

Sweetheart 1161

Chapter 1161: chapter 1165-money is not a problem

“the other party is clearly well prepared. we’ve already conducted a thorough search of the city, but these criminals are very cunning. it will be difficult to find them in a few days. the more effective way is to wait for them to contact you.”

” since they’re holding second young master bai and miss fang as hostages and didn’t kill them immediately, they must have a purpose. they’ll definitely contact you to propose conditions ... ” the director analyzed the situation seriously.

he jinsi and mu yichen could not help but look at each other when they heard that.

“you’re right about that. we’ve already received a blackmail email from the assassin organization. you can see for yourself.”

he jinsi pushed the laptop on the table to the director.

the director took a closer look and was immediately shocked.

obviously, he was shocked by the ten billion us dollars ransom.

“so ... so much money!”

that was an astronomical figure!

these big families from china were so rich, could they really come up with such a sum?

the director stared at the email for a long time. he gradually calmed down and thought for a while.

when he spoke again, he was more confident. ” after reading this blackmail letter, i’m more confident ... ”

boxn ov el. c o m

“is that so?” he jinsi didn’t really trust him.

” there’s no need to check. i’ve already found someone to crack the address. the person who sent the email is hiding in the slums in east borough. we can also find the exact location. ” mu yichen interrupted him.

however, the value of this information was not very high.

after all, the other party could guess that they would investigate.

therefore, the address of the email could not be the same as the address where bai shixun and the others were detained.

“uh, is ... is that so? young master mu, you really have a lot of talents under you. our police skills are too poor, i’m ashamed ...”

the director was slapped in the face, and he suddenly felt embarrassed.

“what else is there?” he jinsi furrowed his eyebrows impatiently.

“and ... i have an idea.” “we can pretend to agree to the kidnappers ‘request and prepare what they need,” the director quickly said.”then, we can find a way to get in touch with them and exchange hostages. although they will be very cautious in their actions, as long as the two sides come into contact, it will be easy for them to give themselves away. this is much more effective than our investigation without a target.”

“agree to their request?” mu yichen immediately refused without even thinking,”impossible!”

“yes ... is it difficult to gather 10 billion?” the director was stunned.

he immediately realized what the problem was.

mu yichen shook his head ever so slightly. “ money’s not a problem. even if the bai family is in trouble, we’ll still be able to help them. however, i can’t agree to the other conditions. ”

“ah?”

the director was a little confused.

in his opinion, this 10 billion was a huge sum of money that could scare people to death. this was cash!

even a large enterprise with assets of hundreds of billions could not have 10 billion in liquid capital.

however, young master mu could easily say “money is no problem.”

moreover, if he could solve such a huge problem of money, why wouldn’t he agree to other conditions?

Chapter 1162: their lives added together aren’t as important as yours mu yichen was in a bad mood. he held luo chenxi’s hand tightly subconsciously.

“ we can’t agree to the third condition, ” he jinsi explained. “ we can’t possibly exchange shixun’s life for another girl, can we? ” that’s impossible.”

the director was stunned. “ this ... actually, as i said just now, i was just pretending to agree to the other party’s conditions. i didn’t really ask miss luo to exchange the hostages. we also know that this is not realistic. as long as she cooperates with the police, it will be fine. ” he jinsi frowned and did not say anything.

the chief saw that they were in a difficult position. he thought for a moment and continued to persuade them, "gentlemen, you must think carefully! if we want to save second young master bai, this is the best way. as long as we ask miss lu to come forward and negotiate with the kidnappers, they will definitely let down their guard. then, we can sneak attack from behind, and the success rate will be very high!"

"gentlemen, the kidnapper wanted to see miss lu. is it because ... she has some kind of relationship with second young master bai? since that was the case, all the more reason for her to step forward! you should think of a way to persuade her. you can't just leave her to die ..."

"enough! don't talk nonsense!" mu yichen could not take it anymore. he stopped him with a stern voice. "how could my wife have any dispute with bai shixun? i'll sue you for slander! also, i won't joke about my wife's safety, even if it's just pretending to agree to the conditions!"

"ah? m-mrs. mu?"

the chief's mouth was wide open, and he couldn't even react.

he had never expected that the person the kidnappers wanted to exchange for was the mu family's young mistress!

what was going on?

how did it have anything to do with the mu family's young mistress?

luo chenxi had been standing by mu yichen's side all this while. she listened to their conversation in silence.

at that moment, she finally spoke, "mu yichen, i think what the bureau chief said makes sense. i'm the person luo chenxin hates the most. reese's subordinates must hate me as well. as long as i show up, i'm sure i can attract their attention and stall for time. then, you'll be able to rescue little qianqian and the others."

luo chenxi spoke in a calm tone with a solemn expression.

when she saw the email just now, she had already considered such a rescue plan.

it had to be said that at the current stage, this was the simplest and most successful method.

mu yichen's expression changed at once. he glared at her fiercely. "stupid woman, what are you thinking about? how can there be such a stupid woman like you! this isn't as simple as beating up a little punk in the country. these are all desperadoes who kill without blinking! do you not want to live anymore?"

young master mu's voice was very stern.

despite being yelled at by her husband, luo chenxi did not flinch at all. "i know it's very dangerous, but luo chenxin kidnapped them because of me. moreover, the longer this drags on, little qianqian and second young master bai will ..."

“don’t meddle in other people’s business! their lives added together aren’t as important as yours. you better behave and stay in the hotel. don’t think about anything else, your plans are so stupid!”

“but ...”

“no buts!”

mu yichen glared at her again. he wished that he could tie this stupid woman up immediately and throw her back to the plane to send her back to their country on the spot!

if he had known that luo chenxi would make such a request, he would not have brought her to france at all.

Chapter 1163: the family power behind the two young masters is not something you can imagine!

luo chenxi pursed her lips and did not continue to argue with him.

mu yichen’s expression turned for the better. he looked at the bureau chief who was standing by the door once again.

“this plan is not feasible. i can’t agree to it. what other plans do you have?”

the director wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and complained in his heart.

in his opinion, there was no better way than to use luo chenxi as bait. he could tell how much the kidnapper hated miss luo from the terms proposed by the kidnapper.

as long as she was willing to cooperate, the success rate of the rescue operation would be greatly increased!

moreover, the police would definitely not let her be in danger alone. they would provide her with strict protection. to be honest, the risk was not high.

however, he had never expected that luo chenxi was young master mu’s wife and the mu family’s young mistress!

seeing how nervous young master mu was about madam, it should be impossible to persuade him to agree to this plan ...

“young master mu, i don’t have a better plan at the moment. i have to go back and discuss it first. it’s written in the email that i’ll give you seven days to consider. at least during this period, second young master bai and miss fang’s lives should not be in danger ...”

mu yichen furrowed his brows and swept a cold glance at the few police officers. he waved his hand and dismissed them.

the director bowed and stepped back respectfully.

he only heaved a sigh of relief when he walked out of the room.

a gust of wind blew past, and he suddenly felt a chill. it turned out that his back was already soaked in cold sweat.

a few police officers came over, all looking nervous.

“chief, who are these two men? looking at their appearance, they were all easterners, right? why are you so scared?”

“yeah, it’s not the first time we’ve encountered such a case. it’s just a kidnapping of a rich young master, right? after all, he’s a foreigner. even if he’s rich, there’s no need to be so afraid, right?”

the bureau chief was already in a bad mood, so when he heard these words, he was instantly enraged.

he gave a backhand slap to one of his subordinates.

“stupid trash! this is all your fault, and you still dare to say such things! so what if he’s an easterner? how do you know that there are some mysterious families in the east that have influence all over the world? the power of the families behind the two young masters is not something you can imagine!”

he thought about it and got angrier. “ what did i say last time? i told you guys to handle the case of miss bai’s disappearance, and you guys? you actually dare to delay for me and cause such a big problem! don’t you want to live?”

the subordinate covered his swollen face and realized the seriousness of the matter. he hurriedly explained, “ we did investigate! but ...”

“don’t give me buts! go back and continue to investigate the traces of those b * stards! if this matter can’t be resolved, i’ll be finished, let alone you!”

there were only three people left in the room.

he jinsi turned around and looked at mu yichen. “ do you think ... these police officers can really find out anything? ” mu yichen squinted his eyes. “ i’d rather believe that ghosts exist than believe in them! a bunch of trash!”

“then ... what do we do next? i’ve already sent people to track down luo chenxin and the others, but it’s useless to just know their whereabouts. the key is to save shixun and miss fang unscathed. i’m afraid that these desperadoes will kill the hostages if they’re desperate!” he jinsi’s expression was grave.

Chapter 1164: i’ll definitely be obedient and won’t cause any trouble, i’ll send four!

“ third young master he, why don’t i ... ” luo chenxi thought for a moment before she spoke again.

however, she was interrupted by mu yichen’s cold voice once again, “enough, stupid woman. did you not listen to my warning at all? you’re not allowed to say anything about being bait!”

“but this should be the only way now, right?”

luo chenxi did not expect mu yichen to be so determined.

she looked at the side of mu yichen’s cold and handsome face. she moved closer and grabbed his arm. ” mu yichen, just let me try, okay? you don’t want your best brother to be in danger, right? besides, i’m not a weak girl. i can protect myself ...”

“don’t even think about it!” mu yichen glared at her angrily. ” one more word and i’ll send you back to our country! ”

luo chenxi was exasperated.

she understood that mu yichen was worried about her, of course.

however, her little qianqian was still in the hands of the kidnappers. it was unknown whether she was alive or dead!

moreover, reese’s subordinates and luo chenxin were capable of doing anything. bai xinxin was the eldest daughter of the bai family, but she was still sold to the red-light district after being abused by them.

if such a young and beautiful girl like fang ziqian were to fall into their hands ...

luo chenxi dared not even think about it!

he wished he could rush over to save her at the first moment.

how could they wait for seven days and plan slowly like the police had said?

seeing that the two of them were about to start quarreling, he jinsi quickly said, ” “sister-in-law, don’t argue with yichen. he’s worried about you. besides, he’s so calm. i think he’s already thought of another way, right? what’s your plan? let’s hear it. ” he jinsi looked at mu yichen with a faint smile.

mu yichen swept her a glance. ” promise me that you’ll listen to my commands and that you’ll never put yourself in danger. ” luo chenxi hesitated for a moment.

mu yichen’s eyes immediately squinted.

she quivered and quickly stretched out two fingers on her right hand. ” that ... dear husband, i will definitely be obedient and not cause trouble. i’ll send four! ”

mu yichen stared at her. ” it’s useless to act cute! ” luo chenxi blinked her large eyes and appeared to be obedient. look at how sincere i am, i've already made an oath!"

mu yichen glared at the woman before him. even though he knew that her obedience was just an act, he could not do anything to her.

he shot luo chenxi a warning look and continued, " "i do have an idea, but i don't know if it'll work. jingsi, do you know the tang family?"

he jinsi was slightly stunned. " the tang family? which tang family? wait ... you're not talking about the tang family who did shipping in the past, are you? i heard that their background isn't very clean and they don't have a good relationship with the presidential palace. they moved out of china a long time ago."

mu yichen nodded and said,"that's right. it's the tang family." old master tang had a good relationship with my grandfather, so when my grandfather was still alive, we still had some contact with the tang family. it was said that the tang family was now very powerful in country F. they were the president of the chinese chamber of commerce and also very influential in chinatown. i'm planning to ask for old master tang's help."

upon hearing this, he jinsi's eyes lit up. " that's right. i've heard of elder tang's reputation. i didn't expect you to have such a relationship. " if we can get him to come forward, things will be much simpler."

Chapter 1165: it was poverty that limited her imagination for this kind of thing, if they had the help of a local snake, they would definitely get twice the result with half the effort.

"then what are you waiting for? hurry up and call old master tang!" he jinsi urged.

mu yichen shook his head. " i've mentioned it just now. our relationship with the tang family is mainly maintained by my grandfather. now that he's passed away and my relationship with the tang family is only average, it's not appropriate for me to make such a request rashly. otherwise, i would have contacted the tang family in china instead of waiting until now."

" you're right ... " he jinsi was stunned.

"that's right!"

luo chenxi, who had been standing by the side in silence all this while, suddenly spoke when she recalled something.

under the surprised gazes of the two men, she ran to the coffee table and picked up a newspaper that came with the hotel.

"the elder tang you're talking about, is he the one in the newspaper? no wonder it sounds so familiar to me. i happened to take a look when i entered the room just now."

luo chenxi straightened the newspaper and pointed to a photo on the front page.

she had a very good memory, so even though she had only taken a quick glance when she entered the room, she had some impression of the contents of the newspaper.

mu yichen and he jinsi turned around to look.

the headline of the news was 'the president of the chinese chamber of commerce, tang junzhuo, is celebrating his birthday tomorrow. all famous celebrities and popular movie stars are invited.'

the two of them looked at each other.

he jinsi's face immediately lit up. " sis-in-law, you have such sharp eyes. this is definitely a good opportunity! " let's take this opportunity to have a chat with old master tang. what do you think, yichen?"

mu yichen nodded. " let's do that! " luo chenxi initially thought that she would not be able to prepare a suitable congratulatory gift in such a short time.

in the end, it turned out that her poverty had limited her imagination.

early the next morning, a pair of jade auspicious vases was escorted to the hotel.

even though luo chenxi did not have much knowledge about jewelry, she could tell at one glance that the jewelry was definitely a priceless piece of fine work.

mu yichen's slightly impatient voice was heard coming from behind her just as luo chenxi was sizing up the jade bottle carefully.

"stupid woman, what are you looking at? hurry up, we have to get our styling done first. i've already made an appointment."

"ah? do a styling?"

luo chenxi was still unable to react to the situation even after she was stuffed into the sports car and arrived at the sl headquarters in paris.

she had studied in europe before, so she was quite familiar with the unspoken rules of the fashion industry.

in this city of fashion, one had to make a reservation at least three months in advance if they wanted to be styled in the main stores of the major luxury brands. even if an international superstar was attending an award ceremony or the president's granddaughter was attending an adult ball, they couldn't cut the queue.

however, they had just arrived yesterday and were already getting their hair done today?

moreover, it was the design director bruno who personally served them.

luo chenxi's eyes were glowing with excitement when she saw bruno!

this was the master designer that she had always liked!

the design directors of the major brands were all big shots in the fashion industry.

in the past, luo chenxi's greatest wish was to learn from them. in the end, she had become their client after a few years!

bruno noticed luo chenxi's gaze and looked at her in a rather peculiar manner. he then said, "mrs. mu, this way, please. time is too tight, and we can't have time to custom-make a gown for you. we can only let you choose from the available high-end designs. please don't mind."

Chapter 1166: his eyes were so gay luo chenxi quickly replied, "of course i don't mind! mr. bruno, you've always been my idol. can i have a picture with you?"

bruno was stunned for a moment, and then he couldn't help but laugh.

"of course you can,"

"that's great!" luo chenxi took out her phone from her bag excitedly and shoved it to mu yichen who was standing next to her. "hubby, please help us take a picture!"

"no!" mu yichen refused with an ashen face.

"ah? why?"

luo chenxi was stunned as she did not expect him to reject her.

mu yichen scoffed coldly but did not speak.

what a joke, his wife wanted to take a picture with another man!

moreover, this bruno in front of him was quite good-looking. he had blond hair and blue eyes, and a good figure. could his wife be obsessed with looks again?

next time, i must choose a brand with a female design director for my styling!

luo chenxi blinked her eyes when she saw his unpleasant expression. she suddenly came to a realization.

she could not help but curl her lips into a smile. she moved closer to mu yichen's ear and whispered, "hubby, are you jealous? actually, mr. bruno is gay, so it's impossible for him to have any feelings for me. but ... i think there's something wrong with the way he's looking at you ..."

mu yichen had just heaved a sigh of relief when he heard the first half of the story. he did not expect that the next part would be such a huge bomb.

he was so frightened that he shivered.

when he looked up at bruno again, he felt that his eyes were filled with gays ... it was uncomfortable no matter how he looked at it.

however, his stupid woman was still watching the drama and kept winking at him.

mu yichen's chest felt stuffy.

was this stupid woman's brain not working well?

she was so happy that a gay man was coveting her husband. she really needed to be taught a lesson!

it had only been a few days since he had taught her the family rules, and she had already forgotten all about it?

let's see how he'll deal with her when we return to the country!

luo chenxi noticed that mu yichen's gaze had changed. she suddenly felt a chill on her back. she dared not cause any more trouble. she quickly shoved her phone to a bodyguard beside her.

then, under young master mu's cold gaze, he successfully took a photo with bruno.

due to the time constraint, mu yichen did not lose his temper on the spot. he only made a note of both of them in silence. oh, right, there was also the bodyguard who had the audacity to help the stupid woman take photos ...

the two of them entered the store. in the spacious and bright living room, many sets of formal wear were already displayed.

each set was the latest high-end custom made this year.

bruno came from behind and introduced them, "gentlemen, these are the latest fashion models. originally, there wouldn't have been enough time to change even the ready-made designs in a day's time, but i didn't expect that your figures would be so perfect. you should be able to put on these clothes directly without any changes!"

bruno looked at the two of them with joy.

the rich couple in front of her, whether it was their figure or their looks, could easily beat a popular model.

if he didn't know that they were worth tens of thousands of dollars, he would have invited them to do the show for his brand.

he stared at the two of them for a while and picked out a few sets of clothes.

" if you two trust my taste, why don't you try these on first? they should fit you very well. in fact, every set of clothes i've designed suits you very well ... " luo chenxi thanked him and walked toward the fitting room.

the assistant was waiting at the door with the dress and said respectfully, " "mrs. mu, this way please ..."

she turned her head and suddenly recognized the person in front of her. she cried out in surprise, "luo chenxi?"

Chapter 1167: you ... you can't really be luo chenxi, right?

luo chenxi was stunned for a moment when she heard his voice.

the assistant's eyes flickered as he stared at her for a while. he quickly lowered his head and said, "uh, i'm sorry, madam. i ... i must have recognized the wrong person ..."

he tina did not expect the other party to call her by her name.

she widened her eyes in disbelief. "how do you know my name? you ... you're not luo chenxi, are you?"

luo chenxi nodded.

although she was meeting an old friend, she was not in a good mood.

the he tina in front of her was one of the few chinese girls in her class when she was studying in country Y's royal academy of fine arts.

back then, luo chenxi was the most beautiful and talented girl in her class. not only was she the top in every course, but she also had countless suitors, including the sons of rich and powerful families in country Y.

such a girl would naturally be excluded by other girls.

back then, he tina had often targeted her.

especially after she was expelled, he tina, as a member of the student union, even specially came to the dormitory to supervise her moving out of the school. the two of them almost fought on the spot.

at the thought of this, luo chenxi's expression turned cold. "long time no see. i didn't expect that you'd actually be working in the sl now."

thinking about it carefully, this was not something unexpected.

the fact that he tina was able to enter country Y's royal academy of fine arts meant that she was very talented in design.

now that he had graduated from this famous school, he was indeed qualified to work in the headquarters of the chf.

of course, this also proved that he tina's grades in school should be pretty good.

they weren't friends to begin with, not to mention that he had witnessed a time she didn't want to recall the most.

luo chenxi did not wish to speak to the other party at all. she nodded and made small talk before she turned around and was about to go to the fitting room.

on the other hand, he tina, who was shocked by luo chenxi's identity, reacted to the situation. she quickly turned to the side and blocked luo chenxi's path.

"y-y-you ... are you really luo chenxi? you're not pretending to be stupid to lie to me, are you?"

luo chenxi furrowed her brows. "assistant he, please make way ..."

at this exact moment, he tina's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. never in her wildest dreams did she expect to see luo chenxi in the headquarters of the chf!

she had found the little vixen luo chenxi an eyesore in the past.

he tina had originally thought that she was quite outstanding and wanted to show off her skills in country Y's royal academy of fine arts, but in the end? she was completely outdone by luo chenxi on the first day of school.

she was overjoyed when luo chenxi was expelled!

after all, luo chenxi had a dark history of being expelled from such a prestigious school. it was absolutely impossible for her to enter a prestigious school of the same rank in the future. at most, she could only enter a third-rate art academy.

on the other hand, luo chenxi was not the daughter of a rich family. those young masters who were pursuing her had hastily cut themselves off from her after hearing about the scandal she had created.

without money and education, it was almost impossible to achieve anything in the fashion design industry.

at the time, he tina was certain that luo chenxi would certainly be from a different world from her in the future!

the two of them would never meet again.

who would have known that luo chenxi would suddenly appear before her!

Chapter 1168: did she think that no one else knew about her dark history?

and as mr. bruno's client!

one must know that for a designer like bruno, the people he served were not just rich. they also had to have a matching social status!

didn't luo chenxi return to the country dejectedly with the child in her stomach?

how was it possible that four years had passed and she had suddenly become a lady of high status?

“luo chenxi, what have you been doing for the past four years? why did he suddenly become so rich?” he tina couldn’t help but ask.

luo chenxi took a glance at her and said indifferently, “this doesn’t seem to be your business, right?” he tina was angered by her cold attitude.

what was this little demon pretending for? did she still think that she was the design genius who was revered by everyone four years ago?

she was clearly a pair of broken shoes!

did she think that no one else knew about her dark history?

“luo chenxi, why are you so cold?” he tina said sarcastically. we’re old classmates, and we haven’t seen each other for four years. what’s wrong with chatting with you? or ... did you hook up with a rich man and don’t care about your old classmate?”

he tina was envious when she saw luo chenxi’s elegant and outstanding appearance in branded clothes.

at the same time, she also recalled that someone had introduced luo chenxi as mrs. mu earlier.

he tina had just joined the company and was only the lowest ranked assistant in the chf. she was only responsible for miscellaneous matters such as serving tea, pouring water, and taking clothes for the distinguished guests.

thus, she did not see the scene of luo chenxi and mu yichen walking into the room hand in hand.

she had only heard the word ‘madam’ when she immediately began to fill in the blanks in her mind. she thought that she had seen through luo chenxi’s embarrassing situation under her glamorous appearance.

luo chenxi was displeased upon hearing the provocation in her words.

however, she was in a hurry to attend old master tang’s birthday banquet with mu yichen, so she did not plan to waste her time bickering with the other party.

“old classmate? he tina, i seem to remember that we often quarreled in school, right? they couldn’t even be considered friends. there was no need to reminisce at this time, right? i’m in a hurry, are you going to move or not?” luo chenxi’s tone sounded a little sterner now.

for a moment, he tina was stunned by the aura that she was emitting.

due to being by mu yichen’s side, luo chenxi was influenced by him, madam tan, and the others. she gradually possessed the aura that only a true daughter of a wealthy family would have.

with just one sentence, one action, and even one look, one could tell that she had an extraordinary identity.

he tina was stunned for a second, and when she reacted, she felt even more depressed.

what right did a person like luo chenxi have to look down at her in such a condescending manner? did he really treat her as an assistant?

he tina gritted her teeth and said, "luo chenxi, the fact that you're here at the headquarters of the chf for a makeover shows that your sugar daddy has a very high status, right?" i don't know which old man is so not picky that he actually chose a woman like you as his lover and even brought you out? does he know what happened to you four years ago?"

luo chenxi's expression darkened completely. 'what old man? what nonsense are you talking about?"

he tina sneered, " don't play dumb with me. just based on a broken shoe like you, which rich young master would fancy you? didn't those young masters who pursued you back then change their target at the first opportunity? who else could be with you now, other than a rich old man? i really didn't expect that the ice beauty from back then would be so picky now!"

Chapter 1169: don't dream of marrying into a rich family!

"however, as an old classmate, i'll give you a piece of advice. i've been in the upper-class circle in paris for a few years, so i know what those rich old europeans and americans are like."

"don't think that just because your sugar daddy brought you to the headquarters of the chf to try on clothes, you can be so thick-skinned as to call yourself his wife! those old men like young eastern women like you the most, but they're not stupid. they'll never marry you! i'll definitely dump you after i'm tired of you in a year or two!"

" you can't be a designer anymore anyway. you should make the best use of your time and make more money while you're still young. stop dreaming about marrying into a rich family! " luo chenxi blinked her large eyes. she almost could not understand what he tina was saying.

she only reacted when she heard the last part. he tina was really very imaginative, and she had imagined a lot of things ...

she actually dared to call her king of jealousy an old man. if young master mu heard this, wouldn't he explode with anger?

moreover, she and mu yichen were legally married. this was also something that young master mu was most proud of. he would be extremely smug every time he brought his wife out.

now, he was being accused of being a kept woman ...

'it's a good thing mu yichen isn't around ...'

at this moment, a staff member walked over from the corridor, bowed and said politely, " "mrs. mu, have you chosen your clothes? mr. mu has already chosen and asked me to pass on a message to you. he said that if you like all of them, you can buy them all without hesitation ..."

hearing this, he tina's body suddenly stiffened, and her face was twisted with jealousy.

who was luo chenxi's sugar daddy? why was he so rich and pampered her so much that he even made her buy all of them?

the few pieces of clothing in her hands were all the best of the best. just looking at the long string of zeros behind the price tag was enough to make one's scalp go numb!

the staff member agreed. he was about to leave when he heard luo chenxi's voice from behind him again.

"oh right, please help me ask mr. bruno to change my assistant."

the staff member was stunned. " why do you want to change the assistant? "

after all, she was in a hurry. the banquet was about to begin, so luo chenxi did not wish to keep her king of jealousy waiting for too long.

besides, she wasn't a saint who didn't like to have a fly buzzing in her ear when she was shopping.

the staff member was stunned for a moment before he reacted.

even though luo chenxi did not say it explicitly, she could more or less guess that the two of them were still standing at the door of the fitting room. her expression darkened immediately.

" mrs. mu, i'm really sorry. our brand's staff training is not up to standard, so we didn't give you the best service. please understand. i'll immediately send two new assistants to serve you. i'm really sorry! " the staff member's attitude toward luo chenxi was very good, but it was not as simple as it seemed when he shifted his gaze to he tina.

he tina's heart skipped a beat.

she knew that something was amiss the moment luo chenxi spoke earlier.

he did not expect that the sl * t, luo chenxi, would have the audacity to complain about him!

wasn't it just a rich old man?

yet, luo chenxi was a major client of the sl family. the consequences would be dire if he were to be sued by her.

Chapter 1170: luo chenxi ... what are you doing? we were old classmates!

he tina was a new employee who had just joined not long ago and was still in the probationary period.

now that he had made a big client unhappy, there was a high possibility that he would be fired!

it had not been easy for her to defeat all her competitors and obtain the opportunity to work in the headquarters of the chf!

thinking of this, he tina's expression immediately changed.

"um ... luo ... luo chenxi ... what are you doing? we were old classmates! you ... you can't frame me just because we didn't get along four years ago! even if you're rich now, you can't do this!"

her face was filled with shock, and she put on a pitiful look, even pretending to wipe her tears.

he tried to gain the sympathy of the other staff members.

the staff member was indeed surprised.

he did not expect luo chenxi and he tina to be classmates.

since they were classmates, why did they quarrel?

luo chenxi glanced at he tina. a wisp of mockery flashed past her eyes as she said indifferently, "miss he, i've come to the headquarters of the chf to enjoy its service, not to spend a large sum of money to listen to people insult me. although we're classmates and i won't hold it against you, you've wasted so much of my time. this is a little inappropriate."

he tina did not expect luo chenxi to mention it all of a sudden. her expression turned even uglier.

she could only lower her head and continue to pretend to be pitiful. "i didn't ... i didn't insult you ... how could you ..."

"miss he, i believe that there should be surveillance cameras in your company. it's pointless for you to twist your words. now, hurry up and leave!" luo chenxi asked him to leave without any trace of politeness.

he tina's heart skipped a beat. she suddenly remembered that they had not quarreled in the fitting room, but outside!

there were no surveillance cameras in the fitting room, but everything outside was within the surveillance range.

even though they could not hear the conversation between her and luo chenxi, her overbearing behavior was certainly captured on camera.

this ...

when the staff member saw this, he also understood and frowned.

"tina, come with me. mrs. mu, i'm really very sorry ..."

"don't worry, it's just a small matter."

luo chenxi did not wish to dwell on this matter. she took the clothes and entered the fitting room without waiting for the new assistant to arrive.

as for he tina's fate, whether she would be fired by the yl, that had nothing to do with her.

even if she didn't know he tina, with he tina's service attitude, she wouldn't be able to stay in the industry for long.

luo chenxi tried on two of the gowns in the mirror.

in the end, she realized that bruno was right. both of them suited her very well ...

luo chenxi looked at herself in the mirror for a long time before she took off her clothes reluctantly.

"they're all so beautiful! "i can't possibly buy them all as mu yichen has said, can i ..." she pouted her lips with a troubled expression.

"what can't i buy?"

a familiar male voice suddenly came from behind her.

luo chenxi was stunned for a moment. she turned her head around subconsciously and saw mu yichen lifting the curtain door gently. he strode in from the outside with his long legs.

he had already changed into a three-piece haute couture suit. his tall and sturdy figure was wrapped in it, making him look both refined and elegant, but also full of a strong sense of power.

he looked thin when he was dressed, but chubby when he was undressed.

young master mu looked too handsome in this state. luo chenxi's appearance-obsessed problem acted up again as she stared at him in a daze.

it was only when mu yichen's gaze slowly moved down and landed on her chest that luo chenxi suddenly came to her senses.

she ... was not wearing any clothes!
