Chapter 1411

Everyone in the private room froze.

None of them expected Gunther to kneel before Sean.

After all, Gunther was known for his stubbornness.

If he panicked, he would lose his temper, even disregarding Jimmy.

How could someone like that kneel before Sean?

Forget about his character. Gunther was also a billionaire!

He had hundreds of millions of dollars, and a young man in his 20s like Sean overpowered him.

Was Gunther too weak, or was Sean too strong?

There was no doubt that no one would think Gunther was too weak

If Gunther was not weak, it meant Sean was too strong.

“Do you admit your mistake now?”

Sean held a glass of wine as he gently shook it.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Lennon. Forgive me for once”

Gunther nodded his head repeatedly, no longer as haughty as before.

“What did you do wrong?”

Sean indifferently asked again, taking a sip of wine.

“I shouldn’t have been disrespectful to you.

“Nor should I pretend to be someone I’m not. It’s my fault...”

“Please be the bigger person, Mr. Lennon!”

Gunther lowered his head again, very humble.

“Haha.”

However, Sean sneered at Gunther’s statement.

That sneer made Gunther’s back break out in a sweat

He could hear the indifference and meaningfulness in Sean’s laugh.

"Mr. Lennon, please consider us. We'll leave you alone.

"Feel free to contact us if you need anything."

Gunther and the rest got up slowly before leaving the private room.

"Commander, congratulations that your plan worked!"

Zander immediately walked over and locked the door before congratulating Sean.

"It's expected."

Sean waved his hand slightly, his attitude nonchalant.

It was just an essential part of his plan.

Besides that, what Billion Trees Real Estate did was against reason and nature, so eradicating them was also what everyone wanted.

Zane was a big shot in Joules Town's real estate industry.

Even he wanted to wipe out Billion Trees at any cost, so you could imagine how unlikable Jimmy was.

Therefore, Sean did not do much. Jimmy brought it onto himself.

Jimmy had planted countless bombs, but no one had dared to detonate them.

Sean had the nerve to detonate them without a second thought.

It would blow Jimmy and Billion Trees Real Estate to smithereens.

“Commander, I know Jimmy can’t beat you.

“But I didn’t expect you to do this...”

Zander said, pointing to Gunther and the rest’s seats earlier.

“Billion Trees will be brought down anyway.

“We need to maximize the benefits, of course.”

Sean smiled. He would not only break up Billion Trees but also bring more benefits to Lennon Real Estate with Billion Trees’ dissolution.

“Commander, you’re just as tactical as ever.

No one could predict the outcome.
However, the mindset of the big shots of Joules Town's business circle had changed.
They thought Sean was doomed.
However, Sean and Jimmy were now tied at 50-50.
Tonight was important.
They had to wait until tomorrow to get the results.

Therefore, those old foxes held back their opinions.

It was foolish to take sides at this time.

If they lost the best, it was over.

“That’s not what you said before!”

“Didn’t you tell me Willow has a cripple fiancé?”

“What’s the matter? Does Sean have some scary background?”

Jane frowned slightly at Demi’s words.

Demi told her that Willow had a cripple fiancé.

Although Sean recovered later, he still had no background or family.

It was why she was contemptuous when she saw Willow and Sean.

“Anyway... He’s not as simple as we think

Demi was silent for a few seconds before whispering in reply.

Jane’s head buzzed.

However, Demi did not understand what Jane meant.

“Jane, what do you mean?”

Demi asked in confusion after a pause.

“Is he really the chairman of Reach For Will Group?”

“No wonder he’s so tough. No wonder he can spend five billion dollars without hesitation. No wonder...

“He’s so tough. Billion Trees...”

Jane was now fully sober, and her heart rate increased.

“Five billion dollars? What the hell are you talking about?”

The more Demi listened, the more confused she became.

Jane was not in the mood to explain anything to Demi.

“Let’s talk later.”

Jane hung up. She quickly called Jimmy after freezing for a few seconds.

Jane did not take Sean seriously at first.

Therefore, no matter what Sean said, she only thought he was bragging.

However, she now knew what kind of person Sean was.

She had to quickly tell Jimmy not to belittle Sean.

“Hello, the number you dialed is unavailable. Please try again later.”

Jane called but got a prompt tone that the number was unavailable.

Jane felt even more uncertain when she heard the prompt tone.

She tried calling again, but it was still off.

Jane bit her lip, her heart beating faster and faster.

Jane was dumbfounded as she listened to the busy signal on her phone.

Thud!

Just then, the door was opened from the outside.

A middle-aged woman stepped in.

She was Jane’s mother and Jimmy’s wife, Queenie Luther.

Although she was over 40, she had maintained herself well. Her skin was also tender and smooth.

She looked like a woman in her 30s.

She was dressed in jewels and designer clothes.

“Mom, what are you doing?”

Jane immediately got up and asked Queenie.

“Hurry and pack up. We gotta go.”

Queenie said to Jane as she walked toward the bedroom.

Jane felt another thump in her heart when she heard Queenie’s words.

She could choose not to believe what the assistant said.

However, Queenie was her own mother. Would Queenie trick her?

“What happened, Mom?

“What’s going on with Dad?”

Jane gritted her teeth and shouted, looking at Queenie.

Henry had teamed up with two other big shots to target a company.

There was no way anyone could withstand that.

Even listed companies had no chance of survival!

Therefore, Jimmy resigned to his fate.

He did not even know why he was delaying.

Perhaps he was unwilling to be defeated by Sean in this way!

“It doesn’t matter much whether you talk.

“The evidence we have now is enough to sentence you for more than 15 years.

“Look at what’s on the wall. We’ll be lenient to those who confessed and harsh to those who resisted.

A middle-aged man said to Jimmy as he pointed to the wall.

Therefore, Sean thought of asking Jeffrey to look into Billion Trees Real Estate.

After all, it was what Jimmy did that caught Sean's attention.

Otherwise, Sean would not have thought of starting with it so quickly.

"Yes, he's looking for trouble.

"He sealed his fate when he offended you."

Zander quickly nodded.

"We only need to wait for Billion Trees' collapse.

"And the rest of our plan will be in full swing."

Sean closed the file and said as he checked the time.

Zane had made a deal with Sean.

If Sean could bring down Billion Trees Real Estate and replace it, Zane would agree to Sean's request and support Lennon Real Estate.

Chapter 1419

Sean was shocked

He thought Jane would bring a group of people to Lennon Real Estate to make a scene.

After all, Jane was an heiress.

With a billionaire father, Jane was so privileged that there were many things she did not have to do herself.

She never left the house without at least two professional bodyguards.

Unexpectedly, she came over alone today.

Jane was still wearing those revealing clothes.

Her face was a little red from drinking too much wine.

She was already pretty, but the way she looked was arousing.

Jane came in and saw Sean sitting behind his desk.

“What do you want?”

Zander asked, looking at Jane and frowning.

“Who do you think you are?”

“I’m looking for your boss. You have no right to talk.”

Jane snorted, a proud look on her face.

It was as if she was an elegant white swan.

After all, having been an heiress for so many years, her pride was nurtured over the years.

Jane was indeed pretty and rich.
