

Sweet Wife 1861

Chapter 1861: half-husband and wife

She also entered her own room. Just as she closed the door, her phone in her bag rang.

She took out her phone. It was Yan Huan's.

"Hello..." she lazily placed the phone by her ear.

"Auntie Mei Mei."

"Xiao Guang?" Zhu Meina gripped her phone tightly.

"Aunt Meimei, why did you come over to see Xiao Guang again? Xiao Guang loves Aunt Meimei the most."

"Tomorrow, aunt will go and see Xiao Guang." Zhu Meina truly treated Xiao Guang as her own son. She felt that Xiao Guang might be the reincarnation of her own son. Otherwise, why would she like him so much.

In any case, now that Zhu Xianglan had ten guts, Zhu Xianglan did not dare to make a move against her anymore.

The voice on the phone changed again, and it was Yan Huan.

"Why, did she make a move?"

"What do you think?" Zhu Meina finally kicked off her high heels. However, she was considering whether to buy some low heels. At the very least, if someone really chased after her, she could still run.

And today, she could be considered to have suffered enough from this pair of high heels.

It was also because of Yan Huan that he was able to think so clearly.

She was even older than Yan Huan. How could she not think clearly than Yan Huan.

What was the use of beauty? Life was more important.

"I think they have really lived for too long. I originally wanted to let them live a few more days of comfortable lives."

Zhu Meina smiled, but her smile was a little cruel.

No matter how cruel she was, it was not as vicious as what Zhu Xianglan had done to her. It was also not that outrageous.

"Aren't you going to ask Su Qingdong for some spiritual compensation?"

Yan Huan reminded Zhu Xiangna, "If not now, how long do you want to wait?"

"Of course I want it." Zhu Xiangna was naturally not polite. It was not that easy to shut her mouth.

Zhu Xianglan's heart was still in turmoil. It was not that she had not called those two people, but no one picked up. Did she fail? Did she not find the right person? Or was she already captured.

Just as she was about to lose her temper, the door outside was pushed open with a bang.

Su Qingdong walked in from the outside. His face was almost completely dark.

"What are you doing here?"

Zhu Xianglan asked Su Qingdong with a dark face. They were still a couple, almost like enemies. Su Qingdong had not paid attention to her for almost a year, she did not think that Su Qingdong had come here to establish a relationship with her and wanted to start over.

To start over, shouldn't he be crying with guilt? Shouldn't he be saying that he was wrong? Shouldn't he be kneeling on the ground and admitting his mistakes? What was the meaning of giving her such an old face?

Su Qingdong's expression was indeed not bad at the moment. In fact, it was very bad. His eyes were almost as if they had eaten Zhu Xianglan.

"Do you think you have a brain?"

As soon as he entered, he immediately shouted at Zhu Xianglan.

"Zhu Xianglan, do you have a brain or not? Didn't I tell you not to provoke Zhu Meina? You're really good. You ignored my words and found someone to deal with her. You're really capable."

"Do you know what you've done?"

"What can I do?" Zhu Xianglan was already in a bad mood. When she heard Su Qingdong's accusation, she felt even more uncomfortable. She directly shouted at Su Qingdong. "You still have the face to scold me, Su Qingdong. What right do you have to question me? I will give you children and let you live a glorious life."

Giving me children? Su Qingdong interrupted Zhu Xianglan's words. Where is my son? A glorious life? I think the one who lives a glorious life is you, right?

Su Qingdong also didn't want to be a stupid pig like Zhu Xianglan who would say anything more. This kind of woman really didn't understand human language.

He pointed his finger at Zhu Xianglan.

You'll pay the consequences yourself this time.

He opened the door and walked out directly. Zhu Xianglan fell weakly to the floor, and an uneasiness flashed through her heart.

Outside, Zhu Meina stood leaning against the door. She lazily wrapped her arms around her chest, and her red lips curled into an arc that made people want to strangle her.

"What do you want?"

Su Qingdong walked over and stood in front of Zhu Meina.

“Money.” Zhu Meina stretched out her hand. “You’re already so old. What else can I do besides giving me money?”

This sentence of hers was so old that it almost poked at Su Qingdong’s heart. Yes, he was old. He was almost sixty years old. Lu Jin was the same age as him, but he had three grandsons, but what about him?

What Hope did the Su family have in the future? With Su Muran’s health condition, it would be difficult for him to live for a few more years and still have children.

He took out a card from his body. There was fifty million in it.

Zhu Meina directly took a whiff of the card. Of course, it was only right and proper for her to take it. Anyway, the Su family would belong to her in the future. Yan Huan had said that he would help her. Whatever she said, she would have it. She could have as much money as she wanted.

All of this would be considered interest.

“Don’t worry.” Zhu Meina leaned her body forward and rested her head on Su Qingdong’s shoulder, “No matter what, I will save your life. We are a married couple for a hundred days. No matter what happens, we are still half a married couple.”

While she said these seemingly plausible words, her eyes were looking at Zhu Xianglan who had just come out proudly.

Zhu Xianglan looked as if she had just swallowed a fly, which made Zhu Meina very satisfied.

Everyone liked to base their happiness on the pain of others.

This feeling was supposed to be so refreshing.

Su Qingdong pulled Zhu Meina’s hand away. He staggered slightly and then walked out in large strides.

Zhu Meina shook the card in her hand again.

This was really good stuff. It could buy a lot of things. It could also be considered as a way to calm her down. Of course, she also had to save the new year money for her godson.

She kicked her shoes and walked barefoot to her room.

Suddenly, she turned her head. The corner of her lips also lifted up in a very strange arc. There was actually a hint of mockery at the corner of her lips.

It was all your fault. You Can’t blame anyone else for this.

This time, Zhu Xianglan didn’t know if Su Qingjiang’s warning had taken effect or if she was really afraid. She was afraid that those people would expose her, so she had been a little crazy recently, there were always some people who were suspicious.

She wanted to discuss it with Su Jiuran, but Su Muran had been very busy recently. He was still not involved with his family.

This was because Su Mulan’s luck was really like a cheat. It was rising and succeeding.

In the entertainment industry, it was almost calm recently. The few people who were still popular, as well as a few fresh young men who had recently debuted well, were also accumulating popularity. As for the rest, it was still the same, in the box office, the first place was still occupied by the dazzling first place. Although many good films had appeared in the past few years, whether it was in terms of reputation or the lineup of actors, they were all much closer, however, no one seemed to be able to surpass the first place in terms of the box office.

Chapter 1862: popularity was too strange

Therefore, the position of the first one was still there and firmly entrenched there. It was almost as if they would not move for ten thousand years.

Yan Huan, Su Muran, and Sun Yuhan. The status of these three people in the entertainment industry was still being talked about. However, it was unexpected. Other than Su Muran who had been in the limelight recently.., the other two people actually disappeared one after another.

The matter of Sun Yuhan being arrested for fraud and intentional assault was almost regrettable. This was a lot more melodramatic than a drama. Of course, no one could have imagined such a result.

One day, Cinderella became a princess, and another day, the princess turned out to be a liar.

As for Su Muza, she often received new information about her recently. Because she had participated in a few reality shows, her popularity had skyrocketed.

In addition, she had received a few good movies. Not to mention her, even the onlookers felt that she was going to become famous.

Of course, this was what she thought. She and Yan Huan could be considered to not meddle in each other's affairs. The two of them were doing their own things, so there was not much involvement.

As for Su Muman and Fang, she seemed to have forgotten about some things. She slowly calmed down and began to participate in various activities without restraint. It was obvious that she had succeeded in her comeback.

As for Yan Huan's popularity, although he didn't show up, he was always above the three of them. Other than her being the person in charge of Linlang, her daughter, Little Lu Wei, had actually acted in a Qing dynasty drama, after the set photo was released, everyone's hearts were almost melted by the little girl who was playing the role of the little princess.

Right now, it was only a set photo. If it was really broadcasted, who knew how much more traffic the little princess of the Lu family would add to the television drama.

"En, that's it. I want to participate in that show," Su Muran said to her manager. Her popularity was almost good. If she did not seize the opportunity to pursue her success, how long would she have to wait.

Even if she didn't accept the show, Yan Huan's daughter would catch up with her. With her status in the industry, how could she live.

“But...”her manager still didn’t agree. She also wanted Su Muran to recover her popularity as soon as possible. Otherwise, how could people remember him? Yan Huan at least wanted to show off his husband and show off his dolls. Besides, the two little buns of the Lu family and the little flower roll were all online. They were not afraid of showing off. The Little Flower Roll of the Lu family was only three years old and had already started filming. But what about Su Muran?

What was there now? She had nothing and had disappeared for such a long time. Although she had gained a lot of presence recently, compared to her past, she was still too weak.

Originally, she could be on the same level as her, but now, she was a lot weaker. It was easier said than done to make up for it.

However, she also wanted to, but she couldn’t. She had her own reasons. Even if she told Su Mulan, Su Mulan wouldn’t take it to heart.

“Miss Su, why don’t we think about it again?”

Her manager still carefully said to Su Mulan. They couldn’t capsize the ten-thousand-year-old ship that was accidentally used. If they capsized it again, they would be dead.

“No need. It’s now. If I say I can pick it up, I can pick it up.”

Su Jiuran sneered. In her lifetime, Su Mulan would never lose to that girl with the surname Yan, let alone that little girl with the surname Yan Sheng.

Su Muran’s manager was rather hesitant. Why did she feel that Su Muran’s momentum was developing too quickly? That was why she felt like a strange person.

It was as if there was a mastermind behind the scenes who was pushing their thoughts and actions forward.

However, she did not have any evidence and could not persuade Su Muran. She wanted Su Muran to keep a low profile recently. Recently, he had been acting too aggressively.

Why was the program that Su Mulan was talking about like a thorn now? It always made her feel uneasy.

This program was also a reality show. It had a considerable status and traffic in the country. Of course, the ratings were also quite good. At the very least, it could be ranked in the top three of all variety shows, therefore, even if Su Mulan squeezed her head open, she still had to participate in this program.

However, it was precisely because the ratings of the program team were too good that the manager was a little worried.

“Miss Su, do you want to consider if there’s anything that we don’t know?”

She wasn’t saying that Su Mulan’s popularity wasn’t good. It was just that her current popularity was really much worse than others. No matter what, this show wouldn’t choose her. She only asked for the little red flowers that were extremely popular in the industry, little Blue Flowers. As for an old flower like Su Muran, she didn’t seem to be interested in him.

Yet, they all had to participate. Wasn't that strange?

She was afraid that he would do it on purpose and use Su Muran as a foil to other female stars.

Su Muran looked at her manager indifferently. "You want my manager to change, Don't you?"

Alright, her manager shut up and didn't say anything.

On this day, Su Muran arrived at the program team early in the morning. She was still a big shot because she was already a big shot. After she changed her clothes, put on her makeup, and finished her styling.., she became a dazzling Su Muran again. Moreover, as she grew older, she now had a more mature charm than in the past. Compared to those fresh and pure flowers, she was naturally fragrant and charming, she was quite confident about this, and of course, it was also a necessary confidence.

Because it was a variety show like a reality show, there were no rehearsals for this show. It was broadcast directly. When Su Muran went on stage, sure enough, she won the cheers and applause of the entire hall.

Su Muran raised her chin confidently. Indeed, she was much more outstanding compared to other actors in the same batch. Whether it was in terms of looks, temperament, or the stage, she was not someone a newcomer could compare to.

And now, the only person who could suppress her was Yan Huan. Of course, Yan Huan rarely participated in such events and almost never did. When she was at her most popular, she had never participated, not to mention now, she was now keeping a low profile. She was not like a celebrity, but like the popular Liang Chen at that time, she had almost retired from the industry.

However, Su Muran was different. She had returned, and she had returned again.

There was no stage for chatting, she was already a queen.

When the program was in the middle, a reporter on the scene suddenly asked Su Muran.

"Excuse me, Miss Su, rumor has it that you temporarily retired from the entertainment industry because of health reasons?"

Chapter 1863: chickens that Can't lay eggs

"Yes, I'm sorry to have made you worry." Su Muran smiled appropriately and pulled out her hair, revealing her most beautiful angle. If she had been an actress for so long.., if she still didn't know how to do this, then her journey would have been in vain.

"Then what about Miss Su Now?" The reporter asked again. He asked very seriously, but something flashed in his eyes. At this moment, Su Muran, who was somewhat complacent, didn't notice it at all, of course, he did not notice anything, and of course, he did not smell that kind of dangerous smell.

"Thank you for your concern. I'm already fine." Su Muran smiled again. She was naturally fine. Otherwise, she would not have appeared here today, and she had even forgotten.., the situation where she was as thin as a ghost back then.

“Is that so? That’s good.”

The reporter had a faint smile on his face. Even his eyes were slightly curved from the smile. He gently pushed up his glasses. For some unknown reason, the reflected light on the lenses actually refracted a pale green cold light.

“Miss Su, I have a question that I don’t know if I should ask?”

“You can ask. If I know, I will definitely answer. I Won’t hide it.” Su Muran even winked at the people below. When a woman in her thirties acted cute, she did not lose out to those popular little flowers, it was just a little pretentious.

Sure enough, no matter how well-maintained she was, she was not a young girl. She was already a woman.

Of course, she thought that this was a pre-arranged arrangement by the program team, so she knew that the reporters would not ask too much questions. It was nothing more than whether she had a new relationship or something. Of course, she had already thought about such a situation, of course, she knew how to answer.

The corners of the reporter’s lips curled slightly, and the eyes under the lenses flashed again.

“Miss Su, I heard that you previously suffered from thalassemia, and it was a very serious type that required blood transfusions in order to survive. Moreover, this kind of illness can not allow you to get pregnant and have children in the future. Am I right?”

Su Mulan was stunned. From her face to her ears, it actually burned. Ever since she came back, no one had asked her this question. Perhaps they knew that she didn’t really want to answer this question, nor did she want to talk about the past.

It was also because her manager had informed her in advance, so ever since she started to make a comeback, no one had ever mentioned this matter again. And now, it had been so long, and these old and useless matters.., had been brought up again.

She suddenly didn’t know how to answer. It wasn’t that no one knew about her illness. After all, this was the era of information. There were many people who didn’t know, but there were also many who knew.

She had never thought that this reporter would ask such a sharp question. She wasn’t even mentally prepared.

She thought for a long time, but she still did not know how to answer. After all, this kind of illness was not a good illness and was extremely difficult to cure. It was even impossible to give birth to a child in the future, if she admitted it, would she be admitting to the entire nation that she, Su Muran, would become a hen that did not lay eggs? If she could not even give birth to a child, would she still be a woman? It wasn’t like she didn’t know how the incident of Yan Huan not being able to give birth had been slandered. If it was her, she didn’t dare to imagine what kind of limelight she would be pushed to.

And she simply couldn’t bear the consequences of such a thing.

She smiled awkwardly. Her fingers unconsciously stroked her hair as she thought of how to save the situation. Or, would the director cut this part out later? And, where did this reporter come from, how could she dare to ask such a question.

She wanted to expose all of this, but some people were unwilling to let her do so.

Instead, she had to hold on to this matter. Just like in the past, she had to hold on to Yan Huan to prevent him from having children.

After all, after hearing too much of the standard news, it was boring.

Everyone was used to eating green congee and small dishes. They all wanted to eat big fish and big meat.

They had seen too many news articles that lacked nutrition and were tired of it. Now, everyone wanted to hear some explosive news. After all, in the entertainment industry, they had been immersed for too long and needed some news, only then would they be able to reach the peak once again.

She did not want to answer, but she used her eyes to signal to her manager.

Su Mulan's manager also stood up. Her expression was not too good. Could she casually ask about these things? This was related to Su Mulan's reputation. Su Mulan's reputation was not very good to begin with. In addition, the news had not appeared in the public eye for a year. If he used this illness as an excuse., it would be quite stupid.

Everyone liked positive energy. They all liked beautiful and healthy female stars. Who would like a half-dead woman? Moreover, Su Mulan had never thought of showing his half-human half-ghost appearance to others.

That wasn't a person, that was a ghost, that was a living ghost.

Su Muran's manager quickly went to the director to see if they could stop the show first.

However, the director said that they couldn't. This was originally a live version, so it was broadcast in real time.

When her manager heard this, her face instantly turned green. How could she have forgotten about this? The reason why the ratings of this show were so high wasn't because of anything else, but because it didn't have any lottery cards, it was all about authenticity. Therefore, it would expose many aspects of the artistes that others did not know. She was now suspecting whether Su Muran was right or wrong to choose this show back then, regardless of whether it was right or wrong, they could not back down now. They could only brace themselves and continue filming.

Su Muran, who was on top, smiled awkwardly. She was already cursing in her heart. If not for so many cameras pointing at her, to be honest, with her temper, she would have left long ago.

However, this show was just like that. It pursued its high viewership ratings and also tolerated its bad taste. Of course, there were also movie stars who had their private lives exposed. However, they were all harmless things, it was also because of these harmless little things that their popularity rose further.

Therefore, sometimes exposing some private lives was not a bad thing. At the very least, you used these private lives to exchange for a considerable amount of fame. The current SU Muran needed fame. She needed her previous fame.

However, she could not expose such a thing. She could not bear to suffer such a loss, nor could she bear the blame. She wanted to get over it as soon as possible, but the reporter refused to let it go.

“I heard that Miss Su’s blood type is very special?”

The reporter asked again. Su Mulan gritted her teeth, but she was still smiling on the surface.

Chapter 1864: secrets

“Yes, it’s a little special. If it’s not kept, it’s not a big deal,” she replied softly. Although she did not pull a long face, it was clear that she did not like this kind of question. If this reporter was smart., if she could read people’s expressions, then she would know that this topic could not continue. However, this reporter seemed to be doing it on purpose. She had been leading the topic to a place that Sun Muran did not want to go.

“Miss Su, you have a bone marrow transplant, right?”

The reporter adjusted his glasses again. A green light flashed on the lens.

“I moved straight overseas. My Luck is very good.” Su Muran smiled. She also heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. Finally, she did not have to go around the issue of not being able to have children.

“Oh...” the reporter’s “Oh” was a little long. She did not know why, but even though there was no follow-up, Su Muran could not help but feel her scalp go numb.

“Did miss su really change her bone marrow overseas?” The reporter asked again, but this aggressive tone made Su Mulan feel uncomfortable. She narrowed her eyes and a warning flashed past.

However, the reporter only cracked a smile. It was half-yang and half-yin, as if he wanted to go against Su Mulan.

“What?” Su Mulan’s voice could not help but carry a hint of a sneer. “Can I still forget where I had the surgery?”

“Of course Miss Su remembers.” The reporter was still smiling. Compared to Su Muran gnashing his teeth, he was very happy.

“But...” his expression suddenly turned cold, and his voice was like an ice bead, falling down one sentence after another.

“I have received news that Miss Su’s bone marrow was not changed abroad. When Miss Su went abroad, she had already undergone surgery, and the surgery was very successful, right?”

The smile on Su Muran’s face froze. How did he know?

"I still know a lot. Do you want to hear it, Miss Su?" The reporter's voice continued. Of course, what he revealed today was not a small matter. Someone had entrusted this matter to him, so he naturally had to make good use of it.

As for whether he would be afraid of the Su family's Revenge, there was nothing to be afraid of. Once this matter was revealed, the Su family would be finished. Moreover, he did not need to be afraid of the Su family. He also had a backer.

Su Muran clenched his hands. His lips trembled from time to time, but he could not say anything.

"Why, does miss su have anything else to say?" The reporter was still smiling so much that his eyes could not see his teeth. However, every sentence was like a knife, "Miss Su, your su family can really control the sky. You obviously performed the surgery in China, but in the end, why did you go abroad? I have here a pathology report left by a doctor back then. On it, all of Miss Su's symptoms and medication were written very clearly. There was even the Doctor's signature on it."

"What kind of medicine is used every day? Miss Su's recovery and pre-operative surgery are all present."

He took out a document and flipped through it for a long time. Then, he placed the thing in his hand in front of Su Muran and gently shook it.

"This is it. Miss Su, are you interested? Do you want to take a look?"

Su Muran stretched out his hand and wanted to take it, but the reporter took the document back and put it back in its original place. His smile was still impeccable, and he was so angry that Su Muran wanted to tear him into pieces.

"Also..." the smile on his face grew wider. At this moment, all the cameras were pointed at one spot, and it seemed that they were about to hear the biggest piece of news of the year.

And such a piece of news, they were actually all excited

"Miss Su's blood type is very rare," the reporter was still talking, and it was impossible for Su Muran to stop him from talking, "Back then, after Miss Su retired from the entertainment industry due to illness, the best actress Yan Huan also lost all news."

That's right. At this moment, everyone else also thought of this question. Yan Huan had indeed lost all news. Just like that, without a sound or reason, he only appeared in the public's view two years later. Su Muran had also returned at the same time. Could it be that Yan Huan's disappearance was related to Su Muran?

"You must be joking." Su Muran laughed until tears came out of her eyes, but the warmth in her eyes also disappeared. She had nothing to do with me. I had gone abroad to treat my illness. As for her, why are you asking me this., you should be asking her.

"Miss Su, you know very well whether I'm speaking nonsense or not, right?" The reporter pressed on Su Muran. The smile on Su Muran's face froze as expected. This kind of deliberate action was indeed very obvious.

"Miss Su, didn't Miss Yan Give You your bone marrow? If it wasn't for Miss Yan, why would I Still Have You Now? Miss Su, can't you just say a word of thanks for saving my life?"

Su Muran suddenly stood up and walked directly to the camera. With a bang, she slapped the table. "Stop right now!"

The cameraman was also shocked. Facing Su Muran's ferocious face, he could not say a single word. At this moment, the director felt that the situation was serious and hurriedly asked the staff to maintain order at the scene.

After everyone at the scene had been evacuated..,

only then did su Muran look coldly at the reporter who was still standing there. The threat in her eyes was so intense that it was almost terrifying.

However, the reporter was still smiling. His smile was sinister and also made Su Muran hate him.

They would slowly settle the score.

Su Muran did not have the time to stay here any longer. She still had to find someone to stop this program. Otherwise, she would have something to eat.

She turned around and left. Her footsteps were also somewhat flighty and anxious.

However, the reporter's voice was still ringing from behind her. It was clearly transmitted.

"Miss Su, there is no such thing as an impenetrable wall in this world. You thought that the things your su family did were flawless, but you didn't expect that Miss Yan would come back alive."

Su Muran paused for a moment and continued to walk forward.

"Miss Su, don't you feel guilty? Don't you feel grateful? Just because Miss Yan has the same blood type as you, your su family took her away and took her blood regardless of her wishes. They forcefully took her bone marrow. That's fine. You know what you did. You actually threw miss su into the Haijiang River alive."

"Miss Su, it was almost winter at that time. Do you know how cold the water in Haijiang was? Could it be that you and the Su family have never had a nightmare in these two years?"

Su Muran suddenly stopped and turned around. Her clenched fingers were in pain.

"Reporter, please watch your words and actions. Don't force me to sue you for slander."

Chapter 1865: was not written by her

"Miss Su, please do as you please."The Reporter's voice was neither hurried nor slow. There seemed to be a hint of a smile, but also a hint of a sneer, "Whether I'm lying or not, Miss Su will soon find out. In this world, people are doing things, and the heavens are watching. If it's true, it won't be false. If it's false, it can't be true. There will always be traces of what happened. Miss Su, you'd better sit at home and wait to be prosecuted."

Su Muran's movements paused again. At this moment, her face was pale, and her footsteps also became messy. Although she had always wanted to remain calm, she simply couldn't calm down now.

Because what that reporter said was the complete truth. When she first met Yan Huan, she had this terrifying feeling. It was as if there was a ticking time bomb beside her, waiting to explode at any moment.

She thought that everything was in the past. She thought that Su Qingdong had looked for Yan Huan and made some sort of promise. It was enough to shut Yan Huan's mouth. However, she did not expect that Yan Huan had actually plotted against them.

She could not even imagine what would happen to her in the end if this matter was found out by others. What would happen to her Su family? She also knew that Su Qingdong had killed Yan Huan to silence him back then, she thought that everything was in the past. She thought that everything was fine. However, she didn't expect that she would be exposed in such a place at such a time.

This was the return of the ghost. This was the return of the Reaper. This was the return of the debt collector.

Su Mulan's manager was also dumbfounded. She stared in front of her with her mouth agape. Only then did she realize what was going on. She stumbled and followed Su Mulan. What show was this? Who would dare to film it?

"That..." her manager didn't know how to ask, but she was still terrified. She was terrified.

Was this thing true? Was Yan Huan's disappearance really related to the Su family and Su Muran?

"Shut up!" Su Muran yelled at her manager in exasperation. Before her manager could blurt out her words, she choked. This time, a lot of cold sweat appeared on her forehead.

It was over, most likely.

Everyone knew about it.

Yes, everyone knew about it, and it was done in such a way.

Su Muran was finished, Su Qingdong was finished, and the Su family was also finished.

The viewership ratings of this reality show were extremely good. In addition, Su Muran, who had not been seen for a long time, was present. Naturally, there were many people who came to watch the show because of her reputation.

Although she had disappeared for two years, her popularity did not decrease by much. Therefore, the viewership ratings for this episode were indeed quite good.

Even Ye Shuyun and mother Lei were bored and wanted to watch Su Muran dance with the demons.

However, before the show ended, Ye Shuyun suddenly stood up, and mother Lei was dumbfounded.

"This, it can't be true, right?"

Ye Shuyun sneered. "I think it's true. Otherwise, my Huanhuan wouldn't have gone missing for such a long time. My Little Xun nearly cried to death because she didn't have a mother at that time."

Thinking of her three children, thinking of the most delicate and weak Xun Xun, who cried tears every day, her heart ached. If the Su family really did this, then the people of the Su family.., could never forgive them.

No Wonder Yan Huan did not say anything back then. No wonder she went missing for such a long time. It was not because of anything else, but because it was the Su family's doing.

The viewership ratings for that show had always been very high. Even though the reporter's question was very vague and focused on the bone marrow that Su Muran wanted, he only mentioned it casually, that was the reason why Yan Huan did not come out for a long time. It was not because of her physical condition, but because she had gone missing. And the reason why she had gone missing was related to the Su family. It was just a pity that there was only half of the show.., and then, there was no more follow-up.

But just this one point was enough to make other people's imaginations run wild. Of course, they could also imagine hundreds of sensational stories.

At this moment, the people of the Su family were also panicking. Yes, they were panicking.

They had never thought that this matter would be known by others. How would they explain it and what kind of consequences they would have to bear? Whether it was Zhu Xianglan, Su Qingdong, or Su Muran.., they might have thought about it in their hearts, but they did not dare to think about it in detail. They could not bear the criticism and condemnation from the public, especially Su Muran.

If it was when she first came back, her popularity had also dropped drastically. Even if people knew about it at that time, they might only be able to stir up some waves. If the waves were not big enough.., it would not be enough for her to fall into Hell and not be able to get up for the rest of her life.

But it was different now. Her popularity had recently risen to a certain level. The more it rose, the more famous she became. The more famous she became, the more thoroughly she was destroyed.

She did not dare to go out now. She did not dare to watch TV, watch her phone, or watch the internet.

She could only hide in her own home and almost did not dare to go out.

Zhu Meina pushed the door open and walked in. Oh, what happened? Today, everyone was present. The Su family of three was present.

"Zhu Meina, you B * Tch!"

Zhu Xiang Lan directly stood up and ran towards Zhu Mei Li.

With a slap, this slap landed on Zhu Mei Na's face.

Zhu Mei na put down the thing in her hand. She also raised her hand and directly returned Zhu Xiang Lan's slap.

What, did she still think that she was the Zhu Mei na of the past? Let her hit and scold her as she pleased? Did she still think that she was her aunt? Zhu Xianglan really overestimated herself. She thought that she was nothing but a bug that she, Zhu Meina, could stomp to death at any time. She really thought that she was a ball.

Zhu Xianglan was stunned by the beating. It took her a long time to react. She had actually been beaten. Yes, she had actually been beaten. The person who had beaten her was none other than that B * tch Zhu Meina.

“Zhu Meina, I’m going to kill you!”

Zhu Xianglan’s eyes were red. She also wanted to fight Zhu Meina with her life.

Zhu Meina raised her foot and directly kicked at Zhu Xianglan’s stomach. This kick was really solid. It really kicked Zhu Xianglan to the ground, and she could not pick it up for a long time.

Zhu Meina clapped her hand and swaggered to the sofa to sit down. When Bai Zhi taught the three children, she had also learned a few moves. Just a few moves were enough, it was definitely more than enough to deal with Zhu Xianglan, whose entire body was covered in fat.

She crossed her legs on the sofa, but the father and daughter on the side stared at her as if they were cannibals. What was going on? were they trying to tear her into pieces?

“You don’t have to look at me like that.” Zhu Meina flicked the corner of her clothes.

Chapter 1866: the best way to admit it

“This matter has nothing to do with me. I’m not the one whose bone marrow was extracted by you, and I’m not the one who went missing. “When Sun Yuhan went in, you should have thought that there would be such a day. You were really generous to Yan Huan that she let you go. She has nothing to do with you? “I’ve said it before. She doesn’t have time to care about you, but that doesn’t mean that she has forgotten everything that you’ve done to her.”

In this world, one had to pay what one owed.

It was the same with karma.

If it wasn’t today, it would be tomorrow.

It wasn’t that it wasn’t time, it was just that the time hadn’t come yet.

“Then why didn’t you tell us?”

Su Muran also stood up with a whoosh. “Zhu Meina, you did it on purpose. You deliberately wanted to destroy me. You wanted to destroy the entire SU family.”

“Why should I tell you? What does this have to do with me? Why should I tell you?”

Zhu Meina mocked Su Muran with a smile that was not a smile.

That’s right. Why should she tell them? What did she have to do with them? She was not a member of the Su family. So what if she destroyed the Su Family? Besides, wasn’t it not destroyed?

It was still there. So what if the Su family lost Su Muran?

How could the SU family fall.

“You...”Zhu Meina’s ruthlessness made su muman almost go crazy from anger.

“What About Me?”Zhu Meina was still smiling. “I warned you not to go out. You didn’t listen.”

“What else can I say?”

Yes, she had warned him. She had really given him a warning out of goodwill. Of course, her warning was only because su muman would not listen to her. Su muman was too conceited, she thought that everyone in this world wanted to harm her and fight over something with her.

Including Yan Huan and herself. Everyone in this world was her enemy.

If she did not listen to her advice, what did it have to do with her, Zhu Meina?

Su Mu ran’s reputation had been completely destroyed. She suddenly burst into tears. In the future, she would be like a rat crossing the street. She would be beaten up by everyone, let alone acting, she would not be able to live in peace.

What should she do in the future? What should she do? She did not want to be locked in the same room as before. She could not endure such a dark life.

Zhu Xianglan finally got up from the ground and ran over to comfort Su Mulan.

“Ranran, don’t be afraid. There’s nothing to worry about. Your father has already arranged everything. How could anything happen to you? You had the surgery abroad. All the surgeries were done abroad. We are not afraid. If we let them investigate, they will definitely not be able to find out.”

As Zhu Xianglan spoke, she also looked at Su Qingdong. Was It Like This? Was it not? It had to be like this. They had done everything well back then, and there was no problem at all. So what if they found out, at most, it was what others thought in their hearts, but it was impossible to find out.

However, she seemed to have forgotten that the so-called evidence was in Yan Huan’s hands. If it was really what she thought, then why was Zhu Meina still here? Why didn’t they dare to touch her at all.

Even if Zhu Xianglan really couldn’t help but touch Zhu Meina in the end, she might have paid more than she imagined.

However, they should also be grateful to Zhu Meina. If Zhu Meina hadn’t been so angry, Yan Huan might still have played with them for a while instead of starting now. Of course, it wouldn’t have ended so easily either.

Yan Huan wanted Su Muran to fall from heaven to Hell. He wanted her to know how hell worked. If she fell into hell, she would suffer a fate worse than death.

That’s right. If she suffered a fate worse than death, she would suffer a fate worse than death.

That was what Yan Huan wanted. Otherwise, why didn’t she mention anything about the Su family for more than a year? Why did she need someone to support Su Muran without anyone knowing? She wanted Su Muran to think that he had hit the jackpot. Everything had been going smoothly for him recently, don’t underestimate Yan Huan’s abilities. Yan Huan definitely had such connections now. She could easily promote a person, and of course, she could also destroy a person to her heart’s content.

She herself had her own talents. In addition to Lu Yi's work, she also had Ye Chuji to add fuel to the fire in the dark.

Not to mention a mere Su Muran, even if it was the entire Su family now, Ye Chuji would not blink his eyes. However, Yan Huan did not kill the entire Su family. It was also because of the things that Lu Yi had mentioned before.

In order for those people to have jobs and to be able to feed themselves, she spared the Su family, but she would not spare Su Muran and Zhu Xianglan. As for Su Qingdong, without Su Muran, it was no different from death.

The Su family had no more descendants. For the rest of his life, he would think about his daughter.

Death was the solution. Living was actually suffering.

Zhu Xianglan comforted Su Muran and told her that everything would be fine. Yes, everything would be fine. As long as they did not admit it, nothing would happen to them.

Su Qingdong stood up and walked out.

"What are you going to do?"

Zhu Xianglan thought that Su Qingdong did not care about her and her daughter anymore. She screamed in a high-pitched voice.

"What can I do?" Su Qingdong's face was as if he had smeared ink all over his face. There was a few folds between his eyebrows, but he could not suppress his powerless heart.

"I'll go find that reporter. I want to take a good look. Why are they throwing dirty water on my daughter and our Su Family?"

Su Muran's face turned green for a moment, and she hurriedly wiped her tears away.

Yes, she would not admit it. Her surgery was done overseas. She still had evidence. She wanted to sue that entertainment company. She wanted to sue them until they went bankrupt.

Even if there was a doctor's case, what else could it be?

They might have grasped this point, but they had really forgotten that there was still a person present. That person was holding a glass of water and drinking. He had not said a word all this time.

When Su Qingdong opened the door and was about to leave, Zhu Meina finally put down the cup.

Her voice was like a thorn. Just like that, it pierced through the hearts of countless people.

"This matter, you better admit it. Don't try to challenge that person's bottom line. Believe me, you can't afford to provoke him."

"What did you say?" Zhu Xianglan's voice rose again.

"Zhu Meina, I eat our food, drink our food, and live in our house. Do you really think that you can become a member of the Su Family? Get lost, get lost right now!"

She stretched out her finger and pointed at the door forcefully. Her blood-red eyes were as if they wanted to eat human blood and drink human flesh.

As long as it was related to Su Muran, she would lose her intelligence and rationality completely.

If Zhu Meina could be chased away, she would have left long ago. It was impossible for her to still be here. She could still make sarcastic remarks and hurt their hearts.

Chapter 1867: evidence of guilt

“It’s up to you whether you want to hear it or not.” Zhu Meina placed the Teacup in her hand on the table. She stood up and prepared to return to her room. As for Scram, why did she want to Scram? This was the beginning of a good show. She had waited for so long., this was the kind of good show that she had been waiting for. If she missed it, she would really regret it for the rest of her life.

She had only taken a few steps when she heard the door.

She still went.

In fact, this was a kind warning. Some things only made things worse. It was better to bring the whole family down on their knees and admit their mistakes. Don’t be so stubborn. You gave up your face and your knees, but what can you get back, if she still refused to admit her mistakes and wanted to play tricks on others, she would be the only one who would die in the end. She was telling the truth. Don’t take her words for granted.

Don’t Bite Lu Dongbin like a dog that doesn’t know a good person’s heart.

“What do you mean?”

Su Qingdong’s voice came from behind. So he hadn’t left yet. It turned out that he was the smartest and most shrewd person in the SU family. Of course, he was also the most ruthless.

He was also the only one who knew how to get rid of the root of the problem. Of course, only he knew how to get rid of it once and for all. It was just that there was a saying in this world, “God’s plan is better than man’s.”.

Yes, God’s plan was worse than man’s. He had calculated everything. However, he did not expect that even if he really cut the grass, he would still get rid of the root. As long as Yan Huan was no longer in this world, no one would be able to find out, the bone marrow in Su Muran’s body belonged to Yan Huan, and no one would know that he was the one who got rid of Yan Huan’s root.

Compared to him, Zhu Xianglan and Su Mumiao were obviously not ruthless enough.

However, what was the use of being ruthless? Yan Huan was not dead. He had painstakingly set up a trap, and this trap was all discounted because of a living Yan Huan.

Zhu Meina was originally going to leave, but she felt that she should kindly remind them not to let the Su family die too unsightly. If they were unsightly, then she, Zhu Meina, could not be that unsightly either.

She turned around and opened her bag as well. She took out a small thing from her bag. It was a small USB drive. Of course, it didn't matter if she lost it. Yan Huan still had a lot of it. Moreover, they had also saved it online, in a place that no one knew about.

And they could take out as many USB drives as they wanted.

This was something that she, Zhu Meina, had to sell her body for. Naturally, she had to store it well.

She walked over to the television and inserted the USB drive into the television.

Zhu Xianglan pursed her lips. She was deliberately trying to be mysterious here. No matter what evidence she had, she would refuse to admit it. In any case, the matter had already happened. Zhu Meina didn't want to live anymore.

It was not like Zhu Meina could not see the murderous intent in Zhu Xianglan's eyes. She wanted to kill her again. She would think about it after she saw it. She placed the USB on it and did not want it anymore. In any case, she could have as many as she wanted, as long as she wanted to., as long as she was willing.

At first, Zhu Xianglan did not care at all. She did not take these things seriously either. In the end, the more she looked at it, the uglier her expression became.

Her eyes widened in disbelief. She turned around to look at the defeated Su Qingdong. What was going on? Why was this thing in someone else's hands.

Su Muran also took a step back. Only now did she understand what Zhu Meina meant when she said not to waste effort. Indeed, there was no need to waste effort. This was the best evidence. The case could be faked, the surgery process could be faked, but this was the only thing that could not be explained.

Su Taidong's driving recorder recorded a complete picture. Even his face and voice were clearly recorded. Even their voices could not be clearer.

They said that Su Qingdong would die a horrible death. Even if he wanted to explain, no one would believe him. She could imagine that they really did not have to do anything now.

They could only wait and wait for others to take revenge on the Su family. This kind of revenge could definitely destroy the entire SU family

At night, the old master of the Su family came. He was already very old and didn't want to be in charge of the family matters anymore. Therefore, he didn't appear even if anything happened in the family.

Even if Su Qingdong had done such a shameful thing, he still turned a blind eye. No matter what, it was still an internal matter of the SU family. As long as it didn't harm the foundation of the Su family, he would let it go.

But this time, how could he not care.

This time, the Su family's people would be completely disgraced.

Su Ancheng coldly glanced at Zhu Xianglan. This glance still had the contempt from before.

Zhu Xianglan knew that this old thing, Su Ancheng, had never taken a fancy to her. Even if it had been decades, in Su Ancheng's heart, she, Zhu Xianglan, was an unpresentable thing.

Even if she gave birth to Su Muran for the sake of the Su family, she still did not dare to have any status in the SU family.

Fine, he looked down on her. If he looked down on her, so be it. She did not care. Anyway, this old fart would die earlier than her. Her Muran was also the sole heir of the Su family.

"Is it true?" Su Ancheng asked Su Qingdong. He was old, but his spirit was still good. Of course, it was also because of his spirit that he was not angered to death.

He, Su Ancheng, ye Jianguo, and Lu Yuanyang.

The three of them were the oldest generation that had lived until now.

But among the three of them, only the Su family had the worst number of people.

He only gave birth to Su Qingdong's only son, and Su Qingdong only had Su Mulan's only daughter. Now that Su Mulan had that kind of illness, the doctors did not recommend that she give birth to a child.

Therefore, the root of the Su family was to be destroyed in Su Mulan's generation.

As for ye Jianguo, didn't he still have a grandson? In the future, it would only be a matter of time before he gave birth to a child. Didn't he still have a granddaughter? If he pretended to be in prison, he would still have a real one.

If he found the real one, he would also have grandchildren. As for Lu Yuanyang, how could they compare?

He already had three great-grandsons.

He did nothing but go out and show off his great-grandsons and great-granddaughters.

If he had three grandsons and granddaughters, even if they were grandsons and granddaughters, he would not stay in any sanatorium. He would just give up every day.

But did he have them? Did he have them? Would he have them in his lifetime? What else would he have?

And now, did they think that this old man had lived too long? They actually caused such a thing for him. Were they trying to destroy his Su family's reputation?

Were they trying to make his Su family disappear in Hai City?

"Say it!" He slammed the table hard.

Have you guys done this before?

His sudden roar scared Su Muran, and Zhu Xianglan was so scared that she didn't even dare to breathe. Even Su Qingdong's face was pale for a long time, but he couldn't say a word.

Chapter 1868: stupid son

“Speak!”

Su Ancheng glared at his son again. “Su Qingdong, tell me. I want to hear the truth. Did you guys actually do it? Did you guys tie someone up and forcefully extract their bone marrow?”

Su Qingdong lowered his head. He found it difficult to speak. He was too ashamed to say anything.

Yes, he did it. He did it.

“Dad, we have no choice. She doesn’t agree.”

“If she doesn’t agree, you’ll kidnap her?” Su Ancheng really felt that Su Taidong had a pig’s brain. Could it be that because he married a woman like Zhu Xianglan, even his brain had become stupid? No., he was sick. His brain was stuck in the door.

“We really had no choice,” Su Qingdong said the same thing, “Dad, at that time, ran ran was so sick that she was about to die. She needed a bone marrow transplant. We found out at that time that Yan Huan’s bone marrow was the most suitable. However, she didn’t agree, so we could only tie her up.”

“Dad, the hearts of all parents in the world are pitiful...”

Everyone knew how to say this.

According to Su Qingdong and Zhu Xianglan, they were not wrong. Although they had done such a thing, Su Muran had survived.

However, no matter how pitiful the world’s parents were, they could not do such a thing that violated the law.

“What else did you do?”

Su Ancheng took a deep breath. He only hoped that they had only done so much and not forcefully take away the bone marrow of the other party and put him to death like the rumors had said.

If it was just the first part, he would not care about his old face. He would just apologize to the other party, kneel down to the other party, and beg that old man, Lu Yuanyang. He would always be able to protect the face of his family.

This was the best that he could do. This was the best that he could do. Otherwise, that old man, Lu Yuanyang, would not have given him face.

“I...”

Su Dongqing’s voice was stuck in his throat. It was the first time he found it so difficult to speak. How was he going to answer? What had he done? What else had he done?

“Dad, I...”

Su Qingdong’s voice stopped again. It was still difficult to say those words. He was also afraid to admit it. In fact, even he himself did not know how he could have done such a thing back then.

Until now, he had only thought that it was just a nightmare.

He had never done such a thing. He had never done it.

But in reality, he could not admit it and he could deny all of it. However, he could not lie to himself. He had indeed done it, but it was irreparable. Now, he was going to take revenge, and he was going to take revenge.

Then, he gritted his teeth. "Dad, I threw him into the river."

Su Ancheng immediately stood up and stretched out his hand to slap Su Qingdong.

"Su Qingdong, you've lived so long in vain. How dare you do this?"

Su Ancheng pointed at his son's face and cursed. What was the use of cursing now? He did not want to talk about the bone marrow extraction, but look at what this idiot had done.

Throwing him into the Sea River wasn't throwing others into the Sea River, it was throwing himself into it.

Su Qingdong, on the other hand, didn't even dare to make a sound as his father pointed at his nose and cursed. Zhu Xianglan didn't dare either. She could only hug the shivering su muran, the family of three, they were all in this predicament. They didn't even know how they were going to endure the revenge from others.

Lu Yi was a prosecutor. The Lu family was no longer the same as before. The financial strength of the Lu family could not even be compared to the SU family. If the Lu family was willing, they might join forces with the Ye family, they would openly destroy everything of the Su family and take it away.

Su Ancheng sat back on the chair. He placed his hand on the table at the side and slapped it hard.

"Do you have any evidence?"

"Yes." Su Qingdong was stunned for a moment before he nodded. Of course, he did not dare to hide anything anymore. "The Doctor Who operated on ran ran secretly made a case and it is now in their hands."

"That's fine." Su Ancheng stood up again. "Just insist that it is fake."

"Dad..." Su Qingdong gritted his teeth again. He still had something to say, and it was the kind of thing that he didn't have the face to say.

"The image taken by my car recorder is with her."

"What Car Recorder?"

Su Ancheng was a little confused.

Su Qingdong felt his old face burn again. This might be the most ruthless thing he had done in his life, and now it seemed to be the most stupid thing.

"That's right. The scene that was recorded by the traffic recorder when I threw her into Haijiang is now in their hands."

There was a slap.

Su Ancheng gave Su Qingdong another slap.

“Su Qingjiang, you’re really stupid.”

Yes, Su Taidong was really stupid. He was not just stupid, he was already stupid to a certain extent. He was extremely stupid, and he was also crazy stupid.

Su Qingdong received two slaps from his father. His old face instantly swelled up like bread. Moreover, Su Ancheng’s two slaps were on the same side. Not to mention, the two slaps were more symmetrical. This time, only one side was swollen. The asymmetry of the two sides looked weird no matter how one looked at it.

Su Ancheng put his hands behind his back. In fact, he did not know how to end this matter.

The evidence was in his hands. He didn’t need to use any means. To put it bluntly, if he directly went through the judicial process, it would be enough for Su Qingdong to spend a few years in prison.

“You...” Su Ancheng pointed at Su Qingdong, almost poking his forehead. How did he give birth to such an idiot? The other party was smarter and stronger with each generation.

Lu Jin had been a general for a long time. Lu Yi was already a prosecutor at a young age, and now he was the number one person in Hai City. Even the woman he married was the representative of Hai City, the number one charity in the country, he gave birth to three at once. Three! Three! What kind of concept was that? He had both sons and daughters. In the future, the Lu family would have so many businesses and descendants.

He would be able to face his ancestors after he died. He would be able to carry his great-grandchild and show off his great-grandchild every day.

How did the Ye family get worse and worse with each generation? He was so wise and divine. When he was young, he could be considered a formidable figure. However, when he came to Su Qingdong’s side, he became a scheming person who did not have a brain, as for Su Muran, he did not know if he was like his mother. He was not very smart since he was young. In the end, he did not achieve anything in his entire life. Now, he even had this illness, the roots of the Su family were going to be cut off.

What else could he do now? He could only use his old face to sell his face.

Moreover, he still had to see if the Lu family’s words and that old thing could really give him face.

Chapter 1869: fainted from shock?

However, with Lu Yuanyang’s bad temper, how could he let the Su family off? It was already good enough that he did not add insult to injury. What could he say about forgiveness.

The more he thought about it, the more anxious he became. How could he give birth to such a stupid son? However, when he saw Su Qing’s badly swollen and deformed face., the hand that was in the air could no longer hit him.

“Let me see that video.”

Su Ancheng was almost irritable now. He wanted to strangle this son to death. How could he have given birth to such a stupid son.

Su Qingdong hurriedly stood up and turned on the television. However, he stood to the side and did not even dare to sit down.

Su Ancheng walked over and sat down. The picture on the television was not very clear, and he could not see anything in front of him. However, he could tell that a car was driving.

There was also the sound of the wind coming from Haijiang when the car door was opened. The people of Haihai City should be very familiar with this sound today.

This was the scenery of Haijiang, which was also the wind of Haidong.

The lights in front of the car were turned on, and it was Su Qingdong's face, which was very clear.

And this video recorded the most clearly, probably nothing else. It was Su Qingdong's face. It was understandable that the scenery was clear, but why was it Su Qingdong's old face.

Along with the sound of the wind, there was also the sound of a woman crying.

“Uncle Su, I beg you, don't kill me. I still have three children. They are still young.”

“Uncle Su, I won't say it. I really won't say it. I swear, I won't say a word.”

“I beg you, Uncle Su, please don't kill me. I still have three children and three children.”

“Su Qingdong, you will definitely die a horrible death. Su Qingdong, you'd better not let me live. Otherwise, I will ask you for everything you owe me today...”

With a slap, Old Master Su slapped Su Qingdong's old face again. Su Muran and Zhu Xianglan, who were at the side, could not help but shrink their bodies. They did not even dare to speak.

“How dare you?” Su Ancheng was so angry that his chest hurt. He clutched his chest and coughed hard. His face was flushed red from coughing.

Yes, how dare you. How dare you do such a thing? You can do it, you can do it.

Su Qingdong was exhausted. Even though he was already over sixty years old, his father still slapped him a few times. His face was burning, and his heart was the same.

“Dad...” he called out with difficulty,

“What should we do now?”

Yes, what should we do now? The truth had already been exposed. What should we do? What else could we do?

“What do you think we should do?” Elder su kicked his son again. On the other side, Su Muran and Zhu Xianglan had never received su Ancheng's good looks from the beginning.

He sneered, but the corners of his eyes were flickering. "Our Su family is finished." Yes, the Su family was finished. Their reputation was already tarnished. Moreover, Su Qingdong and his wife were also facing legal sanctions. Neither of them could escape.

The other party was not someone else. It was the Lu family. It was the Lu family.

Suddenly, the phone on the table rang like crazy. Su Qingdong took the phone and placed it by his ear. As soon as he picked up the phone, he heard a voice that sounded like thunder.

"Su Ancheng, you old thing. Your Su family's child definitely has no eyes. How did our Lu family let you down? You actually harmed my granddaughter-in-law. My three grandsons aren't even half a year old. How can your Hearts Be So Black? You let three children who are still suckling milk have no mother. My family's Little Xun Xun almost cried to death because his mother was lost back then."

Old Master Lu's heart ached when he thought of how Little Xun Xun looked like back then. Xun Xun had been waiting for them every day because Yan Huan was gone, Yan Huan was lost, and his mother was gone, that was why when Xun Xun was two years old, she still couldn't speak. These black-hearted and rotten-hearted people, these shameless and shameless people, were simply devoid of conscience.

"I won't let you off. I definitely won't let you off." He practically clenched his teeth and roared. Did they think that the people of the Lu family were all made of paper? Did they think that the people of the Lu family were all dead?

The Su family, En, very good, very good. They had recorded this debt. In this life, their two families would not rest until one of them was dead. The current su family was not the Su family at its peak, but the Lu family was much better than before, whether it is Lu Jin, Lu Yi, or Yan Huan, they are not people that the SU family can obtain now. In the previous life, the Su family was at its peak, but in this life, the Su family is nothing.

Su Ancheng, let's meet in court.

Old Master Lu was too lazy to talk nonsense with the Su family. After saying this, he directly dropped the phone. In Su Ancheng's ears, there was only the sound of the phone hanging up.

"You guys did a good thing!" Su Ancheng really wanted to slap Su Taidong to death. He was so angry that he was about to have a heart attack.

Zhu Xianglan was so scared that her body trembled. She didn't even dare to say another word.

Su Muran had been lowering her head the whole time. There was no color on her face. Suddenly, she felt her vision blur, and then her body collapsed weakly.

"Muran, Muran..." Zhu Xianglan quickly held her daughter. "What's wrong with you? Tell me, tell me, don't scare me..."

Su Muran closed her eyes tightly. She had lost all consciousness.

Everyone was shocked by Su Muran's sudden fainting.

"Why are you standing there?"

In the end, Su Ancheng was the first to regain his senses. "We sent him to the hospital first."

Su Qingdong was the one who rushed to send Su Muran to the hospital. He did not care about his own face. It was not a good time for him to go out. It would be great if he received another slap. He was like a frog, he was not like a toad without half a face.

They carried him out in a flurry. When Su Ancheng was the last to leave, he saw Zhu Meina standing on the stairs. She looked at him like that, and her eyes were full of sarcasm.

Su Ancheng used his nose to force out a breath, and then walked out in large strides.

Oh, was he scared out of his mind, or was he angry out of his mind?

The video was still playing on the television. It was repeated over and over again.

"Su Qingdong, you will definitely die a horrible death. Su Qingdong, you better not let me live. Otherwise, I will ask you for everything you owe me today..."

Chapter 1870: relapsed

"Yan Huan, you can finally take revenge."

"Look, the oath you swore back then can also be fulfilled."

She did not feel how ear-piercing this voice was. People always said that if one did not do anything wrong, they would not be afraid of ghosts knocking at the door in the middle of the night. Of course, she did not do anything wrong, nor did she harm anyone, so this voice.., she was not afraid.

However, some people might be so afraid that they could not eat or sleep well. They would have nightmares every night.

Of course, she did not turn off the television. When they returned, she would not be able to find a place to listen to this perfect accompaniment.

Child, how good would it be if your aunt had a relapse.

Didn't they say that she had to return what she owed? It was also time for Su Muran to return it. That was her bone marrow, not her own.

However, she was only thinking about it. Su Muran had always been lucky. Ever since she was reincarnated, the daughter of the Su family had everything she wanted. Even when she fell ill.., someone had sent the bone marrow to her, even though they had forced her to do it.

However, she had to admit that she was lucky. This could not be changed. This was a fact that she had to admit.

The sound of the television rang in her ears again. Zhu Meina stretched out her fingers and looked at her nails that had just been done yesterday. HMM, let's go and do a manicure. Even though this was a manicure.., but why did she like it today.

If she didn't like it, seeing it would affect her appetite and even affect her mood.

As for that so-called SU, so-and-so dye, what did it have to do with her.

She took out her bag, stepped on her high heels, and left the house.

At this moment, in the car, Zhu Xianglan was hugging Su Muran and wailing non-stop. Su Ancheng was so annoyed that he wanted to kick her.

“Shut up. She’s not dead yet.”

He shouted so loudly that Zhu Xianglan did not dare to cry anymore. She could only dry her tears, but she did not dare to cry.

However, crying was the same as crying.

They hurriedly sent Su Muran to the hospital. As for Su Muza, she did not wake up. No matter how loud the noise outside was, she did not make any movements. She did not care how Zhu Xianglan called her.., no matter how they pinched her, she did not respond to Zhu Xianglan. It was as if she was dead. Of course, she was not faking it. No matter how much she faked it, she could not fake a pale face.

The Doctor also performed a series of examinations on Su Muman.

Perhaps it was because su muman was too good at reincarnation and had reincarnated into the SU family. In her previous life, she had everything she wanted. Therefore, the second half of her life was filled with disasters. It was also possible that she was like this when she was the daughter of the Su family. Her life was not good.., it was the same for the other person. There was also the possibility that the SU family had committed too many evil deeds. Therefore, in this life, she was destined to have no children or grandchildren.

“This is impossible!”Zhu Xianglan did not believe it. She would not believe it even if she was beaten to death, “We went abroad for a checkup a few days ago. The Doctor said that my dye is fine. She will be fine. She will definitely be fine.”

Yes, they had been there, and they had checked as well.

Why did they have to go abroad? They were not on vacation, but had gone for a physical check-up. Su Mulan only felt that her body was not very good by chance. She did not know if it was because she was not feeling well or because of psychological reasons, she always felt that she was a little flustered and short of breath.

At that time, she had only filmed a few films, so she did not want others to know that she was going to the hospital. Otherwise, who knew what she would be rumored to be like.., so in the end, Zhu Xianglan took her to a famous hospital overseas.

However, after a long investigation, there was still no problem. It could really be because of her mental state.

Su Mulan might have believed that she was perfectly healthy because of the doctor’s words, so she did not take this matter to heart. However, it was strange.

When she returned from abroad, it seemed that the uncomfortable symptoms had disappeared and never appeared again. However, she did not know if it was because she was fine now, it was because her body had sent her some warning beforehand.

However, she did not expect it and did not pay attention to it.

Now, the results of these tests appeared in front of them.

Su Mulan's life was really not good.

Her illness had relapsed, and it was so serious that she had to undergo another blood transfusion or a bone marrow transplant. The illness had once again found her and tormented her.

Zhu Xianglan simply could not believe that her daughter had not received a bone marrow transplant. It was impossible for her to be in trouble again, and it was impossible for her to have relapsed again.

"It's hard to say," the Doctor explained to Zhu Xianglan from a professional point of view.

"Even if it's a transplant, there is a possibility that it will relapse. This is determined by the reasons of each person's body. Also, one has to have a certain amount of luck. Some people who have received a transplant once will not have relapsed again, but some people may even have relapsed after a few months of the transplant."

"For someone like Miss Su, it has already been more than two years since the transplant was successful. There are quite a number of people who have relapsed."

"Then, how do we treat them now?" Su Qingdong was much more rational than Zhu Xianglan, but his tone still had a sense of urgency that was not difficult to hear.

"Another transplant."

The Doctor said to them seriously, "However, it won't be easy to find a suitable match for Miss Su. Her blood type is very rare."

"We had a transplant once."

Zhu Xianglan said it without thinking.

"Then bring her here again." The Doctor lowered his head and quickly wrote something on it with the pen in his hand. However, others could not hear him clearly when he said this, however, Su Qingdong understood some of the meaning.

Now, everyone in the country probably knew that the Su family had kidnapped Yan Huan and forcefully extracted his bone marrow. and Su Mumu's illness had acted up again. This was karma, wasn't it?

This time, they wanted to take his bone marrow. It also depended on whether he was willing or not. It depended on whether the su family's hands were long enough. They could really do it again or kidnap him again.

They had both done it once. Did they take him for a fool?

How long were your hands. They could reach into the detention center. were the guards outside the detention center vegetarian? After ye Jianguo kidnapped Yan Huan the last time, the cars behind him had to be checked when they entered and exited. Other than acquaintances, and the acquaintances they spoke of were only a few people. They were also people who would not harm Yan Huan.

Yan Huan could have stayed at home for a few months, but Su Mulan had to live for a few months.

This time was different from the last time. Su Mulan's illness was too sudden, and of course, it was too dangerous. They had to carry out a bone marrow transplant as soon as possible. Moreover, even if it was a blood transfusion, with her blood type., it was impossible to get it every now and then. This blood type was too special. There were only a few in the entire hai city.
