Chapter 1121

“Willow, what do you think?”

Sean slowly turned his head and gave Willow a look.

Willow froze momentarily and was about to agree automatically.

After all, they were at an advantage by getting compensation ten times the worth!

However, seeing the look in Sean’s eyes, Willow thought he did not want her to say yes.

“Well...”

Willow pretended to hesitate for half a second.

“Is that all the store’s damage?”

Sean paused and hinted gently.

Willow instantly recomposed herself and shook her head.

“We only calculated the loss of the store furnishing and products.

“But we can’t ignore other losses.

“Let alone the customers Kyle had scared away today.

“Even the renovation period will affect our business. That’s a loss too.

“The number of products in our store are under strict quantity control with their respective brand, making the loss more difficult to measure.”

Not an idiot, Willow immediately came to herself and explained logically.

Sean was calm but smug.

Willow knew what was on his mind without speaking it out loud.

Jenson’s expression changed, and his forehead sweated when he heard this.

He comprehended what Willow meant when she said the compensation was too little!

"Huh?"

Flint froze instantly.

He had no idea what Sean was talking about.

Smashing his store was helping him?

Did Sean want to destroy the store anyway?

Flint did not understand but dared not ask Sean what he meant.

Sean did not give him much of an explanation.

"That's all for now.

"I'll contact you again if I need anything."

Sean slowly hung up after he finished.

How could Flint understand his plans and ideas?

Flint breathed a sigh of relief and wiped the sweat from his brow, slightly relieved.

"Mr. Lennon, look..."

"We had no idea this is your store..."

The young men looked at Sean with fear.

Neither of them dared to move until Sean told them to go.

"Can you smash it all you want if it's not mine?"

"Is the law nothing to you?"

Sean asked calmly, glancing at the leader.

The group of young men blushed instantly and were unable to utter a word when he said that.

It was everyone’s dream to get paid while staying home!

After giving the instructions, Sean left with Willow.

On the way back, Willow sat in the front passenger seat and peeked at Sean every now and then.

After one glance, she would hurriedly withdraw her eyes, snickering quietly.

“What are you laughing at?”

Sean glanced at Willow and thought Willow was not more adorable at the moment.

“I’m thinking... if all this is part of your plan?”

Willow could not help but feel like Sean had planned everything today.

However, she then realized Sean had no idea he would run into Kyle.

Sean shook his head slightly. He also found it funny when he thought of it.

He had no idea he was going to run into Kyle.

However, Sean confirmed Kyle’s identity after learning his name.

Therefore, Sean did plan what happened afterward.

“Is it true? I’m curious...”

“It’s like you can predict the future.”

Willow asked after turning to look at Sean.

“Ahem, not really.

Chapter 1124

After all, Star Group and the other companies were not small.

They were big corporations that were well known throughout River City, and they had deep ties to various departments of the government.

Just a few months ago, Star Group’s Jenson personally donated 30 vehicles to the government.

Therefore, it would be impossible to attack them directly.

Sean did not expect Jenson to come to him when he had no idea what to do.

Sean would be a fool if he did not take this chance.

Jenson had two options.

One, join Lennon Group like all the other companies and work for Sean.

Two, Sean would use his connections to sue Kyle for multiple offenses.

It was up to Jenson to decide what to do.

Sean also gave Willow a general overview of his plan.

Willow was dumbfounded.

To think that Sean was so delirious that he could not utter a complete sentence while in his wheelchair.

Who would have thought that Sean would have such a brilliant mind and IQ?

It was said they were backed by a big shot in the River City army and had a pretty strong background.

Many people in River City were also willing to give face to Jon.

Who knew Sean had brought down the Zimmer family?

"How? How did he bring them down?"

Kyle's eyes widened, finding it a little unrealistic.

"How did he bring them down?"

"Weren't you on good terms with Quill? But you'll never see him again."

Jenson went to the desk and sat down, looking at Kyle and saying indifferently.

“What do you mean?”

Kyle was dumbfounded for a moment.

“He’s dead!

“Not only is he dead, but also Jon!

Sean looked ahead again after hearing that.

Members of the Quinn family at the front had noticed Sean's car and were heading for it.

Instead of rushing out of the car, Sean turned to look at Willow.

Willow also turned around to meet Sean's eyes.

She quickly understood what Sean meant.

A few seconds later, Willow looked at Sean and spoke earnestly.

"Sean, it's up to you.

"You don't have to worry about what I think."

She knew that sometimes Sean considered her feelings when making decisions, especially when dealing with the Quinn family.

After all. Willow was a member of the Quinn family.

Therefore, Sean struggled with whether to destroy the Quinn family or not.

Willow realized that too.

Sean sat on the biggest sofa.

Members of the Quinn family said nothing about this.

There was a time when Sean was respectful to them, especially Old Madam Quinn.

Even when taking a seat, he would let Old Madam Quinn sit down first.

However, they had forfeited that treatment away themselves, and Sean would not indulge them.

"Sean, at least show some respect to Old Madam."

Fion, who thought she was Sean's mother-in-law, lectured Sean. 1

“Do something that makes me respect you then.”

Sean retorted with a smile.

Everyone blushed at that.

Having made a fool of herself, Fion sat aside.

Willow poured tea for everyone and sat next to Sean.

“Sean, I told you.

“The Quinn family is well known in River City.

“Our marriage of our family members is no trifling matter.

“So we need to talk about you and Willow.”

Old Madam Quinn said, looking at Sean with a slight frown.

"Forget about cooperation if you won't accept them."

Sean did not give in, leaving no room for negotiation.

Willow, who was beside him, hesitated.

She had never expected anything from the Quinn family.

She was uninterested in becoming the head of the Quinn family either.

All she wanted was the Quinn family's blessing and Old Madam Quinn's approval of her relationship with Sean.

Old Madam Quinn and the rest had expressed their support of her relationship with Sean.

Willow was satisfied that she did not want to ask for anything else.

However, she glanced at Sean and eventually chose to believe him without saying anything more.

"Sean, we'll be a family if you and Willow get married.

“Quinn Corporation is yours, so why take it so seriously?”

Old Madam Quinn said as she frowned even more.

“I always keep my word.

Sean slowly looked up at Old Madam Quinn.

Chapter 1129

The Quinn family fell silent when he said that.

They could not stop thinking about what Sean had just said.

'Reach For Will Group!

Why is it Reach For Will and not Reach For Wind or Reach For Sun?

'The key is the word "Will"!

'As for "Will"...

With this in mind, the Quinn family slowly turned to look at Willow.

'Does the word 'Will' in the name Reach For Will Group have something to do with Willow's name?

If Sean founded Reach For Will Group, the meaning of the name Reach For Will Group was obvious!

The Quinn family grew more confused at the thought of it.

Willow was the one more confused.

She had not taken it in at all yet.

Willow felt uncomfortable having the Quinn family focus on her.

“Do you get it now?”

Sean asked indifferently, leaning back on the couch.

“Is... Is this a joke...”

Simon clenched his teeth, still unable to accept it.

He could not figure out why Sean kept it a secret if Sean was that capable.

Knowing that members of the Quinn family looked down on him, he could have revealed his true colors sooner, and everything would be all right.

Moreover, you would need at least billions of dollars to create a large corporation like Reach For Will Group.

Chapter 1130

Sean was planning on leaving River City soon.

Therefore, he wanted to secure as many things as possible for Willow before leaving.

People like Flint and Homer would help her when he was not around, and Willow would not have many issues.

However, she was still a member of the Quinn family. She had to do whatever they said.

The only thing Sean could do was to give Willow absolute authority in the Quinn family.

It was the only way Sean could leave without worry.

Therefore, the 80% shares were indispensable.

"Those are the two conditions.

“What do you say?”

Sean asked indifferently, looking at Old Madam Quinn.

“80% is too much.”

Old Madam Quinn slowly shook her head again.

Sean frowned slightly. He did not have much time to waste with members of the Quinn family.

Therefore, Sean chose to compromise after much deliberation.

“60% like the others then.
