Chapter 1131

"I told you. Will he keep it secret if Reach For Will Group belongs to him?"

"Yeah, Sean. You like to be in the limelight so much. How could you keep such a big thing a secret?"

The Quinn family looked at Sean with amusement.

"Whether Reach For Will is mine, the Quinn family has no choice.

"At least my word is more influential than yours in River City's business circle these days."

Sean looked at Simon and said quietly.

"Hahaha! What a joke!

"Okay, wait and see if the Quinn family will be destroyed if we don't cooperate with you!

"Grandma, let's go!"

Simon reached for Old Madam Quinn's arm and was about to leave.

"You..."

Old Madam Quinn was still hesitant.

"Grandma, listen to Simon. We know what to do."

Faye also spoke up.

Old Madam Quinn had no choice but to trust Simon and Faye

After all, Simon was a Quinn family member and closer to her than Sean.

The Quinn family was soon on their feet, and today's negotiations had failed again.

"I've told you that you had your chance.

"Once you walk out the door, I want 90% when you negotiate with me next time."

Unfazed, Sean looked at the Quinn family's backs and said indifferently.

"Are you going to die if you stop bragging for just once?"

"90%? In your dreams!

Samuel was still hesitant.

However, he had no other choice since Old Madam Quinn had spoken.

"Simon, I still don't think we should be impulsive with this."

Samuel called to Simon before getting out of the car, frowning slightly.

"Uncle Sam, we have no time to hesitate.

"Do you want us to lose our fortune to Sean?"

Simon asked Samuel, frowning too.

He remembered Samuel as a decisive man.

Besides that, he always took the Quinn family's side whenever it came to Sean.

Why was he indecisive now?

"Sean is the chairman of Reach For Will Group!

"Even if we go to Star Group, do you think Star Group would even cooperate with us?

"Even if they're willing to work with us, how can we beat Reach For Will Group?"

Samuel touched his forehead, still hesitant.

Most of the Quinn family members did not believe that Reach For Will Group belonged to Sean.

However, Samuel had a feeling that Sean had founded it.

They did not even care about the Zimmer family back then.

The arrival of a top corporate dog like Jen-Bond Holdings made them interested in cooperation.

However, Jen-Bond Holdings cut their losses and retreated at Sean's aggressiveness.

People like Jenson would not give in to Sean that easily.

These successful people, each prouder than the last, fancied themselves as upper-class members.

How could they be willing to work for a young man like Sean?

Therefore, they never had any contact with Sean.

"That's what happened.

"What do you think we should do next?"

Jenson turned to the crowd once he finished speaking.

"President Willer, didn't your son bring trouble to himself?"

Everyone frowned at that.

They had thought about working with Lennon Group, but Sean had to approach them.

That way, they could make an offer to Sean.

They refused the offer of 60% shares to Lennon Group like other companies.

#President Willer, are we really going to give Lennon Group more than half our shares?

"I still find it hard to accept."

The middle-aged woman said with a frown.

Jenson had lost interest in explaining too much to the public.

"It's alright. I just wanted to tell you about it.

"You don't have to accept it if you can't.

"Anyway, Star Group is quitting. We can't afford it anymore.

"You can continue by yourself if you want."

Jenson said and slowly rose to his feet.

"President Willer. President Willer, wait. We're with you."

Two middle-aged men immediately got up and said to Jenson.

“And... And us...”

Several others raised their hands too.

They had no choice. Star Group was the wealthiest and most well-connected among them.

It was also because of Star Group that they dared to go against Sean.

However, there was no way that the rest of them could cause any waves if Jenson quit.

Sean would probably kill them in one strike.

They might as well join Lennon Group with Jenson now.

“I... I’m in too.”

The woman finally gritted her teeth and agreed.

Joining Lennon Group might cost them most of their shares, but they still owned their companies.

Sean would not intervene in any company’s business but only take the profits from his 60% shares.

They would earn a lot less.

However, at least they still owned their company and made money.

Harry was also at Reach For Will Group, working according to Sean's plan.

Since Blaze had tracked down Reach For Will Group, Sean had to take precautions.

Otherwise, Blaze would find Sean in no time if Sean did not cover his tracks.

Therefore, necessary preparations needed to be done.

"Commander, we've changed Lennon Group's legal representative to someone else."

Zander slowly got up and walked over to Sean to report.

"Okay."

Sean nodded, something running through his head quickly

He did not understand whether the army and the government still remembered or needed him.

Colton worked for the head of Souz River.

There was no way he would help Sean for no reason.

Sean assumed they knew who he was.

However, they would probably tell Blaze without hesitation if they knew.

After all, judging from the current situation, getting on Blaze's good side was the smartest move.

7 p.m.

Sean arrived at Riverleaf Lakeside Hotel early with Zander.

He was not here this early only for his dinner with Star Group.

It was just that he was meeting with Damian and Flint.

Once he was done, he could meet Jenson and save himself a trip.

Sean was about to leave River City.

Therefore, he needed to settle anything that needed to be resolved before leaving.

The government had the director of the CIA, Damian, around. Nothing could go wrong.

Flint could fix things that the government could not handle.

Therefore, after much consideration, Sean decided to let them meet.

Sometimes, the world was not only filled with law enforcers

Law enforcers and lawbreakers could coexist.

“Commander, Flint has arrived.

“Damian is on his way too. He has been delayed due to some things he needs to handle. He asked me to let you know.”

Zander helped Sean open the car door and reported quietly.

“Okay, let’s go first.

“I happen to have something I need to talk to Flint about alone.”

Sean nodded and was about to enter the hotel.

“Haha, go on. Go on with that arrogance.

“Let’s see who has the last laugh.”

Simon snorted coldly before helping Old Madam Quinn into the hotel.

“Hello, Sir. Our private rooms are fully booked.”

Simon had just reached the front when he was stopped by two hotel staff.

“What’s going on?”

Simon froze. Little did they know that Harry had already blacklisted the Quinn family from the hotel.

“We’re here with Star Group’s President Willer

“But they’re not determined by identity.

“Not all law enforcers are good, and not all lawbreakers are bad.

“So are they determined by identity or what you do?”

However, he could not refute it.

Because just like what Sean said, the government was not full of righteous people.

Not all members of Flint’s underground forces were villains.

Damian was well aware of this, of course.

“Mr. Lennon, I get what you mean.”

Damian was silent for a few seconds before nodding gently.

Chapter 1139

The whole Quinn family quickly got up as soon as they saw this.

They all wanted to see who the big shot was.

Knock knock!

It made members of the Quinn family think that the big shot had good manners.

However, Jenson and the rest dared not delay, so they opened the door.

The door opened, and Old Madam Quinn and the rest looked over.

However, they then looked disappointed.

It was not the big shot but two hotel waiters.

The people Jenson brought also sat down sulkily.

“President Willer, we have 15 minutes left according to your schedule.

“Do you think we should prepare dinner now?”

The waiters here were trained, so they were professional and polite.

After all, the hotel had to make some preparations, including heating some of the food before serving them.

They would not serve too early to ensure freshness.

Therefore, they inquired on purpose.

“Five more minutes.

They had to admit that Sean had integrated most of the resources in River City's business circle today. Including them, he would unify River City's business circle.

In this case, they would have more connections, resources, and sales.

Though they would have a lower status, they could accept it if they could earn more than before.

Therefore, they felt much better after Jenson finished speaking.

"President Willer, who is the big shot you spoke of?"

Unable to contain his curiosity, Samuel asked.

Jenson sounded like they could take over the whole River City by working with this big shot.

That meant they could overpower Reach For Will Group and Sean. 1

How terrifying could this big shot be?

The more the members of the Quinn family thought about it, the more expectant they were.

"Didn't I tell you? You know him too. It's..."

There was another knock on the door as Jenson spoke.

"Come in."

Thinking it was a waiter, Jenson yelled.

Thud!
