

My Sweetheart

Chapter 7 Being Lucky

• • •

Submit the paper, fill the application form, take photo, and get the certificate.

Kathy walked out of the Marriage Registry, holding the marriage certificate, was still in a trance.

She got married.

Looking at the handsome man beside her, she still had a lot questions about him, and she married him in hurry.

"Joseph, will you regret it?" Kathy asked him when they got into the car.

After getting more information about him in the hospital, she had deep understanding of him. What a good man he is. She was very lucky that can marry him!

"Why should I be regretful?" Joseph started the car indifferently.

"I don't know. I think there is a big gap between us."

Kathy lowered her head. She was just a very ordinary person in the crowd, but Joseph was the famous chief doctor.

"If I mind it, I won't marry you."

"Well." Kathy really didn't figure out why Joseph chose her, so she didn't think about it anymore.

"Send me home now?" Kathy asked him.

"Go to my house first. After I arrange all things, I will visit your family." Joseph said.

The Joseph's family Mansion is located in the high-end villa area of Boston. Kathy had never been here before, so she felt she had entered a castle.

After getting out of the car, Kathy looked down at her dress, beige T-shirt jeans, and sneakers. But the building in front of her was splendid, how could she dare to come to this place in such dress?

While she was stunned, Joseph had already put his hand around her waist, and Kathy immediately pulled him, "Is there any women's clothing store here?"

"What do you want to do?"

"I want to change my skirt."

"No need." Joseph frowned and took her directly into the villa.

Matthew was watching financial news in the living room without turning his head. "Joseph, if you don't take your girlfriend here, don't go home!"

Upon hearing this, Kathy laughed, and suddenly understood what Joseph had suffered in his family. Matthew heard her laughter, turned his head to see Kathy, and became very happy.

"This ... this is my granddaughter-in-law?" Matthew came over with some excitement.

Kathy smiled, and it seemed that she was content with this address.

"Grandpa, this is Kathy." Kathy took the initiative to supported Grandpa and said hello politely.

"Kathy, this name is good, meaning gentle and quiet, I like this girl!" Matthew is clearly satisfied.

"My grandson is good. When are you going to get married?" Matthew looked at them.

"We have got married." Matthew showed the marriage certificate to Matthew.

Kathy looked down and flushed.

Matthew laughed happily, but suddenly realized something, "Well, aren't you playing trick on me?

Have you signed an agreement to deceive me as the TV showed?"

Kathy was embarrassed. Did Grandpa watch all idol dramas? How fashionable he was!

"Do you think I am idle to play this trick?" Joseph frowned indifferently, dragging Kathy into his arms to show their intimacy.

Matthew was still skeptical. And it was better to observe their development.

"Let's go to dinner. Kathy, can you tell the love story of you to me?"

Kathy nodded with a smile. Fortunately Joseph had already given her the script about their love in the car.

The dishes on the table are vegetarian dishes, and Kathy thought that wealthy people like Joseph would definitely eat all kinds of delicacies every day, but they didn't.

After Kathy was full, she still drunk two bowls of soup, and Kathy controlled her hiccup.

Thinking that she has to be graceful, Kathy straightened her back and said nothing.

• • •