

Chapter 2091: freedom from torture

As for the little black girl in the toddler, everyone called her that. No one knew how the child grew up. Her parents were not black, but she looked like an international friend.

Xunxun was considered very white among the children. When she stood with the little black girl, the little black girl could not even look at her.

When xunxun heard the name of the little black girl, her little eyebrows furrowed together.

“Mommy, Xun Xun doesn’t want to be a little black girl.” Xun Xun was frightened when she heard that she was going to become that little black girl. How could that be? She was going to hug her mother and cry in grievance. Her brother wasn’t black, so she couldn’t be black either.

“Then drink your milk properly.” Yan Huan placed the cup in front of her daughter. “Look at the white of the milk, right? The more you drink, the more white it will become.”

Xun Xun knew that, but she refused to drink it.

“Mother, Can Xun Xun use a milk bottle?” Xun Xun discussed with her mother. Her father wouldn’t let her use a milk bottle, but her mother would.

“We’ll use a cup.” Yan Huan placed the cup in front of her daughter. “We’re all grown up now. We’re all grown up now, so we have to use a cup, okay?”

Xun Xun was still unwilling. She pouted and didn’t say anything. Her big eyes were also misty. In any case, she wasn’t willing to use a cup to drink.

“Let’s take a sip first. It’s very delicious.”

Yan Huan opened the cup. There was a straw in the cup. First, she would use a straw to drink. Then, she would slowly let her use the cup. There was always a need to go overboard.

Xun Xun looked at the cup. Now, she looked at her mother..

Then, she used her little hands to hold the cup, and carefully took a sip.

She blinked her eyes, and then took another sip.

Yan Huan rubbed her daughter’s little head. She was finally willing to drink. Fortunately, xunxun was a reasonable child. Otherwise, she did not know what to do?

If this little face really became sad, she really could not stand it.

But now she was finally willing to drink it. As long as she was willing to drink it, she would take it slowly in the future.

Xun Xun felt wronged and finished the cup of milk. She rubbed her eyes and was about to sleep.

Yan Huan carried her daughter up and was about to take her to sleep. After drinking the milk, she would definitely fall asleep. Xun Xun had always had this habit.

If she didn't drink the milk, she wouldn't be willing to sleep even if she was beaten to death. Then, she would cry and cause a headache.

This little temper was indeed a little too big.

When Lu Yi returned, he found a little girl who didn't hold a grudge. He ran over and let his father hug her. She even said in a childish voice that she missed his father. Her little mouth was still as sweet as before, Lu Yi couldn't bear to let her quit the milk bottle.

But there was no other way. She still had to quit the milk bottle. But at least there was a new beginning. When Ye Shuyun brought her a cup to drink at night, the little girl didn't know that her mother had persuaded her today, that was why she was in a good mood and was very obedient now. Ye Shuyun had not even said a few words when she obediently hugged the cup and drank the milk. Her hands and feet were small and her face was small. Indeed, this child was beautiful and cute, it really made adults unable to say a single word.

That was why it was said that this beautiful person was taking advantage of her. Look at how his family's Little Xun was taking advantage of her.

Ye Shuyun took the cup and saw that there was still some milk left in the cup, but Xun Xun was unwilling to drink it. If this was in the past, she would have drunk the entire pot of milk, but now there was still so much left, there was really no other way. They had worked hard, and Xun Xun had also worked very hard.

And Xun Xun had already fallen asleep with his doll in his arms. It was just a small child. Ye Shuyun placed the cup properly. Finally, all the disasters from that time were gone, his family should be safe in the future.

After Lu Qin died, Qin Xiaoyue took Lu Qin's body away. No matter what mistakes Lu Qin had made, he had already used his life to pay for them. Perhaps some injuries could not be made up for, however, he had already given up everything he could, including his life.

Ye Shuyun was not a cruel person. In the end, she discussed it with Lu Jin. It was considered humane and she gave Qin Xiaoyue some money. Qin Xiaoyue's injuries were not serious, but the serious ones were in her heart, she believed that no one would be shocked, not afraid, and not injured by their own son. Moreover, their son had already died before she died.

This was even more tragic than dying before dying.

Qin Xiaoyue took the money and left without taking anything. As for her jewelry, it was indeed Lu Qin who sold it. No one knew where the money went, Lu Qin also didn't say where the money was from the beginning to the end. Perhaps he had also gone to buy that thing.

Many things had happened in the past year. The Lu family was still the same as the old Lu family, and there wasn't much difference. When Old Master Lu came back from his recuperation, Xun Xun had already given up the bottle. Although..., she drank less milk than before, but now she finally didn't want the bottle anymore. After giving the cup to her, she could already drink it by herself, so there was no need for adults to cheat her. Of course, it was also because after she was caught last time., it also left some internal injuries on her little heart. She didn't know how long it would take for these injuries to fade away from her heart. But now, she wasn't picky anymore. Even the meat that she didn't like to eat in the past., she was also eating. Every day, Ye Shuyun fed her well and filled her little stomach. So recently, the meat that she threw away had grown back. Although it was still very thin., her small face had gained weight.

When Old Master Lu came back and saw that his granddaughter had gained weight, he was happy. His heart was always in turmoil. He thought that his family was lying to him again. In the end, nothing happened. Everything was fine at home., the children were also fine, and Xun Xun had even given up on the bottle.

What he did not know was that this time, he was asked to go out to rest and recuperate so that he could give Xun Xun the bottle. There was no need to give up on the milk. In any case, he could drink this milk powder for the rest of his life.

Old Master Lu would sneak around with his three grandsons every day. He would walk around here and there. In their area, he was indeed in the limelight.

The Lu family was still the Lu family. The Ye family was also the ye family. As for the Su family, it was still the same Su family.

There were only some people who left a little earlier than them. For example, Su Muran. Ever since Zhu Meina had dealt her quite a blow last time, Su Muran had started to suffer. Perhaps it was because he had no more hope in life.

To her, life was torture, but death was a relief. Sometimes, she would wonder if she was better off dead. This way, it would be over, and she wouldn't have to be tormented by illness like this every day.

However, she just couldn't die. The doctors saved her time and time again, and they also pulled her back from the pile of dead people time and time again. However, Su Muran really wanted to die now. She didn't know why she had to live, it was so painful that she might as well die. Wasn't that great?

Chapter 2092: peace and quiet

However, she just couldn't die. She would continue to suffer here, continue to suffer, as if she was using the tiny bit of time she had before she died to atone for her sins.

She had lived for more than 30 years. Her whole life had been filled with wealth and honor. She was born with a silver spoon in her mouth, but now, not a single person had seen her.

Su Ancheng was still in the hospital. Su Qingdong had to take care of his old father and was busy with the Su family's matters. He did not want to see his daughter and did not plan to see her again.

It was the same even if he saw her a few more times. Even if he saw Su Muran again, he would not be able to escape death.

He treated it as if he had never given birth to this daughter. Even his grandfather could hurt her. What could she not do.

“Aren’t you going to see her?”

Su Ancheng sighed.

These days, he had seen the light. Perhaps it was because he was too eager to be strong that he had fallen into such a state. Among them, only Lu Yuanyang was the best, his grandson was so outstanding, and he had three great-grandsons. One was better looking than the other, and the other was smarter than the other.

However, the Su family would really be doomed here.

As for Yan Huan, Su Ancheng understood better than anyone else that Yan Huan would never acknowledge the SU family. She was ashamed of the Su family, and of course, she would never give the three children to them.

He had already become like this, but no one came to check on his illness. He also did not think about the person who could be said to be his granddaughter, but who had a deep hatred for them, coming to visit him.

Also, was Su Muran really not going to take a look?

Su Ancheng saw that Su Qingdong did not answer, so he did not say anything else. He sighed softly again. He could not even move now. If Su Qingdong did not go, he would not go. After all, Su Muran was a felon.

Su Qingdong said that he would not go, but no matter what, she was still his daughter. She was his daughter that he had loved for so many years. How could he not feel heartache? How could he not be sad.

In the end, he still could not hold it in. When he went over, Su Jinran’s condition was already very bad. She was practically waiting to die. She actually felt that she was about to be freed, however, the doctors’ repeated attempts to save her always brought her back to hell.

She still had to suffer through all of this.

When Su Qingdong went over, Su Muran was already asleep.

At this moment, even Su Qingdong could not recognize Su Mulan. Su Mulan was like a skeleton, lying on top of the surgery without any signs of life. Her entire body was practically filled with all kinds of tubes, it could be seen from her expression.

She really did not have much time left.

Su Qingdong suddenly felt his nose ache and his eyes heat up. Tears could not help but fall.

He shook his head and turned to leave.

He applied to the court and decided to leave with his daughter. She was about to die, but he still could not bear to let her die so silently.

“Why did you agree?” Zhu Meina asked Yan Huan in confusion. “I thought you would cut her into pieces?”

“If I agree, will she live?”

Yan Huan asked Zhu Meina in return.

“No.” Zhu Meina absolutely did not believe that Su Muran would still come back to life after what he had done. She only had one breath left. If she could really live.., su Qingdong would not use the excuse of death to bring Su Muran away.

This also proved that Su Muran had no way out. Of course, not only was there no way out, there was also no way out.

“Since you can’t live no matter what, why don’t you do them a favor? And this favor is yours.” Yan Huan reached out and pulled a strand of Zhu Meina’s hair. “You can mock them a little more and ask for more benefits.”

Zhu Meina shook her hair. What kind of hairstyle was this? She even dyed her hair red. Such a hot color would hurt her hair. Anyway, Yan Huan would not torture her hair like this.

Zhu Meina pulled her hair back from Yan Huan’s hands. She immediately stretched out her limbs. “You’re really good to me. You even thought of me for such a good thing.”

Yan Huan thought more than she did. She, Zhu Meina, had given so much face to the Su family, yet Su Qingdong still did not treat her well. Of course, she had never thought about how good an old man would treat her, all she wanted was to have a better life in the Su family.

Yan Huan did not do anything. When Lu Yi asked her, she did not think of rejecting him. To Su Muran, it was just a different way of dying. At the same time, it was also a favor for Zhu Meina to play with.

Zhu Meina had her red hair. Recently, she realized that she liked red more and more. She shook her internal organs and felt relaxed all over.

She suddenly thought of something and smiled brightly. Of course, from Yan Huan’s point of view, her flamboyance was actually a little lacking.

“Sigh, it might not be so earth-shattering in the future.” She could imagine how peaceful her days would be in the future. She was the sole leader of the Su family. Without Zhu Xianglan and Su Muman, her days would get better and better, it was just a little too peaceful.

Yan Huan rolled his eyes at him.

“You love self-abuse, but I don’t like it.”

Zhu Meina cracked a smile.

She did not dare to talk back.

In the end, Su Qingdong brought Su Beilan back from the hospital. According to the crimes that Su Muran had committed, although she did not cause any harm to others, it was enough for her to spend the rest of her life in prison.

And now, she clearly did not have the rest of her life. She only had a few days. Out of humanity, Fang Qingdong still brought Su Mulan away in the end.

However, from then on, no one saw Su Mulan anymore. Even the name of Su Mulan began to sink and be forgotten. Everything was reduced to ashes, and no traces could be found anymore.

Yan Huan carried her mother's ashes out of the temple. The abbot there said that her mother's soul had been transcended, and she could go home.

Regardless of whether it was true or not, and regardless of whether a person really had a soul, to a child, this was a form of comfort in her heart.

"Mom, I'll bring you home."

Yan Huan placed her face on the urn. It was ice-cold and white, without any warmth at all, because her mother no longer had any warmth.

Her mother had already left her for more than ten years.

"Mom, you'll bring you back to Grandma's place. Although you've never said it before, I know that you miss grandma, and Grandma misses you too. Mom, you don't have to worry about me. Look, I'm living very well. I have a husband and three children. Our bloodline can continue to exist."

Chapter 2093: would live well and live well

"Mom, you can really rest in peace now, right?"

Yan Huan lifted her face. In that instant, she seemed to have seen ye Rong's smile. It was just like that time when she was still young, and her mother was smiling at her just like that.

She had lived for two lifetimes, and it was truly worth it for her to let her mother return to her grandmother.

"Let me do it." Lu Yi stretched out his hand and carefully hugged the urn.

"I'm Mother's son-in-law. I haven't shown any filial piety. I'll do it this time."

Yan Huan lifted her face. She wanted to smile at him, but she still wanted to cry. However, in the end, she still managed to hold back that smile.

"Mother must have hoped for me to lead a good life, so she didn't cry."

"Right." Lu Yi used his forehead to gently touch Yan Huan's forehead. "We're both parents now. We already understand each other, right?"

Yan Huan thought of the three children at home. Yes, she believed it. She really believed it.

For parents, there was nothing more comforting than having a good life for their children.

Her life was very good. She was happy. She was happy. Her mother would be happy and relieved.

Just like her in her previous life, even if her mother died, she would still be unwilling.

And sometimes, she would think that her rebirth might be because of so much unwillingness. Her mother's, her mother's, Yi Ling's, Lu Jin's, and Lu Yi's.

So, they could do it all over again.

Walking the right path once was also making the right choice.

Lu Yi personally placed ye Rong's ashes in, and on one side was Grandma Ye's resting place.

"Little Auntie..."he gently caressed the urn, "No, I have to call you mom too. Don't worry, I will take good care of Huanhuan. Huanhuan is very good, you don't have to worry about her. This life won't be like the previous one. All of our disasters are in the past, right?"

Suddenly, a gust of wind blew in from somewhere. The wind was light and cool, as if someone was echoing it.

Lu Yi looked around before standing up. Then, he walked in front of Yan Huan and held her shoulders tightly. They stood together like this, with the setting sun on their bodies. It was as if he was assuring them, it was also as if he was instructing them.

Not far away stood ye Chuji and ye Xinyu. As for ye Jianguo, he did not come.

He also knew that no one here was willing for him to come, so it was better for him to stay alone. Ye Chuji went back to take a look at the small house not far away. Where would ye Jianguo live in the future, he would accompany his dead wife and daughter. He would use the rest of his life to atone for his sins.

Perhaps this was what he needed the most. Otherwise, the regrets and regrets of the past would one day crush him. Therefore, Ye Chuji did not object.

Let him stay here.

Although this was not a good place, it was the closest place to Grandma Ye and Ye Rong.

After Yan Huan returned, he was depressed for a few more days. Even the three children realized that their mother did not seem to be in a good mood, so they did not dare to disturb their mother. They also did not dare to make their mother angry. All of them were obedient, they would do whatever their mother told them to do, especially xunxun. She was really a good child now. She did not need a milk bottle anymore and threw it away. Now, she could also drink milk from a cup.

Yan Huan raised his head and saw Xunxun standing at the side. She seemed curious, afraid, and of course, worried.

The little girl's thoughts grew again. She knew that she was worried about her mother.

Yan Huan carried his daughter up and pinched her little arm to see if she had gained some weight recently. It was because she had given xunxun a good physique that she was unable to gain any weight. It was a little troublesome now, but when she grew up., she could eat whatever she wanted. In this era where the beauty of bones was prevalent, her little xunxun definitely would not need to lose weight in the future.

“Is Mommy Unhappy?”

Xunxun still blinked her big eyes. Her innocence could almost reflect the entire world. In fact, Yan Huan knew that in Xunxun’s eyes, her mother was the entire world, just like when she was young.

When she was as old as xunxun, her mother was also her entire world.

It was just that when she grew up, some of her memories were gone, and some of her things were forgotten.

She pinched her daughter’s little face again. “Mommy Isn’t unhappy.”

“But mommy isn’t smiling.”Xun Xun knew that when someone smiled, they were happy. If they didn’t smile, then they were unhappy.

“No.”Yan Huan carried her daughter to the table and sat her down. “Mommy is just thinking about Grandma.”

“Grandma?”Xun Xun was still young and didn’t know what a Grandma was. She only knew that Grandma had gone to a faraway place. When she grew up to be very, very big, just like great-grandfather..., then, she would be able to see her grandma.

“Yes, Xun Xun’s Grandma.”Yan Xian lowered her head and looked into her daughter’s big eyes. “Xun Xun and Grandma look very similar. They both have small dimples.”When Xun Xun heard her mother mention her small dimples..., she cracked her small mouth and immediately let her mother see her small dimples. She was still a very stingy child. She would share her toys and delicious food with everyone, however, she absolutely didn’t like others to see her dimples. Ever since she was young, she had always been like this. She didn’t know why, but in any case, she didn’t want others to see her dimples.

Yan Huan stroked his daughter’s little ears, she would give her a few days to think about her mother. After that, she would carry her mother’s hopes and become a good mother. She would wait for her children to grow up, and she would also take good care of them and protect them, she would also support them with their father, giving them a peaceful sky.

She took her cell phone and checked what activities the children would have tomorrow.

Ever since the last time they were found and taken away by the bad guys, the children had frequently been active. In fact, everyone was well aware of this kind of thinking. Every family was now a child. For the sake of the children, no matter what the parents were like..., no matter how busy they were, they would pass. The kindergarten was just to win back the parents’ hearts. No matter what, the kindergarten was not a charity organization. They also needed to earn money, and there were so many teachers and staff to support.

In fact, Yan Huan wanted to start her own kindergarten. However, she had asked around about the case, and it was a little troublesome. Moreover, her children were already four years old. If they were to go to school for another two years, they would have to go to primary school. Could it be..., was she going to start a primary school, a junior high school, or even a university in the future?

She was not Superman, and she did not have that much energy.

Lu Yi had said that children could not live in a greenhouse. The necessary blows were good for them. Now that they had fallen, it did not hurt much. If they never fell, they would occasionally fall.., it would definitely hurt a lot, so his children had to keep falling before they could grow up.

Chapter 2094: a good man and a good woman at home

Although it sounded a little cruel, this was a path that one had to walk.

Yan Huan put Xunxun down and let her play by herself.

Only then did she take her phone and start to flip through it.

Tomorrow was another sharing session. The children were going to take the delicious food to the kindergarten. It was also to let the children become good children who knew how to share.

A child had to bring several kinds of food. Although the family did not lack anything, to the children, they seemed to like such small activities very much.

It was just that her family had a lot of children, so Yan Huan prepared to make a three-layer cake for the children, so that their father would also go to a parent-teacher meeting.

Early in the morning, she had already woken up.

“Come, put this on properly.” She tiptoed and put a chef’s hat on Lu Yi’s head. Then, she put on an apron for Lu Yi. However, Lu Yi, who had always been wearing the prosecutor’s newspaper, changed into this chef’s uniform, why was it so much fun.

We’re going to make the cake. Yan Huan prepared the eggs and let Lu Yi take a look at the eggs. She had already weighed the cake powder herself. Since they were going to make a three-layer cake, they had to triple the cake powder as well, of course, she also had to add a lot of cream.

Although Lu Yi wasn’t very familiar with these things, he could still be a porter.

The cake that Yan Huan made now was much more beautiful compared to the past. She could also make pure fruit cream, which was also what children liked to eat. Of course, she could also make it very beautiful, she had learned all this after participating in those food programs. Of course, now she could use it to make cakes for the children.

She and Lu Yi completed this big cake together. Of course, Lu Yi really wouldn’t help much. He just stood at the side and watched Yan Huan skillfully make flowers like this on the cake, there were also fruits and small animals.

“Is it Nice?” Yan Huan asked Lu Yi.

“Yes, it’s nice.”

Lu Yi was very satisfied with the big cake. Look, it would be great to marry a good wife and mother. There was no need to spend money to buy the cake. Yan Huan personally made the cake for their own family’s birthday.

"I want to show you something." Yan Huan walked into the kitchen. When he came out, he was holding a small cake in his hand. Although it was small, it was also three-layered.

"This is for you." Yan Huan held the cake in his hand and walked forward. Lu Yi had been making the cake with her early in the morning, sacrificing the time he had spent sleeping.

Of course, he had to properly reward him.

Lu Yi stretched out his finger and placed it on the cake. There was also some cream on it.

"En, it's quite delicious." Yan Huan used light cream, so it didn't taste very sweet. It melted in his mouth, and the slight sweetness was just right.

Yan Huan smiled and curved his eyes. Just like before, he was the little golden silkworm that Lu Yi had fallen in love with at first sight.

"What did you think of?" Yan Huan realized that Lu Yi was a little absent-minded. What was wrong? It was rare for him to be absent-minded.

"It's nothing. The cake is very delicious." Lu Yi held the cake with one hand. His wife had specially made it for him. He would eat all the cake.

He stretched out his other hand and placed it on Yan Huan's face. Yan Huan habitually rubbed against his big palm. It was still as dry and warm as before, and he had saved her countless times, they had gone through so many ups and downs. It was really not easy for them to get to where they were now.

Finally, the rain had passed and the sky was clear. They were finally safe and sound. Finally, they could fulfill their promise.

They had to be together for the rest of their lives, and then slowly grow old.

"You are no different from when you were twenty."

Yan Huan was still smiling. Her skin was very good, and there were no wrinkles at the corners of her eyes. Time seemed to have stopped on her body, and she was exactly the same as when she was twenty.

Lu Yi was the same. Men naturally grew old slowly. A man in his thirties was at the peak of his life. He was mature and steady, and everything was about to reach his peak. In Hai City, there was no one who didn't know about him.

He was a cold-hearted and cold-faced prosecutor outside. These few years of life experience had almost resulted in his expressionless face and cold-blooded and cold-hearted personality.

Especially the moment he put on the prosecutor's uniform, all the focus was on him. However, almost everyone held their breath.

As he became more and more successful, his methods also became more and more unyielding.

Of course, he was also an upright prosecutor. All the evil forces were unbeatable in front of him.

However, who would have thought that almost everyone outside was afraid of the prosecutor. As long as he was at home, he could make cakes with his wife, play with his daughter's dolls, comb his daughter's hair, and squat on the ground, he would open toys with his son.

He was a good man who cared about his family. Of course, he had a good wife in his life.

He also had three smart and cute children.

Therefore, prosecutor Lu's life could be said to be perfect.

It was also because he had met the right person.

Lu Yi finished the three layers of cake. Actually, there was not much. It was just a mini cake that could be placed in his palm. He finished it in a few bites. Yan Huan put the cake away. When Lu Yi sent the children to school., he brought it to the school.

There were three children in his family. Each of them had to take quite a lot of things.

The children's kindergarten could be considered an aristocratic school. Although it was only a kindergarten, both adults and children had the heart to compare themselves. Although Yan Huan didn't like to compare herself with others, one of them., her family only had three children, so there was no need to compare. However, she would not let the children hold their heads down in the kindergarten. Of course, she also did not like to let others look down on her children.

However, her reputation was there, so she rarely went to the kindergarten. Usually, it was Lu Yi, Ye Shuyun, and the others who went there. It was not very eye-catching, so she only went to the children's Kindergarten's sharing session, she would personally cook a lot of delicious food and bring it to the three children.

Lu Yi was originally going to stay at home for the whole day. When he was ready in the morning, he would directly bring the cake to the kindergarten. However, he received a call from the prosecutor's office, it said that he had to handle a case right now, so he did not have much time to wait for him.

When Lu Yi was about to leave, Yan Huan brought out a smaller cake,

"Just in time. I made an extra one. Send it to them."

Yan Huan's EQ was indeed not low. Prosecutor Lu's reputation was very good. Of course, if Yan Huan had nothing to do, he would also send some food to the prosecutor's office. Of course, these food were not bribes, with Lu Yi's personality, it was hard to get close to him. However, he had the wife of a movie queen.

Chapter 2095: parent-teacher conference

Therefore, even if many people were about to freeze to death, they still had to get close to Yan Huan and ask him for some photos. Otherwise, no one would dare to talk to Lu Yi.

Lu Yi mentioned the cake, and it was the type with three layers. Yan Huan made three types of cakes on a whim this time, and they were big, medium, and small. The small ones were given to Lu Yi to eat. Although they were a little small., they were the essence.

The medium ones were not considered too big. She was still thinking about who she should give this to. The big ones were sent to the children's kindergarten.

Wasn't this just right? Lu Yi was going to the prosecutor's office. This should be for him.

"I'm leaving. I'll be back in a while." Lu Yi did not think about how long he would stay in the prosecutor's office. He had already made an agreement with the three children. No matter what, he would not stand up for the three children. Besides., there really wasn't anything big going on there.

"Okay, I'll wait for you." Yan Huan helped Lu Yi adjust his clothes before sending him out. She then walked to the sofa and took out the program list. This was the program that she was going to record in the near future, it was a program that was going to be recorded in all the major places in Hai City.

When she first decided to record this program, the main reason was actually because of this program. It was originally recorded in Hai City. Of course, there would be a few opportunities to appear on set. However, as long as it wasn't a long-term appearance., she could accept it. Although she had already participated in a few episodes, some of the procedures had already been memorized by her.

However, she still had to be prepared.

Lu Yi drove to the prosecutor's office and entered his own office. Yu Bo came over soon and handed over the new case to him. Lu Yi roughly flipped through it, it was indeed not a heavy case, but he needed to take a look. He threw his car keys to Yu Bo.

Yu Bo took Lu Yi's keys and did not react for a long time.

Why did he give the car keys to him? was he going to let him go back to a meeting, or was he going to give the car to him?

He did not dare to drive Lu Yi's car. If it was damaged, he could not afford to pay for it.

Although Lu Yi's car had been in service for a few years, it was enough to buy a few new cars every year. Although it looked very low-key, there was a lot going on inside, however, the special cars that had been modified were all military products. The safety factor was very high, and of course, it was even more expensive. It was not something that an ordinary person could afford to drive, but it was also something that could be crashed into.

"There are some things in the trunk of my car. Take them and share them with everyone."

As Lu Yi spoke, he had already turned on his computer and started to get busy. He had to finish this case within an hour. He still had to rush back to the kindergarten when he got back. The three children at home were still waiting for him.

"Sure." Yu Bo beamed as she picked up Lu Yi's car keys and ran out to open Lu Yi's trunk. In the end, she found a very beautiful cake inside. Oh, this cake was really made well., even the ones sold outside were not as beautiful as this.

Of course, he also knew Yan Huan's strength. The delicacies that Yan Huan could add now were comparable to that of a chef. Of course..

That was also because he ate a lot more than the others because Yan Huan would give him an extra portion.

Therefore, he ate the food that Yan Huan made the most.

Today, they were all convinced. It was great because there was cake to eat.

Carefully, he carried the cake out of the car.

Good heavens, such a big cake was enough for more than twenty people in the Procuratorate to get a big piece.

He took the cake into his office and waited until noon to personally give everyone the cake to eat. This was considered their dessert.

As for Lu Yi, he finished the case around ten o'clock. He then handed the other matters over to Yu Bo before he took his car keys, he was prepared to bring the big cake to the kindergarten to hold a parent-teacher meeting for the children.

When the three-tiered cake was brought over, the children went crazy. Even though the children's families were quite well-off, most of them were from wealthy families.

Of course, they ate a lot of cake, but they were still happy to see the cake. They all liked it very much, and all of them looked at the big cake with eager eyes, they all wished they could reach out their little hands to dip the cream into their little mouths to wipe it. Of course, the kindergarten teacher would not let the children eat it.

Very soon, a child was given a big piece of the cake. The cream was light cream, not sweet cream. Therefore, the taste of the cake melted in the mouth and was very delicious, the cake itself didn't last long, and it was soft to eat. Moreover, it was cheese-flavored. When it entered the mouth, it had a milky fragrance.

The children were all eating happily. Even the children who had the fewest meals had finished a large piece of cake. At this moment, even after the parents and children had been given a large portion of the cake., there was still more than half of the cake left. In the end, they had no choice but to give it another slice. However, the children could not eat any more. After all, their stomachs only had a small amount of capacity.

Lu Yi had to take care of the three children. They were all one. Every time, his children were the most eye-catching. The three of them sat next to their father. They were all very sensible children and would not cause too much trouble for adults.

They sat obediently and ate their portion of the cake.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang knew that their sister loved strawberries, so they gave the strawberries on their cake to their sister. Even though they actually liked to eat them, they were still willing to give their favorite.., to their sister.

Lu Yi raised his head and glanced at the wall. Then, he remembered something and asked the kindergarten teacher beside him.

“You guys have dealt with the issue of the aging circuits that I mentioned last time. If not, I’ll send someone over.”

He reached out his hand and fixed his daughter’s two braids while listening to the teacher’s answer. The safety of the children was the first thing that he cared about. He had always remembered the matter of the aging circuits last time, however, it was because he was too busy that he did not care.

If this kindergarten could not handle it, he would do it himself.

“You’re asking about that.”The kindergarten teacher smiled. “Mr. Lu, please don’t worry. We have already handled it.”

After the teacher finished speaking, a child happened to come over and still wanted to eat the cake. The teacher then held the child’s hand and took him to cut the cake.

And when Lu Yi heard these words, he didn’t ask any more questions?

Chapter 2096: strange smells

As for the teacher, she had secretly taken a look at the wall. Would the lines age? There seemed to be some. After the parents left, she would tell the principal.

However, this day was a little too busy. When the children returned home, the cake was still not finished. Therefore, the teacher gave the children some of the cake and let them bring it home to their favorite people.

The Lu family triplets were also given three pieces of cake.

Lu Yi put the three pieces of cake on the car and then picked up the three children one by one. He let them sit on the safety seats in the back and wanted to take them back to the Lu family.

Fortunately, there were three children in the family. Of course, they were also given three pieces of cake. Otherwise, someone in the family would have been beaten to death.

After Lu Yi sent the three children to the Lu family, Xun Xun gave her favorite cake to grandfather Lu. Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang also gave their own cakes to grandfather and grandmother.

The elders in the family did not fight or snatch it. No one was jealous because everyone had a share.

As for how the other children were quarreling or fighting, that was not something that Lu Yi would consider.

In the kindergarten, after the teachers had sent the children off, they had to get off work.

A female teacher had just walked out when she suddenly remembered something. She wanted to tell the principal about the aging of the lines. Perhaps the emphasis in the kindergarten had been on the safety of the children recently, she had forgotten about the aging of the lines.

Of course, even though it was called aging, it hadn't reached that stage. After all, the kindergarten had only been built not long ago, and everything was new. However, there were still some things that needed attention.

However, when the teacher returned, the principal had left. No one knew when she had left. Perhaps the principal had left before she came.

She did not see the principal, but thinking that she still had to rest the next day, she told the teacher on duty about this matter. Of course, she also told him repeatedly, she told him that he had to clean up those old lines, because it was the parents' suggestion.

The teacher on duty agreed, and the teacher left with a sigh of relief.

In the end, as soon as she left, the teacher on duty also forgot about this matter and completely forgot about it. After all, this wasn't a big deal, so it was unlikely that something would happen.

Of course, it wasn't so easy for something to happen, so she didn't take it to heart.

The female teacher thought that her notice had arrived, so she didn't think too much about it. She had some matters to attend to recently, so she took a few days off and also completely forgot about the aging of the line.

Of course, it was the same for the teacher on duty. Perhaps she was a little absent-minded, so she didn't hear clearly what the teacher said. In addition, a few days had already passed.., it was even more impossible for her to remember anything. Of course, this matter was never mentioned again.

Ye Shuyun sent the children to the kindergarten. After they all went in, she brought the nanny and prepared to go home. After the three children went to school.., she could forget about seeing her three grandsons during the day.

The more the children grew, the further away they would be in the future. She could not help but sigh. Time really passed too quickly. The three children who were in her arms back then seemed to have grown so big in an instant, they were so tall.

She shook her head. She did not know what was wrong with her today. Why was she suddenly thinking about these things again.

The three children were already in the kindergarten. The teachers brought the children to play and play games with them. Of course, there were some who were obedient and some who were not. Sometimes, it would make the teachers feel very considerate, but sometimes, it would also make people so angry that they would die.

After all, the children were still too young. There were some things that they did not understand. And to get along with the children, one needed to be extremely patient. As for these young female teachers, they did not have anything right now, but they would definitely have patience.

Otherwise, how could they get along with these delicate children.

When it was noon, the children had their lunch and it was time for their lunch break.

They each had a small bed. Xun Xun slept in the middle of her two older brothers. As long as there were two older brothers, she would be very obedient. However, if she was alone, she might cry, however, both of her older brothers slept beside her, so she felt very safe and fell asleep very quickly.

At this moment, no one knew that the aging wires sealed in the wall were starting to glow.

Zi Zi Zi, no one noticed it.

Very quickly, the aging wires started to burn as well, and the fire was also coming out.

Coincidentally, at this moment, all the teachers were called outside by the principal for a small meeting. There was only one life teacher here.

And this life teacher seemed to have smelled something strange.

What kind of smell was this? The life teacher smelled it for a long time, but he did not know what it was. Why did it smell like burning plastic? who was burning these things? Why did he not have any merit, did he not know that there was a kindergarten nearby? Burning these things would really pollute the environment.

She cursed in her heart. Of course, she did not think too much about it. Those who were watching the children inside would cover them with blankets so that they would not catch a cold.

What she did not know was that the fire outside had spread, but she did not notice it at all. When the smell was getting stronger, she thought that those people outside who did not have merit.., she didn't know if they were burning some kind of plastic or something.

Many things in the kindergarten were made of paper, and these things were all inflammable, so once they burned, it would be very dangerous. Moreover, this was a kindergarten.., and they were all three or four-year-old children.

And the life teacher couldn't help but smell that something was wrong with the smell. It was getting heavier and heavier. Even if someone was really burning plastic, it wouldn't burn for such a long time, and the smell was also very strong. Also.., she couldn't help but roll up her sleeves. Why did she feel that it was getting hotter and hotter inside.

This was really strange. The life teacher was really depressed. It was still the season to wear a thick coat. Why? She had the urge to take off her coat and wear a short-sleeved shirt.

At this time, not only was the smell strange inside the kindergarten, but the temperature also rose a little. She went over and opened the window again to allow the air inside and outside to exchange. However.., the moment the window was opened, she felt that something was wrong. It was still very cold outside, but it was not forcefully turned into a steamer.

Chapter 2097: was on fire

Moreover, there didn't seem to be that kind of smell outside. If that kind of smell was coming from outside, then wouldn't the smell be very pungent when the window was opened?

Moreover, the smell inside was so pungent, not to mention the smell outside, which should be even more pungent and unpleasant.

There wasn't any smell outside, and it was also cold outside.

But inside, it was like a steamer, and there was the smell of choking.

The life teacher's forehead was also sweating.

She turned her head and saw the smoke coming in from outside.

Was there a fire outside?

But why was there a fire outside? How could there be a fire?

The smoke inside was getting thicker and thicker. Not to mention the children, even the life teacher himself began to cough. He ran to open the door, and the smoke outside was choking the room

The principal and the others were in a meeting today. They were afraid that it would disturb the children, so they closed the door. Their kindergarten could withstand an earthquake of at least magnitude 8.

However, in terms of earthquake resistance, it was good. However, in terms of fire resistance, it was very poor.

After all, the things inside were made of paper because they had to pay attention to environmental protection. There were also children's small books and books. These paper products burned very quickly, and almost all of them were on fire.

The life teacher also gritted her teeth and directly picked up a child from the small bed, along with the quilt. She had never thought of picking a child to carry, and now it was already at this time.., she didn't even know who the child she was carrying was. Initially, she wanted to carry another child, but in the end, she didn't know if the child in her arms was too heavy, or if she was so scared that her legs went soft.., therefore, just carrying one child was already very tiring. She pulled her sleeve and covered her nose. She carried the child and rushed into the fire. Behind her.., the fire burned the entire kindergarten.

When the life teacher ran out with a child in her arms, the principal and teacher outside were shocked.

The life teacher wiped her face. Even her throat was choked by the smoke.

"It's... It's on fire..."

She pointed inside. At this moment, she could already see the thick smoke rolling inside. When the principal saw this, his butt fell to the ground and he could no longer stand up.

At this moment, he could not think of anything. He could not think of anything. He did not even have any emergency response.

Today, the middle and large classes were not in the kindergarten. The teachers had taken them out for outdoor activities. Therefore, there was only one small class in the entire kindergarten. And now, all the teachers., including the handymen in the garden, were also having meetings outside. Only this life teacher was left behind.

There were a total of eighteen children in the middle and small classes. Which of these children was not spoiled? which one of them was not the golden lump in the family? If something really happened, the family would definitely not be able to stand it.

At this moment, thick smoke was billowing everywhere. It could be seen that the fire inside was already very serious. Even if they wanted to enter now, they would not be able to do so.

At this moment, they finally reacted.

They called the fire alarm and called the ambulance.

However, their hearts were filled with despair at this moment. Out of the eighteen children, only this one was born. There were also seventeen children inside, regardless of what kind of family these children were from., what kind of family background, what kind of parents, what kind of family, all of these were not mentioned. They were the precious jewels in the hands of their families. Especially now that the second child was open to the public, most of the families., there was only one child. If something really happened to these children, teachers like them would not be able to pay for their children's lives even if they died a thousand or ten thousand times.

The principal was already in a state of shock. His eyes were white and he could not move his limbs. The cold sweat on his forehead was almost the size of a bean as it dripped down.

The fire in the kindergarten was getting bigger and bigger. A few teachers tried to rush in, but they failed several times. Moreover, there were more female teachers than male teachers in this kindergarten. Only the Cook was male, however, even he could not do anything about it.

They had no way. They had no way at all. They could only watch as the kindergarten was mercilessly lit up by the fire. There were inflammable items inside. With this fire., the kindergarten was almost burned to ashes.

The few female teachers could only hug each other and wail loudly.

There were still seventeen children inside. Fortunately, the large classes were not present. Otherwise, how many children would have been burned to death.

If they were adults, they might still have the ability to save themselves. However, there were only three or four-year-old children inside. They were still small. They could not even cry now.

The few teachers could do nothing but cry now. They could do nothing.

They could only watch as the fire burned outside, curling up thick smoke and killing people.

In fact, everyone was already in despair.

The life teacher was still holding the child. Even now, she didn't know what she was saying.

It's over. Yes, it's over.

When I came out, the fire had already reached the lounge. I only had time to hold one child. The other children were still inside. She was like the director as she weakly fell to the ground, she was unable to exert even the slightest bit of strength.

Initially, she wanted to tear her throat out and cry. However, when she saw the burning kindergarten in front of her, her eyes were staring straight ahead without blinking.

The child that she carried out also woke up. He rubbed his eyes and looked at the fire for a long time. Then, he climbed up from the ground and jumped up again.

His little feet jumped on the ground and his little hands clapped.

It really made the life teacher have the urge to throw him into the fire.

Beautiful, what was beautiful about? Water and fire were merciless. Those eighteen children had been in there for so long. It was likely that they would not be able to escape. When the fire department rescued them, perhaps after they were rescued., it was also because of their charred little bodies.

Eighteen of them had died, and one of them had died. These useless teachers and the principal could not bear such responsibility. Moreover, if they were unable to save any of the children this time around, then they., would be imprisoned for sure.

The fire continued to burn. The light of the fire was reflected in the eyes of a few people. They were filled with fear and deep pain. The principal was still seated on the ground and was practically wailing loudly.

At this moment, the cries of children could be heard everywhere in the kindergarten’s lounge.

Chapter 2098: 17 children

“Xunxun...”Xiao Qi lay on the ground and called out to his sister. He wiped his little face forcefully, and his voice was constantly coughing due to the smoke. His throat seemed to have become hoarse.

“Sister.”Xiao Guang also lay behind his brother. The two little ones had been specially trained by Bai Zhi. They had professional fire escape experience. When Bai Zhi was bored in the Liuyuan Garden, he would train the three children every day, xun Xun did not know, but Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang remembered it in their hearts. So when the fire happened, they quickly climbed down from their little bed and also crawled forward. They did not cry, they did not want their parents either. It was just that they could not find their little sister.

“Big Brother, Big Brother...”just as Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang were looking for their little sister, Xun Xun was crying and calling for his two big brothers.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had already gone out through the escape tunnel, but they had to find their little sister.

Xun Xun also crawled out from the thick smoke. Her little face was blackened and her voice was hoarse from the smoke, but she was not injured.

Xiao Qi hurriedly crawled over to her little sister and used her little hand to touch her little face.

“Xunxun, follow brother. Brother will take Xunxun out.”

“Xunxun, it hurts.”Xunxun pursed her little mouth and her voice sounded very pitiful.

“It doesn’t hurt, it doesn’t hurt. Brother won’t feel any pain.”Xiao Guang pulled her sister’s little hand and blew on her little face. “Sister, come out with us. From now on, our snacks will be for you to eat, okay?”

When xunxun heard the word ‘snacks,’she stopped crying.

Yes, she tapped her little head hard. Just like her brother, their movements were very fast. The three siblings quickly crawled toward the escape tunnel. They were not ordinary children, xiao Qi and Xiao Guang had received professional education since they were young. Their movements had always been more flexible than other children. Moreover, they had been specially trained by Bai Zhi. At that time, they had to run around the kindergarten every day. Although Xun Xun Xun was a little delicate, she was not as good as her two older brothers, however, she was a very obedient child. She would listen to her older brother, so she could also keep up with her older brother’s speed.

Xiao Qi crawled and saw Xiao Mei hiding in the corner of the wall amidst the thick smoke.

Xiao Qi quickly crawled over and held Xiao Mei’s little hand.

“Xiao Mei, don’t cry. Follow us out.”

Xiao Mei wiped her little face. She followed behind Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang, and her tears kept falling. She was afraid. She missed her mother, and she wanted her mother too. She lowered her head in grievance, and she felt very uncomfortable.

However, she obediently followed behind Xiao Qi and the siblings. She imitated Xiao Qi and the others and crawled forward.

When Xiao Qi found the other safe passage, she met two other children who did not know how they got here. They were also their friends in the kindergarten, xiao Qi made them lie on the ground like them.

The two little boys’faces were red from holding it in. In the end, they crawled like Xiao Qi. As expected, they felt better after lying on the ground.

When the fire started, most of the children woke up and ran around randomly. They cried everywhere. Only Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang could react in an instant. Although Xunxun was afraid., however, he still remembered what Bai Zhi had taught them back then. They had to lie on the ground and escape through the escape tunnel.

Xiao Qi brought a few children and quickly crawled towards the escape tunnel. They had run through this escape tunnel countless times, so even though there was thick smoke outside, they still found the way in an instant, back when Bai Zhi was training them, he had even taught them to walk outside with their eyes closed. Therefore, even though there was thick smoke now, they could still find their way out very accurately.

The people from the fire department had already arrived outside. They hurriedly jumped out of the car, but when they saw the fire in front of them, they were also shocked. It had already become like this. It was almost burned into a frame.

This was the most famous kindergarten in the area. The children in it were from good families. How could such a good kindergarten be burning.

There was no one left inside. In fact, when the fire department saw that the teachers were safe and there were no signs of them being burned, they thought that they had escaped early, therefore, there should not be anyone inside.

They had already started to put out the fire. It was just that the fire was too severe, and the things inside were almost burnt out, so they had to be mentally prepared. However, as long as the person was fine, it was good that the things were burned., they could still do it again, but if they lost their lives, they could not do it again.

“There are...”a teacher stammered and stumbled. Also, she choked and could not speak

“There are... There are seventeen children...”

“What did you say?”When the fire department heard that there were more than ten children inside, all of them could not believe it.

“There are so many children, then what are you still doing here?”

Other than the incredulity in the fire department, there were also some who were probably going to hate them. There were also seventeen children. What about you? Why are you all standing here so well that you can all run out unscathed, what about the children? This was still a kindergarten. There were only five-year-old children inside. As teachers, didn't they know that when they were running for their lives, they would bring the children out.

“We... We weren't inside...”the teacher wanted to explain, but no matter how much he explained, the members of the information team were no longer willing to listen, the person who asked the question had already told this matter to their team leader. When the team leader heard it, his eyes almost turned red on the spot.

“Everyone, move faster,”he said in a hoarse voice. “There are still seventeen children inside.”

When the others heard this, they were all stunned.

There were children inside, and there were seventeen children.

Then how could they be fine? A young fireman pointed at the teachers who were still in shock. There was not a single injury on their bodies, not even the smell of fire., it did not seem like they had been in a fire before.

How could they be fine? Then what did the children do wrong? Why did the kindergarten run by these black-hearted people get into trouble? They didn't get into trouble themselves, but let those young children.., they were still in the Sea of fire.

They were just such young children. How could they escape.

They were all burned into frames. The things inside must have been burned to nothing, not to mention those children.

And this matter, they were all hurriedly notified to the higher-ups.

Chapter 2099: Where did the children go

This matter was very big, and it was also very serious and terrible. It was already not something that an ordinary person could afford. Seventeen four-or five-year-old children, regardless of their family background, were just ordinary children, it was also not something that anyone could afford

Moreover, in such an aristocratic kindergarten, which child in it was not wealthy, was not born rich, and was not the only child in the family.

"What did you say?" Gao Yuling suddenly stood up, his hand tightly gripping the phone in his hand.

"Enron kindergarten is on fire, and there are still seventeen children trapped inside?"

At this moment, one of his hands was propped on the table, and his face instantly turned pale, scaring his secretary.

"Which class are you from, do you know?"

Gao Yuling tried his best to keep his tone calm, but his chest, which was trembling violently, could be seen. His uneasiness and fear.

It was from the small class one.

When the person on the other side asked the teachers present, he hurriedly answered.

"Small class one."

Gao Yuling simply couldn't believe what he had heard.

Little Class One?

That was his daughter, his Little Mei's class.

"Mayor..." the secretary at the side hurriedly supported Gao Yuling, whose body was on the verge of collapsing. He was also shocked. Although he wasn't the one who answered the phone, he could tell, there was a fire in a kindergarten, and this kindergarten was none other than the mayor's daughter. Others might not know about the kindergarten where Little Mei was, but he knew, the mayor's only daughter was there.

The mayor was almost forty years old, and he only had one child. He usually took good care of the child. He had met Xiaomei a few times, and she was a very obedient and shy little girl.

The mayor's wife, Meiru, had always been in poor health because she was an old woman giving birth. If something really happened to the child, the mayor's lover would not be able to bear it.

"I'm fine." The mayor stood still and stabilized his body. His eyes were red and his heart was filled with anxiety. He wished that he could fly to the kindergarten right now. He hoped that he had heard wrong.

It was not the kindergarten, not the class, and not his Xiaomei. However, he had heard it clearly just now. It was his Xiaomei's class, and it was his daughter's school.

"Do we have any more schedules?" He sat down again, but his hands were shaking so much that he couldn't even take out a pen.

The secretary couldn't bear it. He lowered his head and looked at the work list in his hand.

"Mayor, you have an important meeting in a while."

Okay, I got it. Gao Yuling took his phone again. He had a meeting, but what about the kindergarten?

"Mayor, we should go to the kindergarten now. The meeting can be temporarily closed."

The secretary couldn't bear it. And really, no matter how big the meeting was, how could it be more important than the children? It wasn't just one child, there were nearly twenty children.

The document that Gao Yuling had just picked up fell to the ground again. He actually didn't dare to go. He also didn't dare to look at the burned kindergarten and the small bodies of the children.

They were all four-year-old children, and his Xiaomei had just celebrated her fourth birthday.

At this moment, the parents had rushed over, and what awaited them was not a miracle, but despair.

Ye Shuyun and Lu Jin had arrived. They stared blankly at the burnt kindergarten in front of them. The fire was still burning, and the red light reflected on their faces, making them look exceptionally cruel.

"My grandson, my grandson..." Ye Shuyun was about to run into the fire, but a barrier had been set up in front, blocking everyone outside.

Lu Jin hugged Ye Shuyun tightly. His face was pale and he was afraid of the fire in front of him. His eyes were already red, hot, and painful. His three little grandsons were all inside.

There were three of them in his family. There were three of them. There were three children.

At this moment, the scene was filled with the desperate cries of the parents.

Mao Xiaoqian's mother also stumbled over.

"My Son, where is my son? where is my family's Xiaoqian?" Regardless of her character, she was only a mother now. What she wanted was the same as everyone else. She was worried, she was also in despair.

"Mommy, Mommy..."

At this moment, Mao Xiaoqian's mother suddenly widened her eyes. She couldn't believe what she heard.

This was her son's voice. Was it really her son's?

"Little Qian, Little Qian..."

Mao Xiaoqian's mother shouted her son's name loudly. Her voice was almost torn apart.

"Mom..." Mao Xiaoqian saw his mother coming and quickly ran out. He also hugged his mother's leg

Mao Xiaoqian's mother squatted down and hugged her son, crying loudly.

Mao Xiaoqian was probably the only one alive among these children. When the living aunt found out that the fire was burning, it was already too late, so she could only carry a child and run away, this child was Mao Xiaoqian. It had to be said that although Mao Xiaoqian's family background was not as good as other children, his luck was very good.

When Mei Ru came out of the car and saw the kindergarten that was almost completely burned by the fire, her vision suddenly darkened. If it were not for the nanny beside her holding her..., she might have fallen to the ground and couldn't get up again.

"Xiao Mei, Xiao Mei, where is my little elder?"

Mei Ru stumbled forward and almost fell to the ground several times. When the nanny behind her saw that the kindergarten was burned to ashes, she wanted to cry in despair and curse.

Such a good, obedient child, how could he..

What kind of kindergarten was this? What kind of lousy kindergarten was this, didn't they say that it was a noble kindergarten? Didn't they say that safety was first? Didn't they say that every child could grow up peacefully.

But now, what was safe? Safe my ass.

At this moment, everyone around was panicking. There were already many luxury cars coming from outside, and they could see many people who rarely appeared.

If they knew each other, they would be able to recognize that these people were all famous people of Hai City. They stared at everything in front of them with their mouths agape, but they didn't have any reaction.

Lu Yi stopped the car. At this time, there were already many cars. The speed of the cars was very slow, and they were probably stuck in traffic.

Chapter 2100: Would be safe?

Up ahead, the car simply could not drive past them. And now, they were very far away from the kindergarten where the accident had occurred. But even so, they could still see the flames that soared into the sky, there was also the thick smell of smoke that could almost be smelled at that moment.

Lu Yi tightened his grip on the steering wheel. He turned around and saw Yan Huan staring blankly ahead. His hands had unknowingly pinched the skin in his palms.

Lu Yi could not be the same as before, telling her not to be afraid. Everything was fine. The children would be fine.

No one could say it either.

And no one could guarantee it.

“Let’s go down.” Lu Yi stopped the car. He reached out and placed his hand on Yan Huan’s face. Ever since Yan Huan found out about this, she had not said a single word.

She could not say it. It was as though she had lost her voice.

She turned around and looked at Lu Yi. Perhaps she was waiting for something?

Perhaps she was waiting for Lu Yi to say that it would be fine.

However, Lu Yi had never said anything like that.

She moved her red lips, but she could only taste the taste of despair.

Her children, her three children..

Lu Yi opened the car door and let Yan Huan Out. When Yan Huan’s feet touched the ground, her body leaned forward and almost fell to the ground.

Lu Yi held onto Yan Huan and pressed his hands hard on her shoulders.

At this moment, he was at his strongest. Yan Huan did not struggle. No matter how painful it was, she did not struggle. It was as if she was dead and did not feel any pain, Lu Yi’s fingers were about to pierce into her flesh.

There were also many reporters and onlookers around.

“Yan Huan, it’s Yan Huan!”

One of the reporters spotted Yan Huan with his sharp eyes. When the others heard Yan Huan’s name, they almost screamed out loud.

However, no one dared to step forward. They saw Yan Huan walking into the police line. Lu Yi said something to the firefighters. Only then did the firefighters let them in. However, the other unrelated people.., they could only wait here and watch from afar as the flames soared into the sky. Only then could they roughly understand how big the fire was. Moreover, the fire had already burned for so long. Even the tall buildings had been burnt to the point that only the frames were left, moreover, that was only a kindergarten. It was not considered a tall building or anything like that.

The sudden fire at a kindergarten in Hai City had shocked the entire country at a terrifying speed. It was not just because the nature of the fire was too terrible, it was also because most of the children were children of famous people. Yan Huan had also appeared here, so everyone guessed that Yan Huan’s children were among them.

Yan Huan was very famous. This was also the helplessness of a celebrity. Her every move controlled the public’s view. Everyone also knew that Yan Huan had three children, they were a pair of triplets.

Among them, the girl had acted in many movies. That child was extremely beautiful and looked like her mother. Of course, her acting skills were good too. At such a young age, she already had some experience, if it wasn't for the fact that Yan Huan didn't want his daughter to develop in such a circle, perhaps this child was already a child star that everyone knew

If Yan Huan's children were all here, then it could only be said that this was a disaster that had fallen from the heavens.

In an instant, it was possible that all three children would be gone.

Lu Yi pushed aside the crowd and brought Yan Huan over. From Afar, they could only hear the sounds. However, once they entered, they saw that more than half of the kindergarten had been burnt to the ground and that almost all of its bones had been burned, it was also a building that was beyond recognition. Even their hearts were filled with complete despair.

Other than a few children who went out to work and a child who was carried out by a life teacher, all seventeen children were inside. All the parents were blocked outside the fire line and no one could enter, they could only see a kindergarten that was about to be turned into ruins from here. In a short while, there might be the corpses of the children that were carried over.

Yan Huan squatted down. She couldn't even cry.

She was scared. She was so scared that she didn't even have a soul left. She was so scared that she couldn't even cry.

Lu Yi also squatted down and hugged her tightly. What should he do? Yes, what should he do? No matter how omnipotent he was, no matter how successful he was, the current him was completely useless.

The fire was still burning. Even if he wanted to rush in, it was impossible. This was the first time he realized how useless he was. He couldn't even save his own child.

"I'll go take a look." Lu Yi took off his clothes and stood up. He went forward, but someone quickly grabbed him.

"Lu Yi, don't go over."

It was Lei Qingyi. He had come over early in the morning, but the place was already..

Lei Qingyi had come earlier than Lu Yi. He had thought of going in to look for someone the moment he entered, but the fire was too big. He did not know what was flammable inside, and the fire was very difficult to extinguish.

And now that the fire had burned to such a state, the children inside..

Actually, everyone knew that with such a big fire, they could not even enter, so how could they escape? The structure of this kindergarten was very strange, and it was also because the children were not very sensible, so there were some places.., only children could enter. This was also the most difficult place in the entire rescue. A few safety passageways were also closed because of the teachers having a meeting.

Every time she thought of this, Lei Qingyi had the urge to strangle the teachers. were they idiots or idiots? Teachers? Why didn't they have any common sense at all.

How could the safe passages be closed? They had all grown up and had their own homes. They had lived long enough. However, how old were they when they entered those children? They were only three or four years old.

When he thought of Xiao Qi Xiaoguang and the soft and cute Little Xun Xun, his heart ached. His nose also turned sour, and he had the urge to kill.

"You should go and see her first. Her condition is very bad."

Lei Qingyi forcefully squeezed back his tears. He was referring to Yan Huan. Yan Huan was the child's mother. If something happened to all three children, Yan Huan would definitely go crazy.

Lu Yi's body stiffened. He turned around and walked towards Yan Huan step by step.

Then, he gently hugged Yan Huan's shoulders

Yan Huan opened her mouth. She wanted Lu Yi's promise.

The child will be fine, right?

The child will be safe, right?

The child will return to their side, okay?
