

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

- Chapter 1013 – 1044

Victoria's Sadness!

Chapter 1013: Victoria's Sadness!

Jordan could clearly feel that whenever Rong Huangde's interest was piqued, his old and dull eyes would instantly light up.

Jordan explained, "Mr. Rong, you might not know this. 1 April last year was indeed the day of my wedding with Lauren. And Victoria attended our wedding."

Shaun was also surprised. "Ah? Victoria attended too? Did she go to disrupt the wedding? I didn't hear about that. What I know is that during that period of time, Victoria was abducted by your second brother, Jamie. And that you married Lauren to find Victoria's whereabouts."

Shaun knew a lot about Jordan's past.

Jordan suddenly felt a little insecure. Both Rong Huangde and Shaun seem to know everything about him. They were so clear about his relationships with those women.

However, he knew very little about Shaun's history.

As for Rong Huangde's complicated 90-year history, he knew nothing at all.

Only by knowing oneself and one's enemy could one win every battle. The opponent knew him very well, but he knew too little about them.

If anything happened in the future, Jordan would be at a disadvantage.

As this was Jordan's private matter, he didn't want to say it at first. However, seeing that the two of them were so eager to know, he told them.

Jordan said, "Victoria didn't go to disrupt the wedding. She just came and got a delivery person to give us our wedding gift. Then, she looked at me from afar and left. If I want to implant thoughts in Victoria, I have to choose the period when she was separated from me. But during that time, she was with Jamie most of the time, so it's not easy for me to do it. On my wedding day, she secretly came to the capital. That will be the best time for me to make a move."

Victoria went to the venue of Jordan and Lauren's wedding on the day of the occasion. Jordan only found out later.

Jordan only knew that when he was "blind", Victoria had disguised herself as a waiter to see him at the Howard family's banquet.

Later on, he realized that she had also attended his wedding with Lauren. It was just that he didn't realize it.

The two of them nodded. Jordan had indeed chosen a good opportunity.

Shaun smiled. "Do you still want to use that false identity? William, right?"

Shaun knew that previously, Jordan had gotten close to Victoria using the false identity of William.

Jordan nodded. He did plan to use his fake identity as William's identity to implant thoughts into Victoria.

Although Jordan had approached Victoria previously and made her misunderstand that he was her father, in the end, Victoria and William could be considered friends.

Jordan could feel that Victoria had a good impression of William.

Victoria had once given "William" a phone. Sometimes, she would send messages to "William" and tell him what was on her mind. She also often asked him where he was and why she couldn't find him.

William was Jordan. Jordan had traveled back to the present, so of course she couldn't find him.

Rong Huangde had already set the date and location.

Shaun asked, "Jordan, do you need me to go with you?"

Jordan shook his head. "No need. There won't be any danger this time. I can go myself."

Rong Huangde said, "Alright, we'll wait for you here."

Jordan promised Rong Huangde. "I'll finish this as soon as possible and come back to help you. I won't make you wait too long this time. Goodbye, everyone!"

With that, Jordan picked up his backpack and entered the Time Gate.

In the next second, Jordan arrived at the capital city on 1 April a year ago.

Jordan instinctively looked at his hand. This time, no one was holding his hand! In the previous two time travels, Shaun kept clutching his hand.

“Damn it, now that no one is holding my hand, I’m a little not used to it…”

Jordan did not delay any further. Enduring the discomfort of having just time-traveled, he hijacked a car and drove to the Hilton Hotel in the capital. This was the hotel where Jordan and Lauren held their wedding.

The car he had taken was a Honda. The radio in the car happened to be playing the song “Need You Now”.

This was Jordan and Lauren’s song.

And now, he was about to witness their wedding again.

“After Lauren got pregnant, she seemed to be especially tired. When I married her, I really didn’t expect to have another child with her.”

Over the past two weeks, Jordan would often chat with Lauren on the phone or exchange messages. However, Lauren replied very slowly. Sometimes, she wouldn’t even answer her phone.

She explained that she was always sleeping. In reality, she was training her cat control skills which Shaun taught her.

Lauren was worried that Jordan wouldn’t let her learn the skill, so she didn’t tell him.

Jordan soon arrived at the hotel. He parked the car and found a place to secretly observe the wedding.

The guests arrived one by one.

“Russell Miller…”

Seeing Russell again, Jordan was no longer in the mood to bother about him.

Previously, Jordan had always hated this old man and even wanted to kill him. This was because he was the only man who had gotten Victoria before Jordan. Moreover, when this old thing was with Victoria, he was married to another woman and with children. He couldn’t promise Victoria anything.

However, after experiencing so much, Jordan no longer hated Russell that much.

Victoria was so beautiful that any man would have designs on her.

At that time, the Clarke family was in trouble and Victoria's father was abducted. If not for Russell's help, Victoria would not have become a CEO and Jordan would not have had the chance to meet her.

"Hailey..."

Not long after, Hailey arrived at the wedding venue in a splendid gown.

"This woman is really persistent. Why is she everywhere?!"

Jordan recalled that Hailey had come to their wedding to cause a scene, only to be taught a lesson by Jesse.

After that, the wedding ceremony began.

Jordan paid close attention to the crowd outside the hotel.

Suddenly, he saw a tall woman in sportswear wearing an MLB baseball cap and a white top.

"Victoria!"

Jordan recognized her at a glance. He was too familiar with Victoria. No matter how she tried to hide, Jordan would recognize her at a glance!

At this moment, Victoria was standing with a delivery man.

Victoria handed an exquisite gift box to the delivery man and said, "Help me bring this in."

She then gave the delivery man a $100 tip.

This gift box contained the Apollo Blue and Artemis Pink that Jordan had given Victoria previously.

The most expensive diamond earrings in the world.

"Sigh, Victoria, you're really the best woman in the world. You know that I am marrying another woman, but you still gave us such an important gift."

Jordan sighed again.

After giving the gift, Victoria glanced at Jordan and Lauren from afar before turning to leave.

Tears welled up in her eyes. She felt terrible seeing the man she loved marry another woman!

However, there was nothing she could do.

Honk honk.

After Victoria walked out, Jordan drove over and honked at her.

“William?”

Victoria was very surprised to see “William”.

Chapter 1014: Witness Your Love!

The last time he traveled back in time, Jordan had disguised himself as the handsome Irishman “William” who had a crush on Victoria. He got close to her and gained her trust.

This time, Jordan met Victoria once again as “William”.

To Jordan, it had not been that long ago, but to Victoria, it had been a year.

She had not seen “William” for a long time. She had not even managed to reach him by phone.

Jordan looked at Victoria. “Victoria, let’s talk in the car.”

Victoria had a good impression of William and trusted him. She even mistook him for her father and slept beside him for the entire night.

Often, when such an intimate incident happened between a man and woman, the woman would trust the man even if he wasn’t her boyfriend.

Hence, Victoria willingly sat in the front passenger seat of Jordan’s car.

Jordan did not want to remain near the wedding venue. After all, his other self was inside. He quickly drove away.

As he drove, Jordan asked Victoria with concern, “Are you alright? You look like you’ve been crying.”

Of course, Victoria was very sad. The man she loved was getting married to another woman. How could she not cry?

Victoria's eyes were a little moist. Like a little girl, she said sadly, "William, Jordan is getting married and I'm not the bride..."

Victoria started sobbing.

Jordan's heart ached. Jordan had also been very upset when he received that wedding gift from Victoria. He had even cried in front of hundreds of guests.

However, Jordan could only comfort her as an outsider. "Victoria, don't be too sad. Let's find a place to sit and talk."

Victoria held back her tears and nodded. She needed someone to talk to at this moment and William was the most suitable candidate.

Victoria had met William and Jordan for the first time on the very same day. Moreover, at that time, William had already predicted that Jordan and Victoria would be together. He even encouraged Victoria to chase after Jordan and implanted the idea that she would only be with him forever.

It could be said that William played a huge role in Victoria's love for Jordan.

At this moment, the radio in the car happened to be playing a song called "Guest" that had become even more popular because of TikTok. This song happened to be about a person's ex-lover getting married, while he attended the wedding as a guest.

[Thank you for your special invitation to witness your love.]

[I keep reminding myself not to run away.]

[You looked exceptionally beautiful today. This beauty was in my arms before.]

[Unfortunately, this is your wedding with him, and I'm just a guest.]

Victoria had wanted to hold back her sadness, but when she heard this song, especially the lyrics that completely suited her state of mind, she burst out crying.

"Sobs..."

The feelings overwhelmed her and she cried like a little girl.

Seeing this, Jordan cursed at the radio station. Of all the songs to play, why did it have to be this one?

Jordan hurriedly changed the channel.

[He will be your groom. From now on, he will be your companion for life.]

“Damn it, it’s ‘For You!’”

The song playing on the other radio channel was also about attending an ex’s wedding.

Jordan hurriedly switched channels again.

The radio host: “Hello, everyone. Next is the theme song of the television drama “The Miracle Doctor’s Happiness”. I believe those who have watched this television drama will definitely remember this song.”

The Miracle Doctor’s Happiness?

Jordan remembered that this television drama seemed to center around the medical industry. There was no problem with this song. It had nothing to do with love or marriage.

Jordan glanced at Victoria, who was in the front passenger seat, and her mood improved a little.

The host continued, “I’m very impressed by this song because of a scene in the movie. The lead actress got married but the groom was not her most beloved man. The saddest part was that her most beloved attended her wedding and got drunk. Wow, that feeling of unattainable love, and seeing his loved one wearing a wedding dress and being happy with someone else, while he suffers from intense pain. It feels like my heart is missing a piece...”

“Sobs...”

Victoria started crying again.

Jordan was exasperated. There was no way he could listen to this lousy radio anymore. Were they all in cahoots? Why were they all playing this type of song?!

Jordan wanted to mute the radio, but he was not familiar with the buttons of this car. He ended up increasing the volume instead.

In the end, he just couldn’t turn it off.

Seeing that Victoria was crying harder and harder, Jordan stopped the car and pulled her out. “Victoria, let’s change cars. I’ll steal another one.”

Victoria’s tears instantly stopped. “Steal another one?”

Victoria saw with her own eyes as Jordan “borrowed” another car. This time, it was a Mercedes-Benz S65 AMG which Jordan was familiar with. He could finally control the volume and not cause any trouble.

Jordan had already saved the capital twice. The first time was when he prevented the Geng family’s paper bombs from detonating in the capital. The second time was when Rong Bingshao released the poisonous gas and Jordan neutralized the effects with his weather weapon.

Going by the fact that he had saved the citizens of the capital so many times, Jordan felt quite entitled to the rows of cars parked along the streets. He had the right to use any of them.

Jordan brought Victoria to a five-star hotel in the suburbs of the capital.

“Sir, do you want to book a room?” The receptionist asked.

“Two rooms.”

Soon after, Jordan took the room cards and brought Victoria to her room. After entering the room, Victoria sat on the sofa in a daze.

Jordan poured a cup of water for her. She accepted it but then just held it in her hand in a daze.

As Jordan couldn’t pretend to know everything, he feigned ignorance and asked, “Victoria, weren’t you and Jordan together? Why did you break up?”

Victoria paused for a moment before replying, “Yes, we finally got together after many twists and turns. However, some time ago, Jordan’s second brother, Jamie, suddenly came to find me. He told me that Jordan will be hunted down by their eldest brother, and that their eldest brother is not a good person. He will definitely plot against Jordan for the sake of obtaining the position of the Steele family’s successor.

“By then, there will only be one person in the US who can save him, and that is Lauren’s grandfather. Jamie told me that if I didn’t leave Jordan, he would be killed by their eldest brother in the future. Therefore, I could only leave without even saying goodbye...”

Chapter 1015: End It With Jordan!

“Sigh.”

A sigh left Jordan's lips. "Victoria, you really love Jordan deeply. The love between the two of you is very noble. In order not to let him be hurt, you're willing to step aside and support Jordan and Lauren. When Jordan finds out, he will definitely be very touched and will love you even more."

Victoria asked him, "William, didn't you say that Jordan and I would definitely be together? But what about now? The woman with him isn't me! It's Lauren! William, you were wrong. It's impossible between Jordan and me..."

Seeing that Victoria seemed to have lost confidence in the future of their relationship, Jordan quickly comforted her.

"Victoria, don't be disheartened. I've said before that there will be many twists and turns in your relationship. This is just one of them. You will definitely be happy together in the end. Believe me."

Victoria sneered. "Be happy together? Tell me, how can Jordan and I be happy together? Jordan is already married to Lauren. She is prettier than me, younger and has a better family background. More importantly, she already has a daughter with Jordan! Lauren is so eligible, and Jordan is the only man she has ever had in her life. How can I compare to her..."

At this point, Victoria recalled her past with Russell.

The three years she spent as Russell's kept woman had always made Victoria feel guilty towards Jordan. This made her unable to straighten her back and compare herself to Lauren.

In fact, she felt that even Hailey was better than her in this aspect...

"Victoria, don't be like this."

Jordan patted Victoria's shoulder.

Victoria said sadly, "William, don't you know how to read fortunes? Help me divine if Jordan will divorce Lauren in the future?"

Jordan was stunned. He had been prepared to soothe her doubts and comfort her, but had no idea how to answer this question...

Ever since Jordan and Lauren had gotten married, they had never considered divorce. The two of them had always been very loving. Moreover, Jordan had already let Lauren and her daughter down for three years. He couldn't stand the thought of hurting her again.

Seeing that Jordan was silent, Victoria sneered. "Hmph, it's as I guessed. Even you don't think Jordan would divorce Lauren, right?"

"That's right. Why would he get a divorce? Lauren's qualities are so good, a hundred times better than mine. He owes her three years as well. How can he bear to abandon her again? I know Jordan too well. He and Lauren will definitely be in love for a hundred years. There's already no hope between Jordan and me."

Jordan didn't want to lie to her and claim that Jordan and Lauren would definitely get a divorce. But he also didn't want to tell her that she could be Jordan's second wife. This was a little disrespectful to an independent woman like Victoria.

Instead, he crouched in front of Victoria and comforted her. "Victoria, don't be so pessimistic. No one can predict the future. Lauren is indeed a good woman, but Jordan didn't marry her because he has feelings for her. He married her because he wanted to track down your whereabouts. He did it for you!"

No one understood that marriage better than Jordan himself.

Although Jordan owed Lauren those three years, Victoria's whereabouts were unknown at that time. Jordan thought that it was the Howard family who had her stashed away.

In order to find Victoria's whereabouts, Jordan married Lauren. Of course, after they got married, as their relationship slowly developed, Jordan gradually fell in love with Lauren.

Victoria suddenly shouted, "So what if it's for me?! I'm in the capital, but I can't tell him! Why is love so hard?! Please go outside. I want to be alone..."

Jordan slowly got up. "Alright, you should rest first. I'll be in the room next door. Call me if you need anything."

Jordan saw tears welling up in Victoria's eyes. Perhaps she needed to cry to vent the sadness in her heart.

Jordan could understand Victoria's current feelings all too well. When Victoria and Russell were getting married, Jordan had felt the same way!

A few hours passed quickly. At 11 PM, Victoria knocked on Jordan's door.

Knock knock!

Jordan opened the door and saw a haggard-looking Victoria.

Victoria said sadly, "William, can you have a drink with me? I want to drink."

Jordan immediately nodded. "Alright, come in and drink in my room."

Jordan had booked the most luxurious suite. There was wine and food in the room. From Victoria's face, it was obvious that she had been crying for a long time. Jordan's heart ached for her.

Therefore, Jordan took out a box of medicine from his time-travel backpack and said to Victoria, "I have an eye cream here. After applying it, it will greatly improve the skin around the eyes. You must have cried very hard just now. You look exhausted, and my heart aches when I see you like this. Why don't I apply some for you?"

This eye cream was not sold on the open market. Only noble ladies from secret families were qualified to use it.

Of course, Jordan only gave the best things to his women.

"Okay."

Victoria didn't refuse.

Jordan personally applied eye cream on Victoria.

As Jordan did this, Victoria's heart became especially calm.

She stared at "William" in a daze. She was surprised that this man could make her temporarily forget the pain of knowing that Jordan was married.

Over the years, not many men could make Victoria feel this way.

After applying the eye cream, Victoria once again became perfect and lovely. Coupled with the sportswear she was wearing, she looked youthful and beautiful.

Victoria drank a glass of red wine and said, "William, do you know why I came to the capital to see Jordan's wedding?"

Jordan said, "You wanted to see him from afar? To see what he is like during his own wedding?"

Victoria shook her head. "I came to give him a gift. I gave him back the pair of colored diamonds he gave me because I wanted to forget about him and end things with him completely."

"End it completely?" Jordan was shocked.

Only then did he know what Victoria meant by giving him that wedding gift.

Victoria said, "It's impossible between Jordan and I. Although we still love each other, he has a new woman now. It's time for me to let go."

“Victoria...”

Jordan didn't know what to say.

Victoria smiled and looked at the time. “William, what do you think Jordan and Lauren are doing now?”

Of course Jordan knew what they were doing! It was Jordan and Lauren's wedding night!

Jordan still couldn't forget what happened that night...

Thank you for reading on

Jordan could understand how Victoria felt at this moment!

A beloved partner sleeping with another person. That feeling was too unbearable.

Jordan comforted her. “Victoria, at this moment, the woman Jordan loves the most must be you. Even if he does sleep with Lauren, I believe he did not take the initiative. You gave him a wedding gift, which was something he gave you previously, and even wrote a note wishing them happiness. I don't doubt your note is still lingering in his mind!”

Jordan never lied, much less to Victoria. He was speaking the truth.

In reality, Jordan's mind was filled with Victoria on their wedding night. He was thinking about Victoria's gift and her note. He really didn't think about doing anything with Lauren.

Jordan still remembered that on the night of the wedding, he didn't go to bed. Instead, he sat at the side and waited until midnight before climbing into bed. At that time, he thought that Lauren was already asleep.

Unexpectedly, she was not.

Victoria said, “You're saying that Jordan won't have sex with Lauren tonight because of me?”

Jordan fell silent again.

Initially, Jordan did not plan to sleep with Lauren on their wedding night. However, after Jordan climbed into bed at midnight, Lauren suddenly held his hand and said something to him. Jordan felt like he owed her.

To make it up to her, Jordan slept with her.

Seeing that Jordan did not answer, Victoria said, "If you don't answer, it means that you think that Jordan and Lauren will definitely sleep together tonight, right?"

Jordan sighed and replied, "Yes."

Victoria immediately felt sad again, as if her tears were about to flow again.

Victoria downed a few glasses of wine. Jordan went forward to stop her. "Victoria, stop drinking. I admit that Jordan has indeed let you down in this aspect."

Victoria shook her head. "There's no right or wrong. We've already broken up. What he does with other women has nothing to do with me. Similarly, what I do with other men has nothing to do with him. William, can you accompany me tonight?"

Victoria suddenly looked at Jordan meaningfully.

Jordan hesitated for a moment before saying, "Of course. I'll drink with you for the entire night, but don't drink so much. We can drink slowly."

Victoria shook her head. "Not drinking. I want you to be my man!"

Boom!

Jordan's head buzzed. He never expected the woman he loved so much to say such things to another man.

Victoria's words were already very obvious, but Jordan still couldn't believe it.

"Victoria, what do you mean by that? What do you mean by asking me to be your man?"

Victoria held Jordan's hand. Without another word, she kissed him, drunk and forlorn.

Jordan was shocked and hurriedly pushed her away. "Victoria, what are you doing?! I'm William, not Jordan! How can you do such a thing to me?!"

Victoria said, "I want to forget Jordan. Haven't you always had a crush on me? Why did you reject me? Am I not beautiful enough? Is my figure not good enough?"

Jordan's heart was filled with melancholy. "Victoria, I like you, but you and Jordan are a couple. How can I take advantage of you? I know you're very upset about Jordan and Lauren's wedding today, but you two will definitely be together again in the future. Believe me! You two love each other so much that nothing can stop you two from being together!"

But Victoria said, "Who cares if we might be together in the future! I only know that he's sleeping with another woman now, but I can only cry all night! I've never been a woman who only knows how to hide in the corner and suffer silently! William, I'll ask you again. Do you want to sleep with me?!"

Jordan's head was about to explode. He really didn't know how to face this situation. He didn't expect such a thing to happen!

Before this, he would never have believed that Victoria would say such a thing.

It seemed that she wanted to take revenge on Jordan.

'Since you're enjoying your wedding night with another woman, then I'll do something with another man.'

However, Jordan did not take the initiative to do it with Lauren, nor did he do it willingly. Things progressed to this stage only because Jordan was worried about Victoria and wanted to find her!

Jordan told Victoria firmly, "I can't do such a thing with you because only Jordan can be your man. No one else is worthy of you!"

Smack!

Victoria slapped Jordan.

"Trash! To think that I've always admired you, but you don't even dare to have the woman you like."

Victoria slapped Jordan and scolded him.

Jordan felt very upset. In the past, only bad women like Hailey would say such hurtful words. But now, these words were coming from Victoria's lips.

Victoria said, "William, I'll ask you again. Will you help me forget Jordan tonight? If you reject me again, I'll find another man. I believe that with my beauty and figure, I will easily find a target just by walking down a bar street."

Seeing that Jordan was still silent, Victoria turned around and left. "Alright, I'll go find someone else at the bar!"

"You're not allowed to go!"

Jordan stopped Victoria.

Victoria shook him off. "Let go of me! I have to completely forget about Jordan tonight. If you don't help me, there are plenty of men who are willing!"

Smack!

Jordan, who had been suppressing his anger for a long time, couldn't help slapping Victoria. He suddenly remembered the dream he had a few days ago.

In that dream, Jordan had slapped Victoria.

Jordan had previously found the dream very strange. How could he have hit Victoria?

Now, Jordan finally knew why.

It turned out that Victoria wanted to have an affair! She wanted to betray her love for Jordan!

No wonder the artificial intelligence, Lauren, gave Victoria a 17% chance of cheating. It was 16% higher than Lauren!

This was not a miscalculation by Little Steele. This reflected Victoria's personality! She was more independent and self-centered. When they were together, she would never betray him.

However, once she encountered hurt, once she encountered an uncertain future, something like today's situation, she would want to give up.

She wouldn't wait foolishly like Lauren did. She couldn't wait for three or five years.

Jordan slapped Victoria, but he was the one who cried.

His heart was trembling as he roared.

"Victoria, do you know that I gave up the entire world to save you and avenge you?! I don't care if I have to make the world my enemy or travel through time and space to be with you. I'm not willing to give up on you!"

"But you betrayed me like this!"

Chapter 1017: I'll Fulfill Your Wish!

Love always disappointed!

Hailey was like this, and so was Victoria!

Ever since Jordan got together with Victoria, he had never thought of giving up on her! Even though he married Lauren, it was only to find out Victoria's whereabouts.

Although he had married Lauren, Jordan never forgot about Victoria. He had always been worried about her.

After Victoria attempted suicide, Jordan stayed by her bed for more than a month. He talked to her every day and prayed that she would wake up.

In order to save Victoria, Jordan even traveled back in time!

To avenge Victoria, Jordan didn't hesitate to kill the future successor of the Rong Huangde family and provoke Rong Huangde. He didn't hesitate to go against the most powerful force in the world!

However, Victoria gave up on their relationship so easily!

This was devastating to Jordan!

Jordan looked at Victoria, who was determined to forget the past. He slowly unbuttoned his shirt, took it off, and threw it on the ground.

Then he slowly walked towards Victoria.

Victoria was a little afraid of Jordan after being slapped. She asked, "William, what... what are you doing?"

Jordan endured his heartache and said, "Victoria, since you insist on forgetting Jordan today, so be it. I'll fulfill your wish!"

...

After a crazy night, it was nine in the morning.

Jordan woke up. He opened the curtains and sat in front of the window, smoking a cigarette.

Victoria was already awake and had washed up.

After washing her face in the washroom, Victoria's mental state was much better than yesterday. She regained her calm and capable aura as a female CEO.

At this moment, the atmosphere in the room was a little awkward.

The two of them were originally good friends, but Victoria forced their relationship to the next level.

Victoria was also very picky. She had extremely high expectations for her other half, even if it was just for fun.

William was the only man she had met. He was second only to Jordan. His body had also been modified by the Mirakuru serum. Compared to the Jordan of last year, he was taller and stronger and made women feel more secure.

Victoria sat in a corner of the bed and flipped her hair.

"William, can we still be friends?"

Jordan exhaled a mouthful of smoke, not knowing how to respond.

Victoria continued, "I've thought about it. You're right. My love for Jordan shouldn't be so fragile. I shouldn't give up so easily. His mind must be filled with thoughts of looking for me and worrying about me. But I betrayed him because I was jealous that Lauren was younger and prettier than me..."

"In comparison, he must be feeling worse than me. At the very least, I can hide in the dark and look at him from afar to see if he's doing well. But he doesn't even know where I am.

"William, I've decided. I'll listen to your suggestion and do that implant. I don't think my love for Jordan is firm enough. Perhaps in the past 10 years, I've never met a man as worthy as Jordan. I want to undergo the procedure now. I want my love for Jordan to be even more secure!"

When Jordan heard this, he stubbed out his half-smoked cigarette.

Finally, Victoria was willing to accept the implant. Once the implant was successful, Victoria would be saved and she would wake up.

Although he had a ridiculous night with Victoria, she was still the woman he loved. He didn't want her to die. He wanted her to come back to life.

Jordan said, "Alright, I'll bring you to see Dr. Gale."

"Yes, yes. I'll change my clothes."

Victoria composed herself again.

She changed and left the hotel with Jordan. They arrived at the car that Jordan had stolen yesterday.

After getting into the car, Victoria found it a little strange. "William, you stole this car yesterday. Has the owner not come looking for it yet? I remember a previous robbery when the police solved the case very quickly."

Jordan said to Victoria as he drove, "You can take a look in your glove box. There should be something like a car license."

Victoria opened it curiously and took a look at the license. She was shocked!

"William! This is your car?"

Victoria saw that it was William's name on the license.

Of course, this was not really Jordan's car. William's name was on the license because he had sent Lionel a message yesterday asking him to settle this matter.

In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, Lionel couldn't possibly tell those lower-level staff the truth. Therefore, he followed Jordan's instructions and got him an identification card for William, which he secretly placed in the car.

Jordan shook his head. "No, I did steal this car, but someone helped me settle the matter."

When Victoria heard this, she looked at him in admiration. "William, you're unfathomable. You're amazing... if you had pursued me seriously before I got together with Jordan, I think I might have chosen you..."

Victoria had already become "William's" woman last night. Also, he had time and again displayed capabilities that astonished her. His capabilities well surpassed Jordan from one year ago.

Women would always admire the more capable man.

Therefore, Victoria's face once again revealed her fondness for "William".

Jordan replied, "Don't say such things. You're going to have the idea implanted soon. In the future, Jordan will be your only lover."

Victoria smiled guiltily. "Yes, I'm sorry. I shouldn't always make you feel awkward. However, I still have to thank you last night..."

“Mmm...”

Jordan answered perfunctorily. He still blamed Victoria in his heart.

Victoria might have enjoyed herself last night, but Jordan was suffering! The more Victoria enjoyed herself, the more uncomfortable Jordan felt!

What right did she have to enjoy herself so much with another man?!

Jordan drove in a daze. He was starting to worry if he and Victoria could still be together in the future.

Jordan had experienced this incident personally. Would he still love Victoria as much as before?

Jordan really couldn't claim to be a saint!

But at this moment, Jordan forced himself not to think about this. He had to implant the idea into Victoria and wake her up!

Soon, Jordan and Victoria arrived at Dr. Gale's private hospital. The two of them sat outside for a while before being led into Dr. Gale's office.

Dr. Gale looked the same, every part the refined and knowledgeable doctor.

“Excuse me, how can I help you?”

Jordan said directly, “I want to implant an idea!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1018: Victoria Is Awake!

Dr. Gale was a little curious. “Who told you that I can implant ideas?”

Jordan said, “Dr. Gale, I know you've done it for others before. You are the only one who can do this in the US. The lady beside me does not have enough conviction in her feelings for her husband. She's afraid that she will give up and break up with him, so she wants to ask you for help.”

Dr. Gale sized up Jordan curiously. His treatment of Lauren was private and confidential. Not many people in the capital knew about this. It seemed like this person in front of him had a formidable background.

There were all sorts of powerful hidden characters in the capital. Dr. Gale didn't dare to be careless, much less ask about the other party's background.

Since they were here, Dr. Gale would do his best.

Dr. Gale smiled. "My fees are very expensive."

Jordan said, "Give me your bank account number."

Seeing how confident the other party was, Dr. Gale also wanted to know how powerful he was.

'This fellow is quite good at posturing. Alright, I'll give him a foreign account and see what he can do.'

Dr. Gale especially gave him a foreign account.

"Sir, this is my Swiss bank account. Are you transferring money to me? I have to make it clear in advance that my fee will be at least six figures."

"Six figures? USD right? So expensive?"

Victoria was shocked.

A six-figure sum meant at least a hundred thousand dollars!

Victoria had never spent so much money on a doctor before. Moreover, she was not even ill. It was just to implant an idea.

Money was just a number to Jordan. He had too much money to spend.

Dr. Gale had done Jordan a huge favor before. He had implanted an idea into Lauren that made her feel that Jordan was the most perfect man in the world and that she would always love him deeply.

Therefore, Jordan wanted to give him some money in return.

Jordan took a photo of Dr. Gale's bank account number and sent it to Dragon to transfer the money. Before long, Dr. Gale logged into his Swiss bank account and found a huge sum of money!

"Five million dollars! Oh my god! Sir, did you send that to me?"

Dr. Gale was stunned!

Five million dollars!

This was equivalent to several years of his income!

Jordan said indifferently, "Who else would transfer you this money?"

Victoria was also shocked. "William, are you... so rich?"

To be able to casually hand out five million, Victoria couldn't figure out "William" at all.

To Victoria, "William" had once again surpassed Jordan.

Dr. Gale hurriedly got up and poured a cup of tea for Jordan.

"Sir, you must be the richest man in the world! It's my honor to be recognized by a big shot like you! I will do my best to help you!"

Jordan nodded. "Dr. Gale, I believe you can do it well. However, I hope you can keep this a secret and not tell anyone."

"Yes, yes, of course. I won't even tell my mother," Dr. Gale promised.

Thereafter, Dr. Gale got a rough understanding of Victoria's situation.

"Jordan Steele?"

Dr. Gale was shocked to find out that the idea to be implanted into Victoria was about Jordan. The idea he implanted into Lauren was also about Jordan. The doctor couldn't deny that he was very curious. Was it the same person?

"What does Mr. Jordan Steele look like? Can I take a look?"

"Oh, sure."

Victoria had a photo of her and Jordan on her phone.

However, Jordan said, "There's no need for you to see. You don't need to know who Jordan is. Just do your part."

Dr. Gale had already accepted so much money from him, so of course he would comply with whatever he said.

Soon after, Dr. Gale hypnotized Victoria and implanted the idea. Jordan left thereafter. He passed through the Time Gate and returned to 2022.

Chongming Island, China.

When Jordan emerged from the Time Gate, Shaun and Rong Huangde were playing chess together.

“Jordan, you’re back! How was it? Did you succeed?!”

Shaun immediately stood up and asked anxiously. He was concerned, not at all being hypocritical. This was because Jordan’s success would directly affect his plans.

After all, Jordan was the key to exploring the secrets of Cocodrie. If he couldn’t solve his own problem, they could forget about Cocodrie.

Jordan’s face was stiff and he looked disappointed.

Rong Huangde and Shaun were very surprised to see Jordan’s gloomy expression.

Did he fail?

Again?

‘That can’t be.’

Rong Huangde was feeling very confused, his chess piece still in hand.

This time, there would not be any interference by Rong Bingshao. Jordan was only bringing Victoria to implant an idea. How could he fail?

After all, Jordan was a Deity. It was impossible for him to not be able to accomplish such a small task!

“Jordan... are... you alright? Don’t be discouraged. If you fail, you can try again. Anyway, you have plenty of time.”

Shaun was very worried when he saw Jordan’s dejected expression.

Jordan said slowly, “It’s fine. I succeeded. I successfully implanted the idea into Victoria.”

Hearing this, Shaun and Rong Huangde felt even more confused.

Why was he still so unhappy after succeeding?

But of course Jordan was unhappy. He had personally seen Victoria betray him and their love. How could Jordan be happy?!

However, it was impossible for Jordan to tell outsiders about such private matters.

Jordan walked toward Rong Huangde and said, "Mr. Rong, I think Victoria will wake up soon. I want to go back to the US to visit her. After confirming that she's completely fine, I'll come back to find you. We'll go to Cocodrie together and help you find out everything you want to know."

At this moment, Rong Huangde no longer had any hatred for Jordan. At the very least, there was no sign of hate in his eyes.

Rong Huangde slowly got up and said blankly, "Oh, okay..."

With that, Jordan left the room.

Rong Huangde and Shaun looked at each other, not understanding what was going on. The older man felt that this matter was not that simple. He instructed Shaun, "Shaun, return to the US with Jordan and find out what happened and why he is acting so strange."

Shaun immediately complied. "Yes!"

Shaun and Jordan flew back to the US.

On the plane, Shaun kept probing Jordan, but the latter remained silent and refused to say anything. As soon as he got off the plane, Jordan suddenly received a call from Salvatore.

"Hello."

Salvatore sounded like he was about to cry. "Master Jordan! Ms. Victoria... she's awake! She's finally awake!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1019: Cold Towards Victoria!

Salvatore had always blamed himself for not taking good care of Victoria and letting her snatch his gun to attempt suicide. The entire time Victoria was in a coma, Salvatore had been too ashamed to face Jordan.

Now that Victoria had finally woken up, Salvatore felt very relieved. The guilt in his heart finally lessened a little.

Jordan was also excited. "Victoria is awake? Have the doctors take care of her. I'll be there soon!"

Although Jordan had seen Victoria's bad side in his latest time travel, she had finally escaped death. This was worth celebrating.

Nothing could compare to life and death, not even dignity and chastity.

Countless men and women threw away their dignity and chastity for the sake of money and status. After they had money and status, they would use the money to buy health and youth so that they could live forever.

Therefore, when rich people saw commoners who did not take time and health seriously, they always felt that it was such a waste.

Jordan and Shaun alighted from the plane and quickly arrived at Victoria's ward. Upon entering the room, they saw that there were already many people gathered inside.

Lauren, Norman, Emily and some other doctors were all there.

Victoria was already sitting up. Her eyes were open and her face was a little haggard. However, in her awakened state, she still looked like a goddess who had just descended into the human realm.

"Hubby!"

When Victoria saw Jordan, she bounced over excitedly.

Jordan also hugged Victoria tightly.

Victoria cried. "I'm sorry, Hubby. I've worried you and disappointed you. I shouldn't have been so selfish and wanted to die. They told me that you've been watching over me while I was unconscious for more than a month. Even though I couldn't hear you, you insisted on talking to me every day.

"Hubby, I swear that I will never leave you again!"

When the others saw this, they were moved to tears.

How many people could experience such life and death in their romantic lives?

At this moment, Emily deeply understood that her status in Jordan's heart could never compare to her sister's.

Jordan hugged Victoria and said, "It's good that you've thought it through. Don't hurt yourself anymore in the future. It's my fault for forcing you too much. When you mentioned breaking up, perhaps I should have respected your decision."

Victoria hurriedly said, "No, it's my fault! You've always been good to me. You love me, so you don't want to be separated from me. Hubby, thank you for never leaving me. I didn't think I was worthy of your love, so I shot myself..."

When she said this, Jordan gradually understood how Victoria felt when she shot herself.

At that time, Jordan was preparing a grand wedding. He wanted to marry Victoria to show her that he didn't care about what happened to her. Touched by this grand gesture, Victoria took extreme measures.

That was because Victoria remembered that on the day Jordan and Lauren got married, she had wronged him!

Victoria kept telling herself that she wasn't having an affair as she had already broken up with Jordan at that time. Jordan's wife was Lauren, not her.

However, Victoria couldn't keep lying to herself. She had to face her heart.

The reality was Victoria and Jordan were lovers at that time. No matter who Jordan's legal wife was, she and Jordan were a couple.

Victoria looked at him affectionately and said, "Hubby, I love you!"

With that, she kissed Jordan.

There was a lot of applause from the others in the ward.

Everyone was happy for them, including Lauren.

However, Jordan slowly pushed her away and said, "Victoria, you just woke up and your body is still very weak. You should rest first."

Victoria felt a little awkward at this.

When the doctor in the room saw this, he quickly said, "Ms. Victoria, your current health condition is indeed not suitable for kissing. Kissing will consume too much of your energy and cause you to lack oxygen."

"Oh, I was too eager."

Victoria smiled shyly.

Everyone laughed loudly and did not take it seriously. After all, who didn't know that Jordan loved Victoria? No one would think that Jordan really didn't want to kiss her.

The truth was that Jordan really couldn't have any more intimate relations with Victoria!

The moment he got close to her, Jordan would remember the night Victoria and "William" spent in the hotel room! He couldn't accept Victoria's past actions, even if "William" was Jordan himself!

Jordan instructed the doctor, "Do a full physical examination on Victoria again. I don't want anything to happen to her."

"Yes!"

Victoria did not notice the change in Jordan's attitude towards her. She felt that Jordan cared a lot about her, so she smiled and followed the doctor outside.

After Victoria went for her check-up, Jordan asked Salvatore, "Is Helen in the capital?"

Salvatore replied, "You mean that cool and valiant Dr. Hutton? Yes, yes. She has been researching all kinds of complex illnesses in the capital. Do you want to see her?"

Jordan nodded. "Call her to the room next door."

"Yes!"

Jordan walked toward Lauren again. This time, when he saw her again, Jordan felt like she was the only one.

Previously, Jordan's concern and love for Victoria was greater than his for Lauren. Only now did he realize that he had neglected this woman too much.

Jordan gently stroked her stomach and asked, "How have you been recent?"

Lauren nodded. "Yes, I'm fine. I'll take good care of our child. Many people are also taking care of me. Don't worry."

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I'm going to the room next door to meet Helen. I'll look for you later."

"Okay."

Lauren would never behave like an ignorant woman and insist on sticking close to Jordan. After all, she was from the capital.

Instead, Shaun wanted to follow Jordan.

Jordan said to Shaun, "Mr. Rong, wait for me in the hall. I'll look for you later."

Jordan deliberately did not want Shaun to follow him.

'Damn it... what the hell is Jordan doing? Ever since his last time travel, he has been so secretive. Could he be planning something?'

Shaun was very concerned about Jordan's every move. After all, Jordan, Shaun and Rong Huangde had all traveled back in time before. The three of them represented different factions.

All three of them wanted to be the masters of the world!

Therefore, it was possible that they would fight to the death!

The cautious Shaun would never overlook any detail about Jordan.

"Meow."

Shaun summoned a weak little black cat!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1020: Forced Removal!

Shaun stood at the door of the room that Jordan just entered. Having been left outside, he was indignant.

He bent down and grabbed the stray cat.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. You poor kitten. Look at how thin you are. After you help me with this, I'll give you a fish."

Shaun took out a mini bug from his pocket and placed it on the little black cat.

He then placed it back on the ground and instructed it to enter the room.

The little black cat was about to follow Shaun's instructions and sneak into the room...

Suddenly.

Meow!

A big and pretty white cat pressed the little black cat under it! Compared to the weak little black cat, this white cat size could be described as fat.

Shaun was very unhappy that the white cat's appearance had hindered his plan.

"Who f*cking raised this white cat? It's like a pig!"

Shaun grabbed the white cat, afraid that its huge body would crush his little black cat. However, after grabbing the white cat, it attacked Shaun and slashed at his hand!

"Ah!"

Shaun cried out softly before realizing that something was wrong.

"Something's wrong with this white cat. Someone is controlling it. The cat is not acting on its own accord!"

In this world, no one knew cats better than Shaun. He immediately realized that this white cat was being controlled by someone. But apart from his late wife, who else in the world knew the Handley family's secret technique?

Shaun abruptly turned around and saw the dignified and beautiful Lauren appear in front of him.

The white cat quickly ran towards her and snuggled into her arms.

Lauren stroked the white cat and said to Shaun, "Don't call my cat a pig. It already eats very little!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "You mean it eats very little compared to pigs? Hahaha, I was wondering who it was. So it's my good disciple! Lauren, I didn't expect your cat control technique..."

"Shh!"

Lauren gestured for him to keep quiet, afraid that Jordan would hear him.

Shaun especially walked over and whispered. "Good disciple, you have progressed quite quickly. You can already control a cat to fight. It looks like you're indeed very talented in this aspect!"

Lauren said, "I just want to learn this as soon as possible so that I can help my husband. I want to help my husband. By the way, what are you trying to do by controlling this little black cat?"

Shaun pulled her aside and asked, "Lauren, don't you think there's something wrong with your husband?"

"How?" Lauren asked.

Shaun said, "Didn't you notice that Jordan behaved very calmly after Victoria woke up? Logically speaking, he should be very excited. Also, Victoria wanted to kiss him just now, but he rejected her. Don't tell me you really believe that he's worried that she will lack oxygen from kissing?"

Lauren thought for a moment and said, "Now that you mention it, there does seem to be something wrong. Is he too tired?"

Shaun was speechless. "He has been injected with the Mirakuru serum! He won't be tired even if he doesn't sleep for three days and three nights! And if he's really tired, would he still have the time and energy to meet Helen?"

"I told you, Jordan and I are partners now. I'm very worried about him! That's why I sent the little black cat in to eavesdrop."

Lauren immediately refused. "You're not allowed to eavesdrop on my husband! You're not allowed to pry into my husband's private matters!"

But Lauren didn't realize that while the two of them were talking, Shaun had already used his mental power to let the little black cat sneak in.

Shaun stuffed a Bluetooth earpiece into Lauren's ear. "Let's listen together. The conversation has already begun."

Lauren sighed at how sneaky Shaun was. She couldn't stop him at all. But then again, she also wanted to know what had happened to Jordan. She couldn't deny that she was worried about him.

So she listened quietly.

At this moment, Helen had already entered the room.

"Helen."

"Jordan."

The two of them called each other by their first names. As they had known each other since they were young and Helen was not a bootlicker, she did not address him as mister or master.

Jordan liked her style. He always felt like vomiting when he heard others calling Deity Jordan.

"Take a seat."

Jordan invited Helen to sit down.

“Why are you looking for me?” Helen asked directly.

Jordan said, “Previously, I implanted an idea into Victoria. It was to ensure that she and I will never be separated for the rest of our lives.”

Shaun wasn’t surprised to hear this but Lauren was a little taken aback.

She didn’t expect Jordan to love Victoria so much. Afraid that they would lose each other, he specially implanted this idea in her mind.

Helen asked, “Who did it? Was it Dr. Gale from the capital?”

Jordan nodded. “It’s him. I want you to help me remove this idea.”

“Huh?”

Helen, as well as Shaun and Lauren, were all very surprised.

Why did Jordan want to remove this idea from Victoria’s mind?

Did Jordan not want to spend the rest of his life with Victoria?

Helen was very direct. “Why do you want to remove it? Don’t you want to spend the rest of your life with Victoria?”

Jordan sighed. “Whether we can spend the rest of our lives together depends on fate. We cannot force it. I don’t want to use this idea to bind her. Can you do it?”

Helen smiled. “Of course. I was the one who removed the idea that Dr. Gale implanted in Lauren.”

“What? Lauren’s implanted idea was removed? When did this happen?”

Jordan was puzzled.

Helen said, “Ah, I’m sorry. I forgot to tell you. Your brother asked me to do it. Lauren did it when she was living in the castle. So you’re no longer the perfect man in her heart. However, I believe that with Lauren’s character, she definitely loves you the same as before.”

Jordan nodded. “Yes, of course I trust her. No wonder Little Steele calculated the probability of Lauren cheating to be 1%, and not zero.”

Helen was surprised. “Lauren only has a 1% chance of cheating? Oh my god, that’s very low. Those who have a less than 1% probability all have mental issues. Among normal folks, Lauren’s 1% is already considered the lowest.”

Jordan agreed. "Yes."

"What about Victoria's percentage? Have you tested it?" Helen asked.

"Sigh."

Jordan sighed, clearly not wanting to answer this question.

In the end, Jordan could only proudly announce Lauren's 1%. He was too embarrassed to tell others about Victoria's 17%.

Helen was no fool. She could already tell why Jordan wanted to remove Victoria's implant.

"I'll help Victoria remove the implant as soon as possible. If she's unwilling, should we remove it by force?"

Jordan thought for more than 10 seconds before giving an affirmative answer!

Chapter 1021: You're The Woman I Love The Most!

Jordan and Helen's conversation shocked Lauren and Shaun.

From what Jordan said, it seemed like he was deliberately trying to draw a clear line with Victoria. Once he forcefully removed the idea he had implanted in Victoria, she would be considered a "free person".

By then, Victoria was free to choose another man.

Shaun smiled mischievously. "Hehe, I understand now. When Jordan went to find Victoria previously, something happened between the two of them. That's why Jordan looked so gloomy when he came back. I thought it was some other major matter."

Hearing Shaun muttering to himself, Lauren asked curiously,

"Where did Jordan go to find Victoria? What did he do? What happened?"

Lauren knew nothing about Jordan's time-traveling.

Shaun had no obligation to answer her question. He took off his earpiece and said, "Excuse me for a moment."

With that, Shaun left and walked to the plane.

He secretly called Rong Huangde.

“Lord Rong! I’ve found out that when Jordan traveled back in time to seek out Victoria, he had some emotional entanglements with her. It seems like Victoria did something to make him unhappy. That’s why he has been so gloomy. It looks like he wants to break up with her!”

Rong Huangde replied, “Are you sure it’s just a relationship issue? Not some other scheme?”

Shaun said, “I’m 100% sure. When he saw Victoria wake up, he didn’t even smile. He went through a lot of trouble and even provoked you to save her. It’s impossible for him to have such a reaction.”

Rong Huangde said, “Hmph, a fellow who only knows how to indulge in emotions is nothing to be afraid of!”

Shaun laughed. “Haha, that’s right, that’s right. Lord Rong, I think so too! Jordan is always tied down by his wives. He’s not your match at all! This time, I’ll travel back in time with you. After we use Jordan to find out the secret of the Handley family, I’ll help you get rid of him! I’ll avenge your grandson!”

Rong Huangde asked cautiously, “Who said I was going to kill Deity Jordan?”

Shaun smiled. “Daddy Rong, we’re family. I understand how you feel. Besides, I’ve been poisoned by you. My life is completely in your hands. If you want to attack Jordan, I will definitely help you!”

Rong Huangde snorted coldly. He did control Shaun’s life and believed that he had defeated Shaun.

Rong Huangde said, “Alright, it’s good that you know. There’s no need to say everything out loud. You have to be careful of the Deity’s prediction ability!”

“Yes, yes, yes. Lord Rong is right. I won’t disturb you anymore. See you when we get back.”

Shaun hung up.

“Heh heh, Rong Huangde, do you really think you control my life? Jordan has already developed the antidote for the poison you gave me! I have already removed your control over me. Now I just have to remove Jordan’s control over me too.”

Ring, ring.

Shaun's phone rang.

It was Jordan.

"Hello, what's up?"

Shaun greeted Jordan with a smile.

Jordan asked, "Where did you go?"

Shaun said, "Oh, I'm back on the plane. I came back to get something. What's the matter? I'll come over now!"

"No need. Wait for me on the plane. We'll be leaving here soon," Jordan said.

"Huh? What's the hurry?"

Shaun didn't expect Jordan to be in such a hurry to leave the moment he saw Victoria wake up.

If it was the past Jordan, he would have accompanied Victoria for at least seven days and seven nights in the capital. After all, she had been in a coma for so long. But now, it seemed like Jordan was deliberately avoiding Victoria.

After Jordan finished instructing Helen, he went to find Lauren.

"Lauren, I have something very important to settle now. I might be away for at least a few months."

Jordan looked at Lauren with longing.

Lauren was very disappointed. "Huh? A few months? Are you leaving now? Victoria is still having her check-up. She's been unconscious for so long. Aren't you going to stay in the capital to accompany her for a few more days?"

Jordan shook his head. "Help me tell her that I have something very important to do and can't accompany her."

Lauren could tell that something was wrong between Jordan and Victoria. She asked, "Hubby, is there a misunderstanding between you and Victoria?"

Misunderstanding?

Jordan had personally experienced the incident. How could there be a misunderstanding?

Jordan said, "It's not a misunderstanding. Victoria and I might not be fated to be together in the future."

"Huh?"

Lauren couldn't believe it.

Jordan caressed her face and said, "Lauren, you're pregnant now. You have to take good care of yourself and the child. You're the only woman I love now. You're the woman I love the most. In the past, I didn't treat you well. When I come back, I'll definitely make it up to you. I'm leaving now, Honey."

With that, Jordan kissed her forehead and turned to leave.

Lauren was stunned. She was so touched that hot tears slowly rolled down her cheeks.

Jordan's words "you're the woman I love the most" made Lauren cry.

All along, although Lauren was the first to meet Jordan and was also the most outstanding one, she had never been his favorite.

Jordan first fell in love with Hailey, and then with Victoria. His love for these two women and the time he spent with them was far greater than Lauren. In fact, he only married Lauren to find Victoria's whereabouts and not because of love.

On their wedding night, he had slept with Lauren because he pitied her.

Lauren had always known that she was definitely not Jordan's only woman and not his favorite.

Even so, Lauren had done more for Jordan than any other woman!

Today, Jordan suddenly said that she was his one and only, the woman he loved the most!

"Jordan..."

Lauren was moved to tears. She had forced herself to practice Shaun's technique every day so that she could help Jordan one day.

Now that Jordan had said this to her, how could she let him face danger alone?!

Lauren wanted to help too!

"Jordan!"

Lauren ran towards Jordan.

Coincidentally, Shaun had just alighted from the plane. He came out to welcome Jordan. Hearing Lauren's voice, Shaun and Jordan both turned around in surprise, only to see her running over.

"Lauren? Is there anything else?"

Jordan asked. He felt that he had already told Lauren everything very clearly.

Lauren looked at Jordan affectionately and said, "Where are you going? I want to come with you!"

Chapter 1022: Lauren Joins!

When Jordan saw the tears on her face, he knew that his words must have moved her. She was so moved that she ran over, wanting to leave with Jordan.

Jordan explained gently, "Lauren, to be honest with you, we're not going on a holiday this time. We're going on a mission. This mission is definitely dangerous. I can't bring you along because I might not have time to take care of your safety."

It was very dangerous to travel back to the past, especially to the Handley family's village from decades ago.

Everyone in that village had unique skills. They were not ordinary people.

Jordan was a Deity but could only barely protect himself. If he brought Lauren along, he couldn't guarantee her safety. In addition, Lauren was pregnant now. She should be resting in the capital, not going to a sinister and terrifying place like Cocodrie.

But Lauren said firmly, "I don't need you to take care of my safety. I can protect myself and you!"

"Huh?"

Jordan was stunned for a moment. He really wanted to ask Lauren if she knew what she was talking about.

He was a Deity. A Deity who had been injected with the Mirakuru serum.

How could a weak woman like her protect him?

“Lauren, stop fooling around... be good and stay in the capital to rest.”

Jordan did not believe Lauren.

Meanwhile, Shaun stood at the side and smiled. He naturally knew that Lauren was not joking or being unreasonable. The current Lauren might really have the ability to protect Jordan.

To prove herself, Lauren said, “I can stand here and knock out the pilot on your plane. Do you believe me?”

Jordan was very confused. “What are you talking about?”

Seeing that Jordan did not believe her, Lauren used her mental power to control a cat to sneak into the plane. Before long, one of Jordan’s subordinates walked out of the plane with a 30-pound white cat in his arms.

“Reporting, Sir! A fat cat invaded the cockpit. The pilot has been knocked unconscious. Master, do you want me to shoot this cat?”

“No! Don’t hurt my cat!”

Lauren hurried forward and took the white cat into her arms.

“Meow.”

The white cat licked Lauren’s fingers affectionately.

Jordan was stunned. “Lauren, this fat cat is yours?”

Lauren was a little embarrassed and nodded. “Yes, her name is Whitey...”

Shaun teased. “You might as well call it White Piggy. It can eat so much with its size. Do you want to train it to be a sumo wrestler?”

Jordan was very confused. “Lauren, how did you control this cat to enter the plane? Did you really do this?”

Lauren nodded. “Mr. Shaun taught me.”

Shaun smiled. “Haha, Jordan, I won’t hide it from you anymore. The last time I came here, I took your wife as my disciple and taught her my Handley family’s secret technique! Now, she can use her mental power to control cats, just like me. She just said that she doesn't need your protection and can even protect you. She's not being arrogant. She does have the ability now!"

What?

Lauren had become Shaun's disciple?

Shaun was willing to teach his family's secret technique to Lauren?

Seeing Jordan's shocked expression, Lauren said apologetically, "I'm sorry, Hubby. I only decided to tell you now. I was afraid that you wouldn't let me learn and practice, so I've been secretly practicing. Let me come with you. I can protect myself and help you!"

Jordan was in a dilemma.

Should he let Lauren come along?

To be honest, this trip would be more dangerous than all the other trips. Moreover, it was dangerous in several aspects.

The first source of danger was Cocodrie from decades ago. From the fact that Shaun was a product of this place from that era, it could be deduced how terrifying the Handley family was decades ago.

Shaun had killed Rong Bailun on his own. He had also brought a lot of trouble to Jordan and even nearly killed him once.

Shaun's father and grandfather had died when he was very young, and his mother had brought him up. In other words, he might have only inherited less than half of the Handley family's heaven-defying abilities.

That meant Shaun's elders must be even more powerful and terrifying than him.

Of course, no matter how powerful a kitchen knife was, it could not compare to a cannon. In the end, they might all be killed by Rong Huangde with high-tech weapons.

The second source of danger was Shaun and Rong Huangde!

Jordan killed Shaun's wife, indirectly killed his mother, and hindered his plans several times.

Similarly, Jordan had killed Rong Huangde's grandson and fought with the Rong family several times.

Both Shaun and Rong Huangde had very good reasons to kill Jordan.

Going back in time to Cocodrie together, it was hard to guarantee that the two of them would not kill Jordan.

However, Jordan thought about it carefully. If he died there, they would definitely kill Lauren and the rest when they returned. But then again, he might as well bring Lauren along. Having an extra person on his side might really be of help.

In addition, Lauren's attitude was so firm that Jordan really didn't know how to reject her.

Jordan held her hand and said gently, "Alright then."

"Thank you, Hubby!"

Lauren happily kissed him.

Shaun chuckled. He thought to himself: 'Hehe, with Lauren around, it will be even easier for me to deal with Jordan.'

Previously, Shaun had kidnapped Lauren to threaten Jordan to help him.

Now, if Shaun wanted to kill Jordan, he just had to do the same thing again. It would be easier to capture Lauren first.

Jordan had no idea what Shaun was thinking at the moment.

Lauren asked happily, "Hubby, where are we going? Is it far?"

Shaun smiled. "Not far. Cocodrie."

Lauren was a little surprised. "So close? I thought we were going overseas. We don't have to take the plane to Cocodrie. We can just take the high-speed rail. I'll book the tickets."

Taking out her phone, she wanted to book the tickets.

"Hey, wait."

Jordan quickly stopped her.

"Lauren, we're going to Cocodrie, but not the one at present. We're going to the past."

"The past?"

Lauren was stunned.

Jordan held her hand and said, "Come, get on the plane. I'll explain it to you."

Jordan brought Lauren onto the plane and told her about the Rong family's invention, the Time Gate. He also told her about his grudge against the Rong family, and how he had traveled back in time to save Victoria!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1023: Shaun's Control Is Removed!

As she heard those stories, Lauren's shocked expression did not fade.

"Oh my god, I can't believe the Rong family actually developed a time machine... So you saved Victoria by going back in time and planting an idea in her. But, Hubby, you killed Rong Huangde's grandson. Will he kill you after he's done using you?"

Lauren was very smart and always looked out for Jordan. She immediately realized the danger.

Jordan said, "I can't guarantee that. I still don't have a good grasp of Rong Huangde. Since we met, he never displayed any intention to hurt me."

Shaun spoke up. "You have to be wary of others! Rong Huangde is too good at hiding his true intentions! Jordan, This old fellow makes me shudder. Sometimes, I dream of him in my sleep. I think we should strike first and find the right opportunity to kill him! Otherwise, he might kill us after using us."

Lauren asked in surprise, "If Rong Huangde wants to kill my husband, will Mr. Shaun help us?"

Shaun hurriedly said, "Of course! Jordan and I are partners. We're on the same side! Besides, your husband is not the only one whom Rong Huangde has a grudge with. He has a grudge against me too. Don't forget that this body of mine belongs to his son. I killed his son and replaced him. Rong Huangde will never let me off. He will kill me sooner or later."

Lauren nodded. In that case, Shaun was indeed on the same side as Jordan.

"With you on our side, I'm relieved."

Lauren knew how powerful Shaun was. If they traveled back in time together and the three of them formed an alliance, Rong Huangde would be alone.

She and Jordan would be safer.

However, Shaun suddenly said, "Jordan, I will definitely risk my life to help you in Cocodrie. I won't let anyone hurt you and my disciple! However, before we time-travel, I have a small request."

"Go ahead."

Jordan was a little curious about what Shaun would ask.

Shaun said, "You know how uncomfortable it is to be controlled. You've already neutralized Rong Huangde's poison in me. But the 'golden headband curse' you put on me hasn't been undone yet."

Jordan realized what Shaun was talking about.

Shaun had undergone the mind-transplant procedure and Jordan had added something to the stabilizer. This enabled him to control Shaun.

No matter where Shaun was, Jordan could control him even from thousands of miles away by giving him a splitting headache.

Jordan said, "Shaun, you are too unfathomable to me. I think it's better to have this 'golden headband curse' on you for the time being. I'll be more at ease."

Bang!

Shaun lost his temper and broke a cup.

"Jordan! I treat you as my brother. I'm willing to fight with you against Rong Huangde, the most powerful man in the world! I'm even willing to die for you! But you're still treating me like a puppet. I'm so disappointed!

"I passed on the Handley family's secret to your wife. I've been honest with you guys and taught you everything. I've never hidden anything! I just don't want to be controlled all the time, but you won't even agree to such a small request. Alright, I'm not going on this time-travel trip. You two can go with Rong Huangde!"

Shaun suddenly lost his temper and said that he wasn't going to time travel anymore.

Actually, he was the one who really wanted to take this trip the most. With his father and uncle's help, he could kill Jordan and Rong Huangde.

Seeing this, Lauren hurriedly stood up and said, "Mr. Shaun, don't be angry. My husband isn't using you as a puppet. Don't misunderstand."

Jordan thought for a moment. Since Shaun had threatened him with such words, it proved that he really wanted Jordan to remove the control. If Jordan did not satisfy Shaun's request, he would not help him even if he forced him to time-travel.

Without Shaun's help, Jordan would definitely be in danger.

Although Lauren knew how to control cats, her abilities were only limited to controlling them.

Lauren had yet to learn how to use a cat to kill people like Shaun.

Shaun was irreplaceable.

Therefore, Jordan stood up and said, "You're right. As a partner, we should be honest with each other and not threaten each other. Alright, I promise you that I will remove my control over you."

Shaun hugged Jordan excitedly. "Jordan, I love you!"

"Get lost!"

Jordan pushed Shaun away.

Lauren giggled at the side.

Jordan asked Shaun to follow him to the Steele family's research base. He wanted Shaun to witness with his own eyes the deactivation of his control.

Thereafter, the three of them took a plane to Chongming Island.

When he saw Rong Huangde again, Jordan said, "Mr. Rong Huangde, I'm bringing an extra person this time."

Jordan introduced Lauren to Rong Huangde.

Lauren was very polite. "Hello, Mr. Rong."

Rong Huangde said, "Oh, this must be the beautiful Ms. Lauren? I'm very happy to meet you."

Lauren said, "I want to go with my husband. I hope Mr. Rong will allow it."

Rong Huangde agreed without hesitation.

"Ms. Lauren is beautiful and smart. It's my honor to have your help. Welcome."

Rong Huangde reached out to her.

Lauren also reached out to shake his hand. "Thank you, Mr. Rong. I promise I won't cause trouble or be a burden."

Rong Huangde smiled. "Ms. Lauren, you're being too polite. We're all family. There's no need to stand on ceremony. Please take a seat."

After everyone sat down, Rong Huangde asked, "Deity Jordan, have you told Ms. Lauren about the things to take note of when time-traveling?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I told her everything."

Rong Huangde said, "Alright, in that case, I won't repeat myself. Let's start the discussion on this trip to Cocos. First, we have to choose the date. Which year do you think we should choose?"

Jordan believed that Rong Huangde already had a date in mind. However, he respected Jordan and asked for his opinion.

Jordan asked, "When did Shaun's father and other family members die?"

Rong Huangde replied, "1984."

"I was only seven years old..."

Shaun suddenly said with a cold expression.

Chapter 1024: Back To 1978!

Shaun's words made him appear very pitiful and innocent.

It was indeed painful for a seven-year-old boy to lose his father and other family members at such a young age. This was also one of the main reasons why Shaun was so vicious.

Rong Huangde looked at Shaun and said kindly, "Mr. Shaun, I killed your father. After we find out the Handley family's secret, you can kill me with your own hands and avenge your father and uncle."

Previously, Rong Huangde had also told Jordan to kill him after everything was over.

Now, he was telling Shaun the same.

Rong Huangde didn't seem to care about his life at all. He was prepared to die anytime.

However, Shaun did not believe that Rong Huangde would be willing to die after learning about the Handley family's secret and obtaining something that might contain endless benefits.

If a person really had no desires and ambition, it was impossible for him to rule the world for so many years.

Perhaps Rong Huangde was tired now, but when a new world, new power and new goals appeared, it would awaken his ambitions.

Shaun smiled. "Daddy, what are you talking about?! I've already let bygones be bygones! You're my father now. I still have to support you in your old age, hahaha."

Rong Huangde's expression was indifferent. He had never fallen for Shaun's flattery.

Instead, Rong Huangde looked at Jordan. "Deity Jordan, which year do you want to go to?"

Jordan thought for a moment before replying, "It has to be before 1984 when they were still alive. Let's go to 1978 then. Shaun was only a year old. The child is still young, and his parents have to watch over him at all times. If necessary, we can also use the young Shaun as a hostage to threaten them."

Shaun immediately cut in. "Jordan, we're brothers. You can't do this to me! I was only a year old back then. I won't be able to withstand your torture!"

Jordan smiled. "I'm just giving an example."

Rong Huangde nodded. "Deity Jordan's choice is excellent. What should we do when we get there?"

Jordan asked, "What did you do in the past?"

Rong Huangde said, "I used all kinds of methods. I set up camp near the Handley family town and dispersed the other townsfolk until only the Handley family and I remained. Then, I fought them using all kinds of techniques. Unfortunately, the Handley family was very stubborn. They would rather die than tell us the source of their spells."

Jordan thought for a moment. As a Chinese citizen, it might have been difficult for Rong Huangde to gain the trust of those rural American folks during the 1970s.

That was why he ended up using force.

Jordan said, "Since we've tried it the hard way, let's use another method this time. We'll move into the Handley family town and slowly get to know them as their neighbors. We'll find a chance to obtain their secrets then."

Rong Huangde nodded. "That's a good idea. In that case, it's best that you and Ms. Lauren pose as neighbors. Shaun and I are both Chinese and it won't be suitable for us to enter the Handley family town with you. We will work together and find a place to set up camp just outside the town. We can also secretly protect you and provide you with help."

Jordan had no objections to this plan.

But Shaun didn't like the idea. "Mr. Rong, although we're Chinese, we can put on makeup! With the superb makeup skills of our era, my father and those ignorant people will never be able to tell!"

Shaun naturally wanted to follow Jordan into the Handley family town.

After all, his plan was to get in touch with his father and join forces with them to kill Jordan and Rong Huangde!

But Rong Huangde was insistent. "There's no need. We'll stay outside the town and use other methods to help Jordan and Ms. Lauren."

Shaun wanted to say something, but he was worried that if he objected too strongly, he would arouse Rong Huangde and Jordan's suspicions.

So he had no choice but to compromise. "Alright, we won't go in then. Jordan, have you thought of a way to enter the town and become the Handley family's neighbors?"

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "We will pretend to be scholars visiting this town for a rural experience."

Rong Huangde nodded. "Alright, let's get ready and change our clothes. When we get there, we'll build a signal station. After that, you guys can make your move."

As Rong Huangde spoke, he took out a bottle of champagne and poured four glasses of wine before handing one each to the others.

"Everyone, let's cheer to us having a triumphant return!"

Rong Huangde said with a beam on his face.

"Triumphant return!"

Jordan and the others clinked glasses and downed their drinks.

Shaun thought to himself: 'Heh heh, triumphant return? I'm the only one who will return victorious! All of you will die there! The next time I travel back to the present, I will be the master of the world!'

Shaun was very confident about this time travel. Rong Huangde will deliberately keep Shaun by his side and prevent him from entering the town to communicate with his father.

But Shaun was confident that he would definitely find an opportunity!

Without further delay, Jordan and the others immediately walked into the Time Gate.

1978.

It was a scorching day. The group arrived at Cocodrie in 1978. They felt as if they had stepped into an oven.

In order to match this era, everyone had changed into very thin shoes. As for their clothes, they were also simple outfits made of rough linen.

Although Lauren was only wearing a low-quality white shirt, she still looked extremely noble. No matter what a beauty wore, it could not hide her aura.

Lauren, who had just time-traveled, was not used to the air here and felt like the world was spinning.

Jordan held her hand and said, "Lauren, it's always like this the first time. Rest for a while and get used to it."

With that, Jordan sat on the yellow soil with Lauren.

Rong Huangde said, "You guys rest here first. I'll start building the signal station now. After the signal station is built, we can communicate through our phones and other high-tech equipment."

Jordan asked, "Mr. Rong, can you build a signal station alone?"

Rong Huangde smiled. "Didn't you develop the artificial intelligence, Little Steele? You should know that my family's artificial intelligence can easily do this!"

Chapter 1025: Living Opposite The Handley Family

Rong Huangde walked away with a smile.

After Rong Huangde had walked a distance away, Shaun stood in front of Jordan and Lauren.

“Rong Huangde actually brought an artificial intelligence here. F*ck, I didn’t hear him say anything before. If we had known earlier, we would have brought Little Steele.”

Jordan looked at the sky above him.

Although the weather was hot, the sun was not high in the sky. It was a little brighter earlier, but now, the sky was covered in dark clouds.

“What strange weather.”

He didn’t expect the weather decades ago to be so strange.

Ever since Jordan stepped foot here, he felt that this place was very different. It was different from any place he had ever been to in the US.

It was a strange feeling.

Jordan came back to his senses and said, “I’m guessing that he brought more than just artificial intelligence.*

“Are you saying he brought his black-armored warriors too?” Shaun asked.

Jordan nodded. “It’s possible. Rong Huangde always hides his strength. He has traveled back in time to this place countless times. No one knows how many trump cards he has prepared.”

“Damn.” Shaun looked troubled. “It won’t be easy to deal with a black-armored warrior. But it won’t be a problem if we join forces!”

Jordan nodded. Taking advantage of Lauren’s rest time, Jordan asked Shaun, “Tell me, who is in your family? I’m about to enter the Handley family town to deal with them.”

Shaun fanned himself as he said, “My father’s name is Harvey Handley. My uncle is Terrence Handley, and his son is Finn Handley. My grandparents are already dead by now. I also have a few aunts, but I don’t remember their names.”

Jordan nodded. He didn’t need to know too much. He just needed to know the names of Shaun’s father and uncle. He believed that these two people must know the origin of the Handley family’s spells.

As long as he could obtain information from them, his mission would be considered complete.

With the strange weather and hot temperature, the group was soon drenched in sweat.

Lauren was only wearing a thin white shirt, but she was already feeling unbearably hot. She kept sweating, and her clothes were a little soaked. Her clothes were made from a cheap, thin material suited to the 1970s, and it accentuated her good figure.

Shaun unintentionally glanced at her and his heart skipped a beat.

'Damn it, Lauren's invincible goddess aura! She's so charming even in clothes that cost less than two bucks! After I kill Jordan, I might consider keeping Lauren alive. If she's willing to be my woman...'

Shaun had already begun to fantasize about becoming the master of the world and taking Lauren in as one of his many women.

In his opinion, he had already gotten Victoria. It would only be a matter of time before he got Lauren.

Rong Huangde soon built a signal station with his artificial intelligence. The group immediately put on their communication devices so that they could contact each other at all times.

Jordan and Lauren parted from Shaun and walked towards the Handley family town.

Jordan held Lauren's hand and carried a backpack. He walked towards the Handley family town in a confident manner.

On the way, they encountered a bevy of folks heading out. These people were farmers and were all very tanned. Most of them were also very thin and had stringy hair.

Cocodrie was a relatively remote and poor place in the US. It was even poorer in the 1970s. A person was already considered lucky if he didn't have to go hungry every day.

"Hubby, what are they doing?"

As a girl born in the 1990s, Lauren naturally had no idea what was going on.

Although Jordan was very young and had never experienced the 1970s, he studied history and knew what was going on. These farmers were all pushing carts full of grains.

"They're going to hand over their harvest as tax," said Jordan.

Not far away, a staff member at the grain station was smoking a cigarette proudly as he fiddled with a ledger.

Lauren asked, "Oh, do we need to give anything?"

Jordan said, "You don't have to. I can give enough for the both of us."

Lauren looked very concerned. "When are you going to give it? Do we need to register first?"

Jordan smiled. "I'll give it over tonight. You'll be in charge of taking it."

Only then did Lauren realize that Jordan was teasing her. "You're so annoying."

The two of them walked happily into the Handley family town. It was a very dilapidated town filled with small wooden shacks and mud-covered ground. They entered the town and registered with the town officials. Someone arranged a place for them to stay.

When they arrived at a very old hut, Jordan held Lauren's hand and said, "Honey, you're pregnant now but I am making you suffer with me."

Lauren smiled and said, "No way. How can ordinary people have the chance to travel back to the past? I think this kind of life is quite good. Besides, I brought Whitey to accompany me."

With that, Lauren opened her bag and a cute and chubby white cat appeared.

Jordan was shocked. "You actually brought your cat too? Hehe, sure. This should be the first cat that traveled through time."

Jordan also reached out to stroke this cute and fat cat.

"Meow."

The white cat seemed to know that Jordan was a cat person so it snuggled against him.

It seemed to enjoy Jordan's petting.

"How is it, Jordan? Have you found a place to stay?"

Jordan and Lauren heard Shaun's voice.

Jordan replied through the communication device, "We've just been given a place to stay. Use the invisible drone to see how far my place is from your family's."

"Alright, wait a moment."

Shaun sent out an invisible drone to locate Jordan's house, before going to seek out his family home.

To be honest, after so many years, he only vaguely knew the exact location of his family house. However, there were cameras on the drone that could clearly show the appearance of every house.

But no one had the money to renovate so the outside of every residence looked similar.

"Daddy!"

Shaun suddenly saw a familiar face through the drone.

This person looked very dashing, not at all wretched like Shaun.

This man was Shaun's father, Harvey Handley!

Shaun was very excited to see his father again!

At the thought of his father being killed by Rong Huangde, Shaun was so angry that he wanted revenge immediately.

However, Rong Huangde was standing beside him now. He couldn't show his anger.

Shaun's expression was calm as he smiled. "Jordan, congratulations. Your house is just opposite the Handley family."

"My father lives opposite you!"

Chapter 1026: The First Night!

Lived across from them!

Such a coincidence?

For some reason, Jordan did not feel happy after hearing Shaun's words. Instead, he felt very uneasy.

After all, Jordan had come for Shaun's family. They were his surveillance targets.

However, the Handley family was too terrifying. They had strange abilities that even Jordan could not do anything about. If anything, Jordan wanted to hide and monitor from a distance. It was a little unsettling to be so close.

Nevertheless, Jordan did not say anything. After all, he was a Deity. He could not let others see his fear.

Jordan and Lauren stayed in the house until eight in the evening.

At this moment, Jordan performed divination.

Perhaps some people would think that Jordan was already a Deity so why would he still use divination?

In fact, the two complemented each other. Divination could enhance Jordan's predictive visions. It was like a person who was already good at jumping. If he jumped on a trampoline, his jumps would become even higher.

As Jordan divined, Lauren stood at the side and took a few glances.

Lauren's grandfather was a master at divination so she knew a little about it.

Holding the cute and chubby white cat, Lauren said, "The water and thunder symbols. This is an ominous divination result, right?"

Jordan sighed and nodded. "Yes, water and thunder on their own do not predict doom. But when presented together, it points to danger. Especially at the beginning. It will be filled with many challenges and dangers. It's very ominous divination!"

When Lauren heard Jordan's explanation, she rubbed her stomach worriedly.

"Hubby, can this divination result be about our child? Will our child be alright?"

Jordan quickly said, "No, this divination is referring to our mission. In the beginning, we will encounter trouble or even danger. Don't worry. With me around, our child will be fine."

Jordan was a Deity. Even if something happened to the child, he could predict it in advance.

"Okay."

Lauren opened the window and looked outside. It was already late. There was no light in the courtyard, and it was completely dark.

“This town is so quiet. Didn’t we see many people going to hand over their grains during the day? Why isn’t there any movement at night?” asked Lauren.

Jordan said, “This town is controlled by Shaun’s family. I think they’re the only ones in the entire place who know those spells. Shaun’s father and uncle live opposite us. We’re new here. I have a feeling that something will happen if we go out today. So we won’t be going anywhere tonight. We’ll stay in our house. Tomorrow morning, I’ll find a way to make contact with Shaun’s father.”

Lauren nodded. If Jordan felt that it was dangerous, it must be dangerous.

After a while.

“It’s so cold. Why is it so cold? Isn’t it summer now?”

Lauren suddenly felt a chill run down her spine.

Jordan glanced at the courtyard and realized that a cold wind was blowing. It was a very ominous feeling.

“F*ck, it must be Shaun’s family’s doing!”

Jordan immediately turned on the microphone and asked Shaun, “A cold wind keeps blowing into our house, is it your father’s doing?”

Shaun immediately replied, “Buddy, my family only knows how to control people, not the weather! My father doesn’t have a weather weapon! You’re the one who likes to control the weather the most, bro!”

However, after Shaun finished speaking, Rong Huangde reminded him, “Deity Jordan, although the Handley family doesn’t know how to control the weather, their strength in other aspects is still terrifying. You and Ms. Lauren have to be careful!”

Rong Huangde was the one who had interacted the most with the Handley family.

Since Rong Huangde said that the Handley family was terrifying, they must indeed be so.

Shaun didn’t like hearing his family being criticized like this.

Shaun asked, “Jordan, what are you doing now?”

Jordan said, “Sleeping!”

Shaun asked, “Sleeping? So early? Aren’t you going to bring Lauren around town? Or visit my family’s house?”

Jordan said, "I have a feeling that something bad will happen next. It's not appropriate to go out tonight."

But Shaun was not worried for Jordan at all.

Shaun continued. "If you don't dare to go out, you can get Lauren to send her little white pig out to scout the area. Hehe."

Jordan was a little surprised. "How did you know that my wife brought Whitey here?"

Shaun smiled. "Jordan, don't forget what I can do. I can't compare to you in other aspects, but my sense of cats is number one in the world. A cat was hidden in a bag and traveled back in time with us. How could I not know?"

Lauren had secretly hidden Whitey in her bag. Even Jordan did not notice.

Jordan turned off the microphone. They didn't keep the communication channel with Shaun and Rong Huangde open all the time. When Jordan and Lauren wanted to speak in private, they would turn off the microphone. This way, Rong Huangde and Shaun would not hear them.

Lauren asked, "Hubby, what did Shaun say?"

Jordan shook his head. "Nothing."

Jordan did not intend to let Lauren send her white cat out to scout. There was no need. He asked Lauren to come with him because he wanted her to stay by his side. He didn't need her to do anything.

As for how to find out the Handley family's secret, Jordan would slowly think of a way.

But Lauren said, "Hubby, does Shaun want me to send Whitey out to scout?"

"You overheard," Jordan said.

Lauren nodded. "Yes, it just so happens that Whitey keeps wanting to go out and play. I had to stop it several times just now. But now, I'm fine to send it out to scout the town.

"Whitey, go!"

"Meow!"

Whitey couldn't wait. It rushed to the window and jumped out.

At the same time, Lauren sat on the bed and used her mental power to control Whitey.

When Jordan saw this, he couldn't help sighing: 'I didn't expect my wife to have such a 'superpower'!

Jordan was very happy. As he was a Deity, if his wife was still an ordinary person, there would be a distance between the two of them. They had to improve together so that their relationship would remain balanced.

However, before long, Lauren suddenly broke out in a cold sweat. She didn't look too good either.

"What's the matter?" Jordan asked.

"Oh no! I lost contact with Whitey!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1027: Whitey Is Dead!

"Lost contact? Can't you sense the white cat anymore?"

Jordan did not understand the Handley family's techniques and did not know what it felt like.

Lauren nodded anxiously. "Yes, there's a mental connection between me and Whitey. Although it has gone out, I should be able to sense its presence at all times. Things were fine all along, but just now, the connection was suddenly cut!

"Hubby, did something happen to Whitey?"

Jordan had long sensed that things would not be good for their first night here. Something bad would happen.

However, Jordan still comforted Lauren. "Don't worry, it'll be fine. Let's go out and take a look."

"Okay!"

Jordan originally planned to not go out tonight, but since they lost contact with Whitey, they had to go out and take a look.

Whitey hadn't left for long so Jordan determined that it was definitely still near their house.

Jordan held Lauren's hand and walked out of the house to the courtyard.

Whoosh... whoosh... whoosh...

A cold wind kept blowing at them.

It was summer, but the wind made them feel abnormally cold.

Lauren squeezed Jordan's hand. She was clearly a little afraid.

"It's alright. I'm here."

Jordan comforted Lauren. He held her hand tightly and walked out of the house.

There was no light in the entire town. It was pitch-black.

Looking at the darkness in front of her, Lauren's heart raced.

"Hubby, I'm so scared. Why isn't there any sound or light in this town?"

Girls were all afraid of the dark. If not for that bit of moonlight in the sky, she really wouldn't dare to step outside.

Jordan explained, "Although electric lights were already invented, I'm afraid that it didn't reach such a remote town until much later. There are no electric lights in the houses, let alone the streets."

If they wanted to see streetlights in this rural town, they would probably have to wait a few more years.

Only then would street lamps be built.

Jordan asked, "Lauren, where did you lose your connection with Whitey?"

Lauren said, "Right here!"

"Here? Then it seems like Whitey might be nearby."

Jordan took out a retro silver flashlight. After turning it on, he illuminated the ground and prepared to help Lauren find Whitey. However, just as the flashlight shone on a corner opposite them, Jordan and Lauren saw a terrifying scene!

Whitey was lying on the ground, dismembered by a group of ugly and thin black cats!

All the black cats were gnawing on the little white cat!

Whitey was eaten by this group of black cats!

“Ahhhh!”

Lauren screamed in fear. When the black cats heard the sound, they were so frightened that they charged into the Handley family’s house. These cats were undoubtedly from the Handley family!

Jordan also felt his hair stand on end!

Such a cute and fat cat was being eaten by this group of black cats!

It was too cruel!

Lauren felt ill and her footsteps became unsteady.

Jordan hurriedly held her and said, “It’s not safe here. Go back quickly.”

Lauren wanted to cry, but she couldn’t. She felt very distressed. Although she had not had this little white cat for long, she already treated it as her child.

How could she not feel terrible when she saw Whitey die such a horrible death?

At the same time, she finally understood how terrifying Shaun’s family was. Not only were the humans powerful, but she could also feel that their cats were even more terrifying than the ones controlled by Shaun.

Lauren looked at the dead white cat reluctantly. “But, Whitey…”

Jordan said, “I’ll settle Whitey. You go back first.”

Afraid that Jordan would seek out the Handley family because of the cat, Lauren said, “Harvey Handley and his people are too powerful. Don’t offend them because of a cat. I’m afraid something will happen to you.”

Jordan said, “Don’t worry, I know what to do. You can go back first.”

Jordan sent Lauren back and walked on alone.

“Harvey and Terrence Handley, we’ve just arrived and you’ve already given us such a big welcome gift. I won’t waste any more time then. Let’s get to know each other today!”

Jordan knew that the Handley family must have sensed that a new guest had arrived.

Which meant that Whitey must have been killed by someone from the Handley family.

Since the Handley family already used this method to greet their new neighbor, as a Deity, Jordan naturally had to respond!

Of course, Jordan would not go against the Handley family just because of a cat.

Rong Huangde had already used force before.

People like Jordan and Rong Huangde from the future could easily kill these folks with high-tech weapons. But if they did, they wouldn't be able to get the secret.

Therefore, Jordan wanted to use his cat as an excuse to have a peaceful conversation with the Handley family and get closer to them.

Jordan was prepared to carry the white cat's corpse to find the Handley family.

However, when he came to the place where Whitey had died, he realized that there was nothing there. The white cat's corpse was no longer there.

"Strange, how did Whitey disappear in such a short time? Could it have been taken away by those black cats?"

Jordan held the flashlight and searched nearby to see if it had been brought elsewhere.

This white cat's corpse was evidence. If he went to the Handley family without any evidence, they would never admit it.

However, he couldn't find the white cat's corpse at all.

"Damn it, they didn't even spare the corpse."

Jordan decided not to care anymore and went straight to the Handley family!

When he came to the Handley residence, Jordan knocked on the door politely. No one answered, so he pushed the wooden door open.

Walking into the courtyard, Jordan felt an even stronger sinister aura.

It was akin to a gathering place for demon kings.

Jordan was a Deity so he was not afraid of such things.

"Is anyone there?"

Jordan walked into the courtyard and called out.

No one answered, so Jordan walked straight into the living room.

There was still no one.

“Damn it... Could it be that they knew I was coming and hid? Are they planning to suddenly appear and scare me? Ha.”

Although the strange aura in the room was very strong and it was pitch-black, Jordan, who had been injected with the serum, had an extremely powerful body. In addition, he was a Deity, and his mental strength was not something ordinary people could control.

Harvey’s wife wanted to do something to Jordan’s mind, but she ended up dying from the backlash.

Therefore, Jordan was not afraid of the Handley family at all.

“Alright, if you refuse to come out, I’ll search every room! I don’t believe I can’t find you!”

Jordan didn’t expect the powerful Handley family to be such cowards!

Thank you for reading on

Jordan held a flashlight and shone it into the innermost room.

There was a lot of ancient jewelry in the room. Jordan had seen such accessories before. They were used to control people. There were also some strange clothes that looked very old. They didn’t look like they were worn by people in the 70s or 80s. The clothing had too many frills.

Everyone was very poor during this period. It was already good enough that they could have some clothes to wear. Why would they spend more money on those frills?

After taking a general look, Jordan did not investigate in detail but instead walked to another room to check.

“Is anyone there?”

Jordan came to the last room. Every time he entered a room, he would call out this question.

There was still no response.

After pushing the door open, he scanned the room with his flashlight. It was also empty.

“Strange, is everyone from the Handley family not home?”

Jordan had searched all the rooms in the Handley family residence, but he did not see anyone.

Just as Jordan was about to leave, he suddenly heard a soft noise. He stopped in his tracks and listened quietly!

“It’s the sound of eating. Someone’s here!”

Jordan was shocked. So someone was hiding in this house!

Jordan didn’t expect the Handley family to be so timid. The grand spell masters, Harvey and Terrence Handley, were powerful figures who could easily kill more than 10 people each. But they hid when faced with a stranger’s visit.

There was only one closet in this room. Clearly, the person was hidden in the closet.

“Hmph!”

Jordan snorted coldly in disdain at the Handley family.

However, Jordan had traveled back in time to get to know Harvey and the rest. The more they tried to hide, the more he had to find them!

Jordan walked towards the closet. Without hesitation, he opened it and shone his flashlight inside!

There was only a little boy about 10 years old hiding in the closet. He was curled up in the closet with an evil smile on his face. He was gnawing at something.

The corner of his mouth was covered in red blood.

There was a lot of white cat fur on his hand but no sign of any animal.

Jordan instantly realized that this little boy was eating Lauren’s little white cat through those black cats!

‘He was the one who killed and ate Whitey!’

Jordan’s hair stood on end when he learned the truth. He had already guessed that those black cats were being controlled by the Handley family.

After all, he had seen Shaun kill someone by controlling a cat.

But this was the first time he had seen someone eat something via a cat!

Although the little boy in front of him was very young, it was obvious that his talent and ability were above that of Shaun!

The little boy was not afraid when he saw Jordan. He smiled foolishly and said, "What a fat cat. It's so delicious. Hehe."

Jordan clenched his fists. He wished he could kill him on the spot!

'This little boy is about 10 years old. He should be Terrence's son, Finn!'

Jordan could not attack him for the time being. He could not take any action before seeing Harvey and Terrence.

Therefore, Jordan could only suppress his frustration and ask the little boy, "What's your name? Where's your family?"

Finn looked at him with a wicked smile and pointed behind him.

He was pointing in the direction of Jordan and Lauren's house!

Finn was saying that his parents had gone to Jordan and Lauren's new house?

"Oh f*ck!"

Jordan instantly panicked. No wonder there was no one here. The Handley family had gone to their house!

"F*ck!"

Jordan burst out and ran home.

"Lauren, nothing can happen to you!"

Jordan was very worried about Lauren's safety!

In the hall, there was a kerosene lamp lit. Lauren was sitting on the seat, and in front of her stood two figures. One of them was carrying a child.

They walked towards Lauren step by step as if they wanted to do something to her!

"Stop!"

Jordan rushed forward and pushed away the figure that was closer to Lauren. He then stood in front of Lauren to protect her.

"Waa waa waa."

A child's cries rang out. The person whom Jordan pushed was a woman. and she was carrying a child in her arms.

Jordan was very strong and knocked the woman down. The child also fell.

The man beside her hurriedly bent down and picked up the child, his heart aching.
"Shaun, are you alright?"

Shaun?

Jordan turned on the communication device and immediately heard Shaun cursing!

Shaun cursed angrily. "Jordan, you b*stard! You hurt me! I'm only a year old! If you hurt my head, I won't let you off!"

Jordan glanced at the two of them. They were obviously a couple. Since the child was Shaun, these two must be his parents. Jordan had seen Shaun's mother before and had even fought her then. However, that was 40 years later.

Now, the young woman in front of Jordan could be considered pretty. She was completely different from how she would be in the future.

Seeing this, Lauren quickly comforted them. "I'm sorry, Uncle, Auntie. Is your baby alright? This is my husband. He's only like this because he cares about me. Don't mind him."

Lauren explained to Jordan. "They live opposite us. Their surname is Handley. Their cats bit our cat to death, so they came especially to apologize. Just now, I saw that this child was very cute so I asked if I could hold him. That's why Auntie approached me. She doesn't have any ill intentions."

Hearing Lauren's explanation, Jordan finally understood what was going on. He thought they were trying to harm her.

It was no wonder Jordan would think that way. After all, what he saw at the Handley residence was too terrifying.

A boy was eating a raw cat. Shaun's cousin was too terrifying.

At this moment, the adult Shaun said through the communication device, "Lauren, I'm your teacher. You're not allowed to hold me! How can a student hold her teacher like a baby?! How embarrassing!"

Jordan quickly apologized to Shaun's parents. "I'm sorry. I was too impulsive and bumped into your child. I have a little toy here for him to express my apology."

With that, Jordan took out a rattle drum from his room and showed it to the one-year-old Shaun. Jordan rattled the drum.

The one-year-old Shaun immediately giggled.

“Haha, little baby, is it fun?”

Jordan coaxed little Shaun.

Outside the town, the adult Shaun was furious. “Jordan! I’m so much older than you. Don’t humiliate me like this! Stop teasing me with stupid things like that rattle drum!”

Chapter 1029: Harvey’s Advice!

Jordan liked to go against others. The more Shaun refused to let Jordan tease his baby self, the more he wanted to tease him. After playing the rattle drum for the one-year-old Shaun, he couldn’t help pinching his cute little face.

Looking at the adorable little Shaun, Jordan sighed.

‘He was quite cute when he was young. Why did he become like that after he grew up?’

This should have something to do with Shaun’s living situation. He hid in dark places all year round and did not interact with anyone. As time passed, his face became dark and haggard.

Jordan wanted to build a good relationship with Harvey and his family, so he invited them to sit down and even made them a cup of tea.

Jordan said, “Mr. and Mrs. Handley, I’ve seen cats fight before, but this is the first time I’ve seen cats eating another cat. What do you usually feed your cats?”

Shaun’s mother responded. “I also want to know what you feed your cat. It’s so fat. Even us humans go hungry now. How did it get so fat?”

Harvey suddenly reached out a hand as if he didn’t want Jordan to feel embarrassed. He said, “You two are not from around here, right? Where are you from?”

“The capital,” Jordan said in response.

Harvey replied, "I can tell at a glance that you two are from rich families. I don't think you should stay here. This town is not peaceful. For your safety, you should leave as soon as possible!"

Jordan and Lauren looked at each other. Shaun's father was quite interesting. He wanted them to leave the moment they met.

Jordan sneered in his heart. Of course, he knew that this town was not peaceful.

With the Handley family around, how could this town be peaceful?!

Jordan pretended not to know anything and asked, "Not peaceful? I wonder what demons and ghosts are in this town. Why is it not safe?"

Harvey said with a straight face, "There are many things that we can't tell you since you're new here. Anyway, I advise you to leave. I really mean you well! I hope you two will consider it carefully. Let's go."

With that, Harvey and his wife left without drinking any tea.

"Wait a minute."

Jordan suddenly stopped Harvey. "I went to your house just now and saw a little boy about 10 years old."

"Oh, that's my brother's son. His name is Finn."

Harvey told Jordan the truth.

Jordan continued to ask, "Does your brother's family live with you?"

Harvey nodded. "Yes, my sister-in-law passed away some time ago. I live with my brother's family. My brother is at home. When you went to my house just now, didn't you see him? He was in the innermost room."

Hearing this, Jordan couldn't help feeling a little afraid. He had gone to every room. Other than Finn, he didn't see anyone else!

'Damn it, where did Harvey's brother hide? Why didn't I notice him?'

Jordan felt that Harvey looked like a normal neighbor. At the very least, he did not appear to be that scary on the surface. On the other hand, Terrence had avoided Jordan when he went to his residence. He seemed to be very mysterious.

It seemed that Terrence was much more difficult to deal with than Harvey.

Jordan smiled. "Oh, I didn't look in the rooms."

Harvey did not say anything and left with his wife and little Shaun.

Out of courtesy, Jordan and Lauren sent them to the door before returning.

After they left, Jordan, Lauren, Shaun and Rong Huangde started a conversation.

Jordan said, "Shaun, the impression your father gave me was a little unexpected. He looks like a good person. I thought he was like you, a fellow who hid in the dark and attacked in secret. When I found out that your parents came to find Lauren, I really thought they were going to kill her. I didn't expect them to come to apologize. Not only that, they advised us to leave. They don't seem to want anything to happen to us."

Lauren added. "Yes, yes. I have the same feeling. I feel that Shaun's father isn't a bad person, but I do find it very strange. Why did he advise us that it's not safe here? If he doesn't want to kill us, he can just leave us alone, right?"

After Shaun heard their evaluation of his father, he said, "Deity Jordan, you've always had a huge misunderstanding about our Handley family! You think that my family is the most sinister and vicious family in the world, but that's not the case at all! I have my father's bloodline. I can feel deeply that I have the most honest and kind heart of a simple farmer! Not only is my father not a bad person, I'm not a bad person either! Don't think of me like that!"

At this point, Jordan and the rest sneered.

If Shaun wasn't a bad person, then there were no bad people in the world!

Jordan said, "Alright, Shaun. If it weren't for the fact that we all have our methods, the three of us would have already died in your hands. I have some understanding of your father now. I've also experienced your mother's strength. I want to know more about your uncle and your cousin Finn. How much do you remember about them?"

Shaun said slowly, "What do I remember about them? It's been so many years. I remember that my uncle doesn't like to talk. Finn, that b*stard, always bullies me. That's all."

Jordan did not believe Shaun. He felt that Shaun was unwilling to tell him too much about the Handley family.

At this moment, Rong Huangde spoke up. "I've fought Harvey and Terrence before. Terrence is clearly stronger and he has the final say in the Handley family's matters. Jordan, if you want to know the Handley family's secret, you have to make Terrence talk."

After hearing Rong Huangde's words, Jordan knew what to do. "I understand. However, Terrence avoided me just now. He seems to be very difficult to come into contact with. Lauren and I have already met Harvey once. I'll find an excuse to meet him again tomorrow and get to know him first."

Rong Huangde and Shaun agreed with Jordan's plan.

Shaun said, "Jordan, what excuse are you going to find to meet my father tomorrow? I think you can bring some delicious food over. Just say that you made a good meal and want to let me try it. Didn't you bring a lot of delicious food from our era? I have a pot and the ingredients here. I can send them to you via drone. You and Lauren know how to cook, right?"

"You can make me some delicious food. Fish, beef, pork and so on. Send them all to me. Ahhhh, poor me. I was born in the 70s and lacked proper nutrition. Since we're here, we have to let my younger self eat and drink better!"

Chapter 1030: Beautiful Japanese Woman!

Jordan was speechless. "Shaun, you're only one year old now, not seven. Apart from drinking milk, what else can you eat? Alright, how about I bring you a diaper tomorrow so that you don't wet the bed all the time."

Shaun: "..."

...

The next day, the weather was still strange. Jordan felt that something was wrong, so he asked Shaun to use a drone to take a look.

The results were as Jordan expected.

The weather elsewhere was very normal. It was just generally hot with little wind. However, it was dark, gloomy and extremely windy in this town.

"The weather here must have been artificially affected."

Jordan was very sure of this.

At this moment, Lauren had just prepared a fragrant home-cooked fish stew for the Handley family.

Offering food was indeed the most common method to establish good relations with neighbors. In this era, whenever there was any good food, the families who were close to each other would share it with each other.

In fact, if there were no adults at home, the children would have dinner with their neighbors after school.

Lauren said, "Didn't Shaun say that the Handley family can only control people and not the weather?"

Jordan said, "We can't believe all of Shaun's claims. I can feel that he has become abnormally energetic during this trip. He seems to be deliberately throwing out some unimportant things to distract us."

Lauren didn't think much of it. "Are you saying that the Handley family can actually control the weather? If so, they're too powerful. If we really fight, we definitely won't be able to defeat them, right?"

If the Handley family had techniques that could control the weather, it would be close to an immortal spell.

As strong as Jordan's body was now, it was still a mortal's body and he could not compare to an immortal's. He would definitely be inferior in a fight.

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "It might not be the Handley family. Perhaps it is Rong Huangde."

"Rong Huangde? Why? Why would he do this? Isn't he on our side? Besides, we're here to help him explore the Handley family's secrets. Why would he make the weather so weird to hinder us?"

Lauren was confused.

Jordan snorted. "Lauren, remember this. None of us are in cahoots with anyone, nor are we allies. Apart from the two of us being on the same side, everyone else is doing this for their own personal gain. Rong Huangde is an unfathomable person. No one knows what he's thinking. It is also proven that he can control the weather."

Lauren suddenly felt a little afraid. She grabbed Jordan's arm and said, "Hubby, don't go out first. Have more predictions so that you can feel more confident."

Seeing how worried Lauren was about him, Jordan smiled happily and nodded. "Alright."

Closing his eyes, Jordan used his mental power to predict again.

A bewitching woman with shoulder-length hair and wearing a red kimono suddenly appeared in Jordan's mind!

She held a yellow and white umbrella and had a blue-eyed white cat in her arms. She looked to be in her 30s.

'What a beautiful woman!'

Jordan was a little surprised that such a beautiful woman, a Japanese woman in a kimono, would appear in the Handley family town!

Jordan opened his eyes in surprise.

Seeing this, Lauren immediately asked, "Hubby, what did you predict? Why do you look so shocked? Did something scary appear?"

Jordan said, "I don't know if it's scary but she's quite beautiful and her skin is so fair."

"Huh? Who is beautiful and fair?" Lauren asked.

Jordan said, "A woman. A very beautiful Japanese woman."

Lauren patted Jordan lightly. "Were you predicting or fantasizing just now?!"

Jordan smiled. "If I liked Japanese women so much, I would have bought you a few kimonos and role-played with you. I'm not joking. I really predicted that a very beautiful Japanese woman would appear in the Handley family town in a kimono. And she seemed to be standing at our door..."

"What?"

Lauren was a little afraid.

Jordan was puzzled. What did this matter have anything to do with the Japanese?

Or was this woman just a lover of the Handley brothers?

The Handley brothers now had astonishing abilities. It was easy for them to obtain wealth, beauties and anything else. Jordan would not be surprised if this beautiful woman was really the Handley brothers' lover.

"Never mind, it's time to eat. Let's deliver this food to the Handley family first."

Jordan said, "Okay, I'll come with you."

Lauren scooped up some of the fish stew into a porcelain bowl and carried it out the door.

The door to the Handley residence was closed. There was no one on the entire street.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Jordan knocked on the door a few times and shouted, "Mr. and Mrs. Handley, my wife and I made a fish stew. Please try some of it."

"Mrs. Handley!"

He knocked several times, but no one answered.

Suddenly, a black cat jumped out and knocked over the bowl Lauren was holding, snatching the fish away.

"Hey, this is for humans!"

Lauren wanted to chase after it.

At this moment, a voice rang out from afar.

"Go home and leave this place. Don't come back!"

Jordan was shocked when he heard the voice.

The voice was broad and deep, clearly different from Harvey's voice from yesterday.

"Is that... Terrence? Where is he?"

Jordan did not see anyone nearby. In other words, he had sent this message to them from afar.

"A voice transmission? Terrence is indeed very powerful!"

Jordan and Lauren returned home in disappointment. Seeing that Jordan and Lauren failed to get in touch with the Handley family, Shaun said impatiently, "I think it's better for me to do it myself. After all, they're my parents. I know them better. Moreover, we might have a parent-child connection. It might be easier for them to accept me."

Shaun wanted to quickly escape from Rong Huangde's surveillance and tell Harvey the truth. Then he would join forces with them to kill Rong Huangde and Jordan.

Rong Huangde replied, "The Handley family has secrets. People with secrets don't like others to approach them. It's useless no matter who goes."

Jordan also didn't agree with Shaun personally making contact with his family either. He was afraid that trouble would ensue if adult Shaun came into contact with baby Shaun.

"Everyone, don't worry. I predicted that a beautiful Japanese woman would appear next. This woman might be a turning point for us to get in touch with the Handley family!"

Chapter 1031: Similar to Sister-in-law!

"A beautiful Japanese woman? Are you certain? How can you be sure that she's a Japanese woman?"

Shaun and Rong Huangde looked surprised.

Jordan said, "She was wearing a kimono. She should be a Japanese woman or maybe just some Asian person wearing a kimono. I'm not too sure about that. However, I can confirm from her aura and outfit that she can't be a local from this town."

Women from this poor, rural town in the 1970s couldn't possibly be so beautiful as they didn't have enough to eat and they had to do farm work.

It was impossible for women here to take good care of their looks. And the woman Jordan had seen in his vision was a goddess. Her background must be extraordinary.

Shaun was a little surprised. "Did my uncle get another Japanese wife? Impossible, I don't remember seeing one. Mr. Rong, could this Japanese woman be from the Miyamoto family? Could they have traveled back in time like us to explore the secrets of our Handley family?"

Rong Huangde immediately denied this. "Impossible! With the Miyamoto family's technological capabilities, it's impossible for them to create something like my Time Gate. If their technology was that advanced, they wouldn't have been killed by you two."

Shaun thought about it and felt that Rong Huangde was right. The Miyamoto family was rather advanced in weapons and human modification. But if the Miyamoto family really had such heaven-defying technology, they would have already dominated the other families.

None of them could guess who this Japanese woman was.

Shaun was very curious about this woman because she might be the biggest variable in his plan!

If Jordan and Rong Huangde were the only ones who came from the future, Shaun was confident that he could find a chance to sneak off.

Then, he would secretly find the Handley family and work with them to kill Jordan and Rong Huangde.

However, if someone else was involved, the variables would be significant.

Shaun said, "Since she'll be here soon, I'll send a drone to take a look nearby. We should be able to find her car."

Shaun piloted the drone and flew dozens of kilometers around the village, but he found nothing.

"There's not a single car within dozens of kilometers of here. There aren't even that many people around, much less any Japanese women. Unless she comes by plane, I'm afraid we won't be able to see her today. Jordan, do you think your vision will only happen in a few days?"

Jordan did not think so. His visions usually came true quite quickly.

Only his dreams happened further in the future.

Jordan said, "She might not have come to this town from afar. It's also possible that she's already here!"

"What? You're saying that the Japanese woman is from the Handley family town? That's impossible. No one in our town married a Japanese woman."

Shaun disagreed.

Lauren also speculated. "She might not be from the Handley family village. She might just be a temporary visitor, just like Jordan and I."

Shaun said, "F*ck, my little town is so famous that even a Japanese knows of it? Awesome! Let's wait and see if this Japanese woman will appear!"

The four of them sat quietly and waited.

Two hours later.

A beautiful woman in a kimono appeared on the surveillance camera screens in front of the four of them!

“She really appeared! Jordan, you’re right. This woman came from the other side of town!”

Shaun was extremely excited.

Rong Huangde looked at the woman and frowned.

The image shown on their screens was exactly as Jordan predicted. It was just that Jordan’s vision had been a little hazy, while the current image was more realistic and clear.

The more Jordan looked at her, the more he felt that this woman was not an ordinary person. He asked Rong Huangde, “Mr. Rong, haven’t you traveled back in time to Cocodrie many times? You should have seen this woman before, right?”

Rong Huangde shook his head. “No, this is the first time I’ve seen her. When I come to Cocodrie, I usually choose to come after 1980, I have never visited 1978. Jordan, you’re indeed a Deity. I will definitely benefit by following you!”

This was the first time Rong Huangde was seeing this woman!

Jordan became even more cautious. He looked at the woman’s outfit carefully and analyzed it.

“Everyone, look. This woman’s kimono and the umbrella she’s holding are all printed with chrysanthemums. I think everyone knows what chrysanthemums mean, right?”

These people were all cultured and knowledgeable. Everyone understood.

Rong Huangde said, “Yes, chrysanthemums are the symbol of the Japanese royal family. Usually, only people related to the royal family will wear kimonos with chrysanthemums. Could this woman be from the Japanese royal family?”

Lauren added. “Everyone, look. There are exactly nine chrysanthemums on her clothes and umbrella. Does this number mean anything?”

Nine?

Jordan and the other two immediately counted. There were indeed nine flowers.

However, they could not explain what the number nine meant.

“Maybe... it’s a coincidence? Or maybe this Japanese woman likes the number nine?” Rong Huangde proposed.

Jordan instructed Shaun, “Get a close-up of her face. I want to see what she looks like.”

Shaun joked. "Hehe, have you taken a liking to her? Lauren is pregnant now, and the two of you can't sleep together. You must be bored, right? I'm warning you. You're not allowed to mess around with women behind my disciple's back. If you dare to let my good student down, I won't let you off."

Jordan was speechless. "Stop joking. I think she looks like someone."

Shaun didn't say anything else. He pointed the drone at the Japanese woman's face and zoomed in.

When they saw this Japanese woman's face clearly, Jordan and Lauren both felt a sense of familiarity!

"Yumi!"

"Sister-in-law!"

Jordan and Lauren exclaimed in surprise.

"Huh? Who?"

Shaun was surprised. Jordan and Lauren seemed to know her.

Yumi was the wife of Jordan's eldest brother Jesse.

Jordan didn't realize this before, but now that he had seen her face clearly, both Jordan and Lauren felt that this Japanese woman was really similar to Jesse's wife Yumi!

"Lauren, do you also think she looks like Sister-in-law?"

Jordan looked at Lauren.

Lauren nodded. "Yes, yes. I have a clear impression of Sister-in-law. She's dignified and refined, and her aura is very unique. I think that this woman, her eyes and eyebrows are similar to Sister-in-law!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1032: Nine Chrysanthemum Faction!

Jordan agreed. "Yes, I also think that this woman's eyebrows and eyes are very similar to Sister-in-law's, but the shape of her face is different."

Lauren added. "This woman is prettier than Sister-in-law!"

Jordan smiled. Lauren once again voiced Jordan's thoughts.

That was indeed the case.

It was true that Yumi was a beauty, but she was not considered devastatingly beautiful. The most beautiful woman in Japan was Miyamoto Masaki's wife.

Jordan and Lauren had the same thought.

Could this woman in the kimono be related to Yumi?

Could she be Yumi's family member? Perhaps her mother?

They were like the celebrities Lisa Bonet and her daughter Zoë Kravitz. But in terms of beauty, the mother was much prettier than the daughter. Of course, this was when comparing both of them during their peak.

Shaun was shocked. "Jordan, who is your sister-in-law? Have you seen her parents? Is this woman your sister-in-law's mother?"

Jordan said, "I've never seen Yumi's parents. When Jesse got married, I wasn't around. After that, I only saw Yumi around. I've never seen her mother. In terms of age, there is a probability that they are mother and daughter. However, many people in this world look alike. It is hard to say."

Just like how many people felt that Katy Perry and Zooey Deschanel looked very similar, the two of them were completely unrelated.

Initially, everyone was already interested in this Japanese woman who had suddenly appeared. Now that they knew that this woman might be Jordan's sister-in-law's mother, they became even more curious.

Everyone stared intently at the surveillance screen.

The Japanese woman looked very refined. She walked slowly to the entrance of the Handley residence.

The door of the house was jammed shut and would require a lot of effort to pry open. When Jordan called on the Handleys earlier, he was ignored. He wondered if the Handley family would open the door if this Japanese woman knocked on it.

But to Jordan's surprise, the Japanese woman did not knock at all.

The wooden door of the Handley residence slowly opened!

But the Japanese woman was just standing there with a cat in her arms. She didn't move a finger!

"F*ck! This Japanese woman knows spells too!"

Shaun was stunned. He clearly remembered the method to open that door. When he was very young, he would have to use a stick to gradually pry open the door.

But this woman didn't even use anything to open it.

Jordan, Lauren and Rong Huangde were all shocked.

Such a beautiful woman was actually from the Handley family?

"This woman is the same as the Handley family? Shaun, I didn't expect your family to have connections with the Japanese."

Rong Huangde was very surprised. This was information that he had not obtained the previous few times.

Shaun looked embarrassed as he thought to himself: 'F*ck, did my family learn our spells from this Japanese woman? Is my family not all-American?'

Jordan was so patriotic. If Shaun was related to the Japanese, Jordan might not want to be his partner anymore. After all, some people still remembered the attack on Pearl Harbor.

After the door opened, the Japanese woman slowly walked in.

Jordan found it strange. With Harvey and Terrence's powers, it was impossible for them not to know that a stranger had visited.

Why didn't any of them come out?

The courtyard was silent. Only a few black cats ran out and faced the Japanese woman with fierce expressions. However, these little black cats could not scare off this beautiful woman at all.

"Sakura, go and play with them."

The woman caressed the white cat and let it jump to the ground.

The white cat called Sakura looked cute, but it was extremely powerful. It immediately rushed towards the black cats!

"Meow!"

The black cats seemed to be very afraid of this white cat. They all fled in panic, while the white cat quickly chased after them.

“Heh, you lowly strays. How dare you block my path.”

The Japanese woman laughed disdainfully and walked towards the main room.

At this moment, in order to see and eavesdrop on their conversation, Shaun had changed the drone to a mini surveillance device to avoid detection. Although the view of this device was not as wide, they could still hear all conversations clearly.

“Don’t tell me she will speak Japanese? My parents don’t speak Japanese,” Shaun commented.

After the Japanese woman walked in, Harvey and his family, Finn and a thin and stiff-looking man were all in the room. They seemed to have known that the Japanese woman was coming and had been waiting for her.

The Japanese woman walked in and started to speak in English. “Terrence, Harvey, I’m here again.”

The Japanese woman’s English was not very good, and her pronunciation was a little strained.

The Japanese woman found a seat and sat down. She seemed to be very familiar with this place as she continued.

“Have you considered it? Do you want to tell me your Handley family’s secret?”

Jordan and the other three were shocked!

This Japanese woman was actually here to pry into the Handley family’s secrets like them!

Rong Huangde looked shocked and terrified. “Someone has been searching for the Handley family’s secret for so many years before me... and it’s a Japanese woman. Who is she?!”

Thinking about it, this was 1978. If this Japanese woman persevered and really learned the Handley family’s secret...

By 2022, she might still be alive. Even if she died, she would still have descendants. If they inherited this huge secret, they would probably become a huge threat to the Rong family in the future!

Although the skeleton-like Terrence was rather skinny, his voice was very deep. “Ms. Uehara, we don’t have any bad blood with your Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. We never even had much interaction. Your strength and cultivation have always far exceeded ours. Why do you have to make things difficult for us poor farmers?”

“The Nine Chrysanthemum Faction!”

Shaun and the other three were shocked to hear this name!

This Japanese woman was actually from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction!

Lauren didn’t understand and asked, “What’s the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction?”

Jordan said, “I’m not sure either. I’ve only heard that it’s a sect in Japan. They know very strange spells, similar to the Handley family’s.”

Shaun had some knowledge of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, but it was only limited to rumors. He had never seen anyone from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. But Rong Huangde had a deeper understanding about the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction.

“Over a thousand years ago somewhere in the US, a mysterious man named Manuel cultivated many ancient secret techniques. After he mastered them, he gathered the essence of all those secret techniques and took in disciples. He established a sect called the Nine Chrysanthemum Divine Cult.” One of Manuel’s disciples, Natsuke Tsuda from Japan, splintered off from the main cult to form the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction.

“He combined it with a branch of Japanese Buddhism, and it became what it is today.”

Chapter 1033: Uehara Yumi!

Everyone was a little surprised at how much Rong Huangde knew about a cult established in the US.

Jordan recalled the books in the basement of the Rong family’s house. He knew that Rong Huangde must have a thorough understanding of all sorts of strange cults in the world.

But Lauren was focused on another question. “Ms. Uehara? If her name is Uehara, does that mean she is not related to Sister-in-law?”

Jordan shook his head and said, "No, Yumi has her father's surname and her mother's first name. We can't be sure yet unless we know the full name of this Japanese woman."

In the room, the Japanese woman smiled. "Our family has been searching for the source of our spells. Some say that it comes from your country. Therefore, I came to the US. Fortunately, the heavens didn't let me down. A year ago, I met you in the county seat and used one of your Handley family's spells to steal something.

"For the past year, I've come every other week. Until today, you still refuse to tell me how you peasants know such magic! How despicable!"

Harvey walked forward and said, "Why should we tell you?! You Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and killed so many of our soldiers! If we tell you, wouldn't you Japanese use our spells to try and dominate the world again? Uehara Yumi, you vicious woman, stop dreaming!"

Uehara Yumi!

This Japanese woman's first name was indeed Yumi!

Jordan opened his mouth wide as if he was witnessing a magical moment. He knew that his sister-in-law, Yumi, had taken her father's surname. And her father was an American.

But for her first name, she had been named after her Japanese mother.

In addition, they looked so similar that Jordan was almost 100% sure that this Japanese woman was Yumi's mother!

"F*ck, Jordan. Your sister-in-law is a descendant of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction! Didn't you realize that she's different from other women?"

Shaun was shocked.

Jordan felt a headache coming on. He had always respected his sister-in-law because she treated him well. Unlike Jesse, who pretended to be nice to Jordan but was actually selfish and wanted to monopolize the family business.

"Speaking of which, ever since Grandpa passed away and the eight great families went against the Steele family, I haven't seen Sister-in-law again... I thought she ran away because she was afraid of being implicated."

As Jordan and Jesse didn't have a good relationship, he didn't ask about his sister-in-law. If Yumi was really the daughter of Uehara Yumi and a descendant of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, she was completely capable of helping Jesse.

However, after the Steele family's incident, Yumi never appeared.

Unless Yumi had ulterior motives for marrying Jesse. She just wanted to infiltrate the Steele family and had no intention of being a good daughter-in-law!

In the room, Uehara Yumi laughed out loud. "If Japan had won World War II, we would have ruled the world long ago! We were just short of an opportunity! If I find out the origin of our Nine Chrysanthemum Faction and your Handley family's spells, perhaps this huge secret can help Japan rule the world again!

"There's a saying: A wise man submits to the circumstances. You two brothers are just poor country bumpkins. If it weren't for your spells, you won't be able to even fill your stomachs! You don't have to pretend to be patriotic! I can change your nationality and turn you into Japanese royalty. You will be richer than you ever will be if you stay here!"

Terrence said, "Ms. Uehara, although we're poor and ignorant, we know very well that it's the land under our feet that raised us. We might be better off if we go with you to Japan, but it's not our home. We are willing to interact with your Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. But other than that, I don't want to cooperate with you Japanese!"

Hearing this, Jordan and Lauren were shocked.

Shaun's father and uncle were not traitors. They actually rejected cooperation with the Japanese!

Shaun also had tears in his eyes. "My father and uncle are so noble! I'm actually a descendant of a f*cking loyal family! Mom never told me!"

Jordan teased him. "So you always thought that you're the descendant of traitors?"

"Screw you," Shaun retorted.

Lauren also said, "Shaun, since your father and uncle are good people, you should do more good in the future. Don't harm others."

Shaun was very excited. "Yes, yes, I will definitely be a good person!"

But in his heart, he was smiling sinisterly: 'Good person? Hehe, I've killed so many people in my life. No matter how many good deeds I do now, I am going straight to hell after I die! Lauren, after I take control of everything, I'll rape you first! Hehe.'

At this moment, Uehara Yumi slowly stood up with a ghostly smile. "Alright, since you're still so stubborn, I can only teach you a lesson like before."

Terrence also held his breath and stood up. "Alright, bring it on!"

“Brother! No!”

Harvey immediately stopped him. Looking at his brother’s haggard figure, Harvey’s heart ached.

“Brother, you’ve battled that b*tch Uehara Yumi so many times before. She has already tortured you until you don’t look human anymore! You don’t need to step up this time. Let me fight her instead!”

When Jordan heard this, he realized why he didn’t see anyone in the room when he checked it. Perhaps it was because Terrence no longer looked like a normal person.

“Yumi’s mother is actually so terrifying? Even Terrence is no match for her?”

Jordan was very surprised. He thought that Terrence would be the biggest boss here.

Unexpectedly, the most powerful person was a Japanese woman.

Rong Huangde said, “I’m afraid Terrence is not her match. To be precise, both Terrence and Harvey combined are not her match.”

Jordan nodded. The Handley brothers would not bother about fairness in a battle. If they knew that they could kill this woman if they joined forces, they would have already done so.

Terrence pushed Harvey aside. “Harvey, you’re not Ms. Uehara’s match.”

“Ms. Uehara, bring it on!”

Uehara Yumi smiled. “Terrence, you’re more resilient than I imagined. Your wife has already been tortured to death by me, but you can still hold on until now. It looks like the Handley secret must be in your body!”

Chapter 1034: Uehara Yumi’s Powers!

Uehara Yumi didn’t waste any more time talking. Taking out a chrysanthemum, she placed it on the ground. After this chrysanthemum was placed on the ground, it kept emitting smoke like mosquito incense.

When Harvey saw this, fear appeared on his face. He hurriedly said to his wife, “Hurry up and bring Shaun into the room!”

Without hesitation, Harvey's wife covered Shaun's mouth and nose and brought him away.

Uehara Yumi took off the sash on her kimono and looped it into a ring. The ring was neither big nor small. It could fit a person's head. She then tossed the sash into the air and controlled it to attack Terrence.

Terrence also became serious. He immediately took a step back and grabbed the seemingly soft sash with both hands, wanting to shake it off.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't seem to shake the sash off.

Jordan couldn't see the exact situation of the battle and was a little anxious.

He was eager to know how strong Uehara Yumi and Terrence were.

This was because Jordan might have to fight them in the future.

Jordan immediately said to Shaun, "They're fighting now and won't be paying much attention to anything else. You can send in a mini drone to spy on their battle."

Afraid that the Handley family would notice, Shaun was currently only using a mini surveillance device that had a limited camera angle.

No one could see the exact battle situation.

"Got it!"

Shaun immediately did as he was told.

Soon, Shaun and the other three were able to watch the battle between Uehara Yumi and Terrence clearly!

Terrence used all his strength to resist the extremely thin and soft sash! Not to mention an adult like Terrence, even the one-year-old Shaun could probably tear this sash off with one hand.

Shaun was also well-versed in the occult, so he understood what was happening. He thought to himself: 'This Japanese woman is stronger than my uncle!'

Jordan sighed inwardly: 'If it were me, I wonder if I can stop this sash from attacking?'

Jordan had been injected with the Mirakuru serum and the power of his punch was much stronger than Tyson's at his peak. His upper body was very strong. However, even though Jordan was extremely strong, he wasn't confident in defending against that thin sash.

The sash was clearly infused with Uehara Yumi's power!

Uehara Yumi's fiery red lips revealed a smug smile as she continued to exert force, making the sash attack Terrence.

Terrence had nowhere to go. He was already leaning against the wall. While he had persisted for a long time, in the end, he couldn't resist it.

There was a whoosh.

The soft sash wrapped around Terrence's neck!

"Uncle!"

Shaun couldn't help shouting. He was very worried for Terrence.

Rong Huangde comforted him. "Shaun, don't worry. Your uncle will be fine. Otherwise, I wouldn't have only killed him in 1984, right?"

Shaun knew that Terrence wouldn't die today, but he still didn't want to see his uncle suffer.

"Ah!"

After the sash wrapped around Terrence's neck, it became tighter and tighter. Soon, Terrence couldn't breathe and his face turned red.

"Are you going to tell me or not?! If you don't, I'll kill you right now!" Uehara Yumi threatened again.

However, even on the brink of death, Terrence refused to speak.

At this moment, a child suddenly jumped out.

"B*tch, go to hell!"

Terrence's son, Finn, saw his father being tortured by Uehara Yumi. He picked up a brazier and threw it at her!

Uehara Yumi was just a woman but how could she be the kind of woman who was delicate with no physical ability?

She gave a light leap and dodged Finn's attack.

However, Finn's attack was not over.

He came behind Uehara Yumi and reached out with his right hand to grab her clothes.

With a ripping sound, Finn tore off a piece of cloth from Uehara Yumi's kimono.

"Finn..."

Jordan could clearly see that it was impossible for a little boy to have enough strength to rip off a piece of cloth from a woman's kimono. Although it was 1978 and the quality of everyone's clothes might not be as good, Uehara Yumi was clearly a noble.

The quality of her kimono must be very good. It was not something that could be torn off by a skinny kid.

To be precise, Finn's hands were a little like a cat's paws. He had very sharp claws.

As a result, it was very easy for him to tear her clothes.

After tearing off a large piece, Finn laughed at Uehara Yumi. "Hahaha, how embarrassing. You're already an adult woman but I can see your buttocks. Shameless, haha."

Uehara Yumi looked at the rip in her kimono and instantly looked embarrassed. Although her spells were very powerful, she was still a shy girl at heart.

For someone like her, who was from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction and obsessed with spells, she had no time to go dating and fall in love.

Uehara Yumi was furious. "Little brat, you're courting death!"

Seeing that Uehara wanted to settle scores with Finn, Harvey couldn't sit still anymore. He immediately intervened. "Don't touch my nephew!"

Bang!

Harvey and Uehara Yumi began to fight. But even though Harvey was a man, he was no match for her in physical combat.

Bang!

Harvey and Finn were sent flying by Uehara Yumi's beautiful legs.

Terrence became even more anxious. He suddenly sat cross-legged and closed his eyes, muttering something.

Sparks suddenly appeared on the sash around his neck. The flames spread bit by bit and finally burned the belt!

“What a powerful Handley family spell!”

Even Uehara Yumi couldn't help praising.

“Fortunately, the Handley brothers haven't cultivated for long. If they were given a hundred or two hundred years to develop and cultivate, our Nine Chrysanthemum Faction would definitely not be their match!”

Uehara Yumi felt a sense of urgency.

After Terrence undid his restraints, he approached Uehara Yumi and knelt on the ground.

“Ms. Uehara, my son is ignorant. Please have mercy on him on account of his young age!”

Uehara Yumi snorted. “Your son will be a pervert when he grows up. But actually, I had hoped that his father was also such a person! In the beginning, I tried to use my body to seduce you, but you weren't tempted. You're the first man in the world who has rejected me!”

Chapter 1035: Snatched Her Cat!

Terrence still had a righteous expression on his face. He lowered his head and said, “Ms. Uehara is so noble. I'm just a country bumpkin. How can I be worthy of you?”

Uehara Yumi looked down at Terrence. Seeing him kneel and beg for mercy, she didn't continue to pursue Finn's mistake. Instead, she said to Terrence, “You'd better discipline your son well. If this happens again, I'll definitely kill him!”

With that, Uehara Yumi pulled out a piece of cloth to cover the rip in her kimono before walking out of the hall.

“Sakura.”

Uehara Yumi meowed at her white cat, but unfortunately, there was no response.

“How strange, where’s my cat?”

Terrence and Harvey also summoned their cats.

All the black cats came but Uehara Yumi’s white cat was nowhere to be seen.

Uehara Yumi looked fierce. “You killed my Sakura?”

Terrence had been fighting with Uehara Yumi, so he naturally didn’t have the chance. He thought it was Harvey who did it and looked at him.

Harvey hurriedly said, “I didn’t! I didn’t touch your cat!”

Terrence knew that his brother wasn’t lying and hurriedly said, “Ms. Uehara, our family’s lives are in your hands. How can we dare to kill your cat? Wouldn’t we be courting death?”

Uehara Yumi also felt that the two brothers didn’t have the guts. She looked at that sinister little brat, Finn, again.

“It’s not him. He doesn’t have the ability to deal with my Sakura.”

Uehara Yumi immediately used her mental power to sense Sakura’s presence.

At this moment, Jordan and the others were also very curious about where Uehara Yumi’s cat had gone.

Jordan asked Shaun, “Did you see where Uehara Yumi’s cat went?”

Shaun said, “I didn’t notice. The drone didn’t capture it, but don’t worry. With Uehara Yumi’s ability, she can sense where the cat is with her mental powers. Even your wife, Lauren, knows this move.”

“Okay.”

Jordan nodded. He knew that Uehara Yumi was a very powerful “sorcerer”. He did not have to worry about her.

Therefore, Jordan tilted his head slightly and looked in Lauren’s direction.

“Oh my god!”

Jordan suddenly exclaimed!

“What happened?!”

“Deity Jordan, are you alright?!”

Shaun and Rong Huangde immediately asked when they heard Jordan shout.

Something must have happened for Jordan to be so shocked!

When Jordan looked at Lauren, he realized that she was carrying a white cat! This white cat was the one that Uehara Yumi had brought over!

“Meow.”

The white cat was very docile. It looked like it was enjoying being stroked by Lauren.

Jordan was shocked. “Lauren, is... is this Uehara Yumi’s cat? Why is it here?”

Lauren said innocently, “I don’t know what happened, but I summoned it. I... I didn’t do it on purpose.”

Lauren had the ability to summon cats!

Shaun was shocked. “F*ck, disciple, you summoned Uehara Yumi’s cat to you? You’re too awesome. Even my uncle can’t defeat Uehara Yumi, yet you dare to snatch her cat? Jordan, I think you should quickly run. Uehara Yumi will soon sense that the cat is with you. She will kill you!”

Rong Huangde also advised him. “Deity Jordan, be careful. This matter can quickly turn serious. Do you need us to use high-tech weapons to help you?”

Realizing the gravity of the situation, Lauren hurriedly threw the cat to the ground and said to it, “Leave quickly, Sakura. Don’t stay with me anymore!”

However, Sakura jumped onto Lauren again and refused to leave.

And it kept knocking on the box beside her with its claws.

Inside the box was the cat food that Lauren had brought over from 2022.

‘So that’s why the cat refuses to leave. It’s a greedy little thing.’ Jordan thought to himself.

Things were getting critical. Jordan felt that it was both an impending crisis and a possible opportunity.

Jordan had taken the initiative to make contact with the Handley family, but they had rejected him. If Jordan could help the Handley family defeat Uehara Yumi this time, perhaps they would be more friendly.

Mind racing, Jordan thought for a moment before saying to Shaun, "Shaun, you have a QR code scanner with you, right?"

Shaun replied, "Yes, you gave me a few after you modified them. I've been holding onto them. Why?"

Jordan said, "Later, listen to my instructions and cooperate with me. We'll use the QR code bombs invented by the Japanese to deal with Uehara Yumi!"

...

In the Handley family's courtyard.

Uehara Yumi used her mental power to sense that her kitten Sakura was in the house opposite.

"Oh? Sakura went to the house opposite?"

Uehara Yumi was surprised and asked Harvey, "Who lives opposite you?"

Harvey said, "A very cultured young couple."

Uehara Yumi said, "How dare they capture my cat? They are courting death!"

Uehara Yumi immediately walked over angrily.

Seeing how unhappy Uehara Yumi was, Harvey knew that something was going to happen to the young couple!

Harvey quickly followed her. As he walked, he said, "Ms. Uehara, the couple came from the capital and only arrived yesterday. Please be magnanimous and let them off. You've already killed so many people in our village!"

"Get lost!"

Uehara Yumi slapped Harvey to the ground. She then pushed open the door to Jordan's house and walked in.

The moment she walked in, Uehara Yumi was immediately dumbfounded.

In the courtyard, a man stood with his hands behind his back. He had the demeanor of a hero and a knife in front of him.

“You’re here.”

Jordan said slowly. He did not turn around. Instead, he looked like a prophet who had already expected her to come.

Uehara Yumi had originally wanted to kill the young couple who had snatched her cat. But now, she was also stunned by this aura.

“You knew I was coming? You deliberately snatched my cat? Where’s my Sakura?” Uehara Yumi asked.

Jordan turned around and looked at her. He sighed inwardly: ‘Damn, she’s so similar to Sister-in-law. They’re definitely mother and daughter!’

He didn’t expect to meet his brother’s mother-in-law in this way. And it was indeed a little awkward to meet Uehara Yumi for the first time with such a revealing rip in her kimono.

Jordan was still very respectful to his elders. He threw a pair of Lauren’s pants to her.

“Put on some pants first before we talk.”

Uehara Yumi immediately felt embarrassed and angry!

Bang!

Uehara Yumi used a spell to destroy the pants. She pointed at Jordan and said, “Idiot! You humiliated me!”

Jordan shook his head helplessly: ‘This temper is very different from Sister-in-law’s. Sister-in-law is much gentler.’

Chapter 1036: I’m A Sorcerer Too!

As Uehara Yumi faced Jordan, she felt both nervous and a little shy.

This was because Uehara Yumi was about the same age as Jordan and she had never experienced romance.

In the 1970s and 1980s, most people were ugly and short. Especially the Japanese. At this time, most Japanese men were only 1.6 meters tall. There were very few who were 1.7 meters tall.

A tall man like Jordan immediately looked very outstanding. Moreover, not only was Jordan tall, but he was also very handsome. Uehara Yumi felt like she had fallen in love at first sight.

When she thought about how Finn had ripped a big hole in her kimono and how this handsome man had seen it, she felt extremely embarrassed.

Uehara Yumi pointed at Jordan. "What nonsense are you spouting? Who are you?!"

Harvey rushed forward and stood in front of Jordan. "Jordan, don't provoke this Japanese. Hurry up and kneel down to apologize to her. Return her cat to her and leave this town with your wife. Don't ever come back!"

Jordan looked at Harvey. He had believed that Harvey would be like Shaun, a bad person. But now, he realized that Harvey and his brother, Terrence, had good values.

It was indeed not easy for them to keep their secret and not reveal it to the Japanese. This alone made them worthy of respect.

Jordan said to Harvey, "There's no way I am going to kneel and beg a Japanese for mercy! America is the most dominant power in the world!"

"Hahaha..."

Uehara Yumi laughed out loud. "Shameless boasting! What right do you have?"

Jordan smiled. "We are stronger than you!"

Uehara Yumi laughed again. "Kid, no country is better than Japan! You're daydreaming!"

"Where's my cat?!"

Jordan replied, "I cooked it!"

Uehara Yumi snorted. "Ignorant and stubborn brat! What a pity you are so handsome! Today, I'll teach you a lesson and make you submit to a Japanese woman!"

Jordan continued to tease her. "Your English is terrible. It's too difficult to listen to you. Just speak Japanese. I can understand you."

Uehara Yumi was furious. She no longer hesitated. She had to teach this arrogant man a lesson!

“Jordan, be careful!”

Harvey was worried for Jordan. Uehara Yumi was so powerful that even he and his brother could not resist her.

Jordan was just an ordinary person. Although he looked very strong, he was definitely not her match!

Uehara Yumi immediately took out a sash and threw it at Jordan.

The sash transformed into a circle in the air.

“This technique again. Are you trying to strangle me? Hehe.”

Fortunately, Jordan knew about Uehara Yumi’s moves and was already prepared.

Jordan took out a QR code and threw it at the sash.

“Explode”!

When Shaun heard this, he used the QR code scanner installed on the invisible drone in the sky to aim at the QR code, detonating it!

Boom!

The sudden rumbling sound shocked Harvey and Uehara Yumi.

Uehara Yumi’s sash was also blown to pieces!

The Handley family and Uehara Yumi were all stunned!

“This is... this is... a spell?”

No matter how powerful the spells of the Handley family and Uehara Yumi were, they were still people who were from the 1970s. They knew nothing about future technology.

Even ordinary people in 2022 did not know about the high-end QR code bombs. It was a product of a secret family. These people from the 1970s have never even seen a QR code before.

Uehara Yumi exclaimed. “The thing you threw out just now... is a talisman?”

The QR code was full of black squiggles and looked similar to a talisman.

Jordan snorted coldly and pretended to be profound. “Do you think only your Nine Chrysanthemum Faction and the Handley family know magic? Ignorant fools! Your spells are nothing compared to mine!

“Uehara Yumi, I’ve been watching you for a long time! I know you’re looking for trouble with the Handley family and want to know their huge secret. So, I immediately rushed over to help them! I’m telling you, with me around, don’t even think about touching a single strand of their hair!”

When Harvey and Terrence heard this, they were so relieved that tears welled up in their eyes.

A savior had arrived!

And it was an expert whose spells were even more powerful than theirs!

They couldn’t detonate something out of thin air!

When Rong Huangde saw this, he said through the microphone, “As expected of Deity Jordan. So you took the initiative to fight Uehara Yumi to gain the trust of the Handley family. From now on, it will be much easier to find out their secret from Terrence. This is because they will feel that their secret is not a secret at all compared to your powers. I’m impressed. I’m sincerely impressed!”

When Rong Huangde thought about this major progress in his search for the secret, he became very happy.

But Shaun frowned. He didn’t want his family to be tricked by Jordan.

Uehara Yumi asked, “Where did you get your ability from? Is it the same as the Handley family’s spells? Did you come from the same place?”

Jordan smiled. “You’re just a weakling, yet you dare to question the strong. Who gave you this sense of superiority and courage?!”

Whoosh!

As Jordan spoke, he immediately threw another QR code at Uehara Yumi.

“Explode!”

Jordan shouted again and made an exaggerated gesture.

“Ah!”

Uehara Yumi screamed in fear.

However, the QR code gently landed in front of Uehara Yumi's feet without exploding.

The scene was deathly silent and awkward...

"Eh?"

Harvey and Terrence were both surprised.

Why didn't it explode this time?

Uehara Yumi also looked down at the QR code, her heart beating wildly.

Jordan cursed in his heart. "What the hell is Shaun doing?! Why didn't he detonate the QR code this time?!"

Shaun hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, Jordan. I sneezed just now and didn't aim properly. Throw it again."

Damn!

Jordan cursed silently. Shaun really knew how to drag him down.

Smiling, Jordan said to Uehara Yumi, "I can make it explode or not, depending on my mood. This second one, I just tossed it at you for fun!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1037: Senior Jordan!

Uehara Yumi was furious. She believed that Jordan's earlier explosion might have been a coincidence. He might not have had any abilities.

Uehara Yumi shouted, "Damn it! How dare you trick me! Die!"

Uehara Yumi leaped at Jordan, wanting to attack him.

Jordan quickly took out another QR code and pasted it on Uehara Yumi's shoulder. He shouted again, "Explode!"

He thought to herself: 'Shaun, f*ck you. If you screw with me again, I won't let you off!'

This time, Shaun did not dare to screw with him again. The drone in the sky aimed directly at the QR code on Uehara Yumi's shoulder.

When Uehara Yumi grabbed Jordan's neck, she was sent flying with a bang!

"Ahhhh!"

"Pfft."

Uehara Yumi's left arm was a bloody mess, and she spat out blood.

As Jordan had pasted a small QR code, it was relatively less powerful compared to the previous one. If Jordan had pasted a larger QR code with high explosive power, it would not be just an arm wound.

She could forget about living!

On the side, Harvey and Terrence were also extremely shocked when they saw Uehara Yumi vomiting blood and her left arm crippled.

Uehara Yumi had been coming to the Handley family town for a long time and caused trouble for the Handley brothers. The Handley brothers had tried to kill her countless times, but no matter what they did, they could not hurt her at all.

In their eyes, the gorgeous Uehara Yumi had long become a goddess-like figure.

Now, it was unbelievable that Jordan could hurt her so easily. The Handley brothers' admiration for Jordan had reached the highest level!

'This guy's strength is definitely above mine!'

Terrence was shocked.

'I wonder how long he will stay in the village. It would be good if we can get him to be Shaun's master!'

Harvey made plans for his son, Shaun.

"How is it, beauty? Do you still want to continue fighting me?"

Jordan walked over smugly and asked Uehara Yumi.

Uehara Yumi fell to the ground. She held her injured left arm with her right hand and said, "This country is indeed filled with crouching tigers and hidden dragons. It looks like you guys will survive today. Jordan, I'll remember you!"

With that, Uehara Yumi took out a smoke bomb with her right hand and threw it on the ground.

Smoke instantly filled the courtyard.

Uehara Yumi took the opportunity to get up and escape.

“Wow, Sister-in-law’s mother is quite fashionable. She knows how to use smoke bombs even in 1978.”

When it came to twisted evil techniques, Jordan admitted he was inferior in this aspect. However, in terms of technology, the people from 1978 were nothing compared to the technology of the secret families from 2022.

Jordan called Lauren to come out. She held a bottle of special water and sprayed it in the air, and the smoke in the courtyard quickly dissipated.

Seeing this, Terrence and his brother felt even more amazed. Lauren only used a bottle of water to make the smoke dissipate.

They felt that Jordan and Lauren were both spell mighty figures who were far more powerful than them!

They were gods!

Terrence and Harvey looked at each other. Then, the two of them knelt down at the same time.

“Thank you Divine Gods for saving our lives!”

Jordan quickly helped Terrence and Harvey to their feet. Shaun was watching the scene via the drone.

How could Shaun’s father and uncle kneel to Jordan?

As for Lauren, she was Shaun’s disciple, but now, her teacher’s father and uncle were kneeling before her. She couldn’t accept it.

Jordan said, “Please get up. We’re not divine gods. We just know a little magic like you!”

After Terrence and Harvey got up, they addressed Jordan and Lauren differently and thanked them again.

“Thank you for saving us, Seniors!”

Lauren said in embarrassment, “We’re not your seniors. We’re your juniors.”

Terrence said, "You can't say that. In our line of work, we don't go by age, we go by cultivation level. Your spells are so much more powerful than ours. It's only right to call you Senior!"

Harvey gazed at the two of them with admiration. "That's right. Last night, I was boasting shamelessly and telling you to leave the town. I've really embarrassed myself in front of the two seniors! In the future, we might have to consult the two of you in terms of cultivation. I hope you can give us more guidance!"

Jordan stood with his hands behind his back, looking like an expert. "No problem. We are all Americans after all. I will be happy to give you two some pointers!"

When Shaun heard this, he couldn't stand it anymore. He said to Jordan through the microphone, "Damn you Jordan, you're so pretentious! Now, my father and uncle treat you as an otherworldly expert!"

Rong Huangde chuckled. "Otherwise, they wouldn't tell us their secret, right? Jordan, you're indeed a Deity. You're so efficient!"

Jordan gave a small smile at Rong Huangde's praise.

He wasn't willing to stay in this rural town for too long. The living conditions here were too terrible. And the food and drinks they brought were only enough for a few days.

Also, Lauren was pregnant, and Jordan did not want his wife to have to bear her pregnancy under such conditions.

Harvey said, "Senior Jordan, since you can easily kill Uehara Yumi, I think you should chase after her and kill her to eliminate future troubles!"

Terrence added. "That's right. Uehara Yumi is a Japanese with wild ambitions. Although she's young, her abilities are shocking. She's already the head of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. Moreover, she has a close relationship with the royal family and the army. To prevent the tragedy of World War II from happening again, please kill this person, Senior Jordan!"

Kill Uehara Yumi?

Jordan was hesitant!

If Uehara Yumi was just a Japanese and the head of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, Jordan would definitely kill her without hesitation, for America's sake.

However, Uehara Yumi might be his sister-in-law's mother!

Jordan asked, "Is Uehara Yumi married? Does she have children?"

Terrence and his brother were taken aback by this question.

Terrence replied, "Well... we're not too sure..."

Harvey said, "She's definitely not married. Otherwise, why would she be so shameless as to seduce my brother? Moreover, from her figure, she doesn't look like she has given birth before."

Jordan thought for a moment. If Uehara Yumi was not married and had never given birth yet, then Jordan could not kill her.

How was Yumi going to be born if he killed her mother?

Chapter 1038: Asking About The Handley Family's Secret!

However, in order to obtain the Handley family's secret, Jordan had to take this opportunity to get closer to the Handley brothers.

Jordan said, "You're right. Uehara Yumi is sinister and vicious. I heard that she killed many innocent people in the town. She might have returned to her residence to recuperate. Do you know where she lives?"

Harvey immediately said, "It's in the deepest part of the village. I'll take you there!"

"Okay."

Jordan followed Harvey over.

Jordan and the Handley brothers walked out of the courtyard and followed the direction of the blood trail to Uehara Yumi's residence. However, when they arrived, they realized that there was a helicopter in the sky. Uehara Yumi had already been picked up.

"Oh my god, a plane! Uehara Yumi has her own private plane! It's unbelievable!"

"She is indeed royalty! Senior Jordan, retreat quickly. No matter how powerful our spells are, we're no match for them!"

The Handley brothers were disappointed to see that Uehara Yumi had already been picked up by the plane.

When Jordan saw this, he felt a little relieved.

It wasn't that he didn't want to kill Uehara Yumi. It wasn't that he wanted to let her grow stronger.

He just didn't want to change history.

At this moment, Jordan suddenly thought of an issue.

'Where has Yumi been hiding for the past two years? Is she plotting something? Also, Park Sora has been missing for so long without any news. Where did she go? I have a vague feeling that in 2022, there are still many people and things that we don't know about...'

Before coming, Jordan thought that he already knew everything about the world in 2022.

The world was ruled by the Rong, Steele and Geng families. However, they now knew that the Miyamoto family was not the only power in Japan. There was also the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction.

Moreover, Yumi had been hiding in the Steele family for so long. It was terrifying.

Jordan was even more impatient now. He wanted to figure out the Handley family's secret as soon as possible and return to the present to find out the truth!

After Uehara Yumi escaped, the Handley brothers invited Jordan and Lauren to their house as guests.

"Senior Jordan, Madam Lauren, please take a seat."

In the innermost part of the hall, there were two proper chairs, which was clearly the place of honor.

Lauren immediately objected. "No, no. You're our elders. You can sit there, and we'll sit on these stools."

Terrence said, "We can't claim seniority here. We will feel very uncomfortable if we sit there."

When Jordan saw this, he smiled and said, "Lauren, we're all cultivators of secret techniques. No need to be so formal. Let's just sit."

Jordan had to act superior. Only then would the Handley brothers obediently reveal their secret.

After sitting down, the two brothers personally poured tea for them.

Thereafter, they sat on the lower stools.

Terrence said, "Sigh, it's a pity that that vicious woman, Uehara Yumi, managed to escape. She killed my wife and tortured me beyond recognition. Even my son, Finn, went crazy for a time. I swear that one day after I succeed in my cultivation, I will definitely go to Japan and settle the score with her!"

Jordan advised him. "Terrence, I sympathize with your experience. However, Uehara Yumi is not easy to deal with. As you saw, the moment something happened to her, a helicopter immediately came to pick her up. In this era, how many people can afford a helicopter? She must not only have the Nine Chrysanthemums Faction supporting her."

Terrence nodded. "You are right. I was being too narrow-minded. On behalf of Harvey and me, please accept our toast. Thank you again for your help, Senior Jordan!"

With that, Terrence and Harvey picked up their teacups and toasted Jordan.

"Sure, sure."

Jordan took a sip of tea. He felt that since the Handley brothers were feeling so grateful to him, it was a good opportunity for him to ask about their secret!

Therefore, Jordan said directly, "We're all cultivators. It's only right that we help each other. By the way, I'm also very interested in your Handley family's spells. I want to know if your spells come from the same place as mine. How did you get your spells?"

Jordan already tried his best to ask in a casual tone.

However, the Handley brothers immediately became nervous when they heard that.

Perhaps it was because Uehara Yumi had been pestering them about the origin of the Handley family's spells that they were a little wary.

"Well..."

Terrence looked troubled. He didn't want to reveal his secret.

Seeing this, Jordan smiled and said, "Haha, don't be nervous. I'm not plotting anything against you. You saw it just now. I'm much stronger than you in terms of cultivation. I can create a bomb out of thin air. I don't think your family can do this, right?"

Terrence said, "Even if we cultivate for another hundred years, it's impossible for us to achieve such a feat!"

Jordan smiled. "That's why I'm asking you this question. I'm purely curious. I want to know if we have the same origin. How about this? I'll tell you the source of my family's spells first. After that, you guys tell me about yours. How about that?"

Terrence was surprised. "You are willing to tell us such a deep secret? We must thank you for your trust!"

Jordan smiled. "In return, I expect that you also tell me the truth after I'm done."

Terrence immediately agreed. "Of course, of course!"

At this moment, Terrence was also wondering if the source of their spells were from the same place.

Jordan stood up and looked out of the courtyard. He said slowly, "This was more than a hundred years ago. My grandfather's grandfather rode a boat and floated out to sea. At sea, he met a little girl. That little girl was very strange and could predict the future. She also knew spells!

"She was the one who taught my grandfather's grandfather. The Steele family's spells were passed down generation after generation."

Jordan was lying, but not completely.

The little girl he was talking about was the first Deity. There was indeed such a little girl in the world. It was just that Jordan added a little lie that she also knew spells.

Terrence and his brother were amazed.

"There's actually such a magical little girl in the world!"

"It's unbelievable."

After Jordan finished speaking, he asked, "I'm done. What about you? Who taught you your spells?"

Terrence paused for a moment before saying, "Our Handley family's spells don't come from one person, but from a place."

"A place?"

Jordan, Rong Huangde and the others grew excited!

Especially Rong Huangde!

He narrowed his eyes and waited for an answer. The moment Terrence revealed the name of that place, this trip could come to a successful conclusion!

Chapter 1039: Shaun Joins Forces With The Handley Family!

“What place?”

Jordan was also looking at Terrence anxiously.

Terrence said, “That place is called...”

“Brother!”

Harvey suddenly grabbed Terrence and interrupted him.

Harvey stood up and said, “Senior Jordan, drink your tea first. It won’t taste good after it gets cold.”

Jordan didn’t understand why Harvey interrupted at this moment. “Oh, it’s alright. I’m not thirsty.”

He looked at Terrence. “Terrence, where is that place?”

Harvey immediately interrupted again. “Senior Jordan! My brother and Uehara Yumi fought a huge battle today. He’s already very tired. He should rest. Why don’t we talk about this another day when my brother has recovered a little?”

Jordan found it very strange. It was just speaking a couple more words. How much more tiring could that be?

Jordan smiled. “Harvey, aren’t you underestimating your brother? It’s just the name of a place.”

Ignoring Harvey, Jordan looked at Terrence again. “Is that place also at sea? Is it in the US or overseas?”

Terrence looked a little dazed. It was obvious that he wanted to say something. However, Harvey kept shooting him looks to prevent him from saying anything.

Harvey was Terrence’s younger brother while Jordan was someone he had just met.

As a result, Terrence said, "Senior Jordan, I suddenly feel a little unwell. Harvey is right. It's not appropriate to talk about this today. After I recover, I'll definitely come to visit you and tell you everything. Is that alright?"

"F*ck!"

Jordan heard Rong Huangde cursing in his earpiece.

In Jordan's impression, Rong Huangde had always been a refined and calm elderly man. However, the current situation agitated Rong Huangde so much that he cursed.

"Damn Harvey! Why did he stop his brother from telling the truth?! What is that place?! Where is that place?! Ah!"

Rong Huangde was about to go crazy!

Jordan was not with Rong Huangde now. If he was with him, he would have witnessed Rong Huangde's ferocious and terrifying appearance. He did not look like an old man who had already made peace with death at all!

Shaun was beside Rong Huangde and he was shocked. He hurriedly coaxed the older man, "Daddy Rong, calm down. My father might feel sorry for my uncle. Didn't they say that he will definitely tell Jordan the truth after he recovers?"

Jordan was also very frustrated. He was just one step away from success when he was once again obstructed. However, when it came to such matters, one couldn't force it or make hasty decisions or things might backfire.

Also, Jordan was a master of psychology. He knew that he could not appear overly anxious. Therefore, Jordan smiled calmly. "Alright, I'll wait for you to recover before we talk about this. I believe that the Handley brothers aren't people who will take advantage of others for nothing. Hehe. I won't disturb you anymore. Lauren, let's go."

Having no other choice, Jordan and Lauren left the Handley family. Before they left, Jordan quietly placed a mini bug on the chair he had just sat on.

'It doesn't matter if you don't tell me directly. I can eavesdrop on you to get that answer!'

Jordan had made great progress. He knew that the Handley family's spells came from a mysterious place and were not passed on by an individual. As long as he could get the name of that place, all the answers would be revealed.

After returning home, Jordan immediately put on his earphones and started listening.

However, Jordan soon took off his earphones.

“What’s wrong, Hubby? Did they say anything? Did they reveal the name of that place?”

Lauren asked with concern as she hugged the beautiful Sakura.

Jordan shook his head. “They destroyed the bug. I can only hear static.”

“Huh?”

Lauren was surprised. The Handley brothers had discovered Jordan’s listening device so quickly. Their observation skills were too good, right?

Jordan held her hand and said, “Honey, although Uehara Yumi has left, I have a feeling that the real crisis has just begun...”

...

At 1 AM, Harvey snuck out of his house.

He looked around, especially at Jordan’s door. After crouching low and listening for a while to confirm that there was no movement and no one nearby, he quietly walked out of town.

He snuck to a spot three kilometers away from the village and saw a figure standing in front of him.

Harvey stopped and took out a note from his pocket. “You were the one who shot the note into my pocket today, right?”

This place was pitch-black. If there were lights, one would be able to read the contents of the note. There was just one line:

‘Don’t tell Jordan the family secret, he’s not a good person!’

During the day, when they were on their way back to the Handley residence from Uehara Yumi’s place, Harvey suddenly felt a ball of paper descend from the sky and fly into his pocket.

He took it out and saw the contents of the note. That was why he had stopped Terrence from revealing the family secret.

After Jordan and Lauren left, Harvey received another note from the sky. It read:

‘Don’t say anything yet. There’s a listening device on the chair that Jordan was sitting on. Destroy it.’

At night, Harvey received another note in his room, asking him to meet at this time and place.

Harvey was very curious as to who was doing all this!

The figure in front turned around.

Although it was very dark, there was a bit of moonlight. Harvey could vaguely see that the person in front of him was a Chinese man.

It was Shaun!

It was Shaun who had stopped Jordan and Rong Huangde from knowing the truth!

How could Shaun let Jordan and Rong Huangde get the answer just like that?

After all, Shaun's goal this time was to kill Jordan and Rong Huangde! He had yet to join forces with his father and uncle. He could not let them get the answer and return victorious.

If they all managed to return to the present just like that, the world would still be under their control.

But if only Shaun returned alive, then the master of the world would be him!

Harvey was shocked to see the Chinese man. "You... you're a foreigner? Do you speak English?"

When Shaun saw Harvey, tears welled up in his eyes. He knelt on the ground and grabbed Harvey's legs. "Dad!"

Harvey was stunned and took a step back in fear. "Buddy, stop fooling around. How can I be your father? What kind of woman do I have to sleep with to give birth to a Chinese kid like you?"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1040: Join Forces With Rong Huangde!

Shaun now had the body of Rong Bailun, who was a Chinese man in his 40s.

There was no way Harvey could father a Chinese son. Moreover, this fellow looked even older than him.

Shaun hurriedly said, "Dad, you're really my father. I'm Shaun! I'm not lying to you! I traveled back in time 40 years from the future!"

"40 years from the future? Time travel?"

Harvey was dumbfounded. He was from 1978 and had never seen a time-travel show nor even read a time-travel novel. He was very unfamiliar with the concept.

But it was a good thing that Harvey had experienced some magical things in his life. He didn't think it was too far-fetched, unlike if he was an ordinary middle-aged man from a rural town.

He knew that there were many magical things in this world.

Harvey said, "You're too good at bullsh*tting. Even if you really came from 40 years later, my son is Caucasian. It's impossible for him to turn into a Chinese, right?"

Shaun said, "Dad, give me some time. I'll explain it to you. It's like this..."

With that, Shaun told his father everything that had happened over the years. Including how he had switched minds with Rong Bailun and how he had come to this era through a time machine.

He told Harvey about Jordan being a Deity.

For an entire hour, Harvey listened until his head hurt. The shock in his heart was incomparable.

"This body belongs to Rong Bailun? You switched minds with him? Jordan and Rong Huangde traveled back in time with you just to uncover the secrets of our Handley family? Oh my god, is this world that crazy? How can so many magical things happen?" Harvey said in disbelief.

Shaun said, "Dad, I know it's very difficult for you to believe all of this, but I'm really not lying to you. I have photos of me living with Mom in Switzerland. Look."

He took out some photos from his pocket. They were photos of him and his mother when they were alive.

Shaun turned on the flashlight, allowing Harvey to see clearly. When Harvey looked at the photos, he was surprised to see Shaun and his mother in them.

"This man looks like me when I was young! Also, is this woman really my wife after she grows old? She looks so similar!"

Shaun was still a baby in 1978. It was difficult to imagine what he would look like after he grew up.

On the other hand, Harvey's wife was already an adult in 1978 and the foundation of her appearance was already set. Even after 40 years into the future, one would still be able to tell it was her under all those wrinkles.

Therefore, Harvey was certain that the old lady in the photo was his wife!

"Are you really Shaun?"

Finally, Harvey began to believe Shaun after seeing the photos.

Shaun nodded. "Dad, I'm really Shaun. Mom taught me the nursery rhyme and told me the story of you and Uncle. I remember everything! I came here to ask you to help me! As long as you and Uncle help me kill Jordan and Rong Huangde, I will become the master of the world when I return to the present!

"Don't you want your son to rule the world in the future?"

Of course, Harvey hoped that his son would be so successful.

After chatting with Shaun for an hour, he gradually sensed that this guy really resembled his son.

Harvey was a spell cultivator whose mental strength far exceeded that of ordinary people. He was also more sensitive than others when it came to sensing people.

"Child, I believe you. I can feel the intimate connection between us. However, I still have to discuss this with your uncle. If your uncle believes you, we will help you kill Jordan and Rong Huangde!"

Shaun knelt down again. "Thank you, Dad! I'll contact you through the note method then. I have to go back. I'm staying with Rong Huangde now, and I can't let him find out that I came out to see you. Otherwise, it'll be troublesome."

"Okay."

With that, Shaun and Harvey parted ways.

But what Shaun didn't know was that after he left the place where he was currently staying with Rong Huangde, Jordan came to pay a visit.

"Jordan? It's so late. Why are you here? Huh? Where's Shaun? Has he gone out?"

Rong Huangde was woken up by Jordan. He was very surprised by his late-night visit.

Jordan looked different from usual. Ever since the Handleys suddenly changed their mind and stopped talking about the secret, Jordan sensed that something was wrong.

In his dream earlier, Jordan had dreamed of something bad.

Jordan sat on the chair and said, "If I'm not wrong, Shaun must have gone to see his father. Harvey suddenly stopped Terrence today and didn't let him reveal the name of the place. I'm afraid it's also because of Shaun."

Rong Huangde was furious. "Damn Shaun. If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have brought him here. What is this b*stard trying to do?! When he returns, I'll kill him immediately!"

Jordan quickly objected. "No, we can't kill Shaun. Harvey and Terrence probably already know my background. Even if we kill Shaun, they won't tell me the Handley family's secret."

Rong Huangde was a little anxious. "Deity Jordan, since you came to find me so late at night, you must have thought of a solution. Please tell me."

Jordan did have a solution. However, he would have to sacrifice a lot this time, and it would be very dangerous.

"Shaun has always wanted to kill us and rule the world himself. You should know this, right?"

Rong Huangde snorted. "Although I'm old, my mind is still very clear. Shaun is a b*stard with wild ambitions. He has always been hypocritical and hiding his ambitions. How can I be deceived by him? I already expected him to attack us during this time travel. Once we die here, he will return to 2022 and become the undisputed master of the world.

"No one would be his match anymore!"

Jordan nodded. It seemed like Rong Huangde was very clear on this. Similarly, Jordan already knew this too. Jordan, Rong Huangde and Shaun were no fools. They knew very well what the other party was thinking.

They only got along harmoniously on the surface, but in reality, they knew that the other party would kill them at any moment.

Jordan was also good at psychological warfare. If Shaun hadn't already taken action, Jordan wouldn't have taken the initiative to discuss countermeasures with Rong Huangde.

“I’ve predicted that with Shaun’s interference, it’s impossible for us to successfully obtain the location of the Handley family’s spells. Even if we do, it will be fake information. Shaun will instigate the Handley family to lie to us,” said Jordan.

Rong Huangde was dismayed. “Is our operation destined to fail?”

Jordan said slowly, “There’s only one way!”

Chapter 1041: Shaun’s Scheme Succeeded!

Rong Huangde was flustered by Jordan’s words.

He knew that Jordan must have a way to deal with Shaun. However, he couldn’t help feeling flustered because this matter was too important to him.

Finding the source of the Handley family’s secret was Rong Huangde’s lifelong wish.

The Rong family represented the world’s strongest technology and no one knew more about it than them.

However, the more advanced technology research the family did, the more they could feel that metaphysics, magic and such mystical things would be the end-point.

Rong Huangde said respectfully, “Deity Jordan, is there any way we can get accurate information? Please enlighten me! I trust you unconditionally. No matter what you ask me to do, I will definitely cooperate!”

Jordan sighed and looked at Rong Huangde. “There’s only one way to get an absolutely correct answer. We have to... let Shaun kill us!”

Rong Huangde took a nervous step back. “What?”

He never expected that the price for getting the correct information would be death!

Jordan said, “As long as we’re alive, Terrence and Harvey will never tell us the real answer. Only after we die will Shaun make them reveal the location of that mysterious place.”

Rong Huangde also frowned and pondered. With Shaun’s ability and the fact that he was indeed Harvey’s son, it was not difficult for him to gain Harvey’s trust.

Harvey would definitely trust Shaun and help him. He would listen to him and not tell Jordan the correct location.

Jordan was right. Unless they were dead, they would never get the right information.

Rong Huangde looked at Jordan. He knew very well that Jordan was still young and had such a loving wife. He couldn't possibly bear to die.

"Deity Jordan, are you saying that we will fake our deaths?"

Jordan smiled and nodded. "Of course it's a fake death. We all have drugs that can make Shaun think that we're dead. It's not difficult. The difficult thing is after we fake our deaths, who will eavesdrop on their conversations? Also, who will guarantee our safety?"

Rong Huangde understood what Jordan meant.

After Jordan and Rong Huangde pretended to die, it was very likely that Shaun would dismember their bodies to prevent future trouble.

If that happened, the two of them would really be dead.

To prevent Shaun from doing such a cruel thing, Jordan had to have a backup plan.

Jordan did not have the ability to do this himself. He could only rely on Rong Huangde. This was also the reason why he came to find him.

Rong Huangde smiled. "Looks like Deity Jordan has already guessed that I didn't come alone."

Jordan returned his smile. "Mr. Rong, we're all smart people. How can you not be prepared when facing me and Shaun? You must have brought your black-armored warriors, right?"

Rong Huangde was shocked. He didn't expect Jordan to guess that he had secretly brought his black-armored warriors!

Actually, Rong Huangde was thinking that after he obtained the correct location, he would immediately send out the black-armored warriors to kill Jordan and Shaun!

But before he could attack, Shaun had struck first!

Rong Huangde chuckled. "That's right. Before I made this trip, I set a timer for a few black-armored warriors. 12 hours after we traveled back in time, they would automatically enter the Time Gate. They're 10 kilometers away now, ready to obey my orders."

Jordan sighed inwardly. These two fellows, Shaun and Rong Huangde, were really sinister. They all had f*cking backup plans!

This trip was indeed abnormally dangerous. Whether it was Shaun or Rong Huangde, they could kill Jordan and Lauren!

Although Rong Huangde was not a good person, Jordan had to join forces with him first.

Rong Huangde said, "Alright, we'll fake our deaths first. After that, I'll get the black-armored warriors to watch our bodies. If Shaun or the Handley family try to do anything to us, I'll get the black-armored warriors to stop them. At the same time, I'll get the black-armored warriors to eavesdrop. After we die, I believe the Handley family will definitely reveal the correct place."

Jordan nodded. "Alright, it's a deal. Let's put on a good show together."

Jordan did not say anything else. Afraid that Shaun would suddenly return, he left soon after.

When Shaun returned, Rong Huangde was already pretending to be asleep again, feigning complete ignorance at all that had transpired.

Meanwhile, Harvey had reached home and told his wife and Terrence what had happened.

"What? You said that the person who shot you the note during the day is the future Shaun? He can actually travel back in time?"

Terrence was also shocked when he heard this. Although he had already experienced magical things, he still couldn't help exclaiming.

As for Harvey's wife, she held the photo and kept crying. "Is this... is this what I will look like when I'm old? Is this man my son? This is what he will look like when he grows up?"

Harvey asked his wife, "Honey, do you think this woman looks like you?"

Harvey's wife cried and nodded. "It's definitely me! And what you said will happen over the next few decades, I believe it completely! Harvey, since our son has come to find us, we must help him! Help him get the position of the master of the world. Help him get rid of Jordan and Rong Huangde!"

Harvey naturally wanted to help his son as well. However, Terrence was the head of the Handley family, so he had to seek his opinion.

So Harvey looked at Terrence and asked, "Brother, do you believe that person is Shaun from the future? Should we help him?"

Terrence narrowed his eyes and analyzed carefully. "He said that we will be blown up by high-tech cannons in six years. It will be the Rong family who will kill us. And Sister-in-law will be able to escape with him?"

Harvey nodded. "Yes."

Terrence continued. "He also said that he can't change history and take us away. He can only stand by and let us die in six years. The reason why he can kill Jordan and Rong Huangde is that they are from 2022. Their deaths will have no ripple effect on the timeline?"

Harvey nodded. "Yes!"

Terrence said, "I believe him."

Terrence was a very smart person. He knew that if the other party lied, he would definitely promise to give the Handley family some benefits.

But Shaun did not. He told the Handley brothers that they would still die six years later and they had to pretend to be ignorant of this fact.

"Shaun traveled across time to come to us for help. We must help him! Jordan and Rong Huangde, let them go to hell!"

Thank you for reading on

Three days later.

Ever since they woke up in the morning, Jordan and Lauren had been sitting quietly in the room with serious expressions.

Jordan had predicted that the Handley brothers would invite them to be guests at the Handley residence today. They would pretend to tell Jordan the Handley family's secret, but they were actually collaborating with Shaun to murder them and Rong Huangde.

Taking Lauren's hand, Jordan said, "Honey, I really shouldn't have let you come with me. You're pregnant now, but I have to ask you to fake your death. The drug won't affect the fetus much, but..."

Lauren said, "Hubby, I don't regret coming with you. Only by faking our deaths can we deceive Shaun. After taking the fake-death drug, we'll wake up automatically in a few hours. But I'm worried that Rong Huangde's black-armored warriors won't save us when we're in danger."

Jordan whispered, "Of course we can't count on him. Actually, I brought Little Steele."

Lauren was surprised. "Huh? The artificial intelligence robot Little Steele? When did you bring it?"

"Shh."

Jordan gestured for Lauren to keep her voice down. He didn't want Shaun and Rong Huangde to overhear.

The artificial intelligence Little Steele was Jordan's secret weapon. Its functions were not inferior to Rong Huangde's black-armored warriors.

Jordan had already ordered it to monitor their bodies while they were unconscious. If it sensed any danger approaching, it would immediately use a high-tech energy cannon to kill the enemy!

It would then wake Jordan and Lauren up.

Lauren said, "I'm relieved that Little Steele is here."

She realized that at critical moments, humans were the most unreliable. Robots were the most reliable.

As long as one put in the order, the robot would do it.

Before long, a little boy suddenly appeared at the door of Jordan's house.

It was Finn!

Finn's sudden appearance shocked Lauren.

The boy's smile was very strange. According to Terrence, he had been tortured by Uehara Yumi. If so, he was a really pitiful child. Nevertheless, it was still no excuse for him to eat Lauren's Whitey.

Jordan stood in front of Lauren and asked Finn, "What's the matter?"

Finn smiled. "My father and uncle want to invite you over for a meal."

Jordan pretended to be very happy and said with a smile, "Haha, I've waited for three days and finally received your invitation. It's not easy! Finn, go back and tell your father and uncle that we'll be there soon."

Finn smiled strangely again and turned to leave.

“Wait a minute.”

Jordan suddenly stopped Finn.

Since they were going to go against the Handley family, they might as well take a little revenge first.

“What is it?”

Finn turned around and asked with an unfriendly expression.

Jordan smiled. “Little kid, was my wife’s little white cat delicious?”

Finn paused for a moment, but he was not afraid of Jordan at all. He admitted boldly. “Delicious!”

Jordan smiled again. “Haha, your father, uncle and I are all good friends. Since you like to eat white cats, I have another one here. Take it.”

“Oh?”

Finn was excited and greedy.

Fat and vulnerable white cats were Finn’s favorite!

Jordan walked to a corner of the room and picked up Sakura, who was eating cat food imported from Canada in the 21st century.

“Meow.”

Sakura licked its lips unhappily. It was not full yet. For the past three days, it had been eating non-stop at Lauren’s place.

Cats from 1978 were completely defenseless against the most delicious cat food from 2022.

Jordan lifted Sakura and threw it onto Finn.

Finn was very happy to have gotten another white kitten, but when he looked down and saw that it was Uehara Yumei’s white kitten, Sakura, he was shocked!

“Ahhh!”

Finn was so frightened that he hurriedly dropped Sakura from his arms.

During this period of time, he had been bullied by this cat a lot!

“Meow!”

When Sakura saw Finn, it was especially excited. It pounced on him and scratched his face.

“Help! Daddy!”

Finn was so frightened that he peed his pants and ran home in a panic.

“Hmph, I knew it. Everybody has a weakness.”

Jordan hugged Sakura and patted its head, praising it.

Sakura was very obedient to Jordan. It did not feel uncomfortable at all with this new master.

Jordan said to Lauren, “Whoever has cat food is the mother of this cat. Let’s bring it back when we leave.”

Lauren nodded repeatedly. “Yes, yes, I think so too!”

Without further delay, Jordan and Lauren soon arrived at the Handley family residence.

“Terrence, Harvey!”

“Senior Jordan! Ms. Lauren! Please take a seat!”

Both parties were still very polite.

The Handley brothers had prepared a table full of dishes for Jordan and Lauren. When Jordan saw this, he couldn’t resist praising.

“Wow, there’s beef, eggs and wine. You guys are too generous!”

“Not at all,” Terrence said with a smile. “It’s all my fault for not feeling well after fighting with Uehara Yumi two days ago. I was unable to discuss our secret then.”

“Senior Jordan, you might not know this, but whenever I mention that place, I will become very excited. I can’t control it. It’s been two days now. I’m finally feeling better, so I plan to tell Senior Jordan the truth.”

Jordan smiled. “I knew you wouldn’t hide it from me. Don’t keep me in suspense. Where is that place?”

Outside the Handley family town, Shaun and Rong Huangde were also listening attentively with their earphones.

Rong Huangde sat in a chair and looked very serious.

Shaun stood behind him with a gun in his arms. Later, right as his uncle was about to say the name of that place, Shaun would make a move and kill Rong Huangde!

He was sure that Rong Huangde would be at his most defenseless at that moment.

It was his best chance to attack.

At the same time, Terrence and Harvey would attack Jordan and Lauren.

In the Handley residence, Harvey smiled and said, "Senior Jordan, there's no hurry. How about we have a drink first? Senior Jordan saved us last time, and we haven't thanked you properly yet. I specially asked someone to get this wine. Try it."

Jordan glanced at the bottle. The wine bottle looked very unique. It was the kind of bottle used for wine in rural regions during the 1970s.

Picking up the bottle, Jordan examined the label. "Looks like a fine bottle of wine. Come, Lauren, let's drink!"

"Cheers!"

Jordan and Lauren downed their wine.

The Handley brothers smiled smugly. This wine was poisoned!

Thank you for reading on

The wine was poisoned. As a Deity, how could Jordan not know?

Before coming, he and Lauren had already taken the antidote. Now, they were immune to all poisons.

Actually, the Handley brothers didn't need to do anything. Jordan and the rest had already fed themselves poison. Soon, they would enter into a state that resembled death.

Harvey was relieved when he saw Jordan drink the poisonous wine. "Senior Jordan, I want to see it again. Can you show us the spell you performed previously, the powerful spell that can instantly detonate something?"

After his conversation with Shaun, Harvey knew that Jordan did not know any spells. He had used a high-tech weapon to deal with Uehara Yumi. It was only with Shaun's help that Jordan could do it.

Jordan said, "My spell is too powerful. I'm afraid I'll blow up your house. It's better not to perform it here."

Harvey smiled. "We can go to the courtyard. Even if my dilapidated village is blown up, we can just rebuild it. It won't cost much."

Seeing that Jordan looked conflicted, Terrence said, "Harvey, don't make things difficult for Senior Jordan. We didn't invite him today to ask him to perform spells. Senior Jordan, thank you for your trust previously. You told us about the source of your family's spells. Our Handley family's spells are different from your family's. Ours don't come from a single person but from a place.

"I'm sure you've heard of this place. It's..."

At this moment, outside the Handley family town, in the house where Rong Huangde and Shaun lived.

Shaun suddenly picked up his gun and aimed it at Rong Huangde.

At this moment, Rong Huangde had his ears tightly covered by his earphones and was listening attentively to the conversation. He did not notice what was happening around him.

With a bang, Shaun shot Rong Huangde in the back.

"Arghh!"

Rong Huangde cried out in pain and turned around. When he saw Shaun, he pointed at him in disbelief. "You... you actually..."

Holding the gun, Shaun smiled. "Rong Huangde, you're really too smart for your own good. I killed your son, so how could I not want to kill you to get rid of future trouble? Don't look at me with such a surprised expression. Do you want to say that if I kill you, I won't get the antidote anymore and will die?"

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. I'm sorry. Jordan has already cured me of your poison! Rong Huangde, go to hell. I will take over this world for you. Hahaha!"

Bang!

Shaun shot Rong Huangde twice more.

Rong Huangde spat out blood. He closed his eyes and died on the spot.

Shaun specially checked Rong Huangde's body and breathing. He also used his mental power to sense his aura.

Rong Huangde was dead.

"Hmph, Rong, as the master of the world, why didn't you think about improving your physique? If you had been injected with the Mirakuru serum like Jordan, you wouldn't have been killed so easily by me with a gun. To think that the master of the world actually died at the hands of such a small weapon. I really feel sorry for you."

Shaun glanced at Rong Huangde's corpse in disdain before looking away in the direction of the Handley family town.

"Rong Huangde is already dead. Now, it's up to Uncle and Dad to kill Jordan. I have to hurry over and help!"

Shaun rushed towards the town.

What he didn't know was that not long after he left, a black-armored warrior flew in and immediately gave emergency treatment to Rong Huangde!

At this moment, Rong Huangde had indeed been shot and died, but the Rong family's technology already had the ability to resurrect the dead! As long as the time of death was not too long, just the damage caused by a gunshot could be completely treated!

...

Meanwhile.

"That place is..."

Just before Terrence revealed the name of the place...

Swish!

A red string flew out of Terrence's hand and looped around Jordan's neck. He then waved his finger and pointed it at Jordan's neck.

Whoosh!

The red string burst into flames, forming a ring of fire around Jordan's neck. The flames could not be extinguished. Jordan felt as if he was trapped in a cage, unable to breathe or move.

"Hubby!"

Lauren wanted to help, but Harvey waved a cat over.

Lauren looked at the cat and instantly felt that something was off. It was the Handley family's control technique!

At this moment, Harvey could kill Lauren using this cat!

Harvey grabbed the black cat's neck. Lauren immediately felt like she was being strangled and couldn't breathe.

Harvey continued to strangle the black cat to death.

Lauren also suffocated and fell to the ground.

Soon after, Terrence's spell also burned Jordan to death.

"Phew... Phew..."

Terrence and Harvey were panting, their faces covered in sweat.

Harvey asked, "Brother, did... did we really kill the Deity?"

Terrence reached out and said, "Don't be anxious. I'll use my mental power to examine their bodies."

Terrence could sense a person's life force with his mental power. If it was a fake death, he wouldn't be fooled.

However, Jordan's fake-death drug was made by a technology 40 years into the future. Terrence's mental power was no match for it.

"Dead. They are indeed dead," Terrence confirmed.

At this moment, Shaun suddenly rushed in. "Uncle! Dad! How is it?"

Shaun saw Jordan and Lauren lying on the ground.

"Hahaha, dead? Jordan and Lauren are dead?"

Shaun was ecstatic.

Harvey nodded. "Shaun, how are things on your side?"

Shaun said, "I killed Rong Huangde."

As he spoke, Shaun took out a laser knife and prepared to attack Jordan. At this moment, the artificial intelligence Little Steele suddenly appeared in the Handley family's courtyard.

"I sense Master is in danger."

"Threat: laser weapon."

"Solution: Suction insect."

Swoosh.

Little Steele immediately shot out a robot insect and attached it to the laser knife. The green light on the laser knife gradually dimmed.

Terrence stopped Shaun. "Shaun, what are you trying to do?"

Shaun said, "Dismember Jordan."

Terrence said, "I've already used my mental power and am 100% sure that he's dead. Why do you still want to do such a cruel thing? I heard from your father that Jordan is an American hero. He will raise our country's technological and military strength to the strongest in the world in the future. You can't do this!"

Chapter 1044: Shaun: I Did It!

Previously, after Shaun proved his identity to Harvey, he had also told him a lot about Jordan.

Jordan and the Steele family had always shared the most advanced technology with the US. Jordan had also sacrificed his wife to protect the safety of the entire capital.

As a result, Terrence and Harvey admired Jordan very much. After all, people of their era had just experienced war, so their desire to protect their homeland was very strong. They knew very well that without a hero like Jordan, there would be no chance for ordinary people like Terrence and Harvey to survive.

Terrence had hesitated when it came to killing Jordan. However, Shaun was family. They had no choice but to help him.

Shaun said, "Jordan is a very cunning person. I have to dismember him before I can feel at ease. You and Daddy died so early on in my life. I grew up in a frightened and uncertain environment. Forgive me for being so cautious, Uncle."

Slash!

Shaun raised his knife and slashed at Jordan's arm.

"Shaun!"

Terrence shouted, but he did not move.

With his power, it would be easy for him to stop Shaun.

"Eh? Why isn't this laser knife working?"

Shaun realized that his knife did not cut off Jordan's arm.

Jordan's body had been injected with the Mirakuru serum and was much stronger than ordinary people's. It could be said that he was invulnerable. Ordinary knives could not easily cut off his arm.

However, laser weapons were extraordinary and should be able to.

Terrence stopped Shaun again. He snatched Shaun's knife and said, "Enough, Shaun! If he wasn't dead, would he have watched you cut him like this?"

Shaun's mother's heart also softened. "That's right. Don't dismember him. It's frightening. You've already done so many bad things. I'm worried about your karma."

The older generation was more superstitious. Since Shaun had done all sorts of bad things, they were afraid that he would receive retribution.

Shaun thought for a moment and said, "Alright, Jordan should really be dead this time. What bullsh*t Deity? I've always overestimated him. I thought that he was invincible just because he had predictive abilities. Hehe, he's not that powerful. He didn't even know the truth about me sleeping with Victoria. Hehe."

Shaun looked down at Jordan's corpse with a mocking expression.

Jordan was indeed unconscious now. However, the artificial intelligence robot Little Steele recorded Shaun's words.

“Record of events related to Master.”

“1. Shaun insulted Master that he is a bullsh*t Deity.”

“2: Shaun slept with Victoria.”

Little Steele had activated its invisibility mode, so no one could detect it.

Shaun didn't know that Little Steele was standing outside, staring at him. If Shaun made any move that threatened Jordan or Lauren's lives, Little Steele would blast him to death.

As Shaun looked at the dead Lauren again, he muttered to himself, “Lauren is indeed the capital beauty. She's so beautiful even in death. What a pity. If she hadn't died, perhaps I could have made her my woman.”

Any man would want a beautiful woman like Lauren. But then, Shaun quickly lost interest in the bodies of Jordan and Lauren. He was eager to know the Handley family's secret!

The last time they met, Harvey did not tell Shaun and Shaun did not ask.

He was more cautious. Before Jordan and Rong Huangde died, he would not let his father and uncle reveal that place. It would be troublesome if someone eavesdropped on them.

Shaun asked, “Daddy, Uncle, how did our Handley family learn our spells? Where is the place you mentioned?”

Harvey and Terrence looked at each other. Terrence nodded at Harvey, who then said, “Son, this is the biggest secret in the world. You can't tell anyone, especially foreigners!”

Shaun replied, “Of course. I'm not a traitor. Besides, after I go back, I'll rule the world. The world will be under my control.”

Harvey nodded. “Alright, I'll tell you. That place is in our country's Mount Denali.”

“Mount Denali?”

Shaun was shocked. He had heard of Mount Denali.

It was located in Alaska and was the highest mountain peak in North America. It was also a sacred place to Alaskan Natives.

Shaun had never been to that remote place before.

Terrence continued, "Specifically, our ability to cast spells is from a lake in Mount Denali, Wonder Lake."

Shaun exclaimed, "You obtained your abilities from the lake at Mount Denali?"

Terrence nodded. "But not everyone can obtain superpowers from there. Back then, a few men from a neighboring town died in that lake. Only your father and I managed to stand on the surface of the lake and not fall in."

Harvey added. "Shaun, that lake is very strange. Your uncle and I have always called it the Immortal Lake. We feel that there's an immortal living in it. If you get there, you can try walking onto the lake surface and see if you fall in. If you fall into the lake like an ordinary person, it means that you are not fated. You have to get someone to save you quickly, or you will die there."

Shaun narrowed his eyes. "If I can stand on the lake without falling in, I can obtain superpowers?"

Terrence said, "Our powerful mental strength was obtained from that lake. It helped us establish a connection with cats. We can even control and kill people through cats. Actually, we've already imparted this ability to you. You don't need to go to that lake anymore. I keep feeling that there's a huge risk hidden in that lake. I don't even dare to go there again in this lifetime."

Shaun smiled. Although he had always been cautious, he was never a timid person.

The more dangerous a place was, the more opportunities there were. He would never let it go.

Shaun said, "Yes, Uncle. I'll be careful."

Harvey said, "Son, since your wish has been fulfilled and you've killed Jordan and Rong Huangde, you should hurry back to your era. Don't stay here anymore!"

Terrence agreed. "That's right. Time travel is definitely against the heavens. You shouldn't have looked for us in the first place. After you leave, we will forget about your existence and continue to live our lives. So hurry up and leave!"

Shaun gave a long sigh and didn't say anything else. He knelt down and bowed low to Terrence and his parents.

"Uncle, Dad, Mom! Thank you for helping me fulfill my wish! When I return, I will definitely bring the Handley family legacy to greater heights and make them the noblest family in the world!"

After bowing, Shaun walked out of the Handley family's courtyard with tears streaming down his face. He couldn't help running down the street of the town where he grew up. As he ran, he shouted.

"I did it! I did it! I have finally become the master of the world! Hahahaha..."
