

Chapter 2111:

The Bald Man counted all the money and threw it aside.

“I’ll give you three more chances.” He took another drag of his cigarette and knocked some Ash off the wall. Then, he coldly swept his gaze over the others.

“If you still can’t give me the amount I want the day after tomorrow, then be careful of your legs. I don’t mind letting you crawl over there to ask for money, as long as you’re willing.”

That sentence of crawling over made many people feel their scalps go numb. They couldn’t help but look at their legs. If these people said that they were going to beat someone up, they would really beat them up, they had never treated them as if they had been beaten up before. They could beat them up and scold them as they pleased. Today, they could beat their flesh, and tomorrow, they could break their legs.

They really had to crawl to beg for food.

Changsheng limped into his own bed. In fact, it was just a ground bed. The ground bed was still the same as when he left, and the quilt was also thrown to the side. It was not that he did not want to have a quilt, it was just that no one here had the time to fold a quilt. Who were they? How could they fold a quilt? They were also particular about personal hygiene.

If they really paid attention to this and that, how could they still be beggars?

He pulled open the quilt. It was a big bed. There were many people sleeping on the floor. Some were asleep, some were not. Some were already snoring, and some were picking their noses out of boredom.

Compared to being in prison, these people were in prison. At the very least, they could eat in prison. They also had human rights. However, in this place, as long as they were beggars for a day.., they would definitely be beggars for the rest of their lives until they died. Their deaths might happen on the streets one day. They would die just like that. There would be no one to collect their corpses.

Even if they lived on their last breath, they would also live without respect.

Wherever their respect was, their respect was eaten by dogs.

Even the dogs raised by rich people were better off than them.

When he slept until the second half of the night, Changsheng heard someone talking outside. He carefully stood up and walked out with light steps, trying his best not to notice any sound. The soundproofing here was not very good.., everything was connected. Actually, there was no need to deliberately listen to anything. One could still hear the voices of people talking.

This time, it was a few more people. A sinister voice rang out, causing Changsheng to involuntarily shiver.

Changsheng could not be more familiar with this voice, because the person who spoke was none other than the first person he had met when he first arrived here. At that time, he and a few other young men from the village., they had all come here full of hope. They also thought that they would be able to return in glory in the future. It did not matter even if they had to work a little harder. As long as there was money to be earned, as long as they could make their families' lives a little better., they could do it no matter how hard or tired they were. Even if they could not rest for a day, they could still endure it.

At that time, it was this boss who had received them. This was the rich boss that Jingen had mentioned.

This boss used a strange mandarin. It was unknown whether he was from China or not. He had a somewhat uncouth air about him. However, it made these rural people who had not seen the world believe that this was the real big boss., this was a rich big boss, and when he spoke to them, he always used this voice.

On the one hand, he dispelled their worries and blew his own trumpet. The Big Boss said that they didn't even need to work and could get a lot of money. In a few years'time., they could return to the village to build a house, or they could save up a lot of money.

Jin Gen arranged for them to rest in one place. The bedding inside was ready-made. Although they did not have a bed to sleep in, it was only temporary because the big boss had said that they had come too quickly, jin Gen did not give any notice in advance. Jin Gen also slapped himself in the face. The pleasant words that came out of his mouth were also spoken one by one. He did not know how an uncultured person like him could be so eloquent, how could he suddenly be so eloquent? If his mouth was smooth, it was almost possible to say that the red ones were black and the black ones were white., it also caused Changsheng and the others to begin to envy Jin Gen's mouth.

Although he did not have much culture, he could speak well. It was no wonder that the villagers said that Jin Gen had the ability. Just by looking at his mouth, he was able to coax that big boss into submission., they knew that Jin Gen was not lying. He was indeed a big star in front of the Big Boss. Look at the expensive cigarettes that he took out from his body at any time, and the gold necklace that was as thick as a dog chain around his neck, there were also a few gold rings on his fingers. This was the appearance of a rich man. Everyone in their village wore gold and silver.

If anyone in the village had something good, they would want to let the entire village know how much money they had on them and what they had on their fingers. If they ate meat today, they would still eat meat the next day. It was so trivial, the things that shook the village were also there.

For example, whoever built a small foreign house would be the first in the village.

And Jingen was not the first. Moreover, Liu Fang's older brother, who worked for five or six years outside, did not earn as much as Jingen. If he did well, Jingen's mouth would open.

He would become a big star in front of the boss.

Not to mention them, even Changsheng was secretly excited. This boss should be very rich, so he would not default on their wages.

It was only later that they realized that they had really thought things too simply. They had also thought too well of that Big Boss.

There were too many rich people outside. The Golden Dog chain on the big boss's neck could also be fake. Moreover, the big boss in front of them was wearing a suit. If this was placed outside, he would be the representative of a nouveau riche, he had no temperament, no image, and he didn't look like a successful person.

But they didn't know that.

They were blind.

They were stupid.

On the first day, they were still a little proud. They were also glad that they came. Of course, in the future, they would be like Jin Gen, earning a lot of money, and then they could bring the money home, they would let everyone in their family live a good life.

Moreover, it seemed that the big boss had never told them to build a building. As long as it was not a beast building, it was possible that they were working in a factory. Changsheng also had this thought in his heart.

When he had come, he had specifically asked around. He said that when they had come, they should have been working in that factory.

The work they did was also piecework. The more they did, the more they got. Of course, the more they did, the more they earned.

Chapter 2112: eat as much as you want

Of course, what he wasn't afraid of the most was working. He had a lot of strength. As long as he was given more money, he could do whatever he wanted. In the future, he would have to get up early and work in the dark. He would have to put in a bit more effort than others, this would also earn him some money.

If he made one Yuan a day, as long as he made a hundred a day, wouldn't that be a hundred yuan? This Hundred Yuan would be enough for his family to eat for a long time. If it was a hundred a day every month.., then he could get more than three thousand a month. More than three thousand.

Three thousand a month. In a year, wouldn't that be thirty-six thousand? At this rate, as long as he worked hard and worked hard for two or three years, he would have nearly a hundred thousand yuan in his hands. With this hundred thousand yuan.., he couldn't do anything in the future.

That night, he couldn't sleep no matter how much he tossed and turned. He was living a good life that would make him stand out in the future.

He knew that the process might not be that smooth. Of course, he did not have the eloquent mouth of Jin Gen, nor did he have the good luck of Jin gen. he could become a big star in front of the boss. As long as he moved his lips.., he would be able to gain the favor of the big boss. Of course, the money would also be in his hands.

Changsheng had never had such thoughts.

He had to rely on his own hands to earn money. He did not have much culture. He had only studied for a few days and could recognize a few words. His mouth was also very stupid, but he was someone who could endure hardships. He had hands and feet, and he also had strength, although he was not smart, he was solid and practical. As long as he did well, he would definitely be able to earn money.

“Changsheng, what do you think we’re here for?”

The young man from the same village asked Changsheng. He was actually quite uncertain. However, although he was uncertain, he did not have much worry in his heart. After all, there was still Jingen. It seemed that Jingen was quite familiar with the big boss, as long as Jingen said a few good words to the big boss, then they could find some relatively easy and good jobs that could earn money. No matter what, they would all belong to the same village. They would not take care of the same village, who would they be taking care of, right?

“I don’t know.” Changsheng shook his head. He truly did not know, but no matter what kind of work was arranged for us, we just had to do it properly.

“Didn’t you say that we would be farming?”

The other young man thought that he could not fall asleep, so he immediately sat up. This was a new place, and he still had to get used to it. Moreover, his heart was currently filled with excitement, he really could not fall asleep.

“I don’t want to farm.” The young man who asked Changsheng laid down again and placed his arm behind his head, “I’ve been farming at home for more than twenty years. I really don’t want to be exposed to the soil every day. Even if I were to plant something in the soil, it would be annoying.”

He liked the appearance of the Big Boss. When he earned money, he would dress up like that and let his mother live a good life with him. The village was really too poor. It was so poor that he could not even afford a wife, this time, he had to earn more money.

It was best not to farm anymore. He could do whatever he wanted.

“Changsheng, what about you? What kind of work do you want to Do?”

The two young men looked at Changsheng and asked. Among them, he was the oldest, and he was the most steady in doing things. Of course, they had to discuss things with him.

This was clearly the big brother that they had tacitly acknowledged.

As for Jingen, for some reason, he was always distant. Perhaps it was because they did not talk properly on a normal day, but their relationship with Changsheng was very good, they could be said to be good friends who grew up together with their butts bare.

Naturally, this was different from Jingen. Changsheng was on the same level as them, and they were also on the same level. Perhaps it was because they were not capable.., as for the golden roots, they were all shining brilliantly. In their eyes, they were a level higher than them. This high-level person was not easy to deal with.

Changsheng also sat up, unable to fall asleep. It was unknown who had covered this blanket in the past. It had a pungent smell, and it did not smell good either. There was a musty smell and a damp smell, and the smell of sweat.

In fact, he did not care too much about these things. After all, it was impossible for them to be at home every time they went out. The worse the conditions were, the worse the conditions were. Moreover, Jingen had also said that they needed a few days earlier than the agreed time, that was why their dormitories had not been prepared for them. They had let them stay here for a few days before deciding. When the dormitories over there were ready, they would move over.

However, Changsheng clearly remembered that on the way there, Jin Gen's mouth was full of curses. What was wrong with this car? Did It know how to drive? Did It not know how to walk? It had delayed their journey., it had delayed them by a few days. If the boss blamed them, none of them would be able to shoulder such responsibility.

They hurried over. Jin Gen had also cursed the entire way, and finally arrived here. But now, he was telling them that they had arrived a little too early. Even the dormitories had not been prepared for them.

Wasn't this self-contradictory?

However, he thought about it and could understand a little. After all, they had to be careful when making a living under other people's hands. They were the only ones who waited for their boss. There was no reason for the boss to wait for them.

Therefore, it was not wrong for Jin Gen to be anxious all the way.

And he did not take this matter to heart. Of course, none of them had slept well all the way here. The main reason was because they had bunked up on the floor. The bed was hard, and the smell was very unpleasant.

Although they were not picky people, this new environment was so bad. They were still not used to it. Of course, they had things on their minds, so during the night., the few of them probably did not sleep for the entire night.

For this new place, and for the new life that they would soon have.

Although they did not see anything now, there was more hope.

And Jingen would not harm them. They were all from the same village.

However, they did not know that not long after, their so-called hope had turned into despair. And that fellow villager who was the least likely to harm them had finally pushed them all to Hell

Early the next morning, Jin Gen came over and said that he was going to take them to eat. Also, the food here was free. Their big boss was kind and treated his employees like brothers. They ate three meals a day and were fully fed, they were also free.

Jin Gen took them to the dining room. The food left was not bad, but the inside was clean. There were more than a dozen tables and chairs that were neatly arranged.

Jingen ordered a lot of food for them, and the table was full.

Chapter 2113: drawing a large pancake

“There’s no need for so many, right?” Changsheng felt that there were too many dishes. Along the way, they were afraid of spending money, so they ate the pancakes they had brought. Last night, when they were hungry, they ate the pancakes with running water, now, they had been obedient for more than half a day.

They were indeed hungry, but they really didn’t need so many dishes or so much meat. They only needed one vegetable dish and a few steamed buns. There were so many dishes.., it would be too much of a waste for just the few of them, and they wouldn’t be able to finish them all.

The others said the same thing. They felt that there were too many dishes, and they were all kinds of meat, fish, chicken, and so on. The dishes were all very heavy, and they were very oily.

“You will eat like this in the future. Let Go of your bellies and eat. Our Big Boss is kind and treats you as brothers.” Jin Gen put one foot on the chair and the other on the ground, he also took the chopsticks and occasionally knocked his big yellow teeth against the ground. He did not know if he used his hand to block it properly. He was not disgusted, but he did not think about whether other people were so disgusted that they could not eat.

Changsheng heard his stomach growl. He rubbed his stomach in embarrassment. He wanted to dig a hole to clean himself up, but in a short while.., he heard the growling of his stomach.

Fortunately, he was not too embarrassed.

He placed his hand on his knee and told himself that he could not lose anyone here. It was also possible that the big boss was nearby to see if they could work, his hands and feet were clean.

He took pity on them and brought out a large bucket of rice.

Jingen picked his teeth and then pointed at the rice in the large bucket. Go and get your own rice. Don’t be polite, eat as much as you want.

The few young lads were still embarrassed, and none of them left their chairs.

“Go, Changsheng.”

Jingen gave Changsheng a look, letting Changsheng take the lead.

Changsheng hesitated for a moment before standing up. He picked up the bowl on the table, but his hands kept trembling. Even the rice could not be scooped into the bowl. It was not easy for him to scoop half a bowl of rice for himself.., however, he was already sweating profusely, and beads of sweat kept falling down.

Changsheng took his rice and sat down. The others waited for a while before finally standing up one by one and scooping the rice for themselves. However, they were still a little reserved, so they did not act like they did at home, as long as it was time to eat, they would definitely get themselves a bowl full of sharp rice.

They were all young men, and what they usually did in the fields was heavy work. Of course, they also ate a lot at home. Now, all of them were like big girls, looking more delicate.

On a large table, there were all kinds of dishes, and more than half of them were meat dishes. However, Changsheng and the others did not move a single chopstick. Jin genbing placed his feet down and picked up the largest bowl, he scooped up a beautiful bowl of white rice for himself. Of course, he also pressed it down very firmly. Then, he placed one of his feet on the stool and picked up his chopsticks. He picked up several kinds of meat dishes for himself, then, he wolfed them down.

“You guys eat.” Jin genbing’s mouth was full of meat, and his mouth was also full of oil. “These dishes are very expensive. If you guys don’t eat them, you can only throw them away. What a waste.”

The people in the village were all very practical. Of course, they also cherished their food very much. They would not casually waste their food. Moreover, throwing away such a good dish was simply digging up their meat., how much heartache was this.

Changsheng carefully picked up a piece of meat and placed it in his bowl. He gently took a bite. The meat was very tender, and the taste was very delicious. Almost all the delicious food made him bite off his tongue, it had been a long time since he had eaten such delicious meat. No, it was because he had never eaten such delicious meat in his entire life.

It was such a pity. He continued to chew on the meat in his mouth, thinking about his mother and Xiaoyan who were still at home.

It would be great if his mother and Xiaoyan could eat a piece of meat. It had also been a long time since the two of them had eaten meat.

However, there was no rush. He would be able to bring them over next year when his conditions were better. At that time, their family would be able to eat such delicious meat every day. They would also be able to spend an inexhaustible amount of money.

He picked up another piece of meat. At first, he was a little embarrassed. It was as if he had picked up an extra piece of meat, others would see it and look down on him. Even though they did not steal or snatch it., but in their hearts, they still felt a little strange.

But as they ate and ate, everyone let go. The dishes on the table went down very quickly. After all, they were all young men. As long as they let go of their bellies, the dishes on this table were actually not enough to eat.

Very soon, the dishes on this table were almost finished. and the few of them also ate until their mouths were full of oil. Their bellies were about to be full.

After they finished eating, Jingen gave each of them a box of foreign stuff.

It was cigarettes.

In fact, cigarettes were sold everywhere outside. Basically, every man could smoke. However, because their village was poor, the most expensive cigarettes in the grocery store cost five Yuan, and this five yuan was enough for them to buy about two catties of rice, so no one would spend this money to smoke.

Jingen actually threw a box of cigarettes to them each. Moreover, the cigarettes were not cheap either. They seemed to cost dozens of yuan each box.

They returned to the place where they were sleeping. When Jingen sent them there, he turned around and was about to leave.

“Jingen,” changsheng suddenly called Jingen’s name.

“What’s wrong? Do you have something to do?” Jingen himself was also smoking. He put the cigarette in his mouth and took a puff. A cigarette rolled out of his nose. He seemed to be enjoying it very much.

Of course, if he did this, people in their village would say that he was powerful, rich, and had status.

“Jin Gen, when do you think we can work?”

Changsheng always felt that something was not right. They were allowed to live here, to live, and to eat. Moreover, there were so many good things to eat, but they were not allowed to work. What kind of logic was this.

No matter how good the boss was, he would not support them for nothing, right?

The boss was making money, not supporting them for charity.

“This...” Jingen took another puff of his cigarette, “Do you still need to worry about not having any work to do? “I’ve already said it. Our boss is a good person, and he treats everyone as his own brothers. The Boss said that you guys are the ones who came here, and you are not suitable for the soil here. He will let you adapt for a few days first.”

Chapter 2114: Big Pie, so big

“In this way, everyone’s health will be better, and it won’t be easy for them to get sick. The boss himself will also save a lot of trouble. Otherwise, if you were to enter the hospital, wouldn’t you be causing trouble for the boss? “When you have rested well, it will be easy for you to find work. Our boss has a big business, and he has assets all over the country. He also has money-making jobs on his hands. As long as you are willing, it is no problem for you to get three to four thousand a month. If you are more diligent, you might be able to get more than ten thousand.”

The words ‘over ten thousand’ almost caused the few young men to gasp. Over ten thousand, Oh God, over ten thousand. How many of these were worth a hundred yuan? In the past, when they were in the village, if they wanted to earn back this over ten thousand yuan., it would take a few years and how many eggs they would have to sell. However, they were actually able to earn over ten thousand Yuan in a month. If they could earn over ten thousand Yuan in a month, then they would be able to earn a hundred thousand Yuan in a year, at that time, they could open a small shop in their county town, and they could do business.

“Ten Thousand Yuan?” Changsheng was also scared out of his wits. Could they really earn ten thousand yuan? He couldn’t believe it. They could actually earn over ten thousand Yuan in a month.

“Of course.” Jingen exhaled another puff of smoke. “This isn’t something that doesn’t happen. Last month, there were a few people who finally got a salary of over ten thousand yuan. Of course, they worked overtime for a very long time.”

“The boss said that there are only eight hours of work a day. In addition to the salary, the boss will also pay you with that kind of pension insurance. These are all things that only the people in the city have. In the future, when you are old, the country will still give you money. No More, no less. It is absolutely necessary to give you two thousand yuan.”

Jin Gen was very satisfied with everyone’s excitement and excitement. No matter how much they drew the pie, the pie was getting bigger and bigger. In the end, they were all boasting, “Other than eight hours, I’ll have to calculate overtime pay for you. It’s twenty dollars an hour.”

He stretched out his finger and made a two-word sign, “Do the math. If you add five hours of work on this day, you won’t be able to earn a hundred dollars. “A hundred dollars a day, a month, that’s three thousand dollars. If you work harder and add ten hours of work, you’ll be able to earn two hundred dollars a day just for overtime pay. In a month, that’s six thousand dollars. Plus your own salary, if this goes on for a month, you’ll be a little short of ten thousand dollars in the end.”

Although Jin Gen didn’t go to school, he didn’t lose out to others when he counted the money.

It was a few hundred overtime pay per day. As long as he worked for more than ten hours, would he be afraid of not making money?

When the young men heard this, they were so excited that they were about to scream. Ten Thousand Yuan. It was really ten thousand yuan.

Yes, it was just that much. Moreover, Jin Gen was speaking with reason and evidence. If he were to take this kind of calculation, he would be able to get ten thousand yuan.

As long as he was not afraid of hardship, as long as he was not afraid of tiredness, as long as he could work for a few more days, then the money he would get in one day would be a few hundred yuan.

After Jin Geng left, the few young men were still holding that piece of illusory pie and drooling. Each and every one of them was also calculating in their hearts.

There was no shadow of this money yet, but they had already calculated how to use the money.

“I want to build my house.”

“I also want to build a house.”

“I want to open a small shop in the county.”

“I don’t want to go back. The village is so poor. I will use the money to buy a house in the county and bring my parents to live in the city.”

Changsheng did not speak, nor did he join in their discussion.

It was better for him to know his own plans. If he really told them, what would happen if it did not work? Thus, he still held it in. He just had to remember it by himself.

Of course, Jin Gen had a debt, and so did he.

If he added ten hours of work a day, then he would have 100 yuan. He would have to work 24 hours a day, which was only 18 hours. If he added two more hours a day., then she would get an extra 600 yuan a month. If it wasn't for the fact that people really needed to sleep, he would want to work 24 hours a day to earn more money. He was still young and in good health., four to five hours of sleep a day was enough.

They were letting their imaginations run wild here. They also had a lot more plans for the future. When Jingen came the next day, he still took them to eat. This time, they went to a simple canteen.

Although this wasn't a big hotel outside, to them, this was already the best. It couldn't be more expensive, and they couldn't eat sumptuous meals.

They could eat meat every day now.

At night, they went there again. There was a big table full of food. There was an extra fish and a whole chicken.

"The food here is free. You Don't have to be polite. Even if you don't eat it, it will spoil and fall over. Jingen has always emphasized that these dishes are free."

However, the words 'free'made everyone afraid to make a move.

After eating this meal, they returned to the place where they were currently living, which was the bunk on the floor.

When Jingen was about to leave, he returned after a while. Only then did he speak to them with a smile. It was that smile that seemed to have other intentions, but unfortunately, no one noticed it.

"You guys just have to make do here for a few more days. Soon, your new dormitory will be ready."

"It's okay. We're not in a hurry. This place is pretty good."

A young man hurriedly stood up, indicating that he was not dissatisfied with the place he was staying at.

The others also nodded. Really, this place was not bad. As long as there was a place to sleep, it would be fine. Moreover, if they went to work in the future, it would be fine.

They all wanted to work extra hours and earn more money. They were so busy every day. 80% of them would fall asleep the moment they came back. Why? Did they still want to pick a bed? They might not even have the chance to pick a bed before they fell asleep.

Therefore, they really did not think too much about the place to live. Of course, it would be even better if the conditions were better.

Now, they all treated Jin Gen as their blood brother. As long as Jin Gen said it, they believed it without a doubt.

They believed what Jin Gen said.

They also believed what Jin Gen promised.

When Jin Gen brought them out to work, they could earn five to six thousand a month. At first, they did not fully believe it. But this time, they really believed it. Soon, they could also earn this money, it was probably more than five to six thousand.

Jin Gen said that the boss was kind and treated them like brothers. They also believed it. They hadn't seen that boss before. He was clearly dressed so well, but he helped them get rid of the dirt on their bodies, he even gave them such a delicious meal. Every meal was more than ten dishes, with meat and vegetables.

Chapter 2115: fattening up first

Jingen now said that they would soon have their new dormitory. The conditions were much better than this. Two people could sleep in a room, and there was a heater in winter, as well as a free phone call.

Changsheng pulled up the quilt and covered himself. The quilt was still hard, and there was an unknown strange smell on it. In fact, he still wanted to sleep, and he was still thinking.., what Jin Gen said, they could earn over ten thousand Yuan a month. This was something that he had never even dreamed of.

That night, he really felt that he was going to fall asleep as soon as he closed his eyes.

This was only the third day they had arrived here, and every one of them hadn't slept well in the past few days, even changsheng.

Thus, even now, they were indeed very tired, still very tired. So, after a long time, they had all fallen asleep, and the sound of their loud snoring could be heard.

And all of them were sleeping very soundly. Of course, even if someone came over now, no one would wake up. They were really too tired, they were also too excited, too excited.., but in the end, they were so tired that all they could do was sleep.

Changsheng woke up early in the morning. He rubbed his eyes. How long had He slept for? But he still didn't remember much.

Jin Gen didn't come over the whole morning, so they didn't know where to find him. The few of them squatted here, sometimes standing up, sometimes walking around, but they didn't dare to leave this place.

Someone's stomach growled.

They were all hungry.

"Let's go eat first," a young man suggested. Now that they were all here, it was not a solution. Even if they wanted to do something, they had to fill their stomachs first. If they waited for a long time, they would not have the strength to do the work, at that time, they would be letting down the big boss.

And as long as they performed a little more, they might become popular people in front of the boss in the future.

Therefore, what they needed to do now was not to think about doing anything, but to go to the canteen.

“I know the place.” A young man raised his hand. “I remember everything.”

“Liang Zi, you really are a third wheel. You even remember the way.”

The young man named Liang Zi scratched his head in embarrassment

“How am I supposed to remember the way?” The more he said, the more embarrassed he became. However, he just looked around a few more times. Therefore, every time they went to the cafeteria, they would take a few steps to the left and a few steps to the right, he remembered all the special things around him that were easy to find, so he remembered all the roads that led to the cafeteria.

He just didn’t know what Jingen had said. They could eat whatever they wanted, and they didn’t have to pay for what they wanted to eat. Was that true?

They didn’t have a job yet, so it would be fine when they worked. They had confidence now. With a monthly income of ten thousand Yuan, who would care about such a small amount of money for food.

They followed Liang Zi and sure enough, they found the canteen. It was the first time they hadn’t come with Jin Gen, so they didn’t know what they wanted, and they didn’t know if they really didn’t want money for their food.

One of the young men was so hungry that he couldn’t stand it anymore, so he went over directly.

“Auntie, give me a bowl of rice.”

There was a fat woman in the kitchen. Without a word, she scooped up a big bowl of rice for him and even asked him what kind of food he wanted?

The young man seemed to be a little shy, but in the end, he didn’t dare to ask for anything.

He stood there for a long time, but in the end, he didn’t seem to have seen anyone asking for money. He carried his own bowl and went to sit at the side. When the others saw this, they all went to ask for food for themselves. Changsheng also went, but even though it was free, but he did not ask for much. The people in the village were all solid, and they would not waste food, so what they took was enough for themselves to eat.

No matter how much they took, they did not take it. Even if they took it, they would not be able to eat it. They could not stuff themselves to death, right? As for the rest, they were not in a hurry. In any case, they had to eat the food every day.

They ate the same food every day. In just a few days, they had eaten all the food. They already knew which was good and which was not.

However, they were used to being poor and were afraid of being poor. Therefore, to them, the food in the canteen was delicious. They were not picky.

After they finished eating, they returned to the place where they had made their beds. They still waited there and did not have any work to do.

They wanted to find Jingen, but they did not know where to look. They wanted to ask someone, but they did not dare to ask because they did not know anyone. How could they ask someone they did not know.

They could only stay here for the time being. When it was time to eat, they would go to the canteen. The food in the canteen was not bad. It seemed that they had been waiting for these three meals that day, the few of them had only been here for three or four days and had already recovered. Their complexion was also better. It was just that they had no work to do every day and had to eat for free.

They felt that they were not here to work, but to be pigs.

They were all young men from the real city. They did not have the nerve to take advantage of others. They were not like Jin Gen, who was in the village. It had always been natural for him to take other people's things. Therefore, there were some things now..., jin Gen could do it, but others could not.

They continued to eat and sleep like this until the fifth day, when Jin Gen said that their dormitory had been arranged.

And they were all rubbing their fists happily. This meant that they could work now.

In fact, it did not matter whether they changed places or not. They had all stayed here for a few days and did not seem to feel anything wrong. They could still tolerate it, but when they earned money..., then they would just have to buy a good bed and cover it.

They were really not picky. They were not picky at all.

A few young men carried their luggage and followed behind Jin Gen. However, they didn't realize that the people in the kitchen were sympathetic and pitiful towards them.

With a bang, the chef stabbed the knife in his hand on the chopping board.

He was about to become fat. If he became fat, he could be slaughtered and eaten.

Jin Gen brought the few young men with their luggage and arrived at the dormitory that was arranged for them

In the end, it was an accident. They thought it was like other people's dormitory, but it was not like this one. Although there was nothing in the dormitory, it was very clean, even the bunk beds seemed to be new. Moreover, it was not a two-person room, but a one-person room.

Jingen opened a small door. This was the toilet. You know how to use it, right? The toilet bowl. As long as you used it, you could flush it with water.

Chapter 2116: doing nothing

"Am I the only one living here?"

Changsheng didn't even know where to place his hands, and the luggage was still on his back. It seemed to be weightless. He still couldn't believe that this was the place he would live in the future, and it was such a good place.

Each person had a room, and they even brought a toilet. However, wasn't it strange that this toilet was installed in the place where they slept? However, he heard that the people in the city were all like this.

The place where the people in the city lived was small. Sometimes, the place where they ate was opposite the toilet.

"Didn't I already say that our boss treats you like a brother?" Jin Gen extended his hand and patted Changsheng's shoulder. "Am I right? I brought you here to enjoy your lives. This dormitory was arranged for you by the boss on account of me. If it wasn't for me, how could you eat so much meat, live in such a good dormitory, and earn so much money?"

"Jingen, thank you. I will definitely repay you in the future."

Changsheng's gratitude was displayed on his face, but he also remembered it in his heart. The honest him did not notice the gleeful and scheming glint in Jingen's eyes. There were also some other things that he did not know at the moment, he did not know at all. By the time he knew, it would already be too late.

As for this single dormitory, to them, it was novel, satisfying, and even more satisfying. This was their next home. After Jingen left., only then did he put down his luggage and walked into the small washroom. There didn't seem to be any other odors. He took out a basin and then found a rag, then, he rolled up his sleeves and prepared to clean up the place where he was going to live in the future. They had lived here for a few days, so they knew how to use this kind of faucet. Of course, they also knew how to use the toilet bowl, although they still felt that squatting was more comfortable than sitting, it was because the city knew how to enjoy it. They had to sit even when they took a dump. It was just that when they came here, they used this kind of thing, why did it always feel weird? Sometimes, they couldn't even take a shit.

Now that it was better and they were used to it, it still felt weird. Anyway, sitting down was not as comfortable as squatting. Moreover, there was a toilet in the sleeping area, which was more convenient., however, he still felt that he would never get used to the toilet that the people in the city used.

However, no matter how unaccustomed he was, it still required a process. He knew this.

Moreover, other than the fact that the toilet was inside the house, which he could not accept, the other places were the best. He immediately fell in love with them, especially this small house. It was still quite clean, it seemed that no one had lived in it before. He carefully cleaned the entire house. Even the floor was cleaned by him kneeling on the ground and using a cloth to wipe it off bit by bit.

This would be his own place from now on, so it naturally had to be clean. When everything was cleaned up, a few young men from the same village also came over to ask Changsheng to go eat.

When they said that they had gotten a new dormitory, they were all very curious.

"What do you think the people in this city are thinking?"

Liangzi just felt that it was strange. Why did they have to put the toilet in the house? Did they not find it smelly?

"I heard others say it before. The other young man answered. He said that the people in the city all lived like this. The people in the city also had a small space, so the place where they cooked was together with the latrine."

When Changsheng heard this, he always felt a little strange. In any case, if he were to buy a house in the city in the future, he would definitely not buy a house with a kitchen and a latrine.

When they arrived at the canteen, the canteen was also new. Jingen had brought them here, and it was not far. Perhaps it was because after they had eaten the food here a few times, there was nothing to be embarrassed about, they ate whatever they wanted, and their appetite was also very good. Moreover, they could all eat meat. If they were in the village, they might only have a meal of meat during the New Year, moreover, it was all minced meat, not sliced meat. However, it was different here. They could eat meat every day, and it was the kind of meat that was prepared in large chunks. Of course, they could also eat chicken sometimes, they had never seen other meat like beef, let alone eating it into their stomachs.

The food in the new canteen was very good, but they were still not assigned anything to do.

"Changsheng, what do you mean by their food?" Liangzi had obviously eaten too much, and even his stomach was bulging.

"I don't know." Changsheng shook his head. "Maybe they think we're too thin, so they raised us first."

"I think so too." Liangzi touched his stomach. "But why do I feel like they're raising pigs? They won't fatten us up and then eat us again, right?"

Liang Zi's work made Changsheng shudder for some reason.

Everyone said that it was cold on the mountain, but why did he feel that the city wasn't that warm.

He walked into his place and sat on the bed, but he didn't know what to do now. Their days were like raising pigs. They ate, slept, and ate when they woke up, even if they wanted to go outside, they could not. Jingen had said that there was nothing outside, and they had just arrived. If they went out, they might not even be able to find their way back.

Changsheng lay on the new wooden bed, but he suddenly remembered something. He quickly picked himself up and walked to the small table inside. The small table had been wiped clean by him, even the legs of the table were spotless.

He pulled open the drawer and there was a box of cigarettes inside. This box of cigarettes was given to them by Jingen. He said that it was for them to smoke.

However, Changsheng had never smoked before, so he didn't know how to smoke?

He picked up the cigarette box and carefully pulled out a cigarette from inside and put it in his mouth. In the end, he smoked for two days, but there was no taste. After half a day, he patted his head, only then did he remember that Jingen only smoked after he lit it. Even if he had never eaten meat, could it be that he had never seen a pig run away.

Of course, this cigarette was smoked when it was lit, but where could he find a fire? Oh right, Jingen seemed to have given them a lighter, but the lighter was more high-end. He didn't know where he put it, and he also heard that.., this lighter was dangerous, so he didn't put it in the drawer. Otherwise, he would have to worry about it every day. What if one day, the lighter exploded?

And he remembered that it seemed that he had put the lighter outside.

Chapter 2117: the so-called medical examination

He opened the door and searched for a long time outside. Finally, he found a lighter on the windowsill, the one he had left here.

He took the lighter in and pressed it. There was no fire. He pressed it again. When the flame came out, he almost didn't throw the lighter on the ground. He thought.., this thing was really good. If he took it back and lit a fire, it would not be so troublesome. The villagers now used matches, and the villagers were used to borrowing a fire, they did not need to go to someone's stove to borrow a fire or something.

He gritted his teeth and struck the lighter again. The first time he was afraid, but the second time, it was much better. He tried it a few times in a row, and it was easy to use. Of course, he was not so afraid.

He took out another cigarette from the cigarette box, and then imitated the golden root. He picked up the cigarette with his two fingers, and then lit it with the lighter. Only then did he put the cigarette to his mouth, but after taking a puff, he coughed hard, almost coughing up his lungs.

What was that smell?

Changsheng did not dare to smoke. Perhaps he did not have the ability to smoke.

He put out the cigarette, put it back into the cigarette box, and placed the lighter on the windowsill.

However, he did not understand why Jingen liked to smoke. Not to mention Jingen, even that Kid Liang Zi had learned to smoke.

Liang Zi said that people all smoked like this. If they learned how to smoke, then they would look like city people. Look at how Jingen dressed in Western clothes, a suit and tie, and also knew how to smoke, he was a living city person.

Liang Zi said that when they had money in the future, they would also be city people, so they had to learn how to smoke. However, Changsheng didn't feel that this was very good. If they had to be like this, then they would be city people.., in that case, he would still treat them as mountain people.

He laid down again and placed his arm behind his head. He did not know how the situation at home was. However, regardless of whether it was his mother or Xiaoyan, he was not worried, it was a pity that his land had been abandoned. If he did not come out, then those lands would have been planted with something. He was now at home serving these lands, and not living in a single room here, and eating good food.

He clenched his fists tightly. The lives of the people in the city were good. He had to do well. When the time came, he would pick up his mother and bring her here to enjoy her life.

In the future, he would be more efficient in logistics and sleep less. It was not a big deal. To the people in their village, it was common to get up early and go to bed late. Therefore, he was not worried at all that he would not be able to endure the hardship, as long as there was money for him to earn, he wasn't worried at all that he wouldn't be able to persevere.

No matter how tiring the work was, he would definitely be able to do it well.

At that time, he would have to work an hour more than others, so he wouldn't be able to earn a few hundred yuan more. With these few hundred yuan, he would be able to go out and buy a lot of things.

They stayed like this for a few more days, but they still had nothing to do. Sometimes, Changsheng couldn't help but think about what Liang Zi had said. It was like raising pigs, raising them like pigs until they became fat, then, they would slaughter and eat meat together.

Actually, none of them liked this. They liked to be busy. It was good now. They didn't need to pay for food and lodging, and they could eat meat every day, but there was no money to be taken, if 10,000 yuan was a month's salary, then how much less money would they earn in a day? It would be several hundred yuan. Several hundred yuan. What kind of concept was that, they had been here for about ten days now, so this was three to four thousand yuan. So now it was good and easy, but when they thought about how they had missed out on several thousand yuan in the past few days., how could their hearts be calm? How could they be happy.

But Xin Gen had not come for several days. Even if they wanted to ask him about the situation, they could not find him.

Actually, Changsheng had secretly asked the chef who cooked for them. In the end, the chef did not say anything. He only told him to wait.

However, how long would they have to wait.

Finally, they had brought Jin Gen. Changsheng quickly went over and asked Jin Gen when they could start work.

"Don't worry, it won't be long. The boss has said that in these few days, you will be able to go to work in a large company and receive a high salary. Look, our boss is a good person. He truly treats you as brothers. Keep Your Hearts in your stomachs. If you follow our boss, you will definitely have a good life. Also, Jingen smugly patted changsheng on the shoulder. No matter how many days you stay here, you will receive a salary. What are you afraid of?"

When Changsheng heard that there was also a salary for these few days, he was also a little dumbfounded.

"Jingen, you're not lying to me, right? Is there really a salary for these few days?" was this a meat bun that fell from the sky, or did it directly hit their heads? That was exactly how it was.

Jingen's serious expression didn't seem like he was lying, but as long as they ignored the perfunctory and impatient words that flashed in his eyes.

Changsheng somewhat believed it, and Liangzi also believed it. Of course, they believed even more that it was Jingen.

“Oh right, I still have something to tell you.” Jingen did not forget that he had come this time with a mission.

“What is it?”

Changsheng could not help but feel nervous. It could not be anything important. They had never seen Jingen with such a serious expression.

“Actually, it’s nothing.” Jingen smiled. His exposed teeth were still very yellow, especially his two large front teeth. Perhaps it was because he had smoked too much, or because he had never brushed his teeth., thus, his tone was also very good. When he spoke to others, one could clearly smell the foul and foul breath in his mouth.

Changsheng was nervous. Jingen also brought out the words he had thought of beforehand.

“Working in our place requires some body checks. You should also know that this is a must. If there is an infectious disease, it doesn’t matter if you catch it. If you catch it from others, what should you do?”

When Changsheng and the others heard this, they repeatedly nodded in agreement. This was what they should do.

They all understood this point. Moreover, they had also heard from their fellow villagers that when they went outside, they indeed needed to undergo a body check. It was to check for some infectious diseases.

Chapter 2118: inspection

After Jingen left, Liangzi came over and directly told Changsheng about what Jingen had just said. He said that their salaries had been calculated since they had stepped into this place. In other words., even when they were lying down, they were still paid.

If they counted, it was over a thousand yuan. The worst case scenario was that it was a thousand yuan. Jingen had said that their guaranteed salary was three thousand yuan a month. So even if they didn’t count ten thousand yuan., didn’t they also have three thousand dollars? If they counted it as today, they had taken it for ten days, and ten days was exactly a thousand dollars.

This was a great thing. They had already earned a thousand dollars. How many eggs would they need to sell to be able to sell it back.

Liangzi had the best relationship with Changsheng. When they were young, the two of them had grown up naked together. Whatever they did, they would discuss it together. The two of them talked for a long time. It was nothing more than saying, what would they do with the money when they went back?

Liangzi said that he would build a house for his family and let his sister continue to go to school. Liangzi had a sister who was only ten years old. Liangzi’s sister had not gone to school for a few days. Liangzi had said that he would come out this time., it was because of his sister. Otherwise, how could he leave his sister alone in the village? Their parents were gone, and only the two of them had each other to rely on, now, Liang Zi's sister was also living in his second aunt's house. However, this second aunt was not his biological mother. When Liang Zi came out, she did not bring many things and did not bring much money. The rest was given to his second aunt.

He just wanted to see if his second aunt could treat his sister better for the sake of the money. She could also feed her every day. Whether she was full or not, he did not force her. As long as there was a portion for his sister every day, it would be fine.

And now, he was making money like this. As long as he earned enough money to go back in a year, he would take his sister over. At that time, he would definitely let his sister continue to go to school. Then, she would be able to eat and live in school. How good would that be, he did not need to look at others' faces because he, as their elder brother, was rich.

Liang Zi talked for a long time at Changsheng's place. In the end, he also felt a little sleepy. Only then did he prepare to go back to sleep. Of course, this night might also be the best day for them to sleep, because even if they were sleeping here, even if they were sitting still, they would still be asking for one to two hundred Yuan a day.

And with money, everyone was naturally happy.

The next day, there was nothing much to do. They still ate, slept, ate, and sat together, randomly chatting. This day passed quite quickly, as if they hadn't said anything or done anything.., the day also passed like this.

On the third day, it was still the same day, but everyone was much more comfortable. After all, as long as they made money, they wouldn't be so worried. The boss over there was arranging their work, so if it was a little later, it would be a little later. There was really no rush.

Moreover, didn't Jingen say that they still had to check their bodies? Maybe they wanted to know if their bodies were good or not, were they healthy or could they work?

They could think about this point clearly. If they were the boss, of course, they had to check this. How could they not check it? If there was really something wrong with their bodies, wouldn't they be creating trouble for themselves?

Therefore, they understood this point very well. Of course, they would cooperate.

On the fifth day, some people arrived. They were all doctors in white coats. These should be the doctors who had examined them.

The doctors first measured their blood pressure and then drew their blood. These were all young men in their twenties. They were strong and had done hard work. Everyone's body was very healthy. Their arms and legs were also very strong.

This was also the time when a person's life was the most vigorous and vigorous. Naturally, there would not be any problems.

Their blood pressure was normal, and their blood sugar was also normal.

The doctor directly drew several tubes of Changsheng's blood, which counted to five tubes. Although it did not hurt much, just watching their blood being drawn out of their bodies.., it made people feel a little scared. Fortunately, they only drew some blood, so they did not do any other tests.

Changsheng pressed on his arm. After drawing the blood, he did not feel anything. It was still pretty good. Moreover, this was a necessary test, and he knew all about it.

"What did you check?"Liang Zi asked Changsheng.

"I didn't check anything. I just drew some blood."

Changsheng still touched his arm. He was a man, so why would he be afraid of drawing blood? Moreover, he only drew a little blood. It was nothing.

"They looked into my eyes for a long time."Liangzi was very strange. "Did they look into your eyes?"

"No."Changsheng shook his head. "They drew five more tubes of blood."

"Five tubes?"Liang Zi swallowed his saliva. "I only took one tube. How could you take five tubes?"This was what Liang Zi did not understand. They seemed to have examined him differently.

"I didn't have my eyes examined either."

Changsheng did not feel that there was anything strange about it.

The methods used by doctors to examine people might be different. Changsheng thought about it and finally comforted Liang Zi. This was what he felt.

Liangzi nodded his head, thinking that this was probably the case. Only when the other young men came over did they realize that the items they examined were all different. Some of them had taken several tubes of blood, just like Changsheng, some of them examined their eyes like Liangzi. Some of them also examined their eyes and other places.

They thought that it was over, but it was actually not over yet. A few days later, those doctors came again. They took his blood, measured this and that, and even dragged them to other places for an examination, one of the doctors also examined Changsheng's eyes for a long time before finally shaking his head.

Changsheng could not help but feel nervous. What did this mean? Was it because his eyes were not good, or was there something wrong with him. His heart was in a mess. In the end, he did not know when those doctors had left. He only knew that he was a little afraid now, because when that doctor looked into his eyes.., he felt a sense of pity.

Pity? What was there to pity? His eyes were very good.

Whether it was looking close or far away, they were all very good. There were no tears nor trachoma.

He had been having a hard time these past few days. Sometimes, when he had nightmares at night, all he dreamed about was people telling him to get lost.

He didn't want to go. He couldn't go either. He still had to make money here.

Chapter 2119: was painful to the bone

After a few days, no one showed any intention of chasing him away. They still ate, slept, slept, and ate every day. It didn't seem like there were any major problems. Only then did Changsheng's heart relax, if he really had a problem, those people would have told him to scram long ago, right?

He was still here, and no one had said a single word to him. Perhaps it was because he did not have any major issues. Even if there was a problem, it was just a small matter and would not have much of an impact.

Just as he was still worried and relieved, those doctors came over again, saying that they wanted to give him another checkup.

Although Changsheng was puzzled in his heart, why were they checking this and that? There were so many tests, and it was really endless.

This was already the third time, but how long had it been?

Those people were holding an instrument that he didn't know what kind of instrument it was. It was ice-cold. They placed it on his stomach and looked at it for a long time.

It was also what made Changsheng so nervous that cold sweat broke out on his palms.

He was telling himself that this was a necessary check. This should be to check his internal organs.

It was not easy for him to finish the check-up. Those people did not say anything and sent them back.

Liang Zi also came back.

"Changsheng, don't you find it strange? What kind of work are we going to do in the future?" Liang Zi scratched his head, "I haven't heard of it either. which kind of place would hire a small worker like us? And what kind of physical check-up do we have to do three or two times? We don't even know how many tubes of blood have been drawn."

"Maybe every doctor is checking in a different direction."

Changsheng also felt that something was not quite right, but he could not tell what was wrong. Perhaps this was how it was here. who asked them to do such a high-paying job instead of doing other jobs, of course, even the check-up was different from other people.

"That's true."

Liang Zi agreed with Changsheng. After all, not everyone could earn over ten thousand Yuan a month. The villagers who went out to work all said that they would work hard for a month, it was only one or two thousand yuan, but it was still considered good. Some people didn't even get paid, and they had to work like a dog every day. It was hot in the summer, and even their underwear was wet, it was cold in the winter, and their hands were about to freeze off. However, they had to earn half a year to a year's worth of money every month.

Moreover, they didn't do anything here. They had already earned over a thousand yuan. When they officially started working, they would earn a few hundred Yuan a day. How good would that be.

Therefore, it was reasonable to investigate more strictly. After all, such an expensive job naturally had to be investigated thoroughly.

"Changsheng, give me your ID card."Jingen extended his hand to Changsheng, "We want to use your ID cards to apply for work permits for you. After this work permit is done, you will have a job. If you don't have a work permit, that won't do."

"Alright."Changsheng took out his own ID card and handed it over to Jingen. Jingen had bought all their train tickets on the way here. Of course, he had also used their ID cards to buy them, however, Jin Gen had returned their ID cards to him as compensation. Otherwise, they would not have trusted Jin Gen so much. They had heard from the villagers that this ID card could not be given to others carelessly, it had to be placed on them, so they had to carry their own ID cards with them to feel safe.

If they didn't have ID cards, they couldn't even buy train tickets. Therefore, they had to pack their ID cards properly and take good care of them.

And Jingen had never said anything about asking for their ID cards. Now they were just using their ID cards to get work permits, so they naturally gave them to them happily. This proved that their bodies weren't in any big trouble, they could also go to work, right? In other words, they would soon be able to earn a lot of money.

Changsheng thought that getting work permits would be quick, but in the end, when night fell, Jin Gen still did not come over. Another Day passed, but Jin Gen still did not show up.

It was not until the third day that those doctors came again.

Were they still not done with the examination?

Changsheng felt even more strange, but in the end, he still did not have the face to say it out loud. Perhaps it was because they still needed to do the final examination. After they were done, they could go back, they could also work, and they could earn money.

Changsheng followed the doctors' instructions and changed his clothes. Then, he lay on a small bed. Suddenly, the shadowless lamp above his head was turned on. It shone on his eyes, causing him to feel a prickling pain.

The doctors did not say anything. They only put some strange instruments on his body. Only then did he feel that something was not right. When he got up, he felt that his head was a little dizzy, not to mention the people around him.., even the shadowless lamp above his head seemed to be spinning.

He could not hear what the doctors said. He seemed to have fallen asleep. No, this was not sleep. There seemed to be something wrong. It was as if she had entered an unknown space.., she did not know anything. She could not feel anything.

When he woke up, he was in his small room.

He wanted to get up, but his abdomen suddenly hurt. He lowered his head and saw the needle on the back of his hand.

He still did not know what had happened to him and why it was so painful. It was so painful that he broke out in cold sweat. The slightest movement made him want to scream. No, he did not dare to scream, even if he made a sound, he was in pain.

At this moment, a doctor walked over and stood in front of Changsheng.

He lifted Changsheng's eyelids, pulled open the blanket, and looked at his abdomen. Without saying anything, he left.

Changsheng was still in pain. It was so painful that his forehead was covered in cold sweat. It was falling out bit by bit. He could not move. He could not move at all. No, he could not move. As long as he took a breath, the pain would be heart-wrenching, what was the point of sitting up.

The pain in his abdomen almost caused his internal organs to be pulled together.

Suddenly, he really wanted to scream, but in the end, he could not even make a sound. He could only groan in pain from time to time.

He had been in pain all this time. He was in so much pain that he could not speak. Those needles were also being injected into his body day and night.

He did not know how long he had been in this half-dead state, and every minute and second was a torture to him. Sometimes, he really wished that he could just die.

Chapter 2120: It was worse than death

Even now, he still did not know what had happened to him?

He did not remember many things. He only remembered that he had gone for a check-up, but those people had inserted all kinds of tubes into his body. Before he could react, he seemed to have fallen asleep, and when he woke up.., he had become like this.

His abdomen was hurting badly, and he had not eaten for a long time. He had not seen anyone else either. Only a few doctors came in from time to time, but where were the gold and silver, Liang Zi., and everyone?

Yes, where was Liang Zi? If something had really happened to him, the others would not have said anything, but Liang Zi should have come to take a look.

Right now, he couldn't even speak. He was in so much pain that he didn't even dare to breathe. Just like that, there was no one to hurt him. As a man, he could only cry helplessly.

Helpless, terrifying, terrified, and in pain.

He was tormented to the point that he was practically seeking death.

It wasn't until the fifth day that he finally had some strength. He quietly lifted the blanket on his body, and now, he didn't even dare to touch it. He carefully untied his clothes, he saw that his stomach was wrapped in gauze, and it seemed that blood was still seeping out.

“Ah, ah...”

He suddenly shouted. The doctor came in. Changsheng pulled the doctor’s hand hard. Doctor, I beg you, I beg you. Tell me, what happened to me? What happened to me? Why Am I bleeding, why Am I in so much pain.

Doctor, I, I beg you, tell me. He struggled to sit up, but he immediately felt another pain in his abdomen.

It hurt so much that he almost shrank his body. It also hurt so much that he broke out in cold sweat. It hurt so much that his nose and tears flowed. What’s wrong with him? What’s wrong with him

A few more people came in and pressed down on his entire body. He was in so much pain that he was in a daze. It was as if he heard someone talking.

“Why did he only get a kidney?”

It sounded like the voice of the Big Boss. They thought that he was very good and very rich. He was also the Big Boss who had a golden dog chain around his neck, he was also the big boss who was so rich that he did not put anyone in his eyes.

Also, what did they say just now? Kidney? What kidney?

“Brother Chao, there’s something wrong with his cornea. It’s not suitable for a transplant. Only a kidney can do it.”

“Oh...”brother Chao blew out another puff of smoke. He did not care at all. There were patients here.

“How is that person?”

“Don’t worry. He won’t die if he’s alive. We agreed that he won’t kill anyone. I’m the one who’s helping you do these things.”

“What do you mean don’t worry?”Brother Chao curled his lips. “Don’t make yourself sound so nice like you’re the Savior. Don’t make it sound so dignified. You’re in the same boat as me.”

“Taking human lives and selling human organs. If you catch me, it’s the same death penalty. So, you better work for me. Otherwise, even if I die, you won’t be able to live.”

“Brother Chao...”another voice joined in.

This was Jingen. It was Jingen. No matter how long life could live, it was impossible to forget this voice. This was Jingen’s voice.

“You did well, Kid.”

Brother Chao threw away the cigarette in his hand and stepped on it with his foot.

“Next time, bring out a few of these good goods. They are young and strong. Our customers are also very satisfied.”

“Don’t worry, Brother Chao. I will definitely do well. The people there are all stupid. As long as we put it nicely, a bunch of people will come out immediately.”

“It’s not a loss to have to support them for so long. They are also living for free.”

Brother Chao took out another cigarette.

Meanwhile, Jin Gen's Lackey had already taken out his lighter and lit a cigarette for Jin Gen.

"Brother Chao, don't worry. Next time, I will bring a few good goods over."

"That will do." Brother Chao also took out a stack of money from his own body generously and stuffed it into Jin Gen's hand. "Alright, these are all for you. If you bring a few good goods over, there will be benefits for you."

"Brother Chao, don't worry, I will definitely do it." Jin Gen held the thick stack of money in his hand and his eyes almost lit up.

This had been over 10,000 years and he had earned over 10,000 in one go. Wasn't this money too easy to earn.

When he returned tomorrow, he would go to another village. There were still a few villages there and a few hundred people might come here. When that time came, he would have to see if his mouth could speak., and now, he was quite confident in his eloquent mouth.

He believed that as long as he returned, he would definitely bring a few more people out.

He waited for Brother Chao to leave before taking out the stack of money from his body. Then, he dipped his finger in some saliva and began to count them one by one.

What he did not know was that Changsheng had opened his eyes and was glaring at him with hatred.

Of course, this matter was not over. Changsheng thought that there was nothing more painful than this. When he got out, he would definitely call the police and arrest all these people. He would also make Jingen pay the price and spend the rest of his life in prison.

However, what he did not expect was that.

These people's viciousness was worse than he had imagined. They broke his legs and twisted his legs.

They beat him into a disabled person and asked him to beg for food. If he could not get food, they would beat him again, or beat him until he was disabled.

They could not run either. Even if they wanted to run, no matter how they ran, it was impossible. No one helped them and there was no money. Furthermore, brother Chao had found someone to warn them.

If they dared to run, then they would deceive their family and bring them here.

Thinking of how Changsheng's mother was still at home, how could Changsheng do this? How could he let his own mother Suffer Like This? Thus, he could only endure this alone. This suffering lasted for two years.

And during these two years, he had also been asking about Liangzi and the others, but they were like stones sinking into the sea. No one knew where they had gone, Dead or Alive?

He was ruthless. Liang Zi had initially investigated the eyes. Perhaps those people would take away his corneas. Without the corneas, he would be blind.

As for the other people, the most likely outcome was that one of their kidneys would be taken away like him. However, they did not dare to take the other organs because it would be useless. Those doctors also knew that they could not harm people's lives, therefore, they would leave another kidney for them. Of course, they could not touch other people's hearts or anything like that. If they dared to touch those organs, they would immediately lose their lives.
