

Chapter 2181: new job

“Bring them over for me to take a look.” He could let them come over first. The inn could be closed for the time being, but the maintenance inside had to be carried out. If they did not come over for a few days, there would be a layer of soil left behind, the flowers and plants that his sister had painstakingly planted were all dead. Even the cats had disappeared without a trace because there was no one to feed them. They had turned into stray cats.

“Alright, I’ll bring them over tomorrow.”

Lu Guang was very assured about the person he was thinking of. He just didn’t know what his Big Brother would think. However, he felt that the person was quite suitable. No matter what, it was better than Jingzi that they had lived in the past, if he wasn’t stupid, he would definitely take good care of this place.

The next day, Lu Guang came over with some people.

Lu Qi narrowed his eyes slightly and stared at the middle-aged woman and the boy who was carrying a book.

The boy was very friendly when he saw Lu Qi. Of course, he smiled happily. He was Lu Qi’s brother, and he greeted him as he smiled.

Lu Qi almost furrowed his brows.

Lu Qi waved at the boy.

The boy ran over and happily grabbed Lu Qi’s sleeve. Brother Lu Qi, brother Lu Guang said that I could see you. He even said that he would take me to Hai City University to look for you. I haven’t gone yet.., but I saw you right away.

Lu Qi rubbed mingliang’s head and took out his wallet. He took some money from it and placed it in front of Mingliang, “Take this money and take your mother out to eat something. We’ll be back later.”

Ming Liang took the money. He didn’t dare to take it and wanted to return it to Lu Qi. However, Lu Qi had always been a man of his word. As soon as he glanced at it, Ming Liang quickly took the money, he also took his confused mother out.

“Speak.” After the person left, Lu Qi sat down and asked Lu Guang.

He knew that Lu Guang had done something good.

Lu Guang touched his nose. It was over. He seemed to have forgotten about this matter. He hadn’t told his boss about it.

Of course, he didn't dare to lie in front of his boss. What he said was what he did. Of course, he also dared to admit what he had done. Moreover, he hadn't done anything wrong, of course, he also didn't do anything wrong.

Thus, he brought the bright mother and son to Hai City, arranged a place for them, and arranged a job. Only then did the mother and son have a foothold in Hai City, of course, he also didn't forget to tell Lu Qi about the Li clan village

In any case, this matter couldn't be hidden from his boss, so he told him everything.

After Lu Qi heard this, he did not have much of a reaction.

The Li village incident had nothing to do with him, and the Changsheng family incident had nothing to do with him either. Whatever happened to them was their own business.

"Are these two reliable?"

Lu Qi asked Lu Guang, "Don't make it troublesome to invite them back."

"Big Brother, don't worry." This was something that Lu Guang could guarantee with a pat on his chest. He had observed the mother and son's character for a very long time. Mingliang's mother was a very ordinary working woman, she was very simple-minded. Of course, she wouldn't take advantage of others. When she was helping out at the airport, other people would sometimes steal food, but she never did, other people would also secretly bring the food back to their families to eat. As long as it wasn't too excessive, the people there wouldn't care. And from the beginning to the end, Ming Liang's mother had never stolen food, she had never taken anything. Even when Ming Liang ate, she would always pay for it. She would pay whatever it was. She definitely wouldn't take advantage of the public.

Therefore, such a person could naturally be trusted.

"Alright, go and do it."

Of course, Lu Qi tacitly agreed to some of Lu Guang's actions. Otherwise, he wouldn't have refused so easily.

At that time, Lu Guang's eyes were so bright that they were about to sting. It was a success. As expected, his boss didn't pursue the matter. Moreover, he also agreed. As long as he agreed, he didn't need to waste any more words, only then could he get through to his boss. One had to know that his boss was the hardest to communicate with. Usually, he would have to wear out his mouth, but his boss was still unmoved. This time, it was good. Needless to say..., it was clear.

"Mom, are we moving?" Ming Liang didn't understand. They had lived in this place for so long, and they were used to it. What was going on? were they moving, but where were they moving to? were they going back to the village? But he didn't want to go back to the village at all. It was so good here. The school was good, the teachers were good, and the students were good. He was just used to it and was going back.

"Let's move to the new house later."

Ming Liang's mother really did not think that Ming Liang would have so many thoughts. Of course, it was also possible that she was too excited right now. She was so excited that she did not explain it clearly to her son.

Lu Guang had told her that he wanted to give her a new job. He asked if she was willing?

Lu Guang said that his sister was preparing a small inn. Because she was still in university, the Inn would not open for business for the time being. However, she needed someone to take care of it. That was to let her take care of it first and help take care of the plants, she would also feed a few cats. The monthly salary was also very high. She would be paid 10,000 yuan a month. The place to stay was free of charge. If she ate, she would receive a monthly allowance. In other words, she would have to bring food and accommodation with her.

Moreover, the place was closer to the school that Ming Liang went to. In the past, she would have to wake up half an hour earlier. Now, she would be there after crossing a road. Moreover, she would be taking the underground passage. She could walk directly to the school, it was very convenient for her to go back and forth. Moreover, the place where she went to work was good, but it was inconvenient. It was a little far away, so she couldn't care too much about Ming Liang. Every time.., as long as she saw Ming Liang writing and reading on the dining table, her heart would feel very uncomfortable.

She couldn't give her child too much. She couldn't even give her son a quiet learning environment. She was really a useless mother. However, she had been in Hai City for so long, and she was still unfamiliar with the place, how could she give herself another job that could take care of the family and earn more money.

There was nothing in this world that could not be taken care of by her. If it was a job in the Gu family, she would not be able to get such a high salary and such good treatment.

She was even more unwilling to trouble Lu Guang. Lu Guang had already helped them so much, and she did not have the face to beg him again.

Now that Lu Guang took the initiative to find them and gave them such a good job, she did not even think about it and agreed immediately.

Chapter 2182: she was Lu Wei

Not long after, she carried 20% of the luggage in her hands and followed Ming Liang to the place that Lu Guang had mentioned.

"This is the place." Lu Guang took out the key, opened the door, and threw the key to Ming Liang.

"My sister will be here in less than two years. In these two years, you guys have to put in more effort. I will find someone to do the maintenance for each of them. You guys don't have to worry about it. You just have to take care of the plants and the cats."

Ming Liang's mother kept on agreeing. Lu Shengsheng, don't worry, I will do my best.

Lu Guang opened another door. The few rooms behind were for the employees. He and his brother each chose one, and it was in the middle. Even Lu Qi would be staying here in the future, compared to before, this place was much quieter. At night, there was almost no sound.

The three of them, who were used to being quiet, were, of course, satisfied with this place. At the very least, they had the kind of quiet that they wanted.

There were more than fifty rooms in the inn. Each room was designed by Lu Wei herself. There were all kinds of plants inside, just like a natural oxygen bar. Living Here.., it was almost as if they were breathing in the forest. The air was also very fresh and pleasant. Of course, the four seasons could also smell the natural fragrance of flowers.

There were also a few little kittens here. Now, they could meow whenever they saw people. Each of them was soft and cute. Bright mother made a nest for these kittens with cardboard boxes and let them sleep here. She had a small kitchen.., just behind the house, the water and electricity were all connected. Every day, she cleaned, boiled water for the flowers, fed the cats, and then made three meals for herself and Mingliang.

Not only was her life better, even mingliang was much better than before. At the very least, he could wake up half an hour later now and sleep for half an hour more. Moreover, he was now very close to school, it was only a few steps away.

He could also go home and have a meal every day, and he could also rest at home for an hour or so.

Of course, it was still the kittens playing every day. He liked these little kittens the most.

Bright's mother really liked this place too much. In fact, she still didn't like the city. The air was bad, the floors were too crowded, and it was inconvenient to go out and live. So, she didn't really want to go out in the past, however, after living here, she realized that there were good places in Dacheng city. Just like here, it was quiet every day. There wasn't even the sound of cars passing by. The place where they used to live was filled with the sound of cars, when it was very late, some of the cars would be red. It was fine if they went over, but they still deliberately honked twice.

Moreover, the work here was easy and easy to do. Lu Guang had said that when this inn officially opened, she would still do the same work. She didn't need to do things like washing the bedding and cleaning, naturally, they would invite other people over. If she wanted to help in the future, that was fine too. She could earn more money.

Ming Liang's mother had already saved tens of thousands of yuan. This was something that she didn't even dare to think about in the past. Now that she had taken so much money, when Ming Liang grew up.., perhaps she could even save up a house for her son.

No, right now, she wanted to grit her teeth and buy a house for her son in Hai City. Wasn't there a way to repay the loan now? That was to first pay a portion of the money and then pay off the rest every month for a few decades, this house would be theirs.

She had earned some money in the past few months. If it was possible, she wanted to be thick-skinned and borrow some money from Lu Guang. She had heard from others that the price of houses in Hai City was high now, but if she didn't buy it., it would become higher and higher in the future. She was afraid that if she didn't buy it, she wouldn't be able to afford it in the future.

"You want to buy it?" Lu Guang was quite supportive of Ming Zhou's mother buying a house. After all, whether it was the dormitory or the inn, it wasn't their home. When Ming Zhou grew up, he would have a house. Changsheng's father wasn't reliable anyway, and only Ming Zhou's mother was a woman. It wasn't easy.

If he bought it now, it would be better than not being able to afford it in the future.

"Yes." Ming Liang's mother gritted her teeth. Of course, she made up her mind to buy it. Since she could still do some work, she had to leave some things for her son.

Lu Guang could give one to Ming Liang and his mother. However, he would not give it to them. It was not because he was stingy, but because he had gained many things without doing anything. People would become greedy and it was only natural.

However, he still helped to find a second-hand house. The price of a house in Hai City was very high. It was not something that an ordinary person could afford. Even if it was a down payment, it was not something that Ming Liang and her mother could afford.

After all, a bigger house would cost more than a million. The down payment would be close to 500,000 to 600,000. With Ming Liang's mother's current salary, even if she did not eat or drink for a day., with such a salary, it would take five years to buy a house. She could earn a down payment. Needless to say, she would have to pay the mortgage. When she had enough., the house price might have risen again.

Lu Guang found them a small second-hand house with two bedrooms and a living room. It was about 80 square meters. Although it was a second-hand house, it was actually very new. The total price was more than 1.3 million.

When Ming Liang's mother heard the price of the house, she was a little afraid. However, no matter how afraid she was, she still bought the house cruelly in the end. After paying the loan, they still stayed here, it was convenient to take care of the plants and cats in the inn.

The door outside opened and a kitten started to Meow.

Ming Liang's mother thought that some stranger had come. She quickly walked out and saw a young girl carrying a kitten. The kitten was very meek and meowing.

The girl raised her face. When she raised her face, Mingliang's mother recognized her.

This was Miss Yan's daughter. She said that she was triplets, but she thought that she looked like Lu Qi and Lu Guang. It turned out that they didn't look alike at all. They were clearly identical to Little Yan.

If she wasn't too young, she would have thought that this was Yan Huan's daughter.

"Are You... Miss Lu?"

Ming Liang's mother asked tentatively. She had been working here for almost two months and had never seen Lu Wei. Lu Guang had said that this inn was run by Lu Wei, but she was the one who was in school, so she didn't have time to come over.

“Yes, I am.” Lu Wei touched the obedient kitten in her arms. “Aunty, thank you for your hard work.”

Lu Wei smiled. She was as tender as the budding flowers in a greenhouse. She was as bright, as young, and as clean and as tender.

Chapter 2183: not afraid of No Business

She was very exquisite and beautiful, and it could not help but make people’s eyes light up. Of course, they could not forget the beautiful moment when they first met. Also, this girl actually had two dimples. That kind of delicate beauty with a light smile.., it was really difficult to forget.

This was also the first time bright mother met Lu Wei. That side, even a woman like her could not help but be amazed. However, having such a daughter at home really made parents worried.

After all, it was not good to be too good-looking. Who knew how many people had designs on this child.

Lu Wei carried the little kitten into her room. She pushed open the door and the room was cleaned up. She walked forward and her fingers swept across the table. It was indeed clean and dustless, second Brother had really found a good helper for her.

The Little Kitten’s milk was also fed until it was full of meat. The flowers and plants in the yard were also raised very well. It could be seen that the flowers had been weeded and were now in full bloom, the vines climbing the wall outside had already begun to climb up the corner of the wall. It seemed that within a few years, the entire wall here would be covered with all kinds of flowers, it was more like the garden of her dreams.

When she came the year after next, she could have her own little hobby and career.

She was not as smart and capable as her elder brother and second brother. She was actually a very ordinary child, so she only did ordinary things. She liked this quiet life. She planted flowers every day and raised cats, how good was that, right?

This was the life she wanted in the future. And every time she thought of this, she would smile even in her dreams.

She did not have to think about what she would do in the future, who she would be, or what she would have to worry about. She could not really go to farm.

Even if she had money under her name that could not be spent, even if she did nothing but eat, drink, and play every day, just like Aunt Mina, it was not impossible for her to go shopping everywhere. Didn’t she have two older brothers, her two older brothers wanted her to be a rice worm for the rest of her life. They could totally support her for the rest of her life.

However, the members of the Lu family had to have their own jobs. She could not make herself a special case and embarrass the members of the Lu family.

It was good now. She finally did not have to worry about not having a job. Just thinking about it felt good.

The kitten in her arms meowed. It was a little kitten, these little kittens. They were all stray cats that she had picked up. They weren't any expensive breeds, but she liked them very much. Now, they were all chubby and very clingy little guys.

She stayed here for a while and talked to bright mother for a while. She could feel that bright mother was very nervous, but Lu Wei really didn't know that she was clearly a good person, how could someone be so afraid of her.

And what she didn't know was that her mother wasn't afraid of her. She was afraid of losing her job. After all, it was impossible to get another job with such a good job. Moreover, after the inn opened.., her salary would still be increased, and she would get more if she did more. She wasn't afraid of working, nor was she afraid of hard work. She was just afraid that she wouldn't have a job to do. When she married into the Li Village and stayed in the Changsheng family for more than ten years, she wasn't the one who did anything in the Changsheng family.., she was not the one who was busy.

And she really could not leave now. She still owed the bank a lot of money under her name. With her current income, she could completely afford it. Every month, she would be able to save a few thousand, but if she did not have a job, she was afraid that she would go to jail.

After Lu Wei left, Ming Liang's mother heaved a sigh of relief. From the meaning of Lu Wei's words, she did not think of changing people. and Lu Wei was obviously much easier to get along with than Lu Qi and Lu Guang.

She carefully took care of everything here, as if she was taking care of her own family. After more than a year, the plants climbing the wall had already covered the entire wall, she didn't know where Lu Wei got the seeds from, but they were blooming all year round. The Cats had already grown up, and they were all chubby and cute. They were also good-natured and liked to be close to people, they had always been raised in a free range, so of course, they wouldn't randomly grab things. Otherwise, bright mother wouldn't have raised them all in a free range and locked them up.

Bright mother had been here for more than a year. It wasn't that she hadn't changed. She was more cheerful and confident. Of course, she was younger than before, unlike when she was in the Li Village, she had to do everything herself. She was already young. When she was with Changsheng, she was only sixteen or seventeen years old. Her parents had sold her to the Changsheng family. In the past ten years.., she had been serving the Changsheng family like a servant. In the sun and in the wind, she was more like a man than a man.

And now, she was living for herself. In the past year, although she didn't spend much money and even bought cheap clothes, her spirit was clearly much better than before, she also felt a little younger.

The inn was really well taken care of by her. Lu Wei had almost never taken care of it. She only came over on weekends to take a look and then went back to continue her studies.

After she graduated, her two brothers still needed to go to school. However, her two brothers' choices and direction in their future made her quite puzzled.

Originally, she thought that her older brother would be like her father and become a prosecutor because his personality was too similar to her father's and his work ability was outstanding. However, she didn't expect that.., her older brother actually chose to go to the military academy in the end and become an officer instead of a prosecutor.

Her second brother's choice made her almost drop her jaw. Her second brother actually abandoned the finance department and went to study law instead. In the future, he would become a barrister. Moreover, their children had been raised since they were young.., their father wanted to teach them legal knowledge, so if they walked the path of law, it would be very easy. Of course, there was another point. Those rules and regulations of the law had been memorized by them since they were young, it was not too late for Lu Guang to become a lawyer. He remembered more than others, and his memory was also strong. Moreover, his sub-major was law.

Fortunately, her choice had never been made before. She did not have high ambitions. She just wanted to run her own inn well.

And all of this was thanks to her grandfather.

Although her grandfather had done many wrong things, he finally realized his mistake. She was too young at that time, so she did not have as deep an understanding as her mother. And there were many things that she could not remember clearly.

Chapter 2184: the true beauty and the ice beauty

Mother wasn't surprised anymore. She had forgiven him.

That was why grandpa was so calm when he left. He had gone to another world to apologize to his grandmother. He just didn't know whether his grandmother would forgive him or not.

Lu Wei opened the door and walked in as well. This place had gone from being lonely at the beginning. Everything had gone according to what she had thought at that time. The courtyard was filled with all kinds of flowers and plants. At first glance, it looked very poetic, of course, it was also fresh and tender color recording, which made people's eyes feel very comfortable. The plants climbing the wall had already covered the entire wall.

Outside, there were wooden tables and chairs. There was also an awning. Sometimes, a few kittens could be seen jumping and playing freely there.

There were some roses growing outside the wall. There were all kinds of flowers blooming. It was very quiet inside. The air was also very fresh. In the entire sea city, it was actually impossible to find such a quiet pure land.

Because of the shortage of land, the buildings could only be built higher and higher, and there were also towering buildings. However, the buildings were too tall, and it was because of the lack of earthy air. Therefore, the tall buildings and large buildings.., always made people feel a little hard and dry, and even the sense of familiarity was also reduced.

Lu Wei was a child who grew up in the Lu family and Liuyuan. It was very quiet there. She didn't like to be too noisy. She just liked to be alone quietly, but let her do her own things, and not be disturbed.

Her Little Inn was called the Happiness Inn. It was the simplest and easiest name to remember.

She put a few pictures on the Internet, which were pictures of the Happiness Inn. There were all kinds of plants crawling all over the walls, and the unique and simple furniture inside. There were also wooden tables and chairs, and a few cats running in the courtyard. These were all highlights of the inn. Of course, the prices here were not cheap. Lu Wei didn't really want to make money from the inn. Every blade of grass and every tree here was designed by herself, many of them were taken care of by her. She could not treat them like cabbages and give them to people to eat.

For a long time, no one asked the law in the inn. Lu Wei was not in a hurry, but Ming Liang's mother was. This day was not settled yet. She still needed money. Her salary was the biggest expense.

"Auntie, what are you worried about?" Lu Wei propped up her face on the wooden table and hugged an apricot-colored kitten in her arms. The kitten was chubby and well-behaved. It would never stretch out its claws.

"There's no business, what should we do?"

How could Ming Liang's mother not be worried? Before the opening, she hadn't thought about it. But now, it had been so long, and they didn't even have a single customer.

"There will be, no rush." Lu Wei really couldn't bear it. Ming Liang's mother's mouth was filled with blisters.

"Aunty, you know my family's situation. I didn't open this to make money, I just have some things to do. As for your salary, you don't have to worry." She could indeed afford it. Her money for a month's bonus., it was probably quite a lot. Although she didn't know how much it was, it wouldn't be too little. It was all handled by her second brother.

Not to mention, there was no business now. Even if there was no business in her lifetime, she had never been worried about it. Moreover, she didn't know why she was worried. Things were pretty good now.

Of course, it was impossible for her to say that there would be no business in her lifetime. No matter how expensive it was, as long as there was a business, there would definitely be people living there.

Not long after, they welcomed their first guest. It was a man who had come to visit. The conditions at home were good, and what they wanted was enjoyment, not price.

Looking at the pictures on the Internet, he felt that the conditions here were not bad. After entering, he found that the conditions were even better.

"Hello, Please Show Me Your ID card." Lu Wei was sitting at the table. Because there was no business at the moment, and she was a bit annoyed by the noise, she acted as the service staff. When this guest saw Lu Wei's face., he was really shocked.

No matter how many adjectives were used, it was impossible to describe it. He saw everything because the woman in front of him was really beautiful. Her eyes were the most standard of a beautiful woman's eyes. Although she didn't wear any makeup., she was still young and beautiful, and it was as if she had suddenly appeared in this world by accident. It was almost as if people couldn't take their eyes off her.

"Hello, Please Show Me Your ID card," Lu Wei said again. What, was she stupid or something?

The man quickly took out his ID card and handed it over, but his eyes never moved away.

“How many days?” Lu Wei asked while registering.

“Three... three days...” the man said in a daze.

“No, I’ll stay for ten days.”

The man quickly added, his heart beating fast. He didn’t expect to see such a beautiful lady boss on his first visit here. They said that beautiful women came from the sea city, but he didn’t expect.., to see such a beautiful woman.

He had said that he would only stay for a day, but now he had to stay for a few more days. Even if he couldn’t be a girlfriend, he could at least see her every day.

However, when he found an excuse to come over, the person at the bar counter had also changed. It was another young woman, and this young woman’s gaze was extremely cold. Every time she looked at him.., his body couldn’t help but tremble a few times.

And shaking a few times was normal. This person was none other than Lu Wei’s personal bodyguard

Lu Yi had found this for his daughter. Yan Huan had never lacked bodyguards in the past ten years. They changed from one bodyguard to another. When Lu Wei was still in school, the school was very safe. It was safe to go to and from school, the brother and sister were all together. However, Lu Wei was running an inn now, so there were a lot of idlers inside. Lu Yi was afraid that his daughter would be at a disadvantage, so he specially found a bodyguard for her, her name was quite soft and cute, and she was called Xiang Xiang. However, her face was cold, and her personality was colder.

Xiang Xiang also ridiculed her name countless times. After all, she was a well-organized woman, but she actually called such an unbearable name. But who asked her to call this name.., this name had followed her for more than twenty years, and it would follow her for even longer in the future.

Lu Wei happily accepted the person that her father had sent over. To her, this bodyguard was not just a bodyguard. Her Inn was currently lacking a receptionist, and it just so happened that.., not only could Xiang Xiang be a bodyguard, but she could also be used to do these things.

That man was also instantly killed by Xiang Xiang’s eyes. He did not even dare to breathe. He could not help but swallow his saliva. He could still look at beautiful women, but looking at a woman who was so cold that she looked like she was going to kill someone.., he had better stay away from her,

Chapter 2185: there was a celestial immortal in the inn

He had originally wanted to come over and get close to her, but now he didn’t even need to do so. He didn’t even dare to say a word. He directly took his room card and left. Originally, he had thought that he would stay here for ten days, however, if he were to see the cold face of that woman at the front desk every day, he would have to retreat.

However, coincidentally, he saw that beautiful woman in the garden again, so he could not bear to stay for a few more days. Other than that cold-faced woman who made him feel stifled, everything else was good, from time to time, he could find out what the beautiful woman was doing. It turned out that the beautiful woman could play the piano, draw, and Cook. Moreover, the food she cooked seemed to be very delicious. He also wanted to go and have a meal, however, as soon as he got close to the beautiful woman, the woman who was as cold as ice would stare at him with a pair of extremely cold eyes. She would stare at him until his legs became weak and he would run away.

In the end, he still did not do anything. He could only think in his heart and keep looking. After that, he did not do anything at all.

He also posted his findings over the past few days on the Internet. All he took were pictures of the scenery of the inn, a few cats, the silence in the room, and a beautiful woman. Of course, he also knew some things, he could not upload photos of others without their consent. Therefore, the most he took were pictures of their backs. They were all shadows, and there were also the delicious dishes of the beautiful women, however, no matter how delicious they were, he had never tasted them.

After he posted these on the Internet, almost all of them made this Happiness Inn famous. It turned out that there was such a good place hidden in the sea city. Of course, the most important thing was.., it was said that there was a great beauty here that could be compared to the best actress Yan.

Although the picture wasn't very clear, it still made people fantasize. Moreover, she was a beauty who could be compared to best actress Yan.

Yan Huan was known as the fifth most beautiful woman in Asia back then. It could be seen how powerful she was back then. Even now, when Yan Huan appeared in the camera, he was still very young, it was hard to tell how her age had changed. If one were to say that someone's age represented a reverse age, then the first person would definitely be Yan Huan.

And this young woman who looked like Yan Huan naturally made people feel even more mysterious.

Of course, none of them knew that the reason why this mysterious and beautiful lady boss looked so similar to Yan Huan in the ten thousand year calendar was not because of anything else. It was precisely because she was Yan Huan's daughter to begin with.

However, this travelogue had also made the Happiness Inn a little more famous. Not for anything else, but the environment there was also very tempting. Besides being tempting, it was also the charm of a great beauty.

When one arrived there, it was not just a simple trip. More importantly, it was also a kind of enjoyment that did not come from other places.

There was a sense of tranquility, a sense of tranquility, and a sense of nature that was isolated from the world.

Therefore, the number of people in the inn gradually increased. Of course, it also gained some popularity. Of course, what was even more famous was that there was an extremely beautiful lady boss in the guest city. Someone had seen her.., someone had never seen her before.

However, it had to be said that having an extremely beautiful lady boss in the inn was indeed quite tempting. Just as a guest had said, even if she couldn't be a girlfriend, it was fine to have a look.

Everyone liked to look at beautiful women, and they were also very pleasing to the eye, right?

It was already the plum rain season in Hai City, and it was the same every year. The current Hai River was much more turbulent than usual. It had been a long time since there was such a rainy season in Ti Hai City. Perhaps it had been as long as Lu Wei could remember., there had never been such a thing. However, to Yan Huan and the others, the two rainy seasons in Hai City were very dangerous. Perhaps even now, it had made them really unable to love Hai River.

Lu Wei got off the car and walked to the side of Hai Jiang. She looked into the distance from the railing. It seemed that Hai Jiang was very uneasy. The waves in the river were restless, uneasy, and angry.

There were other things that made her feel uneasy. She turned around and walked further away. She raised her head and looked at the gray sky. The rain had never stopped, and under her feet was., the rain was also falling, and the rain was constantly falling around her. She could hear the sound of the rain falling on the ground, and some drops of water were dripping on the ground, splashing up from time to time., the ripples continued to spread, and she was ready to return to the inn.

At this moment, she did not notice that while she was walking her way, there was a car behind her, as if it was drunk. It was swaying as it drove towards her.

However, she did not notice it at all. All she could hear was the sound of the rain. In fact, she felt that she was still suitable to be a poet, especially now. She actually felt a little poetic.

Suddenly, there was a squeak. The car had already crashed into her. With another bang, the car crashed into the wall at the side

An umbrella was thrown on the ground, and the rain continued to fall on the umbrella.

Lu Wei raised her face and looked at the sky above her, which was raining from time to time. The Dark Gray Sky had already fallen. The rain fell on her face, and there was almost no color of blood.

She suddenly turned her head and saw the back of a person who had almost disappeared in the misty rain.

It was a man, a very tall man who seemed to be taller than her brother. However, he was not as tall as her cousin, Little Thunder. He was not fat, and was even a little thin, his hair was completely stuck to his head due to the rain.

She did not see what he looked like, but she knew that his body temperature was very hot. If he had not pulled her up just now, she might have been crushed into meat paste by that car. Also., she remembered his eyes, a pair of beautiful eyes. His eyes were amber, a very special color. They were not very dark, but there was a kind of pressure like that of a wild beast.

When Lu Wei came back to her senses, that person was already gone. The rain still fell on her body from time to time, soaking most of her clothes. She picked up the umbrella from the ground, then she shook the umbrella in her hand and held it above her head. However, when the wind that was accompanied by the rain blew over, she felt cold for the first time, and she also felt afraid.

Chapter 2186: asked her to confess

She could not help but shiver. She took out her cell phone and called the police. After all, the car was still hit. She did not know what happened to the people inside.

Then, she asked her brother to call. She did not dare to call home. She was afraid that she would scare her great-grandfather.

Her great-grandfather was already too old. He was more than 100 years old. Although his body was very strong, he could not be stimulated anymore.

After she made the call, she dialed 120. Because of the rain, there was no one here. She could only stand at the side of the car, but she could not do anything. The car door was badly deformed, she did not have much strength to pull the person out of the car.

Not long after, the ambulance arrived, and even the firemen came.

The car had been severely deformed. When the person inside was rescued, he was covered in blood. The rain kept washing down his face. No one knew how badly the person had been injured.

Lu Wei suddenly hugged her arm. She felt very cold.

Not long after, she was sitting on a chair in the police station. She was still wearing wet clothes, shivering from the cold. These people were not even willing to give her a cup of hot water, and the look in her eyes seemed a little strange..

Lu Wei touched her wrist, and the man's body temperature still seemed to be there.

The warmth in the warmth, the warmth in the coolness.

It was very strange, and also very contradictory.

"He was in a car accident because he didn't want to hit the car. Did you not follow the traffic rules?"

A police officer came over and accused Lu Weian without saying a word.

Lu Wei really didn't know why she was walking on the pavement. She was walking on the pavement, but it was the other person who let her. She didn't follow the traffic rules. When the person was carried out, he smelled of alcohol, how did it become her business.

How could she have such a great ability? She was walking on her own path, but she still had to let others crash on the sidewalk. Now, she was still half-dead?

"Speak!"The police officer's tone was very impolite.

Lu Wei pursed her slightly white lips. She didn't make a sound no matter what.

"Speak!"The police officer almost poked the tip of his pen on the paper.

Lu Wei lowered her head. She still didn't want to say it. How could she say such a thing.

"What? Do you think you can escape by not saying anything?"

The police officer sneered. "Whether you say it or not, you have to take full responsibility for this accident. You'd better explain yourself properly."

Lu Wei raised her eyelids lightly. She had never suffered this kind of injustice since she was young. Such an insult, and someone deliberately pinned the blame on her, her father was Lu Yi, the most famous prosecutor in Hai City. How many times had he fought such a lawsuit in his life? Even if it was a real lawsuit, would they be afraid?

Moreover, it was not her fault to begin with.

“I advise you to admit it earlier so that you won’t suffer later.”

The policeman threw the pen in his hand away. It was obvious that he had already convicted Lu Wei, but Lu Wei really did not understand. There was not even an investigation, these people actually dared to accuse her of such a groundless crime.

And now, she didn’t want to explain anything for herself. Because if she explained too much, it seemed to be of no use. Reason was prepared for those who listened to it. If they didn’t listen at all, then it would be like talking to a cow.

“Say it quickly!”The police officer lost his patience, and his voice was filled with impatience.

Suddenly, the door opened with a bang, and a woman ran in, panting. Before Lu Wei could react, she had already slapped Lu Wei in the face.

Lu Wei was hit so hard that she had no reaction.

This was the first time in her life that she had been hit, and it was by a stranger.

“Why are you still talking nonsense with her? My Brother is still lying in the hospital with no idea whether he is alive or dead. Arrest him immediately and sentence him to death. I want her to pay for my brother’s life.”

The police officer quickly stood up and was very careful. He looked like a triad member just now, but now he looked like a turtle. He must have known this woman, moreover, this woman could appear here brazenly. She could slap others as soon as she came in, but no one cared.

Even if Lu Wei was stupid now, she knew something. No wonder she didn’t even interrogate her when she came in. She didn’t even need to investigate. All the charges were pinned on her head.

So it wasn’t because of anything else. It was because they knew this woman, right?

Lu Wei touched her face, and it was still burning with pain.

The police officer let the woman go out first, but the woman did not move. She stood to the side and glared at Lu Wei with hatred in her eyes.

The police officer also felt that he had lost face. It was not because this woman had ruined his face, but because he had been asking for a long time, but he still could not get anything out of her, therefore, he felt very uncomfortable in his heart.

He looked at Lu Wei again, the smile on his face was still twitching, and then it was a fake smile.

“I advise you to admit it. Otherwise, our methods are not something a little girl like you can withstand.”

Lu Wei still did not speak. She just sat there, not even moving. She had natural self-cultivation. Although she was in a sorry state, no one felt that she was like a beggar who did not want to pick up trash.

When the police officer was about to force her, Lu Wei finally opened her mouth and interrupted the police officer.

“My family will be here soon. If you have anything, you can look for them.”

She lowered her head again and did not want to say anything more.

The woman’s hatred was so great that she wanted to go forward and scratch Lu Wei’s face, especially now that Lu Wei refused to admit her death.

“I will definitely beat you to death today, you little B * tch...”as she spoke, the woman directly went forward. However, before her hand could touch Lu Wei, she heard a bang. The door was kicked open from the outside, then, she screamed like a pig being slaughtered. Her arm was torn off by someone. Now, it was falling into the air in a distorted form.

The woman’s body swayed twice, and then she took a step back. Then, she fell to the ground unsteadily, and another wave of screams came out of her mouth.

When the police officer saw this, it took him a long time to react. “What are you going to do?”Before he could finish his sentence, a foot came up and kicked him directly on his stomach. It also kicked him to the woman’s place, his body just happened to be pressed onto the woman’s body. The woman screamed again, but she was not pressed down until she vomited blood.

Chapter 2187: who hit my sister

“You, you...”

The police officer sat up with his hands on his stomach. He stretched out his fingers and almost felt that his internal organs were about to be kicked open by these people, now, the intestines in his stomach were hurting as if they were being twisted by something.

“You attacked a police officer...”every time he said a word, he would gasp in pain. These people were really bold. They dared to attack a police officer, and they actually dared to hit people in the police station.

At this time, standing outside were two young men who looked exactly the same. Although the two of them wore completely different clothes and had different hairstyles, one wore glasses, and the other did not, it could not be ignored, it was because of their extreme appearances that the two of them were twins. There was no need to doubt this.

“Are You Alright?”Lu Guang Strode over. When he saw his sister drenched, he was so angry that he wanted to kill her. He did not even have a cup of hot water. His sister was not a suspect, and his sister was a victim.

They were triplets, but it was because they were in their mother’s womb that they took away all of their sister’s nutrients. It was because of this that their sister was less than two kilograms when she was born.

They had worked so hard to grow up until now, the Lu family did not know how careful they were in taking care of their sister.

Now, they actually wanted their sister to wear such wet clothes.

When Lu Guang woke up, he really wanted to kick these two people again. They were indeed very brave.

He took off his own clothes and helped Lu Wei put them on. Then, he rubbed his sister's hair. "Don't be afraid. Big Brother is here."

Lu Qi took a step forward and put his hands on his sister's face. Then, he asked his sister to look at him. His thick eyebrows were knitted tightly together.

"F * ck!" Lu Guang saw his sister's swollen face and was so angry that he wanted to kill her.

"Who hit her?" He gritted his teeth and asked the police officer.

"Tell me, who hit my sister?"

The police officer was frightened by Lu Guang's violent aura. He raised his finger and pointed at the woman without any sense of loyalty.

The woman was already in pain, so she could only grimace and grimace. Her face twisted. Lu Guang raised his head again and kicked the woman's face.

It didn't matter whether he was a man or a woman who provoked him. If he dared to hit his sister, he would make his whole family restless.

At this moment, a fat man walked in. He was so fat, and he had taken a lot of ointment and stuffed it into his stomach. Otherwise.., how could he eat such a big belly? How much oil did he take in? If he was cut open, how much oil would he take out.

The moment the woman saw the man, it was as if she had found her savior. Her face was swollen, and there was a shoe print on her face. One of her arms was twisted in the air.

"Wu Wu..."

She could not move her mouth or one of her arms, but she could still move her other hand. She reached out her hand and pointed at Lu Guang.

"I..."(they hit me)

"You..."the man with the fat belly was so angry that his eyes were red. His thick and short fingers were pointing at the Lu brothers like the woman

Lu Guang sneered, "I haven't found you yet. I almost bumped into my sister, and now you dare to interrogate my sister and hit her. Just wait for the Court summons."

After he said that, he directly held Lu Wei's hand. If it weren't for the fact that Lu Wei's clothes were wet, he would definitely let them know why the flowers were so red?

When the Fat Man wanted to say something, Lu Qi gave him a cold stare, causing the Fat Man to be stunned. He couldn't put down his hand that was in the air.

He could only let the man swagger away, but he could not even open his mouth.

When he came out to get people to arrest him, the others did not know what had happened. Why was everyone's reaction so slow today? They did not know what they were doing for a long time?

"Investigate, investigate for me!"

He was so angry that he shook the fat on his stomach. He hated him to the extreme. Hitting his wife was equivalent to slapping his face.

After he went in to help his wife out.

One of the police officers curled his lips. "I think he's going to be a deputy chief for the rest of his life."

"Exactly," the other officer echoed. "If you walk too much at night, you'll always encounter ghosts. Aren't they going to encounter ghosts soon?"

The other officer asked in a low voice, "Why do you say that? Let me know some inside information in advance. Be careful not to say the wrong thing or do the wrong thing."

"Stupid." The first person who spoke directly knocked on the head of this colleague. "How can you be so stupid? You can't even understand such a small thing?"

"You only know how to play with pesticides every day, call your cell phone, and beat Your Eyes Blind, right?"

"Do you know whose family those three people were from?"

"I don't know." The person who was scolded shook his head aggrievedly,

"Sigh, ignorance is really scary." The person who was scolding felt so sympathetic that he wanted to cry. For his own sympathy, why did he have such a stupid colleague.

"Let me tell you, they are from the Lu family. Do you know which Lu family it is? It is the Lu family of prosecutor Lu."

Everyone knew how famous the Lu family had been in the past few years. Other than the influence of the military region, the Lu family also had Yan Huan's wealth. Now, it was unknown how many hundreds of millions there were. There was also prosecutor Lu., could they offend him?

He was rich, famous, and powerful. In addition, Lu Yi was the number one person in the Hai City Procuratorate and had a very good relationship with mayor Gao. As for how good it was, no one knew. However., mayor Gao only had one daughter. In the future, there was an 80% chance that the two families were in-laws. Whoever was so blind would have to offend him.

And today, their director wanted to show off to them. It wasn't that he was blind, but that he didn't have eyes at all.

Who knew how many people here wanted to drag him down? Even the deputy director looked down on the director. If it wasn't for the fact that the deputy director's wife had some relationship with mayor Gao's wife, would he be able to tolerate it?

But no matter how good the relationship was, it wasn't as good as the relationship between the Gao and Lu families. To put it bluntly, the deputy director's wife wasn't someone who was Mrs. Gao's distant cousin. However, she definitely wasn't as close to her biological daughter.

With such a strong backer, when the others heard this, they were also shocked. Of course, they also secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, they did not make a move. If they did, they might not be able to bear the consequences. Of course.., many people also gloated over the misfortune of the person who had been beaten until his intestines were still hurting.

Chapter 2188: People You can't afford to offend

All he knew was that the uncle of the deputy director of the police department was always acting like a tiger in the police station. Now, he had suffered retribution. Besides, what did the death of the deputy director's brother-in-law have to do with the little girl from the Lu Family?

This was clearly the deputy director's brother-in-law who had drunk and driven himself to the brink of death. Yet, he insisted on dragging a little girl to take the blame for him. What was wrong with that? He thought that the little girl was pretty, did he want her to serve a cripple for the rest of his life?

And this deputy chief still did not know who he had offended. He was still running around in the hospital. His mother-in-law only had one son and one daughter. Now that his daughter had been beaten up, and his son had been knocked to the brink of death, he did not know what to do, his leg was now broken, and there was only one leg left. From now on, he would be a cripple. The deputy chief's mother-in-law cried and wailed, and he was also in a terrible state.

His mother-in-law was still shouting and cursing, saying that the murderer must pay with her son's life. was there any law in this world? If they tried to reason with him, they would be beaten up.

But were they being reasonable? They were clearly pinning the crime on him, but even if they wanted to pin it on him, they needed his consent. and clearly, he would not agree at all, and the deputy director doesn't even know who he's messing with anymore.

By the time he rolled back the next day, there were three more men in the station.

And these three people, no matter which one, are he wants to kneel directly to the Grandpa.

The owner of Yejia Airport, director of the Security Department, and Lu Da Da Da da prosecutor.

"Is your brother-in-law the one in the car accident?" Lei Qingyi asked the deputy director, deputy Director's Eye Corners directly jumped up, heart is also followed by a thud, but in the end or hard scalp.

"Yes, that was my brother-in-law's. He was in a car accident to avoid a pedestrian who didn't obey the traffic rules, and that pedestrian should take full responsibility."

"Really? But I don't think so."

Lei Qingyi pushed her computer in front of the deputy director. "Take a look for yourself. It just so happens that there is a surveillance camera installed at the entrance of a shop there, and everything is clearly recorded."

Although the images on the computer were not very clear, everything that could be clearly seen was clearly seen. There was also the Deputy Director's little ninth son's drifting-like driving skills. Ordinary people really did not have this ability, driving the car was like swimming.

The more the vice bureau chief looked, the more numb his scalp became. How could he have forgotten about the surveillance cameras? And he had not thought about these things. No, he had not intended to investigate from the beginning.

Actually, as long as he wanted to investigate, what could he not find?

He thought that he had not even investigated and had already decided to push all the crimes onto others.

If he had only used a little bit of his brain to investigate at that time, then there wouldn't be such a piece of evidence now.

"Also..." Lei Qingyi threw a stack of documents on the table again.

"This is a certificate issued by the hospital. Your brother-in-law is suspected of being involved in a serious drunk driving, ha..." he sneered. He almost hit someone. "You're still so righteous. Are you complaining that you didn't kill him?"

"In the end, you were stupid. When others were fine, he hit his own car and caused a problem. Do you still want to not take the blame for him? There are still laws in this world. You still have to uphold the law."

As for the deputy director, he was already breaking out in cold sweat. The sweat on his head was dripping down. He was really afraid. With such obvious evidence, even if he wanted to do something about it., it would be impossible. Of course, no one would listen to any of his explanations.

And his explanation was bullshit.

Lu Yi threw the things that he had been holding onto onto the table. "Organize your thoughts properly. I will sue you all."

The deputy director's forehead was covered in cold sweat. Sue, Sue, what was there to sue him for?

'Let's go.' Lu Yi strode out. Whoever dared to hurt his daughter, he would definitely not let them off. Moreover, he had to do it at this time. Yan Huan's health had not been good recently, so she had suffered some cold, however, it was also because she was getting older that her resistance was weak.

In the past, the loss of her health had also come out. Once she became ill, it was not easy for her to recover. Lu Yi did not dare to let Yan Huan know that Lu Wei almost got into a car accident. He also did not tell his family members, otherwise, the family would be in chaos.

And he wouldn't let go of anyone who wanted to hurt his daughter. No matter if it was the director or the deputy director, it was the same.

After Lu Yi and the others left, the director reached out and gently hit the deputy director on the shoulder, "You'd better get your wife to find out about the mayor's wife's side. Don't tell me you don't know those people?"

The deputy director nodded. Who Didn't know those people.

However, he shook his head again. Why did these people care about these things.

"Why do they care about these things?"The deputy director couldn't help but swallow his saliva. This matter had nothing to do with them, right? How could he have such time? Why did he have to care about all these things that couldn't be dealt with.

"You're arresting someone else's daughter. How could they not care?"

The director actually felt that it was really laughable. He didn't want to put anyone in his eyes. He thought that he could rely on the mayor and have nothing to worry about. He wanted to see how he would be able to have nothing to worry about this time?

"Oh right, this is for you."The director placed the document in his hand into the deputy director's hand, "You have to keep this properly. You also have to use it in court. I hope that you can win, even though I clearly know that there is a 100% chance that you will lose."

The bureau chief's words were simply piercing the deputy bureau chief's heart. It was as if his heart was bleeding.

The deputy bureau chief wiped the cold sweat off his head and hurriedly went to the hospital to let his wife think of a way. If they did not think of a way, they would really be finished.

His job was finished. His people were finished. His future was also finished. Even his future was finished.

The deputy director's wife really didn't put anything in her eyes. Of course, she didn't think much of it. "What are you afraid of? useless. She twitched her mouth. I'll call my cousin right away."

Hearing his wife say this, the deputy director was a little relieved, but his heart was still filled with anxiety. He couldn't put it down no matter how hard he tried. Of course, he couldn't calm down.

Could it work this time? Could it be resolved this time? And he was really too careless this time. He had forgotten to destroy the surveillance cameras.

What should he do now.

He really should be more careful, at least to find out his identity first.

Chapter 2189: finding a thick thigh

Lu Yi's daughter, wasn't she also Yan Huan's.

It wasn't like he didn't know how important Yan Huan's status was in Hai City. She had won the Best Actress award in both worlds and had also won a lot of glory for her country. Moreover, over the years..., she had never forgotten to do charity. Her status in hai city was very good. No matter who it was, they had to give her some face when they saw her. It wasn't just because of her achievements..., it was because she deserved the respect of others because she had saved a lot of people. She also had the Ah Hua fund, which had an unknown number of beneficiaries.

If anyone dared to do anything to Yan Huan, they would be drowned by the saliva of Yan Huan's saved people and Yan Huan's fans.

Why did he have the feeling that this time, he would really be cheated to death by his own brother-in-law and wife? Also, he seemed to have forgotten to mention Lu Wei's identity. Of course, his wife did not ask any more questions.

"My cousin asked me to go over."

When the deputy chief's wife said this, she was still very proud. Of course, she had hugged a thick thigh that would never fall. Did she still need to be afraid of others?

Yes, she did not need to be afraid of others. She did not need to be afraid of many other people. However, there were always some people in this world that she could not not be afraid of, and also could not offend. They were even people that she could not afford to offend, just like the people from the Lu family.

Early the next morning, the deputy chief's wife dressed herself up beautifully and was ready to go over to see her cousin. However, she thought about it and realized that this did not seem right. Her younger brother was still in the hospital, her parents had also aged by more than ten years in an instant. How could she go over dressed like this? She should have made herself more pitiful. This way, she would be able to make her cousin feel bad, after all, the one in the hospital wasn't anyone else. That was her biological cousin. He was still half-dead in the hospital after being harmed by someone.

As a cousin, she couldn't just leave him alone, right?

So she went back and washed off the makeup that she had meticulously put on in the morning. However, after removing the makeup, she realized that her face really couldn't be looked at. No matter how well she maintained it..., she could only make her face look a little whiter in her forties. No matter how white it was, she was getting old. Therefore, she could only hide her face behind the thick makeup every day. If the makeup was gone..., she couldn't even see people anymore.

She resisted the urge to apply powder on her face. She already looked old, and her eye bags were terrifyingly big. At this time, age spots appeared on her skin, and the corners of her eyes relaxed, her neck was also covered in circles of wrinkles. Recently, she had put in a lot of effort, and her face was still left with the shoe marks from the Young Man's kick. It was as ugly as it could be, and as disgusting as it could be, she touched her arm again. Although her arm had already been reset, she could still remember the pain of a broken arm. So this time, no matter who it was, she would definitely not let it go.

And she went to see her cousin with such a dignified appearance.

When she just arrived, she saw a young girl combing the fur of the big dog at home. It was a golden retriever of excellent quality.

“Hey, Shanshan, you are beautiful again. Here, this is really a woman who has changed eighteen times. She is getting more and more beautiful.”

Gao Shanshan, who was also Xiao Mei, glanced at her uncle who could not be a cousin anymore, then pulled the dog up.

She gave a distant smile to the deputy chief’s wife, then took the dog out. Her indifferent attitude was a little like slapping someone’s face.

The deputy chief’s wife’s face was naturally a little embarrassed now. She did not think too much of Xiao Mei’s bad attitude, and directly went to Mei Ru’s room. At this time, Mei Ru was cutting flowers on the balcony, she cut off the leaves and inserted them into the vase one by one. Then, she looked left and right. If they were not suitable, she would take them out and cut some more. This was repeated over and over again, it was also a kind of pleasure for her.

“Cousin,” i, the deputy chief’s husband, quickly called out and began to complain.

She said how pitiful her brother was now. His parents were anxious to the point of death. There was only one person in the family who could carry on the family line. Not only did he cause such harm to her, he even needed the wicked person to complain first.

Was there any justice in this world?

Yes, was there any justice in this world? Mei Ru also wanted to ask.

“Cousin, you have to help us.”

The deputy director’s wife was practically crying and crying, and her tears were falling down for free. Of course, it could also be considered as showing her true feelings. After all, her brother’s serial number was really in the hospital, and it was unknown whether he was alive or dead.

Mei Ru finally put the flowers in the vase away. She did not care how the Deputy Chief’s wife cried. Even if she cried nationwide, it was none of her business.

“Cousin...”

The deputy chief’s wife, who had been unable to wait for a reply, could not help but call out again.

“How do you want me to help you?”

Mei Ru was finally satisfied with the vase. Moreover, it was quite good. There was some artistic sense, which proved that she had made progress, and it was not a small improvement.

“Let the person who caused my brother to be hit pay with his life.”

The deputy chief’s wife gritted her teeth. “Cousin, you don’t know how ruthless you are. Look at my face.” She pointed at her own face. It was only a crystal in the past. Why was her face still swollen, there was also a big shoe footprint on it.

Mei Ru tidied up the leaves on her body. Then, she stood up and walked to the deputy chief’s wife.

“Your younger brother was driving under the influence of alcohol, so he deserved to get into a car accident. How can you blame the person who was walking? The person who was walking was fine, but he was thrown down from the sky by your pot. Isn't he even more innocent? He even wanted the villain to complain first. What, do you want him to pay with his life?”

“Cousin, that's your biological cousin!”

The deputy chief's wife refused to answer Mei Ru's question. Regardless of how the accident happened, it was that woman who had caused her brother's death and even slapped her in the face.

“Don't call me so close, it's not like we're related.” This was the first time Mei Ru had answered the deputy chief's wife so bluntly.

In the past, it was only because they were a little related by blood, so she was exceptionally tolerant. However, no matter how tolerant she was, there had to be a bottom line. This was her bottom line. This time, she would not help, she would not help.

The deputy chief's wife could not help but feel that her heart was in a bad mood.

“Don't...”

Just as she was about to say something else, Mei Ru rudely interrupted her. There were some things that she had to remind her. There were some people that she absolutely could not offend because she really could not afford to offend them.

“Do you know who the girl that your brother almost bumped into is?”

Chapter 2190: cheating wife

Mei Ru asked the deputy chief's wife coldly, “Before you know her identity, you want her to pay with her life. Do you really think that you're Omnipotent?”

The deputy chief's wife was stunned. She didn't know. How could she know? No one had told her.

“I knew you didn't know.”

Mei Ru curled her lips again. Some people were stupid. She was too lazy to even mock them.

“Her name is Lu Wei.”

Mei Ru said word by word. The more she spoke, the uglier the deputy chief's wife's face became. She didn't even want to hear it anymore. However, Mei Ru's voice continued and didn't stop.

“You're not unfamiliar with the surname Lu, are you?”

Mei Ru looked at the deputy chief's wife who was in a daze. “There are many people with the surname Lu in Hai City. There might be more than one named Lu Wei, but the only famous one is the Lu family.”

“Her great-grandfather was a true founding father. His grandfather retired, but he had the title of general. Her father is the prosecutor of Hai City. Do you know who her mother is?”

Cold Sweat broke out on the deputy director's wife's forehead. She must have known.

"I think you know. Yes." As Mei Ru spoke, she started to arrange the vases again.

"Her mother is Yan Huan. Yan Huan, who has tens of billions of dollars, has won two international best actress awards and Countless Awards. Her films are still at the top of the box office. She is also the founder of the Ah Hua Foundation. Do you know how many people she saves in a year?"

The deputy chief's wife's legs went weak and she fell to the ground.

Mei Ru pursed her lips and snorted again. She even sneered, unwilling to give her any, "You want her to be buried with you? She is the only girl in the Lu family. Her uncle saved my husband's life and her brother saved my daughter's life."

"I didn't lay a hand on you. It was already because of that little bit of blood relationship. You still want us to do those things for you. What do you think we are? Executioners?"

The deputy chief's wife was scolded until she retreated step by step. She couldn't even refute a single word. In the end, she could only run out dejectedly. After she returned, she began to think about what she should do next, was there anything else that could be used against her? She still hadn't forgotten what Mei Ru had said just now. That Girl's father was Lu Yi. It was Lu Yi.

When Lu Yi was working on a case, he would always dig up whatever he could. No matter how deep something was hidden, it was almost transparent to him. If Lu Yi really wanted to sue them this time., then she could imagine the fate of their family.

They could forget about staying in hai city in the future. If they stayed for another minute, even the saliva of those people could drown them.

However, she had not come to cut off those tails, nor did she have the time to remember what she had done.

Lu Yi's actions had already scared them.

They had already been sued.

And the things that Lu Yi had dug up had almost caused their entire family to sink into a state of panic. Even if they wanted to find help, those people would run faster than anything else.

In the past, when they were still in the limelight, which one of them did not try to appease them? They wished that they could stick to their family every day, hoping to get some of their trash. That would be enough for them to eat and drink for the rest of their lives

But now, when their family was really in trouble, each of them ran faster than the other, and each of them hid further and further away, as if they were afraid that they would be implicated.

In fact, this was the truth. The things that Lu Yi had dug up, if one was not good, those who were on good terms with them would be implicated. Of course, everyone would go as far as they could.

And now, the only person who could help them was none other than Mei Ru. But in this matter, Mei Ru could not help her at all, so what awaited them was only the punishment of the law, there would also be a lot of jail time in the future.

As for the deputy director, his position was gone, and so was his future. Originally, he wanted to lean on the big tree to enjoy the shade, but in the end, the tree was crooked. He was also thoroughly cold. Not only did he lose his position, but he also had to waste his entire life.

What, embezzlement? It really was the conscience of heaven and earth. He really had not thought about it, nor had he ever been greedy. That money was all stolen by his cheating wife, and it was also spent by her herself. She bought clothes, bags, and jewelry for herself, but she had not even bought him a single line. Therefore, he had suffered a great loss in prison. He had been running around every day, eating grass, fish, and meat, and wearing designer clothes and bags, even if he had to go to prison, it would not be a loss. It was not like he would be in prison forever. As for him, he had nothing to begin with, and now he had nothing to begin with. Just like that, he had to be locked up in the police station by his prodigal wife.

This matter could be considered settled here.

Of course, until now, not many people knew about this matter. Yan Huan didn't know, but ye Shuyun, Lu Jin, and Old Master Lu didn't know either. It was as if nothing had happened between them.

As for Lu Wei, she had learned her lesson this time. She knew that if she were to encounter such a situation in the future, she would directly shout out, "My father is Lu Yi!".

This way, no one would dare to lock her up, let alone beat her up.

She suddenly sat up and pulled up the lamp on the bedside. Under the soft light, it was her originally white and translucent skin.

She pulled open the blanket and walked into the bathroom. Then, she held some water and gently patted her face. It also cooled her somewhat hot heart.

She dreamed again.

She dreamed of a pair of eyes that were slightly narrowed, but were ice-cold. She could not see his face clearly, but she noticed his eyes and the pair of amber eyes.

"I'm really crazy."

She rubbed her face and walked back to the bed. Then, she pulled away the blanket and lay down.

However, it seemed that the wind was a little strong outside. By the second half of the night, she could hear the strong wind and heavy rain outside. There was also the sound of branches and leaves rustling. Who knew how much it would fall the next day.

There were also the meowing of the kittens from time to time.

Lu Wei could no longer sleep.

Those cats must be afraid.

She didn't think it was going to rain, so she put them in the courtyard outside. She didn't know how they were doing now. Would those little guys find a place for her to hide from the rain, she quickly took her clothes and put them on.

The rain in Hai City this season was very heavy. She was afraid that it would be like that year when she was four years old, when the flood in Hai City that year had passed the second line of defense and almost flooded Hai City.
