

Sweetheart 1011

Chapter 1011: this method of yours is too low-level!

fu jiatong almost choked.

she glared at sheng yu. “ chief sheng, you want me to give up so that luo chenxi can become the design director, don’t you? ” i have to say, this method of yours is too low! so what if it’s an interview? why do you have to make ready-made clothes in such a short time?”

” you’re also a designer and our senior. do you think that’s possible? ” fu jiatong said bluntly.

fu jiatong did not expect sheng xiao to slap her in the face. she could not say anything to refute him. her face turned red.

although all her designs were on display at her solo exhibition in paris, strictly speaking, they were indeed exaggerated.

boxn ov el. c o m

in order to be lazy, she didn’t make many clothes herself. instead, after spending the design drawings, she found a professional tailor to make them.

therefore, he had never experienced the urgency of racing against time.

however, she could not admit this.

fu jiatong bit the bullet and said, “that ‘@@ s ... that’s fashion week!” of course, it’s normal to work overnight, but it’s just an interview today, and you’re already making such an unreasonable request ...”

“miss fu, this is not an unreasonable request.” yan heng walked over. “the work intensity of our crew is also different from what you imagine. there were many scenes from the fashion industry in the film. in addition to the male and female leads, there were also many supporting roles. the number of styles needed to be designed was astonishing. therefore, the time will only be more pressing than the four hours requested today!”

“if you can’t adapt to this kind of work intensity, then you definitely won’t be able to cooperate with us when you arrive at the crew. we can’t possibly film a movie for several years and wait for you to slowly make the clothes, right?”

although the director would definitely have a few assistants by then, and some of the ordinary clothes would be directly sponsored by the major brands, the final styling and overall planning, as well as the most important ready-made sets in the film, would all have to be completed by the design director personally.

this was definitely not a job that could be easily completed by a rich young lady following the crew on a trip.

fu jiatong was speechless after hearing this.

“ alright, ” director yan coughed. “ since everyone has no more questions, let’s hurry up and start. ”

“the test questions this time are from chapter 15 to chapter 20 of the novel” gorgeous turn.”the plot roughly states that the female lead, huo daining, has just graduated and is now working as an assistant in a top fashion magazine. the chief editor couldn’t stand her student-like outfit and ordered her to change within three days.”

“your goal is to design a set of clothes for the female lead who will return to the company in three days. as for the specific plot, if anyone can’t remember it, you can go to the original work and download it on qq reading!”

Chapter 1012: his nose was crooked from anger!

fu jiatong’s expression was extremely ugly.

in her opinion, it was an insult to her to participate in the assessment with these young designers who were not as good as her in status and experience!

she almost couldn’t help but turn and leave.

however, she found it difficult to accept the fact that the director’s position would most likely fall into luo chenxi’s hands if she were to leave.

“no matter what, i can’t let that woman get away with it!” fu jiatong gritted her teeth.

she glared at luo chenxi ferociously.

luo chenxi noticed it, but she did not take it seriously at all.

contrary to fu jiatong’s thoughts, luo chenxi did not feel dissatisfied when she heard sheng yu and yan heng’s suggestion. on the contrary, she was eager to give it a try.

this was a chance for her to show off her design skills!

luo chenxi was well aware that sheng yu was not afraid of offending the president's daughter at all given his character.

the reason why he proposed to conduct an on-the-spot assessment was that he was worried that people would gossip about luo chenxi after she was selected. he wanted to give her a chance to display her abilities.

" everyone, please hurry up and draw the draft. the materials and sewing equipment that you need to produce the ready-to-wear clothes can be provided by our SL group. in 20 minutes, i'll bring you to the SL warehouse to pick out the materials. " hearing sheng yu's words, all the designers became nervous. they quickly took out their phones and started to search for the original work.

"what was written in the original novel? hurry up and search for it!"

" we only gave him 20 minutes to prepare. there's no time at all! "

" cut the crap. let's read the original work first. " on the other hand, luo chenxi skipped that step and sat down on the sofa. she took out her drawing book and began to draw a rough sketch.

her thoughts were clear, and her pen flew. soon, a set of styles appeared on the white paper.

yan heng and the others were hiding in a corner, secretly observing the designers' performance.

the judges had an approving look on their faces when they saw luo chenxi sitting quietly by the window alone and beginning to draw.

"it looks like xingchen's claim that she's liked the novel 'a magnificent turn' since she was young and has even read it a few times is not an exaggeration, it's true! she doesn't even need to read a novel to start designing ..."

fu jiatong was completely different from luo chenxi.

she searched for a long time in a hurry and found the novel. she frowned and read it once before starting to draw.

this had taken up quite a bit of time.

twenty minutes passed in the blink of an eye.

sheng yu walked out and said, " alright, the 20 minutes are up. now, everyone will follow me to the SL group to pick out some fabric. there's a bus waiting downstairs. please follow me closely and don't waste time. otherwise, those who are left here can only choose to forfeit."

fu jiatong's design hadn't even been completed, and she was shocked when she heard sheng yu's words.

"what? twenty minutes had passed so quickly? that's impossible! i ... i didn't even have time to finish the draft! can't you extend the time?"

” these are the rules of the assessment, ” sheng xiao said coldly. ” everyone must abide by them. miss fu, you can choose to forfeit if you don’t want to participate. ” fu jiatong was so angry that her nose was crooked!

she was already cursing sheng xiao countless times in her heart.

although the sheng family was one of the top rich families in china, they could not be compared to the fu and mu families. sheng yu was still the third young master who could not inherit the family business.

he actually dared to go against her?

Chapter 1013: isn’t luo chenxi’s speed a little too fast?

meanwhile, luo chenxi had already put away her sketchbook. she was the first to stand up.

she took the initiative to follow sheng xiao downstairs.

fu jiatong stared at her back, gritted her teeth, stood up, and followed her.

the group arrived at SL holdings by car.

as the largest clothing company in china, SL group’s warehouse had a wide variety of fabrics.

however, it was precisely because there were too many fabrics that it was even more difficult to pick out the most suitable.

the fabric selection time was only half an hour.

most of the designers could not keep up with the pace from the start. they did not even complete the design sketches. when they were choosing the fabric, they were clueless and were running around like headless flies.

fu jiatong’s face was also dark.

however, she was still more experienced than ordinary designers. she quickly calmed down and began to pick.

the judges followed the bus to SL holdings and stood at the entrance of the storage unit, observing the designers.

fan yinghua had always been on fu jiatong’s side and had doubts about sheng yu and yan heng’s second-round interview.

but when he saw the scene in front of him, he couldn’t help but sigh.

“chief sheng, we’re indeed amateurs. it’s a good thing we listened to your advice and let them take the test on the spot. compared to working with the crew, they had more time now, but they still couldn’t keep up with the pace. who knows what kind of mess it’ll be when the movie starts shooting!”

yan heng shook his head. " if someone were to throw a tantrum again and refuse to cooperate with the crew, we can't film this movie anymore! " fan yinghua suddenly choked.

yan heng's target of ridicule was obviously fu jiatong.

however, fan yinghua could not refute him because yan heng was right!

if it wasn't for yan heng stopping him from making the final decision, who knew how much loss the crew would have to bear!

just as they were discussing, a sweet voice suddenly sounded.

"director yan, chief sheng, i've already picked the fabric. may i know where the studio is? can i go over and cut it?"

the judges were all shocked.

he turned around to see luo chenxi standing behind them with a large roll of fabric in her arms.

" y-y-you ... have you already chosen?!" fan yinghua asked in surprise, " it's only been ten minutes! " luo chenxi nodded and asked again, " "can i go to the studio first?"

" sure, " sheng yu said. " you can go with the staff first. " after luo chenxi left, the judges came back to their senses after a while.

"this ... isn't luo chenxi's speed a little too fast? how could she be so fast? have you really made your choice?"

"yeah, isn't it a little too hasty to choose so quickly? although speed is important, the quality of the ready-to-wear is more important. she's not getting the cart before the horse, right?"

" now, i'm starting to feel that xingchen is a little unreliable ... maybe, in the end, fu jiatong's ready-made clothes are better ... " the judges frowned.

sheng yu snorted disapprovingly and did not refute.

facts spoke louder than words.

i'd better wait for luo chenxi to prove herself with her own abilities!

after another 20 minutes, the fabric selection time was over.

under the urging of the staff, the designers came out of the warehouse one after another.

fu jiatong held the cloth tightly in her hands, the depression from half an hour ago had been swept away, replaced by a proud expression.

Chapter 1014: the first place is definitely hers!

just now, when she saw so many different kinds of fabrics in the warehouse, fu jiatong was suddenly inspired and found a design idea.

now, she was confident that she could come up with the most amazing design and let the judges see what an international level of design was!

fu jiatong stood at the door, looking left and right, but didn't leave immediately.

fan yinghua walked over. "miss fu, the studio is over there. i'll get someone to send you there ..."

"where's luo chenxi? was she still in the warehouse? it's already been half an hour, you can't make an exception for her, right?" fu jiatong said unhappily.

fan yinghua coughed lightly. "ahem, that ... miss luo picked the fabric and left twenty minutes ago ..."

"what? she only took ten minutes to pick?"

fu jiatong's face was filled with shock, but she quickly calmed down and sneered.

"you're really too stupid! did they really think that whoever did it faster would win? luo chenxi is stupider than i thought. i'd like to see what kind of ready-made clothes she can produce. just wait to be crushed by me!"

fu jiatong sneered, turned around, and went back to her studio.

four hours was not a short time.

however, to the designers who were focused on their work, it was like a fleeting moment.

"time's up. go knock on the door and get the designers to come out." yan heng looked at his watch and turned to instruct the staff.

the staff member went over to urge him.

not long after, the designers appeared one after another.

the first one to come out was fu jiatong.

although she was full of resentment just now, her design level was still much better than that of ordinary designers. once she was determined to complete the design seriously, she was more efficient than others.

more than ten minutes ago, she had already finished the production of the ready-to-wear clothes and even spent some time communicating with the models assigned to her.

compared to her, the other designers were obviously in a worse state.

“we’re finished, we’re finished! i haven’t even finished making the clothes yet. now, i won’t even be able to join the crew, let alone be the design director! four hours is not enough!”

“i managed to finish it in the last minute, but when the model put it on just now, i felt that it was a little too tight. unfortunately, it was too late to change it! i’m so worried that the dress will suddenly split open during the display later!”

“i’m even worse off, okay? i didn’t have any inspiration at all, so i could only randomly make a business suit. i even chose the wrong material ...”

the scene was filled with wailing.

fu jiatong’s smile deepened when she heard that.

the first place would definitely be hers!

five minutes later, almost all the designers had arrived.

yan heng counted the number of people and frowned. “ what’s going on? why is there one less person?”

fan yinghua walked over and took a look. “ it’s ... it’s stars! ” why isn’t the star out yet?”

hearing this, fu jiatong couldn’t help but sneer.

“xingchen must not have been able to finish the finished clothes in time, so she simply hid in the room and did not come out, trying to stall for time! wasn’t it a little too unsightly for her to do this? everyone only has four hours, and she’s not the only one who hasn’t finished. why can’t she come out on time?”

the other designers also started to complain.

yan heng and the others didn’t look good.

they had even praised luo chenxi earlier. they felt that she had an upright character and was capable of cooperating with the production team.

whoever knew that at the crucial moment, she would start to act shamelessly.

he’s actually hiding in the studio and not coming out!

Chapter 1015: no matter what, it’s not wrong to act cute first!

sheng yu was also surprised. he raised his eyebrows. “ i’ll go and see what she’s doing. why hasn’t she come out yet? ” as he was saying that, he turned around and walked toward luo chenxi’s work studio.

in the studio.

luo chenxi paid full attention to the surgery as she stitched the last part of the suture earnestly.

she raised her head, wiped the sweat from her forehead, and looked at the model back and forth a few times. after confirming that there was no problem, she heaved a sigh of relief.

luo chenxi thought for a moment before she said to the model, " " okay, there's no problem. when you show this set of clothes later, remember to lower your head slightly. it's best if you can slightly cover the skin exposed by the v-shaped collar ... " the model was puzzled,"ah?" miss xingchen, are you sure? it's a very stylish work suit, and the neckline is not low. it's not even a deep v-neck, so it's still very appropriate."

as the interview was conducted in SL holdings, the models used were all working with SL holdings and they had known luo chenxi for a long time.

so, the model asked the question directly.

luo chenxi smiled and explained, " you can't judge this problem just from the angle of the clothing. according to the production team's request, the design this time must reproduce the corresponding plot in 'the magnificent turn'. therefore, your performance must be in line with the female lead's character setting as much as possible. " by the way, there's still some time left. do you want to read a few chapters of the novel?"

luo chenxi was different from fu jiatong. she had long been used to high-intensity work.

when she was working at SL holdings, she was known for her high productivity and speed. no matter how much pressure the outside world put on her, she was able to complete it. in the end, every design she came up with was outstanding.

of course, only the designers of SL holdings knew about this.

today's interview was not difficult for her.

four hours was actually more than enough to complete the design and production of a ready-made suit.

however, she couldn't challenge the more complicated and detailed types of clothing such as evening dresses.

fortunately, from the questions given by the crew, they only needed to design a simple and elegant workplace outfit, which was enough for four hours.

luo chenxi had completed the design an hour earlier.

not only did she have time to communicate with the model, but she also encouraged the model to read a novel for a while to make sure that she knew how to show off her clothes.

the model was holding her phone and reading a book. she didn't wake up from her dream until the staff knocked on the door.

"ah, sister xingchen, this novel is so good! i'm really sorry to have delayed you ..."

luo chenxi waved her hand nonchalantly. " it's alright. it's fine as long as you're ready. " hurry up and gather with the other models."

after the model left, luo chenxi tidied up the things on the table and was about to leave.

all of a sudden, her cell phone rang. it rang again and again without stopping.

luo chen's face turned pale when he heard the ringtone.

"this is bad! i forgot to tell mu yichen that the interview time has been extended!"

at the thought of the king of jealousy in asia at home, she did not dare to delay and quickly answered the phone.

"my dear husband, why did you call me ..."

her instincts and experience as a small animal told her that no matter what, it was always right to act cute first!

sure enough, the man who was initially aggressive on the other end of the phone immediately weakened a little after hearing her soft voice.

Chapter 1016: husband or whatever ... doesn't exist however, mu yichen's voice still sounded displeased.

for the past few days, mu yichen had no choice but to suppress his anger so that he would not be despised by the three women at home. he tried his best to control himself so that he would not disturb luo chenxi while she was preparing for the interview.

at night, luo chenxi worked until midnight. she was busier than him, the president!

moreover, every day when the stupid woman returned to the bedroom, she would fall asleep as soon as she laid down. she could even turn a blind eye to a handsome man like him who had stripped naked and slept beside her.

mu yichen endured it, endured it, and endured it. he was almost at the end of his patience.

finally, the day of the interview arrived.

before she left the house today, luo chenxi promised to visit her husband at the company after the interview in order to placate her unpleasant-looking husband.

luo chenxi's heart skipped a beat at the thought of this.

she coughed twice. "ahem, that ... my dear, it's like this. there was a small problem during the interview. "the production team said that they need us to go through a second round of interviews and produce a ready-made outfit on the spot before they can decide on the director ..."

"so troublesome? yan heng must have eaten a bear's heart and a leopard's gall to make things difficult for my wife! i'll call second white and ask him to change the director!"

mu yichen said and was about to hang up the phone.

luo chenxi was anxious all of a sudden. "hey, wait! mu yichen, you're not allowed to call bai shixun!"

she hurriedly tried to stop him, raising her voice.

when other men said this, they would deliberately make their girlfriends happy. but when her husband said this, he was definitely a man of his word. he was definitely not joking.

her experience over the past six months was enough for luo chenxi to understand.

for young master mu, this was really a piece of cake. he just had to raise his hand and dial a phone number.

"mu yichen, can you not cause trouble for me? i worked so hard to make the finished clothes, you can't let me do it for free! the interview is about to end. please wait a little longer and i'll be back. why don't you go and get tang tang first, then wait for me at home ..."

luo chenxi tried to persuade her husband in a friendly manner.

"this, this ... i didn't want this to happen either. wasn't there an accident?" luo chenxi said guiltily.

"uh, this, this ... that, that ..."

luo chenxi dared not even make a sound anymore.

mu yichen's accusation was on point and accurate.

when she heard that the production team was going to conduct an on-the-spot assessment, she was so excited that she was only thinking about how to make the most outstanding design and shock everyone. as for her husband ... it didn't exist. she had forgotten that she was married.

in the face of young master mu's stern questioning, luo chenxi answered weakly, "i can go and pick tang tang up with you as a father anyway ..."

Chapter 1017: stupid woman, just you wait!

“very good. you can throw your daughter to me, but what about me? where do you plan to throw me?”

mu yichen was so angry that he almost laughed!

did this woman not understand his main point?

the main point was that she didn't have a husband in her heart at all!

did she deliberately change the topic?

luo chenxi could tell that the man on the other end of the phone was on the verge of losing his temper. her body trembled subconsciously.

she instinctively made the best choice. “ahem, my dear husband, i was wrong. i was wrong, okay? you know i'm just too busy, but you're definitely in my heart, really! don't worry, i'll definitely compensate you. can you go home and wait for me?”

luo chenxi tried her best to coax her husband.

mu yichen could not resist her soft and coquettish voice the most. most of the anger in his heart was extinguished in an instant.

he snorted coldly and said, “where are you having the interview?” give me the address and i'll pick you up.”

“ah? then there's no need, right? i don't even know when the interview will end! besides, there are a lot of reporters at the entrance. if you come, you'll definitely be surrounded. there's no need to ...”

luo chenxi racked her brains in an attempt to persuade her husband.

suddenly, there was a loud knock on the studio door.

“bang bang bang! bang bang bang!”

“xingchen, are you inside? the four-hour time limit is up. why haven't you come out yet? everyone is waiting for you.”

“ah!”

luo chenxi was taken aback.

only then did he suddenly remember that it had been ten minutes since the assembly time.

in order to coax her husband, she had delayed for so long. people would probably think that she was deliberately stalling for time ...

at the thought of this, she quickly said to mu yichen, “alright, mu yichen, i have to hang up now. i have something very important to do ...”

however, at this moment, sheng yu, who was outside the door, could not wait any longer. he pushed the door open and walked in.

“xingchen, who are you talking to? why isn't he out yet? what's going on?”

when the door opened, sheng yu's deep and magnetic voice came in clearly.

young master mu also heard the voice on the other end of the phone, and his face immediately changed.

“stupid woman, why is sheng yu by your side? aren't you going for an interview for a film crew?”

cold sweat broke out on luo chenxi's forehead upon hearing that.

we're finished!

mu yichen had always hated sheng yu the most. he reckoned that his vinegar jar was overturned when he heard sheng yu's voice now!

it had not been easy to coax him a little, but now ... all her previous efforts had gone to waste!

“mu yichen, y-y-you ... listen to me first ...”

“stupid woman, just you wait!”

mu yichen hung up the phone immediately without giving her a chance to explain herself.

luo chenxi stared at her phone screen in a daze. she felt like crying but had no tears.

she was done for. she had a premonition that she might have a headache, leg pain, and back pain tomorrow, and she wouldn't be able to get out of bed ...

sheng yu could tell that something was wrong. he walked over quickly and frowned.

“xingchen, what happened? did you fight with mu yichen?”

luo chenxi returned to her senses and shook her head. “no, no. we're not fighting. there's nothing going on!”

anyway, mu yichen would drink a few taels of vinegar whenever he had nothing to do. even when he was resting at home, he could still fight for favor with the little dumpling. she was already used to it.

sheng yu narrowed his eyes and stared at her for a while. his eyes were deep and unfathomable.

however, he didn't say anything in the end.

“if you have nothing to do, hurry up and gather. don't waste the entire crew's time.”

Chapter 1018: everyone in china knows that my husband is mu yichen luo chenxi stuck out her tongue and followed sheng xiao immediately as they left the studio.

while she was walking, she clutched her phone and sent a wechat message to mu yichen.

the newly-wedded luoxiaoxi, 'hubby, why did you hang up just now? was the signal bad? i wanted to talk to you more, but i didn't expect the signal to go against me! # i'm angry #angry "

"come home early, don't work too hard. once the interview is over, i'll come home to accompany you!"
poor thing #poor thing " she pretended to be stupid and pitiful.

however, the wechat message he sent was like a stone sinking into the sea, and he did not get any reply.

luochenxi suddenly felt a little creeped out in her heart ...

however, she didn't have time to think about it.

the moment she stepped into the meeting room, she could hear fujiatong's mocking voice.

boxnovel.com

"our young mistress mu is finally willing to show herself? do you know how long we've been waiting for you? a full 15 minutes! didn't they say that it would only take four hours to finish the finished product? all the designers on the scene are following the rules, but luochenxi is the only one who took so much more time. it doesn't seem reasonable, does it?"

luochenxi frowned ever so slightly upon hearing that.

she turned around and met fujiatong's eyes.

fujiatong's face was filled with displeasure, and she couldn't even maintain her status as the president's daughter anymore. she directly questioned the crew.

"cough, cough, this ... miss fu, please calm down. "although miss lu is a little late, it's only about ten minutes ..." fanyinghua tried to smooth things over.

however, fujiatong was used to being arrogant, and she was so angry today that she couldn't take it anymore.

"producer fan, i don't understand what you're saying. didn't you all say this morning that the second round of interviews had to be fair and that strength was the only thing that spoke? even the production time is different these days, how can you call this fair?"

"this ..."

fanyinghua suddenly choked.

" please give me and the other designers a reasonable explanation! " fujiatong emphasized again.

" that's enough, miss fu. you don't have to be so aggressive. i can explain. " luochenxi took a few steps forward until she was in front of fujiatong. she said coldly, " i did stay in the studio for a while longer, but my ready-made clothes were finished a long time ago. i was on the phone in my room just now and forgot the time, so i came out a little late. i apologize for wasting everyone's time! however, i didn't break any rules."

fu jiatong didn't believe such an explanation and sneered, "hehe, young mistress mu, you're just using the mu family's power. you can't even find an excuse. he even called! why did he have to make the call at this time? and you forgot about the interview the moment you answered the phone?"

luo chenxi pursed her lips and swept her gaze across fu jiatong's face.

the corners of her mouth slowly curled up into a faint smile. "this is ... my husband's call. " hearing the word " husband ", the smile on fu jiatong's face froze.

"what? you mean young master mu?"

luo chenxi blinked her eyes. she had an innocent expression on her face. " of course, everyone in china knows that my husband is mu yichen. who else can i say? " i still have the call record with him here, it was a full ten minutes, do you want to take a look?"

Chapter 1019: mocking her for being a single dog!

luo chenxi took out her phone and waved it in front of fu jiatong as she spoke.

fu jiatong gritted her teeth in anger.

luo chenxi had the audacity to bring up young master mu!

did she not seduce mu yichen and marry into a wealthy family because she was shameless?

if not for this, how could a fresh graduate like her be qualified to participate in such an interview?

she actually didn't know how to keep a low profile and kept mentioning young master mu!

"don't think that i'll believe you just because you said you were calling young master mu! you could deliberately give him a call and pretend that you were talking to him, but in fact, you were still working on the unfinished work at hand. there's no surveillance in the studio anyway, so of course, you can say whatever you want."

hearing fu jiatong's words, all the designers and judges present hesitated.

he looked at luo chenxi and then at fu jiatong.

boxn ov el. c o m

obviously, he didn't know who to believe.

luo chenxi's claim that she was on the phone with her husband seemed rather reasonable, but the situation that fu jiatong described was not impossible ...

on the other hand, luo chenxi had been very calm all this while.

she raised her eyebrows and said,"miss fu, you're just trying to frame me!" i'm not as scheming as you, i can't think of such a 'good idea'! "

“you didn’t expect it? hehe, don’t make yourself sound so innocent! what kind of person was young master mu? he’s the president of the entire mu group. do you know how much work he has to do in a day?”

“it’s past four in the afternoon now, and it’s the time for important meetings in major companies. at this time, young master mu is probably so busy that he doesn’t even have time to drink water. why would he call you? why would he call you for no reason?”

fu jiatong sneered at luo chenxi.

she did not believe luo chenxi’s words at all.

moreover, even if luo chenxi was telling the truth, she would insist that it was false. she would destroy this shameless little b * tch’s reputation!

a lowly person from an orphanage had not only stolen her man, but also her job!

did she really think that she had no way to cure her?

however, luo chenxi did not reveal a guilty expression as she had imagined. on the contrary, the corners of her lips were curled into a faint smile.

“miss fu, your question ... is really hard for me to understand. have you never been in love before? do you know how many calls a loving couple has to make in a day? my husband is so busy that he doesn’t have time to drink water, but he still wants to call me. why else can it be? you just miss me ...”

these words were really too heart-wrenching!

fu jiatong’s face was visibly red, and she was gritting her teeth so hard that they were about to break.

luo chenxi’s words were akin to a slap on her face!

not only did she flaunt her relationship with mu yichen in front of her on purpose, but she also mocked her for being single!

“no... this is impossible! big brother mu wasn’t such a person! you can continue making up stories, no one will believe you!”

luo chenxi shrugged. “ i don’t care if you believe me or not. ” if i say i didn’t break the rules to delay time, of course i have evidence.”

as she spoke, she turned to look at yan heng. “ director yan, my model has already left my studio in the ready-made clothes i made before the deadline. what’s the point of me stalling for time when i don’t even have my clothes with me?”

Chapter 1020: he missed his new wife so much that he couldn’t help but call her during work hours?

“just ask the models and you’ll know if i’m telling the truth. also, there are surveillance cameras in the corridor, which can prove the time my model left.”

as soon as luo chenxi’s words left her mouth, the doubtful voices immediately stopped.

sheng yu was a little surprised and took another look at her.

he thought that luo chenxi would definitely be tricked by fu jiatong's sophistry and that she would have no way to prove her innocence.

she even wanted to stand up and speak for luo chenxi.

in the end, luo chenxi brought out the most crucial evidence before he could even speak.

sheng xiao cleared his throat. " well, since xingchen has said so, send someone to the surveillance room and bring me the video of the corridor ... "

"no, no, no... there's no need, no need!"

fan yinghua came back to her senses and immediately stopped him.

he laughed dryly and said, "is there a need to check the surveillance cameras?" would mrs. mu lie to us about this? young master mu and mrs. mu are newlyweds and have been separated for a whole day. it's normal for them to call each other, it's too normal ... everyone has to understand!"

as he spoke, he wiped the cold sweat that kept dripping from his forehead.

if he really checked the surveillance cameras like he did a criminal, he would really offend the mu family!

at that time, if the bai family and the he family withdrew their funds, their production team would really be doomed.

luo chenxi swept a glance at him. " i don't think that's a good idea. what if someone suspects that i've broken the rules? it's better to get the surveillance video and get it clear!"

"no, there's really no need! everyone naturally believes in mrs. mu." fan yinghua smiled apologetically and turned to look at the others. " do you have any other questions? " the designers were all silent.

even fu jiatong chose to remain silent after she glared at luo chenxi unwillingly.

she wasn't stupid.

since luo chenxi had said so, the surveillance footage must be real.

if she continued to persist, she would really be slapped in the face later.

however, fu jiatong still could not figure out why young master mu would call luo chenxi at such a time. could it be that he missed his newly-wedded wife so much that he could not help but call her during work hours, just like what that lowly person had said?

when sheng yu saw this, he coughed lightly and turned to look at yan heng beside him.

only then did yan heng react, and he hurriedly stood up and said, " "alright, since no one has any more questions, let's hurry up and see how everyone's work is coming along. we'll quickly decide on the person to be the design director. today's interview has already been delayed for a few hours. we can't continue to delay everyone's time."

as he spoke, he gestured to the staff waiting next to him.

"next, we'll invite the models to show off the ready-to-wear designs you've designed. we'll pick the most satisfactory works from them. the first place will become the design director of the 'gorgeous turn' crew. the second to fourth place will also become our hired designers and work together with the crew."

yan heng had just finished speaking when the staff led the models to the scene.

everyone's eyes immediately turned to the door, not even daring to blink.

the models lined up and walked in one after another.

it was the judges' first time seeing these newly-made clothes, so they were full of anticipation.

however, when they saw the two models who had just entered the door, they immediately frowned.
