

Sweet Wife 1971

Chapter 1971:

Even Su Muran and Sun Yuhan were no match for Yan Huan, and she was just a nobody. She was nothing.

“Don’t worry...”the voice on the other side finally quieted down, but even if it was comforting, it was a frightening comfort, “Don’t you still have me? Even if Yan Huan is your enemy, so what? As long as I’m here, you can go down in fame, and you can go down in fame...”

Yang Keke’s head felt as if it was pricked by a thorn.

“Who are you?”She couldn’t help but scream. who was this, who was this, who was this. What right did she have to continue being famous? What right did she have to think that she was Yan Huan’s opponent? In the entire Hai City, who would dare to offend Yan Huan? And she, Yang Keke, had just trusted this person and offended him, if it wasn’t for her, she wouldn’t have left Linlang. If it wasn’t for her, she would have gone against Yan Huan.

But now, she had deliberately filmed Yan Huan’s famous works. She had filmed more than one or two of them. This was obviously using Yan Huan’s reputation to climb up. and with Yan Huan’s character, how could he be willing to be used like this, what if Yan Huan attacked her? What if she didn’t have the ability to resist? What if the person on the other end of the phone gave up on her?

And who was this person? who was this person. Could she still trust her.

She asked again, but no matter how much she asked, that person still didn’t tell her.

“When I need you to know, I will tell you naturally.”With that, the other end of the phone hung up with a bang.

Coco Yang was still in a daze, holding the phone that no longer rang.

She did not believe it and called back again, but the other end could only hear a busy tone, and she could not sit still anymore. Of course she was afraid, but no matter how afraid she was, it was already like this, she could only brace herself and walk out.

The TV series about the divorce was still being filmed, and they had to continue to go against Yan Huan.

And now, she regretted it. How could she have trusted that person back then and trapped herself in such a dead end? Even if she did not want to continue, it was not up to her anymore. She had to continue to hold on..., because she didn’t have any other choice.

Even if she left this circle, it wouldn’t change anything?

Her reputation was already ruined.

Although she didn’t seem to care at all on the surface, in reality, how could she not care? Everyone cared about their reputation. Everyone wanted a good reputation, not a bad one.

Of course, it was the same for her. But now, she had no choice but to grit her teeth and continue walking.

The divorce drama never stopped, and there were fewer words scolding her on the internet. However, she had already memorized these words, and it was impossible for her to remove them. The more she was tied up with Yan Huan., the more it would make Yan Huan's fans feel disgusted, the more people would scold her. Other than the fact that she still had a little bit of fame as a wall-climbing tiger, it seemed that no one was willing to hire her to act anymore.

Meanwhile, she was still gritting her teeth and persevering. In less than two months, Yan Huan had welcomed another international film festival. Of course, it was not surprising that the first two were nominated again. As for whether he would be able to win the award., it was really hard to say.

After all, the international scene was a gathering of large films. Moreover, the aesthetic standards of different countries were also different. However, the good thing was that the first two were pure science fiction films, so they were suitable for most people to enjoy. It did not differentiate between domestic and foreign, the chances of winning were still relatively high.

"Let's go." Lu Yi lifted Yan Huan's suitcase. This time, he would go with Yan Huan. He wanted to see Yan Huan standing on that stage with his own eyes, and not describe it from someone else's mouth, he didn't see it last time, but this time, he wouldn't miss it.

What if I Don't win the award? Yan Huan tugged at Lu Yi's buttons. He had such high expectations for her, but what if she didn't win the award? Sometimes, the quality of the award was one thing, but Luck was another.

There was nothing to be done. You were already an international best actress. Lu Yi comforted her, and it didn't matter whether you won or not. You already succeeded, didn't you? Because the film had already been selected, and it was also nominated, this is already an honor that we can't even imagine.

Yan Huan also knew that Lu Yi was right. It was indeed not easy to get the second award.

And after thinking about it, she could finally come to an understanding. Even if she didn't win the award, it didn't matter. She would treat it as a trip with Lu Yi. After all, that was another place, and also another world, it was also a rare opportunity to relax and enjoy the local customs of other places.

They took a private plane. The plane took off from the Ye family's airport. Ye Xinyu personally sent them off. Ever since he took over the management rights of the Ye family's airport, the brats from before had really matured a lot, some businessmen had the potential to succeed. Experience could really change many people, especially an experience that almost no one wanted to recall. In the past, no one had ever thought that., ye Xinyu, this idiotic young man, could actually stand here one day and talk and laugh. He could even use the tone of a businessman with a face as beautiful as a flower that was not inferior to a famous star, he also had a trace of a smile that was difficult to distinguish between truth and falsehood.

After ye Chuji, he had become another very shrewd smiling fox. In fact, he was really quite suitable for doing business. It was just that he might not even know it himself.

There was really nothing in this world that could not be done. There was only one person who wanted to, or did not want to, or was willing or unwilling.

“Cousin, sister, I wish you a safe journey.”

When ye Xinyu faced Lu Yi and Yan Huan, he also offered his heart.

He was not Yan Huan’s cousin-in-law. This was her sister to begin with. This was his biological sister, his biological sister. And he finally had a sister with blood ties. This was what made him the most excited, of course, it was also because of this sister that he had this life.

She was good to him. When her cousin wanted to beat him up, she would plead on his behalf. She would also dig him out from the ruins of the earthquake. She would also worry about his life-long affairs. Otherwise, Bai Zhi would not be preparing to marry him now, he knew that this was not because Bai Zhi had thought it through. It was because Yan Huan had talked her through.

Lu Yi patted his shoulder.

“Well done, uncle can finally rest.”

“I just want him to rest. In the future, he can be like elder aunt, just looking at his eldest grandson.” When ye Xinyu said this, this man, who was already a successful businessman, smiled again, this smile had some of the meaning he had in the past, and it was still a slightly shy big boy.

Chapter 1972: Xie Weining: I’m nervous

Ye Xinyu was actually still ye Xinyu. In fact, he had not changed at all in terms of his nature.

It was just that life had changed him, and experience had taught him.

What he had to take on, what kind of responsibilities he had to have.

“Sister, you will definitely succeed.” Ye Xinyu faced Yan Huan again, and then reached out to hug Yan Huan.

It’s so good to have an older sister. I finally feel that I’m not alone anymore.

Yan Huan also patted ye Xinyu’s shoulder. Although she had never acknowledged ye Jianguo and would never like him in this lifetime, Ye Chuji and ye Xinyu were still acknowledged by her.

This could be considered as her true family. Of course, her mother also wanted her to be like this, right?

“Don’t worry,” ye Xinyu assured the two of them. “My father will always be with my aunt. He will always be with my aunt.”

“Thank you.” Yan Huan knew that ye Chuji often went to the temple to accompany his sister, who had already turned into ashes. Although it was useless, it could be considered as a form of respect for the deceased. It was also a form of psychological comfort.

Yan Huan would not stop him. She had heard from ye Shuyun that Ye Rong and ye Chuji had the best feelings in the past. Ye Chuji also doted on his younger sister the most. Therefore, if he wanted to go, he could go as long as he was not ye Jianguo.

She believed that even if she let bygones be bygones, her mother would not forgive him. Her mother would not forgive ye Jianguo who had smashed her ashes, not to mention that he had repeatedly made her daughter suffer so much, it was ye Jianguo who had kicked Xiao Xun again.

She did not even treat that person as her grandfather. Her mother loved her so much, so she definitely would not acknowledge him.

Yan Huan and Lu Yi had already boarded the plane. Lu Yi took a blanket and covered Yan Huan's body. The flight this time was a little long. If they were to fly straight, it would take more than ten hours. It was not comparable to a plane in China.

"We'll be there after a short nap." Lu Yi gently patted her shoulder. Yes, they would be there after a short nap. They would have a pleasant journey too, right?

"Alright." Yan Huan was already lying on his lap and fell asleep very quickly. Lu Yi was the safest person by her side. As long as he was around, she would be able to do anything in peace, including sleep.

She fell asleep very quickly. They sat near the window and were a little further away from the others. Of course, regardless of whether the others were excited, excited, or whatever emotions they were feeling.., it had nothing to do with her at the moment.

Yan Huan was also looking forward to the award. Of course, he also wanted to get it. As for whether he would really end up with her family, he didn't have that many obsessions anymore. Hence, after thinking it through, her mood became much more relaxed, meanwhile, she was still calculating in her heart. They would be out for a few days and where would they go for a stroll? That place was an international metropolis, and it was also the scenery of a different sea city. It was a rare opportunity for them to come out, so.., they really didn't want to come here for nothing and take such a long flight again.

After flying for about a night, they had already arrived at their destination. Because there were still about two days left for the international film festival, they also had two days to prepare. After all, this wasn't China, however, they could not lose face. If they really lost face, not only would they lose their own face, but even the people of their country would be lost as well.

And they could not afford to lose anyone.

"What should we do, Sister Jiayi? I'm nervous."

Xie weining was so nervous that her legs were trembling. She could not even walk.

"We haven't entered yet." Jiayi was also nervous when she saw Xie weining like this.

"You can't even stand straight now. What should we do when we go on stage?"

"I don't know either." Xie weining was wearing a pair of high heels. wasn't she practicing her walking? What kind of gown was she going to wear? How was she going to walk? When was she going to turn around? How much angle was she going to turn around, what kind of smile was she going to have? And what kind of special situations were she going to have to deal with? For example, when someone stepped on her skirt, her high heels fell off, she fell down, and her clothes collided with someone else's. All of these were unavoidable, of course, it was also possible. Xie Weining was just a newbie. She had participated in the domestic film festival and won an award. The typhoon was still not bad. It was a form of training, but after all, she still had very little experience, especially on such an international stage.

This place was crowded with celebrities from various countries. Not all of them were eastern faces. Of course, there was no room for anything to happen to her. Even if she made a mistake at home, it would be a disgrace to herself. However, when she went abroad., not only would it be a disgrace to her own people, but it would also be a disgrace to the country. It didn't matter if it was a disgrace to herself. She could only hide for a few days at most, but she couldn't lose her country.

"So, practice well." Jiayi couldn't do anything about it. She was just a rookie. She wouldn't grow up even if she didn't fly. It was just that this time, she was too good at not plucking the seedlings, she didn't let the bird flap its wings a few more times and pushed the bird down the cliff. If she didn't push it well, she would fall to her death. They really couldn't bear it. This wasn't training the bird, it was killing the bird.

In fact, Jiayi herself was also a very young rookie. However, she was only an agent and not an actress, so she didn't have to go on stage. She also didn't have to let others step on her skirt and kick off her shoes, then, she had to fall and lose face.

Therefore, she could only sympathize with Xie Weining's current situation, but she couldn't help much.

"Right!" Jiayi suddenly thought of something, which made Xie Weining's eyes light up. "Is there a way to stop me from going on stage?"

"In Your Dreams." Jiayi rolled her eyes, "Many people want to leave, but they can't. They invited you here. Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to squeeze in no matter how hard you try. How come that Coco Yang has been in the limelight recently and isn't qualified to come? Instead, she let you come?"

Xie Weining's face fell. Then why did you scare her so much just now? What's right? You even made her happy for nothing.

"You can go and look for Miss Yan," Jiayi suggested to Xie Weining. "Miss Yan has been here a few times. She is very familiar with the things inside. You can ask her for advice. What else is wrong with you? Also, ask her for some advice."

Yan Huan had always taken care of Xie Weining. Besides, they could be said to be sisters. Yan Huan was Father Xie's student. Although he had only studied for half a year, their friendship was still there, as long as Xie Weining opened her mouth, Yan Huan would definitely teach her.

That's right, why didn't I think of this. Xie weining hurriedly took off her high-heeled shoes and held them in her hands. These shoes were too high. She felt that only the tips of her feet were stepping on the ground, not to mention walking, even standing was wobbly. She was even thinking of wearing a pair of lower shoes. If they were too high, it would be very easy for her to fall. However, Jiayi just couldn't make sense of it.

Chapter 1973: Even if you can't control it, you have to control it

It was said that her shoes had to be worn very high, or else she wouldn't have much of an aura. When she took a photo with others, she would also be suppressed by others. This was something that couldn't be helped. Male actors.., forget it. They were only putting in the hard conditions. Even if there was an increase in height inside their shoes, it was impossible for them to be like an actress, who had to wear shoes that were more than ten centimeters and more than twenty centimeters, so now was the time to test the female star.

As a female star, she had to learn how to step on high heels.

Xie Weining had already carried her shoes to look for Yan Huan. In the end, she knocked on the door for a long time and stood outside for a long time, but she still did not see Yan Huan.

“Are you looking for Yan Huan?” Yi Ling walked over from the side. When she saw Xie Weining’s appearance, she could not help but frown.

“Put on your shoes. Someone took a photo of you. Do you want to throw your face overseas?”

Xie weining quickly put on her shoes, but once she put them on, she started to stagger.

Yi Ling could not bear to look at her. It was true. It was obvious that she was going to fall.

Jiayi saw this and quickly ran over. She reached out to help Xie Weining. She did not want her face to be flattened if she really fell. However, when she saw Yi Ling, she also stood up straight.

“Didn’t you teach her manners?” Yi Ling asked Jiayi, “Didn’t I already say that she has to learn these things before she comes here? There are some differences between home and abroad, so she can’t make any mistakes.” Now, she felt that Xie weining was like this, she hadn’t even entered the door before.

“The shoes are too high.” Xie weining really wanted to cover her face. “I can’t control it.”

“Even if you can’t control them, you have to control them for me. Even if you have to force yourself, you have to hold on until the end. Do you understand?”

Yi Ling’s face darkened. She directly instructed Jiayi to wear such high shoes for her in the future

“Okay, sister Yi Ling. I understand.”

Jiayi quickly agreed. She also looked at Xie Weining. The two of them squeezed their eyes for a long time.

“See, I told you, she will scold me.”

“But I just can’t learn it.”

“Even if you can’t learn it, you still have to learn it. Who asked you to be in this line of work? This is the skill that you must master first.”

Xie Weining’s face fell. She could really think of any way to deal with this. Yes, this was the skill that she had to learn. However, could she first let her get used to it? However, if she had time now, it would start the day after tomorrow.

“Are you looking for Yan Huan?” Yiling asked Xie Weining.

“Yes,” Jiayi explained on behalf of Xie Weining. Otherwise, this newbie would say something wrong again, and Yiling would cut off a piece of meat, “We want to find Miss Yan to pass on our experience. After all, she is a frequent visitor to international film festivals.”

“You can come back tonight.” Yiling raised her wrist and looked at the time. “They might not come back until tonight?”

“Then...” Jiayi couldn’t help but ask, “Where did they go?”

“Dog abuse.”

Yi Ling turned around and walked away in her high heels. Of course, her heels weren’t too short, but she could walk as fast as she could. Yi Ling must have mastered this skill pretty well, of course, she had trained for more than ten years. She could even run a marathon, let alone walk as fast as she could.

“What is dog abuse?”

Xie weining turned her head and looked confused.

Did they bring a dog with them when they came?

Sigh, such an innocent child. Jiayi patted Xie Weining on the shoulder. “The full name of dog abuse is called ‘mad abuse of single dogs’. People like us who don’t have a dog to abuse will never understand.”

The corner of Xie Weining’s eyes twitched. Was she stabbing a knife into her heart or a sore spot? She also wanted to abuse her, but there was no way she could do it.

“Then let’s go find Miss Liang, okay?” Xie weining discussed with Jiayi again. “She’s also an old-school movie queen. She must be very experienced.”

“She’s also torturing dogs.”

Jiayi turned around to look at the other room and the closed door. Yan Huan was torturing dogs. How could Liang Chen not be tormented? Not to mention Liang Chen, even Zhou Zizhe and his wife had been tormented together for a long time. These couples had all gone out, leaving only single dogs like them, they were still struggling bitterly here.

“Then, now, we...”

Xie weining pointed at her finger. “Can We Rest Now?”

Jiayi turned around and glanced at the pair of shoes Xie Weining was wearing. They were both 15 centimeters long.

“Go back.”

“Really?” Xie weining lifted her skirt and was about to take off her shoes.

“Yes.” Jiayi looked ahead with a worried expression. “Keep practicing. I Can’t let you throw your face out of the country.”

“Xie Weining...”

At this moment, Yan Huan and Lu Yi were obviously outside. They had been out for a long time. They didn't need to be as careful in foreign countries as they did in their own country. Just like how easterners didn't remember Western faces, they couldn't remember anything, of course, Westerners could not remember so many eastern faces. After all, their aesthetic standards were different. Although Yan Huan's looks were very recognizable and she was very famous in China, she was just average in foreign countries, therefore, she could simply walk outside with Lu Yi. She would buy all the good ones she saw. Then, she would ship them to the airport. Ye Xinyu would help send them back to the Lu family. Yan Huan bought toys for the three children, there were also snacks and many other things. In any case, as long as it was something she liked, she would buy it. It was not easy to come here, especially when she was with Lu Yi. Lu Yi was a very busy person.

Moreover, he needed to go abroad with a special procedure. It was not easy. Naturally, they could stay here for a few more days and explore this different city, meanwhile, Yan Huan had forgotten what she was here to do.

She was really not here to explore. She was here to participate in the International Film Festival.

At night, she was finally willing to go back. However, she was exhausted. When she came back, she fell asleep immediately. When she fell asleep, she would have the strength to explore for another day

When Xie Weining knocked on the door, Yan Huan was already asleep. It was Lu Yi who opened the door.

"Mr. Lu, is Miss Yan Here?"

Xie weining asked softly. She had been waiting for a whole day. Why was Yan Huan so good at shopping? He hadn't come back for a whole day.

"She's asleep."

Lu Yi lowered his voice and blocked half of his body outside the door. His meaning was clear. He couldn't go in, he couldn't wake her up, and he couldn't disturb her.

Xie weining had no choice but to leave. She cracked her lips at Jiayi. "Let's go look for Liangchen. Looks like we can only hope that Yan Huan is free."

And they could only go look for Liangchen again.

The current Yan Huan was really unreliable. He was either strolling or eating. After strolling, he had to sleep again. He slept like a little pig, and there was even Lu Yi watching. They couldn't even get through the crack in the door.

Chapter 1974: she had won the award again

Yes, it was really too unreliable. Lu Yi had already spoiled Yan Huan so much that he had no bottom line, so Liangchen was still the most reliable. When they went, fortunately, Liangchen was not like Yan Huan, after shopping for a whole day, she fell asleep immediately. She came back earlier than Yan Huan and was now tidying up the things she bought today.

Being a mother was different. Most of them bought things for their children, not for herself.

After Xie Weining explained her purpose of coming, Liangchen agreed readily. It seemed that she had no choice but to agree. If Xie Weining lost face, they would also lose face.

Therefore, she was willing to spend her time so that Xie Weining, the time bomb, could explode after she returned to China. However, she found that Xie Weining had a lot of problems and could not be learned in a short period of time, therefore, she was not planning to go out tomorrow. As for him and Qi haolin, they had more time. They did not have any other arrangements. They could stay for ten days to half a month if they wanted to. Of course, Yan Huan could not, Lu Yi's appearance was limited, so his time was limited. However, they would not do that.

Of course, Yan Huan did not know about these things. He also did not know that Liang Chen had taken Xie Weining's time bomb and left her and Lu Yi to rest..

Early the next morning, Yan Huan got up and dragged Lu Yi out. They visited many places and ate a lot of the specialties here. Of course, they also bought a lot of good things, they had all been sent to the airport to be transported back to their country. Now that the transportation industry was so developed, there was really no need for the two of them to carry it back. Moreover, even if they carried it, they could not carry it, this was because they had really bought too much.

The third day was the official start of the International Film Festival. Lu Yi was just a very low-key audience. He did not show off and had been sitting in a place that almost no one noticed, he was also silently paying attention to Yan Huan.

It had to be said that Yan Huan was really an outstanding actress. Of course, she was also like a shining body. Wherever she went, she would be the focus of everyone's attention. The gown she wore was also simple and clean, the makeup on her face was also very light, but her skin was very good. It was just in time to see her clear skin. There was also light makeup on her face. It was very generous and graceful. Perhaps it was also because of this film festival.., she did not have too much anticipation and did not feel nervous. Therefore, she gave people a very comfortable feeling.

Of course, her every frown and smile also left a unique Dongfang beauty in the photo album of the foreign reporters, as well as the atmosphere and gentleness along the way. She wasn't the one who was in the limelight. In fact, she was a little modest, but the impression she left on people was the deepest.

As for Liang Chen, who also came in with Qi haolin, he didn't deliberately act like the others. After all, they were both considered regular customers here, so the bearing of the couple was.., was indeed admirable.

That little rookie really didn't need to be told by others. From time to time, she would hold her breath and tell herself to be careful. She had to be careful. En, it's fine. Yes, it will definitely be fine.., she had been practicing hard for more than a day, so it was impossible for her to fall.

After tidying up her dress, she walked over with a professional smile. She wore a long yellow dress that reached her ankles, but it didn't clash with anyone. In an instant, she let out a sigh of relief, as she walked on the red carpet, the high heels under her feet were also very powerful. They did not fall off, nor did they bend her feet, nor did they break her heels. Until she finished walking on the red carpet, perhaps she was still nervous, after all, the smile on her face froze. It could also be said that although it was a failure, it was also no fault. At the very least, this was her first time. It was normal for her to be nervous. Of course, the most important thing was..., she did not throw her face overseas.

Jiayi also heaved a sigh of relief. She had finally passed the test.

And next was the award ceremony. Actually, at this time, everyone was nervous. Everyone was restless. Yan Huan placed her hand in Lu Yi's pocket, and Lu Yi held her hand tightly.

Lu Yi also touched the sweat on her hand. Although he said that he did not care, he was still quite nervous in his heart, right? After all, no one could refuse that award. It was like a milestone, representing a person's highest honor. Everyone wanted it. Otherwise, why would they work so hard to make a film, other than getting the remuneration that they deserved, the most important thing was that they wanted to be recognized by everyone.

The first few awards were all in the past, including Best Director, Best Supporting Actor, and Best Lighting. They didn't get the first two awards. It couldn't be said that they didn't make a good film. It could only be said that their competitors were too strong, this time, the quality of the films from various countries was not bad. This was something that Yan Huan acknowledged. Even if they went back this time and got a bald head, it would not be a big deal. After all, they had been nominated and could be considered to have earned all the money for their country.

It was not until the top mentioned the best producer award that the name of the first two awards appeared. The host on the top also read Yi Ling's name in English.

Lu Yi felt his hands tighten. Yan Huan's hands were so tight that they almost touched the back of his hand. He gently patted Yan Huan's hand to comfort her.

Not to mention Yan Huan, even Yi Ling herself was stunned. No, she wasn't stunned. She was stunned. She was disappointed when the best director, Best Supporting Role, and Best Lighting Award passed, she thought that she might not win the award this year. After all, the top two awards would only be won in these few categories.

However, she did not expect such a big surprise. She would actually be able to stand on the international stage one day and receive the honor that belonged to her?

Rowling pushed Yi Ling's shoulder. "What are you still doing here? Why aren't you going up to receive the award?"

Yi Ling finally reacted. She stood up and her footsteps paused slightly. Her neat short hair made her unyielding character as well as her style of persevering to the end, at this moment, she could even hear her footsteps stepping on the red carpet.

Her heart was beating, her movements were stiff, and she was also nervous.

She had really succeeded and lived her life.

She could no longer end her life in that way for a man in her previous life. In this life, she had lived her life and gotten what she wanted, there was also a glory that she had earned for herself, a glory that belonged to her.

She kissed the cup in her hand and raised it high. At that moment, she smiled, but there were tears in the corners of her eyes.

Chapter 1975: The biggest winner

Six years. She had thought about it for six years. No matter what happened, she had never given up. So she had succeeded, right? Yes, she had succeeded. Now, the trophy in her hand.., was proof that she had done it.

There was a round of thunderous applause from below. The first and second film crews heaved a sigh of relief. Even if there was no award, it did not matter. They had also won one, and they could return to their country in glory.

After Yi Ling received this award, the others did not think too much about it. No one would think that this kind of international award was like cabbages. They would give you one cut after another.

This was an international award. It was really not like cabbages or cabbages.

However, life always gave them light when they were disappointed. The Next Best Action Directing Award was taken away by the first two film crews.

Two. That's right, two. They could finally return to their country with glory. They had let down so many people who were worried about them, who supported them, and who supported their country behind their backs.

When their action directing teacher excitedly took back the Grand Award, a grown man actually cried so hard that he could not stop his tears.

The voice on the stage rang out again. The Best post-production Award was still the first two.

Their post-production had been specially developed by Linlang after spending nearly ten years in-house. They had always polished all the films to ensure that they would be able to broadcast normally. They were all young people, and this time, they had actually won a big award, and it was an international big award.

The first two film crews were starting to feel a little excited. This was a kind of common honor. It was definitely not just one person. Although they had all won individual awards, the honor belonged to everyone.

Three awards in one go. It was enough. It was really enough.

And now, they were all thinking about the three awards that they had received. The other awards above did not listen to them. And this Yun was the heaviest award of the year, and also the most prestigious award, it was this year's international best actor and Best Actress Awards.

However, the first and second film crews had already withdrawn their hearts because the possibility of getting it was not very high.

Sure enough, after the voice faded, a foreign man walked up. He was as tall as a model and wore a very friendly suit. He was very gentlemanly, and was also a standard foreign handsome man.

The foreign handsome man first spoke generously for a very long time, and his English was very smooth. It was just that he did not know which country he was from, but he had already won the Best Actor award, so the best actress award should have come from that movie. Both of their movies had won three major awards, and the last major award would depend on who won it, then, who would be the biggest winner of this world's film festival.

Of course, the people from Linlang's side had not thought about it, and Yan Huan himself had not thought about it either, so they forgot that they were in the middle of the film festival. Instead, they chatted with Lu Yi.

"Let's go out and drink that milk tea later, okay?" Yan Huan was still thinking about the milk tea that she and Lu Yi had drunk not long ago. The taste was rare in the country. Lu Yi liked to drink it, and he had drunk several cups in a row, it was a pity that the next time she came over, she didn't know how long she would have to wait. No, how could she be so stupid? She could learn it, but she didn't know if they would teach her.

No matter what, she wanted to learn it. When she learned it, she would memorize it all in her mind. It wasn't a wasted trip here. This way, Lu Yi could drink it whenever he wanted to, she could drink it anytime and anywhere. She could also buy a milk tea machine and put it in Lu Yi's office. She could make a cup of milk tea for him. Of course, she wouldn't stop Lu Yi from drinking milk tea, grand prosecutor Lu only had one pitiful hobby. How could she deprive him of it? Yes, she had made a happy decision. She wanted to learn the art of milk tea.

Lu Yi patted Yan Huan on the shoulder, interrupting Yan Huan's contemplation.

"What's wrong? Is it over? Can We Go Now?"

Yan Huan was about to stand up as she spoke. She couldn't wait to learn her cooking skills.

"No, sit properly. Continue smiling." Lu Yi hurriedly sat her down. His lips were slightly raised, neither warm nor cold.

Alright, Yan Huan could only sit properly again. She had gone through professional training. How to smile, how to smile cutely, how to smile like a lovable person, how to smile like a top notch. These were all her standard smiles, jokes., she had already smiled for two lifetimes. How could she not know how to smile.

Her smile was extremely sweet and beautiful. Of course, when facing all kinds of cameras, she could make herself look 360 degrees without any blind spots throughout the entire process. A woman like her was blessed by the heavens., this might be the best compensation that the heavens had given her after suffering for her entire life. She aged slower than the average person. Of course, her small face was also good-looking, and her Xun Xun was the same. She looked just like her., it was an extremely small face.

"Go up and receive the award."

Lu Yi whispered to her again.

“Receive the award? What Award?”

Yan Huan was still unable to react in time.

“Your International Best Actress award is up there. Go and get it.” Lu Yi smiled at her, “Mm, Congratulations. You have won the award again. This time, I can finally see you standing on the highest stage. This is your glory, your honor, and also your life.”

This was also Yan Huan’s success. Of course, it was also the greatest joy in his life. He could finally accompany her to witness this moment. He could see her glory with his own eyes, and he could also see her success.

That’s right, Yan Huan had succeeded. After six years, she had also received the International Best Actress award. She had also left a shadow of herself here, allowing many people to remember this day.

This was an oriental face. She was meticulous, she was delicate, and she was also exquisite. Her entire body was so warm that people liked her.

She walked onto the stage. The high heels under her feet also moved forward steadily. Then, she stood in front of the stage. Then, she took a bouquet of flowers and spoke in fluent English.

In fact, many people did not know what she said because she had even forgotten herself.

This was the second time that she had won this award. It was really valuable.

She waved the trophy in her hand at Lu Yi. Yan Huan’s name was once again well-known by everyone. Her name of ten billion female celebrities and the name of her previous box office panacea had always been there.

And this time, the top two had really become the biggest winners of this world’s international awards. They had won four awards, and it could be said that they had returned with a full load. Of course, when they returned to China, they could also raise their heads and puffed out their chests, of course, they could even strut around with their heads held high.

Chapter 1976: was mutual harm

Lu Yi sat on a table with the window on his back half-open. There was a gentle breeze blowing outside from time to time, bringing with it the unique smell of the city. He didn’t know what kind of flower fragrance it was, but when it smelled., there was a faint fragrance and a kind of moisture in the air. It didn’t smell like the water from Haijiang, but he couldn’t tell what it was.

At this moment, there was a cup of milk tea in front of him, and he was flipping through a magazine. He forgot about the time and let his time pass by little by little.

He put down the magazine in his hand and raised his wrist to look at the watch on his wrist. “HM, What’s Wrong? You’ve been gone for so long, and you still haven’t come back?”

He took out his phone and called Yan Huan.

“I found a fun place here. I’ll play for a while.”

Yan Huan said excitedly. It felt like it was just as she said. A very fun place that made her feel like she was going to miss it.

Lu Yi shook his head and picked up the magazine on the table to flip through.

At this moment, Yan Huan was wearing a chef's hat and preparing milk tea under the guidance of a white chef. In fact, Yan Huan just came over to ask. She originally thought that she would need to spend a lot of effort to learn it. However, she didn't expect that they would teach her so easily. This could be considered a coincidence because this chef happened to be the owner of this shop. Of course, he was also a fan of Yan Huan.

He had said that as long as Yan Huan allowed him to take a few photos with him and allowed him to hang this photo up, he would be able to teach her the method of making milk tea unconditionally.

Was it just selling photos?

Yan Huan readily agreed. As for the method of making milk tea, it was actually not that difficult. There were only a few small details. If others did not mention it, you would not know either. Moreover, the milk tea here was truly brewed, it was not brewed with milk tea powder. This was no wonder. The milk tea here always felt slightly different from the outside. It was much mellower. So it was really freshly brewed.

"I'm back," Yan Huan ran over and sat in front of Lu Yi. He placed the milk tea in his hand in front of Lu Yi's face. "Taste this."

Lu Yi picked it up and took a sip.

"It tastes pretty good."

Yan Huan smiled a little shrewdly, but Lu Yi did not notice it.

After receiving the award, they were almost done strolling around. They had to go back. Lu Yi only had four days in total. He had to return to the country tomorrow morning.

It was unknown who set this rule. Grand Procurator Lu was not allowed to stay outside for more than four days. Otherwise, Yan Huan really wanted to bring Lu Yi to a few other places to take a look, every place was very unique. It seemed that this beautiful wish could only be realized in a very long time. How long would they have to wait? It might be when they became old men and old women, at that time, they would really have time, and all of their time would be theirs.

When the production team returned to China, Lu Yi and Yan Huan had left through a private tunnel, so they did not meet any fans. This time, Yan Huan had won the International Best Actress Award, it was simply a shock to the domestic entertainment circle. However, it was a pity that Yan Huan did not plan to shoot any more scenes. She was not considered to have retired from filming, but she would not shoot any more scenes, she would focus all her energy on Lu Yi and the three children. As for the rest, it was actually not that important to her.

Lu Yi placed Yan Huan's Trophy in the cabinet. Once the cabinet was closed, he locked all of her glory in it and disappeared from view.

“Have you really decided?” Lu Yi lowered his head and asked Yan Huan, “Don’t you regret it?” After all, not everyone would have such a good future. If she continued to film, then her future achievements..., no one knew how high she would go. Perhaps when that time came, she would chop off her feet. Perhaps the entire entertainment industry would be shocked, but she just had to choose not to film anymore, however, when Linlang needed a supporting role, she would make a cameo appearance. Would that really not make her regret it?

And would she be willing?

Yan Huan nodded and went forward to hug Lu Yi’s waist. “You’ve waited for me for two lifetimes. I Won’t make you wait anymore.”

She wouldn’t let Lu Yi live that kind of life again. If she continued to film outside every day and couldn’t see Lu Yi a few times all year round, what was the difference between Lu Yi and being a widow?

So, she stopped filming.

Was there a need to ask her if she was willing?

What was there to be unwilling about? In this life, all she wanted was to get it. She had already won so many domestic awards. She had already won two international best actress awards. After being awarded two awards, would she have to get another one?

She did not dare. She was afraid of being beaten up.

So that was it.

She and Lu Yi would watch their children grow up day by day, waiting for them to grow old. She and Lu Yi would be filial to their parents and accompany them through day by day.

No matter if they were old or sick, poor or sick, they would never be able to separate them.

Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan’s shoulder. Okay, I won’t be filming anymore. We’ll just stay together for the rest of our lives

This time, the top two not only earned box office sales and public praise, but they even won back four international awards. This year was another turning point for Linlang, of course, Linlang would have more and better television shows and movies in the future. Through these few years of development, Linlang had already occupied a place for herself. She also wanted to earn a position that others could not shake.

The top three on the ticket list were all works that Linlang had shot. There were not many film companies that could do it. Taking advantage of this opportunity, Linlang had also become popular. One of them was Xie Weining, one film after another was accepted. Almost all of them were placed without a window. They could be considered as the new starlets that Linlang had promoted.

As for that Yang Keke, the divorce that she shot was also broadcasted not long after. Although the script was still the same as before, and the screenwriter was also the same as before, it was no longer the same as before.

Perhaps even Yang Keke herself thought that she could rely on this movie to become famous. After all, this divorce was also tied together with Yan Huan. As long as this divorce was mentioned, Yan Huan would also be mentioned.

However, who knew? It was because of the contrast that they knew about the hurt.

She hurt Yan Huan's divorce, destroyed the classics, and destroyed the memories in everyone's hearts. They also hurt the audience, and the audience would hurt her in return.

Chapter 1977: was actually very smart

The new divorce drama was shot into more than 30 episodes. To be honest, the plot was not bad, but the actors were not chosen well. Coco Yang was born with a proud face. To be honest.., she really could not shoot such an aggrieved TV show.

Crying was not like crying, and laughing was not like laughing. Moreover, she could not help but be as dedicated as Yan Huan at that time. Although the plot had become more flesh and blood, after all, many of the plots were not found in the movies, but.., this kind of flesh and blood, but because of a Yang Keke, it became somewhat redundant. It was also the audience's disgust, and they did not buy it.

Yang Keke could not say that she was not popular. In fact, she was also quite popular. There was another kind of red, and another kind of negative red. Moreover, if there were too many negative images, no one would like to look for her as a spokesperson. They would look for her instead, in the future, even the goods would be unable to be sold.

Therefore, the current Yang Keke was in a negative atmosphere. However, there was nothing she could do about it. She even wanted to flip through another film that Yan Huan had previously acted in.

"Why do you always ask me to remake Yan Huan's previous films?"

She really couldn't stand this kind of life anymore. She wasn't Yan Huan, she was Yang Keke. She wouldn't become the second Yan Huan. However, why did she always lead her down this path? Why did she do this.., why did she have to treat her like this?

"Didn't you always want to surpass her?"

The voice on the other end of the phone was still the same unlikeable tone.

"I did think about it, but I did not become her shadow."

Yang Keke practically shouted at the other end of the phone. Moreover, she did not use such a method. Even if she had finished filming Yan Huan's film, so what? In the end, it was still the same. She could not compare to Yan Huan.., what could she use to compete with Yan Huan? Yan Huan was already an international best actress from Both Worlds. He was the Queen of the box office with a box office earnings of 10 billion yuan. However, she did not even have 100 million yuan, let alone an international best actress, right now, she did not even have the best supporting actress pass in her hands.

"If you win, she will be your shadow."

Although the voice from the other side was not loud, it was like a needle. One by one, it pricked her skin and flesh, piercing directly into Yang Keke's heart.

"But I can't compete with her at all."

Yang Coco did not feel that she could win. What ability did she have to win.

"Then you..."

The cold laughter from the other end almost made Yang Coco throw away her pride on the spot.

"What About Me?"

"You can only become her shadow."

"What exactly do you want to Do?" Yang Coco suddenly had a very strange thought. This person, this mysterious person, was not for her, but for Yan Huan. But who was this person, who was he?

"What do I want to Do?" A strange laughter came from the other end of the line, "Didn't you already know what I want to Do? "If it can make Yan Huan unhappy, I will do it. If it can make Yan Huan unhappy, I will do it too. But who asked you to have no ability? You also have no ability to make her unhappy."

On Yang Keke's side, both of her hands were so hard that they were about to crush her phone.

"Now, you still have one more chance. It depends on whether you are willing or not."

The person on the other side spoke coldly again. This was not a suggestion, but an order, and also a threat.

With a bang, Yang Keke hung up the phone. She would no longer do anything for that person. She did not want to listen to her threats anymore. But now, when she thought of her situation, she almost fell to the ground helplessly.

There was no way out.

Even if she wanted to leave this circle now, no one would be willing.

And she also knew that if she left one day, she would be living a worse life than she was now.

That person would not let her go.

The sky outside suddenly darkened. It was still bright and beautiful in the morning, but in just half a day, the sky had darkened. There might be a storm soon, it might also be the time of the sea city's flood news. It was the same every year in the sea city. The Sea River, which had been peaceful for too long, always liked to throw a tantrum a few times during this season. It was unknown whether it was because people were wantonly destroying the environment, or because the days were too peaceful, even the Sea River was unwilling to let it go.

Many people still remembered the flood in the sea city once, and many people would not forget how many houses were destroyed and how many people died in the Sea River's flood.

“What’s This?” Lu Yi pointed to a few machines and asked Yan Huan. “What’s this for?” He took the list of goods. They were all in English. This was a machine imported from abroad, right? What was he doing here?

“You’ll know in a while.” Yan Huan had already packed the machines. After cleaning them, he opened a cabinet at the side and took out a lot of cups. They were all disposable paper cups, there were also ingredients, milk, and some other things. However, there were too many things. Even Lu Yi was confused by what he saw in the end.

Yan Huan placed these things in the machine according to the ratio. After waiting for a while, he took a paper cup and took a cup before placing it in front of Lu Yi.

Lu Yi took the cup. He had just taken a sip, and he already knew where it came from?

He pinched Yan Huan’s face. “You’ve learned someone else’s unique skill again.”

“Yeah,” Yan Huan poured himself a cup. “I know you like milk tea the most. This is the best milk tea we’ve had all these years, so I went to look for the boss.”

“He’s willing to teach you?” Lu Yi finished the cup and took another one. He sat at the side and took another sip.

“Of course.” Yan Huan leaned against the cabinet and was very proud of this, “He’s my fan. Do you know how easy it is to talk to him? He took a photo with me and then taught me all his skills.”

Lu Yi shook his head. Yan Huan was still proud, but he did not know that she had given him a free international advertisement.

Yan Huan, the international movie queen, liked milk tea the most, and how many people went for it because of its fame? However, it was possible that Yan Huan knew about it, but she still did it. It was not because of anything else, but because it was her husband’s favorite drink, so what if she did a free advertisement for someone else? After all, people said that it was difficult to buy a good heart with money.

Moreover, this was not her good heart, but Lu Yi’s.

Lu Yi took the phone on the table and called Yu Bo.

“Yu Bo, it’s me.”

“Mr. Lu, what’s the matter?” Yu Bo could not be more enthusiastic when he heard Lu Yi’s voice. He could not help it. He ate and drank every day. Every day, he could get some food from their grand prosecutor, he hadn’t gone out to eat for a few months. The last time Lu Yi went abroad, he ate in the canteen for a few days. He was so hungry that he wanted to cry.

Chapter 1978: was no longer born

This was his parents, how could he offend them.

“Come to me once.”

“Okay.” Yu Bo quickly put down the work in his hands and ran to Lu Yi’s place. Moreover, these people were like soy sauce, they let prosecutor Lu do everything by himself.

There was no other way. The prosecutor was too capable. He handled the case very quickly. It was so fast that it made them feel that they were too incompetent.

When Yu Bo entered, he just pushed open the door and smelled a very fragrant smell.

What is this? It smells so good?

“I’ll give you a cup.” Yan Huan placed the cup in front of Yu Bo. This was a milk tea from a foreign shop. It tasted pretty good.

Yu Bo hurriedly took it. He had just taken a sip, and he immediately fell in love with this taste. How should he describe it? Yes, how should he describe this taste? He didn’t even know how to describe it?

It should be like the feeling of eating chocolate. That kind of soft, rich, and almost irresistible feeling. Moreover, after drinking it, he felt a little refreshed.

“Delicious!”

Yu Bo finished the cup and sighed. This feeling was too wonderful. He thought that if he drank it in the middle of winter, it would be a beautiful enjoyment. He didn’t dare to imagine it.

Yu Bo’s sharp eyes noticed that the machine for making milk tea was placed here. It seemed that they could drink it in the winter.

“Go and get everyone a cup. Yan Huan pointed at the milk tea on the table and the two guards at the door. Don’t forget them.”

“Don’t worry, Mr. Lu. I know.”

Yu Bo hugged them and directly took four cups out. Actually, there were not many people in the procuratorate. There were probably only about twenty people. If each person had a cup, it would not take Yan Huan much time

In a short while, Yu Bo had already sent out twenty cups of milk tea. When he entered, he naturally had to give himself another cup. He had worked hard just now, and it had taken him half a day’s effort, he had completely forgotten what the taste of milk tea was.

Yan Huan also generously gave another cup of milk tea to Yu Bo. However, the taste was different. He didn’t know how Yan Huan made it and how it was so delicious. If he knew., how much was this cup sold for in that country? He would know why it was so delicious and why it was so expensive.

This was their brand. However, it was Yan Huan who brought this milk tea into the country. If she used it to open a milk tea shop now, it should be quite profitable.

“Oh right, look, I forgot.” Yu Bo took out his phone and flipped through it a few times. Then, he placed his phone on the table. He found a place to make way and drank it, he would have another cup later.

A voice came from the phone.

“Miss Yan, thank you.”

“Miss Yan, you’re really a good person.”

“Miss Yan, thank you for bringing us milk tea.”

“Miss Fang, your beauty and heart are also good.”

“Miss Yan, Congratulations on winning the International Best Actress award. I’m a fan of yours. I’ve already seen your first two films five times. It’s really beautiful.”

Each sentence was not exaggerated. There was no attempt to flatter or curry favor. It was just a sincere expression of gratitude. It was also a way of saying that he liked it. Yan Huan listened and listened, why did he feel that his eyes were starting to heat up? How should he put it? Yes, how should he put it? There were too many things in this world. It was possible that it would only take an instant to be moved.

And Yan Huan was moved. It was just that simple. He was moved.

Everyone was embarrassed. Yu Bo smiled. They actually liked Miss Yan very much. They wanted to thank Miss Yan. Sometimes, we would remember the things that you gave us, as well as the good things that you made, you would also share them with us.

Although we were not good at talking, we would remember the good things that Yan Xiao did. Yes, they would remember the good things that Yan Huan did. They would not forget it, and they also did not want to forget it.

There were many things that they would not be able to say in front of Yan Huan, so they used this method to express their gratitude.

After Yu Bo left, Yan Huan cleaned the machine and put it inside, preparing to take it out the next day. As long as Lu Yi wanted to drink it, he could drink it anytime.

“Why, are you touched?”

Lu Yi walked over and held Yan Huan’s shoulders tightly,

“Yes, I’m touched.”Yan Huan suddenly smiled, turned around, and hugged his waist tightly. People needed to be touched, right?

Looks like my milk tea didn’t go to waste.

She was sure again that it really didn’t go to waste, and it didn’t cost any money.

Lu Yi couldn’t help but shake his head. “When I get off work, let’s go home for dinner.”

“Okay.”Yan Huan also missed the three children. However, even if old master Lu was here, he wouldn’t let her take care of the three children every day.

How about having another child?

Yan Huan raised her head and looked at Lu Yi for a long time.

“What’s Wrong?” Lu Yi lowered his head and bent down slightly, meeting her eyes. “Is there anything you want to tell me?”

“Yes.” Yan Huan nodded. Then, she stretched out her hand and tugged at Lu Yi’s buttons. But after a while, she put them down again. Lu Yi was wearing a uniform. This was the uniform of a prosecutor, in her eyes, it was very sacred. She didn’t dare to touch him. If she did, it would be as if she had done something wrong.

“Should we give birth to another one?”

Yan Huan tried to ask, “We’ll bring this one ourselves.”

“It’s impossible for us to bring ten of them for ourselves.” Lu Yi didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. Because right now, Yan Huan was like Lu Jin, wishing that they could give birth to a few more, however, it wasn’t their turn to give birth to a few people. It wasn’t a problem for old master Lu to give birth to ten of them. As long as they dared to give birth.

“I’m not giving birth anymore.” Lu Yi gently stroked Yan Huan’s hair. She wasn’t young anymore. If she gave birth again, she would become an old woman giving birth. Even though she was already young, a 30-year-old woman was still like a university student, she was so exquisite that it was almost unbelievable. In fact, she was already thirty-one years old and was already a mother of three children.

“Isn’t it good to give birth to another child?” Yan Huan could not help but tug at Lu Yi’s buttons again. Her mother and the others should be very happy. Moreover, they could give birth to a second child now. She and Lu Yi were both only children, the first three did not count. They had one child. Therefore, she should be able to have another child.

“I can’t have another child.” Lu Yi’s eyes were still warm and tranquil. He had already become more and more mature. There was a sense of steadiness in his body. He had also experienced two lifetimes. After two lifetimes.., his thoughts were already incomparably complicated compared to others.

Chapter 1979: children, they’re not giving birth anymore

Yan Huan’s eyes dimmed slightly.

She couldn’t give birth. That’s right, why didn’t she think of that? They had never used contraception before, and Lu Yi was also not letting her take medicine. Was it because she couldn’t give birth.

“Don’t think too much. It’s not you, it’s me.”

Lu Yi placed his hand on Yan Huan’s face. His palm was almost as big as her face. “I asked Yi bin to operate on me. We won’t have any more children.”

Yan Huan suddenly raised her face and asked her, “Why?”

“We have three children. That’s enough. We’re not going to have any more.” Lu Yi hugged Yan Huan tightly in his arms and pressed his chin against the top of her head.

“We didn’t have any at first. We’ve already accepted our fate. Now that we have three children, I should be satisfied. We can’t be too greedy. It’s not good.”

He had yet to say that Yan Huan’s body was indeed unable to give birth to any more children. Other than being an old woman giving birth, her uterus had been damaged in the past. It was all his fault. It was all his fault for not protecting her properly. In his previous life., he had not protected her properly and let her die like that. It was the same in this life. He had made her suffer so much.

It would never happen again. Yes, it would never happen again. It would never happen again.

That was why they stopped giving birth to the child

It was also because of this that he decided to have the surgery. He knew Yan Huan’s character. If Yan Huan was pregnant again, then no matter what, she would still give birth to the child because it was her own child, she would not give up any life, even if the price of giving birth to this child was her own life.

Yan Huan sniffed. Her heart was aching. Why had Lu Yi never mentioned this matter to her.

“Alright.” Lu Yi patted her shoulder. “Go and pack up. I’ll be off work in a while.” Lu Yi raised his wrist and looked at the time. There were about twenty minutes left. He still had to deal with a case later, then, they went home.

“Alright.” Yan Huan didn’t want to continue this topic which was a little heavy.

Alright, if she didn’t want to give birth, then she wouldn’t.

Having three children was enough.

They could also divide all their love equally among the three children. However, if there was a small child, then they had to divide everyone’s love more. The three children were all sensitive minds. She was also afraid of hurting their hearts.

Perhaps they were fated to only have three children. Just as Lu Yi said, three children were enough.

However, Yan Huan could not deny that she was already moved by Lu Yi and Lu Yi. How could this man do such a thing? How could he do such a surgery that hurt his body? Shouldn’t she be allowed to do it too?

The sound of a keyboard came from outside again. She knew that Lu Yi was busy again. She hurriedly took out her phone and looked for something on it?

Only when Lu Yi called out to her did she put down her phone and let out a sigh of relief. It said that the surgery would not affect men, but she could not have children in the future.

Lu Yi called out Yan Huan’s name again.

“Okay, right away.” Yan Huan quickly put her phone in her bag and took her clothes to put on. When she came out, Lu Yi had not changed his clothes. This uniform was to be taken home for washing.

He walked over and tidied up Yan Huan's clothes. His palms were very big, and his fingers were very long. He could also give her a peaceful sky. In fact, Yan Huan had known about it a long time ago.

If it were not for the fact that Lu Yi had never given up on her, even if she was in a vegetative state, even if she was already sick to the point of dying, even if he Yibin had already taken the initiative to ask him to give up on her life.., instead, he wanted her to leave with dignity.

But he didn't. He had never thought of giving up on her. Thinking about their two lifetimes, no, three lifetimes, he had never actually given up on her, and it was the same in this life.

"Let's go." Lu Yi placed his hand in front of Yan Huan. "Let's go home."

Yan Huan stuffed his hand into Lu Yi's large palm, and Lu Yi clenched his fist as well.

Yes, they were going home.

Lu Yi had driven here today, so he didn't need to go back to pick up the car again. After they got into the car, Lu Yi helped Yan Huan fasten his seatbelt.

"I'll find you another bodyguard."

"No matter how many you find, you'll get married one day." Yan Huan propped up his face in the car. "Don't your procuratorate still have so many old bachelors who can't be sold?"

Bai Zhi couldn't be relied on anymore. Yan Huan didn't have many people by her side now, and Lu Yi was absolutely worried about her traveling alone. So, he had to find another bodyguard for her.

Of course, he had to find a younger one this time. He could hold on for a while

As for why Bai Zhi didn't want to be a bodyguard anymore, she had ye Xinyu in her hands. Naturally, she wouldn't come over to do her old job anymore. She was prepared to be ye Xinyu's bodyguard. Yes, a bodyguard for her whole life, who asked ye Xinyu to be so beautiful? He was also a weakling. His shoulders couldn't be lifted, and his hands couldn't be lifted.

As for what Yan Huan had said just now, her bodyguards might benefit the old bachelor in the future. They could talk about it when they met. If it didn't work out, they could just change to another one. In short, Yan Huan must have someone by her side.

The car turned a corner and drove out of the Procuratorate. The car was also driving towards the Lu family.

The moment the door opened, Yan Huan and Lu Yi had already walked in. The three children were sitting on the table, quietly writing their homework. Each of them was very serious, and their little faces were more serious than the last, although their handwriting was not very good, he was a good child who worked very hard. Yan Huan walked over quietly and saw that the three children were seriously not aware that their mother was here. They were still writing each stroke, today, they seemed to be writing down numbers.

Xiao Qi's handwriting was the best. Each stroke was very steady, and it was also written in a square shape. This was similar to his father's character. He had been a mature and steady child since he was young. It could be seen that he had the potential to be a good big brother, xiao Guang's character was a little jumpy, so he wasn't as neat as Xiao Qi's. However, his arms and legs were still there. As for Xun Xun, she was still a girl. Her handwriting was also quite delicate, and of course, she was the slowest, actually, based on Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang's speed, they should have finished writing long ago. They were probably accompanying their younger sister.

The two older brothers knew their younger sister's temper. If they finished writing and their younger sister didn't finish writing, their younger sister wouldn't write anymore. If she was left to write alone, she would cry and throw a tantrum.

Now, the two pitiful older brothers still had to follow their younger sister's progress.

Yan Huan stood up and did not disturb the three children. As soon as she stood up, she heard the voice of Old Master Lu on the phone.

Chapter 1980: Qin Xiaoyue is here again

"Yes, she just won the International Best Actress award. Humph, she is just an actress. So what if she won the award?" "She only has that little bit of ability. She didn't lose the face of her country, she didn't lose face in front of those foreigners, and she could even speak their language fluently. But if she has the ability, then let them learn our Chinese characters. If they can't learn our Chinese characters, then they'll come to me. These few thousand years of culture aren't something that those people can have. Ask My family's three grandsons. You know them. They're very well-behaved. They're always doing their homework and never let adults worry about them. They can count from one to several. What count from one to several? My family's Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang followed his father. Their IQ is very high. They all know how to multiply. Now, adding, subtracting, multiplying, and dividing within a hundred places isn't difficult for them..."

Old Lu and his son proudly turned their faces away. They were about to visit their three grandsons, but they did not see their grandsons. Instead, they saw Yan Huan. There was some anger on his face, but there was also some awkwardness, who asked him to speak ill of them behind their backs just now? In the end, when they saw him, well, they were caught red-handed. He had no place to put his face.

"Alright, I'll bring my grandson and granddaughter to see you in a few days. I'll let you see how Cute My Xunxun is now. I guarantee that you'll like her very much. Oh right, you can't be short of a welcome gift. My family only has these three children."

Look at what he said. He was stabbing a knife into someone else's heart.

Only three, only three. This was already three. If she only had one, how could she live?

Their family was taking advantage of everything they did, including the New Year's money. He only gave them one portion, but those people had to prepare three portions for them, and they had to give them the same amount.

Yes, so what if he was unreasonable? If he had the ability, he would go and give birth to three of them. If he couldn't, he could only go and get one.

Old Master Lu hung up the phone and glanced at Yan Huan. "What Yang Wen said isn't bad, huh?"

“Not bad.” What else could Yan Huan say? In any case, she knew that she shouldn’t talk back to Old Master Lu. Otherwise, she would be the one at a disadvantage.

“Learn more in the future. Don’t be inferior to others.” Old Master Lu took the opportunity to teach Yan Huan a lesson. Although it was said that Yan Huan’s eyes weren’t his eyes and nose weren’t his nose, he could still feel it, the current old master Lu was quite satisfied with Yan Huan. His character was not bad. For example, the current Yan Huan of the Lu family was also a disciple of a prestigious family. As long as she was willing, the Ye family could split half and the Su family would be hers, however, the other party was not willing.

That was right. Humph, without relying on others, Yan Huan could still earn a lot of money. The Lu family was not poor, so there was no need for them to be envious of other people’s wealth.

Needless to say, she was very famous. She had won several international awards and won glory for her country.

It was because of his three grandsons that he had changed his view of Yan Huan. There were so many people who could have children. If he wanted to marry someone, he would marry someone who could have children.

Yan Huan did not dare to talk back to the old man. This was the local tyrant of the family. Not to mention Lu Yi, Lu Jin was also afraid.

“Mom...” Xun Xun happened to notice Yan Huan at a glance. She threw down her pen and stood up immediately, just like how her mother ran over.

“Is mom here to bring Xun Xun home?” Xun Xun raised her little face and asked Yan Huan.

Yan Huan patted her little head. “We still have to go to the kindergarten tomorrow. When the holidays are over, Mom will bring you home and cook a delicious meal for you, okay?”

“Okay,” Xun Xun agreed happily. In any case, as long as she was promised a delicious meal, it would be fine. Xun Xun, this little girl, was also a standard foodie.

Xun Xun ran to her small table and sat down. Then, she wrote down her homework one stroke at a time.

Yan Huan went to the kitchen to help, while Ye Shuyun could not wait to hand the kitchen over to her. She knew that Yan Huan’s cooking was good, but it was better than the average chef’s. She learned from a special-class chef, he was definitely better than the average chef.

It wasn’t too difficult for Yan Huan to cook a table full of dishes. The dishes were mainly prepared by Ye Shuyun, and Ye Shuyun also helped her. The people in his family were used to doing things themselves, so there weren’t many people in his family, unlike the Su family, where everything was taken over by others, the descendants were all taught to be trash, just like Su Mura.

After the meal was ready, Lu Jin brought his three grandsons to wash their hands and wash them clean. Only then did he bring them over for dinner. As for Lu Yi, he was unable to interfere.

The family doted on these three children. Of course, it was also because they had three children. Now, the lives of their parents and grandfather were much more fulfilling than before. They just watched over these three children and waited for them to grow up, of course, everything in the Lu family was in the minds of others. It was all in the hands of these three children.

However, just as they were eating, there was a commotion outside.

From the sound of it, it sounded like Qin Xiaoyue.

“Why is she here again?”

Yan Huan asked Lu Yi. Didn't she not appear for a long time? What was going on? Could it be that she was still unwilling to give up? Was she still thinking of giving her son a break? That was simply impossible.

Lu Yi would not let that Sun Yuhan out, and of course, he would not let Lu Qin out. Lu Qin was a ticking time bomb, and it would be best to leave her inside. If she was not inside, then when Lu Qin came out..., there would only be death.

“Dad, Dad...”

Qin Xiaoyue's ghostly cries came from outside from time to time.

Ignoring him, old master Lu was annoyed. “Get someone to throw her out. I'm not dead yet. Are you trying to call out my soul?”

Yan Huan picked up his chopsticks and was about to eat when the voice came from outside again. It said that it was not calling out her soul. How could she eat with such a piercing voice? Even if she could, she would probably have indigestion.

“Let's go, Xiao Qi Xiaoguang. Follow Grandma to the room to eat.”

Ye Shuyun didn't want the three children to hear anything unpleasant, so she and Lu Yi took the children's small bowls and gave them a lot of their favorite dishes. They brought them into the room and closed the door, as soon as the door was closed, no sound could be heard from inside.

Ye Shuyun looked at the three children's small faces. Each of them was round and tender. She felt as if her entire heart had melted.

How could they be so cute? She did not love them enough. These three children were her life. If anything happened to them, she felt that she would not be able to live.

“Come, let's eat.”

Ye Shuyun quickly placed the children's small bowls on the small table. Then, she put down the food and let them eat by themselves.
