

Chapter 2231: her neck was really expensive

Lu Wei was stunned for a moment. Then, she stuffed a piece of sugar into her mouth. The sugar was very sweet, and it also gave her taste buds a lifetime of sweetness.

“Okay,” she agreed. She had already come this far, so she had to be brave. And she was not a person who liked to escape. She liked to do things bravely.

Moreover, he also believed that no matter how dangerous the Fang family was, she was not the only one. He was still there.

Lu Wei arranged the matters in the inn. This time, she would go back to the Fang family with Fang Yu. Xiang Xiang did not even need to go. After all, with Fang Yu around, there was nothing to be afraid of. Moreover, the Fang family had always been low-key but powerful, no one would dare to make a move against Fang Yu.

When Lu Wei stood in front of a large house, she was actually a little surprised. Although the Liuyuan Garden could be considered an antique garden, and there were so many tall buildings in Hai City.., it could not compare to the tranquility of the Liuyuan Garden.

However, the Liuyuan garden was not an ancient house after all.

However, the large house in front of her still maintained a courtyard that entered and exited a few times. As soon as she stood there, she could feel that there was the wind and frost of time here. As for the entire courtyard.., it was probably tens of acres and occupied a very large area. With the high price of real estate, the Fang family was really rich.

“Let’s go.” Fang Yu held Lu Wei’s hand tightly and led her in. As they walked, he introduced the bricks and tiles here. Every blade of grass and tree here also had an ancient charm that could be seen, of course, they were old.

Lu Wei sometimes thought that if there weren’t any members of the Fang family living here, if these weren’t the Fang family’s ancestral home, or if they didn’t belong to the Fang family, they would probably be listed as cultural reserves.

The entire Fang family was too big. If there really wasn’t anyone to lead the way for them, Lu Wei really felt that she would get lost here.

This would be our home in the future. Fang Yu brought Lu Wei to a main courtyard. This was where the head of the Fang family lived. Once they entered through the main door, they would arrive at this place. If it was any other place, they might get lost, however, this was definitely not the case. No matter which direction they went, there was only one main road.

When Fang Yu brought Lu Wei in, they saw that there were already two people inside. These were Fang Yu’s parents. From their looks, it could be seen that Fang Yu did not ask everyone to come when he returned, he was not a monkey. He did not need to be visited. There would be plenty of time in the future.

“This child is really good-looking.” Before Lu Wei could say anything, a middle-aged beautiful woman immediately came over to welcome him. She was simply stunning.

“You look so much like your mother.” Fang Yu’s mother’s eyes were glowing green. She was really too excited. “You don’t know.” She held Lu Wei’s hand tightly, “I’m a fan of your mother’s movies. At that time, I went to see the first two movies five or six times. At that time, you acted as a child, but now you’ve grown so much. Old Fang, quick, look. The daughter-in-law your son brought back for you is so beautiful. In the future, if we can have such a beautiful granddaughter, even if I die, it will be worth it.”

Father Fang was still sitting upright, but when he heard what mother Fang said, his eyes lit up from time to time

The Fang family was the same as the Lu family, they both lacked girls. Otherwise, it would have been several generations ago, but they had never fulfilled their promise with old master Lu, that was because the feng shui of the two families was really good, so more boys were born. The Lu family was obviously much luckier than them. After all, they still had Lu Wei, and the Fang family’s current generation.., fang Yu was the only one.

This time, when Fang Yu said that he would marry the girl from the Lu family who was engaged to them, both husband and wife were shocked. Before the old master passed away, they had always remembered this matter, but now, finally.., this agreement was fulfilled, and it was likely that the old masters of the two families could rest in peace.

No, no, what was there to rest in peace? Their old master was long gone, but Lu Yuanyang was still alive and well. He was already more than a hundred years old. It could be seen how good the feng shui of the Lu family was, moreover, Lu Wei was really too beautiful. They liked her the moment they saw her. Moreover, this kind of family with multiple children had a certain amount of genetic inheritance. Perhaps in the future, they would be able to have two grandsons at once.

There were many people in the Fang family now, but they were the only ones who had the Orthodox bloodline of the Fang family. Children had almost become a worry for both husband and wife.

And now, they were really too satisfied with Lu Wei. They were afraid that the Ducks in their mouths would fly away just like that. They really wished that their son could marry her today and have children the next day.

Moreover, it was not like the past where they could only have one child. They could have three or four children.

Now, both of them were young, and they did not have such excessive demands. They only wanted to have three children. If they could have three children at once, that would be the best.

Fortunately, Lu Wei did not know what Fang family’s parents were thinking. If they knew, she might really cry. Although she was born with triplets, she might not be able to have triplets in the future, her mother gave birth to triplets. That was luck. She might not be able to give birth to triplets.

Also, her parents were too enthusiastic. She really couldn’t handle it, especially her future mother-in-law. She was so enthusiastic that Lu Wei was scared.

She wanted to give the entire Fang family to Lu Wei, but Lu Wei didn’t even dare to take it.

“I’ll give this to you.” Lu Wei still felt that this thing was too valuable. She couldn’t bite down on it. She stuffed the small box in her hand into Fang Yu’s hands. This was the jewelry that Fang Yu’s mother had forcefully stuffed into his hands, it was bright and shiny. It was blinding.

“Why are you giving it to me?” Fang Yu didn’t refuse and took the small box. It would be the same no matter where he put it. It would be hers in the future anyway.

Lu Wei shrunk her neck. “Who would carry such a valuable item with them? Be careful not to get robbed by others. They might even lose their limbs.”

“Trust me, no one would dare.”

Fang Yu smoothed Lu Wei’s hair. In pingning, no one would dare to touch the members of the Fang family.

It was better to be safe than sorry. Lu Wei still felt that she had to be careful.

Fang Yu moved his finger to Lu Wei’s neck and pulled out the rope that she had been hanging around her neck.

“The greatest wealth of the entire Fang family is hanging around your neck.”

“What?” Lu Wei didn’t understand. What was on her neck? Was it her little head?

Chapter 2232: he was not a vagrant

“This is the most important item in our house. As long as you have this, you can sell the house if you want.”

Lu Wei was stunned. She widened her eyes and took the jade pendant from her neck.

She did not want to wear such a heavy thing around her neck. Did she not want her neck, or did she not want her life?

She glared at Fang Yu. “Why did you give me such a precious thing back then?”

Fang Yu only smiled. He had always known what he was doing. That was why he had given the Fang family token to Lu Wei back then, because he would go back to look for her.

“Then why did you become like that back then...”

Lu Wei recalled Fang Yu’s extremely miserable appearance at that time. He was no different from a beggar.

“Is it a relationship problem?” Lu Wei was too embarrassed to ask these things. Could it be that he had a woman who loved him to death, to the point of life, and to the point of making him half-dead.

“What nonsense are you talking about?”

Fang Yu pinched Lu Wei's face, "I had something to do there. When I came out, I accidentally lost my identification card and everything. I was waiting for my family to send my identification card over. It was only one night. When it rained, I happened to meet a beanbag that was born not long ago. I was drenched because of the beanbag. You didn't have a good eye at that time and treated me as a vagrant. Why? Do I look like one?"

Lu Wei thought about Fang Yu's appearance at that time. Other than his clothes and wet hair, he seemed to be a homeless person everywhere.

If he was really a homeless person, his beard wouldn't have been shaved clean. His hair wasn't dirty, and he looked like a dog.

It was all because she was too sentimental.

"I'll bring you to a place." Fang Yu held Lu Wei's hand and walked forward. Lu Wei followed him, and of course, there was no need to be afraid that he would sell her out. It was only for her that he brought her home after such a hard time, he had played countless games of chess with Old Master Lu, received many looks from Lu Yi, and fought with her twin brothers many times. Every time, he was injured, of course, he had a good relationship with his brother-in-law. As for her father, there was an 80% chance that he had not forgiven the person who had stolen her daughter.

There was nothing he could do about it. Fortunately, she had a very sensible mother, and her father listened to her mother. That was enough.

Besides, it was useless no matter how much he said. As long as Lu Wei was in the house like she was in the Lu family, and was not bullied by anyone, she could do whatever she wanted. She could eat, drink, and play whenever she wanted, no one cared. This way, it would be more convincing than what he said with his mouth. He believed that in the future, Lu Yi would quickly agree with him.

"Look here." Fang Yu brought him to a few large ancient buildings. It was very similar to the layout of the Fang family. However, there were some small buildings with three floors inside. Each room was separated by a room, and the area outside was very large, behind the courtyard, there were not only vegetables, but also chickens. It was like a garden, and these chickens and vegetables should be self-sufficient.

This place still had some historical and cultural heritage, but it could be seen that this place was exquisite and ancient. However, it did not seem like there were many people, and it was quite quiet.

Fang Yu brought Lu Wei upstairs. He opened a door and then went over to open the window. From the window, he could see the famous water street outside pingning. Not far away.., there was also a local pedestrian street that was very bright. It was on both sides of the Water Street.

This Water Street in pingning was almost famous throughout the country. The local people lived by the water, and most of their income came from this water street.

The derivative of this water street was local tourism. Because this was an ancient city with mountains and water, the scenery was beautiful. The four seasons were like spring. In addition, the local people strongly advocated tourism, therefore, the tourism industry here also became the biggest income of the locals. Naturally, the government also attached great importance to it.

There were many people who visited this place every year. Other than the unique water market, there were also unique delicacies here. Of course, this was very different from Hai City.

Was it delicious?

In fact, the moment Lu Wei arrived here, she was thinking about what delicious food there was. She had eaten too much. Her mother's dishes were very delicious to begin with, and the three of them had been fed by their mother since they were young, they were all fed by their mother with delicious food. In addition, her mother was a regular guest on a gourmet program. Of course, she had learned more and more delicious things from there, so she had let them eat them.

However, there were some special things that Yan Huan could not make and did not know about. There were too many people in this world who only had all kinds of delicious food. Even if she spent her entire life, she had only learned a little.

Of course, most of the time, the so-called delicious food had to be accompanied by a certain atmosphere.

There were many things that people would find delicious if they ate at a specific time. However, if they made the food for themselves or if they were in a bad mood, it would not taste as good.

What Lu Wei wanted to eat was the unique cuisine here. It was something that many people liked and needed a mood to eat. They only ate it purely and did not discuss anything else.

Fang Yu brought Lu Wei away and opened another door. From here, they could go straight to Water Street.

"Where are we going?" Lu Wei had always followed Fang Yu. Right now, she was still worried about the thing hanging around her neck. What if this thing fell off or was stolen by someone else? What would she do then?

Only later did she realize that her worries were unnecessary.

If she didn't have this piece of jade, it would be the same as having a key. Right now, Fang's house was filled with high-tech items, such as infrared Ray, face recognition, and fingerprint recognition.

Of course, this was only the first line of defense. If someone couldn't recognize it, they would immediately call the police. Fang's house couldn't be so useless. A person could take a piece of jade and empty Fang's house.

Jade was just a sign of identity. In other words, jade could indeed take away everything from the Fang family, as long as one was willing. However, they had to pass a series of tests first.

Moreover, the Lu family did not lack anything. Lu Wei was also a billionaire. Of course, only a few people knew about these things. The Lu family had been developing well in the past few years. The legend of the Lu family.., she was the granddaughter of the Lu family. She would definitely bring glory and wealth to the Lu family.

Chapter 2233: So he was also a foodie

And now, Old Master Lu was thinking that this child of the Lu family was not talking about Xun Xun, but Yan Huan. Not only did Yan Huan give birth to three children for the Lu family, but he also saved everyone in the Lu family, and that piece of gemstone that she had bought at a low price, only the Lu family knew how much it had sold for.

And she had given the three children a path that was higher than others, so that no matter what they did, they could have the greatest reliance and confidence.

At the very least, in this lifetime, they would absolutely not go to any trouble because of money. Of course, they had their own careers now, and in the future, they would also be in their own fields, they would make their own way, even Lu Wei was the same.

Fang Yu took Lu Yi on a small boat. Lu Wei was still quite afraid. She kept thinking whether it was safe or not, whether the boat would capsize or something like that. Even if it didn't capsize, what if a person fell into the water., she couldn't swim, and she was afraid of the water.

"Where are you taking me?" Lu Wei was really afraid. She could feel that her grip on Fang Yu's arm was tight, and she wanted to pull off a piece of Fang Yu's flesh.

"Haven't you always wanted to know if the food is delicious?"

Fang Yu stopped and held her shoulder again, "You'll know if it's delicious after you taste it. Also, don't worry. The security here is very safe. Moreover, every boatman is a good swimmer. Even if they really fell, they would still be there, and I wouldn't be there."

However, Lu Wei was still afraid. Because she didn't know how to do it herself, she felt a little uneasy. Anyway, she had decided that no matter how hard the other roads were, she wouldn't take the water route, moreover, on both sides of the road, she could walk down the small streets that were exclusive to this place. It was also similar to selling it on the surface of the water. Many people came here just to take the small boat for a while, and also to take the unique water route here, however, Lu Wei did not like it. She still liked the feeling of being grounded

However, when she thought about how she would be able to eat delicious food in a while, she temporarily forgot about her fear. She really liked this place. If there was really delicious food, she would bring her family over, this was especially true for her mother. Her mother was a gourmet. If she liked any of these things, then they would definitely be good things.

The boat kept rowing forward. If it wasn't for Lu Wei's fear of water, this place would have been a good place. It felt like Jiangnan in ancient times. Moreover, the water here was well protected by the local government, it wasn't polluted at all.

During the misty season, the boat floated on the water, there was indeed a unique poetic feeling. Not only was there water, but there were also unique delicacies. Some of them were passed down for centuries, while others had a thousand-year heritage. Even the buildings on both sides had some age-related things, one could easily see the peace of the past from here. What kind of fertile land was that.

In ancient times, places with water would definitely be rich. Of course, the first half of the year would be divided into rivers and there would be the Zhushang River here

The Sea River was beautiful, comparable to real sea water. However, it was also prone to flooding. However, the water here would not.

This river had raised generations of people here, and it would use new industries to feed more people here.

The boat had already stopped. Fang Yu stood up and brought Lu Wei ashore. Lu Wei's feet were on the ground. To be honest, she still felt like she was swaying.

However, she quickly put the discomfort behind her because she could see that there were many people not far ahead. There was also a small street that was selling all kinds of delicacies and local specialties with an ancient charm.

"Let's go quickly." Lu Wei pulled Fang Yu and ran over. Speaking of food, Lu Wei was an expert. She knew how to make it herself. Of course, she also liked to eat.

When she arrived, she found that this street that specialized in delicacies was very long and sold a lot of things. Many of them were on tricycles and sold the most primitive things. As for the good things.., were hidden in the small alleys of different sizes.

Lu Wei bit her finger. There were so many of them. Could she finish them all?

"You can come over these few days." Fang Yu really liked the way she looked like a little foodie. Young girls should be like this, and should live a carefree life like this.

Lu Wei didn't start from the first restaurant. She was the same as many people. She liked to walk on this natural stone road. There were indeed many things special about this place, and there wasn't a single restaurant in Hai City, moreover, there were many traditional things, many of which were not common anymore. For example, people who blew sugar, or people who kneaded dough.

These folk arts were all placed in an alley here. In the past, this kind of craftsmanship might be of all sorts, but now it was under the protection of the state. Of course, if anyone had this kind of craftsmanship.., they would probably be able to support a large family.

However, Lu Wei only liked and admired these things. If she was asked to buy them, she would not buy them. She was not interested in things that could not be eaten. Some things could just be placed there.., however, she did not have to own them. Therefore, she still preferred things that could be eaten directly into her stomach that were very special. For example, these were small shops with local specialties.

The shop owners here also spoke Mandarin with a local accent. When they greeted their customers, there were many people who did not speak Mandarin and spoke in the local dialect, the local dialect was not that difficult to understand. It might be a little tongue-twister, but one could roughly understand it. Moreover, there were times when one did not need to speak because most of the prices were clearly marked.

Lu Wei pulled Fang Yu into a small shop. The interior of the shop was decorated with pure wood. Even the tables and chairs were made of wood and seemed to have been used for a long time. Of course, the tables and chairs were also very clean, there was not a single speck of dust on the floor.

“This is a kind of local fish meal. It is made from fish meat. You can try it,” Fang Yu was a very qualified host, so he directly introduced it to Lu Wei.

“Have you eaten it?” Lu Wei asked with a smile. Why did he like to Talk Now? What about that kind of coldness, that kind of non-womanly, that kind of unapproachable?

What happened? Could it be that he had become a foodie when it came to delicacies? What about that aloofness? What about that kind of unapproachable aloofness?

“The locals all know about the local characteristics. Of course I know.”

Chapter 2234: thought about what she was thinking

Fang Yu pinched Lu Wei’s face again. He couldn’t help it. He really couldn’t help it. He just didn’t know if Lu Wei’s face would be like Yan Huan’s in the future. When she was fifty years old, she would still look like a woman in her thirties, she stood with her mother. To be honest, they looked like sisters. They didn’t look like mother and daughter at all.

It had to be said that the men of the Lu family were truly blessed. Even the daughter of the Lu family was first-class in appearance. This was really like Yan Huan. Yan Huan’s reputation in the past was also incomparable.

In a short while, the fish meal that they wanted was served.

It was sour and spicy. The locals also liked to eat sour and spicy food. This was quite similar to the people in Hai City. The people in Hai City also liked to eat more of this sour and spicy food.

Therefore, it was not that the customs were different. Even the food they ate was different.

Fang Yu was not picky about food. He ate everything, so any type of flavor was suitable for him.

It was Lu Wei’s first time eating fish meal like this. The taste was like rice noodles, but it was a little more tender and slippery than rice noodles. Of course, the most important reason was that it had the taste of fish meat, therefore, it tasted a little different from other kinds of noodles.

Lu Wei had never thought of learning this. This kind of noodles could not be eaten as rice. It was probably very troublesome to cook. If she just waited to eat this, she would starve to death.

After eating this, she was a little full. After all, although the amount of this kind of rice noodles was not large, when it came down with the noodles and soup, it was very filling. Her stomach had not seen much food, before she could even eat the second thing, she was already full. It was the very full kind. Lu Wei could only sigh at this, she was still more self-disciplined. Of course, she did not like to be stuffed to death.

Therefore, her stomach capacity was quite normal. In such a long alley, even if she tried a mouthful of soup here and there, she would still be full. It seemed that she had not eaten before. She could only come back tomorrow, of course, when Lu Wei returned, she was no longer willing to take the boat. She changed to a small road. Moreover, there were many small stalls on both sides of the small road. Some of the things were very special and could not be seen in other places.

After walking for about ten minutes, they arrived at the small garden just now.

“Do you think this place is good?”

Fang Yu asked Lu Wei.

“Yes, it’s very good.” Lu Wei naturally liked it. Perhaps she had a very sensitive ability, so when she first saw it, she knew that this place was the most suitable to be used as an inn. The road outside was very wide, there was also a large piece of empty land that could be built into a parking lot. There were about sixty-seven rooms inside that could be used as an inn. There was also a small courtyard. It would be best if she lived alone, of course, this place could also be like her Happiness Inn. She could plant bamboo in the courtyard. As long as the wind blew, she could hear the sound of the bamboo forest. As long as she opened the window, she could also hear the chirping of birds, she could also smell the fragrance of bamboo.

She did not feel it in the past. It was only after she stayed at Happiness Inn that she fell in love with a piece of bamboo there. Those bamboos had been planted in the past. By the time she had them in her hands, they had already grown into big bamboos, no matter what time it was, it was lush and verdant. The verdant ones were also quieter than the quiet ones. Staying there could almost be said to be a kind of enjoyment.

This place was obviously much more than her Happiness Inn, and there was also much more space that could be used. After many aspects of organizing and planning, a small door could be opened at the back, leading directly to the food street, of course, the most important thing was that at night, only the sound of the wind and the sound of water flowing could be heard.

It was quiet and also had some natural sounds. Therefore, it was suitable for resting and also suitable for living.

“How about this as Your Inn?”

Fang Yu asked Lu Wei. Seeing that she had such a high evaluation of this place, it was likely that she liked it very much.

“You mean here?”

Lu Wei pointed to the front. Here? Could it be that he wasn’t here just to show her the scenery, but to tell her that this place also belonged to the Fang Family?

“Yes.” Fang Yu nodded. “This is a piece of land belonging to the Fang family. However, even if it’s always left here, it still requires a lot of maintenance fees every year. This place is very good. I’ll use it to open an inn for you to play with.”

“However, the maintenance fees in the future will be yours. Also, he bent down and stared straight into Lu Wei’s eyes. The maintenance fees here won’t be cheap. You have to think carefully. If you lose out, you might have to sell me to be able to afford it.”

“Sure,” Lu Wei agreed happily. In reality, she just couldn’t bear to part with her blissful inn. That was her years of hard work. If she really left, she didn’t know how she would be able to adapt to her new life in the future.

Fang Yu obviously thought more than her and was more comprehensive. Therefore, he gave her this good place and also let her open an inn to play. In this way, she didn’t have to get used to living anywhere, and she didn’t have to stay in the Fang family. Bi Jian still had more people, it wasn’t that Lu Wei couldn’t do it. After all, people from the Lu family naturally had their own rules. However, he didn’t want Lu Wei to deal with those things every day, it was better for her to live a simple and casual life.

He would let her know that in the Lu family, she had people from the Lu family and could do whatever she wanted.

And in the Fang family, with him around, she could live freely and do whatever she wanted?

“You can change this place to look like your Happiness Inn, or you can plant a yard of bamboo in it. This place is yours. I’ve already transferred it to your name.”

He had always been a man of action. This was the woman he had decided on. Naturally, he would give her the best. There might be some things that he could not give her for the rest of his life. For example, he could not be her son-in-law, he had his responsibilities, so he could only let her suffer. However, he would do his best to give her the best, the most suitable thing for her. She would have what others had, and she would have what others did not.

Yan Huan sniffed. She was really moved. She could feel it. This man did not know how to speak sweet words. He had a cold personality, but if he was careful, even though he did not say anything., however, he had already arranged everything in advance for her.

“Don’t be moved. Think about it carefully. How are you going to Renovate Your New Inn? “I’ll get someone to help you. You just need to command it. If you start now, the inn will be able to operate in less than two months. You Don’t have to worry about the procedures. I’ll handle it for you.”

The little girl he loved the most in his life was also the woman who would be with him for the rest of his life. She had given her life to him, and what he did for her was what a man should do.

Chapter 2235: He did not want to marry his daughter

Of course, the so-called formalities were only a matter of his words. As long as she liked it, it was fine. Of course, she could also bring a few cats to raise.

The next day, he had already arranged for a few people to help Lu Wei renovate the inn. Lu Wei did not have to do anything herself, she just had to give the order.

“I want to plant bamboo here,” Lu Wei said. The person quickly took a notebook and wrote it down.

“I want to make a sunshed here.”

Lu Wei liked sunsheds. She could go from the inside of the room all the way to the outside. It was surrounded by transparent glass. It was even better when it snowed. She could wear thin clothes, sitting in the warm shed, it was as warm as spring. Just like that, she felt the snow fall around her, but it was not cold.

Looking at the snow scenery in the glass shed was also considered the scenery here. The glass shed might need to be installed a few more times. Every small building here had three floors. Every room also had a large sunlight terrace, Lu Wei planned to make the entire third floor into a greenhouse sunlight shed.

The entire inn also needed to be well-heated. The air-conditioning didn't feel very warm in winter. Lu Wei, who was used to having heating in Hai City, couldn't stand the cold. She liked to stay in the heating room, but she didn't like to stay in the air-conditioning room. Therefore, the heating here was a must. But fortunately, this was also considered the north. Of course, it was also well-heated. Although the inn didn't have heating yet, the heating pipe was at the entrance of the inn, as long as it was connected.

The modification of the heating was simpler than Lu Wei had imagined. Lu Wei was annoyed at first, but she thought it would be a troublesome matter. However, it was much simpler than she had imagined. In just a day's time, the heating had been completed. She had moved every room here and changed it into a sunlight heating room. In this way, it would be warm no matter where it was, and there was no need to add any heater outside the room.

This kind of renovation was actually a very troublesome matter. However, as long as Lu Wei voiced out her thoughts, naturally, someone would help her complete it.

What she needed to do was to eat, drink, and play in the food street outside.

No matter how busy Fang Yu was, he would still find time to accompany her. If he was not around, even if Fang Yu's mother came over, Fang Yu's mother's personality was very good. She had never suffered in her entire life, whether it was Fang Yu's father or Fang Yu, Fang Yu placed Fang Yu's mother first. Although she didn't have Yan Huan's looks and wasn't that famous, her personality had always been very good. She was also very cheerful. As for her personality, on one hand, she was born with it. On the other hand, she was shaped by her good life.

Hence, one could see from Fang Yu's mother that she had a superior life and a smooth life. Although she was old now, she still loved to play and knew that her son was busy, that was why she took the initiative to come over to accompany her future daughter-in-law.

Lu Wei felt that mother Fang had come over on purpose. In fact, it wasn't her who accompanied others, but Lu Wei who accompanied her, right?

Mother Fang was very familiar with this place. She knew where there was good food and where the food was special. It could be seen that she had come here often in private.

Lu Wei liked mother Fang very much. Mother Fang was very straightforward and loved to laugh. Of course, she did not put on the airs of a mother-in-law. She could eat, play, and laugh like a child, she also got along very well with Lu Wei. Of course, she also liked Lu Wei's personality very much. Lu Wei did not have any special bad habits. She was very sensible and was a good cook. Of course, she was not like the women nowadays, she had to wait for whatever time to give birth to a child. That was why mother-in-law was really smiling in her dreams. She was going to have a grandson soon, so now she wished that Lu

Wei could marry into the Fang family tomorrow, that way, there would be someone who could talk to her.

Every Time Lu Wei saw the mother-in-law's pair of shining faces, she did not know what to say, as for her mother-in-law, when she found out that Lu Wei was going to open an inn, Xinchun liked it very much. She even planned to open it together with Lu Wei. It was boring for her to stay at home every day, so she took care of the matters in the inn, she took responsibility for everything. It was very close to home anyway, so she would come over to take a look whenever she had nothing to do. She would also supervise the work. When the inn was renovated, she would come over and work as a shop assistant.

If the inn was going to make money, it would be Lu Wei's. If it lost, it would all be on her. She had a lot of money, so she was not afraid.

Lu Wei had lived here for about a month. There were still many places that she had not played, and there were not many good things that she had not eaten. But there was no rush. She still had a lot of time. Yes, there was still a lot of time.., was a lifetime enough?

"I don't agree." Lu Yi's face darkened. "My Daughter is only 23 years old. Why did she marry so early?"

"I Married You When I was 23 years old."

Yan Huan Lazily raised his face. "Lu Yi, are you bullying me because I don't have a father? That's why you lied to me. I was deceived by you when I was young."

Lu Yi, "..."

"This is different from how you were back then."

Lu Yi still did not want his daughter to get married so early. Even if it did not work out, he had to be like Xiaomei. He wanted to keep his daughter for a few more years.

"It's good for her to get married early."

Yan Huan sat up straight and sat next to Lu Yi. Then, he hugged his arm and placed his head on his shoulder, "Get married early and let her give birth to the child as soon as possible so that she can recover. Don't tell me you want her to give birth at my age as well?"

Yan Huan gave birth too late and her body wasn't in good health. At that time, she was still pregnant with three children. To be honest, it was really dangerous. If it wasn't for Yan Huan's insistence, the three children might have become one child, if she really wanted her daughter to be good, then it was better for her to get married early.

A woman would eventually have her own home. It was impossible for them to accompany her for a lifetime. and the one who could accompany her for a lifetime was the man who loved her. Therefore, she still advocated for Xun Xun to get married early.

Lu Yi was still unwilling, but in the end, there was no other way. Yan Huan had already agreed. Of course, the most important thing was that with the decision made by Patriarch Lu, what else could he object to?

It was just that after elder Lu had agreed, it was as if something was weighing on his mind. He seemed to be a little dispirited again, and he suddenly lost his spirit.

Yan Huan walked over and sat in front of elder Lu. Then, she placed the things she brought on the table and opened it. Inside was a roast chicken that was just made. She tore a drumstick and gave it to elder Lu.

“You know me better than I do.”

Chapter 2236: life doesn't have to be earth-shattering

Old Master Lu took the chicken drumstick and started to eat it. “I'm already like this now, yet you guys still won't let me eat or drink well. I'm already over a hundred years old. Don't tell me that I'm really old and won't die.”

“It's really good now. I've finally found a good home for my search. I can finally be at ease.”

Yes, he was truly at ease. Even if he were to die now, he would still be able to close his eyes peacefully.

After living for a long time, it was all because he was too tired.

“After Xun Xun Xun gets married, he will soon have children. You will then be great-great-grandfather.”

Yan Huan continued to eat the drumstick in his hand. He was not a lady at all, “Don't you want to see your great-great-grandson?” “You're the one who has lived in the same house for four lifetimes. To put it bluntly, there are many people who have lived in the same house for four lifetimes. It's not like you're the only one. You can still eat the chicken drumstick now, but everyone else has become a memory. Oh right, you have to remember this word. It's a memory. If you become a memory, your great-great-grandson might be able to look at your photos. Are you willing to do that?”

Old Master Lu's heart skipped a beat when he heard this.

“Do you think I can live for five lifetimes?”

“You're already so long-lived, how is that not possible?”

“Look at your current body. I'm fine, I'm full of energy.” Yan Huan chewed on the drumstick again. Such a big bite of meat was really enjoyable to listen to.

“I feel the same way.” Old Master Lu instantly felt that he was full of energy. His eyes, which were initially cloudy, also had some vitality

Old Master Lu, who had initially started to give up on himself, had found a new goal. He wanted to live. Yes, he wanted to live and wait for his great-great-grandson to be born.

In that case, he would be able to live for five lifetimes. He would definitely live until then, right?

Old Master Lu began to feel energetic. He was also thinking about his great-great-grandson. He could not wait for Lu Wei to get married and have a child immediately. This way, he would have a great-great-grandson and be able to live for five lifetimes together, old Master Lu was in good spirits because of his renewed pursuit. Of course, he also wanted to live and not wait for death. This also made the hearts of Lu Jin and ye Shuyun, which had been hanging on for a long time, finally relax by half. Not long ago., they almost thought that old master Lu was going to die or that Yan Huan had a way. Just a few words and old master Lu wanted to live again.

Lu Yi was still thinking about pushing the wedding date back. He didn't want his daughter to get married so early anyway, but now the old man's mind was on his unborn great-great-grandson, if he dared to stop him, wouldn't he be forcing his grandfather to death?

Perhaps this was old master Lu's last request in this world. He wanted to hold his great-great-grandson. He thought that if he really saw him, then he could really close his eyes peacefully.

And no matter how good old master Lu's spirit was now, it was impossible for him to live for long. After all, he was already very old, and all the functions of his body were severely deteriorated. It could not be seen from his appearance, however, the last time he yibin came to carry out a physical examination for Old Master Lu, he had said that old master Lu's health was already starting to deteriorate. He was already at the end of his rope. After all, he was too old, and it was natural for him to die of old age, therefore, he made the old man happy. He would try his best to agree to any request. The old man might only have one or two years left.

A few days ago, the old man was not in good spirits and his health was much worse. It was also possible that he had found a very good man for his granddaughter. Therefore, he did not have any regrets. With his mentality., it was possible that he would really be gone before long.

Now that the old man finally had some courage to live on, no matter what Lu Yi did, he could not kill his own grandfather.

He could only endure it and give up his little cotton-padded jacket that he had been in pain for so long to someone else.

Lu Wei married very quickly. A woman like her had already married into the Fang family when she was twenty-three years old before she had even grown into a monster-like figure. She married Fang Yu, and also married love.

Many people's feelings did not necessarily need to be shocking. It was a life-and-death struggle.

Wasn't it good to have each other?

Lu Wei was different from Yan Huan. Yan Huan had to support himself in the beginning, but Lu Wei did not need anything. She had a father, grandparents, and a good husband who would put her first in the future.

After Lu Wei got married, she moved to Pingning and started her own small inn there. As for the inn in Hai City, she handed it over to Ming Liang and his mother. Ming Liang was now in high school, he was now living in school. When he wasn't busy, he would go to the inn to help.

As for Lu Wei herself, she didn't live in a house. She lived in the inn that she built herself. However, she was only suitable to collect money and make a small vase. However., when she handed over the Happiness Inn to Ming Liang's mother, she realized that Ming Liang's mother had a good head for business.

After Ming Liang's mother took over the business of the Happiness Inn, it had always been good. In the first month, it had earned more than 200,000 yuan. Lu Wei gave half of the money to Ming Liang's mother. Of course, in the future, she would have to bear the responsibility of the inn, were all on her shoulders.

Ming Liang's mother was a woman that she could trust. She would treat the inn as her own home. Not to mention that Lu Wei didn't give her anything, even if she did it for free, she was willing. Because this was her and Ming Liang's home.

It wasn't like she didn't know how much the monthly net income of Happiness Inn was. If it was during peak season, it would be 340,000 yuan. Moreover, half of it would be hers. Then in a month.., it would be over 100,000 yuan. With such an income, not to mention other places, even Hai City would be extremely terrifying.

In the past, when she was in the Li family's village, Changsheng would only earn a few tens of thousands of yuan a month. However, it was already enough for Changsheng's mother to be insufferably arrogant in the village. She also treated her son as if everyone knew about him, she could do anything.

And now, she could earn tens of thousands of yuan a month, or even hundreds of thousands of yuan. If she met Changsheng's mother again, she would use the money to slap Changsheng's mother in the face.

It was also because she had the income from the inn that she directly returned the rest of the money from the house in one go. This house was already renovated. She wanted to let Mingliang live in it. In the future, when Mingliang went to university, there would be a limit to moving in, Ming Liang had long decided that he would be like Lu Qi and Lu Guang in the future. He would not enter any other local university and would only study at Hai City University. The house was really close to the university. If Ming Liang stayed there, it would save him a lot of money, Ming Liang was also very smart. He had his own plans. In the future, the house would be divided into small suites, and he could rent it out. In that case, he could earn back his monthly food expenses.

Chapter 2237:

As for Lu Wei, her new inn had been renovated, and it had already been put into operation. The business was very stable, and Fang Yu's mother had really come over to help, raising cats.

Lu Wei finally understood why Fang Yu liked cats so much. It was because he had a mother who loved cats very much. Fang Yu's mother had raised more than ten cats, and all of them were fat and chubby, they were also very lively and cute. They had become the scene of this inn.

This inn was just as Lu Wei had expected. Because it was very close to Water Street and the Snack Street, as well as the unique style of the decoration, it could be considered the most upscale inn here, although it did not have that kind of star rating, its reputation was very good. It was also very famous in the local area. Many people had come because of its reputation. Of course, they had also earned a large sum of money. Lu Wei did not know how much money they had earned, there were people who were responsible for the accounts. In the end, the money would be transferred to her private account. Whether it was Fang Yu or the members of the Fang family, they would not want this.

Even the profits from Fang Yu's monthly investments were transferred to Lu Wei. This was the reason why the men of the Fang family treated women well. They would give all of their assets to the women. If one day.., if Fang men really cheated, then Fang women would not only take away their own assets, but also all of their men's assets, as well as the qualifications to become a member of the Fang family.

Perhaps many men would commit such a mistake, but they would never commit it on Fang men.

A car stopped, and the car door opened. Yan Huan walked out, and in her arms was the bean bun that she had fed until it was deformed.

This was Lu Wei's second inn. There were already many cars parked outside. Not far away was a very beautiful water street. On the Water Street, one could see that it was filled with people.

There was also a large bamboo forest in the inn. From here, one could smell the faint bamboo fragrance. There was also the sound of birds chirping that was rarely heard in the entire inn.

"Mommy..."

Lu Wei ran over in a hurry. When she heard that Yan Huan was coming over today, she had been waiting here early in the morning. However, even after waiting for a long time, she still did not see him. She was worried that something had happened in the middle?

Yan Huan stroked his daughter's hair.

This child had truly grown up. He was already a wife and was about to become a mother.

"Ah, you're here?" Mother Fang came in from outside. When she saw Yan Huan, she hurriedly came over to welcome him.

Mother Fang was someone who acted as if they were familiar with each other. When she first met Yan Huan, it was too shocking. When she was young, she liked Yan Huan the most. Even now, it was the same. Although they were both women.., she still could not reject Yan Huan's charm.

"Why haven't you changed?" Mother Yan pinched Yan Huan's face. "No matter how I look at her face, it's filled with jealousy. She's so tender and tender. But what about her? Sigh, she's already become an old salted vegetable."

"She's old. It's just that she's aging slowly."

Yan Huan really did not feel that she was much younger. Her face was still the same, but her heart had changed. She had to admit that she was old. Her daughter was already married, and her son was about to get married. It would be strange if she did not admit that she was old.

Of course, there were some things that were indeed strange. It was like the time that stopped on her body seemed to be moving slower and slower, and it also seemed like it was moving without a trace.

Yan Huan walked into the inn. This inn was much bigger than the Happiness Inn. There were only thirty-four rooms in the Happiness Inn, but there were at least seventy to eighty rooms here. Moreover, the fees were also very low, the main reason was that the land was his, and the house was also his. Even the employees inside were his own, so they only paid for the electricity and some other expenses, however, there were a lot of people who came to stay in the inn. On average, there were more than seventy rooms, and there were more than thirty rooms. Each room was priced at the lowest, five hundred. In one day, it was close to fifteen thousand, therefore, it was quite scary to earn money.

The geographical conditions and hardware facilities of the inn were very good. Many people were willing to spend a lot of money. They came to stay here because it was unique, because it was quiet, and because of its unique features.

“Let me take a look at Doubao.”

The room mother hugged Doubao. When she touched Doubao’s soft meat, she was overjoyed. Why didn’t she raise her cat to be this fat? Although her cat was also raised to be fat, it was not like Yan Huan, she raised her cat to be a pig.

Or was it because Yan Huan’s food was so delicious that even cats liked it so much.

“Mom, I’ll take you around.” Lu Wei held Yan Huan’s hand happily. She had not seen her mother for a long time. She really had a lot to say to her mother. Of course, she also had a lot to ask her mother.

“Mommy, how’s great-grandfather?”

Lu Wei was most worried about old master Lu because he was too old. Without her by his side, she did not know if he was okay or if he missed her. If it was not for the long journey.., she really wanted to bring old master Lu here. The scenery here was very beautiful, and the soil was also good for raising people. Old Master Lu would definitely be in a good mood if he lived here, but he was just too old.., they did not dare to let him take such a risk. Moreover, it was winter now. It was such a cold day. It would not be a big deal if young people were to freeze, but if old master Lu was to freeze, it would be an unimaginable thing, it might even be a life-threatening thing.

Therefore, Lu Wei wanted to wait until the weather was warmer. She must think of a way to bring old master Lu and his son over to live.

Yan Huan smiled, still as warm as the morning sun, “Don’t worry, she comforted Lu Wei. He’s very well, his body is very good, but he misses you very much. Also, he has learned how to play the computer now. Don’t you guys play video games every day? Old Master can see you every day, so he’s very peaceful. Otherwise, he would have flown over long ago.”

Grandfather Lu was most worried about his great-granddaughter being bullied by the Fang family. It was Lu Yi who gave his father a computer. He was an old man.., he had never played with a computer in his life. When he grew old, he became fashionable. After learning this, he would know what his granddaughter was doing. She was busy in the inn every day, planting bamboos and raising flowers, then, she fed the cats. Her life was very comfortable. It was not any worse than when she was in the Lu family. Now, the old man was the proudest because he found a good marriage for his great-granddaughter.

Chapter 2238:

Yan Huan’s gaze stopped on Lu Wei’s flat stomach. Her expression was self-evident. She was afraid that her daughter would not be able to give birth.

“Mom, what are you looking at?” Lu Wei hugged her stomach. Although she was her mother, she was still a little embarrassed.

“Nothing much?” Yan Huan sighed in her heart. She did not want to talk about this anymore. It was possible that Xun Xun was just like her as a mother. She had to be twenty-seven or twenty-eight years old to be able to conceive a child. At that time, she was just like Xun Xun., she got married when she was twenty-three years old, but when she got pregnant, she would be almost thirty years old. It was probably the same for xunxun.

However, what she was worried about now was not xunxun, but Old Master Lu. Old Master Lu seemed to be in good health, but in fact, he was already at the end of his rope. All the functions of his body had reached a certain limit, this was the result of time. No matter how good a doctor or Medicine was, it was impossible to save Old Master Lu’s body. Therefore, Lu Jin and the others could only wait for that day to come.

This was unavoidable, and old master Lu himself was very clear about it.

This was old master Lu, Lu Yi, and she. This was the path that everyone had to take, and the end of this path was death.

She was only here to see her daughter, and also to taste the delicacies here. Of course, she didn’t want to steal any of their ancestral crafts anymore. She didn’t have the energy, and there were some things., if she went with a certain goal in mind, it would be less of a feeling. She was no longer the same as she was back then, so she wanted to live a simpler life, just like how she was in the past.

Lu Wei knew what Yan Huan liked, so she brought Yan Huan to visit a lot of places. Sometimes, she even brought her mother along. These three women could become a small-scale tour group, she went to all the places in pingning that she could visit. Of course, she also ate a lot of the food here.

When Yan Huan left, Lu Wei was sad. It was so good in the past. Before she grew up, she could stay by her mother’s side every day. Her mother would hug her, carry her, and tell her stories, but why did people have to grow up? When they grew up, they couldn’t stay by her mother’s side every day. Even if she wasn’t a girl and she was an older brother, he still needed to have his own job, his own family, and his own life in the future, he also had less time to spend with his mother.

“Don’t think too much. We are all the same. In the past, we live for ourselves, and in the future, we live for our children.”

Fang Yu gently patted Lu Wei’s shoulder and comforted her. “You should bear with it for a while. When I’m done here, we’ll go back to Hai City and live for a few months.”

Lu Wei had married far away, so it was impossible for her to see her family often. Therefore, Fang Yu was very sorry about this. Lu Wei had married far away because of him. For him, she had left her parents, her grandparents., and that 100-year-old great-grandfather was there to stay with him, wash his hands, and give birth to his children.

If he didn’t treat her well, then what right did he have to be her man?

In fact, he was already working hard. He knew that Lu Wei was getting homesick recently, so he had been busy with work. He wanted to accompany her back once, but it would take a little longer, perhaps Lu Wei would have to wait for some time.

At most half a month, he promised, and Lu Wei was also looking forward to it.

However, this half a month's time was not up yet. Lu Wei thought that her way home might have to be delayed for a very long time.

One morning, when she woke up, she was dizzy and wanted to vomit. She even gave Fang Yu a scare, so he quickly asked the Fang family's family doctor to come over. And when the doctor checked.., he also told her a piece of news that almost shocked the Fang family.

Lu Wei was pregnant, and Lu Wei had not been married to the Fang family for less than five months because they were still newlyweds and were together almost every day. However, they were using contraception.., moreover, they had only been together once because they could not help themselves. They just did not expect that it would happen this once, and then it happened.

"Ah!" Yan Huan blinked her eyes.

"Meow..." fat bean bun, who was lying on the sofa, meowed as well. Was he playing the accompaniment for his master?

"I just came back."

Yan Huan was helpless. She had just returned home after trekking through mountains and rivers. She hadn't even met Lu Yi yet, and she already received such news. Was she saying that it was a coincidence, or was she saying that it wasn't.

She put down the phone and dialed another number.

"Lu Yi..."

"I'll rush back tonight." Lu Yi was going to be absent today and was currently not in Hai City. However, he should be able to rush back at night.

"I want to talk to you about something." Yan Huan reached out and picked up the little fat cat lying on the sand.

"What's Wrong?" Lu Yi was not busy with anything else. Instead, he was specifically talking to Yan Huan. What was wrong with him today? He even knew how to keep him in suspense.

"You're going to be a grandfather..."

"What?" Lu Yi narrowed his eyes. "What did you just say? What do you mean you're going to be a grandfather?"

"You're going to be a grandfather," Yan Huan repeated. "Your Daughter is pregnant. You're going to be a grandfather, and I'm going to be a grandmother."

Yan Huan touched her face. She had finally reached this step. What was she going to do when she became a grandmother? She wasn't young enough yet. She really wanted to be young again. If the god of Fate.., could let her be reborn once more, how good would that be.

It was just a pity..

The time that had passed was never going to come back, and the years that had passed had finally stained her brows slightly.

She was going to be a grandmother, and she was going to have a grandson. On the other side, Lu Yi still had to digest the news. Yan Huan first went to the Lu family to find old master Lu to tell him about this news.

Old Master Lu had been waiting for this good news for a long time. wasn't he waiting for this news.

"Really?" Old Master Lu's reaction was different from Lu Yi's. Lu Yi was just guessing, while Old Master Lu was happy.

"Great-great-grandson, five generations under one roof."

"Haha, Haha..."

Old Master Lu placed his hand on his waist. He had finally waited, waited for five generations under one roof, and waited for old master's great-grandson.

Yan Huan, who was standing at the side, was worried. She was afraid that old master would be so happy and sad that he would lose his focus and laugh himself to death. What should she do?

"What kind of Look is that?" Old Master Lu rolled his eyes at Yan Huan. "Are you thinking that I will laugh myself to death later?"

"I don't dare," Yan Huan could only deny it. Although she had really thought about it, she really didn't dare to say it out loud. If she really dared to say anything, Old Master Lu would definitely roll his eyes at her to death.

The only person in the family who wasn't afraid of Old Master Lu was probably the person they were looking for. That was the only person they were truly not afraid of. However, she was still a little afraid.

Chapter 2239: passing away

"HMPH!" Old Master Lu snorted. His appearance was quite similar to his 70s and 80s. His temper was still the same, and his mouth was equally poisonous. Of course, when he cursed, he was full of energy.

Sometimes, Yan Huan had the illusion that old master Lu was not 100 years old at all. He was only 10 years old.

Usually, when one lived to his age, he would probably be unable to walk anymore. However, he did not know how he lived. He was already over a hundred years old, yet he could still walk around. He did not need anyone to support him. Furthermore, he could eat and sleep, when one was in high spirits, even young people would feel inferior to them.

Yan Huan did not dare to say anything in front of old master Lu. The more she said, the more annoying he would be. Hence, she shut her mouth and let Old Master Lu enjoy himself. In a while, she would go home and share this happy event with Lu Yi.

She just did not know if Lu Yi, who had always treated his son-in-law with a bad attitude, would change his opinion this time.

At night, Lu Yi rushed back as expected. However, he did not seem to have any special reaction. This was the calm and collected prosecutor Lu. He had regained some of his calmness, now, he was really resigned to the fact that his little cotton-padded jacket had been snatched away by another man.

No matter how much it hurt, his little cotton-padded jacket would belong to someone else in the future. This was the price they had to pay for raising their little cotton-padded jacket.

As for Lu Wei, she had unexpectedly hit the jackpot this time. She herself had not been prepared for this. This sudden addition of a little doll had almost frightened Fang Fang's father and mother. This was the eldest grandson of the Fang family, naturally, it was extraordinary. Of course, they did not care about gender. Boys were good, and girls were even better. Of course, they still wanted more girls, this was because their Fang family had not had a little princess for a long time.

When they had their first pregnancy test, the doctor told them that Lu Wei was pregnant with two this time. Perhaps it was really because she was one of the triplets, so if she could conceive twins.., that would be very normal.

And perhaps it was because she was young and her body was very strong. It was much easier than when Yan Huan was pregnant with them. Yan Huan was pregnant with the three brothers back then because his uterus had been injured, therefore, he could not even take one more bite, so the three of them did not weigh too much. However, Lu Wei was different.

Her body was very healthy, and she hadn't suffered any injuries. Because she was young, it was easy for her to get pregnant. It had been three months since she found out, and she had been eating and sleeping well, she didn't even feel anything, but her stomach was starting to swell.

Time passed really quickly. The grandchildren of the Fang family's current generation couldn't wait to come into this world. They were indeed twins, and they were both boys. They would know when they were born, the looks of these two children would follow Lu Wei in the future. Lu Wei herself was very good-looking. It could be seen how cute and beautiful these two children who looked like their mothers were. Their facial features were very similar to their mothers, however, the color of their eyes was exactly the same as their father's. They were both light amber in color. The moment these two children were born, they became the little celebrities of the entire Fang family. It was a pity that they did not have a granddaughter. However, it did not matter, Lu Wei was still prepared to give birth to another child. She would definitely give birth to a beautiful little girl.

After the child had passed the full moon, the weather became slightly warmer. Fang Yuhe and Lu Wei carried the child back to Hai City.

Old Master Lu looked at his fair and fat great-great-grandson and couldn't stop smiling. It was really not easy. It had been a long time since his family had seen such a small child. Look at this small appearance.., he was so good-looking. One look and one could tell that he looked like xunxun.

Old Master Lu really felt that his life had been too wonderful. He could finally say that he had lived his life to the fullest.

Old Master Lu spent every day playing with his great-great-grandson, as if he wanted to see these two children more. The two children were also very obedient. As long as they were fed, they would not cry or make a fuss, they were very easy to take care of.

The two children slept in their cribs obediently. From time to time, they nibbled on their little hands and feet, making people really want to pinch their little faces from time to time.

Not to mention Old Man Lu, even Lu Jin and ye Shuyun had become great-grandfather and great-grandmother. Now, the happiest one was Lu Jin. Lu Jin also repeated the time when the triplets were born, old Master Lu had said those heart-wrenching things. He had called this and informed that he had two great-grandsons. The two little guys looked like their mothers. Their looks could not be described with words.

However, he had said too much. He really could not have any friends in the future.

Because of the two children, there was a lot of happiness at home. Old Master Lu also quietly passed away the next day after the children were born. When he passed away, he was already 106 years old, it was also discovered by the guards. The old master was not much different the night before. He only asked the guards to help him take a bath, saying that it was too dirty and that he wanted it to be cleaner, the old master did not wake up the next day.

The guards thought that the old chief was really sleeping, so they did not think of waking him up. It was not until a few hours later, when the guards felt that something was not right, that they pushed the door open and entered, at that time, Old Master Lu was no longer breathing.

It was as if he had fallen asleep. The expression on his face was relaxed, but of course, it was very peaceful. There was still a smile on the corner of his mouth.

Old Master Lu had not lived his life in vain. He had watched his favorite granddaughter get married and have children. He had been in the same house for five lifetimes, so he really had no regrets and could die in peace, that was why his expression was so peaceful.

In fact, everyone had been prepared. After all, the old man was already so old. In fact, they had already known that it would be like this a few years ago. When they were looking for a husband, the old man did not really want to live anymore, later, Yan Huan used the words "Five lifetimes in the same house" to allow the old man to live for another year or so. But now that he was already in the same house for five lifetimes, they did not have any reason to.., they couldn't possibly say that they would wait until six generations under the same roof. That would be too unrealistic. Furthermore, old man Lu himself knew about this. He had also fulfilled his destiny. Hence, he had quietly left alone in his sleep.

Fortunately, he had never suffered. Fortunately, he had left peacefully.

However, no matter how old this old man was, they were still sad that he had left.

"Alright, Don't cry anymore."

On Lu Wei's shoulder in the building of Yu, "Grandpa Zeng is already very old. If he were to continue living, he wouldn't be willing to. He is an extremely arrogant old man. He wouldn't allow himself to end up in a wheelchair or be unable to take care of himself. He wouldn't be able to live without his dignity. Wouldn't it be great if he could leave in such a spirit?"

Chapter 2240: Lu Guanggun

Lu Wei nodded. She understood her great-grandfather's personality. There was no one in this world who could stay with anyone forever. When she was young, she always thought that her great-grandfather would stay with her for a very long time, however, she only realized now that human life was too weak. She did not properly show her respect to him, and he was already gone.

In the future, there would still be her grandfather, grandmother, and her beloved father and mother. Every time she thought of this, she could not help but feel uncomfortable.

Therefore, she knew that she had to treat her relatives better when she was alive. Otherwise, would she have to burn paper money for them after they died? What was the point of that?

Lu Wei was a very simple and innocent ordinary person. She did not have much ambition. She only wanted to find and take care of her grandparents and her parents. And she knew that as long as she lived well., it was the best way to take care of her family.

Therefore, she would definitely be happy. She would often find time to come back and accompany her parents.

Two years after old master Lu left, Lu Qi married Xiao Mei. The two of them were childhood sweethearts, so they were suitable for each other. Perhaps it was because they knew each other too well that they got together naturally, Lu Qi's personality was very strong. He did not need a strong woman. Xiao Mei's personality was very soft and obedient, and Xiao Mei listened to him. He was a bit of a chauvinist, Xiao Mei's personality was enough for him to be a chauvinist.

As for Lu Guang, he was obviously popular with women, but he didn't have a serious girlfriend.

His law firm was becoming more and more famous. Of course, the scale was also growing. He himself became the number one lawyer in Hai City. Only the cases he didn't want to take, as long as he took them., then he would definitely not lose.

Of course, he liked to play tricks with others. Otherwise, life would be boring.

"Mr. Lu, why? Aren't you going home yet?"

When the employee saw that Lu Guang was still sitting in the office, he knew that he might not be going home again today.

"Yes." Lu Guang crossed his hands behind his head and leaned back, "I don't dare to go home. My mom asked me to marry a wife, but I'm living a good life alone. Why do I have to find myself a woman and then bother me?"

"That's true." The employee felt the same way.

“What do you know?” Lu Guang asked his employee in amusement. He looked like he understood. When did he become a worm in his stomach.

“Of course I know,” the employee said in a very serious manner. He couldn’t be more serious. Moreover, he spoke in an orderly manner, “Mr. Lu, your mother is so young. Being your daughter-in-law is really too much of a blow. I don’t think anyone would dare marry into your family.”

What he said was the truth.

Many people changed year by year, especially women. After reaching the age of forty, women began to age faster and faster. Moreover, they were getting older and older. After reaching the age of five, they were already a middle-aged woman, but Yan Huan, the last time he saw her, why did he feel that she was even younger than a few years ago? She had reached the age of puberty, and she was also beautiful to the point of aging.

Therefore, it was too stressful to be the daughter-in-law of the Lu family.

Originally, she was not as beautiful as her mother-in-law, so there was no need to mention it. But now, her mother-in-law was actually younger than him. If he married her, he could rely on his age to regain some confidence, after all, no matter what, a woman in her twenties was still better than an old woman in her fifties or sixties. But so what if she was young? Who Could Be Young for a lifetime? In the end, she would still be beaten to the ground by her mother-in-law.

He also really felt that it was best for ordinary women not to marry into the Lu family, without that kind of psychological endurance, he really didn’t want to go, and he also didn’t want to marry.

And it was normal for Lu Guang to be single.

See, this name gave him the best hint. Lu Guang, Lu Guang.

And now, Lu Guang was already 27 years old. A 27-year-old man, to put it bluntly, was almost 30 years old, but he was still just hanging around.

Lu Qi had been married for two years. It was normal for him to not have children now. After all, he was still young.

As for Lu Wei, she really did not know how she grew up. She had given birth to twins twice in a row, but in the end, they were both twins. The eldest and the second were already three years old. The third and fourth were only a few months old, but they had given birth twice.., but they had not given birth to a girl.

Now, the Fang family wanted a girl’s heart, but it was much scarier than the Lu family back then.

And Lu Wei’s current stance might still have to give birth. She had to give birth to a girl. She also liked girls. Otherwise, with such a beautiful face, what would happen if no one inherited it?

And no matter how many children she gave birth to, no one would say that the Fang family had some foreign blood. They were a minority, so they were not affected by the family planning.

Only Lu Guang was still single. Of course, he was afraid of being criticized by his family, so he had to stay in the company for the sake of peace and quiet.

Besides, he was alone. He could stay anywhere. If he really couldn't, he would hide with his sister for a while and then tease his little nephew. Those children all looked like his sister, a little bit.., they really did look alike, just like him and his big brother.

As for the matter of marriage, he still didn't want to think about it now.

Besides, he was only 27 years old. What was there to be anxious about? There was no hurry. Uncle he was in his thirties before he got married. He was almost forty years old before he had a child. He still had more than ten years to play with. This life.., he lived a happy and enjoyable life alone.

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door, which pulled Lu Guang back from his wandering thoughts. He picked up the document on the table and began to read it. From the sound of the knock on the door, it should be his little secretary.

There were many women who drooled at him in this world. After all, his conditions were too good, too strong, and too advantageous.

It was not just because of his outstanding looks. Of course, his career was outstanding as well. He was not the kind of rich second generation that only ate at home. He was also not the kind of uneducated and incompetent prodigal son. He had his own career, and he also made his own career sound and impressive.

Of course, his family was even more outstanding.

He was a member of the Lu family, and his mother was the once popular movie Queen Yan Huan. Up until now, her position in the entertainment industry was also unmatched by anyone else. Her reputation was very good, and her reputation was also very upright, currently, she was still at the top of the box office rankings.

Her father was Lu Yi, the only prosecutor in Hai City who had special privileges.

His older brother was now a lieutenant colonel, and his younger sister, Lu Wei, had married into Pingning's real estate family. It could be said that she was a descendant of a famous family. With his character, his family background, his looks, and his bearing.., and with a man like him, the blood on his body, the flesh on his body, and the bones on his body, to the female lead, they all emitted a charming fragrance.
