were all non-polluted vegetables grown in his home, he also picked the most tender part, unlike the ones sold outside. He did not want to throw away the old leaves of the vegetables. The vegetables he cooked were also hard and very chewy, but the taste of the vegetables was gone.

Auntie Gu knocked on the door. She could still hear Lei Qingyi's snoring, which sounded like thunder. Fortunately, it was Lei Qingyi. Even his snoring was louder than the average person's.

Auntie Gu really didn't want to wake him up.

He slept so soundly. Sigh, he was so pitiful. He hadn't slept well for days and nights. Yes, he hadn't slept for days and nights. He was angry, therefore, Lei Qingyi was holding in some anger in her chest.

Chapter 1712: Could be found?

Auntie Gu placed her hand on the door and knocked. However, the sound of her knocking was so loud that Lei Qingyi refused to wake up Auntie Gu had no choice. What if she couldn't wake him up?

It just so happened that Lu Yi had woken up. His spirit was much better than when he first came back. Of course, he had cleaned himself up. With a clean shirt on, he looked like a cold and noble young master no matter how one looked at him, and he was a noble young master to begin with.

"You can't Wake Me Up?"

Lu Yi stood up and placed the laptop on his lap on the table. Bai Zhi, who was at the side, was also very curious about Lu Yi's laptop

It was light and had many functions. Most importantly, as long as the laptop was charged once, it could be used directly for at least 24 hours. That was the most attractive thing about it. It had such a long standby time.

It was probably what every computer enthusiast wanted.

Lu Yi opened the door and saw Lei qingyi sprawled on the bed. The blanket was also twisted and was about to fall to the ground. His entire body was about to fall as well. There was more.., it was the sound of snoring again. It was really as loud as thunder. Fortunately, the soundproofing in the garden was pretty good. Otherwise, no one would be able to sleep anymore.

He walked over and pulled the quilt up from the bed. Then, he raised his foot and kicked Lei Qingyi's butt.

"Get up and eat."

Lei Qingyi touched his butt. The snoring sound was also gone, and it became the normal sound of breathing,

"Can you not kick me?" He sat up and was really sleepy. "Is this the only trick you've used since you were young? Can we change it?"

He yawned again. He was so sleepy that he wanted to sleep for three days and three nights. This was no longer the same as when he was young. Now, he felt that he was old. He was really old.

In the past, even if he endured a week like this, he would not be so sleepy, let alone three days. Why did he suddenly feel like he could not recover.

Also, Lu Yi was really like this when he was young. It wasn't a big deal to be kicked in the butt, but he was already in his forties now. It was best not to do this anymore. It was really embarrassing.

He grabbed his hair and said, "Lend me a few of your clothes. I need to take a shower, but I didn't bring any clothes."

Lu Yi went out and brought a few more clothes, from his underwear to his coat to his pants.

"If you haven't worn them before, put them back on yourself. You Don't have to return them."

"Thank You Then." Lei Qingyi took the clothes and went into the bathroom. Although he was taller than Lu Yi, he could still wear Lu Yi's clothes and the size of his pants. It might be shorter.., however, he couldn't be too silly. There was no way an adult could wear children's clothes.

When he finished showering and came out barefoot, there was already a table full of dishes on the table. His favorite fried noodles were also there.

He quickly walked over and pulled out a chair to sit down. When others ate, they would use bowls. However, Lei Qingyi's bowl was not a bowl, but a large basin.

Yan Huan pointed at a large portion of fried noodles. "This is yours. You're in charge of finishing it."

"No problem." Lei Qingyi's eyes were so bright that they were piercing.

It was just a portion of fried noodles. Of course, he could finish it. He had not eaten anything for almost a day.

Very quickly, Lei Qingyi gave them a performance. What did it mean to eat like a pig? This was simply a speed that others could not keep up with. Yan Huan had only eaten a few pieces of fried noodles in his small bowl, lei Qingyi had already stuffed half of the bowl into his stomach. Even so, he still looked as if he had exhausted all of his aftertaste. Of course, he did not force himself to eat. He was really not full yet, therefore, he still had to continue stuffing his stomach.

He was currently hungry, so this large bowl of noodles was really nothing to him. Even if he finished eating, he might not have enough. He still had to eat some other things, of course, he could not just eat fried noodles. For example, the meatball he had been craving for recently was still there. He would definitely eat it. He had come here this time for these two things. How could he not eat to his heart's content?

He had completely turned his anger into appetite.

The large table of dishes had almost been swept clean. The biggest contributor was none other than Lei Qingyi. Yan Huan had been worried that there might be leftovers after doing too much today, in the end, almost all of the dishes were on cd-rom. Even the two soups had been completely consumed by Lei Qingyi.

Lei Qingyi burped. Sigh, he had finally eaten his fill. How blissful was that.

"Oh right, Lu Yi, I have something to tell you."

Lei Qingyi did not just come over to his house to freeload this time. He had business to discuss. Of course, he also poured out his grievances to Lu Yi while he was at it, so that Lu Yi could judge him.

How could there be such a thing.

"You said that they looked for the case themselves?" Lu Yi placed his notebook on the table and closed it. From his actions, it could be seen that he was still busy with something, it was the matter of Sun Yuhan's disappearance. If it was as Lei Qingyi said, then they wouldn't need to look into the case.

"Yes, that's right." Speaking of this matter, Lei Qingyi stood up and gritted her teeth in hatred.

"You don't know how hateful those people are. They look down on me and even moved everything into my safety hall. What are they saying..." lei qingyi imitated Gu Yuan's manner of speaking at that time, he had already learned 70-80% of the similarities.

"Actually, we don't need these. It's just a few days. Director Lei, thank you for your trouble."

"A few days? Hehe, a few days?" Lei Qingyi sat down again. "If they don't say a few days, I'll see if they can bring the person back in a few weeks."

"Lu Yi, do you think they can find the person tomorrow?"

After Lei Qingyi finished complaining, he asked Lu Yi. If they really found him, where would he put his old face?

"One day." Lu Yi raised his head and looked at Lei Qingyi. "Do you think it's possible?"

"Impossible." Lei Qingyi had never thought about how difficult it was to find Arnold. It was not like he had not seen it before. He had tried every method, but in the end, Lu Yi still used a method of calculation, it seemed like he would be able to figure out what this man was thinking?

Lu Yi said that Arnold was a genius. His IQ was very high. If he used it on the right path, then he might be a very impressive person. It was a pity that he did not walk on the right path.

Chapter 1713: mission failed

Lei Qingyi completely believed this point. If they weren't smart, if they weren't intelligent, how could they have escaped their pursuit again and again, and escape their inescapable net? Not only them.., even the police in many places were the same, letting Arnold escape under their eyes.

"But what if they have some special ability? What should we do?"

Lei Qingyi thought about it. It wasn't impossible. They spoke so confidently and confidently.

"You're thinking too much." Lu Yi opened his notebook again and asked Yu Bo to bring over all his work at the Procuratorate. As for Sun Yuhan's case, there was actually someone else taking over. In that case, he didn't have to worry about it. He still had his own work to do.

Lei Qingyi wasn't willing to let his imagination run wild anymore. He tugged at the watch on his wrist. It was already past eight o'clock. Alright, he had made up his mind.

"I'll stay at your place for the night today. I still have to be early tomorrow. Otherwise, it'll be past ten o'clock when I get home from here. It'll also disturb the others. He usually goes home late at night and wakes up early in the morning. It's really not convenient for him to go back and forth. Recently, he'd better stay at Lu Yi's place. He'll go back tomorrow and bring his clothes over. He'll also stay here for a few days to eat. He'll talk about it when Sun Yuhan finds him.

But would it really be that easy? They were all people who could not be found. Just based on that Gu Yuan, what kind of ability did he have to be able to find people in such a short time? Could it be that they really had some kind of superpower.

Lei qingyi twisted his neck. Forget it, we'll find out tomorrow.

He needed to sleep now, rest, and conserve his energy. His stomach was full, and he had a bed to sleep on. He clearly had such a good life, yet he still had to tire himself into a dog. Thinking about it.., no one would like it.

So whoever wanted to find Sun Yuhan, let them find her.

He, Lei Qingyi, was not happy.

At this moment, in the safety hall, the people from the Gu Yuan group were all there.

There was a blackboard hanging on the wall. There were many things written on the blackboard, and they were all written in a mess.

At this moment, a young man was holding a pen and saying something.

"What I want is revenge. Revenge on this world, revenge on those betrayals. No one in this world will treat me well, so I'm going to take that woman away. I'm going to make her life a living hell. I'm going to make her and her family live in fear and unease, not a moment of peace. Of course, I'm not going to kill her. I'm going to let her live. I'm going to make her turn from a rich young lady into a beggar that no one wants."

"I want to hide her in..."

The man finally opened his eyes and pointed out a place.

Gu Yuan immediately stood up. "Let's move immediately and try to solve this matter this morning so that we don't waste another day."

"Okay, boss," the others agreed in unison.

"Thank you very much this time." Gu Yuan patted the young man's shoulder. "Your criminal psychology is very useful to us. I believe it will be the same this time."

They had used this kind of criminal psychology to solve several major cases, and this time was no exception.

They had already mobilized police cars, and of course, they had also mobilized the people in the safety hall. Lei Qingyi had said that he wanted everyone to cooperate with their actions. Yes, they cooperated fully. They gave people, cars, and whatever they wanted. As long as they could find the people, they would rescue them, the police car drove very fast outside. Moreover, it sounded the alarm. Therefore, the cars on this road also took the initiative to give way, allowing the police car to pass smoothly, the people in the car were also joking. It was likely that they did not take this mission seriously. Of course, they were also certain that they would definitely capture that person this time around. They would also be able to rescue Sun Yuhan.

When they arrived, a few special police officers had already gone in. However, a few minutes later, the special police officers came out from the door

Then, they shook their heads at them.

"There's no one inside."

The few people who originally thought that victory was in their grasp were suddenly stunned.

This was impossible.

Yes, this was impossible.

Their only thought at the moment was that it was impossible. This was an absolute possibility. Xiao Zhu's criminal psychology had never been wrong. They had handled so many big cases and were all right. How could there be no one this time.., yes, how could they be wrong? They couldn't be wrong.

At this moment, Gu Yuan's expression was extremely ugly. Even the young man called Xiao Zhu was the same.

This Xiao Zhu was one of the top criminal psychology experts in the police station. Although he was still very young, he had already helped Gu Yuan solve many big cases. Clearly, he was the biggest helper in the entire team. This was also the reason why Gu Yuan could be so impudent with Lei Qingyi and release those words.

It was because they trusted Xiao Zhu, trusted Xiao Zhu's judgment, and also believed in Xiao Zhu's expertise in criminal psychology.

They were also confident that they would catch this person in two days at most. After all, this was just one person and not a large-scale criminal gang. Therefore, they had such confidence and dared to guarantee.., to say such words.

However, what was the situation now.

Xiao Zhu's judgment was wrong.

He actually made a mistake, but this was impossible. Xiao Zhu could not have made a mistake.

Not to mention Gu Yuan, even Xiao Zhu himself did not believe it. Yes, he did not believe it. He completely did not believe it. This was impossible. This was absolutely impossible. It was clearly here.., his instincts and intuition told him that he was here.

And his feelings were always successful. He was a genius criminal psychologist

Gu Yuan did not believe it. He first rushed in, then Xiao Zhu, and the other members of the team. But when they rushed into the dilapidated house, there was indeed nothing inside. There were no signs of people living there. This was an abandoned house, and it could not be any more abandoned.

"It's okay," gu yuan comforted Xiao Zhu by patting his shoulder, "Maybe you just got off the plane and were in a hurry to solve a case, which affected your judgment. That's why you made a mistake this time. Come back when you've rested well. I believe you can do it."

Xiao Zhu still did not feel very good. This was his first mistake, and it was also an inexplicable mistake. Gu Yuan gave him a good excuse, which was that he did not rest well, therefore, it had indirectly affected his judgment. However, Xiao Zhu knew that this was just a comforting sentence. Yes, it was just a simple comfort.

Chapter 1714: was this a mistake

This comfort could fool anyone, but it could not fool himself. He understood that he was in a very good condition at that time, and there was no problem at all. When he had just received this case.., in his heart, he had already grasped that criminal's personality to almost 100% . He had never been in such a good condition, nor did he have such a good feeling. He had never even had such great confidence, it was full, and even inflated.

Indeed, his confidence was inflated. In the end, it was a little too inflated, and then it just... exploded.

It also made him feel a little helpless, and he even died without a complete corpse.

All of his previous efforts were almost shattered at this moment. This person, his ability, and everything he had now.

“Let’s go back first,” Gu Yuan said to the others. There was no need to keep people here, and there was really no sign of anyone living here, so it wasn’t here. He didn’t want to believe that Xiao Zhu’s judgment was wrong, but Xiao Zhu was indeed wrong this time, and it was a little too wrong.

And he could only use the word ‘tired’ as an excuse for himself and Xiao Zhu.

All of a sudden, he felt that their visit this time was not a good thing. The mission this time was not as easy as he had imagined.

After returning, his palms were covered in sweat. Of course, he was also thinking about what had happened today, Lei Qingyi’s fake smile during the day, and the boastful words he had said before, he had said that he was going to save the hostage.

At that time, he didn’t seem to notice Lei Qingyi’s expression because he didn’t care about anything. He was only thinking about how long it would take them to save the hostage this time, only then would they be able to save the hostage. Then, how long would it take to turn the case over? From accepting the mission to sending the police to returning, it would take at most half a day. Of course, he was also confident. But now that he thought about it., what kind of expression did lei qingyi have at that time.

Was it a sneer and ridicule, or was it a blessing in disguise.

He could not help but clench his fingers again. Only then did he remember that he seemed to have underestimated lei qingyi. Lei Qingyi had been the head of the Safety Hall for more than ten years. This position was not something that anyone could sit on just because they wanted to, and it was not something that anyone could fall on just because they wanted to.

Lei Qingyi wasn’t an idiot. Even if he was an idiot, there were so many people in the safety hall. They could all be idiots. How could there be so many idiots in this world, how could the entire safety hall be filled with idiots.

Ye Jianguo said that the people in the safety hall were all useless idiots. At that time, he was still laughing at them. It turned out that the safety hall of Hai City only had this little ability to do things. It was also so useless.

He didn’t know if he had been misled by ye Jianguo at that time, or if it was because he was too confident in his team.

No, he shook his head. This was just an accident. Yes, it was just an accident. He couldn’t be anxious, nor could he calculate, nor could he mess up his own formation.

It wasn’t like they had never failed before. As long as they defeated an Zi, so what if they failed once? Maybe they could wait until Xiao Zhu had rested well and then entered into a state.

Then, they would be able to quickly find all the prisoners and hostages.

That night, they used most of the manpower and material resources of the Safety Hall, but they returned empty-handed. Yes, they returned empty-handed, and they found nothing.

When Lei Qingyi woke up in the morning, she hurriedly called the people on duty inside.

“How is it? What are those people doing there at night? Are they checking information, having a meeting, or doing something?”

“Director, they went out to the police at night.” After being questioned by Lei Qingyi, they quickly found a place where there was no one and started talking to Lei Qingyi.

“Oh...” Lei Qingyi didn’t feel that there was anything unexpected. When Gu Yuan first came, he acted as if he could find and save the hostages in a day. He just wanted to know if he could save them.., he could find the hostage.

It was normal for them to go to the police in the middle of the night. As long as the time was right, as long as they found the hostage, not to mention in the middle of the night, even if it was a knife, they would still have to go out.

“Did they bring the hostage back? Did they solve the case?” Lei Qingyi did not want to know about their heroic experiences. All he wanted to know now was whether the matter had been solved, as for whether Arnold had been caught or Sun Yuhan, was she also rescued.

“Oh, no.” Lei Qingyi really wanted to laugh, but he could not do so now. When they failed a few more times, he would laugh again. Perhaps this time, it was just a small mistake, if the other party could solve the matter with one more police call, it was also possible that they could bring the person back.

Therefore, it was also true to say that the last person to laugh would be the one to laugh. He absolutely believed and understood these words.

He put down his phone. He was in a good mood early in the morning. As long as he heard Sun Yuhan’s name, his mood could not be better.

That was exactly how it was.

Lei Qingyi took his uniform and put it on. He would return home once in a while and carry his luggage over. Then, he would stay at Lu Yi’s place for a few days and wait for Sun Yuhan to settle this matter, after that, she would talk about other things.

Auntie Gu had already prepared breakfast outside. Auntie Gu had made breakfast. As for Yan Huan and Lu Yi, they would also add Bai Zhi. When they woke up in the morning, they would run around the mountain ring road.

Such a good natural track. Yan Huan would run for a while every day. She felt that she had been too depraved recently, so she followed Bai Zhi. After running for a long time, she seemed to be in better spirits, of course, the most obvious thing was that her complexion had improved a lot. Of course, Lu Yi was absolutely in favor of this matter. It was Yan Huan’s fault for exercising too little now. This was not a good thing. He did not go to the prosecutor’s office recently, he took back his work and did it himself. He could also run with Yan Huan.

“What about them?” Lei Qingyi sat down and ate her breakfast. Of course, there was no need to be polite.

“Mr. Lu and Miss Yan went out for a run,” Auntie Gu said. She was still in the kitchen, and the porridge was not ready yet. It would take a while before it was ready.

They had time.

Lei Qingyi could not get up. He was so tired that he was like a dog. Every time his head hit the pillow, he wanted to sleep.

Lu Yi's work was not as easy as his. It was just that he really did not have such great ability. He was just a person who did manual labor, but he used his brain. This technical talent was different from the boorish people like them

After a while, Lu Yi and Yan Huan returned, and Bai Zhi followed behind them.

Chapter 1715: was it really professional

Both of them had been running for quite some time. It was obvious that they were looking very good, especially Yan Huan. His skin was already slightly white, and now, it felt like it was white with a tinge of red, it made people want to go forward and grab him. They wanted to know if it was as they had seen. A 30-year-old woman could still maintain the face of a 20-year-old woman.

How good was the heavens to this woman.

Lu Yi took Yan Huan to shower and change his clothes. When he came out... Lei Qingyi was still eating. He wanted to fill his stomach. There was still a tough battle to fight when he went back.

"What's wrong? Do you have something to say?"

Lu Yi had just sat down. He could feel lei qingyi's gaze sweeping over him from time to time. It was obvious that there was something going on. It was just that Lei Qingyi was dumb. He did not know whether to say or not.

"There is something." Lei Qingyi was eager to share it with others. He was a person who could not hide his words.

"I asked this morning." His mouth cracked. He was gloating. It was not like he was the one who lost face.

That was why he couldn't be too full of himself. If he was too full of himself, he would become a laughingstock.

"They went to the police yesterday, but a large group of people went there. There was no one there after that. By the way, why do you think they remembered to go to that place?"

Lei Qingyi thought about it and felt very puzzled. Why did they have to go to that kind of place.

"What kind of place?" Lu Yi picked up the spoon and drank the soup in the bowl.

Yan Huan and Bai Zhi sat facing the green grass outside. They ate their breakfast while looking at the scenery. Of course, this was because they knew that they had something to say, so the space was given to them.

"I didn't ask about this, but I heard that it's quite far and quite remote. Wait a moment, I'll call and ask." Lei Qingyi took out her cell phone and called someone directly.

“Tell me, where did they go last night?”

“There?” Lei Qingyi understood. “That’s the place. Oh, I got it.”

With that, he hung up the phone, “It’s in the area near the city that’s about to be demolished. There are a few dangerous houses there. They were just incorporated into the municipal construction not too long ago, but they haven’t officially started construction there yet.”

“But how did they find that place?”

“There?” Lu Yi put down his chopsticks, his fingers lightly tapping on the table. I guessed that there must be a psychology expert among them, who specialized in psychological crimes.

Lei Qingyi had naturally heard of this person before. There were some places that would have this kind of talent. They would have a keen intuition, and sometimes they could even guess the height, age, appearance, and characteristics of the criminal suspect, the criminal intent, as well as hiding there.

There was such a person among them.

Lei Qingyi was rather interesting. could he really guess it?

“Most of them can.” Lu Yi picked up his chopsticks and continued eating. In a while, he would have to finish the work that he owed. He owed quite a lot these few days, and he would have to pay for what he owed himself, but no one would pay for him.

“Why most of them are fine?” Lei Qingyi was even more confused. Yes, why could some people do it, but some people couldn’t?

“It also depends on the person.” Lu Yi sympathized with lei qingyi for not being able to explain this matter clearly. Even if he were to solve it, lei qingyi still couldn’t understand it.

However, what Lu Yi said varied from person to person. Lei Qingyi believed that.

That Arnold was not among most people. He was an exception.

Lei Qingyi was more or less clear. Although he still did not understand it, he could understand a little.

“He’s different.” Lu Yi ate quietly. He did not eat much and was not fast. Of course, he did not seem to be too hungry, but he did not stop.

“Arnold himself should have studied psychology, so he’s another psychology expert. It’s a huge mistake to want to use ordinary methods to study his motives. If it were an ordinary person, he would probably be there. It’s close to the city, and he doesn’t need money. He doesn’t have money on him now, and he likes the dark. There’s no suitable place. At the same time, with his personality, he would like places with more greenery.”

“Then that place should be the best choice. It’s just that Arnold isn’t anyone else. He’s Arnold, and he will do the opposite. His siyi is very fast, and it doesn’t follow common sense. However, his behavior has a certain pattern.”

“A psychologist meets another psychologist.”

Lei Qingyi picked up another pancake, opened it from the middle, and began to eat. "Then how is it?"

Yes, he also wanted to know what would happen then?

And he suddenly looked at Lu Yi. "How could I have forgotten? You're also a psychologist."

"I don't like to use those things in life."

The human heart was inherently unpredictable and difficult to understand. Everyone wanted to have their own secrets, and he had never done anything that would expose the secrets of others.

Lei Qingyi finished a pancake and patted her hand again, "Alright, I'm done. You take your time to eat. I'm going to work. I want to see how the psychological criminal over at Gu Garden managed to capture him. I also want to know, if the two psychological masters you mentioned were to meet, who would be more powerful?"

Was Arnold Hiding with Sun Yuhan, or would Gu Yuan's psychologist win in the end.

He was looking forward to it. Now, it was the war between Arnold and Gu Yuan. It had nothing to do with him.

Lei Qingyi drove back to the safety hall. As soon as he arrived, his subordinates secretly told him about what happened that night.

"Director, are these so-called professionals?"

"What do you think?" Lei Qingyi turned his wrist. They all claimed to be professionals.

But were they really professionals?

The others were a little suspicious of these newcomers who claimed to be professionals. Could This really work? When they had arrested people in the past, they had at least arrived late. That proved that they had found the right place. However, that person had been one step ahead of them, and they had felt the shadow of the criminal.

However, now that these people had gone to the police once, the place they had gone to was completely irrelevant. There wasn't even a shadow of a person there, so how could they hide there? They even had to take them to the police station in the middle of the night without sleeping, they had to go to the police station, but after a busy night, they couldn't accomplish anything. Now, they were all yawning and didn't look like they had slept well. It was as if they had smoked a big cigarette. The most annoying thing was that they still didn't have the slightest bit of comfort, at the very least, it made them look forward to it. For example.

This time, they were almost there. Next time, they would definitely be able to do it. But the question was, where were they taking them.

Chapter 1716: whose fault was it

Lei Qingyi only smiled with some other thoughts, but no one knew.

He still wanted to know if they could capture the person and save the hostage in a few days. If Lu Yi was here, they would still have the chance in at least five days.

However, he could only laugh at Gu Yuan's team. Obviously, he had to trust Lu Yi more. As for the criminal psychologist, he was obviously much worse than Lu Yi.

Why did Lu Yi want to be a prosecutor? It was because he had a perfect and direct understanding of human emotions, as well as a relaxed investigation, as well as his very professional knowledge of psychology. That Arnold was obviously not an ordinary criminal.

He was very good at playing tricks with them. Every time he flashed, he would catch him in the middle of the chase. There were times when the time difference was much greater, and there were times when the time difference was less. Once, he was caught. Originally, they might have waited for a few more days, perhaps now they already had a clue about him. Ye Jianguo did not believe them. Instead, he found someone to adjust it. Oh, he hired them himself. That's good. Then they should go find him themselves. If they could find him.., he would send them a capital letter of submission.

It was a letter of submission written by him.

Lei Qingyi walked into his office. As the director of the Security Department, he did not only work for ye Jianguo and his granddaughter, Sun Yuhan. He had a lot of things to do. He was very busy every day.

As for Gu Yuan, he had been in that office ever since he came back. He had never seen them come out. That office was independent. There was a door, a window, and a bathroom. If they wanted to go out.., then they could go out through that door and go straight to the gate of the security department.

When Lei Qingyi took out his car keys and was about to go back, he just happened to meet Gu Yuan and the others. They were going out to eat, right? After all, it was now.

Lei Qingyi nodded slightly at Gu Yuan as a polite greeting. As for talking to them and chatting with them, to be honest, he was afraid that he would laugh. He might really laugh because he couldn't hold it in anymore.

Gu Yuan also saw Lei Qingyi and seemed to be a little embarrassed. He was bragging too much. The bull didn't fly out of the sky. Instead, it landed on the ground and smashed them into dust, fortunately, Lei Qingyi did not say anything. Instead, she got into her own car and left.

"Land Rover!" A man beside Gu Yuan did not know whether he was envious or jealous.

"This lei qingyi is really rich."

It was no wonder. This head of the Safety Hall had been sitting there for so long. No matter what, he should be able to carve out a world for himself.

They all thought that Lei Qingyi had achieved his current achievements because he was sitting in the number one position in the Safety Hall. However, they did not know how Lei Qingyi's family background was. The Lei family was very low-key in Hai City, when the Ye family was in trouble in the past, the Lei family had taken out several hundred million without saying anything. It could be seen that the Lei family had quite a lot of wealth.

However, very few people knew about their affairs. They were not like the Su family, which had businesses all over the place, nor were they like the Ye family, which had the first private airport in the country, nor were they like the Lu family, which was a targeted military second generation, there was also Yan Huan, who made money like flowing water.

Therefore, many people might only know about these three families, but they did not know about the Lei family. The Lei family was just too low-key, but this did not mean that the Lei family was inferior to the other families.

Lei Qingyi first drove back to his house, took some clothes and his daily necessities, and was ready to go to Lu Yi's place. When he came out, he saw little lei sitting on the ground with his legs stretched out, playing with a transformer, he was instantly angry.

"Lei Hanyi, sit on the ground and try again."

When little lei heard his father calling his name, he immediately stood up from the ground.

Lei Qingyi threw his luggage outside and came over. He grabbed his son's ears, "Lei Hanyi, how many times have I told you? How Old Are You? Why are you still playing on the ground? Do you think you're Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang? Do you think you're still young? You're so old..."

"Dad, I'm not even nine years old..."

Lei Qingyi pouted and said aggrievedly, but his ears were tightened by Lei Qing. It hurt so much that he grimaced in pain.

"Dad, be careful. Don't pull your son's ears off. Grandma, Grandma, Help! My dad is going to murder my son..."

When Lei Qingyi's mother heard her grandson's crying, she hurriedly ran out. When she saw Lei Qingyi tearing lei qingyi's ears outside, she immediately became anxious.

"Lei Qingyi, what right do you have to hit my grandson?"

Mama Lei pushed Lei Qingyi away and shielded lei zi behind her. Lei Zi lowered his head obediently so that Grandma could see his red ears.

"Mom, why do you care about him?" Lei Qingyi really couldn't explain it to her mother. "How old is he? Why is he still sitting on the ground playing with toys?"

"What's wrong with that? He's still a primary school student."

Lei Qingyi's mother was both angry at her son and worried about her grandson. She stretched out her finger and pointed directly at the door, "Lei Qingyi, leave right now. Tell me, have you been back recently? Have you ever controlled your son? Have you ever taught him? When you come back, you want to beat him up. My grandson wasn't born for you to beat him up. He's just a little taller. Is this his fault?"

"Then is this my fault?"

Lei Qingyi didn't feel that it was his fault either.

Mother Lei pinched her grandson's little ears. She didn't even look at her son. He only knew how to beat her son all day long. Little Lei was brought up by her as a grandmother, it was one thing for a father not to treat his son well, but to beat him up from time to time. Could it be that his little lei deserved to be beaten up?

Lei Qingyi could only touch his own nose when he saw the look of disdain on Mama Lei's face. He carried his luggage and went out. He thought that it was better for him to stay at Lu Yi's place for a few more days, so that he would not be despised in this house.., and that person who scolded him.

Little Lei Zi had developed a rebellious mentality now. If he was not properly controlled, what would happen if he grew crooked one day? What would he do if he grew up to look like Sun Yuhan? And if Little Leizi really grew up to look like Sun Yuhan, he would definitely skin him alive.

It didn't matter what he looked like. Even if he was stupid, mediocre, or didn't study well, it didn't matter. He just had to be a good person for him.

But he really forgot that Little Leizi was still a primary school student. He was still ten years away from becoming an adult, and there were too many things that would happen between these few years.

Chapter 1717: was on the alert again

Not to mention the matter ten years later, even now, there were still a lot of things waiting for him to solve.

Although Sun Yuhan's matter was not under his control now, if these people did not have the ability to bring her back, then he would still have to take over. Otherwise, with ye Jianguo's temper.., he would definitely destroy his safety hall.

He really hoped that Gu Yuan and the others would be able to find her sooner. Anyway, he did not want to carry that woman's matter anymore. He did not rest for a few days and nights, and there was no food to eat. In the end, he was even scolded by Ye Jianguo. One was useless on the left, and the other was useless. No one felt very comfortable.

Lei Qingyi brought his luggage to the Liu Garden. As soon as he left, he complained to Lu Yi about his little thunder.

"How old do you think he is? Why is he still rolling and crawling on the ground? Every time I see him, I want to beat him up, but my mother always blocks me. She's really a good mother and a good grandmother, and a good grandson."

"He's still young,"Lu Yi reminded Lei Qingyi, "Children his age are all the same. When you were in primary school, you were also a pig who disliked dogs. You always put dirt and mud on your clothes every day. Your father never said that he would beat you up like how you beat Little Lei Zi. If he really wanted to follow the way you beat up children now, would you have grown so Big?"

Lei Qingyi was stunned for a moment. Of course, it was awkward enough. However, how could he compare to little lei zi? When he was in primary school, he was like a girl. He was thin and small, and he was always bullied by others. At that time, he thought.., when he grew taller, he would definitely beat up those who bullied him and film them. Later, when he grew taller, he really beat up those people until they fell to the ground. They knelt in front of him and cried for their parents, of course, it was all after he entered high school.

However, with little lei zi's current state, he really couldn't treat him like a child. How was he like a child.

Forget it, let's not talk about it. He had a headache.

Couplets, what did he just remember?

"I've asked around. There is indeed a young man in his twenties who has studied psychological crimes. His name is Xiao Zhu. I've specifically looked into it. Gu Yuan's team is very powerful. In the past few years, they have handled many big cases, especially that young psychological criminal. I heard that he's very famous. "I wonder if such a successful team will be ruined by Sun Yuhan?"

Lei Qingyi stretched out both of her legs. She could even touch the television in front of her.

"I feel that Sun Yuhan is a jinx. Any man who has anything to do with her will not have a good ending."

"Look at the Ye family. Xinyu is missing and has not been found yet. Your uncle runs outside every day, Lu Qin has been trampled into a eunuch by her, and Arnold is now a fugitive."

Gu Yuan might really have destroyed his team that he had managed for so long, as well as his good reputation, in the hands of this woman. He felt that this was really possible, and Sun Yuhan's constitution that brought disaster.., whoever ran into her would be unlucky.

"Alright, I'm going to pack my things." Lei Qingyi stood up. His luggage was still piled up in the living room. He wanted to hang up his clothes. He might have to stay here for ten days to half a month, his Lingling was going to the venue for the first two episodes. She would have to stay there for a long time. This was Linlang's biggest drama next year. If it was not good, it might bring glory to the country again.

He naturally had to support his lingling.

He also felt that women should have their own careers. It was not because of how much money they could earn, but because of their vigor and spirit. The bearing of standing in front of others was completely different from that of a woman who did not work.

Just like his lingling, that was a crime committed by the real queen.

Why, did he miss his lingling again.

Oh right, what was he going to eat later? Was It Yan Huan's cooking? The food that Yan Huan cooked was really delicious. From what he saw now, the most important thing about Yan Huan was no longer his looks, but the good dishes that she could cook, how could it be so delicious? Yes, how could it be so delicious? It was still too delicious.

What he looked forward to every day was not this meal.

As long as he did not care about Sun Yuhan's matter, his days were pretty good. It was also quite relaxing.

Therefore, Sun Yuhan, Sun Xuehan, it was better to let that whatever garden and that Little Zhu go and bother them. Ye Jianguo brought them here not to let them play, but to let them find his granddaughter in the Safety Hall, they were here to help him find his granddaughter.

Regardless of whether it was because of their team's reputation, the mission, or anything else, Arnold and the others had to be captured, and Sun Yuhan and the others had to be rescued.

Regardless of what method they used, yes, regardless of what method they used, even if it was unscrupulous, they had to rescue the person.

At this moment, in the safety hall, many people were randomly finding a place for themselves to rest for a while. Everyone had been busy for the whole night and had not had a good rest. They were already very, very tired, not only were their muscles uncomfortable, even their heads were beginning to knot.

Xiao Zhu flipped through Arnold's information from time to time, and many thoughts flashed through his mind. Then, like a replay, he stood up again and walked to the map of Hai City, which was also on the map of Hai City, he took a pen and marked about a dozen places. These were all things he could see, the place where Arnold was currently hiding.

"Is this the place?" Gu Yuan asked Zhu. Zhu picked up the pen again, and at the place Gu Yuan had pointed out just now, he pressed down hard. This should be the place.

"This time, I won't be wrong."

Xiao Zhu was very confident in his feeling this time. He could guarantee that this was the right place. He had studied this place for a long time. Last time, he might have made a mistake and miscalculated something. But this time, his people.., his heart and intuition were telling him that this was the right place. There was no mistake, absolutely no mistake.

"Let's go."

Gu Yuan turned around and slapped the table. He wanted everyone to get ready and set off immediately.

Just now, everyone was still drowsy. At this moment, everyone braced themselves and prepared to go to the police.

When Gu Yuan came out, he directly borrowed a few police cars from the Safety Hall and fifteen special police officers.

Gu Yuan sat in the car. The car had already sounded the alarm and was speeding towards that area.

"They're on the police."

Lei Qingyi said to Lu Yi. Where do you think they're going?

"They're on the police again in the middle of the night. Why do these people like to act in the middle of the night? Are they letting people sleep?"

Lei Qingyi laid down again. She really felt that Gu Yuan and the others did not treat people as human beings. Everyone had been working for a long time. If this continued, who would be able to stand it.

Chapter 1718: Would be here

They were Superman, but the others were not. They needed to rest, sleep, and adjust their mood.

He was going to sleep, but he sat up again. No, he couldn't sleep.

He quickly put on his clothes and sat up. Then, he went out to look for Lu Yi. He knew that Lu Yi had to work overtime these days, so he didn't rest. It was a good opportunity to discuss with him.

"Where do you think they will go?" Lei Qingyi directly spread out a map of Hai City and laid it flat on the table, "Take a guess. That Xiao Zhu is also a psychologist, and so are you. You should be able to guess some of his thoughts, right?"

These were games that only highly intelligent people could play. An honest person like him couldn't even touch the edges.

Lu Yi took the pen and drew a mark on it.

"Here?" Lei Qingyi stroked his chin and started to study. Of course, he had to wait for others to finish the mission. He didn't know how to make a phone call now, nor did he know how to meddle in other people's business. If someone found out..., who knew what they would say about him.

So it was right to open it now.

Anyway, they would soon know if they could find the person.

Whether it was a mule or a horse, they would know tonight. and Lu Yi said that a failure was completely acceptable, but if it happened twice, it would become a burden for Gu Yuan and the others, especially the blow to Xiao Zhu's psychologist, that was the biggest blow. He might deny himself, or even completely fail to give the correct instructions in the future.

"Then do you think he'll really be here?"

Lei Qingyi asked Lu Yi, that Arnold, and Sun Yuhuan.

Lu Yi shook his head. "No, he's not here."

"Then where are they?" Lei Qingyi was not surprised by this answer. He felt that they would not be able to find them.

Lu Yi glanced at Lei Qingyi and said calmly, "I don't know. It's none of my business. I won't waste any time on it."

Lei Qingyi shrugged his shoulders. That was exactly what he meant. It had nothing to do with Lu Yi in the first place. Lu Yi was a prosecutor, not a police officer looking for someone. Besides, no one owed the Ye family anything. They owed him, Sun Yuhuan..., why did he have to waste his brain cells day and night to investigate these things? It was just like what he did back then. He clearly didn't do anything wrong. Did it have anything to do with him that the prisoner escaped? Was it him who let Arnold go? Was it him who deliberately didn't arrest him?

However, no matter how hard he worked, ye Jianguo had never given him an understanding.

What he gave him was a blow, and it was all damage.

In the end, he even found a valley garden. Well, he didn't care about the valley garden or the valley side. As long as he didn't have to care about Sun Yuhan's matters, it was fine. He really didn't want to hear the words Sun Yuhan again, which made him eat badly, if he couldn't sleep, the matter would be settled without any praise. This was because others would think that they should do what they did. Even if they lost their lives, it would be his own fault. It was his own carelessness.

If he failed, it would be a barrage of curses.

He had heard enough of these words.

He had also had enough of these things.

He didn't owe ye Jianguo Anything. Why did he, Ye Jianguo, have to guide his nose, insult him verbally, and deny his personality.

Lu Yi stood up and prepared to go back to his room. He still had to work overtime, so he could watch Yan Huan at the same time.

If she didn't wake up at night and not see him, she wouldn't be able to fall asleep.

In fact, the best long-term love was to accompany him silently.

It wasn't something that happened overnight. He didn't know how to say any sweet words.

Lei Qingyi was the only one left in the living room. Lei Qingyi picked up the map and placed it on her lap. He still couldn't fall asleep. It was better to wait. He still wanted to know if he had really found it.

Only here.

Lei Qingyi placed his finger on the place that had been marked by Lu Yi.

He never thought that it would be here. It was an abandoned car hotel in Hai City. Because it had been abandoned, no one had taken over it yet, so it had been abandoned for about a year.

If he was that Arnold, he might really be hiding here.

But no one was Arnold, and no one could be Arnold. That man was much smarter than they had imagined. Of course, he wanted them to think more, and it was impossible to follow the thinking of ordinary people to understand.

Since it couldn't be understood with common sense, then even psychology should change its perspective on this person who couldn't be understood with common sense. Could it be that no one had told that little zhu.., was this Arnold's thinking different from others?

Or could it be that until now, they all thought that Arnold would be in the place they imagined.

Lei Qingyi put the map back on the table and covered her eyes. She could not stand the light at this moment.

It was really too bright, so bright that it was starting to hurt her eyes.

At this moment, a row of police cars were already heading in that direction at a very fast speed. It was also because it was midnight, so there were no extra cars on the road. Xiao Zhu rolled down the window, he also recognized that the wind outside blew on his face from time to time. It also blew his hair into a mess. Suddenly, his heart jumped. He actually had a bad feeling.

He placed his hand on his eyes, and then closed his eyes to rest for a while. Only then did he recover, and he even forgot why he had some heart palpitations just now, and why did that heart palpitations come.

He also forgot about it.

The car drove quickly in that direction. The wind outside was still blowing his hair, like a tight net, blowing him out of sight.

He thought he was almost there.

Yes, he was almost there.

He could go home tomorrow. When he got home, he thought that he would go back to school and stay for some time. There were still many things that he did not understand and many things that he did not study.

He placed his hand on his forehead. At this moment, it seemed that even his fingertips had become slightly cold.

Suddenly, the police car screeched and stopped in an instant. Then, there was the sound of brakes. It was as if there was an unpleasant screech coming from somewhere and it cut through his heart.

It was that uncomfortable feeling again. It made him feel very uncomfortable and annoyed.

“Xiao Zhu, what are you thinking about?” Suddenly, someone patted his shoulder. He quickly shivered and came back to his senses. Only then did he get out of the car.

He stood outside these hotels

He trusted his intuition and his judgment. It was here. Yes, it must be here. There was no mistake. It must be here.

Chapter 1719: couldn't do without Zhu

Gu Yuan gestured, and a special police officer went over. They were also waiting outside.

Until a special police officer ran out and saluted Gu Yuan.

“How is it? Have you caught the person?”

Gu Yuan asked and prepared to walk inside.

Gu Yuan's sentence of 'caught the person' also made everyone let out a sigh of relief. En, I've caught it, it's good that I've caught it. Yes, it's good that I've caught it.., however, they were stunned for a long time after they entered.

Gu Yuan's face was unexpectedly heavy. Even his fingers, which were placed by his side, suddenly clenched tightly.

There was no one. There was no one inside. How could they catch them? It was just like the first time they went to the police station. No one had lived there before. The most common thing was dust. There were also footprints left by the special police when they entered. He did not believe it and checked again. Just like the last time, Xiao Zhu's judgment was completely wrong. The person was not here, he had not even been here before.

"This is impossible." Xiao Zhu also ran in. However, when he saw the dust around him and the complete silence inside, he knew that he was wrong again.

How could there be no one here? There was not even a trace of someone living here. If there really was, even if they had only been here for a minute, they would have left some traces behind. However, there was nothing here.., there really wasn't anything here.

No one had come, no one had lived, and no one had seen anything.

"Impossible, this is impossible..." Xiao Zhu still didn't believe it. He ran in. What he didn't believe was that he had to find traces of people living here. Yes, even if there were people living here, it would still be fine.., this proved that his judgment was right. They had only come a step late.

Gu Yuan wanted to say something, but nothing came out.

"Captain..." the other team members didn't know what to do. They had failed again. Yes, they had failed again. This was the second time. This was what they had imagined, it was impossible.

Even if they had made a mistake, it was because they had arrived too late. It had nothing to do with Xiao Zhu because Xiao Zhu's judgment was right. It was just that they had attacked too late. However, it was the same as last time, the reason for their failure was not because of anything else. It was because Zhu's judgment was wrong. It was completely wrong.

They trusted Zhu. Otherwise, they would not have come all the way here to accept such a mission. It was because they trusted Zhu unconditionally. They believed that Zhu would allow them to find the location of the criminal in an extremely short amount of time, find out where the criminal was hiding. As long as they knew the location, it was only a matter of time before they wanted to catch him. However, none of them thought that Xiao Zhu was wrong twice.

Wrong, wrong, all wrong.

They came with the confidence that they were determined to get it. In the end, they came back with the same failure as last time. At this time, no one said anything. Even Xiao Zhu was the same. Xiao Zhu's face was pale, it was impossible to tell what he was thinking. After a while, he took out a pen and paper and began to write and draw on it. He also muttered to himself from time to time.

“This is impossible. Yes, this is impossible...”his deduction was absolutely correct. How could it not be accurate this time? However, he made his judgment based on common sense, unless that person had no thoughts.

However, this was even more impossible. As long as he was a human, as long as he had thoughts, as long as his thoughts were active, as long as he was in such a passive state, that place would be the place he would look for and stay, however, why was it wrong? It was wrong again.

The car went out in a mighty manner, and then came back in a mighty manner. When they went back, they were all in high spirits, thinking that they were about to complete the mission. However, when they came back, they did not even want to speak, they did not know what to say, nor did they know what to say.

When they returned to the Safety Hall, the people on duty in the Safety Hall began to whisper.

“It seems that they did not catch them again.”

“Of course, they did not catch them. If they did, would they still have their current expressions? They might have already studied how to deal with the criminals.”

“That person was hard to catch to begin with. We might have caught him after a few more rounds. Didn’t we miss a few times? That was such a pity. If we hadn’t been too careless, the case would have been closed by now. That was because director Lei didn’t rest well for a few nights before we caught him.”

“Yeah, it’s such a pity.”

The others also agreed. It was indeed a pity.

At this moment, in that office, no one was in a good mood. They were still working hard on this case.

“Captain, they caught him seven or eight times before they finally caught him. We only caught him twice. It’s nothing.”

“I know.”Gu Yuan sat down. He wanted to laugh, but he couldn’t. He wanted to say something, but he didn’t know what to say.

“Xiao Ma, go and help me get a copy of the document that they used to capture this criminal. I want to study it.”

Gu Yuan wasn’t willing to believe it at this point. They had all failed. He didn’t know what two failures meant, but he felt that it might be three or four more times, but in the end, it would still be the same failure.

He seemed to be relying too much on Zhu. Zhu’s criminology might be applicable to most people, but this Arnold might be an example of money, or it might really be because Zhu’s recent condition was really bad, so he had made mistakes twice in a row.

He wanted to find out how Lei Qingyi and the others had almost caught that person, and how it was that they were only one step away from catching him.

Not long after, Xiao Ma had brought over all the information he wanted.

These were the information of the Security Bureau's several police operations.

Including the time, place, and the situation at that time

He flipped through the pages and found that each time, the records were about to be caught, or about to be caught, or that they had already been caught, but because of carelessness, they had been run away.

He had to catch, and about to catch.

That was at the very least, they had found the right place, unlike these two times when they had not even found the right place.

"Xiao Zhu, come over and take a look at this." Gu Yuan placed the documents in his hands in front of Xiao Zhu. There might be things that you wanted here. These were the places that Arnold had stayed in before.

Xiao Zhu's expression was not very good. Perhaps it was because he had suffered a very serious blow this time.

However, in the end, he still took the documents in Gu Yuan's hands and sat at the side to study them.

Gu Yuan also let out a sigh of relief. As long as he could still read them, it was good. He was afraid that these two mistakes would affect Xiao Zhu. If they wanted to solve this case, they could not do it without Xiao Zhu,

Chapter 1720: Qi deviation

They were not from Hai City, so they did not know much about this place. If they followed the usual method, they might not be able to capture the person even if they stayed here for a year, then, they would rescue the hostage.

It was not the end yet, so there was no rush. They had only failed twice, which was nothing. In the previous cases, they would sometimes alarm the police several times before they finally captured the person, so it was the same this time.

This was just a small failure, not much.

The others had failed to catch him several times, so there was no reason for them to really catch him once or twice. Such heaven-defying luck, he thought, would never happen.

And now, the farm failure was not their failure, but the beginning of their success.

Xiao Zhu sat on the side and began to flip through the pages. He also took the map and made all kinds of marks on it. Then, he connected these points into a line and then connected them into a piece.

Finally, he changed to a new map and started to click on it again. Xiao Zhu couldn't fall asleep. Of course, it was the same for everyone else. Their team had handled many cases before, however, this was the first time, yes, it was the first time. It was the first time. They had no choice because they couldn't display their strength here. Everything depended on Xiao Zhu.

In fact, they had always relied on Xiao Zhu to handle cases.

They all thought that as long as Xiao Zhu was around, they would always be successful. In their eyes, all cases were small cases. As long as they were around, there was no case that could not be solved.

Just like when ye Jianguo found them, they came directly without asking anything. Of course, they were also full of confidence. Just like the previous few times, they might have used a day, or it might have been a few hours. This case had already been closed in their hands. But now, two days had passed, and they hadn't even touched a single criminal.

"I'll go prepare some food for everyone."

A woman stood up. They had been busy all day, and they might not be able to sleep tonight. She couldn't help much, so she could only help to find some food.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be in a good mood to begin with. Would she have to go hungry.

She knew that there was a fast food restaurant that was open 24 hours a day.

Gu Yuan nodded. "You go with Xiao Ma. It's late at night. A girl's house isn't safe."

Xiao Ma hurriedly nodded and went out with the woman. However, Gu Yuan's worries seemed to be unnecessary. They were all police officers, so how could they be robbed, if they were really robbed, then it proved that they were really too useless.

After a while, they came back again with a lot of bags in their hands. Each of them took a portion. There were hamburgers, drinks, and some snacks.

Gu Yuan placed a portion in front of Xiao Zhu and ate something first.

"Thank you, Captain." Xiao Zhu took out a hamburger from the bag and started to eat as well. However, if someone was careful, they would realize that his fingers were trembling slightly.

He was still nervous and afraid..

Dang zai was even more at a loss.

He had helped with many cases, but this was the most difficult one. It was something that he could not touch.

Where did he go wrong?

Yes, where did he go wrong? He did not feel wrong. He did not go wrong at all. He did not go wrong here, and he did not go wrong everywhere. But on that Arnold, he was wrong. Even if he was wrong, he did not know, where did he go wrong.

He had to find it.

At this moment, in the garden of detention, Lei Qingyi put down his phone. "Oh, they failed again. Where did they find it?" The other end of the phone also reported a string of place names.

"It's there..." Lei Qingyi hurriedly put on his big slippers and walked out. He put the map outside. He wanted to know if this place was the one that Lu Yi pointed out, that area.., he had a vague feeling that it was, but he didn't remember it clearly. He had to go over and check it out. If he didn't, he wouldn't be able to sleep, he couldn't help it. He had a lot on his mind right now.

When he came out, he saw that the lights in the living room were on. It was the same in the kitchen. He could also hear the sounds in the kitchen from here.

Could it be a rat?

The rat was stealing in the kitchen. Then, it was afraid of the dark and turned on all the lights in the living room and the kitchen.

He walked over and saw Yan Huan inside. At this moment, she was standing at the side looking at the pot. He didn't know what was inside, but he could smell a very fragrant smell.

It was noodles.

"What noodles are you cooking?" Lei Qingyi couldn't help but ask.

His sudden voice gave Yan Huan a fright.

Yan Huan turned around and saw Lei Qingyi standing outside like a lapdog. Her eyes were staring at the pot desperately.

"Flag flower noodles."

Yan Huan gently stirred the noodles in the pot again. It was almost ready and could be eaten.

"That..." lei qingyi gulped. "Can you give me a bowl?"

Yan Huan glanced at the noodles in the pot. There were actually not many. At most, it could only be divided into three bowls.

"I can't give you too much." Yan Huan took the bowl, scooped a flat bowl of noodles, and handed it to Lei Qingyi.

"Thank you." Lei Qingyi took the bowl. When she saw the noodles in the bowl, she simply loved it to death. She didn't even take the chopsticks. She just drank a mouthful of the noodle soup from the bowl.

Tsk, why was the taste so good.

"Why Are You Alone?" Lei giyi asked Yan Huan. "Where's Lu Yi?"

"He's busy." Yan Huan divided the remaining noodles into two bowls. Originally, there were two big bowls, but because he gave lei qingyi a bowl, there were only two small bowls now.

So it was like that.

Lei Qingyi held the bowl and shouted towards the inside, "Lu Yi, I have something to look for..."

Not long after, Lu Yi came out. As expected, he was busy. He hadn't even changed his clothes, and it was still the same as before he went to bed.

Lei Qingyi was already sitting on the sofa and had brought the map over. He was still eating with one hand holding the noodles. This noodles was really delicious, but it was a pity that there was only one small bowl. If there were two large bowls, how good would it be, however, he did not dare to take it. From the looks of it, Yan Huan did not cook too much. With his appetite, if he were to really let go of the bowl, he would not take the bowl but take the wok instead.

Yan Huan took out the bowl from the inside and placed it in front of Lu Yi. "You guys talk. I'll go to the room for the noodles."
