

Chapter 2371: the boss's thank-you gift

Yan Huan thought of the lady boss as him in his previous life. He had no worries about food and clothing, and his family background was superior. Whether it was his appearance or temperament, he was top-notch. Naturally, he also had a kind of arrogance, this was something that ordinary people could not imitate.

And this sentence of "Sister" made the lady boss freeze for a moment.

Sister?

The lady boss swallowed her saliva.

This child called her "Sister"? And at this moment, she was like a group of people who had eaten a box of honey. It was simply too sweet. Of course, there was also her confidence that had almost dissipated, and it swelled up again in an instant.

To be called "Sister" by a little child, this proved how young she was, right?

Children were honest and would not lie, especially when they were so young. She would not lie even more. What she said was the truth, but who knew.., the child in front of her was not an honest child, but a monster, a monster born in this world.

When she was young, the monster was cute, but when she grew up, it was a monster's tragedy.

And in the future, no one would ever think of what she would become.

A little baby girl who used to work with her mother in a delivery company couldn't even afford to use diapers in the past. She also ate the cheapest milk powder, but who knew.., in the end, she became a global celebrity.

Of course, this was all in the future. The current Yan Huan was still young, and she hadn't grown up yet. Although she knew very well what her future would be like, and what kind of heights she would reach.., but she was still a little doll now.

She was still drinking milk and she still needed someone to take care of her. She still could not do anything. Other than bootlicking, she also used her little face to act cute. Everyone was so cute that they were all crazy.

"Listen to her call me sister." The lady boss was instantly overjoyed. She really felt that this child was much cuter. Actually, it was not that she did not like children, but the children around her were all dirty and noisy, she only knew how to cry every day, wiping her snot and saliva on other people's bodies. On the other hand, she also had a little mysophobia. It was the kind of thing that she could not stand the most.

Moreover, there was also the smell of urine and milk on some children's bodies. If these smells were really mixed together, it would really smell as bad as possible. However, the Yan Huan in front of her was different, her little face was always beautiful and cute. Although the clothes on her body were not very good, they were very clean and there was no strange smell on her body, she was really a clean and very likable little doll. She was a sweet little milk bun.

With the addition of this “Elder sister”, she really did call her “Lady Boss” and her heart immediately burst with joy.

This old woman snatched the bottle from ye Rong’s hands. “Give it to me, I’ll feed it to her. She Won’t let go of the bottle.” Ye Rong was a little worried. She was afraid that others would scare her daughter, actually, she didn’t need anyone to feed her anymore. She would drink the milk on her own.

It wasn’t until the old woman brought the bottle to Yan Huan and Yan Huan hugged it with her two chubby hands that ye Rong finally let out a sigh of relief. In fact, it was the same for Yan Huan.

A woman who had never fed her child before was not feeding her, but killing her child. She was afraid that her tiny body would not be able to withstand the torment of others?

Therefore, she would drink her own milk.

The lady boss smiled and did not touch Yan Huan’s bottle anymore. Yan Huan suddenly thought of something and pushed his bottle towards the lady boss.

“Big sister, thin.”

“Ah!” The lady boss was not only overjoyed, she also wanted to roll on the ground.

She had said it before. She was so thin, how could anyone dare to say that she was fat? Look at this child’s eyes, they were blood-red. She was clearly so thin, immortal, and beautiful, right?

She rubbed Yan Huan’s little face from left to right. The more she looked, the more she liked this child.

“If you like it, let’s have one too, right?”

The boss saw that his wife was finally on the right track, so he hurriedly coaxed her.

This time, the lady boss did not reject him like before, insisting that she did not want to have a child.

She looked at Yan Huan, who was sucking on her milk for a long time, and seemed to be able to accept it now. Yes, it was really acceptable, if it was such a beautiful and soft child.

Actually, there was no need for you to worry. The boss tried to persuade her again. Look at her. He pointed at Ye Rong, who was working there. Her figure had not changed at all. When she gave birth to Little Yan Jingbo., she was still young. Even if she gave birth to a child at a young age, she would recover well. Moreover, even if she gave birth sooner or later, she would still have to give birth. Moreover, giving birth now was obviously much better than giving birth in a few years. Why didn’t she give birth?

The lady boss teased Little Yan Huan again. She really liked this child. She thought about it. If she could really give birth to a beautiful daughter, she would dress her daughter up to be even more beautiful and cute than this child.

It seemed that there was really nothing to be forced to think through now.

Ye Rong stayed in this express delivery company for the third month. She received an extra five hundred Yuan as a thank-you gift from the boss. Of course, Yan Huan also took a lot of things. She received a lot of clothes, she also received a lot of milk powder and diapers. Of course, her mother received even more now. But even so, Ye Rong still bought one yuan of steamed buns every day and lived day after day.

Although she earned money, she still did not dare to spend it recklessly because she was not confident. Even if she received more in a month, she would still continue to save.

The first thing she needed to do with her salary was to pay for the utilities and other expenses. Actually, it was not much. After calculating, it was only about a hundred yuan. She would be able to save a month's worth of food expenses, at this time, her mother and daughter's days were really much better. Of course, with money in hand and a job, Ye Rong felt that her entire person was solid.

At the very least, no matter how hard she lived and how busy she was, she would not let her daughter run out of milk powder to eat.

And she touched her daughter's chubby little face, which had recently been raised, and felt very gratified in her heart. It was great, she had gained weight again, and this little face was so round and beautiful.

And Yan Huan was indeed growing up healthily. In the past, in order to save on milk powder, she did not dare to eat too much. She was afraid that if she ate too much, her mother's burden would be heavy. But now, she knew that she would not eat milk powder.., ye Rong had to worry about whether she was sick or not, whether she was not feeling well again. At that time, she would spend even more unnecessary money.

Chapter 2372: the boss was looking for her

Therefore, she still had to drink this milk powder, or she had to drink it without being picky. She had to eat until she was fat. Only then could her mother be at ease and be able to work at ease.

However, she could not stand eating like this every day. Could it be that when she grew up, she would still be fat and round.

And she stretched out her little arm from under the blanket.

A little baby that was not even one year old, but her sixty-year-old self was in this state. Her life had been reset once again, and everything had been reset once again. She thought that this time, she should live without regrets.

"What's Wrong?" Ye Rong walked over and touched her daughter's little chubby hand again. Then, she carried her daughter up. This child grew very quickly in a month. Not only was she heavy, but she was also fat. Her little face had become much rounder now, it was really quite gratifying.

"Mm, I still have to drink milk properly in the future."

Ye Rong hugged her daughter and gently coaxed her. Of course, she was talking to herself again.

She said that she now had three thousand Yuan a month. They could save up to two thousand Yuan a month. This way, they could save up to twenty thousand Yuan a year. Perhaps when Yan Huan was six years old, they would have a new house to live in, the current house had already turned into a dangerous building.

Now, they could barely stay here. However, they were afraid that at any time, this place would not allow anyone to live here. In that case, both mother and daughter would be homeless.

Yan Huan gnawed on his little finger. When he heard this, he was actually very sad, actually, in his previous life, when Ye Rong died, she did not have enough money to save up a house. What they wanted the most was to have a house that belonged to them. If they did not get it in their previous life, they would definitely be able to do it in this life, right?

They would definitely be able to have a house very soon. When that time came, they would be able to live in their own house. There was no need to worry. One day, when that house could no longer live in her, she would undoubtedly be left on the streets. Moreover, she would have a new house.., in the future, they could decorate it however they wanted.

Ye Rong put her daughter down and sat at a table at the side. She took a small basket from the side and took out the manual work that she had not finished. She continued to work on it. Although she was paid.., her current salary was already very high, but the handicrafts did not stop. She earned three to four hundred a month, which was enough for the mother and daughter to live on for a month.

The weather outside was getting colder and colder. The winter in hai city was not too warm to begin with. Although the weather here was humid, it was not very warm in winter. In fact, it was quite cold.

Ye Rong dressed her daughter up like a penguin and then wrapped her up with a blanket. Although it was a little colder outside, the express delivery company was very warm because there was heating, it was even warmer than the place where they lived.

Her Little Huanhuan did not need to freeze her hands and feet.

She liked to stay in the company, and so did her daughter.

Moreover, ever since Yan Huan was born, he had experienced the first winter. Ye Rong was very afraid. In the past, no matter what happened to her, she did not care. She had also gone through the same thing. However, Yan Huan was still young, and the house was too cold, she was really afraid that Yan Huan would get sick from the cold.

Forget it, let's take it one step at a time first.

Ye Rong brought her daughter to the company early in the morning. She was the first to arrive in the company, and also the last to leave. That was why she was the one who completed the most tasks here. Of course, she was also the one who received the most salary.

It was not that she was very smart, but it was just that she was very hardworking.

In order to earn more money, other people worked ten hours a day while she worked more than twelve hours. This way, she would be able to earn more money than others. There was also some overtime pay.

It might not be much in a month, it was only a hundred yuan. And this hundred yuan was important to both mother and daughter. It could make Ye Rong not eat or drink.

This one hundred Yuan could buy two packets of milk powder for Yan Huan, and it was enough for her to eat for a long time.

The express delivery company was very warm, and the heater was also very switched on. Yan Huan sat on a small blanket at the side. Everyone had specially made this for her. It was a very large carpet, and on the carpet were her toys, there was also a blanket and a pillow. If she wanted to sleep, she would lie down on her own. She would even lie on the pillow and pull the blanket for herself. When she slept again, she would play with herself. No matter what.., she would not leave this small place. Otherwise, Ye Rong would not dare to let her sit there alone. She was afraid that she would run around. If she picked up anything again, she would stuff it all into her small mouth.

Children were all curious. If they picked up anything from the ground, they would think that it was something delicious and would eat it randomly.

However, Yan Huan seemed to be different from the other children. She did not like to randomly pick things up. Of course, she did not eat anything other than milk powder, so she would not climb around randomly, she found something to stuff into her little mouth.

The most she did every day was to sit on the carpet. In any case, she did not leave that area. Since she had finally gotten such a large space from the baby carriage, she was naturally very willing to do so, anyway, she was awake for a short period of time during the day. She could play for a while and then go to sleep. When she woke up, she could go home.

Everyone took good care of her and her mother. To be able to get such a big space for her to play in such a crowded place, it was clear how much they liked her. It was all thanks to these people. Otherwise.., no one would know what their lives were like now.

She raised her small hand and saw a giant standing in front of her. Then, the giant squatted down.

Yan Huan grabbed the blanket and turned her small body. Then, she slowly climbed up like a small snail. She sat back down and covered her small feet with the blanket.

“You still know how to be shy?”The boss sat on the ground. Every time he came over, his favorite thing was to play with the little girl for a while.

Yan Huan raised his little face and smiled at the boss. The Big Boss must be cured. Only when the big boss was cured would their lives become better and better.

The Boss and Yan Huan lost each other for a while. Not only was the lady boss overindulged in motherly love, but even the boss himself.

“Boss, are you looking for me?”Ye Rong carefully walked in and used her own hands to nervously hold onto the corner of her clothes. Of course, her palms were also covered in cold sweat. Right now, she just wanted to know.., did she do something wrong? Did she make the boss unhappy? was he going to fire her? But she really couldn't not have such a job.

Chapter 2373: she was someone else's nanny

"You don't have to be nervous." The boss saw ye Rong's expression and knew that she was thinking badly.

Ye Rong smiled bitterly. How could she not be nervous? She might even lose her job.

"I have something to discuss with you."

The boss stood up and poured himself a glass of water and placed it on the table. He then sat back down on his boss' chair. He did not know if ye Rong was willing.

"My wife is pregnant."

The boss suddenly said. Although there were not many traces of laughter, his eyes were filled with joy that could not be hidden.

"Congratulations."

Ye Rong sincerely said these words of congratulations. Of course, she was also happy for the boss.

Everyone knew that their boss was crazy about having children, but even the lady boss was unwilling to give birth. Now, their wish was finally fulfilled.

"Thank you."

The boss picked up the cup on the table, his fingers gently stroking the rim of the cup.

"I just want to ask you, are you willing to come to my house and be a nanny for a few months?"

He put down the cup and did not beat around the bush.

After all, this was a matter of mutual consent. He could not tie ye Rong back to be his family's nanny.

Ye Rong, on the other hand, was stunned for a moment. The hand that was holding on to the corner of her clothes also loosened.

"Boss, what did you say?"

Being a nanny?

Did she hear wrongly? The Boss wanted her to be his nanny?

"Yes." The boss nodded and smiled again, "That's right. My wife likes Little Huanhuan. You know this as well. She heard it from God knows where. She said that if she looks at more beautiful children, the children she will give birth to in the future will also be very beautiful. Therefore, she has always wanted to see your Little Huanhuan."

"And she is only pregnant now. The Doctor said that the fetus is not very stable now, so she can't wander around."

"I think..." at this point, the boss pressed his finger on the cup again. His finger was still gently touching the edge of the cup. Actually, he was still a little embarrassed to say this.

After all, the word “Nanny” was actually a little humiliating.

“Don’t worry. My family has a nanny. You coming to our house to be a nanny doesn’t actually need you to do anything. You just have to accompany my wife to chat and exchange your experiences during pregnancy. Even if you have nothing to do, let her see more of your family’s huanhuan. Perhaps our family will have a beautiful little girl too.”

As for Ye Rong, she stood there, not knowing what to say?

The child she gave birth to did not look like someone else’s child. Her daughter looked good because her daughter looked like her mother.

She looked different from the lady boss. How could the lady boss give birth to a child that looked like her family’s Huanhuan? If the child really looked the same, it would be shocking.

“A month’s salary is 4000 yuan, including food and accommodation. After my wife gives birth, you can return here and continue working. Don’t worry.” The boss also knew what Ye Rong was worried about. How did she stay back then, of course, he also remembered.

And how much Ye Rong needed this job, of course, he was also very clear.

“I will sign a formal employment contract with you. After my wife gives birth, you will return to work here. Your monthly salary will still be four thousand, and the commission will be calculated separately.”

Four Thousand?

Ye Rong could not help but swallow her saliva. She was absolutely greedy for money at the moment. She still had a daughter to support. If she did not have money, she and her daughter would starve to death. She really did not care about money in the past.., but now, she loved money too much.

If it was four thousand a month, plus the commission, in a month, she could get around five thousand. Such a good thing was like a pie falling from the sky.

Not to mention that she had to go to the boss’s house to be a nanny. Four thousand a month, and it was even enough to cover food and accommodation.

It was such a good thing, and it was not winter yet. She was currently worrying about how she was going to bring her daughter through this winter. When the weather got cold, someone brought her a blanket. She wanted to sleep.., someone also brought her a pillow.

In fact, she should not have hesitated and should have agreed without hesitation. But in the end, she still thought about it for a long time until she thought of that little soft child. Only then did she nod and agree.

And the boss would do as he said. He directly took out a contract and let Ye Rong sign it.

Every clause on it was written very clearly, including the fact that after she came here to work, her salary would be four thousand yuan.

Ye Rong didn’t hesitate to sign her name on it, Yannuo, yes, she was Yannuo, but not Ye Rong.

Yan Huan was strangely pushed by his mother, while Ye Rong carried a lot of things on her back. Most of them were their clothes, as well as her favorite Little Bear Doll. However, where were they going? were they moving?

It seemed like they were moving. Their home had become a dilapidated house, and they could not live in it anymore.

Not long after, they arrived at the entrance of a residence.

Yan Huan knew about this place. This was considered a bustling area of Hai City. Although it was not the center of Hai City, being able to buy a piece of land here back then and move their home here also proved that..., they definitely had a certain amount of financial and material resources.

Ye Rong rang the doorbell and also lowered her head to look at her daughter's frightened little face. She was also waiting for the door to open.

After a short while, someone came to open the door.

The door opened and a middle-aged woman walked out.

The moment she saw Ye Rong sitting in the baby carriage, the beautiful baby knew who she was.

"You are Miss Yan, right? Mister already said that. Oh right, no matter how embarrassed this middle-aged woman smiled, I am also the nanny here. My surname is Yao."

"Hello, Sister Yao."

Ye Rong took the initiative to greet her.

The nanny could not help but take another look at Yan Huan's small eyes. She finally understood why Mister had paid such a high price to find a child. It was indeed because the child was extremely good-looking.

She had lived for so long and had seen quite a number of children. However, she had never seen such a beautiful little girl.

If she could give birth to such a child, she believed that everyone would be willing and like it.

The nanny let Ye Rong in and then brought Yan Rong to the room that she had tidied up.

"This is where you'll be staying."

The nanny opened the door and pointed inside.

Ye Rong carried her daughter in. The room was very large. Besides a large bed, there was also a small crib. The Crib was all new, and even the color was very bright.

And Ye Rong had not stayed in such a good room for a long time.

"Is this really for us?"

Ye Rong asked again with uncertainty. Was she in the wrong place, or did the nanny bring her to the wrong place? This was prepared by the boss for his wife and future children.

Chapter 2374: not being a good babysitter

“There’s nothing wrong with that,” the babysitter said with a smile. It seemed that people were very easy to get along with.

“This is what I prepared for you. It’s just that our great-aunt is currently suffering from some prenatal depression, so I’ll have to trouble you.”

Ye Rong was actually a little embarrassed. She was really not a doctor and would not save a life.

What if she really did not save a life and ruined it? Would they be beaten up by someone and then kicked out of the house.

“Huanhuan, what do you think Mother Will Do?” Ye Rong placed her daughter on the big bed. She was a little regretful now, “We really shouldn’t have promised the boss to do such a thing back then. If we can’t get the four thousand Yuan, we still have to accompany the money. What do you think we should do?”

Yan Huan grabbed ye Rong’s finger and silently comforted her.

In fact, Yan Huan also felt that this was quite dangerous. However, wealth came with risk. Otherwise, how could they get their previous two months’ salary for this month? Moreover, there would be relaxed wages and high wages waiting for them in the future.

Moreover, wasn’t there still her? She was already prepared to be shameless. On the contrary, she would sell her blood and act cute. In the end, as long as she could make the lady boss happy, it would be good. If the boss felt that it was good, it would be good.

Who Wouldn’t know how to follow Mao.

“Little Huanhuan, do you like this?”

The lady boss was really overflowing with maternal love now. Initially, Ye Rong was quite worried about the prenatal depression that the nanny had mentioned. She thought that it was the kind that didn’t want to eat, didn’t want to sleep, and didn’t want to talk.

In the end, it was not the case. The lady boss did not have any prenatal depression. She bought a lot of things every day. First, she bought it for her child. In fact, it was Yan Huan who ate the Yang and used it.

Just like now, she was using Yan Huan to practice her skills. She was practicing how to take care of her child in the future.

As for Yan Huan, he fully displayed her character of accepting whatever came her way. No matter how the Lady Boss tormented her, she would always give her a smiling face. She also realized that as long as she smiled happily.., the happier the lady boss would be.

Even if she had to swallow her own tears into her stomach, it was fine as long as the lady boss did not cause trouble for her mother.

Even if she hurt her face today.

Tomorrow, she would pull out her hair.

The day after that, she would throw her to the ground again.

The day after that, she would almost burn her again.

She really endured it.

It was also because of Yan Huan that the Lady Boss did not have the time to find trouble with Ye Rong. Ye Rong helped the nanny with the housework, cooking, washing the clothes, and still had to take care of Yan Huan. She had never been free in the first place, and the lady boss still had to drag ye Rong to talk about this and that. Sometimes, when she opened her mouth, she could talk for hours. It was all thanks to ye Rong's good temper and docile personality. Otherwise., being nagged at like this every day, no one would be able to love her.

So Yan Huan sent himself over to be tortured by the lady boss. And every time the lady boss saw Yan Huan's extremely beautiful little face, her mood would instantly improve. However, she also fell in love with torturing Yan Huan.

And this torture was not a joke. No one knew, no one had seen it. That was because Yan Huan never cried.

Every day, it was either this or that. She pinched her face, pulled her hair, and fed her whatever she wanted. Yan Huan still had to be patient and reveal an idiotic smile

When Ye Rong carried Yan Huan back, Yan Huan no longer smiled.

"Why were you so happy just now? Now it's not like you don't smile anymore?"

Ye Rong put her daughter down and touched her pink little face. "Why have you lost weight recently?"

Yes, she had lost weight. Yan Huan nodded his little head vigorously. She had really lost weight. How Old was she? How could she not lose weight when she was being tormented by people every day? However, they had to stay here and live in a good house, with a high salary and heating, she could tolerate it.

As long as the lady boss was happy, their mother and daughter would have a good time.

And indeed, it was really very good now.

Ye Rong was helping the nanny to clean up the house and also to prepare three meals a day. She had a lot of free time, and during this time, she was still doing those handicrafts. Although they were not very valuable, no matter how small a mosquito was., it was still a piece of meat.

The accumulated amount would add up. Based on the number of things she could make now, she would get a few hundred yuan a month.

She even said that the lady boss's prenatal depression was cured by Yan Huan. As long as her daughter revealed her extremely shameless smile, she would be able to melt everyone's hearts.

No matter how cold-hearted a person was, in the end, they would still soften their hearts because of the child's innocent smile.

Actually, she only saw the bright and beautiful smile on her daughter's small face. She did not know the bitterness in Yan Huan's heart.

How difficult was it to hold a woman with prenatal depression? Fortunately, she had such a small face. In addition, her small face was thick to begin with, so it was a loss for her to look good, she was not to be disliked. Moreover, she was very thick-skinned and could not be broken or starved. Otherwise, they would have asked someone else to try and see if she was still here, and if she was not kicked out of the house., she would have left on her own.

It was not that Yan Huan had not seen such a woman suffering from prenatal depression before. She had coincidentally seen one before. It was none other than her former bodyguard, Bai Zhi. Bai Zhi was pregnant back then, therefore, she was very irritable. In addition, she was very skilled. Once she got angry, she would beat ye Xinyu up until his face was black and blue every day.

In the end, she was the one who carried Xun Xun away. In the end, when Bai Zhi saw Xun Xun's small appearance, she got better day by day. She did not flatter anyone anymore.

It was just that Bai Zhi would not touch the child, but the lady boss secretly came out.

Yan Huan did not know if there was any scientific basis for this, but she treated it as a dead horse as a last resort. In the end, it was really effective. In these eight months, she worked harder and endured a little more, it was also to let her mother earn a little more money.

A month passed like this. In fact, other than Yan Huan, who was smiling like a little flower on the outside but crying on the inside, everyone else in the family was living very well, even the Big Boss was living a very comfortable life. The moment he returned, he had to speak to his unborn little daughter.

His daughter was still in her mother's womb. She was only two months old. Who knew if she was a daughter or a son? However, both of them thought that she was a little girl, who asked them to see Yan Huan every day? They wished that Yan Huan was their daughter. She was so beautiful, so cute, and so obedient.

Chapter 2375: she had evolved

The boss was in a good mood. Of course, he treated the others kindly. During the holidays, he would give them extra bonuses. Of course, even Yan Huan's milk powder was taken care of by him now.

In fact, he wasn't that kind. Yan Huan felt that the big boss was a black-bellied person who wanted her to be a guinea pig. He wanted her to be his future little cotton-padded jacket as an experiment.

In any case, a guinea pig was a guinea pig. She wasn't afraid. She really wasn't afraid. She wasn't afraid at all. She didn't know if it was because of the golden finger that she had brought with her rebirth. That was because she felt like she had a golden steel stomach, not to mention the various brands of milk powder, even the iron blocks that she ate into her stomach could be digested. Otherwise, for a child her age, if she kept changing milk powder, her stomach would already be in a bad state, however, she did not feel anything at all and continued to drink it. Even if she changed brands, she would still be alive and kicking.

In any case, no matter what kind of milk powder it was, she would not reject it. Of course, she would also eat until she was fat. Her small arms and legs were very strong. Of course, she was also extremely healthy, she could not even catch a cold.

Of course, her small body, which was as strong as a calf, made ye Rong very happy every day. There was really nothing that could make her happier than her daughter's good health.

Of course, Yan Huan was still young. She was almost one year old and could already crawl around. However, she was still a little far from walking. She had finally evolved from a mollusc to a reptile, she could use her small arms and legs to crawl around and play. Of course, she could also escape from the clutches of some lady boss from time to time.

She crawled quickly. This was better than sitting in the car every day or letting people carry her.

She climbed in front of Ye Rong and raised her small face to look at her.

"What's Wrong?" Ye Rong put down the sewing manual in her hands and carried her daughter up.

"Mommy, sleep."

Yan Huan tugged on ye Rong's sleeve, meaning to let her rest. She could not earn much money by doing these crafts every day. If this continued, her eyesight would be bad again, they only had these few years of sadness. As long as they could survive these few years, when she grew up, their lives would be much better.

"Okay, let's go to bed." Ye Rong pinched her daughter's chubby face. As she weighed her daughter's weight, she could not help but smile. Her little girl had gained weight again. Such a sturdy little body really made people happy, of course, Yan Huan had grown up to such an age. She really had not gone to the hospital many times. She was very obedient, and Lu ran had also done well, she knew that her mother worked hard and that it was not easy for her to earn money, so she was not sick. She had always been healthy, and she was not picky about her milk. Look, it had only been a few months.., she had grown quite a bit after eating. She had grown taller, and of course, her weight had also grown as well.

Ye Rong placed her daughter on the crib and covered her with a small blanket. She sat at the side and coaxed her daughter to sleep.

Yan Huan was a child after all, but she did not have much self-control. She fell asleep in a moment, and this time, she had to sleep until eight in the morning. This was her current biological clock. She would sleep at eight in the evening, in the morning, she would wake up at eight or nine in the morning. Most of the day was spent in sleep. In fact, it was not just her. All children were the same.

How long they slept, how fast they slept.

She could only comfort herself like this.

In fact, she was really suffering. The days passed in vain. This time could be used to do many things. It could allow her to shoot several scenes. It could also allow her to shoot an advertisement, it could earn a lot of money.

But now, she could only use it to..

To sleep.

After Yan Huan fell asleep, Ye Rong naturally did not rest. She still had to work for a while to earn her mosquito meat. To Ye Rong, this mosquito meat was indispensable. Besides, she had nothing to do now, during the day, she had already finished her work. She wanted to work at the express delivery company and earn some more money, however, she knew her current status. She was the nanny hired by the boss. She had to wait until the boss gave birth to the child.

Moreover, she now had four thousand Yuan a month, which was enough for food and accommodation.

Now, she didn't even need to spend money on utilities and food. Of course, she didn't need to think about moving. Moreover, after the boss gave birth, she and her daughter would find a better house to live in. At that time, she would have at least 50,000 yuan in her hands. Moreover, they didn't need to spend this money. She still had a job at the express delivery company.

In a month, it was still more than 4,000 yuan. No matter what, it was enough to pay for her daughter's milk powder.

Now, in a month, she would have to save several hundred yuan. Of course, she didn't only have to eat steamed buns and drink plain water. She ate with her master every day. She felt that she had gained some weight, she was no longer as dry as before. She was as pitiful as she could be.

It was only when she reached the boss's house that she had a full meal. Even her little Huanhuan had gained a lot of weight.

She was happily sewing and was filled with hope for the future. She believed that her future would be better and better and that her daughter would grow up safely.

She worked for another two hours and felt a little sleepy. She did not force herself to stay up all night. After putting away the needle and thread, she lay down and quickly fell asleep.

When she woke up in the morning, she was in high spirits. Yan Huan was still sleeping on the side. She slept very well. She did not even change the place, and of course, she did not kick the blanket.

Ye Rong sat up. First, she went to check on her daughter?

She placed her hand on Yan Huan's forehead. Her forehead was wet and warm, and her little face was pink and tender. With one look, one could tell that she was an extremely healthy child.

It was still early. She took the handmade items and placed them on her leg. As she sewed, she waited for her daughter to wake up. When Yan Huan woke up, Ye Rong walked out, she placed Yan Huan on the carpet at the side and let her play by herself.

Of course, she did not have to worry. Yan Huan would crawl around everywhere. This daughter of hers seemed to know the saying 'painting the ground as a prison'. Her little buttocks would never leave her place, of course, she was also a very disciplined child now. She would not casually pee on it and poop on it. Even though she had already used a diaper in the morning.

However, this diaper might still be clean even if she carried it for a whole day. When Yan Huan needed to pee, she would say it herself.

Chapter 2376:

As an adult, not being able to control her own urine and feces, what kind of humiliation was this? It was just that she was too young now, and there was really no other way. And now, she could hold it in, but she couldn't hold it in anymore, or perhaps ye Rong was too busy to care about her, so she could only settle it on the spot.

She counted the time with her little finger. She was now ten months old, so young, and Lu Yi was five years older than her. He should be a primary school student now.

Even if she wanted to find Lu Yi now, she had to let herself grow up. When she was about to grow up, it seemed like it would be endless years. She had to first learn how to walk, and then learn how to talk, only then could she see what Lu Yi looked like when he was in primary school.

It seemed like it was useless to know now because Lu Yi didn't know her.

However, she believed that no matter how many times she was reborn, no matter how old she was, her fate with Lu Yi would never be broken.

Therefore, she would definitely be together with Lu Yi.

And she would also think of a way to be together with Lu Yi. No one knew Lu Yi's personality better than her.

And the way she looked like she was thinking made the lady boss really like her.

"Little Huanhuan, come over."

She hooked her finger at Yan Huan, knowing that Yan Huan understood what she was saying.

Yan Huan sighed softly.

Was she calling someone or a dog? If it wasn't for the fact that her mother could live a better life and not have to eat those disgusting steamed buns every day, how could she possibly be hurt by others.

She lay on the ground and quickly crawled forward on all fours.

This was no different from being a puppy.

Fortunately, she was still young. Fortunately, no one would know that she had such a dark history when she was young.

And she really didn't dare to imagine it.

The little dog crawled in front of the Lady Boss and let the Lady Boss pinch his little face. When the lady boss pinched him to her heart's content, Yan Huan crawled back to his place on all fours and sat down on the blanket. What was he watching.., he was watching television. He was watching movies from this era. The actors in the movies were all very old. After all, Yan Huan was not even one year old yet. When she was really famous back then, she was still in her twenties, she was already in her twenties. There was still time for her to be in her twenties.

She could turn a woman in her prime into an old woman.

She loved watching TV the most. Of course, no one thought that she could understand it. They all thought that she was just looking at the doll curiously.

The lady boss gently stroked her belly and touched it curiously.

She thought that there must be a pretty little girl in her belly, just like Yan Huan. She really liked Yan Huan's small face. Not only was she young and good-looking, she was also very obedient, she was also very smart.

Of course, she could also be considered to be playing around. She was in a good mood every day, even when she was pregnant or depressed. Of course, she was not really sick, nor did she heal herself without medicine. It was because she had found a good toy, it was Yan Huan.

Yan Huan's small face was really too alluring. Regardless of whether it was her or her husband, as long as they saw an obedient child, they would love him to death.

Yan Huan was especially liked by the boss and his wife. Of course, this also made Ye Rong's life here become better and better. The Lady Boss was in a good mood, so naturally, the boss was also in a good mood. He had nothing to do all day long, even if Yan Huan accompanied the lady boss to play, it was also to let Ye Rong have some free time. She would do the manual work to exchange for money.

This month, Ye Rong received another 4000 Yuan of salary. Not a single cent more, not a single cent less. Actually, it was quite a lot because it had been a long time since she had bought milk powder for her daughter.

It was all bought by the boss for his daughter. However, it was too early, and the goods could not be returned, so it was too cheap for Yan Huan. Of course, Yan Huan knew that he wanted her to be a test subject, in any case, she ate everything, and she had never eaten anything bad. She still continued to thrive.

She had finally evolved from a reptile to walk upright.

She was placed in the walking cart and walked around, moving her calves. Every day, she was like a duckling, making the Lady Boss laugh so hard that she cried.

When Yan Huan reached this point, he would look at the Blue Sky speechlessly, no, at the ceiling.

She really did not know what was so funny about this. who was not like this when they were young? Everyone could learn to speak and walk like a toddler. Everyone had been like this, but why did they laugh at her?

Also, could she not take this kind of walking bike.

At first, she was very resistant because this bike was really stupid. However, when she refused to take it no matter what, she stood up and walked on her own. It was as if she had thrown herself onto the ground like a child, when she hugged her mother and cried, she knew that she had to do things at her age. For example, now that she was one year old, she had to take this kind of walking bike.

It was just that she really could not accept such a silly self.

Her mother had always thought that she liked this kind of Walker very much, so she put her in it early in the morning and let her sit on it and run around.

Poor her little arms and legs. She clearly did not like the walker, but in the end, she still had to go against her character and pretend to be very happy.

Yes, the boss touched his chin. This was not bad. When his little princess grew up, he would give her this as well. Look at how well Huanhuan was using it. She could even run away.

In the end, Yan Huan had really accepted her fate. If she did not accept her fate, what could she do? Could she still escape from such a stupid learning how to ride a Walker? In the future, she could, but in the next few months, she had to sit on it.

“Come, Little Huanhuan. We’re here to drink milk powder.”

The Lady Boss had propped up her four-month-old stomach, but now, she was slightly pregnant. She had long taken on the appearance of a pregnant woman.

Yan Huan’s eyes lit up. Actually, she had admitted that she was useless with her, but she was really hungry. She hurriedly drove the walker and ran very quickly to get her own milk bottle.

The lady boss pinched Yan Huan’s face again before giving the bottle to him. Yan Huan took the bottle and drank it. But before he could take a few sips, the bottle in his hand had disappeared

Was this really that good?

The lady boss shook the bottle in her hand.

“Give me a taste.”

She didn’t know if her personality had always been like this, or if she had become a little childish and incomprehensible after she became pregnant. She brought the bottle to her mouth and really took a sip.

Then she realized that the taste was not bad. She liked the taste. She thought that the baby in her stomach must have liked it. Otherwise, she would not have liked it, right?

Chapter 2377: cheating her husband

Yan Huan foolishly watched as the lady boss finished her entire pot of milk, not a single drop left.

She suddenly felt like crying.

She wanted her mother, she wanted her mother..

Ye Rong also felt extremely awkward as she watched the lady boss finish Yan Huan’s entire pot of milk. She could only find another bottle and remake the milk powder for her daughter to drink.

Yan Huan's eyelashes were slightly moist. No matter how she looked at it, she looked pitiful.

Of course, she wasn't wronged. She was really angry, or she was so angry that she was helpless. How could she trick a child like this? She would accept being pinched, grabbed, rubbed, and thrown, but could she remember that she was just a little baby? She was still young. She was only a few months old.

On the next day, the boss bought a truckload of that brand of milk powder and let Yan Huan and the lady boss drink it together. The lady boss liked to drink milk, and even if it was milk powder, the boss would of course be happy to have it, of course, he had also specifically asked the professionals. The professionals had said that this was mother and infant milk powder. It was good for babies and mothers to drink it.

That was why the boss bought so much at one go. He wished that the lady boss would drink a barrel of it every day.

The Lady Boss had indeed fallen in love with this taste, but it was a pity. She was not a child. It was also possible that she had drunk too much at one time and was too fierce, so she could not drink the rest.

What about the room full of milk powder? Although the milk powder had a shelf life of three years, the boss wouldn't allow his child to eat this kind of milk powder that had already been produced a year earlier. Furthermore, the lady boss was also cheating the boss, the milk powder in the house was piled up. Initially, she would drink some when she was free. However, in the end, she was unwilling to drink any more.

Hence, the milk powder that was piled up in the house was Yan Huan's rations. However, there were hundreds of cans of milk powder in the house. Yan Huan could only drink three cans a month, she could also eat some non-staple food now, and the amount she ate was obviously less than before. With such a room full of milk powder, it seemed that she could really drink until she was weaned.

Only now did she realize that the boss's family was really not ordinary rich. In the past, she only felt that there was such a delivery company, and it could only be said that it was the middle-class, the kind that did not have to worry about food and drink, however, it was only until they moved in that she realized that her boss was not an ordinary wealthy person. Although Yan Huan did not know how good his family background was, for a man to be able to be so wasteful, it was likely.., that he was not from an ordinary family background.

Ye Rong placed the milk bottle in front of her daughter.

Yan Huan used both of his hands to take it and happily drank it. To her, milk powder had the same taste and was sweet. However, she had to drink it every day. She felt like vomiting after drinking it, however, she still had to drink it no matter how much she vomited. It was her fault that she hadn't even grown her teeth yet.

Under the influence of the room full of milk powder, she grew stronger day by day. Only then did the lady boss feel pity for her, and she grew even faster.

When the Lady Boss's stomach finally moved, she had already abandoned the Walkers and started to walk unsteadily. Although she still fell sometimes, it actually didn't hurt much when she fell at home, the floor was covered with carpets.

She supported herself against the wall and walked carefully, moving forward step by step. Because her two short legs had been moving recently, they were getting sturdier and sturdier. As long as she was a little more careful., she shouldn't fall again.

Moreover, she wasn't afraid of falling. People learn to grow up, so how could she not fall? If she didn't fall, she would be a child. If she didn't fall, she wouldn't fall.

Just like that, Yan Huan grew up in a mess. She had spent a few months here that were almost boring and had no seasonal changes. She didn't even know that it was winter outside, she only knew that she had eaten and slept until she was full. When she noticed it, it seemed that it was already spring outside.

She leaned against the window and also saw that on the big tree outside was a small bud that had just grown. It was really spring. She had already gone through a winter and had grown up.

"Huanhuan, what are you looking at?"Ye Rong walked over and also stood behind her daughter.

Oh, Ye Rong understood. She squatted in front of her daughter and pointed outside as she spoke to her daughter, "It's already spring outside. Look at the warmth of spring and the blooming of flowers. Everything has come back to life. Our Huanhuan has grown up again. In a few more months, we will be able to return home. At that time, mommy will be able to bring you out to take a look."

"Thank you, Mommy."

Yan Huan curved her large eyes and smiled.

She was good-looking, cute, and an obedient and sensible child. Of course, everyone liked her. Moreover, this child had a sweet mouth. She did not know where she learned it from.

Actually, who else could Yan Huan learn it from? She had the skin of an infant, but there was an old woman inside. She was acting so cute. In fact, she felt that she was quite shameful.

"Let's go, we're going out."Yan Yi held her daughter's hand and walked out with her, who had just learned how to walk.

As soon as they walked out, the lady boss, who was sitting outside, beckoned Yan Huan with her finger.

"Little Huanhuan, come here."

Yan Huan could only let go of Ye Rong's hand, and then resigned herself to her fate and walked out.

She moved forward step by step, walking very carefully. At her age, she was actually still in danger. She was not afraid of falling, but she was afraid of bumping into this pregnant woman, so she was very careful now.

It did not matter if she fell, but if she bumped into the pregnant woman, both mother and daughter would be finished.

She stood a meter away from the lady boss. Her current height was only about 70 centimeters. Even if she fell, she would only fall at the lady boss'feet, but she wouldn't bump into her stomach, this was a safe distance that she maintained.

Now that she could disregard everything, she had to put safety first.

The lady boss pulled Yan Huan's little arm and pinched her little chubby face.

"You've gained weight again, so cute."

Yan Chun wanted to cry. The words that Lu Yi wanted to hear the most in his past life were nothing more than that sentence, "You've gained weight, but from the beginning to the end, she was very useless and never gained weight." Now, she actually heard that sentence.

"You've gained weight."

That's right, she had gained weight. She had to drink so much milk powder in a day, and she also had to eat a lot of supplementary foods. In addition, she had deliberately exercised her small arms and legs, so naturally, she was now very strong, if it wasn't for her small face that was as beautiful and cute as in her past life, she really didn't know if anyone would treat her as a little boy.

The Lady Boss played with Yan Huan for a long time. In fact, she was the one who played with Yan Huan's little face, pinching her here and there with her little arms and legs.

Chapter 2378: dissected him

After the Lady Boss had played enough and stopped pinching him, Yan Huan returned to Ye Rong's hands.

Yan Huan hugged ye Rong's legs. He really felt that this lady boss had taken advantage of her enough in this lifetime. She had also bullied her enough. All the advantages in her life had been taken by her, after she became famous in the future.

He did not know if the lady boss would still remember that he had once pinched the face of a famous person, touched her little face, and even stole her milk powder to drink.

Ye Rong rubbed her daughter's little head and smiled as she looked out of the window at the beautiful spring scenery. It was really good. Winter had passed. It was really good. A new season had arrived.

Outside, the lady boss touched her thick waist and was doing pregnant exercises. It also made the nanny at the side break out in cold sweat.

My great aunt, can we not be like this?

It's fine if we twist our waist, but we can't twist our baby.

With such a big belly, can we stop for a moment and not move?

Isn't it good to eat and sleep every day?

We can clearly play with Yan Huan's little face, but why must we play with our own belly now? Such a dangerous thing had really happened. Her skin was not enough for the boss to peel off.

Yan Huan sat on the carpet, holding a bottle of milk and drinking it. Now that she was not willing to go to the side of a high-risk figure like the lady boss, what could an adult guarantee, however, the child's body was soft and disobedient. Up until now, she still had not regained all the initiative of her little body.

Therefore, it was better to stay away from the pregnant woman. In any case, if the lady boss did not suddenly think of her as a toy, her day could be considered pretty good.

In the later stages, the Lady Boss's belly became bigger and bigger. As a result, the lady boss began to move too much. She would sit or lie down every day.

"You have to get up and walk around."

Ye Rong was very worried about the lady boss. If this continued, what if she really became a pig? The child was too big. It was not easy to give birth to it.

"I'm tired."

The Lady Boss did not want to leave now. She was tired even if she moved her fingers. Since she was young, she had been pampered and pampered. She had never suffered like this. In the early stages, it was okay. It was not a big deal, but in the later stages., she knew that it was tough. With such a big belly, she could not wear beautiful clothes or make-up. Even when she walked, she had to take a few steps to rest. This was really too torturous.

"Even if you're tired, you still have to walk. Otherwise, it will be difficult to give birth."Ye Rong touched the Lady Boss's belly. She had given birth to a child herself. Although she was not very experienced, when she was pregnant with the child., it was all her own. Perhaps her experience was even deeper than others. "The child is still not big. You should be able to give birth naturally."

"Give birth naturally?"

The lady boss suddenly raised her voice. This voice really scared Yan Huan. The milk bottle in her hand almost fell to the ground.

"I don't want to give birth naturally."

The lady boss shook her head like a madman, "I don't want to give birth naturally. How painful would it be? Although she has never given birth, wasn't it shown on the television? Those women screamed like they were slaughtering pigs. She doesn't want to do it. She just needs to dissect it. Once she is anesthetized, she won't know anything."

"It will hurt later on."

Ye Rong unceremoniously poked the Lady Boss's heart until it was about to hurt. Humans were originally born according to the heavens. If you were to properly open up such a big wound on your stomach, it wouldn't hurt after being anesthetized, but after being anesthetized, wouldn't it still hurt? Moreover, you couldn't feed the baby. You had to know how important the first mouthful of breast milk was to the baby.

At that time, it wasn't That Ye Rong didn't have a choice. At that time, she was alone and couldn't eat or live well. She also didn't have anyone to take care of her. Every day, she would have a big belly. She would buy vegetables by herself, cook by herself, and when she was about to give birth., she went to the hospital alone because at that time, her nutrition wasn't very good. Therefore, when Yan Huan was born, he was thin and small. Fortunately, he was healthy. At that time.., she hugged Yan Huan's small body in her arms every day, afraid that she would freeze the child. Fortunately, her daughter was very capable and grew up little by little. When she was young, she was like a kitten.., look at how fast she grew up now. When she wasn't paying attention, she could already speak, walk, and call her mother.

As a mother herself, she naturally knew how to treat the child well. The child that was born naturally was healthier, and the c-section was only because some children were really unable to be born naturally, thus, in the end, she had no choice but to carry out a c-section. If the Lady Boss's child was in a good condition, it would be best to give birth naturally instead of having a c-section.

As for Ye Rong's words, the lady boss was immediately frightened. She hurriedly pulled ye Rong to stand up and began to walk back and forth in the room. It was really too dangerous outside, and it was still safer here.

When she brought her big belly around, Yan Huan ran as far as he could. He did not want to bump into the pregnant woman anyway.

The pregnant woman's belly became more and more bulky in the later stages. Yan Huan, on the other hand, had more and more autonomy in her own body. She could walk, she could run, and of course, the most important thing was.., she could also go to the toilet by herself.

She could get out of bed by herself and then go to the toilet. She could even flush the toilet, which surprised even the nanny. How on Earth was this child born? No matter what, she was much more sensible and intelligent than the average child. Other People's children.., now, they were still wearing open-crotch pants, but Yan Huan no longer needed them. She was a clean and beautiful girl, and she was also sensible. Up until now, she almost did not need an adult to take care of her, she ate by herself, slept by herself, and dressed by herself. This made ye Rong worry less.

Right now, everyone was focused on the pregnant lady, the lady boss. The pregnant lady was about to give birth, but she was not willing to listen to anyone. She only liked to listen to Ye Rong alone. She would do whatever ye Rong told her to do.., it also made the boss really let out a huge sigh of relief. Otherwise, he really did not know how to persuade this pregnant lady.

In the later stages, the lady boss was too lazy to move, but ye Kong still helped her to walk around. He wanted to give birth better when she was giving birth. Moreover, the lady boss was the one who had a prenatal checkup. Her indicators in all aspects.., now, everything was very good. She could have a natural birth. Moreover, the child was not too big. Even the doctor had advised her to have a natural birth. A natural birth did not harm the mother, nor did it harm the child. After a few days of observation in the hospital, she could go home, she could also give the child breast milk.

However, if she had a caesarean birth, not to mention getting a knife in the stomach, even the subsequent recovery would be painful enough for her.

Chapter 2379: born

The lady boss really did not want to move. Even if the nanny and Ye Rong were to help her, they would still have to help her walk for a while. After a day's work, the Lady Boss was on the verge of crying, but there was no way she could cry anymore, she had to walk this path on her own. Now that she was so lazy, what was she going to do in the future? Every day and every step in the future.

A person's life was not always smooth sailing. They would encounter some sort of thing or another. No matter who it was, they needed to be prepared at all times to complete that unknown journey.

Yan Huan played with her little finger. In any case, she did not want to go to the pregnant woman. She was too young, but she could not bear the pregnant woman's weight. If the pregnant woman fell, she would be dead and two lives would be lost, if she was even more unlucky and fell on her body, it would not be two lives, but three lives.

She was only so young, only a little over one year old. She had yet to let her mother live a good life, so how could she tell the world everything now.

It was just that these days, the family seemed to be suppressing something. Not to mention adults, even her child was nervous every day.

In fact, she really hoped that the lady boss would give birth to the child as soon as possible. If this continued, she felt that she was going to suffocate to death.

And if the lady boss gave birth, Ye Rong and her mother would also have to leave this place. Although these were all things that would happen sooner or later, no matter where they went, they would not receive such a high salary. Of course, wherever they went., there were also no such good places that could provide three meals a day. Moreover, there was also her milk powder and diapers.

However, this was not their home. She still had to leave. She still had to leave.

Unfortunately, she did not grow up. She was really too weak.

She leaned on the door and looked at the Lady Boss, who was hugging her big belly and screaming from time to time. was she about to give birth?

She was about to give birth. When Ye Rong saw the lady boss like this, she knew that it was almost time. However, because the lady boss did not have much of a reaction, they all thought that it might be a few more days, after all, there was still about half a month before the due date.

However, they did not expect that it would be so soon. It was about to give birth when they were not prepared.

Ye Rong took out a big bag. This big bag was prepared in advance by her. It contained the things needed to give birth. It was so messy that it would be messy at that time.

"Huanhuan, come over."

Ye Rong hurriedly waved at her daughter.

Yan Huan ran over and hugged ye Rong's legs.

Ye Rong did not know what to do with this little fellow. That was a hospital. It was best if the child did not go over. However, Yan Huan was really too young and she was worried that she would stay here alone.

“Mother, Huanhuan will take care of herself by herself.”

She spoke in her childish voice, and her words were very clear. Of course, she was not an ordinary child. She was very calm and steady. Such a young child was always mischievous and mischievous, and she did not have any of them, she was like a big child, very sensible and very obedient.

Ye Rong was still worried about her daughter. After all, she was so young. But in the end, she still hardened her heart and closed the door of the room. Yan Huan was also the one who closed it.

Of course, Yan Huan really would not let anything happen to her. She crossed her legs and ran into the room. Then, she put away her little things one by one, they were probably going to get lost soon, so it was better to pack up early.

At this time, Ye Rong and the others had already arrived at the hospital. The boss's phone was switched off. No one knew if he was in a meeting or his phone was out of battery. No matter what, he could not be contacted.

And now, whether there was a boss or not, it was the same for the lady boss. As long as there was ye Rong, it would be fine.

Yes, as long as there was ye Rong.

The lady boss now believed that Ye Rong was better than her husband.

Moreover, a man had not given birth before, so the words he said were all nonsense. When it was necessary, there really was not a single woman who was useful.

It was still a woman who had given birth.

The Lady Boss insisted that Ye Rong go into the delivery room, or else she would not give birth. With Ye Rong around, her heart would be solid.

Perhaps it was because she had given birth, so she might have some professional skills. In fact, how could ye Rong Be Professional? When she gave birth, she seemed to be confused.

This was the first time she had seen someone give birth. Just like the previous investigation, the Lady Boss's basic conditions were very good. She did not need to do a caesarean section at all. If this was the old her, she would not say anything, she would have to perform a caesarean section. For a delicate woman like her, how could she endure this pain.

But when she thought of ye Rong's current appearance, her figure had not changed, there were no scars on her belly, her body was also good, and Yan Huan's pink and cute appearance, she had the courage.

She gave birth.

No matter how painful it was, she still had to give birth.

Ye Rong was at the side, holding her hand tightly. The Lady Boss had pulled her hand so hard that it was in pain, but she still endured it because she knew that the current pain was not even a fraction of the lady boss'.

The Lady Boss said whatever the Doctor said, and she cooperated quite well.

Moreover, the Lady Boss' labor was also very smooth. Just like that, from the start of the throbbing pain, about half an hour later, the lady boss felt her stomach lighten, as if something had slipped out of her body, in an instant, it was as if all the pain had disappeared and left her.

She closed her eyes. Her entire body was in a daze. She was in a daze until she heard the loud cry of a baby.

After giving birth, her long eyelashes trembled weakly. Actually, when she was pregnant, she was still very regretful. But now, she did not regret it at all. Even though this child had caused her so much pain.., it had hurt for so long again.

This was what a mother should do.

She shook Ye Rong's hand again, and finally, she could sleep peacefully.

When the boss rushed over, more than half a day had passed. Although the Lady Boss had not woken up, her condition was very good. The child was also raised well, and because it was born naturally.., therefore, the child's body was not bad. There was no problem at all. It was a child that weighed seven pounds. Her small arms and legs were very strong. When she kicked someone, it was painful.

"Are You Alright?"The boss was covered in cold sweat. He was nervous and scared.

"I'm fine."Ye Rong picked up a child and placed it in front of the boss.

"It's a girl. She weighs exactly seven Jin."The little girl was very healthy. The Doctor said that her condition was very good. She was only born because of this. She would wake up on her own after she had slept enough.

"Girl, daughter."The boss nervously rubbed his hands. He did not dare to hug her. What should he do? This time, she was really born on top of his heart,

Chapter 2380: worry

He had always wanted a girl, just like Yan Huan, who was both beautiful and sensible. This time, he had the right girl. He had his own little cotton-padded jacket and his own little lover.

This was his child, his daughter, and everything he had now.

The little fellow was only a little, and his little face was as big as an adult's fist. His entire body was almost pink, and his eyes were tightly shut. His current little appearance was not fully grown, but it could be seen, this child looked like him, and the familiarity between her brows and eyes was him. Her small chin was pointed, and this one looked like her mother. Her ears were also small and soft, and she also looked like her mother, but she still looked like him in general, in any case, this was how he felt.

He stretched out his hands a few times, but he still did not dare to hug her. This child's small body was really too soft. He thought that the child was just like Yan Huan, but he really did not expect that his daughter would be so small, so soft and also so fragile. He was afraid that he would hurt her. What should he do?

“Didn’t you hug Huanhuan before?”

When Ye Rong saw the boss like this, she actually did not know whether to laugh or cry. She was used to big scenes, and the boss was a decisive person when it came to doing things. But now, he would rub his hands on her body from time to time, this was simply how nervous he was. He was not like his usual self at all.

“That’s different.” No matter how much the boss wiped the water off his palms, he still did not dare to hug his daughter.

“Little Huanhuan is already so old. I don’t have to worry about carrying her, but this child is like a boneless child. I don’t dare to do anything about it.”

“All children are the same. It’s fine as long as you get used to it.”

Ye Rong placed the child in front of the boss and also taught him how to carry such a small child.

The boss carefully carried his daughter, who was just born not long ago. He also protected his daughter’s little head with one hand. Then, as if he was carrying a ticking time bomb, his entire body stiffened.

The boss carried his daughter and suddenly thought of something.

“You should go back first. I have a nanny here. Little Huanhuan is still alone at home.”

“She is very obedient.” Ye Rong smiled, but her smile was filled with bitterness.

No matter how obedient she was, she was still a one-year-old child. She was still very weak and easily injured. She still could not leave her mother’s protection.

“You should go back first. I’m here.”

The boss also felt that they had gone a little overboard this time. They had asked the other party to leave the one-year-old child alone at home. When he came, he had heard from the nanny.

His wife was very dependent on this Yannuo. She had to be present when the child was born. Yannuo had no choice but to follow them. However, he had to leave the one-year-old Yan Huan alone at home. Such a big child., how dangerous was it to be alone.

They did not know if the windows were closed, if the fire in the kitchen had been switched off, or if the refrigerator had been switched off. Such a big child was just at the right time to be lively and mischievous., their hearts were filled with all kinds of curiosity and desire. He was not afraid that something would happen to his house, but he was worried that the child would fall and hurt himself. Thus, he let ye Rong go back first, otherwise, if something really happened to the child, how could he face Ye Rong? How could he face her.

He had a daughter, and now he loved her even more. Besides, he had always liked Little Yan Huan, and he had carried her since she was born. If it weren’t for Yan Huan, he wouldn’t have such an adorable daughter, naturally, he had feelings for Yan Huan, and there was also a sense of gratitude.

Ye Rong came out of the hospital. She touched her wrist and rolled up her sleeve. She saw that her wrist was covered in bruises.

She sighed and rolled down her sleeve. She hurriedly hailed a taxi outside the hospital and rushed back home. Along the way, her heart was filled with nervousness and fear.

She was afraid that her daughter would cry, afraid that she would cry and look for her mother.

When she pushed the door open, her palms were also sweating profusely.

“Huanhuan...”

Ye Rong shouted her daughter’s name outside. She did not even change her shoes and ran in.

“Huanhuan...”

She shouted again, and her voice also sounded like she was crying. Where was her daughter? was her daughter alright. Where was her huanhuan.

A door was pushed open from the inside, and Yan Huan ran out with her little chubby legs.

“Mommy.” She immediately hugged ye Rong’s legs and raised her little face to smile foolishly. It was really good to have a mommy. Yes, it was really good to have a mommy. She would have someone who would always care for her, dote on her, and love her unconditionally.

She had already left her mother for many years. Now, she was facing a young mother, and her heart was filled with incomparable gratitude. Therefore, she must take good care of her mother for the rest of her life, even though she was still too young, she still needed her mother to take care of her.

Ye Rong hurriedly squatted down and hugged her daughter tightly.

“I’m sorry. I Won’t be away from you for so long in the future.”

Ye Rong really felt sorry for her daughter. She was only so young, but she had left her alone at home. Fortunately, she was fine. If anything happened, what should she do? She only had one daughter in her entire life.

Yan Huan was her life. No, she was more important than her life. Even if she lost her life, she could not let Yan Huan be hurt.

“Mother, Huanhuan is very obedient.” Yan Huan stretched out her small hand like an adult and comforted ye Rong.

“Huanhuan played with the toy alone. She was neither hungry nor thirsty. Huanhuan was thinking about mother when mother came back. Mother is so good.”

Ye Rong hugged her daughter tightly and almost cried.

Her daughter was truly the cutest little angel that the heavens had given her. Even if she had given up everything in the Ye family, her family, and her parents, she was still unwilling to give up on her daughter.

Ye Rong wiped her tears away and then stroked her daughter’s little head.

“Did you fall?”

She asked as she placed her hand on her daughter's little head. She was afraid that she would fall.

Yan Huan shook his head. "Huanhuan didn't fall."

Ye Rong pulled her daughter's little arm again. A child's skin was very tender to begin with. If there was even the slightest scratch, it would be bruised for a few days. Yan Huan did not have a bump on her head, and her little arm was also fair and clean, so she should not have been injured, however, Ye Rong was still worried. She took off her daughter's little pants again to check if there were any injuries on her little buttocks and calves. She really could not leave her daughter in the future. Such a young child., ever since she was born, she had almost never left her. How could she be at ease letting her child stay here alone.
