

Sweet Wife 1991

Chapter 1991: some kind of uneasiness

Yan Huan leaned against Lu Yi's shoulder and fell asleep. Perhaps it was because she had been playing with the three children during the day, so she was really tired. After a while, she fell asleep in this position. Of course, there were a lot of things., so she didn't ask anymore.

It was good that she didn't ask anymore. If she asked again, even Lu Yi would have to think of an excuse.

To them, Lu Qin's death should be a relief. However, for some reason, Lu Yi didn't feel this way. On the contrary, a sense of unease rose from his heart.

He had to find a bodyguard to follow Yan Huan as soon as possible.

He was already afraid. Yan Huan had been in trouble all day.

"Go to sleep." He gently kissed Yan Huan's forehead. There was nothing to be afraid of. Everything was mine, yes, and his. No matter what, he would never let anyone hurt her again.

He closed his eyes as well. However, he did not sleep well this time. It was as if he had a dream. However, when he opened his eyes again, he did not remember what he had dreamed of.

Yan Huan had long since woken up. Her time was actually quite regular. How early she woke up depended on the time she went to bed at night. If she slept early, then she would wake up early. If she slept too late., she would wake up a little later. However, as long as there were three children around, she would wake up early. She would also have to cook breakfast for the three children. The three children would have to go to kindergarten.

Time passed really quickly. It seemed that not long ago, the three little ones were still in their arms. Each of them only knew how to cry, but now they were already children in kindergarten. In another two years, they would become primary school students.

Lu Yi sat up and also took his clothes and put them on. When he opened the door, he saw that the three children were sitting obediently and eating. Each of them was holding a small spoon and stuffing rice into their small mouths, they ate obediently and obediently

Moreover, even though they were young, they were already like young adults. They had good parenting and would not cause trouble at the dining table.

The three children of the Lu family were very well-behaved. Their temperaments were also more reserved than ordinary children. Even Xiao Xun, although she had been pampered by the adults, had never seen her make trouble without reason, she was very reasonable, and also a good child who knew how to make a top hat.

Yan Huan made Xiaolongbao and Wontons for the children to eat this morning. The children were very happy to eat, and they were no longer picky eaters.

"Come and eat," Yan Huan took out the bowl. It was a big bowl, and it was Lu Yi's.

Lu Yi walked over, picked up the bowl, and started eating.

“Mm, the buns today are very delicious.”

Yan Huan smiled. She had gotten the other party’s secret recipe again. Why did she feel like she was now becoming more and more devoted to doing these things? She wanted to give the best food to her family, she wanted them to be able to eat delicious food every day.

The wontons were indeed very delicious. It was not an ordinary kind. The meat was tender and the soup was fresh. It was no wonder that the three children loved to eat it. The Little Bun was also someone else’s secret recipe. It was even more delicious than the previous one, the three children had already eaten two each.

“Mommy.”Xun Xun hugged Yan Huan’s legs. She was still carrying a small schoolbag on her back. Her mother had combed her hair into two cute pigtails. She even had a pink bunny hair tie tied around her head.

The little girl’s eyes were round and bright. Her small mouth was very beautiful. Of course, she also had a sharp little chin. Her small face was very cute. This was something that everyone in the big family acknowledged.

“What’s Wrong?”Yan Huan bent down and asked his daughter.

“Mommy’s cooking is delicious, but the food in the kindergarten isn’t.”Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. “Xun Xun wants to eat mommy’s cooking.”

“Don’t be picky.”Yan Huan poked his daughter’s little face. No matter how delicious her cooking was, Xun Xun still liked to eat. She couldn’t cook for her every day, and she couldn’t follow her every day.

She was already a child in kindergarten. She had to learn to get along well with the children.

Xun Xun pouted her little mouth. Although she was very unwilling, she still knew in the end that she couldn’t talk back to her mother. Her father said that good children couldn’t talk back to their mother. Her mother was the best mother in the world., everything she said was right.

“Yes, mother is right.”Lu Yi reached out and picked up his daughter. “We Xun Xun have grown up. You have to be obedient. Grandma’s cooking is also very delicious, right? Whatever Xun Xun wants to eat, Grandma makes it for you, right?”

“Yes.”Xun Xun nodded her little head vigorously. The food cooked by grandma and her mother was delicious.

“Then eat more. If you eat too much, you’ll be as tall as your brother.”

Xun Xun had always wanted to be as tall as her brother, but she had always been a head shorter than her two brothers. Hearing Lu Yi’s words, she knew that she couldn’t be picky with her food. If she were to be picky with her food., she wouldn’t be tall anymore.

Lu Yi reasoned with Xun Xun, and Xun Xun would listen to reason too. She already had her own way of thinking. Of course, it was also because she was very obedient to begin with.

Lu Yi first sent the three children to the kindergarten. However, after he arrived, he was informed by the kindergarten that in the afternoon, the parents would hold a parent-teacher meeting, this was mainly because of the safety of the kindergarten. This was the most important guarantee that the kindergarten provided to the children. Lu Yi calculated his own time. In the afternoon, he would personally come over, he also wanted to check how safe the kindergarten was. He couldn't let the children live in danger.

After he sent the children off and returned to the prosecutor's office, he began to work. It was a good day. There wasn't much backlog, and it was also because his previous work was almost done, this was how work was done here. Only the basic work was done every day, so there was no need to rush the rest. Occasionally, he would be very busy, but of course, this kind of busy.., was usually a little intense.

As for now, he had also relaxed for a very long time. At the very least, he could complete his work at the Procuratorate instead of bringing it home and continuing to work overtime.

Because of this, Yan Huan did not need to eat again at night. After all, this was not a good habit. If he persisted for a few more days, he would let her change this bad habit. In the future, even if he worked overtime.., it was good that she could still fall asleep.

After all, she had been treating her body too badly these past few years. Although she had been recuperating, her foundation was still damaged. According to Auntie Gu's words, if she wanted to return to the past.., it might still take a few more years.

Chapter 1992: Xiaomei without parents

He looked up at the watch on his wrist. It was almost time. He still had to rush to kindergarten.

He took his clothes and just as he was putting them on, there was a knock on the door.

"Please come in." He buttoned up and the door opened. Yu Bo walked in from outside. His hands were empty, which proved that he was here to pick up something and not to deliver it.

"Mr. Lu, do you want to get off work first?"

Yu Bo knew that Lu Yi was leaving as soon as he saw him change out of the newspaper. However, it was a little early today. Usually, Lu Yi was the last one to leave.

"Yes, I need to go to kindergarten. I have something to do." Lu Yi pointed at the documents on his desk. "It's all done. Take it."

Yu Bo bared his teeth. Sigh, prosecutor Lu was indeed prosecutor Lu. This was how he was able to sort out all these things in such a short period of time. If it was someone else.., they would probably be busy for a few days.

It was no wonder that the prosecutor's office refused to let him go. Lu Yi was indeed very suitable for this position. No one could replace him. They had such heavy work here. If it was an ordinary person, he would have been crushed into a pancake long ago.

Lu Yi looked at the watch on his wrist again. He took his things and walked out. Yu Bo was still holding some documents in his arms. He roughly flipped through them. They were indeed done and tidied up. Then, he did some other repairs, it was more or less the same. He could hand over the work.

Mr. Lu was Mr. Lu, and prosecutor Lu was the prosecutor. He was completely different from the rest of them.

“Why did Mr. Lu Leave?” A new intern asked Yu Bo carefully. Wasn’t he still working? They had strict rules here. One could not be late for work and leave early.

“When you can reach his working state, you can leave early,” Yu Bo lowered his head and said to the new female intern with a smile.

The intern stuck out his tongue. “I feel like I won’t be able to reach his level in my entire life. His super high IQ and those typing hands are too scary.”

Yu Bo was about to leave, but he turned around again. This time, he warned the young intern seriously, “I’ve lived with you. Do you remember the normal way to live in the Procuratorate? Otherwise, you can get lost.”

“I know, I know.” The intern hurriedly straightened her body, just like a good student receiving an education.

She also counted on her fingers to recall those rules. She could not have any thoughts about Mr. Lu. She could not touch Mr. Lu’s things, especially his computer, because even if he sold his computer, she could not afford to accompany him.

However, the intern just couldn’t understand.., “Brother Yu, why would I Touch Mr. Lu’s things? It’s not like my hands are itchy. If my hands are really itchy, I can scratch the wall. Also, also... She tapped her chin. I’m only 20 years old, and Mr. Lu is almost 40 years old. He’s almost the same age as my father. I’m really not interested in him. With Mr. Lu’s personality...” the intern thought of Lu Yi’s cold face, she had to back off.

Right, she really had to back off in the future. There were some people she could not offend.

“It’s good that you know,” Yu Bo chuckled. Smart people had to know these things. Some people could think about it, and some people could not. It was not like the last intern who did not even know his own weight, now that the goods had been returned, it would be difficult to find such a good job in the future. The Procuratorate was a really good place, especially with Mr. Lu around. It would be as easy as it could be for them, there was no need to be blamed. After all, Mr. Lu’s work ability was too good. Of course, when he had nothing to do, he could go to Lu Yi’s place for a meal and drink a cup of milk tea personally brewed by the best actress, as long as you dared to ask for it, the best actress would be very generous to give it to you.

However, remember to bring the cup.

Yu Bo took all the information in his hands back to his office. The rest was up to him. He entered the information into the computer and also found out if Lu Yi had made a mistake or something, however, such things were rare. Under normal circumstances, it was almost impossible.

As for Lu Yi, he had already driven to the kindergarten.

When he arrived, all the parents were present. The three children of his family obediently held each other's hands and sat there without saying a word. Oh right, there was also Xiaomei.

The other children were accompanied by their parents and were talking to their parents in a baby voice.

Lu Yi walked over and patted his child's head. Then, he picked up Xun Xun with one hand and carried Xiaomei away with the other

"Xiaomei, where are mom and Dad?" Lu Yi asked Xiaomei.

This child was too quiet and too shy. If it weren't for the three children of his family, he wouldn't know where she would hide and cry.

"Mommy and Daddy didn't come," Xiaomei sniffled and looked like she was wronged again. Lu Yi felt his heart ache when he saw this, which was why it wasn't easy to raise a little cotton-padded jacket. A little girl's heart.., compared to a little boy, she was more delicate and narrow-minded.

Especially a little girl who was timid.

The one in his house was fine. Xunxun still had two older brothers to take care of, but Xiaomei, this child..

He put the two children down, then took out his cell phone and dialed Mei Ru's number.

Not long after, Mei Ru picked up the phone.

"Sister Mei, it's Lu Yi."

"Cough... It's you, Lu Yi," mei ru coughed. Her voice was so raspy that it didn't need to be guessed to know that she was sick. Moreover, she was quite sick.

"Sister Mei, are you sick?"

Wasn't she fine yesterday? Why did she get sick when she went back.

"Yeah, it's an old illness. It's nothing. I'll be fine after a few days of injections," mei ru coughed again. Whether she was really sick or not, it was confirmed that she was quite sick.

Lu Yi frowned. How could she be so sick? How could he take care of Xiaomei?

"Sister Mei, Xiaomei is having a parent-teacher conference today. Did you know?"

"The nanny at home knows. I asked the nanny to go over. Why isn't she there?"

"En, no." Lu Yi patted Xiaomei's little head. Xiaomei was indeed a little pitiful compared to xunxun. Xunxun was the little darling that the whole family doted on. Even if they didn't come.., ye Shuyun, Lu Jin, and Old Master Lu would still fight over her. However, the Gao family valued sons over daughters and didn't like Xiaomei. Otherwise, why would xiaomei be so timid? Xun Xun was timid in the past, even smaller than Xiaomei. Now, she was well fed.

Chapter 1993: fathers of four children

On the other end of the phone, Mei Ru coughed for a long time. Even though they were separated by a phone line, they could hear that she was seriously ill, “Maybe the nanny forgot? Your brother Gao is still busy with a meeting, and I’m like this again. I’m afraid that I’ll spread the disease to the children.” Mei Ru was so upset that she wanted to cry, Gao Yuling and the other Jingzi had been away from home for a few days because of the Hongxin incident in Hai City. She was so sick that only the nanny could take care of Xiaomei. What else could she do? She didn’t even know where to put her daughter?

The parents of the Gao family wouldn’t like this granddaughter. They couldn’t even put Xiaomei at Grandma’s place. The naughty children at home always bullied Xiaomei and made her cry. Xiaomei was afraid of them.

“Sister Mei, you don’t have to worry about it.” Lu Yi sighed. “I’m already here, and...” he thought for a while, “Let Xiaomei stay at my house. We’ll talk about it when you’re better or when Mayor Gao isn’t around.”

“Then thank you very much.” Mei Ru finally let out a sigh of relief. Yes, how could she not let out a sigh of relief? Xiaomei was the one she was most worried about right now. She was also relieved to let Xiaomei stay at the Lu family, of course, she was also relieved. The main reason was that the Lu family had three children, so they would not let Xiaomei feel lonely. Moreover, the Lu family would treat her Xiaomei well, whether it was Lu Yi or Lu Yi’s family, they would treat her Xiaomei the same way they treated Xun Xun.

Mei Ru almost coughed her lungs out. However, this time, she really did not feel so bad. As long as she knew that someone was taking care of her Xiaomei, she would be fine. As long as someone was taking care of Xiaomei..., she would be able to rest in peace and recover from her illness as soon as possible. When that time came, she would go and pick up her little mei.

Lu Yi suddenly became the parent of four children. He held the hands of the two little girls one by one. As for Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, he held the corner of his shirt. What was going on..., it was a little hard for people to understand such a scene. However, everyone knew that the Lu family had triplets. As long as they brought three at a time, everyone would be envious, how could they give birth to three at once? They even had sons and daughters, and they were all very beautiful.

Lu Yi’s gaze swept over the lines one by one.

“It’s best to change these lines because these lines are slightly old. Old lines can easily cause a fire.”

We got it. A teacher humbly listened to the opinions of the parents and also noted down these opinions. For example, the child’s bed should be made thicker, those steps had better be covered with a carpet, or it would be easy to drop the child. Also, when picking up and sending the child, one must not let the child be picked up by others.

These were things that needed to be paid attention to. Although the kindergarten had been done very well, one had to pay more attention. After all, there were many bad people nowadays, and these families were all one child.

Lu Yi took the four children to the car and then took them to the Lu family home. Before they arrived, they saw ye Shuyun already waiting outside. Lu Jin and Old Master Lu were also waiting anxiously, why didn't they arrive yet? Did Something Happen?

"Dad, it's okay," ye Shuyun quickly comforted old master Lu. "Because there's a parent-teacher meeting today, the children might come back later at night."

"Parent-teacher Conference?" Old Master Lu pulled a long face. "Why didn't you tell me about it? I'm a parent too. I can attend it too. All of you have been there, but I've never been there."

Ye Shuyun could only laugh dryly. You're almost 90 years old, who would dare to do that? If someone didn't pay attention, not only would you be scared, the teacher might even cry.

It wasn't the parents who came, but the Buddha.

Also, you can't look old. Look at how scared the children are. The children at home aren't scared of you because you're their great-grandfather. If you go to kindergarten with that face of yours., you'll definitely scare a bunch of children to tears.

So they really didn't dare to let him go.

"Coming, coming."

Lu Jin hurriedly rubbed his hands. He had already seen with his sharp eyes that Lu Yi's car had arrived and his grandchildren had also returned. It was all Qin Xiaoyue's fault, he had not seen his grandchildren for a few days because of this. He wondered if the three children had forgotten about their grandfather.

Ye Shuyun quickly went over and carried her grandchildren from the car one by one. In the end, she carried another child out. And this child was Xiaomei.

Ye Shuyun went to pick up the children every day. Of course, she knew the names of these children. There were only a few of them in the kindergarten.

"Her mother is sick and her father is busy." Lu Yi walked over and patted Xiaomei's little head. "Mom, help take care of her for a few days."

"Okay." Ye Shuyun picked up Xiaomei. This child was not much heavier than Xun Xun. She was also skinny and small. No matter what, the little girl was very cute.

There were already three children in the family, so there was no need for her to have one more child. Moreover, her parents had placed their children with them, so they must have believed in her.

Of course, Ye Shuyun was somewhat proud of herself. She had taken good care of her grandchildren. It seemed that they were all famous. Look at how well she had raised the children at home. Each and every one of them was healthy and adorable.

Which family's children were these? Lu Jin took Xiaomei from ye Shuyun's arms. He didn't even want to look for him. He had been brought back by Old Master Lu. He also didn't have a share of the two grandsons.

"Where did this child come from? She's quite cute."

“Mayor Gao’s daughter.” Ye Shuyun touched Xiaomei’s little face. “She’s also quite pitiful. Mom is sick, and dad is busy with the flood. The grandparents at home aren’t willing to see her.”

Lu Jin was unhappy with her words.

“What’s there to see? So what if she’s a girl? Our Lu family is lacking girls. Look at who isn’t envious of my granddaughter, Xiao Qi Xiaoguang. She’s been ignored by people.”

“Yeah,” ye Shuyun sighed. How could some people not understand this? It was the same for boys and girls now. They were the treasures of the family. How could they bully the children like this.

“Let’s go. Grandma Will Cook Something Delicious for you,” ye Shuyun smiled at Xiao Mei. She would treat her three grandchildren the same way she treated Xiao Mei.

Xiaomei was originally very shy and was about to cry. However, sometimes children were very sensitive to a person’s kindness. They knew whether she was really good to them or not.

Chapter 1994: extra children in the family

And with Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin, the two grandfathers and grandmothers who had always liked her, she quickly forgot about her fear.

After Lu Yi sent the children to the Liu Garden, he returned to the Liu Garden. As for Xiao Xiaomei, he really didn’t have to worry. There were his parents, Old Master Lu, and two nannies at home. There were so many people., one was in charge of one child, and there was an extra person. Moreover, his three children had always been very well-behaved and wouldn’t let adults worry about them.

Ye Shuyun didn’t know how long Xiaomei could stay at home, but from the looks of it, it might not be for a short period of time. The rain in Haijiang would probably last for ten days to half a month, and now was the time of the Haijiang flood news, no one knew how busy mayor Gao was, so she quickly asked Lu Jin to buy a small bed for Xiaomei to sleep with her children.

She had already said that she would treat her children the same way she treated Xiaomei.

Lu Jin quickly went to buy a small bed, while ye Shuyun prepared a small quilt for the children. Fortunately, there were a few beds in the house, and they often took out new quilts to dry, she was going to change the quilt for the three children every few days, so there was no need to buy them.

The small beds were ordered very quickly and were delivered in a few hours despite the rain. Ye Shuyun made the small bed and hung a mosquito net on it, which was exactly the same as xunxun’s.

“Grandma, is this Xiaomei’s?”

Xiaomei was very envious of Xun Xun’s small bed. She liked it very much, but she did not dare to say it.

“Yes.” Ye Shuyun carried Xiaomei. “Xiaomei, do you like it? Grandma prepared it for Xiaomei.”

“I like it. Thank you, Grandma.” Xiaomei sniffled. Her eyes reddened, but she did not cry. The way the children expressed their feelings was very direct.

If they liked it, they liked it. If they did not like it, they did not like it.

Therefore, Xiaomei really liked this small bed. It was exactly the same as xunxun's small bed.

Of course, the people of the Lu family also liked Xiaomei. The boys in their family were not valuable, but girls were very rare. The Ye family and the Lei family had never given birth to a girl. Only xunxun had one, how could it not be painful.

Now that there was Xiaomei, Lu Jin could have a little girl to take care of him every day.

Xiaomei was also very obedient, and she was timid. Originally, she would not stay in other people's homes. At night, the children would probably look for their mothers, however, the children of the Lu family had been taken care of by their grandmother since they were young. In the past, Xun Xun loved to look for his mother, but now he only looked for his grandmother. Moreover, his grandmother would play with them, so they did not recognize him that well.

As for Xiaomei, she played with the three children of the Lu family. During the day, when she was tired from playing, she drank a pot of milk alone and fell asleep very quickly.

Meanwhile, Mei Ru could rest in peace and recuperate. She received a call from her daughter. Xiaomei told her mother that her grandparents fed her meat and that she had a beautiful little bed like Xun Xun's, she was very happy.

Mei Ru coughed. She was actually relieved and sad. If only the parents of the Gao family were like the parents of the Lu family, her Xiao Mei would not have to suffer anymore.

The parents of the Lu family treated other people's children so well, let alone their own children.

She really felt sorry for her daughter. She had not been liked by her grandparents since she was young. However, it did not matter. She did not need them to like her daughter, and the path that her daughter would take in the future was not under the control of the Gao family.

At this moment, the sound of the wind could be heard outside. It was pounding on the ground, as if a tree had been blown off somewhere.

Mei Ru couldn't help but cough again. She was still worried about her husband. He should still be awake, still worried about the situation outside.

Indeed, Gao Yuling hadn't slept for a long time. As long as the wind was strong, he would immediately sit up in a panic. He was afraid that a flood would suddenly come. Although they were already prepared for everything., however, no matter how much preparation they made, they had to be afraid of an accident.

Although the flood could not drown hai city, it would still have some impact.

It could not be said that everyone was in a panic, but they were already a little nervous.

Why was it raining so heavily? Yan Huan stood in front of the window and could almost see the torrential rain outside. The rain was so heavy that even the scenery in the distance could not be seen clearly.

It had been a long time since Hai City had such heavy rain. She had actually not seen such heavy rain many times. The last time when Hai River was flooded, it had rained just like this, the rain outside was similarly heavy.

It was also heavy on everyone's hearts, and no trace of joy could be seen.

Lu Yi walked over and carried her from behind. Yan Huan was still as thin as ever. He had never been fat before. It would be great if he could gain some weight. He was also absent-minded as he looked at the heavy rain outside.

"Stay at home and don't wander around. The rain outside is too heavy. Do you understand? Be careful not to catch a cold."

"I understand. I won't go out. It's so heavy that it's not convenient for me to travel." Actually, Lu Yi didn't need to say anything. Yan Huan didn't want to go out either. She didn't have any filming or work right now, she could only stay at home.

"Then are you going to work?" Yan Huan turned around and hugged Lu Yi's waist tightly. No matter how heavy the rain was, he still had to go to work, right?

"Of course." Lu Yi smiled and patted her shoulder. "You should know that your husband is a workaholic. When it comes to going to work, there's nothing stopping him."

"I knew it." Yan Huan hugged Lu Yi's waist tightly again and pressed her face against his chest. His body had a familiar warmth that made her feel at ease. This had never changed since her previous life.

"What do you want to eat at noon?" Yan Huan asked Lu Yi. "I'll bring you some food."

"There's no need. I'll go to the canteen to eat." Lu Yi took another look at the heavy rain outside. The weather was still gloomy. This rain would probably last for half a month, and this morning, it would be torrential rain in the afternoon, it was better not to go out. The children did not go to school because they were afraid that the rain would be too heavy and scare them.

As for Yan Huan, it was better not to go out. No matter how bad the food in the canteen was, he had also eaten like this for a few years in the past.

Alright, Yan Huan agreed. Of course, she would not give Lu Yi a surprise attack or anything like that. That was not a surprise. She wanted Lu Yi to come back and scold her. She took another look at the rain outside that had not stopped for a single moment.

Chapter 1995: Collective escape

She no longer had any ability to predict what would happen to the rain. In fact, no one knew what would happen. The rain was indeed not very good. It could also be said that it was a little too heavy.

On a normal day, it would really be fine even if it rained this heavily. After all, there were actually quite a lot of rainy seasons in Hai City. It was quite long. However, it happened during the flood season in Hai City, hence, it made people even more worried.

When Lu Yi went to work, he still reminded Yan Huan repeatedly. He also instructed Auntie Gu to keep an eye on her and not let her run around. However, Yan Huan really didn't know whether to laugh or cry. She was already so old.., how could she still run around?

At noon, the rain didn't stop. Instead, it was even heavier. Compared to the morning, it was much heavier. The streets of Hai City were all well-maintained, the drainage system was also in place, so it was not easy for water to accumulate on the roads. However, so much rain had finally flowed into the Hai River, no one knew how much the water level of the Hai River had risen. In short, it was definitely not too little. It was impossible for her to see it for herself. Both sides of the Hai River had been sealed off, therefore, no one knew the situation there. Only the professionals knew.

She walked into the living room. She did not really want to do it herself today, so she let Auntie Gu Cook a bowl of noodles for her to eat. She was not picky about food anymore. In fact, she did not have much of a taste.

Thinking about it, everyone in sea city was like her. They did not have much of a taste.

Auntie gu cooked a bowl of noodles for Yan Huan. Yan Huan ate the noodles, but he really didn't know how to taste the food. She looked outside from time to time, wanting to know what was going on outside. However, Lu Yi didn't let her go out, she really couldn't go out. Otherwise, if Lu Yi found out, she would definitely be scolded.

She only ate a few mouthfuls of noodles before she stopped eating. She also couldn't eat anymore.

Auntie Gu was a little worried about Yan Huan. How could she eat so little? She hadn't eaten much in the morning, and it was the same for lunch. It was really worrying.

"Miss Yan, why don't you eat some more?"

She tried to persuade Yan Huan to eat more, even if it was just one bite.

Yan Huan shook his head. "I can't eat. In this kind of weather, even my appetite is going to disappear. If this continues, I might not even be able to eat a single noodle."

Auntie GU also took a look at the torrential rain outside. Indeed, the people outside were in a trance. Furthermore, the rain did not seem normal. She was currently afraid that if she woke up one day.., would her feet step into the water.

Of course, when she thought about the fact that she was currently in the Liuyuan Garden, she was no longer so worried. The Liuyuan garden was very safe because it was built halfway up the mountain, compared to the terrain of the entire hai city, it was much higher, so there was no flood here. However, it was also impossible for everyone to live in the Liuyuan Garden. When she thought about this, not to mention Yan Huan.., even she was a little uneasy. She hurriedly called her son. In the end, she only found out after asking. Because of the heavy rain, even the entire interior of Linlang was on vacation, not to mention Linlang.., all the schools in Hai City were also on vacation. As long as they were on vacation, the matter might really become serious.

Yan Huan turned on the television and found a specialized television station in Hai City. There would be a live broadcast of the heavy rain 24 hours a day. This was after the huge flood that year in Hai City, it was the longest and most massive rainfall.

Yan Huan saw Gao Yulin on the television. He was braving the rain to inspect the embankment along the Hai River. No one was allowed to enter or leave this place. The railings on both sides of Hai City were considered very sturdy, therefore, they should be able to withstand the flood. However, the water level was indeed rising very quickly. When Yan Huan saw it yesterday, it was not too high. Although it was higher than usual, it was still within the safe range, but this time, it was extremely high.

This was the sign of a real flood.

At this moment, the door outside suddenly rang.

Aunt Gu hurriedly went to open the door and saw Ye Shuyun and the others. Each of them was carefully holding a child in their arms. The child was protected by a small blanket, and the adults were drenched, however, there was only a corner of the children's clothes that was not wet.

"Mommy..."Xun Xun struggled out of Grandma's arms and ran towards Yan Huan.

Yan Huan quickly stood up and hugged his daughter. He then touched his daughter's face in worry. It was fine. She was warm and did not catch a cold.

A large group of people came in from outside. Ye Shuyun, Lu Jin, Old Master Lu, the two nannies at home, and the three children. No, it was four. There was also Xiao Mei. They were all here, were they preparing to escape?

Not long after, the guards and nannies also moved in a lot of things from the car. Their clothes and daily necessities were all packed in a big cart.

"Your grandfather said that this place is safer."Ye Shuyun touched Xiao Qi's little head. The rain was indeed worrying. They were all afraid that it would really flood the sea city?

Didn't they say that water and fire were merciless? How could they avoid such a thing? Therefore, Old Master Lu's worry was indeed correct.

The location of the garden of detention was very high. Even if the entire Hai City was flooded, the garden of detention would still be very safe. When one was old, they liked to be vigilant in times of peace. It was not like Old Master Lu had never seen a flood in his life, of course, the number of people who were killed by the flood was still very small?

Hai Jiang was not the first or second flood. Otherwise, why would he insist on building a Liuyuan Garden? This was also the reason why this place was called Liuyuan Garden. It could not be simpler.

Who asked Hai City to have a Hai Jiang that might go crazy.

Old Master Lu carried Xun Xun up.

"Good grandson, go play games with great-grandfather. Great-grandfather will show you something good!"

"Okay."Xun Xun happily left with Old Master Lu.

Yan Huan knew that Old Master Lu had gone to show Xun Xun her dowry. These things were left behind by Lu Yi's grandmother and great-grandmother when they were still alive. They had been accumulated for several generations, they were also left behind for the future girls of the Lu family. As a girl of the Lu family, she was born with a golden lump in her throat. Therefore, her family's Little Xun was someone who could be reincarnated.

Chapter 1996: Hero Daddy No. 2111

He had a small face like his mother. He was only four years old now, but he was already worth one billion. This was the education fund his mother had saved for the three siblings, and it would be their own in the future.

Not to mention, Old Master Lu also had a lot of good things. They were all jewelry from that era. Of course, these things were still very rare antiques now, moreover, even if one had money, it was still a treasure that could not be bought.

Old Master Lu usually hid these things like nothing else. Not to mention Yan Huan, even ye Shuyun, his daughter-in-law, was never seen.

These were all left for the little granddaughter of the Lu family.

Yan Huan then came over and picked up Xiaomei. She pinched her little face.

"Mommy and Mommy went to earn money for Xiaomei's milk powder. Xiaomei has to be more obedient, understand?"

"Aunty, Xiaomei will be obedient." Xiaomei was also a sensible child. Xunxun was younger than her and knew that her mother would not be at home when she earned money for milk powder. Therefore, Xunxun grew up with her grandmother, because she still had two older brothers, her mother had to work even harder. Only now did she earn enough money for the three of them to earn enough milk powder.

Xiaomei naturally knew how to count in her heart.

Her mother had just started earning money, and that would take a very, very long time.

So she had to be obedient. Xun Xun had said that they had to be obedient and not make any noise. They had to eat properly and sleep soundly. If they were obedient babies, her mother would earn money faster, now that Xun Xun's mother had earned enough money for the milk powder, they could see her mother often now.

Xunxun, who was supposed to leave with great-grandfather, ran over again.

With a big sister expression, he stretched out his little hand and patted Xiaomei's shoulder. He said that he would believe her and that Xiaomei's mother would soon earn a lot of money, with money, he could buy Xiaomei milk powder to drink.

Xiaomei actually stopped drinking milk. However, seeing that Xunxun and the other two wanted to drink it, she also drank it. In fact, the Lu family probably didn't know that Xiaomei didn't drink milk powder, it had already made Mei Ru and Gao Yuling extremely anxious. This child suddenly said that he wouldn't drink milk powder. No matter what, he wouldn't drink it. This also gave them a headache and helplessness.

This time, when they returned, they might give them a surprise. Therefore, there were still benefits to having more children. At the very least, the children of the Lu family would learn from each other.

There was actually nothing much to tidy up in the garden. Whether it was old master Lu, the guards, Lu Jin and his wife, the three children, or the two nannies' rooms, none of them had been moved, they could stay there after a little tidying up.

Aunt Gu and the two nannies first tidied up the house. They didn't know how long they would stay there. It might really take them ten days to half a month, and the time would have to follow the rain.

If the rain was minimal, it might really last for a month or so.

Fortunately, the garden was self-sufficient. As long as they didn't eat fish and duck and beef every day, basically, everything in the garden was ready-made, and the dishes were all in their own hands, there was a lot of rice flour and oil, so such a big family wasn't afraid of not having food.

As soon as they arrived at the Liuyuan Garden, they did not know whether it was because of their hearts or some other reason. In short, they felt a lot more at ease.

Yan Huan did not know whether he was going to cry or laugh. It was just a heavy rain. The rain was a little heavier than usual. Why did it feel like the end of the world?

However, what was pressing down on everyone's hearts was an indescribable sense of heaviness.

Especially since the rain was still pouring. With the speed of the rain, Haijiang would sooner or later be flooded by the flood. Yan Huan turned on the television again, and it happened to be on the television, he could see that Mayor Gao was inspecting the river in the rain. The pouring rain fell from time to time, soaking his clothes.

Xiaomei stood at the side, her eyes looking at the television. Her big eyes seemed to be filled with tears.

Yan Huan turned around and saw Xiaomei standing there pitifully. She was not going to cry.

"Xiaomei, come here."

Yan Huan stretched out his hand to Xiaomei.

Xiaomei ran over. Yan Huan carried her to his side and sat down. Compared to xunlai, Xiaomei was indeed a very lonely child.

"Look at Daddy." Yan Huan pointed at the television, "Daddy is a big hero, right?" "Many people can see Xiaomei's daddy just like Xiaomei. There will also be many people who like Xiaomei's Daddy. Xiaomei must feel proud to have such a daddy because Xiaomei's Daddy is a big hero."

"Just like Aunty?"

Xiaomei blinked. "Mommy said that Auntie is very powerful. It's all because of the country's glory."

How Come Yanhuan never knew that in the hearts of Xiaomei and her daughter, she had such a lofty image.

The things that she had obtained could not be compared to Gao Yuling. They really could not be compared.

Then, she placed her hand on Xiaomei's little head.

"Xiaomei's father is much braver than Auntie. Auntie didn't do much, but Xiaomei's father worked hard for many people and was responsible for many lives. That's why we can live so well. This is all thanks to Xiaomei's father."

Xiaomei opened her big eyes and suddenly ran in front of the television screen. Her small hands also touched the television screen.

"Dad..."

She touched the TV screen from time to time and put her little face on it. Xiaomei loved her father very much because her mother had been sick all the time. Her father raised her when she was young, which was very similar to xunxun, xunxun was also raised by her father.

"Mayor, it's your call." The mayor's secretary quickly put the phone in front of Gao Yuling and said it was from his daughter.

At this time, he couldn't answer the call, but after thinking for a long time, the secretary finally handed the phone to Gao Yuling.

"Thank you." Gao Yuling took the phone and walked to a place where there was no one. At this time, the only sound that rang in his ears was the sound of rain falling on the ground, and his clothes that had long been soaked through, it was so cold that it was very uncomfortable.

However, he didn't even change his clothes. He really didn't need to change his clothes. If he changed his clothes a few more times, he would be drenched in a while. It was better not to change his clothes. It also saved him some time. He just had to make do with it.

He brought the phone to his ear. The Secretary was holding an umbrella over his head. However, whether it was an umbrella or a raincoat, it was unable to shelter him from the wind and rain. The rain was too heavy, and the rain was omnipresent. It had to get him wet.

Chapter 1997: daughter's encouragement

"Daddy, it's Xiaomei."

Xiaomei was holding Yan Huan's cell phone, and Gao Yuling was speaking in a baby voice.

"Baby, is that you?"

Gao Yuling wiped the rain off his face. He never thought that it would really be a call from his family's little princess.

“Yes, Daddy, it’s Xiaomei.” Xiaomei opened her mouth and smiled. Her little feet were also swaying on the sofa.

“Daddy, Xiaomei is very well-behaved. Daddy is not worried about Xiaomei. Xiaomei has a good meal. Grandpa, Grandma, and great-grandfather are all very good to Xiaomei. Auntie and uncle are also very good. Auntie said that Daddy is a big hero. Because of Daddy, Xiaomei, Xun Xun, and Qi Xiaoguang can eat well and sleep well.”

“Xiaomei’s father is the best. Xiaomei is very proud. Daddy, Xiaomei Loves Daddy the most. Daddy, you can do it.”

She clenched her little fists and cheered for her father.

When Gao Yuling heard his daughter’s childish voice, tears immediately fell down his face.

“Mayor Gao, What’s Wrong?” The secretary turned around and found that Gao Yuling’s eyes were red. What’s wrong? A grown man was crying like this.

“Nothing.” Gao Yuling wiped his face again. “Let’s continue.”

The Secretary wanted to say something else, but in the end, he didn’t say anything. He raised his head and looked at the Sea River that was no longer calm. He sincerely hoped that this time, the water in the Sea River would be stronger and better, it shouldn’t rise too quickly, nor should it rise too much. If it rose too much, the entire sea city would also be flooded.

He sighed. He was really angry and resentful.

The heavens didn’t make it better.

He shook his head. He had just raised the umbrella a little higher, but the wind blew.

With a whoosh, the umbrella also turned into a trumpet flower. Even if it was a trumpet flower, it wouldn’t be usable when folded. However, his hand didn’t tighten, and then there was nothing else..

The trumpet flower in his hand was blown into the river. Fortunately, his weight was okay. Otherwise, even he might have been blown into the river.

He looked at his hand and was dumbfounded for half a day.

What happened? What happened? How did it become like this?

His umbrella..

“Let’s go.” Gao Yuling patted the secretary’s shoulder. “Don’t bring an umbrella next time. It Won’t be used for many times. Blowing away the umbrella is a small matter. What will you do if you blow it away?”

“I understand.” The secretary laughed dryly. When he turned around and saw Haijiang behind him, he couldn’t help but shiver.

Haijiang was no longer as calm as it used to be. Its waters were wide and beautiful. Even the waters of Haijiang were calm. In the past few years, in order to protect the cleanliness of Haijiang, Gao Yuling had spent a lot of effort, no one knew how much effort he had put in to prevent the water from being polluted.

The Haijiang River was the symbol of the Haijiang City. Of course, it had always been clean. Of course, it was also the place where the people of the Haijiang River liked to come the most.

But now, the water had become turbid and terrifying.

Brother, this was not the Yellow River. They were the Haijiang River. The Haijiang River was known as an inland sea. How did such beautiful water become the Yellow River.

Gao Yuling's footsteps were much more steady. He stepped on the ground one step at a time and then stepped on the rain. However, his expression didn't change and the curve of his lips was determined.

It was good to have someone supporting him from behind. It was his four-year-old Xiaomei. His little princess had finally grown up and knew that she had to cheer for her father.

Yan Huan held his phone and took pictures of the children's daily lives. The four children played together every day. With Xiaomei, they seemed to be having even more fun. Old Master Lu walked over with a smile on his face.

Xunxun ran over immediately when he saw his great-grandfather. Xiaomei was the same.

Old Master Lu picked up this one and then picked up the other one. He liked both of the children. He liked their kisses and Xiaomei liked them too.

"Dad, please don't do this!" Lu Jin was scared. He would be scared to death if he did this. He was already so old. What if he broke his arm or leg?

"Okay, okay, just you."

Of course, Old Master Lu knew what his son was worried about. He put down the two children and pinched their cheeks.

"Let's go and play with great-grandfather."

Fathers liked girls.

Ye Shuyun always felt sorry for her two grandsons.

It was the same whether someone cared about them or not. Lu Jin glanced at his two grandsons. Ever since he was young, he had always been the same as Lu Yi. He was not likable at all. It was Xiao Xun who was the best, now, he finally understood. Even if Yan Huan gave birth to ten more, they would all belong to Old Master Lu. There was still no place for him. He could only play with grandsons who had the same temperament as his own sons.

Yan Huan brought his phone to his eyes again and began a video call with Mei Ru.

"How are you? Have you gotten better recently?"

"Ahem... Pretty Good." Inside the phone was Mei's pale face. Recently, she had been getting more and more ill. This was an illness that had happened for many years. It would happen once Mei Yuji arrived.

Although she was quite fat, in reality., this was not normal. Her body was weak, and it was also a side effect of giving birth to Xiaomei. There was no other way, so she could only rely on the later stages of recuperation. It was just that she had lost too much of her body when she was young, it was easier said than done to take care of her now.

And every time she got sick, the thing she was most worried about was her Xiaomei. And now, she was fine. She could know that her daughter could eat her fill every day, and that there were people who cared about her, loved her, and played with her. Therefore, when the burden on her heart lightened, she felt her whole body relax, her illness also healed faster, and of course, she did not feel as uncomfortable as before.

“Thank you,” Mei Ru coughed again. In the future, her little Mei would also have a place to go. It was really good.

“You’re welcome. We all like Little Mei.”

Yan Huan was telling the truth. They all had three children at home, so they were not afraid of having one more. Therefore, they still preferred having more children. She and Lu Yi would not have any more children, and the Lu family was not lacking either. Originally, they only had these three children, they all thought that it was too little. Now that there was little mei, the house was really much livelier.

Yan Huan actually wanted to visit Mei Ru once, but the rain outside was really too heavy. Moreover, Mei Ru’s illness could be contagious. If she was really infected, she might have to be hospitalized as well, she could no longer accompany her child, so in the end, she did not go. She waited for the rain to be a little lighter, or for Mei Ru to get better.

However, as long as Xiao Mei was safe here, then no matter if it was Mei Ru or Gao Yuling, at least they did not have to worry about Xiao Mei. One could rest in peace while the other could work in peace.

Chapter 1998: big chest but no brain

She only hoped that the rain would slow down a little. She put down the phone in her hand and walked to the French window. In fact, from afar, she could see that the rain outside was very heavy, even outside, she did not know how many puddles of water had fallen.

The terrain of the Liuyuan Garden itself was very high, so there was no need to worry about the accumulation of water. The accumulation of water would flow down the mountain path, but no matter where the accumulation of water was, it would eventually converge into the Haijiang River, and the accumulated water would eventually bring to the Haijiang River. To be honest, it would only be more burdensome and have nowhere to hide.

It was really hoped that the rain would be a little lighter. In that case, the burden on both sides of the Haijiang River might be a little lighter. Perhaps, they would be able to safely survive this flood. The past few years had been very easy for them, however, he did not expect that the rain this year would be so heavy. The heavy rain had caught everyone off guard. Even if the river had passed the last flood safely, it had already strengthened the river banks. However, with regards to this flood., to be honest, it was not just Yan Huan. Many people might not have much confidence.

Otherwise, old master Lu would not have brought his entire family back to the Liuyuan Garden. If it was not for anything else, it was just in case something happened. At the very least, they would still be safe here.

The children were still playing without knowing the suffering of the human world. The two nannies and Auntie Gu also tidied up the house very neatly. It wasn't messy because there were too many people.

It was still raining outside.

When Lu Yi came back in the evening, although he had only walked a short distance, his clothes were almost wet, and there was a lot of rain on his hair.

Xun Xun ran over with a towel in her little hand.

Lu Yi took the towel and wiped his hand first, then pinched his daughter's little face.

"We, Xun Xun, have grown up. You're so sensible."

Xun Xun tilted her little head and smiled. Then, she reached out her little hand for her father to hug her.

"Xun Xun," Lu Yi touched his daughter's little face again. "Daddy needs to change his clothes. Later, I'll come over to play with Xun Xun, okay?"

"Alright," Xungu agreed obediently. Lu Yi then walked into his room to change his clothes. His clothes were drenched by the rain, and it was only a few minutes' journey, he was already able to wring out water.

The rain was indeed heavy, and it was even heavier than the last time when Hai Nao was flooded. The entire Hai Nao City was on full alert.

Lu Yi wiped his wet hair with a towel. Yan Huan walked in, took off Lu Yi's clothes, and prepared to wash them. She ran to the window, wanting to see if the rain outside was a little lighter, unfortunately, there was no small one. It was just as heavy. In fact, there was no need to look. They were in the room, and they could clearly hear the sound of rain falling on the ground. It sounded very clear, it was as if they were hitting the ground. No matter how they looked at it, it made them feel inexplicably annoyed.

Lu Yi walked over and stood behind Yan Huan.

"You're not allowed to go out."

"I know." Yan Huan turned around and saw that Lu Yi's hair was still wet. She pulled Lu Yi's big hand, then tiptoed and pulled his hair, "Your hair has grown. When it's fine, I'll help you trim it."

For the past few years, Lu Yi's hair had been swayed by Yan Yibo, so he had no choice but to be the main producer. Although Yan Huan was not a professional, he was a good aesthete. At the very least, he would hide his horse and not make Lu Yi look ugly.

She thought about whether she should give Lu Yi a new hairstyle to try, but after thinking about it, he still looked the best with his current hairstyle. She was afraid that if she cut Lu Yi into a different look.., if even the child couldn't recognize his father, then what should she do.

The temperature in the house was still not bad. Although it was raining and the air was a little wet, they could still pass through it. They could still hear the sound of the dripping sound outside, but they didn't know.., what exactly had happened outside.

The distance seemed to be covered in a haze of smoke, and the workers outside the line were almost all at different points.

The water in the Sea River was still rolling forward. Although it did not set off any big waves, it still made the people of sea city tremble in fear.

The wind blew, and suddenly, a branch of a tree broke off somewhere. With a click, the branch fell, and the wind continued to blow wantonly, and the rain continued to fall.., the rain was a little scary, but it also made people angry.

In just one day, the water level of Hai Jiang had risen a lot. Perhaps the ordinary people did not know, but the officials and soldiers of the entire hai city were anxious.

Because if it was not enough, it might really flood the entire hai city.

Yan Huan took out his cell phone and called Yi Ling. "Do you want to come to my place? The terrain here is a little higher." He did not know if they were worrying over nothing, in the end, he felt a sense of comfort in his heart. It might not be that serious, but in a situation where he couldn't eat or sleep, it also made his whole body tense up. Perhaps no one would like this.., and no one was willing.

"Don't worry, we're fine."

Yi Ling's voice came from the other side. She seemed to be relaxed.

"We're in a private apartment of the Lei family. The terrain here is quite high. You Don't have to worry about us. Rowling and her parents are also here. It'll be fine."

"That's good." Yan Huan also heaved a sigh of relief. The children had all fallen asleep. Now, only they could still play so carefree and eat and sleep. Perhaps they would also have a beautiful dream.., however, could a four-year-old child dream? She had even forgotten if she had any dreams when she was young. In the end, she remembered a few of her dreams.

She called Zhu Meina again. She did not know how this woman was doing now?

"Where is she?" She asked Zhu Meina. Ever since she became the mistress of the Su family, she had started to disappear without a trace. Her life was also pretty good, it was also the true proof of the so-called "Big Boobs but no brains.". Yes, so what if she was Big Boobs and no brains? She just liked Big Boobs and no brains. What did it have to do with others?

What she wanted to show was that she had Big Boobs and no brains. Moreover, she was a billionaire with Big Boobs and no brains. She would wear high heels, branded clothes, and carry luxury bags. She would do whatever she wanted to do, she would buy whatever she wanted to buy. So what if she liked this kind of life?

Chapter 1999:: Do You have a brain

"I'm shopping outside." Zhu Meina took a tissue and wiped the rain off her hair. However, when she saw the mud on her high heels, she did not like it. This drizzle.., shopping was always uncomfortable.

"What did you say?"

Yan Huan thought he had heard wrong.

"Zhu Meina, you went shopping?"

"Yeah, if I don't go shopping in this weather, do you want me to suffocate to death?" "The planes and trains aren't running anymore, what else can I do?" "I can only stay in such a small place, it's about to grow hair. Why didn't I fly out earlier and stay abroad? This way, not only can I buy a lot of things, but of course, it hasn't rained this darn rain. It's been raining for half a month, when can it stop?"

Yan Huan couldn't even be bothered to roll his eyes at her.

This woman was still as stubborn as ever. He didn't know what was going on right now. Didn't he know that the school and factories were all on vacation? Didn't he know that the entire sea city was under martial law? She was really good. She was actually still able to go out shopping. She wasn't afraid that the flood would blow her people away.

"Zhu Meina, do you have a brain?" Yan Huan really couldn't understand this woman's extraordinary brain capacity. Was there really a string missing in her brain? Why couldn't she understand such an obvious thing?

Shopping in such a heavy rain?

"I know," Zhu Meina admitted generously, "If I had a brain, I wouldn't have fallen to such a state. However, I'm already in such a state. It's useless to have a brain. Let me continue to be brainless."

His lack of a brain was not because of anything else, but because of Zhu Xianglan and her mother.

However, now that her enemies were dead and gone, she was happy and at peace. From now on, she would live the life of a rich woman, and it would not be a loss.

"Oh right, you haven't said what's the matter. Why Can't I Go Crazy on the streets? Oh right, why can't she go shopping? She's just going shopping. What's wrong with that? Do you have to scold her like this?"

She even said that she didn't have a brain. Even if she really didn't have a brain, she couldn't say it in front of her. This was too disrespectful to her. After all, they had a life-and-death relationship.

"What else is the matter?" Yan Huan really didn't know where this woman, Zhu Meina, came from. The entire sea city knew about such a huge flood. Even Xun, who was so young, knew about it, he couldn't go out now because it was raining heavily outside. If he went out, he would be washed away by the flood, and he wouldn't be able to see his mother anymore.

The television was broadcasting live every day. He didn't even know how many times the air defense alarm had been pulled, and there were police lines everywhere. Could it be that she really couldn't see, hear, or know?

“Zhu Meina, the sea city’s air defense has already begun, and it could be flooded at any time. Can you grow a brain?”

“You mean this?” Zhu Meina didn’t seem to mind. It wasn’t like she hadn’t experienced it before. Hai city was like this every year. She only knew how to scare people. Alright, I still have to go shopping. As long as it can’t flood me, it’s fine.

Of course, Zhu Meina’s heart was really big.

Anyway, no matter how many things there were, it wouldn’t affect her shopping. She happily ran to the mall. However, there were very few people in the mall. Not to mention the few people who bought, even the ones who sold were few, the few shops that she frequented also closed their doors. Even if she wanted to buy, there was no place to do so.

When she received Yan Huan’s call, she was still very unconcerned. However, the more she walked, the more she thought about it, and the more she looked, the more shocked she became. She finally knew how dangerous sea city was right now?

After walking around the mall, she realized that she had come for nothing because there was nothing here that she could buy. Even if she was not afraid of death, she did not care. However, others were afraid of death, so she could only come empty-handed, then, she returned empty-handed.

On the way back. There were pitifully few cars and even fewer people. At this time, the road should have been the most congested. However, it was better now. There were only a few cars going back and forth, there were even fewer cars passing by. The rain curtain in front moved left and right from time to time. However, the rain that hit the cars always carried a terrifying force.

Just like that, the rain fell on her car. She stopped her car. When she turned around, she seemed to see a vast ocean from afar. And this ocean..., it was as if it was pouncing on the entire sea city. It was also like a monster that was baring its fangs and brandishing its claws. In almost an instant..., it was enough to swallow the entire sea city, including people and things, whole.

Beauty Zhu couldn’t help but feel a chill in her heart. Her hand couldn’t help but reach for her phone and call Yan Huan.

“Yan... Yan Huan, I can see the sea water. It’s so scary. It’s almost like it’s flowing backwards. Do you think we’ll Drown? What if I don’t know how to Swim?”

“Even if you can swim, if you really come, you won’t be able to escape.”

Yan Huan said faintly as she gripped her phone tightly. When she lowered her head, she saw Xunxun standing in front of her. She was curiously looking at her mother, then, she placed the doll in her arms in front of her mother.

Yan Huan took the doll and saw that the doll’s skirt was dirty. What was it that was smeared on the doll’s skirt.

She squatted down and scratched her tender little face. “Don’t be afraid. Mommy will wash it for you in a while.”

“Thank you, Mommy.”Xun Xun happily threw the doll to her mother and went to find her brothers to play with.

Meanwhile, Yan Huan hugged the doll and fell into a daze.

At any time?

She took out her phone and took out 50 million yuan from her private account. This was the most she could get. Although she had quite a lot of money in her hands, it was all used for investment purposes, the money in the three children’s accounts could not be touched. It was also a regular investment. It could only be untied when they were 18 years old.

She took it out first, just in case she needed it.

The rain outside was still drizzling non-stop. They all thought it would be smaller, even if it was just a little bit smaller. However, the rain was falling, and it was not small at all, it had seriously affected the trip of the citizens of Hai City.

Yan Huan took Xunxun’s doll to the laundry room and took off the clothes on the doll. He washed them with his hands and hung them up.

The doll was still sitting there, dazed.

“So stupid.”Yan Huan reached out and patted the doll before walking out.

Outside, Ye Shuyun was hugging Xun Xun. Xun Xun stretched out his little fist and rubbed his eyes from time to time. He was about to sleep, while Xiao Qi and Xiao Qi had already fallen asleep. Xiao Mei had also fallen asleep obediently, only Xun Xun did not know what had happened today. He was not as obedient as before.

Chapter 2000: nightmare

She was unwilling to sleep no matter what. Ye Shuyun had coaxed her for a long time and told her stories for a long time. Only then did she manage to coax the Little Lass. Only then did she heave a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she was about to sleep.

Otherwise, she might not be sleepy even at night, but she did not have much energy either.

Ye Shuyun carried Xun Xun into the room. When she saw that the children were sleeping soundly, she was truly relieved. She also needed to rest for a while. At this moment, it was the time for the children to take their lunch break, of course, it was also Yan Huan’s.

Yan Huan called Lu Yi, but Lu Yi was still busy. She talked to Lu Yi for a while, and she was already sleepy. She still looked very sleepy and tired

After pulling the blanket, she fell asleep very quickly. However, she did not sleep in peace. She did not know if it was because of the rain or because Lu Yi was no longer there.

The people who accompanied her to sleep were the drizzling sounds outside. The sound of raindrops hitting the glass.

One sound after another. It was not too clear, but it was clearly a somewhat muffled sound.

She could not help but grip the blanket over her body tightly. It was unknown what she was dreaming about, but it should not be a beautiful dream. This was because her brows were always slightly furrowed. She was not too relaxed.

Suddenly, she opened her eyes and sat up. The sound of the dripping sound outside did not stop. It was even gathering. During this period of time., she had been listening to these sounds every day. Therefore, she had gained some experience. She could roughly judge from the size of these sounds how heavy the rain outside was, according to these sounds, it was probably a heavy rainstorm.

She touched her clothes. Why was it a little wet? Or did she have a nightmare? However, she really could not remember what nightmare she had.

She first went over to freshen up. When she came out, the children were still asleep. If no one woke them up, they would only wake up in the afternoon, the television was still on, and Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin were still there. The images on the television almost shattered Yan Huan's heart. Suddenly, she felt her hands and feet turn cold, and her heart almost stopped beating, and the color of blood quickly slid down her face.

The images on the television almost made people's scalps go numb. This might have been taken by a helicopter, but the current images were not very clear. However, she could also see that this was taken of Haijiang, it was also taken of Haijiang. The fence of Haijiang was finally unable to withstand such a big storm. It seemed to have poured into the entire city upside down. There were still many sceneries that she would often see in the past, those lounge chairs that she had once sat on, the paths that she had walked on, and the beautiful lawns that had always been mowed on the side of the Haijiang.

But now, they were all destroyed by the surging sea water. The lonely ones stood there, gradually losing their color under the impact of the rain.

Ye Shuyun glanced at the living room, but she didn't notice the scene on the television. She only cared about talking to Lu Jin and asking about the Lu family. She didn't know how things were at home?

Lu Jin comforted ye Shuyun. He said that the Lu family was on the high ground of Hai City, and because Hai city had Hai Jiang, there were at least three safety lines. Now, only the first line of defense was broken, but the second and third lines were still there, so there shouldn't be a big problem.

Moreover, the Lu family wasn't on the low ground. The position of the Lu family was also very high. So far, it still couldn't reach their place, but hai city was likely to suffer heavy losses this time. However., as long as there were no casualties, Hai City was actually not the place where the floods were the most severe. After all, the entire hai city was mainly in the tourism and technology industries. However, the downstream areas were mainly in the agricultural fields, this time, who knew how many agricultural fields would be flooded. This was not something that could be recovered in a season.

There was still some noise in the kitchen. It was Lu Yi who had returned because his notebook was already placed in the room.

Lu Yi walked in front of the television and pulled Yan Huan's hand. He then opened the door and let Yan Huan in. In a short while, he had already picked up a cup of warm milk and placed it in front of Yan Huan.

Yan Huan brought it over, but her fingers were still trembling. Lu Yi placed the cup in front of her.

"Drink a mouthful first."

Yan Huan hugged the cup, but felt that the cup was very heavy. Fortunately, Lu Yi's hand was there. Otherwise, she might not even be able to hold this cup tightly.

She lowered her eyes slightly and drank one mouthful after another. Only after she drank half a cup did her expression recover a little, but it was still a little cold. Her heart was cold.

Lu Yi placed the cup to the side, kicked off his shoes, and hugged her in his embrace.

"Don't be afraid. It's all in the past. That was all six years ago, right?"

He gently stroked Yan Huan's hair and rested his chin on the top of her head.

Yan Huan gently exhaled and smelled the pleasant smell on his body. It was still the faint fragrance of kapok. The temperature of her body was close to his. She was also so close to him.., she could even hear the sound of his heart beating.

She closed her eyes and finally came out of the nightmare. Yes, it was a dream. It was a very scary nightmare.

She did not forget how she endured a day and a night in the flood. She was tied to a telephone pole by Lu Yi. At that time, other than the pain of losing Lu Yi, she also had to endure the coldness of the sea water, she also remembered the taste of the sea water. She remembered the cold of the sea water, remembered the fear of the sea water, and remembered the ruthlessness of the sea water.

"Will it be okay?"Yan Huan asked Lu Yi.

"Yes, it will be fine. Trust me and trust them."Lu Yi gently stroked Yan Huan's hair. It was when he was at the prosecutor's office that he felt a little uneasy, which was why he came back early. As expected.., not long after he came back, Yan Huan became like this.

It was actually a psychological reason. Lu Yi knew that Yan Huan was afraid of the sea water.

He Yibin once said that everyone had a monster in their heart, and such a monster was something that a person could not get close to. The monster in Yan Huan's heart was the sea water, she had almost lost her life in the sea water twice, so she had an inexplicable fear of the sea water. That was why Yan Huan did not like to go to the sea water now, in fact, as long as she got close, her expression would not be right.
