

My Sweetheart

Chapter 3 Dr. Joseph Is Her Boyfriend

A week later, Kathy did not receive a call from Joseph, and the compensation issue was ended. Seeing that Kathy was quiet, Angela asked anxiously, "What about that guy came here last time? You didn't have a date with him?"

"We really don't know each other." Kathy repeated again and again.

"... I'm really mad at you! What about that man who had a blind date with you?" Angela asked.

"I'm not interested in him." Kathy sneered, not willing to mention him at all.

"Is it because Peter is going back to the country, and you are still waiting for him!"

Hearing that, Kathy was stunned, what? Peter is going home?

Will he come back? She thought he had always settled in England and would not return.

"Mom, I don't know about this." Kathy frowned.

"You don't know? Well, mom will find another reliable man for you. This time, you have to promise you must successful!" Angela warned. Kathy is 25 years old, how can she couldn't be worried about her marriage.

Kathy was indifferent, and she had already no passion to the blind date, and responded her mother coldly.

Just thinking that Peter was coming back, she was a little excited.

On Saturday, it was still in the same cafe. Kathy was speechless and went out without any makeup.

A man had already sat here, wearing a suit with a necktie, and hairs combed delicately, facial features ... very good, eyes attractive.

In Kathy's mind, Joseph's face appeared. After seeing him, it seems that men who used to look handsome had become ordinary.

Patting her head, she reminded that she couldn't think of her. Obviously, they didn't even know each other.

Kathy has been very familiar with the process of blind date. She didn't wait for the man to speak first and introduce himself, but the man took the initiative.

"I am Billy Hilton. I thought you had known before."
But Kathy ... knew nothing about him.

"Should I know?" Kathy was confused, didn't want to talk about this topic.

"I am the president of the Hilton Group. Newspaper reports a lot about me. Miss Kathy doesn't pay attention to these?"

Kathy didn't know how to respond him, because she really didn't pay much attention to these...

However, Angela could introduce a president to her this time? The man must be very rich.

She was just an ordinary employee of a small medical company, and couldn't match such a rich man.

Kathy had self-knowledge, and she broke up with Peter because of unmatched social status. When she thought of it, she was even less concerned about the man.

At the door of the shop, a black Cayenne stopped slowly. The man narrowed his eyes and looked at Kathy who was sitting by the window. His brain appeared some fragment of memory about her.

He pushed the door and got off.

"It's okay. Just pay more attention to the news in future. After all, I am very handsome, isn't it?" Billy was quite proud.

Kathy was cold. When he was about to start talking about leaving, a familiar man sat down !

It's him? She poured coffee on the man last man. Why is he here?

"She already had a boyfriend." Joseph said in low voice.

Kathy was stunned, looked at Joseph, and looked at Billy.

Billy frowned, and became angry when he heard this, "Kathy, you aren't single? It is the waste of my time. Are you playing tricks with me?"

"No." Kathy wanted to explain, but Joseph put his arm around her shoulder. She didn't even dare to move, and could only watch Billy get angry and leave.

"What are you doing?" Kathy looked at Joseph. Although she didn't plan to date with Billy, she never thought that it would end in this way.
