

Sweet Wife 2291

Chapter 2291: was she a pig

The moment the director came over, even he yibin came over. This was the grandson of the Lu family, and it was possible that he was their only grandson. He was as precious as he could be.

Nothing must happen to this child. Otherwise, how was he going to explain himself to the people from the Lu family..

“Is it like this?”

The chief looked at it for a long time before he sat down personally. He held the instrument and placed it on Qin Yushi’s belly as he slid it gently.

The chief nodded. “That’s indeed the case.”

Qin yushi could not understand their conversation. She only felt that her palms were sweating. Not only was she nervous, even the Doctor was nervous.

When Qin Yushi came out, she seemed to have collapsed. She sat there and didn’t move. The Doctor, the chief physician, and he Yibin were all there. They had been studying it for a long time, but they didn’t know what they were studying?

“Don’t worry, it’s fine.”Lu Guang patted Qin Yushi’s back. “Our children will be fine. The children of the Lu family have always been very strong.

Just like the three of them, they grew up strong in their weak mother’s body. Their mother didn’t give up on them, so of course, they wouldn’t give up on themselves.”

He believed that their children were the same.

After another half an hour, he yibin rushed over. His white hair and a very amiable smile made the tense atmosphere subside slightly.

“Oh, you don’t have to worry.”

He Yibin sat down and placed the report in front of Lu Guang.

“Uncle He...”

Lu Guang was lying when he said that he wasn’t nervous. was the child okay?

“Don’t worry, he’s fine.”He Yibin smiled. “He’s fine. Everything is fine.”

Qin yushi let out a long sigh when she heard that he was fine. Her heart, which had been hanging in her throat, was also relieved.

“But...”

He Yibin, who was the next one, could not do it. Her heart, which had finally relaxed, instantly tensed up.

What happened again?

Was he going to scare people to death with all this fuss?

He Yibin felt sorry when he saw Qin Yushi’s face turn green and white. He did not do it on purpose. Young people nowadays were so impatient. Could he just hear him out first.

He poured a glass of water and placed it in front of Qin Yushi.

“Drink it first. I’ll say it after you’re done.” If not, he was afraid that he wouldn’t be able to drink any more water.

“Thank you, Uncle He.” Qin yushi obediently took the glass and drank the water. She couldn’t relax when he Yibin said that, even her muscles tensed up.

After she finished drinking the water, she put the cup down and gently exhaled. She didn’t want to be so nervous that she didn’t even dare to breathe.

He Yibin looked at Qin Yushi and smiled lovingly.

“Yushi, you’ll have to work harder in the future. However, it’s worth it. Look at your mother-in-law. When she was pregnant with Lu Guang and the other two, she gave birth to them hungry. Her uterus was injured and she couldn’t bear such a birth. Initially, we only wanted her to keep one, but your mother-in-law wasn’t willing. At that time, we went through a lot of trouble to give birth to Lu Guang and his brother. Of course, in the end, there was also Xun Xun.”

Qin yushi blinked. She knew all of this.

She was already prepared to be a mother. Could it be that her body was like Yan Huan’s back then, unable to have children? However, she had always been in good health. Furthermore, she had never mentioned it during her previous physical examination, she was not suitable to have children.

“Uncle he, is something wrong with the child?”

Lu Guang asked worriedly. He held Qin Yushi’s hand tightly and comforted her.

“AH, it’s fine. It’s fine.”

He Yibin smiled again. “The child is fine. It’s fine. They’re still in their embryo stage, but they’re strong now.”

“They...”

Lu Guang narrowed his eyes as a pleasant surprise flashed across his mind.

“Uncle he, are you saying that Shishi is carrying two pairs of twins?”

The Lu family had the genes for multiple births, so it would be very easy for them to carry two pairs of twins without any accidents. For example, Lu Wei had already given birth to two pairs of twins.

It would be great if Qin Yushi was carrying two pairs of twins. This way, their big brother's worries would be over. In the future, if they were to have another daughter, they would have both sons and daughters, however, the probability of the Lu family giving birth to a girl was too low. If they gave birth again, it would still be the same boy. Therefore, they did not force the Lu family to give birth to a boy or a girl.

If it was two girls, that would be even better. If it was two boys, then there would be no other choice. Everyone would only have one brat to take care of them.

If it was a boy and a girl, the son would have to trouble his big brother. Of course, they would take care of their daughter, who was such a caring little cotton-padded jacket.

He Yibin was still smiling. It was unknown whether his eyes were filled with envy or jealousy

"They're not twins." He sighed. "If they were really twins, the Doctor would have told you at that time. There wouldn't have been a need to specially invite me over."

"If they're not twins, then they're..."

Lu Guang did not dare to guess anymore. "If they're not twins, could it be three?"

"It's not three either."

He Yibin shook his head. "I really admire your family's genes. How did they grow? Do you know? It's four. Four."

He reached out and rubbed the top of Qin Yushi's head, as if he was looking at his own child, "Shishi, do you want to be my goddaughter? It's also to give your good fortune to my he family. I'm afraid that my he family will be cut off."

Qin yushi was still immersed in the news that she was pregnant with four children. Not only was she happy, but she was also shocked. It was too terrifying, wasn't it?

Was she a pig? People gave birth to one child at a time. It was difficult to give birth to two children. It was a miracle to give birth to three children. But why did she have to give birth to four children at a time?

Two children at a time was considered lucky. Three children at a time was a surprise. But what did it mean to give birth to four children at a time? Even if they gave their eldest brother two children, they still had two children. Wouldn't they still have to split their love in half, one and half.

They just want one, and then give all their love to him. But why four at a time.

Chapter 2292: was the Lu family

When Lu Guang brought Qin yushi back, the entire family was waiting for them.

Qin Yushi had finally met the Lu family. In the past, she had only heard voices, but only when she could see with her eyes did she finally meet them in person. Yan Huan was still the same, and she was very beautiful, she was almost detached from the secular world, and it was difficult to describe her beauty. She lost track of time, and her age was blurred. The middle-aged man sitting next to her was Lu Yi. He was very tall, his figure did not change, and he was still very tall. His facial features were somewhat similar to Lu Guang's. However, Lu Guang might have inherited his mother's genes, so his facial features were more beautiful.

On the other side, Lu Qi and Xiaomei were sitting. Lu Qi looked exactly the same as Lu Guang, but there was a big difference in his temperament. Lu Qi was a little stiffer, like Lu Yiduo, as for Lu Guang, because he became a lawyer, he was always smiling. His smile was even more enigmatic. The two brothers looked exactly the same, but it was precisely because one was in the military and the other was in business, they were very different.

It was impossible for him to be mistaken.

Lu Qi was square and well-behaved.

Lu Guang, on the other hand, was round on the outside and square on the inside. It was hard to tell whether he was smiling or not.

Sitting next to Lu Qi was Xiao Mei. Xiao Mei had always been smiling, but she was a little cautious and shy. Indeed, both Xiao Mei and her were delicate and pretty, in the eyes of others, they might be considered pretty, but compared to Yan Huan, they could only be said to be ordinary. Therefore, in the Lu family, it was really not a place to look at faces.

Yan Huan's face had already made them tired of appreciating beauty. They would rather look ordinary for such a young mother-in-law. No matter how beautiful she was, it was impossible for her to be more beautiful than this mother-in-law. There was no need for them to compare their ordinary looks with that of their mother-in-law, only when she was slightly more beautiful would she be compared to others.

"Have you confirmed it?" Yan Huan asked Lu Guang. It was rare for her to smile so beautifully. She really didn't look like a woman in her fifties or sixties at all. She really didn't look like a young girl in her twenties, it seemed like people really believed her.

"Yes." Lu Guang nodded. "Uncle he checked many times before he confirmed it. It's quadruplets. Mom, our genes are really good."

Lu Guang also felt that his genes were too good. He got it in one try, and he even got four in one try. This was the greatest pride of his life, but Qin Yushi's was rather awkward, she really felt like she had turned into a pig all of a sudden.

"Has Shishi's eyes recovered?"

Yan Huan didn't really care about his grandson anymore. After all, his grandson was already in his stomach. He would grow up eventually, right?

She met Qin Yushi's eyes. Although she had a pair of thin lenses, she could see that her eyes were very clear. It should be fine now, right?

"Yes, it's fine." Qin Yushi pushed up her glasses out of habit. She had been wearing them for six years. She was still not used to losing her glasses, so now, it was the most normal thing, it was also the most comfortable.

She still had 200 degrees of nearsightedness. If she didn't wear glasses, she could still do it.

"That's good." Yan Huan lowered his head and looked at Qin Yushi's stomach. "It wasn't easy for me to conceive three babies. You still had four." Yan Huan had a headache. weren't their genes too good, four babies at once.

Not counting her headache, the entire family probably had a headache as well

However, the fact that Qin Yushi was pregnant with quadruplets gradually calmed the Lu family down. After all, the children were still young. To Qin Yushi., actually, she didn't feel much.

She really didn't feel anything. It was just that when she was dreaming in the middle of the night, she still couldn't believe that she had become a sow and was about to give birth to four children.

Fortunately, these four children would be given to her elder brother. Otherwise, she would really be driven crazy

Xiaomei was with Qin Yushi every day. She would take care of what she ate and drank every day. Every day, she wished that the four children in Qin Yushi's stomach would be born soon, this way, there would be many children at home. Of course, she would also have a child.

Lu Guang even said that he would give the two children to them. Otherwise, how would he raise them? It wasn't like they didn't know how the three of them were raised back then. At that time, their mother wasn't around, and Xun Xun loved to get sick. One of them cried., the other two also cried. Fortunately, the two of them were still obedient at that time. Only Xun Xun loved to cry. Otherwise... It was possible that she would cause the adults to worry to death.

Now that there were four more children, what should they do? They were not prepared. Yan Huan's health was not very good. His grandparents were already old, and the nanny could not fully trust them. They could only rely on Xiaomei and Qin Yushi.

However, Lu Qi only wanted one child. He said that if it was not because Xiaomei wanted a child, he would not want others to share his wife, not even the child.

And now, Lu Guang had to worry about his future son who wasn't their son.

Children, this is the time to test you. It depends on who will reincarnate. When you reincarnate, remember to be a little girl. If anyone becomes the boss, it's to be your uncle's son.

Your Uncle Beat your father to a pulp. I think he will beat you to a pulp as well.

Lu Guang could not wait to give more children to his big brother. It would be best if he gave all three to him. They only needed a little cotton-padded jacket so that they could love and dote on him every day.

Holding a little baby made people feel happy, but bringing three or four at once was not child-rearing. It was suffering.

After a few days, he yibin and Luo Lin came over. Of course, there was also fatty he and Qin Pingjun.

“Big Brother...”Qin yushi almost cried when she saw Qin Pingjun.

“Don’t cry.”Lu Guang quickly covered her eyes. “It’s better if you forget your eyes. Do you want to be blind?”

Qin yushi could only try hard to hold back her tears. Yes, if he had to listen to Lu Guang, he really could not cry. Otherwise, it would really affect his vision.

Qin Pingjun was still dumbfounded. Even though he had already heard from fatty he about his younger sister’s pregnancy. His sister had already registered her marriage and was pregnant, and she had four of them at once.

However, when he heard that she was obedient, he saw her.

He stared at his cousin’s stomach with his mouth agape.

“Shishi, four?”

He pointed at Qin Yu Shi’s stomach foolishly. “Is it really four?”

Chapter 2293: see how capable I am

“That’s right.”Qin Yushi touched her belly, which had gotten bigger recently. It was four, and she had already had two prenatal checkups. The first time, she was still skeptical. She thought that she might have made a mistake, it was impossible to have four. At most, there were three. In the end, the final result was still four. As for the gender of the child, they hadn’t decided if they wanted to check it out yet?

She really did not expect that she would actually be able to meet her eldest cousin brother. His current suit and tie had also removed the inferiority complex and rustic aura that he had in the village. Now, he had become more magnanimous, he had even become more imposing.

It could be seen that her eldest brother had grown up very quickly during these few days.

Speaking of this, she might not have felt anything. However, to Qin Pingjun, this was simply the worst nightmare that he had ever experienced in his life. For the past few months, he had lived in the company day and night, only he himself knew what he had sacrificed for this.

Now that he was finally better and everything was on the right track, he believed that he would be even better in the future. He would be able to create his own world here, and he would be able to make his elderly parents stop working so hard, he would also have to bear the burden of his own hardships.

However, he really did not expect that the person who gave him the opportunity, the opportunity, was none other than his little cousin who had always been a heartbreaker since he was young.

She looked good now and was healthy. Even her eyes had recovered.

Lu Guang watched as Qin Yushi pulled Qin Pingjun along. The two of them talked about it, but they didn't have any intention of letting him get involved. He couldn't help but feel sour in his heart. It was really sour.

At this moment, a hand reached out and grabbed his hand. In an instant, the sour feeling and discomfort disappeared. He smiled like a fool again.

See, in his Shishi's eyes, he was still the most important, right?

"Big Brother, this is Lu Guang." Qin Yushi brought Lu Guang to Qin Pingjun.

"Big Brother." Lu Guang generously followed Qin Yushi and called him Big Brother.

"Hello." Qin Pingjun also stood up.

He was still a little reserved towards Lu Guang. After all, he had heard Lu Guang's name as soon as he arrived in Hai City. He was able to go to Hai City, could also go to Linlang, and could even become fatty he's subordinate. This wasn't luck, but now.., only now did he know that the person who had helped him was none other than Lu Guang.

Fatty he was the future ruler of Linlang, and by fatty he's side was the crown prince's side. If nothing went wrong, this crown prince would definitely be registered as the emperor a few years later.

He was not only grateful to fatty he, but also grateful that Lu Guang had given him this opportunity. This was the only chance for him to follow a good boss and use his own hands to fight for his own future.

He didn't need to rely on others, he just needed to rely on his own hands.

Of course, Lu Guang didn't feel that he had done anything. He only provided an opportunity for Qin Pingjun. Of course, it was also for Qin Yushi's sake. Of course, he didn't suffer any losses. He just used these conditions.., he was the one who made Qin yushi sign the unequal treaty with him and then had these four children. He had given him such an opportunity. If he Pingjun was really a dog meat that couldn't make it to the table.., then, no matter how many opportunities there were, it would be useless. He might as well give him a sum of money and return to the countryside to farm.

As for Qin Pingjun, he lived up to his expectations. Of course, he was also impressed by him. Now, he had become fatty he's right-hand man.

"Brother, is it really four?" Fatty he walked over and leaned on Lu Guang's shoulder. Fatty he used to be the youngest in the family. The one in the Ye family was a sickly child. She was beautiful and delicate.., she was like a little girl, and her family was very strict with her. They were afraid that she would fall and hurt herself. Now, she was still sickly and delicate. Of course, she couldn't be compared to he xiaopang.

He Xiaopang was fat when he was young. He was brave and loved to fall. However, he didn't cry even when he fell. He liked to play with Lu Qi and Lu Guang since he was young. It could be said that he grew up on Lu Qi and Lu Guang's backs, therefore, he had the best relationship with Lu Guang.

At that moment, he xiaopang did not look like a big CEO. He looked like a child as he stared unblinkingly at Qin Yushi's stomach.

Of course, there were four of them. Lu Guang was very proud of this. Back then, he set up his own law firm and won his first lawsuit. He had won countless times until now, and every time he won, the satisfaction he felt after winning.., it was not as satisfying as when others talked about his four children. This was his real achievement.

Just like his father and mother, the biggest gain in their lives was not because they were famous or because he had done anything big, but because they had three outstanding children, and that was them.

It was the same for him. He would also have four outstanding children, which would allow their Lu family to prosper and last forever.

He Xiaopeng could be said to be dumbstruck. This was still true. He originally thought that his father was joking. When she was young, she had been envious of the three Lu brothers, especially Lu Guang, but she was so envious of him.

He had an older brother and a younger sister.

Even if he was beaten up by his older brother, it would still be okay.

Even if he wanted to find someone to beat him up, he didn't. In the past, when the four of them played together, whenever they made a mistake, Lu Qi would take the blame. It was also Lu Qi who got beaten up. At that time, he knew how good it was to have an older brother, but he didn't have an older brother, nor did he have a younger sister.

And now, Lu Guang made him so jealous that he almost wanted to kick someone.

Could it not be like this?

Could it not attract hatred?

Could it only have one child?

Could it give him a way out?

Three was enough to make people want to die of anger, and it was still four. was this meant to make him vomit blood.

And Lu Guang's smug look made he Xiaopeng want to scratch people.

Lu Guang's smug look was obvious

This was his brother's ability. So what if he got married late? So what if he had children late? If you got married in your twenties, would you be able to give birth to four children by the time you were twenty-eight?

But his brother could. His brother could give birth to four children at once.

Of course, what kind of family was the Lu Family? Not to mention giving birth to four children, they could even afford to give birth to forty children. Even if they didn't mention the Lu family, even Lu Guang himself was worth billions.

Not to mention Lu Guang, even fatty he himself was eager to have four children, but the country did not allow it.

However, they were quadruplets. They had the ability, but they had their own problems. He did not.

In fatty he's opinion, no matter how hard he worked, it was impossible for him to have four children. His family did not have such good genes, and the he family seemed to only have single children.

Chapter 2294: recognized a relative

His father had only one child, and he was also a single child. It was possible that the next generation would also have only one child.

Therefore, when his father said that he would recognize a younger sister for him today, he immediately agreed. Moreover, he would also have four white and tender babies that were about to be born to call him uncle. Could This feeling be any better.

Fatty he only looked like a young man with vigor in front of Lu Guang. At other times, he was too proud of himself. There was nothing he could do about it. wasn't CEO Fan Like This Now, domineering ceos were popular. If it was possible, he would want to carry a burden and take a camera to travel around the world.

However, Linlang's burden was on his head.

Why was his life so miserable?

He began to complain to Lu Guang. Linlang was so bitter and tired. He woke up earlier than a chicken, did more work than a cow, and slept later than a lady. But even so, he still had a lot of things to do.

At this moment, Qin Yushi was sitting next to Yan Huan. She was quite shy.

"Shishi, right?" Luo Lin liked girls like Qin Yushi. She looked very comfortable at first glance. She was also a good child who lived on her own and didn't rely on anyone.

"I am." Qin Yushi actually didn't know who this woman in front of her was. She was slightly older, but she exuded the aura of a strong woman. Who Was She?

"Her name is Luo Lin. She's fatty he's mother. That's him." She pointed at fatty he and asked Qin Yushi to recognize him. Putting aside fatty he's big name, everyone called him by his nickname. They had been calling him that for more than twenty years and were used to it.

"He's your cousin's boss." Yan Huan gently stroked his hair. His voice was as gentle as the wind, and it made people feel very comfortable.

Luo Lin rolled her eyes at Yan Huan. "If it weren't for you not wanting to interfere, would I still be risking my life right now?"

Yan Huan laughed. At that moment, it was as though a hundred flowers had bloomed. Her face still made people feel as though she had blurred the definition of time.

Time also stopped on her.

Luo Lin shifted her gaze to Qin Yushi's stomach and smiled again.

"Shishi, didn't your uncle he tell you? Have you thought about it?"

Qin yushi blinked. Forgive her, she really couldn't remember what that uncle he had said to her? Right, what had he said? Why didn't she know? Her memory wasn't so bad that she could forget what others had said to her.

"They want to take you in as their goddaughter," Yan Huan reminded her.

"Ah..." Qin Yushi finally remembered what he Yibin had said not long ago. He had indeed mentioned that she should be his daughter, but she had really thought that it was just a joke from he yibin, she had never taken it to heart, so she had forgotten about it. But could it be true?

"Yes." Rowling hurriedly nodded, "That's right. Shishi, our family doesn't have a daughter. We only have little fatty as a son. You should also know that being a son isn't as considerate as being a daughter. Hence, your uncle he and I have discussed it. We will acknowledge you as a daughter. In the future, if you are bullied by Lu Guang, you can even return to your parents' house. At that time, your parents will support you."

They hadn't even gotten to know each other, yet her parents had already called out to her.

Yan Huan raised his eyelids indifferently. They could say whatever they wanted to say. He didn't have any opinions on this matter. Of course, it would be fine if his grandchildren had grandparents. At the very least, she didn't have a grandmother, her family didn't have three children either, but she had to have three grandchildren.

Therefore, she didn't participate in this matter. It was up to Qin Yushi to make her own decision. If she said yes, then so be it. If she didn't want to, then no one could force her to do so.

Why did Qin Yushi feel like she was being forced to acknowledge her parents? Also, she really didn't want to acknowledge her parents. Furthermore, the words 'parents' were nothing more than strangers to her.

Other people might have received the love of a father and a mother, but all she had received was endless scheming. Her freedom and life were all because she had left that so-called home, she had also left that so-called parents.

And now, someone had suddenly made such a request. To be honest, she was a little confused and at a loss.

At that moment, someone sat over and held her tightly on his knees. It was obvious that they were nervous fingers.

"Call me mom and Dad."

Qin yushi glanced at Lu Guang and realized that he was encouraging her.

She turned around and looked at the couple sitting across from her. She didn't say anything for a long time.

"Call me mom and dad," Lu Guang said again.

Qin Yushi's words of thanks were a little stupid, and she didn't know why she had called out just like Lu Guang had said

Then, she had a new pair of parents and an older brother today.

It was also inexplicable. She seemed to have sold herself again.

At night, Lu Guang fed him soup with a spoon.

"I can do it myself." Qin Yushi looked at her two hands. What were they for? were they for decoration?

"You don't drink well." Lu Guang insisted on feeding the soup to Qin Yushi's stomach. He had hired a dietitian to make the soup for Qin Yushi. If she drank it every day., it was good for her body, but it was also good for the children.

Qin Yushi's physical condition was quite good. Otherwise, she might not be able to bear the quadruplets in the later stages. Therefore, she had to take advantage of the fact that the children were still young to build a good foundation. In that case., it would be better to give birth in the later stages.

He had to do this job himself so that he could rest assured.

After all, Qin Yushi's body was so small, but she had to give birth to four children. Back then, her mother had only given birth to three. No, it should be two and a half. It was already close to death. It was not easy, and Qin Yushi now had four real children.

Their family already had the genes for multiple births. However, the three of them were the ones who gave birth to the most. Back then, they were very rare triplets. But now, Qin Yushi was giving birth to quadruplets, it was truly amazing.

After much difficulty, Qin Yushi finally finished the bowl of soup. Her stomach was slightly bloated, but it was still alright. She didn't feel too uncomfortable?

"Why did you ask me to recognize them today?"

Qin Yushi found a comfortable seat for herself and leaned her back against the pillow behind her. The pillow was specially bought for her by Lu Guang. It was the memory pillow, and it was very comfortable to lean against, her body was very lazy now, so she didn't want to sit down. Once she sat down, she didn't want to get up. Now that she had this pillow, it couldn't be better.

Chapter 2295: She didn't owe them anything

As long as she casually leaned over, she felt comfortable everywhere. Her shoulders, arms, and stomach were all much more comfortable. This was what she liked the most now.

Also, she really wanted to know why Lu Guang wanted her to acknowledge the he couple.

“It’s good for you.” Lu Guang put down the bowl and sat cross-legged in front of Qin Yushi, “I want to give you a new identity so that no one will come and find trouble with you. Linlang is also from our family. The Lei family and the He family were the last ones to support her. I’ve already told you about our relationship with the Lei family. We’re relatives, but we don’t have much of a relationship with the He family. Although fatty he calls me cousin, we’re still different from the Lei family. That’s why I asked you to acknowledge them. We can be considered relatives in the future. It’s good for Linlang.”

Qin yushi nodded. She understood all of this.

After all, sometimes these families needed to intermarry. This way, they could ensure their long-term interests. Of course, it was also to prevent unnecessary things from happening.

However, it was because fatty he was the only one in the He family, so they had no choice. In the end, they could only acknowledge him as their goddaughter. This was something that they were well aware of. Of course, the most important thing was.., Luo Lin indeed wanted a daughter, and it was obvious that Qin Yushi had taken a liking to her. Otherwise, they could have done a lot more, but they didn’t have to acknowledge Qin Yushi.

Qin Yushi recalled what Lu Guang had said just now, preventing some people from coming over to look for her.

Was it them?

Would they?

Qin Yushi didn’t even want to mention it to those people.

Her biological father, who had never paid any attention to her, schemed against her stepmother and her brother, who had almost blinded her.

“No one in this world can resist the temptation of money.” Lu Guang gently stroked Qin Yushi’s hair and pulled the blanket over her body. He also carefully protected her and made her pregnant again, “I was thinking of finding you an identity, but now that uncle he and Auntie Luo have mentioned it, I think this is the best thing that could happen.”

“It’s up to you.” Qin Yushi turned over. She was a little sleepy, so she wanted to sleep.

As for who she was going to be a daughter to, it didn’t matter. As long as those people didn’t come looking for her again, she would be fine. She had had enough of their faces, and she wasn’t willing to let them harm her enough to harm the Lu family again.

She didn’t owe them anything, and neither did the Lu family.

She had already returned her eyes to them. Also, back then, they had sold her to that old cripple. If her uncle hadn’t taken out the money to return it to that cripple, would he still be alive or dead, no one knew.

She didn’t owe them anything.

She didn’t owe them anything in this lifetime.

“Don’t worry, I’ll take care of it.” Lu Guang sat there until she fell asleep. Then, he took out his phone and personally took care of the matter. He also took out Qin Yushi’s household registration, then, they transferred all the household registration to the He family. In the future, Qin Yushi would be the daughter of the He family and fatty he’s elder sister. As for the people from the Qin family, they had nothing to do with her.

At that moment, fatty he threw the documents in his hands to the side and sat down on his office chair. “I’m finally done with work. I’m exhausted.”

Qin Pingjun was the same. He was as tired as a big yellow dog these few days. He almost couldn’t breathe.

“Oh Right.” Fatty he put his legs down from the table. Now that he was finally done with work, he could rest and relax.

“Brother Jun, you are my brother from now on. If I do something wrong, you have to stand in front of me and take the beating for me. Brother Qi was like this in the past. I was the one who made the mistake and he was the one who took the blame.”

Qin Pingjun didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. He felt like he had fallen into a wolf’s Den instead of conquering the world for himself.

However, fatty he didn’t say anything wrong when he said that he was his biological brother. He was now fatty he’s biological brother. His sister was now fatty he’s younger sister, and he was Qin Yushi’s older brother, naturally, he became fatty he’s older brother. In the future, he would have to bear the consequences of any trouble that fatty he caused.

However, he was really happy for his cousin. After suffering so much, he should be happy now.

However, his sister was really disappointing. She had given birth to four little nephews for him. If his parents knew, they would definitely be very happy. However, he could not help but frown, when he thought of second uncle’s greedy character, he did not know why, but he had a bad feeling.

If they knew that his cousin was married to Lu Guang, and what kind of family the Lu family was, they did not know where his second uncle’s family would throw his cousin’s family. They would be shameless to death, they were also shameless people.

Therefore, he absolutely could not let the people in his hometown know about this matter. He did not even tell his parents about it. He knew his parents too well. They were honest rural people, he had spent his entire life facing the yellow earth and facing the sky. He had worked so hard to farm the land just so that he could live a good life. He thought that he could leave that poor place in the future. He was not like them, who worked hard for a lifetime and also worked hard for a lifetime.

He already had a house now, which was given to him by the company. As long as he did things well in the future and managed his life well, his achievements in the future would not be low.

Originally, he had wanted to bring his parents over from his hometown and let them live here. No matter what he did here, it was convenient. Moreover, the house was on the first floor and had a large courtyard, the courtyard could also be used to grow some vegetables. It was most suitable for people like his parents who had to face the land for their entire lives. However, he felt that it was better to slow down now so that his second uncle's family would not think of something and come here again, at least, not now.

Shi Shi was only pregnant now. It was already a very dangerous thing for a woman to be pregnant. However, Shi Shi was actually pregnant with quadruplets, which was even more dangerous. Therefore, no matter what., he could not let his second uncle's family come and find trouble with Shi Shi.

Therefore, he did not tell his parents about what happened in Hai City. He only sent some money back every month for the two elders to use. However, in the village, they were all old people who were used to living frugally, how could they spend this money? They would save the money one by one for their son to save up for his future wife.

Chapter 2296: if they became rich, it would also belong to their family

Not only did they want a son, but they also had to worry about their niece who had nothing.

The second Qin family spent money to buy a job for their son to borrow money from their uncle's family. However, their uncle's family did not give it to them. Therefore, the feud between the two brothers was formed in that manner. Even now, the two brothers did not even speak, even when they looked up and down, they did not even greet each other.

The Qin family was really thinking too much. How could their eldest brother have so much money? Although they only had one son, this child needed to spend money to study and live outside, they also raised a niece who was also in school. The couple had lived frugally for their entire lives before they were able to give up two college students. However, the lives of the Qin family were much better than the eldest brother's, the couple was young to begin with.

In addition, they only had one son to raise. They also had to raise a daughter, which was Qin Yushi. However, no one took her to heart. In any case, that useless money-losing product had already been sold for 20,000 yuan, it didn't matter whether they had that daughter or not.

"Say, did that Pingjun make a fortune outside?"

The stepmother said to Qin Lao'er, "I heard that Pingjun works in a place where every inch of land is precious. Even the floor is made of gold. This Qin Pingjun is not in the past. If that place is not good, how could the boss let his son go there no matter what?"

"Did that wretched girl make a fortune there and forget about you, her biological father?"

"With just her, how could that blind man make a fortune?"

Second Qin pursed his lips. He didn't believe that that useless daughter could make a fortune. If she really did make a fortune, he would take his head off and kick it like it was a rubber ball.

"I don't care anyway. If that wretched girl really made money, it would belong to our son." Whenever the stepmother thought about how Qin Yushi, that wretched girl, would really make money, but she didn't care about her younger brother., she felt uncomfortable in her heart.

“Alright, Alright, I got it.” Second Brother Qin pulled the blanket over and went to sleep, “I still have to go to the ground tomorrow. I’ll go and find out how that wretched girl is doing now. If she really makes a fortune, it will naturally belong to our son. Don’t tell me that she will give it to the boss for free?”

Qin Yushi had no idea that her biological father and stepmother had set their sights on her again. Now that she was living in the Lu family, she was practically living the life of the empress dowager.

After all, she was pregnant with the next generation of the Lu family. There were still four of them at a time. Everyone wanted to see these four children as soon as possible, especially ye Shuyun and Lu Jin. They stayed in the garden almost every day, they were afraid that something would happen to their granddaughter-in-law, which meant that the four great-grandsons would be in trouble.

Qin yushi’s belly was really expensive.

If it wasn’t done properly, it wouldn’t be just one child, but four children. Yes, four children. No one could bear the responsibility, and no one could afford to lose the lives of the four children of the Lu family.

They had watched Lu Guang and the others grow up. These three had grown up, and wherever they went, it would be earth-shattering. They were triplets, but now they were quadruplets.

With such an expensive belly, if anything were to happen to them, the two old men would have to fight to the death.

It was a pity. If Old Master Lu lived for another six years, he would be able to see his great-great-grandsons. There were still four of them. If Old Master Lu knew, he would be very happy because the Lu family was going to have a meeting to disperse their leaves again, four children in one go. This was such a joyous occasion.

However, it didn’t matter. He believed that old master Lu would be able to rest in peace even if he died. After all, he was going to have four great-grandchildren soon.

Qin yushi walked to the grass outside. She liked the air here. It was really fresh. However, the nanny who followed her was so worried that she wanted to cry. She really hoped that Qin Yushi wouldn’t come out, it would be best if she lay down every day and waited until she gave birth.

The bellies of these four children were so expensive that no one could afford to compensate them.

The entire family was worried about her and kept their eyes on her belly every day. However, Qin Yushi didn’t feel anything. She was only three months pregnant and her belly wasn’t that big yet. However..., when she was seven or eight months pregnant, it would be a little scary. However, it didn’t matter how scary it was. It would pass in the end. She believed that she would be able to give birth to the children safely, moreover, there was he yibin, the hospital director’s doctor. He was his grandson, so he naturally had to take good care of him.

On this day, Lu Guang brought Qin Yushi to the hospital. This was their second prenatal checkup. Today, they would know the gender of the children. It was good whether they were male or female. After all, there were four of them.

“They’ve grown up again.”The doctor carefully touched Qin Yushi’s stomach. She grew up really quickly. The last time he came, she wasn’t this big. He couldn’t imagine how big her stomach would be when the four children.., would be when they were about to give birth?

What Else Could Qin yushi do? It was just like what his godmother had said. It didn’t matter. She ate and drank well. When she gave birth to he Xiaopeng, she was almost forty years old. Back then, she was especially gluttonous, it was normal for her to eat five or six meals a day. It was normal for her to eat seven or eight meals a day. Therefore, he Xiaopeng gave birth to a child that weighed more than nine pounds.

As for her four children, it was absolutely impossible for them to give birth naturally. It was certain that they would be dissected, so it didn’t matter if they ate big or small.

However, they were still four children after all. The doctor still advised them to be careful not to be too big. To adults, it was an unbearable burden. It was all thanks to Qin Yushi’s good health, it was so good that it made people jealous.

She could eat and sleep, and she had never vomited before. Her complexion had always been good, and she was also very young. She was only in her twenties, and she was at the best time to give birth. So, no matter what, these four children.., now that she was pregnant, it was indeed quite relaxing.

“I see them.”It was also the first time the doctor had seen the quadruplets. He could indeed see their gender. They belonged to the four little guys, and he could see them very clearly.

“Do you want to know their gender?”

The Doctor asked Qin Yushi. As they were all acquaintances, and the hospital director had specially instructed them, they could know the sex of the children. Moreover, they had four children. To the Lu family, both boys and girls were good, they could also afford to raise them. Of course, they could also give the children the best life.

Qin yushi nodded. She knew that the family could also prepare things for the children earlier. They had to prepare their small clothes, small milk bottles, and their small beds, otherwise, they might be in a mess again.

Chapter 2297: added a few extra pounds to the baby

“There are three older brothers and one younger sister. The little girl seems to be the youngest and can’t compete with her older brother’s nutrition. However, everything seems to be fine now. You have quadruplets, which is very rare. That’s why you have to come to the hospital on time for a prenatal check-up.”

“I got it.”Qin Yushi carefully sat up. Although she was pregnant with four children, they were still very young, so it didn’t feel like much. Her body was still light, and she could do many things by herself, they didn’t need any help from others.

When Lu Guang found out that they still had a little cotton-padded jacket. He was extremely happy. When the Lu family heard that there was another girl, they were also very excited. Even Lu Yi, who had always liked to keep a straight face, had a rare smile on his face.

The Lu family lacked girls, and their families obviously lacked girls as well.

Even Lu Wei had only given birth to four sons. Finally, there was a little girl among the four children, just like Xun Xun back then. Needless to say, she knew how to be doted on.

“Remember, you have to treat your sister well. Don’t take away all of her nutrients. When the time comes, you’ll make her thin and small. I’m not done with you.”

When Lu Guang found out about the gender of the child in Qin Yushi’s stomach, he would always teach the unconscious children a lesson. He would always say the same thing to the three boys, he was afraid that they would take away all the nutrients in his cotton-padded jacket and not leave it for his sister. At that time, he would give birth to a thin and small girl.

Even ye Shuyun called her little granddaughter every day, completely disregarding her grandson. Every time Lu Guang came back, he would ask, “How’s My Daughter?”? Every time he Xiaopeng came over, he would also ask, “How’s my niece?”?

Even Xiaomei wanted a little girl, but she knew that it was impossible. She knew from how much Lu Guang doted on his daughter. Even if he threw the three naughty boys to them, Lu Guang would not feel much heartache, however, if he were to snatch their daughter away, Lu Guang would risk his life for them.

The Lu family doted on girls because there were too few of them. After all, there had only been one Lu Wei in the Lu family for so many years. Now that they had another one, they naturally treated her as a treasure.

Qin Yushi was still waiting for the four children to grow up day by day. As for whether they were boys or girls, she didn’t care too much. In fact, as long as these children could grow up safely and be born healthy, it would be her life, it was her biggest wish.

And she really didn’t have to worry about anything. Her big brother was with Linlang, and his career was steadily rising. His career heart was very heavy, and every time he came over.., he only wanted to know how big the child in Qin Yushi’s stomach had grown. After all, it was his first time being an uncle.

Her stomach was also bulging outwards, but Qin Pingjun’s aura was getting stronger and stronger. He was now the most important right-hand man by fatty he’s side. Other than this layer of relationship with Qin Yushi.., of course, the most important thing was his hard work and his outstanding business skills.

Qin Pingjun was also quite worried about his cousin’s belly. It was scary to have such a big belly, so it was better to have one. However, it just so happened that Qin Yushi was pregnant with four children, which was much more powerful than Yan Huan back then, yan Huan had given birth to three children back then, and almost everyone was jealous to death.

But now, she had given birth to four children instead of three.

Five months later, Qin Yushi's stomach was like a balloon. It was growing at a terrifying speed. Fortunately, the results of the examination were very good. These four children.., they grew very quickly. The little girls who were not well-nourished had grown up a little. It was unknown whether it was because Lu Guangnian was reading too much or because her older brother was giving way to her younger sister.., the four children's growth was now average. After four months, Qin Yushi finally felt that there was no difference between being pregnant with four children and being pregnant with one?

When she was five months old, her belly was already seven to eight months old. However, she still did not feel that big. Although it could not be said that she was as light as a swallow.., it was not a problem for her to carry her big belly outside. However, she did not dare to give it a try so easily.

While everyone was worried about her stomach, she was the only one who seemed fine. She ate and slept. Four months later, the four children would be born.

Time passed day by day. Qin Yushi didn't feel uncomfortable at all. Other than her expanding stomach, she really didn't feel as big as herself. In her opinion, everything was quite comfortable.

When she truly felt uncomfortable, it started when she was seven months old. Because the babies were too big, the weight of four babies was not something she could bear. Her legs and feet were swollen. In the end, there was nothing she could do.., she could only stay in the hospital. She also thought that she could let the babies grow for another day. When they were eight months old, the babies were still very light. However, at this time, she could already let them out.

However, Qin Yushi couldn't bear to let them go. She still thought that she could give the children a few more ounces of meat so that their bodies would be better.

How could an eight-month-old child compare to a normal full-term birth.

By September, it was already very difficult to bear. However, Qin Yushi was stubborn. She still persisted and was unwilling to give birth to the children ahead of time.

In fact, he Yibin had suggested that she give birth to the children now. After all, not only was the child pressing on her uterus, it was also pressing on her internal organs.

It was very difficult to conceive quadruplets. When an ordinary woman was pregnant with a child, she was already very uncomfortable, let alone four. She was under four times the pressure of an ordinary woman.

If it weren't for Qin Yushi's unyielding nature, she might not have been able to take it anymore. She still hadn't given birth. She just wanted to rely on her unyielding nature. Otherwise.., she might not have been able to take it anymore at the age of eight months.

But it had already been a month or so.

She had already eaten very little because the baby was pressed against her stomach. It was already very difficult for her to eat now.

"Give birth." Lu Guang Shook Qin Yushi's hand. It was almost time. Trust me, their bodies were already growing well. They had worked hard and wouldn't be affected by these few days.

Qin yushi shook her head. "I can still hold on for a few more days. Don't worry." She held onto Lu Guang's finger, "If I can't hold on, I'll be the first to tell you. I Won't force myself, and I won't joke about the child's safety."

Chapter 2298: four children

Lu Guang could only sigh in his heart. He said that he couldn't move Qin Yushi, so he could only stay here with her. Day after day, another seven days had passed. At this moment, Qin Yushi really couldn't hold on any longer, she even felt that her heart was short of breath and she couldn't breathe.

She originally wanted to persevere, but he Yibin said that the child had to be born now. She was a little short of oxygen, so the child would be in danger. This wasn't something that she could persevere through, it was not something she could persevere with.

"It's okay. The child will be fine." Lu Guang pulled up his sleeves and wiped the sweat off Qin Yushi's forehead. Qin Yushi looked up and saw the glimmer in Lu Guang's eyes, there was also the feeling of helplessness.

Because it could not be replaced, because it could not be endured.

Qin yushi suddenly understood something. At that moment, she did not regret tying herself to this man for the rest of her life. She also did not regret giving birth to his children, even if it cost her her life.

"My father personally delivered us back then."

Lu Guang squatted down and placed his chin on Qin Yushi's head, "So don't be afraid. I will go in with you to welcome the birth of our children. Your father said that the children are very healthy. Believe me, the children of the Lu family will not be weak. They will work hard, so they will definitely be safe and you will be the same."

Qin yushi nodded lightly,

at that moment, she wasn't afraid of anything.

She was pushed into the operating theater, and Lu Guang changed into his sterile clothes. The people who operated on Qin Yushi this time were all the best obstetricians in the hospital. They were the people personally appointed by the hospital director, they were the hospital director's goddaughter, and the children in her womb were all the hospital director's godgrandsons. Naturally, they had to put their minds at ease.

No mistakes were allowed, so the success rate of the surgery would definitely be 100% .

Although Qin Yushi's condition wasn't very good, her body was still much better compared to some pregnant women. Be it her blood pressure or other aspects, she was also very good. Of course, her condition was also good, if it wasn't for the fact that there were too many children, with her body, she could have given birth naturally.

After the anesthesia was over, the Doctor had already cut open Qin Yushi's stomach. Qin Yushi was awake. She turned around and saw Lu Guang staring at her stomach with a pale face. His head was also covered in cold sweat, and that bloody scene.., he had witnessed the terrifying scene.

"I will treat you well for the rest of my life." Lu Guang lowered his head and gripped Qin Yushi's hand tightly. His palm was also sweating profusely.

A woman could give birth to children for you. She could cut open her stomach for you. She could give up her time, her body, and even her life.., if the man who made her give birth to children didn't treat her well, where was his conscience?

Lu Guang had grown up, and this scene was a shock that he could never forget. Yes, it was a shock, and it made him decide that he had to treat Qin yushi well for the rest of his life, he would treat her like his father treated his mother. He would never want anyone else in his life.

The outside world was too flashy and exciting. Many people could not control their true selves. However, no matter how exciting it was or how tempting it was, he would never forget it, it was also his original intention. There was also this scene.

The doctor reached his hand into Qin Yushi's stomach. To Lu Guang, it was too bloody. However, Qin Yushi could not see anything. She could not feel anything, she only saw the doctor take out a baby. When the baby was taken out, he didn't need to Pat His Butt to cry. The Little Guy clenched his little fists and his eyes were tightly shut, it was a red baby, but his voice was so loud and clear.

Was he saying that he was born and that he was very healthy?

"Boss, three pounds and two ounces," the midwife had already recorded and cleaned up the child.

Then, the second child came out. It was also a boy. This one was more delicate and slept quite well. The nurse patted his little butt a few times before he cried. However, he only cried a few times, initially, the nurse thought that there was something wrong with this child. In the end, after a checkup, this child was very normal. However, he seemed to be lazy. He just slept and did not like to move.

This was the second child. She weighed 3.2 kg. Although she was a little light, she had developed very well and was very healthy.

The third child was taken out very quickly. She was less than half a minute away from the second child.

The third child's body seemed to be a little weaker. The sound of her crying was like that of a kitten. Her small arms and legs were constantly stretched out. Of course, her weight was also very light. There was a difference of 1.2 kg to 3.2 kg, he was really as thin and small as a mouse.

Fourth brother was a girl. He was also three to three kilograms. Moreover, this child was born strangely. It was exactly 3.33 pm. His small appearance was quite different from his older brothers. He was very delicate and his eyelashes were very long, his fetal hair was also very long.

An experienced doctor could tell at a glance that this child's skin was quite fair. If it was a little longer, he would be a pretty little bun.

The doctor helped Qin Yushi to take care of her. Qin Yushi fell asleep and the surgery was very successful. However, what happened next was enough to make Qin Yushi feel pain.

As for the four children, because they were light in weight, they were all sent to the incubator and placed there. The rest were not a big problem. The four children of the Lu family were all rare children in the hospital, moreover, they were placed in a special ward. Lu Qi was worried that his nephews would be carried away by others, so he specially asked for a ward. There were only four children in the ward, the four children were considered to be full-term babies. However, because they were quadruplets, their weight was slightly lighter than the average child.

They weighed around three kilograms, and when he xiaopang was born, he weighed nearly ten kilograms, which was enough to support four children.

The children were lighter, but after all the examinations, the children were in good health and developed well. Only third brother seemed to be a little weaker. When he cried, it sounded like a kitten meowing, it was very heartbreaking.

Lu Guang had never come over to see the child. Yu Shiji was still asleep. He was worried about her being here alone, and the child was not as important as Qin Yushi.

Chapter 2299: Lu Xiaosan

Qin Yushi was still unconscious, but the doctor said that her condition was very good and her body was in good condition. Based on her physical condition, she should be recovering very quickly, however, because it was a c-section, she needed a certain amount of time to recover, so she did not breastfeed her children. In fact, even if she did, it would be impossible for her to feed them.

There were four children in the family. All of them had their mouths wide open and were waiting to be fed. This father and mother did not care about them. It was uncle and aunt who worried about them every day.

“Aren’t you going to see the children?” Lu Qi asked Lu Guang. His thick black eyebrows were almost tied in a knot. The children had already been born for three days, so there was no need for the mother to ignore them, after all, it was true that it was a waste of his body to give birth to these three children. He wouldn’t be able to recover without a certain amount of time. However, Lu Guang wasn’t the one who gave birth to the children. Why didn’t he even take a look at his own children.

The four children were all small, like little kittens. How could they have an objective and ruthless father.

“Big Brother, just watch. I don’t have time.”

Lu Guang didn’t want to see the four kids. It was because of them that the doctor had removed Qin Yushi’s stomach. Qin yushi was such a macho woman, and she didn’t like to cry, but because of the pain.., she had secretly cried countless times, and all of this was because of the four kids.

Although he knew that this had nothing to do with the kids, he was still stuck inside the bull’s horn. He couldn’t pull it out for the time being, so he could just let him be the first to do it. It wouldn’t take long anyway.., he would be out very soon.

Lu Qi stretched out his hand and really wanted to give Lu Guang a beating.

However, in the end, he did not stop.

“Big Brother, Pick one and raise it yourself.” Lu Guang was very generous. He could choose whichever of the four children he wanted. Right now, he did not care whether it was the eldest or the second. In any case, Lu Qi would definitely want a boy and not a girl.

He could carry the three brats as he pleased. He could take two and leave one for him. After all, he still had a son and a daughter.

If Lu Qi heard this, he might really give Lu Guang another beating. Why did he need so many children? One of them was already a consolation for Xiaomei. If he had too many, would his position in the future be affected?

He turned around and left in large strides. He was ready to go to the incubator to see the four children.

Grandma said that these four children were much stronger than when they were born. Although they were a little lighter, their small arms and legs were moving so happily, one look and one could tell that they were smart and healthy children.

Of course, the most important thing was that the only girl among the four children was not like Xunxun back then. She was like a little kitten, and even her cries were pitifully small.

This little girl was really strong. She did not even let go of the bottle. With one look, one could tell that she was a very healthy little girl. Perhaps her body was better than her three older brothers.

Xiaomei was standing next to the mistress’ incubator at that moment. Almost all of her face was pressed against the incubator. This child was the most cultured of the three children. Even when she was breast-feeding, she was also very cultured, she didn’t like to cry too much. Perhaps it was because her body was a little weak, so she wasn’t as noisy as the other three children.

He was very well-behaved. He liked to clench his little fists and protest silently. However, when it was time to nurse, he had to use both hands and feet to hold the bottle tightly, he was the most protective of the four children. Of course, he was also the most well-behaved.

Sometimes, when he was angry, he would squint his big eyes and cry. However, he did not cry loudly like his brother and sister. When he cried, he was like a little kitten, and sometimes he would even suck on his little nose, he would even clench his little fist, which was no bigger than a walnut, and fall asleep after a while.

Perhaps children were like this. They slept for a very long time, but Lu Xiaosan slept the longest, and he also liked to sleep the most. Of course, he was also the most obedient. He was like an older brother and a younger sister, when they were both disobedient and crying loudly, he would still sleep on his own. Sometimes when he was unhappy, he would squeeze out a few drops of tears. Xiaomei felt as if this child was dreaming.., his expression was very rich.

“Which one do you like?” Lu Qi stood behind the little hand. Lu Guang was such a rascal. This time, he had done a good thing, giving birth to so many beautiful and cute children in one go.

Although this was only a child that had been born for three days, in their eyes, the children of the Lu family were just beautiful and cute babies.

“HM?” Xiao Mei turned her head. “Why do you ask? I like them all. They are all very cute and obedient.”

“You always have to pick one.” Lu Qi reached out and placed his hand on the incubator. The little meatballs were all quite cute. He felt the same way. He could pick any one of them.

He then put his arm around Xiao Mei’s shoulder and rested his chin on the top of her head. “Whichever one you like, you can raise for us. Any one is fine, except for the girls.”

Xiao Mei nodded. She finally understood what Lu Qi meant. He was going to pick a son for them. She also knew that they could not pick a girl. There was only one girl among the four children, and even if Lu Guang was willing to give them this girl, they wouldn’t dare to take her.

So, they had to choose a boy.

She leaned over to a few incubators and pointed at Lu Xiaosan. “Can we choose a mistress?”

“HM?” Lu Qi stretched out his finger and knocked on Lu Xiaosan’s incubator. “This is the weakest one.”

It wasn’t like he was picking cabbages.

Xiaomei liked Lu Xiaosan. She had been watching him for the past three days, so she had to choose Lu Xiaosan. If she had to take care of four children, it would be because there were too many of them, so she couldn’t take care of them properly. However, she only wanted Lu Xiaosan., then, she would wholeheartedly take care of him.

“Okay, as long as you like it.”

Lu Qi felt that these children were all the same. As long as Xiaomei liked it, it was fine. It didn’t matter if they were weak now, as long as they were well taken care of in the future. If they were born deficient, they could make up for it the day after tomorrow. His sister wasn’t the best example, she wasn’t even as strong as Lu Xiaosan when she was born?

Lu Guang was very generous. It was also possible that he wasn’t paying attention to the children at the moment, so he just gave Lu Xiaosan to his boss like he was giving away cabbages.

He put Lu San Guang in another itchy incubator so that Lu San would be suitable for him from the moment he was born. He was the child of the Lu family. He didn’t have any biological brothers or sisters, he was the only child of his uncle’s family.

Chapter 2300: she thought that she had given birth to three children

Lu Xiaosan was indeed quite capable. Although he was said to be the lightest and weakest of the quadruplets, perhaps it was because Xiaomei took good care of him that he stayed here every day, he chatted with him, played with him, cheered him up, and fed him milk powder.

The first person Lu Xiaosan saw was Xiaomei. At that time, he opened his pair of black gem-like eyes, looking very much like Lu Qi.

Although his skin was still slightly wrinkled and red, Xiaomei could tell that Lu Xiaosan really looked like Lu Qi. In fact, this was very normal, Lu Qi and Lu Guang looked exactly the same. Lu Xiaosan was Lu Guang’s child. If he looked like Lu Guang, then naturally, this child would also look like Lu Qi.

Xiaomei held the bottle and fed Lu Xiaosan. Lu Xiaosan waved his little fists randomly and then hugged the bottle. He happily drank the milk in the bottle.

Although he was born with some deficiencies, he was really able to make up for it the day after tomorrow. Lu Xiaosan was very obedient when it came to feeding and was not picky about milk. Anyway, as long as he stuffed it into his little mouth, he was very happy. Therefore, within a few days., he had already gained some weight, but of course, he wasn’t that weak anymore.

The four children had been living in the incubator for a month, and they had gained a lot of weight. They had also reached their normal weight, especially Lu Xiaosan, who might really be fated with Xiaomei., he was originally a child who was as weak as a kitten, but in the end, he became the heaviest of the four children.

She still felt that she was fair, fat, and cute.

Xiaomei hugged Lu Xiaosan and couldn’t put it down. However, when she saw Qin Yushi, she didn’t know how to open her mouth.

“Shishi, this is...”

She wanted Qin yushi to see Lu Xiaosan.

However, Qin Yushi only glanced at Lu Xiaosan before she went to tease her little daughter.

Xiaomei knew that Qin Yushi had only given birth to three children, and the children Xiaomei was carrying were the children of a large family.

Since she had already decided to give them away, there was no need to look at them anymore. She would be sad if she looked at them again, so she might as well pretend that she had never given birth.

Yan Huan walked over and carefully stared at Lu Xiaosan’s little face.

Xiaosan was more like Xiaoguang, but the other three didn’t look like her.

Lu Qi and Lu Guang were born by Yan Huan. Of course, as a mother, Yan Huan knew what they looked like the best.

Perhaps it was really fate.

Xiaosan was completely different from the other siblings, so he should also be Lu Qi’s child.

“Take Xiaosan to your parents. There are so many children at home, and it’s really hard to take care of them. Lu Qi will take care of the birth certificate and so on. In the future, he will be your child. Don’t forget.”

“Thank you, Mommy.”Xiao Mei hugged the child in her arms tightly. Her heart was a mess because of this child.

“I will take good care of him. I will love him with my life.”

Yan Huan could naturally see that Xiao Mei loved Lu Xiao San very much. She treated Lu Xiao San as her own life. These days, it was all thanks to her. Otherwise, how could Lu Xiao San be so delicate, how could she be so fat.

It was fine to take Lu Xiaosan away. Mayor Gao and Mei Ru also needed a grandson.

Xiaomei carried Lu Xiaosan out of the car. Just as Zhizhi was about to step out of the door, she saw her parents waiting for them at the door.

“They’re here, they’re here...”

Mayor Gao couldn’t wait to welcome them. He reached out and hugged this precious grandson. When he saw the child’s appearance, he was really happy.

“Mei Ru, come over and take a look. This child looks like our Xiaomei when she was young.”

Mei Ru also carefully looked at the child’s small face. At a glance, they really looked similar. She didn’t know if it was because Xiaomei was waiting for the birth of these children with Qin Yushi, therefore, these children really looked somewhat similar to her, especially the Chubby Lu Xiaosan.

As expected, Lu Xiaosan didn’t live up to her expectations. She was very much like the president. The longer she looked, the more she looked like Xiaomei, and the more she looked like Lu Qi. She was clearly different from the other three in her family.

The other three looked more like Qin Yushi. They had large eyelids, but Lu Xiaosan was different. She had a pair of beautiful Phoenix eyes, which made her look more like a brother of the Lu family, that was why he looked different from his siblings. Of course, mayor Gao also really thought that this was the grandson of the Gao family that God had given them. They were both retired now, they could take care of their grandchildren at home every day.

It was also because of this child that their later years were filled with excitement.

Lu Xiaosan was a person who was doted on by thousands of people. His grandparents doted on him. His toys were placed all over the big house, and his clothes were bought by the dozen. Every day, his grandparents cleaned him up, and his whole body was filled with the pleasant smell of milk.

“Hey, is this Xiaomei’s child?” When they carried the child out, they met familiar people and asked this question the most. This was because this child really looked like Lu Qi, and between his eyebrows., he looked a little like Xiaomei. Mayor Gao and his wife were Xiaomei’s parents. How could they not know what Xiaomei looked like when she was young?

If one looked closely at the flower between Lu Xiaosan’s eyebrows, there was indeed a shadow of Xiaomei. Perhaps it was because the person who had always been by his side was Xiaomei, so., he looked more and more like his mother.

It was also because of this similar look that Lu Qi, this reluctant father, would come to visit his son as soon as he returned home. He just wanted to see if his son looked like his wife again.

They both lived at Mayor Gao’s place. In any case, they spent most of their time there. Mayor Gao and his wife were old, and they only had one daughter, Xiaomei. It was Yan Huan who asked them to come.

Lu Guang was still in the Lu family. Yan Huan wasn't an unreasonable person, so he thought that Lu Qi had gone to be mayor Gao's son-in-law.

And Lu Xiaosan's life here couldn't have been better.

Lu Xiaosan's background, including Qin Yushi's birth mother, had all been forgotten.

In fact, it was good that they didn't see each other. They just let each other grow up.

How Could Qin Yushi not miss that child? That child was also born by her. Just like her other children, no matter how many children There were, they were still her children. She loved them all.

She only knew that Lu Xiaosan would follow her uncle and be his son. He would receive full-hearted care from her uncle and Xiaomei. They would love him as if his life depended on it. That was right.
