Chapter 1021: they were all convinced of her skill because the clothes on these two people could not be called ready-made at all, there were several pieces of fabric that were not completely sewn together.

obviously, the designers who designed these two sets of clothes did not have the ability to complete the design in four hours.

he could only take out a semi-finished product.

the judges frowned and drew a cross on the form.

the designers who designed these two sets of clothes were also extremely embarrassed and could not even lift their heads on the spot.

embarrassing, this was too embarrassing!

the two models who entered first finished showing off their clothes and retreated to the corner.

the few models who came in later looked much better.

at least, the designers had successfully created a set of clothes that could be worn out.

boxn ov el. c o m

however, the workmanship of these clothes was quite rough. some of them even had problems with the cutting and were a little asymmetrical when worn. as for the sense of design and innovation, they were completely non-existent.

the judges shook their heads.

” these designers are all well-known in china. why are their works so disappointing? ”

“is four hours really too short?”

“ai, what do we do now? if we can’t find a suitable candidate, are we going to spend a lot of money to hire someone overseas?”

everyone was discussing in low voices with a frown on their faces. suddenly, fan yinghua’s eyes lit up.

“look, look at the model who just came in! the clothes she’s wearing are finally looking good.”

upon hearing this, everyone turned their heads and looked at the door.

the model who walked in was wearing a pink-blue professional suit. although it was called a suit, the design had been improved a lot to make it less rigorous. with the pink-blue color, it made the outfit look a little lighter.

it was a perfect combination of two completely different tones, one of youth and liveliness, and one of calmness and elegance.

all the designers present were shocked to see the model.

“who ... who designed this? it was too awesome! was this really done in four hours? i can’t believe it!”

“even if i had unlimited time to design, i wouldn’t be able to create such an effect! this is a genius design!”

a sharp-eyed designer saw the number tag on the model’s waist and immediately called out, “quickly look! her number was ... seven! number seven was miss fu’s number! this dress was designed by miss fu!”

everyone looked over and found that it was indeed the case. immediately, there was another wave of praise.

fu jiatong was the most experienced designer among the interviewees, and she was also the daughter of the president’s house.

as a result, the designers were all convinced of her skills and fought to praise her.

in the midst of the praise, sheng yu only raised his eyebrows and did not say anything.

yan heng frowned and asked in a low voice, “chief sheng, what do you think of fu jiatong’s design?”

sheng yu did not answer directly. instead, he asked, “you’re the director of this movie. what do you think?”

Chapter 1022: it’s not afraid of not knowing what’s good, it’s only afraid of comparing the goods!

“i think ... it looks good, but ... i feel like something is missing ...” yan heng’s brows furrowed even more, “but to be able to do this in such a short time, it’s already very good. it seems that i’m asking too much ...”

sheng yu smiled and said pointedly, “whether the requirements are high or not depends on the designer you’re working with. there are still people who can do it.”

“what do you mean?” yan heng was stunned.

at this time, fu jiatong’s face was full of pride.

she was very confident in her own design, and now that she saw the effect of the model’s body, she was even more proud.

compared to her designs, the previous models' clothes were no different from rags!

although she couldn't hear what the judges were saying from her seat, she could guess how satisfied they were with her design just by looking at their expressions.

fu jiatong turned her head around on purpose to look at luo chenxi who was sitting behind her on her right. she wanted to see her expression.

on the other hand, luo chenxi had been sitting upright all the while. she was looking straight ahead with a faint smile on her face the entire time. no one could tell how she was feeling.

boxn ov el. c o m

"hehe, still pretending to be calm! it's too fake!" fu jiatong sneered.

fu jiatong's model walked around in the middle of the room a few times, showing off the clothes she was wearing.

then, he also retreated to the wall.

then, the models behind him walked in.

"number eight is right behind us, right? number eight ... i remember, isn't that mrs. mu's number?"

many designers thought of this and became excited again. they stared at the door with full attention.

other than fu jiatong, luo chenxi was the most famous designer among the designers who were present.

the chinese style competition's first prize was still a very valuable award.

even though luo chenxi was still quite lacking compared to fu jiatong in most people's opinion, everyone was still looking forward to her work.

model number eight walked in.

countless gazes fell on her.

the designers were stunned.

model number eight walked around the room a few times before stopping to pose for the judges to look at.

only then did the crowd react, and there was another commotion in the crowd.

"what's the situation? did xingchen really design this?"

"yeah, i can't believe it either. is this really her work? although the workmanship is quite exquisite, the cutting and the lining are so perfect that you can even sell it directly in the store, but ... isn't this design a little too old-fashioned?"

"yes, yes, yes. i didn't know how to describe it just now, but now that you've said it, i understand. the female lead is a fresh graduate. it's not appropriate for her to wear this, right?"

"that's right. in comparison, miss fu's design is much better ... " the designers were all disappointed.

previously, luo chenxi and fu jiatong had always been at loggerheads with each other. everyone thought that luo chenxi and fu jiatong could at least compete with each other.

he did not expect luo chenxi to be so much worse than fu jiatong when the finished product was out!

of course, luo chenxi's works were a few times better than ordinary designers like them, but ... it was not that one could not recognize the goods, but one should be afraid of comparing the goods to the goods!

compared to fu jiatong's work, luo chenxi's work was nothing.

fu jiatong was sitting on the side, and she couldn't stop laughing.

she did not expect luo chenxi to be so stupid!

he dared to compete with her with this level of skill!

Chapter 1023: the candidate for the design director has been confirmed fu jiatong was initially a little worried that luo chenxi would perform beyond her usual limits.

now that she saw the ready-to-wear model no. 8 was showing her, she was completely relieved.

looking at yan heng and the other judges, their faces were full of shock, obviously not satisfied with such a work.

fu jiatong smirked. "hehe, now everyone in the crew should know that the so-called first prize of the chinese style competition is just so-so! the designers in our country can't be compared to those who came back from studying abroad."

however, what fu jiatong didn't know was that the conversation between the judges was completely different from what she had imagined.

"this ... this ..."

yan heng's eyes widened in shock as he looked at the finished clothes made by luo chenxi. he was stunned for a while before he regained his senses.

she turned to sheng yu. "chief sheng, you ... you didn't leak the questions to xingchen, did you? otherwise, how could she have come up with such a design?"

sheng yu frowned slightly. "director yan, aren't you being too irresponsible with your words? this question was decided four hours ago by your crew after a discussion. i didn't express my opinion at all, so how could i have known the question in advance and even leaked it?"

when yan heng heard this, he also realized that he had said the wrong thing.

he laughed drily. "this ... it's indeed my fault. however, xingchen's design is really ... did she hit the jackpot, or ... is it really that amazing?"

sheng yu raised his head and took a glance in luo chenxi's direction.

it was not that luo chenxi had not heard the various discussions around her that were demeaning her, but she had an indifferent expression on her face. she had been fiddling with her phone all the while, not knowing who to send a message to.

sheng yu retracted his gaze and said indifferently, "look at her. is this the attitude of someone who got lucky?"

if he wasn't very confident in his own design, he would have panicked a long time ago after hearing so many comments from his peers.

yan heng was tongue-tied, " but, this ... how is this possible?!"

luo chenxi's model stayed in the middle of the room for about a minute before she moved to the corner like the other models.

model nine came in quickly.

the following models did their presentation one by one.

luo chenxi raised her head to take a glance at them from time to time. she noticed that there were two other ladies behind her who had their own ideas. although the clothes they designed were not the best looking ones, they were more relevant than fu jiatong's designs.

'if i'm not mistaken, there's hope for these two to stay in the production team. they'll be colleagues in the future ...' luo chenxi pondered to herself.

the demonstration continued for another ten minutes before it ended.

the models didn't leave immediately. instead, they stayed in the same place and stood in a row for the judges to compare and grade.

the judges gathered together and discussed in low voices for a while.

since they were sitting opposite each other, far away from the designers, the interviewees couldn't hear what they were saying and could only guess in their hearts.

however, most people had similar thoughts.

this time, fu jiatong would definitely be the one to get the director position. there would be no accidents!

as for luo chenxi, he reckoned that the production team would give her the position of a deputy director or something on account of the mu family and allow her to stay in the production team ...

the judges' discussion only lasted for a few minutes.

very quickly, yan heng stood up and walked to the designers.

" everyone, after our discussion, we have decided on the person to be the design director. "

Chapter 1024: miss luo, i'd like to congratulate you on behalf of the entire crew upon hearing this, all the designers became nervous.

although the director's position wouldn't fall to them, they still hoped that they could get yan heng's appreciation and be able to stay in the crew to work.

fu jiatong lifted her chin and looked at yan heng arrogantly, her red lips slightly curved up. she was waiting to hear her name from this internationally famous director.

but who knew that after a short pause, yan heng spoke again.

"our crew members have unanimously decided: the production team of 'the magnificent turn' will be hiring miss lu chenxi as the fashion design director. she will be fully in charge of all the costumes and styling in the film."

fu jiatong never thought that yan heng would say something like this.

she couldn't react for a moment and could only stare blankly ahead.

after yan heng announced the results, he cracked into a smile and nodded at lu chenxi. "miss lu, i'd like to congratulate you on behalf of the entire production team. at the same time, i welcome you to join us. i hope that we'll be able to work together happily in the future!"

luo chenxi was not surprised at all.

she stood up from her seat and nodded at yan heng. she reached out her right hand and shook his hand.

"it's a pleasure working with you, director yan. i'm extremely honored to be able to join your crew. you definitely won't regret the choice you made today."

luo chenxi's attitude was calm. there was no trace of fu jiatong's haughtiness that was superior to others. on the contrary, she appeared modest and calm.

however, her actions naturally revealed her confidence, which made people unconsciously believe in her.

yan heng looked at the smile on her face and was stunned for a moment, then he laughed.

he already had a premonition that he had made the right choice.

yan heng brought luo chenxi along and walked toward the judges' side.

fan yinghua and the rest stood up in succession and greeted luo chenxi.

it was only then that fu jiatong finally woke up from her daze and realized what had happened.

the production team of 'a magnificent turn' did not choose her to be the design director, but they chose luo chenxi!

[ how ... how is this possible? ] there must be a mistake somewhere!

otherwise ... there must be something shady going on behind the scenes!

fu jiatong's face turned pale.

as the daughter of the president's house, she was treated with special privileges wherever she went. she had always been respected by everyone. she would be the final winner of any selection or competition she participated in.

he had never tasted failure before!

but today, she had lost!

moreover, she had lost to the woman she hated the most, the vixen who had seduced young master mu!

fu jiatong was so angry that her face turned red, and she stood up from her seat.

"director yan, what did you just say?" has the candidate for the design director been confirmed to be luochenxi?"

yan heng heard the voice and turned around to see fu jiatong's face. his heart skipped a beat.

he knew that no matter who he chose, he would offend others.

sure enough, this young lady of the fu family couldn't hold her anger in anymore. she wouldn't really flip out on the spot, right?

yan heng was a little nervous, but he was an internationally renowned director after all. he had seen big scenes before, so he wasn't at a loss over such a small matter.

he smiled apologetically and said to fu jiatong, "miss fu, i was talking about luochenxi earlier ..."

fu jiatong didn't wait for him to finish, and snapped, "how did you guys choose the person? isn't the selection based on the performance of the second round of interviews?"

Chapter 1025: this is the crew's interview, not a market!

"that's right, that's what we did ..." yan heng said.

fu jiatong couldn't help but sneer. "director yan, aren't you lying through your teeth? everyone has seen the ready-made clothes that the models showed off earlier, yet you chose luochenxi. how dare you claim that you're selecting your candidates based on the performance of the second round of the interview?"

yan heng coughed lightly, trying his best to calm fu jiatong down.

"ahem, this ... miss fu, the ready-to-wear clothes you've designed are also very brilliant. we've all seen it and we really admire your work. "so, we've just discussed and we want to hire you as the deputy director to assist ms. luochenxi ..."

before he could finish, fu jiatong slammed the table in anger.

“director yan, what do you mean by this? why are you making me the deputy director and making luo chenxi the principal director? does she think i’m not as good as her and have to listen to a country bumpkin’s command?”

this was completely the opposite of what she had expected.

she thought that she would be able to command luo chenxi as she wished in the future after she became her superior. she would let luo chenxi know how capable she was.

she did not expect luo chenxi to be her superior now!

fu jiatong couldn’t accept this result!

“director yan, do you think we designers are blind?” fu jiatong said, exasperated. anyone with a sense of fashion would know which of the works on display was more outstanding! i don’t believe that your crew can’t see it! to be able to take part in a fashion film like ‘gorgeous turn’, the crew members must have basic aesthetic standards, right?”

“and the result? all of you chose luo chenxi! can’t you guys see how old-looking the clothes she made are? you still dare to say there’s no shady business?”

fu jiatong’s words resonated with many designers.

when the models showed off the ready-to-wear clothes earlier, they all thought that fu jiatong’s design was several levels above luo chenxi’s.

however, the final result was the complete opposite of what they had guessed.

who would be convinced by this?

“that’s right, miss fu is right! it’s obviously miss fu’s design that’s more fashionable and has more taste!”

” this set designed by xing chen ... forgive me for being blunt, but it’s meant for mature women in their 30s and 40s. it doesn’t fit the female lead at all! ”

“yes, that’s right! “if the production team thinks that xing chen’s design is better, then it’s obvious that there’s a problem with their taste. if they still want to aim for an oscar with that, isn’t it a little too childish?”

many designers knew that they would definitely not be selected, so they did not have so many scruples in their words. they directly expressed their thoughts and questioned the crew.

yan heng didn’t expect that there would be so many voices of opposition. for a moment, he didn’t know how to explain.

fortunately, sheng yu stood up in time and walked over.

the cold voice penetrated the noisy crowd.

“enough, be quiet! this was the audition for the crew of “ gorgeous turn “, not a wet market! you’re all famous designers in china, not plaza dancing aunties. can’t you pay more attention to your image?”

the designers lowered their voices, but their faces were still full of unwillingness.

“do you all think that ... there’s something shady going on when the crew chose luo chenxi?” sheng xiao asked.

Chapter 1026: you still have a long way to go!

sheng yu was the absolute authority in the fashion circle in china. in front of these young designers, he was still a deterrent.

most of the designers didn’t dare to make a sound when they saw his expressionless face.

fu jiatong didn’t care about that. she raised her chin and said, “ that’s right, chief sheng. you’ve always been a senior that i respect. but today ... do you dare to say that you have a clear conscience?! ” sheng yu glanced at her coldly. “ you should reflect on yourself after saying such things! it’s because not only is your design standard inferior to luo chenxi’s, you don’t even know the difference between you two! how dare you say you’re a designer who came back from studying in europe and america. do you think you can crush the designers in china? you’re still far from that!”

sheng yu’s words were really too impolite.

it was no different from pointing at fu jiatong’s nose and scolding her.

fu jiatong was so angry that her liver hurt. no matter how she thought about it, she couldn’t accept it.

“chief sheng, are you saying that i’m not as good as luo chenxi? i really can’t see how i’m inferior to her! i’m not good enough, so why don’t you explain to me how i’m not as good as her?”

sheng yuchen chuckled. “ since you really don’t know anything ... xingchen, explain the design idea yourself. let the other designers see where they are lacking. ”

initially, luo chenxi had an indifferent expression on her face. she crossed her arms before her chest and was watching a good show from the side.

even though so many designers were scolding her, she did not feel anything at all.

she knew what level she was at, and she had been recognized by the crew. there was no need to be angry with these losers.

she had been thinking about how to appease the king of jealousy at home.

all of a sudden, she heard sheng xiao call her name.

“ah?” luo chenxi was stunned for a second.

sheng xiao glared at her, and she came back to her senses.

” ahem, alright then. since mr. sheng wants me to explain the design, i’ll give you a brief explanation. ”

“actually, my design idea is very simple. any reader who has carefully read the original work can think of it. ” a magnificent turn ” was not only a love story, but also the evolution of the female lead, huo daining, from a rookie in the fashion circle. therefore, she wasn’t able to control the various elements of the fashion industry at will from the beginning.”

” the plot provided by the crew is the beginning of the small climax of the entire novel. at this point, huo daining had just entered the work of a fashion magazine and had no opportunity to interact with the fashion industry before. she really wants to change herself and appear in front of her colleagues with a new image. but, have you all considered her own abilities? ”

” huo daining hopes that she can shock everyone with her beauty, but she’s just a rookie. how can she do it so easily? ”

” that’s why, from the very start, i didn’t plan to design a beautiful ready-to-wear outfit for the female lead. in my imagination, huo daining’s first try should be a clear improvement from her previous style. but, in general, there are still many flaws that need to be fixed ... ”

“that’s why i’ve designed this suit. everyone thought that this set of clothes was old-fashioned. old-fashioned ... that was right. it’s the easiest mistake for a rookie who has just entered the workplace to make because she puts too much effort into dressing up and looks a little old-fashioned.”

luo chenxi spoke with fervour and fervour while the expressions on the designers’ faces gradually changed.

Chapter 1027: could this be the so-called difference in heritage and upbringing?

after all, they were all famous designers in china, and they were not stupid.

even though they had misunderstood the situation in the beginning, they came to a realization after listening to luo chenxi’s detailed analysis.

he realized what an obvious mistake he had made.

all at once, the way they looked at luo chenxi changed.

“i see ... i see!”

“i didn’t expect luo chenxi to be able to think of so many things in such a short period of time ...”

the designers sighed in succession. they had no choice but to admit that there was a gap between their standards and luo chenxi’s.

only fu jiatong, although she realized that she had made a mistake, still felt indignant.

after luo chenxi was done explaining, she took a few steps back and continued to talk to the crew. she did not say anything to show off at all.

it was as if what she had just done was just an ordinary thing that was not worth bragging about.

it was apparent that yan heng admired luo chenxi's way of doing things. he could not refrain himself from cracking into a satisfied smile.

he turned to look at the other designers. "okay, miss luo has just explained her design ideas. now do you know why we chose her?"

everyone stopped talking.

"then if there's nothing else, then ..." yan heng said.

"director yan, i still don't understand!"

yan heng's words were once again interrupted by fu jiatong.

yan heng frowned subconsciously and looked at fu jiatong, who was full of anger.

he could not help but sigh in his heart, 'this young lady fu's design talent is actually quite outstanding. she's not that much inferior to luo chenxi, yet their mannerisms are worlds apart!'

was this the so-called difference in heritage and upbringing?

however, fu jiatong was clearly the daughter of the president's house's elite family. her status was only higher than luo chenxi's ...

fu jiatong was unaware of yan heng's inner thoughts. all she knew was that she could not lose to luo chenxi!

"it's true that luo chenxi's design is the most in line with the original work's setting, but it's not the most outstanding one. your judgment is very unreasonable."

"during the filming process, even if the design director has a wrong understanding of the original work, you, as the director, can explain it to her in detail and ensure that the final design will match the setting of the original work. however, if the designer was not good enough, the final design would not be outstanding enough. it would be useless even if it matched the original work. you guys can't get the cart before the horse!"

fu jiatong's words attracted the attention of the designers around her.

if fu jiatong had tried to defend herself before, she would have been able to do so with reason, but the reasons she was giving now were completely unreasonable.

luo chenxi's design was not inferior to fu jiatong's. the only difference was that the style was a little old-fashioned.

if fu jiatong insisted that she was not as good as her, then she was really thick-skinned ...

however, due to fu jiatong's status, no one dared to say anything wrong.

fu jiatong thought that her words had gained the approval of her peers, and she became more confident.

Chapter 1028: i'm really afraid that fu jiatong will fight with luo chenxi on the spot

"director yan, please consider what i just said!"

yan heng furrowed his brows and looked at fu jiatong in disbelief.

she was even more disappointed in fu jiatong's behavior.

to think that he was still on fu jiatong's side in the beginning. he thought that the designer who had just returned from studying in europe and the united states should be better than luo chenxi.

now, it seemed that sheng yu's vision was more accurate.

yan heng was unhappy and couldn't help but say, " " miss fu, if i remember correctly, during the first round of the interview, you told our crew that you were also a loyal reader of the original novel, 'gorgeous turn'. you even said that you had read the novel several times and that it was this novel that led you to the path of a designer. "

"if that's the case, why didn't you even think of such a simple logic? and miss luo thought of it? which one of you is the loyal fan of the novel?"

"when our crew selects a design director, we not only look at the level of design, but more importantly, we hope that she can have enough enthusiasm for the work of the crew. only then can she perfectly display her own strength. besides, i don't think ms. luo is worse than you in terms of design!"

he was really angry with fu jiawan, so his words were very impolite.

fu jiatong's face turned pale when she heard this.

she gritted her teeth and glared at yan heng, clearly very angry.

however, she could not find any reason to refute him!

indeed, she had just said how much she loved the original work this morning. at that time, she had only exaggerated it in order to get this job. now that she thought about it, it was no different from slapping herself!

fan yinghua, who was at the side, heard yan heng's bold words and cold sweat almost dripped from her forehead.

yan heng was good at everything, but he was too straightforward. how could he even dare to offend the president's house's miss!

seeing the expression on fu jiatong's face, he quickly walked over and tried to smooth things over.

"ahem, miss fu, director yan didn't mean anything else. we're on a tight schedule for this movie, so we need to find a design director who's more familiar with the original work. this way, we can save some communication costs. it's not that i don't like your designs, but i hope you can understand."

" by the way, the interview is over. if there's nothing else, you can go home. thank you very much for today ... " before fan yinghua could finish her sentence, fu jiatong had already turned around and walked out of the door.

her footsteps were hurried, and her high heels made a crisp sound as she walked away.

fan yinghua finally heaved a sigh of relief.

he was really afraid that fu jiatong would start a fight with luo chenxi on the spot. that would be an ugly scene!

fan yinghua gave bai shixun a call and reported to him. she then turned around and joined the discussion between luo chenxi and the crew members.

on the other side, fu jiatong left the meeting room and walked out of the SL holdings building.

she held her breath, and the more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. she was so angry that her face turned green. she didn't even look at the road and directly rushed out.

he was still cursing luo chenxi in his heart.

suddenly ...

"kacha! kachaa! kachaa!"

a series of shutter sounds rang out continuously.

fu jiatong was shocked. she looked up and saw that the entrance of the building was crowded with reporters.

Chapter 1029: chapter 1033-awkward to the extreme some of the reporters had come for fu jiatong in the morning.

however, most of them made a special trip over after they discovered that luo chenxi was also participating in the interview.

the reporters had originally planned to leave after taking a few photos, but they did not expect the production team of "gorgeous turn" to suddenly announce that the performances of the candidates in the first round of interviews were relatively similar, so they could not choose who to choose from. they would have to proceed to the second round of interviews, where the final candidates would be decided through the design and production of ready-made clothes on the spot.

and this second round of interviews actually required a full four hours!

hearing this news, the reporters smelled the scent of headline news and were even more reluctant to leave.

they were all waiting at the entrance of SL holdings, waiting for the final results.

in the end, the first person to appear at the main entrance was the main focus of everyone's attention, fu jiatong!

the reporters were all excited.

the lights from the cameras lit up the entire area. it was extremely glaring in the evening when the sky was already slightly dark.

at the same time, many microphones were placed in front of fu jiatong's mouth.

"miss fu, you've finally come out! are you the first one to come out to announce the final result of the interview on behalf of the 'magnificent turn' crew?"

"miss fu, the production team has already confirmed that you're the candidate for the design director, right?"

"miss fu, please look over here. can you please share with us your thoughts on joining the crew?"

"do you have any plans for your future work? 'the magnificent turn' involves more than a dozen big scenes in the fashion industry. do you have the confidence to complete such a huge amount of work and come up with your own style?"

"miss fu ..."

the reporters were eager to know the inside story and couldn't wait to ask their questions.

according to common sense, after such an important selection, the first person to appear would definitely be a representative of the crew.

as a candidate, even if he was not selected, he could not be the first to leave before the results were announced to the public.

they didn't expect that fu jiatong, who was such a big shot, would slam the door and leave in a fit of anger!

so, everyone treated fu jiatong as the final winner.

fu jiatong's face was already green, and when she heard these questions, her face turned red from embarrassment.

did water enter the brains of these reporters?

when did she say that she was chosen by the crew?

how was she supposed to answer such a question?

if fu jiatong had been the one chosen, she would have stopped laughing when she saw so many reporters surrounding her. she would have seized the opportunity to boast and improve her value and image in the public's eyes.

however, the current situation ...

fu jiatong was extremely embarrassed, but the reporters were still in their usual state of mind and didn't realize how big of a mistake they had made.

" miss fu, congratulations on becoming the design director of director yan's production team. i heard that this film has a high chance of winning the oscars. do you have any confidence in winning the best costume and prop award? "

"miss fu, can you please share your thoughts? i'll only take up two minutes of your time!"

" miss fu, big sis is very curious about this film, please ... " fu jiatong's face turned red.

at this point, she could not just lie and say that she was the final candidate for the design director.

however, to admit defeat in front of so many expectant eyes ...

Chapter 1030: she had never been so embarrassed in her entire life!

fu jiatong couldn't bring herself to say it!

just as the situation was in a stalemate, a few more footsteps were heard in the hall.

fu jiatong's head buzzed.

he knew that this was really embarrassing!

this ... the crew had come out!

sure enough, sheng yu's tall figure in a black suit appeared at the door.

his thick black eyebrows raised, looking a little surprised. he did not expect that there would be so many reporters gathered at the entrance of the SL holdings.

when they saw sheng yu, many reporters turned around and surrounded him.

since fu jiatong refused to answer their questions, it would be fine if they could get the news from sheng xiao.

“chief sheng, do you know when ‘gorgeous turn’ will start filming? i heard that miss fu is very busy at work. is she able to work with the crew?”

“chief sheng, i heard that ‘gorgeous turn’ is going to win an oscar. did you choose miss fu jiatong as the design director because of this? you’re interested in her experience studying abroad in a famous design school in europe and america?”

sheng yu’s eyebrows furrowed slightly.

however, a moment later, he understood what had happened and raised his hand to signal for the reporters to be quiet.

then, he took the microphone.

“i’m sorry, everyone. i want to clarify something. first of all, i’m not a member of the ‘gorgeous turn’ crew. i’m just here to help out, at most a consultant. so, if you ask me about my crew’s plans to win the award ... i can’t answer that.”

upon hearing this, the reporters laughed in unison, and the atmosphere became much more relaxed.

sheng yu continued, ‘besides, i don’t know why you have such a misunderstanding. the director of design that the crew had chosen ... wasn’t fu jiatong!’

“what? it’s ... it’s not fu jiatong?”

” how is this possible?! ” the reporters were all shocked.

they all turned around and looked at fu jiatong.

fu jiatong’s face turned green and white, and she really wanted to dig a hole and hide in it!

she had never been so embarrassed in her life!

however, sheng yu did not care how embarrassed she was. he remained calm and continued.

“on behalf of the panel of judges in charge of today’s interview, i would like to announce to everyone. the role of the fashion design director of the ‘magnificent turn’ production team will be assumed by the senior designer of SL holdings, miss luo chenxi. this result is determined after two rounds of fair and just interviews and on-site assessments. it is the unanimous decision of all the high-level management in the production team.”

the reporters’ eyes were wide open, and they couldn’t come back to their senses.

sheng yu continued. ” alright, i’ve completed my task. next, everyone should ask director yan about the production team. ” after sheng yu finished speaking, he turned around and stepped back. he passed the microphone to yan heng, who was behind him.

yan heng and luo chenxi walked out together.

the reporters on the scene were in an uproar when they saw luo chenxi.

even though he did not expect luo chenxi to be the winner in the beginning, he calmed down and thought about it carefully. luo chenxi was also a well-known new designer in china. she was even popular on the internet for a period of time, so it was normal for the crew to choose her.

moreover, the identity of the mu family's young mistress was also a hot topic.

compared to the selection of fu jiatong, this was even more explosive news!

the reporters swarmed toward luo chenxi.

in just three seconds, the crowd surrounding fu jiatong disappeared.
