

Chapter 1731:

Ye Jianguo gripped the teacup in his hand tightly. Otherwise, the Teacup would have already smashed onto Bai Zhi.

Bai Zhi turned around, took out his phone, and dialed Lu Yi's number. However, his phone was switched off. Yes, it was switched off. Lu Yi should be on the plane right now. She then drove to look for Lei Qingyi, in the end, Lei Qingyi was not in the Safety Hall, and she was nowhere to be found. It seemed that she had something to attend to and left Hai City at the last minute.

Whether it was Lu Yi or lei qingyi, neither of them could solve the problem at hand. Ye Jianguo simply refused to admit that he had taken Yan Huan away. Everyone knew how Yan Huan had disappeared, bai Zhi had seen many things before. If ye Jianguo was said to be a shameless person in hai city, no one would dare to say that he was number one.

Bai Zhi still had to think of a way to find Yan Huan himself. She had even returned to the Lu family once.

Old Master Lu was so angry that he directly went to the ye family with Lu Jin. They almost destroyed the entire ye family. However, ye Jianguo's face was like a dead pig that was not afraid of boiling water. He just refused to admit it. That was why he said.., ye Jianguo's skin was really thick. It was as thick as a city wall.

They clearly knew that ye Jianguo was the one who took the person away, but if ye Jianguo refused to admit it, what could they do.

Lu Yi's phone call was only connected at night. Now that Lu Yi was on the train, even if he turned back now, it would still take him about two days' journey.

He wanted to use Huanhuan as bait. First, he wouldn't do anything to her. He wanted her to take good care of Dian Guyuan and the others. I will call Lei Qingyi and ask him to go back immediately.

Lu Yi hung up the phone. His face was gloomy.

"What's Wrong?" Ye Shuyun saw that her son didn't look well and quickly asked.

"He's fine, but his face changed. Is it because of train sickness?"

"Mom, Grandpa took Huanhuan away." Lu Yi gripped his phone tightly. "He came right after we left."

"Your Grandpa, why did he..."

Ye Shuyun felt as if something was stuck in her throat. She felt extremely uncomfortable, so uncomfortable that she almost choked.

What was he going to do? What was he going to do?

"He wants to use Huanhuan as bait to lure that Arnold out."

Ye Shuyun hurriedly grabbed her son's arm. "Then, Will Huanhuan Be Alright?"

“No.” Lu Yi’s heart was far from as calm as his expression. Whether she was alright, yes, whether she was alright. His mouth was saying that she was alright, but in reality, no one knew if she would be alright.

That Arnold was a lunatic.

“Lu Yi, you go back first. I’ll go visit your uncle alone.” Ye Shuyun was also feeling uneasy at this moment. Why did something happen at home as soon as they came out? If she had known earlier, she would not have let Lu Yi come over, Yan Huan was in trouble as soon as they went out.

“Let’s go see Uncle First. Huanhuan will be fine for the time being.”

Lu Yi turned around and looked at the train window. He could no longer see anything clearly outside because it was already dark. No matter how he wanted to go back, he could not do anything.

Therefore, he still wanted to stay inside the train. He also wanted to continue walking forward.

No matter what, the current Yan Huan was indeed not in danger. However, he still needed to rush home as soon as possible.

Yan Huan was tied up and thrown into the car. Then, he was at the place where Sun Yuhuan disappeared.

“Boss, is this really okay?” Xiao Ma asked Gu Yuan in a low voice. “We’ve been sitting here for a long time. Will he really come?”

He will. Xiao Zhu stared straight ahead at the road not far away. Actually, he had been paying attention to us the whole time. His eyes were like wild beasts. He was watching us from the dark.

“As long as he knows that we have captured Yan Huan, he will definitely come and save Yan Huan.”

“How much longer?” Xiao Ma’s heart was not at peace for a moment. They were really too bold this time. The person in the carriage was none other than Yan Huan, who was worth billions.

His life was much more expensive than Miss Sun’s.

“It should be soon.” Gu Yuan did not know how long it would take. They were really pressed for time and did not have much time. They only had three days at most, when Lei Qingyi and Lu Yi returned, they would not have any more chances.

He only hoped that he could capture that person within these three days and rescue the hostage. Then, he would return Yan Huan to Lu Yi unharmed. As for how Lu Yi would deal with them.., in that case, he was no longer willing to imagine it. He would only know what would happen in the future. What they needed to do now was to make good use of this opportunity and trust Xiao Zhu once more.

On the first day, that person did not come. Yan Huan stayed in the car and starved for an entire day. The others also wanted to starve with her for an entire day.

On the second day, she was thrown into the car again. Perhaps those people had thought of something and placed some food and water in the car. However, Yan Huan just coldly looked at the people outside, they tied her up like a dumpling and told her how to eat and what to take to eat?

She raised her face and looked outside again. Suddenly, she noticed a man standing not far away. The man lowered his hat, but Yan Huan noticed the green color in his eyes.

He took a step forward and lowered his hat a little.

At this moment, he also saw Yan Huan.

All of a sudden, Yan Huan couldn't bear for him to be caught. She shook her head at him, indicating for him to leave quickly.

The man seemed to have noticed something as he turned around and ran far away.

At this moment, Gu Yuan was also holding onto his teammate's hand.

"Captain, he just grew a little longer." That teammate directly took off his hat. Yes, he was just a little bit away from entering their trap. However, who knew that he would still be able to escape in the end.

"He will come again tomorrow."

Xiao Zhu suddenly smiled. "Yes, there's no rush. He will definitely come tomorrow. He will definitely come and save Yan Huan."

The Sky had gradually darkened. The others were all drowsy. Only a few pairs of eyes were still staring at the car.

"Help..."

Suddenly, a sound of life-saving came from somewhere.

"It's Sun Yuhan!"

Xiao Zhu could remember Sun Yuhan's voice. This was Sun Yuhan's voice.

"Xiao Ma, take some people with you. I'll watch over this place." Gu Yuan hurriedly looked around and ordered in a deep voice.

"Yes." Xiao Ma had already stood up. He then brought a few people and ran towards the direction of the sound.

At this moment, the sky was already extremely dark. A black shadow book owner ran over and placed his hand on the carriage door.

Chapter 1732: was lost

Yan Huan opened her eyes, only to see a pair of green eyes, as well as a face that she did not really want to see.

A hand stretched out and directly untied the rope on her body.

"He's here." Gu Yuan suddenly stood up and was about to go up to catch him. However, that person directly carried Yan Huan in the car on his shoulder and ran, while Gu Yuan chased after him, however, the person in front ran very fast. Even though he had already added a person's weight on his body, his feet were so fast that they could reach his feet. Meanwhile, Yan Huan was so jolted that she was about to vomit, in addition, she had not eaten for a whole day. It was as if her blood sugar was low. In a short while, her vision became blurry and she did not know what to do.

When she opened her eyes again, she saw the sound of footsteps coming from behind under the street lamp.

“Captain, Look, it’s Sun Yuhan.”

Someone shouted. At a certain intersection, there was a wheelchair with a person sitting on it. When the street lamp fell on her, there was a strange silence.

It was because of a distraction in Gu Yuan that they had lost their target. He sent people over to Sun Yuhan’s side, first to send her back, and then to catch the criminal himself. It was not easy for him to find her, they could not lose her.

Moreover, they had saved Sun Yuhan, but they had lost Yan Huande. Ye Jianguo was happy, but Lu Yi would kill them.

However, when he couldn’t find her after a few rounds, and when he came back, he found that his teammates were all standing on the side, and one of them was holding a broken hand.

“Captain, Miss Sun...”

Someone pointed at Miss Sun on the wheelchair. She was actually a human-shaped... doll, similar to a real person, but not a real person. Otherwise, where did this person come from?

“Captain, Miss Sun.” Xiao Ma picked up his phone and pressed it.

“Help, help...”

Gu Yuan was stunned on the spot. No, he was completely dumbfounded.

They had lost Yan Huan, but they still couldn’t find Sun Yuhan’s whereabouts.

They were all fooled by Arnold.

Also, this meant that Yan Huan and Sun Yuhan were both missing and had become hostages. Then, tell him where to find a third person to lure that person out.

In reality, there wouldn’t be a third person.

This Arnold was more powerful than they had imagined. He was also more difficult to deal with than they had imagined. When he looked at his friends, he actually found something called despair on their faces.

Yes, despair. This time, they were truly in despair.

In this sea city, on such a night, he was also under his control.

“Captain, what should we do?”

Xiao Ma was already crying. They could only say that they didn’t have the ability to find Sun Yuhan. At most, their team would lose face and compensate her. However, losing Yan Huan wasn’t a small matter.

If something really happened to Yan Huan, and it happened from their hands, then they would only have a bad reputation for ten thousand years. No one could shoulder such a responsibility, neither could they accept it.

If they were to ask Gu Yuan, what should they do? Yes, what should they do?

Gu Yuan's mind was completely blank. His mind was practically blank, and he couldn't find any thoughts at all.

They stood there for a very long time. No one moved, and no one spoke.

At this moment, they were on a train. However, it was the return journey. Ye Shuyun finally heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, it wasn't your uncle. It really scared me to death.

When Lu Yi and ye Shuyun rushed to the hospital, they discovered that the person who was in the car accident wasn't Ye Chuji. That person said that he was the one who stole all these things. He was just careless and got hit by a car. As for who he stole it from..., he couldn't even remember clearly.

Ye Shuyun heaved a sigh of relief on the spot. However, Lu Yi didn't. This matter was too coincidental. Yes, it was too coincidental. Just as he left, ye Jianguo took Yan Huan away. How did ye Jianguo Know..., they went to look for ye Chuji. When did ye Chuji not lose his things? It just so happened that he lost them at this moment. And when he did not miss anything, the panic in the thief's eyes was even more obvious.

He knew that he was lying.

So, this could be a trap. A trap that wanted him to go out and leave Yan Huan alone so that they could catch him. It had to be said that this trap was very perfect. Even his own son could curse..., ye Jianguo was really no longer the ye Jianguo of the past. Sun Yuhuan had gone mad, and even ye Jianguo had gone mad.

The car quickly drove towards hai city. Lu Yi raised his wrist and looked at his watch. He was also calculating the time.

If there were no major problems, they would rush to hai city early the next morning.

He closed his eyes. But strangely, he could not fall asleep no matter how hard he tried.

Something seemed to have happened, and something seemed to be out of his control.

He was clearly eager to go home, but he was still sitting here. He was waiting, and he could only wait, waiting for time, waiting for speed, waiting... For tomorrow.

The car continued to drive forward, and under his black eyes were those things called eager to go home.

Someone was waiting for him.

Someone was thinking about him

Yan Huan suddenly sat up and touched her stomach. She was so hungry that she could even eat a rock. It had been a long time since she had been this hungry.

She raised her head and looked around. The walls were old and the skin was falling off. Only this wooden bed was relatively clean, and the blanket seemed to be new. She pulled a corner of the blanket and smelled it. It was indeed new, there wasn't any strange smell.

And she wanted to know.

Where exactly was this place?

She snapped back to her senses and realized that her shoes were still on her feet.

She sat by the bed for a long time before she stood up. Then, she pulled on the door. With a creak, the door opened.

However, there was an extremely unpleasant smell outside

A woman with disheveled hair was sitting on a wheel. She suddenly raised her head and when she saw Yan Huan's face, her entire person seemed to twist

A man was sitting beside her. His green eyes were wide open. At this moment, there was almost no warmth in the ice. When he met Yan Huan's eyes, the ice suddenly turned into frost and then water.

He took out a bag and placed it on the table. Then he pointed at the bag and motioned for Yan Huan to come over and take it.

Yan Huan walked over and opened the bag. There were a few buns in the bag. She touched them and found that they were still warm. She took one from the bag and sat on the ground to eat it.

Sun Yuhan's face was still twisted. She was so thin that her human form could not be seen. Her body still had an unpleasant smell. She was sitting in a wheelchair with one leg in a cast.

Chapter 1733: long and short legs

Long and short legs.

Yes, long and short legs. Perhaps even Sun Yuhan herself did not know that she already had long and short legs.

Yan Huan took a bite of the bun.

She had no sympathy for Sun Yuhan at all. She had been arrested twice because of Sun Yuhan. If Not for Sun Yuhan, she would still be at home right now. How could she be tied up like that, she didn't even have a sip of water for a whole day.

She picked up another bun. She could feel that Sun Yuhan's gaze was almost like that of a hungry wolf. Every time she took a bite of the bun, Sun Yuhan would grit her teeth fiercely.

Yan Huan continued to bite into the bun. Who could she blame? If she had to blame someone, it would be herself. Instead, she would implicate others.

Yan Huan ate two steamed buns and was full. There was a bottle of water on the table that had not been opened. She looked at the bottle of water but did not move. She did not know if she could drink this bottle of water.

Arnold stretched out his hand and took the bottle of water as well. Then, he placed it in front of Yan Huan.

“Thank you.” Yan Huan took the water and drank it as well.

She wasn't afraid of Arnold. At the very least, this man had never hurt her or harmed her. Compared to those sanctimonious fellows, he was really much better.

His emotions were always displayed on his face and actions. It was just like how he hated Sun Yuhan. Torturing Sun Yuhan had become his obsession. He wouldn't let Sun Yuhan off.

Yan Huan had already seen through all of this.

However, she thought of her current situation. She did not know if she would be as lucky as last time and be able to go home.

She took another sip of water. She did not feel very happy, but there was a kind of pressure pressing down on her heart. It also made her unable to breathe.

She walked back to the room again. The air here was almost moldy.

And she didn't even know where she was?

Was she still in the sea city?

She thought she should still feel it.

She could still smell the sea water's air here. And now, when the osmanthus flowers were blooming, the air seemed to have a hint of osmanthus fragrance, which was also crushed in the slightly damp air.

Only the sea city had this kind of air, and only the sea city had this kind of osmanthus fragrance.

Yan Huan lifted the blanket and lay down. She was also full. After drinking enough, her stomach no longer felt so uncomfortable. However, she wanted to go home and Miss Lu Yi.

She pulled up the blanket. Even the blanket seemed to have a musty and damp smell. There was also a slightly sweet osmanthus fragrance. Occasionally, she would sniff it, but after sniffing it too much, she would get a little tired of the sweetness.

She closed her eyes and wanted to sleep. She didn't expect to wake up the next morning and be at home. However, she knew that this was probably just a wild hope.

It shouldn't be too difficult to run the second time, right.

Lu Yi opened his eyes. The plane had already stopped, but he didn't rest. Instead, he called for someone to send ye Shuyun back to the Lu family while he went to the Safety Hall.

At this moment, Lei Qingyi had also returned to the Safety Hall. The moment he returned, he knew about Yan Huan's matter. As for these people who had lost Yan Huan, he really wanted to scold them as idiots.

"He will be here soon. Think about how to explain it to him."

This time, Lei Qingyi did not want to talk to Gu Yuan anymore, "Even if it's a case, shouldn't there be some principles? You are the police, but what have you done? Using a woman as bait? Who gave you the authority? Who gave you the courage?"

"That woman is not someone else, she is Yan Huan, ha..." lei qingyi sneered, "You have to know which celebrity doesn't have some brainless fans. If they know that you treat their celebrity like this, guess what they will do?"

"Okay." Lei Qingyi did not say this first. "What fans or not, I won't mention it. I want to know now. When prosecutor Lu comes back, how are you going to explain it to him?"

This was the first time Gu Yuan was pointed at his nose and scolded like this. However, he could not refute anything. When the others were about to speak, Gu Yuan shook his head at them.

This matter was originally their fault. It was their fault. It was their fault that allowed that person to take Yan Huan away. It was good that they were only scolding him and not suing them.

Not long after, Lu Yi came over.

"You're back." Lei Qingyi quickly stood up.

"How is it? What happened to your uncle?"

"It's not him." Lu Yi glanced at Gu Yuan and the rest. It seemed like they had forgotten what he had said. If that was the case, he did not mind. Teach them what law was.

Because it wasn't him, Lei Qingyi couldn't react for a long time. What did he mean by it wasn't him?

"I feel like I've been schemed against from the beginning to the end." Lu Yi opened a door. It was filled with the security maps of Hai City, where almost all the large-scale alarm systems in Hai City were located.

He walked in, and Lei Qingyi followed him in. As for the people that Gu Yuan had brought with him, they were useless now. Lu Yi didn't need their help. He just needed to stand a little further away, it would only make things worse.

Lu Yi took out his notebook.

Then, he pulled out the map of Hai City and flipped it open. He was also calculating something on it.

"Are you sure?" Lei Qingyi knew what Lu Yi was doing. In the beginning, he was also like this. He was calculating the place where Arnold was hiding, and every time, he almost guessed it, later, ye Jianguo insisted on causing trouble, so he got a grain garden. Well, they abdicated the throne and gave the credit to him, who was surnamed Gu.

In the end, Gu was a vegetarian. Not to mention having no effect at all, he had to make so many things in the end, and even used Yan Huan as bait. In the end, he lost the bait. This time, he did not succeed in stealing it, but instead, he lost a handful of rice.

Lu Yi did not speak, but his face was dark. His fingers had been placed on the keyboard the entire time. His hand speed was extremely fast, so fast that it was almost impossible to see what he was typing, as well as the phantoms that his fingers were casting.., one after another, it was almost a blur to the eyes.

Time passed by one second after another. It was between his fingers, walking, passing, fast, and slow.

He had been staring at the computer the entire time. It was as if he had not even blinked his eyes. Then, he had been staring at the computer for an entire night. He was even tired from the car ride and was covered in dust, he had not even drunk a single mouthful of water or eaten a single grain of rice.

He did not move. Lei Qingyi did not move either. Even outside, no one had gone back.

They were all waiting, but they did not know what they were waiting for?

Chapter 1734: found

Until the sun rose, Lu Yi's tightly knitted brows suddenly relaxed.

He put down his notebook.

"Have you found it?" Lei Qingyi suddenly sat up and wiped his face, wondering if he had found it.

"Yes, I found it." Lu Yi was also very tired. He turned around and saw the map of Hai City on the computer, where a red dot was flashing.

"It's right there. Huanhuan has a small electronic tracker on her. She just happens to have it with her. However, it's not easy to activate it. It's all thanks to this. Otherwise, who knows how long it would take?"

Gu Yuan and the rest had not slept for nearly a night. The Sky had just brightened, and the entire safety hall seemed to have started moving. This was something that they had never encountered before.

They also stood up, but they looked at each other. They did not know what had happened. It seemed that the entire safety hall was about to be mobilized.

It was still the pony that was more lively. Over the past few days, he had already formed a good relationship with a few people from the safety hall, so it was very easy for him to ask the reason.

"They are going to capture someone."

The pony hurriedly ran over and said, "It's that Arnold."

"How do they know where to catch him?" Xiao Zhu strode over. He had never been able to figure out where Arnold was hiding and how the people from the Safety Hall knew about it.

"They didn't say, and I don't know either."

Xiao Ma asked for a long time, but he didn't say anything. Maybe they were guarding against him.

"Captain, what should we do now?" Xiao Ma was very anxious. He turned around and saw that the security hall was almost empty. Then, he asked Gu Yuan.

"Follow them."

Gu Yuan reached out and took his clothes. He couldn't sit still at all.

"They're following us?" Lei Qingyi said to Lu Yi who was sitting beside him, "Should we let them go back?"

"Don't worry about them. We're in a hurry."

Lu Yi did not want to waste any more time in other places. He only needed to save Yan Huan Now. The last time she was captured, there was nothing he could do. This time, no matter what, he had to save her in the shortest time possible, he did not want them to move to another place.

The car was running at a high speed, and it was getting further and further away from them.

Arnold suddenly stood up, as if he felt that danger was coming.

Yes, Danger was coming because they were coming.

He directly grabbed Sun Yuhan's wheelchair, causing half of her leg to hurt. Her face was contorted from the pain, but she did not dare to utter a single word.

Yan Huan also followed him out. She saw that Arnold had already taken the simple luggage. He was about to run away.

"Let's go," Arnold turned his head and said to Chun Huan. Yan Huan pursed her red lips and finally followed him.

Arnold opened the door. Not long after pushing Sun Yuhan's wheelchair, a few cars had already surrounded them.

"Ah, ah..."

Sun Yuhan seemed to be unable to speak. Her mouth was constantly filled with such "Ah Ah" sounds.

Her eyes were almost soaked in tears.

Save her, save her, save her immediately. She wanted to go home. She wanted to go home. She didn't want to stay by this man's side. She wanted to go home. She really wanted to go home.

Arnold suddenly turned his head. He held a fruit knife in his hand and directly pressed it against Sun Yuhan's neck.

"Don't go forward, or I'll drain all her blood."

With an ice-cold fruit knife on her neck, Sun Yuhan's entire body froze. She couldn't even breathe

Suddenly, her neck also hurt. She was so scared that her entire body trembled. The more she dared to be afraid, the more she trembled. The fruit knife on her neck also became heavier.

Yan Huan had been standing behind Arnold the whole time. She did not make a sound and did not move.

She blinked her eyes and saw the exhausted Lu Yi. Lu Yi comforted her and nodded at her, indicating that she should not be afraid. Yan Huan bit her red lips and gently sniffed. At this moment.., the atmosphere at the scene was almost on the verge of exploding.

The SWAT team in the distance had already aimed their guns at Arnold and were looking for a suitable opportunity to shoot him down. Yan Huan turned her head and discovered that a gun was aimed right at Arnold's head.

She moved her red lips. It was possible that she wanted to say something, but she was unable to say it.

"Arnold..." suddenly, Yan Huan took a step forward, causing everyone to break out in cold sweat. What was she doing? Was she courting death?

Arnold's body trembled, and he slowly turned his head around,

"Can you stop?"

Arnold did not understand. Why did he stop?

Yan Huan raised his face and faced the wind in front of him. The wind was still filled with the fragrance of osmanthus flowers.

"This world is so good, right? Many people want to live another day. Don't you want to?"

"Do you want... To Let me live?"

Arnold asked Yan Huan. His pair of lake-green eyes seemed to contain some joy.

"Do you know, it's so good to be alive." Yan Huan suddenly felt a little sour in his heart. What was Life? It was just a bubble of seawater. It was so fragile that it almost shattered in an instant.

He could clearly live, so why not live?

"If you admit your mistake now, you'll still be alive, right?" Yan Huan looked into Arnold's eyes again. She didn't have any bad intentions. She just wanted him to be alive because he had let her off a few times.

"Will I?" The knife in Arnold's hand gently fell to the ground.

"Yes, I will. I will help you."

Yan Huan promised that she would help him. She would definitely qin him. She would let Lu Yi Qin him. Lu Yi must have a way, right? No matter what, although he had done many bad things.., he had never really harmed her.

He did not become a good person because no one had ever taught him how to be a good person.

And he should still have a chance.

Arnold suddenly smiled. That smile seemed to make his eyes return to the original silvery-blue color of the Clear Lake water.

And he did not know that Sun Yuhan had already picked up the fruit knife. She suddenly clenched the knife in her hand and stabbed forward. Originally, she wanted to kill Arnold, but her eyes were filled with even more hatred for Yan Huan, the knife in her hand also stabbed straight at Yan Huan.

Yan Huan also saw it, and her eyes were wide open. She even forgot to dodge. It was as if in two lifetimes, there was a knife that stabbed into her body again and again, it took away all of her blood, took away his life, and even took away everything she had. It was just like in her previous life. Could it be that she really wanted to die here, or was she going to die in such a way.

Chapter 1735: he was still alive

There was a sizzling sound, as if something had entered his flesh. Yan Huan shuddered. She lowered her head and saw that Arnold was already kneeling on the ground, and there was a sharp knife stuck deep into his back.

Almost all of it had been stabbed straight into his back.

“Ah Ah, ah...”

Sun Yuhan screamed like crazy, tearing her hair from time to time, and then grabbing her face, as if she had really gone crazy.

Lei Qingyi hurriedly gestured for people to go over. The few of them spent a lot of effort, but in the end, they still knocked Sun Yuhan unconscious and took her away.

At that moment, Arnold was still kneeling on the ground, and blood kept flowing out of the corners of his mouth. He was just about to open his mouth, but it was another mouthful of blood

However, he still opened his mouth and smiled.

“I... I’m sorry...”

He also wanted to start over. He wanted to be a new person and have a good identity, but he didn’t have the chance. However, his death was not a loss. It was worth it to die for her.

Someone once said that if one day, he met a woman who had no passion for his eyes, then this woman would be his calamity. He had to leave far away and never get close to her again. Otherwise., it was either his life or his soul.

He met her, but it was a little too late.

Yan Huan stood in front of him and slowly squatted down. Then, he stretched out his hand and gently smoothed his messy hair.

“It’s okay, I’ve Forgiven You.”

Arnold smiled again. At this time, his eyes were almost clear green, so green that they became clear. Suddenly, his pupils constricted, and he gradually fell down, he also closed his eyes, never to open them again.

Yan Huan suddenly felt very sad. She lowered her head and held his hand tightly

“Thank you...”

As for the rest, she didn't know what to say.

Thank him. Although he had captured her, he had never hurt her. Thank him for using his life to save her.

Lu Yi walked over and hugged her shoulders.

“Is He Dead?”

Yan Huan felt that he could not bear such a thing, nor could he bear a person's life.

“No, he's not dead. He's just too heavily injured. He needs a doctor.”

At this moment, someone had already carried Arnold away.

Where were they going to send him? Yan Huan asked Lu Yi again and saw that these people had already carried him far away. They placed him on a car and closed the car door behind them. She could no longer see him.

“He's not from our country. He will be sent back to his country.”

Lu Yi gently stroked Yan Huan's hair. He was lying to her. Actually, Arnold was already dead. The knife had pierced deep into his back, all the way to his heart. His chest was no longer heaving up and down. Even if he was in the hospital.., he would not be able to live.

He knew that this man obviously liked Yan Huan, but he was also grateful to him because he was the one who had blocked Yan Huan's path in the end. It was just like in his previous life, when Yan Huan had blocked his path, and this blocking.., it wasn't anything else, it was their lives.

“Let's go home.” He helped Yan Huan up and adjusted her clothes. She seemed to be fine and didn't have any major injuries.

However, when he pulled Yan Huan's wrist, he realized that there were obvious traces of a rope being used on her wrist. “Who did this?”

Yan Huan retracted his hand and looked at Gu Yuan and the others who were still standing there

“They tied me up and stuffed me in the car. They didn't give me any food or water. They locked me up for a day.”

Lu Yi turned his head back and his expression turned gloomy. He saw Gu Yuan's embarrassed and extremely ugly face.

“Did we put something in the car?” Xiao Ma muttered softly. He really felt that he had been wronged. They were clearly not that vicious. How could they say such irresponsible words? Such a false accusation.., they did not accept it.

Although what they did was not right, they admitted what they had done and did not do it. How could they admit it.

“Oh, you put something in the car?” Lei Qingyi walked over and stood in front of Xiao Ma. This mountain-like height made Xiao Ma gulp involuntarily. He did not dare to reply.

“You guys tied her up, right?”

Lei Qingyi pointed at Yan Huan, “I think that’s how it was. Let Me Guess, what were you thinking at that time? It was not easy for you guys to get her out. What you were most afraid of was her running around. So, you guys tied her up in the car and put a lot of things in the car?”

“That’s what happened.” Xiao Ma lowered his head and muttered.

Lei Qingyi didn’t even want to give it to him.

“No wonder you couldn’t catch her. I was right to call you stupid.” He reached out and grabbed Xiao Ma’s collar, “I tied you up in the car and threw you a pile of delicacies. Let me ask you, can you eat? Do you have hands to eat, or do you have to eat like a dog? Where is your basic intelligence?”

Xiao Ma’s face turned pale and he couldn’t speak anymore.

Lei Qingyi put down Xiao Ma and patted his hand, “Congratulations, you’ve completed the mission given to you by Ye Jianguo. You’ve completely rescued Miss Sun. But now you’re facing a case of kidnapping and missing persons.”

They were public officials. They knew the law and broke it. They were already on the verge of breaking the law, and Lu Yi wouldn’t let them go. This was absolute.

Lu Yi brought Yan Huan home. Just as they reached home, Yan Huan felt his spirit relax. He fell on Lu Yi’s shoulder, scaring Lu Yi.

When he yibin arrived, he told Lu Yi that Yan Huan was fine. In fact, he was just too nervous. Moreover, he had not eaten recently. His blood sugar was very low, but he was fine. He just needed to rest well for a few days, he would be fine. Anyway, Yan Huan’s body had always been like this. It was neither good nor bad. As long as he was not careful, he might have low blood sugar. This was why Lu Yi always had a few pieces of sugar in his pocket, it was to make it convenient for Yan Huan to have low blood sugar from time to time.

He Yibin gave Yan Huan an injection. This time, it was a little serious. If he did not give him an injection, it would not be easy for him to recover.

By the time Yan Huan woke up, it was already night time.

She sat up and raised her hand to take a look. She saw that there was a piece of tape taped to the back of her hand. No wonder the back of her hand was a little painful. She must have had an injection.

“He’s awake?” The moment Lu Yi entered, he realized that Yan Huan had woken up. He did not seem to be in a bad state of mind.

“How is he?” Yan Huan raised his head and followed Lu Yi.

Lu Yi sat down and let her rest on his shoulder. “Although he’s severely injured, he’s still alive. He’s already been sent back to his own country. He might be sentenced to life imprisonment.”

Chapter 1736: She was the victim

Yan Huan looked at his fingers and also let out a sigh of relief. Well, it was good that he did not die. As long as he was alive, it did not matter even if he lived like that. At the very least, he was still alive.

Yan Huan did not think about what kind of good life Arnold would lead. He could still live like a normal person. That was impossible. He had committed too many crimes. It was also too big. It was better than death if he was imprisoned for life.

“Then, What About Sun Yuhan?”

Yan Huan asked another person. Sun Yuhan could be considered to have hurt someone. Shouldn't she also take some responsibility.

“Nothing will happen to her, because she is a victim.”

Lu Yi gently stroked Yan Huan's hair. Moreover, ye Jianguo would not let anything happen to her.

Yes, Yan Huan knew that ye Jianguo would hire the best lawyer to defend his granddaughter. In any case, she was a victim. Her mind was not clear at that time. Even if the direction in which she swung the knife was not Arnold, but her, Yan Huan., in the end, she could escape the punishment of the law, and she could continue to be carefree.

“But she has done so many bad things. Doesn't God punish her?”

Su Muran had such an illness, and Lu Qin was now a eunuch. Why did Sun Yuhan still have to live well despite the same pile of bad things?

“Trust me, it won't take long.” Lu Yi rested his chin on Yan Huan's head, “She will definitely receive her retribution. Actually, you see, her retribution isn't coming. Her leg is already crippled. She will be a cripple from now on. She has already lost what she wants the most. She will never be able to act again in this lifetime.”

“But it's not enough.” Yan Huan held Lu Yi's hand tightly. Yes, it wasn't enough. It was completely not enough. Not to mention losing a leg, even if both her legs were crippled, it wouldn't be able to make up for the harm she had done to others.

However, as long as Sun Yuhan was still a member of the Ye family and Ye Rong's daughter, she would be able to live very well. If one day, she was no longer a member of the Ye family, then everything would return to the starting point.

Only then would she truly lose everything.

What did Sun Yuhan Love the most?

Was it fame, fame, or her identity.

No, it was all wrong. What Sun Yuhan loved the most was money. Money was something that supported her, it was her support, it was her pillar, and it was also her life.

And the Ye family was born with money. That was why they created Sun Yuhan. It was also why they created such a disgusting woman.

Yan Huan leaned against Lu Yi's chest and fell asleep again. Lu Yi hugged her quietly. At that moment, no one noticed the sudden violence in his eyes.

This matter would not be settled just like that.

Sun Yuhan could not sue him, and she could not sue him either. Just as she said, she was the victim, but Gu Yuan and the others, he would not let any of them go. And Ye Jianguo, the last trace of their relationship in the future., it was all gone.

He was no longer his grandfather, and he was no longer his grandfather for the rest of his life.

He actually cursed his own son to get into a car accident, then tricked him into leaving, and then took Yan Huan away to be used as bait by Sun Yuhan. Ye Jianguo, he really had some face.

"Lu Yi..."

Yan Huan grabbed Lu Yi's clothes.

"Yes, What's Wrong?"

Lu Yi lowered his head and saw her long eyelashes fluttering slightly. She did not wake up.

"I want to eat noodles."

"Okay, I'll Cook for You When you wake up."

Yan Huan was really asleep now.

Lu Yi carefully put her down and went out. Then, he put on an apron and personally cooked noodles for Yan Huan.

Gu Yuan and the others had already left. However, leaving was not the end of their morning. Instead, it was the beginning. Because they had kidnapped someone and done something illegal, they could no longer be police officers, even Xiao Zhu had been ruined by his wrong actions. His mind had suffered the most serious trauma and he had begun to doubt himself. If this seed of doubt was planted in a moment, it would be very difficult to remove it, it would become a psychological barrier for him. It might also be a psychological barrier and hint that he would never be able to remove for the rest of his life.

As for Gu Yuan, he had already been arrested, and all his team members had been fired from their public positions. This time, he had truly made a loss. Perhaps none of them would have thought that it was because of a mission that they did not put in their eyes, after that, he had ruined everything that they had worked so hard for. He had ruined his own team, and he had also ruined himself. Moreover, he would never be able to become a police officer again.

Because in the end, they wanted to protect their team and their reputation. However, they did something that they should not have done. Therefore, they deserved it.

Moreover, Sun Yuhan had already returned to the ye family from the hospital. It was also because of the good food and drinks that she had been provided for the past few days that she was in good spirits.

However, every time she saw her hands, she would tremble, she had actually killed someone. She had actually killed someone, but that person deserved to die. No, that person deserved to die. She had killed the right person. She had killed the right person. She had killed the right person. She definitely hadn't done anything wrong.

The door outside was gently pushed open. Ye Jianguo walked in. When he saw his granddaughter like this, his heart also didn't feel good.

"Grandpa..." Sun Yuhan hurriedly pushed her wheelchair. One of her legs was still in a cast. Although she had been tortured into a scumbag by Arnold this time, it wasn't too bad. At the very least., her leg was still there. The cast didn't fall off and she wasn't injured again. She could still walk in the future.

Sun Yuhan could walk, just like a normal person. She could wear high heels, run, and jump.

However, in the eyes of the doctor, she could walk. Even if her legs were long or short, she could still walk.

"Grandpa, I killed him. Will he be okay?"

Sun Yuhan recalled the feeling she had at that time. Her hands were shaking. I don't know why, but the knife passed by. I didn't do it on purpose. I really didn't do it on purpose.

"It's not your fault. Don't worry," ye Jianguo comforted Sun Yuhan.

"You were defending yourself. That person deserved to die. He deserved to die. Even if he didn't die, he would still be sentenced to death."

"Am I really okay?" Sun Yuhan asked with uncertainty.

"If Grandpa says I'm okay, then I'm okay." Ye Jianguo gently stroked his granddaughter's hair. He would naturally not let anything happen to his granddaughter. Moreover, this was not Sun Yuhan's fault to begin with, but that Arnold's fault.

When Sun Yuhan heard ye Jianguo's promise, her heart was finally at ease. Later, she would ask the maid to prepare more food for her. She was really starving to death. She wanted to make up for the few days that she had not eaten, she needed to make up for everything.

Then, she would heal her leg and continue filming.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Come in," ye Jianguo said to the door. The door opened and the nanny was standing outside.

"Grandfather, Lu Xian is here."

Chapter 1737: she was not a woman

Mr. Lu?

Before ye Jianguo could react to what Mr. Lu was, Lu Yi had already strode in and stood in the middle of the room.

“Who let you in?”

When ye Jianguo saw Lu Yi, he immediately pulled a long face, “This is how you are taught. How did the Lu family teach you? This is another family, not the Lu family. Who let you in? Who allowed you in? Who Let You Stand Here? Get Out Now.”

Ye Jianguo pointed at the door, his face filled with various kinds of disgust.

“It’s not the same as you entering someone else’s house without their consent. You even kidnapped someone else’s wife without their consent and used it as bait to save your own granddaughter. Are you telling me that this is called a family lesson? This is the ye family’s family lesson. If this is really the ye family’s family lesson, then I’m sorry, I really can’t learn it.”

Lu Yi’s indifferent words also made ye Jianguo choke.

Lu Yi was here to settle the score.

Lu Yi walked in front of Sun Yuhan.

Sun Yuhan wanted to hide the moment she saw Lu Yi. She was afraid of the current him and Lu Yi’s expressionless face.

“Grandfather...”

Sun Yuhan called ye Jianguo.

Ye Jianguo quickly went forward and stood in front of his granddaughter.

“Lu Yi, what are you doing?”

“Nothing. I just came to ask Miss Sun a few questions.”

“I don’t want to answer any questions. I don’t know anything. I’ve forgotten everything.”

Sun Yuhan covered her ears and screamed hysterically.

“Really?” Lu Yi didn’t believe that she would forget anything. This woman was the best at pretending.

“Miss Sun, why? When you were killing people, when you raised your knife, why weren’t You So Afraid? Now You’re so afraid.”

“She was defending herself,” ye Jianguo snorted, “Even you can’t convict her, Lu Yi. Moreover, her brain was abnormal at that time. Even the judge knew that this matter had nothing to do with my granddaughter. How could a prosecutor like you not know? Did you learn the law for Nothing?”

“Your brain isn’t clear?” Lu Yi sneered. “Sun Yuhan, why do I remember that the person you wanted to kill at that time wasn’t Arnold, but Yan Huan.”

“Lu Yi, if you continue to spout nonsense, I’ll definitely Sue You,” ye Jianguo directly raised his voice. Don’t think that just because you’re a prosecutor, you can spout nonsense. He, Ye Jianguo, wasn’t afraid of a junior.

“You’re welcome to sue me.” Lu Yi was not afraid of being sued. He had always done things with a clear conscience. If he wanted to sue, he could do it now. He would wait.

And if ye Jianguo was choked again, there was almost nothing he could do to hurt Lu Yi?

He was not a fool. He was in the wrong in this matter. What he was relying on now was that he was surnamed Ye, and Lu Yi was ye Shuyun’s. Moreover, he was already old, and Lu Yi did not dare to fight with him.

But doing wrong was doing wrong.

Even if he did not admit it, it was still wrong.

“Miss Sun, let me ask you again.” Lu Yi’s voice was cold, even colder than the winter wind. “Did you stab Yan Huan at that time? You wanted to kill Yan Huan, right?”

“Lu Yi, shut up!” Ye Jianguo raised his hand and was about to slap Lu Yi’s face, but Lu Yi raised his finger and directly grabbed ye Jianguo’s arm. This was not the first time ye Jianguo had attacked Lu Yi.

In the past, Lu Yi almost never retaliated. He never retaliated when he scolded, but this time, he didn’t tolerate it.

Suddenly, there was a slap

Lu Yi gave Sun Yuhan a hard slap on the face.

Sun Yuhan was stunned by the slap, even ye Jianguo was stunned.

With another good slap, Lu Yi gave another slap.

Sun Yuhan’s face quickly swelled up. Lu Yi’s hand was very strong. With a few more slaps, Sun Yuhan might really be slapped to death by him.

“Lu Yi, don’t you dare!”

Ye Jianguo was so angry that his entire body was trembling. It was as if he was about to die from anger.

“Why wouldn’t I Dare?” Lu Yi clenched his fingers tightly. The corners of his raised lips were still cold without the slightest warmth, “I, Lu Yi, don’t hit women, but Sun Yuhan isn’t a woman. She’s just trash raised by you, Ye Jianguo. Why, do you feel sorry for her?”

Lu Yi took another step closer to ye Jianguo. “I only slapped her a few times, and you feel sorry for her because she’s your granddaughter. But what about Yan Huan? Yan Huan is my wife, and you actually kidnapped her and used her as bait for your granddaughter. That trash raised by you wants to use her brain to kill my wife? “It’s because she didn’t manage to kill her, so you’re still alive. If she really killed her, I can guarantee you that his face is extremely gloomy. I Don’t care what your ye family is, I don’t care who you, Ye Jianguo, are. I will make your ye family disappear in Hai City for the rest of your life, including you and that trash raised by you.”

“Lu Yi, you...”

Ye Jianguo was so angry that he spat out a mouthful of blood. Sun Yuhan was also beaten into a pig's head. She did not even have any reaction.

"Get lost!"

"Give it to me immediately."

Ye Jianguo pointed outside. His voice broke along with his heart.

Lu Yi turned around and walked out in large strides. The moment he turned around, he heard Sun Yuhan's scream.

This vicious woman would be punished one day. It wasn't that she wouldn't be punished, but that it wasn't the time yet.

"You Hit Sun Yuhan?" Yan Huan was shocked when he heard what he said.

"It's not good for a man to hit a woman," she blurted out after a long while. Yes, it wasn't good for a man to hit a woman. No matter what, he couldn't hit a woman.

"She's not a woman."

Lu Yi said indifferently, "She's trash."

Yan Huan pulled his hand,

"Which hand did you use to hit her? This one or this one?"

"Mm, it should be this one." Lu Yi was not left-handed. He was used to using his right hand.

"Let's go." Yan Huan pulled Lu Yi into the bathroom. Then, she turned on the tap and helped him wash his hands. mm, he had to use 84 bubbles. It was too dirty. What if he was infected with bacteria? You still have to carry three children. She used 84 to wash Lu Yi's hands very cleanly.

Yes, this was good. She wiped his hands with a towel.

Done.

Lu Yi gently rubbed her hair. He saw that she was still smiling as simple and happy as before. This was right. She should not carry anything on her body, even if it was a human life that had nothing to do with her.

"You still can't hit women," Yan Huan frowned her delicate eyebrows. "It's not good for your influence. Leave the women to me and the men to you. The old ones. Forget it. We don't have many days to live. We can't fight."

If this was to be placed on a member of the Ye family, only Sun Yuhan could beat them up.

That's right. Why had she never seen Lu Yi beat someone up before? It was probably because he was too civilized.

"I see." Lu Yi pulled back the hair beside her ear. "Qingyi will come over for dinner later."

Chapter 1738: was his own flesh and blood

Yan Huan touched his forehead. "Then how many people's meals do we have to cook?" Lei Qingyi's stomach was very scary. He could eat a few people's meals when he was raw. Even if he ate like this every meal, how could he not be fat, this was what Yan Huan could not understand the most. He was tall, right? Yes, he was tall. Then he could at least eat for two people, right? But even after eating for four people, he still felt hungry. What kind of stomach did he have.

He ate too much.

"Make more. He can eat. It's best if he sweeps the plates."

Yan Huan felt the same way. Although Lei Qingyi ate too much and it was sometimes difficult for people to resist, he still had a great benefit. This was something that ordinary people did not have. That Was., no matter how many leftovers and leftovers were on the table, they would all be swept into the stomach in the end. Almost all of them were on discs. When the plates were empty, there was no need to take out the trash. They could just wash the plates.

She would go to the vegetable field later and take a look. There should be a lot of new vegetables growing out. These fresh vegetables were originally very delicious. Even if they were cooked, they would still be delicious.

Yan Huan stood up and went straight to the sunlight shed. She pulled out some vegetables and then collected some eggs. Right now, she was annoyed by what she had to cook, when she brought the pile of vegetables back, she directly steamed a big pot of rice.

She took a step back. Alright, that's it. She really didn't believe that Lei Qingyi could finish the whole pot of rice. If he really finished it, then he wouldn't call people, but pigs.

When Lei Qingyi came over, Yan Huan had already prepared a table full of dishes. The dishes were all freshly picked from the ground, and the eggs were harvested by her own family. She even specially killed a chicken and used it to make several dishes, among them was a plate of Grandma's stir-fried chicken. Lei Qingyi liked it very much and almost licked the plate in the end. Because the taste was really too good.

After lei qingyi had stuffed her stomach to the brim, Yan Huan looked at the table again. Come on, it was really too easy to wash the plates. There was practically nothing on them and they were all eaten up.

Fortunately, Lei Qingyi was born in the Lei family. If it was an ordinary family, with such a large appetite, they would definitely eat their parents until they were poor.

Yan Huan still stayed in the garden and did not like to go out. It was as if the events of those days had not affected her and she had forgotten about them. However, she would occasionally think of a pair of lake-green eyes.

It had nothing to do with love. Perhaps it was just a form of gratitude, an unforgettable gratitude.

"Even if I don't remember you in this world, I will still remember you."

"Also, thank you..."

She muttered to herself. When she turned around, she saw Bai Zhi still squatting on the ground, playing with the three children. What she taught the three children was not singing, dancing, or joking, what she taught them were some necessary escape methods.

In fact, Yan Huan really felt that she was overthinking things. They were still so young, and they were all under the protection of their parents. Their grandparents and great-grandfather looked at them like they were eyeballs, and they would not leave even a step, what else could happen?

However, Bai Zhi's children seemed to like learning, and Yan Huan did not stop them. If they wanted to learn, then so be it. In the end, they had to learn more. It was impossible for them to make a mistake.

That's right, she felt that the children's desire to learn was too strong. If this was the arrangement, wouldn't they lose their childhood? However, the children did not seem to think that way. They all had their own little thoughts, they also had some little thoughts. They could think and knew what to choose.

Yan Huan's relationship with the children was very equal. She would ask them for their opinions and listen to their opinions. Of course, she also respected them very much. The children were very obedient and had never made excessive demands.

"Xun Xun is very beautiful."

Bai Zhi picked up Xun Xun again and stared at her little face for a long time. Every time she saw this little girl, she felt that she was very stunning, even though she was already used to it, however, she still could not help but want to praise Yan Huan's daughter. She was really very beautiful, just like Yan Huan, but she seemed to be even more beautiful than Yan Huan.

Yan Huan did not have dimples, but the little girl did.

"You've said it many times?"

Yan Huan hugged her daughter from Bai Zhi's arms and patted her little face. "Go play with your older brother by yourself. Remember, don't get your clothes dirty."

"Okay." Xun Xun nodded her little head vigorously and went to play with her two brothers.

"Have you ever thought of letting your daughter be a child star?" Bai Zhi asked Yan Huan, "After all, you have such a unique condition. Many people have tried their best to get into this industry. Unfortunately, they don't have any backing and they don't have good luck. But you are different. I believe that as long as you are willing, Xun Xun's achievements will be very high."

"It's up to her." Yan Huan did not object to her daughter entering the entertainment industry. As long as it was not too excessive, it was fine. The child still had to look like a child. Of course, the most important thing was that old master Lu had to agree to it.

It was not like she did not know how much old master Lu hated people like them who acted in movies. Her two lifetimes were represented by one line.

An actor was heartless, but an actor had no intentions.

And how could grandfather Lu let his favorite Little Great-granddaughter Act.

She still took the time to ask if she wanted to find someone to like in the future. At the very least, she wanted to know if grandfather Lu would agree.

When Yan Huan sent the three children back, grandfather Lu couldn't wait any longer. When he saw that the three children had returned, he walked over energetically and hugged the three children one by one, this was pinching xunxun's little face.

As expected, this was the one that doted on xunxun the most.

"Grandfather, there's something that I want to discuss with you." Yan Huan saw that old master Lu was in a good mood and thought to himself that if he was asking such a question, old master Lu would not throw a cup at her.

"En, speak." Old Master Lu raised his eyelids. He was sitting on the ground playing with his little granddaughter's doll. It was as if this child was more important than his own life.

Yan Huan also squatted down. "Grandfather, if Xunxun wants to act, will you agree?"

"Act?" Old Master Lu thought about it and did not seem to have any special reaction. He just looked at his little great-granddaughter's beautiful little face in a daze.

"Okay, act well. My Xunxun is so beautiful. She will definitely be the most beautiful child star."

Yan Huan touched her forehead.

Only now did she know what it meant to be biological.

Yes, she was truly biological.

She stood up and prepared to go to the kitchen to help ye Shuyun cook today's dishes. Ye Shuyun had meticulously prepared food for the three children every day, and it was all thanks to her. Otherwise.., how could these three little fellows grow up so quickly.

Chapter 1739: eunuchs

"Mom, thank you for your hard work."

Yan Huan really felt sorry for ye Shuyun. She had only given birth to three children, but the three children had grown so big and were all taken care of by Ye Shuyun.

"What hard work?" Ye Shuyun looked outside at her three obedient and cute grandsons.

"If it weren't for them, Mom wouldn't know how to live? "Don't you know that as long as I take my three children out, my back will be straight? At our age, we don't think about anything except having a grandchild to take care of us."

"The happiest thing I do every day is to cook meals for my three grandsons that they like to eat. As long as they call me grandma, I'm in a good mood for the day."

Ye Shuyun was telling the truth and not comforting people. She liked children and loved them very much. It was all thanks to these three children that her life was complete. She followed her three children every day, even when she slept, she was still fragrant.

So there was no hard work. This hard work was something that other people could not ask for.

Ye Shuyun and Yan Huan had already prepared the dishes. Today, they had made dumplings to eat. The children had their own little dumplings, and the three children also liked to eat the dumplings made by their grandmother the most, of course, they also liked the dumplings that their mother made. They could eat a lot of dumplings in one meal, and it also filled their small stomachs until they were round.

This made ye Shuyun want to hug them every time.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. No one knew who would come at this time. Yan Huan entered the kitchen, and Lu Jin had already brought the three children to wash their hands. They were ready to eat.

When the door opened, the two people standing at the door stunned everyone in the Lu family for a few seconds.

When Yan Huan came out of the kitchen, he heard someone crying.

Who Was Crying? It wasn't the three children. The three children were usually very obedient, so they wouldn't cry like this.

When he put the plate away, suddenly, a sharp cry made Yan Huan touch his arm. He really felt goosebumps all over his body.

Also, why did this voice sound so familiar.

Then there was a burst of crying that sounded like the wailing of ghosts and howling of wolves. It didn't fall for a long time.

This was..

Qin Xiaoyue's voice

But How was this possible? Yan Huan couldn't believe it. Didn't Qin Xiaoyue and Lu Qin both leave the Lu Family? They were both removed from the Lu family's household registration. At that time, the Lu family was almost finished. Not only did they not think of a way., they even gave Old Master Lu a share of the property that they deserved. After they were finished, they even changed their household register. What happened? They came back again, and they were still crying like this?

Old Master Lu was not dead yet. Did they want to make Old Master Lu Cry to death?

At this moment, in the living room, Ye Shuyun carried the three children into the room and closed the door to prevent them from being frightened.

"Dad, I was wrong. I was really wrong. Please forgive me..."Qin Xiaoyue knelt on the ground and cried as if she didn't care about money.

No matter what happened to Lu Qin, he was still your grandson. Qin Xiaoyue quickly pulled Lu Qin to kneel down. At this moment, Lu Qin didn't look too good. For some reason, it seemed that from his face.., he felt a strange change. His skin seemed to be better and whiter. Even his facial features seemed to have become much gentler than before.

Moreover, from his actions, he did not seem like a man. Instead, he seemed to be close to a woman.

This was the first time Yan Huan had seen Lu Qin in such a long time. Lu Qin's change had indeed given her a shock. It had only been a few months since she last saw him. How did he change so much.

The eunuchs and whatnot on TV all turned sissy in the end, just like Dongfang Bubai. He had practiced the secret manual of self-castration, so he had turned into a woman in the end.

Could it be that Lu Qin would be the same in the future? If he turned into a transvestite, would he grow breasts?

And this scene was really too beautiful. She could not imagine it.

Old Master Lu didn't say anything at first. He just made them kneel on the ground and cry. Then, he sipped his tea slowly until he finished his third cup.

He suddenly threw the cup in his hand on the table.

"Who gave you permission to come back?"

He lowered his head and stared coldly at Qin Xiaoyue and Lu Qin, who were kneeling on the ground.

"Do you think my brain is stuck in the door? Why would I ask you to come back? You were the one who said that you would leave the Lu family after you took the things. You have nothing to do with the Lu family from now on."

"Qin Xiaoyue, you said that, right? Why? Did you take what you said back then as Bullsh * t?"

"Dad, I didn't..."

Qin Xiaoyue wanted to explain. Of course, she had thought of a reason to come over now.

"I didn't want to leave a trace of the Lu family's bloodline. We can't have something happen to our family at once."

Yan Huan rolled his eyes when he heard that.

Could Lu Qin still have a bloodline? If the Lu family put everything on him, then the Lu family's bloodline could be broken.

How could a eunuch bear a child?

Did Qin Xiaoyue still think that her son could still use that thing.

If he couldn't bear a child, how could he keep the Lu family's incense?

Old Master Lu couldn't bear to see Lu Qin and his son, and he couldn't even bear to see them now.

Seeing that the Lu family was about to leave after its decline, and now the Lu family was up again, and their assets were even richer than before. What was wrong? Did they want to come back now, or did they think that this old thing was dead or stupid?

This kind of cowardly person was not a descendant of the Lu family.

“Dad, please let us come back.” Qin Xiaoyue knelt forward and was about to hug old master Lu’s leg. In fact, she might really want to hug him, but old master Lu’s face was even longer than a horse’s face, it was darker than ink, and it was also more hateful than meeting an enemy.

And every expression and every action of his was saying, “I’m not happy, I’m very unhappy, I’m too F *cking unhappy. If I dare to touch the corner of his shirt, he will smash me to death.”

No matter what Qin Xiaoyue did, she didn’t dare to move recklessly.

“Dad, Lu Qin is your biological grandson after all!” Qin Xiaoyue wiped away her tears. Tears and snot flowed down her face. She had made up her mind to come back.

This Lu Qin was a big family. Their second branch also had a share. They were forced to leave because of the situation. Now that everything was fine, they naturally had to come back.

The Lu family now had so much wealth. How could they leave it all to the eldest branch? How could that be? Their second branch also had a share.

Chapter 1740: had his share

“Get lost!” Old Master Lu smashed the cup on the ground. He was annoyed by it, as if he was crying. Was he cursing him to die early? He did not want to die now. He still had more than ten to twenty years to live. His search had not grown up yet, so he hated people crying the most and hated the word ‘death’ the most.

“Guards, where are the guards?” Old Master Lu shouted outside. After a while, the guards rushed over.

Old Master Lu pointed at the two people on the ground and said, “Throw them out. Throw them as far as you can. Don’t let them in in the future.”

The Lu family was not a place where anyone could come whenever they wanted.

“Dad, you can’t treat US Like This!” Qin Xiaoyue saw that old master Lu wanted to drive them away, so she went up and hugged old master Lu’s leg.

“Dad, you can’t do this to us. She’s crying and sniffing at the same time. Lu Jing left early and only left me and Lu Qin alone. He didn’t leave us anything. Dad, is it so easy for me to raise Lu Qin alone? Dad, how can you do this to us? Lu Qin is your biological son, he’s a member of the Lu family...”

Old Master Lu directly kicked Qin Xiaoyue to the side.

“Throw them out immediately,” old master Lu shouted at the city guards again. He didn’t want to say another word to Qin Xiaoyue. He had already shown enough mercy to the mother and son, he really thought that it was easy to enter the Lu family. They could enter and leave as they wished.

The security guards brought Qin Xiaoyue and Lu Qin away forcefully. Lu Qin was still fine. He left on his own. However, when he left yesterday, he took a glance at Yan Huan. That Glance was a little poisonous, her feminine features caused Yan Huan to quiver involuntarily. It also reminded her of the man who swung his knife at her in her past life.

She clenched her hands. No matter what happened in this life, she would not let history repeat itself. She would not let herself die at the hands of Lu Qin. She would live on. She would live together with Lu Yi. She would watch their three children grow up, get married, and have children.

After Qin Xiaoyue and the others were thrown out, Ye Shuyun came out with the three children. The three children were in the room and did not hear what was happening outside, so they were not scared.

Xunxun touched his small belly.

“Grandma, xunxun is hungry.”

Ye Shuyun’s heart ached when she heard that her granddaughter was hungry. She had never let the three children go hungry before. It was all because of Qin Xiaoyue’s good deed, anyway, this time, she would definitely not let Qin Xiaoyue appear under her nose. Her three grandchildren were all so young. How could she not know Qin Xiaoyue’s personality, in any case, no one could think of hurting her grandchildren, especially Qin Xiaoyue.

“Let’s go. Grandma will look for delicious food for us.”

Ye Shuyun hurriedly brought the three children to the dining table. It was a pity that the dumplings were already cold, so Yan Huan took them in and heated them up. It just so happened that they could eat now.

On the dining table, the small children ate the food in their own small bowls. Although it was small, it had to be said that the three children’s upbringing was very good.

Of course, this was also thanks to the teachings of old man Lu from a young age. Although his method of education was a little excessive, it had to be said that the children were very polite.

While they were eating here, Qin Xiaoyue and Lu Qin were drinking the northwest wind outside the door.

If she had known earlier, she would not have gone out. Thinking about it now, Qin Xiaoyue was filled with regret. She was so regretful that she wanted to grind her teeth to pieces. How much money did they just share? What was the use of a few tens of millions.

Now that Lu Qin was like this, what would he do if he did not have money in the future? He did not even have any children. That was why they had to go back. They had to go back. In the future, when she was no longer a guest., lu Qin should at least have someone to take care of him.

Didn’t the Lu family still have three small children? In the future, she would tell grandfather Lu to give one to Lu Qin. She would give it to her Lu Qin as a son. That way, she would not have to worry about Lu Yongqin anymore. Moreover, once this was done., it was the same as turning the other two children into her own people. Why would she help her son plan such a good thing.

“Mom, grandfather is determined not to let us go back.”

Lu Qin wasn't as confident as Qin Xiaoyue. How could he not know grandfather Lu's character? Everyone else was sharp-tongued and soft-hearted, but grandfather Lu was sharp-tongued and hard-hearted.

He said that if he did not let them go back, they would not be able to enter the Lu family again.

"How can we not go back?" Qin Xiaoyue raised her voice when she heard this. She even forgot where they were now.

"This time, the Ye family's airport lost more than eight billion yuan. Now that the airport is fine, the Lu family is also fine. I heard that the eight billion yuan was recovered. Then, where else can the eight billion yuan go? It is still the Lu family's property. Your grandfather really hid it deep. He actually has more than eight billion yuan in his hands. Not to mention the small change, eight billion yuan. How much money does that have to be?"

"What kind of concept is eight billion? The entire world can be ranked at the top. No matter how these eighty memories are, half of them should belong to our second branch, right? Your grandfather is biased. He clearly had eighty memories back then, but he didn't share them with us. Instead, he gave us tens of millions. Is he trying to get rid of Beggars?"

Half? Four billion? Lu Qin curled his lips with a cold smile. Forget about four billion, even if it was a hundred million, they could forget about getting it now. Back then, in order to avoid the Lu family's troubles, they had done everything they could to block the road, their hukou had been changed long ago, and even their identity cards had been changed. They didn't want to get involved with the Lu family, and if that happened, it would implicate themselves.

But now, the Lu family had turned over a new leaf. They had turned over a new leaf, and they even had so much wealth.

Everyone would be jealous. Everyone would be greedy. Everyone would be unwilling.

Regardless of where the eight billion came from, all in all, this was the Lu family's wealth. It belonged to the Lu family. How could he, Lu Qin, not have a share.

"We definitely can't let boss'family get away with this." Qin Xiaoyue thought of the Lu family who were enjoying themselves in the Lu family. It was as painful as if someone was digging out her heart.

When she thought about how everything would belong to boss'family after Old Master was gone, she couldn't bear it.

When she turned around and wanted to take another look at the door, she saw the man standing outside the door and the white prosecutor's uniform on the man.
