

Chapter 2301: When was taken over

Sometimes, when she saw her three children crying, she would think of Lu Xiaosan. She would have her grandparents to comfort her, and her parents to dote on her. However, it was much better than her three days at home.

It wasn't that she didn't love her anymore, it wasn't that she didn't feel pain anymore.

It was just that it was a little painful. Perhaps it was just that sentence, "The rarer something is, the more valuable it is."

It wasn't worth much anymore. He cried like this every day. No matter how rare it was, it was annoying at times.

Qin yushi sighed again. She walked to the cradle and carried little four. Little Four was held by his mother, so he finally stopped crying. However, the other two cried again. Little Four was the most possessive, because she was a little girl, everyone at home spoiled her. It was a month of being a mother.

Indeed, it was tiring.

However, as she looked at the chubby, fair-skinned children, her heart couldn't be any more filled.

"Mommy Loves You All." Qin Yushi kissed her daughter's little face. "Mommy loves all of you, including your third brother."

Lu Guang walked in and took the little girl from her arms. He then coaxed her professionally, "Big Brother said that little apple has gained another pound. She is now about ten pounds. That child is well-fed. Why are the three of us as thin as monkeys?"

Little Apple was Lu Xiao San's nickname. Her real name was Lu Huan.

"Like monkeys?" Qin yushi pinched her daughter's cheeks and saw her daughter's chubby face. With so much meat, she didn't look like a thin child at all.

It was just that Xiaomei was too good at raising children.

After all, there was only one child and all her attention was on him. There were three of them here. They could care about this but couldn't care about that. They still had Baoyi and Yanhuan at home, as well as Lu Jin and ye Shuyun, but.., the children still had to acknowledge their parents more.

Qin Yushi also insisted on taking care of the children herself, but there were too many of them. If she was busy, she would sometimes be flustered. For example, she would give her eldest brother a bottle of milk twice and eat him until he was full, she had never given her second brother a bottle of milk, which made him cry from hunger. Fortunately, she had given her third brother to Lu Qi. Otherwise, if the four of them were to fight, Qin Yushi might have gone crazy.

Qin Yushi's days were spent in such a busy manner.

Although she was busy and tired, she could watch the three children grow up day by day. The sense of satisfaction was self-evident.

Little Fatty he brought Qin Pingjun to visit his little nephew almost every day. He couldn't put it down every day. This was his real little nephew's and little niece's.., he Yibin and Luo Lin had had enough of Grandma's Addiction.

These children of the Lu family were indeed not worried about being loved.

Qin Pingjun teased the little girl who was obediently eating her milk. He saw that the little girl was fair and fat. Although she was not as beautiful as grandma, she was still a very cute child, she was also the most precious child in the family.

Of course, she was also the one that everyone loved the most.

It was their fault that the boys in their family were indeed not worth much. However, little girls were very rare. Even the He family's husband and wife loved the little girl the most. Sometimes, this little girl was the one that they brought home the most.

"Big Brother, when will you bring uncle and Auntie over?"

Qin Yushi put her daughter down and covered her with a blanket, letting her sleep alone. The other two boys were already asleep. They had finished their milk and it was time for them to sleep, therefore, Qin Yuji could rest for a while. No, he could at least rest on two or three small plots of land. It might be even longer. This would depend on the mood of the children. As long as they could sleep more, it would be good. However, sometimes one of them would wake up.., the other two could forget about sleeping as well. When that happened, they would be flustered again.

"Let's talk outside." Qin Pingjun was also afraid of waking up the three children. If the three children cried, the destructive power would be quite terrifying. In any case, he was afraid. If one cried, the other two would play along.

It wouldn't be noisy. If he couldn't coax them properly, what would he do if his throat was damaged from crying?

Qin yushi gently closed the door and asked the housekeeper to keep an eye on them for a while. She didn't want them to fall asleep so badly that they would kick off their blankets and catch a cold.

This kick and the other two were also kicking the blankets. They were really giving her a headache.

When they reached the outside, Qin Pingjun heaved a sigh of relief. They were finally a little further away from each other. Now, even if they spoke loudly, they didn't have to be afraid.

"Big Brother, you haven't answered my question yet?"

Qin Yushi asked Qin Pingjun again.

The current Qin Pingjun was no longer the same as before. When he first came, he was still a young man who had just stepped into society. He was also a young man who was full of ambition and full of revenge.

However, his circumstances were not good. He was still struggling at the bottom of the first meeting. Even his own food and clothing were difficult to solve.

And now, he had already sat on the first chair of Linlang. His outstanding work ability and skilled business skills. In addition to his superb negotiation skills, he was becoming more and more outstanding. At the same time, being outstanding also brought him a large amount of wealth.

Of course, he was now brothers with fatty he. The two of them were like brothers. Of course, the room for development was also larger. Qin Pingjun's work ability was absolutely genuine, of course, his character was also absolutely outstanding.

Although he hadn't said that he was truly outstanding yet, he was still in Hai City. If he were to occupy a small piece of land for himself, he would be able to live down-to-earth.

Moreover, he had also bought a house in Hai City. This was also the beginning of his real roots in Hai City.

Regarding the matter of the house, Lu Guang had given Qin yushi several houses. They were all under Qin Yushi's name, and were also in Hai City. They were in a very good location, and they were originally meant for her to give to Qin Pingjun.

However, Qin Pingjun was a very proud person. He wouldn't ask for these things for no reason. Of course, it was also because he didn't want to use such a method to get these things. If he really took them now, not only would he lose his dignity., even his sister would be unable to raise her head in the Lu family.

Perhaps the people in the Lu family wouldn't think that way, but he would think it himself.

That was why he wanted to use his own hard work to get what he wanted and achieve what he wanted. Step by step, he walked on solid ground.

Every step he took was very solid, and every step he took was thorough.

This was also so that in the future, when he walked higher and higher, he would not fall and fall to his death

He had finally succeeded. He already had his own house. He would rely on his own hands to earn everything else back.

"I'm ready to bring my parents over."Qin Ping smiled. In fact, he was still the simple and honest him in the past. The shrewdness in him was completely gone in front of his predecessors.

Chapter 2302: Lu Xiaosi was just a little beauty

They had worked hard all their lives, so it was only right for them to come over and enjoy themselves. What they were most worried about was his marriage. After all, they were already old, and it was time for them to have grandchildren.

"Big Brother, do you have anyone suitable?"

Qin Yushi immediately asked.

“What are you doing?” Qin Pingjun hurriedly took a step back. “I don’t dare to have those colleagues of yours. I’m honest and stupid, but I can’t outtalk them.” As for a suitable partner? There was one who was not bad and was currently in a relationship. As for whether he would succeed in the future and whether he would reach that stage, it was hard to say for now. In fact, he just wanted his parents to help him consult. If his parents did not object, then it would be her.

Linlang did not lack men, and of course, there was no shortage of women.

With his current status, there were naturally not too few women who threw themselves at him. However, he was a person who loved himself. In such a materialistic metropolis, he was obviously a weirdo, of course, women liked him even more.

Those who truly knew the value of goods knew that he was a good home. Even if he was not polished, he would still have his own charm. It was not because of the lighting or the craftsmanship. It was only because of his own training in time.

If any woman really knew the value of goods, she would definitely hold onto it tightly. Now, a simple and capable man like him was about to die.

Qin yushi sighed in her heart. Her brother’s personality didn’t change much. His appearance had changed, but the honest and honest look in his bones didn’t seem to change much. That was why.., she really shouldn’t be fooled by his appearance.

Sometimes, one’s eyes could be easily fooled.

When her mind was in a mess, she felt her shoulders sink. She suddenly came back to her senses and could not help but let out a sigh. Perhaps this was what others said about being pregnant for three years. Her attention was not very focused now. The most focused time was at night, as long as there was the slightest movement of the three children, she could feel it even if she was separated by a few walls. Of course, it was also because of these three children that she did not have a good sleep.

It was also thanks to the fact that there were only three children. If there was one more, she might have gone crazy.

Qin Pingjun patted his sister’s shoulder.

“Shishi, there’s something I need to tell you.” His tone was very serious. Of course, it could be seen that he was not joking. He was also giving Qin yushi a warning in advance.

“Okay, go ahead.”

Qin yushi also retracted her thoughts. She was no longer in a trance. Of course, she was also listening.

“If my parents come, your house might not be quiet. They should come looking for you.”

“Looking for me?” Qin yushi pursed her red lips. “Then let them look for me. As long as they can find me.”

“With me like this, they might not be able to recognize me even if I stand in front of him.”

Qin Pingjun nodded. In fact, when he first met Qin Yushi, he almost didn't recognize her. Furthermore, Qin Yushi had always been the closest to him since she was young, however, everyone's impression of Qin Yushi was after high school. When her eyes were injured, she always wore glasses. The special glasses covered most of her face, as a result, second uncle and the others had probably forgotten Qin Yushi's original appearance.

"However, you still have to be mentally prepared."

Qin Pingjun didn't have that kind of wishful thinking. Of course, in their line of work, they also had to think of bad situations. Otherwise, when the time came, they would be in a panic.

"Big Brother, don't worry. I know what to do."

Qin Yushi's face was still smiling, but her heart was filled with coldness.

She had yet to take revenge for what had hurt her eyes.

What family? Her family only consisted of her first uncle's family and her eldest cousin brother. As for that family, brother, she couldn't even smile at them. What else did she want from her?

In their dreams. Even her household registration was under the He family's name. She was a member of the He family, so what did it have to do with their family? Also, it was best that Qin Fei did not let her see him again. Otherwise.., he had to be careful of his eyes.

Life was like this. You had to pay back what you owed.

And she really did not put the Qin family in her eyes. In a while, the cries of three children could be heard. It was like a symphony. One call, one call, and all of them were extremely delicate, they had to be carried by their mother, especially Lu Xiaosi. He was a difficult child to coax. His small arms and legs were very strong, and it hurt when he bit people.

Lu Xiaosi was originally going to squeeze his eyes and cry. He clenched his small fists tightly, as though they were transparent. However, when he came into a warm and familiar embrace, he immediately stopped crying, instead, he opened his mouth and smiled at his mother.

Qin Yushi now felt like an invincible Superwoman. She held her daughter in one hand and the bottle in the other, giving her milk. She even had to raise one of her feet to shake the cradle of her eldest and second brother, the entire family loved Lu Xiaosi the most. Even her grandparents liked her the most. They said that she looked like her aunt.

She had seen Lu Wei a few times. Perhaps it was because she saw her mother-in-law's face every day that she was tired of appreciating beauties.

Lu Wei looked very similar to Yan Huan. It could be said that she was the Yan Huan of her youth. If it was the past her, she would have been amazing. Although she was a woman, she couldn't stop her appreciation of beauties.

Fortunately, she was used to seeing Yan Huan, so she did not make a fool of herself.

“You really don’t look like an aunt.”

She lowered her head and gently poked Lu Xiaosi’s fair and chubby little face. Although she wanted to give birth to a little beauty, it was a pity. Her condition was not that of a peerless beauty, therefore, it was impossible to give birth to a peerless little beauty. Her little four looked like his mother and did not look like an aunt. Only his eyes looked like an aunt. Perhaps he looked like his grandmother. He was a very cute and clingy little girl.

As long as she held her daughter, she would forget everything. In her heart, in her eyes, and in her life, she only had these three children.

As for Lu Xiaosan, that little apple, she would leave it to her elder brother and sister-in-law to worry about. That Little Apple now really looked like a little apple, but he was fatter and healthier than her three children. However, when he was born., it was the smallest and weakest of the four children.

She gently pinched her daughter’s little face. I believe that your third brother must be living very well, with all the love of your uncle’s aunt.

Chapter 2303: her son was doing well

She carefully put her daughter down and went to check on the other two. The eldest and the second were usually carried by his great-grandmother and great-grandfather. Otherwise, if the three of them were to sing a symphony., it would be like a competition to see who had the loudest voice. It would probably make their little throats hoarse from crying. All she had to do now was to coax the precious little princess of the Lu family.

Lu Xiaosi was a child who loved to laugh. When she was full, she would kick her chubby legs to play with her mother from time to time. This made Qin Yushi’s entire body go limp, she didn’t look like the strong woman she used to be.

No, she wasn’t a strong woman. She was just an ordinary person forced by life to survive in the crevice. She wasn’t strong enough yet.

Outside, Yan Huan held boss Lu’s small hand carefully. It could be seen now how the children looked like. The three of them looked similar to Qin Yushi. Only third brother, the president, looked like Lu Qi.

Boss Lu used all his strength to grab his grandmother’s hand and play with it from time to time. Whenever he saw his beautiful grandmother, he wanted to hug her.

Sometimes, Yan Huan would sigh at how distant the past was. Back then, she was actually hugging Xiao Qi and Xiao Guang. At that time, they were also such young children, but now, she was actually hugging her own grandson.

It seemed that not long ago, she was still unable to accept this, but now, she had actually already accepted it. In fact, it wasn’t that difficult, right?

“Yiya...”boss Lu grabbed Yan Huan’s finger again, and his chubby legs kicked up and down.

Was he protesting against his beautiful grandmother not playing with him?

Yan Huan gently poked his grandson's little face again. In that instant, the warm light fell on her face. She was still young and shocking. She had never aged, and she had never changed. She was still Yan Huan.

This was the best gift that the heavens had given her in this lifetime. She had forgotten about time, and time had also forgotten about herself.

Outside the station in Hai City, when the train stopped, an elderly couple walked out. They were carrying bags of various sizes. Other than their luggage, there were also mountain goods for their son

They followed the crowd and squeezed out, as if there were many people coming here.

They didn't know the way, so they could only follow the crowd and walk towards the crowded place. Not long after, they arrived outside the station. However, both of them looked uneasy.

This was the first time they had come to Hai City. Such a big city was different from their small village.

The buildings here were really tall. Even if they stretched their necks, they still felt very tired.

Such a tall building, they were afraid that it would collapse.

"Mom and Dad..."

At this time, they seemed to hear someone calling them.

This was their son, Jun Jun. .

There was no mistake. No matter how much they admitted their mistakes, they couldn't admit their son was wrong. This was Qin Pingjun's son.

It was their son.

"Mom and Dad..."

He called out again.

Qin Pingjun had already found his parents and walked over with big strides.

As for Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin, when they saw their son's successful appearance in a suit, they were both gratified and proud.

It seemed like he had lost weight. Aunt Qin touched her son's arm. It was also dark. This suit made his son look very energetic when he wore it, just like those big bosses on TV.

"Let's go home first." Qin Pingjun held back his tears. It had been a long time since he had seen his parents, and his parents had been worried for their entire lives. When he saw his parents again, he found that they seemed to be old again, and the hair on their heads was white. The money he sent them should not have been spent. The clothes on them were from a few years ago.

Qin Yujun was carrying several bags of luggage, all of them on his body. He was a man in a suit and tie, clearly a successful man, he was carrying several large snake-skin bags. The sudden change in style was quite surprising, but he did not feel anything. He continued to joke with his parents and carried all the luggage properly, his arms were very strong, and what was exposed was a brand-name watch worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.

However, at this moment, the smile on his face was honest and simple. There was also a hint of shrewdness and fear in the business world at that moment.

His methods were very clever, but only in terms of work. His honesty and honesty would only appear when he was with his family, and he had never changed.

He stuffed his luggage into the car and filled the car to the brim. He also found the pickled vegetables that his mother had personally pickled in the car, and he really didn't dislike them at all, when he was in Hai City to discuss business, all he saw were celebrities and singers. Of course, he ate big fish and meat, sea cucumbers and bird's nest, but what he really wanted to eat was the pickled vegetables that his mother had drowned, thinking about the taste now, he couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

He liked the pickled vegetables that his parents made. They were definitely not available outside. It wasn't like he didn't know how good the taste was.

However, when Uncle Qin and his wife got into the car, they didn't dare to put their feet anywhere. What if the car got dirty? would their son lose money.

It was fine if they couldn't help their son, but they couldn't cause trouble for their son.

"Dad, it's okay. You can step on it as you like. This is our own car. If it gets damaged, I'll buy another car."

Qin Pingjun could say that now. His monthly salary was terrifyingly high. Although this car wasn't cheap, if he wanted to change it, he could buy another one.

Uncle Qin was dumbfounded by his own car.

"Junzi, you bought it yourself. Isn't this for someone else?"

"Yes, I bought it myself."

Qin Pingjun drove skillfully. He only got his driver's license after he arrived in Hai City. Now, he was driving steadily and very fast. Not long after that. They arrived at the entrance of a small community. Their car entered without any obstruction. This place was filled with electronic parking spaces. After he entered, he found his own parking space and parked the car inside, then, he got out of the car and carried all the luggage on his shoulders.

Then, he took his parents home.

This was a high-end residential area that had just been built. There were not many people living there, and the elevator was very simple. There were only two families on the first ladder, and they were all large-scale houses, and the housing prices here were.., some people might not be able to buy it in their lifetime.

Chapter 2304: this is my house

Qin Pingjun had bought the first floor. Although there was an elevator, which floor was convenient, the first floor would have given him a large yard. If it wasn't for buying it for his parents.., he actually quite liked the feeling of climbing high and looking far ahead.

However, he knew that his parents were definitely not used to living in a high-rise, so he thought about it and bought this place. At the very least, it would be more down-to-earth. He also planned to buy another set, which would be upstairs and downstairs in the future, it was also very convenient.

The door opened and the entire room was very large. It was also decorated. The television sets were also of the same large size, not the old television sets in the house.

Qin Pingjun walked straight in, but Uncle Qin did not dare to enter. He looked at the soil on the soles of his shoes and was afraid that he might have dirtied the house. What should he do?

"Dad, come in. It's okay. This is your home."

Uncle Qin carefully walked in, but once he entered, he didn't even dare to walk. Of course, he didn't dare to sit down. The sofa was soft, soft and clean, but he didn't dare to sit down.

At this time, a young woman in an apron walked out of the kitchen, holding a spatula in her hand.

"It's almost time to eat," she smiled, looking very delicate. Although she didn't wear any jewelry, it could be seen from her clothes that she must be from a good family.

Aunt Qin tugged at Uncle Qin's sleeve.

Uncle Qin finally understood. He quickly searched his body for a long time before he took out a red packet.

This was something they had prepared in advance. This time, they were here to find their son's wife. Otherwise, they wouldn't have come all the way here to disturb their son. They even had to work on the car for such a long time. Here they came.., they couldn't be of much help either. They still had to make trouble for their son.

If it wasn't for this reason, they would still be at their old home. How could they possibly come here? And every time they met, they couldn't miss out on a gift. However, they didn't know what to give.., so in the end, the old couple discussed for a long time and decided that it was better to give a red packet.

This way, they could give something and not embarrass their son.

"Dad, What are you doing?" Qin Pingjun didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He quickly pulled his parents to sit down and let them sit on the sofa. They had been on the train for so long, weren't they tired?

He wanted to let them take the plane, but the old man was old. One was afraid of spending money, and the other didn't dare to.

So in the end, they took the train. It was a train that took days and nights. were they really not tired?

And what was with the red packet?

Aunt Qin quickly pulled her son's sleeve and stuffed the red packet into her son's hand. "Take it to your future wife. This girl is really handsome." And what this wife saw., aunt Qin was more and more satisfied. She was more than willing to give such a good-looking wife.

"Mom..." Qin Pingjun was about to cry.

"What nonsense are you talking about? That's our Shishi."

Uncle Qin and Uncle Qin were stunned. "What, Shishi?"

"Uncle, aunt, why can't You Recognize Me?"

Qin Yushi also wanted to laugh, but she held it in. Such a beautiful misunderstanding.

"It's really Shi Shi." Auntie Qin hurriedly stood up, but no matter how she looked at it, it didn't seem like Shi Shi.

"Auntie, I'm Shi Shi's." Qin Yushi walked over and stood in front of Auntie Qin. "Auntie raised me up, and you even said that I look like my mother. I'll definitely grow up very well in the future."

"Yes, yes." Auntie Qin reached out her trembling hand and touched Qin Gu Shi's face. "You look exactly the same as your mother when she was young. Your Eyes..."

The reason why they couldn't recognize Qin Yushi was not because of anything else. It was because Qin Yushi no longer wore her glasses. Furthermore, after giving birth, her figure had also undergone some changes, even her temperament had become gentler. She was completely different from the country bumpkin who had left the village before, so it was normal for them not to recognize her.

Now, Aunt Qin could really see the shadow of Mother Qin in Qin Yushi.

Mother Qin was originally good-looking, but it was a pity. A beautiful woman had a poor life, and she died early, leaving Qin Yushi a few years old child. After so many years of suffering in the hands of her stepmother, she was finally better.

Qin yushi gently pushed up the thin glasses on her face.

"Auntie, my eyes have been operated on. I can do without glasses now."

"Good, good, very good." Auntie Qin wiped her tears. Even Uncle Qin was the same. They had originally only wanted to look at their future daughter-in-law, then, they had come to see how Shi Shi was doing?

Now that they saw her, they were relieved. Their son was doing well. He had bought a foreign house and a car. Shi Shi seemed to be doing well. Even her eyes were better.

Whether she was doing well or not, it was not an act. Qin Yushi was relaxed. It was obvious that her current life was very good.

Qin Yushi did not sit down to chat with the Qin couple. She was still busy in the kitchen.

"Dad, Mom, go and rest for a while. Then, change your clothes."

Qin Pingjun stood up. His parents still did not know how to use the things here. She had to make arrangements for them.

“No need, no need.” Aunt Qin quickly waved her hand. “Let’s just do it like this. It’s also clean. There’s no need to change.”

“Dad, Shishi’s partner will be here soon. You guys can’t be dirty, right?” Qin Pingjun had no choice but to bring Lu Guang up.

“What? Shishi already has a partner?”

Aunt Qin heard this and said, “What’s wrong? You’ve never said that before.”

“I only found out later.” Qin Pingjun touched his forehead. He didn’t know what to say about Lu Guang’s actions. Not to mention him, even Qin Yushi only found out later, she had been kidnapped by Lu Guang a long time ago. He even made her sign something. It was a contract to sell her body. She had not even been in a relationship before she had been kidnapped by Lu Guang.

Now, she had four children. She was really helpless. However, it was unfortunate that Lu Guang had such good taste and chose his sister. Otherwise, where would he have had four children.

For a family like the Lu family, they did not lack money, and it was even more impossible for Lu Guang to lack money. What he lacked was children. Lu Qi did not have children, so everything was on Lu Guang.

And now, Lu Guang had given birth to four children for his family. No one could compare to his status.

If it was anything else, the Qin couple might not be willing. However, when it came to meeting their niece’s partner, the two of them did not need Qin Pingjun to say anything. They had to clean up properly.

Chapter 2305: the son-in-law is here

When they finished showering and were wearing the clothes Qin Pingjun had bought, Qin Yushi had also finished cooking. She carried out the dishes one by one.

The doorbell outside also rang coincidentally.

He should be here. Qin Pingjun stood up and was about to open the door. As for Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin, they couldn’t sit still because they were Qin Yushi’s partners. Wouldn’t it be embarrassing for them to be like this? Although.., they were wearing the best clothes they had worn in the past few years, but they still didn’t have any confidence. They were afraid that Qin Yushi’s partner would despise them because they were from the countryside.

When the door opened, it was indeed Lu Guang outside. He didn’t look like a lawyer anymore. He had a few bags on him, a bottle of milk in his pocket, and a child in his arms.

“Why did you bring little four?”

Qin Pingjun quickly let him in. The weather today was not good at all, so the adults did not care. But what if the child caught a cold?

“She insisted on coming. I had no choice.”

Lu Guang shook his daughter in his arms. It was not as if he did not know her personality. At home, she was overbearing and possessive. Fortunately, the other two let her go. Otherwise, with her personality, she would not have gotten into a fight.

The two brats in the family were all good-natured. It was just that little four, this child, was like a female overlord. Only in front of the family members could he be a little more obedient. However, if he were to go outside, he would simply be terrifyingly overbearing.

He didn't know who this temper of his followed?

If his father didn't want to leave, the little girl wouldn't be willing no matter what. He had tried a few times. As soon as he left, he would burst into tears. He almost lost his voice from crying. How could he bear to let his daughter Cry Like This, there were three boys in the family, and only one of them was wearing a cotton-padded jacket. He was usually in so much pain that his eyes were like his own. He could not even shed a few tears, let alone cry so loudly.

What if he really broke his voice from crying? He was such a young child.

Lu Guang had no choice but to carry his daughter out. As soon as he carried her out, she became as obedient as she could be. Along the way, he could hear her tender laughter.

She was happy, but Lu Guang, her wet nurse, was miserable.

It was as if she was fleeing from a disaster. She had a bunch of things hanging from her body. Also, was this a person or a Christmas tree.

Qin Yushi quickly reached out to carry her niece.

The little girl generously stretched out her little arm for her uncle to carry. Qin Ping would often go with he Xiaopeng to gain some presence in front of the little girl, so that these children would remember them, although they were familiar with each other, they really did the right thing. These children were very close to them now, just like Lu Xiaosi.

She was very afraid of outsiders. Even if outsiders wanted to carry her, she was unwilling. She was still not willing at all. It was all thanks to he Xiaopeng who spent almost every day trying to gain some presence. Naturally, he also had to bring Qin Pingjun along, if it was Qin Pingjun alone, it would not be very convenient. It would be different if he Xiaopeng was included. Moreover, they were now related by blood. Of course, after this period of time passed, it was as if they were visiting relatives.

Otherwise, this unfamiliar little girl would not allow others to hug her.

Qin Pingjun hugged he xiaosi. His entire heart softened. Now, he finally knew that even he Xiaopeng, who had received an Orthodox education since young, would smile like a fool when he saw Lu Xiaosi, not to mention him.

"Oh right, I forgot." Qin Pingjun hugged the little girl and couldn't bear to let her go.

"My parents are here."

"Hello, uncle, Hello, Auntie."

Lu Guang took the initiative to greet him with a sweet smile on his face. He also felt that he was harmless. Of course, this was only because of his appearance. He really didn't want to be fooled by his appearance. He was a wolf with a big tail, otherwise, how could he have turned Qin Yushi so badly that she couldn't even tell the difference between North, south, east, and West? It had only been a short while. Come on, all four children had been born.

Meanwhile, Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin were both uneasy. Their eyes were glued to the child in Qin Pingjun's arms. Whose child was this?

"Dad, Mom, this is Shishi's daughter. She's Shishi's partner." Qin Pingjun only wanted to make it easier for his parents to understand. Now, his partner had become his husband, and even the child had been born.

"Shi Shi's child?" Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin were really stunned for half a day.

How could she even have a child?

She even had a child.

Qin Pingjun gave the child to Aunt Qin to carry. Aunt Qin did not dare to carry it. Fortunately, it was only washed. Otherwise, she would not have dared to carry such a clean child.

She hesitated for a long time, but in the end, she couldn't help but carry the child. They were already so old. They didn't say anything now, but they just liked children.

He Xiaosi was carried by Aunt Qin, so he gave her face. He only sucked on his little finger and didn't cry.

"This child really looks like Shi Shi when she was young."

Aunt Qin held the child and didn't dare to move.

Uncle Qin also nodded. "Yes, she does. They watched Qin Yushi grow up. Naturally, they would recognize her when she was young?"

The child in her arms was fragrant and soft. She was fair and tender. The clothes on her body were new and beautiful. She was really very cute. She was so lovable that she could not bear to let go.

As soon as Qin Yushi came out, the little girl saw her mother immediately. She stretched out her small arms for her mother to hug her, and her small mouth became flat. She missed her mother.

Qin yushi hurriedly wiped her hands on her body and hugged her daughter in her arms.

"Why did you bring her here?"

Qin yushi coaxed her daughter. Why did this young lady follow her here?

"She's crying like crazy. What can I Do?" Lu Guang finally put down all the things that were hanging on his body. His mother had hung all the things that could not be used on him, he was like a holy tree. He had brought milk bottles, milk powder, diapers, and even her little toys. He even brought her little blanket and pillow. He was afraid that she would not be used to sleeping outside, actually, Lu Guang really felt that there was no need. They would go back in a while.

Qin Pingjun quickly let his parents sit down. Thinking about how they had just gotten off the train, they must have been tired and hungry. First, they ate and ate, then they rested for a while. As for other things, they would talk about it tomorrow. After all., they were not in a hurry.

Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin still had a lot of questions to ask, but they held back in the end.

Chapter 2306: blessed children

When Qin Yushi and Lu Guang brought Lu Xiaosi back in the evening, Qin Pingjun finally told his parents about Qin Yushi.

“He’s Shishi’s boss. He was the one who helped treat Shishi’s eyes. If it weren’t for him, Shishi might have gone blind in the future. When I came here, he was also the one who helped me find a good job.”

When the Qin parents heard this, they felt even more grateful. Of course, it also made Qin Pingjun have a good impression of Lu Guang.

Lu Guang was originally good-looking. In addition, his smile was good-looking and his mouth was sweet. It made Uncle Qin’s aunt Qin extremely satisfied.

Qin Pingjun finally remembered something. He had to tell them about this in advance.

“My Boss’s parents have adopted Shi Shi as their goddaughter. They only have one son, and they like Shi Shi very much. Brother-in-law transferred Shi Shi’s household registration to her godparents.”

“It should be transferred.” Uncle Qin slapped his thigh when he heard that. His voice also became one syllable higher. “It can’t be that it can’t be transferred. Do We have to let second brother’s family come over and harm that child again?”

Yes, they should do it. It would be good if they did it. It would be best if second brother’s family treated Shi Shi as dead. This child had suffered so much. Could it be that he was going to be harmed now that he had a good life.

Second Brother’s family was nothing. If they knew that Shi Shi’s life was good, they might come over and do some disgusting things. Since young, they had done many bad things?

Don’t let the second brother’s family know that Shi Shi was living a good life so that they wouldn’t miss her. Aunt Qin was also the family that hated second brother. How did Shi Shi’s eyes become like that, they knew it in their hearts.

Even if Shi Shi’s eyes were bad, that Qin Fei didn’t even apologize. They had never treated Shi Shi as this person since they were young. Now, they still wanted to take advantage of Shi Shi. How could that be possible.

Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin almost did not fall asleep that night. The bed here was very soft and comfortable to lie on. Although it was not as quiet as the countryside, a big city naturally had the benefits of a big city, there was also the television set that was placed in the living room. How Old was it? Uncle Qin did not have any other hobbies right now. He just wanted to watch television. Even in his hometown, it was quite poor. There were no programs on television, now, it was all digital television. It was all internet television. However, there wasn't any connection there. Secondly, the television set was old. Even if there was cable, it couldn't be watched.

Only here did Uncle Qin see the good television. He sat on the sofa and watched the television until midnight. He wasn't sleepy.

In the morning, Aunt Qin woke up early in the morning. She had to run to the kitchen to cook breakfast. She now knew how to use some of the electrical appliances in the kitchen. It was Qin Pingjun who taught her. Moreover, it wasn't difficult. She could learn it immediately, it was really much more convenient than her hometown.

While Aunt Qin was busy learning, she was able to use them smoothly in a short while. Moreover, there was everything in the refrigerator, so it was also very convenient.

Qin Pingjun brought Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin to the garden. The garden here was very big, but it was all planted with lawns. Of course, this was private.

Aunt Qin looked at so many lawns, and her heart really ached. How could they plant grass in such a good place? It would be great if they planted vegetables. How many vegetables would be planted in such a large piece of land, it was enough for the whole family to eat.

Aunt Qin and Uncle Qin both discussed that they wanted to improve this place. Before they went back, they wanted to plant these fields well and grow vegetables for their son to eat.

At noon, Qin Pingjun came back. He specially came to pick up Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin.

When they sat in the car, Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin were indeed nervous. Why did they have to dress so nicely when they were going out.

"We're going to Lu Guang's house."

Lu Family? Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin didn't react at first, but they quickly remembered who Lu Guang was? Wasn't He Qin Yushi's partner?

They didn't bring anything with them when they went to his house like this, okay?

"Dad, don't worry, it's fine," Qin Pingjun comforted Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin, "They were supposed to come to our place, but because time was too tight, they didn't prepare anything. Plus, the place was small, so they went to Lu Guang's place first. Shishi's godparents were also there, so we could get to know each other."

"Oh right, I forgot." Qin Pingjun patted his forehead. He really forgot the most important point.

"Dad, Mom, Shi Shi gave birth to four children."

"What?" Aunt Qin didn't react for a long time. "She gave birth to four children? When did she give birth? Shi Shi hasn't been in Hai City for four years. Even if she gave birth to one every year, she could only give birth to two children at most. How could she give birth to four children?"

“Hehe...”Qin Ping smiled. Actually, when it came to this matter, there was probably no one who didn’t believe it.

Lu Guang’s family had the genes for multiple births. Lu Guang had an older brother and a younger sister. They were triplets.

“Shishi gave birth to quadruplets, but one of the children was passed to brother Lu Guang. Because sister-in-law Lu Guang’s health wasn’t good, she couldn’t give birth, so she gave the third child to the eldest family. Now, Shishi only has three children by her side.”

“Oh my God!”Aunt Qin widened her eyes and stared at Uncle Qin for a long time.

They had heard that she gave birth to two children, but they had never seen anyone give birth to three children at once. What was going on? Not only did she give birth to three children, but she also gave birth to four children at once.

“Shishi is a blessed child.”

Uncle Qin sighed. “The hardships she suffered when she was young were worth it. Our family did not raise her for nothing. She remembers our good deeds.”

“Yes.”Aunt Qin thought of the past and still felt a little sad. However, it was all in the past now. Yes, it was all in the past. Regardless of whether it was Qin Yushi or Qin Pingjun, they had all grown up now, look at how outstanding his son was now. Even so, they didn’t go to the village to casually spread the news. They didn’t look like the second son’s family. They only spent money to buy a college student, they almost went door to door to inform each family.

In fact, Uncle Qin and Aunt Qin still didn’t know what kind of family Qin Yushi had married. They only heard the meaning in Qin Ping’s words, Lu Guang’s appearance, and the way he talked. presumably..., they were all children from good families.

When they arrived at the Liuyuan Garden and saw Yan Huan, whom they could only see on television, Uncle Qin almost fell to the ground. Aunt Qin was also stunned for a long time and didn’t say anything.

Chapter 2307: feeding an unfamiliar wolf

They were all around the same age as Yan Huan. Who Didn’t harbor any thoughts when they were young? Who Didn’t have any dreams? Who Didn’t chase after stars? Who liked the characters that appeared on television.

However, time had smoothed out their edges and polished their years. It was also their age that had been dyed white, causing their faces to be filled with wrinkles. However, some of their original intentions had never changed.

It was just like how they could only watch on television in the past. One after another, movies starring Yan Huan had accompanied them as they grew up, accompanied him as he grew up, and accompanied them through countless years, by now, they had already known each day and year.

This was the first time that they had seen the star that they had liked when they were young up close. However, Yan Huan was still the same as before. Time seemed to have frozen on her, she did not seem to have changed much. She was still as beautiful as a young girl. Her smile was so beautiful that it could make one fall into a dream.

Only now did they know what kind of family Qin Yushi had found for them. She had also found a godfather and godmother for them. Her godbrother would be the future CEO of Linlang, such a large company, a company with a market value of over ten billion, and so many celebrities under it. and their son, Qin Pingjun, was now dealing with these celebrities, and the salary he received was very high, and he had never relied on anyone. He had walked step by step.

It was precisely because he had used his own ability and hard work to move forward step by step, and didn't find any shortcuts, that he was able to let himself, his parents., so that his younger sister could stand up straight and live.

When uncle and Aunt Qin first went, they were both quite uneasy. They also thought that such a rich family would definitely be difficult to get along with and would look down on people from the countryside like them.

However, after they came into contact with them, they realized that safety was not like this.

Regardless of whether it was Yan Huan or the others, they were extremely polite to the couple and also treated them as family. Moreover, they did not have the slightest expression of looking down on others.

Perhaps it was a little strange for them to do it once or twice, but after a long time, they naturally got used to it.

Uncle and aunt Qin lived in Hai City well. The old couple would farm in the yard whenever they had nothing to do. This yard was really big. There was a yard in front and back, and they could grow a vegetable greenhouse.

Qin Tianjun had to go to work, so they planted their small plot of land at home. Otherwise, the two of them would go shopping in the supermarket. When they wanted to buy things, they would push a cart over. They didn't need to give money either, his son gave them a card. When they went out, they only needed to swipe the card.

It was not until a long time later that they realized that this card also needed money. It was bought with money. They thought that this card was free.

When Qin Pingjun returned, he would either take them to the Liu Garden to see the three children, or they would go to the he family's place to drink tea. He Yibin and Luo Lin were worried that no one would accompany him. He was getting old and he was about to retire, this matter was becoming less and less.

Life was pretty good. It was pretty good. Of course, they adapted very quickly, but no matter how fast they were, they still wanted to go back. They had lived in the village for their entire lives, the neighbors had also lived together for decades. Here, there was actually no one to talk to during the day.

They had stayed for a long time. They were thinking about their old neighbors and the big yellow dog they had. They did not know how it was now. was there anything to feed it? Although when they had come., they had entrusted the dog to someone else, they did not know if the person had done his best.

Qin Pingjun really had no choice. He had tried his best to think everything through, but Uncle Qin's aunt Qin still did not want to stay here any longer.

We know you are filial.

Aunt Qin touched her son's hair, "But we are old, and we are still used to staying at our own home. There are old neighbors there, and the conditions at home are better now. We don't have to work so hard. We have lived in the city for so many days, but after a long time, your father and I are a little homesick."

"In the future, if you want us to come over, we'll come over. Anyway, it's quite convenient to go back and forth."

Qin Pingjun still didn't want his parents to go back. After all, they were old, and it was indeed inconvenient for him not to be by their side. But when he thought about it in the end, it was indeed quite lonely to leave the old couple here, after all, there were some habits that they couldn't change.

In the end, Qin Pingjun still sent his parents back. However, in the past, he only thought of letting his parents come to live in the city and let them live a good life. However, he did not expect that his parents seemed to prefer the countryside.

Therefore, he prepared to build the house of his first family. This way, it would be more comfortable to live in.

As for the matter of the eldest son of the Qin family building the house, it blew like the wind in the entire village. Everyone said that the eldest son of the Qin family had finally come to a bitter end. Qin Pingjun had earned a lot of money outside, he was going to build a small house for his parents. When someone asked why Uncle Qin did not go to the city to live, Uncle Qin just smiled and said that no matter how good the city was, it was not as good as his own home. This golden nest and silver nest., were also not as good as his own dog nest. They had lived in the village for more than half of their lives and were used to it. If they went to another place, no matter how good it was, it would not be as good as the village.

Yes, it was not as good as the village.

But this was also a thought that only their family had.

The other people in the village were still struggling to make ends meet. For example, the second son of the Qin family had been living a tight life for the past few years. His son, Qin Fei, went to a school that burned money. After a year., if the school fees were paid, the whole family would follow suit. They had already spent a large amount of money on the school fees. This money was also saved and borrowed. Even the second son of the Qin family had to pay it back for a few years., they still couldn't pay it off. The old debt was still there, but in the end, it was a new debt.

It was because Qin Fei was too expensive to go to school. Every year, they had to tighten their belts to barely scrape together some tuition fees. The first person they hated in their hearts was Qin Yushi, they had earned money by going to work, but they didn't sponsor their own brother. However, they seemed to have forgotten that they had given Qin yushi a penny when she was in school. Now, they wanted her to take the money that she had worked so hard to earn.., they were going to sponsor the younger brother who had blinded her eyes. They had asked Qin Yushi if she was willing or not.

They were really daydreaming. Qin Yushi did not have a younger brother. She did not even acknowledge Qin Lao er. How could she acknowledge her enemy as her own brother and still want to spend the hard-earned money, giving money to this so-called younger brother? What kind of person was Qin Fei? Could it be that she didn't know that he was an ingrate without a heart? If she fed him well, he would bite her.

Chapter 2308: Where Is Qin Yushi

Qin Yushi wasn't stupid. She wasn't stupid either. If she really wanted to raise Qin Fei, she would rather dig a hole and bury herself. She would rather die than live like that.

They were really fantasizing. Qin Yushi didn't have a younger brother. She didn't even acknowledge Qin Lao Er. How could she acknowledge her enemy as her own brother? She even wanted to spend the hard-earned money she earned.., to spend it on this so-called younger brother.

Moreover, even if they wanted Qin Yushi to earn money to support Qin Fei, they had to find Qin Yushi first.

They hadn't even left such a fart-sized village before. How could they find Qin Yushi? They had never cared about which city Qin Yushi was in. They didn't even know if Qin Yushi was dead or alive.

All the money that Qin Pingjun had earned in the past few years was used to support a college student who spent a lot of money. How was it possible for him to save up the money? Therefore, the lives of Qin Pingjun's family had been getting worse and worse in the past few years, but on the contrary.., the days of being the head of the family were getting easier and easier.

The head of the Qin family was an honest man. Everyone in the village knew that if it wasn't for the head of the Qin family helping him back then, Qin Yushi would have been sold to an old man by his own father. How could he go to university, how could he leave this village.

Qin Pingjun had also entered a university. It was a regular university, so he didn't need much tuition fees in a year. Furthermore, he didn't need the family's money. His daily living expenses were earned through work-study, in addition, the tuition fees for a regular university were low. Therefore, the head of the Qin family's family had become much more relaxed compared to the second son of the Qin family over the past few years. They also had extra money in their hands.

Later on, Qin Pingjun also got a job. He also found a good job and began to send money back home.

As for Qin Fei, he even reached out to his family to ask for money. Qin Fei had never suffered since he was young. He had originally gone to a third-rate university, so it was difficult to find a job. Moreover, he was a person with high standards but low skills. He could not be picky with his shoulders, he could not lift his hands. The money he earned in a month was not enough to eat and drink. When he had nothing to do, he would come back to gnaw on the Old Man. However, even if he wanted to gnaw on the old man, he had to be able to gnaw on the Old Man. And this was obvious. The second son of the Qin family.., really did not have the ability to let this son eat his old man.

No matter how much he ate, it was impossible for him to get even a little bit of meat.

Therefore, Qin Fei was unwilling to come back these few years. He felt that his family was ashamed.

And when Qin Pingjun came over to build a house for the Qin family, it really made the eyes of the second son of the Qin family red.

The money was like flowing water. It kept floating outward. The family directly built a three-story small building. It was built very meticulously. There was no such building in the village.

The house was built like a villa where people lived in the city. They used the toilet that only the people in the city used. They pressed the toilet when they went to the toilet. It was immediately clean and did not smell bad.

The toilets of other houses were smelly, but the toilets of his house were fragrant.

The people in the village came to visit his house. They did not go to other places. They were all interested in the beautiful toilet that he had built.

Besides the large 50-inch color TV that was placed in the living room, there was also a cable TV. There were a lot of TV stations that received this. They could watch anything they wanted. Even if they sat in front of the TV for a day, they would still have programs.

Moreover, the roof of the house was equipped with solar energy. There was no need to boil water. If the tap was turned, the water that came out would be hot. They could even bathe every day.

There was also an electric tricycle outside. Qin Pingjun had bought it for his parents. It was small and fast, so it was very good.

Boss Qin's building was the only one in the village. Originally, Second Brother Qin's life was much better than boss Qin's. He sold it for 20,000 yuan, which made second brother Qin very proud, qin Yushi's stepmother even bought a gold necklace for herself. She wore it every day, wishing that she could stretch her neck like a giraffe. Was she afraid that others would not see the gold necklace hanging on her neck?

It was a pity. It was only a few days of Fame, and she had already sold the necklace and given it to Qin Fei as tuition fees. But after learning for so long, what could he learn? They still wanted Qin Fei to build a house for him. A dog like Qin Fei wanted to live in a house and watch TV. He might as well go to bed early and have a good dream.

Qin Lao'er felt uncomfortable every time he saw the house that his boss built. He was so jealous that he gritted his teeth. Besides, Qin Pingjun always came home in a small car and wore a brand-name suit, holding the latest mobile phone, everyone in the village said that boss Qin raised his son and raised him so well.

They were brothers, but second brother Qin was obviously much worse.

"Big Brother, do you know where my Shishi is now?"

Qin Fei's mother finally couldn't hold it anymore. She ran over early in the morning to ask Uncle Qin. She couldn't think any further. Money in this big city was very easy to earn. Qin Pingjun had indeed earned money.., there was no reason for that wretched girl, Qin Yushi, not to earn money. Why? Her family had been supporting her for so long. Now that she had earned money, she wanted to run away. There was no such thing as cheap in this world.

“How would I know where she is?”

Uncle Qin glanced at Qin Yushi’s stepmother. This woman was not a good person. As soon as she came over, he knew that she was up to no good. Why did she still want Shishi to support her family?

Shishi’s current household registration was with someone else, and she was also someone else’s daughter. What did it have to do with them?

Don’t blame Shishi for being ruthless. who was the first to be heartless?

“How can you not know?”When Qin Fei’s mother heard this, she was even more anxious. Didn’t your son, Qin Pingjun, go look for her? Now that Qin Pingjun had made a fortune, that wretched girl... no.., my Shishi shouldn’t be much different, right?

“You see, Pingjun has gone home a few times, but my shishi hasn’t returned once. We are also quite worried about her.”

“Hmph...”Uncle Qin snorted coldly. He was still worried. No one believed what he said. He had already eaten himself into a fat pig. Not to mention worrying about others, he should be worried about their chewy.., he held Qin Fei who was afraid of falling.

“Big Brother, wait for me. Don’t go yet...”

When Qin Fei’s mother saw that Uncle Qin was ignoring her, she was speechless. Her money was still with him.

“I told you, I don’t know where Shi Shi is.”Uncle Qin was a little annoyed by her following him.

“Uncle, are you talking nonsense? How can you not know?”

Qin Fei’s mother did not believe it at all. Anyway, she was so shameless that she insisted on following Uncle Qin.

“Huang Guizhi, why are you a woman following me? You Are Shameless, and I am?”

Chapter 2309: was red with envy

Uncle Qin was getting tired of following her. He really wanted to slap her in the face. Now that his son had earned money, he was a well-known figure in hai city. His back could also be straightened a little, the more he looked at Qin Yushi’s stepmother, the more he disliked her.

This was all self-inflicted. Now that Shi Shi had married so well, the second son’s family wouldn’t be able to get a single cent. HMPH, this was karma.

Uncle Qin’s words made the stepmother’s face blush. Of course, there were also those who didn’t know what was going on. They all held their laughter in their hands.

“That’s right. How could a sister-in-law follow uncle all the time? Didn’t they take a fancy to uncle’s family now that they’re Rich? Did they take a fancy to uncle? I can’t believe that this person is already so old and still has such a flirtatious attitude?”

The more he said it, the more unpleasant it sounded. Uncle Qin was so angry that he almost kicked someone.

He still wanted his face. He still had to live in the village in the future.

After Qin Fei’s mother went back, she scolded and cried at Qin Pingjun. She said that Qin Pingjun was a good daughter of Qin Pingjun. She had obviously made a lot of money in the city, but she didn’t know how to show filial piety to them, she gave all the money to her boss to spend and even found a decent job for Qin Pingjun.

“This is impossible.”

Qin Pingjun didn’t believe that Qin Yushi could make a name for herself. She could do better than Qin Pingjun and earn more money than Qin Pingjun.

“She’s half-blind. What good can she do?” As long as others starved to death outside and wanted to eat his food when they returned home, it was fine. After all, she was the daughter that he had never cared about. She could only do badly outside, but she couldn’t do well, especially if she couldn’t do well.

He couldn’t stand it. His son, who had poured all his heart and blood into it, wasn’t doing as well as the daughter he didn’t want.

“How is that not possible?” Although Qin Fei’s mother was a rural woman, she wasn’t stupid.

“Why don’t you think about it? If that wretched girl really didn’t do well, how could boss’s family still live so peacefully? I’m afraid they’ve already gone to look for that wretched girl.”

In the past, when that wretched girl was still around, as long as she didn’t have a good life, Boss’s family would be able to squeeze out the bitterness on their faces. But now, they were smiling like idiots all day long, they were also holding large amounts of money in their hands.

Qin Fei’s mother had a brain, eyes, and mouth. The village was only such a large area. Whoever’s cat gave birth, or whose chicken died, the entire village would definitely know.

Boss had given most of the land to others to plant. Now, they only planted a few plots of land. After that, they would play cards, listen to plays, and buy meat to eat every day. Their lives were as good as they could get, why didn’t he see that he was worried about that wretched girl.

If that wretched girl really didn’t do well, how could he still be so free? He was afraid that he would have to put on a bitter face.

“So...” Qin Fei’s mother gritted her teeth and her small eyes also narrowed, “I dare to bet with you that that wretched girl really made a lot of money. Moreover, there’s an 80% chance that the money for building the house belongs to that wretched girl.”

As long as she thought about it, if that money really belonged to that wretched girl, then it would belong to them. Her heart felt as if it was being clawed by a cat’s Paw, and it was painfully painful.

Second Brother Qin also sat up with a whoosh.

After hearing what Qin Fei's mother said, he also felt that it made sense.

The people of the Boss had always been nice to that wretched girl. The boss originally had a girl, but she died just a few days after giving birth. Coincidentally, Qin Yushi had also just been born, so the people of the boss., they had always treated Qin Yushi as the reincarnation of their child. Even Qin Pingjun had been nice to that wretched girl. If that wretched girl really didn't have a good life, would they still be able to wander around the village every day?

Perhaps they were already so worried that they couldn't eat or sleep.

Second Brother Qin was also thinking about the three-story house that boss Qin had built. In his dreams, he was thinking how good it would be if that small house was his. In the future, he would be able to hold his head high in the village.

Moreover, with this small house, even if he married Qin Fei in the future, it would be easy. If others saw this, they would definitely be able to match it.

Moreover, boss Qin had built such a big house, so he did not know how much money he had on hand.

If he had this money, what kind of land would he plant? He would eat and drink every day, carry books, and walk around the village every day. He would have whatever he wanted.

Right now, his heart was like a cat's paw that was clawing at him desperately. It was about to scratch him to death.

Boss would definitely not say anything, qin Fei's mother gritted her teeth again. It was almost as if she was going to bite her own teeth until they hurt.

If she wanted to say something, she would have said it long ago. It was impossible for her to wait until now. Now, what else could she do? She could pry open the mouths of the people on Boss's side.

She had been following boss's people for a few days, but the people on boss's side were completely impervious. It was impossible for them to tell them. Therefore, it was impossible for them to get information from boss, therefore, they had to think of another way to find that wretched girl and get the money back from her.

However, the problem now was how to find that wretched girl. That wretched girl wasn't easy to find. If the boss insisted that they had never met her and didn't know where she was., then, they wouldn't be able to find that wretched girl in their entire lives. If they couldn't find Qin Yushi, where would they get the money from? Without money, how would their family live in the future?

Yes, that was impossible. They had to find someone. The money in that wretched girl's hands belonged to their family.

But it belonged to their Qin Fei.

In the future, their Qin Fei would have to rely on this money to marry his wife.

Otherwise, based on the current situation in their family, which woman would be willing to marry into their family? The people in the village had built all the houses, and only their family's old house, which was more than ten years old, remained.

When the girl came, she would definitely come to see the house first. If it was a small foreign house like the boss's, then it was needless to say. But where was their house? Behind the boss's house, there was only a rotten mud house, even the television was old. This was a television that had been watched for many years. The Boss's family had changed to a new 50-inch color television, but their family still guarded such a rotten television, there were only one or two programs every day.

It was not the boss. The house was big, and the television was big. One look and one could tell that it was rich.

Qin Fei's mother did not fall asleep that night. It was not easy for her to fall asleep, but she also had a dream. She dreamed that she had found that wretched girl and made that wretched girl cough up a pile of money, also, the boss'house had become hers, and there was also that large color TV.

Chapter 2310: what was a younger brother like her doing here

She used this money to buy a lot of beautiful clothes, gold necklaces, gold earrings, and other people's envy. However, when he opened his eyes, the money was gone, and the gold necklace was gone, the gold ring was also gone, and the big house belonged to the boss. The power was also not hers, and she still had nothing. She lived in the old house for decades, living a life that was inferior to others.

Of course, she did not have much money in her pocket.

Of course, no one knew about her failure, and no one knew about her anger.

It was like she had dug up a mountain of gold and silver, but in the end, she did not bring out a single cent. That kind of frustration was simply unbearable, and she was so angry that she did not eat for almost a day, especially when she went out, she could see the big house that the boss had built outside. It was a three-story small house with white brick walls on top. It looked shiny and beautiful. This small house.., it was the only one in the village, but it was not hers.

This should have been hers. This was built with that wretched girl's money. Since it was the wretched girl's money, it naturally belonged to her and her son. There was no reason for it to be taken by the boss.

Right now, her heart was filled with evil thoughts. How great would it be if her boss's entire family died? If that was the case, then the house would be hers. Even her boss's money would be hers.

She slammed the door angrily. She was not in the mood to go down today. Even when Qin Lao'er returned, he did not have any food to eat. When he saw his wife's long face.., he did not dare to let her cook any food.

Even if she scolded him and cooked it, she might have to put rat poison in the pot. What if she ate him to death?

So he took a piece of biscuit left over from yesterday and ate it with water.

Qin Fei's mother was still angry. If she continued to be angry, she might really be angered to death.

Just as she was about to die from anger and vomit blood, Qin Fei came back.

When Qin Fei's mother saw her son, she was extremely close to him. She bought him meat and cooked for him. When she saw her son, she felt that he had lost weight and was tanned. He must have eaten badly outside.

In her heart, she scolded Qin Yushi again. She said that she had raised him for nothing and that she had really raised an ingrate. Instead of helping her own brother, she was helping an outsider.

She even helped an outsider build a three-story house and bought a large color TV.

While she was scolding others, she seemed to have forgotten that after she entered the Qin family, she had never given Qin Yushi a meal. At that time, Qin Yushi was only a three-year-old child. At that time, she had to wash pots and use them as bowls, she also had to be a punching bag for her stepmother. This was the cabbage of the modern world, and it could not be any more white.

It wasn't thanks to Qin Fei's mother that she was able to grow up.

It was already good enough that such a stepmother didn't beat her to death. She even had to help her son. Her son had nothing to do with Qin Yushi. No younger brother knew how to beat his sister since he was young, and no younger brother treated his sister like a horse, no younger brother had beaten his sister until her head was bleeding, and no younger brother had blinded his sister's and grandmother's eyes. Up until now, he hadn't even apologized.

What was a younger brother like this doing here?

It was better not to have a younger brother like this.

Only an idiot would help a younger brother like this.

Qin Fei had never treated Qin Yushi as his older sister, and Qin Yushi might not have treated Qin Fei as her younger brother.

When Qin Fei saw the food his mother cooked, his face was filled with displeasure. The food she cooked was really too terrible. He did not like it at all. He could not even have a good meal outside. It was not easy for him to return home once, it was not good either.

Although he despised it and ate it unwillingly, at least he could still eat meat.

"Mom, whose house is brother Pingjun's three-story house? When did they build it?" Qin Fei kept stuffing the meat into his mouth, not caring whether the others ate it or not, he narrowed his eyes, which he inherited from his mother. No one knew what kind of evil idea he had in mind.

It was good that he did not mention this. Once he mentioned this, Qin Fei's mother was unhappy. She was also angry.

"Who else could it be? It's just that uncle of yours, his son. Now that he has earned money, he built a three-story building in one go. There's also a big color TV with more than fifty raindrops and a big refrigerator."

Qin Fei shook his chopsticks and refused to eat.

As long as others lived better than him, he would be uncomfortable.

Why Could Qin Pingjun find a good job? He was also a university student, but after searching for so long, there was no decent job for him. It was either too hard and tiring, or the salary was too low.

It had been more than a year, and he still couldn't get a good job.

He wasn't like Qin Pingjun, who could build a house for his family and ask him to buy a pack of cigarettes for second brother Qin. He also needed to see if he had the money. Even if he had the money, he would only buy it for himself.

He didn't have enough to spend, so who else could he spend it on.

Qin Fei walked out and looked at the three-story building for half a day. Then, he ignored everything and went straight to the door.

When Uncle Qin saw that it was his nephew, he didn't like him very much. From the moment he almost blinded Qin Yushi's eyes, he knew that Qin Fei's tree had been raised askew by second brother Qin's family, it had already become a askew tree. No matter how hard he tried to straighten it, it couldn't be straightened.

It was askew beyond recognition.

However, they were still blood-related nephews after all. They could not chase him out, right? Uncle Qin was a soft-hearted person. Although he was extremely unwilling, he still let Qin Fei in in the end. As soon as Qin Fei entered., he started to criticize the other party's home.

Although Qin Fei's eyes were filled with surprise and greed, he kept saying that it was not as good as the houses in the city. It was not as high as the houses in the city. The houses in the city still had elevators., the city also used natural gas and air-conditioning.

When Uncle Qin heard this, he did not even want to give him a response.

It was not as if they had never lived in the city before. It was not as if the air-conditioning had never been turned on. It was not as if they had never taken an elevator before. They had also used natural gas. They still felt that the city was not as good as their village, the village was such a big place. The air was good and the place was big. They ate vegetables that they had grown themselves. It was not like the city, which was only the size of a palm. No matter how they lived, they would not be happy.

Qin Fei almost looked through the few floors of the small house. He even unceremoniously opened the refrigerator to see what was inside. He did not have a refrigerator at home. The village was cool to begin with, and the refrigerator cost a lot of money, therefore, there were very few people in the village who bought it
